

Work of UNRRA Is Reviewed as Agency Is Ended

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Plans are being laid here for the wind-up soon of UNRRA—the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

What is UNRRA? How was it formed? What are some of the things it has done?
In case you have forgotten, it was clear long before the war ended that some of the countries turned into battlefields would have to help to get back on their feet.

They were beat down so far they never could do it alone.

Seeing that the United States in 1942 formed its own office of Foreign Relief and Rehabilitation Affairs (FRRA), its first big job was to follow the troops in the North African invasion and take relief to the population there.

Herbert H. Lehman of New York headed the agency. He was Governor of his state but resigned a month before his term was to end to become director of OFRR on Dec. 3, 1942.

Even then the late President Roosevelt was plunging for an international organization to handle such a program. The United States taking the lead, UNRRA was formally organized here Nov. 9, 1943, when representatives of 44 nations signed an agreement creating it.

The plan was to put in an amount equal to one percent of its National Income for the 12 months ending June 30, 1943. But the invaded nations were not to contribute. That cut the number of contributing nations down to 31. And it let out Russia and France, among others, as contributors.

The plan was to put in the United States would put in between 70 and 75 percent of the money. Actually, it has supplied $2,700,000,000. Britain, next biggest contributor, has put in $222,000,000.

(A recent statistical summary from UNRRA figured the value of its total shipments through the end of this year would be $2,915,600,000.)

UNRRA does not go around begging for a chance to pass out relief. None is extended unless it is asked. France, Belgium and some other invaded countries have not asked any.

The biggest contributors are the United States, $2,700,000,000; Britain, $222,000,000; China, $335,000,000; and other countries $54,300,000.

Other countries include: Greece, $358,000,000; Yugoslavia, $429,500,000; Albania, $268,500,000; Poland, $474,000,000; Czechoslovakia, $700,000,000; Italy, $425,000,000; Australia, $117,200,000; White Russia, $61,000,000; Ukraine, $189,000,000; and other programs $54,300,000.

Pampans' Relative Killed in Berger Hotel
Oval Watson, 35, brother of Vesper Brooks, 424 Crest St., Pampa, was shot and killed by an unidentified gunman about 6 this morning as he sat at a card table at the Metropolitan Hotel at Berger. The victim was a resident of Kress, Texas.

Watson was an uncle of Jean Burrow of 1325 N. Russell St., Pampa. According to the Associated Press, Bill Spencer, a resident of the hotel, said a man wearing a dark overcoat and carrying a rifle was seen in the hotel hallway an hour before the shooting. Watson was killed by a shot through a window after his slacker had been on the screen and broken a window pane.

Footprints led to an alley at the rear of the hotel. Constable Fred Compton, investigating the case, said automobile tracks led from the alley to the Pampa-Berger highway a half-block south.

 31—except for building materials priorities—unless they are extended beyond that date by Congress. The executive order calls for continued sugar rationing, rent control and price controls.
 The President's statement said that the economic stabilization functions have been largely terminated "as the result of decontrol of prices and wages and elimination of most items from rationing."
 Mr. Truman said there is little necessity now for a separate OWMR which has been operating under a law expiring next June 30.
 He said the OWMR advisory board will be continued until it winds up work now underway, and added that its members want to be relieved of duties "at the earliest practicable date."
 The President's order reestablishes the office of government reports and transfers to it the functions of the government information service (now in the Bureau of the Budget).
 Certain functions of the wage stabilization board were transferred to the Labor Department.

Bettors Bakings 3 Ways!

- 1. BAKINGS LOOK BETTER... THE FOOD CALCIUM in the new KC permits more even distribution of the fine, active ingredients throughout the baking powder. This promotes more uniform action—gives bakings the light, smooth texture and inviting rich appearance everyone enjoys.
- 2. BETTER TASTE... New KC assures full flavor of other ingredients—in your baked goods you get no soda taste from KC.
- 3. BETTER FOR YOU, TOO... KC makes every thing you bake with it a valuable source of FOOD CALCIUM—adding 2 to 5 times more FOOD CALCIUM than the fresh milk used in a baking, depending on the recipe. Thus KC joins milk as a fine source of this vital food element.

Garage Attendant Seriously Burned

In an odd accident yesterday afternoon in the Reeves Oldsmobile Co. service garage, 822 West Foster St., Serey Crawford, a porter for the firm, was burned into a human torch when flaming vaporized gas engulfed him while at work.
 According to attendants at the garage, mechanics were working on an automobile and blowing gasoline out of the car when some of the gas spurted out of the tank on the car's rear. The fluid apparently vaporized and was ignited from a nearby welding torch.
 As the fire flashed and engulfed Crawford, setting his clothes on fire, he immediately became hysterical and rushed out of the west door of the garage. Wynford Swain and Melvin Patterson took after Crawford, tackled him and put out the flame with an extinguisher. Attendants at the garage took Crawford to a doctor immediately where he was treated and then taken to Pampa Hospital. Crawford sustained third degree burns on his hands and legs, according to attending physicians. He will survive, his doctor said this morning.

Blum Will Head Interim Cabinet

PARIS—(AP)—Socialist Leon Blum, 74, was elected president yesterday of the interim French government which will serve until mid-January.
 Vote tabulators said the national assembly gave Blum about 375 ballots. He needed 310 for the absolute majority.
 Blum now faces the task of getting the parties to agree on a program, and on whether the rightist parties should be included in the cabinet.
 His cabinet, which is not expected to remain in power much longer than 30 days, will be headed chiefly with voting a budget for the first quarter of 1947.
 Blum's most outstanding role since he was liberated from a German prison camp in May, 1945, was the negotiation of the United States loan to France last spring.
 The new cabinet he would be called upon to form is scheduled to last until mid-January, when a permanent government is to be established.
 The Socialist party had announced earlier in the day that Blum would take the job on condition that he be unopposed.

 much the boss at that point and we drove four more miles," Murphy continued. "He told me to pull into a roadside gasoline station and stop. I did and he took keys and instructed me to slide along the seat and get out on his side of the car."
 Murphy, who weighs 130 pounds and stands five feet seven inches when at attention, said the man's left hand, hidden under an old Army blouse, was still jammed into his ribs when he decided to make a fight for it.
 He grabbed the man's hand, Murphy said, discovered he had no gun after all, struck him a blow that tumbled him from the car. And then jumped squarely on his assailant and started swinging.
 "We fought all over the place for about ten minutes," Murphy modestly concluded. "He was a pretty big fellow all right. I finally got him though."
 Wine stains should be sprinkled with salt. Afterwards pour boiling water through the stained portion and wash as usual.

 situation is true now.
 There was no immediate AFL comment on the Nathan-CIO document. But the AFL convention in Chicago last October criticized the CIO's spring demands on industry as too high and contended the CIO wage increases were responsible for breaking the line on price ceilings.
 The AFL convention said its unions obtained pay increases without strikes and without "in any case breaking price ceilings."

 for establishment of a supervisory commission to check reports on arms and troops.
 Meanwhile, two other hot issues headed for debate in the assembly today.
 One was a resolution calling for all members of the United Nations to recall their ambassadors from Franco Spain. The United States, which abstained from voting on the committee, was expected to support the resolution on the assembly floor.
 Second was the long controversial veto issue. Before the assembly was resolution urging the Big Five to "ensure that the use of the special voting privilege... does not impede the Security Council in reaching decisions promptly."

 the six-point agenda for the Moscow conference except to put it into final formal language. It was fully approved in substance last night and provides for these actions at Moscow:
 1. Consideration of reports from the Allied Control Council at Berlin on German demilitarization, denazification, democratization, economic principles and reparations. In this connection, Molotov assured his American, British and French colleagues that when the time came he would report fully on Soviet reparations removals of property from Germany.
 2. Study of the form and scope of a provisional political organization for Germany.
 3. Preparations of a peace treaty with Germany including consideration of the work of the Big Four deputies in London and also basic directives pertaining to German frontiers, the Ruhr, the Rhineland and other questions.
 4. Consideration of the proposed American draft of a disarmament and demilitarization treaty and other measures for the political, economic and military control of Germany.
 5. Considerations of a report already submitted by a committee on experts on German coal production.
 6. Work on an Austrian treaty.

Election Date

 The meeting, which began at 5:10 and ended at 8:30, was concerned principally with a discussion of the detail incident to such an election. Carter at first had said Feb. 25 was an unreasonably long time to wait for the new city officers to be determined. (Another election must be held in April).
 Mayor Oden, discussing the legal aspects of the date set, asked both City Attorney Bob Gordon and Legal Counsel Walter Rogers if they thought the election would be valid if held on that date. Both said they thought it would be legal, according to the statutes.
 Commissioner Harold Wright said the group, in regular session Tuesday when the date was set, did not consider the fact that the poll tax would run out before the election, but he contended that the time was necessary for the physical work that had to be done, such as the citizens' deciding their candidates, and then getting their names on the ballots. He also stated that local job printing presses are deluged with end-of-the-year and holiday printing work and ballots must be printed.
 Carter finally admitted the election date would not be "a great disadvantage" and withdrew the complaint. He had said during the discussion that there was a good deal of objection to the date set.

Bilbo

 which got the Meridian job.
 "I know that, because he elected me twice," Bilbo added.
 "If it's wrong to recommend friends and constituents for jobs, then it disqualifies three-fourths of the Senate and all of the House."
 Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Robins, retired, told the Senate war investigating subcommittee that as early as 1940 Senator Bilbo "brought contractors down to our offices" and recommended them for many multimillion dollar jobs.
 Douglas I. M. Kay, retired colonel now in charge of Army engineer wartime contract records, identified more than 40 different contracts that were awarded in Mississippi.
 Bilbo was barred from cross-examining witnesses.
 Chairman Mead (D-NY) announced this ruling as a Senate war investigating subcommittee opened public hearings here with Bilbo and his attorney, Forrest B. Jackson of Jackson, Miss., on hand.
 Jackson, asked whether he or Bilbo might question witnesses.
 Mead replied that the committee would "not allow cross examination to take place" because it "did not like to have authority transferred to anyone not a member of the committee."
 But both Mead and Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) suggested that if Bilbo or his attorney had any questions they wished asked of witnesses, the questions could be presented in writing to the committee.
 Opening the hearing, Chairman Mead said that the war investigating committee was "instructed to ascertain the truth with respect to alleged transactions between a member of the Senate and certain war contractors."
 He noted that a preliminary investigation has been made of complaints against Senator Bilbo and that as a result, the full committee "was of the opinion that the facts as developed warranted a full investigation and unanimously instructed this subcommittee to conduct it."
 Charges have been made that a group of war contractors gave Bilbo more than $30,000 in cash, a new home, an automobile and other things.

Civic Culture Club Plans Holiday Party

Final plans were made for the New Year's eve dinner to be given Dec. 1, in the City Club rooms, with husbands of club members as guests, when the Civic Culture Club convened Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Willis White.

Mrs. F. M. Sweeney presided during the business meeting and members answered roll call with current events on education.

Mrs. A. D. Hills gave a report from the Council of Clubs meeting. Mrs. W. C. Wilson and Mrs. Hill were appointed to serve as Youth Canteen hostess in December. Misses Willis White, Katie Vincent, J. B. Townsend and Hills were appointed to serve as nominating committee for new officers. This committee is to make its report at the first meeting of the club in January.

Mrs. H. W. Waters and Mrs. John Brandon were appointed to hear the committee for the New Year's dinner. Mrs. Emmett Osborne a program leader gave an interesting discussion of "Only By Understanding," based on the book, "Post War Education," by R. G. Price.

The books deals with plans to educate the war devastated countries. The speaker explained that complete academic freedom and accountability is necessary to have an informed world and that it is through education and understanding that permanent peace will be brought to the world.

This meeting concluded the first half of the club's study program based on the subject "International Understanding".

Refreshments of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, and coffee were served to a guest, Mrs. William Bell, and daughter, and to Misses Irvin Cole, L. J. McCarty, E. A. Shackleton, F. W. Shotwell, Lloyd Rhinehart, Kenneth Meyers and those named above.

Naomi Glenn, J. N. Smith Are Married

McLEAN—(Special)—Miss Naomi Glenn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Glenn, and J. N. Smith, son of Mrs. Rosa Smith, were wed at 9 p. m. Friday at the Baptist Church parlor here. Rites were read by the Rev. W. R. Lawrence pastor.

They were attended by Miss Jessie Hill of Alameda, and Leroy (Pete) Smith, McLean, brother of the groom.

Others present were Mrs. Essie Glenn, and daughter, Thelma; the bride's brother, Herman and wife Miss Dorothy Hardman, and Joe Gibson.

Carson County FWC Holds Holiday Program

PANHANDLE (Special)—A Christmas theme was used in the program presented for the Carson County Federation of Women's Clubs when they met Monday afternoon in the Panhandle High School Auditorium with the Mother's Self Culture Club as program hostess.

Mrs. Clarence Shepherd, president of the club introduced the following program: Vocal numbers "The Angel Song" and "Star of the East" by Mrs. Mae Cummings; "Silent Night" and "White Christmas" by Mrs. J. D. Turotte, J. S. Potts, W. C. Mosley and Jewell Louise; Skel Roberts, H. B. Taylor, Jr. and Lou Ann; Homer Taylor, Gus Carruth and Brent; Bob Montgomery and Mary June; L. and Mrs. John B. Shaw and Luey of Sabina, Kans.; Mrs. Charlie Thomas, and Mrs. Lena Smith.

In the business session with the president Mrs. C. P. Hood, presiding, announcements were made that the federation had been asked to send books for boys age 7 to 14 to the Carson County Free Library and Mrs. R. F. Surratt, chairman of the Carson County Free Library had announced that a librarian had been secured, who would be here Jan. 1.

Refreshments were served by the donor, Roosevelt Study Club of Skellytown to thirty-five guests, who represented eight clubs.

The hostesses for the January meeting of the Federation will be the Crown Community Club and the Carson County Neighbors Club.

Pythian Sisters Plan Party and Elect Officers

Plans were completed for a Christmas party to be held Friday night at seven o'clock in the Palm room, when the Pythian Sisters met Monday night, for their regular meeting.

Five new members were initiated as follows: Sammie Osborn, Lorene Shepherd, Beatrice Stone and W. S. Cannon.

Election of officers for the coming year was held. New officers read: Past Chief, Lucille Weatherford; Most Excellent Senior, Bernice Goodlet; Excellent Junior, Sybil Dudley; Manager, Loraine Payne; Protector, Irene Tyler; Guard, Verda Burnett; Temple Deputy, Pearl Downs; Captain Degree Staff, La Niemeier; Grand Representative, Lorene Johnson; Three Year Trustee, Martha Kennedy.

Hold over officers are Elizabeth Coggett, Mistress of Finance; Dorothy Cox, Mistress of Records; and an Spinks, pianist.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to the officers, and to Mrs. Brown, Edwina Back, Edna Cannon, Oak Alice Whittle, Cora Eckhart, Virginia Fishery, Pearl Bernard and Jaunita Tinsley; Harold Payne, B. B. Altman, Jr., James Jalpepper, and Allen Weatherford.

Panhandle Couple Take Wedding Vows in Home

PANHANDLE (Special)—Standing beneath an arch of fern and chrysanthemums, Miss Dorothy Counsleman daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Counsleman exchanged wedding vows with Russell S. Hatcher son of Mrs. P. S. Hatcher and the late Mr. Hatcher of Amarillo, at three o'clock Saturday in the home of her parents.

Rev. Del Crosby of Hereford, pastor of the Methodist Church of that city officiated and Mrs. Crosby played the traditional wedding marches. She also played "Always" and "I Love You Truly" as pre-nuptial music.

Miss Viola Vance attended the bride as maid of honor wearing a gray suit, accepted by pink carnations. Ring bearer Virginia Lee Hatcher, six-year old sister of the bridegroom, wore a blue suit with a pink baby carriage corsage. Victor B. Hatcher was his brother's best man.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with brown accessories and carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

A reception followed the wedding. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and tall white tapers in crystal holders stood at either end. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature wedding couple. Pink and white carnations and a crystal punch bowl completed the table decorations.

For a trip to Old Mexico, Mrs. Hatcher wore a blue suit with black accessories and an orchid. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher will be at home in Amarillo.

The bride is a graduate of Panhandle High School and attended TSCW, Denton. She is a clerk in the

Gather Ye Rosebuds
By JEANNETTE COVERT NOLAN

THE STORY: Major Cameron, veteran of the Lost Cause, is a miser who believes the spirit of the Old South can never die. He scorns the Yankee town he lives in, hates drumming Spunky Mule tobacco, dreads idly of being able to take his family to more elegant surroundings. Miss Amy, kindly wife and mother, never questions anything he does. Their children include: beautiful, trusting Rose who has had a secret "adventure" with a strange young man; devious, realistic Sidney, 19, who maintains an avid correspondence with her girl-friend, Norma Lyon, and who is courted by Basil Earle; Beat, 10; Hannah, 12; and Jeff, 22. The year is 1910.

SIDNEY drove along Clark Street, the phaeton rolling on rubber tires, the clop-clop of hoofs on brick the only sound in vast darkness. It was very late; midnight; and Sidney was angry. "So you're home?" Basil said—but softly. She jerked the reins and the horse stopped. Sidney wrapped the reins around the buggy-whip socket and gave a tremendous push to the inert body of Basil Earle, slumped beside her. "Get your head off my shoulder. Sit up, Basil. Are you dead?" "What's the matter?" Basil stirred drowsily. "What—" "Nothing's the matter. I'm home. And a good thing, too. I thought we'd never get here." "So you're home?" Basil laughed a little. "I hope you had a nice time, Sid." "I had a punk time. I always do, with you." "Oh, thanks, honey." "I don't know why I ever say I'll go out with you. I think it's going to be fun, and then it isn't. I don't know why you act the way you do—taking me clear up to Rockport to that beer-garden, drinking all that beer." Basil laughed again. "Tut-tut, you liked the place. The beer, too." "I did not! I hated it and I hate you. Don't you ask me to go riding anybody. She didn't. Hesse, now, hadn't a thought beyond marrying; to Rose, marriage was the culmination of everything, and she would fit into it as a hand into a glove. No, Sidney didn't want to get married. But being an old maid was probably worse—and what else was there to do? Even as an old maid, a woman had to have some man to support her; and better a husband than a brother or a brother-in-law. A woman was born in shackles, born a dependent, because Papa's prejudice about a girl's ever working to support herself was immutable; you might as well beat out your brains against a stone wall as try to change it. Other people might incur his dangers, if they were so foolish. "I," thought Sidney, "am simply not having any..."

Resting an elbow on her knee, her chin on a doubled fist, she wondered why she didn't hear from Ace Latschaw. Not that she cared; but his silence was incredible, especially after all those months of frantic correspondence. Let's see, it was 10 days since she'd had the letter from Norma Lyon—and what a shock that was, to open the envelope addressed in Norma's square, childish hand and find inside a letter really from Norma and not from Ace at all! "I met Ace downtown this afternoon," Norma wrote. "He said he was going to be in Blakesville, and I gave him the number. He said he would telephone you." But he hadn't telephoned. Or, anyway, no message had been reported by Mrs. Kerr. (To Be Continued)

Rotarians See Food Picture

The motion picture, "Food Handler and Hash Slinger", yesterday was shown at the regular noon meeting of the Pampa Rotary Club held in the Palm Room, City Hall.

The picture, filmed in a central Texas cafe, depicted the right and wrong way to handle food and eating utensils and showed how germs are transmitted from one person to another. The film, shown by C. B. Breedlove of the Texas State Health Department, was one of the same pictures used in the recent Food Handler's School conducted here by the department.

Breedlove pointed out that this school was not conducted for cafe owners and employees alone, but for all persons employed in food handling from the butcher on up to the grocer and cafe waitress, about 40 percent of the county is wage earners. The program was in charge of the club's program director, Steve Matthews.

Three guests were introduced during the meeting.

Virgil Mott interrupted his club singing part of the program to have an impromptu duet by Charles Powell and Dr. Lloyd Hicks. Irvin Cole, president of the club, had charge of the meeting.

The southern part of the Gulf Stream moves at a speed of four miles an hour, according to estimates.

Attempted Burglary of Liqueur Store Reported

Another attempted burglary of a Pampa liqueur store was discovered at 10 a. m. today. Police Chief Louie Allen reported.

This time it was at the McCamy Liqueur Store at 1008 West Brown St., the chief said.

J. O. Dumas, assistant chief of police, investigating, informed that a window on the rear of the building had been forced open and the thief, or thieves, was apparently scared away since everything was intact and nothing found missing.

Jack McCamy, proprietor of the store, first noticed the attempted break-in this morning. Police said they believe that the attempt was made last night before the heavy rain because all tracks and marks in the area were washed away.

In addition to the attempted burglary city police arrested four men on charges of intoxication last night.

Crowds of 10,000 Common At Schoolboy Grid Games

(By The Associated Press)

Crowds of 10,000, which a decade ago were a novelty in Texas High School football, now are quite commonplace.

The schoolboys played to their greatest attendance in history last year but there has been no let-up in 1946.

A survey shows the largest turnout for a single game this year has been the 25,565 Fort Worth packed in for the Paschal-North Side game. San Antonio had 22,358 when Brack-eridge played Thomas Jefferson and the third highest mark for the year was the 22,711 that saw Adamson clash with North Side of Fort Worth at Dallas.

The fourth highest was 22,636 for the Austin-Brack-eridge game at San Antonio while 22,090 paid for the Lamar-Milby contest at Houston. Adamson and Sunset drew 19,711 at Dallas and Lamar-Pasadena attracted 19,970 at Houston. At San Antonio 17,787 planked down cash for the Thomas Jefferson-Corpus Christi game and at Fort Worth 15,200 saw Amon Carter-Riverside play North Side.

Austin drew 14,672 when the Maroons met Thomas Jefferson. Wichita Falls was just a little behind this with 14,107 for the Graham-Wichita Falls tilt.

Other big games: Odessa-Sweet-water at Odessa, 14,000; El Paso-Austin (El Paso), 12,750; Fort Arthur-Orange at Port Arthur, 12,000; Amarillo at Lubbock, 10,720; Denison-Sherman at Denison, 10,301—a record for this rivalry.

That's 11 cities that drew more than 10,000 for at least one game. Four went over the 20,000 mark.

The all-time record, of course, is the 43,690 paid that turned out for the Waco-Highland Park State final battle at the Cotton Bowl last December for a total gate of $69,545.75.

Wichita Falls, which represents the middle-sized cities, drew 85,315

Harvesters To Be After 2nd Straight Win

Seeking their second straight victory, Pampa's Harvesters cagers will journey into Soonerland tonight where they will engage the strong Holis Tigers, reported to be one of the top teams of Western Oklahoma.

In their first start this year, the Harvesters defeated a good Morse quintet, 40-25, and uncovered a possible new star in G. W. Gambin, who dumped 12 points through the hoop from a set position near the left sidelines, a shot made famous here by Leland Tate of the 1944 team.

Coach Coffey said he had not decided on his starting five tonight, other than Bill Speer at forward and Charley Lafoon at one of the guard positions.

The Pampa phenor still has 24 boys on his squad but plans to cut at least nine of these back to the Gorillas, leaving a possible traveling squad of 15 boys.

Epper, the only returning regular from last season's team, also racked up 12 points Tuesday night and took most of the rebounds from the Morse shots.

Boys up from last year's Gorilla and Reaper teams are still giving returning squadmen a "run for their money" for squad positions.

Derrel Davis, brother of Earl Davis, Harvest center of the last two years, came up from the Reapers this year and is due to run a close race for a starting center position, while Frank Green, Bob Boyles, Kelly Anderson and others from last season's unbent "B" team are also in the running.

Highlights of next week's cage activities will be a two-game series here with the Wichita Falls Coyotes next Friday and Saturday. The Harvesters are arranged with a District 2-AA entry set its track team here for a dual meet with the Harvesters last spring.

Baylor Grid Coaching Position 'Wide Open'

WACO—(P)—The coaching job at Baylor University was a wide-open affair today—because of the school's policy in not allowing the football mentor to name his assistants.

Harry Stiteler, assistant coach at Rice Institute who was favored by a majority of the Athletic Council to replace resigned Frank Kimbrough as headman of the hapless Golden Bears, withdrew himself from the race.

With Stiteler, who gained popularity in Waco when he was coach of the High School team that tied for the state championship last year, the state who was favored by a majority of the Athletic Council to replace resigned Frank Kimbrough as headman of the hapless Golden Bears, withdrew himself from the race.

Stiteler said he was not an applicant for the job in the first place and came here Tuesday to confer with the Athletic Council upon invitation of E. C. Harkamer of Houston, a council member. He waited in a downtown hotel but when the day-long session was over, he had not been called.

So Stiteler returned to Houston and yesterday issued a statement that he had been ready to take the job if his terms were met but opposition had developed from members of the B Club—Baylor Lettermen Association.

Stiteler said he did not want the place unless he could get their cooperation and "due to the peculiar Athletic policy at Baylor, I do not think that I could do justice to the job if I were elected."

He added that he did not know what happened at the Council meeting, at which Kimbrough submitted his resignation, but that he figured a delay of 30 days in naming the coach—as announced by the Council chairman—meant the present Athletic setup would continue with the exception of the head coach and one assistant.

Rockets, Hawks Meet Tomorrow

For the third straight year, Wellington's Skyrockets and the Phillips Blackhawks meet for the Region I-A football title and, as usual, Phillips is favored to win.

This time, the game is at Wellington, but it's on Friday, Dec. 13 and Wellington has already had one stroke of bad luck when it was announced that star Fullback, Tim Hatch would still probably not be able to play, because of an attack of the mumps.

The game, however, will sport two great stars in Phillips' Joe Means and Wellington's I. D. Russell, who has been termed one of the finest backs ever to come out of Panhandle Class AA or A football.

Phillips scored nine wins in 10 starts while winning its seventh consecutive District 2-A title this year.

Clipper Smith Is Named Coach of Boston Pro Yanks

BOSTON—(P)—The Boston Yanks of the National Football League today produced Maurice (Clipper) Smith as their 1947 head coach.

Smith, who recently waived the last four of a five-year contract at the University of San Francisco, agreed to succeed Herb Kopf here on a short term basis.

He told Yank officials he stepped out of San Francisco about a week ago because he doubted he could produce winning teams there under existing conditions. In his new contract he reserved the right to quit if unable to gain immediate success in professional ranks.

One of Notre Dame's earliest "Watch Cham" guards under the late Knute Rockne, Smith started his college coaching career at Santa Clara. He gained his greatest successes at Villanova from 1936-42.

The only loss was to Class AA Quahan, Phillips has won over 35 consecutive games from Class A schools.

Wellington has won nine and lost two, dropping an 18-0 decision to Class AA Childress and a 16-6 verdict to Phillips earlier in the season.

In 10 games, Phillips has rolled up 225 points and allowed the opposition 45. Wellington, in 11 games, has scored 308 points to the opposition's 76.

Rice To Fly Team To Miami New Years

MIAMI, Fla.—(P)—The Rice Institute football team will fly to Miami Dec. 26 for their New Year's Day game with Tennessee in the Orange Bowl, Emmet Brunson, Rice business manager has announced here.

Brunson said that Coach Jess Neely would resume training of his squad today and plans to bring 40 players here for the game.

and during those years was reputed to have rejected three offers from Boston College and one from Holy Cross. During the war he was a lieutenant in the Marine Corps.

Kopf, a star end at Washington and Jefferson, served as Lou Little's assistant at both Georgetown and Columbia before accepting the head coaching berth at Manhattan in 1938. He directed the Jaspers until 1942 when they abandoned football, and came here two years later as duration stand-in for "Sleepy Jim" Crowley, who was Collins' initial coaching choice.

Owner Ted Collins' Boston football associates said that Kopf's contract had another year to run but that the Yanks would make "the necessary settlement."

Never put blankets away for any length of time without dryingcleaning first as this kills all forms of moth life, including eggs.

Reapers Battle White Deer '5'

Cagers of Pampa Junior High, under Coach Jack Davis, will play their first home games of the season when they meet the White Deer High School "B" team at the Junior High gym at seven o'clock.

The Reapers won over White Deer there last week, 38-20, but Coach Davis said he expected a much closer game tonight.

Proceeds from the game will be used to finance a Reaper trip to Boys' Ranch near Amarillo Saturday where they will engage the Boys' Ranch team.

Due to see a lot of action for the Reapers tonight are Centers James Gallimore and Jim Parker, Forwards John Friant and Jimmy Howard, and Guards Leon Taylor, Carol Smith and Mitchell Rowe.

Date on Matches May Be Changed

MIAMI, Fla.—(P)—The Ryder Cup matches, to be revived in this country in 1947, may be played earlier or later than the October date suggested by the British, President Dudley of the Professional Golfers' Association said today.

Dudley said he had cabled England requesting that some other date be set, pointing out that in October the Ryder Cuppers would be competing with football and the world series for interest.

"I realize that the British team would prefer to play in the fall because its members do not like to compete in the summer heat," Dudley said in a telephone interview from Augusta, Ga.

Dudley said a four-man committee would work out plans for selecting the 10 golfers to represent the United States.

The Ryder Cup matches were played every two years from 1927 to 1937, the last being played in England prior to the outbreak of war in Europe. The United States leads in the series, 4 to 2.

No site for the 1947 matches has been selected, but they will be played in the United States.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK—(P)—A couple of kids named Charley Fusari and Chuck Taylor are going to have a fight at the Cotton Bowl tomorrow night. That's important mainly because they're top representatives of the first big crop of boxers developed since the war—the welterweight division.

Fusari, 21-year-old son of an Irvington, N. J., milkman, turned pro only two years ago and since then has backed up 46 straight victories, 32 knockouts. He was supposed to fight Tippy Levine in a "Jersey Natural" bout that Mike Jacobs snatched for the Garden. Tippy couldn't get ready, so Mike called upon Taylor, a Coalport, Pa. kid who was developed in the "sicks" after leaving the Army and who stepped into New York's big time less than a year ago. . . . In addition to these two, the "new" welterweights include Tony Janiro, Tony Pellone, Ruby Kessler, Art Aragon, Billy Graham and a few others aiming at "oldstar" Ray Robinson. . . . The only other division to turn up many new fighters is the middleweight, with such as Arnie Levine, Pete Mead and Red Priest and the percentage of pro-war fighters at the top of this group is higher.

White Deer Edges Boosters, 31-29

White Deer defeated the Pampa Boosters, Laney defeated Modern and the Heiskells won over Laney in three independent basketball games here last night.

The Heiskells were originally scheduled to play a Berger team but the latter failed to show up.

Gilbert Morris dumped 12 points through the hoop to lead White Deer to its 31-29 victory over the Boosters, who had won over Modern last week.

The Lane five, led by Gene Robbins with eight points, pulled away in the last half to take a 26-18 victory from the Modern cagers. Bill Gambin was second high-point man with seven points.

After playing the McLerns, the Lane five was too tired to do much with the Heiskells, who took it easy in winning 24-14. Bob Andis was high with 10 points for the Heiskells while Gambin scored eight for the losers.

Floor Furnace Fire Damages Residence

CANADIAN—(Special)—A fire which broke out this morning caused damage to the floor supports and floor furnace in the home of County Agent Walter Grist.

Canadian firemen had some difficulty in locating the fire, which was between the outer shell of the floor furnace and the floor joists and firemen were forced to disconnect the furnace in order to extinguish the blaze.

Extent of the damage has not been determined.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—Vice Admiral Daniel E. Barbey thinks the United States might "suffer five million casualties" within a few hours in the event of a future surprise attack against it with mass destruction weapons.

"But they couldn't knock us out," said the commander of the Fourth Fleet and veteran of 63 landings in the Pacific, "and within a matter of hours our reprisal attacks would be underway on a large scale."

Barbey believes that America has at least a ten-year edge over other countries in the production of weapons of mass destruction. "They are a practical monopoly. But we must keep planning ahead."

He says this military advantage is the strongest behind-the-scenes argument for the success of the United Nations.

If another war does come, however, Barbey said, "it would not be a duel between gentlemen, but a war for the survival of the masses of civilization."

He said he could see no reason for emphasizing possible attacks over the North Pole. He thought it more likely that a foreign enemy would "send out a dozen or so submarines and atom-bomb our eastern coastal cities from scattered positions hundreds of miles out in the Atlantic."

Rockets carrying atomic warheads could be fired even while the submarines were submerged, he added.

"But our retaliation would be swift, unavoidable by the enemy, and more damaging—if we keep our strength," said Barbey.

The admiral took issue with those who believe that in the event of a war with Soviet Russia the Russians would move huge infantry masses into western Europe and seize such centers as Rome, Antwerp and Paris in the hope that we would not atom-bomb these friendly capitals and so would again require a gigantic expeditionary force and years of fighting to drive out the invaders.

Barbey, who feels that United Nations progress makes such a war highly hypothetical, said that even in such a situation gains to pass no big land armies by America would be needed.

"Nor would we find it necessary to bomb Paris, Antwerp or Rome," he continued. "By atom-bombing Leningrad, Moscow, Kiev, Odessa, and other main communications centers we could isolate the Russian armies in Western Europe from their supplies—and keep them isolated."

Asked whether, if the nations disarmed, any country could secretly construct weapons of mass destruction despite the vigilance of investigative commissions, Barbey replied:

"In my opinion, no. We would learn in time to take counter measures."

Mailmen Thread Way Uniformly Distressed

LOWELL, Mass.—(AP)—Those patches on the mailman's uniform are not the fault of unfriendly dogs along the route. Uniforms are impossible to get, according to Assistant Supt. of Mails George L. Hunt. Reporting that substitute carriers were already delivering mail in Lowell with nothing but a borrowed cap to identify them, Hunt said: "Unless conditions improve, mailmen will be wearing civvies."

Eyes of all newborn human beings, including Indians and Negroes, are blue.

Cattle Sell for $760 Head Average

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Thirty-six cattle at the Harrisdale farms sold in auction yesterday for an average of $760 with a top of $4,000.

At a dispersion sale at the Three D farms 24 head sold for an average of $730 with a top bull selling at $2,500 and two females selling at $1,250 each.

At the latter sale, four bulls, two of them calves, consigned by M. L. Smiley of Paris, made an average of $681, and the one bull from the Brook Herford ranch at Brady sold for $750.

There are 105,056 tractors on the farms and ranches of Texas.

Common Ground By R. C. HOILES. It educational effort is painful, continual, and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by preventing and by praise, but always all-by example. John Ruskin.

A Great American's Letter To A Big Business Friend On Public Education. Since this column has taken a definite stand on public education, I want to quote from a letter Leonard E. Read wrote to a big business man friend of his on the subject.

Leonard E. Read was for years general manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. He resigned that position to become executive vice-president of the National Industrial Conference Board. He resigned that position and is now president of The Foundation for Economic Education, Inc.

Mr. Read had lent his friend a copy of "The Law" by Frederic Bastiat. The business man said that he noted Bastiat's views on public education and acknowledged some misgivings himself on the subject but thought maybe public education was all right to the high school level. Then he asked for Mr. Read's opinion.

Here is what Mr. Read wrote to him on this subject: "Dear Mr. X: "You asked about my views on public education. I do not believe in socialism at all, no more in education than in industry.

"The mess we are in today in public education is not to be blamed on whole school boards, post teachers, communistic textbooks. It is the inevitable consequence of the admission of the socialist premise.

"Look at how this thing began. Several neighbors banded together and employed a teacher for their children. As long as this was a voluntary process, it was a voluntary process, it was a voluntary process, it was a voluntary process.

"This, at first, was neighborhood socialism, a fairly innocuous brand. We saw it in the little red school house. But this harmless little seed, as long as it remained a seed, had the power of growth, and it grew into precisely what it is today.

"The more we have of the affable Kansan's personality, or serious and repeated avowals of his hatred for war. But that vague distrust, and the public ignorance of his political beliefs, are about the only visible marks against him as a possible candidate.

On the positive side are his great personal popularity, his great war record, his creditable work as an administrator in his brief term as head of our military government in Germany, his broad travel and first-hand knowledge of the world's trouble spots, and his personal acquaintance with the world leaders.

As things look now, you could put General Ike down as one who would run a good race.

So They Say. Real disarmament cannot be achieved without adequate measures of inspection to insure efficient enforcement. Sen. Tom Connally (D) of Texas.

I am sorry to say a lot of laboring men voted Republican on this occasion (Nov. 5) because they simply had got tired of seeing the Democrats around. Henry A. Wallace.

It is clear that if the United Nations organization is to be used as a forum for debating ideological differences it will fall. British Prime Minister Clement Attlee.

There is no shortage of funds on the part of those who want to build. But veterans don't want new homes. They want homes in which to house their families until they know where they are going to be 10 years from now. Bernard Sturges, New York State Housing Commissioner.

We arrested (Archbishop Aloysius) Sepinias and we will arrest anyone who resists the ecclesiastical affairs, whether he likes it or not. Marshal Tito.

Seven of the sons of Moulay Ismael, emperor of Morocco from 1672 to 1727, assumed the title of emperor.

NATIONAL ENLIGHTENING NEWS. Common Ground By R. C. HOILES.

WASHINGTON. PROSECUTOR - Washington's more ritzy restaurants, which advertise that this is the joint "where gentlemen dine," buy their finest chairs, and systems in the neighborhood of the Goldsborough diggings.

He got his academic education and his new law degree from a small college in the north. He held office in the House was state's attorney for rural Caroline County - a county prosecutor.

Being a fairly law-abiding community, except during prohibition. Caroline gave him meager legal preparation for perhaps the most vital issue ever submitted to an American court.

PURGE - Justice Goldsborough got his start on the judicial ladder when Franklin D. Roosevelt, in the off-year election of 1938, decided to "purge" several members of the House and Senate who had fought his legislative program, especially the school law for "packing" the Supreme Court.

F. D. R. aimed his political and primary arrows at Senator Walter George of Georgia, Senator Guy Gillette of Iowa, House Rules Chairman John J. O'Connor of New York and others.

But his chief enemy and prospective victim in the struggle was Senator Millard E. Tydings of Maryland. Mr. Goldsborough was the Administration's most able foe in the Capitol Hill.

BREAK - Although Maryland "freestaters" resented the presidential intrusion and regardless of party, rallied around Senator Tydings because of his demonstrated ability to understand party shuffles, the then Congressmen in Goldsborough assumed charge of the Roosevelt campaign against the dis-

"Then some smart aleck, who didn't like the idea of neighbor Doakes teaching his own children, and that they befooling the pattern of the majority, said, in effect, 'Let's compel Doakes to enter in our plan. Let's tax everybody, whether they want to take part or not, or even whether they have children or not. That will make conformists of them.' This was introduced compulsory as distinguished from voluntary cooperation.

"This, at first, was neighborhood socialism, a fairly innocuous brand. We saw it in the little red school house. But this harmless little seed, as long as it remained a seed, had the power of growth, and it grew into precisely what it is today.

"The mess we are in today in public education is not to be blamed on whole school boards, post teachers, communistic textbooks. It is the inevitable consequence of the admission of the socialist premise.

ten's "free state," which is quoted by known as the "Eastern Star." It is really an integral part of Dixie, with the same political viewpoint and customs.

He never left his automobile when Goldsborough towns, and his red face glowered during the cold, day-long ride.

Chairman Farley made votes for Tydings - and deliberately. It was the beginning of his break with the man whom he had helped to place in the White House.

FUTURE - In view of the strength of the Tydings machine, which also had the support of local state bosses because of the outside interest, it was assumed that Congressman Goldsborough would be defeated for renomination or reelection if he sought to return to the House in 1940 - the first time the House would have a chance to knock him down after the unsuccessful "purge."

A reporter for the New York Herald-Tribune, shrewd Sam Bell, put that question to Congressman Goldsborough after the latter had lunched with "D." in preparation for the "purge."

"Don't you think you are taking a chance on your political future, Congressman?" asked Sam.

"I am not worrying about my future," replied Goldsborough.

INSIDE - He didn't have to worry. Within a few months after the election of Senator Tydings, and before the Eastern Shore member had to face the voters again, he was appointed by F. D. R. to his present post as a reward for his part in the attempted elimination of Tydings, prudence, are made!

MACKENZIE'S Column. BRITAIN'S TROUBLE WITH ALBANIA LIKE U. S. ROW WITH TITO. By J. M. ROBERTS, JR., AP Foreign Affairs Analyst (Subbing for Mackenzie).

Great Britain's trouble with Albania over the mining of Corfu Channel, with resulting heavy damage to two British destroyers and the loss of 44 lives, is strangely of a pattern with the U. S.-Yugoslav row over the shooting down of American planes.

In each case, Russian satellite governments have taken violent, almost hysterical action (in the guise of defending their sovereignty. Age-old principles involving the protection of peacetime travelers have been thrown out the window in inexplicable fashion.

It is true that Albania deliberately and secretly and a traditionally free channel, nobody will know what to expect next. If the mining was done for fear of what passing British ships might observe about the implications of a cause for even greater anxiety than the act itself.

In one respect the Albanian incident aside from the greater loss of life, is of greater significance than the Tito affair. For Russian control in Albania is much more direct than in Yugoslavia.

Albania's reliable reports have it that Russian troops are in the key positions. After last year's so-called elections the United States and Britain withheld recognition of the government. The Russians, however, have been aboard the Hozha bandwagon, but apparently took over the reins.

Russian Minister Dimitri Tchukavich arrived last January with a staff of experts which one source counted at 400, and the number has been reported greatly augmented since. There have been additional reports that hundreds of Russian army units and cadres of the new Albanian army, which is reported to total some 100,000 men out of a total population of 1,900,000.

For a time there was a general hope that the Corfu mines would turn out to be war left-overs, and the explosions abandoned. In the face of the British evidence and Albanian denial, this hope has faded.

and discredit to his country and the Army. He tried to have them corrected by reports to higher military authorities but got nowhere.

To a visiting government official not connected with the Army - Colonel Miller one night confided his difficulties. When this official returned to Washington, he relayed the information voluntarily to Senator Mead, Truman's successor as War Investigating Committee chairman. Then, one day last August, after Colonel Miller had been transferred to the inactive list and returned home, he got a phone call from George Meader, chief counsel for the committee. It was an invitation to come in and talk over what he knew.

Colonel Miller demurred, saying that as an Army officer he could not appear before a congressional committee without permission. But Meader assured him that the committee had subpoena powers on Army officers and that he would clear it with the War Department. It was cleared, but without revealing Miller's name. On the strength of that, and the assurance that this was a regular committee procedure, Miller came and told his story. Meader invited him back to tell it to Senator Mead.
