ANCIENT BIBLE—Lee Ford, Memphis cafe operator, is shown checking his Bible, which has been in his family for 155 years, or since it was printed in Edinburg, Scotland, in 1793. Lee says his father had the Bible in his possession for 40 years, inheriting it from his parents. Lee has had it for 35 years now, since the death of his father, James A. Ford. That accounts for 75 years. The ancient book has several pages of records of births of various members of the family down through the years, the first name being that of one Nathaniel Moore, born December 18, 1857. The big Bible has several extra books that are not included in the modern version now in use. This copy carries the notation on the fly leaf that it was "Printed by Mark and Charles Kerr, His Majesty's Printers." Lee Ford has loaned the Bible to his friend, Rev. T. E. Gibson, Assembly of God pastor of Estelline, who often quotes from it.—Photo by Wise, Cut courtesy of Amarillo Times.

An evening of his music is an experience. Tangas, rhumbas, waltzes, as well as sweet and swing are played with a finish unrivalled by any orchestra. He brings with his interpretations of strictly American music a subtle sense of rhythm and a thorough musical knowledge of the proper way to play American fox trots and waltzes.

There will be plenty of seats for those who want to sit and listen to Cavallaro's music in Wellington, Mr. Yates said, and reserved seat tickets may be secured by writing him at Wellington.

Biggest Legion Program Ever Held In City Draws Crowd of 270 Persons

By far the biggest and most successful program ever staged in Memphis by the American Legion, the interpost meeting last Friday night was attended by some 270 Legionnaires and their wives and mothers.

A total of 242 persons signed the register at the door but some 30 or more failed to register. The crowd began coming in by 7:30 and the show-line was formed by 8:15. It was soon seen that the 180 places set at the tables in the main auditorium would not be enough. More tables were hastily provided and many had to sit on the stage and floor or at various points in the recreation room in order to eat.

Post Commander Frank Van Pelt acted as master of ceremonies for the program, introducing Post Chaplain Roy Guthrie for the invocation. The post commander, in a few well-chosen words, reported that Simmons-Noel Post No. 175 had gone over the quota set for 1949.

"We now have 194 members signed up, or 101 percent," proudly announced Van Pelt.

Roll Is Called
District Commander Charley Gibson of Amarillo then took over the chair and opened the business session, promptly at 9 o'clock. He asked Adjutant Roy Beard to call the roll of 46 posts of the district. Amarillo post reported 1229 paid up members for 1949 with a quota of 1676 to work for. Borger was represented by Lou Roberts but he did not have a report with him. Childress reported 246 paid up members with a quota of 360; Clarendon has 119 paid, with quota of 189; Hedley has 88 paid up, with quota of 82; Memphis reported 194, with a quota of 191; Quitaque reported 41 paid up, with a quota of 37; Shamrock reported 331 paid up, with a quota of only 247; Turkey reported 85 paid, with quota of 93, and Wellington was present with no official report.

Mr. Gibson then introduced the speaker of the evening, Robert W. Sisson, manager of the Veterans Administration's regional office at Lubbock. His territory covers 79 West Texas counties. "The American Legion is the most powerful organization for good in America today," declared Mr. Sisson, as he launched into a 30-minute address.

Not Afraid of Isms
Among other things, the speaker declared that "so long as we have 18 million veterans in this country, I am not afraid of any isms or radicals taking over this nation."

With reference to pending legislation now before the Congress, the speaker declared:

"I have never felt it my job to be the public guardian of the U. S. treasury. It is my opinion that Congress wants us to be liberal with veterans needs."

Evidently having the Rankin pension bill in mind, Mr. Sisson further declared:

"I am not lobbying for any bill in Congress but it would be hard for me to turn down any bill for the veterans."

"Some folks will tell you that the American Legion has a lot of common folks in its ranks," he went on. "That may be so but I like it that way and I see fewer hypocrites in the Legion than in any other organization in the world."

The speaker had departed from a prepared speech and delivered an inspirational address in which he lauded the war veterans. His talk was well received. The oratorical manner in which the address was delivered left no doubt in anyone's mind of his ability to put over his thoughts.

Sisson Lived in Arkansas

Lou Roberts of Borger, a past department commander of the Legion for Texas, afterwards called attention of the audience to the fact that Sisson was on the Legion committee in Washington in 1945 that framed the famous G. I. Bill of Rights and helped push it through Congress. Sisson, a native of Texas, lived in Little Rock, Ark., about 25 years, between the two world wars. He is a veteran of World War I. He told the group here that he hires no one for work under his supervision that is not a war veteran.

Many of the clerks and stenographers are former Waves, Waacs or were in some other branch of the service.

NEW CARLOAD JERSEYS COMING FROM CANADA; FEW STILL FOR SALE

FLASH!

Just at press time Thursday morning, Manager Clifford Farmer of the C-C announced he had word from Canada that a new carload of 15 registered Jerseys could be shipped to Hall County in the next two weeks.

County Agent W. B. Hooser has already sold several of this new carload. Any farmer or rancher or club boy in Hall County desiring to buy one of these new heifers should call or see either Mr. Hooser or Mr. Farmer by Saturday or Monday at the latest.

Incidentally, a calf from one of the heifers received last July won the grand championship female honors at the livestock show in Turkey last Saturday. It belongs to the Cooper farm near Turkey.

Dean W. L. Stangel said the largest participation in the history of Texas Tech sponsored high school competition is expected this year.

Ray Chappelle, head of agriculture education department, will be general superintendent of the contests. Included for student teams will be judging of meats, livestock, dairy cattle and poultry; crops and cotton classification; and dairy products.

The coming district convention to be held in that city on April 9 and 10 in the new $65,000 Legion hall.

Following the program Friday night here, about half of the crowd stayed for an hour of dancing, music being furnished by a new record player installed last week.

VETERANS' QUESTION BOX

Q—Is the widow of a World War I or a World War II veteran entitled to a pension even though the husband had no service-connected disability?
A—For World War I widows the answer is yes. Benefits are payable under Public Law 483, 78th Congress, if the veterans' service meets the requirements and the widow's income does not exceed limitations established by law. A World War II widow whose husband had no service connected disability is not eligible for pension.

Q—Is it true that National Service Life Insurance pays the insured veteran $5 per month for each $1,000 of insurance in force while he is totally disabled?
A—If the veterans pay the necessary extra premium, he will be paid $5 per month for each $1,000 of insurance in force after he has been totally disabled for 6 consecutive months. Application for total disability income may be made at your local VA office.

Q—Can the beneficiary or family of a veteran make premium payments on his National Service Life Insurance if the veteran doesn't care to do so?
A—Yes, but the insured veteran has the right to change his beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time without consulting with or receiving the approval of anyone. He may also surrender his permanent NSLI policy for cash at any time.

Q—I bought my home without a GI loan. May I secure guaranteed loan to buy furniture for it?
A—No.

No increase in the GI loan interest rate from 4 to 4 1/2 percent will be made at this time, Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, has announced.

Section 103 of Public Law 901 of the 80th Congress authorizes the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, to set by regulation a maximum interest rate of 4 1/2 percent on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration if it is determined that the loan market demands the increase.

Mr. Gray's decision not to increase the rate was reached after an exhaustive study of all factors involved. He said:

"I have consulted extensively with Government leaders, individual veterans, leaders and the throughout the United States.

Arthur E. Ranson, Long-Time Citizen Buried Here Tues.

Funeral services for Arthur Edmond Ranson Sr., 62, farmer-rancher, resident of the Giles community for 56 years, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the First Christian Church in Memphis, with the pastor, Rev. Bedford W. Smith, officiating.

Mr. Ranson died Sunday in a local hospital following an extended illness. His late father, T. C. Ranson, was a member of Irish nobility and was born in Clair County, Ireland. He emigrated to America in the '80's and filed on several sections of land in the Brice area in 1893, some of which land his son still owned at the time of his death this week.

Survivors include his wife, the former Mrs. Moyné Johnson, whom he married December 27, 1920; one son, A. E. Ranson Jr.; two step-sons, Nelson Johnson of Iowa Park and Jack Johnson of Denver City, and one step-daughter, Mrs. E. W. Godfrey Jr. of Memphis.

Services at the cemetery were to be in charge of the Masonic lodge which furnished the active pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers included: B. F. Kelly, F. M. Glass, Bill Johnson, Lewis Curry, Hobert Moffitt, Dulah Wiginton, Kay Autrey, John Nash, J. W. Bland,

POLICE CHIEF SAYS STRAY DOGS WILL BE PICKED UP AND SHOT

A war on stray dogs inside the city limits of Memphis has been declared by the city council and it has instructed Chief of Police Jack Peabody to pick up all unlicensed dogs and destroy them.

A warning that this campaign will be started next week was issued Tuesday by Chief Peabody.

"Two local people were recently bitten by stray dogs," says Mr. Peabody. They were Mrs. Sam Brown and Bill Kesterson, he says. Although those dogs were not rabid, the next dog might be, thinks the chief.

"Get your dogs vaccinated at once, if you have not already done so," says the chief. "Then bring your receipt to City Tax Collector Glen Carlos' office and get a tag for the dog. If your dog has a tag, we will not pick him up. But there are now too many dogs running around town without any owners."

R. O. Proffitt, Guy Wright, Flower bearers were: Mesdames E. M. Glass, F. G. Watt, R. C. Kelley Hazel Darnell and Kay Autrey. The Marcum-Vandeventer Funeral Home had charge of all arrangements.

Born in Kyle, Texas, Mr. Ranson came to this area at the age of six with his late parents. His mother was from Canada.

Diagnostic Clinic For Crippled Will Be Held April 30

Plans have been completed for Khiva's second annual orthopedic diagnostic clinic, according to announcement by Mr. Jess R. Mitchell Jr., Potentate's Aide for Memphis from Khiva Temple or N. W. Durham.

The clinic will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning, Saturday, April 30, in Khiva Temple, Fifth and Fillmore, Amarillo, and continue through the day with orthopedic specialists conducting the examinations. Mr. Paul M. Clauser is clinic chairman, a position in which he served for the 1948 clinic. At that time 77 children were examined.

"Anyone interested in having their children attend the clinic is asked to contact me at once," Mr. Mitchell stated. "Children under 15 years of age are eligible for the clinic, regardless of race, creed, or color."

Application forms must be filled out for eligible children. There is no charge for the applications or the examinations. Lunch will be served at the Temple at noon for the children their parents or guardians, and all those assisting with the clinic," said Mr. Durham.

Al Morrah Shrine Club Reorganized; Mitchell Is Head

Reorganization of the Al Morrah Shrine club in Memphis has been effected with 28 members, it was announced this week by Glynn L. Thompson, secretary. J. R. Mitchell Jr. is president of the group and J. B. Scott of Lakeview the vice-president, Eddie Foxhall was named chairman of the social and program committee. This club was first organized June 16, 1921, when it was chartered by the Khiva Temple shrine of Amarillo. The first president was J. H. Read and first secretary was D. Max King. It will be the aim of this club to help crippled children's problems in this section, says Thompson. There will be no tractor fuel shortage in Texas in 1949.

That atmosphere at the newly remodelled Legion Hall in Memphis last Friday was the finest ever seen in a gathering that size in this section, says O. V. Alexander, Mr. Alexander, who has been a member of the post since its organization in 1920, says last Friday night's crowd was the largest ever held by the post in its history. More local veterans attended this program than ever before. There were 242 names on the register and some 30 or more failed to sign the register. While 13 posts were represented, with a goodly number from Amarillo, Hedley, Childress, Turkey and other nearby towns, the size of the crowd was made possible by the great outpouring of home-folks. Many local business and professional men, veterans of either World War I or World War II, were present with their wives. Many veterans from Lakeview, Newlin, Estelline, Brice, Plaska and other communities of the county were present with their better halves. It was a "swell" affair.

Post Commander Frank Van Pelt and his committees, with the help of the Auxiliary ladies, really deserve a big vote of thanks for the fine program and the excellent food. Although the food was served cafeteria style, the baked ham, ranch-style beans, potato salad, etc. brought forth many exclamations because of its excellence. In fact, we have a sneaking feeling that some were surprised beyond words by the delectable quality of the meal. O. V. Alexander and his corps of helpers really were on the job. The crowd was beyond expectations as only 160 places had been provided at the tables. But there was plenty of food for all. Some had to sit on the edge of the stage to eat but there was food left over.

The writer ran out to Lakeview Friday afternoon for a chat with Banker B. E. Davenport, vice-president and cashier of the Lakeview National B. E. has just about completed that fine new home in which he and his family are now living. He said it cost too much, of course, but that he had been promising the wife for a long time that he would build it. "In fact, ever since we sold the home we had in Memphis, we had expected to build in Lakeview," he explained. B. E. used to be connected with Tomie M. Potts in the Chevrolet firm here. Mr. Davenport just now is planning a big remodeling program for the bank in Lakeview. "Just as soon as we can get around to it," he confided. While in Lakeview, we visited with Brother Hoggatt and his son in their modern place of business. It is a revelation to visit that shop as I. T. has installed a lot of time-saving machinery that he devised himself. To top it off, we found out he is a sculptor of no mean ability. He showed us a door-stop, weighing 30 pounds, that he had carved and chiseled out of some native rock. It is an eagle and is a marvellous piece of work. It has the beagle eyes of the big bird. The color is of the natural rock. Then, as if that was not enough, Brother Hoggatt showed us two oil paintings which he has done in his spare time. (You remember he observed his 20th anniversary in his welding and blacksmithing business at Christmas time.) The oil paintings are not copies. They are strictly original, one of them being a scene from boyhood days. Since we cannot even pretend to be an art critic, we could only approve his artistic ability from a layman's point of view. We will recommend Brother Hoggatt not only as a thorough-going minister of the Gospel but also as a sculptor and painter as well as a successful smithy. There's a man as is a man! Our hat is off to you, Brother Isaac.

You won't cut your finger if you pick up small bits of broken glass with a piece of crumpled, moistened tissue paper. A hen that lays 200 eggs a year puts about 14 times as much calcium into the eggs as she does her body.

Early Day Bride Of Hall County Buried Here Sun.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist Church in Memphis last Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Dove Merrick, 69, who died early Friday morning in the Osteopathic Hospital at Amarillo following a week's illness. Mrs. Merrick, a widow of the late Joe Merrick, first came to Hall County half a century ago as a young bride of a cowboy who worked on the famous Shoe Bar ranch of that day. Her husband had come to this county almost ten years before that and had met her at the home of her father, James K. Paine, early residents of Goodnight. Born in Nocona February 14, 1880, she moved to Goodnight as a child with her parents. She was married in 1899. When the Shoe Bar ranch was dissolved, the Merricks filed on school land in the vicinity of the Oxbow breaks, near Turkey. They moved to Memphis later on and her husband was sheriff of Hall County from 1922 to 1926. He was elected justice of the peace here in 1938 and died in 1943 while still in that office. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Kedron Ward of Amarillo and Mrs. George B. Miller of Duncan, Okla.; two grandchildren, Mrs. Billy Thompson of (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 2)

This is the story of a tenant farmer who convinced his landlord of the value of terracing the cotton land.

Back in the spring of 1945, Robert F. Winters moved his family on to the farm owned by Mrs. J. A. Grundy, four miles southwest of Lakeview.

According to records in the ACA office at the courthouse, Mr. Winters produced only 1161 pounds of lint cotton off 75 acres that year and only 6,800 pounds the second year. This made a total of 16 bales in two years off that 75 acre field.

He went to see Mrs. Grundy about having the land terraced so as to conserve some of the moisture that fell. There had been very little rain those two years. Mrs. Grundy agreed that he could terrace the farm if it could be done without cost to her, according to Lynn McKown, secretary of the ACA committee, who tells the story in his monthly bulletin, "Farm Program News."

Bob Winters contacted Mr. McKown's office and found assistance could be given at the rate of $79.20 per mile of terraces. He then contacted Nat Bradley, terracing contractor, and Nat agreed to complete the terraces for the ACA payments, provided Winters would make the fills in the ditches requiring extra work. The first terraces were completed on December 11, 1946. During May of 1947, a total of 7 1/2 miles of terraces had been completed on the farm, with the AAA contributing $528.11 in financial assistance. (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 2)

HE'S TAKING THE Chill OFF A THOUSAND HOMES

It's 6:00 A.M. ... temperature 48 degrees ... and far out in a gas field, a United Gas well attendant opens a flow valve to move an additional million cubic feet of natural gas through our pipe lines. Its destination is a big electric power plant ... a paper mill ... a great city where home heating equipment is going into action to take off the morning chill. United Gas dispatchers are constantly instructing well attendants to increase or decrease the volume of gas moving into our vast, integrated pipe line system. Dispatching is a 24-hour-a-day job, but is only one of many functions of the United Gas organization ... all of which have the ultimate purpose of assuring a continued dependable supply of natural gas to our customers.

Dispatching offices located at key points over the United Gas system receive reports of gas pressures in all major lines of the area every hour of the day and night. Analysis of the various reports may indicate the need for increasing or decreasing the flow of gas from particular wells, or for speeding or slowing compressors. United's short wave radio hookup and its own 3,200 miles of telephone lines enable dispatchers to maintain close control over gas pressures in pipe lines all over the system.

1932 Culture Club Of Estelline Sees Texas Film

By MRS. E. F. KENNEDY
 At the meeting of the 1932 Culture Club of Estelline on Tuesday, March 15, Miss Eudora Hawkins of the West Texas Utilities Company, presented a most inspirational and entertaining program on "Texas." She based her remarks on reverence for memorable events in Texas history, thankfulness for the magnitude of Texas' present, and enthusiasms for Texas' future. Following the talk she presented the technocolored film "Cavalcade of Texas," which thrilled everyone who saw it.
 Mrs. J. A. Ballard was hostess for the meeting and she served dainty cakes, cut in the form of Texas maps, and decorated with Texas blue bonnets and hot spiced tea. The lace covered tea table was most beautiful with red, white and blue floral center piece on reflector and flanked by tall red lighted tapers. Mrs. Don Leary presided at the tea service.

 Guests were: Mesdames Arthur Eddleman, Bill Holland, Bessie Coppedge, Burt McLean, S. S. Cooper, Holder Whaley, Jack Boney, Frank Wheeler, L. C. Richburg, F. E. Leary, and Dora Johnson. Members present were: Mesdames D. T. Eddins, R. L. Bates, Albert Bailey, Ben Jackson, C. E. Wilkinson, Leon Phillips, Lester Phillips, Bob Davidson, C. L. Sloan, E. F. Kennedy, L. V. Bruce, Don Leary, Jerrell Rapp, Dave Waldron, Thurman Hutchins, W. M. Whaley, and the hostess, Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson, on behalf of the club, presented Miss Hawkins with a small gift as token of appreciation.

'Taxation' Is Theme For Program At Atalantean Club

Miss Gertrude Rasco directed the program on Taxation at the meeting of the Atalantean Club March 16 in the home of Mrs. J. H. Norman on South Seventh street.
 Business was conducted by Miss Imogene King, president, during which Mrs. T. M. Isham was selected as delegate and Mrs. Robert Sexauer as alternate to the Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Club convention to be held in Lubock April 4, 5, 6.
 Mrs. Edwin Smith, as program chairman, introduced the program giving the reasons why we should be taxed and introducing Miss Rasco, director of the program. In presenting the theme, Miss Rasco used the panel discussion introducing each subject with cleverness. Assisting on the program were Mrs. Robert Spicer who talked on Income Tax; Mrs. J. H. Morris who discussed Estate and Gift Tax; Mrs. J. W. Coppedge who spoke on City, County, and State and School Tax and Miss King, who told about Tax Evaders. The members entered into the discussion using questions on taxes for roll call.
 Refreshments were served during the tea hour for Mesdames J. W. Coppedge, H. B. Estes, Henry Foster, John Fowler, H. J. Howell, T. M. Isham, Claud Johnson, J. H. Morris, D. A. Neeley, J. A. Why Wait On Providence?

The flat truth about our state's extravagant and cruel political pension system was laid down here Thursday in the frankest talk the writer has ever heard a state official make.

James Land, assistant director of the state department of public welfare, told the Rotary club that the Texas pension system can't even pretend to be effective. Texas has more pensioners than any state in the union, but gives none of them enough pension to live on.

Mr. Land outlined some of the contributory factors, such as inadequate medical care, too little conservation of the soil, too few workers covered by social security, and low per capita income.

But he conceded that the one great flaw in our system is precisely the thing we were discussing here last week: The Texas pension system was not and is not designed to be effective.

It was designed to win the votes of the old people—all of them, if possible. And by now our legislators are afraid to initiate the changes which could make our pension system equitable and effective.

You know that 47 percent of the population of Texas over 65 years is not actually in any kind of real need. But 47 percent of that group receive pensions just the same.

By Texas law a homestead must not be included in considering the need of a pension applicant. If that homestead happens to be a 200-acre farm, so what?

On the other hand, an old widow or an old man unable to do any kind of work can't get enough pension to live decently on. Who can live in these times on $40 a month? Or less?

Certainly a change in that homestead exemption law is urgently needed. Requiring a pensioner to give the state a lien on his property may be going too far, but realistic application of the homestead exemption is essential.

But that's just part of the problem. We need a fundamental revision of the entire pension system, so that old people in real need get enough to live on, and old people who aren't in need get nothing. We can't solve it by continually increasing the total amount we spend on pensions. Even the wealth of Texas has a limit. And even if our wealth was unlimited, it would still be wrong to give the same amount to the needy and the non-needy.

Why wait for Providence to catch up with the chislers? We know how to get them off the pension rolls. And maybe our legislators would be more willing to act if they knew they had the support of all Texans who want our pension system to be good.—Temple Telegram.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Secrecy Is Harmful: It will be interesting to watch the fate of a bill recently submitted to the State Legislature by Rep. Preston E. Smith of Lubbock. The bill is aimed at opening all meetings of all State boards to the press and whatever other segment of the public which may be interested.

Certainly, the bill will have plenty of opposition, even though the opposition largely will be of the undercover variety. For some reason or another, many members of many state boards feel that while they are spending public money and attending to public business, what they do is none of the public's business. They prefer to meet in "executive," or otherwise secret session, do as they please and then tell the public only as much of what they did—and why—as they choose.

Under the terms of the Smith bill, members of any state board found guilty of holding secret, or closed meetings are automatically dismissed from the board on which they serve and are ineligible for reappointment. Also, the bill directs that public be notified through the press, in advance, of every board meeting, its time and place, in order that interested persons may be on hand if they choose.

The Smith bill is a good bill and prompted by inexcusable and ruthless "to hell with the public" attitudes on the part of too many official boards in Texas. The "papa knows best" boys on the various, offending boards have earned a spanking and the tax-paying public is entitled to know of their full official actions, the reasons therefor.

If the bill does nothing more than put an end to peanut politics and selfish "swap-outs" on state boards, it will be very much worthwhile. —Lubbock Avalanche.

HE SHOT AT WOLF AFTER ALL

Bob Womack had bought a high powered rifle with which to kill coyotes in the neighborhood northwest of Quannah where he lives and farms. He had killed no wolves with the gun up to date but last week when he thought he saw a brown dog and a small white one trotting across his field, he shot near them with the big gun to give them a scare.

Imagine his surprise when the brown animal developed into a wolf which dashed to safety over the hill and the "white dog" came rushing toward the Womack home in the form of his big white rooster that the wolf was carrying away for a meal.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells visited here Sunday with his sister, Mrs. R. L. Madden. Mr. and Mrs. Wells were enroute to their home in Amarillo after a vacation at Mineral Wells.

This Week in WASHINGTON

ASIDE from the jockeying for position occasioned by the senate filibuster on change in the rules, on both sides of the political aisle and the seeming certainty of senate ratification of the North Atlantic Pact, a strengthening of the position of the butter groups as against the oleo manufacturers appeared to be the outstanding development in the congress.

Of importance to the farmers was a bill introduced by Senator Thomas of Oklahoma, chairman of the senate agricultural committee which would divorce the agricultural extension service from its present tie-up with the Farm Bureau federation. Senator Thomas declared there were many instances in the present set-up of the Agricultural Extension service which are "unjustifiable and preferential to one farm organization and contrary to proper standards of relationships between a governmental agency and a private group."

It seems that in some states, local laws provide that before agricultural service can be set up there must be established county extension associations and in eight states the law requires such an association of farmers to be set up before any appropriations can be made for extension service. The Farm Bureau it seems has stepped into these positions and become the organization of farmers and thus has dominated the agricultural extension service in preference to other farm organizations.

Other action important to farmers was that taken by the leading farm organizations here to prevent the Interstate Commerce commission from granting a rate increase to railroads. The Farm Bureau federation based its opposition on an important point. It took the position that instead of granting the 13 percent increase asked, it was the responsibility and obligation of the ICC to first determine whether or not railroads were operating efficiently.

On the oleo front a house committee reported out a bill which would eliminate tax on oleo, but which would still prohibit sale of colored oleo in states where it is prohibited by state law. This is conceded to be a victory for the butter people who have abandoned their stand on the taxing of oleo and are concerting their drive on the sole question of color.

We'd like to demonstrate this tractor on your farm

We'll bring a Ford Tractor out to your farm with no obligation. And with it, one or two of our Dearborn Implements, specially made for the Ford Tractor. We'll put this Ford Tractor through its paces, then let you take the wheel.

You'll find out how easily Ford Hydraulic Control lifts and lowers implements and how deep. You can hold your watch while we demonstrate Triple-Quick Attaching of implements. You'll feel the easy Ford steering and power brakes.

Then you'll know why Ford produces tractors a day . . . still can't keep up with the demand. See this great Ford! Whatever tractor you own, owe yourself this Ford Tractor demonstration. Can we make it?

Members Of Eastern Star Honored With Seated Tea Sunday Afternoon

A lovely affair of Sunday afternoon was the seated tea given by Mrs. Billy Thompson and Mrs. Henry Foster honoring members of the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Eastern Star members and several additional guests arrived at the Foster home at 3 o'clock to be greeted by a receiving line composed of Mrs. Foster, associate matron, Mrs. Thompson, worthy matron, and Irvin Johnsey, worthy patron.

Mrs. Gladys Johnsey presided at the register to secure signatures of the guests and Mrs. Gladys Power, pianist, played musical selections while the guests assembled and during the tea hour.

Highlight of the entertainment was the presentation by Mrs. Roy Guthrie of a review of "The Big Fisherman" by Lloyd Douglas.

In the dining room, the refreshment table was an attractive picture with its cover of lace and its central arrangement of yellow jonquils and snapdragons arranged in a crystal bowl which centered a garland of fern interspersed with miniature emblematic stars. White candles burned in flanking candelabra of crystal.

Duties of serving were shared by Mrs. Ida Anisman, Mrs. Fern Durham, Mrs. Maude Fitzjarrald, and Mrs. Lola Webster.

Other members of the house party included Mrs. Winnie Johnson, Mrs. Nita Combest, Mrs. Bettie Franks, Mrs. Bonnie McMillan and Mrs. Vay Hammonds.

Approximately 50 guests were in attendance.

Trip To Texas Cost California Couple $100 Loss Of Funds

It cost Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rountree an extra $100 or more than they had planned to spend on a trip from their home in San Lorenzo, Calif., last week to attend a family reunion in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ellis in Newlin.

For Mrs. Rountree lost her billfold Tuesday morning somewhere in Memphis. It contained some over $100, so far as she can remember.

"The last time I remember taking it out of my purse was to buy some stamps at the post office," she told The Democrat. "Later, when I reached into my big purse to get it, it was gone."

Up to press time, no one around the post office had heard anything about the whereabouts of the billfold.

Bob Winters

During the years of 1947 and 1948, the land produced 70 bales of cotton, with an average yield of 232 pounds to the acre.

"It goes without saying that Mrs. Grundy is now a firm believer in properly constructed terraces after the rent from the farm had increased over 400 percent in two years," says McKown in his story. "Winters realizes that the years 1947 and 1948 were more favorable for the production of cotton in Hall County than in 1945 and 1946, that the more than 400 percent increase in yield was not all due to the terracing program but he is convinced that terraces pay even a tenant farmer on a rented farm."

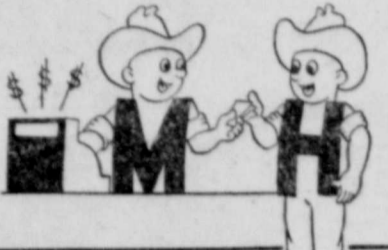

growing children to feed, 35 bales of cotton a year does the job better than just eight bales a year. He also said that he never expects to rent another farm that is not terraced or cannot be terraced if it needs it."
