Cyclones To Face Writers Here Friday

Improved Cyclone squad is expected to take the field tomorrow as they face the McLean team in the third home game of the season at 8 p. m. at Cyclone stadium.

Trampled by Shamrock last week will be primed for action. Both teams have equal weight averages and are reported to have a passing offensive, which is one of the Cyclone's strengths.

Five Cyclones have been injured and have been taken to practice. Carl Corley and Ronnie Smith are expected to start at quarterback and Max Kennedy will start at halfback.

Line, Charles Messer and Miller will be at ends, Hart Moore at tackles, if Vin Allen and Monzingo at guard and Stevens at center.

Friday night's game will be the Cyclone home game until the McLean game starts at 8 p. m.

Considerable interest is being shown by the public in general Odom stated, and several women desiring training have made application.

"It will be impossible for us to accept all applicants for the first classes," Odom said, "but those not accepted now will be considered for future training. We plan new classes every six months."

The law provides that, in order to obtain a license as vocational nurse, the student nurse must have at least twelve months training in classrooms, on the floor of the hospital and in the home.

"The purpose of this law is to raise the standard of practical nursing," Odom said, "by making it possible for those who practice or desire to practice nursing to obtain training in small hospitals that could not offer regular registered nurses' training courses. It also brings the training to those who, due to various circumstances, cannot go away from home to become registered nurses."

Anyone interested in this training should place her application in person at the hospital as early as possible.

Construction on the new elementary school in the West part of the city began Monday as workmen for Weddell and Cochran, Amarillo contractors, arrived.

MARINE—Pfc. Billy West, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. West of Memphis is stationed at Camp Pendleton in Calif. after finishing boot training. He is now taking advanced combat training.

NURSES' SCHOOL TO OPEN HERE NEXT MONDAY

Plans are being rushed to completion for the opening of the Odom Clinic Hospital's school of Vocational Nurses' training in Memphis, J. A. Odom, Jr., hospital manager, announced this week.

All plans will be completed this week, he said, and first classes will start Monday, Oct. 1.

Considerable interest is being shown by the public in general Odom stated, and several women desiring training have made application.

The contract calls for 300 working days and contractors hope to have the school ready for occupancy next fall.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PRICE DANIEL TO SPEAK HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

A man who, in addition to leading a fight against organized crime in the State of Texas, is also helping to lead the fight of the State of Texas against the Federal government in the tidelands battle, will be a dinner speaker in Memphis Friday.

Price Daniel, attorney general of Texas, will speak before a group of business, professional and farm men starting at 5 p. m. tomorrow afternoon in the Cyclone Drive-In banquet room.

Tickets have been sold, and admittance will be only by ticket. Daniel opened the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo Monday, and this week has been speaking to various groups over the Panhandle explaining the tidelands question.

Daniel is speaking to civic groups because of the tidelands threat against the Texas public school fund as well as private landowners.

He gained national prominence in his determined fight against federal seizure of the tidelands and has recently been in the national spotlight again because of his crime-busting activities.

J. W. McCulloch Services Held Sat. Afternoon

Funeral services for James William McCulloch Sr., 75, who died last Friday at his home in Memphis, were held Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m. in the Church of Christ.

Minister B. M. Litton and Minister Bedford Smith conducted the service. Burial was at Fairview cemetery.

A resident of Hall county 43 years and Memphis 13 years, McCulloch and his wife settled near Newlin in 1908 where they lived until moving to Memphis in 1938. He was a retired farmer.

He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Smith, Childress and Miss Lois McCulloch Memphis; two sons, J. W. McCulloch Jr., Memphis and Edwin McCulloch of Berkeley, Calif. and three grandchildren.

Palbearers for the service included Homer Huggins, Fred Temphill, Felix Jarrell, M. C. Sencer, Cecil McCollum and Leo Fields.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Murphy-Spicer.

Whirlwinds Play Shamrock Tonight

The Junior High football squad will make their first home appearance tonight at 7:30 at Cyclone Stadium when they meet the Junior High team from Shamrock.

Admission will be 50c for adults and 25c for children school officials announced.

Coach George Childress reported that his Whirlwinds will be in full force though a few minor injuries may handicap some players. Lee Waddell who missed the first game last week will be in the starting line-up tonight.

Last week the Whirlwinds took their first game in top stride by defeating the Wellington Junior High school 47-0.

Starting line-up for the Whirlwinds tonight will include Connie Edwards and Jerry McQueen at ends, Henry Vallance and Algie Archer at tackles, Bobby Erwin and Hayes Hammonds at guards and Harley Von Simmons at center.

Starting backfield men will include quarterback Cleve Evans, halfbacks Lee Waddell and Jackie Justice and fullback Jimmy Jenkins.

1913 Study Club To Hold Book Review Saturday

Mrs. Herbert Emery, sponsored by Sanger Bros. of Dallas, will be guest artist of the 1913 Study Club Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock for a book review in the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Emery will review the novel by Herman Wouk, "The Caine Meeting." The public is cordially invited to share this pleasure with the members of the club, Mrs. E. M. Wilson, president said.

As a literary reviewer, Mrs. Emery has reviewed books in many states including California, Arizona, Texas, Ohio and Louisiana, and as far north as New York and across the border into Canada and in Mexico.

Mrs. Emery has the honor of being the first in the country to review a book over television. She is now starting her second year of Tele-Reviews.

New Insurance Service Opened

B. B. Frisbie and Kermit Monzingo have started a new insurance service in Memphis, known as the Frisbie-Monzingo Agency.

The new office is at 10th and Main and the agency plans to offer complete coverage in general insurance including life, fire, automobile, auto, hospitalization, workmen's compensation, crop insurance and other types of farm and rural insurance.

Frisbie said the agency would be connected with first line companies and have available for people of this area the best in insurance coverage.

The Agency also plans to handle automobile financing and will handle real estate. At present real estate listings including farm, ranch, city and business are being taken.

In addition to Frisbie and Monzingo, Mrs. Garland Gregory will be office clerk. She has had several years experience in insurance work.

Hall County Entries Win Honors At Tri-State Fair

AIR FORCE—Pfc. R. A. Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wells of Memphis is now at Greeley, Colo., attending a clerk-typist school. He recently finished basic training at Presque Isle, Me.

Early judging returns from entries in the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo this week show Hall County entries taking a major share of prizes.

The Memphis FFA Chapter, directed by Weldon McCreary, placed second in the agricultural educational exhibit. The high school chapter exhibit centered around the recognition and control of the cotton leaf worm. Frank Norman, Delbert Hightower, Don Stewart and McCreary set up the exhibit and other class members helped prepare material.

Estelline FFA Chapter placed third in group three, and Lakeview placed third in group four. In the junior swine classes, Jimmy and Roy Malloy of Lakeview won first prize with their Duroc gilt as grand champion in the Seals Foundation 4-H Club program. Tommy Martin placed fifth and Don Ferrell placed seventh with three fat hogs.

Jimmy and Roy Malloy also won first place in the junior division of the show and Don Ferrell took third, fourth and fifth places in this division.

In the open division of swine shown from all three states Tommy Martin won first place in the junior boar pig class, junior champion and reserve grand champion Duroc boar.

In the junior yearling Hereford bulls, Larry Mixer Domino 23rd, owned by Tommie M. Potts, placed fifth.

Other winners not available at press time will be carried next week.

County Grand Jury To Convene Thurs.

Four cases are entered on the justice docket for the Hall County Grand Jury when it convenes next Thursday, for the October session.

District Attorney Allan Hupp said he hopes to clear the docket in the next court session after the Grand Jury meets.

Cases for investigation by the jury members will be two rape charges and two forgery charges.

No charges were filed.

PTA TO SPONSOR CONTEST TO NAME GRADE SCHOOLS

A contest to select names for Memphis' two elementary schools, the one now in use in the south part of town and the new one now under construction in the West part of town, was announced this week by school officials and Parent-Teachers Association members.

The contest will run from now until 5 p. m., October 8. Everyone is eligible and prizes for winners of each school name will be five dollars.

Entries may be mailed to The Democrat in care of the School Contest or they may be turned in person at The Democrat office.

Judges for the contest have been chosen by school officials and PTA representatives. Decision of the judges will be final.

LAUDE'S COMMENTS

By J. C. W.

Press at the number of the 1951 crop of cotton in Hall County is 56,432.

Weather man had a little heat left from the summer and dished it out to us.

Attention is called to Congressman Walter Rogers' letter in part of this issue, especially he has to say about certain of power in the federal government. This is one of the serious threats facing America, and should, as Rogers is watched with concern.

Had so many requests readers to continue articles on the trip to the Northwest. Try to cut description short, cover more ground. There are millions of acres of mountains, forests in the U. S. that have been seen by a very few at all. It would have been a section or two of rugged scenery could be obtained in various other parts of America so it would be in all, and could be enjoyed.

True, we have Palo Verde Canyon right near us, that is grandeur in the West. Canyon of Yellowstone instead of towering up into the mountains of Palo Verde pointed downward.

Mont, 11 miles west of Big Bend where we boarded a Bozeman tunnel 3,000 feet in length at an elevation of 10,000 feet. Over this pass an old Clark explorer in 1807 returned from the Pacific. The first crossed the pass by the Bozeman tunnel.

Delta Kappa Gamma Chapter Holds Initial Tea in Henry Foster Home.

The Gamma Kappa Gamma had its initial meeting for this year in the form of a tea, Saturday afternoon at 2:00 in the home of Mrs. Henry Foster.

Preceding the business session the program was presented by the Wellington members, Janice Smith, talented younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith of Memphis, gave several piano numbers. Mr. A. R. Bivins, State Board member from Amarillo gave a most interesting and informational talk carrying out the theme for the afternoon—"Spotlight on Education".

In his talk Mr. Bivins gave a brief resume of the Gilmer-Aiken Laws and commented upon several other aspects of the school program. He compared the duties of the State Board of Education with those of the local school board and those of the State Commissioner of Education with those of the local superintendent—explaining that the School Board was a policy making group only. Mr. Bivins praised the teachers for carrying on as well as they had while efforts were being made to raise standards of the teaching profession. He warned that now that more money is being put into the program of education people are beginning to ask "When do we start realizing some results from the increased expenditure for education?" Our State Board member also emphasized that the teaching of Citizenship and the benefits of the American way of life he taught every day in every grade instead of confining such teaching to possibly one-half year in high school.

He stressed the fact that parents as well as teachers should do every thing within their power to teach youth that they have some responsibilities in life and that respecting the property of other people is one of their big responsibilities. Mr. Bivins also emphasized the fact that any person tinctured with "pink" ideas or advocating Communism in any way was in his estimation not just a person with a different teology but was a definite enemy to our country and that the presence of such person should not tolerated in the teaching profession.

After the business session the members were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The dining table was laid with a Madeira cloth centered with an arrangement of red roses. Miss Nellie Agnes Kennedy presided at the punch bowl.

The Delta Kappa Gamma colors red and gold were carried out in the dainty refreshments which were served to the following members: Mesdames Novella Word, Edward Oliphant, and Misses Loeva Pierce, Hattie D. Wells, Maudie Coffee, Bonnie Willis, also Mrs. Ruth Walker of Wellington; Mrs. Madge Warren, Misses Lula Caudell and Nellie Agnes Kennedy of Childress; Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy of Estelline; Mrs. Willie Glen White and Misses Lucille Polk and Edgar Mae Mongole of Clarendon; Misses Neville Wrenn, Esta McElrath, Mary Foreman, Mesdames Homer Tribble and Brunetta Morris and the hostess, Mrs. Henry Foster of Memphis.

ESTELLINE FLYER VISITS HOME

First Lieutenant and Mrs. Lee Eldon Wright and daughter of Amarillo visited his mother, Mrs. I. H. Wright in Estelline this week. Atalantean Club Hears Forum at Wednesday Meet

The Atalantean Club met Wednesday Sept. 19th in the home of Mrs. J. H. Morris. After a business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Edwin A. Smith Jr., Mrs. Claud Johnson led the members in reciting The Club Woman's Litany. Each member answered roll call with an interesting bit of news concerning her stated roll call topic.

"The Self You Live With" was the subject for the afternoon's program, which was in the form of a forum. Mrs. J. W. Coppedge discussed the mental aspect of "The Self." Physical sustenance discussed the "Social Self," giving several rules that might be helpful in winning friends. In the absence of Mrs. Myrtis Phelan Mrs. Coppedge also gave a talk on the Spiritual growth. All four of these phases have to be considered and developed before "The Self" can have a well round ed and happy life. During the social hour tasty refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. J. W. Coppedge, Bill Cosby, W. C. Dickey, H. B. Estes, Henry Foster, John Fowler, N. A. Hightower, J. H. Howell, T. Isham, Claud Johnson, C. W. Ki

CHRYSLER WINS DETROIT'S "250" RACE

Tommy Thompson, 28-year-old Louisville, Kentucky, race driver, gets the checkered flag after driving his 1951 Chrysler New Yorker to victory in Detroit's grueling 250-mile NASCAR stock car classic. Thompson drove his car, powered by the new 180-horsepower Chrysler Y-8 Fire-Power engine, safely around the pile-ups which marked the race without having to raise the hood. His was the only Chrysler entered in the race. The grind was so difficult that only 24 of the 58 starters finished.

Assn. Meeting in Henderson

Annual session of the Baptist association in Henderson was held today at the First Baptist church.

Baptist Church Education Society members at the three churches taking part in the session from this area include Tucker of Lesley, Brice, Roy Shafer, Collins Webb of L. Jones of Hedley, Estelle, Mrs. Collins Turkey and F. N. Allen.

Services were held Thursday afternoon and evening.

Events--

Track in 1883, and completed in 1884. For years here through the National Forest the original wagon road, which was built by John Bozeman, who in the present way the road around, must have been a dizzy trying to the oldest established in the valley, with the mountains to the north, and practically the trees grown in this area is to the pine tree is to the blackjack is to the not good for much wood due to being so the town of Bozeman, which was killed on the river by Blackfeet in 1867. Calamity Jane here, and the Montana College is also located here.

Arriving at Butte, after hair-raising curves and mountainsides had taken our breath, we saw a nice city on a practically level plain, but this soon gave way to rugged terrain and entering Hell Gate canyon, and it is properly named, the road followed to Garrison and Missoula. Between these two points a signboard said, "This is the place where the last spike was driven uniting the eastern and western ends of the NP Sept. 8, 1883." The train officials would not let us get off for fear we would take up abode there. Here one gets a view of the Mission Range including McDonald Peak (10,250 feet) and a large glacier lying on the peak's north face. Mountains everywhere, and practically all the way into Spokane.

Then came the northern end of Idaho and Lake Pend Oreille, a beautiful lake 2 to 15 miles wide and 55 miles long. Other beautiful lakes dot this section of country. Continuing north nearly to Canada because of the rugged country, the railroad then turns south into Spokane, which is an important agricultural and industrial city. We spent the night here, and looked over the city next day. In this section of Washington wheat is the principal crop and the land being rolling and hilly, we were told that high wheels had to be put on tractor and combines in order to keep them from turning over as they go round and round the hills.

The Columbia river is crossed at Pasco. Just northwest of this city is the fabulous government city of Richland, headquarters of the Hanford Atomic project. Prosser is at the lower end of Yakima valley, and between this and Tappanish may be seen the snow-capped Mt. Adams, once an active volcano. It is the second highest peak in the Cascades which mountains we crossed between Yakima and Seattle, are more interesting and awesome than the Rockies. Between Tappanish and Yakima one gets a good view on a clear day of Mt. Ranier, the highest Cascade peak 14,408 feet.

The Yakima Valley looked so interesting with its varied crops, fruits and vegetables, we decided to stop over in the City of Yakima, Indian for "Black Bear," the business center of over 417,000 acres of irrigated land whose products make Yakima County rank among the half dozen great wealth-producing centers in America, and is rightly called "The Fruit Bowl of the Nation."

Here we contacted Clifford Hagemeyer, a former Memphis young man who with his parents and others of the family and relatives moved from Memphis 13 years ago. Clifford took time to drive us all over the valley, showing and explaining everything that seemed strange to us. On Sunday he took us to Zillah where the whole Hagemeyer delegation had gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hagemeyer, who for several years conducted the dairy in the east end of Memphis. Others present were their children and families, Hazel and Harold Liner (brother of F. A. Liner of Memphis); Mildred and R. C. Bales (son of Mrs. Bales of Memphis); Gordon and Ruth Hagemeyer. Gordon was a member of the Cyclone team here in 1937. Nelda Daily and children, Leon Boyd and wife of Richland. He is the son of Mrs. Lee Chitwood of Memphis. Also, we saw Mr. and Mrs. Grover Terry there. Mrs. Terry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parks Mitchell just west of Memphis. Perry worked for a number of years here in the gin business.

Then, on Labor Day, Clifford and wife Doris, nee Boyd of Memphis, and their two sons and two daughters took us to Wapato to witness an annual harvest day festival and parade that ranked with the Cotton Carnival parade in Memphis a few years ago. (Excuse my mentioning the event.) In the Wapato parade Yakima Indians, Japs, Filipinos, Americans, all vied in making the best showing of products raised by them. The Filipino float won first place. The Indians were dressed in full Indian regalia. Two Indian maids agreed to pose while I took their picture. They were dressed in buckskin clothes ornamented with beads, and their sandals were of buckskin also. Indian squaws showed their handiwork and the bucks proudly displayed their best fruits, vegetables or crops.

On our rounds we were shown through large canning factories where peaches and pears are canned or crated for the markets. The apple season comes later in the fall, and we saw enough apples to feed the world. At least a lot of the world.

The most interesting crops we saw, because we had never before been privileged to see them, were hops and peppermint. The hops crops bring the next largest amount of money to the farmer apples being first. Next in line of production come fruits, potatoes, manufacturing, meats, pears, dehydrated fruits, livestock, poultry, eggs and turkeys; dairying hay and grain, sugar beets, frozen foods, prunes, plums, apricots, grapes and mint, asparagus, wool. All of these bring $140 million to the valley annually.

When we saw the hop fields we thought they were Kentucky Wonder beans. The vines were growing to the top of 20-foot poles and wire stretched between the poles, and there were acres and acres of hops to a field. The processing of hops finally makes yeast, and is used extensively in making ale and beer, being the principal ingredient that causes fermentation. The product of hops also makes a medicinal item. Now I know where the expression "Thick as hops," originated, for the vines yield great clusters.

The peppermint crops look somewhat like alfalfa, and is harvested like alfalfa, then processed the fluid from which brings 90 cents an ounce. The peppermint, while being cut, certainly gives out the strongest peppermint odor one can imagine.

Sugar beet factories, and many other interesting places were visited. We spent four days in this beautiful valley, as the weather was fine—in fact, the summer do not get hot as our summers and rarely does it get down to zero. Yakima was the only place we saw where we would like to live other than Memphis.

THE FRUIT OF UNCEASING LABOR

★ Between 1911 and 1935, a brief span of twenty-five years, extraordinary progress was made in public health. According to figures released by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the duration of human life during this period was extended by almost fourteen years. It is all the more remarkable in the light of the history of this period, which included the first World War, the worst epidemic in recent history, and America's most severe depression.

Many agencies have contributed to make America a more healthful place in which to live. Not the least of these are scientific medicine and pharmacy, which work unceasingly for better methods of prevention and treatment of disease.

Culture Club Of Estelline Sponsors Junior Club

The 1932 Culture Club of Estelline is to sponsor a federated junior club. The interested ladies met in the home of Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson recently to begin organization. A committee of charter members of the foster club met with the group. Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson, president of the 1932 Culture Club made an address of welcome, entitled "Why Every American Girl Should Belong to the General Federation of Women's Clubs". She stated that the purpose of a junior club in any community is "to bring closer together young women in an organization where they can use their enthusiasm to benefit themselves and their community by promoting its civic, cultural, educational and social welfare." Mrs. Alice Eddins, first president of the 1932 Culture Club, spoke giving a brief history of the club and citing instances of beneficial membership. Mrs. S. T. Hutchins spoke concerning the worthwhile projects of federated clubs. Then this committee sat to answer any questions from the group assembled.

Mrs. William Collier was selected as temporary chairman and Mrs. Jack Kinard was selected as temporary secretary. Committees were appointed to work on Constitution and to select name for the new club. The meeting to com-

ALLAN SHIVERS GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT AUSTIN, TEXAS September 27, 1951

Mr. Brad H. Smith, President
Texas Press Association
441 Driskill Hotel
Austin, Texas

Dear Mr. Smith:

With a full realization and appreciation that a free press is a bulwark of the American way of life, I consider it most appropriate that National Newspaper Week is to be observed October 1-8, inclusive. During the present unsettled world conditions it is entirely befitting that this nation and the State of Texas pay tribute to an organization that must play a vital role in the days which lie ahead.

To chronicle the many contributions of the press to our Democratic nation and to the development of a world civilization is impossible. From the smallest hamlet to the largest metropolitan center newspapers constantly have been, and will continue to be, in the foreground championing civic, governmental, educational, cultural and religious improvements. In the field of international events, the diligent efforts of a vigilant press have made the people of our nation the best informed in the world.

A free press means a free people. The history of the world has taught us that nations which censor and hamper a free press do not survive. I am convinced this will continue to be true in the future and that the iron curtain of communistic countries will represent but another chapter in the fate of tyrannical governments which saw fit to interfere with a basic freedom—a freedom of the press. Truly "Your Newspaper Lights the Way of Freedom."

To a free press of Texas, to the members of the Texas Press Association and to our great newspaper industry I offer my sincere congratulations. It is my earnest wish that National Newspaper Week be observed by all Texans with just tribute being paid to a worthy organization and industry.

Sincerely yours,
Allan Shivers

Fire Destroys Ginned Cotton At Beaty Gin

Fire of unknown origin partially destroyed 16 bales of ginned cotton here early last Friday morning at the Beaty Gin located on the outskirts of Memphis. Night patrolmen Henry Stinnett and T. T. Leard discovered the fire shortly after 1 a. m. The cotton was loaded on a truck in the gin yard. It had been ginned Thursday and placed there before storage.

Grover Roden, gin manager said no clue as to what caused the fire could be located. Firemen speculated a cigarette stub may have caused the blaze.

Estimated cost of the destroyed cotton was placed between $1500 and $2000, by Manager Roden.

Delphians Hear Program on Soil Preparations Tues.

The Delphian Club met in recession Tuesday, September 25, p. m. in the home of Mrs. Edith M. Kowen, president.

A short business session followed and the program was in charge by Mrs. Henry Hays, chairman. Mrs. Hays outlined a program of study for the "Growing Better Timber." She explained how the programs of the club are of out lives in the form of trunk, branches, blossoms and fruits of a tree.

The program for the day was a presentation on "Soil Preparations" by D. Morris conducted at the club institute for "Matrons Education-Clubwomen." She stated that to do a better job of soil preparation and to be more successful in their mission to have as our objective to gain knowledge and to be able to get into the soil and to get into the soil and to get into the soil.

Mr. D. Morris talked to the U. S. Really Run By. She said women do not want to do anything but to help make the law in order to help make the law in order to help make the law.

Mr. D. Morris concluded the program with a parliamentary procedure is an ancient art which every man should strive to learn. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Hodges.

J. S. McMurrys Fly To Conn. To Visit Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMurry arrived home Thursday following a two weeks visit in New Heaven, Conn., with their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Sante Graziani and grandson Michael.

The McMurrys flew from Amarillo by Constellation making stops at Wichita, Kansas City, Chicago and Dayton, Ohio, to La Guardia Field, N. Y. where they were met by the Grazianis. From New York they motored to New Heaven to the new modern home of the Grazianis situated with eight other modern homes designed and built by nine members of the Yale faculty.

They enjoyed seeing the sights of New York and surrounding towns of New Heaven. One day was spent in Worcester, Mass., where Mr. Graziani has been appointed head of professional instruction of the School of Art of the Worcester Art Museum.

Mr. Graziani recently resigned his teaching post at Yale University and as dean of the Whitney School of Art in New Heaven in order to accept this new position.

Mr. and Mrs. McMurry returned from New York by way of St. Louis and Kansas City after a most enjoyable visit on the east coast.

RETURNING SOLDIER AND FAMILY RETURN HOME

A. W. Howard and daughter, Mrs. Charles Imbordino of near Clarendon, went to Seattle two weeks ago to meet their daughter and sister and family, Lt. and Mrs. Lesley Calhoun and children who arrived from Japan. Lt. Calhoun had served in the U. N. Forces in Korea for the past two years while his family made their home in Japan.

The Calhouns will go in October to Fort Riley, Kan. where he will be stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Combs and son, Billy spent the weekend in Lubbock with their son and daughter, Adrian and Patsy who are attending Texas Tech College. They also visited Mrs. Combs' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norman Jr.

Beckham Home Is Scene For Bridal Swower

The W. E. Beckham home, 514 South 7th St., was the scene Thursday evening, Sept. 20, of a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Noel Bruce, the former Miss Vernice Spencer.

Friends of the couple were greeted at the door by Misses Billy Beckham and Dorothy Hodges and presented to the honoree, Mrs. J. S. Spencer, the bride's mother Mrs. S. G. Bruce, mother of the groom, and registered by Miss J. Lamb, who presided at the Bride's book. The scene was enhanced by floral arrangements of autumn flowers and greenery, used to decorate the entertaining rooms.

The refreshments carried out the bride's chosen colors of green and white. Mrs. Coy Beckham and Miss Roselyn Williams served the guests from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of white flowers.

A large array of lovely gifts were on display and were viewed by approximately forty guests.

Hostesses for the occasion were: Mesdames W. E. Beckham Henry Scott, Henry Foster, Omer Hill, Lloyd Phillips, H. W. Spear Lakeview, L. O. McCoy, Haskell Howell, Coy Beckham, Joyce Webster, T. O. Pounds, Jean Lamb, Billy R. Jones and Nancy Petty.

Misses Billy Beckham, Dorothy Hodges, Jo Lamb, Lavern Dodson, LaVern Rollins, Roselyn Williams and Daphne Hillhouse.

"Tops" In More Ways Than One

Your party will be the talk of the small-fry summer season if you trot out this novel dessert idea. Stand filled ice cream cones in a cold-trink glass holder as pictured. In addition, have three bowls—one filled with shredded coconut, one with chocolate chips, and one with trape-nuts. Then each child takes a cone, turns it upside down, and "dunks" it into the topping of his or her choice. A topping idea—in more ways than one! Kids will love it!

Canadian Wins 25-12; Cyclone Scores Twice

Coach John Hansard's Cyclone last week held the Canadian Wildcats to a 25 to 12 score despite the fact that Canadian averaged 180 pounds to Memphis' 159 pounds.

Canadian backs Dean Hoover and Don Schaefer combined to score four touchdowns while Clyde Tamplin ran one across from the 12-yard marker for the Cyclones and Max Kennedy threw a 55-yard pass to his brother Harvey for the only aerial score of the game.

In the first down department Memphis pushed across five first downs and Canadian 18. Memphis passed 11 times for an average of about 7 yards per try and Canadian passed 11 times for an average of about 4 yards per try. Memphis punted four times for a 35 yard average despite high winds during the game and Canadian punted three times for a 23 yard average but had one punt blocked.

Memphis was penalized four times for a total of 15 yards and Canadian was penalized three times for a total of 10 yards. Memphis' first touchdown came after a blocked punt by Vinson and a recovery by Gardenhire in the second quarter.

Score by quarters was Canadian 6-0 in the first, half score was Canadian 13-6, third quarter score, Canadian 19-12 and final score 25-12.

Corn spells good eating any time. In the summer, across the land, we join in enjoying steaming hot corn on the cob oozing with melted butter and tender new corn cooked in milk or cream. In the winter we're eating corn fritters, escalloped corn and dozens of other good corn dishes. Good to serve for a luncheon main dish during the fall months is this Corn Pepper Bake. It is made with generous amounts of milk and cheese so it is a substantial protein main dish.

Corn-Pepper Bake With Cheese Sauce

6 large green peppers
4 slices bacon
1 egg
1 tablespoon butter
2 tablespoons finely diced onion
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon sugar (optional)
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 cups milk, scalded
2 cups cooked corn
1/2 cup soft bread crumbs

Wash peppers, cut a slice from the side of each and remove seeds and fibrous parts. Cover with boiling water and simmer 5 minutes. Meanwhile, cook bacon, drain and dice. Beat egg slightly. Melt butter in saucepan, add onion and cook until tender. Add flour, sugar and seasonings and blend. Add milk gradually and cook over low heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Add corn, crumbs and bacon, and stir into beaten egg. Fill green pepper shells. Bake in a pan of hot water, in a moderate oven, 325° F., for 45 minutes or until filling is set. Serve with cheese sauce. Serves 6.

Cheese Sauce

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 cups milk
1 cup grated American cheese
Melt butter, add flour and seasonings and blend. Add milk gradually and cook until smooth and thick, stirring constantly. Add cheese and stir until melted. Serve hot on Corn-Pepper Bake. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Eighty-Four Members Attend Initial Meeting Of South Ward PTA Thursday

Eighty-four parents and teachers paid dues and became affiliated members of the South Ward Parent-Teacher Association at the initial meeting Thursday afternoon. The meeting was held in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Henry Foster is heading this organization as president and other officers included: Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, first vice-president; Mrs. Hank Hankins, second vice-president; Mrs. E. W. Godfrey Jr., third vice president; Mrs. Ace Gailley, secretary; Mrs. Buster Helm, treasurer; Mrs. N. D. Calloway, reporter; Mrs. H. B. Estes, parliamentary; Mrs. William Lavender, historian and Mrs. C. D. Morris, goals chairman.

Introducing the afternoon's program, the group sang, "Bless Be the Tie" and the devotional was given by Mrs. N. D. Calloway. The thought brought out in the devotional was centered around the scripture "train up a child in the way he should go and even when he is old he will not depart."

Miss Zady Belle Walker, principal of the school, introduced teachers and officers.

Mrs. Henry Foster, in the president's message, emphasized fellowship and brought out the fact that if we are to work together we should know each other better.

"Safe Guarding our Freedom Through Responsible Citizenship" is the study theme selected for the year. Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, program chairman, told the group. A series of interesting programs pertaining to general theme have been arranged for the year and will include panel discussions, interview, pageant, movie and general discussions, Mrs. Phillips pointed out.

Mrs. C. D. Morris, goals chairman, discussed goals for the year, stressing particularly the study course.

An autumn theme was noted in decorations and a large sign on the stage made of autumn leaves spelled "Welcome PTA". Programs were also made in the shape of an autumn leaf.

Blue and Gold, the organization's colors, were used to decorate the refreshment table where punch and cookies were served during the tea hour by members of the social committee.

Committees appointed by Mrs. Foster for the ensuing year include the following:

Program: Mrs. Lloyd Phillips
Miss Zady Belle Walker, Mrs. John W. Smith and Mrs. Ted Trulove.

Jimmy D. Queary Is Party Honoree On Third Birthday

Mrs. Dearyl Queary entertained with a birthday party Thursday afternoon Sept. 20, honoring her son, Jimmy D. on his third anniversary at the family home.

After refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served and the honoree opened and displayed his gifts, the group went to the park where they enjoyed outdoor games.

Estelline Club Presents Patriotic Pageant Tuesday

The second program of the 1932 Culture Club in carrying out the theme, "This Land is Mine" was a patriotic pageant entitled "Foretold". The club met in the home of Mrs. Walter Whaley in Estelline on the evening of September 18. Director of the costumed pageant was Mrs. C. O. Gregory. The inspiration of the characters and the appropriateness of the costumes made this one of the best programs the club has ever enjoyed.

Characters for the pageant, setting of which was on the night of Paul Revere's famous ride were: Agigail, a colonial woman, Mrs. W. B. Davidson; Miss Liberty, Mrs. Albert Bailey; Uncle Sam, Mrs. R. V. Wood; Edict of Stamp Act, Mrs. Don Leary; Declaration of Independence, Mrs. J. B. Rapp; Constitution, Mrs. Thurman Hutchins; Amendments, Mesdames Ben Jackson, Lester Phillips, Helen Clifton, Leon Phillips, and companionist, Mrs. Walter Whaley.

Mrs. C. E. Wilkinson conducted a business meeting. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to those already mentioned and Mesdames: L. C. Richburg, Dave Waldron, F. E. Leary, J. A. Ballard and Alice Eddins.

Christian Council Enjoys Luncheon And Study Meet

Members of the Woman's Council of the First Christian Church enjoyed a luncheon in the church dining room Monday and following the luncheon a study program was presented on the subject "All Nations".

Mrs. Ella Norman was leader of the afternoon's program and the devotional was given by Inez Aspgren who used as the theme "The Household and the Husbandmen".

Two songs, "Open My Eyes that I may See" and "Give of Your Best to the Master" was sung by the group. Mrs. Norman led in prayer and Mrs. Lena Milam read a scripture. Mrs. Belle Odom gave a paper on Pacific Bible Seminary, Dallas, and Christian College, Kentucky Christian College. Mrs. Mabel Roberts gave papers on Midwest Christian College, Southwest Christian College, and others. The meeting closed with the benediction.

B&PW Club Enjoys Picnic Dinner

Members of the B&PW Club enjoyed a picnic dinner on Thursday, September 20, at the E. P. Thompson Garden house in the Whaley Addition.

The program was a film presented by Health and Safety committee, "Closed Book." The film attacks little habits of human carelessness, rather than law violations as the principal cause of fatal accidents. The story pointed out that it is a "state of mind" which often creates wrecks and we must change our behavior patterns in safety practices to help whip the safety problem.

The club volunteered its help for the Crippled Children's clinic to be held in Memphis on Oct. 16. The club will furnish any personnel needed for this project.

After the film, a round-table discussion was held and members discussed the safety problems of Memphis. The discussion was conducted with the idea that good automobile drivers drive so as to avoid accidents by anticipating and allowing for hazards created by the unsafe acts of others, through individual insight they have an appreciation of other people and their patterns of behavior.

During the business session plans were discussed for business women's week and the member decided to have a flag displayed during United National week October.

Also the club voted to send a contribution to the Texas Federation Foreign scholarship fund. The purpose of the scholarship is to bring a foreign woman graduate to the United States for study

Methodist Guild Meets In Home Of Mrs. Lavender

MR. AND MRS. JIM HANSARD

Shirley Dorcas Foster and Jim Hansard Nuptials Solemnized Pretty Home Service Saturday

Shirley Dorcas Foster became the bride of Jim Hansard in a ceremony performed at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the home of the bride's mother, 1316 West Burr Morris, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, read the ring ceremony before a gathering of friends and relatives seated with fern and daisies flanked by white candles in seven-branched candelabras and large baskets of white and pompons. Miss Gertrude Rasco, pianist, gave prelude selections, "With This I Thee Wed" and "Because," accompanied Mrs. Robert Morris as she sang "Oh, Promise Me" and "The Wedding Benediction." She also played "The Rose Tree" softly during the ceremony and the traditional wedding march.

Norman Mitchell lighted the candles. Patsy Jean Adcock was the ring bearer. She was attired in a black of purple velvet accented by a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansard are at home at 107 1/2 Seventh Street.

MRS. VICTOR ALVIN SHELTON

Miss Helen Simpson Becomes Bride of Alvin Shelton In Amarillo Ceremony

In a double ring ceremony read at the First Baptist church in Amarillo, Miss Helen Simpson became the bride of Victor Alvin Shelton, Sept. 14.

Rev. W. C. Bryant officiated before an arch with white pompons, gladioli and fern. On either side of the altar were baskets of white pompons, gladioli and candelabras.

Mrs. Gus Henderson played organ selections and Mrs. Richard D. Reeves sang "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me."

Miss Ernestine Simpson served her sister as honor attendant. She wore a gray flannel taffeta dress with a corsage of pink carnations.

The bride wore a dress of wine velvet and beige hat and gloves. She carried a white Bible topped with three gardenias festooned with stephanotis.

Jerry King was best man.

Mrs. Simpson chose for her daughters marriage a purple dress with heather accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gray dress complemented with black accessories. Her corsage was of red gladioli.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Simpson, of Amarillo. She was graduated from Amarillo High School and attended Wayland college. She is employed in the bookkeeping department of the First National Bank.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Shelton of Memphis. He is a graduate of Memphis High school and received a bachelor of science degree from West Texas State College. He is a science teacher at Horace Mann Junior High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton are at home at 410 Alabama, Amarillo.

Eudine Gable, Minnie Lee Jackson and Ann Spoon all of WTSC, Canyon spent the weekend here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jude Gable, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spoon.

Local Club Observes National Business Women's Week with Featured Meetings

In observance of National Business Women's Week, which began Sunday and will continue through Saturday, members of the Memphis B&PW Club have featured daily meetings throughout the week.

On Sunday morning the group attended services at the First Methodist Church and Monday was designated as "Women in Uniform Day". The Club observed this day by having breakfast at Pounds Cafe with Zady Belle Walker, who formerly served in the WACS and Betty McBee, who formerly was a Cadet Nurse, as honor guests.

Thursday was observed as "Equal Rights Day." In an effort to secure house action on the equal rights amendment, and in the interest of promoting greater public understanding of the need for this legislation, members individually wrote to their Congressmen on behalf of the amendment.

Friday morning the club will have a 15 minute radio program over the Childress station. The program will be a skit titled "Where is Mrs. Cromwell." The skit tells about the federation's aims and purposes, and what the local club is doing.

"Full Partnership for the Job Ahead" is the theme chosen this year by President Judge Sarah T. Hughes of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs and the local club this week has given special emphasis to this through all meetings.

In speaking of the work of the local club, Mrs. Billy Thompson, president, said, "We feel that we are an important part of any plan in our local community for civic improvement because we have learned to work and plan together. That is part of our important training in leadership. Our program covers every phase of life in America and any woman can find a field of service in which she is interested as a member of our organization. Our devotion is first given to promoting the best interest of employed women always."

"We want to thank Mayor Carl Harrison for issuing of the proclamation declaring this week as Business Women's Week and to others who have helped make this week a success," Mrs. Thompson concluded.

About Memphis, Hall County

In case any of you folks are wondering and still don't know the change in the building across from the post office is being done by Bill Monzingo, Cooley's Trading Post has moved down to the old Texas Theatre building and Monzingo knocked off part of the building across from the p. o. for his used car lot and also will have a paint shop in the rear part of the building.

Fall is certainly here, already had my first cold, certainly hope you haven't had such pleasure yet. Another sign of fall, fairs swung into full bloom this week. Amarillo's Tri-State is now in progress and also the Texas-Oklahoma fair at Iowa Park, near Wichita Falls is in progress. Next week, or starting October 6, the State Fair at Dallas gets underway, but it will run the full month of October.

Think what it might be like if you had no newspapers? Think of the things you might never hear if it were not for your newspaper. Not only news, but of all the new merchandise that is first called to your attention in newspaper advertisements.

Then think of the public offices and the political situation, if newspapers didn't carry the entire story behind parties and politicians.

Think of the countries now that have no free newspapers. Argentina, Russia, China, how many more are to come? Newspapers consistently fight corruption and incompetence in government, local, state and federal.

Yes, we think we are pretty important, for a newspaper is many things. It is a record of history. It is a forum. It is a market place. It is a voice. It is a guardian. It is, above all, in institution devoted to the best interests of the community. It is a servant of the people. Its goal—the public be served.

Women Charged With Theft Here Last Week

Two women, with Amarillo police records, were arrested here last Thursday evening after attempting to steal sparkplugs from a local service station.

One woman, Louise Mead, about 35, when confronted by service station owner Homer Burleson, gave up four boxes of sparkplugs she had hidden under her dress. She and her hitchhiking companion, Gladys Lenora Myers 25, were arrested later by Memphis police.

They were charged here with vagrancy and theft.

A check with Amarillo officers this morning revealed police records.

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

By Walter Rogers
Congressman, 18th District

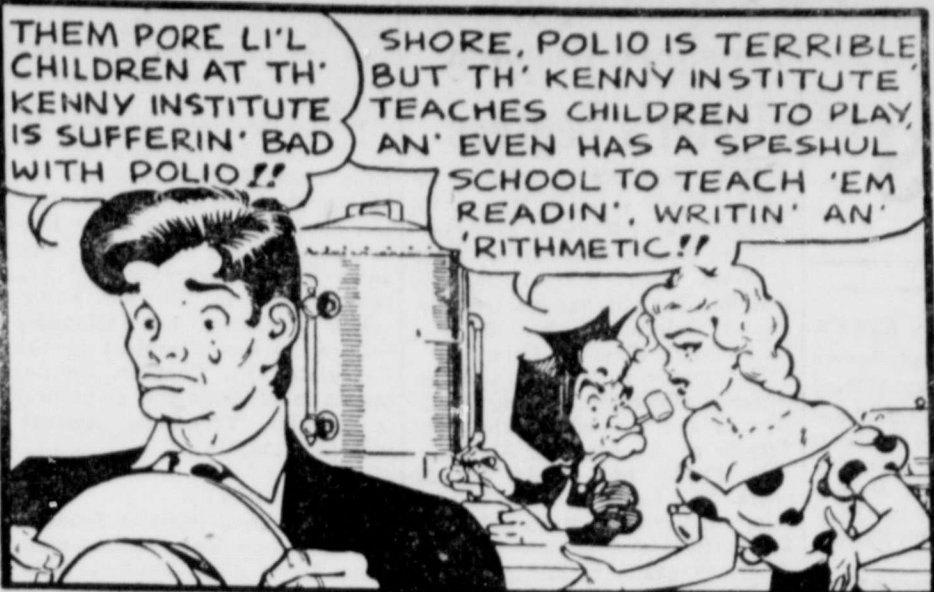

until next fall. There are other legislative matters concerning small business that should be attended to as quickly as possible and I would like to see these measures brought to the floor and debated before the first of the year.

If they are pigeon-holed until after the first of the year, they could easily be lost in the great mass of legislation that comes before every Congress and must be disposed of during the early part of the session. Some of the pending bills are aimed at marked curtailment of bureaucratic and agency controls, and there is no better time than the present to pass these measures.

Some of the matters concern the rights of veterans and should be acted upon with the greatest speed. However, it appears that adjournment is in the immediate future and it will be impossible to forestall it.

I certainly would not want to see this Congress adjourn without final action being taken on the Tideland Bill. That fight has been long and hard, and I want to see the Senate pass this piece of legislation by the same majority percentage-wise as did the House. Such action by the Senate would almost insure passage over the President's veto in the final analysis.

TAXES: The talk about more taxes is completely out of the question as far as I am concerned. I have stated publicly, and I repeat, that the American taxpayer has reached the saturation point in taxation and there is only one way for taxes to go from now on—that is down.

A great many of the members of the House with whom I have discussed the matter are in complete concurrence with me, and I do not believe that any measure for additional taxes would have even a remote chance in the House of Representatives.

In fact, I doubt seriously that it would ever be forwarded out of committee. If additional funds are needed, which I doubt, they should come from savings in non-essential Government expenditures rather than from additional taxes.

CENTRALIZATION OF POWER: Much has been said about the centralization of power in Washington, and the people from our section generally are violently opposed to such centralization, as any staunch believer in the Democratic form of Government should be. There is a lot more to the problem than just being for or against centralization.

I want to give you one example of how centralization can be brought about and the people will not realize it until it is upon them. Whether or not a particular field of endeavor, whether it be in agriculture, industry, or otherwise, comes within the confines of interstate commerce depends in many situations upon the decisions of the courts.

The courts are to some degree influenced or bound by the decision and finding of the Interstate Commerce Commission. If the particular field of endeavor in question is held to be within the definition of interstate commerce, then that particular field of endeavor is subject to the regulations and laws of the Federal Government.

These regulations and laws would not be applicable to that particular field of endeavor or that business if it were engaged solely in intrastate commerce that is, commerce wholly within the state.

The interstate status has been extended to farmers in the production of these crops, and has been extended to many small businesses that are suffering from interpretation. This procedure can take one business at a time, for one field of endeavor at a time and eventually have practically every business or activity in the United States earmarked as being in interstate commerce and therefore subject to regulations and laws administered out of Washington, D. C.

This is very dangerous and I call it to your attention briefly so that you may maintain a watchful eye, should efforts be made to bring your business or your activity within the confines of interstate commerce. It may appear harmless to you at first, but I warn you not to be misled. This is only one of the many methods that could result in centralization of power in the United States.

Editorial

Free Press Spreads Light on Darkness of Ignorance
"Your newspaper lights the way of freedom." That is the theme which has been chosen for the 1951 observance of National Newspaper Week.

The choice is a fine one, for the slogan has far-reaching implications.

First of all, it suggests that where there is no light there is darkness. In this case the darkness is ignorance, "a night," someone has said, "without moon or stars."

The National Newspaper Week theme presumes the right to pierce that darkness with the light of information and it presumes at the same time the right to keep that light burning in face of all odds.

For free man has a right to know. If there is a right to know, there must be a right to tell.

The men who made this nation considered the right to tell so important that they wrote it into the No. 1 Amendment to our Federal Constitution: "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging freedom of speech and freedom of the press."

But the right to tell is more than a privilege, it is a duty.

Elijah Lovejoy, abolitionist editor at Alton, Ill., believed in his right to carry the lamp of the free press and he knew his duty to light it and keep it burning. Three times mobs destroyed his printing presses. While he was protecting his fourth press, Lovejoy was shot to death.

Don Melleit, the Canton, Ohio, publisher, kept the spotlight of publicity focused on the racketeers in his community until they ambushed him and shot him at his own doorstep.

Racketeers, international or smalltime, know the power of the press. That is why they must control that power, why they must black out the light of public information if they are to attain and maintain a grip on the people.

That is why half the population of the world is under some form of censorship today.

That is why Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of Defense, said "Americans should keep constantly in mind that no people have lost their liberties so long as their press remained free."

That is why in the interest of world understanding—and hence in the interest of peace—our nation seeks actively to spread throughout the world the freedom of the people to learn the truth.

A free press—a free people.
"Your newspaper lights the way to freedom."

The vital truth of that message is the one thing National Newspaper Week has to sell.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

I read my daily newspaper and self filled with meditation, with toss it on the floor. My two-year old son comes toddling into the room and sits down to play with the pages. As he turns them, folds them, and listens curiously to the rustling of the paper, I find myself

I find myself speculating about the future of my son—and the effect of the newspaper. Now it is only a toy to him. But in a few short years he will be reading it;

he will be studying its contents in search of knowledge and truth . . .

If you could understand, my son, what could I tell you about that mighty instrument of communication that you hold so casually in your tiny hand?

Will you learn to read it and understand, analyze, interpret? To cull the facts from the propaganda and apply them effectively to your own life?

There is so much I could say to my son. I could tell you, first, of the great sociological knowledge to be gleaned from your newspaper. I could tell you that only by reading of the actions of the individuals and groups who make up our own particular culture, and of the reactions of others, can we assure ourselves of right from wrong, of the acceptable from the non-acceptable.

Then my son, I could tell you of the great value of the newspaper in the teaching of government. This is vitally important and is perhaps the outstanding influence in our keeping democracy life.

And finally, my son, I would warn you that the newspaper tells all, and that the decisions are yours in separating truth from fallacy in the quotations of men. I would beg of you to read all that the newspaper has to offer.

he will be studying its contents in search of knowledge and truth . . .

I would ask you to read, and be affected by accounts of the goriness and horrors of preliminary wars in other corners of this very small world, and not toss them off with shrug, as I have. I would ask you to heed the warnings in your newspapers of approaching conflict, and to listen to the advice of the editors who would avoid coming to grips with other nations.

Turn the pages, son, and start at the strange hieroglyphics. Never forget that the newspaper is your eternal shadow. In the span of existence, it is but an infinite particle of time behind you, recording your actions, your beliefs and sometimes prophesying your destiny. You cannot escape it.

And if you and your generation survive, you must learn to read it, and study it and somehow develop a deeper understanding of yourself and your fellowmen than I have in my generation.

Some years ago we heard Upton Close say if you checked right down through history, you would find it a practice of rulers to bring on a foreign war when they needed to weatner a crisis at home. And if we do not have a crisis in our government now, we never heard of a crisis.

(This is a condensed prize-winning essay written for the ANPA in 1948 by Dean Helms Jr., University of Indiana.)

It's the same way in the natural gas business. One gas well doesn't assure a dependable supply. In fact, it takes hundreds of wells in more than 200 gas fields to assure dependable service to the homes, stores and industries obtaining their natural gas from the lines of United Gas.

New fields are being added to our system all the time—through exploration and drilling, or by the purchase of gas from other producers. Our company is working diligently to provide adequate supplies of gas for the present and future needs of all our customers—residential, commercial, industrial.

Penny Shortage Calls For Exchange Of Home Savings

Due to an acute shortage of copper, the United States Mint is unable to meet the present extraordinary demand for pennies and nickles.

In view of the defense program and current mobilization plans, the Comptroller of the Currency has asked the public, if you have a collection of pennies and nickles at home to turn them in and exchange them for paper currency or other silver currency more plentiful.

Mint officials estimate there are undoubtedly enough of these coins lying idle in various home containers to alleviate the shortage. Vigorous efforts are being made to have such coins returned to circulation.

Won't you help by trading your pennies and nickles?

Whirlwinds Stomp Wellington 41-0

Jimmy Jenkins sparked the Memphis Whirlwinds over the Wellington Rockets Thursday night, in the opening game for the Whirlwinds 41-0.

Jenkins made all scores and in the third quarter ran 70 yards for the longest run of the game.

Coach Geo. Childress said the line blocking was very good and every boy played a fine defensive game.

After making the first score, Jenkins kicked off and Raymond Martin covered the ball on the Wellington 40 yard line. Three plays later Jenkins scored again. Lee Waddill, halfback, missing action against Wellington because of an arm infection, probably will start against Shamrock.

JACKY GILBERT

Jacky Gilbert Is Cyclone Drum Major

Jacky Gilbert, drum major of MHS was selected at the drum majors school in Huntsville to be represented in the magazine "Majorettes On Parade" edited by Bob Roberts, twirling instructor of Hollywood.

Jacky, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Martin, was born in Willis Point, Tex., October 24, 1933. He is 5 feet 10 1/2 inch senior who has brown eyes and dark brown hair. His favorite sports are tennis and swimming after which he enjoys his special meal of Mexican food.

For a pastime Jacky may be seen practicing twirling at home or at school. During bad weather he may be found listening to his favorite radio program "Top Ten". His activities include Band, Thespian Society and the Cue and Curtain Club.

The greatest thrill of Jacky's life was receiving superior ratings in twirlers' competition at Canyon for which he received two medals.

Among his many school honors are: Who's Who '35, Vice Pres. of Thespian Society, Historian of Cue and Curtain Club, Lights and Shadow Club President. Jacky's current plans are to attend Baylor University after graduating next spring.

Mrs. D. A. Neeley returned home Saturday from Farmersville where she had visited for the past three weeks. Her sister, Mrs. Jack Bumpas, accompanied her home and will visit in the Neeley home for several weeks while convalescing from an operation.
