

Snyder Ignores Present Tax Cutting Full Acquittal Given Three in Negro Lynching Trial

Defense Rests Case in Trial Of 28 Others

GREENVILLE, S. C.—The defense rested today in the trial of 28 white men accused of lynching a South Carolina Negro, without offering any witnesses in its behalf.

The dramatic climax to the week-long trial came a few minutes after Circuit Judge J. Robert Martin, Jr., had directed full acquittal of three of the original 31 defendants, and given acquittal on two of four counts to seven others.

Chunky grey-haired defense attorney Benjamin A. Holt closed the case with the simple statement: "The defense rests."

The words were almost lost in the shuffle of chairs and muttering of conversation which followed Judge Martin's summary of his ruling to the jury.

Judge Martin immediately recessed the court for the second time in 20 minutes. Earlier he had halted proceedings after announcing his directed verdicts for 10 of the original 31 defendants.

The court announced the trial would be suspended until 9:30 a. m. tomorrow when defensive arguments will begin. He told each side would be allowed four hours for summation and final argument. Meanwhile, he said, defense counsel and the state will submit opposing argument on legal technicalities, adding he would receive these at 5 p. m. today.

The judge gave no indication of the length of his own charge, but it seemed likely the case would reach the jury sometime Wednesday.

The court announced directed full acquittal of three defendants and partial acquittal of seven others when the case was reconvened at 10 a. m.

The court, at the same time, announced that statements allegedly made by the 26 defendants at the time of their arrest would be admitted in evidence only against the persons making them. Judge Martin said he would instruct the jury to disregard the allegations applying to any co-defendants.

Scouts Receive Letter of Thanks

A letter of appreciation for the work done by Boy Scouts, scout leaders, and scoutmasters of this area for their service during the emergency in Higgins has been received by Hugo Olsen, district director, Boy Scout Council, Greenville.

The letter addressed to Olsen and signed by F. Leo Durkee, area director for the American National Red Cross said: "Now that we are hearing the completion of our rehabilitation work in Higgins, we want to take this opportunity to express to you, our appreciation of the outstanding service given by the Boy Scouts of America in this area. We wish it were possible to express our gratitude to each member of your committee, each scoutmaster, and Boy Scout, who participated. We trust you will let them know in some manner."

Without the Boy Scouts and their very capable leaders, a great many things could not have been accomplished during the emergency period, that were handled most efficiently by those boys. In a time of crisis an organized unit of trained people is one of the most valuable assets anyone responsible for the welfare of people can possibly be given. Your boys showed excellent training, good leadership, and a spirit of service, of the highest type. They carried out their assignments satisfactorily and well-deserve full credit for a material contribution in meeting the emergency caused by the Higgins tornado of April 9, 1947.

Lightning Starts Warehouse Blaze

ATVIN—Officials of the Southern Warehouse Company today were figuring up losses from a lightning-started fire that razed the firm's big rice warehouse and dryer here yesterday.

First unofficial estimates were that losses might run as high as half a million dollars. A. M. Brown, warehouse manager, said the rice stored in the warehouse alone had a valuation of $200,000. He said a further study would be necessary to arrive at a complete figure.

Scout Meeting to Be Held Tonight

The regular monthly board of review for Boy Scouts of Pampa will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Scout Office at City Hall, it has been announced.

The meeting will be under the direction of H. A. Yoder, B. N. Nichols, and Dr. H. L. Wilder.

About 500 Phillips Men Back at Work

In the absence of expected violence an estimated 500 employees of the Phillips Petroleum Company in the Borger area reported for work this morning when department gates opened at 8 a. m.

Picketing was limited to one man each at the railroad loading dock, the Phiblack Plant, the Research Department, Gasoline Department, District Warehouse, and the Panhandle Division.

A union spokesman told Borger newsmen that an estimated 500 employees were working—both union and non-union members—and added that union members returning to work would be fined "from $25 to $50."

Conditions in Holy Land Make Truce Unlikely

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Conditions laid down by the Jewish underground as the price of peace in the Holy Land appeared today to have virtually killed all hopes of a truce urged by United Nations members pending settlement of the Palestine problem.

In a clandestine radio broadcast yesterday, Irgun Zvai Leumi and the so-called Stern Gang declared they would not halt their campaign of violence until the British lay down their arms, "end the arrests of Jews in Palestine, cease deporting Jews to other countries and respect the rights of Jewish citizens in their homeland."

"We struggle for the establishment of a free Jewish, undivided Palestine," the broadcast said, "and we cannot be forced to end that justified struggle."

The announcer asserted that Britain had shown her "unwillingness to keep a truce" by deporting to Cyprus Saturday night 1,141 uncertified Jewish immigrants intercepted as they neared the Palestine coast aboard the 1,200-ton vessel Vge Winds after a 13-day voyage from Genoa.

Former Pampa Officer Succumbs

Funeral services for Wayne Marshall Nicholson, 37, Borger, who died en route to the hospital following a heart attack, will be held in the Clegg Funeral Home Chapel at 11 a. m. Tuesday, Rev. Douglas Carver, First Baptist Church, will officiate.

Mr. Nicholson had lived in Pampa for some time prior to moving to Borger and was employed by the city as a police officer.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nicholson, Borger, and son, Larry Nicholson, Bakersfield, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. V. G. Frasier, Pampa; Mrs. W. R. Postma, Albuquerque, N. M.; and Mrs. J. R. Mitchell, Spearman.

Funeral services will be held in the Pampa Cemetery Tuesday.

Court Rules Improper Conviction Newsmen

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Supreme Court today ruled three Texas newspapermen were improperly convicted of contempt of court for publishing several news stories, an editorial.

Justice Douglas wrote the court's 6-3 majority decision. Justice Jackson wrote a dissent and Justice Frankfurter wrote another. Chief Justice Vinson concurred in Frankfurter's dissent.

The decision was given on an appeal by Conway C. Craig, publisher of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times; Bob McCracken, managing editor, and Tom Mulvaney, reporter.

Judge Joe D. Browning of the Texas County Court in Texas adjudged them guilty of contempt after the publication of items dealing with an eviction case which he tried. The newsmen were sentenced to three days imprisonment each, but the court suspended the sentence pending the Supreme Court's decision.

In the eviction case, an Army private unsuccessfully sought to hold possession of a building where he operated a cafe.

Judge Browning said that the news stories and editorial were "calculated to prejudice and influence the court in its ruling" on a request for a new trial of the eviction proceedings. He finally denied a new trial.

The Supreme Court's ruling overturned a ruling of the Texas County Court of Criminal Appeals which had upheld Browning's contempt findings.

Justice Douglas, for the majority, wrote that "the law of contempt is not made for the protection of judges who may be sensitive to the winds of public opinion. Judges are supposed to be men of fortitude able to thrive in a hard climate."

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals held "there is no escape from the conclusion that it was the purpose and intent of the publishers to obstruct, coerce, and intimidate Browning to grant Mayes (the soldier) a new trial. The only reason for so doing was because the publishers did not agree with Judge Browning's decision or conduct the case."

The newspapermen said news accounts of the trial were essentially true. The editorial criticized Texas laws "which vest judiciary authority in a county judge but which do not require the occupant to the office to be an attorney."

Justice Douglas in effect said the news accounts were accurate. He declared the only substantial question raised in the case pertained to the "editorial. He cited various passages in the editorial and commented that:

"This was strong language, intemperate language, and we assume, an unfair criticism. But a judge may not hold in contempt one who ventures to publish anything that tends to make him unpopular or to belittle him."

"The vehemence of the language used is not alone the measure of the power to punish for contempt. The fire which it kindles is not confined to the editor's mind but is a likely threat to the administration of justice. The danger must not be remote or even probable; it must immediately imperil."

Douglas said that "giving the editorial all the force which it was entitled to below found in it, we fail to see how it could in any realistic sense create an imminent and serious threat to the ability of the court to give fair consideration to the motion for a rehearing."

47 Injured in Texas City Fire

TEXAS CITY—Gasoline-fed flames which sent a spiral of smoke 4,000 feet into the air here yesterday badly damaged the tanker Pan Massachusetts, a tug and a dock and injured 47 seamen before being extinguished.

Credit for extinguishing the four-hour fire went to Texas City's Volunteer Fire Department which lost 27 members in the fires and explosions that wrecked this town a month ago.

Two crew members of the tug Richard Clarke were burned critically as they jumped from the flaming vessel and swam through burning gasoline. Forty-five members of the Pan Massachusetts' crew also jumped overboard and were treated for minor burns.

Texas City Police Chief W. L. Ladish said the fire started as the tanker prepared to sail from the Pan American Refinery Company dock.

The tug was tied up alongside the Pan Massachusetts at the time. After it caught fire, the crew cut the towing lines to permit the vessel to drift away, and extinguished the blaze.

The end of the Pan American dock was totally destroyed. The dock had been temporarily reconstructed following the fires last month which took more than 600 lives.

Company officials said the Pan Massachusetts was carrying 150,000 gallons of 79-octane gasoline.

No Mention Is Made of House Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of Treasury Snyder told Congress today that "a period of tax reduction is approaching." But he made no recommendations as to what taxes should be cut or when.

Snyder further told the House Ways and Means Committee that Congress should "consider" how to reduce taxes at some later—and unspecified—time.

The 5,000-word prepared statement by the treasury head made no mention of the $4,000,000,000 tax reduction bill passed overwhelmingly by the House despite administration opposition. The bill is now awaiting Senate action. Nor did Snyder's statement say whether President Truman might veto this tax-cut bill if it reaches him.

Snyder was the first witness as the committee began hearings on a general revision of the entire tax setup. He did not elaborate on his reference to tax cutting. Page 6

At Least 12 Meet Violent Deaths During Weekend

By The Associated Press

At least 12 persons met violent deaths in Texas over the weekend, six in traffic accidents, two by shooting and one each by fire, lightning, drowning and a plane crash.

A truck-passenger car collision a half mile south of Robstown on Highway 77 Sunday resulted in three persons being killed and six others injured. The dead and injured, who were in the passenger car, were en route from Corpus Christi to Harlingen.

The dead: Selma Nichols, 30, driver, and his mother, Mrs. John Nichols, both of Corpus Christi, and Mrs. H. S. Barksdale, 24, of Arkadelphia, Ark.

The other traffic fatalities were Johnnie Lee Frankum, 19, and J. L. Densman, 14, both of Marlin, who were killed Sunday when a motorcycle they were riding threw them into an automobile.

Charles Starnes, 38, of Whitesboro, was killed when an automobile in which he was riding was struck by a freight train at a crossing in Gainesville Saturday.

A hunting trip ended in accidental death for Victor Andrew Wegwert, 40, of Houston. Sheriff J. Marshall of Brazoria County said David Laskowski, 31, of Port Worth, a brother-in-law of Wegwert, was reloading a 12-gauge gun when it fired, the charge striking Wegwert in the back, killing him almost instantly.

J. T. Thomas, Jr., 15, died of shots from a 22 revolver Sunday at his home in Brookshire Community, 25 miles northwest of Ballinger. Rummels County Attorney Roy L. Hill filed murder charges against the youth's father, J. T. Thomas, Sr., who was held in the Rummels County Jail.

Fari Lee Mayor, 19, a messenger for the Southern Pacific Railroad at Beaumont, was killed when struck by lightning while working in the railroad yards Saturday night.

J. P. Hahn, a soldier from San Antonio, was drowned at Lake Buchanan near Austin when a sudden squall came up Saturday night, the wind beating the fishing boat in which he and a companion were riding against the dam.

M. E. Van Valkenburg was killed in a plane crash five miles north-east of Luling Saturday.

Five-year-old Sylvia Frazier of Senora burned to death Saturday night as she slept by truck while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Frazier, were fishing on Lake Buchanan.

Fines Are Paid in Intoxication Cases

Justice Clifford Braly in Corporation Court Sunday morning fined two men $25 each on charges of intoxication and assessed a fine of $15 on another man for the same charge.

Two men were fined $10 each Monday morning on an intoxication charge and two persons were excused from fines of traffic violations.

No other cases were heard.

Truman Issues New Appeal for Insurance Plan

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to give "immediate attention" to enactment of a Federal Health and Disability Insurance program.

In a special message to the Legislature, Mr. Truman declared such legislation is "crucial to our national welfare."

Under the type of program he asks a worker unable to work because of injury or illness would receive government payments.

Mr. Truman told Congress: "Of the four basic risks to the security of working people and their families—unemployment, old age, death and sickness—we have provided some insurance protection against three."

"Protection against the fourth—sickness—is the major missing element in our National Social Insurance program."

Mr. Truman's message asked, in addition to sparsely-settled areas:

1. Adequate public health services, including an expanded maternal and child health program.
2. Funds for research and medical education.
3. More hospitals and doctors, especially in sparsely-settled areas.

"The total health program which I have proposed is crucial to our national welfare," he said. "The heart of that program is national health insurance."

"It is a part of our national fabric, we shall be wasting our most precious national resource and shall be perpetuating unnecessary misery and human suffering."

The President asserted that an insurance plan is democratic way of coping with the menace of serious illness which requires expensive care and services.

Mr. Truman's message renewed a proposal he had made previously to Congress.

In Kansas City, his press secretary, Charles G. Ross, disclosed that Mr. Truman began work on the message last Saturday. He signed the final draft yesterday in Grandview, Mo., as he sat with his ill mother, Mrs. Martha Truman.

New Move Made At Black Market

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Striking at black market trading, the Army today banned private shipments of American cigarettes and tobacco to Germany effective Monday, May 26.

The action does not affect the supply made available through Army post exchanges, which the Army said is sufficient to meet the normal individual needs of GIs and civilian workers.

The ban applies to "the mailing or shipment of these commodities through Army post offices, the international mails or commercial channels." Army officials said such shipments are largely in the form of gift packages and that commercial trading is not a factor.

The War Department coupled its action with an appeal to the general public for cooperation "in a strong move to wipe out black market trading in American cigarettes and tobacco." It said the order would help stabilize the German economy.

Soviet Press Says U. S. Is Headed For Depression

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Soviet Russian propaganda offensive against what it regards as an American attack on Communism has developed new and violent tactics, which have subordinated political aims to economic issues.

The latest thesis of the Moscow Press is that the United States is headed for a whole of a depression, and that the other nations of the world had better hitch their commercial wagons to the Soviet star.

Why turn to Russia? Well, to use the language of the Communist newspaper Izvestia, it's economic because the Soviet Union doesn't have any depression and isn't going to have any.

For the great nations of the world, the Soviet Union doesn't depend on the wildly swinging pendulum of the American economy.

All this is aimed at attracting the attention of countries for which Moscow believes America is angling—and probably is. These include the Scandinavian states, Italy, France, and South America.

Washington, not attempting to hide its light under a bushel, yesterday made it known that Secretary of State Marshall's policy planning staff soon will reexamine the World Economic Conference to determine America's long range policy. It is said this survey may result in a decision on how much more financial help the United States Government must be prepared to provide to foreign countries in the next couple of years.

Moscow is concentrating its economic propaganda fire on prime objectives, of which there are many. An outstanding example is the situation in Germany which is suffering from economic disaster. General Lucius Clay, American Military Governor in the Reich, disclosed yesterday that he had set in motion a campaign to inform the Germans of Uncle Sam's efforts to feed them. Clay said one reason for this move was to offset Communist propaganda which has been making capital of the food scarcity in the American and British zones.

Despite the fact that the Russian zone of occupation itself is suffering from food shortage, the Communist press keeps hammering on the difficulties in the Anglo-American zones. One charge which the Red controlled newspapers are feeding to the disoriented Germans is that the United States is taking huge reparations out of Germany and delivering food only to countries which have dollars with which to pay for it. And a mere two years ago Russia and America were allies, fighting these same Germans!

Germany is one place where the Big Four—America, Britain, Russia and France—should stand together. If there is a people whom the Germans hate more than they do the French, British and Americans it is the Russians. Hitler's rancorous harangues against everything Communist still rings in the ears of his people. It's true that Communism frequently thrives on chaos, but the Reich is a dangerous area for experiments.

Margaret Truman Cancels Concert

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Margaret Truman said today that against the wishes of her aged and seriously ill grandmother—"who wanted me to go on with it"—she cancelled her concert stage night scheduled here for tomorrow.

Miss Truman made the cancellation because of the grave condition of Mrs. Martha E. Truman, 94.

The President's daughter, arriving here from New York, decided to switch her trip from America to rush to Mrs. Truman's bedside at Grandview, Mo.

Miss Truman said her entire tour, which also included concerts in Ohio, Texas and Oklahoma, had not been cancelled. The outcome "depends on what happens" at Grandview, she said.

Gassers Take Second Game From Oilers 10-6

Southwest Conference Faculty Board Makes Several Rule Changes

WACO—The Southwest Conference Faculty Committee in its spring meeting has set a minimum of 160 hours an athlete must work in obtaining his college expenses and reaffirmed its opposition to the off-campus recruiting ban of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The NCAA's so-called "purity code" specifies that an athlete do not "commensurate" with what he receives. The conference fathers felt this should include the time an athlete spends in training and competition.

In reaffirming its stand on off-the-campus recruiting the committee suggested that a coach be allowed to contact prospective athletes off the campus but that recruiting be restricted to areas. For instance, the idea was that coaches of colleges in Texas confine their recruiting to Texas and Arkansas to Arkansas and that all conferences recruit only within their areas.

The committee decided that as of Jan. 1 the GI transfer rule which granted eligibility without penalty in changing schools when the Conference Faculty Committee reached unanimous agreement on such transfer would cease to operate. This means more than seven months for veterans to be able to change schools.

Oilers Start With Three-Run Lead; Fail to Stop Gassers' Heavy Hits

Although they got off to a three-run lead in the first inning, the Oilers were unable to hold their advantage at Borger yesterday and finally succumbed, 10-6.

The Oilers didn't always agree with Umpire Atkins' decisions behind the plate and Manager Seitz and Catcher Gene Smith were sent to the "bleachers" before the game ended, but the umpire's decisions were what stood.

Otey and O'Connell opened the first inning with infield scratch hits and Otey scored on Bailey's scorching fly to center about which they weren't discouraged by a three run deficit when they scored twice on one hit, a walk and two Pampa errors.

ingles by Gilbert and Snyder, Hair's triple and Gilchrist's fly produced three more runs for the Oilers in the second inning and put them two runs to the good, a lead they never relinquished thereafter.

A Johnston allowed only two hits in the third, but they were both homers with a walk sandwiched in between. Cato led off with a homer over the right field wing that they were not discouraged by a three run deficit when they scored twice on one hit, a walk and two Pampa errors.

The Oilers whittled two runs off in the fourth when Mitchell was caught at second trying to stretch his hit into a double and Cato struck out for the final out.

National Clubs Ganging Cards With Barrage of Portsiders

(By AP Sports Writer) Some have called it a slump. Others have called it just "a slow start."

It was apparent today that the trouble with the world champion St. Louis Cardinals is that the rest of the National League has been ganging up on them with an unorthodox barrage of left-handed pitchers.

Including their double defeat by the Philadelphia Phillies yesterday the Redbirds have been beaten by Southpaws 11 times this season against only two wins against Portside pitching.

In 27 games, rival managers have started left-handers against them 16 times, and on 14 occasions were rewarded with victories. One game ended in a tie and the Cards won the other three.

After Ken Heintzleman, ex-Pirate, led the Cards to nine hits in the opener to beat them 6-3, Ken Raffensberger blanked the Cards through 12 innings to win the nightcap 1-0.

The Dodgers ended a skein of 18 scoreless innings by talving four times in the seventh to down the Cubs 4-2 before a record Chicago audience of 46,572.

Bobby Doerr made his first start of the season at Yankee Stadium a success by turning back the New York Yankees 5-3, gaining his fifth victory against three setbacks.

Scoring two runs in the ninth inning of each game, the Chicago White Sox took the measure of Washington's Senators twice in the Capital city 4-2 and 3-2.

Philadelphia's surprising Athletics moved into sixth place, only four and a half games behind the first place Detroit Tigers, by trimming the St. Louis Browns twice at Shibe Park 4-3 and 5-2.

Rain washed out the double header between the Tigers and second place Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park.

INDIANAPOLIS—(AP)—Mauri Rose of Chicago, co-winner of the 500-mile Memorial Day race, today became the first qualified for this year's automobile race classic with an average speed of the 10-mile run of 124.04 miles an hour.

Rose was driving a brand new four-cylinder blue crown sparkplug special. His best lap of the four was the third on which he averaged 124.636 miles an hour.

Rose was far off the qualifying record, set last year by Ralph Hepburn at an average speed of 132.944 miles an hour.

NO QUESTIONS ASKED Noticing a fine-looking horse at my Uncle Dave's Kentucky farm, I asked him about it. "I took him in trade from a Yankee friend across the river," he said. "But the horse is no good—he's got the dry heaves."

"Didn't your friend tell you he had the heaves?" I asked. "Son, I make it a rule when trading horses with a friend never to ask questions," said Uncle Dave. "I know he'd lie to me, and I'm afraid that might make me distrust him." —Reader's Digest.

Texas League Wending Its Usual Course

(By The Associated Press) DALLAS—(AP)—Double or nothing or more seems to be an unwritten rule in the Texas League this season.

Just nine of the 36 runs yesterday were scored without company. And that's the way it has been all year.

Fort Worth and Dallas divided a pair of games yesterday, 4-3, 5-0, to wind up a two-day series. Tulsa swept its series with Oklahoma City in an 8-4 win and Houston blanked Beaumont, 12-0. San Antonio and Shreveport had to cancel out because of wet grounds.

Just to keep the pattern of double or nothing, ten double plays were unrec'd in the four games, eight of them coming in the Fort Worth-Dallas hit. And Dallas' Gene Markland gave the year's largest crowd at Fort Worth—2,195—something to talk about when he handled 14 chances without a bobble.

Mack Stewart hung up his fifth straight victory—after losing three in a row—in setting Oklahoma City to wind up with nine hits in the seven innings he worked. Before retiring, he drove in one run and contributed a double and a single.

The loss was the first of the year for Oklahoma City's Ralph McCabe, giving him a 4-1 record.

The league leading Houston Buffs wasted little time or effort with Beaumont, smacking three Exporter pitchers for ten hits. Roman Brunswick scattered five hits to the Exporters and made it four victories against no defeats on his record.

Fort Worth blew a two run lead in the ninth inning of the first game and finally lost the tilt in the tenth. It came back, though, behind the two-hit pitching of Dick Madrilto shut out the Rebels in the nightcap.

Today, Oklahoma City drops down to Dallas for a single game, while Tulsa plays at Fort Worth. Houston tries against Beaumont and San Antonio and Shreveport try again.

Hal Chase, Great 1st Sacker, Dies

COLUSA, CALIF.—(AP)—Hal Chase, probably the greatest fielding first baseman of all time, is dead.

"Prince Hal," whose brilliant career in the majors ended under the cloud of the "Black Sox Scandal" of 1919, twice was in a coma for 36 hours during his lengthy illness, but twice he rallied. The third strike put him out.

Chase was 64, and a pathetic figure from a kidney ailment, heart trouble and complications of old age. He died at 10:45 a. m. yesterday at the Colusa Memorial Hospital which he entered in March.

Chase started in organized baseball in 1903 with Victoria of the Old Northwestern League and the next year broke into the Pacific Coast League with Los Angeles. In 1905, Clark Griffith, manager of the New York Yankees, lifted him into the big time.

With the Yankees, Chase was the most agile, quick-thinking first sacker baseball had ever produced. He had an uncanny way of sensing the batter's intention and poked a wide area, even catching pop fouls behind the catcher. He was a wizard on a bunt.

Chase was traded to the Chicago White Sox in 1913. After a dispute with his bosses, he switched the next year to the Buffalo Federals. He bounced back into the majors with the Cincinnati Reds after the 1915 season.

Chase concluded his major league career in 1919 with the New York Yankees. He was 37 then, a veteran of many seasons in the big circuits. But he had never realized his ambition to play in a World Series.

Chase was not accused of being involved in the "Black Sox Scandal" but later he admitted he had advanced knowledge that the 1919 World Series between the Chicago White Sox and the Cincinnati Reds had been "fixed."

"Sure, I knew about that," Chase said not long ago. "But I was no squarer."

Wilford Moore Named Head Football Coach

ABILENE—(AP)—Wilford Moore was named head football coach of McMurry College today, succeeding Vernon Hilliard who will devote his full time to duties as athletic director and head of the school's physical training department.

Hilliard was relieved of his football assignment at his own request in order to push the Texas Conference College's overall sports program. He will, however, continue to coach the track and field team.

LITTLE DIFFERENCE A few summers ago I visited Hannibal, Mo., the sleepy little town where Mark Twain spent his boyhood. Stopping at a roadside stand one day, I asked the white-bearded old proprietor if he had known Mark Twain. The reply was prompt, long-suffering and a little indignant.

"Sure I did," he replied. "And I know as many stories as he did, too. Only difference is, he writ 'em down." —Reader's Digest.

Oilers to Meet Gold Sox Tonight

Pampa's Oilers, smarting from a pair of embarrassing defeats at the hands of the rehabilitated Gassers, move into Amarillo today for a two-game series with their arch rivals, the Amarillo Gold Sox, tonight.

The games tonight and tomorrow night will be broadcast over Radio Station KPDM beginning at 8:30.

Although Manager George Seitz was not available to name his moundsmen for the opening session it was expected that George Payte, who has three wins against no losses, will do the twirling.

Righthander Tom Spears, boasting two wins against one defeat, is expected to do the moundwork for the Gold Hose.

With the Oilers trailing the Gold Hose by an even two games, two good games are expected.

Qualifying Starts for Professional Tourney

NEW YORK—(AP)—Defending champion Ben Hogan and most of the top names in pro golf are expected to qualify for the National Professional Golfers Championship Tournament at Detroit June 16-24 but there will be a wild scramble today among the other pros for the 100 remaining positions.

At 28 different sites, the pros will battle to be included in the field of 130 in the 29th championships. Approximately 26 players already are in. All past champions, members of the 1941 Ryder Cup team, the 1946 quarterfinals at Portland, Ore., the home club pro, Sam Byrd, and the winner of the National Open at St. Louis, June 12-14, if he is a pro, all qualify automatically.

In addition, all non-Texas who finish among the top 30 finishers in the Houston Open of last week and the Colonial Invitation that ended yesterday are exempt from sectional trials because of the crowded schedule. The Texans must compete today over the 36-hole route.

When the Detroit field has been selected, the pros will play 18-hole qualifying rounds Wednesday and Thursday, June 18 and 19, leaving the top 63 and defending champion Hogan. Two 18-hole rounds will slice the field to 16 by Friday night June 20. After that it will be one 36-hole round each day up to the finals Tuesday, June 24.

Local Dogs Winners In Amarillo Show

Al Lawson, cocker spaniel enthusiast of Pampa, raised several cockers that won top honors in the first Cocker Spaniel Club of the Texas Panhandle Amarillo yesterday, it was reported this morning.

Trade Mark Jane, still owned by him, won first place in her class and HRH's Mascot, a sire, to second in 1-2 class. He was best for the first place by another Lawson Kenner car, it was said.

Lawson was ring superintendent. The judge was from the American Kennel Club. Roy Barr is superintendent of the club, and Mrs. Gordon Morrison is secretary. Both of Amarillo.

The club must hold two AKC sponsored shows before it can hold a point show. The second sanctioned show will be held sometime this year, it was said.

There were over 50 entries in yesterday's show.

El Progresso Club Holds Luncheon To Conclude Year

Members of El Progresso Club closed their year's work on "Our Southwest Heritage" with a luncheon in Wilma's Dining Room Tuesday. Table decorations carried out the Golden Jubilee motif of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Glen Cannon gave an interesting discussion of the organization of TPCW and its infancy. In 50 years the Federation has grown from a few clubs in Port Worth and Waco to many clubs all over the state and from a handful of women to hundreds of women with a definite influence for everything pertaining to state welfare.

A freewill contribution was made to the Golden Jubilee Fund which forms a nucleus for the upkeep of state headquarters and scholarships for worthy students.

Those present for the closing meeting were Mesdames C. P. Buckler, D. V. Burton, W. R. Ewing, C. T. Hightower, Jennette Hutchinson, Knox Kinard, H. L. Ledrick, P. O. Ledrick, Dave Pope, James Todd, George Waisaid, G. A. Morrison, Glenn Cannon, John Andrews and a guest, Miss Bessie Brown of Ann Arbor, Mich.

Winter wheat production for 1947 has been forecast at more than 973 million bushels. This production would be about 99 million bushels larger than the 1936-45 average.

Winners of the El Progresso Club luncheon were Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mrs. D. V. Burton, Mrs. W. R. Ewing, Mrs. C. T. Hightower, Mrs. Jennette Hutchinson, Mrs. Knox Kinard, Mrs. H. L. Ledrick, Mrs. P. WCSA Hears Report On District Meeting

PANHANDLE (Special) — A report from the District Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Canyon last week given by Mrs. Kermit Lawson and plans for a zone meeting to be held in Panhandle in July were the main items of business when the local society of the Methodist Church met Wednesday at the church.

The goal chart of the year was also studied with reports given by Mesdames W. E. Fisher, R. F. Surratt, Charles Franklin, R. L. Cornelius, Rachel Vance, J. L. Armstrong, C. F. Hood and Miss Margaret McTeal.

An announcement was made that Mrs. M. C. Davis would be leader of the yearbook lesson at the next meeting at which time a social hour would also be enjoyed with special recognition given to a life member.

The meeting was dismissed with a prayer by Mrs. J. F. Holleroff.

Others attending were Mesdames Marie J. Mitchell, M. C. Davis, J. L. Slimp, Don Price and Maggie Sterling.

Mrs. Clemmons Hostess To Sewing Basket Club

The Sewing Basket Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. George Clemmons. A toothpick game was played and the prize was awarded to Mrs. Boyd Smith. The hostess presented a set of aprons by the members.

The remainder of the evening was spent in sewing after which refreshments of assorted cookies and iced tea were served to Mesdames Smith, George—Brewer, DeWitt, Kelly, Kelly, Shipman, Henry Shaffert, Dee Piel, Ed Doughty, Emily Smith and Miss Myra Jane Merideth.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the home of Mrs. Piel Thursday afternoon, May 22 at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Devaney Honored at Tea

SHAMROCK (Special) — A lovely social affair of the week was the tea given by Mrs. Bob George Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Piel Thursday afternoon, May 22 at 2 o'clock.

The home was beautifully decorated with cut flowers carrying out a pink and white color scheme. In the living room pink carnations and snapdragons were arranged with fern.

In the dining room the table was laid with a cloth of satin damask and an unusually attractive centerpiece of pastel sweets.

Mrs. Fred Holmes greeted the guests as they arrived and the hostess presented the honor guest.

Mrs. Baxter Purcell had charge of the guest register and Mrs. Walter Pendleton, Jr., presided at the silver tea service.

More than one hundred guests called during the receiving hours.

Needlecraft Club Is Entertained

SHAMROCK (Special) — Mrs. H. T. Fields entertained the members of the Needlecraft Club and a group of guests at her home Thursday afternoon.

Lilies and irises made lovely decorations for the occasion.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and doing various types of needlework after which refreshments were served.

King's Daughters Have Social Meet

SHAMROCK (Special) — The King's Daughters Sunday School class of the First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. A. R. Hugg Tuesday afternoon for the regular monthly social meeting.

Columbian slides and iris were used to decorate the LaDue home.

The group met at the noon hour for a covered dish luncheon which was followed by the afternoon program.

Mrs. Charley Bock gave the program on "Texas Laws Pertaining to Women and Children."

Mrs. Robert Baxter, former member, was a guest, and three new members, Mrs. Howard Bramley, Mrs. Johnnie Lannon, and Mrs. J. P. Smith told members of the country home of Mrs. Lewis Williams on Thursday.

Continuing her talk on "Superstitions," Mrs. Smith said "In a recent Gallup Poll, Americans were found to have 13 main superstitions. In general women were more superstitious than men and beliefs were not confined to the uneducated, for every college graduate interviewed believed black cats meant bad luck."

At the business session with the president, Mrs. M. C. Davis, presiding, plans were made to close the club year with a luncheon in the country home of Mrs. Edwin Carroll on May 22.

'Superstitions' Topic Erudite Club Meeting

PANHANDLE (Special) — "While civilized man has made enormous strides in science since the Middle Ages, millions of Americans still cling to ancient superstitions," Mrs. J. P. Smith told members of the Erudite Club when they met in the country home of Mrs. Lewis Williams on Thursday.

Continuing her talk on "Superstitions," Mrs. Smith said "In a recent Gallup Poll, Americans were found to have 13 main superstitions. In general women were more superstitious than men and beliefs were not confined to the uneducated, for every college graduate interviewed believed black cats meant bad luck."

At the business session with the president, Mrs. M. C. Davis, presiding, plans were made to close the club year with a luncheon in the country home of Mrs. Edwin Carroll on May 22.

WE, THE WOMEN

'Real Rights' Instead of 'Women's Rights'

By RUTH MILLET NEA Staff Writer

Do the women of the world want to promote "equal rights" or "women's rights?"

That was the question before the United Nations' Commission on the Status of Women when Mrs. Hamid Ali, Indian representative, suggested that equal rights with men isn't a good aim for women generally, because in some countries the rights men enjoy are negligible.

"Real rights," says the representative from India, are what women should strive for.

And they'll probably come nearer getting "real rights" than "equal rights," too.

For there is something about that phrase "equal rights" that frightens and therefore, antagonizes a lot of men.

Talk about "equal rights" and they start seeing visions of militant, domineering women trying to take over the world. They can't imagine "real rights" too.

Mrs. Hazel Franklin, secretary of the Theta Rho State Board of Control, announced that the Theta Rho Girls Club would sponsor a noon-day luncheon in the Palm Room at 11 o'clock on Wednesday, June 15. The menu will consist of fried chicken with all the trimmings, homemade hot rolls and homemade pie.

First Baptist WMU Meets in Circles For Bible Lesson

"Missions in the Church" and "Method of Missions" were the topics of the Bible study lesson brought by members of the First Baptist WMU at their circle meetings Wednesday afternoon.

It was brought out in the lesson that to be successful in mission work one must work through the church. A silver offering was taken for the hospital fund, and plans were made to pack boxes of clothing for the Pampa Division of Church World Service.

Circle 1 met in the home of Mrs. W. H. Lewis with Mrs. Roy Holt and Mrs. E. E. Byars as hostesses. Present were Mesdames R. D. Abbott, C. E. Willingham, S. W. Brandt, Lane, H. T. Thornhill, A. A. Davis, Tucker, French Allen, Vandover, Holt, and Lewis, and two children. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Willingham, 831 S. Cuyler, at 2 o'clock on May 21.

Circle 2 met at the church, Mrs. W. H. Lewis presided and the lesson and Mrs. E. V. Davis presided over the business. A report was made on members who were sick. Those present were Mesdames McDonald, Davis, Bill Mitchell, J. C. Vollmert, L. B. Studebaker, M. K. Gurley, R. W. Tucker, and J. M. Keeney. The next meeting will be held in the church, at 3 o'clock.

Circle 4 held its meeting with Mrs. E. T. Langford. Mrs. Charlie Miller opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Louis Tarpley presided over the business meeting. Mrs. C. L. McKinney taught the lesson. Present were Mesdames Watson Welch, B. J. Kinsey, Dan Glaxner, F. L. Edmondson, McKinney, J. C. Kichey, Howard Giles, and Tarpley; new members, Mrs. D. W. Sasser and Mrs. Max Crocker; and a visitor, Mrs. D. Halsey, Mrs. Howard Giles, 418 N. Frost, will be hostess for the next meeting which will be held at 3 o'clock.

Circle 5 met with Mrs. D. A. Caldwell with Mrs. F. E. Leech teaching the lesson. It was announced that

MOVING TOWARD LABOR FREEDOM

The action of the Senate in passing a "labor control" bill is typically political. It comes as the result of politics, not clear thinking, and in the long run probably will do no more for the country than had it not been passed.

True, it has attractive features to those who have spoken out against the abuses of labor, such as the banning of the closed shop, curbing of the union shop, making unions liable for "unfair labor practices" and the outlawing of jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

If the bill does truly accomplish these things, there is a possibility that when the bill finally becomes operative that we shall have started back on the long road to real industrial and economic freedom.

But the roots of America's labor troubles go deeper than the surface pruning of the House and Senate bills. The roots lie deep in the iniquitous acts of Congress passed long ago which are not changed by the current measure. The first of these is the Clayton Amendment to the Sherman Anti-Trust act which set up special legislation and gave special privilege to labor unions and farmers. Then came the Norris-LaGuardia act which placed the unions outside the law and then the most vicious of all—the National Labor Relations act, better known as the Wagner act.

Until these measures are removed from the statute books, there can be no true labor-management relationship for they are all pieces of class legislation.

Of course much of the effectiveness of the present act, which will now go back to the House for compromise, will be determined by how the law is enforced. If past history is any guide, it will make little difference to the unions what measures are on the law books since unions have reached the point where they feel that they are above and outside the law. California is a demonstration of the point. We have had a law, passed by the people, which banned union "hot cargo" and secondary boycott acts. Yet these two violations are being carried on almost daily in California and nothing is done about it.

If the banning of the closed shop is really carried out, much of the power of the union to prevent workers from carrying on with their jobs would be gone. Under a truly open shop system, the union has little to offer the worker for employees are judged on their own merits, not on what the union can force the employer to do and under this system there is no point in workers paying dues to the union and keeping the union bosses.

If the Senate or the House had really wanted to rid our country of the labor troubles that have beset it, they would have struck at the roots of the troubles. But being politicians they first had to consider the political side of the question and try to gauge just how far the voters wanted them to go—not what should be done to eliminate our troubles. Fortunately there has been a groundwork laid in the presently considered legislation that may bring better things to come for the American people in ridding themselves of the abuses of labor unions. We hope that we will continue to move toward the day when we have a truly limited government in which there is no special privileges or class legislation.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

(Johnson on KPIX, Friday, 2 P. M.)

HOLLYWOOD—Hollywood isn't doing right by Larry Parks. He has become the forgotten man. He needs a good role, which he so rightly deserves.

When an actor works his heart out in a Hollywood film studio doing bit roles in bad B pictures for five years, he has earned a break. When he gets that break and does a top job as the star of a picture, he deserves star casting from then on.

Larry Parks is no newcomer to Hollywood. He's not one of those overnight sensations who are promoted from behind a soda fountain in a drive-in and made a star in his first picture.

Larry Parks is a hard-working lad who has five years of the film business behind him and a lot of struggling before that.

For five years Larry appeared in

By Upton Close

The slugs from the Right corner of the political arena are now in a deadlock with the smoothies from the Left, and it looks as if this is about the fateful seventh round. Are we going to get our money back? Let us wish we had our money back!

Many a blow is being struck below the belt and many a quick jab eludes the eye.

Let us get down to a point-by-point account:

The fight opened with a mighty cry from fans to kick out the Reds, and the tomatoes went to those fellows on Harry Truman's side who were wearing bright red trunks. They were boys from the State and Commerce Department, mostly. Though the cry was meant to give big John Bricker a boost, Harry took the bow.

Harry said OK he would throw out any Reds he saw, and so the crowd gave him a big hand, especially did those fellows who were in the $2 seats who didn't notice at first that Harry was wearing a blindfold over one trunk were keeping in the Red's side.

The applause died down when the blindfold slipped over Harry's other eye and Harry added, "But, really, I don't see any Reds!"

Nobody scored a point.

Harry's State Department boys stopped the fight long enough to announce some new rules. They said nobody from U. S. Bureau could get behind the Iron Curtain. They said they liked that rule, and some of them began to edge back toward the familiar Democratic galleries.

Quickies—The Yanks who couldn't get behind the pictures and his roles were nothing to yell about. He did the best he could with them. Before that he played bits and even took extra jobs.

JOHNSON GETS THE GLORY—Then came the big break in "The Jolson Story." Larry made the character of Al Jolson live his life over again. He was just as vibrant as Jolson ever was. The performance won him nomination for the best acting performance of the year.

As a result of Larry's job in the picture, Al Jolson is once more on top of the entertainment heap. Jolson had shined in recent years. Nobody listened. But when his voice came out of the mouth of Larry Parks, it was something new.

Today Al Jolson is knocking off $5000 for a radio guest shot. His records are out-selling Bing Crosby. There's talk of casting Al and Bing in a movie. There's talk of a sequel to "The Jolson Story."

But while the spotlight swings back to shine on Jolson, let's take a look at the young actor whose hard work and time acting were largely responsible for the old-timer's return to fame.

Larry Parks has not appeared before a camera since December except for a bit in a Columbia movie which he did as a gag.

Since completing "The Jolson Story," Larry has appeared in two pictures. The first is "Down to Earth." And any picture with Rita spotlights Rita.

If the much publicized "Gilda" is any indication, it's too bad to have the spontaneous creative talent of Parks subjected to the singing and dancing and acting of Rita.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE IT?—The other picture is "The Swordsman." This, the studio says, is a romantic technicolor costume film of 16th century Scotland. But it is so obviously copy that everyone at the studio except the front office boys refer to it as "that western in kilts."

I put Columbia Studio's treatment of one of its most promising young stars under the heading of how long can you be? And I offer a suggestion.

Larry Parks could carry his weight with the best of them in a light-comedy starring role. If you saw "The Jolson Story," you may remember the Spanish scene in which Larry danced and cavorted among a stage full of beautiful women.

But the man at the mike said it was a ruse to stop the budget cutters, and so the point went against the Ins.

But they had another try. The welter-weights from the Vets Administration, coached from the AVC gallery, protested to the crowd that they were out of money and couldn't be expected to carry on if those Republicans withheld their funds.

"Look," they moaned, "We can't even pay all our veterans on the GI bill. They'll have to drop out of school—all because of those fascist Republican budget cutters."

The AVC joined the AYD demonstration, which however was shouted down when the fans began to yell at Truman's boys. "Why didn't you let out fifty or a hundred thousand clerks and office boys instead of holding up checks from the GI students?"

So that blow went for a foul, too. Somebody ran up to the ropes yelling, "Stop the fight! Stop the fight!" It developed that Vandenberg was fighting for both sides.

But don't go away, fellows. There's another big round coming up—when Harry's men in the State Department try to name the Yanks who are to carry our $400,000,000 banner overseas to push the Reds out of Greece and Helen of Troy's old parade ground. Take my confidential tip and watch for the old, somewhat faded UNRRA brand on their trunks.

A flock of telegrams were thrown into the ring. They were from Los Angeles. People protesting because the LA Customs Bureau, on instructions from Washington, had cut the harbor customs inspectors from 77 down to 11, which meant that any old dope smuggler or international

Our Enemy, the State

I want to quote for a few days from a book that is now very timely. It is "Our Enemy, the State," by the late Albert Jay Nock and was written in 1935. Mr. Nock at that time had an opportunity to observe how much of an enemy the state was becoming.

I quote: "Suppose Mr. Roosevelt should defend his regime by publicly reasserting Hegel's dictum that the State alone possesses rights, because it is the strongest." And that seems to be the philosophy of all of the New Dealers and entirely too many Republicans. It is the philosophy of the Federal Reserve Bank, of Herbert Hoover, Governor Warren, Governor Dewey and Senator Taft. That is the only possible way they could justify some of the things they advocate.

On the state's ability to suppress crime this statement is made: "As Dr. Sigmund Freud has observed, it can not even be said that the State has ever shown an disposition to suppress crime, but only to safeguard its own monopoly of crime." . . . "Then Freud comments on the shocking disparity between State ethics and private ethics, and his observation on this point are most profound and searching—the historical method at once supplies the best of reasons why that disparity should be looked for."

Then to show the lack of state ethics Mr. Nock in a footnote remarks: "In April, 1933, the American State issued half a billion dollars' worth of bonds of small denominations, to be redeemed by poor persons. It promised to pay these, principal and interest, in gold of the then-existing value. Within three months the State repudiated that promise. Such an action by an individual would, as Freud says, dishonor him forever, and mark him as no better than a knave. Done by an association of individuals, it would put them in the category of a professional-criminal class."

Yet that is exactly what the United States government has done. If proof that we are yet relatively weak in collective or state ethics; that we seem to think that the state, like Caesar's wife, can do no wrong.

Of course Mr. Nock was a pessimist. He believed that we have gone so far that there is no hope for the state giving up its power and not again gaining some semblance of freedom. He expresses this idea as follows:

"The historical method, moreover, establishes the important fact that, as in the case of tabetic or parasitic diseases, the depletion of social power by the State can not be checked after a certain point of progress is passed. History does not show an instance where, once beyond this point, this depletion has not ended in complete and permanent collapse."

Of course the question as to whether we are absolutely lost depends upon where that point is. Optimist or a Christian always hope that things can be made better instead of continually getting worse.

news behind the news

WASHINGTON

By RAY TUCKER

EMPIRE—Informed Britishers at Washington resent Congressional and editorial suggestions that their Empire is breaking up, despite domestic difficulties that may upset Attlee-Bevin Ministry, the proposed grant of independence to Egypt, and the request that the United States assume London's historic burdens in Greece and Turkey.

Here and at 10 Downing Street, the song still is that "There will always be an England."

Embassy officials concede that Kipling's romantic kind of Empire is undergoing a surgical operation—a sort of "Caesarian thing, you know old chap," as explains a witty spokesman at the castle-like structure on upper Massachusetts Avenue which houses His Majesty's diplomatic delegation.

But he maintains that the reorganized Empire will emerge as a more solid, stronger and tighter unit than ever before, alongside the United States.

BULWARK—In the Western reaches of the Atlantic, the Anglo-American house hold will have such strong points according to tentative and military plans, as Greenland, Canada, Newfoundland, the United States, Bermuda, Nassau and Panama.

When and the U. S. composes its difficulties with the Argentines, with whom our British cousins are new extraordinarily friendly, the Atlantic defense will embrace the western hemisphere from the North to the South pole. An enemy power will have a tough time in trying to break through that defense bulwark.

TRADE—Britishers admit that they suffer some loss of false pride through their voluntary withdrawal from India, Egypt, China, and possibly Palestine, trade with hard-shrewd, Anglo-Saxon common sense, they recognize that changed conditions have lowered the historic and material value of these possessions.

The time a and military of every five Englishmen earned their daily bread on the basis of imports from India and Egypt—mainly, cotton, Lancaster mills transformed the imported materials into textiles, and dominated the world trade in this commodity. The sale and shipment of these goods were a main source of British income.

England can no longer compete in international trade in this and other fields. Despite her lower production costs, other countries, especially the U. S., can undersell the old country because of better machinery, greater workman efficiency and more effective salesmanship.

HAND—This reorganization of the British Empire, together with its close tie-in with the American economic and military scheme, should have great significance when the Foreign Ministers meet again next November.

It will give the Marshall-Bevin poker players a more powerful hand than they had when they sat across the green table from Stalin, Molotov and Gromyko a few weeks ago.

CITADEL—In the Pacific the two nations will possess such bastions as Alaska, Canada, the Philippines, possibly a friendly Japan and Korea, the mandated archipelago consisting of the Marshall, Caroline and Mariana Islands, Australia, New Zealand and a strongly fortified Panama Canal Zone. Under that setup, no hostile power can attack us from that quarter with much chance of success.

On the Atlantic side, Britain and the U. S. will have the immovable aircraft carrier that England proved to be in World Wars I and II. The Azores may eventually become an Anglo-American outpost.

Then, to the southward, there will be the newly recognized and strengthened fortress of South Africa, with its mineral and agricultural riches, and its loyal, stable population.

South Africa will become the key citadel in the realignment of post-war powers. It is the future hope of the British Empire, as King George declared in numerous recorded speeches during his recent visit to that territory.

RETRIBUTION—FOR WOMAN-HATING WEEK: THE GIRLS ARE STAGING WHAT THEY CALL "KILL 'EM WITH KINDNESS WEEK."

"I GUESS SO... AND I'M GLAD THAT ALL THIS WOMAN-HATING NONSENSE IS OVER!"

"NOT NONSENSE, POP! WE HAVE TO LET THE GALS KNOW THE STERNER SEX RATES RESPECT!"

"SWEET, NOW HILDA TREATS ME LIKE I WAS KING!"

"WELL, JUST BE SURE YOU LOOK BEFORE YOU SIT DOWN! SOMEDAY YOUR THRONE MIGHT NOT BE THERE!"

"ANNIUS TO GAIN A REPUTATION AS A HORSEMAN, REMUDA STOKER, NEW DINNER OF A HORSE RANCH, CALIFORNIA RIDER TO A RACE."

"RED WANTS TO RACE FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE RUMKOCK SCHOOL, MR. STOKER. HE AIN'T AFTER PERSONAL GAIN, SO I'LL TAKE YOUR $1000 BET?"

"A LOT OF THINGS CAN HAPPEN IN A RACE. DUCHESSE—AN FINE HORSE—DON'T RISK MORE THAN YOU CAN AFFORD TO LOSE!"

"I GOT FAITH IN YOU, RED, AND IF YOU DISAPPOINT ME, YOU'LL NEED A DING-DANG REPAIRS, THAN THE SCHOOL HOUSE!"

"THERE'S A FEW PAINT TRAILS OF OIL LEADING BACK THRU HERE."

"THINK I HEAR HIS OUTBOARD MOTOR SOMEWHERE BACK IN THIS SWAMP. I'LL DROWN OUT ANY NOISE MY OWN THROTTLE DOWN MOTOR. WILL MAKE."

"MEANWHILE, AS SNEED DRAWS NEAR, HIS WHEELS."

"BETTER SHOOT HIM, KICKERS! AND WAIT HERE A BIT. GOT TO BE SURE DUCKS AREN'T WALKING!"

"AH, THE WORLD WASHED CLEAN! HOW BEAUTIFUL! AFTER THOSE DAYS OF RAIN."

"RAIN? WHY THAT STORM WAS JUST A REHEARSAL! WE GOT A REAL ONE HEADED OUR WAY! LOOK!"

"AND OUT OF THE $25 I MAKE EACH WEEK AT THE BANK IN ASHTABULA YOU CAN COUNT ON TEN, EACH AND EVERY WEEK..."

"BUT YOU REALIZE HOW LONG IT WILL TAKE YOU TO PAY THE STUDIO OFF?"

"WELL, LET'S SEE... $10 A WEEK... $520 A YEAR... NUMBER... NUMB... $520 INTO... HOW MUCH DID YOU SAY?"

"TO MAKE IT BRIEF, YOUR GRANDCHILDREN WILL STILL BE PAYING IT."

"OH..."

"AND I'M NOT EVEN ENGAGED YET."

The right side of the page is dominated by a large grid of comic strips. The strips are arranged in several columns and rows. The columns are labeled vertically on the left side of the grid: 'BOYZ N THE CITY', 'NAZZ', 'SOLE EYEZ', 'BOYZ N THE CITY', 'RED RYE', 'FRECKLES', 'WASH TUBBS', 'NAPOLEON', and 'HOLLYWOOD JOHNNIE'. Each strip contains several panels with dialogue and illustrations. The dialogue is often humorous and satirical, reflecting the political and social commentary of the newspaper. For example, in the 'Red Rye' strip, a character says, 'I got faith in you, Red, and if you disappoint me, you'll need a ding-dang repairs, than the school house!'. In the 'Freckles' strip, a character says, 'Well, just be sure you look before you sit down! Someday your throne might not be there!'. The 'Wash Tubbs' strip shows a character saying, 'Ah, the world washed clean! How beautiful! After those days of rain.' The 'Napoleon' strip features a character saying, 'And out of the $25 I make each week at the bank in Ashtabula you can count on ten, each and every week...'. The 'Hollywood Johnnie' strip shows a character saying, 'But you realize how long it will take you to pay the studio off?'. The strips are drawn in a classic comic book style with bold lines and expressive characters.
