Northern Part Of Panhandle Aided By Rain

DALHART, Tex., Oct. 22—UP—Agricultural experts said Thursday that Tuesday night's five-inch rain helped wheat and ranges in the northern part of the Texas Panhandle "immensely."

"Some of the wheat was getting pretty dry," Dallam County Agent Marvin Simms said. "It was a great help to wheat farmers."

"The same cool front was causing light showers in North Central Texas. But the rain was sparse and the showers scattered and spotty. Forecasters said the rain will continue through Friday except in the Big Bend country and the El Paso area."

Extends 150 Miles — The narrow band of heavy rain Tuesday night extended from Dalhart to Meade, Kan., 150 miles northeast. But Texline, 36 miles northwest of Dalhart, got no rain, and only a light shower fell at Channing, 30 miles southeast.

Albert Law, editor of the Dalhart Texan, said the five-inch rain fell in little more than three hours and "was probably the heaviest rain Dalhart ever had."

At one time eight feet of water was in the railroad underpasses on the U.S. highways which cross in Dalhart. They had never run so full since they were built.

Some Crops Hurt — Simms said the only crops hurt by the rain were some grain sorghums which had been so dry that they would not make grain and were now in process of being plowed.

Skies were still overcast in Dalhart Thursday and sprinkles fell intermittently.

Showers were scattered over the rest of the state. Downtown Fort Worth had .57 inch but Amon G. Carter Field near Irving had only .03 inch.

Elsewhere, Wichita Falls got .12 of an inch. Palacios .18. Dallas .10. College Station and Laredo .04. Austin .02. and Mineral Wells .01.

Pampa Area Gets Rain

Farmers and ranchers of the Pampa area were rejoicing today as a steady rain began to fall this morning.

At 10:30 a.m. rainfall had amounted to .3 of an inch, according to Radio Station KPDM's rain gauge. The rain was still falling at 11 a.m.

Farmers and ranchers, who have been plagued by drought conditions during the past few months, were breathing easier. This and two other recent rains were expected to be very beneficial to pasture land and to winter wheat, which has recently been planted in Gray county.

The temperature at 11 a.m. today had dropped from a high of 61 degrees to a low of 51.

Today's rainfall was general over this area. At McLean, where .75 inch of moisture fell between 5 and 7 a.m., it was still raining at 9 a.m., with the day's total at that time being 1.5 inches. The rain there was accompanied by a thunderstorm and the temperatures were in the low 50s.

Shamrock reported a light drizzle at 10 a.m., with cloudy skies and a temperature reading of 60 degrees.

The forecast for today called for cloudy skies, showers and cooler temperatures.

Woman Faces Murder Charge

PECOB, Tex., Oct. 22—UP—Mrs. Quinny Ann Williamson, 28, of Toyah, Tex., Thursday faced a grand jury indictment charging murder with malice in connection with her husband's death.

Reeves County Sheriff Charles Fitzgerald said the husband, Raymond Williamson, 28, was fatally shot three times during a family argument Saturday night.

SHE DOESN'T KNOW

Little Pampa Girl Suffering Cancer

By ED NASH
Pampa News Staff Writer — Sharon Kay Baird, a cute Pampa youngster with a shy grin, is out of bed today but has only five to six months to live.

For the eight-year-old has an incurable disease—cancer—and specialists only give her that long to live.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baird, 516 N. West, the brown-eyed girl doesn't know of her plight though, in the words of her father, "she's pretty sharp—she suspects something."

Sharon Kay's parents didn't know themselves that their daughter, the youngest of their four children, had the disease till a couple of weeks ago, after she had left Sam Houston School Oct. 1.

After consulting local physicians who gave her extensive X-rays, Mr. and Mrs. Baird took her to Scott and White Clinic, Temple, where cancer specialists confirmed the diagnosis of local medical men. It was "lymph sarcoma," an incurable cancer disease. While she was in Temple, doctors performed a left-gland operation in the neck.

"We're definitely trusting in the Lord to heal her," Mr. Baird said this morning, looking back on the decision of physicians that she only has five or six months to live.

Her school chums, friends and relatives are doing their part, too. According to Homer Craig, Sam Houston principal, her schoolmates make a practice of sending her letters and cards and calling her on the telephone. The collection of brightly-colored cards on the wall of her room is mute testimony to her status with her young friends.

Her third-grade homeroom teacher collected the cards and called her on the telephone. The collection of brightly-colored cards on the wall of her room is mute testimony to her status with her young friends.

When Pampa telephone subscribers receive their November bills they will notice an increase in rates, according to George Newberry, manager of the Pampa office of the southwestern Bell Telephone company.

The increase, authorized by an ordinance passed by the City Commission on Jan. 9, 1951, for residence service would be 50 cents per month, he said. Higher increases are authorized for business service.

Under terms of City Ordinance 328, which granted an increase in the company's rates to the present schedule, also authorizes the company to automatically increase its rates when the new dial system goes into operation at midnight Saturday.

Section 2 of the ordinance states that the southwestern Bell Telephone company is authorized to place into effect a new rate schedule on its first billing after the telephone services in the city of Pampa has been converted to the dial system and the dial system goes into operation.

Under the new rate schedule, the one-party residence service rate would be $4.25 per month, compared with the present rate of $3.75. The two-party residence rate, which now is $3.00, would be increased to $2.50, while the present four-party rate of $2.50 would be raised to $3.00.

One-party business service would be increased from the present rate of $7.50 per month to $9.00, the schedule reveals. The rate for commercial PBX trunks would be raised from $11.25 to $13.50.

Germany's Adenauer Wouldn't Woo Russia

Claims West Has Exhausted Effort

BONN, Germany, Oct. 22—UP—German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said Thursday the West has almost exhausted its efforts to woo Russia into Big Four peace talks and warned that the Kremlin will end the cold war only when it realizes it cannot grab control of Western Europe.

In an exclusive United Press interview, the first interview he has granted since his re-election Oct. 6 to another four-year term, Adenauer said he doubted whether British Prime Minister Winston Churchill could produce worthwhile results by making a personal trip to Moscow.

"I am convinced that one should not attempt to use means that are hopeless in advance," Adenauer said. "That only strengthens the position of the other side and makes them think we are crawling after them."

Adenauer said he most certainly would not go to Moscow himself to try to reach a direct agreement with the Russians.

The 77-year-old chancellor expressed belief that if the Russians reject the latest Western invitation to a Big Four conference at Lugano on Nov. 9, the West would drop further attempts to bring them into cold war talks.

"I believe the latest note will be the last one if the reply is negative," Adenauer said. "There is no point in continuing to chase after them. We merely hurt our own objective of reaching an understanding with the Russians."

Adenauer received this correspondent in his office at Bonn's historic Schaumburg Palace.

Beside Adenauer's desk were signed photographs of President Eisenhower and Churchill.

Throughout the interview, the veteran German statesman stressed constantly his firm conviction that a cold war agreement with the Russians will be possible only when they realize the West, particularly the United States, is too strong for them.

Police Think Ransom Never Hit St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22—UP—The mystery of the missing half of the $600,000 Bobby Greenlease ransom thickened Thursday as top police officials said they believe it was never brought to St. Louis.

St. Louis was the scene of the capture of Carl Austin Hall 43 hours after he picked up the record-breaking ransom.

About $305,000 of the ransom has never been found. A top police board here is conducting a re-opened investigation into the details of the arrest and the whereabouts of the loot.

The board Wednesday questioned Police Lt. Louis Shoulters, one of two officers who arrested Hall. Afterwards Police Chief Jeremiah O'Connell said "from what I know so far, I don't think the $300,000 was ever brought here."

But he added the investigators have "not reached any conclusion."

Hall collected the ransom near Kansas City, the home of his victim's wealthy father. He had already killed the lad and buried him at the comfortable St. Joseph, Mo., home of his accomplice, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady.

Hall and Mrs. Heady then came to St. Louis and had a falling out. In a short time the will-spending Hall was arrested on a cab driver's tip.

Hall had two suitcases stuffed with $293,000 when Shoulters and Patrolman Elmer Dolan arrested him in the Town House Apartments Oct. 6. About $2,000 of the rest of the loot was recovered Wednesday.

Various theories have been advanced on what became of the rest of the money.

Change-Of-Heart GI Wrote Marriage Proposal To Girl

KINGSPOINT, Tenn., Oct. 22—UP—Pfc. Edward S. Dickenson, the change-of-heart American GI who dramatically turned his back on communism this week, wrote tender love letters back home while he was in Korea to a girl named Kate whom he wants to marry. It was disclosed Thursday.

The homesick 23-year-old mountain boy from Crackers Neck, Va., spilled out his affection for 20-year-old Kate Laney, a girl he knew but had never dated.

"Kate, I would like very much to have you for my wife," he wrote in one letter.

Miss Laney said she replied that it would be best for them to wait until he returned home so both could talk over the marriage proposal. She denied earlier reports that she had written him a "Dear John" letter after hearing he had at first refused repatriation in the Korean prisoner of war exchange.

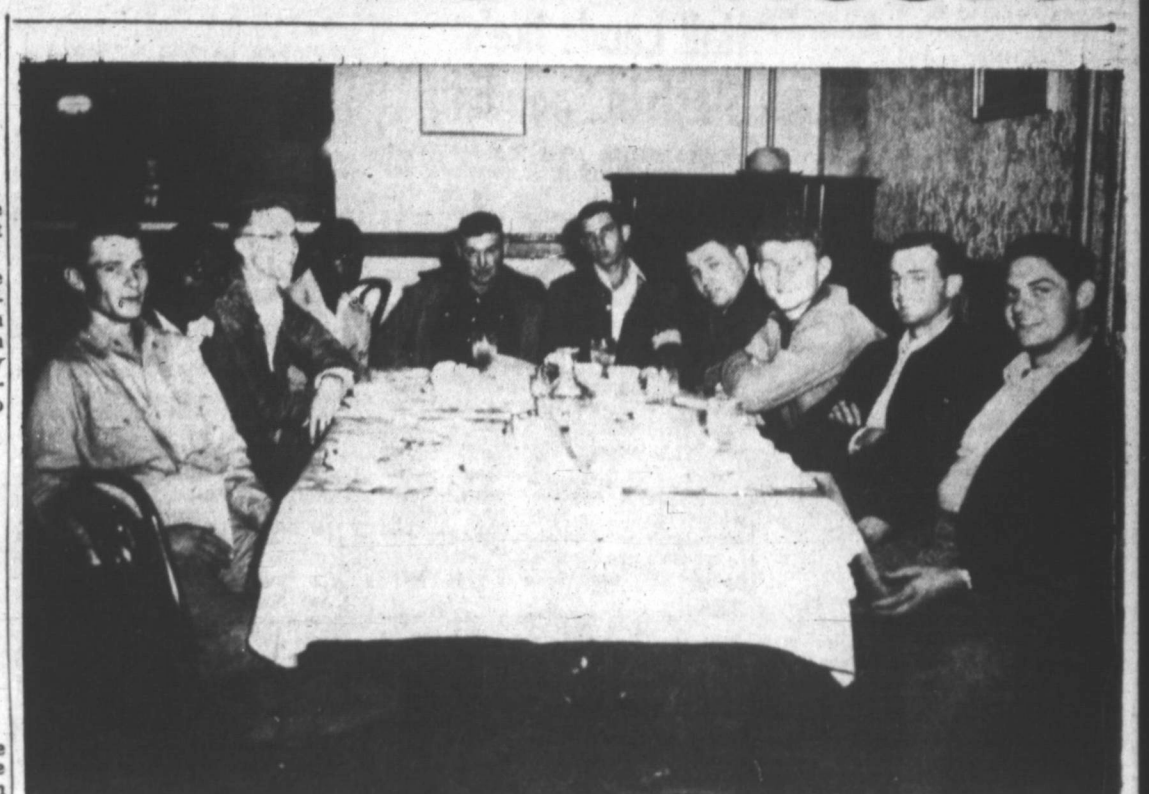

In a series of letters written by Dickenson between Dec. 15, 1952, and last May 3 to his mother, Mrs. Bessie Dickenson, and to Miss Laney, the Virginia mountaineer gave no hint of why he refused repatriation at first. The letters were published Thursday by the Kingsport, Tenn., News.

Dickenson wrote only of his longing to return home to his family and his desire to marry Miss Laney.

Dickenson proposed to Miss Laney in a letter dated Dec. 15, 1952. "It would not take much for us to get started living on. If you accept this, Kate, write back and let me know. If you don't accept, you can still write, for I'll be glad to hear from you."

Return Red PW

PENNSYLVANIA, Oct. 22—UP—The Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission sent a chair-swinging anti-Communist Chinese war prisoner back to the Reds Thursday and the Allies announced they would protest.

Polish and Czech members ended their three-day boycott of the commission's activities and subjected the confused Chinese to an intensive 45-minute grilling.

The commission then announced that the Chinese, who tried to hit a Communist propagandist with a chair last Saturday during a "come home to communism" interview, now wanted to go home.

Allies Voice Objections — A United Nations command spokesman said the Allies objected to the repatriation of the Chinese because the five-nation neutral commission had failed to inform the UN the man would be heard.

In the near-riot last Saturday, in which all but nine of 440 Chinese noisily refused to return to communism, the chair-swinging prisoner was questioned by Red propagandists for three hours.

At that time Brig. Gen. A. L. Hamblen, chief of the UN repatriation group, protested the treatment of the Chinese as "cruel and inhuman."

The new UN protest was being considered on the ground that no Allied interpreter was present at the session to verify the prisoner's statement that he wanted to go back to Red China.

Lodges Strong Protest — While the UN was preparing its complaint, Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, chairman of the neutral commission, lodged a "strong protest" with the Allies because a UN interpreter had called a Polish officer a "Communist" during the Saturday incident.

Thimayya said the Pole had been "grossly insulted."

War Hero Found Dead

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22—UP—Police Chief Cato Hightower Thursday ordered an investigation into the hanging death in a city jail cell of a 37-year-old war hero, who twice this week had threatened suicide.

James Claude Shoffit, flier in World War II and in the Korean conflict, was found hanging by his belt in a city jail cell Wednesday and a suicide verdict was returned.

Shoffit was jailed several hours earlier at the request of a relative who told officers he had threatened suicide twice during the week. Relatives said he had appeared despondent.

Hightower said he wanted to find out why Shoffit's belt was not taken from him when he was jailed, after relatives had told police that he was despondent.

Shoffit was one of the first Allied pilots in World War II to battle German jet planes. He flew 70 missions and held the Purple Heart. He was recalled to service as a major in 1950, and flew 40 combat missions in Korea before being discharged last year after being wounded in combat.

Sherman White, 55, Dies Here Today

Sherman White, 55, former Gray County judge and one of the most prominent attorneys in the Panhandle, died of a heart attack at 7:30 a.m. today in Highland General Hospital. He entered the hospital Monday.

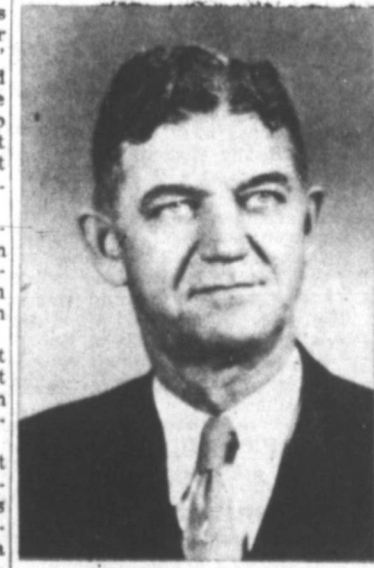

Born in Erath County, Tex., Mr. White attended the University of Texas and was graduated with a law degree in 1923. He practiced for six months in Amarillo and then moved to McLean where he also served on the McLean School Board in 1928 and 1929.

Mr. White was elected county attorney in 1930 and served in that capacity until 1937 when he was successful in a campaign for county judge, a post he held until 1948.

In 1950 he associated himself with Aaron Sturgeon and has had an office with him in the Combs Worley Bldg. since that time.

In 1925 Mr. White married Frankie Mas Upham of McLean. The couple had one son who was drowned a number of years ago.

Surviving are his widow, four brothers, F. A. Frank and Forbes White of Huckabay, Tex., and Harvey White of Gainesville, Tex. The body was removed to Duengel-Carmichael Funeral Home where funeral arrangements are pending.

SECRETARY BENSON sticking to post

Benson Declares He Won't Quit Post

EDITORS: Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, under political fire from many quarters, declares in the following exclusive interview he will stick to his post so long as President Eisenhower wants him.

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22—UP—"I didn't want this job, but I'm not going to quit so long as the President wants me here," Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson told the United Press in an exclusive interview shortly before Mr. Eisenhower gave him a 100 percent endorsement.

The President blessed Benson Wednesday in his news conference. A great many farmers do not feel would much change or in any way diminish present farm subsidies. Congress is very likely to reject them. The House Agriculture committee has just completed a series of hearings in various parts of the country.

The word from the grass roots was: Fire Benson and don't do much tinkering with the farm program, unless it be to extend and improve it. Not everyone wanted to fire Benson. But many did, including Republicans.

The secretary said he had hoped to do the farm job without getting involved in politics, but agreed that would be next to impossible in the coming year.

The administration should make some progress this week toward a farm program. The National Agricultural Advisory Commission was set up to fulfill campaign promises farmers would have a real part in policy decisions. It is meeting Thursday and Friday with Benson. The committee will see the President Saturday.

Benson is a Utah Republican. He has been on the cabinet hot seat for months. Drought, over-production and sagging prices plague the farmers. Their woes were translated into anti-administration votes in Wisconsin's recent special congressional election, in which a Democrat won a House seat long claimed by the GOP.

LITTLE GIRL

er, Mrs. Clyde Justice, has been sending her things to color and has told her, her father reported, that the school will plan something for her as soon as she is able to get back to school. "We sure like her" was Mr. Baird's comment on Mrs. Justice.
In addition, Mr. Baird's Celanese associates got up a donation to make up for the week of work he missed while in Temple (it's for Sharon Kay); she has acquired a walking doll, parakeet in a cage, puzzles; the loan of a TV set from Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Burress, Letoria (she is Mrs. Baird's sister); and Pampa's Jayceettes are planning to take an armload of gifts.

A very religious family, the Bairds belong to the Four Square Church in Los Angeles, though they have never lived in that city. Through their membership there, their friends and relatives in the Rio Grande Valley and in Pampa, a special prayer service was held the night of Oct. 11 in churches of those regions.
"She has taken a turn for the better since that night," Mr. Baird affirmed, pointing out that Sharon Kay has been eating more and has had no fever since the time of the multi-community prayer.

The Bairds have been Pampans for less than a year. Mr. Baird began work as an operator of production at Celanese Nov. 18, has been working there since that time. However, Mr. Baird lived in Mobeetie from 1921 to 1942 when he moved to Raymondville in the Valley.
The engaging youngster has only been out of bed a few days now, and is obviously really enjoying it. She likes to visit around the neighborhood, too. "We just let her go, even though we feel it might be against her," her father said.
"I don't want her to be deprived of anything she might brood over," he continued.

Today she was dressed in a pink sweater, blue skirt, bright pink socks and black loafers and moved around her home from toy to toy, doll to doll, card to card. Others in the family are Jimmy Jack, 27; Barbara Jo, 16; and Buster, 14.
Her lot in life has not been an easy one. When she was only five weeks old and weighed a scant four pounds, she had a major operation, the removal of a tumor from her stomach.
Today her parents are resigned to the fact that medical science can no longer do her any good, that it's strictly up to religion.
Says her father:
"The Lord can heal—I've seen it done."
"It's His will, it'll be that way."

The annual barbecue of the Pampa Roping Club will be held at Recreation Park Saturday noon, it was announced today.

Members and their families will attend.

Planes Haul Drouth Hay

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 —UP—The White House is considering a plan to use Air Force planes to haul hay into drouth disaster areas. The White House Wednesday released a copy of a telegram sent by President Eisenhower to Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), who had asked about a possible "haylift." The telegram said:
"Re your telegram of Oct. 17 regarding possible use of Air Force planes to transport hay to drouth stricken areas, representatives of the secretary of agriculture are presently in Missouri working out details with the governor for the movement of hay into the stricken areas."

"Last week Secretary Benson alerted the Air Force to be ready to participate in this movement if it should become necessary and so informed the governors of the drouth states in Kansas City."
A White House spokesman explained that the plan had not been put in action. He said it was still a matter of discussion, particularly in view of the fact that another drouth state meeting is scheduled in Kansas City Friday.
Symington told Mr. Eisenhower Thursday that most livestock feed could be shipped into drouth areas by rail. But he said a "few hundred tons" of hay delivered promptly to airfields in Missouri could save the breeding and dairy herds of farmers without livestock feed.

Hall Lauds Ike's Slash In Spending

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 21 —UP—Leonard C. Hall, Republican national chairman, believes it will take time to make changes in Washington, but President Eisenhower "has done a tremendous job in cutting spending and returning some powers to the states."
Speaking at a $50 a plate GOP dinner Tuesday night honoring the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, Hall told the Republicans the party "can't change in a few months what the New Deal did in 20 years, so they shouldn't expect any miracles."

Grandview School Carnival Tonight

An estimated 600-700 persons are expected to be on hand tonight at the annual Grandview School carnival, first public get-together to be held in Grandview's new gymnasium.
County School Superintendent B. R. Nuckols Wednesday afternoon counter-signed a check for $9,000—the portion of the $13,444.76 cost of the new building that had not yet been paid to Pampa Steel Building Company.
Affair is slated to get underway at 6 p.m. today with the feeding of all those present, including "hot" following the eating, there will be bingo, raffles, drawings—a "regular hullabaloo."
The building, for which the "grand opening" is being held tonight, was completed only a short time ago, Nuckols said.

Fire Victim's Funeral Slated

Funeral services for Joy Eulena Kindrick of Little are scheduled for 11 a.m. Friday in the Little Baptist Church. Rev. Frank Beachamp of the Shamrock Methodist Church will officiate.
Following the funeral service, the body will be taken overland by the Richardson Funeral Home in Shamrock to Silveryon where interment will be in the family cemetery.
Joy was burned to death Tuesday when her dress caught fire while she was playing near a bonfire.

Pilot Gives UN Plane To Reds

TOKYO, Oct. 22 —UP—Pyongyang radio reported Thursday for the first time that a South Korean pilot flew an American Mustang to North Korea and surrendered it to the Communists.
Red correspondents reported the defection earlier at Panmunjon, and it was confirmed by qualified United Nations sources.
Pyongyang Voice of North Korea, identified the pilot as Capt. Kim Sung Dae. The broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, said he landed the propeller-driven plane in Communist territory at 12:15 a.m. Tuesday. The Red report made no other comment.

2 Boys Killed Riding Bicycle

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22 —UP—Two boys riding double on a bicycle Wednesday night just outside the southeast San Antonio city limits were killed when they were struck by a car.
The victims were Carley Mabry, 12, and Bobby Bowen, 12.
Two other boys, Darrell Hicks, 14, and Travis Mabry, 15, brother of one of those killed, were riding double on another bicycle and were struck a glancing blow by the same automobile. They suffered only cuts, bruises and shock.
The driver of the car, Kelly Air Force Base Airman Glynn Lucas, 21, was held in county jail on two counts of negligent homicide in lieu of $1,000 bond.

Guard Seeks 48 Members

A goal of 48 new members by Jan. 15 was set by Pampa's National Guard unit at its regular drill session Wednesday evening. With 32 enlisted men in its ranks at present, the Guard hopes to swell its numbers to 130 for the new year, a spokesman stated.

Although there will be no campaign activities of the Guard as a whole, each section leader is in charge of enlisting men for his group. Nothing is expected to be done, however, until after the federal inspection Nov. 31.

Wednesday night's meeting also marked the enlistment of Walter E. Eubank, Pampa, formerly with the inactive reserve, and the return of 2nd Lt. Lloyd E. Emonty, Pampa, from the ranks of the active guard. Donald C. Reed, Pampa, whose term was up, reenlisted.

Following a meeting of the officers on the new armory, the men were told that plans were well underway and pending approval of state and national Guard boards.

Walter Rogers To Return To Washington

Rep. Walter Rogers expects to head back to Washington, D. C. about Nov. 1, following his attendance at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Saturday will be a busy day for the Pampa congressman. He has many appointments sandwiched between a meeting with the Wellington Farm Bureau and the Pampa dial change-over at midnight.

But he has nothing else "formally scheduled" beyond the chamber banquet, slated for the night of Oct. 29 at the Pampa Country Club.

Rogers has two purposes in returning to Washington — congressional work and a chance to see his family. He's been with them only two weeks since July 9.

Catholic Youth Week Observed

This week Pampa's Catholic youth are joining with young people throughout the country in observing National Catholic Youth Week.

A proclamation by Gov. Allan Shivers states that the youth's theme, "America's Hope — Youth with Faith... Faith in God, Faith in Country, Faith in Family, Faith in Themselves" expresses the type of goals toward which the young people of the Catholic faith in our state and nation are striving.

Pampa's observance began Sunday with a communion breakfast following the 8 o'clock mass. City members attending were Sheila Chisholm, president, Harlan Boyle, James Keough, James McBride, John McBride, Larry Flaherty, Sue McBride, Judy Neslage, Jeannette Wade, Roberta Kretzschmar, Sandra Bullins, Margaret Sharp, Donna Baitreal, Beatrice Ann Urbanczyk, Norma Jean Dillman, Frances Wade and Janice Dillman.

West Berlin Elects Mayor BERLIN, Oct. 22 —UP—Walter Schreiber was elected mayor of West Berlin Thursday to succeed the late Ernst Reuter. Schreiber was approved by the city council by a vote of 63 to 87.

Dean Back To Work BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 19 —UP—Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, Congressional Medal of Honor winner and one of the nation's most famous ex-prisoners of war, leaves Monday night for Washington for reassignment.

Rogers Sees Tax Relief If Armament Race Would End

If the maddening arms race of the world could be stopped, the people of the United States could get tax relief.

That was the statement made by Rep. Walter Rogers, Pampa's Congressman, in a talk at the luncheon meeting Wednesday of the Pampa Rotary club in the Palm Room of City Hall.

Speaking on the problems that will face the next session of Congress, he said: "It is my hope that there can be tax relief and I want this to happen, but we can't have it until this arms race is stopped."

He went on to state that although he was sure that Russia has manufactured an atomic bomb and probably has the hydrogen bomb, he felt that she would never drop one of them on this country.

He gave as his reason for this statement the fact that the United States has bases around the world that are much more accessible to us than any they might have would be to them.

The congressman said it was foolish to think that Russia could not have these weapons, for they have their scientists, too, and "the United States certainly does not have a monopoly on brains."

In presenting facts and figures regarding the tax structure of the nation, he pointed out that in the fiscal year, ending last June 30, the government's expenditures amounted to $74 billion. He said the current fiscal year's expenditures will be about the same, and the 1953 expenditures would be upward of $70 billion.

Rogers said that he understood that President Eisenhower would not tolerate a reduction in federal spending of more than one billion dollars during the 1953 fiscal year, which begins next July 1.

The big question that faces Congress is: "Where will we get the money?" He said there were only two answers to this question—increased taxes or cut expenses.

THE RECORD SHOP

By RICHARD KLEINER
 NEA Staff Correspondent
 NEW YORK — (NEA) — Problem: How to re-create the exact tone of a band that hasn't played for ten years.

That's the job that faced Joseph Gershenson, music head at Universal International Studios. The band in question was Glenn Miller's, and the cause of the whole thing was a movie, "The Glenn Miller Story."

Gershenson says that the tone of the bands — such as Tex Beneke's — which took over after Miller's death wasn't exactly like the real thing.

"Something was lacking," he says. "Finally I took home a batch of original Miller records and played them continuously over a week-end. I almost drove my wife crazy, but I discovered that Glenn had a delicate balance between his reed and brass sections that nobody else had duplicated."

Gershenson, himself an old-time orchestra leader says the tone in the movie will be just right. The movie, including some ex-Miller men and others like Louis Armstrong and Gene Krups, will play 28 Miller classics—"Moonlight Serenade," "Tuxedo Junction," "In the Mood," "String of Pearls" and all the other great ones.

James Stewart will play Miller, but somebody else will play the trombone.

Taxes, he pointed out, form the only source of revenue. President Truman estimated that during the last fiscal year the income would be $68.5 billion, but actually the income was only about $65 billion, the speaker stated.

The speaker went on to add that the expenditures are fixed by the Bureau of the Budget and that the income can only be estimated. He estimated that the income for the next fiscal year probably would be reduced to about $61 billion, leaving a deficit of upward of $9 billion.

Rogers stated that, unless Congress changes its mind, "you need not worry about getting any tax relief very soon."

In speaking briefly about a federal sales tax, he said that it would be very difficult to get such legislation through Congress. However, he said he was sure that it would be brought up.

He also talked briefly on foreign trade and foreign aid, pointing out that this country is sending money to other countries to pay for goods purchased from the United States. Something must be done to remedy this situation, he added.

Among other problems to face the next session, he said, were the Taft-Hartley amendments, revision of the Social Security system, Hawaii and Alaska statehood, FEPC, farm programs, United Nations, the Bricker amendment, reclamation and irrigation and defense.

He was introduced by Fred Neslage, chairman of the program committee.

Guests included George Dupree, and Frank Elmore, both of Amarillo; Phil Phillips, J. R. Phillips and A. A. Meredith, all of Borger; Cass Walker, McNary, Aris; Dr. Joe Donaldson and Jim Strawn, both of Pampa. President E. S. Williams presided.

Burl Ives Due To Publish First History Of Singing

By ROBERT MUSEL
 LONDON, Oct. 22 —UP—Burl Ives is about to publish what he believes is the first singing history, and an anonymous little boy who trotted along a New York street singing "Diddle, Diddle Dumpling, My Son, John," can take a lot of the credit.

For it suddenly occurred to the ballad singer the little boy was singing the same song little boys sang in 1773 and 1774 in the American colonies to taunt the British Redcoats then pouring in to enforce the decrees of King George III.

"The music had telescoped the centuries," Burl said before sailing for the United States. "You can teach kids history in school but it most always remains largely a matter of words and imagination. There is so little that can be done to bring back the actual past to them."

rush by sea to California in anything that would float was immortalized in "A Rippling Trip."

Ives said he had included "The Streets of Laredo," an old Texas ballad; "When I Was Single," a favorite of Daniel Boone; "The Iron Horse" to commemorate the joining of the two ends of the Union Pacific Railroad in 1869; "Hunters of Kentucky" (1812), the first American popular song which was written in praise of Andrew Jackson, and dozens of others.

LET IT POUR—There will be few complaints about the weather from happy Kim Kimber, for the umbrella that protects her smiling face from the rain is made of mink. The luxurious umbrella was designed by Rosin and Starr in Chicago, Ill.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Experts Seldom Worry About Bid

By OSWALD JACOBY
 Written for NEA Service

Experienced bridge players will not be surprised by the bidding of today's hand. North's bid of two clubs obviously doesn't show a real club suit, but is the Stayman Convention, asking South to show a four-card (or longer) major suit if he happens to have one.

South happens to have an eminently biddable spade suit, so he shows it. North naturally goes immediately to game in spades. North has 11 points in high cards and knows that South has 16 to 18 points.

The combined count is obviously enough for game, and a good fit in a major suit is assured if South can show either spades or hearts. (If South had no major suit, he

Bookie Appears To Be Double Winner In Embezzle Suit

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 —UP—A confessed bookie appeared to be a double winner Wednesday unless attorneys for an employees' credit union come up with a law to change the mind of District Judge Ben Wilson.

Not only does the bookie, Frank Hendricks, escape prosecution as a gambler but also he apparently will be permitted to keep nearly $28,000 in funds a bookkeeper embezzled from the credit union then lost to Hendricks in playing the horses.

The suit was bought by the Sinclair Refinery Employees Credit Union seeking to recover the money from Hendricks and Earl Reese, another confessed bookie.

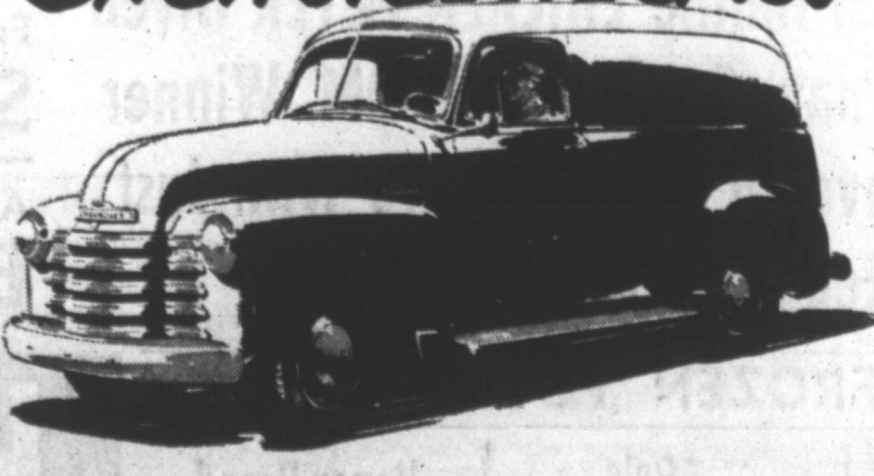

Hendricks' attorneys Wednesday moved the case be thrown out of court and Judge Wilson said he'd likely do that "unless I can be shown some law to the contrary." He gave the union's attorneys until mid-afternoon to find such a law.

Hendricks and Reese have both admitted taking bets and, in colorful testimony filled with the language of the gambling mob, Hendricks said the embezzling bookkeeper, George Cruise, was only a "catbird" in gambling circles—a "small time operator because he lost only $300 to $500 a day and bet on horses to show."

CULBERSON CHEVROLET, Inc.
 212 NORTH BALLARD

would bid two diamonds, and North would bid three no-trump with his strong hand.

Even though the final contract was logical and sound, South had to play it well when this hand was actually played in a recent rubber bridge game at the Fort Worth Club. West opened the king of clubs, and East overtook with the ace of clubs in order to return the deuce.

This hammer-over-the-head play made it clear that East had been dealt only two clubs. West won the second trick with the ten of clubs and continued with the queen of clubs. South discarded a low heart from the dummy. West shifted to a heart, realizing that a fourth club couldn't do any good. But no defense could do any good, since South had made the sure-fire play.

Declarer won the heart return with the king, drew three rounds of trumps and then ran three rounds of diamonds to discard a second heart from the dummy. The rest was easy, of course. South had given up three club tricks, but had managed to avoid the loss of a heart trick.

Cotton Harvest Deadline Told

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 —UP—Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced Wednesday that cotton farmers in seven Central Texas counties may harvest past the midnight Oct. 31 plow-up deadline if they use an alternate insect control method.

White said farmers in Zone 5 of the pink bollworm control area may spray their fields with pentachlorophenol, a growth-arresting herbicide, before the Oct. 31 deadline and continue picking cotton.

He added the herbicide solution must be strong enough to stop plant fruiting and be applied only under the supervision of an inspector of the Texas or United States Department of Agriculture.

White pointed out the alternate plan does not exempt the farmer from plowing under his cotton stalks, but merely gives growers a few extra days to get cotton out of the field.

"This is not a blanket extension of the deadline," he said. "If the cotton field is not sprayed, it must be plowed under before the deadline expires."

Doesn't Seem Fair
 LORAIN, Ohio, Oct. 22 —UP—Brookside high school officials ruled teacher Richard Ackerman could not collect school medical fund assistance for a broken leg. He received the injury in the annual faculty-varsity football game Saturday, the proceeds of which went to the school medical fund.

Merchant Donates 100th Pint of Blood

HOUSTON, Oct. 22 —UP—A 43-year-old vegetable merchant Wednesday gave his 100th pint of blood—enough for eight persons—and said hereafter he'd probably limit his donations to four pints a year.

Norman Macy started on his blood giving binge when he was 17 years old.

"I was blinded by fever and the doctors gave up hope to save me," he said. "But God gave me life and sight. I was so grateful for being spared that I promised God I would do everything I could to give life to others."

He said in the future he planned to give blood four times a year to the Red Cross for gamma globulin. There's always a shortage of gamma globulin. Gamma globulin was used this summer to prevent paralysis in polio.

Macy, who prays before giving each pint, has a Type B blood worth $50 a pint. But he gives it away, making him the donor of $5,000 in blood. He has given 12 pints since last November.

Crops Hurt By Tough Drouth For Third Straight Season

By UNITED PRESS

Crop losses mounted Wednesday as a record autumn heat wave seared farmlands already parched by one of the nation's worst drouths.

In some sections of the West, Southwest and South, this year's lack of rainfall was a continuation of a drouth that has cut crop yields for three straight years.

Losses in livestock and crops totaled uncounted millions of dollars.

Too Much Rain in Florida

This year the abnormally dry weather spread almost from coast to coast, with comparatively few states reporting normal rainfall as the growing season wore on. Florida, ironically, suffered from too much rain.

New wells were drilled and emergency measures taken in scores of cities and towns where water supplies were drying up.

New York was planning to tap Long Island water supplies Nov. 1 unless substantial rains fill the city's upstate reservoirs, now only a little more than half full.

Forest Fire Hazard Worse

The forest fire hazard, always great during the fall hunting season, was worse this year than ever before in many areas, but no disastrous fires had broken out yet.

In the Midwestern farm belt, the drouth stepped up demands for more emergency federal aid to farmers.

The federal government already had made $50 million available for drouth relief. Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse told a meeting of cattlemen at Denver the states themselves should lend a hand. Missouri's Legislature was in special session to cope with the drouth problem.

Texas Damage $600 Million

Among states suffering the most were Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and North Carolina.

In Texas, Commissioner John C. White, estimated drouth damage at $650 million, including a $70 million loss in lower cattle prices resulting from the drouth.

A. P. Rollins, a member of the Texas Board of Water Engineers, said the state's underground water was being depleted 10 to 20 times faster than it was being replenished.

Dallas Hires Rain-maker

Dallas, which restricts lawn sprinkling, hired a Denver firm to seed clouds and make rain for a six-month period for a fee of $52,000.

In Missouri, rainfall since June was less than half of normal, and late crops were a total loss. Gov. Phil M. Donnelly told the opening of the special legislative session "thousands" of farm families had been ruined in one of the state's "worst calamities."

The season was called to appropriate $5.5 million for transporting hay to Missouri for cattle feed.

No Comment From Harry On Prize

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22 —UP—Former President Truman had "no comment" Wednesday on a report from Stockholm that he is a leading candidate for this year's Nobel peace prize.

Mr. Truman was in his downtown offices early, as usual. "I certainly could not be expected to comment on that report," he said good-naturedly.

Ship Beached To Avoid Sinking

QUEBEC CITY, Oct. 21 —UP—An Italian and a Norwegian freighter collided in the St. Lawrence River Wednesday. One ship was deliberately beached to prevent its sinking but both later got under way under their own power.

The 7,258-ton Norwegian freighter Stugard and the 2,049-ton Italian Carla Maria G slammed into each other as they headed in opposite directions in the pre-dawn darkness 31 miles west of here opposite Portneuf, Que. The skippers of both ships radioed for "immediate help" after the Carla Maria G was holed badly and in danger of sinking. He beached it on the south shore of the river. At daybreak he inspected the damage, found it less serious than he had figured, and backed the ship off a mudbank under its own power.

Signal service officials reported the Stugard similarly was less se-

WHITING, Ind., Oct. 21 —UP—George Veloch, 40, was asked to turn in his auxiliary civil defense fireman's badge.

Veloch confessed he had turned in 50 false alarms in 10 months "to hear the sirens and see the fire trucks run."

He was seriously damaged than the ship's SOS indicated and said it was heading for Montreal without assistance.

Kansas Rainfall Off

Eldorado, Kan., a town of 12,000, this week began getting 1.3 million gallons of water daily from Wichita through an eight-inch pipeline. But scattered rains in the last week had improved the surface soil moisture in many parts of the state.

Nevertheless, Kansas had received only 13 inches of rain in the last six months, two-third of its normal supply. The corn crop was burned and dried to only 65 per cent of its 10-year average, and the wheat harvest was 150 million bushels off the all-time record.

In Iowa, many wells in the southeastern section of the state had gone dry and residents of Columbus City were forced to haul water from the outlying farms of friends and to buy water in nearby Columbus Junction.

Memory Paid Off

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 21 —UP—A 47-year-old Austin man escaped from jail and then stopped at a residence to ask directions to Harlandale.

Off-duty patrolman H. R. Zunker Jr., who prides himself on his memory for faces, answered the door, recognized the fugitive and arrested him.

Canadian Personals

CANADIAN (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beatty arrived home from Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Beatty had undergone surgery. Beatty is mail carrier operating the star route between Canadian and Wheeler. Bill Gray served as substitute carrier during Beatty's absence.

The revival meeting at the Nazarene Church closed Sunday night, and Mrs. C. W. Brockmuller of Fort Collins, Colo. was the evangelist. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Forgy and daughters, Janet and Eleanor, attended the re-union of the R. T. Alexander families in Amarillo Sunday. Mrs. Forgy is a daughter of the R. T. Alexander.

Mrs. Carl Zytach, Mrs. John Q. Davidson and Mrs. Emma McCreath visited Mrs. Harry Rathjen near Wheeler Tuesday. Dr. Morris Bennet left Sunday morning for a deer and elk hunt in the hinterlands near Hayden, Colo.

Receipts at the Canadian post office for the first three quarters of 1953 were $16,213 — an increase of $23 over the same period in 1952, according to Paul Bryant, postmaster.

Palmer Black of Amarillo is to be the speaker at the meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Club in the dining room of the church Thursday at 7 p.m.

Glenn McCarthy Firm's Stock To Be Placed On Sale

HOUSTON, Oct. 22. —UP—The road to recovery for the "king of the wildcaters" — Glenn McCarthy — was considerably cleared Wednesday with announcement that stock in his new firm will go on sale next Tuesday.

B. V. Christie, head of a brokerage firm underwriting a million shares of the 10 million shares first offer, said approval to sell the stock in Texas had been granted this week by the secretary of state in Austin.

Earlier, it had met the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington. Christie said the prospectus was being sent to 4,300 members of the National Association of Security Dealers and to 200 dealers in Canada.

The firm plans to extend its operations into Canada and the United States. It will start its drilling in Bolivia where McCarthy has acquired a lease covering 970,000 acres of land in the Gran Chaco province.

McCarthy has been organizing the new concern for more than a year in an effort to recoup some of his losses during which control of many of his holdings passed to two insurance concerns on mortgages.

Claims Patients Held Illegally

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 21 —UP— by taking these women out for an —Willis Stark, Oklahoma City attorney, told the Oklahoma Supreme Court Tuesday 100 patients at Central State hospital, Norman, are held there illegally. He asked the court to free two of them in a test case.

In oral arguments before the court, Stark said the patients did not have representation at their sanity hearings and should be freed and given new hearings.

A. Wallace, assistant attorney general representing the hospital, charged Stark's petition for a writ of habeas corpus for the two Oklahoma City women in the case is "frivolous."

"He would disturb the hospitaling."

Tackles Yards Of Red Tape To Get U. S. To Drive Nail

By BERNARD BRENER
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 —UP— I guess I should have knocked that nail into the wall myself. Goodness knows I didn't want to put the government to all that trouble. I just wanted a nail in the wall over my desk in the Agriculture Department's press room so I could hang a small picture.

"We'll take care of it for you," an employe of the Department's information service said, early last week.

Takes Lots of Calls
She called a lady in another division of the information office, who called the Agriculture Department's plant and operations division.

But the plant and operations division wouldn't drive my nail because it's not in charge of driving nails in the wall. For that you've got to see the Agriculture Group of the Public Buildings Service of the General Services Administration.

One was white. The others were pink, blue, yellow and green. The white copy went to the receiving office of the AG of the PBS of the GSA. The yellow to the accounts-reports division of the AG etc. Blue and pink copies were sent to the carpenter shop.

The other day somebody from one of these offices called up to check the job order. We had a conference and agreed to date all five copies Oct. 15.

Estimated Cost $1
When the job's all done, the yellow copy will be sent back across the street from the accounts-reports division of the AG etc. To somebody in Agriculture Department. But the accounts-reports people won't be copy-less. They'll get the pink copy from the carpenter shop, which will keep the blue copy.

Then GSA will bill the agriculture department for the job. Estimated cost on the job order is $1.00. But if they can get all this paper work done for that, even forgetting the carpenter's time, it's not the nail and the pink, blue and white copies.

P.S.—There's no nail in the wall yet.

Teen-Agers Indicted On Bracero Case

PECOS, Tex., Oct. 22 —UP—A special Reeves county grand jury returned 11 indictments charging three teen-age Pecos youths with robbing Mexican workers with deadly weapons.

The youths are Paul Wayne Butler, 18; Lebourne Fields, 18, and Eugene Embry, 17. They allegedly instigated a reign of terror among alien cotton workers by beating and robbing three employes on Reeves county farms.

Butler and Fields were each indicted Tuesday night on three counts of robbery with a deadly weapon. Embry was indicted on five counts.

The three were held in the Reeves county jail, under bond of $2,000 on each count — a total of $6,000 each for Butler and Fields and $10,000 for Embry.

Reeves County Sheriff Charles Fitzgerald said the three confessed beating and stuffing dirt in the mouths of three braceros, then robbing them of a wrist watch and less than a dollar in change.

In addition, Fitzgerald said, Embry confessed participation in two earlier similar beatings and robberies, which accounted for the other two indictments returned against him.

Miss Mestre was scheduled to perform with other dancers at the

Phillips Cuts Gasoline Price

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., Oct. 22 —UP— Phillips Petroleum announced Wednesday it has cut posted prices for "cargo quantities" of regular gasoline and lower grades by 1-8 to 1/4 cents a gallon in the Gulf Coast area.

This marked the first change in posted prices for gasoline at the refinery since last June's increase, which followed a boost in the price of crude oil.

Meanwhile, at least one other major refinery and several independents in the Gulf Coast region were reported making similar revisions in gasoline prices. Premium grade gasoline, however, apparently is not affected by the move.

The price cut was made at a time when the nation's gasoline stocks are at a record high for this season of the year. The latest report showed that gasoline inventories totaled 142,517,000 barrels, or 21,807,000 higher than a year ago.

dedication of Falcon dam. Instead, she said she changed her mind and went to an ocean resort.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 —UP— Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson has decided to keep price supports on small grain crops at current high levels through 1954 to "help maintain farm income and economic stability."

In an announcement late Thursday, he said supports on oats, barley rye, and grain sorghums will be continued at 85 per cent of parity next year.

Supports on flaxseed will drop from 80 to 70 per cent of parity, however, because of surpluses of flaxseed and linseed oil.

Because of parity formula changes made by Congress, actual dollars-and-cents supports on all but rye will be lower next year. The national average oats support price will drop five cents to 75 cents a bushel; barley will drop nine cents to $1.15 a bushel; and grain sorghums 15 cents to 2.35 per 100 pounds.

Agriculture Department officials had indicated last week that supports on the grain crops would be reduced next year so as not to "encourage over-production" on acres diverted from wheat, corn and cotton controls.

But Benson apparently decided that the economic and political effects of lowered supports might be worse than over-production. Farmers have been hard hit by price declines and Republican strategists are anxious to avoid any appearance that the administration is hostile to price supports.

ARE YOU SAFE FROM THIS HIDDEN MENACE TO HEALTH?
 Chances are you don't even know what it is. Yet it's so prevalent ... and serious ... that it is a major topic in national magazines.
DO YOU
 • WAKE UP tired ... get up late and bolt your breakfast to get to work on time?
 • START TO SAG around four p. m. ... feel so drowsy, you can hardly keep your eyes open?
 • GET SCREAMING nerves when the children are rowdy? Does your housework "get you down"?
 • BEG OFF when your wife suggests a movie? So tired after your day's work you fall asleep over the paper?
 If vitamin and iron deficiency caused pain instead of negative symptoms like fatigue, nervousness and irritability people wouldn't have to be warned to do something about it!

Daniel Warns Of Likely 'Shakeup'

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22 —UP— Sen. Daniel (D-Tex.) said Wednesday "there'll be a shakeup of the department or a shakeup of the program" if Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson "continues to veer away from the price support program endorsed by (President) Eisenhower."

"The administration will never get a name of being successful if the farmers and ranchers are allowed to suffer as they are today," Daniel told a press conference.

"I think Benson's goal is to get the farmers to work out all right. But he'll have to do something to make the cattlemen have more confidence in his program."

Daniel said he was "strongly opposed" to Benson's plan for eliminating seven regional Soil Conservation Service offices, including that at Fort Worth, Tex.

"Mean a lot to farmers," he said. The regional offices "mean an awful lot" to farmers and soil conservation men, and declared "just the kind of program" if they are abandoned.

Daniel said Benson has made some statements "which have worried a lot of people."

He urged an expansion of the program of sending federally-purchased meat to foreign countries as a substitute for dollar aid.

"We should get more of these countries to take products we're long on," he said.

Aid would be eliminated Daniel also predicted "all direct foreign aid, excluding some military aid," will be eliminated when present legislation providing for it expires in order to balance the budget.

He said he believed there will be no change in military and arms aid abroad.

He said there was no doubt that the 10 per cent cut in personal income taxes and the elimination of the excess profits taxes will take effect next year as scheduled.

"But in order to balance the budget we must cut expenditures or get it elsewhere," he said. "We must look to some other form of tax."

He said he believes Texas is a Democratic state and "Texas Republicans are not going to win any BLOW HARD—It takes a lot of wind to get an oom-pah out of the bass horn Myra Seeborn, Coffeyville (Kans.) College student, is trying out. The horn is an object of interest in the classroom of William Sears, new director of instrumental music at the college. He acquired it after confiscation by American armed forces in Germany during World War II. The horn, manufactured in Innsbruck, Austria, was played by a member of the Nazi Youth Organization band prior to war.

Benson Replies To Criticisms

CHICAGO, Oct. 22 —UP— Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson said Wednesday some politicians are more "panicky" over the farm situation than the farmers, and he will give Congress "certain specific suggestions" in January for improving farm programs.

Benson, on the offensive against his critics, said in an address before the National Retail Farm Equipment Association:

"We are not interested in pleasing or replying to rabble rousers and demagogues." His statement was an apparent answer to demands in some quarters that he resign.

"We are concerned solely with doing what is good for agriculture," he said.

Sanatorium May Operate As Branch

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 —UP—The attorney general said Wednesday the San Antonio State Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Kerrville may be operated as a branch of the San Antonio State Tuberculosis hospital during the current fiscal year.

A ruling was returned by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd at the request of Dr. James A. Bethea, executive director of the board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

Shepperd said the Legislature appropriated funds for the Kerrville sanatorium's operation during the next fiscal year, ending Aug. 31, 1955, but did not do so for the current fiscal year—indicating "that it intends for the Kerrville sanatorium to be operated as a branch of the San Antonio hospital."

Prospects Better For Texas Wheat

AUSTIN, Oct. 22 —UP—Wheat prospects over the Texas Panhandle improved last week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported Wednesday.

In a weekly crop and weather bulletin, the USDA said moisture is now sufficient in those counties to germinate dry-seeded acreage and revive development of acreage already up. But additional rain is needed.

In the Low Plains and Plateau small grains planted prior to the early October rains were up to uniform stands and making good growth.

Over the eastern third of the state, harvest of cotton, sweet potatoes and peanuts made excellent progress but lack of moisture caused deterioration of pastures.

Dry Plant Grain
Dry-planting of small grain and winter cover crops continued in that area.

Good progress was made in harvesting cotton in all areas except a few northern counties of the Low Rolling Plains. In these counties, rains and high winds delayed harvest and beat out some cotton.

The pecan harvest was underway in a few areas, sweet potato progress continued active and the peanut harvest was in full swing.

Early-planted vegetables progressed satisfactorily and planting for later harvest was active in most fall and winter areas.

Retards Fruiting
"Moisture is adequate in most areas" but the wide daily range of temperatures retarded fruiting of tomatoes, particularly in the Laredo and Winter Garden areas.

Conditions were generally favorable for such crops as broccoli, beets, cabbage, spinach, cauliflower and carrots.

"Worms and insects damage continued heavy, however, particularly in the lower valley," the USDA said.

President Pulls Pair Of Boners

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22 —UP— President Eisenhower Wednesday gave Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson a new title and relocated the capital of Missouri.

Mr. Eisenhower in press conference remarks referred to Benson as "governor" and mentioned that the Missouri legislature is meeting in special session in the capital at "Springfield."

Benson has never been a governor. The capital of Missouri is Jefferson City.

American Assn. Of University Women Will Sponsor 'Robin Hood' Performances

Pampa American Association of University Women will sponsor the play "Robin Hood" at the Pampa Junior High School Auditorium Tuesday. An afternoon and evening performance will be given. Frank Phillips College Music and Drama departments will bring this tale of life for Pampa children and adults. Written by DeKoven, "Robin Hood" will be presented in Pampa under the combined direction of Mrs. Loma Groom Harrison, former Pampan, and Mrs. V. A. Mielka, head of the Pampa College music and drama departments, respectively.

Mrs. Loma Groom Harrison was the director of the Federated Club Chorus as well as a teacher in the local schools.

"Robin Hood" is the third production of the PFC Players. In past years they have presented "Hansel and Gretel" and "Snow White" to packed houses in Dumas, Sisseton, Phillips, Fritch, Sanford, Spring Creek and Borger.

Colorful scenery, the college octet and chorus, and the dramatic story of "Robin Hood" children and adults of those rare occasions for the whole family to enjoy an evening of entertainment together. Tickets will be sold at the door.

RUTH MILLET

"I long ago made up my mind that if John and I ever had any serious trouble I'd try to hold the marriage together, no matter what," a young married woman with three children recently remarked.

And then she added: "I hope I'd be mature enough to tell myself, 'We've had good years and we've been happy and I can certainly live through an unhappy time for the sake of keeping a home together for our children.'"

It's a pity that more wives don't face the possibility that trouble might come to their marriages with that kind of determination.

But instead all too many wives make up their minds that they would never put up with this or never stand for that.

They aren't realistic enough to see that it is easy for a woman who feels loved and appreciated and whose marriage is completely happy to be a good homemaker and mother. The real test of a woman's character and courage comes when life isn't so simple nor so rewarding.

It is then that she has a chance to prove whether or not she is mature enough to think in terms of family welfare rather than of personal pride.

A marriage has a far better chance of survival if the wife and mother vows she will not run out as soon as trouble looms. She must never look on divorce as a road of escape that is always open if things go wrong.

New BGK Members Are Presented At Formal Dance At Pampa Country Club Wednesday Evening

New members of the BGK Club were presented at a formal dance Wednesday evening at the Pampa Country Club. The new members presented were Mrs. Bill T. Braly, Mrs. Harold Haslam, Mrs. E. A. Johnson, Mrs. Bill Webster and Miss Sue Johnson.

A pumpkin house decorated the presentation hall. The house had a large picture window through which each new member was introduced by Mrs. Jack Foster. The tables had centerpieces of small pumpkins with autumn leaves and pampas grass. On each side of the entrance door, two tall shocks of broom corn tied with orange paper streamers.

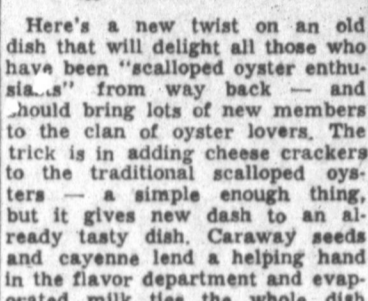

Mrs. Melvin Watkins, president, Mrs. Jack Foster, vice president, and Mrs. Ken Reeves greeted the guests and presented the new members with a small gold mium tied with purple ribbon.

About 200 guests were present.

Cook's Nook

Here's a new twist on an old dish that will delight all those who have been "scalloped oyster enthusiasts" from way back — and should bring lots of new members to the clan of oyster lovers. The trick is in adding cheese crackers to the traditional scalloped oysters — a simple enough thing, but it gives new dash to an already tasty dish. Caraway seeds and cayenne lend a helping hand in the flavor department and evaporated milk ties the whole dish together with creamy richness.

Savory Scalloped Oysters
1 pint oysters
2 cups cheese cracker crumbs
¼ cup melted butter
1 teaspoon ground caraway seed
Salt and pepper
Dash of cayenne
1 ½ cups evaporated milk
Cheese crackers

Pick over oysters and strain liquid to remove bits of shell. Blend crumbs, butter and caraway seed. Cover the bottom of a greased 1½ quart baking dish with about 1-3 of the crumbs. Place a layer of oysters on the crumbs. Sprinkle sparingly with pepper and cayenne. Repeat with layer of crumb then oysters and seasonings, and top with remaining crumbs. Pour milk and oyster liquid over ingredients in baking dish. Tuck whole cheese crackers upright around inside of baking dish to form scalloped edge. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 25 minutes. Make 6 servings.

Careful Packing Is Great Problem For Big Weekend

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

While this year's vacation is already a memory for most people, weekenders keeps the packing problem before us.

Actually, the week end jaunt presents the greatest problem. The smart girl is determined to go fully equipped but unencumbered. So into her weekend case go all the grooming aids that would accompany her on a vacation trip.

She'll manage this by very careful packing and by toting small amounts of her beauty aids whenever possible.

Heavy items like shoes should go to the bottom of the case. By the way, don't overlook the possibility of the shoe. Numerous tiny items can be carried inside each one. Instead of using tissue paper to separate layers of clothing, use the plastic bags that hold your lingerie, handkerchiefs and sweaters.

Your beauty preparations can be poured into plastic bottles that take up little room besides eliminating breakage worries. And leave that cumbersome box of dusting powder at home and pack a slim bottle of talc instead. One that comes in a plastic container will guard against the mess of powder spillage.

Dear Grace
Your column is most interesting and informative. I sincerely hope it will live forever.

Will you please advise me as to where I may obtain the necessary and latest information regarding making out one's income tax report?

Thank you kindly.
E. M.

Dear E. M.
You can get help at the office of the collector of internal revenue. For the address of the one nearest you look under United States Government, with treasury department subhead in your telephone book.

If you want to hire an expert to make out your income tax for you look in the yellow pages of the phone book under Tax Return Preparation.

HIGH SCHOOL DATES
Dear Mrs. Friend
Do you feel that it is all right for young high school students to date for school affairs such as football games and dances?

We have never allowed our 14 year old daughter to go out with boys unchaperoned but she assures us that her friends in her class at high school do date—for school events if nothing else.

Mrs. O.
Dear Mrs. O.
Most high school girls of 14 do date for school affairs if not for other events. Most of them are allowed to go to movies on dates etc.

However, whether your daughter is old enough or not depends on her. Is she mature for her age? Does she accept her share of responsibility? You should know whether she is ready for dating. If she is average, then she should be allowed to go with boys to school events.

Talk the matter over with her when you do allow dates and set a reasonable hour for her return. Also make sure of her destination. You have a right to know where she is going and when she will return.

HEM LINES
Dear Grace Friend
What about all this talk on hem lines? Some say they are the same and some say they should be shorter.

—What do you think is the best length?
Freda
Dear Freda
Just recently I read a comment on hemlines by Max Factor, Jr., Hollywood beauty expert, which expresses my feelings on the matter. He said,
"Gauge your hemline to the shape of your legs. The best one for you is not necessarily what the yardstick says. What speaks louder and more in favor is the hemline that catches your leg just before it spreads at the calf. A skirt longer than that can make a girl look dowdy; shorter than that, makes her underpinnings look less than glamerous."

Liar's License Not Passport -- Nichols

By IARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—UP—
I am now holder of a Texas liar's license, but, as always, Texas holds the six-gun hand.

It seems, according to my contract I can lie about almost everything but Texas, where lying is a sin and a disgrace "to the best state in the nation, for that's no lie."

That limits my activities in the lying business.

Can Do Lies
The card, which I am to carry until a six-gun bores me through and down, says that I am authorized "concerning business, women, fishing, the weather, and subjects various and sundry, to prevaricate, equivocate, exaggerate, fabricate, simulate, adulterate,
counterfeit, magnify, amplify, falsify, palter, perjure, disguise, defraud, deceive, hoodwink, jockey,
gloss over, hoax, dupe, fake, sham,
forge, cheat, gyp, garble, quibble, bamboozle, beguile, blow hot and cold, bat around the bush, and to tell little lies, big lies, white lies,
black lies, damn lies, and distort facts otherwise."

On looking back over my commitments, I'm not sure that the contract is strictly legal. It seems to me there are laws against hoaxing, duping, and falsifying
among other things.

Doesn't Mind White Lies
My contract, with a card to carry in the wallet, came from Ernie Deane, editor and general manager of the Mexico (Tex.) Daily News, who always is thinking up ways to get people in trouble, like making them admirals in the Confederate
Navy.

I don't mind telling a white one here and there, but my license is no passport. It does not mean that I can cross the border into Texas to see these new laws against
"The Eyes of Texas," and was informed by certain Texans, who didn't care for that piece, my presence elsewhere suited them fine—and permanently.

So I now start trying to make amends by telling the people that Texas has everything.

Does He Go Too Far?
Unless Alaska becomes a state,
Texas remains the biggest state in the union.

No Comment On Sale Of Hydrocol

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—UP—Guy
G. Gabrielson, ex-GOP chairman and president of Carthage - Hydrocol Corp., maintained a "no comment" attitude Wednesday on rumors that his company was being sold.

Gabrielson, who would say only that the firm was "in the process of reorganization," pointed out that he is its president and has
"no financial interest" in the company. Therefore, he said, he was "not in a position to discuss rumors" that Standard Oil Co. (Ind.)
was about to buy it.

Texas Company, which has 48
per cent of the Carthage - Hydrocol stock, revealed through a spokesman that it was checking "to no avail" dozens of rumors of the sale, emanating from Brownsville,
Tex., for the past three months.

Wilson Back From Meet In Amarillo

County Auditor Ray Wilson this morning was back in his office,
following his appearance in Amarillo at the annual meeting of the Texas Association of County Auditors.

On hand Tuesday afternoon, Wilson helped lead a panel on the discussion of the application of fall tax collections. Co-leader was Andrew Ditter, Wharton county auditor.

Today was to be the last day of the affair but Wilson did not expect to attend.

This was the first time that the meeting had been held in this part of the state, Wilson said, adding that only about half of Texas counties have county auditors.

Dudley Misses Workout As Harvesters Prep For Eagles

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa victory hopes in tomorrow night's crucial tilt with the dangerous Abilene Eagles received a severe jolt yesterday when halfback Ed Dudley was ordered to bed.

Dudley, who leads the Harvesters in several offensive departments, was reported ill by Coach Tom Tipps and was held out of the workout yesterday for the first time this season.

Dudley, however, is expected to be on hand for tomorrow night's clash with Abilene but he won't be in top condition.

Tipps counted numerous other minor injuries that have cropped up since the San Angelo game following yesterday's workout. "Bruises, sprained ankles, knocked-down shoulders, you name 'em and we got 'em," is the way the Harvesters' mentor put it.

However, the only player sure to miss Friday's game will be Bobby Marlar, out for the season with a broken collar bone. Missing yesterday's workout in addition to Dudley and Marlar was reserve halfback Jackie Edwards.

But, regardless of whether all are on hand for tomorrow's game, the Harvesters will possibly be in their worst physical shape this season.

Coach Tipps and his aids have been drilling the Harvesters hard this week in getting them ready for the Abilene Eagle invasion tomorrow. Tuesday's workout lasted until after dark, the Harvesters finishing the drill under the lights.

The Harvesters then went through a 2 1/2-hour drill yesterday. A light session is slated today.

Feature Schoolboy Tilts In Triple-A

By DICK HARDWICK
United Press Sports Writer

The Class AAA division takes the schoolboy football spotlight from the larger schools of Class AAAA this weekend with a coastal area game matching two unbeaten, untied teams.

The big one is Edinburg at Kingsville Friday night in a game that may decide the 8-AAA champion. Edinburg has won six games, three in the district, and piled up 209 points to 45 for its opponents. Kingsville has five victories with two in district play and has a combined total of 186 points to 28 for the opposition.

San Antonio Edison, the district champion last year, meets San Antonio Burbank. However, Lamar and Edison should have little trouble with their opponents as both Milby and Burbank have found the path rocky this year.

Two Class AA games Friday night will draw as much interest from the fans of that division as the four teams involved all have unbeaten records. One is in 9-AA where unbeaten, untied Weatherford hosts once-tied Mineral Wells, and the other is in 30-AA, where unbeaten and untied Yoakum and Refugio meet at Refugio.

Two games in Class A, both matching unbeaten East Texas teams, take the center of the stage. Unbeaten - untied Gaston meets twice-tied Overton in a district 17-A encounter Saturday night, and Van Alstyne and Cooper, boasting identical 4-0-1 won-loss-tied records, clash for the 13-A leadership Friday night.

Two top Class AAAA games Friday night find Odessa, with a 2-0 1-AAAA district record and a win over defending state champion Lubbock, at Amarillo, 1-1 in the district, and in 8-AAAA, Orange, unbeaten, meets Corpus Christi Miller last week, at Baytown, whose record is 3-2.

Lubbock hosts once-beaten Midland in a 1-AAAA game and Breckenridge, the defending state AAAA champion, entertains another Class AAAA game, all district affairs Friday night, Pleasant Grove plays at Cleburne in 2-AAA; unbeaten Sherman at McKinney in 3-AAA; and Texarkana at Nacogdoches in 4-AAA.

Terrell, the Class AA state champion, opens defense of its 13-AA district title against once-beaten Willis Point at Terrell, and Wink, the Class A state champ, meets its first 5-AA district opponent in Big Lake.

Other Class AAAA games Thursday night, all district matches, include El Paso Jefferson at Ysleta; Fort Worth Tech at Fort Worth Arlington Heights; and Dallas Forest at Dallas Crozier Tech.

In Class AA, only two games are on tap Thursday night, both in 12-AA - unbeaten but once-tied Carrollton at Mesquite and Lancaster at Seagoville.

In Class A, Thursday night's games are Rockwall at Duncanville, Richardson at Plano and Kausan at Wilmer. Hutchins, all 12-A district games, and a non-district game between Shelbyville and Timpson.

Reapers Meet Nixon Today

The Pampa Reapers were in Amarillo today to contest Elizabeth Nixon in a Panhandle Junior High Conference game.

Both teams will be seeking their first win in the conference play. Coach Marvin Bowman's Reapers have gained only a tie in four conference tilts. Nixon has been defeated in each of its four conference games.

Sam Houston of Amarillo and Phillips pose the PHJC with 4-0 records.

Following is the Panhandle Junior High Conference standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pts.	Opp.
Sam Houston	4	0	0	67	0
Phillips	3	1	0	33	24
Austin	3	1	0	68	39
Dumas	3	1	0	68	39
Horsace	2	3	0	20	77
Pampa	0	3	1	20	77
Nixon	0	4	0	6	85
Borger	0	4	0	6	85

to The Pampa News statistical figures following is the Harvesters' statistical data for the season:

Player	To	Yd	Net	Av.

Longhorn Due To Accept WT-NM All-Star Challenge

ABILENE, Tex., Oct. 22 —UP— The Longhorn League will consider post-season all-star play with the West Texas New Mexico League, expansion of membership from six to eight clubs, and player rules in a fall meeting this Sunday at Odessa, Tex.

President Hal Sayles of the Class C baseball loop and Hobbs, N.M., chairman of the meeting, is sending a delegation to the meeting, and El Paso may send a group, Sayles said.

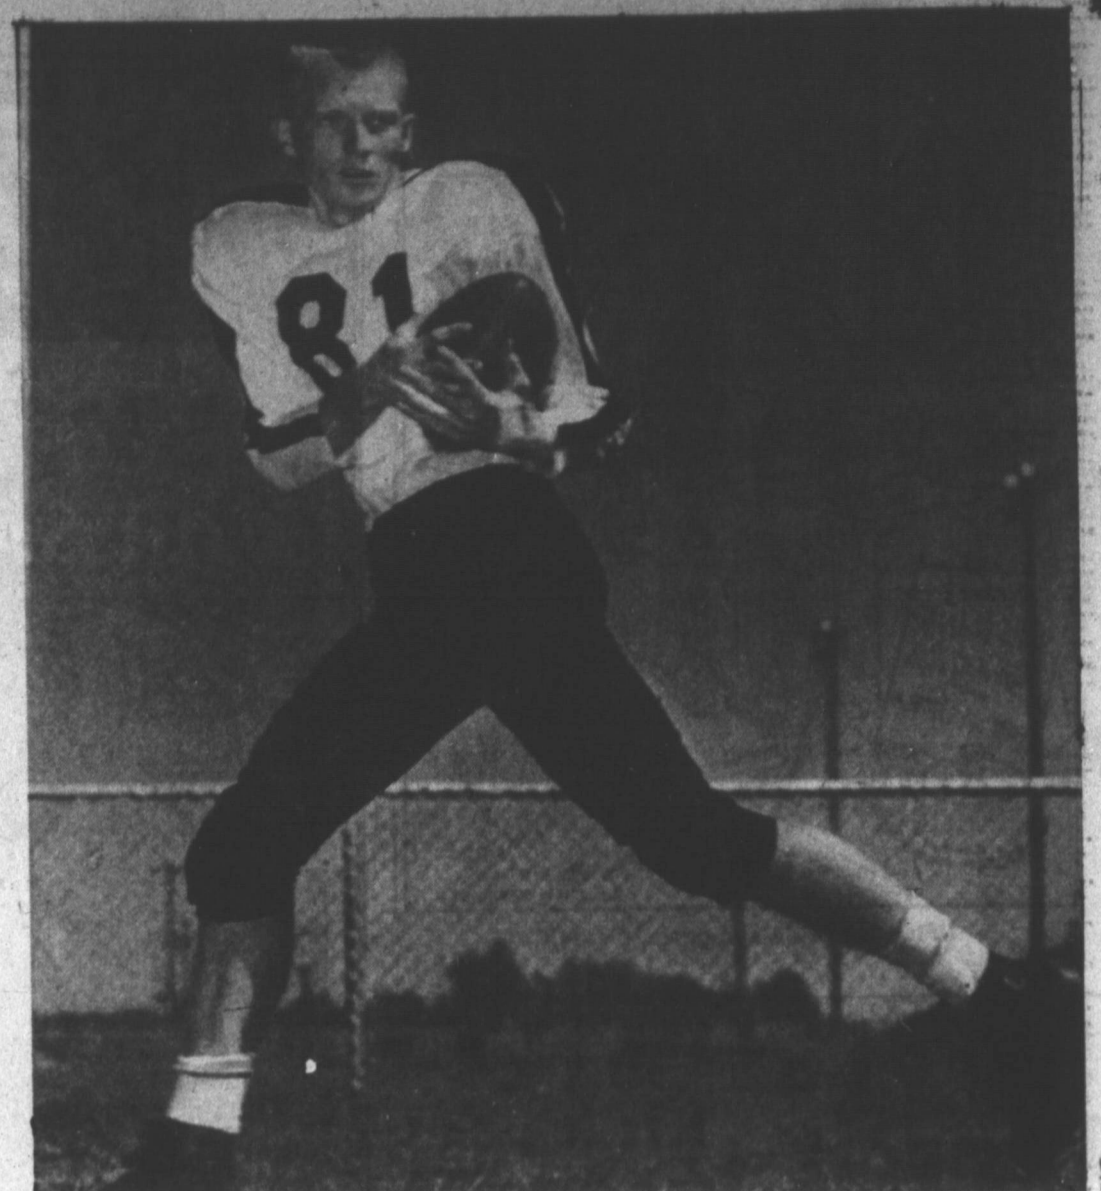

El Paso is now in the Arizona-Texas League and would have to get permission to drop from that loop before it could receive a bid.

The Longhorn League members in the 1953 season were Artesia, Carlsbad, and Roswell, N. M., and Midland, Odessa and San Angelo, Tex.

Sayles said several clubs indicated they would seek to reduce the player limit from 16 to 15, and request a rule requiring use of more rookies. The league now requires use of three rookies.

The West Texas - New Mexico league already has approved a post-season playoff with the Longhorn League.

Williamson Picks Eagles To Down PHS

The Williamson System picks the Abilene Eagles to win tomorrow night's game from the Pampa Harvesters when the two teams clash at Harvester Park in a crucial District 1-AAAA contest.

It is the first time this year that the Harvesters have been picked to lose by the Williamson System.

In other 1-4A contests tomorrow, Williamson chooses Odessa over Amarillo, San Angelo over Borger and Lubbock over Midland.

In other games, Williamson picks Shamrock to beat Canyon, McLennan to defeat Canadian, Memphis to whip White Deer and Lefors to tame Panhandle.

Williamson is batting 74.5 for the year. He has predicted 1,011 Texas schoolboy games this season and has named the winner on 738 with 21 others being tie games.

Following are Williamson's predictions this week in the Class AAAA and AAA ranks:

33 Eagles Embark Today For Pampa

By JACK HOLDEN
Sports Editor
Abilene Reporter-News

ABILENE, Oct. 22 — Coach Chuck Moser's Abilene Eagles, 33 strong, were to leave at noon Thursday for their Friday date with Pampa, minus the services of a top end, Ray Fraser.

Fraser, best defensive end on the World War team, dislocated a shoulder in practice Wednesday afternoon. The injury will put Fraser out of action from three to four weeks.

The Eagles will spend Thursday night in Childress and will undergo a light workout there Thursday afternoon. At 8 a.m. Friday the team will continue the trip to Pampa, arriving at the host city around noon.

Moser said Fraser's loss would certainly be felt. "It will really hurt us at the wing spot. He is our best blocking and best defensive end."

Another top Eagle, tackle Dan Boyd, has been out of practice this week with intestinal flu and is doubtful starter against the Harvesters, Moser said.

Bobby Jack Oliver one of the tri-captains who suffered a knee injury against Odessa, will be ready.

Moser indicated the Eagles aren't geared as high for the Pampa contest as they were for the Odessa battle. "It may hurt us, too," he said.

On the eve of departure Moser said he was undecided about using a big scale aerial attack against Pampa.

"Our biggest problem is stopping the best backfield combination in the state of Texas," Moser said.

Olson Easily Outpoints Turpin Gavilan May Get First Shot At Olson's M'weight Crown

By JACK CUDDY
NEW YORK, Oct. 22 —UP— Carl (Bobo) Olson, the brand new middleweight champion who certainly proved he "knew the ropes" against Randy Turpin, invited Kid Gavilan of Cuba Thursday to be the first challenger for his shiny crown.

Hawaiian-born Olson of San Francisco won the vacant 160-pound crown on a unanimous 15-round decision before 18,869 in Madison Square Garden Wednesday night chiefly by bulling Turpin of England into the ropes and hammering him there like a punching bag.

Probably never in any previous title fight in any division has a contender appeared so amazingly helpless when penned against the ropes as Turpin did while fighting for the crown left vacant by Sugar Ray Robinson's retirement last December.

"Battered 16—Times

On 15 different occasions the English Negro was backed into the ropes and into corners and subjected to a battering while he stood there with his hands almost at his sides and rolling his head from side to side.

During two of those batterings on the strands, Turpin, who formerly was the world crown and is currently champion of Europe—was blasted to the canvas by his comparatively light-hitting opponent.

Randy, 25, apparently was saved by the bell in the ninth round, Olson, also 25, dropped him with a straight right to the chin. The count reached "five" when the bell rang. Referee Al Berl helped Randy off the floor and to his corner.

Turpin Dropped in 10th

Dr. Vincent Nardello examined Turpin in the corner and permitted the bout to continue.

In the 10th round, a left-hook dropped Turpin to the floor for a count of nine. When he rose he was battered about by the ring by Olson, who "punched himself out" and was unable to dispose of the lurching Englishman.

Olson and Manager Sid Flaherty agreed they saw no good reason for giving Turpin a return bout. Instead they said welterweight Kid Gavilan would be an ideal challenger if he keeps his crown against Johnny Bratton at Chicago, Nov. 15.

Turpin Cries After Fight

Gavilan has been having difficulties paring down to the 147-pound limit, and he has a yen for a shot at Olson's 160-pound crown.

Flaherty said, "Bobo and Gavilan would draw a big gate if the fight could be staged in San Francisco." Olson, son of a Honolulu narcotics agent, lives in San Francisco now with his wife and three children.

Turpin, who shed bitter tears after his unsuccessful attempt to recapture the title, said he would relish a return bout with Bobo. "If I had been in my natural mental state, I could have stopped him about the eighth round," he declared. "But I've had so many personal troubles lately, I wasn't myself."

One of the troubles was his being named co-respondent in an English divorce suit Wednesday.

Randy Opened Fast

Turpin, unusually light at 137 pounds, did not bite me weight-making for his defeat, Olson registered 109-1-2 pounds.

Randy—stronger, rangier and more explosive than his baldish opponent—started off as if to stop Bobo in short order. He gave Bobo a thorough trouncing in the first three rounds with his lunging left jabs and long left hooks.

But Bobo began to take command in the fourth, with his sliding-in attack and his combinations of hooks to body and head. He gashed Randy's left cheek with a hard right in that session. On the United Press score sheet, Turpin did not win another round until the eighth, when he staggered Bobo with a long right to the chin. He battered Bobo for a full minute but could not put him down.

Canadian, McLean White Deer In 1-A Headliner

CANADIAN, Oct. 22 — The Canadian Wildcats will be on the rebound this week when they take the field here tomorrow night to meet the pace setting McLean Tigers in a vital District 1-A grid contest. The Wildcats suffered their first 1-A loss last week in bowing to Memphis, 14-6, at Memphis. A Wildcat loss tomorrow night will virtually eliminate the Canadians from the title race. Coach Hag Rogers' Tiger 11 have romped through a five-game schedule to date unbeaten and untied. One of the wins was a 1-A contest. The Tigers trounced Panhandle, 39-6, last week in their only district game to date. Tomorrow night's game here may develop into a scoring duel. McLean, in sweeping through its five games this season, has put 184 points on the scoreboard, an average of 36.8 per game. Canadian, a six games, has tallied 176 points or a 29.3 average per tilt. The Wildcats have won four and lost two for the season. In district play, Canadian has a 1-1 record.

Renew Rivalry Saturday K-State, Wichita Eye Win Records

By BILL ROSENTRATER KANSAS CITY, Oct. 22 — UP— Two teams which long have been struggling to get a portion of the football spotlight, and which have aroused followers in the Midlands with surprising showings this season, renew an old rivalry Saturday in Manhattan, Kan. It will be Kansas State, the whoop-and-holler team of the Big Seven to date, against Wichita, rejuvenated member of the Missouri Valley Conference. Kansas State has a better record (4-1-0) than Wichita (3-2-0), but in each case the 1953 teams already have accomplished more than was anticipated and considerably more than K-State and Wichita teams of the past several years.

Wichita, similarly, has shown greater power in the backfield, featuring Bob Burton, Chuck Hollmer and Ray Coleman. So Saturday's outcome will be decided on an spirited showing up front. The defensive-offensive records of the two teams are well balanced with K-State having scored 115 points to the opponents' 28, whereas Wichita has scored 138 to 40 for its rivals. The rivalry, with intermittent breaks, ranks among the oldest in the Midlands. The teams first met in 1900, but this week's clash will be their first since 1950, when the game ended in a 6-6 tie. Overall, Kansas State has won 12, tied 2 and lost 3. Elsewhere in the Midlands, Oklahoma is favored to beat Colorado, SMU is the choice over Kansas, and Missouri is expected to rebound at Nebraska's expense in featured contests. Iowa State, upset victory over Missouri last week, invades Des Moines to oppose a weak Drake and Oklahoma A&M, the No. 1 choice to win its first Valley crown since 1948, tackles Detroit at Detroit.

Austin College Forced To Forfeit Game To H-Payne

ABILENE, Tex., Oct. 22 — UP— Two ineligible players have cost Austin College its first Texas Conference victory of the season — a 26-20 win over Howard Payne last Saturday. Texas Conference President Jerome Vannoy ordered the game forfeited to Howard Payne Wednesday after conference faculty representatives voted 4 to 1 in favor of the forfeit. The players in question are Fullback Billy Bookout, former University of Oklahoma player, and Center Jack Taylor, who transferred to Austin College from the University of Texas. Bookout was an all-conference back last season, but Taylor entered the Sherman school only this year. Vannoy said both Bookout and Taylor competed both as freshmen and sophomores at Oklahoma and Texas and were therefore ineligible to participate in Texas Conference athletics. He said Austin College was notified before the Howard Payne game that some action might result in Bookout and Taylor being used. Vannoy declined to comment further, except to say, "I have examined Howard Payne's protest in regard to the ineligibility of these two boys, have found it valid and have declared the game forfeited."

Irish Meet Canyon In Third 1-AA Tilt

SHAMROCK, Oct. 22 — The Shamrock Irish, stunned somewhat by failing to stop the Dalhart winning streak last week, will take on the Canyon Eagles tomorrow night in their third District 1-AA game of the season. The loss last week to Dalhart was the first for the Irish in two 1-AA starts. Previously the Irish had trimmed Hereford, 25-19. Coach Scott McCall's Irish will be slight favorites to down Canyon tomorrow night but the Eagles have had a week's rest since their last game and may prove tough to beat in Friday's contest here. In one respect, Canyon holds a slight edge over the Irish. Canyon bowed to Dalhart, 13-7, while Shamrock lost to the same team, 26-13. The Dalhart game is the only 1-AA game played by the Eagles. Canyon has won three out of five games for the season while Shamrock has won two out of five. Canyon owns the best mark in scoring and in defense but the Irish have encountered tougher opposition. The Eagles have scored 83 points to the opponents' 76. Shamrock has put 88 points on the scoreboard and has given up 111.

Jack York will lead the Irish tomorrow night in their clash with

Bucs Return To Action; Host Panthers

LEFORS, Oct. 22 — Coach H. W. Callan's Lefors Pirates, after a week's rest, will resume action here tomorrow night when they play hosts to the Panhandle Panthers in a District 1-A contest. The Pirates are unbeaten in district play. In their only 1-A tilt to date, they tied Memphis, 6-6. Panhandle, after winning its 1-A opener from Clarendon, 26-6, two weeks ago, was snubbed under a potent McLean team last week, 39-6, leaving the Pirates with a 2-1 district mark. Lefors pins its victory hopes on a stout defense. The Pirates have yielded only 28 points to five opponents. On the other hand, the Pirates have only scored 31 points themselves.

Both teams, however, stack up well defensively. McLean has allowed its five foes only 25 points which is less than a touchdown per game. Canadian has yielded 71 points in six games for a 11.8 average. The two teams are loaded with standout ball players. In fact, four of the top five scorers in the district will be seen in action when the Wildcats and Tigers clash. Canadian's Dean Hoover leads the 1-A scoring with 61 points. Hoover's teammate, Pat Tipps, is the third top point maker with 50 points. McLean's touchdown twins, Don Crockett and Rickey Mantooth, rounds out the top five scorers. Crockett has 49 points this season while Mantooth is one point back at 48. McLean will take the field tomorrow night as the favorite but the Wildcats are not to be counted out. The Cats will be playing before their home fans and will be going all out to retain their chances at the 1-A pennant. In last year's game between the two clubs, McLean won by a 19-6 count.

White Deer, after absorbing a 39-7 loss at the hands of Canadian in the first 1-A tilt, bounced back last week to trounce Clarendon, 35-12. But Memphis, by virtue of its 14-6 win over Canadian last week, will be tomorrow's favorite. In comparing the two games with Canadian, the Cyclones will rule a 34-point choice. Memphis will be led by its star halfback, Duke Frisbie. Frisbie tops the Cyclone scoring with 31 points and handles the team's passing chores. The Eller twins, Roy and Ray, spark the White Deer offense. Roy has scored 33 points for the Bucks to lead them in scoring. The two teams did not meet last year.

Panhandle will have the edge on the Pirates offensively but Lefors holds a wide edge defensively. The Panthers have registered 110 points in six games but have had 124 points scored against them. Lefors will carry a 2-2-1 record into the game (two wins, two losses and one tie) while Panhandle owns a 2-3-1 slate.

Texas Loop To Play 161 Games In 1954

DALLAS, Oct. 20 — UP— Some radical changes in the 1954 Texas League schedule were made Tuesday by directors, who appeared more optimistic about next season's financial outlook for the baseball loop. The directors, at their annual fall meeting Monday, made the changes in hope of improving attendance next year. Each team will have three road trips, instead of four as this year, with a four-game series prevailing instead of three. Teams will continue playing 11 home games and 11 on the road against each opposing club, but the schedule will be drawn on a series arrangement of 4-4-3 instead of 3-3-2 as this year. Four extra doubleheaders were inserted into the 1954 schedule, increasing it to 161 games instead of last season's 154. The 19-player limit was retained, but clubs must pare their rosters down to a 22-player, instead of 27, maximum by opening day. Part of the directors' optimism toward next season was based on the improved financial condition of two clubs in the circuit. Beaumont and San Antonio had a bleak outlook when the 1953 season opened. However, the directors felt Beaumont's financial condition was better under its new president, Allen Russell, and San Antonio's condition would improve under Baltimore, where the Mission's parent club was moved from St. Louis. The directors moved to help independent teams by voting each club must count, in its salary limit, all the salary of optioned players. They said it would prevent chain clubs from getting the advantage of players paid by a parent organization. Houston President Art Rutzong received unanimous support from other league members to give the minor league convention to Houston next year. The convention will be in Atlanta in December this year. The 1954 season will run between

You Be The Quarterback

By WARREN GAER
Head Football Coach, Drake University

It is Texas A. and M.'s ball on its own 35, second down and five with two minutes of the third quarter remaining. Baylor leads, 20 to 12. Baylor's right half suffered a leg injury shortly after the beginning of the quarter and has contributed little to the defense. Texas A. and M. has advanced the ball to its own 35 from its 10 by running inside the Baylor tackles for two first downs in seven plays. As the Aggie quarterback, rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4 for this spot: Quick kick. Pass behind the defensive right half. Trap on left tackle and drive inside him (play in which tackle is allowed to come through, then blocked).

Camel's Grave Is Landmark In Western Australia Desert

PERTH, Australia, Oct. 21—UP—Giles was a hardy pioneer surveyor whose trips through Australia's dead heart in the 1870s filled in thousands of square miles on the map.

It is perhaps 200 miles from the habitation of the nearest white man and has been seen by only a handful of living people by those nomadic aborigines who somehow keep alive in a land where water-holes are several days' walk apart and where the white man's eyes see nothing to keep a man alive.

Buzoe's Grave was therefore a forgotten landmark until a query was recently received from a geographer in the United States asking about the origin of the name.

Not on Australian Maps

Investigation showed the place was marked on American maps of Western Australia, but not on Australian maps.

The West Australian lands department became interested and a search of old records revealed that Buzoe was a camel—one of the first camels imported from India to South Australia.

Camels now roam wild in Australia's open spaces. At Maree in far northern South Australia, the civil aviation department recently built a six-foot fence 16,740 feet long to keep camels off the local landing field.

Camel Round-ups

Nearby graziers organize shooting parties to destroy the camels or round them up for shipment to zoos in the United States and elsewhere.

Buzoe was used as a riding beast by a man named Ross, who was a member of the party of South Australian explorer Ernest Giles.

A correspondent to the Perth newspaper, the West Australian, filled in the details about Buzoe for the lands department. It appears the Giles expedition had travelled about 200 miles of waterless, featureless waste when they came to a "small watercourse with a few white gum trees."

When they dug into the dry water course they found a slight soaking of water and were able to give their camels a much-needed drink.

"And it was here," the correspondent wrote, "that poor Buzoe lay down and died from sheer old age; and that was June 18, 1876."

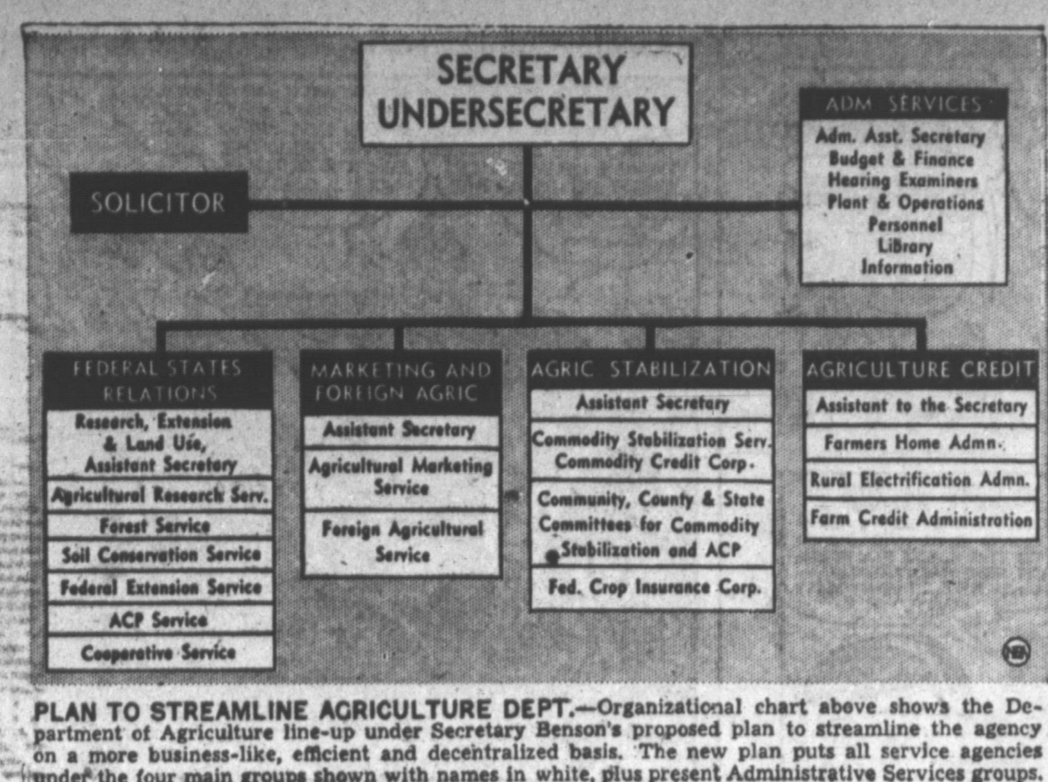

The lands department has decided Buzoe's Grave will appear on future official maps of Western Australia.

And so the camels have received a belated memorial for the work they did in exploring the arid backblocks of Western Australia and then helping to open them up.

High-Paid Sweeper

CARBONDALE, Ill., Oct. 22—UP—Lawrence Rushing, a street sweeper, was the highest-paid man on the city payroll.

Working at the rate of $1.40 per hour, he earned $386 last month. His boss, Street Superintendent Ral Curtis, made $250, and the city's highest-salaried employe, Police Chief Harold Peterson, earned $335.

Rare Disease Reported

DALLAS, Oct. 22—UP—Six cases of a rare disease known as infectious hepatitis, a virus infection of the liver, have been reported at Rowlett school in Dallas county within the past two weeks.

Dr. J. M. Pickard, Dallas county health officer, said the victims, all but one of them children, were sent to bed and treated with gamma globulin.

'Little Fellow' Pays Tax Load

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—UP—The safest bet on new taxes to be levied next year toward balancing the budget is that the little fellow will pay most of the bill and the Treasury will remain in the red.

The little man's share of the new burden will vary somewhat according to the type of taxes imposed. It is argued a retail sales tax would take the most skin off him.

The little fellow is the taxpayer with $1,000 to $5,000 a year gross income. He pays the most because there are so many of him—35,880,777 according to Treasury records. Taxpayers in the $5,000 and up brackets number 8,326,711. Whether it be a retail sales tax or a manufacturers' excise tax, the comparatively few in the higher brackets cannot consume and pay excise or sales taxes on as many articles as the multitude below.

President Against Sales Tax

The administration does not want to hear what politicians believe the little fellows would say if subjected to a federal retail sales tax. Therefore President Eisenhower ruled against a retail sales tax. There had been a flurry of talk about it and the Democrats were beginning to hit the administration where it hurt.

It is often argued a general federal retail sales tax would wreck the political party imposing it. This belief never has been tested.

When Mr. Eisenhower barred a sales tax, he left the door open for a general manufacturers' excise tax to raise new revenue. Such are largely hidden taxes which the consumer often pays without knowing it. The tax is paid by the original maker of the goods. The rate might be six or seven per cent right across the board, excluding food, medicines and clothing.

Selective Excise Taxation

The word now, however, is that thinking in terms of more selective manufacturers' excise taxation, a reshuffling of some of the present rates among the many imposed on such articles as matches, automobiles, household appliances, cameras and films, sporting goods, alcoholic beverages and numerous other items.

And new articles would be subjected to these taxes, perhaps children, glassware and furniture. In addition there are some direct federal retail sales taxes, like those on cosmetics, jewelry and telephone and telegraph service.

Just why the taxpayer is expected to accept without rebellion a 10 per cent or greater manufacturers' excise tax on something he wants and buys, but is expected to explode in anger against a five or six per cent general retail sales tax slug is not easily explained. But that is the political theory. It may be wrong.

Tax Cut Seen By Humphrey

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22—UP—Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey says the Eisenhower administration is "determined" to reduce taxes as soon as possible.

"The reduction of taxes is a determined purpose of this administration," he told a 100-plate dinner sponsored by the San Francisco Republican finance committee Tuesday night.

"The sooner it is done, the sooner the consuming community can quicken its demands upon the productive capacity of the whole nation."

However, he indicated that before taxes can be reduced, the threat of aggression with its consequent necessity of huge defense expenditures must recede.

He also said the nation needs an adequate "elastic" defense rather than a "massive" arms program that might exhaust its productive strength. The nation's greatest defense, he said, "is the power and potential of American mass production."

He called it a "false question" to ask whether adequate defense or a balanced budget comes first.

Haymes, Rita Get Mexican Offer

HOUSTON, Oct. 22—UP—Dick Haymes and wife Rita Hayworth disclosed Wednesday they had received a $500,000 offer, plus a percentage, to co-star in a motion picture filmed in Mexico.

The crooner and his actress wife said they were "flattered" by the offer and admitted it might solve some of their financial problems.

But a spokesman pointed out they would have to confer with attorneys on certain legal aspects and possibly await the outcome of a deportation hearing for Haymes before the offer could be accepted or turned down.

Haymes, who owes nearly $80,000 in back income taxes, leaves here next week for an Oct. 28 hearing in Los Angeles to see whether he is to be deported as an alien.

Fort Worth Bans Outdoor Ice Boxes

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22—UP—The Fort Worth city council Wednesday passed an ordinance providing for a fine up to $100 for owners of unused ice boxes found outdoors without the latches removed.

More than a score of children across the nation have suffocated after climbing into abandoned ice boxes and becoming trapped during play.

Godfrey Fires 2 Performers

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—UP—Radio and television star Arthur Godfrey said Wednesday that he fired some of his star performers because they lost the "humility" that gave them appeal to his audience.

The freckle-faced performer denied rumors that backstage love affairs had split his troupe of "Little Godfreys."

"Absolutely nothing to it," he said of these rumors.

Godfrey reviewed developments which led to the dismissal this week of singer Julius LaRosa and the suspension from all but one of Godfrey's three shows of band leader Archie Bleyer.

"I began to see that boy change," Godfrey said, referring to LaRosa, whom he discovered three years ago on a Navy carrier at Pensacola. "He lost that humility. He lost that wonderful quality that I bought in him. I've seen it happen before, and I warned him against it."

Godfrey said "the straw that broke the back" was the news he received last Friday that LaRosa had signed a contract with the General Artists Corp. which is said to promise him "no less than $100,000 a year."

Bleyer will lead the orchestra only on Godfrey's "talent scouts" program.

"He had personal problems which I understood," Godfrey said, recalling a divorce suit earlier this year in which Bleyer's wife named a member of Godfrey's feminine singing quartet in the testimony. "But those problems resolved themselves into greed for his record company. He was just waving a stick on my show. It's like being married to a girl for 20 years and one day you come home and find a cigar butt in the ashtray."

Cadillac

Seems You Ought to Know Him!

You see a man in a beautiful new Cadillac—and, almost instinctively, you take a second look.

Your judgment tells you that those who drive Cadillacs are likely to be people of importance—and are very probably in the public eye.

It is small wonder that you feel this way about people who own and drive these distinguished cars.

For more than half a century, Cadillac has been a favorite car of the leading people in every community across the land. For Cadillac is the only car in America whose name has consistently been reserved for the finest cars it is practical to produce.

People who want the finest have learned to come to Cadillac—as the tide goes with the moon!

Of course, you don't have to be a prominent person in order to find a reason for moving up to Cadillac.

There is every practical reason for owning a Cadillac—as well as every personal one.

Under normal driving conditions, the Cadillac car will run a full day on a single tankful of gasoline.

The lowest priced Cadillac costs less than twenty-two models of other makes of American-built cars.

And a Cadillac, according to an authoritative study of national used car prices, will return a greater share of its owner's investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land.

So whether you are prominent, or whether you are practical—Cadillac is your perfect choice!

Better come in and see us. Cadillac was never so fine and beautiful as it is today—and it was never more practical to own and enjoy.

Inquiry Stated On Missing Yanks

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 21 -UP -Sen. Mike Monroney (D-Okla.) who said the Army "apparently has grossly mishandled" his inquiry into reported Soviet imprisonment of two Americans, Wednesday planned to have his own staff begin an investigation. Monroney said he understood the Army has taken little or no interest in reports Americans Homer H. Cox of Oklahoma City and Leland Towers of San Francisco are being held by the Russians near Moscow. The reports were brought to Vienna, last week by Austrian returnees. The Oklahoma senator said his staff would start an inquiry into the Cox case immediately. Cox, 33, was an Army private who disappeared in Berlin Sept. 2, 1949. Towers, a civilian, vanished in Finland in 1951. Netherlands prisoners who returned Tuesday said a third American, California engineer Charles Brown-Chifford, 35, also was being held prisoner. They also quoted Cox and Towers as saying they were kidnapped. Monroney said "it's the Army's duty to do everything it can to get this man (Cox) returned to American jurisdiction. The Army apparently has grossly mishandled the matter. If he's done anything wrong, he is entitled to his day in court - in American courts."

Expert Lists Fashion Sins

By GAY PAULEY NEW YORK -UP-The worst fashion sin a woman can commit is wrapped up in one term, "trying to do it all," says designer Lilly Dache. Miss Dache, a fashion leader for 20 years, has compiled what she considers the seven deadliest sins in dress. The one at the bottom of her list probably would rate at the top of any compiled by husbands. It's squandering money. "The worst sin of all is trying too hard," Miss Dache said. "Going to extremes, in hats, dresses, shoes." The second sin is wearing too much. Against Christmas Tree Effect "Too much makeup, too much trim," she said. "By the time a woman gets a hat with a lot of stuff on it, gloves all decorated, shoes that are not a full length, and spangles or buttons, she's buried under the outfit." The other sins, she said, are neglect of hair and face, "the part of the woman seen first"; too much costume jewelry "a French woman stands up and wears a full length mirror when she's fully dressed, and then starts shedding some of the unnecessary"; hair too set; following fads "even Dior expects women to be selective"; and squandering money. "Take it easy on buying. 'Don't buy on a whim or by emotion,'" she said. "This is true whether you have $10 or $10,000 to spend. Better you should give the money to charity, where it's deductible." How does the voluble, French-born designer know about fashion sins? "Because I've committed every one of them," she said. More of her pet peeves: Fur capes which don't cover a suit jacket, jeweled dresses for office wear, a 4 1/2 foot long and fancy dress or fancy coat with sport dress; girlish styles on mature women, ankle straps on heavy ankles, high heels on women who teeter as they walk, dirty gloves, full skirts on overly full figures, and sophisticated clothes on teenagers.

Writes Book On How To Enjoy Child

By WILLIAM H. MEYERS CHICAGO, -UP-Mrs. Frances Horwich, a teacher with 3,000,000 "pupils," says that too many parents take their responsibility so seriously they don't enjoy their children.

"What's worse," she added, "the children can't enjoy their parents."

Expert Lists Fashion Sins

By GAY PAULEY NEW YORK -UP-The worst fashion sin a woman can commit is wrapped up in one term, "trying to do it all," says designer Lilly Dache.

"If a child is told to pick up his blocks, it's a mistake to make him pick them all up alone. He soon grows discouraged and stops.

Advocates Share The Work "But if the parent picks up all of them, the child learns he can shirk responsibility.

"The responsibility becomes fun, however, if he picked up half the blocks while the parent picks up the rest. Soon the responsibility be-

Reason To Believe

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 22 -UP-Police had no reason to doubt John Benson, 32, when he told them he did not see the other car when he smashed into it with his own auto.

Benson, it was discovered, is totally blind in one eye. His "good" eye had 11-200 vision, so poor he receives compensation for the blind from the state.

League Of Women Study To Be Told

WACO, Oct. 22.—UP—Results of a comprehensive two-year study of state government by the League of Women Voters of Texas will be announced Oct. 30.

Directors of the league are holding a state meeting in Waco and voted to complete five more sections of their study, setting a deadline for completion of October, 1954.

Mrs. A. B. Wacker of San Antonio, chairman of the "Know Your State Survey," has been aided by a 30-member committee in preparing the first six sections of the study.

The meeting here was the kickoff for a series of area conferences being conducted throughout Texas for the 40 local member leagues.

Miss Betty Goetz, program chairman of the League of Women Voters of the United States, will speak at subsequent two-day sessions at Lubbock, Corpus Christi, Harlingen, Houston and Fort Worth.

Red-Held Yanks Hope For Release

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Oct. 22.—UP—Two Americans imprisoned by the Russians were reported Wednesday to be hoping for release and repatriation within a month from the Sherbakov prison camp near Moscow.

Dutch prisoners recently released by the Russians and now en route home, said they saw American Homer A. Cox, an Army private from Oklahoma, and Leonard Towers, of San Francisco, in Sherbakov camp a week ago.

The Dutch prisoners said Cox and Towers asked them to "spread the word" of their imprisonment, hoping that the United States State Department will exert pressure for their release.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—UP—State Department officials said Wednesday it is taking longer than expected to "develop the facts" on the disappearance of two Americans believed in Soviet hands.

The State Department started an immediate investigation. Officials said they had hoped the study would be completed by now, but that the inquiry is taking longer than expected because it is so far-flung.

State Department authorities still "assume" that additional facts turned up will confirm their present view that Cox and Towers are in a Soviet prison camp.

When the investigation is finished the department intends to ask what happened to the two men.

Juggles Mediation Offices WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—UP—Mediation Chief Whitley P. McCoy announced Wednesday that offices in Boston, Detroit, Dallas and Washington, D. C., will be dropped as regional headquarters of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Mediators will remain in these areas as before, McCoy said, but they will be under other regional areas.

Bogart Replaces Benny's Family On Video Program

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22.—UP—Two weeks ago Jack Benny promised his TV viewers they'd be seeing his wife, Mary Livingstone, and daughter Joan on his program this Sunday night—instead, the living room audiences will be seeing Humphrey Bogart.

"There's a good reason for this," Benny explained. "We had already filmed the show with Joan and Mary, and it was slightly similar to one we did recently. So we thought it would be best to postpone it a few weeks."

The comedian fired up a long black cigar and waved it in the air with authority.

"Bogey will be making his TV debut," he said. "It'll be a cops and robber sketch. Naturally, I'll play the cop," he added with finality.

Benny's face softened and the comic air of stony suspicion faded when he spoke of his wife and daughter.

"Not many people know it, but Mary just hates show business. She thinks it's fine for me, but she doesn't like appearing on my radio and TV shows. I have to do a real selling job to get her to go along. But she and Joan will be on the Dec. 6 show."

The comedian grinned. "Joan isn't particularly interested in show business either. She's a whiz at technical things and mathematics."

"A wonderful girl," he said with pride, "but as far as career or marriage goes, that's her business. Anything she wants is fine with me."

Benny summed up his feelings about Joan, a 19-year-old junior at Stanford University, with a story of her childhood.

"Joan was about five years old the day she came to tell me she and her mother had had a misunderstanding. And Joan told me she wasn't going to speak to her mother again, ever. Well, Joan's known since she was tiny that she had been adopted. So I told her about the first time I saw her."

"I explained that her mother had picked her out from among many other little girls and brought her home to live with us. I also told her I thought she looked cross-eyed and was the ugliest little thing I'd ever seen and wanted no part of her."

"Then I quoted Mary as saying she was going to keep Joan regardless. I told Joan the truth: 'It was two months before I could begin to love you.'"

Benny said he forgot all about the incident until two years later when little Joan crawled on his lap and told him she loved him very much.

"I told her, 'That may be true, Joan, but I love you even more than you love me.' Then she astounded me."

"She said, 'That's not true, daddy. We loved you all my life, but you didn't love me for two months.' I've never forgotten that," the comedian said soberly. "I actually cried when she told me that. And ever since then, I've been doing my best to make up for those two months."

Cortines Returns To Mexico City

NUEVO LAREDO, Mex., Oct. 22.—UP—President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines and his party started back to Mexico City Wednesday after a day of talks with Nuevo Laredo officials and businessmen.

Ruiz Cortines was tentatively scheduled to stop at Saltillo on his way back to Mexico City in the presidential plane "El Constitucionalista."

A group of businessmen urged Ruiz Cortines to initiate immediate construction of the middle dam of the series of three on the Rio Grande of which Falcon Dam is the first.

Ruiz Cortines told the delegation, headed by O. L. Longoria, he is familiar with the project and has it under serious consideration.

The President arrived Tuesday from Falcon Dam, which he and President Eisenhower of the United States dedicated Monday. He was accompanied by Foreign Minister Luis Padilla Nervo; Hydraulic Resources Minister Eduardo Chavez, and Ambassador to the United States Tello Manuel.

He looked over public projects inspected the Pan-American highway during his visit in Nuevo Laredo.

HOUSTON, Oct. 22.—UP—The president of Standard Sulphur Co. reported Wednesday his company has raised its known reserves of sulphur nearly 200,000 long tons as the result of a third well completed in Brazoria county.

President Gilbert B. Ebarb Jr., in a report to stockholders, also said construction of the company's units at Damon Mound are nearing completion and "we see no reason why the target date of Nov. 1 should not be realized."

Ebarb said the third well, started for eliminating water waste, was found to run through two sulphur zones 48 feet thick with about 9 1/2 feet of solid sulphur, and was converted into a producer.

Taber Foresees Balanced Budget

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—UP—Chairman John Taber of the House Appropriations committee said Wednesday after a White House conference that he is "very sure" the federal budget will be balanced in fiscal 1955 which begins next July 1.

Taber conferred with President Eisenhower for 30 minutes on the relation of "the national defense and the expenditure situation."

The New York Republican later told reporters he believes the administration will "come very close to a balanced budget in fiscal 1954," which ends next June 30.

Taber said his predictions take into account the expiration of the excess profits tax and the 10 per cent reduction in individual income levies scheduled for next Jan. 1.

Fairgoers Defy Rain DALLAS, Oct. 22.—UP—Many of 66,185 persons who attended the State Fair of Texas Wednesday came out in nighttime rain, fair spokesman Thad Ricks said. Attendance so far this year is 1,833,311 persons, up 28,952 from attendance for a comparable period last year.
