Memphis All-Stars To Play Wellington Thanksgiving Day

After a 13 to 0 defeat at the hands of the Clarendon Junior College eleven last Friday night, the Memphis All Stars added a number of players to their team roster, it was reported this week, in preparation for the game to be played at Cyclone Stadium this Thursday afternoon when they meet Wellington All Stars. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

After seeing the Memphis-Wellington tilt we can say that the Thanksgiving game will really be a hard fought and rugged battle. Herbert Curry, team manager said this week. "The Memphis All Stars had a few men in last Friday's game, but besides Buster Helm and Wendell Harrison have stated that the team will be ready and ready to go Thursday."

The price of admission will be the same as charged for the high school games played here this season and all proceeds will go to building fund of the Memphis chapter of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The game has been given publicity over Amarillo and Wichita radio stations and a large crowd is expected, VFW officials said.

The probable starting line up Memphis was announced this week as follows: Curtis Kelley, B; Smith, B; Clifford Vandenberg, B; "Wildhorse" Clemens, Glenn Stilwell, RE; Doyle, RT; Bill Ballew, RG; Lamkin, C; Lonnie Jones, Dave Browder, LT; "Snooks" Anderson, LE.

Other players on the Memphis roster include Dave Price, B; Robertson, B; Louis Saied, B; Robert Hanvey, B; Marshall, B; W. H. Butler, B; Ray, B; Robert Billington, W. M. Kilpatrick, E; George, E; Jerral Messer, T; Dan Hillan, T; Dub Parker, T; Barber, G; Bill Henry, G; Steve Stevens, G; Wendell Orand, Richard Messer, C; Doyle Sarver, C.

H. J. Howell New Chairman of Red Cross Chapter

H. J. Howell was named chairman of the Hall County Chapter of the American Red Cross last week, succeeding W. B. Wilson, who has served in this capacity for the past two years.

Howell is manager of the J. C. Penney store in Memphis, and has been active in civic affairs since moving here in June, 1945. He is now serving as chairman of the board of trustees of the First Baptist Church, and is a deacon of the church. Another activity to which Howell is devoting much time is the local Girl Scout organization, of which he is vice president.

In addition to Howell, the following officers are serving with the local Red Cross chapter: E. M. Duren, vice chairman; Miss Maria Baskerville, secretary; and Edwin A. Smith Jr., treasurer.

The following chairmen are in charge of the various phases of local Red Cross activities: disaster, W. C. Davis; home service, Mrs. T. D. Weatherby; junior Red Cross, Miss Mary Foreman; first aid, Jack Boone; camp and hospital, Mrs. J. A. Odum; public information, Herschel Combs; membership and fund raising, O. V. Alexander.

Chairmen for home nursing, nutrition, and production will be announced by Howell at a future date.

Government Cancels Delivery of B-29 To Local Airport

Memphis will not receive a B-29 bomber, which was promised the city several weeks ago, Horace Tarver and Wendell Harrison announced this week. The city had asked the War Department for the bomber to be placed as a permanent fixture on the municipal airport.

Tarver and Harrison, who are members of the city council in charge of the local airport, said reason for cancellation of the order for the big bomber was the removal from the "surplus" category of government property.

Requests have gone out for a B-17 to take the place of the B-29. This ship is expected to arrive at the airport soon.

Two Youths Held On Charge of Theft

Two youths, claiming to be from Denver, were apprehended here Monday night by Sheriff Earl Hill and Patrolman McNeill and jailed on a charge of car theft.

They gave their names as Herbert Cason, 18, and Dennis Murray, 17. It was admitted by the boys that they took a Buick from a used car lot in Amarillo and drove it to Memphis, local officers said. When they arrived here they took gas from a cattle truck which was parked in front of a cafe.

Grocers Collecting Used Kitchen Fats

Local grocery firms are again appealing to housewives of this area to turn in used kitchen fats in an effort to help eliminate the soap shortage.

"All the housewife has to do is bring the used fats to our stores," one food merchant stated. "We have made arrangements to have the used fats picked up and delivered to soap manufacturers."

It is believed by grocers that the saving of used fats will do much toward reducing the prices of soap and soap flakes, which have risen steadily in recent months.

HALL COUNTY VOCATIONAL SCHOOL APPROVED; FARM CLASS TO START

All veterans interested in enrolling in the Hall County Veterans' Vocational School were urged this week by Miss Mary Foreman, county superintendent, to bring their certificates of eligibility to her office as soon as the certificates are received. And those who have filled out and sent in form 7-1950 applying for certificate (even though the certificate has not been received) should notify the county superintendent.

A school has been approved for Hall County, Miss Foreman said, and the county board is waiting for a response from veterans in this county before taking action as to setting a date for beginning the school.

"If as many as 20 veterans are interested in attending a class in agriculture," Miss Foreman said, "and if and when 20 men have filed their certificates of eligibility with me, a class will be organized."

To receive certificates of eligibility to attend a veterans' vocational school, ex-servicemen (Continued on page 8)

Federal Cotton Crop Insurance Now Available

Federal crop insurance on the 1947 cotton crop is now being offered for sale to every cotton farmer in Texas, State Director S. F. Nance of the Production and Marketing Administration announced this week.

Insurance contracts will be signed in all county ACA offices. Under the 1947 insurance plan, farmers are being offered a wider choice on the amount of insurance they can buy. Coverage may be made for as low as 40 per cent of the average yield and as high as 75 per cent, Vance said.

All-risk insurance, which protects the crop against any unavoidable hazards, goes into effect when cotton is planted and continues until it is ginned. The amount of insurance increases as the crop grows, because more (Continued on page 5)

Ammunition May Be Scarce, and Birds Hard to Find, But—

FIRST DAY OF QUAIL SEASON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 1, WILL SEND HUNDREDS OF HUNTERS INTO FIELDS

Hundreds of county nimrods are making final plans to take to the fields Sunday when the annual quail season opens. For dozens of the men, it will be the first time they have hunted the elusive bob-white in several years.

This is the second hunt for most sportsmen—the first being a hunt for ammunition, which has been going on for a long time. Ammunition is still scarce, and many a county man will be trying to make every shot count in order to conserve shells. The old arguments favoring No. 7, 7½, or 8 shot for quail still has its place where hunters gather. But it doesn't mean anything this year. Some men will be using anything they can find, even shot as large as No. 2. According to reports, the

Ruben Tillman Sisk, Pioneer Resident Of Memphis, Dies

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Ruben Tillman Sisk, who died Saturday afternoon while after suffering a heart attack. Rev. Jeff Moore, pastor of a Baptist church in Mangum, Okla., conducted the services at the First Baptist Church of Memphis.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery with Murphy-Spicer-Estes Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Rube Sisk had been a resident of Memphis for 31 years. For a number of years he was engaged in the restaurant business here, and for the past few years had been engaged in the buying and selling of livestock. He suffered a heart attack while looking after cattle on the L. W. Stanford ranch north of town, and died before reaching a hospital.

Sisk was born at Aekworth, Ga., July 9, 1882, and was 64 years, 4 months, and 14 days of age at the time of his death. He moved to Trenton, Texas, at the age of 7 years. He was married to Miss Myrtle Sanders May 12, 1907, at Chillicothe, and resided at Chillicothe and Sherman until he moved to Memphis 31 years ago. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Memphis.

Survivors are the wife, Mrs. Myrtle Sisk; a son, Herbert Sisk of Los Angeles; one brother, T. C. Sisk of Wichita Falls; and three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Hawdeshall of Dallas, Mrs. W. H. Burk of Shawnee, Okla., and Mrs. John Jarvis of Sapulpa, Okla.

Pallbearers were W. S. (Peck) Morrison, M. D. Kennard, Barney Burnett, Grover Kesterson, Ed Thompson, and Joe Miller. Honorary pallbearers were Brice Webster, Carl Smith, N. A. Hightower, C. W. McCool, Dick Watson, John Dennis, Jess Gardner, Dave Howard, and Mac Tarver.

Those in charge of flowers were Mrs. Leo Fields, Mrs. Wendell Harrison, Mrs. L. W. Stanford, Mrs. Alvis Gerlach, Mrs. Carl Harrison, Mrs. Hank Hankins, and Mrs. Coy Davis.

Schools Turn Out For Thanksgiving

Memphis schools will be closed Thursday and Friday for the Thanksgiving holidays, it was announced by school officials the first of the week.

Supt. W. C. Davis, Memphis; J. B. Riddle, Estelle superintendent; Lee Vardy, Turkey superintendent; and Miss Mary Foreman, county superintendent, will attend the State Teachers Association meeting in Houston Friday and Saturday.

It has also been announced that the Memphis schools will close December 20 for the Christmas holidays, and reopen on January 2.

MAJOR A. C. HAYNES

Methodist Pastor Given Promotion

He's Major Aubrey C. Haynes now.

So says a notification from the Adjutant General's office, Washington, D. C.

The information was to the effect that Rev. Haynes had been promoted from the grade of captain to that of major (chaplain) in the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army.

Rev. Haynes was released from the army last February after serving as chaplain in the Pacific Theatre. He rated wearing the American theatre ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with four stars, the Philippine liberation ribbon, and the victory medal. The four stars are for the southern Philippines, Central Pacific, Luzon, and Ryukyu campaigns.

Rev. Haynes upon his release from the army was sent to Memphis to serve as pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Local Sportsmen Return Sunday From Annual Deer Hunt

A group of local sportsmen returned Sunday after a week's hunting trip in the Davis mountains, where they bagged several deer.

In the group from Memphis were Mac Wilson, C. S. Compton, La. McQueen, M. C. Allen, and Leon Montgomery.

Their headquarters was near Sawtooth Peak where Wilson has held a lease for many years. Six other hunters joined the local group.

Brother of Judge A. S. Moss Dies

Edward H. Moss, 70, brother of Judge A. S. Moss of Memphis, died Monday, November 18, at Hermann Hospital in Houston. Moss had recently undergone a minor operation and was thought to be recovering nicely until he suffered a stroke. His death followed instantly.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday of last week from the Parks Funeral Chapel at LaGrance with the Presbyterian (Continued on page 5)

Lakeview Teams Down Quitaque

The girls basketball team of the Lakeview High School played the Quitaque girls' team Friday night of last week and won by a score 20 to 13, it was reported from Lakeview this week.

The boys' team won over Quitaque by a margin of 36 to 21. Ector Anthony accounted for most of Lakeview's points.

The school announced that the girls' team will play the Quail girls team next Tuesday night and the boys will take on a team from Claude. Admission for grade school students will be 20 cents and 35 cents will be charged for high school students and adults.

Farmers of Hall County will go to balloting places Saturday and elect their community and county committeemen, R. E. Eddleman, chairman of the County Agricultural Committee, said this week. Six community ballots have been printed, and notices have been mailed from the local ACA office to all farmers giving details of the annual election.

Each of the county's six farming communities will elect three committeemen and two alternates, as well as a delegate to the county convention. At this convention, the three-man county committee will be elected.

Eddleman said that approximately 1,250 farmers are eligible to vote in the elections this year. Eligible farmers are those who are participating in the 1946 agricultural conservation program, or who have a contract with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. This includes owners, operators, tenants, and sharecroppers on farms where the conservation program is being carried out. Because of the community property laws in Texas, the wife may vote if the husband is eligible whether he be landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

In announcing the date for the election, Eddleman urged all farmers who are entitled to go to the polling places in the community and vote.

"Since the committeemen are responsible for developing, adopting, and administering national farm programs to meet local problems and needs, it is important that the men elected really represent the choice of the majority of the farmers in the community," he stated.

The community polling places and election chairmen are as follows: Lesley—Vote at Lesley Gin office; Johnnie W. Driver, election chairman. Lakeview—Rear of First National Bank; Marian A. Wiley, chairman. Plasko—Foster's Store; James T. Dennis, chairman. Memphis—County court room; Charles A. Williams, chairman. Estelle—Paymaster Gin office; Hulen E. Clifton, chairman. Turkey—City Hall; Otho H. Arnold, chairman.

Polling places in each of the above six communities will be open from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Nominations for community committeemen and delegates as they appear on the six community (Continued on page 5)

Business Houses Will Close Thanksgiving

Most Memphis business houses and the post office will be closed all day today in observance of Thanksgiving. Mayor C. C. Hodges issued a proclamation last week requesting that Thanksgiving Day be set aside, and most businessmen indicated their intention to close.

The Memphis schools closed Wednesday afternoon for the holiday and will not re-open until Monday.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

By J. C. W.

A number of returned GI's are still nervous over the trying times they had while fighting the Axis. Any loud or sudden noise does not help this nervousness. Also, there are a number of people here in their homes or in the hospitals who are nervous and sudden noises do not help their condition. Noise from fireworks is the worst of the lot, but children and even older folks think it a lot of fun to set off fire crackers. Surely they do not think how distressing it is to a lot of people they wouldn't intentionally hurt for anything, when they set off the crackers.

Last Sunday night during church services, there was a continual explosion of crackers that disturbed people at worship. It is hoped that the youngsters will be more thoughtful in the future. (Continued on page 8)

Mrs. J. C. Huckaby, Recent Bride, Is Complimented with Shower at Estelline

Mrs. J. C. Huckaby, who was before her recent marriage Miss Dorothy Hayes, was complimented with a bridal shower by the women of the First Baptist Church of Estelline Thursday afternoon, November 14.

Upon entering the church guests were served punch and cookies from a lace covered table by Mrs. Bessie Coppedge. Mrs. Billie Huffmaster, classmate of the honoree, presided at the register. After the guests were seated, the honoree entered on the arm of Miss Janet Gilbert, who was dressed as a sailor. Mrs. Raleigh Adams played the wedding march as the couple entered. The gifts were arranged on a table in the shape of a ship and were pushed down the aisle to the bride who was seated between her mother and the bridegroom's mother.

A musical program was given by Misses Gilbert, Elizabeth Rollins, and Ellen Hayes. Mrs. Albert Bailey gave two appropriate readings.

The guest list included Mesdames Ann Whaley, A. G. Huffmaster, Dewitt Eddins, Bertie Holland, R. J. Gilbert, Lola Layton, H. M. Lang, Daisy Kennedy, D. E. ## T. E. L. Class Has Meeting Thursday In Thornton Home

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Church met Thursday afternoon of last week in the home of Mrs. Lee Thornton with Mrs. H. Smith as co-hostess.

Mrs. R. H. Wherry presided. Mrs. Claude Harris led in the opening prayer. Reports were then given by group captains and Mrs. A. M. Wyatt's group had the best average. Announcement was made that the Christmas tree and party would be held in the home of Mrs. R. C. Walker on December 19. Interesting reports were given by Mrs. J. W. Fitzjarrald, Mrs. J. H. Smith, and Mrs. Frank Ellis, who recently attended the convention in Mineral Wells.

Mrs. John Barber brought the devotional on "Thanksgiving," using Psalms 118 as the text, and Mrs. R. C. Walker read several poems. Mrs. J. S. McMurry offered the closing prayer.

A delicious refreshment plate was served during the social hour to Mesdames Chas. Oren, R. H. Wherry, E. W. Evans, W. R. Durham, S. J. Braddock, Ollie Tribble, T. T. Loard, R. C. Walker, C. W. Miss Thomas Weds W. Wilson Morgan In Memphis Vows

Miss Seretha Geraldine Thomas and W. Wilson Morgan, both of Hedley, were united in marriage at the First Methodist Church in Memphis Saturday evening of last week at 7 o'clock.

Weatherbys Hosts At Pheasant Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Weatherby entertained with a 6 o'clock pheasant dinner Thursday night of last week following Mr. Weatherbys return from a hunting trip to Lamar, Colo., where he bagged his limit of pheasants.

W. T. Hightower Guest Speaker at Junior High P.-T. A.

The Junior High Parent-Teacher Association met for the regular monthly session in the school library Thursday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Herchel Combs, president, called the meeting to order at 3 o'clock and a short business session followed.

Several musical selections were played by the 5th grade pupils of Miss Zada Belle Walker's room. This is a tonette band and is under the direction of Perry Kyser.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was W. T. Hightower, who spoke to the group on "Learning the Ways of Peace."

Memphians Attend P.-T. A. Convention

Several Memphis women attended the convention of the Texas Parent-Teacher Association which was held in Amarillo Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week.

Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, a past president of this district, and Mrs. Candler Hawkins, who went as a delegate from the West Ward P.-T. A., were there for the entire session.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Celebrate 42nd Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Henry were surprised Sunday when their children and several friends came with well-filled baskets to spend the day.

A bountiful meal was served buffet style at noon. The decorated wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and vari-colored carnations were used to form the centerpiece for the dining table.

Children attending were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin King and son of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Myrt Henry and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Griffiths and children, all of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Davis and daughter of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry of Dumas.

Friends attending were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Martin and children, Mrs. Mattie Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rice, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ritter.

ANY PERSON MAY AID CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Shriners of North America are very active in their work with crippled children, according to N. W. Durham of Memphis.

While the Shriners of North America are financing this most worthwhile humane activity, they feel that others may want a part.

Sodalitan Class Meets in Home of Mrs. H. T. Gregory

The Sodalitan Sunday School class met Friday of last week in the home of Mrs. H. T. Gregory for the monthly business and social meeting.

The meeting was opened with prayer. Mrs. Leonard Wilson, vice president, presided at the business session.

Mrs. L. G. Rasco brought the devotional using the 95th chapter of Psalms, and closing with a poem, "I'm Thankful," by I. G. Thomas.

The hostesses served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream, and coffee to Mesdames Jean Lamb, W. J. Bragg, H. Byrd, L. O. McCoy, C. L. Caviness, Theo Swift, Leonard Wilson, Bud Godfrey, Claude Stevens, Bob Scott, D. L. C. Kinard, Henry Scott, N. M. Lindsey, and one visitor, Mrs. O. T. Toney.

Vota Veta Class Meets in Home of Mrs. Harry Womack

The Vota Veta Sunday School class met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Florence Womack for the regular monthly meeting.

Elma Faye Murdock gave the devotional. A Christmas party was planned during the business session.

Those present were Doris Pounds, a new member, Naomi Pounds, Louise Gardener, Elma Faye Murdock, Martha Lou Moss, Peggy Moss, and the hostess, Florence Womack.

and it is now possible for anyone outside of the organization to buy a voluntary contributing life membership in the Shriners hospitals for crippled children. A beautiful certificate is issued to everyone purchasing one of these memberships, said Mr. Durham.

Estelline School to Have Carnival December 6th

The Estelline school carnival will be held at the high school building in Estelline Friday night of next week, according to an announcement by J. B. Riddle, superintendent of the school.

It was previously planned to have the carnival on the night of December 7, but the date has been changed to December 6, Riddle stated.

Church Ceremony in Amarillo Unites Cora Francis Ioor and William H. Helms

The Church of Christ in Amarillo was the scene for the marriage of Miss Cora Francis Ioor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ioor Sr. of Lakeview, and William H. Helms, son of Mrs. Ada Helms of Paris, Sunday afternoon, November 17.

The double-ring vows were spoken at 1 o'clock by Minister Herbert L. Gipson in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

The bride chose for her wedding a dressmaker's suit of dusty pink gabardine with black accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. J. E. Ioor Jr., the bride's sister-in-law, was matron-of-honor. She wore a gold gabardine suit with fuchsia accessories and a corsage of white rose buds.

J. E. Ioor Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mrs. Ioor, the bride's mother, wore a brown gabardine suit complemented with matching accessories and a corsage of white rose buds.

The bride, who is a graduate of the Lakeview high school, is employed at Russell Stationery Shop in Amarillo.

The bridegroom recently received his discharge from the army. He served with the 70th field artillery battalion in Europe. He is at present an employee of the Pittsburg Plate Glass company in Amarillo.

After a short wedding trip to Denver, the couple will be at home at 1605 Monroe street in Amarillo.

MRS. BILLY GLENN PENIX who left November 18 to join her husband, 1st Lt. Charles N. Penix, who is stationed in Neuburg, Germany, with the U. S. Air Force. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Salmon of Brice.

Davenport Home In Lakeview Scene Of Turkey Dinner

Mrs. H. L. Davenport was hostess to members of the Lakeview 42 Club and several guests at her home in Lakeview Friday night of last week at a turkey dinner.

The occasion was to honor her husband on his birthday anniversary.

Autumn leaves were used for decorations with a beautiful centerpiece of chrysanthemums used on the dining table. Place cards and vari-colored mints resembling autumn leaves further accented the fall motif.

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to 22 guests.

Guests attending were George Davenport of Muleshoe, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williamson of Morton, Mrs. Mary Savern of Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Potts and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Weatherly of Memphis. Members present were Messrs. and Mesdames D. A. Davenport Sr., David H. Davenport Jr., James Skinner, Del Wells, John Capps, Horace J. DuVall, and H. L. Davenport.

James E. W. Evans, J. S. Ballard, J. W. Burks, R. S. Bradley, A. O. Fradley, A. B. Jones, Braddock, M. O. Goodpasture, and the hosts, Mrs. Wade Patrick.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. T. R. Blades, 203 North 14th street, at 1 o'clock Thursday, December 5.

GLORIA VIRGINIA HOWARD VISITING IN NEW YORK

Miss Gloria Virginia Howard, who is attending Town School at Chicago, left Tuesday for New York where she will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother's sister and niece, Mrs. M. De Santes and husband, and Estelle and LeRoy Olin of Long Island. The Olins are professional dancers.

While in New York, Gloria will attend a number of stage play theaters and other educational entertainments, such as the Juillard school of music, with a personal introduction by her professor and instructor, Leo Podolsky, to climax her trip. She, with her aunt and uncle, will drive to New Haven, Conn., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Sante Graziana, where Mrs. Graziana is art instructor at University. Mrs. Graziana was remembered as Jacqueline Murry.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Webster lectured in Wichita Falls Tuesday last week.

Mizpah Guild of Memphis Entertains Address Church

Members of the Mizpah Guild of the Presbyterian church entertained at a meeting Tuesday night in the auditorium of the church. The group met on Tuesday night in a session and on the following night entertained members of the Childers Presbyterian church with a covered dish supper at the church.

How women and girls get wanted relief

Nothing ever smells better, I wonder, than the old-time Thanksgiving dinner cooking? Luscious fragrance of turkey roasting with its savory dressing, potatoes and turnips and onions and squash boiling, and spicy pies baking! I say "old-time" but I don't know why because the Thanksgiving aroma is about the same in the modern kitchen as it was in the old-fashioned one. Perhaps we can't provide with the lavish hands of our grandmothers but we stick to tradition when we plan our Thanksgiving feast.

Of course for the small family the roasting fowl may be chicken or duck or guinea hen instead of turkey but the good, mouth-watering odors are there anyway. Some of us may roast half a turkey, depending on the size of the family and number of guests.

In some parts of New England, chicken pie always has run a close second to turkey. My grandfather insisted that both be served, and the chicken pie is an ideal stretch, by the way, if it's a large party.

Much of the preparation for the feast should be completed the day before. Replenish staples early in the week so that the Thanksgiving day at McLean. He and Mrs. Grady will leave in a few weeks for Brazil where they will do missionary work. Music was furnished by members of the Presbyterian choir.

The meeting Tuesday night was in the home of Frances Peacock and Jessie Snell was co-hostess.

Following the invocation and roll call, a short business session was held. Ruth Harrison rendered the devotional and Virginia Dodson taught the lesson on "Leaders of India." Ora Denny gave a selected article, and Paul Ward led the closing prayer.

Refreshments were served to Lucy Alexander, Ora Denny, Virginia Dodson, Anna Finch, Laura Finch, Dorcas Ruth Foster, Ruth Harrison, Evelyn Helm, Jessie Jones, Mary Noel, Frances Ray, Gertrude Rasco, Nell Treadwell, Pearl Ward, Grace Wilson, Pauline Wilson, Ruth Whaley, and the hostesses.

Cleo Mae White Betrothed to Courtney Scott

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. White, 303 South Richmond, Albuquerque, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cleo Mae, to Courtney Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scott of Memphis. Wedding plans are being made for December 22 at the First Baptist Church in Albuquerque with Rev. Philip C. McGajey, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Arthur R. Hendrickson, mother of the bride-to-be, has been named as matron of honor and Mr. Scott's brother, W. R. Scott of Memphis, will be best man.

Miss White, a graduate of Albuquerque High School, is a student at the University of New Mexico, as is the groom-elect. He is a sophomore majoring in engineering, having enrolled following his discharge from the navy with which he served 30 months. He is a veteran of service in the Pacific theater.

The groom's family plan to attend the ceremony, which will be open to all friends. A breakfast for the bridal party and members of the family is being planned at the White home following the service.

The couple will make their home in Albuquerque and continue their training at the university.

Tarver's Installs Modern Fountain

Installation of a new style fountain was completed at Tarver's Pharmacy last week, following four days of disrupted service in the local store.

Many modern developments in fountains are incorporated in the new unit, Horace and Mac Tarver, owners, state. More storage space has been provided which will mean a better and faster service, the owners said.

The fountain is 24 feet long, and represents an investment of approximately $4,000.

A new bar will arrive within a few days, which will replace the one now in use.

Conservation Group Meets November 21

Conservation group No. 30 of the Hall County Soil Conservation district, which is located in the Harrell Chapel community, met at the Lewis Richards farm Thursday afternoon of last week. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss conservation practices to be established in December, and also those to be established in 1947.

It was reported that engineering assistance was scheduled for this group for the first week in December. At that time approximately 19 miles of terrace lines are to be run on four farms.

Opportunity would have to knock the door down before some people would become interested.

"Jewish People in America" Theme at Atalantean Club

"Jewish People in America" was the program theme at the meeting of the Atalantean Club in the home of Mrs. J. H. Morris Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. W. C. Dickey, president, presided for the business discussion.

Mrs. J. A. Odom, program chairman, introduced the program. Mrs. Jeff Ray discussed "The Jewish People in American Life," and continuing the topic Mrs. Bentley Page talked on "Education, Literature, and Art of the Jews in America." The speakers brought out the fine ability of the Jews and what they have contributed to the American way of life.

Roll call was responded to with assigned topics.

During the social hour refreshments were served to Mesdames Troy Broome, W. C. Dickey, H. B. Estes, N. A. Hightower, T. M. Isham, Claud Johnson, C. W. Kinslow, D. A. Neeley, J. H. Norman, J. A. Odom, Bentley Page, Myrtis Phelan, Jeff Ray, Bob Roberts, Pete Smith, C. R. Webster, J. A. Whaley, and Miss Gertrude Rasco.

The next meeting will be held December 4 in the home of Mrs. Jeff Ray.

"The Miracle of the Bells" Reviewed by Mrs. R. E. Clark

Mrs. R. Ernest Clark reviewed "The Miracle of the Bells" for members of the Woman's Culture Club and several guests when the club met Wednesday of last week in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Phillips.

"The Miracle of the Bells" is one of the latest best sellers and was written by Russell Janney. It is a joyous novel of a love so strong that it redeemed not only one man's faith, but transformed the lives of men from spiritual poverty to gladness and brotherhood, and told in Mrs. Clark's charming manner furnished an entertaining afternoon, those present reported. A piano selection by Patsy Nell Combs concluded the program.

The hostess served a dessert course to 20 members and guests.

Members and guests attending were Mesdames W. B. Hooser, Frank Ellis, W. Wilson, Lennie Cautchen, Jeanette Irons, H. T. Gregory, D. S. Miller, H. B. Patterson, R. E. Clark, Herschel Combs, Ward Gurley, Henry Hays, A. W. Howard, R. L. Madgen, C. D. Morris, Misses Esta McElvath, Patsy Nell Combs, Audrey Beth Boggs, Sybil Gurley, and hostess, Mrs. Phillips.

Mrs. Herbert Moffett of Hedley visited here Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Crawford.

We Give Thee Thanks

In the name of the living, and of the dead,
And of those unborn—Lord, bless the bread
Of brotherhood that now we break
In gratitude for Thy sweet sake.

In the name of the living—we thank Thee, Lord,
For deliverance from flame and sword;
For loved ones spared; for the task well done;
For the battle fought—and the victory won.

In the name of the dead—locked deep in sleep
Under alien earth—give us strength to keep Untarnished their dear-bought legacy,
The brave, bright armor of liberty.

And for these unborn—Lord, we lift a prayer
For a wiser world where we all may share
A lasting amity with men.
We thank Thee, Lord, for peace,
Amen.

Comments—

and also that merchants will discontinue to order more crackers for sale. All of which isn't any of my business, but for humanity's sake, I make this appeal.

Here is another appeal, but of a different kind: The boys' wing of Tipton Orphans Home at Tipton, Okla., was burned Saturday and nearly all the clothing of the boys was destroyed. It will take money to replace the building and clothing to replace that which was burned. If there was ever a cause worthy of donations, this is it. Bring or send your contributions to The Democrat and we will see that it goes to the Tipton Orphans Home. The contributions may be either money or clothing suitable for boys from 2 to 18 years of age.

A mighty fine piece of work was done when the City Dads joined the Post Office Department in extending the paving to the sidewalks on two sides of the local post office. This gives more and better parking facilities, and leaves the street open for traffic. This part of Memphis is crowded at mail time each day, and the improvement will aid traffic during the rush hours.

Christmas is only four weeks away, and the time will pass swiftly. Children should get their letters to Santa Claus in immediately so they may be set in type before being sent on to Santa. If the letters come in at the last minute, there may not be sufficient time for them to be in the December 19 issue.

The time is here when all places of business should be decorated for the Christmas season. Just any kind of decoration will help, if one isn't able to do elaborate fixing. Let's make this a real joyful season.

It is hoped the West Texas Utilities company will be ready to turn on the bright lights before Christmas. That in itself would be a wonderful aid in the Christmas decorating.

Memphis has long been known as the Friendly City. Now Memphians want to add to the slogan and make it "The Friendly City with the Bright Lights."

The Democrat is issued a day early this week in order that the office force may observe Thanksgiving Day in the proper manner. I hope every one of the readers may enjoy the day and have reason for being truly thankful.

It would really be a wonderfu

Thanksgiving all over America if it were not for the strike of coal miners at the behest of John L. Lewis which threatens the comfort of millions of people, even to children in school. Why any bunch of miners, even though they are most all practically foreigners, will follow a communistic-minded un-American fellow like Lewis is more than I can fathom. Surely, congress and governmental leaders some day will put a crimp in Lewis, instead of letting him dictate because of the votes he commands.

may fill in form 7-1950 and send it to the Veterans Administration. A copy of the discharge and a copy of the marriage license (if married) must be sent with form 7-1950. The forms may be secured in the office of Otho Fitzjarrald at Memphis or Cele Boswell at Turkey, veteran advisers for Hall County.

Here are the qualifications a trainee as given by Miss Foreman:
In order to qualify for training in agriculture in this program a veteran must have facilities and opportunities to carry on a satisfactorily supervised farming or ranching program in one of the following situations:

1. He must be a farm or ranch owner-operator.
2. He must be a farm or ranch center-operator with a recorded lease. If any other form is used prior written approval must be secured from the Veterans' Administration regional office.
Each trainee shall spend a minimum of 144 hours per month according to the following schedule:

Institutional instruction—50 hours each week. Eight hours of this will be spent in individual instruction and supervision, farm shop, food preservation center, and/or group demonstration according to the needs of the individual veteran.

Supervised home practices—94 hours per month. (New and improved practices.)
The $100-per-month unemployment compensation which some veterans are now receiving will be dropped if the veteran takes advantage of the vocational schooling, Miss Foreman explained. Instead they will receive $65 per month, if single, or $90 per month, if married during the time they are enrolled in the school.

HOUSE & HOME

By MARY E. DAGUE

Author of Sister Mary's Kitchen.

Did anything ever smell better, I wonder, than the old-time Thanksgiving dinner cooking? Luscious fragrance of turkey roasting with its savory dressing, potatoes and turnips and onions and squash boiling, and spicy pies baking! I say "old-time" but I don't know why because the Thanksgiving aroma is about the same in the modern kitchen as it was in the old-fashioned one. Perhaps we can't provide with the lavish hands of our grandmothers but we stick to tradition when we plan our Thanksgiving feast.

Of course for the small family the roasting fowl may be chicken or duck or guinea hen instead of turkey but the good, mouth-watering odors are there anyway. Some of us may roast half a turkey, depending on the size of the family and number of guests.

In some parts of New England, chicken pie always has run a close second to turkey. My grandfather insisted that both be served, and the chicken pie is an ideal stretch, by the way, if it's a large party.

Much of the preparation for the feast should be completed the day before. Replenish staples early in the week so that the Wednesday marketing can be devoted to fruits and vegetables for the special occasion.

Have the turkey delivered early Wednesday morning. This gives time to wash and drain the bird before stuffing late in the afternoon. The giblets are cooked and chopped, too, on Wednesday.

Wash salad greens and celery. Store in the refrigerator so that they will crisp and be ready to serve. Check linen, silver, glass ware and china and persuade the man of the house to sharpen his carving knife. A dull carving knife plays havoc with the finest turkey ever roasted.

If you serve pumpkin pie for dessert you will have to bake the pie before you put the turkey in the oven to roast but you might like to serve pumpkin pie Alaska. Then bake the pie shell long enough ahead to allow the oven to cool to the roasting temperature.

Pumpkin Pie Alaska

Two cups coffee cream, 1 cup whipping cream, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 3 tablespoons cold milk, 2 cups light brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons granulated gelatine, 1 cup cooked pumpkin rubbed through a sieve.

If you use canned pumpkin cook it dry before rubbing through sieve. Scald coffee cream and add brown sugar. Stir until dissolved and stir in cornstarch mixed to a smooth paste with cold milk. Add spices and salt and cook and stir until thick and smooth. Soften gelatine in 4 tablespoons cold water and add to pumpkin. Beat egg yolks until thick, beating in sherry. Add to cornstarch mixture and cook and stir just one minute, removing from heat before mixture reaches boiling point. Stir in pumpkin mixture and chill. Turn into freezing tray and freeze until firm around the edges. Then fold in whipping cream whipped until firm.

When ready to serve fill pie shell with ice cream and cover with a meringue made with the whites of the eggs and 8 tablespoons granulated sugar. Be sure the meringue meets the pie shell perfectly in order to seal. Put in a very hot oven just long enough to brown the meringue and serve at once.

Reading Aid For Wounded Veterans

Though it will be many months yet before Earl Gregory, Fort Smith, Ark., completely recovers from extensive war burns, the Navy veteran is able to read many books with the aid of this new projector-type device at Jefferson Barracks Veterans Administration Hospital, St. Louis, Mo. A slight tug on the cord over his shoulder "turns the page." Miss Lucy E. Jones, hospital librarian, here gives the patient an assist. The film can be projected on the ceiling for persons unable to sit up.

SATURDAY FOR THE CHILDREN

MAKING Saturdays memorable is one of the many ways parents have always had of giving their children a happy life. When our grandparents were children there was usually a great deal of work for them to do on their day off from school. But there was excitement, too—the Sunday baking with cookies, especially the "crooked pieces," as hand-rolled fresh from the oven. And listening for the clip-clop of the horse that would bring father home from his Saturday trip to the village with the bag of candy the grocer always sent to the children when the bill was paid.

Today there are fewer tasks to occupy families on Saturdays, as the children have almost the whole day free. And into this leisure time the movies have brought their enchantment. If this were an unalloyed idyll it would be cause for little comment. But ever since the movies began to talk, so that adult situations became too explicit for children's ears, parents and civic leaders have been working for week-end movies of special interest and suitability for children.

From the beginning leaders of the motion picture industry have been cooperative, but it takes a long time for the needs of a minority to be recognized in a mass produced industry. If customers buy galoshes by the millions manufacturers aren't too concerned about the few who may prefer old-fashioned rubbers. And because the boxoffice take is usually bigger on adult films, it isn't every producer who wants to make movies for children and family audiences. Nevertheless, over the years there has been built up a priceless collection of films which children shouldn't miss seeing. We have given you this bit of movie history as introduction to an important new development—The Children's Film Library, made available by the Motion Picture Association to managers of motion picture theaters throughout the nation. The library consists of feature films chosen from those recommended for children during the past few years. There has long been a demand from parents and motion picture councils for the showing of best children's films of other years for the benefit of youngsters who were not of movie age at the time of their release. But it was not the custom to keep prints in stock or to bother with old films when there were millions tied up in new films waiting to be exploited. Parents can show their appreciation of the Children's Film Library by seeing that their children patronize the special children's matinees, where they are assured of fun, good entertainment, and a hearty welcome, instead of letting them go to highly publicized adult films. The motion picture companies have indicated that if the project is a success with children, parents and theaters they will expand the library with additional tried-and-true features. So your cooperation is needed. Especially if you happen to live in a community where the theater operator still uses the excuse that he "can't get family films" for Saturday showing, remind him of the Children's Film Library. It would be wonderful if the lives of all the children in America were to be enriched by the grand story-telling these films will bring them.

You Don't Grow Old Suddenly

By DR. J. R. WARREN

Many middle-aged men and women troubled with colds, frequent sore throats, indigestion, shortness of breath, rheumatism, no inclination to work, think they are growing old and that nothing can be done.

A thorough examination by their physician, and sometimes dentist also, will show them just how they stand with life. Some small defect or infection which can be readily removed may be the cause of all these "slowing up" symptoms.

Left Wing Is Blocked

THE world was "going left," and left swings all too frequently breed totalitarianism, dictatorship, and loss of personal freedom. This is not a slogan—it is historical fact. Somewhere beneath the surface of those idealistic groups, composed of what is known as left wing liberals, there seem always to lurk ambitious elements with an almost insane passion to rule others. There is usually no harm in the "long-haired" theorists who start the swing; the trouble is principally that they are impractical, inefficient, and incapable of successfully operating that complicated business called government. History reveals the fact that government run by these idealists invariably collapses in utter failure, and that from the ashes rise those repulsive elements which—in other nations—have so frequently, and so recently, deprived the people of their lives and liberty.

Humble Apology

Now this broadcast was delivered in English for consumption in the United States. It was official, because Anatoli Gaspov, who made it, doubtless would have been liquidated had he so spoken without government authority. (Let us mention here, that one of the most charming features of present-day Russian life is the absence of the burden of "thought" for the individual; in fact, the practice of "thinking," under this benevolent and constructive form of government, usually leads to a "liquid finish.")

In his broadcast, telling us how to vote, Assipoff—or whatever his name is—points congress as the tool of "reactionaries" and states that a Republican congress would spell the end of democracy in America. (Democracy—in this Voice's sense of the word—obviously means dictated economy and an ordered life, under control of gentlemen like Harry Bridges, Michael J. Quill, Wm. Z. Foster and other such great Americans.)

Now, at last, the Russians are beginning to demonstrate to us their gratitude for the lives we gave to save their skins for them, and the billions we spent to prevent their enslavement by gentle Hitler.

Their advice to us is the "natural" offspring of their love and affection. It takes time and trouble to run one's business for one when one has one's own business to run for one's self! And think what tragic mistakes we might make if the Russian government minded its own business and allowed us to mind ours! Why we might run that magnificent "America-for-somebody-else" organization, the C.I.O.-P.A.C., plumb out of business. We might make the fatal mistake of not appreciating the massive intellects of Hen Wallace and Claude Pepper. We might even elect Americans to congress instead of those who would lead us into the delightful realm of totalitarianism.

So this writer humbly apologizes to our loving friends in Moscow and thanks them for appraising us so definitely, just exactly where the C.I.O.-P.A.C. stands. The dumbest of us will know how to vote from now on if we have any regard for our own liberty and our own safety.

(The opinions herein expressed are those of the writer, and not necessarily of The Democrat.)

DAR President General Says Powerful Forces Want Flood of Aliens in Country

Powerful forces are now at work to weaken and destroy American immigration laws and open the doors to a flood of aliens into this country, Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution charged recently.

Commander Griffith of the American Legion who has called for a ban on immigration and who opposes the movement to admit large numbers of displaced persons from Europe into the United States. Mrs. Talmadge said:

"This is not the time to change the present quota system which was wisely adopted by our government in order to provide for an orderly assimilation of aliens into our land.

"Thousands of our war veterans are waiting to secure homes. Other thousands seek the necessities of life. There are warnings that a recession lies ahead.

"Until our housing problem has been solved, until our problems of food and clothing and house furnishings have been met, we should see that present immigration laws are not changed, but are strictly enforced.

"There are upwards of 4,000,000 Americans today who are in need of adequate housing. Let's take care of them first." Mrs. Talmadge pointed out that at the last Congress of the DAR held in Atlantic City, a resolution was unanimously adopted appealing for a return to the "selective and restrictive system of immigration built up over long years of study" and that government "refrain from further weakening of the Immigration and Naturalization Laws of the United States."

Commander Griffith of the American Legion has charged that the move to admit thousands of displaced persons of European countries is a plan "to put them in competition with our homeless and jobless veterans for housing

Texas May Become Production Center For Dinner Ware

AUSTIN—Possibilities for wide-scale manufacture of dinnerware and pottery utility items in Texas are excellent, ceramic engineers of the state were told at a recent meeting held at the University of Texas.

According to merchandising experts, utility ware will be the export field for many years, and Texas has both the raw materials and the necessary fuel for successful ceramics manufacture.

Now in its infancy, the ceramic industry will begin a real growth within the next few years, when the University graduates the first scientifically-trained ceramic engineers from the new department of ceramic engineering. In addition to the new degree course, plans are underway for new building and additional laboratory space at the University.

Rotenone Effective Against Heel Flies

Although heel flies, the parents of the cattle grub, do most of their damage in the spring, the first treatment against grubs should be given in the early fall, say entomologists of the Texas A. and M. College extension service.

Loss of weight is the greatest damage that heel flies do to beef cattle. They lose weight by running from the pests and by refusing to feed and standing in water to protect themselves from the flies. The grubs spend seven to eight months tunneling around in an animal's body. From 10 to 15 per cent more feed is required to fatten a grubby steer than a healthy animal, and two pounds of choice meat are lost each time a grub-infested steer is slaughtered. Grubs also ruin hides which are valuable for shoe leather and other purposes.

Most farmers and ranchmen produce their own heel flies, because the flies do not fly over a half mile, the entomologists say. Therefore, a thorough treatment should rid a farm or ranch of the parasites.

In the fall, when the cattle grubs are mature and ready to fall to the ground, the first treatment should be given. Rotenone is the most effective insecticide against the cattle grub, and it can be applied either as a dust for small herds, or as a spray for large herds. An effective treatment, say the entomologists, consists of spraying the backs of the cattle with a mixture of seven and a half pounds of five per cent rotenone for each 100 gallons of water.

Survivors of GI's should Read This

In August, 1946, the Social Security Act was amended to provide for payments, in some cases, for survivors of deceased World War II veterans, according to a report from the Amarillo field office. This legislation simply provided that if a veteran died within three years of the date of his discharge, his survivors would be entitled to old-age and survivors insurance payments if they were receiving, or not entitled to receive, Veterans Administration payments.

To illustrate the nature and importance of these payments, the following example is stated. The veteran in this case was never engaged in employment covered by the Social Security Act, having worked as a farmer before his military service. After his discharge he went into business for himself, and was accidentally killed some months afterward. Upon filing application recently, his widow qualified for monthly payments for herself of $24.18, with monthly payments for a four year old child of $16.12, and the same for a two year old child. The total payments in this case, retroactive to the month of the veteran's death, amount to $56.42 a month, and will be payable until the oldest child is 18 years of age. For the next two years the payments to the widow and the younger child will amount to $40.40 per month, with the widow entitled to a monthly payment of $24.18 from age 65 to death unless she remarries. Total payments in this case, exclusive of payments to the widow after she is 65, will amount to approximately $10,500.

J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security field office, urges the survivors of deceased World War II veterans to contact his office if they believe payments under the new legislation may be possible. He points out, particularly, that prompt inquiries should be made because after February 10, 1947, these payments cannot be retroactive to the date of death, even if death occurred as far back as the latter part of 1940.

Opportunity would have to knock the door down before some people would become interested.

Sister Kenney to Make Texas Visit

Sister Elizabeth Kenny, famous Australian nurse, and an exponent of a new and quite successful method of treating infantile paralysis will pay Texas an official visit during the first week in December, according to advices received by George C. Francisco Jr., of Houston, chairman of the Texas executive committee of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Infantile Paralysis Foundation.

A state campaign is now underway to raise the Texas quota of $150,000 in the annual campaign for funds to keep the Kenny method of treating polio on the upward path.

State headquarters at the Driskill Hotel in Austin announced that the tentative schedule for Sister Kenny in Texas would be Dallas, December 4; Houston, December 6; San Antonio, December 6, and Fort Worth, December 7.

She will confer with county chairmen, members of the Texas executive committee, and workers in the campaign while she is in the state, according to state headquarters.

It was reported at state headquarters that more than thirty Texas counties have already passed their quota. Francisco made a statewide appeal for funds and said that contributions could be mailed to state headquarters.

Plans of the Texas committee are to use funds in sending graduate nurses to Minneapolis for training as Kenny technicians and to make the Kenny treatment of polio available to every victim in Texas.

OIL-PLATES Your Engine!

ACTUALLY a soap bubble is an extremely sheer net of molecules (held together by a strange attractive force) enclosing a sphere of air. And by pioneering in fields of molecular forces, Conoco scientists bring out new and better oils.

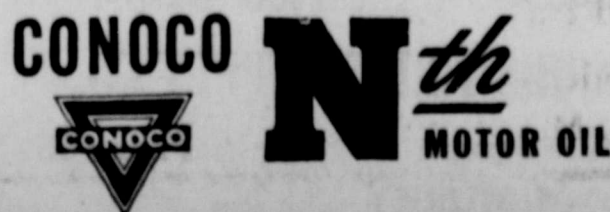

For instance, by molecular attraction, a special ingredient in Conoco Nth motor oil is bonded to working surfaces of your engine. Unlike the soap bubble which vanishes when pricked, Conoco Nth oil's ingredient holds on—is OIL-PLATED to cylinder walls and other parts.

OIL-PLATING stays up where it belongs . . . doesn't all drain down to the crankcase, even overnight . . . gives you these big benefits:

- added protection when your engine starts up
- added protection from corrosive action
- added protection from wear that leads to fouling sludge and carbon
- added smooth, silent miles

Many Children Die From Rheumatic Heart Disease

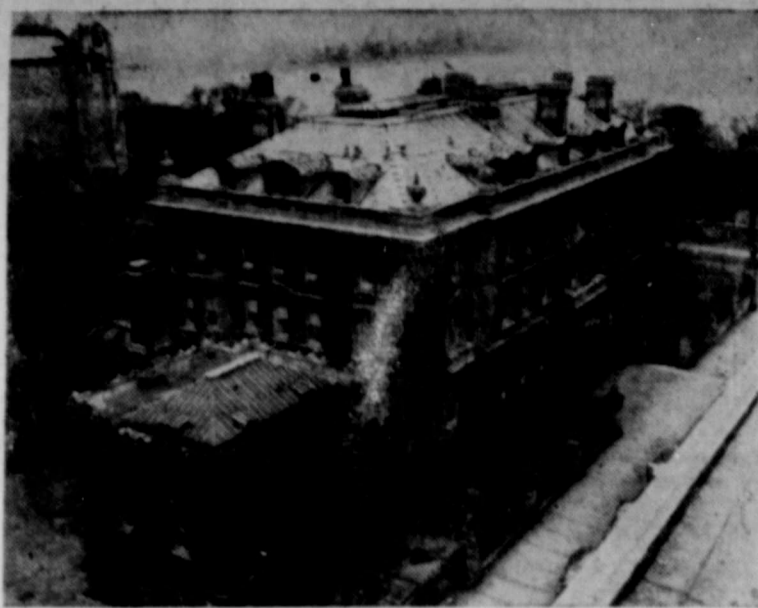

Rheumatic heart disease is now the first cause of death among children aged 10 to 14, and is second only to tuberculosis at ages 15 to 25. Despite the importance of this disease its epidemiology is not completely established. No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox, and whooping cough has yet been developed for its prevention or control. We do know, however, some of the danger signals and with the physician's accurate diagnosis some of the damaging results of the disease may be prevented, says State Health Officer Dr. George M. Cox.

Exposure to frequent chilling, damp or overcrowded living quarters, a poor diet, an attack of scarlet fever, a bad cold, or other infection caused by certain streptococcus germs are likely to be predisposing factors in the appearance of rheumatic fever.

Dr. Cox points out that in general the danger signals of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows, or wrists. The pain usually is felt in one of these centers and spreads it to the others. Oftentimes a child will get irritable and cross without any visible signs of a good reason for this attitude; he may cry easily or develop habits of nervousness. A physician should be consulted at once in such a situation, for these symptoms may be the beginning of rheumatic fever.

According to Dr. Cox the best safeguards against this disease are to have each child examined at least once a year by a physician, to have the right kind of food, and plenty of rest. When the disease is suspected of being present, a doctor should be consulted at once and if he prescribes complete bed rest, his advice should be implicitly followed.

Shortage of Fats More Acute Than During War Years

Shortages of fats and oils are to be expected, according to B. Vance, state director of the Production and Marketing Administration. Per capita consumption of fats and oils in 1942, for both food and non-food uses, was about 71 pounds. That figure has been dropping gradually since then, with preliminary estimates for 1946 placed at 62 pounds, the lowest since the depression year 1933. Loss of imports and low output of domestic oils have caused a decline in food use of fats and cils from 45 pounds per person in 1942 to 39 pounds this year. Non-food uses, especially of fats for soap, have remained fairly constant, declining from about 14 pounds in 1942 to only 11 pounds for 1946, Vance explains. This figure would be even less, he added, if Texas housewives had not done such an excellent job of saving used fats. But the job is far from complete, he warns, as a slack in the efforts of housewives in saving fats now will mean even less soap.

The present meat shortage places additional responsibilities on every housewife to do a more conscientious job of saving used fats, the PMA director says. Local butchers are still buying used fats at four cents per pound.

One of Founders Of FFA Is Head of Conoco Program

PONCA CITY, OKLA.—One of the founders of the Future Farmers of America and for many years a vocational agricultural specialist, Ross Floyd has been appointed agricultural service manager for Continental Oil Company, it was announced here this week by Harry J. Kennedy, vice president in charge of marketing.

Floyd will assume active charge of Continental Oil Company's agricultural program, which provides a broad service to those engaged in farm, ranch, livestock, and kindred agricultural pursuits, and which in the future will also stress the promotion of activities of farm youth.

From 1925 to 1935 Floyd was assistant state supervisor of vocational agriculture for the state of Oklahoma, and it was during this period that he helped to organize and promote the Future Farmers of America. He is also widely known as the author of numerous authoritative papers on agricultural subjects.

Big Road Building Job Faces America

People know very little about American highways beyond the street or road on which they live. As long as they can drive to store, office, or market over a fairly good surface, and reach the county seat or nearest large city by well-paved trunk line, they show little or no interest in the other roads of the nation, according to a news release by the American Road Builders association, Washington, D. C.

Few people realize that the United States has more than 1,000,000 miles of rural roads lacking all-weather surfaces. They are unaware that some 95,000 miles of state-controlled highways are without all-weather surfaces, and that more than 75,000 miles of streets and alleys are without concrete, bituminous, or macadam coating.

The reaction of the average citizen to information of this sort is typical of our national spirit. All right, if our roads are in such bad shape, let's do something about it. How long will it take? How much will it cost?

Charles M. Upham, engineer-director of the American Road Builders' association, recently made a statement that it will cost more than $20 billion and will require fifteen years to modernize our system of streets and highways. Thus this well-known authority on roads answers both of Mr. Average Citizen's questions, the release pointed out.

In commenting editorially on Mr. Upham's statement, The New York Times notes the public's failure to realize the size of the highway program, and urges that the tremendous undertaking be started as soon as materials are available.

"The problem falls into two parts," continues the Times' editorial. "The nation needs now, wider and better through roads between cities and large towns; hundreds of miles of country roads need to be surfaced. The needs in both fields will require years to satisfy; both contribute to the welfare of the country."

According to the opinion of the American Road Builders' association, it is imperative that we repair our war-ravaged roads and build new ones, but action will come quicker and things move faster when the public realizes that it has an important economic stake in a road-United States.

School for Food Handlers Valuable

Schools for food handlers, conducted by health departments, are valuable aids to public health, the Memphis chamber of commerce health committee said this week.

"Sanitary conditions in establishments where food is sold or served to the public usually are good or bad to the extent that the managers and employees of such establishments understand how important sanitary handling of food really is to the health of their customers," members said.

"An example of a successfully conducted school for food handlers was reported recently by the North Carolina state board of health. Two complete courses of four one-hour lectures were conducted for managers and employees of ten restaurants in a North Carolina city. An average of 45 persons attended each lecture.

"In the first lecture health department representatives explained how germs cause various diseases, how germs can be spread by fingers, flies, coughing, and unclean water, food, or utensils.

"The second lecture was devoted to an explanation of the difference between contagious and non-contagious diseases.

"How insects and rodents spread diseases, and the necessary steps that must be taken to keep flies and rats out of restaurants was explained in the third class.

"The fourth lecture presented the essentials of proper utensil washing and sanitation, adequate and proper storage and handling of food, the importance of refrigeration, personal conduct, and personal hygiene.

Both managers and employees of the restaurants were enthusiastic over the opportunity to learn more about sanitary handling of food, and one restaurant employee was overheard relating accurately what she had learned about germs and diseases to several other employees who had missed the first lectures.

"Most state and local health departments will be glad to assist in conducting schools for food handlers in any community."

BEAUFORD JESTER AND TEXAS ROADS

IN A SPEECH before delegates to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention Nov. 8, Governor-Elect Beauford Jester said good roads in Texas meant safer and happier living.

This feeling on the part of this state's next governor will mean the greatest boost to farm-to-market roads we have ever seen in this state. In his address, Jester explained that the State Highway Fund now has a surplus of $30,000,000, which was accumulated during the war years when the building of highways was out of question.

The State Highway Department is using this money, plus an unprecedented increase in revenues from the motor fuel tax and from license fees to carry out the post war road program.

It is estimated by experts in the highway department that the state will have available at least $15,000,000 more per year during the next five years than we had as late as 1941, the last normal year.

On Nov. 5, the people went to the polls and expressed their desire to keep all monies from tax revenues paid by users of highways to be spent on the highways. This is a guarantee to the people of this state that road funds will be available. Now the highway department can plan, build and maintain roads in this state in an orderly and efficient manner.

Hall County citizens like the governor-elect's attitude where roads are concerned. Such speeches as he made at the WTCC convention can do nothing but raise him in stature in counties like ours.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

While editor of the Eastland county seat daily, I narrowly escaped being killed while helping in the pursuit of the Santa Claus bank robbers.

Not long after that, I wrote of the emergence of Old Rip from the Eastland court house cornerstone.

Now, for the first time, the full accounts of the most spectacular crime in the history of the Southwest and of the horned frog, which will be a legend centuries from now, have been written. They are in a new book, "Cowtown Columnist," of which the author is one Boyce House.

The volume contains the cream of eight years' "columning" for this and many other papers and five years' broadcasting about Texas history, adventure, romance, and legend.

There are first-hand stories which were obtained from J. E. Cooper, long-time editor of the Williamson County Sun, who knew the famous gun-fighters, John Wesley Hardin and Ben Thompson, personally. In the book, Tom Bandy of Eastland tells about the time he disarmed Hardin, who was credited with killing 40 men; and Sterling Price Luster tells about his friend, Bob Ollinger, the last man that Billy the Kid killed.

I was lucky enough to discover an unpublished poem by O. Henry, too, and it is included.

Did you know that the first man in the history of the world to fly was a Texan?

And that the last battle of the Civil War was fought in Texas, weeks after Lee's surrender?

That Old Spanish Fort actually was an Indian fort and the scene of a big battle when Spain ruled Texas?

And that Texas used to have camels?

That the only monument erected by Southerners to the memory of Union soldiers is in Texas?

Besides all these stories, "Cowtown Columnist" tells about Harley Sadler, famous tent-showman; Eigfoot Wallace; the "White Indian"; Capt. Bill McDonald of the Texas Rangers; Sam Bass; Cynthia Ann Parker; the trial of the Indian Chiefs at Jacksboro; wolf-hunting and famous wolves; and how J. R. Couts, single-handed, shot it out with four "bad men"—and many other colorful Texas events, many of which never before have been published in any book.

Music at Funerals

Petrillo has a new trick. In order to have music at funerals in cities where he controls musicians, the family of the deceased must pay a standby fee for union musicians, whether the union musicians are used or not. We are very, very grateful that our lot cast in a small town where people have the right to do rational things without the interference of union racketeers. This racket of Petrillo is the worst form of graft we have yet seen. Under the petting of the Roosevelt and Truman administration the labor bosses can do as they please and there is no one to put a stop to their unreasonable demands. Just fancy, if you please, a funeral in Canyon with the family of the deceased having to pay tribute to a little fat squab like Petrillo, and there being no one in the whole nation to protect them from this unjustifiable racket!—Canyon News.

This Week in WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Over in the state department and indeed, in some Republican circles here in Washington, there is deep concern over what may happen to our foreign trade policy under leadership of the Republican party in the 80th congress.

And it is conceded that while there may be bi-partisan agreement on our foreign political policy as it affects the United Nations and kindred organizations, our economic foreign policy rests upon and is definitely guided by our foreign trade policy. Wrecking of the present status of foreign trade may well wreck our political foreign policy.

Nowhere has the disagreement between the parties been so deep and so consistent as on this subject of foreign trade. Republicans have traditionally been the high tariff party. Democrats, though few of them any longer advocate free trade for which the party once stood, are still the anti-trade-barrier advocates.

The last tariff act to pass congress was the Smoot-Hawley Act of 1930 which raised import duties to new high levels. It passed the House by 264 to 147 with Democrats voting 134 to 20 against it and Republicans 244 to 12 for it. In the Senate the GOP vote was 46 to 5 for the act and the Democratic vote 26 to 7 against it.

The first reciprocal trade act was passed in 1934 with Republicans in the house voting 99 to 2 against it, Democrats 269 to 11 for it. In the Senate the GOP vote was 28 to 5 against and the Democratic vote 51 to 5 for it. Each succeeding three years the act has been extended in 1937, 1940, 1943 and 1945 so that the present extension expires in 1948. On each of those votes a large majority of Republicans voted against the act except in 1943, when the question was one of unity in a war year. In 1937 the total GOP vote in house and senate was 95 to 3 against exension; in 1940 the GOP vote was 166 to 3 against; 1943 it was 163 to 66 for, and in 1945 the GOP voted 156 to 45 against extension.

As a matter of fact, the reciprocal trade act may not even survive until its expiration date in 1948. Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R., N. Y.), second ranking member on the house ways and means committee, which handles tariff legislation, introduced a bill in the 79th congress to repeal the act outright and request the President to terminate all outstanding agreements made under it. And there has been no indication that Congressman Reed has changed his mind since sponsoring this legislation and his influence will be greater in the 80th congress than in the 79th.

And when the state department only recently announced plans to begin reciprocal trade negotiations with 18 countries next April, Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry (R., Neb.), GOP senate whip, declared the Republicans would want to study the proposed tariff reductions before passing judgment.

Under the reciprocal trade act, American tariffs have been reduced as much as 75 percent on some commodities from the high tariffs set by the Smoot-Hawley Act. The last act authorized cuts of as much as 80 percent under the then existing levels and although there has been noticeable change in GOP policy, for instance on the United Nations, on the World Court, on Bretton Woods, UNRRA and other political set-ups for foreign policy, there apparently has been no decided change on the tariff question, which will have a direct bearing on our entire foreign policy.

Since President Truman liberalized his restrictions on expenditure of federal funds on reclamation construction, the interior department has signed contracts totalling 22 million dollars affecting five projects in the Columbia River basin, Central Valley in California, Colorado-Big Thompson in Colorado, Deschutes, in Oregon and Tucumcari in New Mexico. More than 16 of the 22 million will be spent in the Columbia River basin project.

State Health Head Urges Public Guard Against Diseases

The first Thanksgiving Day in this country was proclaimed for the purpose of expressing thanks only for the bountiful harvest which the colonists had reaped for the sturdy health and endurance that had permitted them to survive the hardships and exposure, that first rigorous year in America. On the occasion of Thanksgiving Day the state health officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, appealing to every citizen of Texas to give serious thought to the preservation of his own health and that of his community.

"We have much to be thankful in that our national health has remained high despite nervous tension, the sacrifices, deprivations of a post-war period," Dr. Cox stated. "Our people have maintained a remarkably high health level and even under existing conditions, Texas has shown a continued decline in maternal and infant deaths.

"The people of Texas have reason to be thankful for the steadily increasing interest and cooperation being shown in matters pertaining to general sanitation and control of communicable diseases," Dr. Cox asserted. "Responsibility for advancement of the public health program lies not with the State Health Department primarily but with the people who support and encourage the local community efforts exerted and also apply in their own individual lives the health rules with which they have become acquainted through public health education."

Dr. Cox pointed out that one of the best results of public health efforts in this nation has been the lengthening of the normal life span by more than 15 years. "Certainly this is something to be thankful for and it should lend impetus for further efforts to promote and maintain community health as well as statewide public health programs," Dr. Cox stated.

To Save Money, Agronomist Says Farmers Must Accept Strippers

High plains cotton growers each year lose money because they can't have their cotton harvested before the first frost.

Superintendent D. L. Jones and Agronomist H. D. Lynn of the Texas A. and M. Agricultural Experiment Station No. 8 at Lubbock say that this condition may be remedied if cotton farmers will accept three recent developments—power driven cotton strippers, stormproof cotton, and chemical defoliation.

The experiment station men point out that only half of the Plains cotton is harvested when the frost comes around November 4, the 35-year average frost date. Since Plains farm units are large, the grower must depend largely on migratory labor to pick his cotton, and when frost and colder weather set in, the labor moves South, leaving the cotton farmer "holding the sack." Obviously, the answer lies in harvesting the cotton faster, and that's where the three recent developments figure in.

Power-driven strippers will allow the grower to harvest his cotton just as soon as it is sufficiently mature, Jones and Lynn predict. In connection with mechanical stripping, chemical defoliation would kill the leaves of the plant late in October, and allow harvesting without having to wait for frost to defoliate the plants. The third development, stormproof cotton, will prevent losses that growers usually suffer by late-harvesting cotton with normal bolls. The normal bolls flare open at maturity and many of the locks either fall to the ground or string out and collect trash. Stormproof cotton locks are pinched at the base of the boll and stick firmly to the hulls, preventing losses incurred by growers when fiber falls to the ground and strings out.

Plan for Convenience in Electrical Outlets, Says A.-M. Specialist

Adequate wiring with plenty of electrical outlets makes rooms more comfortable, convenient, and adaptable to furniture rearrangement, according to Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home management for the Texas A. and M. College extension service. She offers several suggestions for those planning to build or remodel their homes.

In the living room, Mrs. Claytor advises placing duplex outlets so that no point at the floor line is more than six feet from an outlet. In each smaller space that is three feet or more in length, she suggests placing an additional outlet. This makes it possible to place furniture where desired.

In the bedrooms, include triplex outlets near each bed and behind dressing tables for lamps, clocks, heating pads, radio, or electric blankets. Also remember the convenience of lighting in the closets.

Place lights at the head and foot of each stairway. A night light in the upper hall will insure safety to children, invalids, and guests. Duplex outlets near a hall table or chest allow for lamps or a vacuum cleaner when cleaning. Kitchen needs include plenty of outlets at counter height to take care of all present and probable future needs. Lights are necessary over the sink and food preparation counters.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Six-Inch Sermon

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

A Letter on Christian Living.

Lesson for December 1: Acts 19:23-30; Ephesians 6:13-18.

Memory Selection: Ephesians 6:10.

In a Mexican city the writer found all kinds of booths were doing business almost against the wall of the cathedral, while men offered wares for sale on the steps in front, with none to interfere. But centuries ago the lucrative trade in silver images of Diana about the doors of her temple was so reduced, after Paul had labored two years in Ephesus, that Demetrius and his fellows raised a great uproar under the pretense of pious concern for the city's religion.

The incident shows how opposition arises against Christian work everywhere from those who exploit the vices of their fellows in greed of gain. The second passage of the lesson text shows how such opposition must be met and tells of the armor that Christians must wear against the forces of evil.

About ten years after the uproar in Ephesus, Paul wrote a letter on Christian living to the Ephesian Christians, exhorting them to put on the whole armor of God. He then worked out his metaphors with all the accoutrement of an ancient soldier. Girdle of truth, breastplate of righteousness, sandals of the preparation of the gospel of peace, shield of faith, helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, must arm Christians. Thus in full panoply, with prayer and supplication, watchfulness and perseverance, the soldier of the Cross must stand in the evil day "and, having done all, to stand."
