Tuesday Fire Razes Garage At W. H. Goodnight's

A fire early Tuesday morning destroyed the garage, negro living quarters, and barns at the home of W. H. Goodnight Sr., 119 S. 10th street. The fire started from an oil cook stove in the quarters of George Hays, Negro man who lived in the room behind the garage.

Mrs. Butler Stewart, who lives in the Dennis clinic apartments, turned in the fire alarm when she looked out her kitchen window and saw the flames licking up around the window of Hays' room. Hays lost everything he owned except the clothing he had on. When he rushed in the room to try to save some of his things, he dropped his hat that he had on and it was also lost in the blaze. The dry building burned with such intense heat that it scorched.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

By J. C. W.
To all my 88 readers, don't read any further if you don't care for the personal experiences of other people, for that is what I intend to write about here. If you just keep on reading, don't blame me, for I have given you fair warning.

Scout Master Ted Myers and 13 scouts of troop will receive advancements in rank and merit badges at the Court of Honor to be held at the Lions Club's regular luncheon next Wednesday, Dec. 6.

Out-of-town guest at the Court of Honor will be Huyley Haycock and Paul Biesenherzard of Pampa and Sandy Parsons Jr., of Wellington.

Myers will be advanced to the rank of Eagle Scout. This is the highest rank to which a scout can advance. Myers became scoutmaster of Troop 35 in 1944. He has attended all the camps during this time and is a member of the Order of the Arrow, a very exclusive organization within the scouting program.

In the past seven years of scout work Myers has camped out 427 nights. That is an average of 61 nights a year that he has spent on the camping trail.

Besides his scout work Myers works with the junior league program each summer and keeps a full schedule of softball teams playing all summer.

Horace Tarver Serves Dinner Aloft

Horace Tarver, local druggist, has a new title since riding a TWA Constellation plane from Kansas City to Amarillo on Thanksgiving day. The title is "Flying Waiter at Large." He was given this by an Amarillo News feature writer in Tuesday's issue. It all came about when Tarver, after eating Thanksgiving dinner with his son and daughter and their mates in Kansas City that evening, boarded the plane and a hostess announced to the 25 passengers aboard that, in view of their having missed a Thanksgiving dinner, they would be served Turkey and accessories while a route from Heidelberg Military Post, Germany, to Phoenix, Ariz. "I know you must be a Texan," Miss Rubel told Horace, "for no one but a Texan would have the iron nerve to carry those trays around the way you did, and there is that accent of yours." "In 12 years of flying," said Captain John D. Milner, "I've never seen anything like it." Horace had flown to Kansas City the day before to visit his son, Don and wife, and daughter; and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Dronberger who had driven over from Manhattan, Kansas, to be with the group Thanksgiving Day.

WASHINGTON, DC—(Special)—The lame-duck congress will be in town next Monday, Nov. 27th, for a short three or four weeks session before the new session begins. Senator Bob Wherry of Ohio, in town last week, said the congress should adjourn at home since there will be so many faces in places of leadership after January 1.

President Truman wants a billion dollar excess profits tax before Christmas. Last week the House Ways & Means committee heard groups of business men and corporations make their case against such a tax. For the hotel men told the committee last Saturday that the excess profits tax would keep them from getting any money during World War II and that an EPT would mean a tax on the profits of all hotels. By the way, this guy who got 80 percent of the hotels in the US have less than 100 and about 70 percent have 50 and 60 rooms. That counts up to 80 million small town hotels, you know. He argued that each small hotel should at least be allowed to keep excess profits before such a tax is put on them. That means that of that much above all other things, depreciation, etc. Most of them have to pay for those hotels now here in this city. They have very little money for the poor hotel operator. Anyway, they are predicted. House will pass such a tax and that the senate will never touch it in the short time of Christmas. We shall see.

This writer visited the committee hearing Saturday morning and noticed that the big corporations are the ones who are against this tax bill.

Marathons are all the rage again, in both politics and religion as well as in sports. Governor Tom Dewey spent about 16 hours on television in New York City on the day before the recent election which cost his party about $17,000. Now comes a group of church folks in Washington who put on an 18-hour marathon last Saturday, starting at 5 a.m., reading the New Testament all the way through without stopping. Of course, they divided the job, many different persons taking his turn in the pulpit at the reading job. They got through the last chapter about midnight. At various times during the long day, the group stopped for prayer and hymn singing. Government officials, educators, students, policemen, lawyers, ministers, businessmen and diplomats participated in the marathon held in the Foundry Methodist Church, not far from downtown. A grocer read the first verse at the early hour to about 70 persons. The purpose was to offer a national testimonial to the importance of the Scriptures in troublous times the world is now passing through, said one of the Bible society officers.

While many leaders, both military and civil, in this city are privately worried over the fact that there are some 400 thousand Chinese Reds grouped on the Korean border, inside Manchuria the feeling here is that Russia is running one of its biggest bluffs, hoping to "scare" the United Nations into giving the Chinese Communist membership in the World Council. There is now a lot of talk about a possible uprising of the Russian people against their Communist dictators. This may be a lot of wishful thinking, you know, so don't count too much on the war being over any time soon. Most of us know now we are already in a third world war, with possibilities it will spread soon.

Christmas Lights To Decorate Palo Duro Canyon

Inside 1-24 Christmas lights The lights will go on again this year at Palo Duro State Park when Christmas Tree Canyon will have its second annual showing. Last year a score or more live cedar trees were decorated with Christmas Lights and several Christmas scenes were prepared. The interior of El Coronado Lodge was especially decorated for the Christmas Season. The event attracted large crowds and many asked that it be made an annual Christmas attraction.

Business firms or organizations are invited by park officials to have a part in the event again this year. Park employees will aid setting up any Christmas scene or in lighting any tree that groups care to sponsor. The Christmas decorations which last year extended from the entrance gate to Mesa Mecca below El Coronado lodge may be extended to other areas of the Canyon if cooperative participants desire.

An added attraction this year will be a trio of buffaloes and two real old Texas Longhorn Steers which will have their own special Christmas Season decorations in the form of a tableau depicting the Christmas of a lone cowboy in the Palo Duro during the late "Seventies."

High School Band House Equipment Valued At Approximately $7,000

The band house of Memphis High School is a building that the students of MHS and the citizens of Memphis should be proud to have. Usually one would think of a band house as a room where a group gathers to receive enjoyment from playing their musical instruments. Not only is this a place where students get enjoyment but a place for study and work.

The band house has four rooms, the rehearsal room, the instrument room, the uniform room and the music library room.

The rehearsal room, the largest of the four, is painted pale blue three-fourths of the height of the room, and the ceiling is a creamy white. Approximately 66 chairs are placed in rows according to sections of instruments. The chairs have just recently been purchased and along with the director's stand their value is estimated to be about $600. Mr. Keyser's desk is located near the west windows. Reeds, mouthpieces, and music are found on his desk for the members of bands to purchase for their individual instruments. A blackboard with the music staff drawn on it is on the east wall. Also, on this same side is a long bulletin board with certificates, pictures and cartoons pertaining to music. A book case and a table are at the south end with books and music of different types.

Along the top of the blackboard and bulletin board are pictures of majorettes, band, and plaques.

The bass horns, piano and telephone are on the stage at the north end of the building. On this stage, the trombones and bass horns are seated during rehearsals.

Two large tables, known as the instrument tables, are in the south end of the building. These tables also hold books during rehearsals.

Just off the east side of the stage is a small instrument room with shelves and a table for students who play the larger instruments. In this small instrument room, instruments such as trombones, french horns, mellophones, and cornets are kept.

The school owns approximately half of the instruments that are used by A Band members. These instruments are the higher priced instruments, such as four bass horns, priced at $1,600, three French horns, priced at $600, three baritone horns, $600, 3 snare drums, 2 scotch bass drums, priced at $300, two tenor saxophones, priced at $300, and an oboe, priced at approximately $100. This total comes to approximately $3,200 and this is just the beginning of all the things the school owns for the band.

The music is placed in a small room with a file cabinet and built-in shelves. The music is valued at approximately $1,000. That includes choral and band music, along with piano music of Mr. Keyser's.

During the summer, the only time out of the year when the uniforms aren't in use, they are placed in a small room adjoining the music, library, and rehearsal room. Before the uniform is checked in, it must be cleaned and placed in a moth protector. The uniforms cost approximately $60 each, making the total of uniforms at about $3,000. The choral robes value at $300 so likewise, they are kept in good condition for future use.

After reading this article on the band house and equipment, you can readily see what a wonderful opportunity the students of MHS have in the study of music in Memphis High School.

"Bashful Bachelor" Appears At M.H.S

The first public appearance of members of the newly-organized Cue and Curtain Club will come Monday evening, December 4, at 7:30 when they present Anne Ferring Weatherly's three-act comedy "Bashful Bachelor." Practice has been going forward for the past two weeks, and the audience is promised a clever, humorous, well-acted performance.

Set in the old, aristocratic Abbott living room, the play hurtles through the embarrassing experiences of the bashful bachelor, who finds himself surrounded by a bevy of admiring co-eds; the near-theft of the Abbott family heirloom—a string of valuable pearls; a sidesplitting fiasco of charades; and eventually the circumstances which metamorphose the main character from the bashful bachelor.

Easter, an all-around smalltown dandy servant of the comfortable, flat-heeled variety, is ably portrayed by Pat Goodnight. Shirley Foster does the petite role of Molly Abbott, grand-niece who has come to live with Miss Abbott; Viola Woodbury, a languid, descending, "misunderstood," young woman who lives in a dream world of her own is dramatically played by Eudine Gable. Nancy Stanford, with her bouncing energy and scintillating personality, is a "natural" for Betty Jean Wilson. Roddy Stargel furnishes his share of laughs in the role of Freddy Weber, an earnest boy of nineteen, who tries to be ultramanly because of his deep devotion to Betty Jean. Excitable, impressionable, eager-for-social approval Mrs. Todd is done to the exact turn by Patsy Sue Hays. Kindly, gentle, peace-loving Professor Todd, who is completely under the control of his sprightly wife, is acted with sidesplitting humor by Scotty Grundy. Miss Abbott, the aristocratic, dominant old lady of a vanished order, is artistically characterized by Beryl Davis. Bertram Evers, the roughish, prankster buddy of the bachelor, is a fitting part for fun-loving Jackie Gilbert. Don Payne, as the bashful bachelor, author of the stupendously successful novel, "Man of Mystery," is doing decidedly the best theatrical work of his high school career. Miss Blythe-dale, an elderly, gushing woman who thinks she can write poems all but "steals the show" under the skillful artistry of Ann Spoon. Miss Bixby, a townswoman with a flair for publicity, is played by Minnie Lee Jackson, student director of the play. Mr. Henderson, a smalltown photographer, is acted by Troyace Rhudy. Although this is not a heavy role, Troyace, with his experience in handling the camera, makes it important. The burglar, who has learned of Miss Abbott's valuable pearls, but who finally decides that he is "going nuts," is competently played by Jack Spry. College girls include Betty Ann Goodall, Patricia Alexander, Patsy Jean Adcock, Barbara Castner, Patsy Combs, Gereta Graham and Beverley Snell. The two policemen who arrive in time to save the pearls are Don Ray Rasco and Bill Cowan.

ones Win 37-21 ds Lose 64-8

Wright's Memphis Cyclones racked up their first win by beating the Cyclones 37-21 in Cyclone night.

The scoring attack was led by two boys tied for honors. Lee Bloxom and Tom Messer both scored 10 points. Grundy hooked six Kennedy made six quick field goals.

The Tiger attack was led by Tom Meeks, who hit the outer edge of the Cyclone defense, scoring several times by the half and scoring on Kennedy put the Cyclones in the opening end to steal a pass and lay-up shot.

The Cyclone defense was on the outside edge of the night. The Cyclones lost at the end of the 10-5, and at half the third quarter.

Holmes within four points of 15-19. Joe Metcalf, Hollis coach, threw an interception that broke the Cyclones that broke the defense, but Messer made two quick field goals to tie the Cyclone time together.

In the fourth quarter the Cyclones began to falter, the Tigers' eye for the Cyclone escaped.

The game played before the Tiger battle it was such a close and not such a close. The new Cyclones. The new Cyclones were no match for the Cyclones veterans as the Cyclones indicated.

Diane Casserman made the first quarter to the six in front and the Cyclones were never in the game.

the first quarter, but came back in the second half to score nine more points and make her total for the night 23.

Layena Longley, whose features resembled a model's more than a girl cager's, scored 14 points for second place honors.

James L. Bain Plains Pioneer Dies At Pampa

Last rites were held Monday, Nov. 20, for James L. Bain, a pioneer citizen of Hall and Donley counties, in the First Methodist Church at Clarendon.

A number of relatives and friends of the family from Memphis and Hall county attended the funeral.

Bain died in a Pampa hospital Sunday morning. He had lived in Hall and Donley counties since 1896. He taught the old Rowe school west of Hedley and was in the dry goods business in Hedley for several years. He later became County Judge of Donley county. He also went in for farming and ranching before he retired.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Methodist Church. The Rev. John A. English, pastor of the Clarendon First Methodist Church conducted the services.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ethel Bain, two daughters, Mrs. C. S. Boston, Mrs. Rex Howell three sons, Gordon Bain, J. I. Bain, and Woodrow Bain; on brother, J. L. Bain of Hedley.

Tuberculosis causes more death in the United States than all other infectious diseases combined.

HALL COUNTY GRIDDERS PROVE OUTSTANDING FOR TECH FROSH

The Texas Tech coaching staff has rated two Hall county boys as outstanding freshmen prospects for the Red Raider football squad for the next three years.

These two boys, Andy Gardenhire of Memphis and J. J. Barlowe of Lakeview, were outstanding athletes in high school and are continuing to be outstanding on the college gridiron.

Gardenhire is rated as the Picador's greatest change-of-pace fullback. Most any coach in district 2-A can testify to his running ability. The Tech basketball coach is also watching Gardenhire with a gleam in his eye.

J. J. Barlowe was a bone-jarring fullback while playing for the Eagles. He is rated as one of the toughest linebackers in the business. He took the switch from fullback to tackle in his stride and the coaches rate him good on both offense and defense.

One of Gardenhire's opponents in district 2-A was Gene Hammill of Shamrock. This big tackle is now considered one of the freshmen's best downfield blockers.

Halfback Don Lewis, who gave district 2-B coaches plenty of trouble with his running, has moved right on up from Quitaque and has played in every game this year, although he is the youngest man on the Picador's squad.

M.H.S. Girl Cagers Bow to Lakeview

The inexperienced girls' basketball team from Memphis journeyed to Lakeview Tuesday, November 21, for their first tilt. This is Memphis' first girls' team in about twenty years, and there is much enthusiasm over this added sport.

The Eighth Grade team began its game at 7:00 o'clock. Betty Spencer, who acted as captain led the team by scoring 7 points. Mona Scott came next by making 3 points. Della Kennedy chalked up 2 points, and the other point was made by Billie Hartsell, giving the team a final count of 13 points.

Lakeview racked up a total of 27 points.

The "A" teams began play at about 8:00 o'clock. Lakeview, who led throughout the entire game, gained 54 points to Memphis' 16. All but one point of Memphis' scores were made in the second half, while Lakeview made 26 points in the first half.

"Mickey" Murdock was high-point girl with 10 points. Patsy Armstrong came second with 5 and Leona Robertson made two points.

Girls who are on the "A" team are Margaret (Mickey) Murdock, Patsy Armstrong, Leona Robertson, Martha Howard, Patsy Jarrell, Norma Townsend, Joan Webster, Beth Murdock, Jessie Faye Hammonds, Marjorie Simmons, Patricia Alexander, and Opal Greene.

Mrs. Irons, Players Attend Clinic

Mrs. Irons and four girls interested in basketball went to a basketball clinic at Amarillo Jr. College held Saturday, Nov. 18. The clinic was held from 9 until 12 o'clock. Girls from Amarillo Jr. College and West Texas State College demonstrated various offensive and defensive plays. Explanations of revisions made to the rules this year were given. The speaker invited questions after each explanation. The demonstrations were very profitable to help understand the new rules.

The girls that Mrs. Irons took to the clinic were Norma Townsend, Margie Simmons, Leona Robertson, and Patricia Alexander.

The first Christmas Seal Sale to fight tuberculosis was conducted in Denmark in 1904 and was inspired by Einar Holboell, a postal clerk.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The Memphis High School "A" Band has started working on Christmas pieces to present during the holidays.

Several of these pieces are: "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful," "Silent Night," "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," "Jingle Bells," and many other well-known Christmas hymns and carols.

The Senior choral club has received a Christmas cantata. A cantata is several different songs on the same thought combined in one. Throughout the cantata there are several solos, duets and trios. Students who are to sing these have not yet been chosen.

MRS. NEWTON RECEIVES AUDIOMETRY CERTIFICATE

Mrs. Newton, first grade teacher, received a certificate from the Texas State Board of Health for completing a course in audiometry. Mrs. Newton attended last year and this year she studied the clinic at Lubbock. She reported that 17 people attended the clinic.

Ernest R. Rolston, Health Education Consultant, lectured on the proper use of the audiometric equipment. During the three days that the clinic was held, all who attended practiced putting into use the things that Mr. Rolston spoke about.

HOME EC. GIRLS

The Home Economics Club has been selling Christmas cards for the past few weeks. The winner of the contest for selling the most cards was Jessie Faye Hammonds; her prize was two dollars.

The club is also baking cookies and selling them during the noon hour in the gym.

The money from both these projects is going to be used to send a group of girls and Mrs. Wilson, their sponsor, to the state meet.

with LAYNE BEATY
WBAP, Ft. Worth

Coming up on the train to Chicago, where this being hammered out, we met several people from Texas and Oklahoma also headed for the events of this big week in Windy City.

The thing that was mentioned most often by some of the fellows was this new idea of getting two lamb crops per year from ewes.

Experiments are being run in two places in the U. S. now, using a combination of hormones to see whether ewes can be made to produce lambs twice in one year and with satisfactory results.

Actually, they have succeeded in getting the repeat performance on the lambing but so far something has been wrong.

Either the lambs didn't stand up to it, what with the need for lots of milk and constitutional stamina, or the second crop of lambs was weakly.

So, it appears that, like color television, some more work is going to have to be done before we can say this thing has been a success.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has developed a new remedy for screw worms, known as EQ 335, which is supposed to be more effective than Smear 62, which has been in general use about eight years.

But laboratory men tell us that they still sell about as much of the old time remedies as they ever did, in spite of the proved efficiency of the newer scientific preparations.

Not many people can remember when as much good grass was lost due to fires as has been burned this fall.

It will mean less meat and higher costs of production. People who deliberately set fire to meadows are in effect burning just so many dollar bills.

About the most popular speaker to agricultural group in Texas these days is C. E. Fisher, superintendent of the Spur experiment station. Not that Charley is any great shakes as a speaker, but the things he reports about using 2, 4, 5-T on mesquite constitute about the hottest subject to most livestock men.

W. B. Senon of Stamford, who rode up on the train with us, has considerable faith in the mechanical method of eradicating mesquite by using two tractors to drag a heavy chain across the brush, knocking it down, but he admits that 2, 4, 5-T sounds like it has promise.

It has been suggested that poultry and egg producers across the nation join together to advertise and promote greater use of chicken meat and eggs. This is in the face of removal of egg price supports.

The dairy and meat industries have had noteworthy success in similar endeavors. The turkey people started a few years ago and think that advertising has helped put more turkeys on dinner tables and in restaurants.

Getting Drunk Is a Poor Way To Celebrate at Any Time
Getting drunk on a holiday, or at any other time, is a poor way to show appreciation of the greatness of America. Yet we have too many folks who have the idea that getting drunk is the proper method of celebration, whether it be Thanksgiving, Christmas, Fourth of July, a baseball victory, a football game, or any other local or national triumph.

A speaker in Canyon last week said there were enough church members in Texas in just two denominations, the Baptist and Methodist Churches, to vote Texas dry if all of the members really wanted to oust liquor.

We recall the sage warnings of a citizen of Canyon years ago when he remarked that the nation would never be dry so long as church members continued drinking liquor, and going on the bonds of criminals who were caught in crime because of liquor.

The liquor interests are putting out reams of propaganda, telling the folks how much revenue is paid by liquor; but the fail to tell the whole story. They refuse to add up the misery which liquor brings to the homes of America; the billions of dollars in cost of car wrecks by liquor; the thousands of persons killed weekly on the highways because of liquor; the gambling joints and houses of prostitution which are backed by the liquor interests.

Texas will likely be given a chance to pass upon another constitutional amendment banning liquor from the state. Of course the liquor interests will tell you that it cannot be enforced; that it costs too much; but they will fail to tell you that a determined people may accomplish anything that they set out to do.

VETERANS NEWS

Q—My uncle, a World War II veteran, died in 1947, leaving my aunt a $10,000 GI Insurance policy paid in a lump sum. The policy also listed two contingent beneficiaries. My aunt died in 1949, before receiving the special NSLI dividend. To whom will the dividend be paid?

A—the dividend will be paid to your aunt's estate, and not to the contingent beneficiaries. When your uncle died, your aunt was vested with the right to all benefits of the policy, including the dividend—thus precluding the possibility of the dividend going to the contingent beneficiaries.

Q—I was in the Army for only two months, when I was discharged for a service-connected disability. Am I eligible for VA hospital care?

A—Yes. Apply at the nearest VA regional office.

Q—I am an ex-WAVE, in need of hospitalization for a nonservice-connected ailment. There are no beds available for me at the VA hospital near my home, and my physician says I am in no condition to travel long distances to another VA hospital. What can I do?

Chalmers MOTOR KIT
gives new life to your tractor
Want us to make your tractor run like new again? Now is a good time to schedule it for a power overhaul.
Let us install an A-C Motor Kit, the factory-made repair package for a complete renewal of the "power zone" of your tractor engine. It contains cylinder liners, pistons and rings. Because these parts wear together, they should all be replaced at the same time to give new engine performance.
These kits are made of the same materials and to the same specifications as the original parts in your Allis-Chalmers tractor.
The sure way to renew Allis-Chalmers performance is with genuine Allis-Chalmers parts and service.

Pot Calls Kettle Black

The old proverb of "cleaning one's own back yard before trying to clean your neighbor's" might well apply to the federal government and its suits against big business.

The federal lawyers are trying to break-up these big concerns for the protection of the American people, or that is what government officials say they are doing. It is too bad that a person must have permission to sue the government, for then the citizens as a whole might sue the government to break up the ever growing government monopolies and protect themselves.

The federal lawyers are attacking the big grocery concerns, watching the oil industry with eagle eyes and keeping their finer on the pulse of all big business. While it is sitting on private enterprise the government has set up the Tennessee and Columbia valley authorities, so as to compete in the power industry, tried to get its hand into the states' schools system through federal aid to education, and is now trying to force itself on the medical profession through socialized medicine. As a whole the government has pushed and grabbed for more power at every turn.

The federal tactics remind one of the tactics of the old western cattle barons as they fought to keep the "nesters" small, so that they could grow ever bigger.

Maybe big business must be regulated, but there is a wide difference in regulation and strangulation.

EL DORADO, KANSAS, TIMES: "One of the strangest anomalies in the often giddy procedure of recent . . . administrations is the policy of trying to break up large corporations, and then calling upon these same corporations for eminent services when the safety and welfare of the country are concerned."

Christmas Fires

Thanksgiving is over and Christmas is bearing down on the Panhandle like one of our famous northers. With Christmas comes the Christmas tree, decorations of lights, cotton, tinsel and stockings over the fireplace. All these decorations give the yuletide season the glitter that makes Christmas bright, but along with this glitter comes the grim fire hazard of all these inflammable materials.

Every year thousands of people see their homes and all their life-savings go up in a fire caused by these Christmas decorations.

When you decorate this Christmas be sure the tree lights are good and have no faulty connections. Be sure you have no decorations around the fireplace that can catch fire. Take all the precautions necessary to prevent a yuletide fire.

Santa Claus will want a nice, warm house to visit on Christmas Eve night, not a bed of smoldering ashes.

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

A Monument of Time
 It takes only a moment to write a check or slip some bills into an envelope. If the envelope is addressed to the Texas Tuberculosis Association, that brief moment may help save a life.

Some of us neglected to take that moment to acknowledge our Christmas Seals when we received them in our mail last November. It is easy to put something like this aside during the busy, pre-Christmas days. But it is not too late to take a moment off to make our return for the Seals.

Funds realized from the sale of Christmas Seals are the sole financial support of the association in its work to bring tuberculosis under complete control in our community. The activities of the association include such worthwhile projects as case-finding and health education.

Continuation of these activities may make the difference between life and death to some of our residents. Surely all of us want to support the work of our tuberculosis association. It will take but a moment to tell the association we are back of its life-saving program, only a moment to acknowledge our Christmas Seals.

—Graham Leader

Trial—Error
 This is a country where government is carried on by trial and error. It has to be that way in a republic and more so in a democracy, such as the United States is becoming more and more as it leans toward socialism. Thus do we explain to ourselves, without becoming unduly warm under the collar about the things that are happening to us. The error is found, if an error it be, after the trial is made. This is preliminary to reference to the tax dodging which is legal for churches, schools and some others, including cooperatives. Some kind of corrective measure to get these people in line will be adopted eventually, we imagine. It will come a bit more quickly if the heavy tax forecast beginning soon, is clamped on. A man gets restive when he finds himself paying a tax bill he thinks another man should be helping

CITY PAVING BOND ELECTION CARRIES. The election last Tuesday carried 144 to 28 in favor of issuing bonds for the purpose of paving streets of Memphis. This gives a splendid majority and shows that Memphis citizens are awake to the needs of more paving and also a progressive spirit.

It is believed that the $50,000 bond issue will take care of the city's need of at least 40 blocks of paving, which will be mostly in the residential section of the city. SITE SECURED FOR NEW MEMPHIS HOTEL—Plans have been formulated for immediate procedure on the erection of a new and modern, 45 room hotel which is to be built on the site now located by Thompson Bros., Hardware Co. according to information received this week by the Democrat. The new building will have a 75 foot front on Main street and depth of 150 feet to the alley.

GREENE DRY GOODS STORE AGAIN VISITED BY THIEVES LAST SUNDAY NIGHT—For the second time in the past few weeks the Greene Dry Goods store has been robbed. On Sunday night entrance was gained to the store by breaking out the back glass door and lifting the cross bar. This was practically the same way entrance was gained the first time store was entered. Clothing, hat, shoes, gloves and several other articles were taken, but later recovered.

Takes A Doctor's Advice

Gas Station Man's Aches Pains Leave Completely First 3 Bottles Of HADACOL

Father helped, too, who also had deficiencies of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin

Wesley Scallions, energetic young gas station attendant in Peoria, Illinois, tells how HADACOL keeps him on the job. Wesley Scallions has this to report:

"I took HADACOL upon the advice of my father who has taken it regularly for some time. He could not eat, was unable to get around, lost sleep and was generally run-down because he had these deficiencies. My brother who is a doctor recommended HADACOL to Dad. Since taking HADACOL, Dad has been feeling like a different man; he now has a hearty appetite, sleeps well and gets around once again on his own."

"I have had pains in my right arm and legs due to these deficiencies. I lost many days of work until I started to take HADACOL. After my first three bottles the pains left me completely and now I work every day without having any pains. I am a gas attendant and need full use of both arms and legs in my line of work. Thanks to HADACOL I can now perform my job satisfactorily and feel fine."

Don't Be Satisfied With Symptomatic Relief

Don't be satisfied with symptomatic relief—HADACOL makes it possible to actually relieve the REAL CAUSE of those cruel nagging aches and pains when due to lack of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin in the system. Continued use of this great HADACOL not only gives continuous, complete relief but helps keep such painful distress from returning.

Quail Season Opens December 1; Limit Cut To 10 Here

Quail season opens tomorrow, Friday, Dec. 1, and the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission reports that hunters may look forward to improved hunting in most of the state this fall.

Here in the 28 counties of the Panhandle the bag limit is only ten birds a day as compared to twelve in the rest of the state. Possession here in the Panhandle is 20 birds.

West of the Pecos the season is open only in December. The bag limit is 12 and possession limit is 20.

There is no open season on Mearns quail.

N. T. Eagle Causes Confusion Campus

Scrappy, North Texas State College's new untamed mascot, is a source of confusion.

Scrappy is now, of course, a North Texan. But actually, he is from South Africa. And Scrappy is receiving his education and training from a student, Dick Dimanno, who is from Pennsylvania.

Since his arrival on the campus two months ago, Scrappy has been kept in a cage, but with Dimanno's assistance the young golden eagle made his first out-of-the-cage appearance at NTSC's homecoming game with the University of Nevada Nov. 16.

But the biggest problem of all is Scrappy's sex—no one knows if he's male or if she's female.

Pearls of Wisdom

Strung by J. H. R.

Constructive habit which began early in life and through adolescence is the "reading habit" a curiosity to know between the covers of a book for the knowledge to be had by reading. In the "open Sesame" of the "magic carpet" to the "read because one must" of the "golden rule" of the "cool shade of green willow grove" from the world and its with the birds and the that I love.

Real treasures of life. David Grayson who said, "The world of books—if it is not the obligation to read, or look upon it as a waste of time, or a sign of idleness, but enter into it with all the enthusiasm of an adventurer." Since man has been writing, he has been writing down his thoughts to amaze and confound his contemporaries and those who come after. By use of Egyptian hieroglyphics, Chinese characters, and divers other symbols, men of letters have tabulated their ideas for posterity. Plato, Aristotle, Hugo, Goethe are among the great minds who have left the world literature of books. Only recently a magazine conducted a poll to determine what books had most influenced the lives and contributions of men of letters. The list is as follows:

1. The Bible
2. The Iliad
3. The Odyssey
4. The Aeneid

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kesting

How many times have you taken your gun from your shoulder and wondered how an earth you could have missed such an easy shot? It happens to all of us. So if we can eliminate the mystery and find out why and where we miss, the information should help us correct the fault the next time.

Now it's been said that shotgun shooting is not a sport but an art; that to hit a fast-flying bird requires such perfect timing and teamwork between mind, muscles and eyes that it must be classed as an art. Really, then, to miss is no mystery. When you miss an ordinary chance, one of many possible things just upset your nerves and they didn't function on schedule.

Perhaps the greatest handicap a man has in field shooting is the desire to possess. You want that bird and a bubble comes up in your neck and your co-ordination goes haywire. So relax, and take stock of the situation.

When I go into a slump duck shooting I always find that I am snap-shooting out ahead of my birds. No man can snap-shoot at long range effectively. I have to force myself to slow down.

Snapping an empty gun at game a few times will often pull a man out of a slump. Ray Holland furnished this trick and I have helped friends a number of times with the stunt. I put an empty shell in the friend's gun and hand it to him. He walks up to a pointing dog, flushes a single and snaps his gun at the flying bird. I take the gun and reload it again with the empty. I may tell him that one of these times it will have a loaded shell in it. When it does, he kills his bird.

Everyone has his bad days, and when you start missing, it will probably help you to snap a few empties. You don't need someone standing behind to give you a load when you don't expect it. And just remember: even the best of shooters miss occasionally. That's fine, for without the misses there would be no thrill in the hits.

Tuberculosis has taken the lives of approximately 4,500,000 persons during the 20th century.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease, spread by persons who have the disease in active form.

Warfarin Kills Rats and Mice

Warfarin, a new rat killer released by the University of Wisconsin Research Foundation, appears to be one of the most effective poisons available for the control of rats and mice.

The active ingredient of the new poison is coumatin, a compound found in sweetclover which affects the clotting of blood, says J. E. Poore, assistant district leader for the Rodent Control Service. Rats that have eaten warfarin baits for several days become less active, develop internal hemorrhages, and slowly bleed to death.

Poore says that one advantage of warfarin over many of the other rat poisons is that it is odorless and tasteless. Rats will continue to eat the bait until they die.

Warfarin is now on the market under the trade names of various chemical companies. Poore cautions that the warfarin baits should be mixed according to the manufacturer's instructions.

According to Poore, mixed bait can be secured in 100 pound lots from the Rodent Control Service at San Antonio. Rodent control service fieldmen and county agricultural agents and representatives of other public service organizations can order the new poison.

Climate is not important in the treatment of tuberculosis. The most important factor in treatment is rest, which should be under medical supervision.

Walker mentions the fact that control tests on other species of brush are also in progress, but they have not reached the advanced stage of mesquite research.

without detecting the presence of the poison. Another advantage lies in the safety with which it can be used on the farm. Warfarin is poisonous to all warm-blooded animals, but the amount recommended for controlling rats and mice is so small that there is little danger of farm animals or people being poisoned accidentally.

Even though warfarin is considered an extremely safe rodent poison, Poore warns that the usual precautions should be taken to prevent accidental poisonings on the farm.

For the poison to be effective, it is necessary for rats to eat warfarin baits over a period of five or more successive days. Grain or cereal types baits, which are not readily eaten by cats and dogs, may be mixed with the poison, thus reducing the possible danger of poisoning these farm pets.

RUBBER FROM OIL PROCESS SAVES CRITICAL MATERIALS. Successful production of synthetic rubber from butadiene without the use of critically short styrene, has been attained by scientists. The new rubber is made entirely from raw materials derived from petroleum. The process makes possible greatly speeded production of synthetic rubber without dependence on scarce materials.

Visitors See Work On Ranches Of Mesquite Control

Visits were made recently to 16 of the 26 ranches in Texas on which field tests for controlling mesquite are being conducted. The off-station tests are being carried on by the ranchers under the direction of C. E. Fisher, superintendent of the Spur Experiment Station and Dale W. Young, assistant agronomist with the Bureau of Plant Industry, and with the assistance of local county agents and P.N.A.

The group making the tour, which was led by Fisher, included representatives of the Production and Marketing Administration, the Agricultural Experiment Station, the Extension Service, chemical research men, and airplane operators.

From observations made on the tour, the ester of 2,4,5-T still appears to be the best chemical for the control of mesquite. Three-fourths pound acid of 2,4,5-T in three gallons of water and one gallon of diesel oil gave the most consistent and promising results in all the tests studied. Included are sprouts, seedlings, and small and large trees.

Mesquite on the ranches visited was sprayed by airplane during the spring of 1950. A. H. Walker, range specialist for the Texas A. & M. Extension Service and one of the group making the tour, says that, although it is too soon to determine the final results of the spraying, the work definitely looks promising.

Walker reminds ranchmen that the present goal of this experimental work is to find a practical method of mesquite control, rather than mesquite eradication. A mesquite kill of 100 percent is not expected.

The immediate objective is to find a low cost method of control which stockmen can afford. For the method to be practical, the increased carrying capacity of the grazing land plus the ease of handling livestock must pay the cost of applying the control. Application costs for ester 2,4,5-T runs about $3.50 per acre for both material and flying.

Spraying with an airplane is the best method of applying the chemical mixture for controlling mesquite when there is no danger of damaging field crops. However, Fisher and Young caution that airplane operators should be experienced in brush control spraying and the airplanes should be properly equipped. Apparently the coarser the droplet size of the chemical, the better the results will be. To be most effective, the chemical should be applied at tree-top height.

Mesquite spraying gives the best results when the chemical is applied in the spring at full leaf stage, which will be six to eight weeks after the first leaves appear. If ground moisture conditions are not favorable, the control results will probably be disappointing, apparently because the chemical is not translocated properly so as to kill the roots. Fisher and Young suggest waiting another year if conditions are not favorable.

They warn against the danger of using 2,4,5-T in areas where susceptible crops are grown. This compound has been known to drift as far as eight miles in a high wind. Small droplets are carried easily in the wind, and application made 20 to 30 feet above the tree-tops add to the drift danger. Although 2,4,5-T may do wonders when properly applied, Walker re-
