Karen Andre Murder Trial Staged By Little Theatre

Did Karen Andre commit a murder, or not? That is the question that must be answered by the jury when the Little Theatre of Memphis presents "The Night of January 16th" in the District Courtroom, Monday and Tuesday night, October 30 and 31. The author, Ayn Rand, is also author of the book "Fountain Head," that was made into the movie with Gary Cooper. When the author first wrote the play she was afraid that the people might not like the idea of serving on the jury. This fear proved ungrounded for after the first few performances, hundreds were pulling wires and using influence to get to serve on the jury. The author used New York criminal law as the law for her play and therefore women will be allowed to serve on the jury. The play does not have a leading roll, strictly speaking, but Helen Boswell plays Karen Andre, the secretary on trial for the murder. The principal male rolls, the District Attorney and the Defense

75 Hall County Farmers Organize Alfalfa Growers Association Here

Seventy-five Hall County farmers met in the District Courtroom here last night to organize the Hall County Alfalfa Growers Association for securing a better outlet for the county's alfalfa. The group elected Del Wells, president; Harold Hodges, vice-president; and H. C. Fowler, secretary. Wells appointed C. L. Sloan, Clyde Reed, J. C. Chaudoin, W. C. Hignight, Herley Moreman and Otto Gardenhire to the board of directors. County Agent W. B. Hooser opened the meeting and stated the aims of the new organization. These are to secure a better price and a larger outlet for Hall County alfalfa and alfalfa seeds. "You farmers know that alfalfa is a good money crop, but if our acreage is to continue to grow we must get some more outlets for our crop," Hooser said. The Hall County alfalfa acreage has grown from some 4,000 acres to some 14,000 acres in the past few years. Another big hurdle for the organization is to get their seed price up to equal that in Oklahoma and Kansas. The Oklahoma and Kansas seed bring some 10 cents per pound more than the seed here, because they are in the central alfalfa belt. "Our seed is just as good as anybody's," and if we are going to continue to expand our alfalfa acreage, then we are going to have to get a higher price for our seed," Hooser said. The alfalfa growing area is divided into three areas, the northern, central and southern. Texas is in the southern area and the seed from this area will not bring as much as the central area seed. The Texas Panhandle is on a line with the Oklahoma area and there seems to be little reason for them to have to take a lower price for their seed than the Oklahoma growers. The organization is going to concentrate its efforts to get Hall County into the central section and therefore bring up the price of their seed. Hooser said that after the group got organized, then it could set about to get the many problems facing the growers settled. Another problem facing the growers is the certification of seed. Certified seed bring only two cents per pound more and some farmers doubted that the two cents extra per pound is worth the trouble it takes to get seed certified. The zoning of the alfalfa raisers was causing more comment than the certification. The question of where would the organization go to get some help in getting the zoning changed was asked of Walter Rogers, democratic candidate for congress from the 18th district. Rogers said that he did not know, but he would get the information for the board of directors in the next few days. The farmers then began to ask Rogers questions about the Government's cut in cotton exports and the drop in cotton prices. The Secretary of Agriculture cut the cotton export quota and forced the price of cotton down as much as $20 a bale in some places. Rogers said he had information from a reliable source that the cotton import was cut for security reasons. This source said that some of this cotton was getting behind the Iron Curtain. The cotton growers expressed the opinion that keeping American cotton would not keep the lint from behind the Iron Curtain. (Continued on Page 8)

Monday Services For Mrs. J. E. Gray

Funeral services were held Monday in the Murphy-Spicer Chapel for Mrs. J. E. Gray, 59, who died Sunday in a local hospital.

No Absentee Votes Cast As Yet For Coming Election

All of Hall County's voters are either going to be here to vote on November 7 or they just are uninterested in the election to be held then. A check with the County Clerk's office Wednesday showed that not a single absentee vote had been cast. The absentee voting has been open since October 18, and will continue until Friday, November 3. Any eligible voter who is not going to be able to vote on November 7, should vote absentee.

Graveside Rites For Mrs. Garrett

Graveside services were held for Mrs. Lillie Garrett, 71, of Fort Sumner, N. M., Monday afternoon in the Fairview cemetery here. Mrs. Garrett died Friday, Oct. 20, in a hospital in Fort Sumner. The body was brought overland for burial here by the Julian Mortuary of Fort Sumner. Mrs. Garrett was born May 15, 1879 in Fort Smith, Ark. She and Mr. Garrett lived in Hall County for five years. They moved from here in 1923. Funeral services were held in the Julian Chapel at Fort Sumner at 9 o'clock Monday morning. ## Pee-Wees Aim For McLean Kits Tonite

Coach George Childress has been running his junior high school Whirlwinds through some of the hardest workouts of the season this week, as they prepare to meet the powerful McLean junior high Kittens at Cyclone stadium tonight at 7:30. This is the only game to be played in Memphis this week as the Cyclones go to McLean tomorrow night to meet the Tigers on their home field. McLean beat Wellington 40-6, while the Whirlwinds beat the little Rockets 40-0 and had two touchdowns called back. The Kittens had to extend themselves to the limit to remain undefeated when they meet the Clarendon Colts. McLean squeezed out a 7-0 win over the Colts. Childress has one boy that is sick, Little Lee Waddell will miss this game because of his illness. He played defensive halfback and played on offense a good bit in the Wellington rout. Leon Rogers, a Whirlwind that played against the Whirlwinds early in the season when they meet Childress, will start at guard in the place of James Freeman who hurt his leg in the Wellington game. Childress said, "Don Davis and Jackie Justice will be my main substitutes in case I have to use any. It is going to take the best of my first string to beat this McLean team." The Kittens will have the weight advantage over the Winds and can match the Winds in speed. Probable Memphis Line-Up: Carol Gardenhire LE, Jerry McQueen LT, Hayes Hammond LG, Harley Simmons C, Leon Rogers RG, Algy Archer RT, Jack Montgomery RE, Jackie Boone QB, Jimmy Jenkins FB, Charles (Red) Miles HB, Dalton Ledbetter HB.

L. H. Tapscott Is Baptist Speaker For Sunday Morning

L. H. Tapscott, Brotherhood Secretary, of the Baptist Laymen's work in Texas will be guest speaker at the morning worship service at the First Baptist Church this Sunday. The men of the First Baptist Church are planning to organize a Laymen's Brotherhood in the very near future. All men of the church are urged to attend the services next Sunday and hear Mr. Tapscott. He is not an ordained minister, but a layman and a good speaker. On Monday evening Oct. 30, the Panhandle Association men will hold a rally at the Baptist Church. Mr. A. H. Moore of Clarendon is president of Panhandle Association and will preside at the meeting. Tapscott will speak at this meeting also. The organization of an Associational Brotherhood will highlight this meeting.

Battered Cyclones To McLean Crucial Game In Dist. 2-A

In discussing L. M. Watson, the McLean one man team, York said that if his big boys did not get over their injuries, it was going to be rough. A little boy just can't stop him. Watson is the back that does everything for the Tigers and does it all good. He is big, fast and can bull his way over would-be tacklers. He has been a regular for three years and has been a standout every since he put on a set of pads. This season the triple-threat has been throwing the ball more and since Wellington did most of their damage with passes last week the Cyclones are looking for a passing attack to be well intermingled with Watson's running. The two most serious injured boys are Wayne Jenkins with a twisted knee that he rehurt this week in work-outs and Pete Moore's knee. With both these players out with bad knees Coach York is going to have trouble reshuffling his line up. Previously when Moore was out, York shifted tackle Lee Bloxom over to center and put Jenkins in at tackle. If the Cyclones were in to condition they would have an edge on the dark-horse McLean team, but with everything in the Cyclone line-up slowed with injuries the game is a toss-up. The Cyclones could be rated the edge if their bandages don't slip. The Memphis probable starting line-up, if Moore is ready, will be Rasco and Charles Messer at ends, Lee Bloxom and Freddy Vinson at tackles, Pierce and Ken. Reddy at guards, Pete Moore at center, Roddy Stargel at quarterback, Miller at full, and Tommy Messer and Carl Lee at the halfbacks. (Continued on Page 8)

ZEKE SEZ

By Nugent E. (Zeke) Brown

WASHINGTON, DC—(Special)—We sure don't know why cotton has become a scarce item so quickly since surpluses of this crop was all one heard last winter. Agriculture department officials here in Washington are reported this week as hearing that some cotton will still be plowed up this fall, this month. The Washington Daily News says Secretary Charles Brannan of the department should suspend the penalties on cotton acreage allotments for this year's crop so that it can be picked and sold. This paper says Brannan has the authority. In the meantime, officials here are getting reports that farmers are having labor troubles because of the new labor law requiring children under 16 to be in school unless they are working on their own farm. You folks know more about that problem; all we know is what we hear and read. Talking about newspaper stories which are published here about the cotton crop, the Washington POST said "growers are trying to avoid the penalty of 15 cents a bale". Imagine such an error. We wonder if the reporter ever learned the difference. Uncle Sam is at least selling some of those eggs now, offering 125 million dozens at 63 cents a dozen last week and they are selling because of the high price of eggs in the grocery stores. (By the way, Maxwell House coffee sells for 88c here!) We asked a grocery clerk the other day about his specials. He snorted, "we don't have to put out specials as we sell out every day anyway." He was bragging a little since some of the stores don't have too much business, judging by the few folks seen around them. The big cash groceries do have awful crowds during the late afternoon hours. It's a push and jam affair.

By the way, the deadeast place in this town these days is "Capitol Hill." I was over there the other afternoon. Plenty of parking space everywhere now. Called a couple of offices of Texas congressmen. Both were home in Texas, as also their secretaries. No one left in the offices but a couple of stenographers who kept the place open. Congressman Bob Poage of Waco got back this week end from his jaunt across Europe by airplane. He was on his way to Texas.

Some scientists announce a new drug, acetidone, which is so distasteful that rats won't drink water which has a little of the drug in it. Starving rats refused to eat food which had been dipped into the acetidone poison. It is being acclaimed as one of the great discoveries of the decade since it will be used to keep rats out of packages of all kinds, it is believed. You may see it advertised soon.

Iratic citizens down in Florida are complaining because a night club's patrons insist on playing "Good Night, Irene" far, far into the wee small hours. We had heard that a Texas editor, Ernest Joiner of Ralls, had voiced the original complaint against Sister Irene weeks ago. An editorial in a Washington paper suggests a record can be broken by use of a sledgehammer! Just a hint, this editor says, not advice. This little matter of color on the video screen has gotten all of the black and white video folks screaming their heads off at the FCC which, last week, okayed the use of colored television. It will take $70 a set to put on converters. There are now 107 television stations in the US and over eight million sets have been sold. So black and white programs will stay on the air many months, local dealers predict. But the sets are getting cheaper every month. You can get good ones now for $200 or better, half of what they cost a year ago.

Sunday was a beautiful day around these parts and the leaves were beautiful in the woods areas. And, believe you us, there are trees everywhere here. The leaves are falling and will be gone in two more weeks. We drove over to Arlington Cemetery, one of the most beautiful wooded areas you ever saw. We saw the Unknown Soldier tomb.

Mr. Farmer: Any Way You Look at It You Get More When You Gin Your Cotton Here!

Our farmer-owned gins, one in Memphis and the other at Plaska, are operated at top efficiency this year. Both modern plants were in top condition when this season started—and the record of Turnout and Sample which they produce will mean more to every cotton farmer who gins with us.

In spite of conditions, which change from year to year, these two gins were built to GIN THE COTTON OF FARMERS OF THIS AREA. That's what we're doing this year, and the people who have been bringing their cotton here will tell you the kind of Samples these plants are giving them.

Texas Lawmakers Must Beat Congress To Water Taxation

Should Uncle Sam reach his long arm into Texas and take fifty million dollars a year in water taxes?

Members of the legislature are asking opinions of voters on vital issues, and, as I see it, there is no more vital issue than this.

Texas can provide ample funds to finance its water program by a tax on its most valuable natural resource, water, and if the legislature doesn't enact such a law it will be inviting congress to step in and collect the money for the Federal treasury.

That's my suggestion to the legislature. Lose no time in enacting a water code law, including a provision to impose a royalty tax on water, to finance, and give Texas control of its water program.

Put Nitrogen Back In Soil For Five

It is possible to put nitrogen into the soil for five cents per pound if it is done by turning under legume cover crops.

He says the report shows that corn yields rose to 104 bushels per acre on plots where crimson clover had been turned under for the purpose of adding nitrogen to the soil.

The application of 100 pounds of nitrogen, in commercial fertilizer raised the per acre yield to 102 bushels but the nitrogen application by this method cost 17 cents per pound.

The test plots in Virginia were not grazed, Thornton says if livestock is taken off the legume in time to let it grow before plowing it under, that there will be no appreciable decrease in the amount of nitrogen added to the soil.

In addition to adding nitrogen to the soil that can be used by the crop that follows the legume, Thornton says the addition of the organic matter to the soil is also very important.

Now, adds Thompson, is the time to get the winter legumes planted. An application of superphosphate will materially improve the growth rate of the legume and he says don't forget to inoculate the planting seed.

He says the nodules on the roots of legumes that have the ability to take the nitrogen from the air and store it in the plants. He says every farm is a potential nitrogen factory and the Virginia experiments clearly show the advantages of growing crops that will return nitrogen to the soil.

Texas Hunter Out Side Looking In

Texas Hunter's new theme song could well be "Don't Fence Me In" as they sally forth in quest of game this fall.

The state's new trespass law, in force a year and found to be workable, has some stiff penalties for any camper, hunter or fisherman caught in an enclosed area without the owner's consent.

The first year that the law was in force the game wardens were not too hard in their enforcement of it, but with the law a year old outdoors men are supposed to know about it and the wardens are expected to clamp down on offenders.

The penalties incur the forfeiture of hunting licenses for one to three years, depending on the number of times the offender is caught.

The first conviction is a one year suspension of licenses and a fine of 200 dollars.

If a hunter is caught a second time the fine is from 500 dollars to 1,000 and a two year suspension of hunting privileges.

A three time loser will get the book thrown at him. The fine is from 500 to 1,000 dollars and a three year loss of hunting privileges with a 30-day jail sentence thrown in for good measure.

The act's definition of enclosed land is very liberal: any tract of land which is enclosed by "any structure of fencing, either of wood or iron or combination thereof, or wood or wire, or partly by water or stream, canyon, brush, rock or rocks, bluffs or island."

In the language of the law, it is illegal for any person to enter such an enclosure "and therein hunt with firearms, and therein catch or take or attempt to catch or take any fish from pond, lake, tank or stream, or therein depredate upon the same."

Landowners pushed the measure through the state legislature last year in an effort to protect their cattle, crops, orchards and private hunting tracts from unscrupulous hunters and fishermen.

Just about every tract of land in Texas is enclosed under the definition of this law. Any hunter thinking about doing any fence hopping had better get permission, or face a big fine.

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Miller of Lesley over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gunlock of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller and family of Memphis.

Farmers should be making plans now to plant at least a part of their cultivated land to a winter legume. Soil building crops, wheat followed by corn or cotton, have materially increased the yields of these two crops and better yields mean more income.

Farm and Ranch Chatter

Printed announcements have gone out to county agents, vocational agriculture teachers and a good many others over north and central Texas giving the program for the Texas Livestock Round-up to be held in Fort Worth on Thursday and Friday, November 2 and 3.

Everyone is invited, though, and the printed announcements were sent to key people who could show them around to lots of livestock feeders and students.

The carcass demonstrations put on by some of the packing plants showing how the various types and grades of animals fare in the slaughtering and packing process are expected to be high points of the two-day program.

Actually, it will last a day and a half, starting at 9 a. m. on Thursday and ending at noon Friday. Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium is the place.

Out of state speakers will come from St. Louis, Atalanta, Kansas City, Chicago, Cleveland, and a small town in Iowa.

We expect this program to be full of information that all kinds of livestock producers can use profitably in their business right now and next year.

Also, we expect it to be presented in a live wire, interesting fashion. No dull speeches read from prepared manuscripts, but down to earth talk about down to earth things.

Admission is free. We want you to come. Lunch will be served at noon on Thursday for a nominal cost.

A cousin of the dairyman who bred midget cows for filling the coffee cream jiggers in restaurants, is the farmer who developed a strain of dwarf cotton for putting in the tops of aspirin bottles.

The Texas Pecan Growers Association had a novel idea this year for promoting pecans at the State Fair.

They threw a contest among the ladies, giving a $10 prize to the one who wore pecans in her attire in the most unique way.

It fell our lot to judge the contest, and since there were only three entries, it was easy to select Mrs. W. S. Price of Kerens, in Navarro County, as the winner for her green pecans and leaves or her hat, and the bright objects swung from a fishing pole-shaped arrangement at the back of "Keeping the crows off."

Mrs. Price and her ever-loving husband, Sid, have been in the pecan raising business nearly all their lives. They used to live in Comanche county, near the town of Gustine.

Next year, there should be a wide number of entries in the pecan wearing apparel contest.

Memphians Ready For Cartoon Feast

As the Memphis Cyclones eked out their one penetration victory over the Wellington Rockets Friday night, the city of Memphis began preparing for the feast of the cartoon.

The number of guests to this feast are few and therefore the invitations are priceless. 21 Memphians citizens and one out-of-town visitor make the guest list taking the feast of the cartoon.

The out-of-town visitor, Hut, Hutson, is the originator of the creation. Hutson, the Panhandle's roving cartoonist, drew a cartoon depicting the Wellington Rockets beating the Cyclones, but Hutson said that if the Cyclone beat the Rockets he would eat the drawing.

Several Memphians said that they would help the artist consume his great work if the Winds would break the 14 year losing jinx.

Last Friday night the Cyclones did their part and now 21 local citizens will help Hutson eat his drawing.

The zealous citizens are Oma Cochran, Bill Dunn, Tomie Potts, Homer Tucker, Ed Mathis, Helen Combs, Claude Ferrel, Al Burks, R. L. Gates, M. C. Allen, Winnford Wise, Alex Burk, Dave Price, J. R. Anthony, Jay Shepherd, Bill Roson, George Childress, Ellis Vetteo, Jerrell Messer, W. B. Hooser and W. D. Young.

A wire last Saturday from Hutson said, "Please express congratulations to entire Cyclone organization. Delighted to eat the cartoon with the gang November 14. Accept their decision, Hut." The feast of the cartoon will be held on the Hall County Courthouse lawn at 8 o'clock, the night of November 14.

Two doctors will be on hand to see that no one is injured in the scramble, as the eager feasters grapple for extra shares of the cartoon.

Litter is important in the poultry house. A layer of from four to six inches deep should be used on the floor to aid in controlling the moisture in the house. The kind of litter used is not so important as long as it will absorb moisture.

Making of Sports

I was talking football the other day with Coach York and the conversation slipped around to the importance of a good line. Tommy Messer was sitting back listening, but when the talk about the importance of a line was mentioned he jumped into the conversation with his slow drawl. He said that a back was going nowhere without that line, and he is one of the best broken field runners in 2-A.

The line may be forgotten by everyone else, but those backs remember it very vividly.

New Commander of American Legion In Memphis Friday

T. D. Weatherby, commander of the local American Legion post, announced this week that the newly elected National Commander Erle Cocke of Dawson, Georgia, will be at the Memphis Legion Hall from 11 until 11:15 o'clock Friday morning, Oct. 27.

The 29-year old National Commander and his staff will pick up the names of all members not already turned in to the national headquarters. Cocke will make a short address to the local members present.

Weatherby said, "I hope that every member of the local post can be present to welcome Erle Cocke and his staff."

Cocke has a very dramatic war record in World War II. He was captured by the Nazis three different times, but always escaped.

The third time the Nazis caught him they decided to stop his escapades and stood him against a wall and machine-gunned him, the Nazi officer walked up and shot him in the back.

The tough Georgian wasn't dead and some villagers found him several hours later and nursed him for 48 hours until the Americans came.

He was awarded the Silver Star, the Purple Heart with three clusters, the Bronze Star with clusters, the French Croix-de-Guerre, and was recommended for the Distinguished Service Cross on the field of battle. He returned from active military service with the rank of major.

(Continued from Page 1) are growing and improving all the time, and the whole North Plains area is blessed with fine wheat prospects. Some wheat has grown too much and will either have to be grazed or mowed to stop jointing—which leaves it open to being killed by freezes. Many farmers, after their wheat failed to make a yield, planted a lot of feed and this will bring them some money.

At Borger, we attended their KYOS (Know Your own Strength) celebration. The new Borger hotel is one of the nicest hotels in the Panhandle area. It was dedicated by Governor Allen Shivers. The new American Legion home and other new buildings were opened during the celebration.

On our return home, the Palo Duro Canyon south of Claude was visited, and the site on the Caprock of the home where we were married was located—the house having been moved away several years ago. From there we visited the famous JA Ranch, and then hit the highway again at Clarendon. The road from Claude via JA Ranch into Clarendon is a well kept dirt road and the scenery along the route is well worth taking the trip.

Parents of course your children are models of perfection and wouldn't do anything to extra, folks any discomfort or extra trouble. They wouldn't be guilty of letting air out of tires or of throwing rocks at cars while the owners are attending some kind of public function. That being the case, where do the kids come from who have been doing such mischief?

Farmers of the South are up in arms over the limiting of cotton exports by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, thus allowing Mexico and other countries to export their cotton at prices ranging from 60 to 75 cents per pound, while American cotton brings less than 40 cents per pound—the farmer holds the sack while other countries gather the shekels. Congressman Ben Guill says, "This is just a flim-flam to impose partial price controls, with the cotton farmer as the sucker—This particular Brannan plan is simply a vicious way of driving down the price of cotton because low cotton prices will be politically advantageous outside the South—and the Truman administration feels that the cotton farmers will always vote Democratic."

Which leads to a remark made last night by a Hall County cotton farmer: "Since Guill is a member of the powerful agricultural committee in Washington, why isn't he and his fellow committeemen doing something about it?"

A news release from Senator Lyndon Johnson says the cotton export quota should be raised by several hundred thousand bales—700 thousand bales should be enough to take care of military needs, instead of the one and a half million set up by the Department of Agriculture—Johnson called on Secretary of Agriculture Chas. F. Brannan to raise the export quota considerably above the 2 million bales—"While everybody wants to see that we have plenty of cotton on hand for military and domestic needs, we must also see that the cotton farmers are not put at the mercy of speculators by the hoarding of cotton which is not needed for this nation's requirements," Senator Johnson said.

One of the best ways to let the powers that be in Washington know that the American people are not going to stand for a lot of things being imposed upon them by the administration, is for every qualified voter to vote in the general election. This will show them that the folks at home are awake to the leftist ideas, and must be considered in all affairs of state. Such a large vote this year by the Solid South might change a lot of things by 1952.

The carnival will have a movie, fortune telling, cat rakes, grab bags and all the things that go to make a big Hallow'en Carnival.

Rogers said if the import cut was made to allow the American mills to buy cotton without having to compete with the world market, then Brannon should be asked to resign.

He continued that the farmers had put up with high tariff and the like during the Republican administration and if the Democratic party is going to do the same thing then it is time to clean up the Democratic party by electing real old-line Democrats.

Culture Club Hears Program on United Nations

In keeping with the national observance of United Nations Day, a timely program on the United Nations was presented Wednesday afternoon before members of the Woman's Culture Club meeting in the home of Mrs. Earl Hill.

Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, International Relations chairman of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, gave a most interesting discussion on the departments of the United Nations which deal with international relations.

Japan Looks Ahead Is Program Topic At 1913 Study Club

Realizing the current importance of our relations with Japan, Meses T. J. Dunbar, M. G. Tarver and Frank Foxhall presented pertinent and interesting information concerning the Japanese people at the regular meeting of the 1913 Study Club on Wednesday afternoon of last week, at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

The study topic for the day was "Japan Looks Ahead." Mrs. Dunbar, in discussion the economic conditions of Japan, gave a graphic description of post war hardships, economics and reforms, and told of the efforts and progress toward the rebirth of Japan as a democratic nation.

Mrs. Tarver, in her discussion of political conditions, said, "Japan looks ahead politically with a new constitution based on the democratic idea and calls for democratic processes. It emphasizes the value of the individual and denounces war. There are some 50 public opinion survey institutions in operation encouraging the people to have the courage of their convictions."

"All these changes call for a new type of Japanese patriot, and the change has begun without bloodshed or revolution," Mrs. Tarver concluded.

Stressing the importance of religion, Mrs. Foxhall stated, "In any Nation religious history is a formative influence." Shintoism, emphasizing the worship of gods and nature, Buddhism, emphasizing fatalism and afterlife, and the Christian religion have helped in shaping the character of the Japanese.

"Through the years," continued Mrs. Foxhall, "the Christian Church has had its ups and downs in Japan. Kagawa, a great Christian leader who still preaches there, has done more to christianize the laboring class of people than any other one person. The Japanese people have the controlling voice in their church, although America is aiding them greatly by building churches, school and hospitals. The Christian Literature Society, audiovision, and radio are doing much to spread the gospel to the eager Japanese people."

The Wilson home was beautifully decorated with artistic arrangements of chrysanthemums and dahlias in the fall colors.

A delightful surprise came when the club members were invited into the dining room where they were greeted by the hosts, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Tarver and Mrs. Foxhall, all attractively attired in Japanese costumes with chrysanthemums in their hair.

The tea table was a lovely picture. The board was covered with a shimmering Japanese glass linen cloth and centered by a distinctive arrangement of gorgeous dahlias and chrysanthemums in shades of yellow. Mrs. Foxhall poured tea from a beautiful old Japanese tea pot while Mrs. Tarver and Mrs. Wilson served dainty refreshments to the following club members.

Indian Fighting

In one of his recent columns, Walter Lippmann discussed the changed concept of war that the Korean conflict brought to this country. He wrote "All of us have to learn about the kind of warfare which, though it is scorned and deplored and even outlawed by the military scientists of Western Europe and America, is the normal and fundamental technique of war throughout the Eurasian continent.

"The Communists call it 'peoples war.' We call it guerilla war.

"Though American experience of guerilla warfare is very limited and long out of date, guerilla warfare of one kind or another is the normal form of combat in most of Asia. It is the way people with a primitive technology fight . . .

"Our extremely advanced and complicated military equipment, which requires a high industrial development to make it is most effective against countries which also fight with complicated weapons made by a concentrated and complicated industrial system. The more primitive the armies with which we have to deal the less effective are the big engines of war."

Here is one of the gravest problems that war in any part of Asia presents us with. As against the Asiatics, we are hopelessly outnumbered in the sphere of manpower. We have planned, and to a certain limited extent built, a military machine which, as Mr. Lippmann pointed out, depends upon the most intricate form of weapons, and which is designed to take full advantage of the miraculous productive American manufacturing establishment. The atom bomb, the hydrogen bomb, the guided missile, the stratospheric bomber of vast range and carrying capacity—these are all weapons devised in the event of a traditional war with another great and cohesive nation. In Korea, we could not have used the bomb even had we wished to—suitable targets for so rare and costly a weapon did not exist. The big bombers had small value, for the same reason. The jet plane was too fast to give good support to ground troops. And, finally, the decisive element was one of the oldest weapons of all—the soldier with a knife or a gun.

It is reported that General Bradley has said that we must not let ourselves be bled by interminable "police actions" in Asia. He was undoubtedly thinking of the terrible dangers of our engaging in a series of guerilla wars. For, in those wars, manpower—the sheer weight of numbers—is the big factor. There is every reason to believe that the Russians—whether or not they start any more incidents of the Korean sort—would like nothing better.

In short, orthodox military theory has received the severest sort of a shock. It was designed to deal with the traditional war, the war of rules, the so-called "civilized" war. The theory is being overhauled in the face of the realities. At the same time, great changes in our diplomatic and foreign policy are also slowly coming into being. In this grim, strange world the diplomats and the military men must talk side by side.

Dillon, S. C., Heard: "If the American way of living is not the best, no other nation has been able to prove it."

People's Voice

The people's voice in the government of the United States is the only thing that will keep this nation or any other from coming under the heel of an oppressor.

The people's voice is not a group of men standing on the street or sitting around with coffee cups discussing the way the government is being run. The people's voice is at the ballot box where your opinion will mean something.

When you step up to the ballot box, you are more powerful than the biggest lobbyist in Washington. The lobbyist can only bring pressure by financial means or with petitions, but you, Mr. Voter are carrying the Congressman's job in vote.

Besides all the many reasons always given for voting, such as insures good government, is your patriotic duty and act. The Bible instructs the people to be citizens that complied with the practices of good government. When the hecklers ask Jesus is should they pay taxes, he replied, render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and render unto God what is God's.

Our government ask the people every two years if they are pleased with the way the government is being carried on. It is the people's duty to go to the polls and answer this

Press Paragraphs—

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Fan The Sparks, Fans

For the first time in several weeks the Morton Indians exhibited a will to win on the gridiron last Friday. For several weeks members of the Quarterback Club and other interested persons have been looking for the key to create that spirit.

Regardless of the fact that they played the game with the spirit and determination, the Indians lost. Now, we the fans, have a job to perform.

Nearly every fan who witnessed the Morton-Slaton game last Friday was impressed with the Indians fight. Nearly every fan went away realizing that the "breaks" had hurt the Indian cause. Now that we have seen the boys with the right spirit, we shouldn't let that spirit get away.

If they can maintain that spirit Friday night, the Indians should have an excellent chance of defeating Muleshoe. Don't let that spirit fade. When one of those boys passes your shop this week, slap him on the back and tell him how much we appreciated his efforts last week.

Life Termers

In his talk before the McLean Lions Club recently, Congressman Ben Guill made a point with which we have long agreed; yet, for some reason, we have never found many people who seemed to concur with us in the opinion.

That remark was this: "Whoever you send to Washington as your next Congressman, don't send him there for the rest of his life or until he is appointed to a federal judgeship."

We gathered that Congressman Guill meant that we voters of America have got into the habit of returning a man to the U. S. House or U. S. Senate for term after term, excusing our actions with the remark that "he knows the ropes now and will serve us better."

We don't hold to that theory in a very strict sense. It appears to us that we Americans have done that very thing too much. Our representatives in Washington feel that once elected, they will be returned time and again, and they usually are. Therefore, they get into what is commonly called a rut, and do little for their district or for the country as a whole.

In other words we send these men back to represent us for years and years, and then we sit back and take our government for granted. Our government, you should well remember, is supposedly a government by, for, and of the people. Yet we, the people, are not taking the interest we should in that government.

Too often we vote for a man because he has the "experience" or the "know-how." At least that's his campaign platform. Too often we vote for a man because of his

the other names are vague.

We should demand of our candidates, and especially those for the national offices, a specific platform on all issues of the day.

We should demand that our candidates be either for or against an issue. Then we might weigh the platforms of the various candidates together, and choose the one we believe is the best. But we don't even go that far.

Then after our candidate is elected, we should check to determine whether all these campaign promises are being fulfilled, whether he is a representative, or a parasite living on the government income.

Then if that official is not the official he is supposed to be, we should defeat him in the next election. (Continued on page 7)

Fran Newbrough Is Chosen For F. F. A. Sweetheart

Frances Newbrough, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Newbrough, and one of the most popular students in Memphis High School, was given the honor of being F.F.A. Sweetheart of 1950-51. The election was held Tuesday night, October 17. Frances will receive a jacket from the Future Farmers of America and will be honored at the annual District Banquet. To attend this banquet Frances was to choose a girl to accompany her. She chose Miss Minnie Lee Jackson, another popular Senior.

Frances is a Senior in high school and well liked by all her classmates. Frances was elected as vice-president of the summer Homemaking, Class of '48, and served as secretary-treasurer in '47. This year Frances is a member of the Senior Choral Club and serves as librarian.

When Frances finishes high school in May, she plans to go to Draughn's Business College at Lubbock, Texas.

Miss Newbrough is the fifth annual sweetheart of the F.F.A. club. The girls preceding her are: Jimmie Mitchell '46-'47, Joan Lockhart '47-'48, Scharlean Pyeatt '48-'49, Roddy Patton '49-'50.

Frances is a very petite sweetheart of 5'1" and weighs only 112 pounds. Frances enjoys typing and likes all her teachers. Tennis tops her list of sports.

Look for Frances in the "Favorite Section" of the annual.

FRANCIS NEWBROUGH, senior, has been elected FFA sweetheart by the Memphis Chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Each year a girl is elected as sweetheart for the year.

Giant Pep Rally Held Downtown Last Thursday

Led by the Cyclone Band, the student body of the Memphis Schools made a "Victory March" Thursday, October 19, down a road the square.

Shortly after one o'clock, the students formed on the South side of High School and paraded down town yelling and showing Memphis citizens what 'ole MHS spirit really is.

The new fire truck led the students, then came the band with some classy marches, then a truck loaded with the Junior High football team and the Cyclones. After that students from the 3rd grade to the 11th were backing the team 100%, with yells and songs.

This is the kind of spirit we need every game!!!!!! Let's see if we can't have more of these wonderful Pep-Rallies!!!!!!

Girl's Ideal Boy Has High Standards

Looks aren't the only thing that counts now days—in fact, 9 out of 10 don't mention looks when asked what their ideal girl or boy need. Let's see what these students say about the subject.

Nell Messer likes her man to be friendly, likeable and nice.

Lona Faye Collins says a boy needs to be neat, well-groomed, nice and friendly.

Anita Hartsell likes her men to be likeable, neat and have a smile for everyone as well as being handsome.

Billye Hartsell says a boy needs to be cute along with a nice smile, good-natured and likeable.

Patsy Armstrong picks her men polite, good-looking, with a sense of humor (but not too big) as well as neat.

Ann Shankle seems to think they need to be liked by everyone, as well as know how to treat everyone. Manners are a must with Ann, as well as neatness in clothes and personality.

Donna Webb says they have to be in sports—mainly football, as well as have respect for girls, a personality that's tops, about 6' and dark hair.

Boys, are you one of these? Do you meet the girls' requirements for an ideal boy?—Let's see!!!

"Leaves" Shown To Biology Class

Monday the biology class saw a show entitled "Leaves." They found that without green leaves, nothing on earth could live as the green leaves make all the food. They also saw the process of an opening bud. The class was amazed when they saw the various sizes and shapes of leaves.

Students learned that the green matter in a leaf is the machinery to carry on food making. Carbon dioxide and water are the raw materials, sunlight produces the energy, while starches and sugars are the finished product.

The biology class finished the clay model of the structure of the inside of a leaf, that last year's biology students started. The class got a plastic box and several boxes of modeling plastic clay and made the sections of the leaf.

Students discovered, while looking through the microscope, the cells that make up the cross sections of the leaf, which are as follows: epidermis, palisade cells, spongy cells, the water vein, and lower epidermal cells.

The lower epidermis has small pores in it by which the gases, carbon dioxide and oxygen, go in and out of the leaf. Besides being the food makers of the world, leaves are used for food. Examples of food leaves are cabbage, lettuce and spinach.

Boys Pick Humor Over Good Looks In Girl Friends

Along with a survey of girls on their characteristics for their ideal boy, we took a survey of the boys, too.

Vance Adams says a girl needs to be good-natured, have a good personality and be friendly; also she must NOT be conceited.

Mackie Allen now gives his ideal characteristics—She's got to have a good personality, be good-natured, easy to get along with and very nice.

Bobby Dick Hutcherson says a personality, good-naturedness and being nice is about all that counts.

Billy Darrel Roden says she must be good-natured, have a nice personality; and be friendly.

Eddie Welch says a good-looking, sweet girl that has a nice personality and can dance tops his list any 'ole day.

Troy Taylor gives smartness in a girl, good-naturedness and a nice personality as being tops.

Girls, Can we top this?

Cyclones Take Rockets In District 2-A Battle

After twelve successive victories for Wellington, the Memphis Cyclones set their minds to make 13 the lucky number, and were successful as they beat the Rockets on penetrations 4-3, the score being 13-13.

Beginning their big weekend, Thursday with a big rally and parade downtown, every student in the Memphis Public School helped spur the team on. Then immediately before the team left, a large group including the Cyclone Band, staged another rally on the square, showing the team that everyone was backing them. Then the mighty Cyclones boarded a specially chartered bus and left for the home of the Rockets.

The Cyclones made the first score when Roddy Stargel took a punt on his own 46 and went all the way, then Ronnie Smith kicked the extra point. Duane Miller plunged over for the second score and this time the kicked was missed.

During the halftime, the Cyclone Band made an "M" and "W" and also did the pivot march which was something new and very snappy looking. The Rocket Band made a bicycle during the half while they played "A Bicycle Built for Two" and they also were snappy looking.

The Cyclones had to fight hard during the last half, but they proved to themselves and the Cyclone Boosters that they had what it takes. "Hoot" Gibson and Woods each scored for Wellington during the final half of play and Doyle Ingram caught a pass for an extra point, thus tying the score.

The Cyclones never let up on their defense. The Rockets were unable to successfully run any distance; both their touchdowns were made on passes. Don Rasec Peanut Pierce, Charles Messer and Max Kennedy were outstanding linemen and Duane Miller, Davey Corley, were outstanding in the backfield. Carl Lee, Roddy Stargel, and Tommy Messer also turned in commendable performances.

Immediately following the game the Memphis crowd went wild with enthusiasm. The sign on Wellington High School, "Memphis Thou Shalt Fall Tonight" had obviously told the wrong story; and the group of Memphis business men who, along with Amarillo cartoonist, Hut Hutson, promised to eat the cartoon which gave Wellington a slight edge in pre-game predictions, were preparing for the big event for Monday, Nov. 1.

Memphis Hi Library rejuvenated Dept.

The most improved department in Memphis High School is the library, headed by Miss Ira Hammond. Miss Hammond has been with the library for 15 years and during that time has seen many changes. Most of these changes are due to Miss Ira Hammond's genuine interest in her connection with the library. One is the Reading Room which is housed in the new building off the Study Hall, and is approximately 24 ft. by 30 ft. In this room are three large tables and adequate reading space for thirty persons. This room is used for reading the many magazines to which the school subscribes and also several newspapers. The Reading Room is lighted by fluorescent lights which insure proper lighting. This room has proved a great help to the students during the four years it has been in use.

These magazines are taken by the school for the convenience of the students: Your Life, Holiday Readers' Digest, Senior Prom, Variety, Seventeen, Coronet, Farm and Ranch, National Geographic, Hygeia, Nature, Science American, Better Homes and Gardens, Texas Parade, Open Road for Boys, Photography, American Girl, and Life.

These papers are taken by the school for the use of the students: Amarillo News, Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Childress Index, and The Memphis Democrat.

All books that can be checked out for a period of one week are kept in the reading room. They are placed according to types and arranged on open shelves. These open shelves enable the students to choose their own books. Each type is placed in alphabetical order according to its author's surname.

In the second room are the reference books. They are also in open shelves and arranged alphabetically. Memphis High School is noted for its excellent sources of information on all subjects, no matter how widely varied.

The third room is the library's work room. All the textbooks are kept there in neatly arranged shelves. These books are placed according to subjects and are easily found by the teachers wanting them. Recently when this room was visited by the state auditor he commented very favorably on the management and appearance. He said that it was one of the neatest and best managed libraries that he had visited.

Miss Hammond and her assistants are now filing cards for all the books in the library. The book cards are filed as to the title of the book and to the author's surname. Miss Hammond's assistants are both boys and girls who work during study hall periods. When all the cards have been filed, Memphis High School will have a standardized library. Never before has the library attained this coveted goal.

All books will be classified according to these categories:

1. General Works: books that deal with no particular subject such as encyclopedias, periodicals, newspapers.
2. Philosophy: psychology and ethics.
3. Religion: Christian and non-Christian beliefs.
4. Sociology: government, law, economics, education.
5. Language: readers, grammars, dictionaries in all languages.
6. Science: mathematics, astronomy, geology, botany, zoology.
7. Useful Arts: medicine, engineering, home economics.
8. Fine Arts: architecture, music, needlework, painting, amusements.
9. Literature: poems, dramas, and essays in all languages.
10. History: travels, collective biography, histories of all countries and all ages.

We at Memphis High School are proud of our excellent library and wish to extend an invitation to the public to visit or use it at anytime.

Commerical Art Career Chosen By Popular Ann Spoon

Flashing a friendly smile, which is usually accompanied by a cheery "Hi, there!" is none other than that versatile and energetic gal, Ann Spoon, a Senior at M.H.S. this year.

"Rooney," as she is known to her grade school pals, stands at an even 5' 8" and tips the beam at 120 pounds. Our hazel-eyed, black-haired, 17 year old friend, is president of the Librarians' Club this year. This is added to a list of other honors she has accumulated during her years in High School. During Ann's pre-freshman year she was vice president of the class, and salutatorian. She headed the class as president her Sophomore year. Ann's junior year tops the list. She was elected class favorite, which by the way, was Ann's biggest thrill, secretary of the band, librarian for the choral club, secretary of the junior class, artist for the annual, Who's Who, and played a leading part in the Junior play. This year Ann serves as editor of the Cyclone News, Band and Choral Club Secretary, Annual Staff, and President of the librarians club. The year isn't over, either!

Around school Ann prefers Coach York, but on the screen Robert Mitchum, and June Allyson top her list.

After a split second decision, Ann confided to us that hot fudge sundae would rate O.K. with her anytime. Ann loves old-fashioned non-slumber parties, and has participated in many.

For the future Ann plans to go to West Texas State College, major in art and minor in journalism. From this Ann plans to be a commercial artist.

Here we have a brief resume of a real girl with "personality plus" and an interesting future. Get to know Ann. You'll like her!

TOM WAY

Tom Way, a 1950 graduate of Memphis High School made the highest grade in the Freshman class on the English placement test at North Texas State at Denton, Texas.

Sophomore Class To Sell Socks

The Sophomore Class of Memphis High School is going to sell anklets and socks, which are in the school colors and have MHS on them.

They are also going to sell car tags, but it will be about three weeks before they get the tags. So if any student wishes to buy socks, anklets, or tags, see any member of the Sophomore Class. The tags will be in school colors, also.

Whirlwinds Smother Jr. Hi Skyrockets

The Whirlwind, Thursday night, set a pattern for their big brothers, the Cyclones, as they ran over the Junior High Skyrockets, 40-0. Deltan Ledbetter, Carroll Gardenhire and "Red" Miles made the Whirlwind scores with Ledbetter scoring three times. The Whirlwinds, coached by George Childress and Billy Tate, have lost to only one team, and by only one point to Lefors. Keep up the good work, Whirlwinds.

CYCLONES BEAT ROCKETS ON PENETRATIONS 4-3 1ST; SINCE

Two Cyclone scoring drives that sputtered and died inside the Wellington Skyrockets' 20 yard line gave the Memphians a 4-3 penetration victory in a slam-bang 13-13 deadlocked 2-A District game.

The 4,000 fans, one of the largest crowds to ever push into Powell Field in Wellington, waited for the officials to signify the winner by penetrations.

As the officials tossed the game pigskin to Cyclone Coach, Chuck York, indicating a Cyclone victory, Memphians began celebrating the ending of the 14 year winning streak held by the Rockets over the "Winds."

Game at a Glance

Memphis	Wellington
10 First Downs	8
27 Punting Average	30
3 Passes Attempted	16
1 Passes Completed	7
0 Passes Intercepted	1
1 Fumbles	1
35 Yardage Penalized	10
208 Yardage Rushing	63
14 Yardage Passing	126
222 Total Yardage	189

This annual grudge battle has been one that has seen one team take the advantage and hold it for several years.

It was reported that the Cyclone last beat the Rockets in 1934, but the year was 1935. In '34 the Cyclones won 12-0, in '35 the Cyclones ran up a 25-0 score.

In '36 one of the fastest teams to ever wear the colors of the Rockets scampered to a 40-21 score and started a winning streak that was to give the Cyclones an inferiority complex for 14 years.

The Rocket victory in '36 ended a Cyclone winning streak that had begun in 1925 with a Memphis 92-0 victory.

The setting of Friday night's game had all the markings of a duel to the death. The night air was very still and a heavy pall of dust was lying over the field before the kick-off. After the game a pall of gloom settled over the Wellington fans.

Not only did the Cyclones ruin the Rockets district record, they spoiled the host team's Mother's night. Before the kick-off each member of the Rocket squad escorted his mother to special seats on the sideline.

Injuries hit the Cyclone with the opening kick-off and at times the ground in front of the Cyclone bench looked like a battle line first aid station.

Coaches York and Wright worked continually keeping the patched-up Cyclones repatched and in the game.

Pete Moore's knee gave way on the opening kick-off. After coming out and getting it repaired, the potential all-district center was back in the game and played a great game on offense, although he was confined to a fast hopping run for the night.

Tommy and Charles Messer had to be repaired all during the fray and Charles was knocked out of the game entirely in the second half.

As usual, it was Tommy Messer and Carl Lee that were doing the broken field running for the Cyclones, but it was Duane Miller on whom quarterback Roddy Stargel relied for those important short gains through the middle of the line.

The first Memphis score came with such suddenness that it caught the spectators as surprised as were the Rockets.

Mid-way of the first quarter Orville Copeland punted from his own 20. Stargel took the 35 yard punt on the Cyclone 45 and hit back to the 50, the entire Wellington team surged in on him. Stargel stopped dead in his tracks for an instance and so did the Rocket squad. This instance was all the Cyclone blockers needed to form a wall of protection that carried Stargel all the way untouched.

Ronnie Smith went in and kicked the ball between the uprights to put the Cyclone squad ahead 7-0.

The last Memphis score came in the second quarter when Tommy Messer and Carl Lee sparked a drive from the Memphis 20 to the Wellington 18. There Stargel and Miller joined in the running to move the ball to the one.

Stargel handed the ball to his fullback, Duane Miller, the Cyclone bowed its neck and crashed through the pile of Rockets for the score.

Smith's kicking act was wide to the left just by inches to give the Cyclone a 13-0 lead.

Early in the second period Wellington had their first touchdown set up for them. On fourth down with Lee in punting position on the 35, the ball was snapped over the little halfback's head and Wellington took over on the 15.

The Rockets went like they had a wet fuse on two running plays, but Tommy Woods tossed a shorty to Hoot Gibson who shook off two tacklers and stumbled over the goal.

Brock missed the try for extra point and Memphis led 13-6.

Memphis put on a drive from their own 34 and Miller, Stargel, Lee and Corley, subbing for Messer, ran the ball down to the Wellington 15.

Gibson broke up the scoring threat when he intercepted a pass from Lee to Charles Messer on the five.

Wellington picked up one first down, but was forced to punt from their own 23 in the second of plays.

Starting on their own 43, Memphis put together the drive that was going to net them the winning penetration. This drive ended just inches short of a first down on the Wellington one. Miller was stopped just short of

Ledbetter Leads Over Jr. Rockets

Galloping Dalton Ledbetter led the Memphis Whirlwinds to an easy 40-0 victory over a hapless Wellington Junior High School eleven at Cyclone Stadium Thursday night.

Ledbetter scored 25 points during the game. "Red" Miles scored one marker for the ten and Carol Gardenhire took a pass from Jackie Boone and went from mid-field for the touchdown. Gardenhire also added three extra points.

Ledbetter kept the fans on their feet throughout the game with his three dazzling runs of 50, 62, and 75 yard scoring scampers. His first TD was on a plunge from the three, that was set up by a pass from little Jackie Boone to ends Carol Gardenhire and Jack Montgomery.

Late in the fourth period Lee Waddell swept the right end for a score from the ten yard line, but had it called back by a rule infraction.

Deadly downfield blocking by the Whirlwinds carried Miles, Ledbetter and Jenkins behind a wall of safety on their jaunts through Wellington territory.

The Whirlwind forward wall was loose at times but tightened to stop all Wellington attacks. Gardenhire, Miles, and Freeman were up and down the field.

On defense it was denhire, Summers and defensive wall. Ledbetter and down the field.

In the first period the Memphis ten and hire that jumped the success the quarter.

Coach George Boone came out of the fourth quarter. They were going in to play.

The versatility of backfield was demonstrated by Boone.

Boone came out of the sub and a player on the bench that they had back. Children call plays and call plays and call Waddell around right touchdowns. It was a penalty.

Let's Re-elect Ben Guill

The Congressman Who Can Get BOTH Parties to Work For THE PANHANDLE OF TEXAS

THE PICTURE OF INTER-PARTY CO-OPERATION

Ben Guill, Congressman from the 18th District of Texas, is pictured above in a candid camera shot talking with Democrat Sam Rayburn of Texas, Speaker of the House, and Republican Joe Martin, of Massachusetts, Minority Leader, the two most powerful figures in Congress. Because of inter-party co-operation like this, Ben Guill is a member of the powerful House Agriculture Committee. Because of inter-party co-operation, Ben Guill got top Department leaders to travel to Amarillo from Washington for the only small business clinic ever to be held in Texas. Because of inter-party co-operation, Ben Guill has been able to get more attention for the Panhandle than any other Congressman could have got in a full term.

BEN GUILL—through his honesty and ability—is doing an outstanding job as our Congressman. . . He deserves a full term of his own. Let's re-elect the man who has proved he can do something for the Panhandle.

Re-elect Ben Guill November 7

the first down by the entire Rocket team.

Taking over, Wellington gambled on a screen pass and moved the ball out to the 24 and a first down. On the next play Orville Copeland took the handoff from Tommie Wood and dropped back to pass. Seldon Woods was tearing down the field at full speed and Copeland uncorked a heave that settled in Woods' arms in mid-field and he outdistanced the Memphis defenders for the score.

Brock faked a placement and passed to Ingram for the tying point.

Late in the last minutes Wellington started a passing attack on the 50, moving down to the Memphis 15 when the clock ran out. The last play of the game Cyclone defenders just barely broke up a Wellington pass deep in their end zone.

To Save Democracy
Democracy is not just a tradition. Rather, it is something that must live in us if it is to survive. Our future depends upon how well each individual guards it.

We are today at one of the great crossroads of history, but we can determine our future. We can keep America free, and preserve freedom for that future.

To do that we must take an active part in public affairs. And with elections coming up in November, that means we must vote. We must study the issue, and support candidates who believe in the American heritage.
—The Graham Leader

Cotton Mess-Up
Here is one that would make Will Rogers boil if he were alive. One farmer stated that he had plowed up about 4 acres of cotton three times without getting the plow-up approved, and that he was in town to pay the penalty of 15c per pound on the excess. He said he wanted to frame the cancelled check and hang it on the wall so that he would remember how to vote in the next election. All of this coming at a time when there is the most critical cotton shortage we have ever seen and with embargoes being placed on foreign shipments and everyone hollerin' for more cotton. Seems that the weather man is not the only one who has things MESSED UP.

A Survey of Home Study Time Shows Differencer in Students

Under the direction of Superintendent Davis and Principals McElrath and Childress, a survey was made of the time each child has for home study. This question, "How much undisturbed time does your child have to devote to home study?" was taken home by all students from the second to the seventh grades.

A wonderful response was received. The first day 323 answers were returned with 69 coming in the second day, making a grand total of 392.

The length of time ranged from none to 6 hours on one return from West Ward. Two had five hours, and several had four hours. The longest time returned to Junior High was four hours. In the West Ward, the time varied between rooms from 60 to 98 minutes, and from 51 to 78 minutes for Junior High. The average time for all rooms was 96 minutes.

Many parents took the time to write very helpful and interesting notes on the questionnaire. One mother wrote that her son had told her that he had been getting his lessons in the study period, which no doubt is very true. Another mother wrote, "I will see that she has more time for home studying," which in many cases would not be necessary at all. This mother writes that she has no spare time at all as she works, but the next sentences says that she will try and help him some. Aren't mothers wonderful? What would we do without a helping hand?

One note presented a very interesting condition, "In a family of four children there is no undisturbed time." How true this is! Another note states that the student has trouble in remembering assignments, and to concentrate and to finish his home work. Then the mother asks, "How can I help him?" Another note ran like this: "Does he need more home study? I am eager to co-operate." This last sentence seems to express the thoughts of all, "I am eager to co-operate."

Many authorities disagree about the value of home study. But those who favor home study agree that a short time of concentrated, undisturbed study is of greater value than a much longer time spent under less ideal conditions. Here are some reasons for not having home study:

1. Interferes with the social life of the child.
2. Conflicts with methods used at school.
3. Eliminates the child's leisure time and play life.
4. Burns the child out on school work.
5. Kills the child's enthusiasm for learning.
6. Breaks down the fellowship atmosphere of the home.
7. Too much home work leaves the child nothing to do at school and encourages idleness.

World News Map Displayed New Each Week

There is a current series of maps here at school, although most of us don't realize it. Coach Wright has in his room a World News of the Week Map. Each week a new map is published and sent to us by News Map of the Week, Inc., Chicago.

These maps give summaries of all current events. Not only the war progress, but any decisions made by the U. S. lawmakers; restrictions put on buying; elections in other countries; any plans made by the United Nations; World Series reports; and many other things make up the versatility of these maps. Above these summaries is a numbered map that makes it possible to quickly find where events are taking place.

This map system enables the history and government students to study history as it is being made, not years afterward. One day a week these classes devote to the study of maps. Also, special reports concerning the news events are made by students and Coach Wright.

These maps are very profitable and help to make our history department one of the best.

Students Relate Embarrassing Times

What was your most embarrassing moment?
 Patsy Adcock—"I thought I saw one of my friends sitting in a car. After I had stuck my head into the window and started talking, I realized it was the wrong person."
 Margaret Massey—"At one of the most important choral concerts Mr. Keyser had ever presented, I fainted."

Pat Alexander—"At the State Home Ec. meet, when I was supposed to know all about manners. I took some bread with my hand instead of the little prongs."
 Paul Hancock—"When a little girl kissed me in the third grade, right in front of the teacher."

Patsy Hays—"Mother and I marched out with the choir and all the choir sat down except us."
