A motion picture with sound accompaniment was shown at Rotary luncheon Tuesday by J. C. Alexander of Amarillo who is with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. Hank Hankins was program chairman for the show and arranged for the showing of the picture.

Synthetic rubber was the subject, and the various stages of discovery, the experiments and the making of synthetic rubber were shown and explained. Rotarians declared the picture and explanations were truly educational concerning the new industry that will aid in keeping Americans from again being caught without rubber, as was the case when the Japs took over the plants that produce raw rubber.

LT. Winifred McDaniel, a flyer lately returned from the Italian theatre of operations, spoke for a few minutes, giving some firsthand reports of what flyers have to face in their bombing missions and sorties.

Other visitors present were LT. Russell L. Baldwin, lately returned from Leyte where he had some thrilling experiences, guest of Byron Baldwin, and Heydon Hensley, vice-president of the First State Bank, who was the guest of James Smith, and Judge Luther Gribble, guest of Sam Hamilton.

Only a few days ago the family had a letter from Pvt. Bradley, dated January 16, which stated he was in France. The notification of his death on January 22 showed that he had gone from France into Germany and met death only six days after writing the letter from France.

Pvt. Bradley entered the service Dec. 4, 1943, at the age of 18 years. He was given basic training at a camp in East Texas for 17 weeks, then went to a camp in Kentucky. He went overseas last December.

He was reared in Hall County. Besides his father and step-mother, he leaves one brother, J. D., in the Army and soon to go overseas; and three sisters, Mrs. Reba Bolton of Turkey, Mrs. Haseltine Wallard of Clovis, N. M., and Miss Bonnie Wayne Bradley, who is attending school at Grandfield, Okla.

Boy Scout Work To Be Observed February 8 to 14

One of the greatest adventures the Boy Scouts of America has brought to the American boys, says Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive, has been "the adventure of friendship, the brotherhood that speaks around the world."

In his message to the Boy Scouts of America on their 35th anniversary which will be observed from Feb. 8 to 14, Dr. Fretwell believes that "the Scouts of the World—"Brothers Together" will do their part to build the triumphant new world."

His message follows: "For 35 years Scouting has brought to American boys a great adventure, the adventure of the out-of-doors, smoke rising from the camp fire, the lure of unblazed trails. It has brought the adventure of citizenship, serving other people, the Good Turn Daily, helping to win the war. These and many other adventures have captured the imagination of boys. One of the greatest of them all has been the adventure of friendship, the brotherhood

Officer Returns From France to Serve in Senate

Lt. Col. James E. Taylor, commanding officer of the 131st Field Artillery Battalion of the 36th "Texas" Division, has been elected to the Texas State Senate, the first Texas Division officer to be sent home from combat under such circumstances.

Colonel Taylor, former mayor of his home town, Kerens, Texas, and a former member of the Texas legislature, was nominated for the post by civilian friends. His campaign was handled by his wife.

"At the time I was nominated," he said, "we were on our way to invade southern France. I didn't get any mail for almost four weeks, and when it finally came, I had already been nominated, and my campaign had begun."

Col. Taylor began his military career as a member of the Texas National Guard, in which he enlisted as a private in 1939. A year later, when the Guard was mobilized, he became a Second Lieutenant. Offered a discharge due to family status, he preferred to remain with his unit, serving with it at Camp Bowie and as a member of the Texas House of Representatives, where he was chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs and sponsor of bills creating the Texas Defense Guard and providing armories for the Guard.

Colonel Taylor was made a captain in 1941, a major in 1942. He entered overseas service with the 36th "Texas" Division in April 1943, serving with it during the action at Salerno, Cassino, Anzio and the drive past Rome. He was made a lieutenant colonel and given command of his battalion after the Salerno invasion.

Mother Has Word From J. R. Sanders Prisoner of Japs

Two cards have been received recently by Mrs. L. D. Sanders from her son, Pfc. Jacob R. "Rusty" Sanders, prisoner of the Japanese. The cards were written from the Osaka prisoner of war camp.

Mrs. Sanders, now living in Clifton, Texas, wrote The Democrat that "Since I wrote you last I have received two letters and a card from Rusty. The first letter and the card were typewritten but the other letter he had printed in ink. I am sure he is still alive and that they are from him. In his first letter he wrote:

"Just a few lines to let you know that I am in good health and I think of you often. It will soon be Christmas again and I sure wish that I could spend it with you and the family. Maybe the next one, I hope. I write you every chance I get and hope you write often also. I have received only one letter from you, your first one.

In the next one he wrote: Once again I am allowed to write you a few lines. I am still in good health and am receiving just treatment and think of you daily. I am looking forward eagerly to the day of our reunion when this is all over. I sincerely hope that you are all in good health and are still all together. I hope to hear from you soon, and would like to see you even sooner. Give my love to all the relatives and all my friends, and don't worry about me.

"On the card I received this past Friday," Mrs. Sanders wrote "there were just four lines, and he said he was in good health and would love to be home in Memphis with all his friends and his family and again asked me not to worry about him for he was receiving good treatment."

Delaware takes its name from Lord De La Warr, who was Captain General over the Atlantic Seaboard possessions in the early days. But he never set foot on Delaware soil.

Nine months of care at the Medical Center and continuing physical therapy treatments provided by the National Foundation helped this lad to win over the Crippler.

Texas Hog Yield Continues Down

Production of pigs in Texas during 1944 declined sharply from the record yield of 1943. The Bureau of Agriculture Economics, Austin, reports that the state's pig crop, estimated at 2,460,000 head by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was about 41 per cent below the all-time high in the preceding year. But in spite of the falling off the total 1944 crop still was about 11 per cent above average production for the 10 years, 1935-1942.

Breaking down the production seasonally, the report says the fall farrowing, June 1-December, were estimated at 181,000 sows averaging 5.9 pigs per litter saved or a total of 1,068,000 pigs. This was a reduction of 48 per cent from the fall crop of 1943, and equalled a 10 year average for the fall season. The Texas spring pig crop of 1,392,000 head represented a 35 per cent reduction from the previous year.

Estelline Man Now With Supply Group in France

SIXTH ARMY GROUP, France—"Stringing out" isn't an official Army phrase, but that's precisely what the 713th Railway Operating Battalion has been doing ever since it arrived overseas two years ago.

It arrived at Casablanca, French Morocco, in February 1943, and three months later the battalion was strung out along 1400 miles of rail line, from Casablanca to Mateur. The battalion went to Naples, Italy, in October, 1943. Following the breakthrough last June, the battalion was operating from the southern part of Italy to Rome and beyond.

The 713th, commanded by Lt. Col. Ernest E. Foulks of Los Angeles, was the first unit of the Military Railway Service to arrive on the Riviera beachhead in the Southern France invasion. And now, once again, the men are following their old routine. They are scattered in detachments along hundreds of miles of French rail road lines, operating trains, repairing bridges, laying track.

Their job is to make sure that the thousands of tons of supplies entering the great ports reach the troops of the U. S. 7th and French 1st Armies, now hammering at the Nazis' strong siegried defenses. One company specializes in construction, repair and maintenance of the rail line, another in the maintenance of equipment. A third company operates the trains while the Headquarters & Signal Company takes care of administration and communications.

Along with other units of the 1st Military Railway Service, the 713th Railway Operating Battalion was commended recently by Lt. Gen. Jacob L. Devers, commander of the Sixth Army Group. Members of the 713th include: Cpl. Leon A. Barham of Estelline.

OVER TOKYO B-29 Superfortresses fly with Phillips super-octane fuel . . . as they do on all of the world's flying fronts

Phillips is one of the nation's six largest producers of Combat Aviation Gasoline

When you read or hear postwar promises of fabulous motor car gasolines, or of astounding products of petroleum chemistry, recall the simple words of the headline above.

They record a triumph of chemical research, engineering, and production. Add to them, Phillips grand-scale contribution to the making of butadiene for synthetic rubber, and they suggest how competently and completely Phillips is devoting itself to the war effort.

It has been said that the future is the fruit of the seed of the past. Little wonder, then, that intelligent men and women expect great postwar products from Phillips.

In the meantime, every time you see the Orange and Black Phillips 66 Shield, let it remind you that Phillips refiners . . . in addition to producing gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils . . . are also gigantic chemical plants pouring out weapons for victory.

LONELY....

You'll Never Know!

It's the waiting that gets you down. It's the long days, and the longer nights, when you lie there thinking . . . will you ever get home again? . . . why don't they write more often . . . did Dad ever get over that heart trouble . . . is your best girl still waiting . . . will you ever get a job again . . .

Sometimes, when the mail is slow, you get to imagining things. Black, terrible things that begin to seem real. And then something saves you.

Like the day the Red Cross field man got a cable report from home, telling you your Dad was getting well.

And the time some Red Cross girls came up in a jeep, handing out doughnuts and coffee and million-dollar American smiles. And you all started to laugh and kid, the way you used to at home.

There was the time you wanted to forget it was Christmas. And the Red Cross girl at the club made you trim a palm leaf Christmas tree, and you all had presents and sang the old carols, out there in the hot tropic night.

Maybe it doesn't sound like much. The Red Cross does a lot of bigger things . . . such as collecting blood plasma for the wounded . . . sending food packages to prisoners of war . . . clothes for bombed-out kids.

But to us, home seems just a little nearer, because your Red Cross is with us.

Americans: To keep at the side of your fighting men, your Red Cross Must have funds. Contributions from you are the ONLY source of income. Millions of our fighting men are still far from home. They need your Red Cross. They must have it.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR RED RIVER DAM

Plans Now Ready For Federal Approval Dunbar Announces

The Upper Red River flood control and irrigation project is now in a favorable position for approval by Congress and a federal appropriation, believes T. J. Dunbar, secretary of the organization.

The project, estimated to cost upward of $3,000,000 and which would impound sufficient flood waters to irrigate at least 100,000 acres of land, has been "kept alive" since the war started, although pigeon-holed temporarily. Consequently, it can be put back on the active list without any waste of time and should be one of the first projects of that nature to be approved for the postwar program.

Scores of other irrigation and flood control projects up for consideration when war broke out were cancelled and their sponsors must start from the ground up when they are revived. Through the efforts of Senator Tom Connally and the foresight of the officials of the Upper Red River organization, the local project was merely "tableted" for the duration.

Officials of the organization are of the opinion that the time is near at hand when Army engineers will be in position to act favorably on the construction of dams and congress will be disposed to authorize the necessary funds.

The Upper Red River dam would be built near the Hall-Briscoe county line and the three counties of Childress, Hall and Briscoe would benefit from irrigation possibilities.

Officials of the association, including President Roy E. Barr of Childress and Mr. Dunbar of Memphis, plan to go to Austin within a few days to ask the legislature for an appropriation to continue the preliminary work necessary before federal approval is given.

O. E. Bevers of Lakeview is vice-president of the association.

WOMEN WORK

By INEZ BAKER

It is time again to make our annual gifts to the Red Cross. Never has the need been so great. Our men are coming home, sick and often broken in spirit; there are many in prison camps; there are thousands of women and children who are cold and hungry. No one can reach these like the Red Cross and it is your gift and mine that make it possible. One letter from a soldier in a prison camp telling of what a package from or through the Red Cross meant to him, should be enough to empty our purses.

As usual the women of Hall county have a part in gathering in these gifts, and we know they will be larger than ever before. Our hearts are longing to do something and there seems to be so little we can do. But this we can do. The residential part of Memphis is divided into five sections and the following women will serve as chairmen of the various divisions: Mrs. O. V. Alexander, all of the section lying east

The General's wife and GI Joe meet on the polio battlefield. Mrs. Mark Clark and David Gallimore, visiting the Hickory (N. C.) Emergency Infantile Paralysis Hospital, brought hope and cheer to patients. Mrs. Clark is familiar with the problems of polio—two members of her family have been stricken with the disease. David knew it well—for he was a patient in the emergency hospital during the last summer's epidemic!

• America's contributions to the March of Dimes, January 14-31, make possible the relentless fight against infantile paralysis.

of 9th St. and south of main to the railroad; Mrs. Dick Watson, 9th St. west and Main St. south; Mrs. Mac Tarver, Main St. north and 10th St. west; Mrs. W. V. Coursey, 10th St. east and Main St. north to the railroad. Mrs. H. E. Childress will have all of the district lying east of the railroad including Morningside Addition. Each of these chairmen will call on a number of women in her district to assist.

These are busy women, as we all are, but when your reporter called them there was no hesitation, only the question, "What is my district and when do we start?" They and their committees will be ready and start work Monday morning, Feb. 12. Let us all be ready with our gifts, let the women's clubs be ready. Don't wait for a call, telephone the chairman of your section, or better still, send her your gift. Let's make this the largest amount the women have ever given to the Red Cross. Money is such a little thing compared to what others are giving.

I haven't got around to mentioning the Parnell auxiliary for sometime, but don't think these women are not working. It is not an easy thing for them to come the long distance to Memphis for materials but when there is anything for them to do, they come. I just wish the chairman of that auxiliary would come to see me sometimes. I like to hear what they are doing, and first hand, I am sure these women will be helping with the Red Cross roll call. You people of Parnell, don't let down. Help them put it over in a big way. It is going to be hard for them to see every one you make it a point to see them

Time for Planting Victory Gardens

The importance of "Victory Gardening for 1945" is emphasized by Dr. W. W. Yocum, professor of plant industry at Texas Technological College. "The food situation is not good," he says, according to writers in food journals and those who have surveyed the world situation. Dr. Yocum says:

Victory gardens supplied over 40 per cent of the fresh vegetables consumed by the civilians last year, to say nothing of the canned food from these gardens. The goal for 1945 is for 20,000,000 Victory gardens or for at least as much production as last year. So all loyal citizens who can, should plan now to continue this gardening effort. Let's do a better job gardening from the start. One of the worst handicaps to gardening is a late start. Get your seed supply early. Get the ground broken and in shape for planting early.

All vegetables that like good weather, and can stand some freezing, should be planted by Feb. 1. English peas should be planted Feb. 1 to 15 if they are to give a satisfactory yield. Plant an early variety and a mid-season variety, so production will be prolonged. Alaska, or Little Marvel are good early sorts, while Bliss Everbearing or Sure Cropper is good for mid-season.

Earliest planting of spinach, mustard, turnip, radish, onions, and lettuce should be made by Feb. 15. Most of these should be planted repeatedly, but the earliest plantings are usually the best. Heat is their greatest limiting factor.

Plan now for a fall garden. All vegetables that grow best in cool weather will thrive in the fall. Often they do better than in the spring, since they grow into cooler weather, they suffer less from birds and some insects; weeds are less troublesome if it is sown earlier in the summer. Cool season crops should be grown in just as great abundance in the fall as in the spring.

Fruit trees, vines, and bushes should be planted as early as possible in the spring after Feb. 1. Local purchases will save valuable time and you can see what you are getting, but be sure to get suitable varieties even if you must order them and delay a few days in planting. Most grape varieties suited to this section originated in Texas and should be obtained from Texas nurseries chiefly.

Most varieties of tree fruits which do best here are the same as those used in the Great Plains region to the north and northeast. They can best be obtained from that area where they are produced. Early Wonder black berry, the best for us, can be obtained from Arkansas and East Texas.

LOCAL MAN'S REGIMENT TAKES 3000-FOOT PEAK

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY Italy.—Pfc. George R. Wright, rifleman, whose sister, Mrs. Jody Webster lives at Estelline, is a member of the 337th "Wolverine" Regiment which recently took 3000-foot Mount Pratone in the Gothic Line, digging German soldiers out of elaborate concrete pill-boxes and earthworks on its forest slopes.

The 337th Infantry Regiment is in the 85th "Custer" Division, part of the Fifth Army in Italy. Its first was its toughest battle.

The regiment won all its objectives when it struck out for Tremensuoli in the Gustav Line last May 12, but in this battle lost a quarter of all the casualties it has suffered in seven months of warfare in Italy. At this time, one company captured a hill and held it against desperate German counterattacks for three days and nights, its numerical strength dwindling in this period to 18.

The 337th fought and won a bloody 72-hour battle before Terracina, playing a key role in the rupture of the Hitler Line. They moved on through Rome, across the Tiber River. The "Wolverine" Line at one of its points. They have steadily since, through the that separate ogra, overcoming made of mud, r, and living and meagre supplies, can carry up to backs.

Sgt. Wayne Loury Lands In France

Sgt. Wayne D. Loury wrote the following letter from France to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Loury. He is with a tank battalion.

January 20, 1945
Dear Mother and Dad:
I am ok and hope you are the same. I am somewhere in France. Enroute here we had an accident and I landed in the hospital but nothing serious. I would have written sooner if I could have, but couldn't. I expect to get out of the hospital any day now.
How is everything at home now? It is snowing here, but isn't too cold.
Say Pop, you should see the people, they sure have funny ways. If you could speak the lingo you would be O.K. It doesn't take too long to learn it though. How is your leg? I hope it's better now.
I saw one guy from Lamesa and talked to him a good while. I got sick coming over but soon got over it. I saw Jack Drake. He is O.K. So if you see Otie Jones, you can tell him. Well, I will ring off for now. Love,
WAYNE

WIDNESS

It is more difficult for peace-loving people to witness all its grim horror, its unending trail of sorrow and its utter waste of life and the people of this nation are in the third year of the most horrible war.

More blue stars in service flags turn to gold as the father or that father falls on a distant and unknown shore. Each day hundreds, or thousands, of men are sent to hospitals with grievous wounds. Each is a member of a family. Thousands yes millions, are in uniform are tired beyond belief of battle, of home and family. Yet they know they must

One of us but would give everything to lighten the burden of those whose men have been wounded. We could ease the pain of the injured, or still the grief of those who must fight on.

American Red Cross opens its campaign for funds, to share in lightening the burden of sorrow, in calming the nerves of the wounded.

American Red Cross was created just for that purpose through its channels of mercy we can do most for our help.

Red Cross is at the front keeping alive the atmosphere for the men who are fighting; the Red Cross is cheering the wounded and sending messages to their loved ones; the Red Cross is sending surgical dressings to save the lives of American soldiers. Red Cross is here at home to aid and assist families.

Through our Red Cross and through it you can do your part to ease the pain and blunt somewhat the horror that is

THE American Bankers Association conducted a nation-wide survey among 32,000 farmers in 1,400 counties, including every state, to find out what factors—other than money itself—that farmers want when they borrow. Here are the things that American farmers want—that you undoubtedly want—when you make a short-term or production type of loan:

- PROMPT SERVICE • FREEDOM FROM RED TAPE • LOW COST
  - FRIENDSHIP WITH LENDER • KEYED TO LOCAL FARM NEEDS
  - PERSONAL INTEREST • CONFIDENTIAL • CONVENIENT LOCATION
  - CONVENIENT REPAYMENT PLAN • STRAIGHT BUSINESS DEAL
- OTHER FINANCIAL SERVICES AVAILABLE

Your Bank is best equipped to give you what you want and need when you borrow. In a series of advertisements that will be published from time to time in the weeks ahead, we shall take up these various points separately.

decades has proved to be an effective means of building understanding and good-will among youth. Before the war the world Scout membership numbered more than three millions. Over seventy lands had Boy Scouts, all with the same ideals and enjoying practically the same program. Their regularly scheduled world jamborees or camps brought together every four years 25,000 and 50,000 boys from all over the world. The international friendships formed by these boys have spread in ever widening circles.

Both Mussolini and Hitler feared the power of Scouting and abolished the Scout organizations in their countries in favor of their own heel-clicking, hate-fostering youth programs. In the invaded countries they have persecuted Scouts with special vindictiveness. But Scouts met in secret and kept in touch with each other through the International Scout Bureau in London. They are prepared to take up where they left off as each country is liberated.

Now the Boy Scouts of America in observing their 35th Anniversary takes the theme "Scouts of the World—Brothers Together." The principles engendered by the Boy Scout program have the chance to be one of the strong links in universal world peace.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE
 DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

Dr. Ferdinand A. Hermans of Notre Dame University is quoted as saying: "The problem of freeing Germany from the Nazi is a job for the Germans themselves. They know who among their people can help in the clean up job by surrendering them to the Allies or they can hinder by concealing and protecting them. Whatever the old Germany might have been Dr. Hermans points out that a new generation has developed—a generation of Germans trained the Hitler way. Except for the old people and the Militarists of the "Old Army" school the Germans are for the most part converted to Nazi beliefs. Conquering the country is going to mean more than overrunning it by physical force of arms. It must if it is to remain conquered and cease to be a constant threat to thinking. This is going to require civilization, be changed in its a generation or two to do a thorough job. —Ford County News.

After finishing school he was assigned to the 33rd Postal Regulation Section and stationed in New Orleans, La., for nine months where he worked as postal clerk at the port of embarkation, Main city postoffice and with the railway transfer clerk at the union station. Before entering the service in January, 1944, he was postmaster at Lakeview.

Mrs. Amy Johnson received the following letter Tuesday from her son, T-Sgt. Walton C. Johnson, written January 8, from some where in France.

It is harder to fly from east to west than from west to east. The earth, turning on its axis from west to east, drags along an envelope of atmosphere, which when added to the prevailing winds that also move in the same direction make it necessary for west-bound fliers to buck headwinds all the way along the westward route.

36th 'Texas' Division Has Turned in Outstanding Record on Battle Field With 17,000 Prisoners to Its Credit

The 36th "Texas" Division has turned in quite a combat record since being in France and ample proof of their capabilities is revealed in a recent compilation of prisoner of war figures.

Included among the 17,000 prisoners taken by the division have been Major General Neuling, Commander of the LXII Reserve Corps, with his entire staff, and Brigadier General Richter, Commanding General of the 198th Infantry Division.

The "Texas" Division has processed through its cages and clearing stations soldiers from 10 German infantry divisions, one armored division, and a multitude of diversified military and semi-military units.

Prisoners have varied in age from sixteen to fifty-six, in nationality from German to Yugoslav to Central Asiatic. Not all of the prisoners were German soldiers. Scores of marines, sailors and even flight personnel were taken. Aside from making heavy inroads into the infantry strength of the Wehrmacht, troops of the 36th have captured from twenty-seven different anti-aircraft battalions; Luftwaffe ground units; ration depots and even bakery, butchery and sanitary companies. Also processed through the division cages were cadets from the Lyon Air Signal School, the Biarritz Anti-Aircraft School and several divisional battle schools. Members of the Nantes Harbor Police Force, the Gestapo, the Spanish Border Guard and the Toulouse Industrial Inspection Corps were represented among the captured groups.

Many of the prisoners were unable to identify any unit to which they belonged other than a squad or platoon.

Along with these prisoners came a tremendous quantity of documents. One document, a divisional order, outlined the German plan of attack which was to take place the day preceding the 36th Division's final destruction of the Montelmar pocket, in which the remnants of the German 19th Army rearguard were trapped. Hundreds of maps, sketches, overlays, strength reports and similar lists fell into the hands of the 36th, enabling them to gain a detailed picture of enemy strength, dispositions and equipment.

As the Texans passed over the crest of the Vosges Mountains the prisoners count from the Riviera to Alsace soared over the 17,000 mark. The 143rd Infantry Regiment alone processed more than 5,000 prisoners. The high point for a single day was 1,530, the number taken on August 30.

These figures reveal a strange history. In one case, a German reserve battalion yielded four hundred and forty-four prisoners more men being taken from it than it had ever had at one time. Another regiment was totally destroyed in the first week of 36th Division action. Many other Kraut divisions have had a complete turnover since being in action against the 36th.

Hitler's once-formidable Festung Battalion, originally intended as crack defensive troops of the Wehrmacht, have been reduced not only in strength but in the quality of manpower. These units are now being used as farming-out battalions for over-age, seriously wounded or physical incapacitated soldiers. Prisoners have been brought in with frozen feet, paralyzed arms and even glass eyes. Some of them are veterans of the Russian fronts, being discharged for wounds and ten later redrafted to fill gaps in the Western Front. Some of the men have been pulled from entertainment troupes to act as infantrymen, thrown into the line with a bare minimum of training and indoctrination, then thrown into the line with a bare minimum of training and indoctrination, then with meager rations and sub-standard communications as a holding force while the more-seasoned troops move back.

Scraping the bottom of their manpower barrel, the Germans have organized special battalions to handle men with specific diseases or ailments. Men have been brought in from Ohren Battalions—for the deaf; Augen Battalions—for those with eye trouble; and Magen Battalions—for those with functional stomach disorders.

So the war of attrition continues, with Hitler digging deeper and deeper into his manpower supply to replenish and back-up the few still-powerful units remaining to him. How much longer can he continue to dig?

Sgt. A. A. McDaniel With 398th Inf. In Historic Push

Baptism of fire is an experience few soldiers ever forget—and the men of the 398th Infantry Regiment of the 100th (Century) Division have special reason never to forget theirs. For they went into action for the first time in one of the toughest sectors of the long Sixth Army Group front in Eastern France.

The enemy held prepared positions in dense forests. Their doughnuts were deep, covered with logs, and well camouflaged. Their artillery was placed on the mountainous heights that rose above the forest level. Tank traps, booby-traps, and land mines—many of the latter ingeniously fitted with trip-wires—blocked the narrow routes and paths through the forest.

Still, against military obstacles like these, against a fanatic enemy, and in weather conditions that included rain and snow and ankle-deep mud, the 398th proceeded without delay to help take Baccarat, to cross the swift, flooded Meurthe River, and to press the Nazis further back toward the Rhine.

The 398th Infantry, with other units of the Century Division, was activated at Fort Jackson,

It proved that it learned its lessons well, for in the drive on Raon L'Etape, a strategic town on the 7th Army front, the regiment skillfully out-maneuvered the Nazis' prepared defenses and took the high ground which surrounds the town and commands a stretch of open terrain to the east—in the direction of the Rhine.

Included in this regiment is Sgt. Adrian A. McDaniel of Rt. 1, Memphis.

Q. How long will my son have to serve overseas before he is allowed to come home on a rotation furlough?

A. There is no specified period of overseas service after which rotation furloughs are granted. Considerations governing granting of such furloughs include the availability of replacements, facilities for transportation and many others. No soldier may go unless he can be spared from his organization. In selecting soldiers for rotation furloughs, however, commanding officers give preference to those who have served overseas longest.

Q. My husband has left for overseas. Will I get a 20 per cent increase in my family allowance to correspond with the 20 per cent increase he gets in his base pay for overseas service?

A. No increase is made in the family allowance of a soldier's dependents because of the overseas service of the soldier.

Q. Must a widow have been married to a veteran of World War I any specified length of time to be eligible for a pension?

A. Full information about a bill now in process to provide pensions for widows of World War Veterans may be secured from the nearest office of the Veterans Administration, which will administer such pensions.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—living—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feet tired, nervous, all worn out.
Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

Lack of the right kind of food can put a man or an animal in an awful run down condition and I've seen some sadly run down pastures which needed a well-balanced diet, too.

Grass responds to proper feeding better than most anything I know. Many demonstrations proving this have been set up in nearly every state. One of these took place in Wisconsin last year, sponsored by the College of Agriculture soils department.

It showed that as a result of spending $36.00 on ammonium nitrate a dairyman got back $272.94 in increased milk volume.

Liming frequently is the treatment most needed for pastures. A soil test is the first step to take in deciding how much lime and whether nitrogen, phosphate or potash are needed.

In addition to learning what is needed, you may save money by finding out one or another of those plant foods is not needed. Check with your county agent for this soil test.

USDA Farmers' Bulletin No. 1942 will give you some good suggestions on this subject and so will Circular 285 and Circular 289, both from the Extension Service, University of Missouri College of Agriculture, Columbia, Mo.

I bring up this subject now in the hope that you'll make your soil test and get your fertilizer ordered immediately so as to be sure and have it at hand when needed.

narian, to determine whether any animals are infected.

Mastitis can be detected in its early stages. It can be controlled. Neglect will cause more serious infection and may eventually mean complete loss of production.

The secret of controlling mastitis is correct milking procedures: (1) cleaning udders with a chlorine solution before milking, (2) milking clean cows first, milking infected cows next and lastly infected cows last, (3) in hand milking wash hands in sudsy water before each cow is milked, (4) don't let teat cups crawl, (5) sterilize teat cups before each cow is milked.

Circular 385, Extension Service, University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo., and USDA Farmers' Bulletin 1422 will be most helpful to you on this subject.

Maybe you've heard the one about the youngster who was a lot of trouble to his teachers. His mother explained that before the boy was born, she was deeply affected by reading Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield" and added, "Junior has been a little Dickens ever since."

I imagine it would be difficult to prove that point but here's a fact along the same line which has been proved—the care a cow gets at freshening time very largely will determine how productive she will be during her milking period.

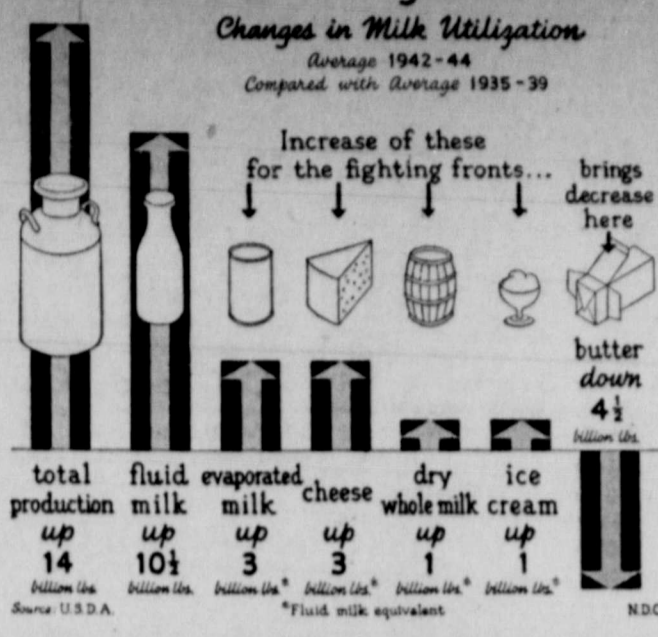

Many cows will be freshening in coming weeks and I suggest you get a copy of a special circular "Care at Calving Time is Important" from the Extension Service, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., for recommendations on handling.

It lays down some simple but effective rules which will do much to insure top condition of the cow. It suggests reducing grain feeding two weeks before calving; providing a suitable calving stall; giving the cow warm water and a warm bran mash immediately after the calf is born; bringing cows up to full feed gradually after calving.

*NOTE: There usually is a 3c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

A GIANT INDUSTRY Gears to War

"Where did the butter go?" is quickly answered by a study of this chart by the National Dairy Council. Eight billion pounds of fluid milk are necessary to make the extra cheese, dry whole milk, evaporated milk, and ice cream for America's fighting forces and for Lend-Lease. An additional 10 1/2 billion pounds of milk are being consumed to maintain the efficiency of war workers and the physical stamina of American civilians. This represents total increased requirements of 18 1/2 billion pounds of milk.

Milk production since the prewar period has increased over 14 billion pounds. This leaves a deficit of about 4 1/2 billion pounds of milk which has been shifted from butter production to other concentrated milk products also needed on the fighting fronts. That shift accounts for a reduction of 215 million pounds of butter, which, in addition to about 370 million pounds of butter a year taken by the government for fighters and for Lend-Lease accounts for a reduction of nearly five pounds per capita for civilians.

Most of the amount of milk sacrificed by civilians is going to the fighting forces in the form of their favorite spread—butter. The balance is helping to win the war by keeping workers and fighters properly nourished with other concentrated milk products.

Range, Livestock Improvement in '44

The condition of Texas livestock and range feed rated uniformly higher at the end of 1944 than at the corresponding time 12 months earlier.

The January 1 report of the Bureau of Agriculture Economics, Austin, received by the A. and M. College Extension Service shows that cattle continued in good flesh. The reported condition of 81 per cent was five points higher than one year previously, but the same as the 20 year average. Cold, wet weather had caused some shrinkage, especially in cattle grazing wheat pastures. But grain and roughage supplies, were considered adequate in most areas if the remainder of the winter is not unusually severe.

The report gives sheep and lambs an even higher rating. They were in good condition and reported at 84 per cent at the year end. This compared with 79 per cent the preceding year, and 83 per cent for the 20-year average. Moisture conditions were reported favorable in most of the sheep country and, although cold weather in December retarded growth of winter weeds and grass, early spring range prospects were promising. More ewes than usual have been bred to lamb in February.

The report, prepared by V. C. Childs and F. E. Finley, agricultural statisticians, defines range feed conditions as continuing above average at the close of the year, despite a "more than seasonal" decline during December.

While most areas have good range feed and adequate supplies of grain and roughage, it explains, winter weeds and grass were making rather slow growth as a result of continued cold weather. At the same time, there was a scarcity of green feed in most districts, and small grain pastures were becoming depleted in parts of the Panhandle and curtailed generally by freeze damages.

Regardless, the outlook was bright. Moisture conditions were very favorable and only a short period of warm weather was needed to promote good growth of winter weeds, grass and small grains, the report says.

Sixty-four persons had crossed the Atlantic Ocean by air before Charles Lindberg made his solo flight. Several airplanes and the English dirigible, R-34, had made trips across.

OPENING of NEW
WOODWORK AND FURNITURE REPAIR

I have just opened my new shop at the corner of North 6th and Brice streets, and am prepared to do all kinds of woodwork and furniture repairing. In the woodwork department of this shop, all kinds of heavy sawing, planing, etc., will be done. The equipment includes a heavy duty band saw, big heavy planer and miscellaneous woodworking equipment. These machines and tools have been set up and are now ready for use. Wagon hounds, wagon tongues and wagon felloes will be made, as well as some forms of wagon rims. Among other items to be manufactured here are chair rockers and wooden toys.

Bring your furniture here for repairs. Also wooden toys. If the toys can't be repaired, a new one will be made. Plans are now complete for making a line of wooden toys, as well as certain types of woodwork which can only be produced in a well equipped shop.

Try Hot Water Plus After Meals For Acid Indigestion

If the thousands of unfortunate people, who suffer from so-called dyspepsia, acid indigestion, food fermentation, sour stomach, flatulence, gas or other stomach distress brought on by excess acid would just try drinking slowly after each upstating meal half a glass of real hot water containing one spoonful of Neutraid they can usually get amazingly quick relief in a very few minutes. Neutraid is not a laxative—it is soothing and comforting to the mucous membranes and very agreeable to take. Neutraid—a physician's formula can now be obtained at Standard Pharmacy or any first class drug store.

"MAGIC MANNA"

• Yes, modern vitamins well deserve the term of "magic manna," so astonishing is the part they play in restoring vigor and sparkle to listless individuals. If you are not "up to par" physically; if you seem to lack appetite and energy, then it may well be that a vitamin deficiency is robbing you. Better go and have a talk with your Physician. He will be able to diagnose your condition, determine the particular vitamins you require, and prescribe them as indicated. And may we suggest that you bring his prescription here to be carefully compounded. Our stocks are fresh and potent.

Our thanks to a Country Editor

YOU get a pretty good view of the world from a small-town newspaper office. Sometimes you see things that other folks overlook. For instance, this frank statement by the editor of The Dierks (Arkansas) Banner:

The Banner is one of the last papers in the country to raise its subscription price. Many over the U. S. having done so a year or more ago. The cost of practically everything that goes into the production of a newspaper has advanced, except electricity used in running the machinery and lighting the plant. In normal times there was little if any profit in subscriptions at $1.00 a year. If the information contained in even a newspaper publication

We're grateful to the editor for pointing out a fact more and more people are realizing—that at a time when most things are scarce and expensive, electricity is still plentiful and cheap. That just goes to show what companies like ours can do for you by hard work and experience and sound business management.
