Lt. Glen Bowman Wins Bronze Star as Tank Leader

Sergeant Glen D. Bowman, son of Mrs. Quay V. Bowman of Paris, has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroic action in Germany on July 7, 1945. He is with the 1st Infantry Reconnaissance Squadron, a citation which Mrs. Bowman received this week, his commander described the action which resulted in Sgt. Bowman winning the Bronze Star.

As his platoon closed on the remains of a German town, Sgt. Bowman, a tank commander, led an enemy machine gunner from the far end of the town. Realizing that this gun could cause considerable casualties if not neutralized at once, Sgt. Bowman ordered his platoon to dismount and follow him to cover. He manned the anti-aircraft gun on his tank and deflected a daring attack against the position. Although the enemy was heavily armed with Panzer tanks, the speed and boldness of Sgt. Bowman's attack did not allow fire to be delivered upon his tank. He over-ran and destroyed the enemy machine gunner which he directed his driver to a court yard to force the remainder of the enemy to surrender. The continued fire of machine gun forced the enemy to flee into the street where they were captured by the dismounted members of his squad.

Mrs. Bowman received the following letter from Lt. Col. Robert O'Brien, who is Sgt. Bowman's commander:

It is a pleasure to send you enclosed citation which you received when he was awarded the Bronze Star.

The 38th Cavalry has acquired a splendid reputation among the troops of the Western Front because of acts and services of men like Sgt. Bowman. A grateful government cannot attempt to reward a man who performs such deeds, because their value cannot be measured by any ordinary means. All that the country can do is to acknowledge his deeds in a bestow upon him a mark of distinction which will be recognized as a badge of honor.

Pantex Official Is Rotary Speaker

R. J. Wheeler, of the public relations office of Pantex, furnished the program at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday noon.

Mr. Wheeler told how to 105 mm. shells and the 500 pound bombs are loaded at Pantex. Going into detail, he said the plant is operating 24 hours a day and turning out shells and bombs that will be used in the war against Japan.

There has not been a single major explosion at the plant during the years it has been operating, although such explosives as TNT are handled by the workers. Working conditions at this plant can be favorably compared with those in other industries. Special clothing is furnished for explosive operators and every effort is exerted to care for all employees.

The address by Mr. Wheeler was declared by the Rotarians to be one of the most interesting they have heard in months. George Thompson was program chairman for the day.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

Another Reader of The Democrat sends a copy of the Pacific Edition of the Leatherneck showing the picture of the American Flag being raised on Iwo Jima, with a notation, "Sir: I wonder if you can find 1st Lt. John Keith Wells on this picture. For the life of me I can't. Maybe I need a magnifying glass."

The picture is one that has been adopted for the War Bond campaign, but is not the picture of Keith and his bunch planting the flag on Iwo Jima. He was in the bunch that raised the first flag—not the one shown in Leatherneck which was the second raising of the flag. Life Magazine carried the story and showed both the first and second flag raising.

The weather man seems to be all mixed up these days. One day will be hot and the next cold. A conglomeration that is retarding planting and growing of crops. Then, too, clouds will form and threaten, but in the windup only light showers fall, accompanied by hail. And most of this section of the country needs an "evener."

Clean-Up Week approaches rapidly, and this is a reminder that Memphis can be made a city beautiful if all people of the town will put in a little extra effort during the next week or two. The designated time for clean up begins May 28, but that doesn't mean you have to wait until then to start work. By the way, while cleaning and burning trash, weeds, limbs, rags, and what have you, why not get rid of a lot of wild rye, which seems to be the prolific crop growing in Memphis. If wild rye seed had a market, it would beat a feed crop all hollow. Cut it town and in a day or two it will burn like dry hay. Then there are overhanging limbs of trees that need attention. People going along most any sidewalk in town dodge and dodder like an automatic Percy, trying to keep their hats from being brushed off. Don't forget the lawns, shrubs, flowers, trees, and buildings etc. that need repairing and painting.

Matilda Upstarr thinks fast driving on streets of Memphis should be curbed.

Army's Point System To Decide Who Can Come Home

1,300,000 Men Will Be Released

The U. S. Army last week set up its point system for release of enlisted soldiers, following the unconditional surrender of the Germans. Every soldier who will be discharged must have a minimum score of 85 points to be eligible for such discharges. The points are figured on the basis of service credit, overseas duty, participation in combat and parenthood.

Approximately 1,300,000 men are to be released during the next 12 months under the point system. On May 12, the Army released the first contingent under the new set-up.

Over in Europe, men with the total or above of 85 points will start moving sometime this week for separation centers. The points for each of the four factors for discharge of ground, air, and service force personnel are as follows:

SERVICE CREDIT—One point for each month of Army service since Sept. 16, 1940. This is the same as 12 points per year. (More than 15 days will be counted as a full month.)

OVERSEAS CREDIT—One

Soldiers' Medal, Bronze Star Medal, Air Medal, Purple Heart and Bronze Service Stars (battle participation stars).

Credit also will be given for the following naval decorations to Army personnel: Navy Cross, Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Silver Star Medal, Distinguished Flying Cross, Navy and Marine Medal, Bronze Star Medal, Air Medal, and Purple Heart Medal.

In addition credit will be given for awards and decorations of a foreign country which may be accepted and worn under War Department regulations in effect when this program went into operation.

The War Department said the method for releasing officers will be "tougher than the plan for enlisted personnel because officers have received additional training, have heavier responsibilities and have developed specialized skills and leadership capacity."

The department said enlisted men with the highest point totals will become eligible for release from the Army "except where considerations of military necessity make it impossible to let them go until qualified replacements can be obtained. This exception applies to men possessing special skills required in the war against Japan and to men in units that will have to move into the Pacific so swiftly that no opportunity is provided for replacing men with high scores until they reach the new theater."

Because of the special requirements of the war against Japan, the strength of the army service forces and air forces will be reduced much less than the strength of ground forces. However, through transfers of some low-score forces and new trainees, a proportionate share of men will be released from all three forces as rapidly as possible.

When soldiers who are surplus overseas arrive in this country they will proceed from ports to one of the 22 reception stations. At these reception stations soldiers having the required scores will be screened once more to determine whether they are essential.

Those found non-essential will be transferred immediately to a separation center for processing prior to release. This processing will take only about 48 hours, after which the soldier will be on his way home as a civilian.

The War Department said its demobilization plan will not affect the continued release of enlisted men over 42 years of age, which was started recently. Holders of the medal of honor also

Childress to Have Thrilling 'Here's Your Infantry'

Audiences in this area will find the "Here's Your Infantry" show an awesome and thrilling spectacle when it is staged in Childress on May 18 but to members of the 40-soldier company it is pretty tame stuff.

They've all been in the real thing, when the bullets flying over meant death instead of excitement for the crowds.

The average overseas time of these infantrymen is 30 months each; their individual records range from five months to 61 months of service outside the States. Their combat theater ribbons are heavily encrusted with battle stars. Unit members hold thirty-four special citations, including one Distinguished Service Cross, and thirteen are Purple Heart wearers. Twenty-three of the forty are native Texans.

The fury of battle action, which its terrible destruction of vital equipment and precious lives, is enacted by this Infantry unit as a powerful appeal for greater bond purchases in Texas' Seventh War Loan. State war loan leaders predict that the tough goal of $168,000,000 in Texas, will shrink to insignificance when those who are asked only to buy bonds have witnessed this battle show.

Simultaneously with the appearance of the West Texas unit that will visit Childress, will be similar performances through the eastern part of the state. Forty-two Texas cities in all will be given the opportunity to see "Here's Your Infantry."

Infantrymen back from overseas will bring actual front line battle, with nothing omitted but the casualties, to Childress on Friday, May 18, in the "Here's Your Infantry" show that will be a feature event of the 7th War Loan drive.

Feature of "Here's Your Infantry" will be the attack by a jungle assault team on a Japanese pillbox. Machine guns, bazookas, flame throwers, hand grenades and demolition charges will be utilized. An infantry rifle squad will also be assembled and equipped for battle, with the basic weapons.

Before and after the show, spectators may view an exhibit of Infantry weapons and equipment and "C" rations will be given to each woman visitor.

The show starts in the City Park football stadium at 8:30 P. M.

The sun is said to shine first, in the United States, on Mt. Katahdin, Maine. It is the highest point in the easternmost state.

Before entering the Navy December 1, Kennedy was engaged in the theater business in Memphis.

Texas' newest carbon black plant will be located in Hardin County near Liberty. The output of this plant will be used in making synthetic rubber.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB
of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

I'm glad I don't have to claim responsibility for this one. A dairyman in Minnesota says you can't expect good results from a cow which is utterly neglected.

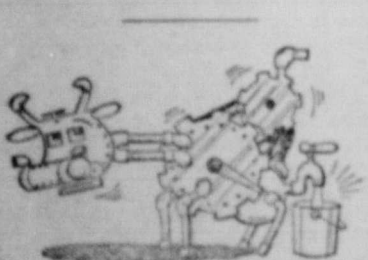

That brings up the matter of cutting milk losses, as discussed in the March-April Kraftman. One of the ways is to be sure cows are clean at milking time, particularly around the flanks and udders—or should I say udder places?

Six rules are listed as essentials to producing clean milk. In addition to clean, healthy cows, they are:

Clean and sterile utensils; use small top pails; prompt cooling; clean, healthy milkers; and dry-hand or correct machine milking.

If you follow these rules exactly, you'll make sure of doing your full share in getting all your milk in usable condition to a plant where it can be used for the war effort.

Write Uncle Bob at 500 Peshtigo Court, Chicago 90, Ill., and I'll send you a booklet giving full details on these six points. Ask for "Care of Milk on the Farm."

Did you ever stop to think what a marvelous machine a cow is? This "machine" produces yearly many times its own weight in just about the most valuable product the world has ever known—milk.

In any manufacturing plant, the rate of production of each machine must be known. When one of the machines fails to come through with the proper production, it is scrapped and a better one installed.

Which brings me up to the matter of keeping records in a dairy herd. There'll come a day sooner or later when you'll want to know which cows are making a profit for you and which ones you can spare. You won't want to get rid of any high producers, naturally.

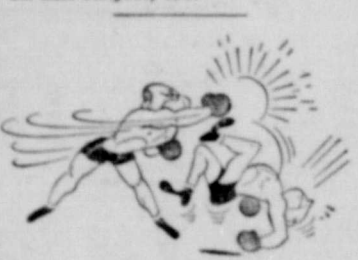

Dairying is a business. So to operate on a business basis and to operate at a profit, you need to know what your "producing machines" are doing for you. You can figure your cost of production per milk cow, by keeping records.

If you start doing this now, you won't have to guess—you'll know—which cows are the profit makers and the ones from which to raise replacements.

In every state, you'll find some fine examples of how profits have gained, over a period of years, because records of production were kept. Your county agent can tell you all about DHIA or cow-testing associations and what they will do for you.

Extension Bulletin 195, Extension Service, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., is well worth looking over on this subject, too.

Here's a lightweight item which will carry a heavyweight punch in your battle of production.

I'm speaking of brome grass, which is finding a place in rotation pasture programs in nearly every section.

One of its great virtues is that it provides forage in summer months, when some other pasture grasses slow up. Also, it is long-lived—Ohio reports one plot which has been growing for 25 years.

The "lightweight" angle is the weight of seed—14 to 20 pounds per bushel—which presents a seeding problem, but mixing with fertilizer or with out is helping solve this.

You can sow brome in spring, summer or fall, in most areas with good results, the Ohio extension service points out. I suggest you look into this grass as a good item to plan for your pasture program.

Another good booklet on the subject of "correct milking" reached me recently. It is a special circular entitled "Better Milking Saves Time," issued by The Extension Service, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis.* You'll want to add it to your collection. Ask for it by name.

*NOTE: There usually is a 3c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state; but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

United Gas Corp. Again Offering Free Canning Aid

The public will again be offered free canning aids by United Gas Corporation this year, according to R. U. Lindsey, district manager.

With each country liberated by the Allies, more and more responsibility falls upon America to supply much needed food to the starving thousands in Europe. For this reason everyone should take an active part in the conservation of food in this country. Home canning contributes greatly towards supplying more food for our troops and those of our Allies.

Realizing the great need for home canning, United Gas Corporation for the past four years has supplied canning aids to the public. Together with thousands of canning booklets, several million of the popular canning labels have been given away during this time. The use of these labels has simplified the labeling of canned goods. A place for the name of the vegetable or fruit is provided.
 All the home canner has to do is to fill the space and dampen the glued side, then apply to the surface of the jar or can, making sure that the surface is free from dirt or grease.

The canning booklets have always been in great demand by the housewife because of the simple and complete manner in which instructions for canning were presented. Directions for home canning are discussed in detail, and everything necessary to successful canning is listed in the booklet.

Charles Flannery Dies of Wounds on Okinawa April 30

First Lt. Charles W. Flannery died April 30 from wounds received in action on Okinawa, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Flannery, 5535 Merrimac, were advised late Thursday.

Flannery enlisted in the Marines in August, 1942, and went overseas in May, 1943, as a member of the 6th Marine Division. His parents received a letter last week in which he told of having been shot in the stomach by a Jap sniper. He said, however, that he was over the critical period and was on his way to recovery.

Shortly after receipt of information that he had died, his parents received a letter from one of Flannery's friends, Lt. John Bookhout, who gave details of the wound, a subsequent operation and the death. Bookhout, also from Dallas, said the burial procession was forced to travel seventy miles over rugged terrain to intern the body.

Flannery was a journalism graduate of Southern Methodist University. While in school he was selected for representation in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, the selection being based on fulfilling certain requisites including good grades, participation in student activities and leadership ability.

He was a member of the Times-Herald staff before his enlistment.

Flannery served in the Bougainville, Guam, Emerau and Okinawa campaigns. He is survived by his parents and a brother, Lt. (jg) Jerry T. Flannery, now in training for overseas duty in Oregon.

—Dallas News, May 12

The Flannery family lived in Memphis for a number of years and Charles graduated from Memphis High School in May 1933. He was editor of the school paper and worked as reporter on The Democrat quite a lot.

Advantages of Diversified Farming

By WAYNE DUDLEY ADAMS

(This is the first of a series of eight essays written by 4-H Club boys of this county in a recent contest. Each writer won a registered gilt, and competed with members of all 16 clubs of Hall County. Due to the amount of research these 12 and 13-year-old boys have done, they now know many of the advantages of raising cattle, hogs and poultry in a diversified farming program.)

Cattle and hogs were first brought to Florida from the West Indies in 1638 and were all killed, but it was not until 1838 that they were imported. The hogs were long-legged and thin, the cattle were light and wiry and cows produced only enough milk for their calves. Gradually, however, fine animals were imported from Europe and from the careful breedings, produced splendid, present-day herds of beef and beef cattle, the enormous short legged pork and lard producing hogs.

In the early days sheep were small and a light coat of course wool now sheep yield from 15 to 20 pounds of wool.

Flocks of hens averaged only two or three eggs yearly and average at least 120 eggs yearly.

the chief beef exporting nations are Argentina and Australia.

The total number of swine is less than that of either cattle or sheep. The hog is the chief producing animal of the world. Hogs cannot live upon grass but require a more concentrated food. They are found, therefore, wherever grain is grown because the feeding of grain to hogs usually results in a more valuable food production. More than one-quarter of the American corn crop goes to market as pork. In fact the corn belt is the center of the hog raising industry.

According to the purpose for which they are raised, modern breeds of swine are divided chiefly into lard hogs and bacon hogs. The Poland-China, Duroc-Jersey and Chester White hogs are of the first class, and when fattened on corn, may yield as much as 50 per cent of their live weight into lard. The Tamworth and the Yorkshire are typical bacon producing breeds. China is first in swine production and followed by the United States, Germany, Russia and Spain.

Poultry raising is the most universal form of animal industry. All countries raise poultry. In the United States there is an average of only about 72 chickens to each reporting farm, yet the annual production of eggs amounts to some 2,391 million dozens. China leads in the production of eggs with Russia second. Turkeys, ducks, geese and guinea fowls amount to about 4 per cent of the value of all poultry in the United States.

Of about 100 standard varieties of domestic chickens, the best-known fall into three classes. The Asiatic, meat producing type, such as the Brahmans, Cochins and Langshans. The Mediterranean, egg laying type which includes Leghorns, Minorcas and Anconas; and the American, general utility type, represented by the Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds.

Pvt. McWhorter Helps Wounded While Under Fire

Private Julius B. McWhorter, a company aid man serving with the Fifth Army in Italy, is now entitled to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge. His wife, Freda, and mother, Mrs. T. I. McWhorter, live in Memphis.

He is a member of the 2nd Battalion, 350th "Battle Mountain" Regiment, which received the Distinguished Unit Citation for its part in repelling German counterattacks launched throughout a week on Mt. Battaglia. Pvt. McWhorter and other medical men of the 2nd Battalion handled casualties of all battalions of the 350th during the Battle Mountain fighting. It was located close to the scene of combat and evacuation of wounded to other battalion aid stations would have necessitated long bitter hauls over treacherous terrain. During the series of German counterattacks, the first site of the battalion's station was shelled down to a single room. Several direct hits were scored on the roof of the building to which the station was next moved.

Mules carry battalion aid equipment where jeeps cannot pass, but the medics like Pvt. McWhorter carry their own gear, including an infantry field pack, two first aid pouches, sedatives, dressings and sulfanilamide, and commonly weighing as much as 60 pounds.

The action for which the badge was awarded happened shortly before the Germans surrendered.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well 24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. IT'S ALL IN THE WAY YOU LOOK AT IT!

MAYBE you won't thank us for reminding you of the H C of L. But it doesn't seem nearly so high when you look at it in the light of your electric bills!

Almost alone among household necessities, the price of electricity has not spiraled upward with war. In fact, official government figures* show that the average price of electricity has actually dropped 3.2% since 1939!

That's especially good news now, but it continues a long-time trend. Electric prices have been coming down so steadily that the average American family gets about twice as much electricity for its money today as it did 15 years ago.

If your bill is no smaller, it's because you're using more electricity to do more jobs than you did then. But the saving is there.

It has been accomplished by America's light and power companies in spite of rising costs and taxes—on top of huge war demands for service that were met without delay, shortage or rationing.

It was done by efficiency and experience and sound business management—by the same American enterprise which built our nation and on which its future depends.

Something To Think About!

Many of you will be wanting Refrigerators, Radios, etc., soon. HOW ARE YOU GOING TO DECIDE WHERE TO BUY THEM?

- Will you buy them from the mail order houses that not only put out inferior merchandise, but, instead of helping win the war, declared themselves too big to obey the War Labor Board?
- Will you buy from the dealer who has kept the ones going during the war that were sold before the war?
- Or will you buy them from dealers who, when you had trouble, answered, "Don't you know we have a war on. Come in after the war."
- Will you buy the kind that you see at all the service places broken down . . . or will you buy the kind which you never see at service places?
- Will you buy the quiet, economical kind or the electricity eating noisy ones?

NOW IS THE TIME TO BEGIN LOOKING AROUND AND SEE WHICH HAVE STOOD THE TEST AND WHICH HAVEN'T!

Each member invited three mothers as their guests. A corsage of white carnations was given to Mrs. Crews for being the oldest mother present and one of red carnations was given to Mrs. Frank Foxhall for being the youngest mother present. Twenty-five members and guests attended.

Louise Rogers and Sue Ann Roberts In Piano Recital

(By Reporter)

Presented in a joint piano recital Sunday afternoon at the First Christian Church, were Sue Ann Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts, and Louise Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Rogers. Assisting was Don Monzingo, vocalist, with Lois Wines as accompanist.

Both are pupils of Mrs. L. B. Madden and talented young musicians, showing great promise of future attainment. The poise and fluency with which they played reflected credit on both students and teacher.

Selections from Beethoven, Chopin, Greig, Debussy, Frlim, Lecuona, Kreisler, Chamanade and Rosbach were used.

This recital was the culmination of seven years training with Mrs. Madden.

The church, artistically decorated with spring flowers, formed an appropriate background for the occasion. A large and appreciative audience enjoyed the program.

County's Waste Paper Goes Into Making 'Suits of Armor'

Residents of Hall county can supply enough waste paper for 46,450 "suits of armor" for 105 mm. shells, if they will buckle down and save an average of 10 pounds of newspapers, wrapping papers and boxes a month. The 105's are the big ones that have been helping American forces in their advance toward Berlin and Tokyo.

Last year Americans saved 106 1-2 pounds of paper per capita, or enough for about 35 containers each for the 105 mm. shells.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain.

Cardul is a liquid medicine which relieves women's pain by acting on the cramp-like spasm and the distressing strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build resistance for the "next" cycle.
- 2 Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Deliveries on new Royals will be made as rapidly as production permits, and of course the earlier you place your order, the earlier you'll get delivery.

Launches Intensive Attack on Meat Black Market

A new intensive attack on the meat black market has been launched on a nation-wide scale, according to the District Office of Price Administration.

The way was cleared for the campaign by Congressional approval of sufficient funds to enable the agency to enlarge its small meat enforcement staff and by the government's new meat program.

A series of steps have been taken to improve meat distribution over the next few months, but no great over-all increase in total meat supplies can be expected before next fall. "Even with the expected improvement, there will not be enough meat to take care of war demands and at the same time give civilians all the meat they would like to buy, and as long as there is a shortage there are bound to be some people who will profiteer at others expense," district OPA officials said.

This problem is being tackled to the full extent of OPA's resources, but the greatest help will come from a full understanding of the problem, officials stated, adding "what is needed is some old-fashioned public indignation against anyone who buys or sells meat above ceiling prices or without proper ration stamps."

The World Must Have More FOOD

It is more important now than ever before that every farmer should plant more feed to be fed to livestock in order that this nation—especially our boys in uniform—continue to have plenty of food. Not only our own people, but those living in other nations must be fed. The job has once again been handed to the farmers to produce this food.

Let's see that plenty of feed is raised this year. And the best way to be sure of this is to plant high quality seed from our stock. Just check the following list: :

Will you hold a FAT-SALVAGE BEE for your country?

HERE IN AMERICA, when a neighbor needs help, it has always been the custom for all the folks to pitch in and give him a hand. Many a harvest would have been lost without the help of a husking bee.

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS a fat-salvage bee right now! Millions of tons of fat have been used up to supply the thousands of battlefield and home-front needs in this war. And there's still a lot of war ahead!

A PLEA TO EVERY WOMAN! Our country is calling on you, the women in small cities and towns and on the farms, to save every drop of used fat. Your used fats are desperately needed to meet our country's requirements.

So scrape all pans and roasters. Skim soups and gravies. Keep your used fats in a tin can—any kind will do. Save meat trimmings and plate scrapings in a bowl; . . . it them down and add the liquid fat to your can.

When the salvage can is full, take it to your butcher. He'll give you 2 red points and up to four cents for every pound. If you have any difficulty turning in your used fats, call your Home Demonstration or County Agent.

Needed this year: 100,000,000 more pounds of used fats

THE JAPS THINK WE WILL LET DOWN

Maybe you don't know it, but Jap leaders are drinking toast to America.

They count on us to let down. They think now that Germany is defeated America will slow up. They know of our huge stockpiles of war material, but believe they can make us exhaust these supplies.

But there are 35 million Japs working seven days a week, 14 to 16 hours a day. In addition, 400 million slaves living in countries which they have overrun are producing raw materials, finished weapons of war and foodstuffs. And even if tired, they can't let down.

According to available information, the Japs have material for many years of war. They stand ready to sacrifice many millions of men to hold onto their ill-gotten gains.

It's a long way from Berlin to Tokyo, 14,000 miles, and we must bridge that huge gap. That's going to take hard work, money, sacrifice. The men in the army and navy are ready to do their job.

Our job on the home front is to be prepared to back them up. The Mighty 7th War Loan affords an opportunity, and bigger and more war bonds in the hands of the public will give support to the all-out war effort against Japan in the months to come.

Your community committee has set your quota. If you haven't bought those bonds, do so now. We need to keep the world's greatest Army and Navy going thousands of miles from home, and it will take the support of everyone to do this.

Answers to Questions On Demobilization

In the following release, United Press answers many questions about the Army's point system for the demobilization of 1,300,000 soldiers during the next 12 months:

Q. Who decided the basis on which soldiers are to be selected for discharge?

A. The enlisted men themselves, through questionnaires and interviews all over the world.

Q. If a soldier overseas is to be discharged, will he be sent home?

A. In a few cases, within a few weeks. More probably it will be several months and it may be as long as a year.

Q. When a soldier does arrive in this country and is eligible for discharge, how long will it be then before he gets home?

A. He will go from the port of embarkation to a reception station close to his home area. There are 17 of these already in operation and five more will begin operating in June. A soldier found eligible for discharge after a final screening at the reception station will be sent immediately to a separation center at the same post for processing for release from the Army. The complete process in a separation center will take about 48 hours, after which he will be on his way home as a civilian.

Q. Will every soldier who has the required number of points be discharged?

A. No. Men with special skills required in the war against Japan will be kept until qualified replacements can be obtained regardless of their point score. Men whose units move rapidly from Europe to the Pacific may have no chance to be replaced before they reach the new theater.

Q. Who makes the final decision whether a man eligible for discharge must be kept in uniform?

A. The Army wants to be certain that such cases represent military necessity, not merely military convenience. Review boards composed of "selected mature officers" will pass on every case where an individual with a score equal or to or above the critical score is retained by reason of military necessity.

Q. In adding up his credits can a soldier count a decoration each time he has won it?

A. Yes. For instance if he has an air medal with three clusters, he can take credit for 20 points—five for the medal and five for each cluster, which represents an additional award of the same honor.

Q. Does service in Panama or Alaska count as overseas service?

A. Yes. Service anywhere outside the continental United States counts as overseas service.

Q. What about odd days in figuring length of service or length of overseas service?

A. If it is less than 15 days, it does not count. It is 15 days or more it counts as a full month.

Q. Will the men who have the largest number of points be brought home and discharged first?

A. Not necessarily. The Army will give consideration in shipping space to soldiers who have been long overseas without furloughs, but it cannot undertake to bring men home for discharge in the order of their point scores.

Q. Is there any time limit on earning credit points toward discharge?

A. Yes. Nothing that occurs after May 12, 1945, will be scored on a soldier's adjusted service rating card.

Q. But suppose a soldier is awarded a decoration or a battle star in the future for an action that occurred some time ago?

A. He can take credit for it under the point system if the action occurred on or before May 12, 1945.

Q. Suppose a soldier overseas became a father before May 12, 1945, but did not learn about it until after he had filled out his rating card?

A. Credit will be given for children born on or before May 12 but whose birth was not known to the father at the time the scores were prepared.

Q. Can a soldier with a critical score high enough to be discharged remain in the army if he wants to?

A. Yes if he can be used.

Q. What about a man 42 years old or over who was eligible for discharge upon application because of his age, but does not have sufficient credits for discharge under the point system?

A. He still may ask for and get his discharge. The new program does not affect the rule governing discharges for age.

Q. Do such awards as the presidential unit citation and the combat infantryman badge earn credit points for discharge?

A. No. Only the specified list of decorations count.

Q. Does a man without overseas service have any chance to be discharged?

A. The Army estimates that 98 per cent of those discharged under the demobilization plan will be men with overseas service. The other two per cent will be fathers who have been in the Army a long time.

Q. If a soldier had served with the forces of another Allied country before entering the U. S. Army, would that previous service count in his credit?

A. Yes. That part of it which was subsequent to Sept. 16, 1940, it would be used in computing his total length of service overseas.

Q. Why is Sept. 16, 1940, used as the starting date in computing length of service?

A. That was the date on which the Selective Service law was enacted.

HALL COUNTY PEOPLE URGED TO EAT CABBAGE

Hall County meal planners were asked by WFA to step up purchases of cabbage and help make full use of the wartime food supply.

Encouraging increased use, E. C. Munro, district representative, WFA's Office of Supply, said plentiful supplies now in vegetable bins must be used immediately if waste of a perishable crop is to be prevented.

One of the best ways to balance out wartime meals, he explained, is to use more of the abundant, fresh foods and go easy on other foods not so plentiful on retail shelves. The average bee hive yields about 17 pounds of honey a year.

ANOTHER CHORE FOR MILLIONS OF FARM BOYS

This official U. S. Navy photograph of American boys landing under enemy fire on a Pacific island is typical of the hard, bloody jobs our troops are doing—and will continue to do for many weary months to come—for you and for all Americans.

Give them a hand—

BUY TWICE AS MANY BONDS IN THE MIGHTY 7th WAR LOAN!

It's now—now when America can't afford to falter... NOW is the time for you to back up our fighting men by buying twice as many War Bonds in this mighty 7th War Loan as you ever did before.

More of everything will be needed to concentrate the military might of this nation against the Japanese following V.E. Day. Millions of our fighting men, freshly outfitted and equipped, will have to be moved from Europe halfway around the globe; supplied day in and day out by hundreds of ships now building.

Does it seem like too much of a chore to you? Would you rather wait until crops are in and you have more ready cash? You can't afford to wait. NOW is the time to act. Now when every effort of this nation is being directed toward conquering the treacherous Japanese.

Up to this time last year there had been two war loans.

This year the 7th War Loan must raise almost as much as two loans last year. That's why you are asked: Buy twice as many Bonds in this mighty 7th War Loan!

In the Pacific we are going all-out against Japan. We must build new, deadlier, more costly planes—harder-hitting tanks—new warships—and MORE of everything than ever before, if we are not to let our boys down just when they need our help the most.

And we, all of us, have a new responsibility—to the thousands of our wounded. We must see to it that they get the best of care, the best of medicines, the best of everything through the long pain-filled months of their recovery.

All of this takes money. That is why your country is again asking you to lend your dollars by buying twice as many bonds as you ever did before!

WAR BONDS PAY OFF IN THESE 7 WAYS . . .

- 1 The same Government security backs your War Bonds as backs the actual dollars you put into them.
- 2 You get $100 at maturity for every $75 loaned now.
- 3 You can get your money back, 60 days after issue date, any time you need it . . . in the meantime you get safety and steady growth.
- 4 You have a backlog to renew farm buildings and equipment after the war.
- 5 Bonds will insure your children's schooling, or provide for your own security, travel, retirement.
- 6 Bonds go into a national nest egg that will help to assure post-war prosperity.
- 7 Bonds transform your love of home and country into action . . . you join personally in the biggest, most urgent War Loan of all—The Seventh!

Soldier's Veteran Outfit Captures More Prisoners

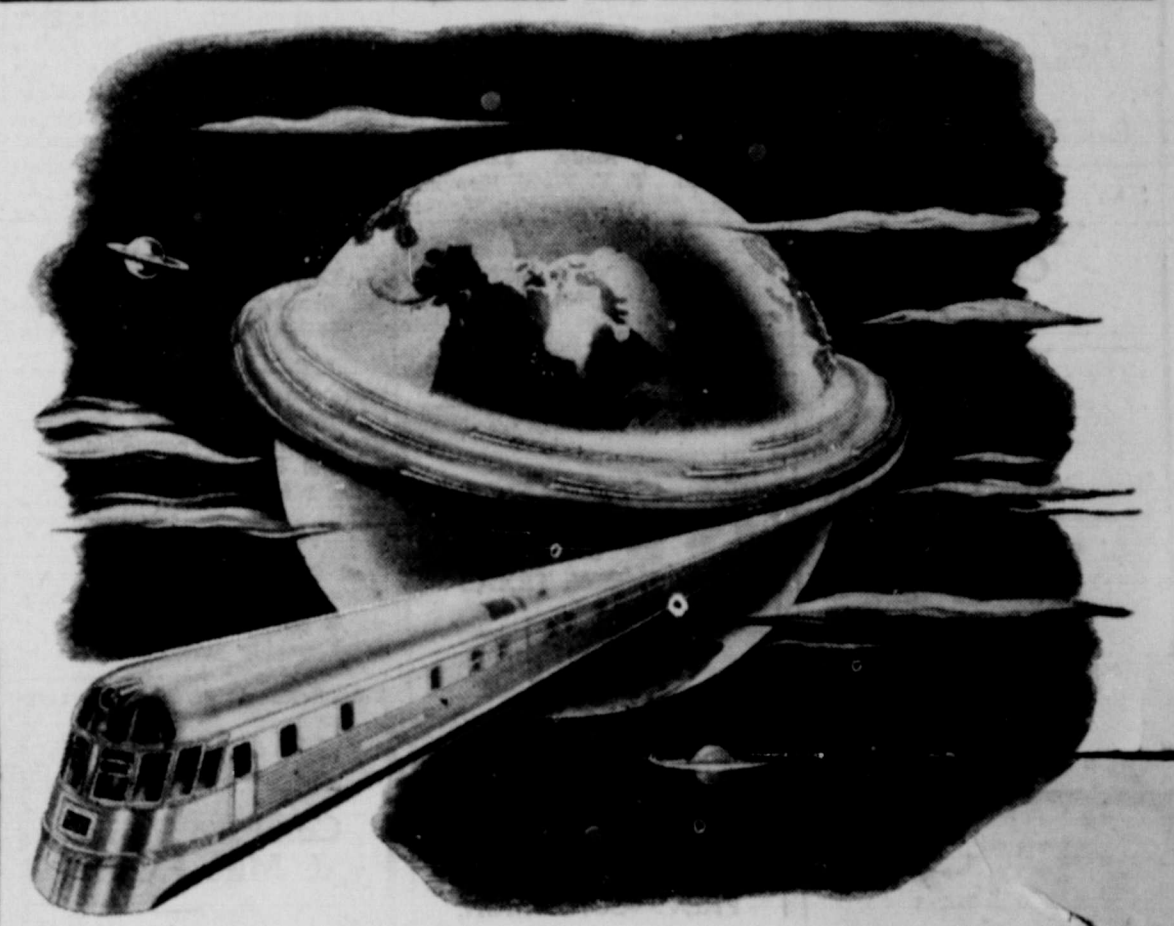

The following account was received by The Democrat last week from the Public Relations Section of the Sixth Army, and was dated the latter part of April:

Sixth Army Group, Ger. (Delayed)—S-Sgt. Nolen G. McClelland of Estelline, and other veteran doughboys of the 142nd Infantry Regiment, experiencing some of their hardest combat in more than 350 days of battle, recently broke through the Moder Line at Oberhoffen, captured Wissembourg, and slashed their way through strong Siegfried Line defenses.

These 36th Division infantrymen, among the most battleweathred troops in Gen. Joseph L. Devere's 6th Army Group, fought for three days against completely smashed through to get in on the kill of two German armies in the Saar Basin. They observed their second anniversary overseas by boosting their total of Germans captured to 10,000.

Commanded by Col. George E. Lynch of Orlando, Fla., the men of the 142nd achieved a spectacular record in Italy and France where they stormed strongly-defended beaches, waged difficult mountain warfare, and effected rapid thrusts deep into enemy territory.

Rugged fighting in Italy saw them among Americans to battle on European soil when they waded ashore at Salerno. They took the treacherous heights of Mount Maggiore and on Mount Castellene beat off a force of 1,000 Germans with 400 men. Playing a key part in one of the most brilliant maneuvers of the war, they infiltrated enemy lines two miles to take heights overlooking Velletri, opened the gates to Rome, and became the first unit to pass through the capital city. From the beaches of Southern France, these doughboys sped north and smashed back remnants of the German 19th Army trying to break out at Montelimar. First to pass through Lyons, they captured Remiremont, historic Koensburg Castle, St. Marie Pass and Selestat.

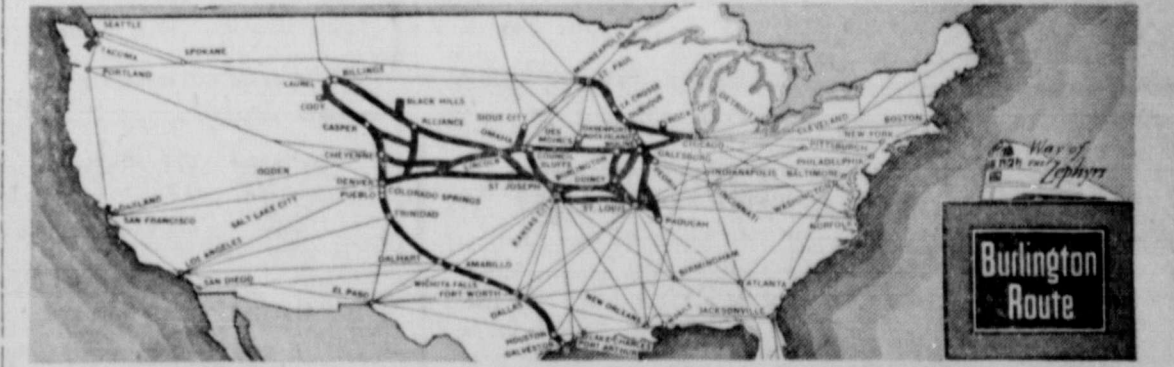

AROUND THE WORLD A THOUSAND TIMES!

Shortly after the first of this year, Burlington's fleet of fourteen diesel-powered, stainless steel Zephyrs attained an unprecedented total in train miles of service—25,000,000! The Texas Zephyrs, linking Texas with Colorado since August, 1940, have contributed nearly 3,000,000 miles to this amazing total. In rolling up the equivalent of a thousand times around the world, the Zephyrs have proved many things. Their tremendous patronage has shown the public's enthusiastic endorsement of speedy, luxurious, streamlined trains. Their almost unbelievable record of availability and "on-time" performance, in the face of high speed schedules, has established the might of diesel power. Their beauty and stamina are a tribute to the design and structural strength of these fast trains. (The Pioneer Zephyr, first of the Zephyr fleet and America's first diesel-powered streamline train, has nearly 2,000,000 miles to its credit and has already started on its second ten years of service.) Yes, America has given the nod of approval to the Zephyrs and the kind of travel they typify. So there will be more of them in the days ahead. They will be even more efficient, even more luxurious. For improvement is the mandate of progress.
