County Schools Start 1949-50 School Year Monday

Memphis Alone Opens Season Tomorrow Night

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT FOR COUNTY OVER 1800 MARK

School bells rang in Hall County this week and all systems reported enrollments near complete Tuesday with classroom work beginning in earnest Tuesday.

The opening of school doors throughout the county for the 1949-50 school year found all schools in the county well equipped and their faculties well-staffed.

Monday meant the end of summer work and play for over 1800 Hall County youngsters. It also curtailed the summer vacation period for county teachers, although many of them had used those three months in school working on bachelor and master degrees, and had actually spent their vacation time as more or less of a "busman's holiday."

Superintendent W. C. Davis released the following enrollment figures for the Memphis schools Wednesday: West Ward, 319 students; Junior High, 221; High School, 251 students, bringing the Memphis enrollment to an overall total of 791.

Davis said that 63 students had enrolled at the colored school at Morningside and a faculty addition there had brought the total number of teachers up to three.

County Superintendent Mary Foreman late Wednesday reported the enrollment figures of other schools throughout the county. These reports were in line with pre-registration estimates made by the superintendents of the schools at Lakeview, Estelline and Turkey.

At Estelline, where O. C. Gregory has begun his initial year as superintendent, an enrollment of 270 students was reported. Of this total, 70 registered at the high school with the remainder divided among the grades.

No official enrollment report from Turkey had been received late Wednesday but Miss Foreman said that she estimated it at approximately 400 students. Superintendent C. S. Harris had stated earlier that an enrollment of near this size was expected.

Lakeview schools, headed by Superintendent Lorin Denton, reported an enrollment of 400 students.

CENTER ATTRACTION—All eyes were on the schools throughout Hall County this week as they opened their doors for the 1949-50 year. Shown above are two of the three buildings where youngsters in the Memphis School District have returned to their classrooms and books. The picture was taken looking northwest and shows Memphis High school in the foreground, the gymnasium in the center and West Ward school in the rear.

Polio Drive Is Underway

Because of the precipitous upsurge in the incidence of infantile paralysis cases throughout the nation, and the consequent drain on both national and chapter resources, a nationwide Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive has had to be started. The drive officially started today, and will continue until sufficient funds are raised, according to officials of the local chapter.

Confidence that the entire community would give wholehearted support to the drive, the first one of its kind, was expressed today by R. C. Lemons, chairman of the Hall County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The drive, announced Wednesday by Basil O'Connor, national foundation president, is being held as a last resort because "in no other way can the national foundation continue to aid increased numbers of polio patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education," he said.

The Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive should not be confused with, nor will it interfere with the regular annual campaign in January. No March of Dimes supplies (Continued on page 12)

1.65 Inches Rain Week's Weather Varies But Is Generally Wet

The rainfall during the week was the big topic of weather discussion, however. Wednesday night and early Thursday, .40 of an inch had fallen. Precipitation here Monday night and Tuesday morning totaled .67 of an inch. During the early hours of Saturday, .50 of an inch fell. A light (Continued on page 12)

A Busy Session

City Council Arranges for Maintainer Tuesday Night

A newer street maintainer was arranged for, objections were heard in regard to the present location of the city dump grounds, a sewer line expert gave a report on the condition of the city's sewer system, and discussion of the financial condition was made in a lengthy regular session of the Memphis City Council Tuesday night.

Eight councilmen were present as Mayor Pro Tempore Wendell Harrison assumed his duties as presiding officer in the absence of Mayor C. C. Hodges, who is ill. The council accepted the bid of a machinery company in Amarillo which offered to let the city put the maintainer through a 10-day to 2-week trial before making a final decision. It was the unanimous decision of the council to try the equipment out under those terms, which would cost the city nothing. The trash packer body will be traded in.

The Democrat Begins 1949 Annual Cotton Guessing Contest Tomorrow

Practically everybody in Hall County is certain this will be the biggest cotton crop in many years. But the person or persons with the best idea as to the total number of bales that will be ginned will be awarded a prize by The Memphis Democrat, if they submit their guesses to The Democrat by post card, letter or by handing them in in person to the newspaper office at 617 Main St.

The contest begins tomorrow, and will end Sept. 24. The official records of the Bureau of Census of the U. S. Department of Interior will be used as the official number and will be announced around the last of April.

A three-year subscription to The Democrat will be given to the person who guesses the correct number or comes nearest to it. Second prize will be a two-year subscription and third place winner will be given The Democrat for one year.

This fourth annual "Cotton Crop Guessing Contest" is now on, and it will be open through Sept. 24. It is not restricted to residents of Hall County; however, the cotton will have to be ginned within the county. Consequently, cotton grown in Hall County and taken to adjoining counties will not be counted.

This year is predicted to be one of the best in some 60 years, with (Continued on page 12)

The paths that lead our children back to school and a better education can also lead them to injury or even death unless each of us recognizes the importance of careful, sane driving. It's Your Job, Too!

Nothing is more important to the future security of our Nation than proper educating of our youth.

And while our teachers and school officials are directly responsible for this important job, it is no more their responsibility than it is each of our parents.

It is our duty, and indeed we should take pleasure in it, to work with school officials in every possible way.

... Our Teachers Mould
America's Youth

No single group of people figure more prominently the future of our youth today than our school teachers.

Unnoticed for years, these professional people with such a tremendously important task before them—educating America's children—are finally gaining the recognition they have always deserved.

And it is the duty of each of us, during the school year just beginning, to recognize our teachers' importance and aid them in every possible way.

They are ready to assume the responsibility before them but need the help of all of us to perform their tasks most efficiently.

Take an interest in our schools this year and give all the co-operation you can to school officials. They'll appreciate it, the school children will appreciate it and you'll see that it pays off with handsome dividends. For our youngsters of today are the world leaders of tomorrow!

Cancer Ranks As Texas' Second Deadly Disease

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, in speaking of cancer said that it ranked second as a cause of death in Texas, being exceeded only by heart disease. Last year approximately 6900 Texans died of this disease. One of the reasons so many people die of cancer is because the disease usually exists some time before it is recognized. By then it has progressed from a small local cancer to a large and dangerous one.

In the beginning cancer is not painful so many persons do not consult a doctor. Any lump, especially in the breast, should be looked upon with suspicion. Other suspicious symptoms are any sore that does not heal about the tongue, mouth or lips; sores caused by broken teeth or ill fitting dental plates should receive attention; irregular bleeding or discharge from any opening of the body is a danger signal. Persistent indigestion with loss of weight is a symptom of cancer of the stomach. With any of these signs one should go immediately to a doctor. Many times the suspicion of cancer will have been unfounded but it is much better to be safe.

It is desirable to treat all diseases in their early stages, but in no case is it more important than cancer. Periodic examinations made with cancer in mind affords the best protection against this disease. Surgery, x-ray and radium are the main weapons which are used to combat cancer.

county officers were enrolled and graduated from schools offered by the Department of Public Safety. The latter group included a school for newly elected sheriffs and their deputies which was held last fall as well as classes held in several cities over the state for the benefit of local officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stargel spent last week visiting in the Ozarks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chancey of Amarillo visited here Sunday with his father and sister, Mrs. Key.

Here's what we think are fine, easy-to-follow instructions for refinishing your gunstock. And you don't have to be a handyman to do a first-rate job, claims hunter George F. Strahl.

First, remove the stock from the action. Then with a single-edged razor blade remove the old finish by careful scraping. Be very careful in scraping the parts of the stock which butt the action, because any variations in these surfaces might cause it to fit the action improperly.

Don't worry about the varnish that remains in the pores of the wood, since these must be filled anyway. After the old finish is removed, sand the stock with varying degrees of garnet paper. Sand paper will do, but it does not hold up as well.

Next raise the grain by wetting the stock with a cloth and holding it over a gas stove burner, or any even flame, until dry. During the drying turn the stock constantly so it doesn't become hot.

Now take a sheet of the finest sand paper you have and whisk off the fuzz.

Repeat this process—wetting, heating and defuzzing—until no fuzz is apparent when the stock is wet. Four or five treatments will usually be enough.

Now is the time to darken the stock if you wish. Apply linseed oil in this coats; let it dry after each application. The more oil you use, the darker it will stain the wood. Then, when the stock is completely dry, apply a coat of varnish, preferably the quick-drying kind, and allow this to dry. Then scrape the varnish off with your razor blade, getting down to bare wood again.

Repeat this step and then, holding the stock to the light, inspect the pores to see if they are filled to the surface with varnish; a magnifying glass will help. If the pores seem to be filled, use a piece of 320 grit Wetordry paper dipped in linseed oil to rub down the stock. Use plenty of oil.

Then take a few drops of oil in your palm and rub the stock until it becomes hot from the friction of your hand. The more hand rubbing you do, the more burnished and beautiful will be the patina which you give the stock. If you have an emery wheel or polishing head, mount a soft, clean muslin wheel on it and move the stock slowly against it.

If you apply a final coat of varnish, put a thin coat on the inside of the stock where it meets the action—that's where it takes punishment from moisture.

portedly enrolled 198 in the first six grades and 135 in the higher six to bring their total of 333 but it was expected to rise to near 350 students.

Parnell reported nine students. Only four grades are taught at this school.

Davis said faculty appoint-ments were complete in the Mem-phis schools and Miss Foreman said other superintendents had re-ported them near complete throughout the county.

A Donley County school sys-tem that is viewed with interest by Hall Countians due to its near-by location is that at Hedley. Su-perintendent A. L. Davis reported a new enrollment high of near 400 there.

School buses from Turkey, Es-telline and Lakeview will be brought to Memphis Saturday for safety inspections by the State Highway Patrol. Miss Foreman said. She stated that the Mem-phis school buses will be inspec-ted Monday morning.

Seven buses are used by the Memphis schools. Six of these will be in full-time duty this year with the remaining one used as a spare, Superintendent Davis said.

Robert Duncan is in charge of the operation of buses for the Memphis schools. This is a most important factor in the school system since, due to expansion of the district under the Gilmer-Aik-en bill, the radius covered totals

New Tri-State Fair Bigger and Better

The 1949 Tri-State Fair and Exposition is taking shape rapidly. Fair officials, according to John K. Boyce, president, are looking forward to one of the biggest and best fairs in the or-ganization's 26-year history.

Agricultural and livestock ex-hibitors of the Tri-State area will be competing for more than $14,000 in cash prizes.

The new bull barn will house all livestock. This building, re-cently completed at a cost of ap-proximately $175,000 is one of the finest in the nation.

The old livestock building has been remodeled and given a face-lifting and will be the new home for quarter horses.

Last year's first-place winner was ACA Secretary Lynn Mc-Kown who missed the exact num-ber by less than 100 bales. The total crop was 42,941. Sam Hen-drix of Hotchkiss, Colo., was sec-ond with a guess of 42,770, which should give an idea of the com-petition which will be encountered in this contest.

In line with the opening of the Memphis schools is the new ad-dition of bleachers on the west side of the football stadium. This addition is well underway now and it is hoped that it will be ready for the first home grid game on September 16.

These bleachers will bring the seating capacity at Cyclone Stad-ium to 4,000. As was pointed out earlier, they will be financed by proceeds from gate receipts.

Davis said the enrollment fig-ure for the Memphis schools this year was below past standards for the upper grades but was leveled off by the high number who re-registered in the lower grades.

He said faculty appointments were complete and that the teach-ers this year will represent a new high in training and experience.

Although the Cyclone will have a slight edge in number of letter-men, it will have a definite dis-advantage in weight up on the line. The Quannah forward wall will average some 200 pounds per man as compared to only about 180 for Memphis. And, too, ev-ery one of the four returning Indian lettermen hold down line positions. That means the Cyclone linemen will be in for a rugged evening.

Honored at Open House

Clarendon Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

On August 30 Miss Julia Crawford of Giles was united in marriage to W. D. Shelton, also of Giles, in a quiet ceremony performed in Greer County, Oklahoma.

The groom's brother, T. P. Shelton was the only witness. The vows were read by Rev. Griffin of Quanah. The year—1889.

And so, on Sunday, August 28, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with an open house at their home near Clarendon.

Perhaps the difficulties this couple went through to get married added importance to the vows they exchanged. They rode a slow train for many hours to reach Quanah and there they hired the best rig in town—a surry with the fringe on top—and set out for Greer County.

They were married on the banks of Red River. Prior to the ceremony, Mr. Shelton rode to Mangum and back—a trip taking three days—on horseback to obtain the wedding license. He said the horse bucked and pitched all the way—adding to the hazardous trip.

This is a couple that grew up and have spent most of their lives in the tradition of true pioneers.

Mrs. Shelton was born in Navarro County. She came to Giles at an early age to make her home with her sister and brother-in-law, the late Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Watt.

He was born in Jack County and made his home there with his parents until he was 14 years of age. Mr. Shelton then helped drive a herd of cattle to Donley County. Soon after his arrival here he began working on the R. P. Ranch. He worked on a number of ranches throughout the Panhandle in almost every capacity—from bronc-breaking to head chef of the chuck wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton have five children. They are: Mrs. L. E. Moreman of Amarillo, L. T. Shelton, Clarendon, Mrs. Sam Robertson, Amarillo, and Dick Shelton of Memphis.

They also have four grand children: Richard Moreman and Mrs. Joe Pheipfer of Amarillo, Douglas and Sandra Shelton of Clarendon and Stephen Shelton of Memphis.

And the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Moreman, Rickie and Dannie, made four generations of the Shelton family present for this memorable 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Shelton is the third member in the history of her family to celebrate 50 years of marriage.

At the open house August 28, guests were greeted and presented to the honored couple by their children.

Over 150 guests signed the register and offered their congratulations and best wishes.

Throughout the entertaining suite were beautiful bouquets of yellow roses and other seasonal flowers.

The tea table was covered with a cut-work linen cloth imported from Germany. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white and yellow roses and topped with a golden anniversary wreath. This was a gift from the grandchildren.

Visiting was in order throughout the afternoon as golden punch was served from a crystal service by Mrs. E. W. Bromley and Mrs. W. I. Rains.

Mrs. A. L. Wall of Hereford, Mrs. C. A. Wood of Amarillo, Mrs. Herlie Moreman of Brice, Mrs. Charles Meacham of Memphis, Mrs. L. T. Shelton, Mrs. Richard Moreman and Mrs. Joe Pheipfer of Amarillo and Miss Sandra Shelton assisted in serving the guests with cake iced in white and decorated with yellow roses.

Plate favors were white wedding bells tied with gold metallic ribbon with the dates, 1899 and 1949, and the names, Dayton and Julia, printed on them.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were on display in the bedroom where Mrs. Dick Shelton, Mrs. W. C. Bridges and Mrs. J. D. Riley were in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton are very active for their age and she still does her own housekeeping work. He has many fond memories and the rugged pioneer days and enjoys discussing them.

Mr. Shelton said he would choose the life of a cowboy again if he were given the chance to live his life over.

The happy couple received many letters of greetings from points in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Oregon.

Lakeview Schools Remodeled

A completely remodeled grade school and lunch room greeted students at Lakeview Monday when registration was held for the 1949-50 school year.

Superintendent Lorin Denton said that the remodeling work was also extended to the gymnasium and that overall building conditions were the best in a number of years.

A faculty meeting was held at the high school Saturday morning in order that all teachers' duties and schedules could be arranged. All was in readiness for the Monday opening, Denton said.

He stated that enrollers for the year totaled about 385 students. Of this total, 210 youngsters enrolled in the lower six grades and 175 in the super six.

Denton gave the following names of teachers holding faculty positions at Lakeview for the year:

E. J. McKnight, principal and coach; P. A. Winn, vocational agriculture, Mrs. Yuba Fay Blevins, home economics, H. F. Cunningham, commercial, Mrs. Killian, English, and Miss Barbara Blanks, history. All these are high school positions.

Teachers for the grade school are: Mrs. Mozelle McMillan, first grade; Mrs. E. J. McKnight, second grade; Mrs. Susie Estes, third grade; and Miss Addie Fisher, fourth grade.

Mrs. Leon Robertson, Mrs. Carrie Blackwell and Arthur Francis will teach the sixth and seventh grades.

JUNIOR HIGH—Newest school building in the Memphis Public School system is the Junior High. 22 enrolled here Monday to begin the 1949-50 school year. The school is headed by Principal George F. Childers. Students spend those important years from the fifth through the seventh grades. Faces change from year to year but the above scene is fairly typical of every year at the school.

Social Security News

Q. Are all workers and their families protected by old-age and survivors insurance?

A. No. At present, the system operates only for wage and salary earners in private industry and commerce.

Q. Can anyone draw social security payments without having worked in jobs covered by social security?

A. Yes, in certain instances, survivors of veterans of World War II who die within three years after discharge are eligible to draw survivors insurance payments. This is true even though the veteran may have been a farmer or in some other occupation not covered by social security.

Q. What workers are excluded from old-age and survivors insurance?

A. In general, types of workers from coverage are: agricultural, domestic workers in the self-employed, religious and charitable organizations, and employment—federal, state and local.

For further information on the social security act, write to the Social Security Administration, Washington, D. C. or contact the nearest Social Security office.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become overtaxed and fail to filter toxins and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

The present maintainer, it was reported, is in an obsolete condition, being some 16 years old. The upkeep expense and the time lost waiting for parts has been costing the city more money than it was worth. An estimated three weeks were lost on that account the last 60 days, it was pointed out. The trade agreement was reached after much discussion following the presentation of bids by four companies.

Dissatisfaction was expressed by three citizens on the present location of the new city dump site, northeast of Fairview Cemetery, on the Quail road. The men stated that it devalued their property, and that the possibility of getting a farm-to-market road in that area would be greatly reduced by its presence. When asked for suggestions for a new site, the men were unable to do so. The present grounds are owned by the city and are a part of the property included in the airport land. The city has just recently begun use of it. No action was taken; but a committee was appointed to look into the matter.

A report that the sewer lines in the city are in a sad condition was given by two experts in the field, F. V. Sohle, Jr., of Dallas and Mr. Redman, superintendent of the sewer system in New Orleans. Sand, grease, tree roots and trash have collected in the main lines to the extent that only a small percentage of the lines is utilized.

"In a very short time," stated Mr. Redman, "the city of Memphis will be forced to clean out the system, or it won't have any system."

Mr. Sohle, who represented the only sewage cleaning company in this area, made an estimate of some $7,361 for the complete operation of cleaning the pipes and installing man-holes. Or, the city could install man-holes and they would clean the pipes at much less expense. He pointed out that a cleaning operation could not be carried out unless the man-holes were there. He estimated that at least 18 additional holes would be required.

The three main lines run from 13th St. to South Front St. between Brice and Main; from 10th to 7th streets between Main and Noel; and from 7th to S. Front between Noel and Robertson streets.

Mr. Redman, who invented the cleaning implement used exclusively by Southwest Norcam Co., cited inefficient traps in service stations as one of the chief reasons for the clogged condition of the units.

The council deferred action on the project until the next meeting.

Considerable discussion was made on the present depleted state of the city's treasury. Unless some new means of raising revenue is decided upon, the city will be forced to borrow money enough to carry it through to the end of the year. It is expected that the present appropriation will be exhausted within a month or so. And since next year's appropriation is some $8,000 less than the known expenditures will be, the problem is one of utmost importance; one that each and every taxpayer should be conscious of. Continued discussion will follow in the ensuing meetings of the council.

Jack Peabody, chief of police, reported that traffic violations were becoming increasingly serious. He was instructed by the council to "tighten down" on the violators, and to penalize the offenders to the "limits of the law."

Driving Costly Without License

Eight persons driving in Memphis Tuesday came in for a surprise—a costly one, at that.

Highway Patrolmen N. D. Callaway and Herman Moore aided by patrolmen from Amarillo, threw up a drivers license check on the north side of the square that day, catching eight motorists in the embarrassing position of not having licenses. They were all given tickets and will be fined in the Justice of the Peace court, Patrolman Moore said.

He added that another such check might be held in the future but, of course, would give no specific dates. Moore pointed out that driving without a license can be costly since the law calls for a fine of from $100 to $200.

With school children increasing in number along the streets, the motorists are reminded to take unusual care for the students' sake, was the opinion of the body.

Those councilmen present were Clyde Milam, Haskell Howell, Floyd Linder, Durwood Howell, Frank Monzingo and T. W. Harrison.

Commerce. The name of the photographer with his or her address should be written on the back of each picture, together with a description of the subject matter and type of camera used.

These pictures will be used for publicity purposes by the Chambers of Commerce. Therefore, pictures of people only are not desirable. However, pictures with people in them will be accepted if the person is part of the picture telling the story.

Carl Harrison, chairman of the contest committee, expressed disappointment at the small number of entries. "There are some mighty fine prizes waiting for the winners, and the people can help publicize their community with a shot of some of the many and varied interesting scenes around here," he added.

Money and prizes have been donated by Harrison Hardware Co., Durham Pharmacy, Foote & Fowler, Tarver's Pharmacy and The Memphis Democrat.

Owned and operated by C. Burton Fox, the machinery has recently been moved to Memphis from Springfield, Mo., and will occupy the building formerly used by the Dave Price Motor Service, 216 N. 6th Street.

Brickcrete is a high type building material and will be made of sand from Hall County. It has a cement base and requires no baking.

Further details of the new industry will be in next week's issue of The Democrat.

reds of millions spent for teachers and equipment; but said, "It all depends on the object in view. If God is taken into the equation, all is well and it is worth it."

Wednesday he was guest speaker for the Lions Club and took for his subject, "Three Philosophies of Life." He also gave five reasons why he considered it an honor to be a member of the Lions Club.

Sunday night, Dr. Fife introduced four generations to his audience: Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Clyde Milam, Mrs. Noel and her two little daughters, Tangie K. and Jan Renee Noel. Then Mrs. Noel, now living in Big Spring, sang a solo, "One of God's days."

On Thursday night of this closing week, Dr. Fife's sermon is "As in Days of Noah." Friday night is the big night in honor of all lodges, clubs and such. All Masons, Eastern Stars and members of other lodges and clubs will hear his sermon, "An Old Love Story."

"Thou Art Not Far" is the Saturday night sermon. Sunday will be Victory Day in the meetings. The 11 o'clock sermon, "Future Recognition," will take up the question, "Shall We Know in Heaven?" Sunday night is the farewell sermon, "The Time That Never Came."

The attendance is increasing, and members of all churches—and many of none—are attending the meetings.

On his way back to New York, Dr. Fife will hold one more meeting in Texas, opening at Canadian Monday night, Sept. 12.

"I hope it won't be long until I can bring a circus tent to Memphis and hold a meeting for all churches in the County of Hall, as that is my regular work," Dr. Fife said.

lightning and heard the roll, mutter and crash of thunder.

The nice rains of the past two weeks will surely be of material benefit to the growing and maturing Hall County crops. Guesses I have heard are from 50 to 60 thousand bales of cotton will be ginned this fall. Well, that's not to be "sniffed" at.

Palo Duro Canyon is coming in for quite a little publicity these days. The State Highway Department has announced plans to build several miles of road in the Palo Duro Park, and the park board is already doing some publicity that should help make this Panhandle showground a popular place. Here is one method of publicizing it: Printed post cards are given the visitors and they fill in the blanks and mail.

On the address side of the card appears these words: "Palo Duro Canyon in the Texas Panhandle—Inexpensive and Indescribable—Nature at Her Rugged Best." On the reverse side of the card I received from Vernon Phillips of Esteline appeared: "I am visiting Palo Duro Canyon State Park, the colorful 300-million-year-old upside mountain in the Texas Panhandle. With me are Mrs. Vernon Phillips and Katy and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Phillips and Dianne."

Already, truck loads of Mexican laborers are arriving in Hall County, getting ready to do their part toward gathering the largest number of bales in many years in this county.

TO BE SEEN AND NOT HEARD

Sometimes people try to read a prescription to their pharmacist—over the phone, or in his store.

This can be both dangerous and unwise. A prescription is a precise, technical document, whose terms and symbols can easily be misinterpreted by the general public.

Many drugs that sound alike are as different as night and day. Barium sulfate and barium sulfide, for example, sound very much alike. But one is relatively harmless, while the other is a poison.

Latin terms and abbreviations, as well as technical symbols, often appear in prescriptions because they are exact and unchanging. To your pharmacist their meanings are clear and specific, but they're not to you.

So if you try to read a prescription to your pharmacist, you are taking an unnecessary chance. But when you give your doctor's written prescription to your pharmacist, you can rest assured that you have handed him the information necessary to dispense the medicine prescribed.

Over 400 Enroll In Hedley School

Enrollment at the Hedley Public school was held Monday with over 400 students registering, according to Superintendent A. L. Davis.

"This is the largest number of students in school here in a number of years and should increase even more," Davis said.

Davis pointed out that the consolidation of schools in Donley County, as authorized by the new Gilmer-Aiken bill, added 120 square miles to the territory covered by the Hedley district and this runs up the total present district territory to 160 square miles.

He gave a list of 14 faculty members for the school this year. All hold degrees from outstanding colleges and universities.

Davis said there is every indication that this might well be the most successful year in the history of the school, both from the standpoint of subjects offered and the qualification of teachers.

The superintendent holds both BS and MS degrees. He is a graduate of East Texas State College at Commerce.

Principal A. B. Truitt will also handle the coaching duties at the high school. He was graduated from Texas Wesleyan College, Ft. Worth, with a BS degree.

William L. Davis will teach vocational agriculture. He holds both his BS and Smith-Hughes from Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Teacher of commercial subjects will be Mrs. C. S. White. She is a BS graduate of Texas Wesleyan College.

English and music instructor will be Mrs. Elvia Davenport who was graduated from Texas Tech with a BS degree.

Mrs. Edna Lee Brown will teach home economics and history. Holding both BS and MS degrees, she is a graduate of East Texas State College.

Oscar Patterson, BS from North Texas State College, Denton, will instruct mathematics.

Principal of grade school will be F. M. Baker who holds a BS degree from West Texas State College, Canyon.

Mrs. C. L. Vaught, with BS and MS degrees from East Texas State College, will teach the first grade.

Second grade teacher will be Mrs. Myrtle Hall who is a BS graduate of Texas Tech.

Holding a BS degree from East Texas State College, Mrs. A. L. Davis will instruct the third grade.

Miss Elvoree Moore, a graduate of Southwestern State Teachers College at Mangum, Oklahoma, will teach the fourth grade.

James Willett will teach the fifth grade. He is a graduate of Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas.

Sixth grade instructor will be C. S. White who holds a BS degree from Texas Wesleyan College.

PRINCIPALS—Miss Esta McElrath and George F. Childress, left, are principals at West Ward and Junior High, respectively. Both have a great deal of teaching experience and both hold masters degrees. In addition to principal duties, Childress is coaching the Junior High football team.

M.H.S. GRADUATE—Miss Laura Mae Hightower is one of the new additions to the Memphis High school faculty this year. Miss Hightower is a graduate of Memphis High school. She will teach Spanish and holds a bachelors degree.

Mrs. Tom R. Harrison of Dallas visited here over the week end with her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harrison.

If you want your car to have the best of service, bring it to Kermit Monzingo's, your Chrysler Plymouth dealer.

To School Kids GOOD POSTURE IS IMPORTANT

Correct posture in school children, and adults as well, is necessary to proper physical and mental development, says a warning from the Texas State Department of Health.

"Good posture is a sign of self respect and plays an important part in winning the respect of others," said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Many of the ills of childhood and the deformities of adult life have their beginning in poor posture acquired during childhood," he said, "and it is particularly important that the child's posture conform to nature's dictates. Most children are born in good physical condition and yet examination of large groups of school children show a high per cent to be suffering from poor posture.

Malnutrition and fatigue are productive of poor posture, Dr. Cox adds. These lessen the size of the chest and decrease the lung capacity. Abdominal organs may also be pushed out of natural position, which may seriously interfere with their action. These conditions must be corrected before the body is able to attain normal weight and nutritional standards.

"School children who have poor posture are said often to average lower in attendance and in school mental and physical activities than those who have good posture. A child may be forced to hold his body in an unnatural position by a desk that is too high or too low. Desks and work tables should be just high enough to allow the feet to rest on the floor and the forearms and hands to rest upon the tops without the shoulders being hunched up," he added.

Begin early in life to teach your children to stand straight and sit straight for health and self-confidence, and they should grow into strong, well-built men and women," Dr. Cox advised parents.

Social Security News

Q. Does an employer need a social security number?
A. Yes. Actually, it is termed "identification number" rather than "social security number."

Q. Does an employer report his own earnings along with the wages of his employee?
A. Only if his business is incorporated.

Q. Would the partners in a business report their drawings or earnings?
A. No. They are considered self-employed, the same as an individual owner.

Q. Why does an employer in an incorporated business report his salary, while partners or individuals do not?
A. In the eyes of the law, everyone, including salaried officers of a corporation, is considered to be working for the corporation rather than being self-employed.

Q. Then why does an employer need an "identification number"?
A. Since many businesses have the same trade name, this number is used to identify their quarterly tax returns to the collector of internal revenue.

For further information write the Amarillo social security office or contact the representative when he is in Memphis. Floyd B. Ellington, Amarillo office representative, will be at the county court house, Tuesday, Sept. 13, at 11:00 a. m.

"A Sport For Every Boy"

Expanded Athletic Program Aids All Memphis School Youngsters

One of the most improved departments in the Memphis School System, particularly at the high school, is that of athletics.

Its expansion assures Memphis better teams in the interscholastic competitive sports but, more important, it offers the youth of the schools here a wide and extensive program of sports.

Gone are the days when boys had to compete in football or basketball or be left out. Today track and baseball receive an equal amount of emphasis and intramural activities, as supervised in the physical education classes, have a place for the talents of every boy.

York Is Co-Ordinator
The importance of proper physical training was brought out during the recent war and has been recognized by school officials here. The physical training program begins in junior high and is carried on through the high school years.

This athletic set-up is co-ordinated by Coach Charles "Chuck" York, head football and track mentor.

"We don't have what you would call an athletic director," York pointed out. "Rather we all work together with each taking responsibility for certain phases of the program."

High School Principal Ray Newton works with the varsity grid team with York. Fred Wright will be head basketball coach this year, in addition to coaching the "B" squad footballers and teaching physical education classes.

At junior high, Principal G. F. ... coaches the football and also tutors the basketball squad there. Junior high track is handled by Childress. No real baseball program has been worked out for the junior group, except intramural activity.

Better Teams Assured
York is very enthusiastic about the program. "We are sure it helps all boys to better develop physically by offering all of them some sport in which they are interested, and we feel that it will pay off on the competitive sports side, too."

"I am certain of this," he added, "Memphis is through being the doormat in any interscholastic athletic competition. We may not have a district, regional or state winner every year, but you can bet that we'll have strong teams on the field."

Few can question the fact that the new program makes for better teams. By the time the boys have reached the high school and "A" squad age they are more or less experienced veterans as a result of their years on junior high and class "B" teams.

FOLKS take a look at those bumper-guard grilles—built as a unit and proof against "locking horns"—and say "Hmmm! Nice!"

They sweep their eyes over tapering fenders, with a suggestion of jet power in their after contours—and say, "That's for me!"

They eye-measure windshields that are 48% bigger and rear windows with 56% more area—and know without being told they can see the road up closer, both fore and aft.

So they say—"That's for me—IF!" "What does it cost me to get this handy-sized dandy with the roomiest interiors ever found on a Buick Special?"

"What do I pay for high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power from a big Buick straight-eight engine?"

"What's the tag on that swell Buick ride, with coil springing, extra-wide rims, seats between the axles and all that?"

"And what about Dynaflo Drive—

Well, sir, the news is good. Plenty good. Because this honey's priced well under your expectations. It's a straight-eight that's priced under a lot of sixes—over the years your investment will be no more than for any other car.

Schools At Turkey Are Expanding

Due to the Gilmer-Aiken Bill, it has been made possible for the Turkey Public Schools to employ two additional faculty members this year, Superintendent C. S. Harris has reported.

He said that the schools opened Monday with all faculty positions filled.

"Much improvement work has been done on the buildings here to have everything in readiness for school opening," Harris said.

He is optimistic about the coming school year and feels that this might be one of the most successful in the system's history.

Harris said the lunch room is again in operation this year, offering the students balanced diets of well-prepared foods, supervised by dietician authorities. The price of the lunches is kept at an absolute minimum, he stated.

The superintendent pointed out that school for colored children also opened Monday. He did not know the name of the teacher for this school when interviewed but said that the principal of the Abilene Colored Schools had promised to bring an outstanding teacher.

He gave the faculty lists for the 1949-50 school year as follows:

HIGH SCHOOL—Porter Willis, G. R. Colvin, U. F. Coker, Mrs. Carl Gilmore, Mrs. C. E. Edgar, Mrs. Charlene Horn and Mrs. C. S. Harris.

GRADE SCHOOL—W. C. Gilmore, Olin Holland, Mrs. U. F. Coker, Miss Carrie Buchanan, Mrs. Leta Crump, Miss Amy Davis, Miss Letha Slawson, Mrs. Alice Baten, Mrs. Virginia Degan, Mrs. Cole Boswell and Mrs. M. F. Archer.

Bus drivers for the coming year will be: Buck Hale, Richard Rivers, Olin Holland and U. F. Coker.

Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Gilbert will be cooks in the lunch room, he said.

Caretakers are: Jack McKee, Jr., and Joe Husband.

Local High School Library Now Most Complete in School History

Under Miss Hammond's Direction

A leading university president recently called a library "the very heart of any educational institution." This fact has been recognized by Memphis High School officials and the library there is one of the most improved and rapidly growing departments in the school.

Under the direction of Miss Ira Hammond, the library at Memphis High School has grown from a shelf-space in the study hall in 1945 to three spacious rooms. The number of the volumes in the library has increased from approximately 1600 to over 2000.

The new library occupies the three rooms on the northwest side of the building. In the corner room, which connects directly with the study hall, is the reading room. Surrounded by shelves holding hundreds of volumes of the best in fiction and non-fiction reading material, the room is furnished with reading tables, plenty of chairs and is attractively decorated with flowers and plants.

Students may come from the study hall into the reading room to enjoy the books offered there. Most of the reading here is for recreational purposes although, of course, many assignments are worked up in this room, especially those that require outside reading.

Books may be checked out here by students and taken home to read at their convenience. In addition, Miss Hammond pointed out, townspeople alone, are welcome to use the library.

The library also has a reference room in the study hall where newspapers, magazines, weekly, are also available.

Adjoining the reference room in the study hall is the High School room of factual information from the shelves.

It is decorated with reading room and ing room, has a

BOOKWORM—Miss Ira Hammond, library and visual aids instructor at Memphis High school, has earned the title of the school's "Number One Bookworm." She has a deep interest in the library and it has expanded rapidly under her guidance.

war education planning, the Memphis schools immediately began taking advantage of it.

Films are rented from various colleges and educational film supply houses and are shown to the various classes in connection with their studies.

Students are trained to run the projectors and pass examinations to qualify them for licenses to do the work.

The audio-visual equipment is well distributed among the Memphis schools. High School and Junior High each have a 16 mm. projector and West Ward has a 35 mm. projector, as does the High School. Equipment includes three record players, two of them electric, two opaque lantern projectors, film strips, three beaded screens, film strips and other equipment which bring the total value of the project to well over $2,500.

A special room, located next to the study hall on the southeast side of the high school building, is used to store all the visual aid equipment.

... marching group and the concert group.

Junior high students have two band organizations, one for beginners and the other for experienced instrument players.

Improved band quarters at the high school add emphasis to the expanded program. The band house there has been remodeled and includes the main room, rehearsal room, uniform room, music library and instrument room. A private telephone, number 49M, has recently been installed here so that matters pertaining to the music department can be transacted directly from the band house, Keyser pointed out.

The band director said that a number of interesting trips are planned each year for the band members. This adds to the enthusiasm and interest of the program.

Last year they attended the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, the homecoming ceremonies at Hardin College, Wichita Falls, several band clinics and the Childress County Fair. This was in addition to out-of-town athletic events.

The Memphis High School marching band has gained wide recognition during the past two years. They were rated superior at the regional competition in Canyon in 1948 and gained an excellent rating in 1949.

One member of the band last year, Miss Jeanne Way, was awarded all-state honors for her talented performance on the trombone.

Keyser also directs the choral clubs as a part of the music department set-up. The senior choral group has won superior ratings in regional competition for the past three years.

The brass and vocal sextets also came in for honors last year as each won excellent ratings at the Canyon regional meeting.

Last year's twirlers also won a number of honors when they performed with the marching band. Headed by Miss Leota Sturdevant, the group included: Misses Muri Jo Cochran, Dorothy Deaver, Joyce McDaniel, Nina Lee Ellis and Billy Jean Sturdevant.

Dorothy Deaver will head them this year and Miss Patsy Nell Combs has been added to the (Continued on Page 8)

TALENTED DIRECTOR—Perry Keyser has established an outstanding record since taking the baton of the Memphis High school band and the entire school music department in 1946. He looks to the coming year as the best since he has been here.

Improving Great Record

Music Department Expanding Rapidly

Destined to regain, and even surpass, the prominence it once enjoyed is the music department at Memphis High School.

Band activities here were sharply curtailed during the war years but things have been steadily improving in the music department since 1946.

It was in that year that the high school obtained the services of a talented music director, Perry Keyser, and he immediately began remodeling the band into an organization which has won local, regional and even state recognition.

Under his guidance, students may begin their musical training in junior high and continue it on an enlarged scale throughout their high school years.

In fact, they may start training in music in the fourth grade. Each year Keyser takes students from this group and forms a "Tonette Band." He feels that the youngsters pick up valuable basic musical background from playing this simple instrument in an organized group.

The music department divides the students into a number of organizations, allowing Keyser to devote more time to the problems of each individual.

At the high school the advanced music students play in the "A" band with the youngster ones in the "B" band. In addition, the "A" band is divided into the

Each week Miss Hammond makes a list of all the films that will be shown the various departments during that week and it is posted on a bulletin board.

She is very pleased with the interest that has been shown in this project by the students and believes that visual aids methods have a real place in our modern educational system.

Miss Hammond has a number of ideas for improving the library in the future. She hopes to have a systematic cataloging of all books before too long. The library department can be assured of continued improvement under her experienced guidance.

That improvement is important to the youngsters in school here for, as educational leaders assert, a school's improvement is in direct proportion to the improvement of its library.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butler over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wooten and family of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Butler of Arlington, Willard Butler of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stephens and daughter of Amarillo.

Our Schools Need Your Help

Across the nation one of America's most important institutions—school—is underway or planning to get underway soon.

With each passing year marking the growth of American influence in world affairs, so grows the importance of an efficient school system in this country. For, as a nation, we are no more intelligent or competent of assuming the tremendous tasks before us than are the individuals who make up our country.

Recognize this fact and you can see that the American school system is one of the most important organizations in the world. The world looks to America for leadership and this country, in turn, must look to its youth, trained in the most expensive and efficient school system in the world, to furnish that leadership.

And even our great school system has plenty of flaws. True, there has been an intensified effort to improve school conditions in the past few years but the job is far from completed.

It is sheer foolishness for us to view the schools in our city, state and nation with the complacent attitude that they have been improved enough. The job of improving them will go on as long as this nation progresses which, we hope, will be as long as God wills the existence of the world.

Each of us has a real obligation toward our schools, our teachers, and our school officials. We must co-operate with them in every possible way. Our teachers face an impossible job of giving our youngsters the best in education unless they have the help of every American citizen.

Aid your schools, teachers, school officials and school organizations to the utmost of your ability. Only by such whole-hearted co-operation can we be assured that our schools will be able to do the important job facing them. Remember, America's best investment is in the education of her youth.

Repeater Financial Advice: The year 1949 is a good year in which to save some money even if no depression develops.

The representative of almost any foreign country can tell you why it will be highly advantageous to the U. S. to make a large loan.

Isn't it funny that tributes to minorities usually come from politicians running for office in regions where minorities live?

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Production Costs too High
 Labor government leaders in England are learning what a lot of us knew all along—that cost of production can be raised so high that foreign markets are destroyed. England, you know, cannot possibly produce food for its population, and it cannot possibly buy food from other nations unless other nations buy what British factories produce.—West Point (Miss.) Times-Leader.

Driving Responsibility
 The opening of schools next Monday makes it more important, if that's possible, than ever for all of us to watch our driving.

Particularly during the hours before school opens and just after it closes every day, and during the noon hour when most of us are rushing home to lunch, the streets as well as the sidewalks in all sections of town are going to be alive with youngsters. Let's keep them alive.

They're young and carefree and full of the joy of living . . . and not always too intent on where they're going. Sure, they ought to watch their step. Certainly they ought to look both ways before crossing a street. By all means they should stick to the sidewalks and cross streets only at intersections.

But they're not going to. They're going to be taught rules of traffic safety in classrooms, and they should be. They're going to be warned to be careful by their teachers and their parents, and they should be. They're going to be told to keep on the alert.

Linen line is best for deep sea fishing since it will not deteriorate in salt water.

for the younger generation.

It's not going to help your conscience, if you run over a child to remind yourself that you had the right-of-way . . . that youngster lying there on the pavement shouldn't have dashed into the middle of the street just when he did. In the eyes of the law, you're probably right. But how will you square it with yourself?

Drive carefully around town. Keep your eyes open, and you mind on your business. Have your brakes checked . . . and be sure you can stop, quickly, if you need to. Drive slowly through the school zones . . . and drive carefully everywhere.

The kids are full of the joy of living. Let's keep them alive!—Canadian Record.

The senate bill picked up a few of the features now in the Aiken act, and no doubt the measure will wind up in a conference committee before final passage. As now constituted, the measure bears the imprint of former Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, senator from New Mexico.

The senate farm version calls for support of basic crops—corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, tobacco and wheat at 90 per cent of parity this year and reduction to as low as 75 per cent after 1950, if supplies become surplus. Milk and butterfat would be supported at 75 to 90 per cent. Wool, mohair, tung nuts and Irish potatoes will be supported at 60 to 90 per cent. All other farm products could be supported up to 90 per cent, while products which can be stored—oats, barley, rye and meats—would be supported at 90 to 75 per cent.

In the meantime the house continued to move ahead somewhat faster than the senate on the administration-supported measures, passed the minimum wage bill somewhat watered down and sent it along to the bogged-down senate. Final passage was on a roll call of 361 to 35. The bill would raise the national minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents and extend some other benefits to approximately 20 million workers.

For instance some of the amendments passed would exempt rural home workers who are unrepresented and make all the produce they sell; employees of newspapers with circulation below 5,000; workers in small telephone companies serving up to 500 clients; seasonal operators who hire fewer than 12 persons. The term "work-day" is defined to mean whatever a collective bargaining agreement says it does.

The house grew tired of wait-

RATHER THAN SEE his farm program "so hamstrung that it would not work," Secretary Charles F. Brannan has asked the senate agricultural committee to eliminate all reference to his controversial farm plan from the senate farm bill. As a result the bill which came from the committee resembles in the main the house-passed bill which also had kicked overboard both the Brannan proposals and the Aiken farm law.

The senate farm version calls for support of basic crops—corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, tobacco and wheat at 90 per cent of parity this year and reduction to as low as 75 per cent after 1950, if supplies become surplus. Milk and butterfat would be supported at 75 to 90 per cent. Wool, mohair, tung nuts and Irish potatoes will be supported at 60 to 90 per cent. All other farm products could be supported up to 90 per cent, while products which can be stored—oats, barley, rye and meats—would be supported at 90 to 75 per cent.

In the meantime the house continued to move ahead somewhat faster than the senate on the administration-supported measures, passed the minimum wage bill somewhat watered down and sent it along to the bogged-down senate. Final passage was on a roll call of 361 to 35. The bill would raise the national minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents and extend some other benefits to approximately 20 million workers.

For instance some of the amendments passed would exempt rural home workers who are unrepresented and make all the produce they sell; employees of newspapers with circulation below 5,000; workers in small telephone companies serving up to 500 clients; seasonal operators who hire fewer than 12 persons. The term "work-day" is defined to mean whatever a collective bargaining agreement says it does.

Marvin L. Barnett Has Been Assigned To Fifth Division

Recruit Marvin L. Barnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett of Newlin, has been assigned to the Fifth Armored "Victory" Division for 14 weeks of basic training.

Reactivated July 6, 1948, the Fifth Armored Division hung up a brilliant war record in six European campaigns during World War II.

Before entering the army, Barnett was employed by Western Cottonoil Co. as a mill operator. He is assigned to Co. "C," 54th Medium Tank Bn.

Mrs. Clifford Burnett returned home last Thursday following a visit in Ardmore, Okla., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bettis. While there they attended the wedding of Mrs. Burnett's cousin, Lois Carr to Don Locke, at Atoka.
