Abilene man receives prison sentence for state tax evasion

AUSTIN)—An Abilene man has been sentenced to prison for two years for trying to avoid paying motor fuel tax. Tommy Eugene Aaron, 51, pled guilty to the second degree felony offense of evading motor fuel tax on March 3 in a Travis County court. Aaron was charged with stealing dyed diesel fuel valued between $1,500 and $20,000, storing it without a required permit, using it in vehicles driven on the highway and failing to pay motor fuel tax.

Dyed diesel is untaxed diesel fuel intended to be used in off-road vehicles such as farm tractors and construction equipment. It is colored so law enforcers can easily tell when untaxed fuel is illegally used in highway vehicles.

In fiscal 2009, the state collected about $3 billion in gasoline and diesel fuel taxes.

"Through the motor fuels tax, drivers pay to build and maintain Texas highways," Texas Comptroller Susan Combs said. "We will continue to pursue tax evaders to the full extent of the law to ensure that revenue for state operations gets collected."

The Criminal Investigation Division of the Comptroller's office, the Winkler County Sheriff's Office, the Loving County Sheriff's Office, the Jones County Sheriff's Office and the Commercial Vehicle Enforcement Service of the Texas Department of Public Safety participated in the investigation. The case was prosecuted by the Motor Fuel Tax Fraud Division of the Travis County District Attorney's Office.

Local NWTF Chapter to host fundraiser

Food, fun, fellowship and fundraising are set as the main events at the 5th annual Hunting Heritage banquet, hosted by Pampa's Top of Texas Longbeard Chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTF) March 20, 2010 at the Chamber of Commerce, 200 N. Ballard St. Doors open at 6 p.m. and dinner is at 7:30 p.m.. A social hour will precede the prime rib dinner. The NWTF's Hunting Heritage Banquets raise funds for wild turkey conservation and also helps preserve hunting and outdoor traditions.

By placing the highest bid on auction items or winning games, attendees can go home with sporting art, unique hunting firearms, knives, outdoor equipment, and more.

This year, the Pampa

Chapter has partnered with the Gray County 4-H Team Eagle Air Rifle and will present them with a $500 check at the banquet.

The Club also awards an annual $500 scholarship to a local student.

USDA program provides funding for Community Facility Projects

TEMPLE, TEXAS, March 10, 2010— The U.S. Department of Agriculture launched a 'Know Your Farmer, Know Your Food' initiative late last year, which promotes local and regional food systems by stimulating community economic development and providing access to affordable fresh food locally.

USDA Rural Development has $40 million available under the Community Facility Program in Texas in the form of guaranteed loans, low interest loans and grants for community projects, including those included in this initiative.

"It is vital that people begin to understand fully where their food comes from and how it gets to their dinner tables," commented Paco Valentin, USDA Rural Development Texas State Director. "The 'Know Your Farmer, Know Your Food' Initiative creates new economic opportunities by better connecting consumers with local producers and we are excited to have the opportunity to assist in this process."

The USDA Rural Development Community Facilities Program offers direct and guaranteed loans, as well as grants, to finance the development of essential community facilities serving rural areas under 20,000 in population, including those that support and promote local foods. Food banks, food storage, distribution centers, school kitchens and cafeterias, Farm-to-School programs, community gardens, farmers markets, community kitchens and facilities that provide nutrition education and training programs are all examples of facilities that would be included in the initiative. Funding is available to local government and public bodies, community-based non-profit organizations and Indian Tribes and may be used to fund the purchase of real estate, buildings and building expansions, equipment and vehicles.

Grants range from 15% to 75% and require matching funds.

If you would like to engage you community in conversations on farming and food, while linking to producers and customers, the 'Know Your Farmer, Know Your Food' website features social media tools to assist you. Visit www.usda.gov/knowyourfarmer for further information.

USDA Rural Development's mission is to increase economic opportunity and improve the quality of life for rural residents. Rural Development fosters growth in homeownership, finances business development, and supports creation of critical community and technology infrastructure. Further information on rural programs is available at a Texas Area or Sub-Area USDA Rural Development office or by visiting <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov/tx>.

Gray County awarded federal funds under Emergency Food and Shelter Program

Gray County has been chosen to receive $12,580.00 to supplement emergency food and shelter programs in the county.

The selection was made by a National Board that is chaired by the U. S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency and consists of representatives from American Red Cross; Catholic Charities, USA; National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.; The Jewish Federations of North America; The Salvation Army; and United Way Worldwide. The Local Board was charged to distribute funds appropriated by Congress to help expand the capacity of food and shelter programs in high-need areas around the country.

A Local Board made up of Pampa United Way, Gray County Judge, Ministerial Associations, City of Pampa Representative, The Salvation Army, Pampa Meals on Wheels, Good Samaritan Christian Services, Southside Senior Citizens Center, Tralee Crisis Center, Good Samaritan Christian Services and the Harvest House will determine how the funds awarded to Gray County are to be distributed among the emergency food and shelter programs run by local service agencies in the area. The Local Board is responsible for recommending agencies to receive these funds and any additional funds available under this phase of the program.

Under the terms of the grant from the National Board, local agencies chosen to receive funds must: 1) be private voluntary non-profits or units of government, 2) be eligible to receive federal funds, 3) have an accounting system, 4) practice nondiscrimination, 5) have demonstrated the capability to deliver emergency food and / or shelter programs, and 6) if they are a private voluntary organization, they must have a voluntary board. Qualifying agencies are urged to apply.

Gray County has distributed Emergency Food and Shelter funds previously with The Salvation Army, Southside Senior Citizens Center, Good Samaritan Christian Services, Harvest House, Tralee Crisis Center, and Pampa Meals On Wheels participating. These agencies were responsible for providing 3,457 meals, 230 nights lodging, 18 paid utilities, and 2 rent payments.

Public or private voluntary agencies interested in applying for Emergency Food and Shelter Program funds must contact Katrina Bigham at the Pampa United Way office at 200 N. Ballard, suite 105 or call the office at 669-1001 for an application. The deadline for applications is March 19, 2010.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor,

First, I applaud Mr. Steve Hall's sense of citizenship and dedication to his profession for running for Gray County Judge. He expended much time, effort and personal finances so that Gray County could have a licensed attorney as County Judge who can hear all the cases presented to his court. As is well known, Mr. Hall is a licensed attorney and not just a teacher who is limited in the type of cases he can hear. He did this in spite of the likes of Mr. Tripplehorn and Ms. Doan Squires.

Secondly, Ms. Doan Squires' letter to the editor (3-9-10) contained only one sentence that I and the majority of the person's in Gray County can accept as reality.

Yes, we are in a recession. Duh?

We can all appreciate the suffering Levi King caused for the families and friends of the deceased but why did the County Judge acquiesce to the desires of the DA to go through a trial that would cost the taxpayers an inestimable amount of money?

Ms. Doan Squires goes on to state, "Ms. Switzer's job is to prosecute criminals."

She did her job and did it well." If the last sentence of the quote were true, Levi King would have received the death penalty that Ms. Switzer sought instead of life sentences he had offered to accept.

So did the DA do her job well? A triple homicide conviction with the death sentence might have garnished the DA's credentials and presented the possibility of her getting a job in a bigger city with more pay. The one alarming fact is that it seems that it is easy for the County Judge and the DA to wastefully spend our tax dollars in attempting to enhance the DA's resume. Where will the money come from to replace those tax dollars already wastefully spent?

As for "the costly delays," Joe Mar Wilson was just following the standard protocol and procedures applied in this type of case. As has been said before by innumerable people before the costly trial, Levi King the defendant offered to plead guilty to all charges and accept life sentences without the possibility of parole and this would have been a huge savings of our tax dollars. Maybe the County Judge and the DA only care to hear the voices of their elite circle of friends.

As for Gray County not footing the bill alone, yes, the DA received some state money and possibly some "confiscated drug monies as well," but after subtracting this very small amount of money from the total bill the balance is a big chunk of change that must come from our tax dollars collected for other purposes.

Think about it. Just maybe, if this huge amount of tax dollars had not been wasted, it could have been used to pay for much needed goods and services in our county infrastructure.

I really felt like not sending this letter to the editor but someone had to respond to the off-the-cuff statements made by Ms. Doan Squires in her letter.

Respectfully,
David Brito Garcia

Preparing for the 'wind boom'

BY AJ SWOPE
Exec. Dir. - Class 4 Winds, Inc.

As we in the Texas Panhandle prepare ourselves for what some are calling the 'wind boom,' many are asking how exactly wind energy development might affect the region.

I think the number one question I get from the general public regarding the economic impacts of wind, has to do with royalties received by landowners with wind turbines on their property. It's important to realize however, that the beneficial community impacts associated with the wind energy industry are far broader than that.

Starting at the beginning, let's look at the construction process of a wind farm. According to the National Renewable Energy Laboratory, for every 100 Megawatts of a wind farm there will be a need of 90 construction workers on average.

After a wind development is complete, the owner of the wind farm must hire a staff to operate and maintain the turbines. NREL states that each 100 MW of a wind farms creates an average of 10 O&M jobs.

Aside from jobs directly related to the construction and operation of wind farms, there is the possibility of manufacturing facilities moving into the region. In fact, in the past year Amarillo has announced two wind industry manufacturers that have plans of building plants in the city. This could lead to the creation of hundreds of jobs.

These jobs created by the wind industry's presence in a region can benefit other businesses in the community in different ways. For instance, when construction workers come from another region, they occupy local hotels, eat at local restaurants, buy goods from local stores, etc.

How can a community that is too small to house a manufacturing facility benefit economically from a wind farm there will be a need of 90 construction workers on average.

Take a look at the town of Sweetwater, Texas in Nolan County. In 2008, it was reported that the money wind farms added to the county tax base was $16.2 million. Sweetwater's

Swope

Mayor, Greg Wortham, was recently interviewed in the Austin American Statesman saying that since 2001, the county tax base has increased 500 percent due substantially to wind energy capital investment. This can allow communities and school districts to upgrade facilities, equipment and technology, without raising the taxes of its residents.

One of the wonderful things about living in the Texas Panhandle is the fact that we have such a diversified economy, with the industries of agriculture, oil and gas, dairy and a large list of manufacturers. It is my belief that the wind energy industry will add more economic diversification to the area and strengthen many of our communities for years to come.

Today in History

Today is Saturday, March 13, the 72nd day of 2010. There are 293 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On March 13, 1781, the seventh planet of the solar system, Uranus, was discovered by Sir William Herschel.

On this date:

In 1901, the 23rd president of the United States, Benjamin Harrison, died in Indianapolis at age 67.

In 1925, the Tennessee General Assembly approved a bill prohibiting the teaching of the theory of evolution. (Gov. Austin Peay signed the measure on March 21.)

In 1933, banks began to re-open after a "holiday" declared by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In 1964, bar manager Catherine "Kitty" Genovese, 28, was stabbed to death near her Queens, N.Y. home; the case generated controversy over the supposed failure of Genovese's neighbors to respond to her cries for help.

In 1969, the Apollo 9 astronauts splashed down, ending a mission that included the successful testing of the Lunar Module.

In 1988, yielding to student protests, the board of trustees of Gallaudet University in Washington D.C., a liberal arts college for the hearing-impaired, chose I. King Jordan to become the school's first deaf president.

Ten years ago: A quarter century after the end of the Vietnam War, U.S. Defense Secretary William Cohen arrived in Hanoi to push the pace of reconciliation.

Five years ago: Pope John Paul II was released from the hospital and returned to his Vatican apartment overlooking St. Peter's Square. Robert Iger was named to succeed Michael Eisner as chief executive of The Walt Disney Co.

One year ago: President Barack Obama met with former Federal Reserve Chairman Paul Volcker, chairman of his Economic Recovery Advisory Board; the president then went before reporters to say his administration was working to create a "post-bubble" model for solid economic growth once the recession ended. Death claimed soprano Anne Wiggins Brown, the original Bess in George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," at age 96; actress Betsy Blair at age 85; and Detroit Pistons' Hall of Fame owner Bill Davidson at age 86. The Philadelphia 76ers played a final game at the Spectrum, their old home, beating Chicago 104-101.

Today's Birthdays: Jazz musician Roy Haynes is 85. Country singer Jan Howard is 80. Singer-songwriter Neil Sedaka is 71. Actor William H. Macy is 60. Comedian Robin Duke is 56. Actress Glenn Headly is 55. Aptress Dana Delany is 54. Rock musician Adam Clayton (U2) is 50. Jazz musician Terence Blanchard is 48.

Thought for Today:

"I distrust those people who know so well what God wants them to do, because I notice it always coincides with their own desires." - Susan B. Anthony, American feminist (1820-1906).

Flood Awareness Week

March 15-19 is Flood Safety Awareness Week. The National Weather Service and the Texas Division of Emergency Management are urging people to be aware of the dangers of driving into flooded roadways. When there's water running across a road, drivers should save their lives - and their cars - by turning around and choosing a different road.

- Six inches of water can cause tires to lose traction and begin to slide. Twelve inches of water can float many cars. Two feet of rushing water will carry off pick-up trucks, SUVs and most other vehicles.

- Flash floods are especially treacherous at night when it is very difficult to see how deep waters may be or how fast water is rising.

- Water across a road may hide a missing segment of roadbed or a missing bridge.

- Drivers often underestimate the power of rising floodwater. In flash floods, waters rise so rapidly they may be far deeper by the time you are halfway across, trapping you in your vehicle.

- Floodwater weakens roadbeds. Drivers should proceed cautiously even after waters have receded, since the road may collapse under the weight of the vehicle.

Scholars to discuss dust bowl at Guymon

By ArVel White
 Guymon, OK - On Sunday afternoon, April 14, 1935, a black blizzard that blotted out the sun hit the Great Plains with the biggest impact being felt in the Oklahoma Panhandle. Find out what that was like by attending the Dust Bowl Symposium planned for Guymon, OK Friday and Saturday, April 9-10.

When that storm hit people scrambled indoors or into their storm cellars. Many thought it was the end of the world. Cars were stranded on the roads due to poor visibility or dust smothering the engines. People caught outside became disoriented and day turned to night; the event has become known as Black Sunday.

The day after Black Sunday, an Associated Press reporter used the term "Dust Bowl" for the first time. "Three little words achingly familiar on the Western farmer's tongue, rule life in the dust bowl of the continent - if it rains." The term stuck and was used by radio reporters and writers, in private letters and public speeches.

Seventy-five years later, the memories of the Dust Bowl still define the Panhandle area, and to commemorate the event planners are bringing to Guymon "Drought, Displacement and Determination: A Dust Bowl Symposium." The two-day event on April 9 and 10 will allow survivors to recall what it was like and others to hear speakers who talk about the major impact the Dust Bowl had on area residents. Generous funding for the event has been provided by the Oklahoma Humanities Council.

On Friday, April 9, the movie "The Grapes of Wrath" and the documentary "The Plow that Broke the Plains" will be presented at the Northridge 8 Cinema in Guymon at 3 p.m. for the Depression-era price of 35-cents in order for everyone to see the portrayal of "Okies" by Hollywood and learn how plowing up the Great Plains led to an ecological disaster. Saturday April 10 events will take place at Draper Farms west of Guymon. Signs along Highway 54 will direct attendees to the site. Events will take place all day and there is no admission charge. Attendees may come for all or part of the events. At 8:30 a.m. everyone is invited to gather and enjoy Dust Bowl images and memories. Major funding for this event is provided by the Oklahoma Humanities Council.

There will be an open microphone during periods throughout the day facilitated by Dr. Sara Jane Richter, head of the humanities department at OPSU. Richter will give her well-researched talk, "Down and Dirty, But Not Out: Women of the High Plains During the Dust Bowl" at 11 a.m. This talk has been well-received at venues such as the Kansas Library Convention and involved hundreds of interviews with women who survived the Dust Bowl in Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado. Richter is also the author of a readers' theatre production to be presented at 3:45 p.m., "If Only It'd Rain." Cast will include Dr. Wayne Stewart of Goodwell, Dr. Brad Duren of Guymon, Kevin and Debbie Richter of Hennessey and the author herself. Dr. Matthew Saunders of OPSU has composed a musical score that will accompany the production.

The Saturday events will kick off at 9 a.m. when former Guymon mayor Jess Nelson will give the welcome and introduce Dr. Paul Bonfield, author of "The Dust Bowl: Men, Dirt and Depression." Bonfield will speak on the topic "The Days of the Dust Bowl" at 9:10 a.m.

Food will be available for purchase at noon catered by a local church followed by activities for school-age children arranged by the Texas County 4-Hers and Girl Scouts.

Other speakers for the day include Gary McManus of the Oklahoma

Dr. Sarah Richter

Climatological Survey, Steve Drillette of the National Weather Service, Rod Wanger, Oklahoma CRP Program Director, Dr. Pauline Hodges and Mark Harrison, Oklahoma Conservation Commission. A free soup line supper will be held at 5:30 p.m. followed by a talk by Dr. Guy Logsdon on

"Music in Oklahoma in the 1930s." Logsdon will also lead a gospel sing-along. The evening will end with dancing at 8 p.m.

For a complete schedule of events with times, see the event website at thegritinyourteeth.com.

Caprock Canyons celebrates a wild spring break

Caprock Canyons State Park and Trailway offers spring breakers a way to explore their wild side with fun activities to learn more about animals in the park. Wildlife Week, beginning on March 13 and running through March 21 includes a wildlife-based activity each day, with a variety to choose from. All programs are free, with paid park entrance fee. For more information, call 806-455-1492.

Sat. 3/13: Nature Photography Hike, 10 am - Noon, Canyon Loop Trail
 Explore the canyon country with camera in hand. This guided hike features tips to improve your outdoor photography. Any type of camera or skill level is welcome. Meet at North Prong Campground parking lot.

Sun. 3/14: Sunset Stroll, 6:30 - 8:00 pm, Canyon Rim Trail.

Twilight is a wonderful time to enjoy the sights and sounds of nocturnal animals waking up and diurnal ones settling in for the night. This is a quiet, easy, guided walk. Bring water. Meet at Honey Flat restroom parking.

Mon. 3/15: Skins and Skulls, 2:00 - 4:00 pm, Amphitheater

Who lives in the canyons and on the prairies? Many mammals here are seldom seen, sometimes heard, and occasionally smelled! This hands-on program will test your identification skills and teach you about some essential adaptations for survival.

Tues. 3/16: Casting Tracks, 2:00 - 4:00 pm, Location TBD

Identifying animals by their footprints is a fun way to get to know whose trail you are on. We provide the materials for making a plaster cast of a track that you find, and you can take it home with you.

Wed. 3/17: The Texas State Bison Herd, 2:00 - 4:00 pm, Bison Overlook at VC

Bison or buffalo? Where did they come from? Why is this herd designated the official state herd? Bring your questions for a chat about the largest animal in the park, and in North America.

Thur. 3/18: Guided Horseback Ride, 10:00 am - Noon, Location TBD

Bring your horse for an interpretive trail ride, taking in scenic vistas while learning about the history of the park. Come a day early and enjoy the camping facilities for you and your horse.

Fri. 3/19 and Sun. 3/21: Early Birding, 8:00 - 10:00 am, Location TBD

Get a closer look at the birds who find food, water, and shelter in Caprock Canyons. This slow-paced exploration allows new and experienced birders to work together to identify and learn about the lives of our feathered friends. Bring your binoculars and field guide or borrow some from the park.

Fri. 3/19: Night Noises, 8:30 - 9:30 pm, Amphitheater

Screech, howl, hoot! How can nature be so noisy? Find out who is keeping you awake and why they are so talkative at night at this slide show program. Bring a flashlight.

Celebrate the first day of Spring on Saturday, March 20!

Sat. 3/20: Habitat Hike, 10:00 am - Noon, Eagle Point Trail

Food, water, shelter, space. Habitat is more than just a place. Take a hike in search of habitat for yourself and animals that live in Caprock Canyons. Hike is of moderate difficulty. Bring water and sun protection.

Sat. 3/20: Family Fishing

Clinic, Noon - 2:00 pm or 6:00 - 8:00 pm

New to fishing? Has it been a while since you cast a line? Would you like to take your kids fishing but don't know how? Learn the basics at a Family Fishing Clinic. Topics include species, equipment, safety and conservation. Receive a free gift, then cast your line! All supplies are provided and no fishing license is required. Fishing is always FREE in all state parks and we have tackle you can borrow.

Sat. 3/20: Bats of Texas, 8:30 - 9:30 pm, Amphitheater

The abandoned railway tunnel on the Caprock Canyons Trailway is home to thousands of Mexican free-tailed bats each summer. Come out at dusk for a slideshow about these extraordinary night hunters. Bring a flashlight.

The Children's Discovery Center is open on the weekends for indoor, hands-on activities. Hours are from 2:00 - 4:00 on Saturdays and 10:00 - 12:00 on Sundays.

DAILY HOROSCOPE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Sunday, March 14, 2010.
 This year, you seem to be able to inspire others. In doing so, you also inspire yourself! 2010 witnesses a new luck cycle mixed with your innate enthusiasm. You are, nearly a sure-bet winner. Know what you want, and manifest it. If you are single, you could meet "the one" if you are ready to settle down. If you are attached, your energy infuses your relationship. A Fellow PISCES only adds to the mix.
 The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult
ARIES (March 21-April 19)
  Take a stand and move in a new direction. You might have a problem getting an older relative or friend to go along with the program. You don't need to have all the answers. Decide that it is OK to do for yourself. Tonight: Downtime.
 This Week: Rest up, whether you are Irish or not. Prime time goes through St. Patty's Day.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20)
  A friend might reveal a little too much for your taste. Understand what is happening behind the scenes with a friend at a distance. You could be surprised by how easily you can indulge someone you care about. Tonight: Live for now.
 This Week: Use Monday to the fullest. You could opt to play the recluse Tuesday on.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20)
  A partner would prefer that you take the lead. You might want to focus on getting done what you must. Why not take on a fun project? Bring friends and family together for a fun happening today. Tonight: You are all smiles.
 This Week: Get as much done Monday as you can, as the party mood attacks the Twin.
CANCER (June 21-July 22)

* Knowing your limits might be more important than you realize. Still, at this moment, you might need a break. Just go off to a museum or a favorite area. Some of you might want to go to the movies to let your mind wander. Tonight: Opt for a different adventure.
 This Week: Investigate other ideas. You also need to take the lead.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)
  Be with a key partner today. Take time to get together and enjoy each other. New beginnings become possible as you reconnect on a level you have not experienced in a while. Enjoy the moment. Worry less about the future. Tonight: Snuggle in.
 This Week: Keep reaching out for those at a distance. Bring in experts if need be.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)
  You might need to defer more. It makes your life easier, and you can have more fun. Don't isolate yourself. Go out among friends and crowds. Make "the more the merrier" your theme. Tonight: So what if tomorrow is Monday?
 This Week: Others rule the roost. That's the way it is!
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)
  You feel as if a project cannot be put off any longer. Dig into it with your customary zest, and you might be surprised by how much you can accomplish in a short period. Someone pitches in, thinking he or she is helping. Tonight: Put your feet up.
 This Week: Stay easygoing. Honor what is happening with others.
SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
  Your ability to let go is admirable. You might have an unknown apprentice or two. Those who join you have a memorable afternoon, whether you are hanging out or at the gym. Enjoy others, too. Tonight: And the party goes on.
 This Week: Funnel your creativity into work. Maybe you can get some free time that way.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
  Indulge a wish to stay close to home. Invite a friend over to relax. Organize a game of hearts or spades, or indulge in some other fun hobby. You could discover the true meaning of "home is where the heart is." Tonight: Order in.

 This Week: Getting serious might not be on your agenda this week. Enjoy yourself.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
  Make calls early in the day. Getting together with friends or going off to the movies can be nothing less than fun. You see a situation with a great deal of lightness, which helps others loosen up. Tonight: The good times go on.
 This Week: Clear out messages and as many meetings as possible Monday. Others could be hard to find.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
  Take stock of your finances and know your limits. Just the same, knowing your limits and not overspending could be a very different issue. Realize that you need to say "no" more often, especially to yourself. Tonight: Treat a loved one to dinner.
 This Week: Be cautious with money. Communicate the basics.
PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)
  Pretend that this is your lucky day, and you just might make it so. Others seem to be in the right mood to join in or respond to a request. Let happiness radiate. Others cannot help but respond. Tonight: There is no time like the present.
 This Week: Monday, the world is your oyster. Finances play into your decisions all week.

Groups weigh in on Texas records case

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Three watchdog groups are asking the Texas Supreme Court to overturn a lower court's ruling involving a public records request.

Public Citizen, the Freedom of Information Foundation of Texas and Texans for Public Justice filed a "friend of the court" brief Friday in the case involving the pharmacy benefits group Caremark, a coalition of labor unions and the state.

The watchdog groups said they disagree with lower court rulings in Travis County that required the labor union coalition Change to Win to disclose information about itself and its associates to obtain documents under the Texas Public Information Act. The watchdog groups said that violates constitutional rights and threatens the public's access to government records.

The labor coalition has asked the Texas Supreme Court to hear the case.

Lady Harvesters' defense outlasts Lady Bulldogs

BY ANDREW GLOVER
aglover@thepampanews.com

The Pampa Lady Harvesters softball team played strong defense in a 1-0 victory over the Plainview Lady Bulldogs Tuesday in Pampa.

Head Coach Bobbi Gill said she was proud of how her team played defense.

"Carlyn (Teichmann) only gave up two hits and the defense made the plays behind her," Gill said. "We struggled making the adjustment at the plate, but ultimately held on to the win."

Both teams were scoreless the first four innings of the game. Ashley Facio broke the scoreless tie in the bottom of the fifth with her third home run of the season. Pampa had seven hits in the game including a single by Facio, Shelby Watson hit a single, Samantha Pearson hit a single, and McKinlee Stokes hit an infield single.

The junior varsity also played and won 9-0 improving their record to 15-2. The varsity improved their record to 10-6-1 and will play against Vernon and Burkburnett Saturday in Vernon to close out non-district.

Girls golf finishes seventh in Dumas

BY ANDREW GLOVER
aglover@thepampanews.com

The Pampa Lady Harvesters golf team tied for sixth in Dumas Monday.

Pampa shot a 428 which tied them with Amarillo Tascosa. Both teams had 22 more strokes than fifth place Canyon. 13 teams with four or more golfers competed. Perryton, Sunray, Panhandle, Canadian, Fritch and West Texas each had less than four golfers and didn't count in team scores.

Sydney Hoelting had the best score for Pampa shooting a 104 which was 22nd overall. Lindsey Brown and Alison Alexander tied for 27th overall with a 107. Liz Hoelting shot a 108 which was 31st and Taylor Morgan shot a 109 which was 32nd overall. Cori Cook finished 36th shooting a 112. 83 golfers competed in the tournament.

Tennis team plays strong in 'Rillo

BY ANDREW GLOVER
aglover@thepampanews.com

The Pampa Harvesters tennis team competed in the Sandies Cup at Amarillo High March 5 through the 6.

Head Coach Sarah Corse said all of her team played well in the toughest tournament they've faced in the spring season.

"Both mixed doubles team of Myles (Foreman) and Sammi (Finney) and Aaron (Silva) and Holly (Gage) in the gold bracket played really good they finished third and fourth," Corse said. "The boys doubles team of Logan (Karbo) and Nick (Nelson) are also playing very well at this time. Also Garrett Coutts in the silver bracket did a good job finishing fifth."

Karbo and Nelson finished ninth in boys doubles. In boys singles, David Moore finished 14th in the gold bracket. Alyssa Hoelting and Kayla Ware finished 15th in the girls doubles gold bracket. Erin Buck and Hilary Acker finished 16th in the bracket.

Elizabeth Terry finished 10th in the silver bracket. Kallie Marak finished 15th in that bracket. Landon Karbo and Collin McClendon finished 14th in the boys doubles silver bracket. Corse said she thinks the team is doing well and hopes they continue to get better.

JV Baseball team 1-2 in the Hereford Tournament

BY ANDREW GLOVER
aglover@thepampanews.com

The junior varsity baseball team went 1-2 in the Hereford Tournament March 4-6 in Hereford.

Pampa lost their first game 13-0 to the Randall Raiders. Rudy Rodriguez was charged with the loss. Devin Coleman was two for two with two singles. Sheldon Reeves hit a double, Zach Graves hit a double in three at bats and Rodriguez was one for two with a double and a stolen base. Coach Dustin Miller said the team hit well.

"We just couldn't string enough hits together to score our first run of the season," Miller said.

In the second game, Pampa had an early 9 a.m. start time against Plainview and lost 8-3. Miller said it took awhile for the team to get going.

"Once we woke up it was a good game, Miller said. "We spotted them four runs in the first and kind of dug ourselves too deep a hole. Hunter Hucks had a good game behind the plate throwing out a couple of runners trying to steal second."

Jordan Lemons was the losing pitcher. Tyler Powell was two for three with a double, a triple and a stolen base. Coleman was one for two with a double, a stolen base, and two runs batted in. Jeff Smith batted the third run in on a fielder's choice groundout. Reeves was one for three.

In the final game Pampa beat Palo Duro 14-6. Powell was the winning pitcher, throwing all five innings. Chris Howard hit a single and scored. Graves was one for three with two stolen bases, an RBI and scored twice. Lemons was one for three with two stolen bases, an RBI and scored twice. Smith was one for one. Powell was two for two, with two doubles, five stolen bases, and scored three runs. Hucks went one for three, with three stolen bases and one run scored. Miller said with more time on the field his team is getting better.

"They scored all six of their runs in their last at bat when we did not help out Tyler a whole lot," Miller said. "He pitched great and as a team we hit the ball well and made PD make some plays."

The junior varsity's (1-2) next game is March 23 hosting Clarendon.

Outlook fair for spring turkey season in Texas

Hunters should temper expectations for this spring's turkey season after back-to-back years of dry conditions negatively impacted nesting success across much of Texas, resulting in fewer gobblers on the ground.

The good news is 2007 produced a bumper crop of birds and that carryover of mature toms in South Texas and the Hill Country, combined with excellent nesting habitat conditions this year, could result in above-normal breeding activity.

TPWD estimates about 72,000 hunters take part in Texas' spring turkey season and take about 25,000 gobblers. Most of the state's spring turkey hunting activity occurs in South Texas and in the Hill Country, where Texas Parks and Wildlife Department turkey program leader Jason Hardin noted timely rainfall could give the bird population a boost.

"I expect there will be enough older birds to keep the season interesting," predicts Hardin. "All of the moisture we have had this winter is setting the stage for an early hatch. If the moisture continues I expect the population to boom in these areas and get us back on track."

Rio Grande spring turkey hunting season opens in the North Zone April 3 and runs through May 16. Special youth-only weekends are set for March 27-28 and May 22-23. The South Zone opens March 20 and runs through May 2, with youth-only weekends set for March 13-14 and May 8-9.

A special one-gobbler-only Rio Grande spring season is set for April 1-30 in 8 counties, including: Bastrop, Caldwell, Colorado, Fayette, Jackson, Lavaca, Lee and Milam counties.

The spring gobbler-only eastern turkey season is open in 43 East Texas counties from April 1-30 with a 1 bird bag.

TPWD biologist Ralph Suarez in Ballinger is based along a transitional area between the northern Hill Country, southern Rolling Plains and western cross timbers. He says that they have had near record moisture this winter and that he is seeing a lot of green weeds already. Suarez is predicting an early start to the nesting season, however, he expects the overall number of gobblers to be down this season due to the past two years of drought.

Gene T. Miller, TPWD biologist in Canyon, says that production has been better in his area of the Panhandle than farther south in Texas and he expects to have a decent crop of 2, 3, and 4-year old birds in the eastern Panhandle. Miller advises the hunter you hunt in the season the more productive the hunting should be.

"From what I have seen in the Rolling Plains I tend to agree with Gene," says Hardin. "We have seen a fair number of jakes over the last two years. They have not had a boom year since 2007, but they have had more moisture than the rest of the Rio range. This year is shaping up to be a boom year. We just need this moisture to continue. All this moisture should lead to great productions."

The Trans-Pecos region also looks pretty good, according to Philip Dickerson, TPWD biologist in Alpine, who commented that staff saw quite a few flecks while flying mule deer surveys and that 2008 reproduction was pretty good. "There appeared to have been good numbers of birds in 2009 on many of the ranches I contacted about turkeys," Dickerson says. "Overall the habitat conditions are very good across the region. With decent production in 2009 and the excellent wet conditions we've had, the hens should have no problem getting into nesting condition this spring."

Hardin notes that those ranches that adapted to the recent droughts by reducing stocking rates and maintaining adequate cover should have the most rapid and positive responses to the recent moisture.

Lady Harvesters go 2-3 in Little Elm Tournament

BY ANDREW GLOVER
aglover@thepampanews.com

The Pampa Lady Harvesters go 2-3 in the Little Elm Tournament March 4-6 in Little Elm.

Pampa opened the tournament against Corsicana losing 7-0. Corsicana held the Lady Harvesters to two hits while they got nine. Pampa also committed four errors to one committed by Corsicana. Both teams were scoreless in the first three innings. Corsicana took a 1-0 lead after four and expanded it to 2-0 after five. In the sixth, Corsicana broke the game open scoring five runs. Ashley Facio suffered the loss on the mound.

In the second game, the Lady Harvesters failed to get on the scoreboard again as they lost 1-0 to Little Elm. Each team only got a single in the game. Pampa committed two errors while their opposition didn't commit any. Carly Teichmann was charged with her third loss of the season.

Pampa was victorious in the third game as they beat Bonham 4-1. The Lady Harvesters took a 2-0 lead after three innings. After Bonham scored, Pampa added two more runs in the sixth to reach the final score. Teichmann picked up her fourth win of the season and Facio earned her first save. Bailey Beck and Teichmann hit their fourth doubles of the season. Brooklyn Barker hit her first double and Samantha Pearson hit her first home run of the season.

The Lady Harvesters extended their winning streak to two as they shut out Farmersville 4-0. Pampa scored three runs in the fourth inning and one in the sixth. The Lady Harvesters had nine hits to Farmersville's two. Teichmann (5-3-1) won her fifth game of the season. Jordan Mayhew hit her fourth double of the season and Beck got her fifth.

Pampa lost the final game of the tournament to Prosper 7-5 in nine innings. The Lady Harvesters led 1-0 after one. The score remained that way until the bottom of the sixth when Prosper scored a run. Pampa retook the lead in the eighth scoring three runs to lead 4-1. But Prosper also scored three runs to tie it at four. The Lady Harvesters got their final lead of the game in the ninth at 5-4. Prosper scored three runs in their half to take home the win.

Facio (4-3) lost her third consecutive decision allowing five hits including a double and a home run. Mayhew hit her fifth double of the season and Teichmann hit her fifth and sixth doubles of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Neal

Neals celebrate 60th

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Neal celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with friends and family at a surprise dinner hosted by their children and grandchildren.

Billy Neal and Colleen Voyles were married February 11, 1950, in the parlor of the First Baptist Church of Pampa. They have been residents of Pampa for the past 70 years.

Mr. Neal worked for Cabot for 15 years and Gray County Pct. 2 for 22 years, retiring in 1994. He is a veteran of World War II and was inducted into the Panhandle Veterans Hall of Fame in 2008. He is a member of Pampa Masonic Lodge # 966 and is also an avid horseman.

Mrs. Neal worked for Southwestern Bell

Telephone Company prior to retiring in 1984 after 34 years of service. She is a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America.

They enjoy spending time with their family, taking trips to Riodoso Downs, New Mexico and watching the Dallas Mavericks play basketball.

Children of the couple are Cindy Kempf and husband Doug of Pampa. Grandchildren are Brandy Adamson and husband Ray of Dallas and Britany Kempf of Pampa.

They have one great-granddaughter, Jordan Perry of Pampa.

in Shamrock, Texas on Saturday March 20 during the annual St Patrick's Day at the Family Life Center. Anyone attending the Health Fair will be eligible for a $25 Beef Gift Certificate.

The club is awarding one $1000 and two $500 scholarships this year. Seniors majoring in Agriculture or health-related fields who attend school in Carson, Collingsworth, Gray, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Roberts and Wheeler counties are eligible. For more information, contact Christine Marett at 1-806-256-1134.

Club cookbooks are still available. For more information, contact Dianne Buckingham at 1-806-256-3633 or 256-3887.

The next meeting will be in Wheeler on April 12.

Dear Abby...

By Pauline & Jeanne Phillips

DEAR ABBY: I'm a junior in high school, and a girl I was acquainted with was killed in a car crash. The accident was the result of bad road conditions, and she wasn't wearing her seatbelt. The driver of the car survived.

Because this girl had a reputation for being a troublemaker -- skipping classes, getting pregnant -- some adults here think she got what she deserved. I think it's insensitive to say such things while her parents are mourning the loss of their daughter. She may not have been the nicest person, but I feel sad for her parents and the baby she left behind.

How do I respond to these negative comments? --SYMPATHETIC TEEN, PROSSER, WASH.

DEAR SYMPATHETIC TEEN: I think you said it very well in your letter. That girl's parents are mourning the loss of their daughter, and this is a tragedy not only for them, but also for the baby who lost its mother. Yes, she made mistakes but none of them warranted the death penalty.

DEAR ABBY: I crave certain foods sometimes. My doctor said that when you crave a food, it means your body needs something that's contained in the food -- such as salt on pretzels.

My grandmother thinks whenever I say I'm craving a food that I'm pregnant. I have tried to explain to her that I'm not -- that sometimes when your body needs a certain vitamin or mineral, people crave foods that are high in it.

My grandmother insists that my doctor is wrong and doesn't know what she is talking about. She says the only time a woman craves a certain food is when she's pregnant. Unlike my doctor, my grandmother has not been to medical school. She thinks experience and age are everything, and science is nothing.

Abby, what should I say to my grandmother to help her understand that science is here for a reason? -- CRAVING HELP IN MUSTANG, OKLA.

DEAR CRAVING HELP: Please stop arguing with your grandmother because as steeped in "folk wisdom" as she appears to be, she isn't going to budge. I do have one suggestion, though. The most effective way to get her to quit telling you you're pregnant would be to stop telling her you have a craving.

DEAR ABBY: We recently remodeled my mother-in-law's house. She's now trying to move back in and put things away. She asks my opinion constantly about where things should go, but when I give her my answer, she always disagrees.

Her house is small and storage is limited. I try to give her ideas (which she asks for) for organizing her stuff -- but then she says, "Oh, no," and shoves everything in her pantry.

I hate to see her clutter her house when she doesn't have to, and I feel her disregarding my help is intentional. What are your thoughts? -- TRYING TO LET IT GO, RICHMOND, VA.

DEAR TRYING: Your mother-in-law may ask your advice not because she intends to use it, but because she likes the attention she's getting from you. It's important that you emotionally disengage from what's going on, and remember that SHE will have to live with the disorganized mess she's creating, not you. You did your part by helping out with the remodel, so give yourself a pat on the back for that and step back. Your relationship with your mother-in-law will be better, and you'll experience less frustration if you do.

DEAR READERS: To those who live where daylight saving time is observed, I offer this gentle reminder: Don't forget to turn your clocks forward one hour before going to bed tonight. Daylight saving time begins at 2 a.m. tomorrow, and you know what that means -- spring is on the way!

DAILY HOROSCOPE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Monday, March 15, 2010: This year, you enter a new luck cycle. You are able to make some major changes that you have been considering. Determine what you want out of your life and the path to get there. Possibilities evolve. If you are single, be more open to new people. You have unusual charisma and magnetism. Others respond. If you are attached, you open up to more possibilities. Your partner finds you happier and sunnier. A fellow PISCES reads you cold.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)  You get a new beginning. The unexpected occurs; process it rather than react. Reflect and plan. Behind-the-scenes activities are favored. You might be quite stunned by what emerges. Tonight: Vanish while you can!

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)  Use the good will of others and a meeting to move a key project forward. You have the ability to mobilize others. A new beginning becomes possible. Zero in on the unexpected. Act quickly in the moment. Tonight: Vanish while you can.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)  Focus on your career. Deal with those in power and the people you must answer to. You could be surprised by the responses you get. Your direction becomes clear; you know where you are heading. Realize your limits, which might even be self-imposed. You can break past them. Tonight: A must statement.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)  Your ability to detach and take an overview emerges. You also might decide to head in a new direction or do something very differently. Keep smiling, and think about solutions and an option for travel or higher education. Tonight: A must show.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)  New beginnings become possible to those who defer and work well with others. Trust that there could be a surprise or two in your immediate financial or partnership world. Know that you can handle whatever comes along. Tonight: Togetherness is the theme.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)  Do know when to defer and say you have had enough. Your way of handling a personal matter could impress some and draw a strong reaction from others. Don't be surprised by the different reactions you might receive. Tonight: Let someone else be in charge.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)  Whatever you take on could have a very interesting twist or two. You might not be so sure of yourself when the day ends. You probably will like the dynamic ideas that infuse a key project or idea. Working with others tightens plans so that what you want will work. Tonight: Hook up with a friend or two.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)  Sometimes you do better by kicking back and just brainstorming away. Your sense of well-being is enhanced by a willingness to work with others. Creativity bubbles up from out of nowhere, while just hanging out with inspiring people. Listen to what is being shared. Tonight: Do what is best for you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)  New beginnings are likely.

especially concerning your home and personal life. You could be looking at a purchase or an investment. Check out your decision with care. Think positively. The world is your oyster. Tonight: Head on home.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)  You might want to try a different approach or do something far differently. Communication flourishes. You discover the power of your words. Honestly look at why someone shocks you. Understanding helps you be more effective. Tonight: Chatting with a friend.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)  Expenses need moderating. Use your ability to understand what is going on behind the scenes. Understanding why you have difficulty keeping a solid, even budget might be more important than you realize. Discussions are animated. Tonight: Take a serious look at spending, bills and expenses.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)  A new beginning can happen, whether it is an event that triggers it or a situation. Let go and work with what is happening. Understanding evolves to a new level. You understand much more than you realize. Laughter surrounds a fun discussion. Tonight: Be spontaneous.
