Bedford Smith is New Leader of Ministers Group

Minister Bedford W. Smith of the Christian Church was chosen to succeed Minister Gray Carter as leader of the Ministers of the Memphis Churches for the next six months at a meeting held Monday morning at the Baptist Church.

J. O. Strother was appointed to continue as secretary for the group. Plans for the Church Census were also perfected at this meeting.

Due to illness and prior engagements some of the group were unable to attend the fellowship dinner.

Regular meetings of the group are held each first Monday of the month.

Hall County Club Members to Enter Judging Contest at Fat Stock Show

Winfred Russell of Estelline, Archie and Leon Martin of Newlin, Hall County 4-H Club members, will enter the Future Farmer and 4-H Club grass judging contest, Saturday, February 28, which is to be held in conjunction with the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

Texas Soil Conservation District Supervisors in Cooperation with the Extension Service, Dept. of Vocational Agriculture and the Soil Conservation Service, Charlie Hickman, assistant county agricultural agent and coach of the team, will accompany the boys to Fort Worth. "These contests are relatively new and are being conducted to teach rural youth the value of our range plants and to stimulate interest and concern on the part of the public for proper range and pasture management," W. B. Hooser stated. Every Hall County 4-H member has had an opportunity to become familiar with range plants under the program of Hooser and Hickman. Over 150 members have availed themselves of the opportunity to study grasses. In addition to the young men, many farmers and ranchmen have also shown interest in this grass work.

YOUNG ACTORS—Above is a scene from "Roots in the Soil," feature moving picture which will be shown to farm families in Memphis Feb. 7. The show will be one of the entertainments of the Harrison Hardware Co. during their annual "John Deere Day."

(Continued from page 1) requests as they could until the terracing season ended, explaining that the demand was the greatest he had ever seen. The number of days remaining in what is called the "terracing season" will be determined by the time the late winter rains begin.

All terracing machinery in the county is the busiest it has ever been, according to reports. Cawfield Runs Lines Guy Cawfield, of the Hall County Soil Conservation District, stated this morning that personnel of his office had been devoting most of their time since Jan. 1 to running of terrace lines. Approximately 29 farms have been covered by a crew of four men from the office, and they have handled around 150 miles of terrace lines, Cawfield estimated.

The lack of moisture is in the forefront of discussions as farmers make their plans for 1950, officials of the different agencies stated. The chiseling and terraces will help prevent loss of moisture when rains fall, and will aid in preventing land from blowing.

Scouts who are taking an active part in the campaign include Robert Breedlove Jr., James A. duddell, Cy Gibson, James Diamond, James Moss, Don Howell, Jimmy Hill, Ray Evans and Roddy Bice. Both the Rotary and Lions Club devoted their program to the March of Dimes drive. Proceeds from the basketball game played Tuesday night will be turned over to the Hall County chapter to be placed in the fund to aid the fight against the disease.

'John Deere Day' Set for Feb. 7th

Date of the annual "John Deere Day" for area farmers has been set for Tuesday, Feb. 7. Carl Harrison, one of the owners of Harrison Hardware Co., announced this week.

Again this year the implement company will serve a free meal at noon to all farmers who attend. A free picture show will begin promptly at 1:30 p. m. at the Ritz Theatre in Memphis. Feature picture will be "Roots in the Soil," starring Richard Travis and Rochelle Hudson. Other interesting and educational pictures will be shown, Mr. Harrison stated. Full details of the day's entertainment will be announced next week.

A dance will be held Monday evening, Jan. 30, by the Simmons-Noel Post of the American Legion and all monies taken from ticket sales will be handed to Chairman Lemons. Tickets for the dance are now available. A six-piece orchestra will furnish music.

Any person who desired to contribute was requested to mail his or her check to Chairman Lemons or hand it to T. E. Noel at the First National Bank.

New officers and directors for the coming year will be elected, and plans will be formulated for organization of a club for Memphis. Tom Pierce, 1949 manager of the Memphis Owls, stated Wednesday that plans had been made for eight teams to be included in the Red River Valley League next season. He said that all fields will be lighted for night play, and that each of the eight teams will meet an opponent three times each week. First league game of the 1950 season will be played Sunday, April 23. First night game is scheduled for Tuesday, May 16. Forty-two regular league games will be played during the schedule. First play-off series will consist of three games. Final play-off series winner will be team which takes three-out-of-five games.

Average Span of Life Is 29 Years Above 1900 Figures

In a review of medical progress during the past half century, Dr. T. C. Terrell, Fort Worth, chairman of the board of trustees, State Medical Association of Texas, declared last week that the free medical system has increased the average life span from 41.7 years in 1900 to nearly 70 years in 1950.

"Although death cannot be prevented, it can be postponed. Man is born doomed to die. At the present time in the United States man has the longest life span than at any other time in history. In 1900 life expectancy at birth was 41.7 years. In 1930 it was 59.5 years. In 1940 it was 63.8 years and at the end of 1949 it probably reached 68 years. The true measure of medical progress and care is not how many people die, but how long they live before they die.

"There is much difference between the quality and quantity of medical care in 1900 and 1950 brands of medicine as between the 1900 and 1950 models of cars," Dr. Terrell pointed out. "As new drugs are discovered, new preventive techniques de-

Sale of Savings Bonds for 1949 Total $ 367,126

The people of Hall County invested $367,126.00 in U. S. Savings Bonds during 1949, according to the annual sales report received today by James F. Smith, county Savings Bonds chairman, from Nathan Adams of Dallas, state chairman. This compares with sales of $439,127.75 for 1948. Of the 1949 total, Series E, the so-called "people's bond" accounted for $310,387.50, as compared with $236,627.75 E bond sales in 1948. Series F and G sales were $56,738.50 as compared with $202,500.00 in 1948.

Total sales for the entire state were $191,499,089, as compared with $196,448,280 in 1948, Mr. Adams' report said. This is a decline of 2.5 per cent. However, Mr. Adams declared that sales last year were highly satisfactory in view of economic trends and because of a 3.9 per cent increase in the sale of E bonds, from $129,591,216 in 1948 to $145,114,738 in 1949. Series F and G bonds accounted for $46,384,351 of the state's sales total for last year.

Mr. Adams said that the people of Texas today hold more than $1.5 billion in Savings Bonds, a substantial share of which are owned by citizens of this county. These savings, he added, give the community, as well as the individual owners, a high degree of financial stability.

The first running of the Kentucky Derby, at Louisville, occurred in 1873.

Degeneration of People Not Same, Says Authority

"We do not all grow, develop, mature—nor do our organs degenerate—at the same rate," says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Today, a man of 60 may be as young, vigorous and vital as the average man of 40. On the other hand, he may look and act like a man of 80, old, weak and miserable. A man of 60 may have a 40 year old heart, 50 year old kidneys and an 80 year old liver.

"The physical changes which come with age alone are not entirely decline, either. Speed of reaction does not diminish, but endurance increases with practice, and as strength declines, judgement increases. Automobile driving ability, for example, improves from 24 to 43 in the average individual and at 65 is superior to that of the 20's. "Normal human beings can grow mentally at any age. The worst of all old-age diseases is neglect. Many factors that help make a healthy, happy old age are (1) eating right; (2) regular physical examinations and (3) keeping physically and mentally active without overtaxing ourselves. There is a rapidly growing branch of medicine, known as geriatrics, that specializes in disease and conditions of the ageing. "Don't wait until you deteriorate—consult your physician now he concludes.

Only Ford in its field offers a V-8... a new, "hushed" V-8 engine (the type used in America's costliest cars). It's so quiet you can speak in whispers. Yet it sells for hundreds less than all other "eights"... even hundreds less than most "sixes."

Foxhall Motor Co. Places New Ford Trucks on Display

The new 1950 Ford truck models are now being displayed at Foxhall Motor Co., local dealer. The company is using their showroom for the purpose, J. D. Ball, manager of the truck and fleet department of Foxhall Motor Co., announced last week.

The 1950 line, Mr. Ball said, offers more than 175 models, a considerable increase over the 1949 line-up, representing the best selection of trucks in Ford history.

Featured in the 1950 model trucks are 21 engineering, design and manufacturing advancements contributing to more efficient, economical performance and low-maintenance costs.

Special attention has been paid to engineering improvements contributing to longer life.

The 1950 models are powered by the 226 cubic inch, 95 horsepower six cylinder Ford truck engine; the 239 cubic inch 100 horsepower V-8; the 337 cubic inch 145 horsepower V-8 and a recently developed 254 cubic inch 110 horsepower six. This engine in the F-6 series is the most powerful six-cylinder engine ever built by Ford.

A new four-speed synchro-silent transmission that eliminates double clutching is standard equipment on the 254 and an extra heavy duty clutch is included.

Outstanding features of the 1950 models include 15"x5" rear brakes with aluminum shoes on F-7 models. They have a double cylinder and self-energizing hydraulic actuation.

Full air brakes of the two-shoe type are now available for F-8 series models. Rear brake size is 14"x5 1/2".

Filling the special requirements of many truck users are the 176-inch wheelbase now available on the F-5 and F-6 series for bodies in the 14 foot range. In the F-7 and F-8 series there is now a 147-inch wheelbase model for tractors and dump trucks and a 178-inch wheelbase for 14 foot bodies.

Forward control parcel delivery models are available in the F-3 series with wheelbase lengths of 104 and 122 inches and in the F-5 series with 134-inch wheelbase, the latter on a special order

Some fellows think that the more you pay for a camera, the better pictures you get. They are often amazed to find that it is possible to get just as poor results with a good camera as it is with a cheap one.

Here are a few tips from Outdoor Photographer Ormal Sprungman which will do credit to your camera, no matter its price.

Stay within the shooting limits of your outfit. If your lens is rather slow, don't try filming in weak light or snaphooting indoors without a flash or photoflood. If your top shutter speed is 1/1000 seconds or less, don't expect to stop pheasants or ducks in flight, or leaping fish in mid-air.

The first accessory you should add is a filter, since nearly every outdoor subject in black and white is vastly improved by the use of the yellow, red or green filters. As a starter, the yellow filter should be adequate. It darkens blue skies, enhances fluffy clouds, and gives normal color correction. The red filter over-corrects on basis. The units are offered with chassis, grille, windshield and front quarter windows. Special body builders in all parts of the country supply a wide range of bodies from 250 to 450 cubic foot capacity.

The F-8 now has a single speed rear axle as standard equipment with a two-speed axle also available.

All models have spacious cabs providing living room comfort for the safety and convenience of drivers.

A hypoid single-speed rear axle is offered for F-6 series and all models have the gyro-grip clutch, roll action steering and sturdy quadrax rear axles.

The F-7 and F-8 series have a double channel frame for adequate support of the heaviest loads.

A new heavy duty three-speed synchro-silent transmission is optional for series F-1 through F-3.

Gross vehicle weight ratings for the 1950 line range from 4,700 pounds in the F-1 to 22,000 pounds in the F-8 straight truck and 39,000 pounds when used with tractor and trailer.

the blues giving blacker skies and whitening red objects, often resulting in dramatic effects. Since both discs hold back a certain amount of light, it is necessary to open the lens one stop farther for the medium-yellow filter and two stops for the red. Deeper reds require even larger stops. The green filter is the landscape filter, brightening green foliage which might otherwise record in darker shades.

If your lens is not otherwise protected from sun glare, buy a lens shade. It will repay you many times over in sparkling pictures, and enable you to take those impressive silhouette pictures, which often must be shot almost directly into the sun.

There is no excuse for fuzzy, out-of-focus photographs with a ground-glass focusing reflex camera, but with less expensive outfits, don't guess at distances. Measure them. If you can't afford a pocket range finder, carry a 15-foot length of string, knotted at one-foot intervals to help determine distance.

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. ### Book Concerning Pioneer Days, by Charles W. Howe, Has Been Published author of the book is Willis Erowe of San Diego, who was a resident of the county in the late '80s and '90s, most of that time serving as a printer on the Hall County Record, which was established in 1899 by J. C. Holmes at Salisburg.

Author of The Diamond... the title of a book just by the Naylor Company in Antonio, and is priced at per book.

This was Hall County's newspaper which was sold in Memphis in 1890 to Eugene de Baurenfiend, who later was shot by Wolfarth, manager of the Hall County Record, which was a goodly portion of Don Collinsworth and Hall county.

Howe will be remembered by many Hall Countians, as he was speaker at an Old Settlers reunion here some 10 years ago and made a return visit in his book, he gives an interesting account of early days in the section of the county, a section of Hall County people, an interesting running story of the Diamond Tail, was because the ranch foreman the early days was Chowning Embree, who had lost one leg and to use a wooden leg or this did not prevent him from doing a real cowboy's work. earned him the nickname of Amberleg.

The state's 13,000 school board members should be kept as well informed about educational trends as teachers, Prof. A. L. Chapman, University of Texas educational administration instructor, stated last week.

"Better informed school board members can establish a climate for improved education by functioning efficiently as lay policy-making bodies," he asserted.

As a means of strengthening and unifying board members, Dr. Chapman recommended that they join the Texas Association of School Boards, a section of the Texas State Teachers Association. Members of the school board association receive in-service education.

Sorghum Silage Best for Steers, Experiment Shows

A check-up at the end of the second period of the experiment to evaluate sorghum silage and cottonseed hulls in yearling steer feeding at Texas Tech shows that silage-fed steers out-gained the hull-fed lot.

Dean W. L. Stangel of the division of agriculture said results of the entire 56-day period gave a 2.72 pound daily gain for lots fed on silage. Hull-fed steers had a daily average gain of 2.18 pounds.

Sixty yearlings are being used in the research program, which began Nov. 22. It will end in February. The steers are divided into six lots, and the only diet variety in five lots, has come from silage or hulls. The sixth lot was fed hulls without concentrates, while the others had the same concentrates and alfalfa hay as supplement.

During the initial 28-day period, a straight sorghum silage diet proved to be the cheapest. The early report showed the 100 per cent silage-fed lot gained at a cost of $11.20 per hundred. A 100 per cent diet of cottonseed hulls cost the most—$13.04 per hundred.

Costs for the second period have not been determined.

Agent Lists Ways Of Controlling Lice on Cattle

During the winter and spring, cattle lice cause more injury to animals than at any other time of the year, according to information released this week by W. B. Hooser, county agent, who warned that treatment should not be delayed.

Cattle infested with lice are very unthrifty and can't keep up their own weight, the county agent said. Another symptom is rough, coarse hair, and sometimes large bare patches appear on the back and body where the animal has rubbed against fences and trees to relieve the irritation caused by the lice. Cattlemen were urged to be on the lookout for symptoms in their herds.

"Both rotenone and DDT are good treatment for cattle lice," Hooser said. "Whether you use rotenone or DDT, two treatments, 14 days apart, must be given to control the lice successfully. You can mix a spray, or dip with one pound of five per cent rotenone and 10 pounds of wettable sulphur with 100 gallons of water. If you use DDT, mix four pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT with 100 gallons of water. You'll also control lice when you treat cattle for hornflies in the spring with 25 per cent DDT. No lice treatment is necessary the following fall unless louse-infested animals are added to the herd." For details on controlling cattle lice and other external parasites, cattlemen should see the county agent and ask for a copy of Extension Publication MS-760, titled "External Parasites of Cattle and Their Control."

A Grass-Roots Country

The government of this nation is dominated by the small towns and the rural areas—not by the great city populations. That striking fact is developed in an analysis of the United States Congress published in the December issue of The American Press.

The analysis shows that 76 out of the 96 Senators—79 per cent—are elected by rural majorities, and that 54 per cent of the Representatives represent more rural counties than urban counties. For the purpose of the study, a rural county was considered to be one in which there is no community with more than 10,000 population.

The small number of Senators who represent predominately urban constituencies mostly come from states with very small land areas and concentrated industry, such as Rhode Island and Connecticut.

The study shows further that 42 Senators and 132 Representatives have a weekly newspaper as their home town paper. It then said: "All of those from rural areas depend on weekly newspapers as one of their chief barometers of the opinions of their constituents."

The point is that, in spite of the growth of the cities, this is still a grass-roots country. The people on the farms, in the villages, and in the small municipalities have the dominant voice when it comes to electing the men who make our laws. The future of America is in their hands.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

CAN'T TURN BACK NOW
That there are many faults in the administration of the farm subsidy laws, in the laws which govern unions and in which apply to capital, to cooperatives, to shipping, to air lines, to the postal department, and anything else you may mention, seems only a statement of fact. This was inevitable when the government began to throw its weight around a hundred years ago, to help this and that segment of business. Now the government is in everything and you have an economy guided out of Washington. We couldn't begin to unravel the maze and re-establish business on a free-flowing commercial basis and we doubt if anyone else could if they would. We have gone a long ways and there is not much turning back now it seems. That is the outlook in America at the beginning of the year 1950.—The Floyd County Hesperian.

ISN'T THIS CRAZY? OR ARE WE?
We suppose there was a time when nations hammered their swords into plow shares and other things useful in peace, but today we are so busy and so efficient that instead of doing anything foolish like that we tow a battleship containing tons of scarce steel out into the ocean and sink it. We then turn around and grieve that our iron and steel supply is running out and worry what we are going to do about it.—The Karnes County News.

THE SENATE MUST DECIDE
The United States Senate is being called upon this month to make a decision in an issue that reaches down into the American philosophy of life.
The issue, in brief, is: Should one industry be allowed to use the federal tax power to hobble a competing industry? Should not all industries, like all citizens, be equal before the law?
The industry affected is the margarine industry. Over a period of years certain elements in the dairy industry, on one pretext or another, have succeeded in loading down the margarine industry with a burden of crippling taxes. As a consequence, consumers have been compelled to pay at least 10c a pound more for yellow margarine than they should. Margarine manufacturers contend that their product is an important part of the nation's food supply, that it is nutritive and packed with vitamins, and they have produced scientific proof to support their claims. A pound of yellow margarine contains as many calories as a pound of butter.

SQUABBLE IN THE PACHYDERM TENT

Last spring, by a 3 to 1 vote the House passed a bill to repeal all taxes and license fees on white or yellow margarine. This bill, with a single minor amendment, is now before the Senate. It is in the people's interest that it be vetoed upon its merits, without the addition of amending.
This is an issue on which all consumers and vegetable oil producers can unite. Ask your Senators to support this bill and make yellow margarine free of discriminatory restrictions.—The Munday Times.

Higher and Higher
One point of President Truman's proposal to Congress was overlooked, or confused by many of us wage earners. The President asked for a $3 billion dollar increase in social security payroll taxes.

This social security increase is not the increase which went into effect January 1 of this year. It is another one which the President wants to go into effect for 1951.
His new proposal would increase the payroll tax from 1 1/2 per cent to 2 per cent on employers and employees and he would apply the tax to the first $4,800 earnings instead of the $3,000.
He also asked for another payroll tax of one-fourth of 1 per cent on employers and employees starting next January 1 to finance the setting up of machinery for socialized medicine. He asked for $250,000 in fiscal 1951 to lay the groundwork for the medical plan.
The payroll tax does not figure in the budget and the proposed increase would not reduce the deficit.—Ochiltree County Herald.
The National cemetery at Vicksburg, Miss., contains 119,75 acres.
The country of Mexico is four times as large as Spain.

This Week in WASHINGTON

THE MEMBERS of the 81st congress back at work in their refurbished quarters in house and senate chambers face a rough schedule of legislation, much of it hold-over from the first session and possessing a definite political implication.
Some changes have taken place since the 81st congress was first sworn in January 3, 1948, and a year has seen many new faces and new alignments.
Some of the statistical facts about this congress which might be well to consider are: the house has the largest Democratic majority, 262, since the 77th congress of 1941-43. The largest Democratic majority of any congress on record was that of the 75th congress when that party had 333 majority in the lower house. The GOP minority in the house is 171. The senate has 54 Democrats and 42 Republicans. This is nine more Democrats than sat in the senate of the 80th congress.

The four oldest members of congress are Rep. Robert L. Droughton (D-N.C.), 83; Sen. Francis Sabbath (D-Ill.), 82; Sen. Francis Green (D-R.I.), 81; and Rep. Charles A. Eaton (R-N.J.), 80. Four youngest members are: Rep. Lloyd M. Bentsen, Jr. (D-Tex.), 27; Rep. Hugo S. Sims (D-S.C.), 27; Rep. John C. Davies (D-N.Y.), 28; and Rep. James E. Noland (D-Ind.), 28. Youngest Senator is Russell Long (D-La.), 30.

Ranking Republicans in period of service are Sen. Arthur A. Vandenberg (R-Mich.), and Rep. Daniel A. Reed (R-N.Y.). Ranking Democrats are Sen. Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee and Adolph J. Sabbath of Illinois. Congressman Sabbath is dean of the congress, his continuous service dating from March 4, 1907.

Vocations of house membership listed are 46 in agriculture; 114 in business and banking; 10 in medicine or dentistry; 314 in politics; 247 in law; 47 in journalism and 59 in teaching.
Vocations of the senate membership include 66 in law; 22 in business or banking; 17 in agriculture; 89 in politics; 11 in journalism; 15 in teaching; two in medicine and dentistry and one in acting.

There are 213 veterans in house, 118 from World War I, 77 from World War II, with 11 from the Spanish-American War. In the senate there are 47 veterans, 36 from World War I, 10 from World War II. There are 11 from the Spanish-American War and one, Sen. Guy Gillette, served in the Spanish-American War and World War I.
Average age of house members is 51 and average age of senate members is 58.5. Largest age group in house was 76 members between 40 and 49 years. Seventy were between 50 and 54. Largest age group is 21 between 50 and 54 and next, 18 between 55 and 59 but there were 11 between 70 and 74.

During adjournment there were three vacancies which have not been filled in the house: George J. Bates (Mass.) was killed in a plane crash; Martin Gorski (Iowa) died; and J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) resigned after being sentenced to prison.

There are no changes in the line-up of congressional leadership this session. In the senate Kenneth McKellar (D-Tenn.) and president pro tem; Sen. Sam Lucas of Illinois is majority whip as well as chairman of the majority policy committee and of the Levitic conference. Sen. Francis Myers, Pennsylvania is majority whip; Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry (Neb.) is minority leader; Sen. Everett Saltonstall (R-Mass.) majority whip. Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) is chairman of the industry policy committee, and additic Eugene D. Millikin (R-Calif.) is chairman of the Republican conference.

In the house, the speaker is Democratic Sam Rayburn of Texas and the majority leader is Democrat John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, with J. Percy Foreman, Tennessee the majority whip. Congressman Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania is chairman of the Democratic conference. Congressman Joseph W. Martin, of Massachusetts is minority leader. Leslie C. Arends of Illinois is majority whip. Congressman Woodruff of Michigan is chairman of the Republican conference.

★ Leeuwenhoek, in 1683, was the first to disturb the privacy of the teeming bustle of the unseen world. The "wretched wee beasties" cavorting innocently under his lens were later indicted and convicted by Koch and Pasteur. Unbeknown to Leeuwenhoek, he had discovered a vicious and unseen world of killers, now known as bacteria, or germs.
The span of time between Leeuwenhoek and Pasteur was almost 200 years. Only an average lifetime has passed since Pasteur's experiments, during which practically all we know about disease and its treatment has been discovered. # Bureau of Reclamation Approves Water Dam Built Around Canadian River

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A Bureau of Reclamation report, outlining proposals for developing water supplies for elevations in the water-short Panhandle Area of Texas, has been sent to the States of Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, and to Federal agencies for comment. Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Chapman said today.

The report, he said, points to possible relief to the cities of Amarillo, Dalhart, and Dalworthington Falls, and irrigation purposes. Communities now obtain water by pumping from wells, inadequate supplies present a threat to the economic and social development of the area.

ROMANCE . . . Bemedaled Audie Murphy, most decorated soldier in World War II, and film actress Wanda Hendrix beamed with happiness as they obtained their wedding license. They were married later, of course.

have indicated clearly the need for this development," Commissioner Straus said. "The project cities now obtain their water supply by pumping water from water-bearing strata which are inadequate for present demands. Water tables are dropping and the present rates of withdrawal cannot be sustained. The Canadian River is the only available permanent source of surface water supply that can be developed at a reasonable cost.

Sanford Dam, proposed to be constructed under the project, would be a rolled earth-fill structure with a crestline of 7,200 feet, a top width of 40 feet and a maximum height above stream bed of 186 feet. It would create a reservoir extending 20 miles upstream, which would have a total capacity of 1,956,000 acre-feet.

Water would be pumped from the reservoir and delivered by approximately 275 miles of pipeline to the 11 municipalities in the project area. A total of 15 pumping plants would be required at various points along the pipeline. Effluent from the sewage treatment plants of two of the municipalities would be used to irrigate an ultimate total of over 20,000 acres. This type of irrigation is already practiced in the area, and has been found to be thoroughly successful and is approved by health authorities.

The estimated cost of the project is $84,656,000, largely allocated to municipal and industrial water supply, with lesser allocation to irrigation, flood control, fish and wildlife propagation.

Q—I am a World War II veteran receiving compensation for a service-connected disability. If I take a part-time job, will my compensation be discontinued? How long will I be permitted to take a course that will enable me to operate a farm of my own? no Street, Austin, Texas. He emphasized the fact that these applications must be postmarked before midnight, February 4, 1950. Gardner pointed out that these examinations present to the people the opportunity for permanent employment with the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare. He added that the Legislature had increased state salaries, so that the salaries for these jobs compare well with that of employment in private industry.

Director Lists Limited Number Of Job Openings

In a statement issued by Chas. S. Gardner, director of the Merit System Council, he stated that there are a limited number of job openings for positions with the Texas Employment Commission and the State Department of Public Welfare. The Merit System Council, Gardner declared, will give open competition examinations for these positions on February 25. Positions for which these examinations are given are located all over the state. These positions are Field Worker, Interviewer III, Stenographer, Clerk-Typist, Clerk IV and Apprentice Clerk. Examinations for two positions which are located in Austin, Texas, only, will also be given; these positions are Key Punch Operator and Assistant Business Manager. Qualifications for these positions vary from high school graduation to college graduation and experience.

Application to take these examinations must be made on an official blank, which may be obtained from any office of the Employment Commission or a Department of Public Welfare office, according to Mr. Gardner. These blanks may also be obtained by writing to the Merit System Council, 1000 San Antonio Costs allocated to municipal and irrigation water are reimbursable, with a two per cent interest charge on the unamortized balance of municipal water costs proposed. Explaining that this is the estimated current cost of money to the Federal Government, Commissioner Straus said that the cost allocated to the municipal and industrial water supply could be repaid over a period of 50 years. Costs allocated to irrigation would be repaid in full by the irrigators in 40 years, without interest.

RUSSIAN BALLERINA BORN TO DANCE

A star in silver slippers is Svetlana, at the pinnacle which some strive a lifetime to reach. The 16-year-old ballerina and Frank Schaufuss perform "Lac des Cygnes" with other members of the Metropolitan Ballet.

A FAMOUS PRIMA BALLERINA was once asked how long it takes to become a silver-slipped star. She replied "a little longer than a lifetime." Svetlana Berisova, apparently never heard the quotation, or if she did, she was undismayed. For Svetlana is a prima ballerina of London Metropolitan Ballet—at 16.

The talented dancer, born of Russian parents, was brought to the United States soon after her birth, where her family became naturalized American citizens. Svetlana was born into the ballet. Her mother and father both belonged to the profession. Before the youngster was firmly entrenched on two chubby feet, she began the rudiments of dancing. When she was old enough, Svetlana was sent to a professional children's school on Broadway, where she studied the ballet.

The ballerina's first American appearance was with the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. Two years ago she went to Europe with the Nouveau ballet and shortly afterwards joined the Metropolitan Ballet to become their prima ballerina.

Nicholas and Lillie Berisova, mother and father of the young star, play the leading roles in her training. Her father personally supervises Svetlana in the rigorous routine that is part of the price of stardom. Berisova is both tutor and dancing director for his daughter; her mother makes Svetlana's costumes.

The Metropolitan Ballet, in which the 16-year-old is the central figure, is a comparatively young company. It has received high praise in London ballet circles.
