Baseball Nine May Enter New League This Year

Officers, directors and interested citizens met last Friday evening and voted against the Memphis Baseball team playing in the Red River Valley league this season.

While plans are still in progress for Memphis to field a team this year, negotiations are underway to have the local club play in the Caprock League, which calls for about one game per week.

"Mounting expenses caused us to vote against participation in the Red River Valley League," President E. A. Smith said. "This Caprock League, if it can be worked out, will provide us with baseball games, yet the expense will not be near as large."

Other announcements concerning the team will be made later, Smith stated.

Aldermen Named for Committees

Commissioners who will head the six departments of city government were named by Mayor Carl Harrison Monday evening at a special meeting of the city council, and plans were outlined by the new administration for the coming year.

After the mayor and four aldermen were sworn in, Harrison named the following members to departments:

Fire Department: O. L. Helm, Wendell Harrison and J. W. Johnson.

Police Department: O. V. Alexander and E. C. Rice.

Streets and Alleys: Wendell Harrison and Frank Monzingo.

Sanitation: O. L. Helm and H. J. Howell.

Airport, Cemetery and City Parks: Frank Monzingo, J. W. Johnson and O. V. Alexander.

Mayor Harrison told the members of the council that it was the responsibility of each group to do their duty and that the council would go into closed meetings when important issues needed to be discussed.

The council elected O. L. Helm as mayor pro tempore, D. L. C. Kinard was elected as secretary-treasurer for a two-year term and Ace Gailey was elected as assistant secretary-treasurer. Sam J. Hamilton was renamed city attorney.

After lengthy discussion, the city council went on record as endorsing the proposed cattle feeding plant, and agreed to do all they could for the project.

Cattle Controversy Re-Opened For City

Local Groups Hold Consultations with Amarillo Cattlemen

Renewal of interest of Amarillo cattlemen in Memphis as possible site for a proposed cattle feeding plant was assured Wednesday afternoon, according to Wendell Harrison, president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development.

Assurance was given by Eddie Johnson of Amarillo, after a delegation of 12 Hall County citizens met with him and reopened discussions on the matter.

In the group were Tomie M. Potts, Wendell and Carl Harrison, Robert Moss, Doyle Hall, Arthur Eddleman, Del Wells, Judge M. O. Goodpasture, Buster Helm, James F. Smith, F. N. Foxhall and M. D. Kennard.

Johnson told the group that Amarillo cattlemen were definitely interested in setting up their plant near Memphis. He explained that they planned to build feed storage barns immediately south of the oil mill on the north end of the property south of the mill. They definitely want all their property outside the city limits.

He told the group that if they came to Memphis, they also wanted assurance that there would be no injunction suits filed against them.

In discussing sanitary conditions, Johnson said that it was impossible to fatten cattle under any unsanitary set-up. He assured the men that manure would be hauled out and ricked in a location far enough southeast of the pens in order not be a nuisance to residents.

He stated again, that the plant would not be located here, if it was not wanted. Enormous quantities of alfalfa and baled forage would be purchased here and fed supplemented with grains and cotton seed products.

Johnson stated that no petitions signed by Memphis residents had been received in Amarillo.

Regarding specific location of feeding pens, Johnson used an air map to pin-point their set-up. He marked a point which would be the extreme northwest corner of the nearest pen. A measurement from this point to residences on South 6th Street showed the distance to be approximately one-quarter mile.

Harrison stated that the Amarillo men who were interested in setting up the feed plant here wanted the good will of the people of Memphis and the farmers.

"If the people can assure them that this is forthcoming, I feel sure that we will be a long way toward getting the proposed feeding plant," he added.

A LESSON FOR US

Last month this community witnessed three tragic highway accidents which snuffed out five lives and hospitalized 10 persons.

Cannot this be a warning to us? Cannot we observe the lesson that others have paid?

One of the sorriest symbols of our times is the automobile accident record of our country.

The 1950 almanac of crash data has recently reached us and all of the facts about auto accidents, the most significant is this:

Almost 500,000 casualties in 1950 were the direct result of speeding. One out of every three Americans who lost their lives in the year's wrecks met death because someone was driving too fast.

Speed has been causing a greater percentage of accidents year after year. In 1950, speed was a greater factor in traffic casualties than at any time in history.

Traffic laws and law enforcement are a part of the answer. Engineering will help some. But with perfect roads and perfect police work, the man behind the wheel can continue to exceed the speed limit if he wants to or if he isn't thinking.

Keep this in mind when you drive. Stay within speed limits and you'll be doing your full part in a crusade to reduce automobile accidents by one third.

The booklet records a total of 35,500 fatalities last year compared with 31,800 in 1949.

This discouraging picture reverses a post-war trend during which, although the numbers of registered motor vehicles increased steadily, the number of persons killed annually decreased.

In 1950, there were 3,700 more persons killed than in 1949 and there were 235,800 more persons injured last year than in 1949. Among that number of injured persons, no one knows how many more might have died if not for expert medical attention given promptly. Nor does anyone know how many of those injured will spend the rest of their lives under physical handicaps which rival death itself as tragedies.

The report indicates that 1950's toll of killed is the highest since 1941's all-time record of 40,000. It is not a proud record.

We who drive—and walk—along the nation's highways and streets are responsible for the record. We ARE the record. We must accept this responsibility by driving and walking carefully.

Press Paragraphs—

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

THE TRUTH ABOUT LAND GRANTS

When it is pointed out that the railroads, alone of the commercial transportation agencies, pay their own way in every phase of operation and receive no tax subsidies, the friends of the subsidized carriers have a stock answer. It is that the railroads received enormous benefits in the early days in the form of land grants.

It's time that the general public gained a more accurate idea of just how the land grants worked. So here are the facts.

First of all, of the total railroad mileage in the United States today, about eight per cent received land grants as an aid to construction.

Second, contrary to the popular impression, the grants were not gifts to the railroads. In return—until Congress changed the law a few years ago—the railroads carried government freight, including the mails, at less than the established rates.

Third, the government made a very handsome profit on the grants. The 131,000,000 acres of land-grant lands the rails received were valued at $125,000,000. The best figures available indicate that the railroads paid back, through rate reductions on government traffic, approximately ten times that amount. Moreover, the railroads created a market for hundreds of millions of acres of public lands which were previously unsalable at any price because of lack of transportation.

Today the railroads have no subsidies of any kind, direct or indirect. By contrast, the motor carriers, the users of the inland waterways and the airlines are subsidized to the tune of billions—in the form of costly highways, publicly-built airports, high rates for mail, and so on down the long list. The rates they charge, in other words, pay only a part of the cost of carrying on the business—and the taxpayer, in one way or another, pays for the rest whether he uses the services offered or not. Only the railroads are self-supporting.

HIGHWAYS ARE NOT EXPENDABLE

A drive is now underway to stampede the states into permitting the use of their highways by trucks larger and heavier than those allowed by present laws, and the needs of national defense are often cited as a justification.

In the light of that, the opinions of experts are needed. Here, for instance, is what the president of the American Association of State Highway Officials recently said: "During World War II entirely too many high ranking persons assumed that our roads were expendable—A highway system cannot be considered expendable. It would not be possible to replace or repair it quickly, even if the costs in money, manpower, materials and equipment could be spared from other defense needs."

Sometime back the Commissioner, U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, said, "We are overloading our highways in their traffic volume capacity and in their structural capacity—The results are so costly both to individuals and to the public, that they total a disgraceful and extravagant waste in the nation's true economy." He also said, "Road damage caused by overloaded trucks has in recent years grown to alarming proportions."

The fact is that present state laws regarding the big trucks are extremely liberal for the most part—and in some cases are excessively so. Every motorist has seen the tremendous damage these vehicles cause—and all of us are helping to pay the bill. In some states construction of needed new roads has had to be postponed because of the excessive cost of repair and maintenance of existing arteries. The drive to force the states to allow still heavier loads, at a huge additional cost to the taxpayers, should be stopped in its tracks right now.

NATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL WEEK

The week of April 9 to 15 is National Non-Sectarian Sunday School Week.

For the past generation the United States has been under the shadow and effects of world wars. We have had depressions and false prosperity caused by war. We have been so busy with material matters that many of us have forgotten the simpler things that make life really worth-while.

How many families dress up on Sunday morning and go to church and Sunday School as was the custom in less strenuous days? Children are losing something by being out of touch with some religious activity. Going to Sunday School gives a child an intangible character foundation to tie to in later life.

Six years ago a group of public spirited citizens of all faiths established in the United States a National Non-Sectarian Sunday School Week.

It is asking little of parents to devote an hour or so each week to see that their children have an opportunity to attend some Sunday School. An important time to begin is now.

Doctors Advise To Use Controls On Chiggers

With a few well placed bites a tiny little six legged animal, so small it's hardly discernible without a microscope, can make a red-eyed, itchy insomniac out of a sound sleeper.

Whether you call them red bugs, harvest mites, chiggers or Eutrombidium alfreddugesi, their scientific name, State Health Officer George W. Cox warns you're due to meet them this spring and summer, especially in lawns of Bermuda grass.

Chiggers, Dr. Cox says can spot an unkept lot a block off, and take to those places like a hungry chicken takes to corn. When you're enjoying a lounge outside on a balmy spring evening, they'll go to work. The itching starts at bedtime, and continues all night.

Seems as though chiggers have declared open season on humanity beginning about May and lasting until cold weather of fall and winter reduces their (the chiggers') numbers. Contrary to common belief, Dr. Cox says do not burrow into the skin, but merely attach themselves by their mouthparts and suck blood until they're engorged.

That severe itching is caused by an anti-coagulant material they inject into their host, according to the health official. Favorite spots seem to be feet, hands, and stomach. Secondary infection in the form of boils and sores results from persistent scratching.

Dr. Cox says chiggers are tough to control in heavily wooded sections, but in lawns, camp sites, and picnic grounds where grass can be cut close, the job can be done inexpensively and without much trouble.

He recommends dusting or spraying the area with crude benzene hexachloride at the rate of 2 to 5 pounds per acre.

"Your summer will be more pleasant for the effort," the doctor advised.

VET PROBLEMS AND ANSWERS

Q. My eyes have been bothering me since I left military service. May I get eyeglasses from the VA?

A. VA will furnish eyeglasses only under three conditions: if VA judges they are necessary for a service-connected disability; if they are needed as part of hospital or domiciliary care, or if they are needed for proper continuation of Public Law 16 training.

Q. I have completed four years of college under the GI Bill, during which time I received quite a large number of textbooks at Government expense. May I keep the textbooks, or must I now return them to VA?

A. The textbooks are yours, and need not be returned to VA.

Q. Where do I apply for institutional on-farm training under the GI Bill?

A. Apply directly to the school in your locality approved to offer the training. The school then will transmit your application to VA for approval of the agency.

You get only the best of service when you bring your to Kermit Monzingo, your Chrysler-Plymouth dealer. Adv.

New Consumer Items to Be Priced Under OPS Frozen Markup

A number of additional items of consumer goods, accounting for seven billion dollars in retail sales annually, will now be priced under the "frozen markup" Regulation CPR 7, H. R. 8036, acting district OPS director at Lubbock, has announced advice from Price Director of Dallas's office in Washington.

The new items are musical instruments, radio and television phonographs and records, watches, notions, luggage, clothing, and silverware, jewelry, glassware, and clocks. OPS estimates that this amendment would affect about 76,000 retailers over the country who do not sell any of the commodities originally included in the "pricing chart" regulation.

The OPS office estimated that about 100,000 retailers will be affected in the OPS region of Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. The OPS office will be affected in the OPS region of Texas.

LETTERS FROM READERS

A HEART TO HEART LETTER

Dear Friends: Let me say this.
 "I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers to be feared. To preserve our independence, we must not let our rulers load us with perpetual debt. We must make our choice between economy and servitude, or profusion and servitude."
 "If we run into such debts
 we must be taxed in our consumption, in our necessities and in our comforts, in our labors and in our amusements. If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy."
 "The same prodigality which in private life forbid our paying out money for unexplained projects, forbids it in the disposition of public funds. We are endeavoring to reduce the government to the practice of rigid economy, to avoid burdening the people and arming
 the Magistrate with a patronage of money which might be used to corrupt the principles of our Government."
 These words reflect the sentiment of my heart in both local and higher forms of government but they are the words of Thomas Jefferson. He wrote them more than a hundred years ago.
 They reflect an insight into things

Hall County Farmers Do You Agree?

THE EDITORS: It has been my attention that Hall County is on the verge of losing something of its kind in this part of the country. A business which would furnish a livelihood for a number of people along with a better demand for products that Hall County has about everyone in the community would directly or indirectly benefit. As for the sanitary problems, they should not be brushed aside but with the modern sanitary techniques available at the present time, that part could be taken care of. All of the large packing companies in the larger cities are getting along with this problem satisfactorily.

I think that a large majority of the farmers of Hall county, if not all, feel the same as I do about this.

In cordial regards,

Dr. Mattie Wooten Is Guest Speaker At B&PW Club's Annual Bosses Banquet

"Let us say an extra prayer tonight that we as Americans can come together and talk about the things that concern us," Dr. Mattie Wooten, director of the sociology department of Texas State College for Women, told members of the Business and Professional Women's Club and guest at the annual bosses banquet last Thursday evening in the Masonic Hall.

Speaking on "Beyond the Reach of the Law," Dr. Wooten explained that we have gone beyond the reach of the law when we live within its legality but break every creed that is honorable.

She stated that much of the corruption in our government today is because some of us have lived beyond the reach of the law.

"Every human being is powerful and no nation or club can be stronger than its members," she pointed out, "If we cannot vote for an honest man, but sell favor of office for money, whether it's a job or some other favor, then we cannot help but have corruption in our government. What we need in America today is citizens guided by honesty and integrity."

"When we do not respect our law we are selling out. If we don't like the law, change it, but until you do, live within the law. Communism can't destroy America. But America is doomed if it cannot be salvaged from corruption now prevalent in our land."

"You can do something about it. America is built of units and you can stop corruption in your own community. Vote for honest men. And through your homes, schools and churches train your children to be honest, upright citizens. Let honesty, integrity and honor rule your lives," Dr. Wooten concluded.

Roselyn Williams, club president, was toastmistress. The invocation was given by Margaret Davenport.

Special music for the evening included piano selections by A. D. Britt, Jr., of Estelline and novelty numbers by Genta Vaughn and Cora Powell of Childress.

Banquet tables were attractively decorated featuring a spring motif. Cleverly fashioned bird houses and seasonal flowers were combined to form the decorations. Covers were marked with attractive hand-made booklets decorated with butterflies and flowers.

Approximately 70 members and guests were in attendance.

Miss Eudora Hawkins Gives Informative Address on Nutrition at Culture Club

Miss Eudora Hawkins of Abilene, representative of West Texas Utilities Company, gave an informative address illustrated with formative address illustrated with members of the Woman's Culture Club Wednesday afternoon April 4. The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, 713 South 7th.

"In America, the land of plenty, it is sad to note today that seven out of ten persons are undernourished," Miss Hawkins said in introducing her talk.

"Why is this true when there is plenty of food for all?" Miss Hawkins ask. "There are three principal reasons. First, I would list limited incomes; second, unwise spending of the food dollar; and third, the unwise habit we have of eating only the foods that we like."

"The six basic foods needed to form a balanced diet can be compared to a chain made up of six links," Miss Hawkins pointed out. Any time one of these essentials foods is left out of the diet—that link is missing—and the chain is no longer whole. Let us, as homemakers, see that our families eat the proper diet," Miss Hawkins concluded.

Miss was introduced by Mrs. Clifford Farmer, chairman of the program committee. The afternoon's devotional was given by Mrs. C. D. Morris.

Mrs. Robert Moss, president, presided during the short business session. During the tea hour, dainty refreshments were served in the dining room. The table, covered with a lovely white linen cloth was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers. Mrs. D. A. Grundy, the club's only charter member,

Radio listeners were deeply shocked Wednesday morning when they heard that General McArthur had been relegated to the background, both as commander of UN forces in Korea and as Japan's occupational commander. While we at home feel that an injustice has been done to the popular general, we do not know the facts underlying what this country is facing, therefore are not in position to declare the authorities have made a mistake.

Cattle Controversy

They invited C. of C. officials, farmers and business men familiar with the program to attend.

Robert Moss, who presided at the meeting, told the group of approximately 50, that every dealer in Memphis was for the feeding plant. He called upon Wendell Harrison, president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development, to give a full report of the proposition. Harrison's report was followed by discussion of different angles, and reasons why opposition had arisen.

The group adopted the following statement, addressed to Eddie Johnson and Jay Taylor of Amarillo:

"At a meeting of implement dealers, farmers and business men held April 10th, a motion was made and unanimously carried that this committee be instructed to express the appreciation of this body to Mr. Eddie Johnson and Mr. Jay Taylor for their interest and efforts in trying to locate extensive cattle feeding facilities in Memphis.

"Furthermore, it is the opinion of this body that the majority of citizens are favorable to the plan and urge that final decision be withheld until such time as the people have an opportunity to work out a plan that will be satisfactory."

This statement was presented to Mr. Johnson at the meeting in Amarillo Wednesday.

Dr. Odom Named President-Elect Of Medical Group

Church Attendance Climbs in 1950 For Methodists

Methodist church school membership reached 5,958,368 in 1950, according to a report just released by the Department of General Church School Work of the General Board of Education. The gain was 159,686 or 3 per cent for the year.

Among other gains were increases of 4 per cent in average attendance at Sunday school and 2 per cent in the number of officers and teachers (total officers and teachers, 497,528). Every Sunday last year an average of 2,990,594 persons went to Methodist schools.

Church school membership increases were reported in all six jurisdictions. Largest gain was in 62,661 (total church school membership, 1,626,358); South Central, including Texas, had second largest, 28,006 (total, 1,109,827).

During 1950 church schools in their Fourth Sunday offering to World Service and Conference Benevolence contributed $2,656,598.

Of the 317,597 persons joining The Methodist Church last year on profession of faith, 178,701 or 56.26 per cent came from the church school. "The ratio of approximately 6 out of 10 additions to the church coming through the schools, has persisted year after year and indicates the crucial importance of the church school in evangelism," said the Rev. Walter Towner, under whose supervision the statistical record was compiled.

Farm Group Asks For Demonstration Agent in County

A group of approximately 50 Hall County farmers and farm women appeared before the Commissioner's Court Monday to petition the court to hire a Home Demonstration agent for this county.

Reasons were advanced by the group as to why such an agent is needed here.

The Commissioners heard the group and told them that the matter would be taken under consideration.

County Judge M. O. Goodpasture said no immediate action would be taken.

Year after year and indicates the crucial importance of the church school in evangelism," said the Rev. Walter Towner, under whose supervision the statistical record was compiled.
