Oct. 31 Is Last Day To Sign Sheets

The last day for signing 1953 Farm Plan Sheets, under the PMA soil conservation program, will be Friday, Oct. 31.

The announcement was made Monday by Lynn McKown, county officer, who urged all farmers to participate in the 1953 farm program to fill out requests for assistance not later than Oct. 31.

Due to the amount of work involved under the 1953 program in adjusting and processing the request for assistance, there can be no extension of the signing date, McKown emphasized. "All plan sheets must be completed not later than Oct. 31 to earn a 1953 payment."

The sign-up of the 1953 plan sheets will be made by 30 local farmer-elected community members, under special authorization of Congress, to determine the most needed conservation practices as requested by individual farmer to determine the farm program and give (Continued on Page 5)

Car Racing Fans To Visit Altus Track On Sunday

Local stock car racing fans will journey to Altus, Okla., Sunday to attend a benefit race for J. McKinney and Newsome, two drivers who were seriously injured four weeks ago. The races will be held at the Altus Speedway, located seven miles west of that city on the highway. First contest will start at 2:30 p. m.

McKinney and Newsome were hospitalized after being involved in a car-car pile-up at Lawton, Okla. The "X-40" car owned by W. H. Monzingo Motor Co. of Memphis was driven by McKinney. Dust on the track blinded the drivers, causing the collision in which several cars were completely wrecked.

Proceeds from admissions at the Altus races will be used to defray hospital expenses of the drivers.

Cyclone Meets Wellington In First Conference Game

Memphis High School's undefeated Cyclones face their toughest gridiron foe of the season Friday night at Wellington. The game will open conference play in District 2A-3, with the Skyrokers going into the game rated as very slight favorites by sports writers of this area.

The Memphis team won the distinction last week of being the only eleven to win a game from this district when they beat Canyon 7-0. The Cyclone has five wins and one tie to its credit, while the Wellington team has lost three and won three. The three losses suffered by the Rockets were at the hands of great double-A teams—Phillips, Quanah and Dumas.

The high school gymnasium and cafeteria will be the scene of Memphis' Annual Hallowe'en Carnival next Thursday night, Oct. 30. This year the carnival will be sponsored jointly by the Stephen F. Austin and William Travis Parent-Teacher Associations.

Plans for a bigger and better carnival are nearing completion and include an evening of entertainment for the whole family, as well as lots of good food. P. T. A. officials announced this week "People who have eaten in the cafeteria on past carnival occasions will remember the good home-made chili, sandwiches and pies. The cafeteria will open at 6 p. m."

As an added attraction this year, members of the high school speech class will put on a show in the high school auditorium. This show is scheduled to start promptly at 7:30 p. m.

Listed as special features at the big carnival, which will be held in the gymnasium, are the Cake Auction, Country Store, Fun House, Shooting Gallery, Archery, Wheel of Fortune, Racing Cars, Fortune Telling, a Picture Show and Fish Pond.

Corn Harvest In North Is Delaying Shipment Of Hay

The local PMA committee has been assured by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that all hay for which deposit has been made will be delivered at the earliest possible date. This statement was issued Wednesday by Lynn McKown, Hall County PMA officer, in answer to the most common question being asked in the local office here.

"There is no question about the hay being available," McKown explained. "The state of Minnesota is having a record crop of corn. This is delaying the shipment of hay because the corn is being used for feed." (Continued on Page 4)

Non-attendance at classrooms is again in the news. Last week a total of 156 students were listed as absent, which is a drop of only one from the figures of a week ago.

Records of absenteeism in the local schools is being studied by the advisory committee of the school board, and methods of decreasing it may be worked out when the over-all problem is decided upon.

Hall County Democrats For Eisenhower To Organize

Every Democrat who desires to follow the State Democratic party's resolution adopted at the September meeting in Amarillo has been urged to attend an organization meeting in the county court room in Memphis Monday, Oct. 27. The organizational meeting will start at 7:30 p. m., according to O. M. (Bill) Cosby, Jr., who is serving as temporary chairman.

The announcement was made Wednesday morning after a group of Hall Countians attended a meeting in Amarillo Tuesday night, where plans were made to organize the different counties in the Panhandle.

"Hall County Democrats will have an opportunity to cast their ballot for a man who believes in the return of the tidelands to the Texas school children," Cosby said. "An intensive effort will be made to clean up all of the issues of the campaign."

Practically all of the leaders of the Democratic party in Texas are following the instructions handed down by the state Democratic convention. (Continued on page 5)

Adlai Supporters Say Totals Inconclusive—

Ike Continues To Gain In Third Week Of Poll

Gen Dwight Eisenhower, Republican party nominee for president, continues to gain in popularity in Hall County, according to the High Plains Poll being conducted by The Democrat. At 11 a. m. today, he was leading well over two-to-one.

With a total of 128 persons mailing in their preference reports on the special form, the following results have been tabulated:

For Eisenhower—91
For Stevenson—37
Over the High Plains area, as reported by The Amarillo Daily News, Ike is leading by nearly four-to-one. This poll is being conducted by weekly and daily newspapers over the Tri-state area, and last week end 2,092 persons had sent in their preferences. Eisenhower had a total of 1,660 straw votes, and Stevenson had received 432 votes. None of the papers is attempting to draw hard and fast conclusions from the sampling of public preference for the two candidates.

Hall County supporters of Gov. Stevenson have told publishers of The Democrat that figures for this county do not reflect the preference of voters. They predict that the Democratic nominee will carry the county by a large vote on Nov. 4. County Democrats who intend to vote for Eisenhower are of the opinion that their candidate is gaining every day. Their private opinion is that the two men will run neck-and-neck when the general election is held. They are the more active of the two groups.

One more week remains for listing your preference on the form printed below:

Wright Armstrong Elected President West Texas C. C.

R. Wright Armstrong, of Fort Worth, vice president of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway Company, was elected president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the final session Tuesday of its 35th annual convention in Wichita Falls.

Armstrong is a veteran of two wars. In World War I he was a captain and aide to Major General John A. Hulen, who later became vice president of the Fort Worth and Denver Railway. He served overseas with the 36th Division, and was active in the Texas National Guard many years. He was president of the 36th Division Association in 1947 and 1948.

During World War II he served as a major of the Army Transportation Corps, first in the Eighth Transportation Zone Headquarters Dallas, and later with the 26th Regulating Station in France, England, Belgium and Germany transporting material to field forces, chiefly the 15th Army.

It has been largely through his efforts that the Burlington Lines became interested in the extensive program of soil conservation in which the Fort Worth and Denver has engaged in recent years. He also has been strongly interested in work done by the West Texas-Burlington Lines Industrial Committee, sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, with R. C. Stanford of Wichita Falls as chairman.

Armstrong was a familiar figure in the "big" WTCC conventions of the 20s and early 30s. West Texans remember him for his former connection with the Brownwood Chamber of Commerce and his leadership of the nationally famous "Old Gray Mare Band," which made its first appearance at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce second annual convention in Plainview in 1922.

Armstrong has spent all his business career with Burlington Lines. He was general agent of the Trinit & Brazos Valley Railway in Fort Worth from 1924 to 1928 when it became the Burlington-Rock Island Railroad. He continued in the same capacity in Houston from 1934 to 1936.

In 1936 he was appointed general freight agent for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad at Denver, Colorado, and in 1938 was made general freight agent of the Missouri District of the Burlington Lines with headquarters at St. Louis, Missouri.

Presently Armstrong is first vice president of Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, and remains active in practically all of his former associations.

Estelline Class Of 1900-1901 Enjoys Reunion

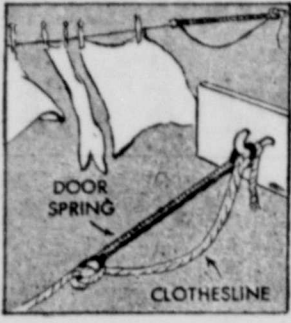

Dr. E. L. Timmons of Colorado Springs, Colorado, who taught the sixty-five pupils enrolled in Estelline School during the term of 1900-1901 entertained all the pupils that were able to return to Estelline on the evening of October 11, 1952.

Spring on Clothesline Keeps It Taut

THERE'S nothing so annoying as having to dodge the clothesline in the basement. Here's a simple remedy, illustrated below.

Tie one end of the line to a screen-door spring. Since the spring is not strong enough to carry the weight of a line of clothes, run the end of the line past the spring and tie it to the hook also. Leave sufficient slack so that the weight is taken by the line after the spring stretches about one-quarter of its length.

This arrangement keeps the empty line taut and does not interfere with the line in use.—Illustration reproduced through courtesy of Popular Mechanics.

Nineteen of the pupils who attended Estelline School in 1900-1901 were able to meet for a visit, banquet and entertainment in the Estelline High School Auditorium on the evening of October 11, 1952.

The group assembled about four-thirty in the afternoon for a period of informal visiting and reunion. Later in the afternoon, former County Judge of Hall County, Mr. John Russell, chairman of the group welcomed the guests. Dr. E. L. Timmons responded and then called upon each of the former pupils for a few remarks.

Dr. Timmons had arranged for a banquet to be served in the school cafeteria. The menu included baked chicken, dressing, gravy, green beans, fruit cocktail, cherry pie, rolls, butter, tea or coffee. Following the banquet Dr. Timmons spoke to the group and illustrated his talk with colored films made during a tour of Old Mexico and South America. He concluded by showing beautiful floral scenes and sunsets made in Colorado.

Pupils attending were: Mrs. Ora Clark Witt and Mrs. Nellie Harper Bolew of Plainview; Mrs. Jim Harper of Lockney; Joyce Kercherville Morrison of Memphis, James P. Haggard of Sleeper, Missouri; Clifton Grundy of Anton; Rankin Russell, Maude Augburg Cox and Clara Arnold Boston of Amarillo; Effie Blake Carlock, Katherine Blake and Zora Engle of Paducah; Ava Thomas May of Tulla; and Byrdie Green Holland, Lillie Eddins Bagwell, Oscar Wright, Nellie Wright McCollum, Lura Green Eddleman and John Russell all of Estelline.

Relatives of those honored and a few guests present were: H. D. Witt, Jim Harper, Butler Morrison, Mrs. J. P. Haggard, Mrs. Cliff Grundy, W. F. Holland, Mrs. Rankin Russell, Mr. Carlock, Mrs. Oscar Wright, Arthur Eddleman, Sam H. Moore, Mrs. Annie L. # Price Ceiling Posters Ready For Retailers

Dallas—A huge mailing of some 80,000 price ceiling posters to retail service establishments throughout the Southwest has been completed by the Price Stabilization Dallas office.

Retail businesses selling services in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas must post their ceiling prices on posters and display them within their establishments within seven days after they receive them according to Thomas J. Murray, OPS regional services division chief in Dallas.

Businesses which must display the new posters are those subject to OPS Ceiling Regulation 34, and include laundries, service stations, tailor and dry cleaning shops, parking lots, and shops doing repair work on shoes, radios, television sets, household electrical equipment, watches and clocks, furnaces, heaters, automobiles and trucks.

Murray explained that the ceiling prices which must be posted are the prices, subject to certain allowed adjustments, which were in effect during the base period of December, 1950 to January 25, 1951.

The new method of listing ceiling prices on standard forms provided by OPS will replace the varied methods which service business have been using. The poster measures about 11x17 inches, with the words "OPS Ceiling Prices for Retail Services" printed across the top. It is similar to ceiling price posters displayed in restaurants and contains 20 blank lines on which each shop will list its principal services and their ceiling prices.

Mr. Murray said, are already required to post ceiling prices, but the posting methods used have varied widely from shop to shop, and customers often have not known that ceiling prices were available for their inspection.

Through use of the new posters, he declared, shops all over the country will follow substantially the same easy-to-read method in listing ceiling prices.

Murray explained that service businesses which do not receive posters direct from OPS, and those needing more than one poster, such as department stores having several different service departments, should obtain them from their district or branch OPS offices.

The receiving line was composed of Mrs. C. W. Broome, president, Mrs. L. G. DeBerry, Mrs. Herlie Moreman, Mrs. Bray Cook and assisted by other members of the U. D. C.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. L. G. DeBerry, 1st vice president. She turned the program over to the social chairman, Mrs. Glynn Thompson, who introduced the distinguished guests. After in-roducing Mrs. Rogers to the audience, Mrs. Thompson introduced Congressman Rogers and turned the program over to him.

Mr. Rogers spoke on general topics of interest to women. In his approximately forty-five minute speech he discussed such subjects as taxation, socialized medicine and compulsory military training.

After the conclusion of the speech, members of the U. D. C. served punch from a crystal bowl resting on a lace covered table and decorated with autumn flowers of gold and orange fall shades. Baskets of mums and greenery were placed throughout the Legion Hall.

Miss Janice Smith played selections on the piano during the social hour in which the guests were served refreshments and informally visited with the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogers.

Approximately 75 persons attended.

Firemen Answer 3 Calls During Week

Fire trucks rolled three times during the past six days, without a major damage being reported.

On Friday, Oct. 17, firemen answered a call at the corner of 10th and Noel streets, where they took care of a truck fire. Yesterday they put out a trash fire at the oil mill and answered a call to the Johnnie Brewer residence in the north part of town.

The Brewer fire was discovered by three young ladies who saw the blaze as they drove by. Mrs. Morris Odum, Jan Monzingo and Charles Hammonds quickly entered the house, called the fire department and attacked the flames with water. When firemen arrived, they had the blaze under control. The fire apparently started when a heater hose became disconnected, causing the blaze to leap to a nearby wall.

sota alone has over one million tons of surplus hay. The government has the funds to purchase this hay, but there is a shortage of labor available in the surplus hay areas to load it. Due to the big corn crop in the hay-producing states, farmers are today harvesting their corn—and leaving the hay for shipping until later this winter.

Hay is now being shipped to Texas at the rate of 1,000 cars a week. With 8,000 cars now on order, it will be approximately eight weeks before all back orders can be filled.

Hall County farmers have ordered 1285 tons of emergency hay through Wednesday, Oct. 22, McKown stated. To date, 133 tons (11 cars) have been received. This is approximately 10 per cent of the hay on order.

Judge Goodpasture explained that in each election precinct, the first name listed is the presiding judge who has the power to appoint clerks to hold the election, or he can appoint a new assistant judge in case of vacancy. In case the presiding judge should fail to appear in election day, the early assembled voters must appoint a presiding judge. He also stated that all persons holding the election must take the oath prescribed by law before opening the polls for business.

"Through Wednesday, Oct. 22, over 40 percent of Hall County farmers had failed to sign up for the 1953 program," McKown said. "With only seven working days left, many farmers will be disqualified from earning soil conservation assistance unless they contact their PMA committeeman before the closing date, Friday, Oct. 31."

"There is nothing compulsory in the sign up. It is the hope of the Hall County Committee that all farmers will express their opinion to their local committeemen, to enable this county to continue the good records it has had of full cooperation in such matters."

I have done my best to make the voice of Texas heard against corruption, ineptness and inefficiency in high places; against the infiltration of Communists into high governmental positions; against an unstable and stalemated foreign policy that is costing the lives and blood of Americans on foreign soil; against a taxing and spending policy that is imposing an increasingly heavy burden upon our citizens; against a new and dangerous doctrine of paramount rights under which the federal government can claim the property of states and individuals without consent. ### Health Talks

"He's so nearsighted he can't see his hand in front of his face!" A mistaken tendency is to separate all who don't have normal eyesight into two great classes: the nearsighted and the farsighted. Yet, even the child who is farsighted may have vision so bad he can't see in the distance without glasses, or a man who has progressive nearsightedness can reach the point at which it is impossible for him to read.

reach the back of the eye, the retina, are clear. Next, the rays of light are focused in such a way that they fall exactly on the retina. An eye meeting this latter requirement is called "emmetropic," which means "an eye within measure." If any part of the eye is constructed so that the rays of light come to a focus somewhere in front of the retina, the condition is known medically as "myopia."

It's The Law In Texas

Difference Between Divorce and Annulment Explained

Notice of the filing of suits for divorce appear daily in our newspapers. Something has gone wrong with the marriage, and one of the spouses is asking the court to end the marriage by granting a divorce.

Occasionally, however, we read that someone is suing for an annulment of their marriage. The average reader may be inclined to say, "What is the difference?" Obviously the marriage is terminated if the court grants the petition, whether for divorce or annulment.

In the case of a divorce, the plaintiff (the person asking for an end to the marriage, whether the husband or wife) recognizes that the two parties involved were validly married and that there is an existing valid marriage.

The plaintiff alleges, though, that the other spouse has been guilty of some act which the law says constitutes a ground for divorce. If the divorce is granted a marriage actually that exists is terminated legally by the court.

In effect, the court tells the couple that they were validly and legally married at one time, but no longer are.

Annulment Differs
In the case of an annulment, however, the plaintiff alleges that there never was a valid marriage in the first place because of some impediment of the parties of some fraud in its inception.

In this case the court must determine whether there ever was a valid marriage. If the court agrees with the plaintiff, the decree says in effect that the couple never was legally and validly married and is not now.

Such a decree of annulment establishes for the public record the fact that the marriage was and is invalid according to law.

Children Protected
Whether the action takes the form of a divorce or an annulment, the decree will have no effect on the legitimacy of the couple's children. Our statutes provide that the children of couples whose marriages have been declared null shall nevertheless be legitimate.

Every divorce petition must set out the name, age, sex and residence of each child under 16 years of age born of the marriage involved. Then, before a divorce may be granted, the trial judge is required by law to inquire into the "surroundings and circumstances" of each such child.

Having considered all the pertinent facts and circumstances, the court in granting a divorce may give the custody and education of the child either to the father or mother. The governing factor here is the judge's belief and findings with regard to the best interests of the child himself.

Either parent may be required to make periodical payments for the benefit of the child, and may be punished for contempt of court in even of failure to comply with the support order.

In the past some trouble has been experienced in enforcing support orders against parents who move out of the state, as a person cannot ordinarily be extradited for the purpose of answering a contempt of court charge. However, many states (including Texas) have recently passed laws providing for reciprocal enforcement of such orders, which is bringing some relief in support cases.

Hightower-Lilly Wedding Solemnized In Pretty Church Service Saturday

At six o'clock Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church of Memphis, Laura Mai Hightower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Hightower of Memphis, exchanged double ring nuptial vows with Hugh T. Lilly of Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Q. Lilly of Brownfield, Rev. Roy Shanahan read the service, assisted by Rev. Vernon Snider, of Dallas, cousin of the bride.

A backdrop of silver green was decorated with entwined ivy and served as a background for pedestals topped with palms, ferns, urns of white mums, and cathedral tapers.

A medley of organ selections was played by Mrs. T. L. Rouse. Included in the nuptial prelude were "At Dawning" by Cadman, "Meditation" from Thais by Massenet, "Evening Star" by Wagner, "Cantilena" by Golttermann, "Shepherd's Idyl" by Giebland, and "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin.

During the ceremony, Liza's "Liebestraum" was played softly. Mrs. Dick Highfill sang, "Oh Promise Me" by DeKoven and "O Perfect Love" by Barnaby. The traditional professional and recessional were used.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The skirt and halter-type bodice were of accord. Iacket of lace was fashioned with a small round collar and long sleeves which tapered to points over her hands. The jacket and collar were outlined with applique cutouts of the lace design.

Her veil of silk illusion fell from a Juliet cap of white satin, outlined with a rope of illusion entwined with pearls. She carried a crescent arrangement of fleur d'amour and pink Pinnocchio roses.

Mrs. Howard Phillips of Abilene attended the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Maggie Nell White of Brownfield and Mrs. Tommy Hulsey of Hereford. The attendants wore identical gowns of mauve iridescent taffeta fashioned with halter-type bodice and full skirt. The short jacket had a stand-up collar and dolman sleeves. They wore in their hair bandeaus of mauve taffeta trimmed with rhinestones. The eye-length veils were sprinkled with rhinestones. They carried crescent-shaped arrangements of Happiness roses.

Myron Harris of Brownfield served as best man. Ushers were Charles Johnston of Austin, Bobby White and Morgan Copeland of Brownfield, and Jack Hightower of Vernon, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hightower chose a toast crepe dress complimented with bronze bead trim. Her accessories were brown and beige, and she wore a corsage of green orchids. The bridegroom's mother selected a blue crepe dress, with accessories of black. Her corsage was of pink orchids.

VETERANS NEWS

Q. I am the widow of a World War I veteran, and I want to apply for a pension. I've been running a small dress-making business. Must I count the amount of money I made from my business, in figuring out whether I am eligible under the law's ceiling on income?

A. Yes, you must compute the income from your business, for nonservice-connected pension. However, you need not figure in your gross income; instead, that sum may be reduced by the necessary expenses of carrying on your enterprise.

Q. I served in World War II, was disabled, and am drawing VA disability compensation payments. I went back on active duty since Korea and was again disabled in service. Will I be eligible for two disability compensation checks from VA—one for my World War II service disability, and the other for the disability I received recently?

A. No. No more than one VA award of compensation may be made to any veteran, but the award will be for the combined service-connected disabilities.

Q. I plan to enroll for training under the Korean GI Bill. Does VA want a photostat of just the front side of my discharge paper? A VA needs a photostat or certified copy of both sides of your discharge paper, in order to process your application.

Q. I am a World War II veteran, and am entitled to a GI loan although I never used this benefit. I returned to active duty as a result of my recent service. I meet eligibility requirements for a GI loan under the new Korean GI Bill. Will I be able to get two GI loan entitlements, as a result?

A. No. World War II veterans who reentered service since Korea will have their unused loan entitlement under the World War II Bill cancelled after their discharge and will have it replaced with new entitlement under the Korean GI Bill. In your case, you will have 10 years from the end of the present emergency to apply for a GI loan—rather than July 25, 1952, the World War II deadline for loans.

FIXIN-UP TIPS

For Farm and Home

For Vegetable Storage

FRUIT and vegetable storage usually is a problem unless there is a specific place for these perishables. Illustrated is a table-height bin for the temporary storage of fresh vegetables and fruit. It may be built of 1 by 2-inch lumber strips and Masonite 1/2" tempered hardboard. A hinged cover provides extra working or storage area.

The top and center shelves slant to give ample storage space and assure that the potatoes, dried onions, oranges, lemons, bananas and other commodities won't roll out. The bottom shelf is flat. Each of the shelves is perforated for ventilation.

Lumber strips in the framework serve also as legs of this bin, which may be used in the kitchen, basement, utility room, or entry hall. Casters may be placed under the legs. Shelves should be put in place during the assembly of the bin, as they are not removable.

Selective Service To Call 2,784 Texas Youths In December

AUSTIN, Tex.—State Selective Service headquarters last week issued a call for 2,784 men for the Army in December, biggest monthly call received by Texas in 1952.

Only 382 men were inducted in December 1951. Induction of men in December will take place from December 1 through December 13 because of customary armed forces holiday leaves and furloughs at Christmas time.

State Selective Service headquarters Monday also received a call for 14 doctors and six dentists for the armed services in November. This is the state's share of a national quota of 341 doctors and 200 dentists for both the Army and Air Force.

VET PROBLEMS AND ANSWERS

Q—I'm planning to convert my NSLI term policy to permanent endowment insurance. If I'm still living at the end of the endowment period, how will I receive my money?

A—You will have a choice. You may either get the insurance proceeds in a lump sum, or you may ask VA to pay them to you in equal monthly installments ranging in number from 36 to 240. If you die before all the installments have been paid to you, the remainder will go to your beneficiary, if you have named one.

Q—I am receiving a VA pension for a total and permanent non-service-connected disability. I have a house which I inherited, and I want to sell it. Must I include all the proceeds of the sale as income in figuring whether I come under the income ceiling for pension purposes?

A—Since you inherited the house, the entire proceeds from its sale would be considered as income for pension purposes. If you receive a lump sum payment, it will apply for the calendar year in which you got it. If you get paid in installments, whatever you receive during a calendar year must be included as income for that particular year.

Q—I was forced to interrupt my training under the World War II GI Bill to go back into active service. I expect to be discharged soon, and I want to continue with my GI Studies. Is there any time limit for resuming?

A—You must pick up your training within a reasonable period following your discharge. The "reasonable period" is determined for each veteran on an individual basis and depends on a number of factors such as the type of training involved, its availability and so on.

Q—I know a World War II veteran who has become incompetent. Can his GI insurance premiums be paid by another person?

A—Yes. The premiums may be paid by any person in his behalf. If the veteran's premium return envelope isn't used, care should be taken to identify the insured the payment properly, including the insured veteran's full name, address, date of birth, service serial number and insurance number. Advertise in the Democrat.

LOTS OF BUSINESS BUT

Retail stores in Memphis—and all over this country—do a lot of business. But a very small amount of the money which goes through their cash registers remains in the bank accounts of the individual store keepers as profits.

This fact is shown by a report on store sales during the first six months of 1952 from a nation-wide standpoint. On the average, volume of sales were a little better than last year. But—net profit from merchandising operations amounted to only 1.1 per cent of each sales dollar that went through the cash registers.

From the consumers standpoint, prices are admittedly high. But the survey shows that store profits are lower than in the days when the general price level wasn't much more than half of the current figure.

The survey gives evidence that inflation, far from benefiting retailers, has hurt them—just as it has hurt all consumers. And the reason is that the retail costs, including taxes, wages and everything else—have gone up farther and faster than have prices.

VALUE OF F.F.A. PROGRAM

Nothing that concerns an industry which is so important a factor in the economic life of our community as in agriculture can fail to be a concern of all of us.

It is for this reason that Monday night's F.F.A. Parent-Son banquet was something more than a social event in the calendar of a group of high school boys. Whatever else it may have been, it was the opportunity for the members of the Wilber chapter of the Future Farmers of America to demonstrate for their parents and guests that they were a part of a very big, serious and purposeful undertaking.

That undertaking is nothing more or less than the recognition of the fact that farming is big business, and that nothing less than sound, business-like methods and practices will do if the farmer is to be successful.

It is not for us to tell these farmers of the future (or their parents) what methods and practices they should adopt. That is the job of the vocational agriculture department, of which the F.F.A. is only a part. We should all recognize, though, that when that job is being well done, the entire community—which we like to think of as extending beyond the city limits—is being served.

Successful farmers are prosperous farmers, and their prosperity contributes directly to that of the towns and cities where they trade.—The Wilber (Neb.) Republican.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Blood on the Highways
 America's highways are saturated with blood. Last year alone, 37,500 people were killed in highway accidents. Another 2,000,000 were injured.

There is no way to adequately describe the suffering of the victims and their families. But any one can see that the price we are paying for recklessness, carelessness, and incompetence behind the wheel is out of all reason and must be reduced.

There is still another aspect to this—the economic aspect. Last year alone, despite all possible savings and economies, the automobile casualty insurance industry was unable to make ends meet. The premiums collected were more than 100 million less than it had to pay out because of the steadily mounting cost of accidents. Manifestly, no enterprise can long operate on a deficit basis.

The immediate answer is higher rates. But it is conceivable that should the rates go high enough the insurance companies would be priced right out of the market. And then the alternative would become government-operated compulsory insurance, paid for in part through premiums and in part by taxes. And anyone with the slightest knowledge of government-in-business knows that it is always accompanied by flagrant waste and inefficiency, by ever expanding patronage-staffed bureaus, and an insatiable appetite for more of our tax money. Even worse, government-in-business means less freedom and opportunity for our people—and brings us closer to the tyranny of total socialism.

There is only one answer to the highway carnage and all the human and economic problems it creates. The essence of it is to pass laws that will bar the incompetent and the congenitally reckless from the public highways and to enforce stringent, uniform traffic codes to the letter. The man who refuses to drive cautiously must be punished and, if necessary, refused the right to drive at all.

Ma Nature Sets Progress Down
 In these bewildering atom-jet radar days, it's oddly satisfying to see old Mother Nature put her foot down, issue a stern "No," or otherwise put man and his wondrous new gadgets in their place once in a while.

Such an instance has occurred high over the North Atlantic where the Old Dame puffed out her cheeks, blew a mighty blast, and convinced the British Overseas Airways Corp. that the time was not yet for beginning jet airliner service between New York, Bermuda and Nassau. BOAC had planned to begin the service by next spring. But after a further check of strong winds over the North Atlantic they changed their minds. Now it may not begin for four more years.

Progress is a very fine but it's still fun to see it get its come-uppance now and then.
 —Wichita Falls Record News

Bie Freeze
 A major trend to the use of all-metal cans in processing and retailing of frozen fruits and vegetables is developing in the frozen food industry.

A sharp upturn in this trend was shown last year, reports American Can Company, with the packing of approximately six million cans of frozen fruits. This year the upward surge is continuing with Conco's sales of cans of frozen foods up 633 per cent during the first half of the year.

Vacuum-closure which makes possible retention of the product's peak flavor, color, and quality is a major advantage offered by metal containers, the can manufacturing firm pointed out.

When a young girl's fancy turns to Cooking

On an Electric Range, cake icing can be prepared in a saucpan. No double boiler needed because the heat is measured and distributed. No scorching the bottom of either, because there's no flame or soot.

"Yes, Judy, cooking on our Electric Range is exciting! Electric cooking is so clean, so fast and so easy!"

"And we certainly make the best use of our Electric Range to cook complete meals. ... I'm sure loves those delicious roasts, tasty pies and cakes, and he's proud of those economy meals. Food tastes better, cooks easier, and we save time and energy, too. By the way, dear—those layers should be ready by now. That bell you heard was the automatic reminder. It's saying 'Cake's done!'"

"You might say that our Electric Range is the automatic cook. It does the work, and you don't have to worry about it."

"Another nice thing, you don't have to clean the kitchen so often, because there's no smoke and no soot. The kitchen stays cooler, too, because the heat goes into the food, not the air."

and provided Memphis the seven points they needed.

It was killer who did the dirty work through the middle for the Cyclones, but speedster Harvey Kennedy and rubber legged Jimmy Morrison gave the shivering Cyclone followers something to yell about with their runs over tackle and end slots.

Quarterback Duke Frisbie and end Julius Stevens flaunted the Eagle pass defense with a game of catch throughout the night. The red flag was Canyon's best defense against the passing duo as several of their longer connections were nullified by penalties.

In the second quarter Kennedy took a short flip over the middle from Frisbie and outraced the Eagles for eighty yards and a score but the officials ruled that he stepped out of bounds on the Canyon 45 yard line.

The Cyclone defensive forward wall tackled themselves out of a job numerous times during the night by jarring the ball loose from the Eagle backs and pouncing on it to give Memphis possession.

At other times the Cyclone line seemed to be suffering from cold and the Eagles poured through to harass the Cyclone backs or step off yardage on offense.

Kennedy and Morrison were shaken up in pile-ups on the field and had to be helped off, but they both made quick recoveries and saw action before the game was over.

Dodge Announces All-New '53 Car

The most dramatic changes in the 38-year history of the Dodge passenger car was unveiled here today, when Dodge Division of Chrysler Corporation introduces its sensational 1953 "action car".

The new, completely restyled Dodge with a powerful 140-horsepower Red Ram V-Eight engine went on display in the showroom of Hickey Motor Co., corner Main & 8th St. this morning.

Sweeping changes in both styling and chassis features plus the unprecedented efficiency of the new engine were announced by Gerald Hickey, owner.

New beauty and a smooth flowing effect were achieved, Hickey revealed, by flavoring the lower, softer lines and increased glass area with a touch of continental design. These attractive styling changes are being offered in the entire 1953 Dodge line which consists of 10 different models, he said.

The 140-horsepower Red Ram V-Eight engine is featured in the Cornet series, while popular and dependable six cylinder engine is retained in the Meadowbrook and Meadowbrook Special series. The wafar is not included in the 1953 lineup.

The highly-touted new Dodge Red Ram V-Eight engine is compact in size and light in weight. It produces more horsepower per cubic inch of displacement than any other automobile engine in volume production today.

Dodge's efficient new power plant is based on design principles used in high-output aircraft engines. Its horsepower is 140 at 4,400 r.p.m. Displacement is 241.1 cubic inches. It develops this high power output on regular grades of fuel despite its high-compression ratio of 7.1 to 1. Hickey said.

Outstanding features of the Red Ram V-Eight engine are its highly efficient hemispherical combustion chamber with centrally-located spark plug, an ingenious lateral valve arrangement, and a "square" design with exceptionally short stroke and large bore.

"Body beautification and the Red Ram engine are definitely highlights of the all-new 1953 Dodge," the dealer declared. "But there are many other significant features such as the choice of transmissions. And there is a new steering ease and maneuverability achieved by a more compact chassis design, a new suspension system and an improved mechanism."

Hickey stated four different types of drive were being offered. They are the new Gyro-Torque drive, which is teamed with the Red Ram V-Eight engine to provide lightning response without shifting; Gyro-Matic drive, which offers smooth and easy no-shift driving; automatic overdrive, which provides a fourth "cruising" gear for greater gasoline economy; and standard drive, those preferring to do their own shifting.

"For greater ease in handling, especially to meet increased traffic and parking problems, the chassis has been redesigned with a new compactness and still manages to increase further the amount of passenger headroom and hiproom," he pointed out. "The 1953 Dodge also is improved in riding and handling qualities due to innovations in suspension and steering," he stated.

An improved control-arm arrangement on the front suspension system causes the 1953 Dodge to resist tilting on turns. And new, softer two-inch-wide rear springs with fewer leaves contribute to a more comfortable ride. A modified frame design is responsible for increasing the resistance of the car to twisting of strains of the road. Also leveling the riding qualities are the time-tested Oriflow shock absorbers.

On Cornet models, another innovation is center-balance steering, resulting in less wheel effort greater steering accuracy and greater absorption of road shock. Center-balance steering is achieved by equal-length tie rods and a symmetrical idler arm which centers the linkage between front wheels.

Hickey pointed to the action appearance and beauty of the 1953 Dodge which is marked by lower, longer and more smoothly flowing lines than any previous model. The long, low fender line is continuous from front to rear and is accented by a softly-blended "kick-up" on the rear fender. Driver and passenger visibility is considerably improved by the use of a one-piece curved windshield and a larger wrap-around rear window that achieves an effect of "watch tower" visibility.

The rear-end styling of the 1953 Dodge has a low, sleek continental appearance. Unusual features include a stern-side gasoline filler cap, mounted directly below the left-hand corner of the trunk lid. Counter-balanced trunk lid hinges are further apart to avoid squeezing baggage. For ease of operation and greater convenience, a push-button lock is part of the deck lid. The lid can be closed without locking.

In keeping with the trend toward rear sports cars, Dodge will offer wire wheels and a continental-type rear tire mounting on the Diplomat hardtop at extra cost.
