"The Hasty Heart" To Be Presented Sunday

Poppies Will Be Sold Saturday By Legion Auxiliary

"A poppy on every coat—reminiscent in every heart," will be the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary for the annual Poppy Day here Saturday, Nov. 5. Complete plans for Poppy Day were announced this week by Mrs. T. D. Weatherby, the Auxiliary's Poppy Chairman. Poppies will be offered throughout the city all day so that everyone will have the opportunity to honor the war dead by wearing the memorial flower, Mrs. Weatherby said. Volunteer workers from the Auxiliary will be assigned to a booth at Ross and Lemons, on the west side of the square, and to one in front of McMurray Tire and Supply on the south side of the square. Poppies will be sold all around the square, starting at 9 a.m. Contributions made for the poppies will go to the rehabilitation and child welfare funds of the Legion and Auxiliary, to be used for the benefit of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans during the coming year. Thousands of disabled men and women, unable to do other work, have been given employment making poppies for the Auxiliary this year.

"The Hasty Heart," John Patrick's Broadway success, will be presented at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Nov. 6, at the Memphis High School Auditorium. The performance will be under the auspices of the Hall County Concert Association. Produced by Theatre-on-Tour with the cooperation of New York's Theatre Guild, "The Hasty Heart" will be seen on the stage for the first time outside of a few metropolitan centers with an all-Broadway cast. Described as a "comedy about a tragedy," "a war play which is not about the war," the play is set in a British hospital in Burma and depicts the conflict between a bitter, lonely young Scottish sergeant and his fellow-patients along with the hospital nurses who try to give him the friendship which he wants but does not know how to accept. According to all advance reports the atmosphere of the play is not sombre, but is that of a heart-warming comedy. When it began its successful run in New York it was called "profoundly moving but also one of the merriest pieces on Broadway."

Carnival Nets $1700 For West Ward P-TA
Net proceeds of approximately $1700 were realized out of the Halloween Carnival held Monday night and sponsored by the West Ward Parent-Teacher Association. The money will be used for various improvements at West Ward School, it was revealed. Little Miss Barbara Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Allen, was crowned Queen of the festivities. She was escorted by Monte Brent Monzingo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Monzingo. Queen Barbara's Court was composed of all other queen candidates and their escorts. Dancers in costume entertained the queen and her escort with folk dances. Mrs. Bob Land was general chairman of the affair, and was largely responsible for the well-planned festival. She was aided appreciably by room chairmen and those who were in charge of the various booths. Thanks are expressed by Mrs. John McCauley, president of the West Ward P-T-A, to all who helped produce the carnival.

Memphis Relatively Quiet on Hallowe'en
Memphis survived one of the quietest Hallowe'ens it has had in years, according to Chief of Police Jack Peabody. There were a few cases of minor disturbances, but nothing of major proportions were reported. Members of the Volunteer Fire Department aided the police department in maintaining order.

The winning counties are Carson, Lamb, Hall, Cooke, Harrison, Midland, Runnels, Eastland, Nacogdoches, Lavaca, Cameron and Wharton, with Hall being named No. 1. O. V. Alexander Named Chairman of USO Campaign

O. V. Alexander of Memphis has been named chairman for Hall County for the Texas USO Reactivation Campaign. Mr. J. H. Harrison, District Chairman of Children, announced this week. The quota for Hall County is $8400, which is Hall County's share of the $500,000 goal for Texas.

Mr. Alexander said, "The cold war continues, and our people have called for a big Army, Navy and Air Force so that our country will be ready to meet any pressures from the enemy. "We have 98,000 of our young men and women from Texas now in uniform, and Hall County has her share of these people who are in the service. It is up to us to show our gratitude and appreciation through our support of USO. This we can do because USO is on the scene to serve them whether they are stationed at some military establishment here in the United States or at an overseas outpost. "We believe that unless we do assume this responsibility, that it is only natural that these young people will return home embittered because of the lack of interest on our part. Through USO we can (Continued on Page 8)

Cyclone Rests; "B" Team Will Meet Shamrock Tonight There

While the Memphis Cyclone takes the week off to recuperate from a number of minor bumps and bruises, the "B" team continues in full swing. The Bees will play the Shamrock Junior Irish at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Shamrock. Virtually the same lineup is expected to take the field in tonight's return engagement that played in last week's tussle with the Lakeview Eagles. The Shamrock "B" team, under Coach Bobby Hill, won the first encounter of the teams 13-0 here. Coaches Chuck York and Ray Newton are expected to tutor the Flash!

Until Officials Meet Game's Still a Tie

It is entirely possible that the Memphis Cyclone will not be awarded the game which ended in a 19-19 tie last Friday night with McLean. The fact that the Cyclone had an edge in 20-yard penetrations does not necessarily constitute a victory, according to latest reports. The District Faculty must rule on the game, and final results are pending. A meeting of the superintendents and coaches of schools of the district will be held at Shamrock Saturday night, and it is assumed the question will arise at that time. Immediately following the game last week, The Democrat was informed by a prominent school official that, in case a District 2-A game ends in a tie score, the team with the greater number of penetrations automatically wins the game. It is true that similar cases in the past have been ruled in favor of the team making more penetrations, and The Democrat was informed that this precedent would be followed. That is the reason for the story as it is printed elsewhere in this issue. Regardless of the decision reached by district officials, it is definite that Memphis didn't LOSE the game.

She is a member of the Sub-Deb Club, has been a snare drum player in the "A" Band three years, and is Chief Drummer this year. Miss Martha Aduddell was Band Sweetheart last year.

For Sale! Signs on Vehicles

The council was unanimous in its decision to enforce state laws and city ordinance expressly forbidding any vehicle with "For Sale" sign to use the streets and highways. Police officials were instructed to enforce the law in Memphis. Carnivals which operate hereafter in Memphis will be assessed the $25 license fee which is authorized by law, and $5 per day for a police officer to patrol the carnival area. Crossing to be Closed The crossing where Cleveland intersects the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad tracks will be closed when lights are installed at the Noel Street crossing near the train station, and it was also decided to improve the street leading to Morningside addition. Buys Book Shelves The Council also voted to appropriate $160 to the Carnegie Library for the installation of book shelves. Books are now being stored on window sills and other available space. To Examine Sand Traps Filling stations which are using sand traps that do not measure up to specifications, or those which have none at all, may be cut loose from the sewer system unless improvements are made. Dirt and trash which comes from the stations cost the city considerable amount of money in repair bills on the lines, it was pointed out, and officials have been instructed to examine all traps and to determine their fitness. The Council also voted to purchase 12 new ballot boxes to comply with the law recently passed (Continued on Page 8)

Informal Tea Reveals Engagement of Miss Molesworth and William E. Craft

To announce the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Patricia Molesworth, to William E. Craft of Brice, Mrs. Jack Molesworth entertained with a small informal tea in her ranch home near Clarendon Thursday afternoon, Oct. 27.

Floral arrangements in the chosen colors of yellow and brown decorated the living room where Mrs. G. D. Craft of Brice, mother of the groom-to-be; and Mrs. A. L. Mudge of Junction, grandmother of the bride-elect, received the hostess and honoree.

Mrs. Houston D. Bell of Clarendon presided over the guest book.

The wedding date was revealed on the yellow tea napkins which were inscribed in brown with the words "Patty and Bill, November 26, 1949." "Patty—Bill" in brown letters on yellow satin ribbon encircled the centerpiece of brown and yellow mums and yellow candles on the tea table which was laid with a linen cut-work table cloth.

Alternating in serving the white cake squares, which were bordered in yellow and had an autumn leaf in each corner, were Mrs. Bill Lowe of Clarendon and Mrs. J. M. Livingston of Junction. Miss Charlotte Molesworth, aunt of the bride-elect, and Mrs. S. D. Prentice of Junction presided at the silver coffee and tea service.

Others in the house party were Mrs. J. H. Morris Jr., and Temple Deaver of Memphis.

VFW Auxiliary One of Five to Win State Honors

The Auxiliary of the V. F. W. Durrett-Brown Post No. 7109 was one of the five Auxiliaries that won the State Honor Roll for 1948-1949.

The Honor Roll Plaque, known as the Evans Plaque, is presented each year to the Auxiliary having the greatest number of complete reports during the year.

If more than one Auxiliary has a complete report, or two Auxiliaries tie for honors, each of the winning Auxiliaries will have its name inscribed upon the plaque, and each of these Auxiliaries will retain it for part of the year. Since five won this time, the local club will get to keep the plaque about two months. It is on display now at the Democrat office.

The Auxiliary whose name appears on the plaque the greatest number of times during a 10-year period will retain it permanently.

Department Honor Roll chairman for 1948-1949 was Sister May Phares, McAllen, Texas. Local Honor Roll chairman, Sister Mattie Orah Jones and Local President was Sister Pauline Bevers.

Following is a brief list of some of the things the local Auxiliary did to obtain the honor roll: Promote outdoor activity with their Post; make a contribution to the Student Nurses Loan Fund; buy a pair of glasses for an underprivileged school child; and make a $12 pledge to the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo.

The Department Honor Roll chairman for 1949-1950 is Sister Jean Evans, Denison, Texas. Local Honor Roll chairman, Sister Mattie Orah Jones and Local President, Sister Lilla Beth Godfrey.

Notes Pencil 130 Years Ago Provide Insight to Byron

Notes penciled in Italian 130 year ago provide an insight into a famous poet's personality, a University of Texas English professor has revealed.

In the current issue of "Studies in English," published by the University, Dr. Willis W. Pratt analyzes a Byron notebook recently acquired for the University's Rare Books Collection.

Memos of household expenditures provide glimpses of Byron's daily life in Italy, and entries of a Countess Guiccioli are more dramatic, written at important moments in her relationship with the poet in the 1820's.

The University of Texas Byron Collection is one of the world's best.

 Today Your Pharmacist Drops A Few Facts About . . .

PENICILLIN

The drug that was discovered twice could well be said of Penicillin because Dr. Alexander Fleming did not arouse the interest of his medical colleagues when, in 1928, he announced that he had found a mould that would destroy bacteria. Years passed but no further development was made until acute need for anti-bacterial agents at the start of World War II brought about a "re-discovery" of this wonder drug when the War Production Board began supervising its commercial production in May 1944.

Texas Can Have Million Dollar Tourist Business

Texas can have a tourist business amounting to half a billion dollars in 1950.

The figure is estimated by General Ike Ashburn, publisher of Texas Parade magazine, in the November issue. The total was revised upward from a previous one.

Here is how the publisher arrived at his estimate:

According to inquiries made by Texas Highway department information stations, tourists coming here by automobile from other states left $114,528,000 in Texas last year.

If intrastate automobile equaled that amount, the total would be more than $229,000,000.

Money spent by those who used means of travel other than the automobile certainly brought the 1948 total over $300,000.

"Concentrated effort on the part of Texas and the investment of some money in exploiting the recreational resources of Texas can bring half a billion dollars in tourist trade here next year," General Ashburn said, adding, "it's a return worth shooting for."

He pointed out that Texas has a coast line more than 500 miles long, a score of great inland lakes, the hills of Central West Texas, the Davis Mountains, Palo Duro Canyon, and many other attractions.

"No commonwealth has more to lure the traveller than Texas," he declared.

In addition to the various attractions, tourists can reach them easily, General Ashburn said, because "no state has a finer network of highways or better rail, air, and water travel accommodations."

The publisher referred to a report of the Brookings Institution which reported that, according to present trends, travel and recreation are destined to become the nation's biggest industry.

"Indirectly, of course, every citizen of a town benefits from each tourist dollar spent here," General Ashburn said in his article. "Texans cannot afford to ignore the significance of travel and recreation as factors in the economic development of this state."

Chubby Cullen spent the week end in Plainview with his brother, Raymond, who is a student at Wayland College.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jones left Tuesday for Pampa where they will spend several days while Mr. Jones is taking care of business interests.

Mrs. Knox Thomas of Fort Worth is a house guest this week in the home of Mrs. C. W. Kinslow.

Miss Esta McElrath and Mrs. H. B. Estes were Amarillo visitors over the week end. Mrs. Estes visited with her son, Benjy Estes, and family and Miss CcElrath visited with friends.

Sacred Music to Highlight Baptist Student Convention

Sacred music will be one of the highlights of the annual statewide Baptist Student convention when it meets in Dallas November 4-6. Six well-known student choirs from all over Texas are to be featured during the three-day meeting.

Approximately 2,000 Baptist students from both denominational and state-supported colleges are expected for the convention, W. F. Howard, state student secretary, Dallas, said this week. Headquarters for the meeting is the First Baptist church, Dallas.

One of the choral groups will appear on the student program for the third consecutive year. This is the Phyllis Wheatley Negro high school choir, Houston. Mrs. Mattie E. Roberts is director.

Other choirs to be on the program are from Hardin-Simmons university, Abilene; Baylor university, Waco; Wayland college, Plainview; East Texas Baptist college, Marshall; and Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary, Fort Worth.

Jack Robinson, outstanding youth evangelist and former Olympics basketball star, is to make the key address opening the convention Friday evening, November 4. Robinson was president of the state Baptist Student Union last year.

Also speaking to the students will be Dr. J. Howard Williams, Dallas, executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas; Dr. Raymond J. Seeger, Washington, D. C., scientist; Charles Wellborn, Fort Worth, well-known youth evangelist and United States debate champion; and Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the host church, Dallas.

Theme of the meeting is "Because Christ Loved." Twenty-one denominational leaders will conduct conferences Saturday morning on "Seeking the Truth . . ." concerning such issues as moral problems, evangelism, race problems, choosing a vocation, and Christian home building.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risks of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body wastes. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

HOOKS LEADS CYCLONE TO VICTORY OVER McLEAN FRIDAY NIGHT

West Texas Buffs Ready for Arizona State Saturday

West Texas State's hustling Buffaloes, fresh from a convincing 55-20 upset of heralded Trinity University here on Homecoming Day are bearing down in practice this week for their conference encounter with Arizona State in Flagstaff next Saturday.

The hard charging crew of Coach Frank Kimbrough will be favored to take the Lumberjacks into camp. Every player is in the best physical condition of the season. There will be none out on the injured list.

Gene Mayfield, terrific quarterback from Quitague, added 118 yards to his total yardage count in the Trinity tussle to zoom to the leadership in total offense in the Border Conference. Gene has racked up 750 yards through the air and on the ground in six contests. Big Charles Wright, Canyon tailback, moved into second place in the yards gained rushing department of the conference with 403 yards.

Hardin-Simmons of Abilene will furnish the opposition for the last home game of the season for the Buffs November 12. Comparative scores point to a tough contest in that Hardin-Simmons had to come from behind to the Houston University 27-27 a week ago while the Houstonians barely edged the Buffs 14-13. In fact that game the West Texas had one TD called back and moved to the 'inch' line on three occasions.

Tickets for the Hardin-Simmons game may be secured by writing or phoning Clark Jarnagin at the College Book Store on the campus.

Reports Indicate Insects Reason for Big Cotton Decline

South Plains farmers can profit from national cotton yield reports which indicate that insects were responsible for a 63,000-bale decrease in the 1949 production, despite greater acreage and favorable crop conditions.

The plant industry department at Texas Technological college cited the figures today as an incentive for West Texas cotton growers to adopt rotation plans and apply insecticides at the proper time.

Crooks carried the ball only eight times from scrimmage, but he amassed a total of 167 yards for an average of almost 21 yards per carry. He scored all 19 points for the hosts. His touchdowns runs from scrimmage were good for amazing yardage of 68 and 38 yards, and his most spectacular effort of the evening was a 90-yard punt return of the second-half kickoff.

In addition, Crooks punted four times for an average of 43 yards per kick, and made several fine defensive efforts. Thus he overshadowed the heralded L. M. Watson, who had scored 80 points in previous games. The Tiger star was held to one touchdown and extra point. Watson was a magnificent runner Friday night, but after getting off for a fine 54-yard touchdown sprint in the first quarter, he was held in check fairly well for the remainder of the game.

Crooks was by no means the only star of the game. His mates turned in superb blocking achievements—by far their best showing of the season. Kenneth McQueen, Raymond Clark, Freddie Vinson, Don Rasco, to name only a few, played well. And Max Kennedy, who has played regular guard all season, performed nicely at Gardenhire's vacated fullback post. Tommy Messer also played a fine ball game.

The triumph gave the Cyclone a 2-2 record in District 2-A competition, and it was the first loss suffered by the Tigers in three league games.

The Cyclone missed a clear-cut victory by a scant two feet, as a drive that had originated on their own 17, with about four minutes to go, was killed on the two-foot line by the final gun. However, it was this drive—which penetrated the visitors' 20-yard marker—which provided the victory margin. McLean had a 13-9 edge in first down before the last play of the game. The only other time the Cyclone passed McLean's 20—without scoring—was in the first quarter following the Tigers' first touchdown when they lost the ball on downs on the 15.

Memphis kicked off, and it was returned to the 36. Three plays carried to the 46, then Watson cut between end and tackle on the left side and went all the way for a score. He then plunged across the same position for the extra point. The Cyclone took the kickoff and moved from their own 37 to the Tiger 15 before they were held for downs. An exchange of punts, in the second quarter, gave Memphis the ball on the Cyclone 32.

On the first play from scrimmage, Crooks took a pitch out from Roddy Stargel, got past the Tiger right end, picked up a block in the left flat and out ran the rest of the defenders for the distance. Crooks' attempted extra point kick was blocked by End Carl Cox, to leave the score 7-6.

After an exchange of punts, the Tigers moved down to the Memphis one before the Cyclone defense stiffened. Crooks kicked out nicely to the 45 and the return was good for 12 paces. With about 10 seconds to play in the first half, Watson passed to Cox on the five and the latter took it over for a touchdown. Watson was stopped trying to run the extra point over as the whistle sounded ending the first-half activity.

Crooks Returns Kick-off 90 Yards The second half was ushered in just as its predecessor ended—with plenty of action. It was Crooks again, taking the kick-off on his own 10, faking a handoff to Tommy Messer and speeding up the left sidelines for 90 yards and a counter. He then kicked the extra point to give his team a 13-13 tie.

A fourth-down pass attempt by Watson from his own 42 cost the Tigers another score, as Crooks, on the third play following, carried a double reverse around left end for another score. The dash was good for 38 yards, and the attempted conversion kick was (Continued on Page 8)

MINIMUM WAGE IS 75 CENTS PER HOUR AFTER TRUMAN SIGNED BILL

According to wire releases, President Truman last week signed into law the bill increasing the minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents per hour. The new law will become effective 90 days after the president signed the bill.

It is expected by Labor Department officials to provide a direct pay increase for one and one-half million workers in form of raises from five to 15 cents per hour.

Some workers who were under the old law may be exempt by a provision in the law which applied to workers that are "necessary" to production in industries engaged in interstate commerce. In the new law this is changed to make the wage floor applicable to workers who are "directly essential" to production of goods in interstate commerce.

Another major revision of the old law will permit the wage-hour administrator to file suits in behalf of employees for back wage claims, on the written request of the employees, or to seek out-of-court settlements with the employers' consent.

The measure exempts employees of retail firms doing more than 50 per cent of their business within a state. Also exempt are newsboys, Western Union messengers and taxicab operators.

The provision of the law effecting small newspapers is broadened. At present only weekly and semi-weekly papers, with less than 3000 circulation, are exempt. The new law extends the exemption to dailies and weeklies with less than 4000 circulation, most of which is in the paper's home town or adjoining counties.

WTSC Professor To Start Radio Program Nov. 6

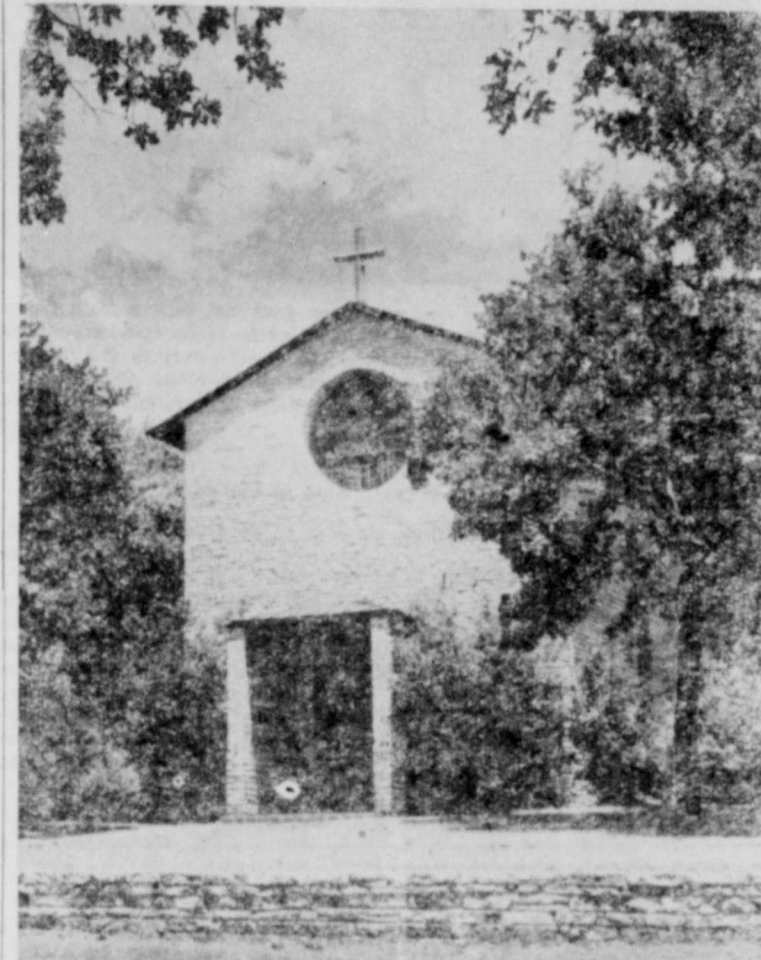

Do you oldtimers remember the tantalizing tunes of yesteryear such as Bessie Smith, the red-hot mama, singing "Aggravatin' Papa, Don't-cha Try to Two-Time Me" or Blanche Ring singing an old 1908 favorite "Yip I Adee I Aye"? Or how about the tuneful listening from Little Jack Little and some throaty warbling of Pan-handle-bred Vernon Dalhart?

If you remember songs and artists such as these, then you will have a chance soon to be taken back to those days an enjoy once again music which has memories. If you haven't heard them, then you are in store for a treat.

Ready to bring these oldtimers to you is Dr. Walter Juniper, Dean of West Texas State College, who starts his radio program "Jukebox of Yesteryear" on KGNC, Amarillo, Sunday afternoon, November 6 at 3 o'clock. From then on he will be heard at that time once a week.

Dr. Juniper, Latin professor and academic leader turned disc-jockey, is not new at the game of playing old records for radio audiences. He started collecting rare records as a hobby while assistant Dean of Baylor University. He played them for his friends and soon he was requested to go on the air with them. His program proved so popular that he moved from the Baylor campus station to station WACO and carried on his musical meanderings for the Papa's and mama's of students who had spread the word of the jukebox professor.

Interest in the new type program zoomed out over the air ways and to newspapers. Stories and accounts of Dr. Juniper came out in papers from coast to coast as well as in numerous musical magazines.

THE CHAPEL YOUTH BUILT—Ten years old November 1, the Little Chapel-in-the-Woods at Texas State College for Women has been the scene of 691 weddings, a number of baptisms, and weekly interdenominational worship services. Built primarily as a place of individual prayer and meditation, the Chapel is constructed of native limestone. Art work, including the stained glass windows, was done by more than 500 TSCW students. From its plain Celtic cross to its multi-colored stained glass windows, the Chapel is not only of the twentieth century but of the Texas landscape. It was the first true stone masonry building of any moment to be built in Texas since 1870.

Estelline Stages Successful School Carnival Friday

(Special to The Democrat) The Estelline School Carnival, called the Harvest Festival, was acclaimed most unusual by all who attended last Friday night, and it was financially a success. Gross proceeds were slightly over $1400, and this money is to be used to replace the school library. Help was given by people in all surrounding communities and it is greatly appreciated by all Estelline School patrons.

The first and second grades sponsored a contest for Miss Estelline, in which contestants were fathers of the first and second grade pupils. This was a howling success. Winner was J. H. Hayes, grandfather of Joe Hayes of the first grade. Second place was R. B. Tucker, high school principal and father of Emmalee Ann Tucker of the first grade, who was dressed as a hula hula dancer. All contestants were excellently attired. They were: J. A. Ballard, J. C. Bell, A. L. Martin, Paul Buchanan, W. B. Davidson, N. B. Doughty, W. B. Greene, J. L. Darby, O. S. Young, R. H. Evans, L. J. Simmons, James May, Dewitt Eddins, A. D. Britt and L. A. Tucker. In the contest for ugliest man, sponsored by these grades, winner was R. H. Evans.

Carnival booths were arranged in the gymnasium and the crowd enjoyed all of these. Food was served in the cafeteria. It was good entertainment from beginning to end.

Miss Judy Jane Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bell, beautiful and popular member of the senior class, was crowned Queen of Estelline High School for 1949-50. The formal coronation ceremony was most beautiful against a most artistically decorated stage. The theme of the coronation was "Cotton", and the background represented a star-studded, harvest moon. Thrones were large cotton bolls. All of the royal courtiers were dressed formally in white. Corsages were pink. Queen Cotton was brought in on a load of cotton pulled by King Cotton, Gene Gardenhire and attended by Gene Jouett. Preceding her were flower girls, Linda Young and Donna Sue Eddins. Leon Martin of Memphis is one of sixteen outstanding 4-H club members who have been selected to receive the coveted Santa Fe Railroad Educational Awards. Each award carries with it an all-expense trip to National 4-H Congress, Chicago, November 27-December 1. Selections, according to Floyd Lynch, state 4-H club leader of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service were based upon length of membership in 4-H, leadership and achievement records, production, participation in 4-H and community and county activities other than 4-H and the general all-round record made by the individual.

SCIENTISTS UTILIZE UNMINED COAL

Electrocarbonization of coal produces coal tar, falling from the pipe (right center). This is a scene of the Missouri school of mines field experiment on underground electrocarbonization near Hume, Mo. Coal that has never been taken from the ground may in the future heat your home, cook your meals, run your automobiles—and relieve your headaches. Successful attempts have been made to utilize coal without mining it for the manufacture of gas, gasoline, coal-tar medicines.

FIELD EXPERIMENTS on underground electrocarbonization of coal are being conducted at the University of Missouri school of mines and metallurgy at Rolla, Mo.

The tests, being made on property of the Sinclair Coal Company near Hume, Mo., have proved the physical possibility of producing gas from coal in place by charging the seam with electricity. Researchers on the project say if the process proves through further tests to be economically feasible on a commercial scale, it will make large coal and oil deposits available for use which have been unrecoverable in the past.

The method is intended to obtain the valuable constituents of coal, oil, and oil-shale deposits without actually excavating for the source materials, thus eliminating the "cost of mining" factor. Iron pipes sunk into the coal bed serve as electrodes and as channels for the escaping gas when it is generated. The gas produced in this manner is similar in quality to that developed by coking.

Equipment for the field experiments includes a series of pipes through which the gas flows, a water collector which removes much of the moisture, a flow meter, and a heat exchanger, a tower used for cooling the gas. There is also an instrument building and a water rheostat for controlling voltage.

The mining department of the Missouri school of mines and metallurgy has been engaged in the project for about two years, the first year being devoted to laboratory research to develop the best technique for field work.

Between two colored men, Cy King, and Ralph Hollins, on the Denny Ranch twelve miles Southwest of Lakeview, the former received a death wound, and the latter, charged with murder, awaits a hearing in the County Jail here.

The dispute between the two men, who were employed as crop pickers, originated in a crap game which was in progress in one of the shacks.

The Democrat is in receipt of a telegram from George A. Sager from Dallas to the effect that the Hall County Exhibit at the State Fair of Texas was awarded nineteenth place. This is considered a good record, due to the fact that thirty-one counties entered exhibits, and East Texas counties have always made competition keen, due to the fact that these counties generally have more products to display than counties in West Texas.

'RHEUMATISM' So BAD He Had To Quit Working

working from 8 to 12 hours daily and I am able to sleep as any normal person. I have taken six large size bottles of HADACOL and all my friends know I owe my good health to HADACOL."

Mr. Watkins is one of the many thousands of people who suffered from a deficiency of the B vitamins and the minerals that HADACOL contains and who, therefore found relief in HADACOL.

It is a well-known scientific fact that the lack of only a small amount of the B vitamins and certain minerals in your system will cause certain bodily disorders such as nutritional neuritis, which causes the aches and pains commonly known as rheumatism, and there is no cure for the ailment except the administration of the needed vitamins and minerals. This is why people who suffered for years and years never were able to obtain any relief until they took the vitamins and minerals the lack of which was causing the disorders.

HADACOL does not contain only one but has five of the B vitamins and four necessary minerals. It comes to you in liquid form so that it will be easily absorbed by the blood and, therefore, carried to the parts of the body which need them most.

So, it matters not where you live—no matter who you are—if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, you should be fair to yourself and give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. And if your disease is caused by a lack of the B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains, then don't go on suffering—don't continue to make your life so miserable. Temporary relief for you is not enough. Take HADACOL. Sold at all leading drugstores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money: buy the large family economy size, only $3.50. If your druggist does not handle HADACOL, order direct from The Le Blant Corporation, Lafayette, La., and when the postman brings your package, just pay the amount plus the c.o.d. and postage. If you remit with the order we will pay the postage.

Then, if you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.—Adv.

When you talk about VALVE-IN-HEAD you're talking about

The Power that made Buick Famous

If you want to know what's "the newest thing" in automobile engines, look at the Buick engine pictured here, and you'll see the words "valve-in-head."

But it happens that this isn't new with Buick. As a matter of fact, the valve-in-head engine was invented back in 1902—U.S. Patent No. 771095—and immediately, Buick adopted the principle, which became the first in a long string of "Buick firsts."

Not everyone went for the idea—then. In spite of the fact that this engine "breathes" more freely—gets fuel in and exhaust gases out more easily—others hung onto their pet ideas.

Then came the airplane, with its need for maximum power from every drop of fuel—and every maker of internal combustion airplane engines adopted the valve-in-head principle.

And more recently—with the hope that higher-octane fuels will become available—a lot of automotive engine designers are taking a new look at the valve-in-head idea.

But just for the record, we'd like to point out that Buick got there first.

And ever since, Buick has gone steadily ahead, building up a name as "valve-in-headquarters." Buick engineers reshaped pistons to put Fireball wallop in these engines. They stepped up compression ratios as fast as better fuels came along.

So perhaps you'll want to remember, when you hear the term "valve-in-head," that this is the type of power that made Buick famous.

If others want to climb on the bandwagon, we say "more power to them"—and no pun is intended.

But Buick has been doing more with valve-in-head right from the start.

And—we might add—it stands to reason that Buick is not through making this type of engine better and better.

Money Owed Uncle Sam May be Taken Out of Dividend

More than a half million veterans who owe the government money as the result of overpayments on subsistence allowances or other veterans benefits or defaults on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration may find all or part of their share of the forthcoming special dividend payment on National Service Life Insurance deducted to cover their debts, VA said this week.

VA estimated that somewhere between 20 and 30 million dollars of such debts may be collected from the NSLI dividends.

All of the individuals concerned are aware of their indebtedness to the government and know that it is deductible from other VA payments to which they may be entitled, the agency said.

Some 600,000 veterans are currently indebted to VA for a total of about 70 million dollars. The bulk of this amount constitutes overpayments on subsistence allowances for veterans taking educational courses or training under the GI Bill.

Other types of indebtedness are overpayments on pension, compensation or readjustment allowances and losses made good to lenders on defaulted GI loans.

A considerable number of veterans are now paying indebtedness by having deductions from their monthly checks. When the overpayment is wiped out, as it may be by the dividend deductions, there will be no further monthly withholding.

Two Tech Grads Set Up Factory In Guatemala

Two Texas Tech graduates who now live in Guatemala are doing their best to give feminine wardrobes a Latin American look. Joyce Dobkins and Louise Ohenbush, Texas born and bred, have set up their own textile factory in Guatemala City and are already importing skirts, blouses and other wearing apparel to the United States bearing their "May-atex" label. The trade name is a combination of the Mayan native weaving process and—naturally—Texas.

The 100-loom factory which the two Texans are setting up is the latest step on their pathway which began several years ago when they first entered the textile business. Miss Ohlenbush was visiting friends in the Central American capital and became interested in the native weaving process. She had studied textile weaving and design in home economics at Texas Tech and wasn't pleased with the native arcraft.

After trying the home factory system for a while, the girls decided to set up their own plant. The enlarged capacity should permit them to double their previous monthly output of 4,000 yards.

Miss Dobkins graduated from Tech in 1934. Her partner is a Tech graduate of 1940 and former school teacher at New Braunfels.

Another Reason Why VOTE Re-Allocation

- During the past few years Hall County's expenses have almost doubled as in everything else.
- The General Fund is hardest hit and must have an increase of fully fifty per cent until costs go down.
- State and county taxes are based on the same valuation of property. If valuations should be raised fifty per cent to help the county, State taxes go up in the same proportion.

For example: the 1949 State tax levy in Hall county totals $51,563.43. A fifty per cent increase in valuations would add $25,781.71 to the above levy. Re-allocation prevents the increase in the State levy; or, saves you that amount.

We called this election because it is the only lawful way by which we can save the people such items as this year after year and keep tax rates down to the very least possible limit.

THIS SAVING IS YOURS BY LAW PROVIDED YOUR VOTE IS FAVORABLE TO RE-ALLOCATION

LOW GAP, NC, SENDS FOREST TO CITY

Galax king of America, T. N. Woodruff of Low Gap, N. C., holds some of the little heart-shaped leaves which are the foundation of a thriving business. Woodruff shipped the first galax leaves to New York 42 years ago. Now he collects and ships all kinds of floral products of the mountain forests. A galaxer, picker of the leaves, if he is good, can pick 10,000 of the leaves a day and earn about $7. Galaxing is a family occupation, and at night the whole family of the Low Gap average household ties the leaves into hands of 25 leaves each.

WITHIN A FEW WEEKS an army of mountaineers will move over the hills of Grandfather country, N. C., gathering the greenery which, come Santa Claus time, will bring the forests into America's cities. And T. N. Woodruff, the galax king of America, who founded this unusual business 42 years ago, will put his evergreen house into full-time operation. By then, about all Low Gap's 301 population will be engaged in the work.

Harvest of the galax leaves—the galax is a waxy, low-growing, heart-shaped evergreen—is a highly seasonal occupation, and an onerous one, but one still highly prized by your southern Appalachian. For thousands of them, it provides a uniquely convenient job and often the only cash they see in the whole year.

T. N. Woodruff started the thing in 1907 when he visited a florist friend in New York and took him a few bunches of galax leaves as a gift. The florist immediately placed orders for all Woodruff would supply. The little business grew to envelop not only galax, but other greenery, such as balsam "sprays," oak leaves, laurel (ivy), boxwood clippings, lycodium. Shipped all over the world, it is made into everything from funeral wreaths to decorative "ropes" used to decorate stores and streets at Christmas time. Low Gap, N. C., quickly became the evergreen capital of America, and there is hardly a town in America with a population of 10,000 which has not done business with Woodruff. Hundreds of miles of the "Christmas rope" is made and shipped each year. The galax king also invented methods of "fixing" his greenery to make it last longer, and also dyeing those which tend to fade too quickly. There is a steady call for raw, or natural, greens, and these are stored in refrigeration to meet a year-around demand.

Cook Pork Well is Advise of Meat Connoisseurs

"Please pass the pork" is a familiar sentence around many dinner tables these days, as cold weather approaches. A juicy roast pork or pork chops are dishes that can't be beat, according to many connoisseurs of meat. However, pork can be dangerous if it isn't cooked long enough. So, be sure that pork passes the test of thorough cooking before you put it on the table. Otherwise, trichinosis may result, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Trichinosis is a big word, but the disease is easy to prevent. All you need to do is cook the meat until the pink color turns to white. When the change of color occurs, the meat is safe to eat. Farmers who raise hogs for sale as meat, and who feed them garbage, should cook the garbage first, or the meat may become contaminated. If butchered pork is stored at a temperature of five degrees above zero, Fahrenheit, for 20 days, trichinosis parasites should die, if there are any.

If a person eats a pork chop, for example, that contains trichinae, they are swallowed in the form of tiny capsules. In the intestines these capsules develop and discharge minute worms which are carried by the bloodstream to various parts of the body... settling in muscles, where after a period of time they become calcified and die.

What are the symptoms of trichinosis? Stomach upsets and muscular pains, a feeling of chilliness, sore throat, and sometimes considerable fever, are some of the signs. An acute attack of the illness lasts about one or two weeks. The disease has a low death rate, but recovery is fairly slow.

Postal Receipts Show Increase

September postal receipts in Texas rose 1 per cent from August and 13 per cent from September a year ago, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Denton showed the highest increase in postal receipts from August to September—45 per cent. Other large monthly increases were recorded by Lamesa, Borger, Cisco, Edinburg, Gainesville, and Gladewater.

August-to-September declines ranged from a fractional dip in Pampa to a 21 per cent drop in Bryan.

In comparison with September 1948, increases varied from fractional gains in Odessa and Port Arthur to a 91 per cent advance in Snyder.

Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Dryden and daughter, Carrol Ann visited in Stephenville over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cox. Dr. and Mrs. Dryden went to Dallas Saturday to see the SMU-Texas game in the Cotton bowl.

Vote To Re-Allocate County Taxes

A number of important issues will be presented for vote of the people in the November 8 election, and probably the most important one, as far as Hall County tax payers are concerned, has to do with the proposed re-allocation of Hall County taxes.

For two years, the county has been carrying on its business with an 80-cent tax levy per $100 property evaluation, not counting a special 15-cent tax for the Road and Bridge Fund voted by Hall County three decades ago. The county will still operate on the 80-cent level if the proposal is approved—the only difference being the allocation of the money to the various funds.

The present quotas have become obsolete, and the method of allocation does not serve the needs of the county. Therefore, the Commissioners Court decided a change was necessary; and the officials chose the better of two possible methods of placing the money where it is most suited.

The chief reason for the changing of allocations is to increase the flow into the General Fund, which currently is inadequate to handle its expenditures. This can be accomplished by taking away part of the money allocated to other departments; and at the same time without adding expense to the tax payer. But, according to the State Constitution, the change must be approved by the tax payers.

The only other means would be to increase the property valuation. If the latter alternative were used, Hall County property tax payers would stand to pay an estimated increase of $25,781 in state taxes, since the state levies would increase at the same rate as would the county rate.

The county officials have acted in good faith. Their proposal will save Hall County money. Thus the county advance tax payers will be doing themselves a favor by going to the polls Nov. 8 and voting FOR the re-allocation of county taxes.

Press Paragraphs—

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

The Service Row

Hearings on our defense unification policy have been recessed until the next session of Congress, and the public will probably hear little more about it in the interval. But the airing before the House Armed Service committee has settled little or nothing so far; indeed, the rivalries and jealousies between the three arms seem as intense as ever. The name-calling which went on inside and out of the committee room added nothing to the spirit of harmony which must precede any proper unification and cooperation.

In such disputes it is hard for Americans to keep from taking sides. Most normal men in the United States have a close connection, through actual service themselves or through service connections of near relatives with one of the armed forces. And a feeling of affection or one's buddies, under the most harrowing experiences men have ever been called upon to endure is natural, and we should say, commendable. Also, pride in the arm in which one has served or is serving, is equally commendable.

But there must be a point where such pride and love for one's own gives way to the unflagging devotion to country. And this love of country must take precedence over affection for a part of the over-all program of defense of country.

As a matter of fact, much of the subject matter of the hearings before the House committee was far too technical and obscure for the average man to judge on its merits. Most of the information aired was unsafe for public consumption, since publication of it would have reached enemy hands, only to be used against all of us if and when the international situation reaches the shooting stage.

Meanwhile, the nation's defense chiefs are not a bunch of "dopes," regardless of what they had to say about each other. Each is an expert in his own field, and all are devoted and patriotic Americans—facts which will be adequately established if we drift into a state of emergency. So, after all the

Bombing Contests Held at Tuscon

The Strategic Air Command held its annual bombing competition October 3-10, with Davis Menthan Air Force Base, Tucson, Ariz., acting as host to the units of the Eighth and Fifteenth Air Forces.

Winning the SAC bombing competition is tantamount to taking top honors in the United States Air Force and the world (in bombing category), and elite crews from the units charged with strategic bombing operations test their efficiency in visual and radar bombing. SAC winners represent the ultimate in professional abilities.

Walker Air Base placed first in the crew bracket last year and came through in 1949 with numerous Ascenzi, bombardier on the Nelson crew took top honors in the visual bombing; 1st Lt. Norman P. Borzanti, radar observer on the same crew, scored fourth in the radar category.

Crews from all the heavy and medium bomber units (including B-36s, B-50s, and B-29s) of the command (Eighth and Fifteenth Air Forces) flew a course approximately 1200 miles, dropping three dummy bombs on the desert ranges and making radar runs on San Francisco and Sacramento, Calif., and Phoenix, Ariz. Photographs were taken and umpires rode with the crews and observed the hits from the ground.

First place for the composite score was carried off by the 93rd Bomb Wing, Castel Air Force Base, Merced, Calif.; second by Walker; third by the 43rd Bomb Wing of Davis-Menthan AFB, Tucson, Ariz. In the crew-winning bracket

This Week in WASHINGTON

FOR THE FIRST TIME in a decade, the house has voted an advance in social security extending coverage to approximately 11 million more workers and almost doubling the benefits. The final vote on the measure was 333 to 14, which is a record and a definite answer to the so-called "welfare state" critics.

House membership which is directly responsible to the people is possibly closer to the grass roots thinking than those who have raised the issue of "statism" and "welfare state."

Although the measure has been passed by only the house, it is most important, since it sets the bill up for consideration by the senate, as is, at the second session of this congress which convenes next January.

What the house bill does is raise benefits from 50 to 150 per cent, or an average of about 70 per cent. For those already retired, the average primary payment goes up from $26 a month to $44. The bill credits veterans with military service time from 1940 to 1947 and lifts the payroll base from $3,000 a year to $3,600, raising payroll tax on both worker and employer to 1 1/2 per cent in 1950, 2 per cent in 1952, 2 1/2 per cent in 1960, 3 per cent in 1965 and 3 1/4 per cent in 1970.

Old age payment for those who retire after this year is doubled with a bottom payment of $25 (it's now $10). Top family payment will increase to $150 (now $85). Totally and permanently disabled workers would be paid the same benefits they would draw if old enough to retire.

The new coverage reaches four and one-half million self-employed, four million who work for states and cities, 600,000 in non-profit work and a million house servants. Agricultural processing workers off the farm are included in the bill.

In the meantime, as the congress inched toward adjournment, this house-passed measure was pointed to by administration leaders as a victory for President Truman. The White House issued a summary of accomplishments of the 81st congress in which these measures were listed as carrying out the President's pledges:

1—Revision of the unification act; 2—European recovery program; 3—Reciprocal trade agreements; 4—Ratification of the North Atlantic Treaty; 5—Extension of the military assistance program; 6—Extension of the housing program; 7—Extension of the minimum wage act; 8—Extension of the commodity control act; 9—Extension of the minimum wage act; 10—Extension of the minimum wage act.

Some of these measures advocated by Rep. Wells as Democratic, admitted they were the president's. Where the "Fair Deal" bogged down most civil rights, a federal F.P.C., and anti-lynching. Administration measures marked "pending" were military training health program with the St. Lawrence project, establishment of a federal public works department of public tax revision. Other measures as repeal of oleo tax aid to education, but house of congress adjourned for the second session.

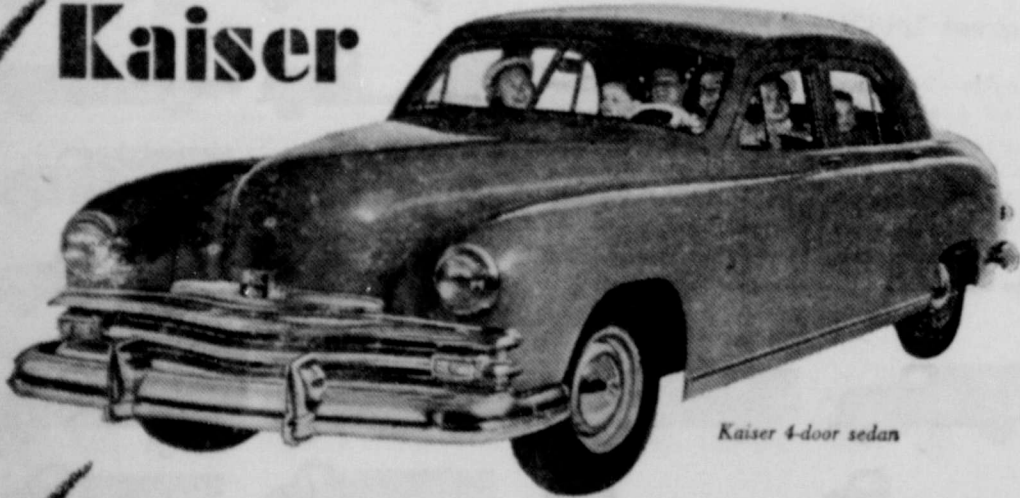

Most outstanding the administration attempted repeal of Hartley act and the down of the Brantley program. So of split in the farm congress, however, as happen in the second with 1950 an election.

The steel and coal causing worry to a leaders. However, it was committed to a duction program and come of $300,000,000. seable future, he with these strikes to plant into a crippling industry.

The mask was designed at the request of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS) to provide an inexpensive, practical, and efficient mask for passengers in planes flying above normal altitudes. Final tests of the new breathing device are being conducted by the Air Material Command's Aero-Medical Laboratory at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, at Dayton, Ohio.

Essentially, the new oxygen mask consists of a porous paper face piece, thick pliable plastic tube which connects with the plane's oxygen supply. The wearer inhales oxygen from the bellows, and exhales gasses which escape through the porous paper. The mask is held in position over the wearer's nose and mouth by an elastic band that stretches around the head.

Light, compact, and easy to wear, the mask fits into a five-by-seven-and-a-half-inch flat envelope. It can be used with standard constant-flow oxygen equipment, and is effective up to 25,000 feet for from four to five hours.

At present, conventional rubber oxygen masks are supplied to MATS' passengers. They must be checked out, fitted, checked in, and sterilized after using. The new masks will require no prior fitting; a supply can be kept in the aircraft at all times, and they can be thrown away after using.
