Group Sets Date For Angus Sale Here In April

The first consignment sale of the Lower Panhandle Angus Association will be held in Memphis in April, members of the cattlemen's organization voted in a meeting held Monday night.

This will be the first sale by this Angus association but they expect to make it an annual affair. Entries will be limited to sixty head, representing choice animals from herds of the members of the lower Panhandle area.

Jerral Rapp, President of the Angus organization, said that one of the leading cattle auctioneers of the nation, Ray Sime, Belton, Missouri, has been engaged for the auction. Members from six counties have indicated that they will consign cattle to the Memphis sale.

Clifford Farmer, manager of the Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the Angus association, stated that the annual auction of fine breeding cattle marks a milestone in the livestock improvement program started by the Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development in 1948. ## REQUEST BIDS ON F.-M. ROAD AT NORTHFIELD

The Texas Highway Department through district offices at Childress, this week published contractors' notice calling for the paving of 16 miles of farm-to-market highway from Northfield to Tell. Eight and one-third of the proposed road lies in Hall County according to M. O. Goodpasture, county judge. The road, known as State Highway FM No. 94, will include mileage in Hall, Childress, Cottle and Motley Counties.

"For many years, 25 or longer it has been the hope of Motley County people to have a first-class highway reaching from Northfield to the Denver railroad," Judge Goodpasture explained. "The proposed extension of 16.105 miles from Tell toward Northfield to be submitted for bidding on Nov. 14 is a part of the fulfillment of this dream of many years."

Four counties contribute their allotments out of a special appropriation by the last Legislature for the construction of this road in the present survey to be contracted, Judge Goodpasture stated. If acceptable bids are received at the bidding advertised for Nov. 14, paving should be getting underway within a short time.

Jaycees To Stage Jamboree Nov. 17

The "Jaycee Jamboree," amateur production of the Memphis Junior Chamber of Commerce will be staged Monday, Nov. 17, in the High School auditorium.

"This is our first effort toward raising money," Joyce Webster, president, announced. "We are going to use a cast made up of our members, and promise to give those attending a full evening of entertainment and fun."

The president explained that money in the organization general fund will be used to benefit the City of Memphis and this community. He stated that reserve tickets are now on sale, and that expectations are for a sell-out. Tickets are available from any Jaycee member or at Memphis Studio.

EISENHOWER WINS PRESIDENCY WITH BIG MARGIN; HALL COUNTY VOTES FOR ADLAI

NEXT PRESIDENT AND FIRST LADY—Gen Ike Eisenhower and wife, Mamie, are shown relaxing after the strenuous race for president, which ended early Wednesday when a definite trend was shown from election results.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower swept the nation Tuesday in landslide proportions in his race for the presidency. Returns late Wednesday night gave the Republican nominee a total of 31,024,000 votes. Gov. Stevenson had received 24,048,000. Complete returns from the 12 voting precincts in Hall County gave the following votes for both candidates:

For Eisenhower	1,253
For Stevenson	1,744

Observers were predicting early Thursday morning that over 60 million votes would be tabulated in the general election before final returns are received.

In Hall County, an unexpected large number of citizens turned out to show their preference. Election officials in several voting precincts were reported to have run out of ballots.

In Precinct No. 1, Memphis, the last printed ballot was marked at approximately 4 p. m. In Precinct No. 13, which uses the tax collector's office, ballots lasted until nearly 5 p. m.

Election officials were at a loss in determining the next step of procedure after the ballots were exhausted. Some polling places have been reported as closing down. Here in Memphis, legal advice was sought by E. (Gip) McMurry, election judge in Precinct No. 13. He conferred with Sam J. Hamilton, Memphis attorney, who advised persons holding the election to use blank sheets of paper for ballots.

Hedley Festival Draws Huge Crowds For 2-Day Event

The then forthcoming national election, the extended drought, and the uncertainties of the future did not dampen the spirits at Hedley's first annual cotton festival Friday and Saturday.

Both days of festivities from early morn to late at night crammed a lot of entertainment into the people of the area who wanted to forget more serious matters. In spite of all the set-backs of the year, the people by the thousands either participated in making the festival a success or lent encouragement by attending.

The Hedley Lions Club—one of the most progressive clubs in the district which is always doing things for the community—promoted the two-day affair and all proceeds went to the music department of the Hedley High School. It appears that each and every citizen of the city and a lot from surrounding areas and other neighboring towns all united in a great effort that couldn't fail to bring about the success desired.

"We urge all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to be present at this meeting, and to bring a guest," he added.

Chief Commends Youths Of City

Youths of Memphis were in for a word of praise from Chief of Police, T. D. Weatherby this week. They were commended for the manner in which they conducted themselves Halloween night.

"We're proud of the over-all conduct of our boys and girls," Weatherby stated. "Although there were a few instances of slight vandalism, it was definitely one of the quietest Halloweens we've seen here in a long time. The police department wants to thank our young people for not causing much disturbance."

Regulary Suspect Arrested Saturday

Man Henry Stinnett arrested on a burglary suspect here Friday evening as a result of a request from Clarendon County, who gave his name as Campbell, was picked up at the depot near the rail-tracks, where he apparently tried to grab a train for a ride to town.

Arrest came following a call from the sheriff's department in Clarendon County to be on the lookout for a man whose description was given. Officers here were requested to arrest the man and return him to Clarendon County.

The call was received by Sheriff T. D. Weatherby, who went on the prowl. Campbell was arrested about 20 minutes after he had reached Memphis. Officers here estimate that Campbell was carrying some of the stolen goods.

Weatherby was released into the custody of Sheriff Guy Wright of Doniphan County soon after he was arrested.

Noted Weather Forecaster To Speak In Area Meeting Here November 12

Dr. Irving P. Krick, Denver, Colorado, noted meteorologist and long range weather forecaster, will speak to the people of this area on Wednesday, November 12 at 7:00 P.M.

Dr. Krick is head of the Water Resources Development Corporation which has a contract with an organization of farmers in this area to seed clouds with silver iodide. Paul Montgomery, director of the Red River Weather Improvement Association urges farmers and other interested parties to attend this meeting.

Dr. Krick is recognized as one of the leading meteorologists in the country. While working for the government in 1944, he forecast the weather for the landings on D-Day in Normandy.

For a number of years, while head of the Meteorology Department at California Institute of Technology, Dr. Krick had been forecasting weather for many industrial clients. Since 1948 he has devoted himself exclusively to his forecasting and cloud seeding work.

The meeting will be held in the high school auditorium in Memphis.

Legion Auxiliary Members Set Saturday As Poppy Day

Poppy Day in Memphis will be Saturday, Nov. 8.

"Wear a poppy to honor the war dead and aid war's living victims," Mrs. O. V. Alexander, poppy chairman of Simmons-Noel Auxiliary, said this week.

Women of the Auxiliary will be on the streets and in the stores throughout the day Saturday offering the symbolic poppies and receiving contributions for the Auxiliary's work in behalf of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans. The poppies will be crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies which grew "between the crosses, row on row," in the battle cemeteries of France and Belgium.

The chairman stated they have been made for the Auxiliary by disabled veterans of both World Wars.

"This year the poppy will have added significance because of the long list of war dead from Korea which have been added to the heroic roll of those who have died for America," Mrs. Alexander said. "Also there will be increased need for the Poppy Day contribution because of the many thousands of young men disabled in the Korean fighting. We hope that everyone will understand that the memorial poppy means honor for the nation's war dead and aid for those suffering as a result of war service, and will wear one of the little red flowers proudly on Poppy Day."

Homecoming Game Fri. Night Against Shamrock

The night's program of activities will include the traditional homecoming game between the Memphis and the Shamrock teams, a pre-game presentation, and a post-game homecoming dance.

The game will start in Cyclone stadium promptly at 7:30 p.m. and will unfold before the eyes of the fans. Miss Anita Murphree will be presented as Memphis School Band Sweetheart and Miss Donna Webb as Shamrock Sweetheart in the limelight when introduced as the 1952 Homecoming Queen. Immediately following the ceremony, the homecoming dance will get underway.

The Shamrock Irish have not had an impressive record from their seven games this season. They have been tied in one game and lost Friday night they blasted Paducah by the top-heavy score of 55 to 13 in the first conference battle for either team. The Irish rolled over for four touchdowns during the first quarter of the game, then used substitutions liberally during the last three periods.

From the standpoint of non-conference play, the Cyclone gets the nod. They have five wins, two losses and one tie game to their credit. On the other side of the ledger is the fact that the two losses have been conference games which were won by hard-driving teams from Wellington and Childress.

Homecoming Dance
Climaxing the evening will be the Annual Homecoming Football Game Dance sponsored by the Senior Class. The dance will be held in the high school cafeteria, and will start immediately after the game.

All Memphis graduates and high school students are invited to attend. Members of the senior class are selling mums for the homecoming game. A request has been issued to all persons desiring one of these mums to call Betty Leslie at the Greenhouse, or Duane Miller or Billie Hartman.

As is usually the case after a hot election campaign, all is quiet and serene "On the Potomac" and all over the nation. People take their politics seriously, then when they cast their vote, and whatever the result may be they consider matters settled for a time at least, and then hunt for other things to worry about.

The out-pouring of millions of votes more than ever before in the national election proved that at last Americans have awakened and wanted to do something about it instead of accepting passively trends they felt would finally endanger the liberty of the citizens.

Platforms and issues were considered by the voters, but the real reason for the whole country swinging for Ike was that people wanted a change and felt they (Continued on page 12)

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

Congressman, 18th District
By Walter Rogers

THE JOB OF THE NEXT CONGRESS: Although much has been said on all subjects of national importance during the past several months in the election campaigns, it must always be remembered that there are three divisions in our democratic form of government, each of equal importance. These are the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch, and the Judicial Branch. The Legislative Branch, which is the Congress, is the branch that is always closest to the people, and it is through this branch that the voice of the people must be heard and reflected. It is also this branch that writes the laws that are subsequently administered by the Executive Department and passed upon from a legal standpoint by the Judicial Branch.

The 83rd Congress, which convenes January 3, 1953, will be confronted with some of the most tremendous problems that have faced a legislative body in many years. These problems will be both domestic and international. The domestic problems will concern expenses of the Government, taxation, labor laws, immigration laws, economic control laws, agricultural programs, public lands, banking and currency, the judicial system, veterans' affairs, communications, transportation and an endless number of others.

Of these, probably the two most important at the present time are the expenses of the government and taxation. On the international scene it would be most difficult to point out the many items that must come up for consideration. However, it would appear that the most important matters in this field are the early settlement of the Korean War (which in my opinion is the number one project for this country and the world), the theory of the United Nations, the consolidation of the free peoples' front against communism, and world trade. The question of government expenses on the domestic front of course ties in directly with the international program for the reason that approximately seven-eighths of the budget is earmarked for military or semi-military purposes. By this I mean the great bulk of the budget goes to pay for the preparedness program, a sizable slice is required for the payment of foreign aid, and another sizable slice for the payment of our obligations to the veterans of this country. I have continually fought for economy in all phases of our expenditures and I sincerely hope that the 83rd Congress will be successful in reducing these expenditures to the extent that the much needed tax relief will be forthcoming to the individual taxpayer.

There is of course such a thing as false economy and I am sure that no one in the Congress would feel that the preparedness programs should be reduced to the extent that it would place us in the danger zone. The goal that should be sought is greater efficiency in the armed services and a cutting down of every possible practice that is not contributing directly to the program.

This same kind of economy can be practiced in the general government expenditures and long strides were made in that direction by the last Congress. There has been some repercussions from the cuts that we made in appropriations, but these have been relatively small. There has been no curtailment of services because of these cuts, and it is my opinion that we can go further in trimming general expenditures without impairing the services. When these cuts are effected, it will mean that an additional large number of employees will be taken from the federal payroll. I feel that the reduction of the federal payroll is a must for two reasons:

First, it will be a major step in the direction of reduced government expenses. Secondly, it will provide potential employees in many fields of private enterprise where there is at present shortages of help.

One of the major tasks of the new Congress will be to see that the individual taxpayer gets the benefit on any reduction in Government costs. By this I mean that when a reduction is made the funds saved thereby should not be transferred to another division, another department, or another section of the Government who has been paying the bill the American taxpayer. This and all other problems reflected above are responsibilities of the Congress, the representatives of the people. These responsibilities can not be shifted to the Executive or the Judicial. They rest squarely on the shoulders of Congress, and it is that body that can and must meet them and work out the problems. Unity of the entire nation is as essential in working out this job as it is in meeting the communist threat, and regardless of who serves as President, it is my hope and desire that the entire nation will unify and meet these challenges.

Lowest temperature ever recorded in the U. S. was 66 degrees F., below zero at Yellowstone Park, Feb. 9, 1933.

THE MORNING AFTER . . . Rescue workers dig into the torn and twisted wreckage of these coaches in an attempt to rescue people trapped inside. The three-train collision that took place at Harrow, England, recently took 110 lives. A north-bound express and a south-bound express collided with a standing local train.

Slowly the days grow colder, the long nights fall; Plows turn the stubble; fires are tended and apples Mellow in the cellars; and under the roots of maples Mice are burrowing. And the high geese call.

A sad and beautiful time of the year, Autumn is the "swan song" of the four seasons for, with its going, goes the old year. But of such stuff are memories made that we remember the good harvest and forget that the chill winds of winter sigh just around the corner. We seem to be spellbound by her magic for "This Indian Summer thrills us through . . . May such full harvest and happy display . . . Attend your life's autumnal day."

And as the butterflies flit about in search of sweet nectar and the leaves turn loose and fall to earth, one is possessed with a gentle peace and . . .

A GYPSY LASS

If Winter is an old man with frosty beard and cane and Spring is a winsome fairy with a magic wand turning nature green, then Summer is a lady lad ambling beside a stream and Autumn . . .

Autumn is a Gypsy lass, In a gay but tattered gown, Tramping through the country Lingerer in the town.

Everywhere she flaunts her colors, Dancing as she goes . . . Nonchalant as a summer breeze Before the winter snows.

Autumn is a time when the earth's harvest is ripe for the taking; when the glow of the harvest moon makes a light for the pack of dogs trailing the coon. Then the corn stands, like so many Indian teepees, shocked in the field and the pumpkins are gathered for Halloween lanterns and luscious "pumpkin pies."

Yes, Autumn sings a song of its own . . . a song vibrant with the fullness and praise, it is also a time for remembering . . .

No hand can hold the autumn back; There is an end to summer. A gracious heart acquires the knack Of welcome to newcomer.

While it is the season for thanksgiving rhythm of human activity. No frivolous ditty but rather a "work chant" of humming machinery and busy hands garnering the year's bountiful goodness. While one is sad to take leave of summer, autumn is the season of fulfillment and fruition and one to be welcomed with open heart.

Childress Defeats Cyclone 21-7 In Conference Contest Friday

The Memphis Cyclone lost their annual game of the season last night at the hands of the Childress Bobcats, who combined driving and passes to come out on top of the 21-7 score. Childress district champion last year, the Cyclone won one touchdown each in the first and second quarters. The Memphis line showed seven sacks during the game that stopped the Bobcat running game. During the first quarter, Moore broke through and ran behind the scrimmage line. Cheek cost Childress a yard loss in the second period and eight yards in the third. Mack was seen in the Bobcat defense a few times immediately after the ball was snapped. Jerry Moore, freshman, also showed promise to play in his opponents' field.

In the first quarter, the Cyclone recovered a Memphis fumble in the middle. From this they moved to their first down in 11 plays.

In the second quarter, a pass interception gave Childress the lead. Moore recovered a fumble. The Cyclone drove Childress 31, where the ball was on downs. The line held, and forced Childress to punt. Memphis traveled from their 28 to the Childress 38 yard line, and again lost the ball on a pass interception. Childress used three passes from this point to set up their second touchdown in the Memphis 2 yard line.

The Cyclone drove to the Childress 29 yard line in the third quarter. A punt a few plays later set the Memphis team back on their 20, and a 15-yard penalty put them back on their 5. Frisbie's punt was returned to the Cyclone 20, from which point the Bobcats passed into the end zone for their third touchdown.

Early in the fourth quarter, Julius Stevens intercepted a pass, and returned it downfield to the Childress 25. A pass to Stevens who lateraled to Corley gave 9 yards. Tamplin then hit the line for a first down. Morrison made 6 and Tamplin 8 and another first down, which placed the ball on the Childress 1-yard line. From here, Tamplin hit the line for the Cyclone touchdown. Kennedy kicked the extra point. From this point on the game was in favor of the Cyclone. Last play of the game was a pass to Stevens who went 34 yards, placing the ball on the Childress 15-yard line.

Texans Ready For Waterfowl Hunting

AUSTIN—The second major phase of the annual Texas Wildlife harvest—duck and goose hunting—opened at noon Friday, Oct. 31. Deer and turkey season begins generally Nov. 16, and quail will hold the spotlight generally Dec. 1.

According to Howard D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, the waterfowl opener is being marked by a large number of potential hunters, who are waiting for an end of the drought. It was pointed out that the number of both ducks and geese leaving the northern nesting areas indicate that only rains are needed to provide Texas hunters with good shooting. Recent mild weather has postponed the movement south of the main body of birds but Dodgen explained that this migration can be touched off by arrival of normally cold weather in the north. The Executive Secretary suggested that hunters be extremely careful with fire because of the severe drought. Some states have been forced to curb shooting in certain areas because hunters started bad fires.

Other precautionary points were:

- Make certain to attach the $2 Federal duck stamp to the state hunting license.
- Adhere to all safety rules.
- Observe shooting regulations generally.
- The executive secretary warned that game wardens have no other choice but to prosecute persons exceeding the bag limits of five ducks a day or ten in possession of five geese per day in possession. Shooting hours after the first day are from one-half before sunrise to one hour before sunset.

WRITTEN FARM LEASES PREVENT DISPUTES

At this time of year, landlords and tenants alike are thinking about farm rental arrangements for 1953. While many operate from year to year on the basis of verbal agreements regulated largely by custom, written leases are better and may save disagreement and hard feelings between the parties.

Farming is a business and should be conducted in a businesslike manner for best success. Rental contracts involve a full year's work by tenant and possibly thousands of dollars for both parties. A few dollars spent on a property drawn lease is good business economy.

A farm lease is not a simple paper. Printed lease forms often turn out to be traps if not understood, or if not properly executed. A farm-tenant contract is intricate and of such importance to both parties concerned that amateur draftsmanship is risky.

Fixing of cash rent or designating the length of term are relatively simple. Yet, even in these matters, ambiguity or incompleteness can cause bitter disputes and expensive lawsuits.

A loosely drawn property description may have consequences entirely unintended by either landlord or tenant. Where rent is to be based on acreage, an accurate description is doubly important.

In addition, there are legal rules to substitute for some omissions in written leases. For example, a holdover tenant may automatically renew the contract if the lease is silent on the subject. It is important to know the results of omissions as to know the courts' interpretation of the language used.

There are many matters which should be covered by a properly drawn lease. For instance, if a tenant is to farm on a share basis, care should be taken to define what expenses are to be paid by the parties as well as what shares are to be taken out. A lease should cover such things as who is to make repairs, what land is to be cropped, whether the tenant can cut timber, whether loss of a building by fire or other cause frees the tenant, or whether the landlord must accept a sub-tenant.

One great cause of difficulty with leases is blind faith on the part of the persons involved that all differences of opinion can be worked out. Poor memories as to verbal agreements can cause disputes between persons even though they are both honest and generous.

Many of the possibilities that should be covered by a properly drawn lease will not occur to inexperienced persons. The renting of land deserves a written contract and it is too important to be entrusted to anyone other than an expert.

Like your travel with a JOYOUS THRILL?

WE HAVE NEWS for a lot of folks who want more fun from driving than they get from their present cars.

There's a trim bundle of eager high-powered energy that's just the ticket for you — a spirited automobile that can give you thrill after joyous thrill, for mile after fleeting mile.

Why not come in and try the Buick we have in mind?

The excitement starts with your first look at it, your first sitting in it, your first fingering of its slender wheel.

But wait till Dynaflo Drive® begins working its magic—and its constant and complete smoothness fills you with never-ending wonder.

Wait till you feel the bubbling exuberance of taking your first hill with a high-compression Fireball 8 Engine doing the honors. That's when you get a man-sized sampling of the tremendously able and instantly responsive power you command here.

Wait till you feel the serene satisfaction of skimming over rough roads, cobbles or ridged crossings. That's when you know, better than words can tell, what a million dollars' worth of ride engineering can do in the way of magnificent comfort.

Wait till you jockey into a real tight parking space and note the fun and ease that Power Steering** brings to a once-tough job.

But—why wait?

There's a Buick that can do all this — and more, far more — all ready for you to try it.

And listen: If you can afford a new car, you can afford a Buick.

How about coming in this week for a real sampling of this joyous travel?

Students Are Urged to Enter Essay Contest

All High School Students are urged to enter the Essay Contest conducted by the Ladies Auxiliary to V.F.W. on the subject, "Democracy is What We Make It."

Any eligible student attending a public or private high school may compete, whether or not there is a V.F.W. Auxiliary in that community. Their essay would be entered in the State Contest, not the Local Contest, members of the organization here stated. Meeting deadlines in the essay contests and following the rules is most important. Many potential winners, in the past, have been disqualified because they failed to meet deadline dates to keep within the 1,000 word limit, to submit essays in triplicate, or to attach a declaration of original authorship, the president said.

The deadline date for the local contest is March 15, 1953. These local contests qualify winners to enter the state contests, the deadline for which is April 14, 1953.

These state contests qualify winners to enter the National Essay Contest Finals, the deadline for which is June 1, 1953.

Local Contest Prizes are: 1st $15.00, 2nd Prize $5.98 Webster's Dictionary, 3rd Prize Webster's Dictionary.

State Contest Prizes are: Silver medals, as well as awards from state Auxiliary.

National Contest Prizes are: $1,000 cash and gold medal 1st prize, $500 cash and gold medal 2nd prize, $250 cash and gold medal 3rd prize, $100 cash and gold medal 4th prize, and 20 Honorable Mention prizes of $10 and $5 cash awards.

Two Small Boys Admit Pistol Theft From Local Store Four Weeks Ago

Two Memphis boys, ages ten and eleven, were apprehended this week for the theft of a small pistol from Western Auto Assoc. Store. The theft took place during the night of Oct. 6, and was made possible by the breakage of a small hole in the front glass of the store. T. D. Weatherby was immediately notified of the glass breakage and theft, and concluded the case Tuesday. No leads developed as to the persons guilty. Examination of the hole in the plate glass revealed that only a small hand could reach through the opening and remove the gun. Only evidence found was a small thumb-print, and a few drops of blood on the glass. The following day Weatherby noticed two boys walking east toward the cemetery as he escorted a funeral procession. While graveside services were in progress, he heard several shots. After the services were over, he investigated the sounds, and glimpsed two boys in the Davis pasture east of Memphis, but lost sight of them. Ten days ago he received a tip that two boys had been seen with a pistol. Nothing could be worked out from this. Tuesday another tip put Weatherby and Policeman Patterson in contact with a third boy who led to the arrest of the two culprits. Questioning got admissions from the two boys that they were guilty. In answering questions, the boys also revealed that they had stolen

Science Films Are Shown Mon.

The Biology class of MHS enjoyed a film in their class Monday morning. In this film they saw the complete growth of a flower from the seed to the seed. The picture was taken by time lapse photography. It showed how the seed first began to sprout and then grow into a full grown plant, which produced a flower that made a seed. The Chemistry class also saw a film by the name of Oxidation and Reduction. This was a very educational picture showing the process of oxidation and reduction go on all the time during our everyday life as the burning of coal and all fuels, and the oxidation of food in our bodies giving us energy.

Q—After World War II, I went to college under the GI Bill where I used my 48 months of entitlement to get my BS degree. After graduation, I went back to active duty. Now I hear there's a new GI Bill for Korean veterans. When I am discharged again, will I be able to use this new GI Bill to go ahead with graduate studies?

Drivers Warned About Stop Signs

Policemen of Memphis will start enforcing traffic laws within the city limits next week according to an announcement issued Tuesday by T. D. Weatherby, chief of police.

"We want to give a friendly warning to all drivers to abide by the stop lights and stop signs at street intersections," the chief said. "In making this appeal to motorists to comply with rules governing traffic, we want it understood that we do not want to arrest anyone. But the conditions are getting out of hand, and we are going to clamp down."

He explained that all men on the police force have been giving "courtesy warnings" to drivers who have broken traffic regulations for several weeks. This move was made to get the people conscious of their responsibility. During the period, many traffic tickets were given to out-of-county motorists who disobeyed stop signs and stop lights.

"It is in the interest of public safety that we have stop signs and other traffic regulations," Weatherby explained. "The time has come when harsher measures must be put into effect to get drivers to comply with our laws. Therefore, I want to issue this warning to everybody. At the same time I want to request all drivers to cooperate, and to come to a full stop when they drive up to certain corners."

Three carloads of Angus cattle were brought in from Canada by the Chamber of Commerce for Hall County farmers. Herds have increased so that annual sales can be held.

"Jamboree," which will be patterned after the M Polles produced several years ago. Andy DeWees will be master of ceremonies, assisted by Harman Elliott.

As plans began to take shape early this week, it was announced that the following Jaycees will play the part of the "Herty-Gerty Girls": Doug Lawrence, J. E. Nix, Bennie Dennis, Lewis Wells, Floyd Sims, W. B. McQueen, Jr., and Billy Ballew. Another member of the cast will be Dr. Chas. B. Dryden, who will be cast as "Marilyn Monroe." About 57 members will take part in the performance.

Full details will be announced next week, Webster stated.

Mrs. Elmer Davis, who has been visiting her son and brother in California the past few weeks, stopped over in Memphis for a short visit with friends en route to her home in Corpus Christi.

Hedley Festival

Milton Morris of Canyon in colorful ceremonies Friday night.

Friday morning the youngsters of the area entertained with a parade featuring costumes of every character, led by the Hedley Band which also gave an afternoon concert. Other entertainment on that day included a program of songs, greased pole climbing, potato race, greased pig contest, square dancing exhibition by the Pleasant Valley Square Dance Club of Amarillo, and a Hallowe'en and Cononation parade preceding the coronation of the Queen.

Saturday, the Grand Festival Parade started activities. This parade was pronounced by all who viewed it as one of the best ever put on in this section—not in numbers but in quality. The parade was participated in by various floats, bands from Amarillo, All Force Base, Hedley, Pannhandle Memphis, Pampa, and American Legion Auxiliary band of Groom.

Successful festival ever held in Hedley, closed out with festivities and a dance. The active participants were then ready for a much-needed rest. Bob Harris directed the two-day affair, assisted by a lot of hard-working lieutenants.

would get it with Ike. On the other hand, observers and students of political economy believe Adlai would have brought a change.

America's future as a free nation is at stake, and it is hoped that all Americans will unite in trying to do the things that will continue to make America great.

Some of the voting boxes in Hall County ran short of tickets Tuesday. Some closed down before closing time because they had no more tickets. Others kept open and wrote a lot of tickets in order to let voters have a chance to voice their desires. A lot of folks censured the Democrat for not printing enough tickets. Just to set you right in the matter, the tickets were ordered from an Austin printing concern, which by the way does not pay any taxes in Hall County. The law requires that 10 per cent more tickets be printed than there are qualified voters. There are nearly 3,000 poll tax holders in the county, and there are several hundred over-age people among those qualified to vote. If we had been given the order to print the tickets (and we pay taxes here), we

Absenteeism Still Big Problem Here

The number of students absent from classes in the Memphis Schools last week showed a slight decline according to records in the office of Supt. Davis.

Last week a total of 217 absentees were recorded by the different room teachers in the four Memphis Schools. This compares to 252 which was listed a week ago.

Below is a breakdown of absences recorded here:

Austin Elementary	85
Travis Elementary	45
Junior High School	37
High School	50

would have printed 4,200 as we have done several times in the past, and no one would have been deprived of a vote.

Each person who voted in the election voted right, for he expressed his choice and desires. Also, no one under our constitution can say to the other person, "You have no right to vote if you don't for the same as I vote." The people have spoken: long live the people!

Talented Students

Tickets are now on sale and can be secured from any of the band students or at the Democrat Office, Mrs. Adrian Odom, president stated. Admission will be 75c for adults and 35c for students. Proceeds from the program will be used toward sound proofing the band house, Mrs. Odom added.

denied the right to vote their preferences," Hamilton told officials.

During the last two hours before the polls closed, voters were handed a blank ballot and were instructed to write upon it their preference for the nominees. These ballots were counted in the totals.

In Hall County, Gov. Allan Shivers received a total of 2,365 votes. His name was scratched on many ballots. Yarborough received 247 write-in votes for governor.

Attorney General Price Daniel, nominee for U. S. Senator, received 2,489 votes from Hall County citizens.

Total vote cast for both nominees for president in the county was 2,997, according to the unofficial returns.

Electoral Votes — Over the nation, Eisenhower was winning or leading in 38 states early this morning with a total of 451 electoral votes. Gov. Stevenson was credited with car-
