

Koreans Are Happy Over Being Freed From Japanese

Sgt. Alfred L. Burks, son of Mrs. J. W. Burks of Memphis, writes the following letter from Korea, telling his mother of the beautiful scenery and customs peculiar to that country. He has been in Korea some six weeks, going there from Okinawa. He is a member of the 32nd Infantry Division.

Dear Mama: Well, your son has moved again. I moved 65 miles north of the capitol city of Kyongsong, where I was located. We rode up here on a passenger train two days ago. This place is up in the mountains and there was some of the prettiest scenery that I've ever seen any place. The train follows a large river all the way up. We went through about 9 long tunnels. I hardly see how they were ever able to build a railroad through such mountains. As usual, all the people were out to see our train when we stopped in the small towns on the way up here. We were the first Americans to ever come up in this part of Korea, so it was a real show for the civilians. When we got off the train in this town, they had their band out playing, people were packed on both sides of the street for about 2 miles. They were yelling, singing and doing everything to show us how glad they were that we were here to rescue them from the Japanese rule. They had large banners hung across the streets. Some of them read "Welcome USA Army" and others "Welcome Our Emancipator."

now that I have had since leaving the states. We live in barracks and we have only two men to a room. The rooms are very much like hotel rooms. The civilians fixed them up nice for us before we came. Each room has large mats that cover the entire floor. Walking on the mats is like walking on feathers. We have to use the native custom and take off our shoes before we enter our rooms because if we walked on the mats we would get them dirty, so we just take our shoes off at the door and walk around in our sock feet. Personally, I like the idea.

The way things look now, I might get to come home in the first part of next year. They are lowering the points to 70 next month and 60 in November and then by the middle of December anyone with 2 years service is supposed to get out. I have 51 points and have been in the Army 2 years as of Sept. 1, so I imagine I will get out on the two years service. I just hope that they start turning them out in a hurry. It seems that Congress is getting after the military men about not letting men out any faster, I hope they stay after them until they get some action.

We have not been allowed passes yet and I don't know when we will, so I am sending you the money to buy yourself a birthday present. I am also sending you a 5 yen bill, it is the kind of money we use here.

The name of this city is Chongchun, it has a population of about 60,000. The chong means spring and chun means river, so we would call it Spring-river. Most all of their cities are named for some river, mountain or season of the year.

I helped put on a movie for one of our companies last night. We have a movie machine with us, so I guess we will have a show every night. Well, I've gotta go to work, so I hope you have a happy birthday and many more of them. Lots of Love, ALFRED

Trip Through Panama Canal is Described by Ens. Joe Coleman

Ens. Joe R. Coleman, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Coleman of Estelline, writes the following letter while going through the locks of the Panama Canal. Ens. Coleman is assistant engineer on a destroyer Escort and was returning from a cruise to Pearl Harbor: Dear Mother and Dad: Here we are right back where I thought we wouldn't be for a long time when we came through about two months ago. We are just about to enter the second set of locks in the Panama Canal. That will put us on the level with the big interior lake, which we sail through, and then go back down to the locks on the other side. It is really amazing, the way they send ships through here. It must take mammoth machinery to operate the gates on these locks and to pump the water in and out. They raise us about 28 feet in each lock, and there are three of them. The locks are built just barely large enough to hold our largest ships. We can go through four at a time, since our ships are so small; two abreast and two deep. This time I am trying to get a few snapshots of it, which we would not dare to try to do before the war was over.

We will stop at the other end of the canal to pick up some army passengers, then we will be on our way to Norfolk. We should arrive there about Friday, the 28th. They are having lots of tropical storms now, I just hope we don't run into one of them. We have been very fortunate so far having good sailing weather.

I surely don't like the idea of going back to Norfolk, but we are to go into the Navy Yard, so I am hoping for a leave at that time. If I get it, I will be home within two weeks, and don't count on it too much because I don't know just what is to happen yet.

I understand that a large part of the Third Fleet from Japan is to arrive on the East coast for a Navy Day parade into New York October 21. We probably will take part in that. That will likely be something well worth participating in. Some of my Annapolis classmates are on ships that will be in the parade, too. It will be interesting to see them again after all the battles they've been in.

Yesterday we got in about 10:30 and tied up at Balboa. That is the government Headquarters of the Canal Zone. It is about two miles from Panama City, which is the largest city in Panama. Balboa is very nice and clean looking of course the government housing areas are always nice, but Panama City is really a filthy place. I suppose it is not any worse than sections of some of our northern cities though. It is built on the side of a tropical hill and overlooks the Pacific Ocean. The main street is a narrow little winding street, with some modern cars, rickety old busses and 1925 to '30 model taxies, or the common horse and buggy type, if you prefer on open air view of the white stucco and dingy frame buildings. There are a few very modern stores on Main street, however, and the war hasn't even exhausted washing machines, electric irons, silk hose and kodak film. It was all interesting, but I can't understand how any civilized people could live continuously in such filth and with such low moral standards. It is really terrible.

I had a lot of mail when we got in yesterday but I didn't receive a letter from you. I had several letters from Virginia, one from Clara and one from J. D.

I had better close this and get it mailed. Write when you can and take care of yourselves. All my love, JOE Cabeza de Vaca, Spanish explorer, was the first doctor in Texas.

Now 4 Points For Used Fats Help Increase Supplies of Soap and Other Peacetime Products By Saving More Used Fats Industrial fats far short of last year! We are almost down to the bottom of the barrel. The nation's industrial fat supply is millions of pounds less than it was in 1944. We need fully as much as last year to help make the soaps and other civilian goods you want and need so badly. So . . . If you want more soap and soap flakes . . . if you're dreaming of nylons, sheets, cotton fabrics and want them to hurry back to the store counters . . . you can help by saving those used kitchen fats as you never saved before! Save every drop, every day! These fats are vitally necessary to help speed greater supplies of soaps and hundreds of other things—like new cars, electric washers, irons, refrigerators and tires. Industry must have these fats . . . to help get to you more quickly the peacetime products you've been longing to have for years! So skim and scrape and scoop just as you did so faithfully before V-J Day. To prove how important it is, your government has increased the point bonus. So help meet this nation's need by continuing to save used fats. If you can't find a store that accepts used fats, call Home Demonstration or County Agent.

FIFTY YEARS AGO . . .

At the turn of the century most Americans were kindling their streetlights and kerosene lamps by torch or match. The polishing of lamp chimneys and trimming of wicks were grimy household chores.

In the homes of a few rich people electricity was being installed. Since it was very expensive, very new and extremely hard to obtain, electricity was ultra smart and most fashionable—fashions, you know, are things that are scarce and in keeping with the prevailing customs. Judged by these standards, use of electric service is old-fashioned—it hasn't skyrocketed like other necessities, it's readily available to the smallest home at pre-war levels and there has been an ample supply.

Operating costs, as in other businesses, have advanced progressively in the electrical industry—taxes have been on a tremendous upsurge—only by the most careful direction and private initiative, advancement in methods could the electrical industry continue to supply its services at decreasing costs.

Sound and practical business management under governmental regulation as distinguished from government ownership tax-subsidized political operation are your guarantee that as new electrical comforts are available, adequate power at a reasonable total cost will prevail.

Iron Ranch To Hold Its Third Annual Sale of Bulls November 1

Wellington, Texas, Oct. 10.—The Iron Ranch will hold its annual sale of registered bulls at the Cottonwood headquarters on Thursday, Nov. 1, Lafayette M. Hughes and his wife are in charge of the sale. Mr. Hughes announced the sale, Mr. Hughes said: "With but few exceptions all of our Mill Iron bulls since 1937 have been sold to neighbors and friends within a radius of approximately 150 miles. These same neighbors will have the first opportunity to buy this year's bull calf which is the best we have produced." This fall individual calves are offered to buy the entire crop of 1945; but the offer was turned down because the Hughes were wanted to stay with the original plan of placing his bulls with commercial cattlemen owning the Mill Iron Ranches. This crop has a 33 1-3 per cent which cut is going through lots to packers for further that Mill Iron breeding is a high meat quality. Only the two thirds will be offered for this year. Phenomenal results have been obtained by commercial cattlemen have been using these bulls since sires for the past eight years. Herds of mixed breeds have been improved in a few short years to such an extent that it is difficult to tell them from a purebred herd. One breeder, who had a herd of Jerseys, reported that a first cross resulted in a crop of white faced, heavy set calves fed out remarkably well. However, the majority of the bulls have gone to commercial cattlemen who used them to improve the quality of their Hereford herds. The results can be seen on scores of ranches in the southwestern part of the Panhandle. The Mill Iron bulls are being used to produce herds of high quality and remarkable form.

Austin (Polly) O'Neil, manager of the Mill Iron says that for all inquiries have been coming in from commercial cattlemen and owners of registered herds in the Wellington office the day of the next sale. The majority of these come from cattlemen who have been using Mill Iron bulls. Typical of these from owners of registered herds is a letter from Jack Casement of West Plains, Colorado. In part he says, "I have intended to drop you a line all summer to tell you what a fine calf the one we got from you in June is making, and ask if there is any chance of coming down and getting another one this fall. Our old Colorado Domino I never got over being stifled last summer. This leaves us using, for our herd bull, one that is nearly up to the caliber of the ones he is with; which is, of course, slow suicide. And I certainly do not know where I could remedy the situation better than with the help of Mill Iron."

The sale will be held at usual Cottonwood headquarters located two miles south and 10 west of Wellington.

THE HONEST OIL—FROM DEEP IN THE HEART OF OKLAHOMA!

Brother, if you want a clean, sweet, protective oil for your car—lay your dough down for Phillips!

It's clean because it starts clean, and we refine it cleaner. Yessir, we've got a grudge against sludge—and the greatest cause of engine gunk and muck is an oil that isn't as clean as it ought to be.

And the greatest thing about Phillips 66 is—all its God-given lubricating qualities are unimpaired.

"Fill'er Full o' Phillips!"

AS A HOUND'S TOOTH!

We don't claim the credit for this wonderful oil. We just had enough sense to recognize a great job by Mother Nature—to take it out of the ground—and not to fool with it too much!

So when you change your oil every two months (as you should if you want to keep a car under you) just tell that man—"Fill'er full o' Phillips!"

You won't find a more honest, natural lubricating oil in America!

The work of these agencies is enormously important, and in my opinion, the extent of their work in the next few months may fix the pattern of living in Europe next Spring. The people of Europe who have been aided by voluntary American philanthropy are well aware of the help they have received. They are most grateful to the American people.

"I am convinced that the work being done by National War Fund agencies in on way duplicates that of UNRRA. These agencies are providing relief materials and services not within the UNRRA program.

Taking Part in Farm Safety Program Study Accident Prevention Measures in City Plants

... boys and girls are taking every opportunity to learn how to prevent accidents on farms. As an example, a group of participants in the 1945 National 4-H Safety Program (shown above) recently visited plants of an automobile manufacturing concern in order to study safety measures taken to protect workers against injury.

The tour will be credited to each member's 4-H safety program record. Participants in the program who achieve outstanding records in safety work this year will receive merit awards donated by General Motors. The awards are based on county, state, sectional and national levels.

S. S. Belleau Wood Plays Big Part in Fighting Japs, Alvis Melton, Y 1-c Says

Alvis M. Melton, yeoman 1-c on USS Belleau Wood, tells his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Melton, about the activities of his ship during the war: 27 August 1945

Mama and Bill:

The Emperor has hollered "Nuff", it is now possible to you the part that the old gal, Belleau Wood" took in helping the victory. When the final order to cease attack came on the morning of the fifth, that was the 46th event-day of the cruise. Our last time cruise was also our longest and a most unhappy one for morale.

Our task group under command of Real Admiral T. L. Sprague, part of Vice Admiral Melton's Task Force 38, left San Pedro Bay, Leyte Gulf, in morning of July 1. As always, the Belleau Wood was traveling in a pretty famous company, but all modesty, so were they—by flying with us. Just one part of planes came out toward the Fleet all day. They joined their ancestors shortly, as usual.

We retired that night and refueled the next day letting the Japs worry about where our next attack would be and we think we fooled them completely, because we next hit the northernmost home island of Japan, Hokkaido. The foggy weather up there, which reminds me of the North Atlantic in the summer, held us up the first day, but we hit them hard on the 14th and 15th. We knocked out many planes and hangers and factory buildings over the island. Our Air Group capitalized on its specialty, rocket firing, and blew up a number of locomotives and sank a 1,900 ton cargo ship.

Those two days, as you probably remember from the big broadcasts, were the days the battlewagons first bombarded Japan. Our battleships went in the night of the 14th to blast the steel mills at Kamaishi on northern Honshu. The next morning the big boys from one of the other groups in the force went in to blast industrial areas on Hokkaido itself.

We then moved south and hit the airfields of Honshu, north of Tokyo, on the 17th and 18th of July. Another slice was taken out of the Emperor's rapidly disappearing air force. But our best blow in those two days were against the last modern battleship in the beaten Jap Navy, the Nagato. She was battered beyond use and our air group got several hits of the many landed on her. The pilots said it looked like half the anti-aircraft guns in Japan had been planted in the hills around the harbor where the Nagato was concealed and heavily camouflaged, but they couldn't stop our "Fly Boys." On the 17th the battlewagons again made history by bombarding the shores of the Empire north of Tokyo at midnight. The cruisers Atlanta and Dayton from our group were in the bombardment group.

For our next strikes we fueled and moved far south and around to the island sea area of Japan. The primary targets were aircraft and the remnants of the Japanese Navy which holed up in the big Jap Naval Base at Kure on the Inland Sea. Here our boys, torpedo-bombers and fighter-bombers, really made the sons of heaven duck. On the 24th our Air Group alone registered at least five direct hits and that many near misses on the old Jap battleship Ise, which had been partly converted to a carrier by adding a flight deck on the stern. The weather held up the Kure strikes on the 25th, but we continued to strike at airfields and on the islands of Shikoku and Honshu, getting more planes and locomotives, plus hits on factories and hangers.

Also on the 25th our Fighter Squadron got its first crack at airborne opposition. Fifteen of the Japs fast new fighter jumped a flight of ten of our Hellcats, most unfortunate for the wily Nips. When the dust cleared seven Japs had gone down flaming, and the rest were suddenly needed at home it seems, for our veteran aces in the Pacific for his second tour of duty, ran his score up to 19 Japs by shooting down four of the seven. He is Lt. C. N. Nooy of Smithtown, N. Y. The day would have been perfect, but for the loss of one of our pilots, who was crashed head-on in the dog-fight by one smoking Jap.

On the 28th we returned to the same area and launched more strikes against the ships at Kure. There was little left of the Jap fleet on the topside of the water after that day. Our boys got more hits on the ships including the old Ise and the cruiser, Aoba. And fighter again found a little airborne work in dispatching four Jap seaplanes out for a morning ride. We moped a little east and hit the airfields and industrial installations in the Nagoya Area on the 30th. Admiral Sprague sent a special "Well Done" to our Air Group for the days work. They destroyed or damaged 56 planes. We had all the big carriers looking up to us that day. When I say "we" I mean the whole ship, too; and you would understand what I mean if you could see all the boys working like beavers getting those planes on and off the deck, loading them and re-arming them, and keeping them in fighting trim. Three Jap reconnaissance planes came out to see the Task Force that day and went the way of all the rest of the World's champion "One Flight Air Force."

We retired for a long rest then, while we refueled and moved out to let a typhoon go by. But on the 8th of August Admiral Halsey started us in again and we hit airfields on Northern Honshu on the 9th and 10th. In one month we had freely ranged over the entire Empire's home islands, and it was beginning to tell on the Japs. We all were happy about the successes of the B-29's and the new atomic bomb. That, along with the Russians joining the war made things look pretty bad for the Japs.

Anyway, we ran back into the Tokyo launching area on the 13th with rumors about the Japs surrendering keeping us close to our radios when we had a spare minute. Our pilots hit planes and factories again, and helped urge the surrender closer. The Japs weren't willing to die without one blow, however, and the Fleet had its busiest day of the cruise shooting down Jap attackers. We stayed at battle stations most of the day, and 21 Nips were downed by planes and anti-aircraft fire before the night came. Our Command Air Patrols did most of that work, so we couldn't add any more notches to our guns, but every plane that flew by got a good looking over.

We were back again in the area on the 15th and I suppose you remember reading how we had to halt our attack when the wonderful news of the surrender came through. But it seems that the Japs didn't get the word as well as we did, because four of our fighters shot down six Jap fighters over the target that morning and another single attacker near the Force that afternoon. At least five more were shot down around us, and that made the last day a busy one. But we haven't seen anymore of them since that afternoon and we hope those were the last we'll see unless we find one on a visit to Japan or take our grandchildren down to the local museum someday and show them what Grandpappy did in the Big War. Love,

ALVIS

In singing the Japanese surrender document, Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, played a dual role: he signed for Texas and the United States.

Lakeview Eagles Trounce Wheeler With 14-0 Score

The Lakeview Eagles journeyed to Wheeler last Friday night and won from the Wheeler Mustangs by the score of 14-0.

The first half of the ball game was scoreless, but both teams made substantial gains. Moreland of Lakeview made several gains by showing up well on broken-backs. Moreman, fullback, rammed the line for anywhere from four to eight yard gains on numerous occasions.

In the first and second quarters, the Eagles made penetrations, but were unable to score until the final quarter when Anthony, Lakeview pass-catching end, intercepted a Mustang pass on the Eagles' own 20-yard line and ran it back to the Eagle 45-yard line. From there, Moreman passed to Moreland to the Wheeler 40-yard line, where again with his broken-field running, he carried the ball to the Wheeler four-yard line. From the four, Moreman plunged over for the first touchdown for Lakeview. Moreman passed to Clark for the conversion, making the score 7-0, Lakeview.

In the following two minutes of play, the Mustangs tried desperately to score. Moreland intercepted a Wheeler pass on the Wheeler 40-yard line and ran the distance for the second tally. Moreman kicked a goal for the extra point making the final score 14-0 for the Lakeview Eagles.

Showing up well in line play for the Eagles were the hard fighting guards Poyner and Clark. Westmoreland for the Mustangs was outstanding. The coaches, Denton and Cunningham, of Lakeview were pleased with the performance of the Eagles, and the Lakeview fans were given a thrill with the two touchdowns performance in the final quarter.

Lakeview plays at home this Friday, when they entertain the Paducah Dragons.

Texas Guard Will Make Plans For Future at Convention in Austin on October 20, President Announces

"Let's get ready for the return of the Texas National Guard," was the theme of a call issued by Lt. Col. Ed D. Konken, president of the Texas State Guard Officers Association, when he announced the annual convention of the Association that will be held in Austin on October 20-21.

Highlighting the meeting will be a reception for the 1,200 officers of the Guard at the Governor's Mansion by Governor Coke Stevenson, commander-in-chief of the Texas State Guard. In addition to an address by the Governor, other celebrities scheduled to appear on the convention program are Major General Claude V. Birkhead, former commander of the 36th Division, and Jeff Williams, well known exponent of American Ideals from Chickasha, Oklahoma. Rounding out the meeting will be speakers from the National Guard Bureau, the War Department at Washington, and a member of the House Military Affairs Committee. General Arthur B. Knickerbocker will be asked to discuss "The Present Status of the Guard."

Lt. Col. Glenn Burgess of Lufkin is Convention Chairman, Lt. Col. Weldon M. Swenson, Commanding Officer of the 5th Battalion is official host; Capt. I. W. Ussery of the 34th Battalion at Odessa is chairman of attendance, while Lt. W. R. Beaumier, Lufkin, is publicity chairman.

This will be the first post-war convention held in Austin and beautiful capitol city is expected to get back in its old stride in entertaining the visitors. "We will be satisfied with nothing short of at least one representative from each State Guard Unit attending and believe we will have the largest and most representative group of officers ever to turn out for a State Guard officers meeting," Col. Konken declared.

Institute for Bus Drivers To Be At Childress Saturday

A bus drivers' institute will be held at Childress Saturday Oct. 13, in the high school auditorium beginning at 9:00 a. m. and closing at 12:30 P. M. Miss Mary Foreman announced this week. All drivers of Hall County buses are expected to attend this institute.

The State Department is requiring that every driver attend such an institute before being eligible to receive pay for driving. Miss Foreman stated. Also each driver is to be issued a certificate by a highway patrolman stating that the driver and his bus are safe transportation for the children of the state.

The superintendents of schools operating school buses are urged by the County Board to be responsible for having the drivers present at the Institute in Childress Saturday.

The program for the day is as follows: Purpose of Training Program by J. A. Steed; Laws Relating to Operation of School Buses, Leonard King; Safe Operation of School Buses, Sam Gardner, highway patrolman; First Aid, Palmer Massey; Care and Service of School Bus Motors and Bodies by a local garageman; and a 30-minute general discussion.

Try Hot Water Plus Acid Indigestion

If the thousands of unfortunate people who suffer from so-called dyspepsia, acid indigestion, food fermentation, sour stomach, flatulence, gas or other stomach distress brought on by excess acid would just try drinking slowly after each upstating meal half a glass of real hot water containing one spoonful of Neutracid they can usually get amazingly quick relief in a very few minutes.

Neutracid is not a laxative—it is soothing and comforting to the mucous membranes and very agreeable to take. Neutracid—a physician's formula can now be obtained at Stanford Pharmacy or any first class drug store.

FACTS

We submit the following facts to the people of this area as we look back upon the past few years, and consider what is facing us in the months ahead:

1. We are strictly home-owned. All our taxes are paid in Memphis and Hall County.
2. Every item we buy is purchased from business firms here in Memphis if they can furnish them.
3. All nine of the employees of this firm spend the money they earn with the people here in Memphis. And all either own a home or rent one here.
4. We have never cut the quality of our products during the past few years. During this period of shortages of sugar and shortening we were forced to limit production, but quality remained the same.
5. It has been hard for us to give you the items we wanted to. And we still can't furnish such items as cakes, etc., due to shortages of ingredients, but they are coming just as soon as we break the bottle-neck of sugar.
6. If the home merchant desires bread for his shelves, he can get it within a few minutes by going to his telephone and giving us a call.

Our task has not been easy during these past few years, and we appreciate how the people understood what we were up against. Now that supplies for our bakery are becoming more plentiful, we find we still have problems to overcome. That is the purpose of this message.

NEW B. F. Goodrich PASSENGER TIRE

OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES!

New Passenger Car Tire with Safer-driving, Longer-mileage features

New, better Synthetic Rubber

Developed by B.F. Goodrich—it's far better than ordinary synthetic rubber. Helps the new tire run cooler, wear better. It resists cracking, bruising and damage from accidents better too.

New, "Road Level" Tread

35% stronger tire body makes possible tread with a flatter contour—its whole width touches the road. More rubber on the road to share the wear—evenly. The tread design has hundreds of skid-resisting curves to grip—and stop quickly!

16,800,000 Test Miles

Has more test background than any previous B. F. Goodrich tire. Extensive laboratory tests plus 16,800,000 miles of actual road tests—on taxi fleets, police cars, and the B. F. Goodrich test fleet—proved it outwears prewar, natural rubber tires!

3 years' EXTRA synthetic tire experience

Three full years before any other manufacturer, B. F. Goodrich sold tires made with synthetic rubber to American motorists. This extra score of experience shows up in extra mileage... extra safety... extra value.

Plans Are Outlined at Dallas Meeting for War Bond Drive

Plans were outlined at a meeting in Dallas last Friday for the annual Victory War Loan Drive, starting on October 29, in the national war bond drive is 20 per cent less than the last drive, reports O. V. Alexander, who attended the session.

Attending the Dallas meeting were War Loan chairman and officials from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico. Among officials from Washington were Ted Gamble, national director of the War Finance Division of the Treasury Department. Adams of Dallas, state director, addressed the gathering banquet Friday night. The final drive will end on December 8.

Rough Going At Sea Related by Robert Cummings

When a ship gets a 29 degree roll and can only stand 32 it is time to be worried, or so thinks Coxswain Robert Frank Cummings. The following letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cummings, is written from Okinawa. He is serving aboard the U. S. S. Saugatuck.

The letter follows:
Dear Mother and Dad:
Just a few more lines to let you know we made it back into port, but it sure was rough going. We pulled out Sunday evening at 12 and by the time we hit high sea, it was high. We got a 29 roll twice, 32 is all we can take; boy, we were all ready to go over the side but it would not have done any good, as a man would not have a chance out in that water. All of the small ships were beached in Okinawa and the crews got onto larger ships. We got on to the last of it about 12:30 Sunday night and the wind was still 65 miles an hour. We have just pulled back into port and it is now 2:00 Monday evening.

Boy, that mess hall was sure in a heck of a mess. I had all the tables and benches upside down. Then last night for show, all of us sat on the deck. I never saw it so rough in all my life. This makes the third one this old ship has gone through and she can really take it. I have often seen pictures of ships rolling around like we did, but I never thought I would be on one of them.

This old man sea can get mighty mad at times. It is beginning to settle down a little now, but we still take it over the side every now and then. How much longer we are going to be here at Okinawa, I don't know. I don't think the officers know themselves. Your loving son,
ROBERT FRANK

Culture Club To Sponsor Meeting on Tax Question

An open "Town Hall Meeting," when the tax question will be debated and discussed, will be sponsored by the Woman's Culture Club of Memphis on Oct. 30 at the High School auditorium.

The question: "Shall America abolish the present tax system in favor of a federal sales tax," will be debated, with R. S. Greene of Memphis and Judge J. Ross Childress taking the affirmative side and Sam Hamilton of Memphis and C. C. Broughton of Childress on the negative side.

The meeting is open to the public and all who are interested in hearing the tax question debated are invited. First part of the meeting will be used by the speakers and the second half will include the audience which will be invited to ask questions of the speakers. Time of the meeting will be 8 o'clock.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful waste body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Mr. and Mrs. Nilo, of Upstate N. Y., are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams. Cpl. Worley Hughes, who has been in England the past two years, is home on a 30-day furlough and is expecting a discharge soon.

Miss Laverne Haley of Amarillo spent the past week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hatley.
Edward Boyd "Jigs" Walls, who left this community and spent 40 months in England, has received a discharge and is making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Walls.
S. I. c. Emmett Lee Byars arrived home last week to spend a 30-day leave visiting his parents and friends. He has spent the past several months in the Pacific and served the latter part of that time aboard a submarine tender.

DEAD CALM IN A HURRICANE ? YES NO

In the very midst of a hurricane you'd be safe! Its center is sort of "hollow" . . . calm. All weather packs surprises, you bet—especially Winter weather. Yet you can bet on having your aging car face it safely, with the engine's insides under guard of OIL-PLATING!

Changing to Conoco Nth motor oil is all it takes for an OIL-PLATED engine—fortified throughout with lubricant bonded to metal direct, by the magnet-like action of Conoco Nth oil's added ingredient! OIL-PLATED metal defies corrosion and other wear. Surfaces kept OIL-PLATED during long cold waits have protective lubricant ready in advance to minimize starting wear. And always—the less wear, the less reason for carbon, sludge, and breakdown. You bet you want Conoco Nth oil for Winter. Change today.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, management, circulation, etc., required by the Acts of Congress of August 24, 1912, and March 3, 1933 of The Memphis Democrat published weekly at Memphis, Texas for October 1945.

STATE OF TEXAS, County of Hall, ss.

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared J. Claude Wells, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of The Memphis Democrat and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1933, embodied in section 537, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor and business managers are: Publisher—Wells, Montgomery & Combs, Memphis, Texas; editor, managing editor and business manager, J. Claude Wells, Memphis, Texas;.

2. That the owners are: J. Claude Wells, H. Herschel Montgomery and Herschel A. Combs, Memphis, Texas.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear on the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than are so stated by him.

J. CLAUDE WELLS
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 9th day of October, 1945 (Seal) D. L. C. KINARD.

Army Answers Your Questions

Your questions on allotments, insurance, legal problems or other matters as they relate to Army and their dependents will be answered in this column or by letter. Write Headquarters, Eighth Service Command, Dallas 2, Texas.

Q. Is it true that points have been added for men in the service since last May?

A. Yes. Points for discharge under the adjusted service rating system were first computed as of May 12, 1945. They are now computed of September 2, 1945.

Q. My son has been awarded a distinguished unit citation. How many points does this count toward his discharge?

A. No discharge points are given for unit citations.

Q. How long after my husband is discharged from the Army will I continue to receive my family allowance?

A. The last payment of your family allowance will be for the month during which he is discharged.

Q. How long after my husband is discharged from the Army will he be able to keep his Army Insurance?

A. If you refer to National Service Life Insurance, it may be carried in its present form for eight years from the date the insurance was issued. It is term insurance, and may be converted to permanent plans any time during this eight-year period.

Homemakers To Meet Saturday At West Texas

Fifty homemaking teachers from about thirty counties will go to West Texas State College Saturday, October 13, for a fall conference sponsored by the State Board for Vocational Education. Sessions will be held in the Science building.

Registration will begin at 9:45 a. m. under the direction of Miss Katie McCluney, college instructor.

Miss Gladys Armstrong, area coordinator of homemaking education, will open the first session at 10 o'clock. Prof. F. E. Savage, director of the college demonstration school, will welcome the delegates and visitors. Dr. A. Kirk Knott of West Texas State will discuss "Mental Hygiene and Homemaking Education." Miss Barbara Daniel of Tulsa will talk on the post-war program; Miss Armstrong will speak on "Gearing the Year-Round Program in Homemaking to meet Problems in Home and Family Life."

A luncheon will be given in the home economics dining room at 12:15 o'clock, with Miss Kathryn Davis of Canyon High School as toastmistress.

Miss Wilma Herring, teacher-trainer at the college, will preside over the afternoon session beginning at 1:15 p. m. A symposium on ways of working with adult and community groups will be directed by Miss Margaret Barrett, head of the college home economics department. Other speakers will be Miss Armstrong and Miss Davies. After adjournment, new teachers will have a conference with Miss Armstrong and other visitors will see educational motion pictures.

John J. Ray, 100 years old, of Fort Worth, is believed to be the oldest living member of the Masonic Lodge in the United States.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and kindly ministrations to us during the illness and at the time of the death of our loved one, and those who sent the beautiful floral offerings. It is our wish that when this same sadness comes to your home you will have God's richest blessings and the same kindness at the hands of your friends and neighbors.
