J.S. Farm Surplus To Needy Nations

WASHINGTON, May 26—UP—The American Farm Bureau Federation has come up with a new plan to move about $1 billion worth of government-owned farm surpluses into underdeveloped countries where famine is an ever-present threat.

Federation spokesmen first outlined their proposal to members of the Senate Foreign Relations committee in private talks Saturday. They plan to talk it over in more detail with Agriculture Department officials in the near future.

Sen. Charles W. Tolley (R-N.H.) called the proposal a "Christian way" to dispose of U.S. food surpluses. He said there is no "sense" in piling up food while people in other countries are starving.

No "give-aways"

The plan does not involve "give-aways." Farm bureau spokesmen said they are opposed to use of foreign aid programs as a means of "unloading" farm surpluses "created" by unwise domestic policies.

In simple terms, the plan would allow the Commodity Credit Corp., which now owns about $2 billion worth of price-supported food and fiber, to sell up to $1 billion worth to countries covered by the Point Four program.

The dollar-short countries could buy the crops in their own currency. The money would stay in the purchasing country to be used by American officials there to carry out objects of Point Four programs building up underdeveloped areas.

'Maximum' Prices

The prices charged would be at the "maximum" level the "market" will bring. "Farm bureau spokesmen feel that if countries don't have to pay out scarce dollars, they will be willing to buy."

The farm bureau recommends the offer be extended to countries like India, Indo-China, Ceylon and

Seventy Men Working On Dial Phones

Work is continuing as scheduled on the change-over to dial telephone service in Pampa, according to George Newberry, Southwestern Bell Telephone Company manager.

And actual installation of the "step-by-step" dial system is scheduled to begin the latter part of this week or first of next week.

A crew of 70 men from Western Electric (Kearny, N. J., headquarters) is in Pampa to carry out the installation under the supervision of D. A. Prather.

Framework for the installation in the toll room and local service terminating room is near completion. Newberry stated, and electrical equipment, generators and diesel motors are to be in operating order the next few days.

Complete installation for dial will be finished Sept. 26 and Pampans will have the new service Oct. 17, after each of Pampa's 8,400 phones are checked to make sure they are in order for the cut-over.

The "step-by-step" system to be installed is the latest design, Newberry pointed out. Others used are the relay or crossbar.

While installation of the new service is in progress, routine work is continuing to service newcomers to Pampa with telephones and to equip about 20 local phones with dial apparatus.

Construction men are also in the process of moving switchboards for the installation of dial boards behind them. This is to enable the new service to begin as soon as the dial equipment is in, according to Newberry.

Other construction planned, the manager said, is the reinforcement of the building now in use and the addition of a second floor.

If it comes from a hardware store we have it, Lewis Hardware, Adv.

Damage Light In Fire

A short in the heater switch of a car owned by David Cartwright caused a fire and brought the Pampa Fire Department's "booster" truck.

Alarm came at 3:05 p.m. Monday from 200 E. Foster, firemen said.

Only damage was "just a little burnt wire,"

Queen Plans Busy Week

'Seven Days Before Her Coronation'

By JACK V. FOX
LONDON, May 26—UP—The royal standard flew from Buckingham Palace Tuesday, announcing Queen Elizabeth was back in London which has been transformed into a Mardi Gras city.

Elizabeth tried to slip quietly into the palace shortly before midnight after she had been driven alone from Windsor Castle, but a crowd of 3,000 spotted her.

Mounted police and motorcycle squads had to clear the way to the palace gates for the royal limousine.

Crowd Gather at Gates

Bright early morning sunshine brought crowds back to the palace gates Tuesday. The heat which had reached a May record of 88 degrees Monday broke as a result of storms which had wrecked coronation decorations in north England and Scotland.

Her coronation is only seven days away and Elizabeth has a jammed week ahead, with final rehearsals of her 2 1/2 hour part in the solemn Westminster Abbey service and greeting thousands of distinguished visitors arriving by plane and ship.

Little Prince Charles, heir to the throne, will hold a coronation party at 14 children in a suite on the second floor of Buckingham Palace on the biggest day in the life of his mother, palace sources said.

Princess to Appear at Abbey

Before entertaining his guests, the four-year-old Prince will appear at the abbey. Then he will return to eat ice cream and cake and watch television with his guests.

Britain's young queen looked happy and carefree Monday on her last day of relaxation before plunging into the whirl of royal duties that will carry through most of the summer.

Gas Company Asks Increase On Rates

A 50-cent monthly minimum gas rate hike along with proportionate additional use rate boost was requested of the City Commission this morning by Empire Southern Gas Co. through its district manager, Erwin Thompson.

The minimum under the application filed with the commission would be $2 monthly instead of the $1.50 present net minimum. It would amount to $2 for the first 1,000 cubic feet of gas consumed at the rate of $1 per 1,000 cubic feet.

Thompson claimed the average gas bill would be increased about $1.79 per month, slightly less than six cents a day.

He told the commission when the company first took over the local gas company it was believed a lot of non-essential expenses could be discontinued but that certain services to the public were found to be essential and had to be maintained.

The present return on the company investment here amounts to approximately 2 1/2 percent. If the rate adjustment asked for is granted by the commission the company's return on its investment would be boosted to approximately 5.9 percent.

"Higher rates are needed at once if our standard of service is to be maintained and if we are to be enabled to expand our facilities to meet the ever growing demand for service," Thompson contended.

He added that stock in Empire Southern is owned by a "large number of people, mostly small stockholders."

Describing the company's cost factor in operating, Thompson pointed to the cost of meters which

Military Probably Wasn't Consulted

WASHINGTON, May 26—UP—Rep. Melvin Price (D-Ill.) charged Tuesday that Budget Director Joseph M. Dodge used the "meat-ax technique" to slash Air Force funds, possibly overriding even Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson.

As evidence, he produced a letter, dated May 7, in which Dodge listed a $5.09 billion cut in air appropriation requests as an objective and told Wilson to "adjust your recommendations accordingly."

In a prepared speech, Price called the letter "arbitrary" and said it raised a "serious doubt" whether military leaders were being consulted on the reduction.

Price's charges came amid these other developments in the congressional furor over the deep cuts the administration has ordered in the defense budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1:

1. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, said he was present when the National Security Council decided the overall defense cut but that "I was not asked my opinion and therefore did not give it."
2. Wilson said "sooner or later" he would answer the 60 questions on the defense program put to him by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.) who said she was dissatisfied with his testimony before a Senate Military Appropriations subcommittee.
3. Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) said in a radio interview there was a question whether Wilson's proposals "are his or... dictated by business interests seeking a reduction in taxes."
4. Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) former Air Secretary, said "some of the information coming out of the Defense Department from civilian experts is exactly opposite to that of some military experts."
5. Rep. Charles B. Brownson (R-Ind.), charged in Baltimore, Md., that protests against the Air Force cuts comes from "publicity-hungry, armed chair strategists charging into bloodless battle astride the Democratic donkey."
6. Price, a member of the House Armed Services committee, asked whether Wilson himself was "in full accord with the proposed cuts."
7. "What were Secretary Wilson's recommendations to the director of the budget?" he asked.
8. Budget Director Dodge's letter is arbitrary. It applies the discredited meat-ax technique to the defense of the nation. In view of this letter I believe it is not out of place to ask: Who is Secretary of Defense?

Water Use In Pampa At All-Time High

Water consumption Monday in Pampa broke all previous records for the month of May and the consumption so far this month has also broken all previous monthly records for May, the city engineering department reported this morning.

Yesterday 5,500,000 gallons of water went gushing through city mains, running the consumption total for the month so far up to 78,000,000 gallons. The total for the entire month of May last year was only 69,500,000.

Will this mean rationing of water here this year? Fred B. R. acting director of public works, was asked.

"Not from the way it looks now. The city is capable of producing 7,000,000 gallons of water a day, production plus a usual delivery through the pumps and mains, that is," Brook said.

E. S. Lowry, water superintendent, said he could continue to supply the city a maximum of 7,000,000 gallons daily for about three or four days straight running, but after that "we would be hurting." Storage tanks would be dangerously low and would have to be refilled. Only 229,000 gallons are being reserved at present in storage tanks for fire fighting.

So far Pampa has escaped rationing and city officials remained hopeful this morning the present situation can be maintained. However, if the present hot-dry spell continues too long there stands the ever-present possibility water will be rationed and lawns, of course, will be the first to feel the pinch as will car washing and other non-essential water usages.

Suicide Suspected In Amarillo Death

AMARILLO, May 26—UP—C.H. Poindexter, driver of an armored truck that was robbed of $8,652 when he parked it unattended in front of two courthouses, was found along the highway near Amarillo Monday, apparently a suicide.

Poindexter wrote four notes, authorities said. One note read: "I don't want to go to the pen for something I didn't do."

Booby Trap Fails To Nab Burglars

DALLAS, May 25—UP—G. H. Ford, operator of a cafe which had been burglarized 24 times within four years, recently rigged a shotgun booby trap, pointed at the window burglars always used, and set to go off if anyone tampered with the screen.

He reported to police Monday that burglars early Sunday escaped with all the change in the vending machines and the shotgun after breaking through a window.

Name Faculty For Summer

Summer school at Pampa Senior High is scheduled to begin June 1 with Archie Roberts, assistant high school principal, serving as director.

Other faculty members, approved Monday afternoon by the Pampa School Board for the summer session, include Mrs. Ruby Cappa, Miss Madge Rusk and Mrs. A. B. Turner.

Courses in English, mathematics and social science will be offered to students throughout the area who wish to make extra credits. Requests of students will determine which courses in the three fields will be offered, according to Roberts.

The school will be conducted on a tuition basis, Roberts said, and classes will be in session from 7:30 a. m. until 12 noon daily until July 31. Holidays have been set from July 3-6.

Enrollment for the session is set for 9 a. m. June 1.

Morse Assigned To Minor Roles

WASHINGTON, May 26—UP—Sen. Wayne Morse, whipped in a four-month fight to regain his choice Senate committee seats, Tuesday reluctantly accepted assignment to two minor committees.

The Senate by a 19 to 56 vote Monday refused to enlarge its armed services and labor committees to give the Oregon independent his old seats there. He was assigned instead to the District of Columbia and public works committees.

Mrs. Bonita Potter, the coroner, said there was "no question but what he took his own life." She said however, she would not return an official verdict pending an autopsy on Poindexter's body.

She said he left four notes attached to the steering wheel of his automobile. The full texts were not released, but Mrs. Potter said one was addressed to Poindexter's wife, one to his employer and one to the Texas Rangers. She said they were "worded as though he did not take the money but took his own life."

Texan Produces First Cotton Bale

HARLINGEN, Tex., May 26—UP—Ray Barnick, a 43-year-old Mission, Tex., farmer who produced last year's first bale of cotton, won the 1953 cotton derby.

His 650-pound bale was harvested by 60 hands late Monday, rushed to the Farley, Williams and Oliver gin at Mission shortly before 7 p.m. and trucked 50 miles into Harlingen with a sheriff's escort at 8:37 o'clock Monday night.

Barnick, who came to the Texas Rio Grande Valley seven years ago from St. Elmo, Ill., still must be officially proclaimed producer of the nation's first bale of cotton in 1953, but there was little doubt he would collect the $2,500 bonus.

Check By Rules Committee

The Harlingen Chamber of Commerce cotton rules committee is checking the bale Tuesday to determine if it weighed at least 450 pounds, was made up solely of 1953 crop and was grown entirely by one farmer.

Vernon Murphy and John McKelvey, co-chairmen of the cotton committee, said there were other technical requirements to be met.

Penalty Waived By School Board

Confusion arising from a switch of land from one school district to another has resulted in the waiving of penalty and interest on delinquent taxes for a Gray County rancher.

Wiley Reynolds, represented by Jimmy Thompson, local attorney, was on hand Monday afternoon at the Pampa School Board meeting to protest the payment of a $38.45 penalty and $86.57 interest on a $455.65 tax debt.

Scheduled to be paid in 1949, the year in which land was redistributed between Roberts County's school district and the Pampa Independent School district, the debt had gone unpaid till this year when a notice was sent to Reynolds (March 11).

Telling board members that he got a notice from Miami for the 1949 taxes and thought he paid them, Reynolds through Thompson insisted that he was quite willing to pay the tax itself but didn't feel that he should have to pay the penalty and interest.

The board voted unanimously in Reynolds's favor. And they voted, too, to treat a second person—unnamed—the same way, should his case prove to be the same as that of Reynolds.

Negroes Escape Jail At Tyler

TYLER, Tex., May 26—UP—Two Negroes escaped from the Smith county jail Monday night by forcing the jailer and a trusty into a cell.

The fugitives, Benny Earl Ray, 19, and Allen Perry Jr., 25, were still at large Tuesday. Ray was to have been taken to Huntsville prison soon to begin serving a 15-year sentence and Perry was held on charges of parole violation and forgery.

He is to continue work on his doctorate in music education and will enter the teaching field again this fall, although definite plans for next year have not been made.

Romanian Diplomat Ordered Expelled From United States

WASHINGTON, May 26—UP—The United States Tuesday ordered a top-Romanian diplomat, expelled from this country for attempting to blackmail an American citizen into spying for Communist Romania.

In a note to the Romanian legation, the State Department demanded arrangements be made for the "immediate departure" of legation first secretary Christache Zambebi. He came here in September, 1951.

The State Department said Zambebi called at the New York home of V. C. Georgescu, a naturalized American citizen of Romanian descent, on May 30 and "attempted to subvert Mr. Georgescu to collaborate politically with the

Jury Selection Underway In Murder Trial Of Robertson

VERNON, Tex., May 26 —UP— Attorneys expected to complete a jury Tuesday for trial of Earl George Robertson, 19, of Floydada, Tex., on a charge he murdered an Amarillo service station attendant. Eight jurors were selected Monday from 41 veniremen questioned. All were qualified on the death penalty.

Robertson and Joseph Paul Lucas, 20, AWOL airman from Amarillo Air Force Base whose home is Tamaqua, Pa., were charged with stabbing and beating to death Victor Smith at the Amarillo service station where he worked last Jan. 6.

The two youths also are charged with murdering taxi driver Harry Gibbs in south Amarillo last Jan. 9. Lucas will receive a separate trial. Robertson's trial was moved to Vernon before District Judge Jesse Owen on change of venue. The Floydada youth was brought into court in handcuffs Monday, but they were removed when he promised "to behave."

The eight jurors chosen Monday were salesman R. C. Jones, warehouse manager E. H. Odom, J. C. Caldwell, service manager for an automobile garage; Troy H. The Negro, who was unidentified, was hospitalized with a possible concussion.

Jessie Walker, 23 of Broken Arrow, Okla., told police he gave a ride to the man at the edge of Tulsa. He said the Negro pulled a knife on him, grabbed his billfold and jumped from the car.

Police Officer Ed Underhill said Walker headed his automobile at the bandit and chased him across a vacant field, through ditches and Color Laboratories, Inc. of Hollywood, filed suit against Hopalong Cassidy, Inc., Monday, asking termination of a promotion contract entered into two years ago.

Under the contract, the actor was to stage contests in various theaters showing Hopalong films.

The suit alleged that Boyd, now appearing exclusively in television, had lost his audience of young fans in the past two years.

Golden Anniversary Of Extension Work Is Celebrated With Dress Review

The 50th anniversary of extension work was celebrated by the Gray County Extension Service Monday evening in the City Club Room. Miss Helen Dunlop gave the purpose of the meeting which was to celebrate and pay tribute to those who were responsible for getting extension work started in 1903.

Mrs. O. G. Smith gave the history of extension work which began in Texas then spread to other states. She brought out the fact that it was formed due to necessity when farmers got together to find out how to combat boll weevils which were disrupting the economic system of the south. She gave the history of the service and brought it to modern times.

Mrs. Ernest McKnight was narrator for the fashion show which featured all kinds of clothing. Mrs. Smith had charge of the candlelighting ceremony which followed the dress review. Candles were lighted for the people in the work demonstration, actual experiences, individual work, homes, family, women, community action, cooperation, 4-H, partnership, organization, standard of living, expansion, interpretation, and future. Candles were lighted around a "50" made of gold paper.

Mrs. N. B. Cude had charge of the refreshment table which was centered with a cake decorated with "50" in gold letters. Approximately 50 persons were featured in the dress review.

Interrupting others when they are talking is one conversational habit that is guaranteed not to make friends. When you interrupt to put in your two cents' worth you are saying in effect: "What I have to say is more important than what you are saying."

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Mrs. Friend
How much should a bride consult with her bridesmaids in planning their dresses for the wedding? And how much should she pay towards their outfits? I am going to be married this summer and I am not sure what I should do concerning the bridesmaids. I feel that the expense of paying for their clothes would be considerable and I doubt if I can afford to. If it is customary for brides to pay for the dresses, I am just going to eliminate the attendants.

Dear Sarah
The bride plans the costumes to be worn by her bridesmaids but they pay for them. However, you must make sure that what you choose will be within the limits they can afford and also that what you choose will be reasonably becoming to the wearers.

Usually the bride gives her bridesmaids a piece of jewelry, often something which complements their dresses preceding the wedding. Often the gift is presented to the bridesmaids at the rehearsal party. It can be given to them earlier if there is any reason for it.

CHILD NEEDS CARE

Dear Grace Fern
I hope you can help me as you have helped so many others. I am divorced and have a seven-year-old girl whom I have to support. Therefore, I have to leave her in someone else's care. I have a good job, and have a nice little two bedroom house, close to town. Do you think there might be some nice elderly lady who would like to make her home with us in exchange for the care of my girl? She could have her own room, and there is very little work, as I do all the washing and ironing. I'd love to have someone who would be interested in my girl. She is a good child, but needs training and supervision. Right now she is more or less turned loose to do as she pleases, while the girl I now have sits and watches television or reads a book. I will be forever grateful if you can help me.

Hoeful
significant," he explained cheerfully. "Everybody knows that air must get to skin before it can be cooled. So it's only logical that one of these new girdles made of nylon mesh and perforated material would be much cooler. You women dress so uncomfortably anyway."

MATURE PARENT

BY MURIEL LAWRENCE
My friend is a psychiatrist. He is also a thoughtful, alert and loving person. For this reason, I listen carefully when he talks. The other day he asked me to write another column on nagging.
"When a man nags," he said, "he does it with great efficiency. Today, in a restaurant, I watched an expert at work. He sat with a small son at the table next to me. Between my soup and my coffee, he said, 'Sit up straight' five times. 'Don't scratch the tablecloth with your fork' two times. I gave up on the number of times he told his child to keep his feet where they belonged."
"Did the little boy select his dessert quickly and decisively?" I asked.
My friend smiled at me. "Don't be silly," he said. "He was still torn between strawberry and burnt almond ice cream when I left."

"That's the pay-off, isn't it?" I said. "Nagging corrodes the capacity to decide. The person being nagged is so expectant of doing the wrong thing that he dares not take responsibility for any choice. He's been made so sure of disapproval of anything he does that he can't even assert his position on strawberry ice cream."
"Why do we nag?" I asked.
My friend is an unusually serene person. He lost a little calm now. He said, "It's momentum. The shove of old need to prove we're a well-behaved child has been reshaped into a new need to prove that we're parents who know what's what for a child in a restaurant. It's our version of ancestor worship — to know to inherited rules for 'good' behavior whose goodness we never had explained."

"It's the baby obedience of a parent who never once asked his own parent, 'Why is it bad to write not to wriggle on my chair? Why do you approve of my keeping my feet still?'"
"Poor nagger," I said. "How lovely it would have been if he'd said 'That chair must be uncomfortable for you, Jimmy. Come over here and sit on the bench beside me.' Or if he'd said, 'Here's my mechanical pencil. Scribble on this paper, son.'"

Beauty Expert Gives Tips For Color Choices

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor
If you've recently had faded hair tinted a solid silver or steel gray, you may be asking yourself what make-up and clothes colors you can now wear.
The answer, in general, is to continue wearing the same colors that were good on you before your hair began to turn.
This doesn't mean the shades will be identical. You may need deeper or more intense shades of the same colors that you wore before.
Pick up your eye color more consciously than you ever did, especially for blue eyes that may have faded. Colors near your face that bring out eye beauty are the colors to look for.
Match foundation and powder to your skin tone, though blondes may wish to add a little deeper warmth. Former brunets should beware of yellowish and so-called "suntan" shades. They are wise, instead, to strive for greater clarity. Former redheads should stay with the creamy ivory they always used, avoiding yellows or pinks.
All types should avoid lipsticks containing yellow or orange. In clothes, all types should avoid reds or greens that are yellowish. Beige should not be yellowish. Grays should be really gray, not beige-gray. Black may be very depressing on you unless enlivened with an intense color that brings out your eye and skin beauty.

RUTH MILLETT

"A wife must understand that marriage is just as important to her husband as it is to her."
A marriage is undermined when the wife feels that marriage is much more important to wives than to husbands.
That word of warning comes not from a woman, as you might suppose, but from a man—and a psychologist, at that.
It is sound and much-needed advice. For today, as perhaps never before, women in general are convinced that once a man marries it is up to his wife to begin a never-ending struggle to hold him. Women seem to take it for granted that their marriages are far more important to them than to their husbands.

HAS VITAL INFLUENCE
If that belief didn't influence all of their behavior and feed their fears it wouldn't be serious.
But it does. It even does more than that. In time it communicates itself to the husband. He begins to feel that he is a prize his wife has won and that it is up to her to try to hang onto her most valuable possession.
When both husband and wife accept that fact their life together becomes not a marriage, but a contest.

As the husband becomes more and more difficult to please, and less and less conscious of his own responsibility for the happiness of their marriage, his wife gets panicky and forgets her own dignity and worth—in trying to hold her husband's interest and love against all competition.

IT'S "THEIR" MARRIAGE
A wise wife will never forget—or allow her husband to forget—that it is not HER marriage she must protect but THEIR marriage they must both protect.
For marriage offers men as many benefits as it offers women. A happy marriage can bring them as much happiness as a happy marriage brings to women. An unhappy marriage can make them just as miserable. And a broken marriage leaves the husband as sad a failure as it leaves the wife.

Film Capital Quiet As Public Discloses Screen Preferences

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD, May 25—UP—Hollywood has slowed to almost the tempo of a ghost town while film makers sit out the 3-D panic. Having decided that what's wrong with movies is the photography, the cinema city has setled down to changing all the cameras and the screens.
 Film production in the world's cinema capital has been slashed almost in half while the studios wait for the public to decide whether it likes wide screens, tall screens, 3-D, round screens, no screens or just those little television screens at home.
 Warner Studio, waiting for returns on its 3-D "House of Wax," locked the front door and hasn't done a lick of work in three weeks. The studio, however, plans to shoot 23 pictures within the next 18 months—a cut of 40 per cent over the last 18.
 MGM, the largest studio, cut back to 24 movies as compared with 54 during the last 18 month period.
 Paramount plans "roughly 20" within the next year and a half. Twentieth Century Fox announced 20 wide-screen films to be released beginning in September through 1954. RKO has six planned for the next few months.
 "What will we do during the next 18 months? We don't know what we'll do during the next 18 days," wailed a spokesman at RKO, run by the unpredictable Howard Hughes.
 Studios are whacking high-priced stars off their payrolls as fast as option time comes up, with luminaries including June Allyson and Jeanne Crain free-lancing for the first time.
 The tumbledown isn't blowing down the streets of Beverly Hills yet, but many a mansion is shuttered.
 Where are the "movie" stars?—In television or at Las Vegas, pester on the nightclub beat than they were in pictureville.
 Jane Powell, Caesar Romero, George Raft, Van Johnson, Marge and Gower Champion are among those coining cash in the plush-lined saloons.
 Even the Hollywood reporters have to go to TV studios or Las Vegas to interview filmstars; there aren't many movie sets to cover these days. There are 31 TV movies shooting in town, but only 18 theatrical films before the cameras now. Of those, four are Grade-A movies.
 Most studios are snooting pictures in at least two processes at once, just in case. Some industry leaders figure after the smoke has cleared, the studios will settle down to occasional 3-D pictures and the rest on wide screens. You will get the same plots, only they will be wider.

The brakes take hold when the driver lifts his foot from the accelerator. The car cost Schley, a Wickliffe, Ohio, manufacturer, $300 and three years' work.

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1953, King Features Syndicate, Inc.) A far more dangerous threat against freedom of the press than that which is currently being waged by Joe McCarthy's New York left-wing propagandist is almost totally ignored by the same forces which are viewed with alarm.

The B. F. Goodrich Co. has done it again. They now have on the market a new low-priced, tubeless tire that will meet the special need of Texas highway travelers. This new tubeless tire protects the driver from blowouts and is economically priced to meet the average family budget. According to R. C. Wells, manager of the Pampa store, the B. F. Goodrich company has placed this tire on the market for the first time this week. You may see it on display at the B. F. Goodrich store located at 108 S. Cuyler. This new tire is available only in the state of Texas and protects against blowouts by means of a patented inner lining of rubber which retains the air. The patented liner eliminates inner tubes which are the major cause of blowouts. You don't have to be bothered with purchasing tubes or the expense of flats when you purchase one of these latest scientific tires, manufactured by the B. F. Goodrich Co. Texas, according to the B. F. Goodrich Co. was selected for the first public sale of the new tires because of the great demand in that state for a low cost tire that will run safely over long distances at high speed in hot weather. The distribution of this new Goodrich tire in Texas is now state-wide. So many Texans are known for driving great distances to look or attend various shows and attractions. And the

Warm Weather Brings Out Crawling Insect Pests

When warm weather comes, crawling insects can't be far behind. During the winter months, these pests are dormant, but with the first sign of spring, they multiply in frightening numbers. So every housewife should know about the modern scientific way to get rid of roaches and ants — with a new discovery called Johnston's NO-ROACH. Roaches and ants, pests that they are, are usually found near food and cooking utensils where you should not use them or spray. And no need to ether, when you can brush Johnston's NO-ROACH just where you want it around cabinets, sink, baseboards, or wherever these bugs are found. Johnston's NO-ROACH is colorless, odorless, and stainless. Insects that walk across the invisible coating become paralyzed and die within three hours. Then the coating still remains effective for months to prevent re-infestation. If you brush Johnston's NO-ROACH across window sills and door sills, ants will not cross it. You may also control silverfish, spiders, and the big black bugs in your basement with NO-ROACH. You can keep your home free of crawling insects all season long. One important point to remember, however, NO-ROACH is a unique formula made only by Johnston. It cannot be duplicated. For truly effective control, use Johnston's NO-ROACH. 8 oz. 89c; pint 1.69; quart 2.98. It's available at Cretney Drug. Buy a bottle today.

Gold Sox Move In For Twinbill With Oilers Tonight

Clovis Earns Even Break In Series

The Amarillo Gold Sox move in to Oiler Park tonight to contest the Oilers in a doubleheader, the second twinbill for the local ball yard this season.

The first game has been called for 7 p.m. Ben Quintana is Manager Porky Pawelek's pitching choice for the opener. The veteran Ray Machado will hurt the nightcap.

Clovis' Pioneers evened the two-game series with the Oilers last night at Oiler Park, putting together two big innings, the fourth and eighth in which they scored seven runs in each frame, for a 17-9 victory.

Roy Parker, a former Oiler, went all the way for the Pioneers but the Oilers pounded his pitching for 17 safe blows. However, they weren't enough as the Seitzmen came up with the two big innings which was enough for the victory.

Scutlup Eddie Hughes worked for the first eight innings for the Oilers and was charged with his fourth loss against two wins. Bud Sisk made his debut for the Oilers by pitching the 9th frame. The Pioneers collected 19 hits off Hughes, who was very effective the first three innings, allowing only two hits and no runs, had the roof to fall on him in the fourth although six of the seven Pioneers runs in that inning were unearned.

In the first big Pioneer inning in the fourth, Richardson started it by drawing a base on balls with one away. He moved to second on a single by Don Moore and all the way home when Oiler third sacker Rick Cacao let a potential double play ball off the bat of Benites roll between his legs. Benites pulled at second and Moore stopped at third before the ball was retrieved.

Winston Havenstrite then singled home Moore with the only unearned run of the inning as Pete Carmona, the next batter, struck out for what should have been the third out. Red Dial broke the 2-2 tie with a single to score Benites. Charley Watts followed with a single to load the bases and Paul Flores quickly unloaded them with a tremendous triple off

Braves' Surkont Whiffs 8 In Row

NEW YORK, May 26—UP—Chun-ky Max Surkont, just another in the legion of obscure big league pitchers who never had a winning season, put his name into the record books Tuesday with a feat that may be unmatched for years to come—he struck out eight straight batters.

The right hander for the Braves, generally a good spring pitcher who faces when the hot weather sets in, turned in his sixth straight victory without a defeat, topping Cincinnati 10 to 3.

In the second inning, he fanned pitcher Herman Wehmeier. In the next frame he whiffed Rocky Bridges, Bobby Adams, and Gus Bell, the fourth his victims were Willard Marshall, Bob Borkowski and Gray Hatton. He broke the record in the fifth when Andy Seminick struck out but Roy McMillan ended the spell when he lined out.

Previous Records

The mark surpassed the previous record of seven set by Hooks Wiltse of the Giants in 1906 and equaled later by two Dodger pitchers, Dazzy Vance in 1924 and Lingie Munson in 1938.

Surkont struck out 13 altogether and was aided to some extent by a fog which enveloped the field as proceedings twice were halted by rain. He gave up five hits.

The first place Braves swept ends of a double bill from the Reds, winning the opener 5 to 1 as Don Liddle pitched three-hit ball for his second win. Del Crandall's two-run

SINGLE HANDED—Despite the loss of an arm, Austria's Hans still went to make returns carrying his share of the Davis Cup play against Denmark in Vienna. (NEA)

Dark Star Is Out With Leg Injury

NEW YORK, May 26—UP—Just three short weeks after his upset triumph in the Kentucky Derby made him the toast of the nation, Dark Star came to the end of the racing trial because of a leg injury. Harry F. Guggenheim, owner of the brown colt that astounded the experts by beating heavily-favored Native Dancer in the Derby May 2, announced that Dark Star suffered a "bowed tendon" during last Saturday's Freshness stakes and will be retired to stud.

"I regret to say that Dark Star's racing career is at an end," said Guggenheim.

"Stable Jockey Henry Moreno reported that, while running with great ease in the lead at the head of the stretch, Dark Star suddenly stopped. After cooling out, his leg filled and the injury to the main tendon became apparent."

Guggenheim, owner of Cain Ho Stable, said that his three-year-old star would be turned out to "graze" at Port Washington, Long Island, this summer, and will begin his career at stud in Kentucky in 1954.

Dark Star's Derby triumph at odds of 25 to 1 goes down in turf annals as one of the greatest surprises in the history of the "Run for the Roses." His clocking of 2:02 for the mile-and-a-quarter ranks as the fifth fastest in Derby history and the fastest by a Derby champion who won by setting the pace.

It could be that Dark Star will wind up with still another distinction. His Derby surprise was the only defeat suffered so far by Native Dancer, and if that horse goes on to finish his career with only that one defeat to mar it, Dark Star's victory will rank with Upset's famed defeat of Man O'War in 1919 as an historic "spoiler."

The books also will record that, including his Derby purses of $90,050, Dark Star earned a total of $121,897.

The sudden end of Dark Star's career so soon after this brilliant triumph recalls similar disappointments for some of the other Derby winners. Morvich, the 1922 winner, lost his next four starts and then was retired to stud. Brokers Tip, the 1933 winner, never won a race until the Derby and never won another.

Kiner 3 Homeruns Away From Rajah's All Time Record

PITTSBURGH, May 26—UP—Ralph Kiner, who is only three home runs shy of becoming the greatest right handed power hitter in National League history, set his sights Tuesday on making Rogers Hornsby a displaced person.

The Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder powered a curve thrown by Giant pitcher Al Corwin Monday for homer No. 300 of his major league career. Kiner became the 12th major leaguer to achieve at least that figure.

The belt into the Forbes field bullpen put Kiner only two homers behind Hornsby. The Rajah accumulated 302 homers in 24 years in the big show.

Mr. Slug's latest achievement came in less than eight full seasons in the majors. The Californian has either led or tied the National League in homers every season since he broke in as a rookie with Pittsburgh in 1946.

"My 300th homer would have

Star Studied Field Entered In NCL Track And Field Meet

ABLENE, Tex., May 26—UP—The second annual national intercollegiate track and field championships started here June 5 and 6 boasts one of the finest gatherings of collegiate sprint stars in the entire nation.

With deadline for entry not until May 28, a half-dozen sprinters timed in 9.8 and under in the 100-yard dash have entered the meet with as many as being putting top records at stake in the 220-yard dash event.

Top man according to times this year is Ralph Aldridge of Texas Southern who placed second to Illinois' Willie Williams in a 9.4 performance this year and who has a very creditable time of 20.8 in the 220.

'Humm' Quartet Will Leave Benny For Own Program

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD, May 26—UP—That "four sportmen" quartet, which parlayed a "Humm" into fame and fortune on Jack Benny's radio program, said today they're branching into their own show so they can really sing.

The four male crooners thank Benny hourly for giving them overnight success on his CBS program. But, they sighed, they can only give out with a cigarette commercial and a "humm" that's a running joke on the show.

Like Phil Harris, Dennis Day and other Benny alumni, they're taking the plunge on their own.

"Bob Crosby sings on the show, and so does Denis Day, so they don't need us for regular songs," explained Guernsey Ball, Bill Days, say Meyer and Marty Sperzel—only not all at once.

"We'll still stay with Benny, but we have our own transcribed radio show now so we can really sing songs."

The hit they made as Benny's sidekick has brought them a string of other sideline businesses, too. The sportmen incorporated themselves and invested in a housing project, an oil well, a company in the Philippines, a helicopter and a play that flopped.

They've scored success on personal appearance tours, after a battle to convince booking agents they could do something besides a musical "Hummummm." They also plan a series of television films.

UN Making Great Effort For Peace

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign Analyst
 The United Nations are making perhaps their greatest effort to date to reach a truce agreement in Korea — not in the indefinite future, but now.

The size of the effort is demonstrated by the sudden tension which has settled over the Panmunjom truce site; by the almost unprecedented wall of secrecy which has been erected around the negotiations in the last 48 hours; by the speed with which plans and proposals have been dropped and new ones substituted; and by the urgent conferences held both in Tokyo and Korea by UN Commander Gen. Mark Clark.

Whether this is to be another period of hope only to be followed by disappointment remains to be seen.

UP Will Send Staff Of One Hundred To Cover Queen's Coronation Rites

LONDON, May 26—UP—The United Press has assembled a staff of 100 reporters, editors, photographers and technicians to cover the coronation of Queen Elizabeth next Tuesday.

Covering the story is a tremendous journalistic undertaking. It involves the news and picture reporting of an event that has as its stage the entire area of central London. An estimated two million persons will assemble on coronation day to see the spectacle.

Hugh Baillie, president of the U.P. in London in line with his practice of years of being on the scene at big news events. Today he contacted the present mood of London with that of the many other times he has been here for momentous news stories.

"Gala Spirit"
 "The British are in a gala spirit," Baillie said. "The faces of so many in the crowds show expressions of awe, almost ecstasy, as they gaze at the decorations and royal trappings. London is in a mood of exultation. It's a long way from the dark days of the war, the menace of the invasion, the bombings, the interminable nights when London itself was one of the great battle fields of history, and also from the very lean days which immediately followed the war, when the ruins were stark and ugly and the rations as tight as ever, and the queues just as long."

"Now the holiday mood prevails. It's mixed with a strong emotional surge which is growing as coronation day approaches. This can be noticed especially whenever a crowd is aware of the near presence of the Queen. The people stand patiently, sometimes for hours, looking at Buckingham Palace, or Windsor Castle, or Westminster Abbey, if she is known to be inside. They will wait any length of time, it seems, for an actual glimpse of her, and just to be in the proximity of her majesty obviously gives the folk a special feeling of triumphant patriotism and love of country."

The U.P. has brought into London writers from the United States and other countries to supplement the London staff. Split-second arrangements have been made for movement by special messenger through the streets of photographs for radio transmission around the world.

In Buildings Along Route
 The United Press and British United Press will have four reporters in Westminster Abbey and its annex. There will be more than 14 U.P. reporters along the processional route with direct phones to the London bureau. Eighteen photographers have been assigned to cover the picture story.

An important angle of the story will be the gigantic crowds along the six-mile procession route. One of the great assemblages will be outside the abbey where the U.P. will have two of its London staff—W. G. Landrey, House of Commons correspondent, and Harold Guard, London diplomatic reporter. They will have direct phones to the London bureau.

Nicholas King, and John Parry of the London Bureau will be stationed outside Buckingham Palace where thousands will stand late into coronation night hoping for a glimpse of the Queen on the balcony.

Other U.P. reporters will be stationed in the Mall, Whitehall, Piccadilly Circus, along Hyde Park in Oxford street and Trafalgar square.

The Woman's Angle
 Gay Pauley, New York feature writer, will have stories from Norman Hartnell's fashion house on the Queen's coronation gowns. She will cover the Buckingham Palace garden party on May 28; the "Elizabethan fantasy" ball on coronation night and the royal appearance at the gala opera at Covent garden.

Coronation day is not the whole story. The weeks after the coronation will be packed with news. Elizabeth will review the troops at trooping the color on June 11, her official birthday. She will review a flotilla of warships at Spithead on June 15. Her horse, Aureole, is co-favorite to win the Derby at Epsom on June 5. The Wimbledon Tennis Tournament begins June 22. On June 24 Elizabeth will go to Scotland for a "second coronation" at St. Giles Cathedral.

On June 3, the Association of American correspondents in London will hold a luncheon in honor of the American official delegation to the coronation with guests including Gen. George C. Marshall, U. S. Ambassador Winthrop W. Aldrich, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Gov. Earl Warren and Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway. Most of the visiting American editors and newspapermen will attend.

Northern Baptists Flay Panel Methods

DENVER, May 26—UP—The American Baptist Convention, representing some 1,500,000 Northern Baptists across the country, Monday sharply denounced "character assassination and guilt by association" techniques of congressional investigating committees in the final session of its week-long meeting here.

The meeting of more than 2,000 delegates from 34 states adopted a resolution expressing "deep concern over the techniques used to curb freedom of inquiry and research and to silence debate upon the great public issues of our time."

In another resolution the Baptist convention approved President Eisenhower's apparent refusal to establish an American diplomatic with the Catholic church at the Vatican.

At the same session Dr. Winfield Edson, 45, pastor of the Long Beach, Calif., Baptist church, was nominated president of the national organization for the coming year. His was the only name submitted for the presidency.

Edson, a former basketball and football star at Kearney, Neb., State Teachers College, became a Baptist minister 15 years ago after a successful career as a typewriter salesman. He succeeds John A. Dawson, a Chicago stockbroker,

ELIZABETH the Queen

By Marion Crawford

QUEEN ELIZABETH loves children. Many times as we drove round London on our way to and from those Monday-afternoon teas Queen Mary used to give us, or on the way down to the Royal Lodge, Windsor, she would suddenly lean forward and say, "Look, what a lovely little girl that is. Or, 'Isn't he a sweet-looking child?'"

Whenever she had to speak with children or take bouquets from their embarrassed hands, a new gentleness came over her.

"Thank you so much," she would say, smiling at them in a pleasant, open way which made them feel that there was not some magnificent lady, but a kind elder sister or aunt. She has a way with children which is quite delightful to watch. Obviously she loves to be with them.

That is evident with her own children.

We used to play, I remember, a game of peep-bo together when she was small. The Princess would be playing in the gardens behind 145 Piccadilly, and I would hide myself behind a bush.

Suddenly I would pop my head out and say "Peep-bo," at which she would go off into a long gurgle of laughter, which I would stimulate again by repeating the per-

Card of Thanks

I wonder, O, I wonder, where the little faces go.
 That come to smile and stay
 While, and pass like flakes of snow—
 The dear, wee baby faces that the world has never known.
 But parents hid, so tender-eyed,
 In their hearts alone.
 I love to think that somewhere,
 In this country, sweet Heaven nite,
 The land most fair of anywhere
 will unto them be given.
 And little faces, very little,
 very fair — and every one shall unto it, there.

O grant it, loving Father, to the broken heart that pleads:
 Thy way is best — yet, O, to rest in perfect faith indeed.
 To know that I shall find them
 even then, the wee white dead,
 As Thy right hand, Thy bright land, by aiving waters led.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Great Plays Show At Tournaments

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The standard of play in bridge tournaments has improved enormously in the last 20-odd years. In the old days only a ranking expert was able to execute a squeeze, and practically nobody knew what a dummy reversal was. In the recent Eastern States Regional Tournament, held in New York, several players combined a squeeze with a dummy reversal and thought nothing of it.

The hand was usually bid to four spades by some such auction as the one shown here today. The most common opening lead was a low heart, and South won with the ace. Declarer's first step was to finesse the ten of spades, losing to East's king.

The defense varied a bit from this point, but it came to the same thing in the end. In two cases that I know of, East laid down the ace of clubs, dropping South's king. East then shifted back to hearts, forcing out dummy's king. Declarer got to his hand by ruffing clubs and led another trump, picking up West's queen. South next ruffed out dummy's last club, thus achieving the "dummy reversal."

It's About The Coronation ... Hank Dreams Up A Crazy Plan Sure To Be A Complete Flop

By HENRY McLEMORE

Along with the Duke of Windsor, millions of us Americans won't see the Coronation, but I believe I have worked out a program for June 2nd which will enable us stay-at-homes to experience the same sensations as if we were in London.

The program begins exactly one minute after midnight of June 2nd and extends a full 24 hours. During this time there will not be a single moment's let-up in the gay round of discomforts, disappointments and annoyances.

I gave my scheme a try-out the other day and at the finish I not only felt that I had seen Elizabeth crowned, but that I had been crowned, too, and given the title of King Henry, The Exhausted and Exasperated.

Step No. 1 is to find a giant tree facing a street and stand behind it blindfolded for ten hours. This has a twofold purpose. One is to enable you in later years to describe in full detail how indescribably magnificent was the pomp and pageantry of the royal procession when it passed by the spot where you were standing.

The other purpose of this tree vigil is to accustom your feet to the next fourteen hours of holding you up.

Oh, I almost forgot an important part of this first ten hours of Coronation - viewing. Be sure to be accompanied by the tree by someone who will do the following things while you stand peering at nothing.

1. Try to pick your pocket.
2. Poke you in the ribs two or three hundred times with an umbrella, an ice pick, or something equally uncomfortable.
3. Tramp up and down on your toes and insteps until the tears run from behind your blindfold's.

Step No. 2 - and you'll find it hard to take after ten hours behind the tree - is to find your way to a phone booth (which is occupied by a very fat man or a very fat woman and force your way into it.

When the fat woman or fat man becomes highly indignant and starts hawking at you and trying to shove you out, start belting right back and wrestle for possession of the jammed space. Don't give in, no matter if there are times when you feel as if you're only a whisper from fainting dead away.

Stay in the phone booth for a full eight hours, or the equivalent time a spectator in London on June 2nd will have to battle almost to his death for standing space on the curb.

Step No. 3 is optional.

You can either fall down outside the booth and be carried away to a hospital for medical attention, or you can stagger two or three miles and gaze through glazed eyes at two window washers at work on the 28th floor of a skyscraper a mile distant. The latter will be the same as trying to get near Buckingham Palace to watch the Queen and her family when they step out on the balcony to receive the ovation of millions of subjects and hundreds of thousands of visitors.

Step No. 4 is to return to a hotel room for which you are paying an outrageous price, leave a call for June 6th, and let the rest of the world go by.

Don't let this expression puzzle you, for it has a very simple meaning. Reversing the dummy is just a matter of establishing the dummy instead of your old hand. In this case, declarer ruffed out dummy's losers with his own trumps instead of trying to ruff out his own losers with dummy's trumps.

Having reversed the dummy, declarer then led his last trump to dummy's jack, following with dummy's four of trumps. (South had ruffed twice in his own hand, and therefore dummy wound up with one trump more than the South hand.) When dummy led the last trump, dummy still held two hearts and two diamonds, but West had only a headace.

West had to reduce to four cards. If he saved all four diamonds, dummy's low hearts would both be good. If West kept a high heart, however, he would have to discard a diamond and then declarer would be able to win the rest of the tricks with his diamonds.

In short, West was squeezed and declarer had executed a combination of dummy reversal and squeeze.

CONGRATULATIONS

Your Commencement marks the completion of a small portion of your journey down life's way. But mark the word "commencement" — for it means a beginning. There's a new start ahead for you — in college, in business, in the home.

Commencement implies that more and greater obligations of citizenship are ahead of you. The community looks to its young people to take over the reins of leadership — to breathe the spirit of the young into the growing community.
