WEATHER

Temperatures have eased off a little, but not much. The high Friday was 105, Saturday 103, Sunday 99, with the mercury bordering 100 degrees as a high for most other days.

Cloudy skies here early this morning gave promise of some of the rain reported between Memphis and Amarillo.

Plant Aphids Attack Hall Cotton Crop

The cotton aphid, or louse, is doing heavy damage to much young cotton in this section, County Agent W. B. Hooser revealed this week.

Although the aphids are not damaging larger cotton, areas of young, tender cotton are seen with leaves folding, the cotton turning black, the sticky secretion given off by the aphids glossing the cotton and inducing mildew.

Hooser said the aphid may be identified as a small, soft-bodied sucking insect, its color ranging from light yellow to dark green or almost black. There are no distinct broods, and aphids of all sizes are present on the underside of the leaves and on the stems of the plants.

The natural controls, such as ladybird beetles and other predators, parasites, diseases, and unfavorable weather, are important factors in controlling the lice, Hooser said. The greatest damage is done later in the season by causing the leaves to curl and fall from the plant before the bolls are mature. The premature shedding of leaves causes serious losses in yield and grade of cotton.

A fungus often develops in the "honeydew" secreted by the aphid, Hooser said, causing the plants to appear black or sooty. Honeydew falling on the open bolls also makes the lint gummy and difficult to gin.

Hooser recommended the following control measures: (spray) 1 teaspoon nicotine sulphate to one gallon of soapy water. Thoroughly wet the foliage, especially the lower surface of the leaves, or (dust) 8 teaspoons nicotine sulphate, one pound hydrated lime.

Uninvited Guest Becomes Dinner

You're likely to run into anything at the city hall.

Harold Aspgren found a 10-pound grey 'possum curled comfortably in a corner on the second floor early Wednesday morning, by turns sleepy and belligerent.

No one can imagine how or why the 'possum got there, but where he went is known.

A Morningside resident, happening along shortly after, took the quarry in charge. He is now a dinner.

Enlarged, Modernized High School Program Underway

Three major building and remodeling projects now underway at Memphis High School, together with a more extensive use of visual education procedures and improved library and study facilities, will offer teachers and students a wide range of modern equipment and comfortable work and study conditions, according to reports this week from Supt. W. C. Davis.

A separate building for a new farm and vocational work shop is being constructed, a modern and complete cafeteria is being arranged, and two rooms are being prepared for a well-equipped library and a comfortable reading room.

The farm shop, to be a 52 by 70-foot brick structure with a concrete foundation, will offer expanded facilities to around 60 FFA and farm students for practical work in mechanics, woodwork, and visual teaching subjects for related agricultural subjects. Weldon McCreary, vocational instructor, has already ordered a film library for use next semester. The building will have a drive-in for trucks, tractors, and farm equipment and the shop will be equipped with hoists, power drills, and other mechanical aids. The semi-fire proof building will be available as a meeting place for FFA members, farmers, and other similar groups.

A cafeteria is being installed in the large room formerly occupied by the shop, floors are being re-finished and the interior is being painted an attractive white. The cafeteria, with its steam tables, deep-freeze, and refrigeration units and two large stoves, will furnish wholesome hot lunches for around 200 students. It will also serve as a social center for class parties and similar activities. Superintendent Davis says the cafeteria management plans to start serving meals at a charge of 25 cents, which will include a half pint of homogenized milk—wholesome and appetizing lunches for $1.50 per week. This is made possible by the non-profit system by which all money goes back into cafeteria operation and by a government grant under the

Legion Building Renovation To Begin August 15

Construction and renovation of the American Legion building will start August 15, the building committee announced today, although the current fund drive will continue until September 15.

All materials will be obtained locally, it is reported, and veterans will be employed in construction work wherever possible.

Legion members believe the enlarged and renovated building will be an asset to the community, a spokesman said.

The current fund drive is under the direction of the finance and building committee, which is composed of Glynn Thompson, chairman; Wendell Harrison, Herschel Pounds, Al Constanzo, and Gordon Gilliam, post commander.

Golf Tourney Finals Are Set For Sunday

Top contenders in the championship flight of the city golf tourney now underway at the country club are O. B. Smith and Frank Foxhall, as indicated by results of first and second round matches. Frank Foxhall was a medalist with a qualifying score of 71.

Finals in the championship flight will be played Sunday, and will be 36 holes. The first 18 holes of play is scheduled to begin at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning and the last 18 at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Losers of all first matches will be paired in consolation play.

A long-driving contest will be held at 1:30 p. m. Sunday, with everyone invited to participate, it is announced.

The progress of the tourney is being posted at the Durham Pharmacy. Results of matches in all flights will be carried by The Democrat next week.

Soil Conservation Program To Be Held August 26

A soil conservation demonstration will be held August 26 on the Rufus Lowe farm, seven miles west and one and a half miles north of Memphis, according to an announcement by W. B. Hooser, county agent.

The demonstration will be held by several local representatives and the R. B. George Company of Amarillo, and equipment owned by Nat Bradley will be used in the terracing demonstrations.

Construction demonstrations will be held from 9 a. m. to noon. Hooser said, and then scouts will sell sandwiches and cold drinks. After lunch a number of short talks will be given on soil conservation and soil building.

Final Estimate On Wheat Is $1,500,000 From

The Democrat this week made a survey of Hall County banks in response to a request by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, which is collecting state-wide data in an effort to determine how much money this year's wheat crop has meant to Texas.

According to estimates from the survey the net increase in county deposits during the period May 15 to August 1 was $1,134,000.

It has been estimated by the county agent's office that Hall County has marketed this season 425 carloads of wheat, with a value of $1,360,000, with an average of 21 bushels to the acre.

A considerable portion of production of wheat for this season has been kept by the individual farmer for seed purposes, hence the value of the 1947 crop could conservatively be placed at around $1,500,000.

It is the opinion of T. E. Noel of the Memphis First National Bank that 90 per cent of the increase in Hall County deposits during this period is due to wheat sales, the remaining 10 per cent coming from livestock sales and other sources.

Although the Star-Telegram state survey and The Democrat county survey was based on the period May 15 to August 1, B. E. Davenport of the Lakeview First National Bank feels that a more accurate survey for this immediate area could be made by basing results on a period June 14 to July, since harvest here was completed about July 15. It was also noted that another factor to consider was the reduction of loans during harvest.

Attendance Grows At Lakeview Baptist Revival

Attendance is growing at the Lakeview Baptist Church revival which began Sunday, Rev. L. M. Clements, pastor, announced this week.

Rev. Clayton Day of Tyler is in charge of the revival and gospel preaching, and Rev. Clements is in charge of the singing, the announcement said.

Prayer meeting begins at 8 o'clock each evening, and morning.

Fourth Army May Invade Memphis October 3 and 4

Col. L. N. Knuff of the Fourth Army, San Antonio, was in Memphis Monday and Tuesday morning checking over the city with a view to the probable occupation of Memphis by army forces October 3 and 4, Pat Flynn, chamber of commerce manager, announced.

An estimate of 10,000 soldiers may be here, bringing their own kitchen, water supply, and all necessary equipment to accommodate a city twice the size of Memphis, according to Flynn.

Hollis Boren, owner of the Palace and Ritz theaters, is donating the use of the Ritz theater for a stage presentation of the

Memphis Airport Is Allocated $10,000 by CAA

The Memphis municipal airport has been tentatively allocated funds totaling $10,000 for improvements, according to a letter received by Mayor C. C. Hodges this week from L. C. Elliott, regional CAA administrator.

On January 10 a tentative allocation of federal funds in the amount of $7,750 was made the city of Memphis for development of a public airport. Elliott said revised estimates indicated that additional funds would be needed to construct the scope of work contemplated.

Fruit and Orchard Photo Exhibits Are Slated Here

Another outstanding exhibit for the Cotton, Chemurgic, and Ceramics Carnival here October 3-4 was announced this week from Seminole. One of the largest photographic exhibits in the state will depict fruit orchard developments in that area, it was announced.

An interesting experiment with successful results, was disclosed by Andrew Powell, Seminole farmer, this week.

Convinced that fruit growing in the general South Plains area could be highly profitable as an additional source of revenue for ranchers and farmers, Powell has conducted a five-year test on peaches, plums, and cherries, on his farm a few miles from Seminole.

In a statement made recently, Powell said, "There can now be no doubt that fruit growing could be made a specialty and a main source of revenue for the South Plains agriculturists, as my experiment proves that the alleged high winds do not destroy the

Local Band Is Invited To Play At Amarillo Fair

Memphis and its high school band has been invited to appear at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo September 22-27, according to a letter to the chamber of commerce this week from Jay Taylor, president of the fair association.

The fair, the first in five years, has always featured regional high school bands and is anxious to have the largest band attendance on record this year, Taylor wrote.

A representative of the association will be in Memphis soon to complete details and extend a personal invitation to the local band and civic groups.

Hall County REA To Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the Hall County Electric Cooperative, Inc. will be held at the city park next Wednesday, August 13, at 6 p. m., it was announced this week by C. L. Pierce of the local REA office.

A business session will be held, followed by a barbecue. All members and their families are invited to attend, Pierce said.

VanPelt To Report To Legion Post on Annual Convention

Frank VanPelt, delegate from the Memphis Simmons-Noel Post of the American Legion to the 29th annual convention at Fort Worth last week, will report on the convention at the next legion meeting August 14, it was reported this week. VanPelt returned here Friday.

Registration took place at Hotel Texas July 26. Addresses featured Monday were by D. A. Miller, of the Veterans Administration; Governor Jester; reports by Department Commander Bertram E. Giesecke, James E. Caviness, national executive committeeman; and reports of constitutional committees.

The program Tuesday included

Entertainment Is Set for Carnival

Memphis will hit the big-time in show business here October 3 and 4 at the West Texas Cotton, Chemurgic, and Ceramics Carnival, indicating an early sell out for tickets.

Black light, stroboscope lights, gorgeous costumes, good music, comedy and novelty acts are included in the program plans, Leonard said. The show is A. G. V. A. franchised, insuring top names and the best of production, Flynn said.

This week's mail at the chamber offices brought word Plainview and Snyder will bring bands, queen candidates, parade units, and exhibits for the Carnival. It also brought word the National Flag and Decorating Company will decorate Memphis for the gala occasion. This company is also decorating Pampa for the Top O' Texas show.

INVEST IN Young Texans

OF THE LOWER PANHANDLE

Greatest asset of the Lower Panhandle is its youth. No other wealth can be compared to the boys and girls who are finishing high school with courage and ambition to secure more education. Many of them will never have an opportunity to attend college if the Childress Army Air Field is not converted into a junior College. The responsibility is ours today; the opportunity will not return. A large part of the cost would be paid in income taxes. (All taxes are 100% deduction).

There Is No Compromise With Education

Statistics prove that wealth and progress of any area rise with its educational level. Civilization is demanding that men and women be trained. More boys and girls must receive college training in the future or forfeit their opportunities of a rightful place in the world.

school lunch program, which allows the school nine cents for each meal served with milk.

One of the most important of the projects will be the library and reading rooms. Two new attractively-decorated rooms are being arranged adjacent to the main study hall, one the library proper, containing the stacks and the files, the other a pleasant room with comfortable furniture, well-illuminated by fluorescent lights and large north windows, to serve as a reading room.

This is part of the school's plan to induce more students to become readers by making the surroundings conducive to enjoyment of reading, and the new library will offer full facilities for reading and study in many different fields, it was said.

Miss Ira Hammond will be the librarian and will also be in charge of visual education. She will have ready on file all of the school's enlarged visual education system, slides, films, and other aids catalogued, at the call of the teacher of any department, Davis said.

The school now has two opaque lantern slide projectors, two Bell-Howe film projectors, globes, maps, charts, and other devices to make up a well-balanced visual education system, a system that is an important addition to textbook work and one that pays dividends in pupil interest and increased knowledge of a subject, Davis said. Teachers of most subjects use the projectors and other visual devices for a review of the subject after completion of a teaching unit, Davis explained.

Davis said he believed the cafeteria and the library could be ready for use at the opening of school September 1, while the new shop would probably be ready for use by the end of October.

Editorial

BETTER HIGH SCHOOLS

Two weeks ago an editorial was run on the front page of The Democrat concerning the establishment of a junior college at Childress. We thought it was made plain that we did not favor voting a junior college at the expense of the tax payers to the tune of 20 cents on the $100 valuation. But that we would favor state colleges establishing a SENIOR agricultural and mechanical college at no cost to the taxpayers.

We suggested in the editorial that leaders at both Childress and all the counties involved should consider a Senior College proposal, and by inference, suggested dropping the junior college business. But the Childress workers are going ahead with their junior college plans, getting people to sign petitions to call an election so the people can then vote whether or not they want to tax themselves the 20 cents on the $100 valuation to establish a junior college.

If Hall County people want to pay some more school taxes (as they would have to do in case they vote for the junior college) why not vote taxes to be applied to the high schools of Hall County? They need it.

The Childress proponents say that at least 16 Hall County boys and girls would attend a junior college at Childress. The proposed 20-cent tax rate would bring $16,000—making it cost Hall County one thousand dollars for each student of the county attending the junior college. Parents who send boys and girls to senior colleges figure that it does not cost that much.

Rather than send the boys and girls by bus 30 miles and back each day, why not provide enough taxes to add two more years to the high school curriculum and that would eliminate a two-year course in a junior college, and get credit in a senior college any way?

We trust the readers of this editorial will not be in doubt as to The Democrat's stand in the matter. We are opposed to voting taxes against Hall County to establish a junior college at Childress. We would favor state colleges establishing a SENIOR A & M college there at NO EXPENSE to the tax payers of Hall County.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

More About Sense

A sensible girl is one who is more sensible than she looks because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.—The Groom News.

Misleading

It is astounding the lengths some men will go to mislead their wives. While newsgathering this week, one of our most reticent citizens reported that he and his family had just returned from Colorado. Had a delightful visit, he said, saw folks from Quitaque, etc., etc.

After jotting down a few notes it dawned on us that we had seen that fellow around town all last week, so we registered doubt. He explained, "Well, my wife wants to go to cool Colorado, and I thought if she reads it in the paper, she'd think she had already been and stop harping about it." Evidently that fellow believes everything he reads in the papers and thinks his wife does too.—The Quitaque Post.

Ochiltree Wheat Photos

Winners in the Ochiltree County Wheat Harvest Photograph Contest were announced last week by the judging committee of the Texas Photographers Association which met in Fort Worth to judge the 191 contest photographs. Prizes were awarded to entries from Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas.

J. W. Atkinson of Shamrock was awarded the first prize of $500 for his picture of five 20-foot combines cutting a 100-foot swath in Albert McGarraugh's field south of Perryton. Atkinson is a professional photographer in Shamrock and spent nearly a week in fields of the county during harvest before he found the type of scene he thought would make a winning photograph.

Atkinson was called to Perryton Tuesday morning and presented the first place check by Otis Burk, president of the Perryton chamber of commerce.

Second place went to Earl Bond, amateur photographer of Stratford, for his unusual photograph of the Equity elevator as seen through a screen of growing wheat.—Ochiltree County Herald.

BOYCE HOUSE
"Gives You Texas"

The paper shortage in this country is highly serious. One reason is that everybody wants to be a columnist and then gather the "cream" of his column and put it in a book.

The latest of these Johnny-Come-Latelys in the field of what might laughingly be called literature is Billy Rose, who has been very successful as a producer of shows, and of course that qualifies him as a writer, just as making a billion dollars by manufacturing automobiles makes a man an authority on any subject he wants to talk about.

And metropolitan papers, dazzled by a "name," are using Billy's output in a big way. His column, in case you have been so fortunate as not to have read one, consists of a marvelous display of egotism—even for a columnist—and of a parade of all the trite fictional situations that have been worn to shreds by students taking a short story writing course by correspondence.

Rose says he writes the column himself—but maybe he produces his column the same way he produces his shows. Back in 1936 and 1937, when the "Broadway Barnum" put on the Fort Worth Casa Manana, DuBois designed the costumes, Johnston painted the scenes, Suesse composed the music, a Hollywood dance director put on the dances, Winkler provided the lighting effects, and John Murray Anderson put it all together as director. With these slight exceptions, it was 100 per cent Billy's work.

Billy got his start by writing songs. Everyone knows how lofty the ethics of Tin Pan Alley are. They borrow from Bach, they mooch from Mozart, and they bum from Beethoven.

Rose admits he has some "researchers" and "leg-men" for his columning. In other words, by his own admission, the column he calls his is not really his, in toto, except in the sense that something you buy and pay for is yours.

But watch some book club make the so-called Billy Rose book its selection for the month.

This Week in WASHINGTON

IN THE LIGHT of the international situation probably the most significant happening in Washington is the "about face" attitude of certain house members concerning appropriations to implement and to carry out the commitments incidental to the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan.

Actually some members of a house subcommittee considering appropriations appeared to be really frightened following testimony of Assistant Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett and Secretary of State George C. Marshall concerning the delicate situation in the Balkans, and the group lost no time in voting to appropriate the entire sum asked. As a matter of fact, although the Greek-Turkish loan calling for 400 million dollars was voted by congress early in the session the house appropriations committee for nearly two months refused to appropriate the money to carry it out. This small committee actually had assumed veto prerogatives over what both the President and congress had decided was this nation's foreign policy.

Incidentally, the house appropriations committee assumed this policy throughout the session. Whenever it disagreed with the policy of any governmental agency or, as a matter of fact, whenever its leaders did not personally like the head of any governmental agency it withheld funds.

This is particularly true in the case of Assistant Secretary of State William Benton, who aroused the ire of Chairman Knutson of the house committee. Knutson refused to appropriate money for the state department's "Voice of America" program more because Knutson did not like Benton than for any other reason.

Benton, independently wealthy, and one of the better known advertising men in the country, has done a splendid job for the state department and probably knows more about advertising and publicity than the entire house appropriations committee combined. However, he has been independent and refused to kow-tow to the belligerent and self-important Knutson. Because the program of information is more important to this country than the head of the department, there is considerable talk here that Benton will step out as head of the division of information and in the state department the protests of some and of course this is what wants.

However, the state department more, after the committee received the sobering information in the situation in the Balkans.

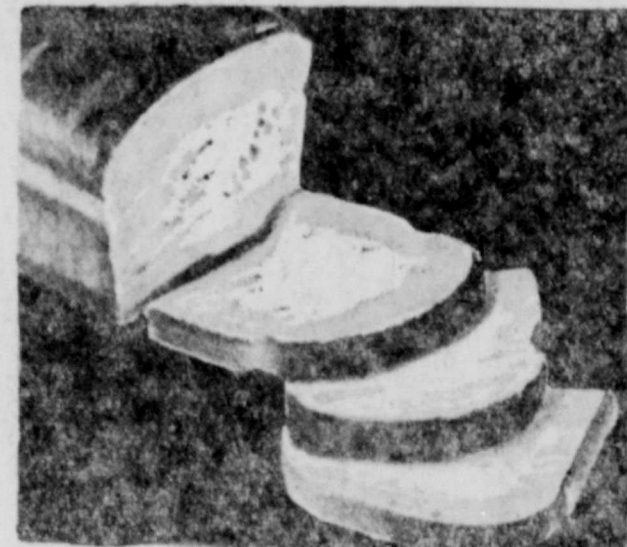

Even though some leaders and President indicated there is no official session of congress, there are some unfinished domestic which congress has not a special session may fall, probably in the October.

It is pointed out that the domestic legislative merger bill, the broad national health program long-range minimum wage bill, legislation, flood control projects through numerous veterans comprehensive tax a host of other legislation has been high and dry and an election year. It is considered the more of these measures this even then the political boiling merrily.

After his name like a shuttle-cock foreign relations approximately six million Biddle, former ari, was withdrawn as a nominee for economic council.

And for almost the senate judiciary played politics with nominee, Philip Solicitor general of States. The President ination to the senate. In the meantime, the government is deploring most important legal States Supreme courts of the country.

In response to a number of inquiries by parents, Mary Foreman, county school superintendent, announces that children must be six years old on or before September 1 before they are eligible to start to school.

Some have been confused by a recent bill, upon which action was not taken, which would have altered this requirement, Miss Foreman stated.

Memphis Youths Participate in Coronation Service

An elaborate recognition and coronation service was held for the Girls Auxiliary and Royal Ambassador for Boys, young people's organizations of the Baptist church, at the annual Panhandle Association Young People's meeting at the First Baptist Church in Clarendon July 11.

Steps and ranks attained by the youths are based upon completion of certain amounts of memory work, mission study, and service activities. Steps for the girls include maiden, lady-in-waiting, princess, queen, queen with scepter, and queen regent; and ranks for boys are page, squire, knight, ambassador, ambassador extraordinary, and ambassador plenipotentiary.

The order of service began with the Royal Ambassadors marching in accompanied by Rev. C. R. Tension, counselor from Memphis.

Rev. Tension then explained the R. A. work and requirements of the different ranks, recognizing those attaining them and making awards of arm bands and emblems.

Mrs. George King, district young people's leader, explained the G. A. work and requirements of the different steps and recognized those attaining them.

Following Mrs. King's explanation, the maidens, wearing formal dresses with the G. A. emblem across the front, entered carrying gold stars. Next came the ladies-in-waiting, also formally attired. They, too, wore the G. A. emblem, and carried white Bibles.

The queens, preceded by flower girls who scattered petals from white satin baskets and crown bearers who carried beautifully decorated crowns on white satin pillows, entered gowned in white formal with green, white, and gold G. A. emblems across the front of their dresses. They carried open white Bibles with white satin streamers entwined with fern and wore wristlets of white carnations. Mrs. Bailey of Estelline, Associational Young People's leader, gave the charge and placed the crowns upon the queens, as they knelt on a white platform.

Those participating from Memphis were as follows:

Maidens: Rita Benton, Carol Ann Stanley, Beth Hall, Dorothy Jones, and Floye Hammond.

Ladies-in-waiting: Joyce Benton, Patsy Sue Hays, Bonnie Benton, Arabella Toney, Johnnie Sue Brewer, Verona Faye Sargent, and Nancy Jones.

Queens: Margaret Ann Massey, Roddy Lynn Patton, and Jeanine Miller.

Flower girls were: for Jeanine Miller, her sister, Joann Miller; for Margaret Ann Massey, her sister, Ouida Pearl Massey; for Roddy Lynn Patton, Billie Jean Stroehle.

Crown Bearers were: for Jeanine Miller, Winstop Jones; for Margaret Ann Massey, her brother, Charles Walter Massey; and for Roddy Lynn Patton, Barry Phillips.

Underdown-Wiley Vows Spoken in Clarendon Rites

The First Baptist Church of Clarendon was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony at 8 p. m., Friday, July 25, with Rev. Aston Sartain, pastor of the church, uniting in marriage Louise Underdown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Underdown of Clarendon and Troy Glenn Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wiley of Lakeview.

The ceremony was attended only by relatives and a few close friends of the bride and groom. It began with Lola Mae Underwood, sister of the bride, and Gaylon Wiley, brother of the groom, lighting the tapers. Mrs. Rayburn Smith played the traditional wedding marches. Miss Arvazene Smith sang as prelude music Wagner's Lohengrin Bridal song "I Love You Truly," and "Always" by Irving Berlin.

The young couple was married before an altar decorated with an arch bearing white wedding bells and banked by seven tiered candelabra and baskets of white gladioli. The bride was attired in a soft pink crepe dress with white accessories. She carried a white prayer book covered with a detachable corsage of white rose buds.

Mrs. Jimmy Lee Butler, bridesmaid of honor, wore an aqua silk jersey dress complemented with a corsage of peach gladioli. Jimmy Lee Butler served the groom as best man. Mrs. Troy Wiley is a graduate of Clarendon High School, and is now employed with the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co. Mr. Wiley is a graduate of High School and complete his course at Junior College. After a brief honeymoon the couple will make their home in Clarendon.

DRIVING STILL LEADING CHANGE TO HIGHWAY SAFETY

tests of blood or other body materials of drivers tested who had been injured or killed in traffic accidents showed that half of the drivers had alcohol in their systems. About one-third of all the drivers tested had sufficient alcohol to be under its influence.

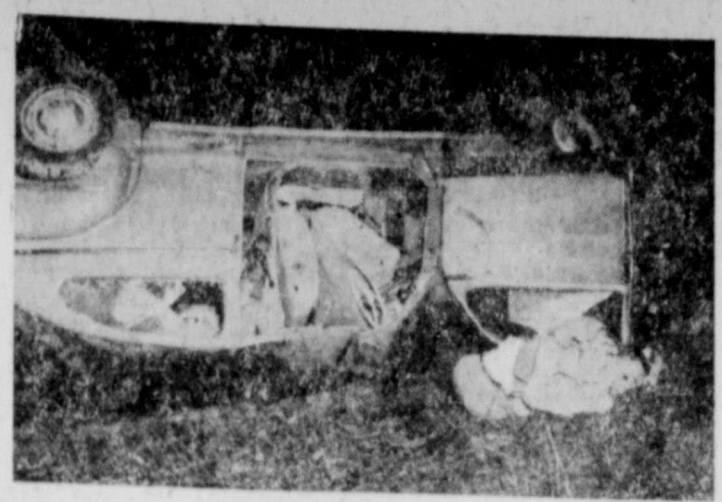

Results show that the greater the concentration of alcohol in a person's system, the greater the danger. A person with a blood alcohol concentration of over 15 per cent has a relatively poor chance of staying out of an accident. The average driver in this range is fifty-five times more likely to be involved in an accident than drivers with no alcohol!

The public is well aware of the dangers of driving after drinking. In a public opinion poll for the National Committee for Traffic Safety, each person interviewed was asked which of ten listed factors caused the greatest number of accidents, in his opinion. Driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor ranked number one.

Perhaps the main stumbling block in getting better enforcement of drunken driving laws in most places has been the difficulty in determining whether drivers actually were under the influence. So much difficulty has been experienced in some places in convicting drivers who are under the influence but not "staggering drunk" that enforcement has been directed at only the most obvious cases.

Many progressive enforcement agencies, however, have turned to use of chemical tests to provide the needed additional evidence. Such tests show definitely whether there is sufficient alcohol in the blood stream and brain to cause intoxication. Their use eliminates guesswork by showing whether a drinking driver has enough alcohol in his system to be legally under its influence.

Test results do not measure how much a person has been drinking—they show instead how much has been absorbed in the blood stream, and how much gets to the brain. It is the concentration of alcohol in the blood stream and brain, and not the amount in the stomach, which bears a definite relationship to degree of intoxication.

Here lie the remains of a driver who thought he could drink and still drive a car. Racing down the highway at a dangerous speed, his car wandered off the edge of the pavement, dragged on the sandy shoulder, and was wrenched into a spin. Drunken drivers are potential murderers of every other motorist who comes near them on the road. They were involved in more than 5,000 fatal accidents last year. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists say even one or two drinks slow up reactions, make judgment unsure, increase chances of accident three to four times.

The use of such scientific tests was recommended by the President's highway safety conference of 1946. National organizations which have long advocated use of somewhat the same light as the lie detector—a "new-fangled gadget." Many cities however, notably, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Kansas City, Detroit, Washington, and Indianapolis, use chemical tests as routine practice. A recent tabulation showed 62 cities over 10,000 population reporting use of such tests for enforcement purposes, with 20 state enforcement agencies likewise reporting their use.

Use of evidence obtained thru chemical tests is now officially recognized in state laws in Maine, New York, Indiana, and Oregon. Model legislation on interpretation of chemical test results, as recommended in Act V of the Uniform Vehicle Code, has been introduced in legislatures of several states this year.

A chemical testing program has many advantages. There are more pleas of guilty, and fewer cases necessitating jury trial, with the attendant expense. There is less chance of a miscarriage of justice—the non-drinker and the mild drinker are spared the embarrassment of unjust arrest. These tests actually "free the innocent and convict the guilty."

The organizations making up the National Committee for Traffic Safety look upon drinking and driving as a safety problem. The committee is concerned in seeking to develop greater public acceptance of the responsibility for avoiding the social tragedy and economic waste caused by traffic accidents. As far as liquor is drive." Even two or three drinks concerned, we urge only: "When may effect judgment in driving you have been drinking, don't and contribute to an accident.

X MARKS THE SPOT!

Yes—X marks the spot where more than 2,000 people died and over 70,000 were injured last year when automobile drivers challenged the iron horses of the rails—and lost.

When you approach a railroad crossing you are entering the railroad's right-of-way. To save you from harm, gates are lowered or automatic signalling devices, bells and blinking lights warn of approaching trains. The engineer blows a warning blast, rings his bell. That's the most the railroad can do. The rest is up to you.

The Stop—Look—and Listen sign means what it says. Stop—look both ways—and always listen. If a train is just clearing the crossing, wait—don't hurry across, there may be a hidden train coming from the opposite direction. And when you do cross, keep going. Don't shift gears on the tracks, you may stall.

Take the few extra seconds needed to assure a safe crossing. Don't let X mark the spot where you failed to be careful.

45 city blocks will be needed to space the exhibits reserved to date," Flynn said Wednesday. "If the communities keep accepting our invitations at the same ratio as in the past two weeks, an all-time record will be established for the Carnival dates."

Carnival plans start off with a bank Thursday night, October 2 at midnight in the Ritz Theater with a presentation of queen candidates, a stage show from Clarendon, broadcast, and to be followed by a street dance. Hollis Boren, theater owner of Memphis is donating the theater building for the initial show.

There will be entertainment around the clock from that hour through midnight October 4, Flynn declared. "If people can't find rooms they will at least have something to do," he explained.

In the meantime Memphis citizens are urged to register rooms for visitors through the Carnival dates. Local merchants are also urged to register displays with the chamber office at once to insure choice exhibit locations.

Football games, street shows, wrestling matches, possibly a rodeo, the stage production, carnivals, and a host of other entertainment is slated to attract Carnival visitors.

Interest is rising in whom will be Miss Hall County as hostess to queen candidates of the area as voting at The Democrat is reported to be brisk this week. Elsewhere in this edition is a ballot for the convenience of voters.

All committee chairmen working on Carnival plans will meet Tuesday, August 19 to discuss plans for the two-day show. The meeting will be held in the chamber offices in the city hall.

blossoms nor the fruit itself."

"I have produced large, flavorful fruit five years in succession, as a test for my own information and guidance, and with a view to transmitting this result to the area ranchers and farmers. Limited watering was necessary during the entire five-year period and, while the early frosts did threaten the fruit one year, it would be a very simple matter to install inexpensive smudge pots or similar equipment, as used on the West Coast. Frost warnings could be broadcast by the United States Weather Bureau, and all farmers have radios."

Powell invited all interested individuals to inspect his trees.

land, McKown announced. If any producer has not earned a payment on any particular land, he may earn a payment for this practice provided he applies for an approval between September 15 and November 15, and completes and reports performance on this practice on or before December 15.

As of August 15 and through October 15 approvals for seeding drilled crops on the contour will be issued. McKown said it would be well for those eligible for this payment to make inquiries before seeding wheat or other drilled crops.
