To the tune of about $115, the music at the American Legion Hall helped to bring new life, and hope to the future, to children who are afflicted with the disease, infantile paralysis, the second of the two dances, old-fashioned affair at the Memphis Country Club, was canceled Wednesday evening only a short time before the dance was scheduled to start, when the musicians for the dance failed to appear.

As a result the Legion Hall dance was heavily attended, and total receipts were $255. When expenses are deducted, the gain for the drive will be about $115.

In charge of the dance here was Mrs. Virginia Dodson, head of the entertainment committee. The director is Hollis Boren, theater owner.

Guthrie Bennett and Billy Kinsch officiated at the swing dance, music was furnished by Gibbons Legionnaires.

The American Legion post is being complimented on the splendid help and support they gave the drive," Mrs. Dodson said. "We also wish to thank all others."

Estelline Meeting To Be Wednesday

Date of the Estelline meeting, at which plans for a cooperative hospital for the city will be discussed, is Wednesday, February 6, instead of February 5, as was previously announced by The Democrat, Clyde Wilkinson, secretary of the Estelline chamber of commerce, said this week.

The meeting will be in the Estelline High School auditorium. This is the second mass meeting to be held concerning the prospects for obtaining a cooperative hospital for the city. The other was held about two weeks ago, at which committees were named to contact outlying communities to learn of the interest of the people in such a project.

Changes Suggested In Old-Age Program

Eleven specific recommendations for the expansion and improvement of the old-age and survivors insurance program have been made to Congress in the tenth annual report of the social security board, J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo field office of the board, reported recently.

Heading the list is a recommendation, made repeatedly by the board, that coverage of the program be expanded to include "all gainful workers, including agricultural and domestic employees, public employees and employees of nonprofit organizations, and self-employed persons, including farmers."

Sanderson said that "the social and economic welfare of the area served by the Amarillo office of the board will be strengthened whenever action is taken to extend the benefits of the system to the millions that are not covered now." "The board has urged this ac-

Wheeler died Sunday morning at about 11:40 o'clock at the age of 77 years, 3 months, and 9 days. He had lived in Hall County since 1910.

Gilbert Wins District Golden Gloves Title

Memphis had six entrants in the 1947 Amarillo Golden Gloves tournament last week, and one of them pulled through to win in his weight class, thereby giving him the opportunity to enter in the state tournament in Fort Worth.

The lone winner was Adair Gilbert, who won a decision in the finals over Reuben Noel of Amarillo Thursday night. Gilbert won in the 112-pound class, Golden Gloves division.

Jack Monzingo, another of the Memphis entries, fought his way to the finals, but was defeated in the last trial by Roy Chism of Amarillo. Monzingo, fighting in the 135-pound class, lost this bout by decision.

One other Memphian, Weldon Jester, also reached the final bouts. Fighting in the 126-pound class, Jester lost by decision to Coyt Thompson of Petersburg.

On the opening night, Monday of last week, Jester won by decision over Billy Badgett of Borger; Wendell Orand decided Bobby Knight in the 135-pound school division class; Monzingo took the verdict over John Hernandez of Amarillo; and Gilbert decided Carlyle Young, also of Memphis.

The following night found Orand losing to Hollis Black of Petersburg by a technical kayo, although many of the fans thought the referee should not have stopped the fight; and Monzingo blasted Calvin Pyle of Lockney by badly hurting him in the first round and finishing him off in the second.

On the third night, Wednesday, Elmo Sams of Memphis, who had drawn two byes, met Kenneth Davis of Clarendon, but lost by decision; Jester won his second fight by decision over Lovel (Continued on Page 12)

59-Year-Old Resident Had Lived in Hall County 22 Years; Burial at Hulver

Funeral services for Charlie C. Allen, 59, resident of Hall County for the past 22 years, were held at the Baptist Church in Parnell Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Byron Todd officiating, assisted by Rev. D. M. Fitzgerald of Clarendon.

Allen died at his home in Memphis Thursday morning of last week at 6 o'clock. He was 59 years, 9 months, and 29 days old at the time of his death.

Allen was born April 4, 1886, at Waxahachie. He was united in marriage to Miss Claudia Armstrong at Boyd, Wise County, December 3, 1905. To this union were born five children, one of whom preceded him in death in 1937.

Vets Only Can Get Sugar Books Here

Applications for sugar ration books from veterans only are being taken at the office of the Hall County draft board, Mrs. Pauline Knight, secretary, said this week.

In last week's Democrat it was announced that applications for sugar ration books and replacements would be taken at that office following the closing of the local ration office.

This statement was in error. Mrs. Knight will take the applications for sugar ration books from veterans only, since she has no forms for other applications, such as replacements, etc.

Any person, other than a veteran, who desires sugar ration books, must write the price control board at Clarendon, the present location of the files formerly kept here.

There is also some misunderstanding which has arisen concerning ration books, Mrs. Knight pointed out this week. She re-

Five new members of the board of directors for the Memphis Chamber of Commerce were elected this week in the heaviest balloting in the history of the organization.

New members elected were James F. Smith, H. B. (Bengy) Estes Jr., R. C. Lemons, Matthew Allen, and Wendell Harrison.

Re-elected were T. M. Potts, O. V. Alexander, T. H. Deaver, T. J. Dunbar, J. E. King, and S. C. Harrison.

Retiring members will be the three whose names did not appear on the ballot, Otis Jones, F. N. Foxhall, and C. C. Hodges; and two who were not re-elected, E. E. Roberts and George Cullin. The first three names did not appear on the ballot, since it was recently decided to drop three names each year in order to introduce different men on the board.

The 11 men chosen, along with the retiring president, Horace Tarver, will make up the new board. The board will meet some time next week to choose the president for the coming year, Tarver said this week.

A total of 111 ballots out of 170 mailed to members of the chamber of commerce were returned in the voting. This is the heaviest vote ever cast in a chamber of commerce election.

"All members have shown a large amount of interest in the election this year," Tarver said, "and indications are that the chamber of commerce will be very active during this reconversion period."

Former Countian, Isaac W. Thomason Dies at Abilene

72-Year-Old Pioneer Left Memphis in 1944; Made Home in County 40 Years

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, January 14, at the First Methodist Church in Abilene for Isaac Wilson Thomason, 72, who moved from Memphis in 1944 after living here for 40 years.

Thomason died suddenly Saturday morning, January 12, following a heart attack. He had apparently been in the best of health before he suffered the attack.

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. O. P. Clark, pastor of the Abilene church, assisted by Rev. Oren Carter, former Memphis pastor. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Abilene.

Thomason was born in 1873 in Tennessee and moved to Texas at the age of nine. He was married to Lillie Mae George in Denton County in 1898, and moved to Hall County in 1904. He left here in 1944, moving to Marlin to regain his health after suffering a stroke in 1942. He had only recently moved to Abilene and had bought a new home there near his sons, Raymond and Glenn, who are in business in Abilene.

MAKING AN ATTEMPT AT AN EXPLANATION

THERE IS a great deal of difference between what we term news and what we term as publicity or advertising. Even the latter two words have a different meaning.

But even with this difference, it is sometimes difficult to draw the line. In other words, sometimes it is difficult to tell just when news ceases to be news and becomes publicity.

The definitions given by Webster are as follows:
Advertising—any form of public announcement intended to aid directly or indirectly in the sale of a commodity, in securing employment, etc.
Publicity—advertising of any kind; information designed to advance the interests of a place, person, cause, etc., usually appearing in public print; any matter which secures public attention.

News—A report of a recent event; tidings, matter of interest to newspaper readers.
 As you can see from the definitions, the difference between news and publicity is rather hard to determine, because so often there is worthy publicity which is of great interest to newspaper readers.

It is because of this small difference, or shall we call it a merger of ideas, that we often have trouble in trying to decide whether something is strictly publicity or deserves to be published as news. Often we are wrong—that we do not deny.

We receive daily a very large amount of what we feel is strictly publicity, material which should be run only as a paid advertisement, and we usually treat it as such, refusing to publish it.

On the other hand, we often run pure publicity as news stories, such as the story which appeared last week on the March of Dimes campaign. Material of that sort is truly publicity, but we feel that the cause is very worthy of the publicity. There is usually a certain amount of news involved, just as there was in that particular story. The story told of the means by which money for the March of Dimes campaign was to be raised. An attempt was made to write the story so that you would want to help in the campaign, one way or another, but if you will read it closely, The Democrat did not ask you to contribute in the news story. We did, of course, on the editorial page, one space on which is reserved for the opinions of this newspaper.

Also, we occasionally receive from some person a news item, strictly news, and some of those people feel that they are obligated to pay for having the item published. No charge is made for publishing news, when it is news—that should be remembered.

And no charge is made for publishing worthy publicity, provided we are permitted to take that publicity and write it in the form of a news story.

There is such a word, in the newspaper language at least, as editorialize. To a newspaper man, this word means to give an opinion of the writer or of some one else in a direct manner, without quoting any person as the originator of that idea. This is called editorializing, and most newspaper men take a wide berth in trying to prevent it in an unsigned article which is published as a news article. Sometimes you will find editorializing creeping in somewhere in a news item, but most editors will do their utmost to avoid it.

All of this finally brings us around to our point. We will always publish a news story, one that is strictly news, without charge. As far as publicity is concerned, The Democrat believes in trying to make this a better world in which to live, and if publicity, in our opinion, will help do this, then that publicity will be published without charge—but it must be a worthy cause and of necessity we must reserve the right to decide whether it is a worthy cause.

Advertising is mostly in a class by itself, as you also will probably agree, and we take no free advertising. That is the commodity which we sell, just as you sell your merchandise. We believe in advertising, and so does everyone else who wants to get ahead in this world.

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Right?

The McLean News: A lot of men think more of their "rights" than they do about being right. Better laws are advocated many times when better men are needed.

Behind the High Prices

The Canyon News: No one ever curses our annual federal deficit of tens of billions when he looks at the high price of a desired article, but it is at the heart of our price problems. Nor, so far as is ascertainable, does anyone ever rise up and damn the federal government for its spendthrift ways when he is hit between the eyes with rising prices. As long as the government continues to function on borrowed money, just so long will we continue to have alleged "price gougers" in every walk of life. Borrowed money has meant "cheap" money and high prices.

Vet Candidates

The Quannah Tribune-Chief: All over the state there are candidates withdrawing from political races in favor of World War II veterans. This is a nice gesture, but could become a dangerous precedent. The service man is due much consideration, but the fact that he has been in the Army or Navy for one year or four years does not always justify his holding a public office. If a man was not qualified before he went into the service, there can be little that has happened to him to make him more able when he comes out. This feeling that a debt is due to the veteran can fill many essential offices with incompetents. Strange to say, ex-service men are not overcome by the fact that a candidate was in the service and these men will probably balance the candidate's qualifications more before voting than will the civilian voter.

Pome

The Temple of Truth in the Donley County Leader:
 My lady be wary of Cupid
 And list' the lines of this verse:
 To let a fool kiss you is stupid,
 To let a kiss fool you is worse.

The American Legion

The Floyd County Hesperian: In the American Legion the fighting men and women of this war can have an all-powerful organization at a time when they need it most—when they first come home. In it, too, they can be assured of safety from exploitation. The American Legion has gone all-out for them, got the G. I. Bill of Rights enacted for them, has placed its vast service organization at their beck and call. And now the American Legion offers the veterans of this war its great going concern to be taken over lock, stock, and barrel. It's a great opportunity, because the Legion is a precious heritage, well worthy of the sacrifices and valor of the men and women who fought and won World War II.

You May Be Rich

The Happy Herald: Many who wish and strive for riches already have riches and do not realize it. If you have health you are richer than half the people in the country. If you can awake in the morning refreshed from a good night's sleep and go through the day without an ache or pain, and come at night to your couch physically tired and drop off to sleep like a babe, you are richer than three-fourths of all the people in the land, even though you have only enough money to supply the simplest physical wants. Nothing would tempt such a man to give up his health in exchange for wealth, and there isn't a man with a million dollars and no health, who wouldn't gladly give it for abounding health, the ability to eat what he wants and work at things he wants to work at, and at night to drop off to sleep without a single turn or toss upon his pillow. If you have health you have true wealth, and if you have no health you have no wealth, no matter what your income is, or how many boxes of bonds you may have or how big the house in which you live.

Changes in the Times

The Tulia Herald: When I was a boy, a local man said yesterday, I started to work at the age of 12. I worked six days a week and some nights and by the time I had graduated from high school, I had learned the printer's trade. That was before the reformers passed laws making it a crime to hire a boy and teach him a trade. I wonder if these reformers ever stop to check up and figure out how much youthful delinquency has increased since their law forcing idleness upon young people was passed.

The Important Thing

The Panhandle Herald: The important thing for the working man or woman to remember is this. The chances of getting a swell living at the expense of your government is not encouraging. You had better do your own saving for the sunset years and not depend on Uncle Sam or your state government.

Mae Sowell is visiting with relatives in Lufkin this week.

By BOYCE HOUSE

The philosophy of this letter, written by Abraham Lincoln to a kinsman, is still timely:

"Your request for $80 I do not think it best to comply with now. At the various times when I have helped you a little, you have said to me, 'We can get along very well now,' but in a short time I find you in the same difficulty again. Now this can only happen by some defect in your conduct. What that defect is, I think I know. You are not lazy, still you are an idler. I doubt whether, since I saw you, you have done a good whole day's work in any one day.

"You do not very much dislike to work and still you do not work much, merely because it does not seem to you that you could get much for it. This habit of uselessly wasting time is the whole difficulty; it is vastly important to you, and still more so to your children, that you should break the habit. It is more important to them because they have longer to live, and keep out of an idle habit before they are in it, easier than they can get out after they are in.

"You are now in need of some money; and what I propose is that you shall go to work, 'tooth and nail,' for somebody who will give you money for it. Let father and your boys take charge of your things at home, prepare for a crop, and make a crop, and you go to work for the best money wage, or in discharge of any debt you owe, that you can get; and, to secure you a fair reward for your labor, I now promise you, that for every dollar you will, between this and the first of May, get for your own labor, either in money or as your own indebtedness, I will then give you one other dollar.

"By this, if you hire yourself at $10 a month, you will get 10 more, making $20 a month for your work. In this I do not mean you shall go off to St. Louis, the lead mines, or gold mines in California, but I mean for you to go at it for the best wages you can get close to home in Coles County. Now, if you will do this, you will soon be out of debt, and what is better, you will have a habit that will keep you from getting in debt again. But if I should now clear you out of debt, next year you would be just as deep in as ever.

"You say you would almost give your place in heaven for $70 or $80. Then you value your place in heaven very cheap, for I am sure you can, with the offer I make, get the $70 or $80 for four or five months' work. You say if I will furnish you the money, you will deed me the land and, if you don't pay the money back, you will deliver possession. Nonsense! If you can't now live with the land, how will you then live without it?

"You have always been kind to me and I do not mean to be unkind to you. On the contrary, if you will but follow my advice, you will find it worth more than 80 times $80 to you."

Chambles In Race For Commissioner Of Precinct No. 3

Wayne Chambles of Estelline has authorized The Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

Chambles has been engaged in farming all his life, with the exception of three years he spent while serving with the 36th Division of the U. S. Army in World War I. He was born near San Antonio, and moved from there to Hall County 27 years ago. He has made his home in the Estelline and Hulver communities since that time.

In announcing for the office, his first time to seek a public office, Chambles made the following statement:

"My life in Hall County has made me acquainted with the various needs of the county, particularly with the needs of the precinct in which I live. It is with this knowledge that I feel that I will be able to keep this part of the county in excellent shape, and also I feel that I will be able to administer my part of the county affairs in a just and able manner."

"It is my intention to see each voter in the precinct personally before election time, but I will take this opportunity to solicit your aid and cooperation in the coming election. If elected, I promise to serve you in a capable and efficient manner."

Loans to Veterans Now Liberalized

Amendment to the Service-men's Readjustment Act of 1944 (GI Bill) liberalizes provisions relating to GI loans.

These loans may now be made by any lending agency which is subject to examination and supervision by a government agency. A loan becomes automatically guaranteed if the veteran and the lending agency close the deal, the terms being in accord with the provisions of the Act. The only other requirement is that the cost does not exceed the appraisal made by an appraiser designated by the Veterans Administration. Loans made by individual lenders (not falling in the class of approved institutions listed above) must obtain prior approval by the Veterans Administration in order for the loan to be guaranteed.

The appraised value under the new law must not exceed the "reasonable value" of the property while under the old law the appraisal value could not exceed the "reasonable normal value thereof."

Any loan on real estate may be guaranteed up to a maximum of $4,000 of the loan as compared with a $2,000 limit under previous law. The government guarantee remains at 50 per cent of the total loans up to the maximum amount. The business loan guarantee limit remains at $2,000 or 50 per cent.

Real estate loans may be retired over a period up to 25 years, and farm realty loans up to 40 years. Maturity on non-real estate loans may not exceed ten years.

Proceeds of loan may be used to purchase a lot in connection with home construction. Provisions of the act are liberalized so that loans may be made for all ordinary farming purposes, for any normal business enterprise, and so that existing indebtedness in default may be refinanced in connection with all types of eligible loans.

Rotarians Hear Scouting Leader

Guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday was Larry Eddy, former national Scout executive and now dean of cubbing in Oklahoma City, who emphasized the importance of Scout work to young boys.

Your Name Peery? $15,000 Is Waiting

Eldridge T. Peery, who would be in his eighties if still living, or his children and grandchildren are being hunted throughout Texas to claim a $15,000 estate left by a relative of whom they may have never heard or have long forgotten.

This was revealed recently when Walter C. Cox of Chicago, probate genealogist, took over the search for the Peery family who appears, he said, to have "disappeared into the present."

Cox, who specializes in tracing family trees and missing relatives to settle estates, said that Eldridge T. Peery was born in about 1865, and is known to have "settled somewhere in Texas" before or after he married.

"The maiden name of his wife," Cox added, "is not available, but it is known that the couple had a son, named Oscar, and a daughter, Lucinda, in Texas, and reportedly other children. There is reason to believe that Peery, if still alive, or if not, his descendants are still located in the state."

Bob Queener Buys Jack West's Cafe

Bob Queener this week announced that he has purchased Jack's Cafe from Jack West, and took charge Friday. The restaurant, which is located on Noel street next to the Hill Feed Store, has been re-named Bob's Cafe.

Queener, a veteran of World War II, was stationed at the Army Air Field at Childress for the past year. He held the rank of captain when he was discharged last September, and had seen several months service with the 14th Air Force in China. Mrs. Queener, a native of Midland, and their daughter, Rita Faith, moved to Memphis recently.

Bob's Cafe will be completely remodeled, the new owner said. He has also purchased the building housing the business, and plans to enlarge it within the near future.

A banquet room above the cafe will be remodeled, and will be available to persons and organizations who want a private dining location.

Aid For GI School Training Changed

The bill amending the Service-men's Readjustment Act of 1944 (GI Bill) contains changes of great interest to all veterans contemplating education or training under this bill.

The time limit during which a course of study may be initiated is extended from two to four years after discharge or the end of the war, whichever is later, and the time limit for completing the course is raised from seven to nine years after the end of the war.

Any eligible veteran may now receive one year of education or training, plus additional education (up to a maximum of four years), equal to the number of months of active service. He need not have been under 25 years when he entered service, nor need he show that his education was interrupted by war service.

Courses of education or training of the short intensive type are no longer limited to a cost of $100 for an ordinary school year. Under the new plan, a maximum of $500 for tuition and materials may also be applied to a course of shorter duration than the normal school year. The additional cost may be prorated against the period of eligibility to which the veteran is entitled at the rate of $500 per school year.

Monthly subsistence allowances are increased from $50 to $65 for veterans without dependents and from $75 to $90 for veterans with dependents.

The bill also provides for correspondence courses, but the veteran is entitled to no subsistence allowance for these. One-fourth of the elapsed time used in pursuing such a course is charged against the veteran's period of eligibility. Total amount payable for correspondence courses for any veteran is limited to $500.

Mrs. Ralph Stroup, formerly of Memphis and now living in Lubbock, visited friends here this week.

Former Servicemen May Re-Enlist Within Three Months of Discharge

The War Department, in a move to encourage the return of experienced soldiers, has removed the January 31 deadline for re-enlistment in grade of former rated Army men, it was announced recently by LT. Col. Robert L. Hardy, commanding officer of the West Texas U. S. Army recruiting district.

Former servicemen can now re-enlist in the regular army in the grade held at time of discharge if they apply within three months of their discharge, and not later than June 30, 1946. After that date, men now in the Army will be permitted to re-enlist in the grade they hold at discharge if they accomplish their re-enlistment within 20 days of their discharge.

Colonel Hardy explained that the new ruling extends by five months the former deadline which set January 31, 1946, as the date by which re-enlistment in grade could be accomplished.

The previous 20-day limit given rated men has been extended to three months effective immediately. The 20-day limit will apply from July 1 on for men now in the service.

Army Answers Your Questions

Q. In November I drew my first pension check as the widow of a World War I veteran. I am also drawing a $50 monthly family allowance from my son. Am I entitled to receive the pension and the allowance?—A Memphis woman.

Q. My husband is a corporal in the Army. We are going to have a child and he is going to apply for Emergency Maternity and Infant Care. Do I have to prove financial need to be eligible for this care?

A. Emergency maternity and infant care is a service provided by the government for the families of servicemen of the four lower grades. The applicant does not have to prove financial need.

Q. Did the Army reduce the length of service and number of points required for discharge as of January 1?

A. Yes. Except for officers of the Medical Department, who are released under a different set of requirements, Army personnel are now eligible for separation as follows:

Male officers—70 points or 48 months of service.

Male enlisted—50 points or 42 months of service.

WAC officers—37 points or 39 months of service.

Wac enlisted—32 points or 30 months of service.

Q. Soon after my discharge from the Army four months ago, I was injured in an automobile accident. My doctor says I will need some hospital care before I am well again. Am I entitled to government hospitalization?

A. The Veterans Administration provides hospitalization for any veteran discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. Veterans with service-connected disabilities are given preference.

Those with non-service-connected disabilities, such as yours, are eligible if a bed is available and the veteran makes a sworn statement that he is unable to defray the expense of the treatment.

Q. My husband has been in Germany since April, and is now in the Army of Occupation. Does this mean that he will have to stay until it is all over, or will he be replaced in a certain length of time by new men?

A. Soldiers in the Army of Occupation are released from the service as soon as they become eligible for discharge. They are also being replaced by lower-point men and those who are now enlisting or being inducted into the service.

Q. Is a soldier still eligible for a furlough home after serving overseas for a certain period of time?

A. The Army has not resumed the furlough rotation policy it once had in effect. However, soldiers with long periods of service overseas will be released from that duty when replacements are available.

Q. Is it true that boys 17 years old can now enlist in the Regular Army?

A. Yes, but they must have the consent of their parents.

Q. My husband is a corporal in the Army and he will soon be discharged. We expect our child will be born in about six months. If he were to apply for government maternity and infant care now, would it still be possible for me to obtain that aid, even though he will be out of the Army when the baby comes?

A. It is advisable for your husband to apply for emergency maternity and infant care before he leaves the service. However, if he applies after he leaves the service and a physician certifies that the pregnancy occurred during the time he was serving in the Army as a private, corporal or sergeant, the aid will be granted.

Q. My son is a warrant officer overseas. Does he come over the discharge system for officers or for enlisted men?

A. Separation requirements for commissioned officers apply also to warrant officers.

Q. My husband wants to go to his own gas station when he gets out of the Army. Is it true that if he doesn't earn a certain amount of money a month, the government will pay him the difference?

A. Under the GI Bill of Rights if an eligible self-employed man makes less than $100 a month, he may receive the difference between what he earns and $100. Certain requirements as to length of service and reason for discharge must be met, and also determine the number of months the payments are made.

E. H. Clark, who moved from Floyd County first of this year, subscribed for The Democrat this morning and remarked that never wants to do without county paper. He lives on Highway 1, Lakeview.

Mrs. Jake Morrison of Englewood was a visitor in Memphis this morning. She renewed her subscription to The Democrat while in town.

Extend Family Food Budget Wisely

The family budget will go further if menus are planned in advance and shopping is done carefully. Perhaps the most difficult part of the menu to plan is the main dish. You will find meat and cheese combine well and may be made to go further in tasty, creamed and escalloped dishes.

A small amount of dried beef will be delicious and will go a long way when creamed. And the milk in the cream sauce helps to make up for the amount of meat lacking. In addition the milk adds valuable vitamins and minerals to the diet. The cheese and hard-cooked eggs help to make this dish more savory and more substantial.

- #### CHIPPED BEEF AU GRATIN
- 3/4 cup butter
  - 1/2 cup flour
  - 2 1/2 cups milk
  - 4 ounces chipped beef, shredded
  - 3 hard-cooked eggs, quartered
  - 2 slices bread, cubed
  - 1/2 to 3/4 pound American cheese, cubed

Melt butter in saucepan, blend in flour, and add milk. Stir over direct heat until sauce boils and thickens. Stir in beef and eggs, and reheat. Pour hot mixture into 6 small baking dishes, and top each with cubes of bread and cheese. Place under broiler until cheese is melted and bread crumbs toasted. Serve piping hot. Serves 6.

Rain, Snow, Dangerous Highways Disrupt Southwest Farm Markets

The third week of January saw southwest farm markets disrupted by rains, snow, and dangerous highways, as well as unsettled conditions, according to SDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Livestock receipts fell off to a trickle even at terminals which were not affected by the skinning workers' strike. Stockyards were closed at some of the more seriously affected markets, including Fort Worth which suffered most in the south.

Both eggs and poultry, which had taken on a seasonally easy and under increased offerings in January, drew strength from the prospective reduction in meat supplies if the strike lasts long. Eggs continued to lose ground, however, in line with the gradually declining ceiling level.

Weather conditions and shortages of cars were the keynote of the vegetable situation. Fields were too wet for hauling in the south Texas area, and the consequent reduction in offerings made stronger prices on items that had begun to sag under increased movement the week before.

Cotton prices, which declined slightly when OPA announced proposed ceilings, regained most of the loss in later trade and ended the week fairly steady at levels near the recent high point.

A better feeling in domestic oil markets followed the Commodity Credit Corporation's announcement that further price reduction on its holdings were not prospect and that sales since decline last November have been very satisfactory.

Texas at a price of 75 cents a pound for kid hair and 55 cents for adult hair.

Grains held firm at ceiling levels with tight supplies a predominant factor. Demand is very active from both domestic and export buyers. Feeds are extremely short because mixers are unable to buy the necessary ingredients. Peanuts also are below trade needs at ceiling prices.

Surplus Fuel Cells Selling at Childress

The salvage officer of Childress Army Air Field has announced that there will be approximately 30 scrap airplane cells sold at a retail sale at CAAF salvage warehouse. The sale opened Wednesday and will continue until stock is exhausted.

These cells are composed of 3-ply synthetic rubber and are in varying sizes. The salvage officer advises that these cells have a wide range of uses such as feed and water troughs for cattle and swine, fishing boats, duct boats, duck blinds, sand boxes for children, pontoons to support pipe lines of water, storage containers, water carriers, homemade "Army Style" showers, storage reservoirs for irrigation purposes, water storage for fire precaution, etc.

The cells will be priced at $1 per cell up to 125 gallon capacity, $1.50 per cell up to 200 gallon capacity, and $3.50 per cell for all sizes larger than 200 gallon. These cells will be sold at retail sale on an "as is, where is" basis.

Quartet to Sing in Estelline School

The Charm Quartet will be presented in a concert at the Estelline High School Wednesday night, February 13, it was announced this week. The program will begin at 8 o'clock.

The program is being sponsored by the junior class, proceeds from which will be used by the class for the annual junior-senior banquet.

Admission will be 35 cents for adults; 15 for grade school students; and 20 for high school students and servicemen.

Industry, Government Agree Fat Salvage Must Continue

"Even though rationing is ended, there still remains the need for preventing waste of any fats, and for salvaging all used fats which are needed for the manufacture of soap and for other industries," says Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson.

For that reason the Department of Agriculture is vitally interested in seeing that American housewives continue to save used kitchen fats and that meat dealers continue to collect all used fats turned into them," Secretary Anderson concludes.

"Secretary Anderson has urged us to ask all our members to continue our splendid work on the salvage of used fats," says Donald M. Pfeiffer, President of the National Renderers Association.

"Renderers and independent collectors have a key role in the fat salvage program. It is essential that we continue to complete the collection system. The end of consumer rationing of food fats and oils has in no way lessened the need for salvaged fats for industrial uses."

"While consumer rationing of all fats and oils has ended, our supply of inedible fats is very short," says Paul C. Stark, Director, Food Distribution Programs Branch, Department of Agriculture.

"Because of this situation, we in the Department of Agriculture are continuing to urge housewives to save every drop of used kitchen fats. But the key to the whole situation is the collection of these used fats. If the collection system falls down, no amount of fats saved by American Housewives can ease the difficult situation we will find in the months ahead."

"The Department of Agriculture has asked for our continued cooperation in collecting and dispatching used household fat," says Kinsey N. Merritt, General Manager, Public Relations, Railway Express Agency, Inc.

"We are still on the job throughout the country picking up used fats from meat dealers and delivering them to renderers." "The Department of Agriculture has stressed that the collection system is the key to the whole situation, and we will continue to do all in our power to maintain our part in this system," Mr. Merritt concluded.

New B. F. Goodrich Silvertown OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

No guess—it's a reality! A new passenger tire has been developed by B. F. Goodrich and tests show that it rolls up more mileage than natural rubber, prewar tires. It's had more test background than any other B. F. Goodrich tire—and its ability to outwear prewar tires has been proved in the laboratory and over 16,800,000 miles on taxi fleets, police cars, and B. F. Goodrich test fleets.

The new tire is made from a new, better synthetic rubber that helps it run cooler, wear better, resist cracking, bruising and damage from accidents.

The tire body is 35% stronger, with stronger cords than prewar, more of them . . . and a double breaker strip instead of one. This extra strength makes possible a wider flatter shaped tread. Called the "road level" tread—it puts more rubber on the road to share the wear evenly. The tread design is made up of hundreds of skid-resisting curves, providing quicker stops, surer starts—safer driving. And this tire is backed by extra experience. Three years before any other manufacturer, B. F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American motorists. This extra store of experience shows up in the new tire—in extra mileage, extra safety and extra value.

For longer, even wear, safer driving, get the best tire value—the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown.

Army Answers Your Questions

Your questions on allotments, insurance, legal problems or other matters that they relate to Army personnel and their dependents will be answered in this column or by letter. Write Headquarters Eighth Service Command, Dallas 2, Texas.

Q. Will the government continue to sell "E" bonds?
A. Yes, the same type of savings bonds that were sold during the war years, and they will carry the same features. Those issued now will be called U. S. Savings Bonds instead of war bonds or victory bonds.

Q. What is the difference between war bonds, victory bonds, "E" bond and the new savings bonds?
A. None, except in name. They are all guaranteed by the government and will be paid according to the schedule printed on them. They increase in value each year. Hold them to maturity for the greatest return on the investment.

Q. What is the interest rate on the savings bonds?
A. 2.9 per cent and will return $4 for every $3 invested if held to maturity.

Q. Can the savings bonds still be purchased through the payroll deduction plan?
A. A survey has shown that most all companies are planning to continue the payroll deduction system. The payroll plan is being continued by employers because of the numerous requests from employees that this helpful service for systematic saving be retained.

Q. Will savings stamps continue to be available?
A. Yes. Particular emphasis is being put on their sale through the schools. They will be on sale at most banks and postoffices as well as through some other channels.

Q. How much was invested by Texans in "E" bonds during the war financing period?
A. $1,590,576,394 was invested in "E" bonds since the inception of the program in Texas.

Q. Will there be more drives?
A. No, not as such but the savings bond program is being continued into peacetime and special attention will be given the payroll deduction plan, sales thru schools, banks, and other savings funds issuing agents.

Q. Why should people continue to buy savings bonds?
A. It is good business for the individual; the return is good and they are a riskless investment within the reach of all. The systematic purchase and holding of these bonds will provide personal security.

Q. How many persons own bonds?
A. 85,000,000 Americans.

Your Next Letterhead

Your letterhead is your business representative. If it is a good one it commands attention while poorer ones are still cooling their heels in the "THINGS-TO-DO-TOMORROW" basket.

Designing a good letterhead is an important job. But it need not be difficult... it is merely a combination of good planning, good printing and good paper.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

State Farm Labor Workers to Have New Field Offices

Herman Porter Is Assigned To Wellington to Establish Labor Reception Centers

Field workers of the state farm labor office are setting up headquarters in five West Texas cities as a move to encourage establishment of additional migratory labor reception centers, C. Hohn, farm labor supervisor of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has announced.

Working with county farm agents, the fieldmen will contact county and county officials, businessmen, and farmers in an effort to increase the number of reception centers which will be available this year. Under the 1945 program, 42 such centers were in operation in Texas.

"If we can get more reception centers established, we can greatly improve the utilization of migratory labor," Hohn explained. There is a distinct need for the centers in many West Texas counties, and we believe they will be provided if the people understand the need and realize that the housing will do much to relieve labor shortages in their vicinities."

Under the migratory labor reception center plan as put into operation under Hohn's supervision, housing, bathing, and laundry facilities are established at key points. Representatives of the farm labor office, stationed at these centers, are able to contact migratory laborers and to direct them to areas where labor is needed.

Fieldmen assigned to the various areas are G. F. Price, Lamesa; C. D. Davenport, Lubbock; A. G. Arnim, Munday; Russell E. Patterson, Ballinger; and Herman Porter, Wellington. Each fieldman will work in several counties.

ceived a letter from the Clarendon office stating that a number of Hall Countians were applying for new ration books, although they already have book No. 4. This book is the latest one, and it is not expected that another will be issued. If a person already has the latest ration book, No. 4, he does not need to apply for another, it was emphasized.

Changes—

week of 1944 only about three fifths of all gainfully employed civilians were in jobs covered by the system, and more than 2,000,000 civilians and between 1,000,000 and 12,000,000 persons were excluded from it.

Recommendations of immediate importance to persons already covered by the act include one for an increase in benefit amounts, particularly for low-paid workers, and one for an increase from $3,000 to $3,600 a year in the amount of earnings subject to contribution and computation of benefits, Sanderson pointed out.

"At the present levels, monthly benefit payments amounting approximately $198,000 went to 1,232 men, women, and children in this area last year," Sanderson said.

Three recommendations by the Social Security Board are changes in provisions of the act that experience has shown cause hardship to beneficiaries and potential recipients, Sanderson said.

They are for a reduction of the qualifying age for all women beneficiaries to 60 years, from the present 65; deletion of the requirement of school attendance as a condition of receipt of benefit by children aged 16 and 17, an increase in the amount of earnings permitted a beneficiary without suspension of benefits.

Benefit payments now are suspended for any month in which the person on whose wages the benefits are based earns more than $14.99 in covered employment, and a sum equal to month's benefit is assessed as penalty for knowingly failing to report any such earnings.

for the aid which was given the affair."

The total amount raised during the campaign will not be announced until next week or later when all parts of Hall County have reported. Various clubs in Memphis are contributing to the fund, as are the schools of the county.

In addition, Boren is taking nightly collections at each of the two Memphis theaters, and last year and the year before, the contributions formed the major part of the county's collection. It is hoped by the local directors that this year the county will collect more than $1,000.

Of the amount contributed to the county, one-half will be sent to the national foundation; the other half will be retained in Hall County, to be used in local emergency cases of infantile paralysis.

Hughes of Lefors; and Monzingo layed Hollis Black of Petersburg in the first round.

At the close of the tournament in Amarillo, Duke Nally, tournament director, wrote Superintendent W. C. Davis of Memphis "to compliment the deportment of the members of the Memphis High School boxing team who participated" in the tourney. "They were a fine group of boys, ably coached, well conditioned, and their showing, individually and as a team, had much to do with the success of the tournament," Nally said.

"It was a real pleasure to work with Coach Curtis Kelley," Nally said. "Throughout the tournament, his cooperation and consideration for tournament officials were outstanding. Curtis is a credit to the coaching and teaching professions and an asset to the town. As for the boys, they will always be welcome in Amarillo and we are looking forward to having Memphis represented again next year."

Many a soldier has discovered he was a hero when he returned, but once back in civvies he was just the wife's husband again.
