Hall County Cotton Tops 28,477 Bales

Hall County cotton production released by the U. S. Department of Commerce census report shows that 28,477 bales of cotton have been ginned from the 1950 crop prior to January 16, 1951.

Ace Gailey, special agent released the census figures this week. This census report this year compares with 85,003 bales from the crop of 1949 as of this same date.

Contest winners for this past season will not be announced until later this year when all census report figures have been compiled.

Ginning activities in the county have slowed to almost a halt. Next month will probably see the end of ginning activity for the past season.

CRITICAL SITUATION

"The U. S. is in one of the most critical situations in history," Lewis said. "For the U. S. is the only nation in the world powerful enough to push the cause of Freedom."

"We should be bragging about our capitalistic system instead of apologizing like so many people are inclined to do."

The best and surest way to combat inflation is to have efficiency and economy in government—for inflation is a far greater enemy than any foreign foe!

"When are we going to get smart?" Lewis asked. In the last election more than 47 million people didn't vote and at least 28 million didn't buy a poll tax leaving more than 19 million who just plain forgot to go to the polls.

Slowly it seems our country is drifting toward greater complacency in each election."

IN MEMPHIS "The way to combat this complacency—to start right here in Memphis—with each individual—do your share, your part—for the local population can do what they want to do—it's up to us," Lewis said.

Past President of the Chamber of Commerce Herschel Combs served as toastmaster and introduced Mr. Lewis. The Rev. Roy Shahan gave the invocation. H. J. Howell introduced guests at the banquet and J. W. Coppedge introduced new officers.

Ace Gailey recognized past presidents of the Chamber of Commerce. Dinner music was played by the high school orchestra, directed by Perry Keyser.

SYMBOL The symbol of office of president, a bow-tie, was turned over to the new president, Wendell Harrison by retiring president Combs. Other officers for 1951 include Vice President J. W. Coppedge, Secretary John Fowler, and Manager Clifford Farmer.

Board of Directors includes M. C. Allen, John Fowler, Ace Gailey, Carl Harrison, Herschel Combs, J. W. Coppedge, Wendell Harrison, H. J. Howell, J. J. McDaniel, Tommie M. Potts and James F. Smith.

Lions To Honor Scouts Wednesday

Scouts of Troop 35 will be guests of the Memphis Lions Club Wednesday for their annual Scout birthday party.

Boy Scout week all over America begins February 6 and lasts through February 12. The Scouts will put on a 30 minute program during the party including "Weapons of War" by Scoutmaster Ted Myers and "Survival Under Atomic Attack," by members of the troop.

Because of the unusual program Myers has requested all members of the Club be present. Weapons of War is a talk on all types of weapons through ages. Survival Under Atomic Attack is a feature showing how to protect yourself during an atomic blast. Information for this program was furnished by the Scouts by the U. S. Defense Board.

Only one half as many poll tax receipts have been sold this year as were sold for the year 1950. As of 5 p. m. yesterday, 1371 receipts had been issued.

A minus 2 degrees was recorded early today to give Memphis the lowest temperature in several years according to J. J. McMickin, local weather recorder.

The mercury climbed to only 20 degrees yesterday. Sunday night was the second coldest night when the temperature dipped to 4 above. Warmest day recorded was last Friday when the mercury ranged between 41 and 81 degrees.

Wednesday morning's early snow, about an inch, recorded only about one tenth of an inch of moisture.

This will be one of the first church awards presented to a boy Scout in Memphis. Jerry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hill, 521 N. 13th street.

which from then on had a positively identifiable character. Presently he was shown undeniable proof that the sound was readily audible to other ears. A woods mouse suddenly darted from beneath a bunch of grass while the weasel was still several feet from it. The squeaking of the mouse in its terror was plainly brought in through the hearing aid, as was the sound of its running on the crusted snow.

Red has been listening to the sound of various ducks in flight. He can now actually identify a few species at some distance, just by listening to the particular sound of their wings!

So here is a whole new world for the sportsman and amateur naturalist — respectable eavesdropping on Nature.

VET PROBLEMS AND ANSWERS

Q—Lately I've been reading a lot about "side payments" on GI home loans being illegal. Exactly what is a "side payment" and how is it made?

A—Here's an example that should answer your question. A veteran wants to buy a home, priced at $12,000, with a GI loan; but VA's reasonable value for that home is set at $11,500. The seller refuses to come down, so the veteran in his eagerness to get the home, agrees to make an under-cover "side payment" of $500 that would not be reflected in the purchase price reported to VA. Such a payment is illegal. It also defeats the purpose of the GI Bill to protect veterans against excessive prices for homes.

Q—I have a certificate of eligibility for GI training, which I received from VA back in 1946. May I use that certificate to enroll in school next month?

A—No. Certificates issued by VA prior to October 19, 1949, are void and must be replaced with new ones. The new VA certificate will show the course and school the veteran has selected and will be good only for that course and school.

Q—I have been training under Public Law 16 for 3 years and have been declared rehabilitated. I'd like to continue training under the GI Bill, as I have one more year of entitlement remaining. May I do so?

A—Yes. You may utilize your remaining entitlement for GI Bill training, even though you were rehabilitated under Public Law 16. But you must begin GI Bill training on or before July 25, 1951; order to continue thereafter. Q—My nephew was discharged from the Army because of a wound he received in Korea. Is he entitled to VA hospitalization to have his service-connected disability treated, even though he is not a World War II veteran?

A—Yes. All veterans are entitled to hospitalization by VA for treatment of service-connected disabilities. Q—I filed a claim for a non-service-connected pension and I have a question about the $2,500 per year income limitation which applies to me as I have dependents. I received a check on December 26, 1950, for selling real estate but I won't cash it until 1951. Is the check considered income for 1950 or 1951?

A—The check must be applied to your 1950 income. The rule is that acceptance of a results in income in the year received, even though it is later.

The isolationist now says that the U. S. should fight itself — this ought to please Stalin immensely.

SPORTS AFIELD

By Ted Kestring

Hunters are often exasperated because deer can hear them, but they can't hear the deer. I know a man who did something about it — Red Leekley. He was intrigued by the realization that all around us there is a world of sound which we humans know nothing about. He eavesdropped on that world and had one of the most amazing and exciting outdoor experiences one could hope to have.

A partially deaf acquaintance Red met on the street one day unwittingly put him on the right track. He wore a hearing aid. What would a sound booster of this kind do if he hooked it up to his normal ears?

The idea was so exciting he could hardly wait to get one and take it out into the woods. He built a blind in a section of the northern Wisconsin woods which he knew was well stocked with deer and other wildlife. Then he hid himself with a feeling akin to buck fever and began his first attempt to listen in on nature at home, at work and at play. The first blasts were a startling experience. Red didn't know whether to duck, to run or just sit tight and pray. There were creakings and groanings, rustling a sound of distant feet running at full speed. There was an ominous swishing and a clack, clack, clack.

The clack he eventually identified as his watch. The swish took awhile, but finally he noticed a crow was calmly flapping his way overhead, well above tree top altitude. Do you see, now, how the approach of a crow or hawk does not often go un noticed by other creatures, with their sensitive and trained hearing?

Once Red spotted a weasel whose camouflage was nearly perfect. He then learned his sound.

the Railroads RESPECT...

the Labor Unions seek to REPUDIATE this agreement!

What is the TRUTH?

At various states in the present dispute with the brotherhoods of railroad operating employees... the railroads agreed to arbitrate. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the recommendations of President Truman's Emergency Board. The union leaders refused. ... the railroads accepted the White House proposal of August 19, 1950. The union leaders refused. Finally an Agreement was signed at the White House on December 21, 1950. Now the union leaders seek to repudiate the Agreement. The railroads stand ready to put the terms of this Agreement into effect immediately, with back pay at the rates and date indicated. The Agreement is given in full below.

8. Agreement embodying principles applicable to yardmasters to be entered into for benefit of yardmasters.

9. Effective October 1, 1950, the basic hours of dining car stewards shall be reduced from 225 to 205 hours per month; no penalty overtime to accrue until 240 hours have been worked, the hours between 205 and 240 to be paid for at the pro rata rate.

Provided, however, that if as the result of government wage stabilization policy, workers generally have been permitted to receive so-called annual improvement increases, the parties may meet with Doctor Steelman on or after July 1, 1952, to discuss whether or not further wage adjustments for employees covered by this agreement are justified, living formula. At the request of either party for such a meeting Doctor Steelman shall fix the time and place for such meeting. 11. If the parties cannot agree on details of agreement or rules they shall be submitted to John R. Steelman for final decision.

The usual protections for arbitrators, miscellaneous rates, special allowances, and existing money differentials above existing standard daily rates will be included in the formal agreement.

W "98" OLDSMOBILE.—Above is shown Oldsmobile's smart new Holiday Sedan for 1951, one of the company's models which is being in dealer showrooms this week. The Series "98" cars are mounted on a 122-inch wheelbase. They are powered by an improved "Rocket" engine with the compression ratio increased to 7.5 to 1.

Oldsmobile Display at Potts Chevrolet

Oldsmobile for 1951 offers a restyled Series "98" line with distinctive improvements in exterior appearance and suspension and important additions in the application of high speed engine design principles. The 1951 line of four body styles in the Series "98" and four in the Series "88" is introduced to the public. The new car is on display at Potts Chevrolet Co. in Memphis.

Oldsmobile is confident that acceptance of its new 1951 line will be as gratifying as has been in the past several years," said J. F. Wolfram, Oldsmobile's general manager. "The standard of quality that Oldsmobile has established through its long history of excellence is being maintained, with improvements in appearance, car performance. The "Rocket" engine and Oldsmobile's post-war body design have both contributed to Oldsmobile's record which topped 387,000 units in 1950.

Compression ratio of the 135-horsepower "Rocket" engine covers the Series "88" and "98" Oldsmobiles, has been increased to 7.5 to 1. The combustion chamber of the engine has been redesigned to obtain advantages not wholly dependent upon octane fuels. A new distributor, air cleaner, and waterproof sleeves on spark plugs have been added to improve the performance of the engine.

Four body styles offered in the luxurious Series "98" are the Holiday four-door, Holiday coupe, deluxe coupe and the convertible. Wheelbase on the "98" is at 122 inches but the length has been reduced to 119 1/2 inches. Hydra-Matic Drive is an optional extra on "98" cars. Body styles are available in the 1951 Oldsmobile "88"—four-door and four-door sedan, deluxe two-door and deluxe four-door sedan. Wheelbase is at 119 1/2 inches and length is 202 inches. Hydra-Matic Drive is offered as optional equipment on all 1951 models.

For riding ease will be in the 1951 Series "98" through the use of new rear springs instead of leaf springs. These springs are of semi-elliptic type, 58 inches long and 2 1/2 inches wide. They promote the smoothest of ride through the new six-point spring system that is emblematic of Oldsmobile's engineering.

Body trim on the 1951 "98" cars features highly polished stainless steel. Distinguishing features of the "98" include spear-like ornamentation on the front fenders, a chrome panel on the four-door sedan, and a chrome trim strip along the rear window instead of horizontal chrome trim. Under the headlights, the "98" sedan, the leg has been increased in the rear by almost 2 1/2 inches, moving back the seat and a recess in the back seat. A redesigned frame will offer more rugged fabrication. The cross-member now is of the rigid I-beam type instead of channel steel construction, making for greater solidity and safety. The new leaf-type rear springs are controlled by double-acting shock absorbers, which coordinate their action with that of the "knee-action" front wheels. The front springs continue as the coil type. The mid-point of the leaf springs is located six inches behind the rear axle. This eliminates the body dip upon initial acceleration that is quite common in cars using semi-elliptic springs.

Hydra-Matic Drive, which was pioneered by Oldsmobile on its 1940 models, is improved in the 1951 installation. Shifting into reverse has been made easier by utilizing a new method for this shift. The 1951 Hydra-Matic Drive utilizes a friction reverse engagement, which means merely shifting a hydraulic valve to reach reverse. This replaces a reverse pawl arrangement which did not always respond readily.

REPORT FROM AUSTIN

By A. J. ROGERS, Rep., 121st District

When your 52nd Legislature convened nearly four weeks ago there was much made of the speed with which the new Speaker of the House of Representatives made his committee appointments. These new committees were announced the 2nd day of the session. Ordinarily these committee appointments require several weeks to formulate. Mr. Speaker's observers were joyous. Here, they said, is a Legislature that will get down to work in a business-like manner and save time and money. Four months later, your Legislature is still "wasting time." We have no new laws, no new taxes or new spending. It should now be obvious that the customary period of so-called "wasting time" is a very necessary period during which new legislation must be written, corrected and re-written; a time during which new members must feel their way; and as a time when committees must organize and formulate plans for the new legislation and its presentation. This is, then, a necessary period of constructive foundation building through which any such governing body must pass.

During the past three weeks some 400 bills, resolutions and constitutional amendments have been introduced, and most of them introduced, for consideration. Perhaps most important of these for the broad spaces of West Texas are the various re-districting bills. While the Legislature consists of a definite and fixed number of members they are required, by the Constitution of Texas, to re-approach their Legislative and Senatorial Districts on a basis of equal amounts of population per district—this to be done each ten years. This has not been done since 1921 but under a new law will have to be done this year—if not by the Legislature, by a special commission for that purpose. West Texas will gain many new members due to the development and population growth of the area.

Unfortunately, the immediate area of our 121st District has shown little or no increase in population. Therefore, the four counties of our District, Hall, Motley, Cottle and Childress, will either be split and added to other districts or will have their area added to it. At this early date it is not possible to make a good guess as to the fate of our counties under the various re-districting plans. None of them predominate in strength as yet.

Two years ago, Representative Grainger McIlhenny of Wheeler and I offered a bill to establish an agricultural experiment station in our immediate area. Our legislation passed the House of Representatives but was derided by the Senate. We are again offering this same legislation and believe it has an excellent chance of passing in the House of Representatives.

Representative McIlhenny and I have talked to many people who are interested in soil conservation and development in our area. We believe our soil is our greatest resource. We believe that the soil and climatic conditions of the counties immediately below the Cap Rock are different from those found elsewhere in Texas and are not under study by any presently established agency. Please write your Senators and help us make this bill a law and a reality.

May I thank all those who have sent me cards and letters. It is the only way in which I can know how you wish to be represented on many issues.

Cracked Nutts To Be Class Play

"Cracked Nutts" has been selected as the annual Senior Class play. The cast for the cast of the play was held at 7 o'clock on January 22, in the Senior Gymnasium.

The story of Miss Drualla who is determined to send her niece, Peggy and Ginger, to college, is the play.

Miss Drualla is very strict with her nieces and when she leaves the house, she sends the maid, Mrs. Gussie Garwick, to look after them.

Several members of the Speech Class, under the direction of Mrs. Roy L. Guthrie, presented a play "Thank You, Doctor", Wednesday afternoon at 4 P. M. for the Little Theatre Club. The play, a melodramatic farce in one act, was written by Gilbert Emery.

Donald Payne played the part of Doctor Gurney, an eminent brain specialist. D'Armon Peabody was the Detective who passed as a patient to gain entrance into the Doctor's office. Jacky Gilbert was the jewelry store delivery boy mistaken for a patient.

The play evolved around the theft of a valuable string of pearls which were finally taken from Mrs. Lester through the brilliance and trickery of the detective.

Refreshments were served to the club members and the cast by co-hostesses, Miss Lura Mai Hightower, Miss Ethel Hillhouse and Mrs. Raymond Ballew.

Cyclones Defeat Price 53-42

The Memphis Cyclones outscored Price College in the Cyclone Gym Friday night, 53-42. This is the second time the Cyclones have defeated Price College this season. On December 15, at Amarillo the Cyclones defeated them 58-44.

Scotty Grundy scored twenty-two points.

Lee Bloom was second with eleven points.

In the first quarter Price College came as near as five points but lost balance for the remainder of the game. At the half the score was 26-16 still in favor of the Cyclones.

The Cyclone "B" squad beat Price College second string 36-29. The "B" squad has improved since the last time they played. This was the first defeat of the Price College Cardinals B team this season. The Cyclone "B" team was out to win since Price defeated them at Amarillo, January 15.

Bennie West, high point man made eight points while Julius Stevens came in second with seven points.

Fowls hit them hard as Jimmy Morrison and Julius fowled out in the last half. Rayford Hutcherson threw a surprising hit as he made two points just as the bell sounded.

Girls Basketball Captains Elected

Basketball captains elected last week were Sue Wesson and Patsy Armstrong.

Sue is 5 ft. 7 in. tall and weighs 112 lbs. while Patsy weighs 125 lbs. and is 5 ft. 6 in. tall. After school when the girls think they are pretty tired, they could still enjoy playing a game of basketball with Mrs. Jeanette Irons, their teacher sitting on the bench "pulling for them."

Patsy, a freshman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Armstrong, and Sue a sophomore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown, have quite a few years to play together during their basketball career.

That's because the curved cleats are evenly spaced, the same distance apart at the center as they are at the shoulders. Cleats are parallel to form an unobstructed channel which allows natural cleaning. The tire stays clean—another aid to maximum traction.

The Spice Chest
 the days of handle-bar moustaches and leg-o-mutton sleeves, a kitchen of most tidy in the "spice chest" was a miniature cupboard filled with various herbs and spices from all parts of the world, from Ceylon, Sumatra and the Indian Islands. Sumatra and the Indian Islands used in all sorts of ways to give a tawny flavor to the cuisine. The cabinet itself, a decorative piece painted in gay flowers and the labels of various spices adorned the drawers.

I have my house, I will suit myself. I have what I'll call my "Concent Shelf": with all manner of herbs, spices, and chutney for meats and bottles of extracts rare, and garlic will both be... and saffron and savory.

stuff that I'll buy from an Hindu.

many of our aromatic herbs are imported from the sea islands, that group of the Archipelago is called Spice. From there, nutmeg, cloves, and mace are exported to this country. Nutmeg, the nut is ground and used in desserts but will also fillip in a butter sauce and is the final for a pleasing glass of egg-cream there was too a spicy story "The Nutmeg Tree".

ground outer husk of the berry, mace, is quite tasty used in chocolate sauce or instead of the usual cinnamon. However, many prefer the inner bark of the cinnamon tree filled baked acorn with unsweetened apple-sauce sprinkled them liberally with sugar and cinnamon and steam them in the broiler, you need a treat. Cloves (whole) are necessary to sweet pickle peaches and onions can be pointed up with whole cloves to the sauce. Allspice, the scented of a West Indies shrub, has a native, subtle flavor as if nutmeg, and cinnamon blended together. Try it in a hard sauce for steamed pudding.

of our condiments and a them comes to us from our English ancestors—such marjoram (sweet), growing among copse-hilly soils of Great Britain when dried is excellent for soups, dressings, and meat.

From India, coming to us and, is curry powder savory or meat stews. Bay leaves from a plant of the laurel family and a native of Palestine used in meat and fish but also impart a savory to tomatoes when simmered with them. Powdered basil, member of the mint family which chefs while rosemary (the mint genus) is re-ly Italians with any lamb sauce too lends a tang to roast lamb!

Throughout Europe rosemary sprays are woven into both marriage and funeral wreaths as an emblem of remembrance and fidelity. In our own Vermont sage leaves are mixed in cheeses as they are in many European countries. And with out sage, turkey dressing or sausage would be sad concoctions. A teaspoon of thyme added to a pot doast makes good eating and, of course, the dill weed celery and caraway seeds have their place in pickles, salads, and breads.

For stronger flavors and sturdy digestions, there's always the garlic clove a relative of the lowly onion and reminiscent of the Italians and Mediterranean countries. Then there are the three kinds of pepper (red, white and black) the best of which comes from Malacca, Java, and especially from Sumatra. White pepper is the choice pepper berries stripped of their outer husk and the red (Cayenne) pepper, as well as chili pepper, is the ground pods of the capsicum, a shrubby plant native to the Indies, China, and Egypt but adapted to other countries.

Hot dogs without mustard would be nil and who doesn't know the homeopathic remedies of hot mustard foot baths and mustard plasters for pleurisy. And who doesn't know the pungent fragrance of grandmother's spring tonic of sassafras root tea? Sassafras, a shrub in this country grow to tree size farther south and is also a member of the laurel family. The fleshy, aromatic bark of the root, through unfit for cookery is brewed in a tea and oil of sassafras is used in perfumes. Ginger reminds us of ginger bread hot from the oven and dripping with butter. The plant from which ginger powder is derived is reed-like with knotty rootstocks parts of which are ground and used as seasoning in pastry. The beautiful ginger blossoms, large white purple-streaked flowers growing in the Hawaiian Islands are woven in to leis by the natives or worn in the hair of Hula girls as they sway 'neath the palm trees of the tropic isle. Swaying ginger blossoms and grass skirts... quite a savory mixture, n'est-ce pas?

NEW SHOW BARN

Heated Sales Arena

Long-term Investment that pays daily dividends

THESE are days when thoughtful people turn their minds to the durability of things they purchase—and that makes good sense at any time.

But you may have noticed that it's a rare occasion when doing your duty turns out to be the best way to satisfy your heart's desire.

That's what's so marvelous about this '51 Buick.

If you picked a car just for the lift it gives you—your pride in its power and pace—or its generous comfort and room—you couldn't make a better choice.

But make note of this:

That gleaming new push-bar forefront, which greets your eye with flashing beauty, contains 25 grille bars made of stamped steel, individually mounted to "give" and come back unharmed. Combined with a massive, wrap-around bumper, fortified by two stalwart "bumper bombs" and two added uprights, it gives unsurpassed protection.

The springs of stout spiraled steel on all four wheels let your wheels dip and curtsey over uneven highways, while you ride level as a lance. But these springs also need no servicing, and breakage is virtually unknown.

Buick's great-powered engine is a Fireball, wondrously lively and eager at the mere touch of your toe—but it also wrings extra power from every drop of fuel, and has the mechanical perfection that comes only from years of experience with this basic design.

Dynaflo Drive gives every mile you drive effortless smoothness of control—but it also eliminates clutch repair bills, saves tires, puts less strain on the whole driving mechanism, from engine to differential.

The road-steady gait of a Buick gives you a sense of relaxed security—and is also evidence that you have a durable, deep-silled, X-braced frame beneath you.

However you check it, you'll discover this: The things that make you yearn for a Buick on first acquaintance, are the very same things that make Buick such a smart long-time buy.

Better make it a point to see your Buick dealer—soon.

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

No other car provides all this:
 DYNAFLO DRIVE* • FIREBALL POWER
 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING • DUAL VENTILATION
 PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT • TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE
 WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS • DREAMLINE STYLING
 BODY BY FISHER

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

banquet, was very much in line with that of Martin Diss. His subject, "Freedom is Not Free," warned Americans that every time we ask the government for something we are selling our freedom just that much. The greatest cause of our getting away from the freedoms we once cherished comes about because of lack of interest on the part of citizen in the right and privilege of the ballot. Less than 50 per cent of qualified voters go to the polls Lewis claims.

Two Amarillo news reporters Harry Hoare of Amarillo News and W. U. McCoy of the Amarillo Times, have attended two functions in Memphis the past week—the Club Boys stock show and the Chamber of Commerce banquet. McCoy was editor of the Democrat a few years ago. Both men gave the two events full coverage.

The Amarillo News is having one house this week and thousands of people are reported attending the affair. The News is in its new building which is equipped with new machinery and nice editorial offices.

While in Austin Saturday, I saw Representative A. J. Rogers of this district. He thinks in its redistricting program the Legislature may place Hall County in the Collingsworth, Wheeler and Donley district, and Childress, Motley, Cottle and Hardeman in another district, and is not too happy about it as Hall County has always given him a heavy vote.

Rogers is co-author with Representative Morrison of Chillicothe of a bill to set the minimum price of gas at 10 cents per thousand cubic feet, in line with that already adopted by Oklahoma and Kansas. This bill should by all means pass, but is likely to have tough sledding because of the opposition of the big oil and gas lobbyists.

More than 200 newspaper folks attended a reception at the governor's mansion Saturday afternoon tendered them by Governor and Mrs. Allan Shivers. They are both gracious hosts and the affair was enjoyed by all.

Two items in Wes Izzard's A to Z column in the Amarillo News recently caught my eye: "Amarillo is about to have a brand new, A-1, first class, solid gold, all wool, yard wide citizen. His name is Jimmy Smith, the Memphis, Tex., banker, a hard-working civic minded community leader if there ever was one. He has a bank in Silverton too, and other financial interests that require his opening a headquarters here. He has bought a home here and will be one of us." The other item: "It's too bad that future generations can't be here to see all the magnificent things we are doing with their money."

Mrs. R. I. Leslie, a former resident of Memphis and now of Warren, Mass., sent a check recently for a subscription to The Democrat and enclosed the following note: "I do not know how to tell you that I like to get your paper. I spent 43 years of my life in Memphis and am always interested in old friends and also weather conditions as I still own the Leslie farm south of Wellington. My children, Ila Joe, Robert, Rosemond and Wendell Wands Leslie, all live near me except Wendell who lives in St. Petersburg, Fla.—all married. You should visit Massachusetts. It is beautiful here in June July and August. The trees, flowers and water scenery are great."

Childress Baptists have called as their pastor Rev. B. J. Martin, son of Rev. Sid F. Martin, district missionary of Texas Baptist Convention and former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Memphis.

Mr. Winburn, the weather man for many months omitted the possibility of moisture in his forecasts, relented this week and began to say we would have moisture in the way of rain and snow. He finally forced snow all over the Panhandle, and the ground was white this Wednesday morning. He should have started getting tough a month ago.

At the C-C banquet, Wendell Harrison was introduced as the president of the organization for the ensuing year. Wendell has a lot of what it takes to get things done. His predecessor, Herschel Combs, who, by the way did a good job as toastmaster at the banquet, is due much credit for a good program of development of this area the past year. He has been assisted by capable men who are directors of the organization.

Staff Sgt. James T. Hardage, who is stationed with the Air Force at Anchorage, Alaska, visited here over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Hardage and at Clarendon with his wife and daughter, Suzanne. He left Tuesday to report back to duty at Anchorage.
