Second In Series Of Concerts Will Feature Quartet

The Rhythm Kings, the second in the series of concerts to be sponsored here this year by the Hall County Town Hall Association, will appear at the high school auditorium on Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 8:15 p. m. Admission is by membership only.

The quartet, composed of Gregory John Carroll, tenor; Larry Leon Harrison, tenor; Roger Wainwright, baritone and Samuel Ferguson, bass, was formed under the direction of Harrison and Carroll. Since that time, the group has appeared in principal cities of the United States, and has appeared on Broadway at the famous Palace Theatre. They have also toured Canada and Europe.

Accompanying the group as pianist and arranger is Robinson (Bobbie) Aliston. Born in New York City, he studied at Julliard School of Music under Vietar Tallrica. He has played with such great artists as the Billy Taylor Trio and Max Raach.

Gregory John Carroll and Larry Leon Harrison, tenors, were both born in Baltimore, Md., and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. They attended Morgan College and Howard University. They both appeared in concert recital; toured the country with the famous play of "Porgy and Bess"; and have appeared on television and radio stations throughout the nation.

Roger Wainwright, baritone, attended Princes Anne College. He sang formerly with the famous Dew Croppers Quintet under the direction of Fritz Dollard of San Tan Studios.

Born in Charleston, South Carolina, Samuel (Danny) Ferguson attended Livingston College in Salisbury, N. C. He sang formerly with the Dew Droppers under the direction of Fritz Dollard of the San Tan Studios.

Negro Shot And Clubbed To Death In Fracas Sat.

J. C. Fields, negro, was killed Saturday evening near Lesley in a fight with another negro, with a shotgun and rifle being the tools of death. Lodged in the jail here is B. C. Caldwell, suffering from three stab wounds, and who is charged with the shooting and clubbing to death of Fields.

According to Deputy Sheriff Bill Baten, who investigated the fracas, eye-witness accounts give the following story.

Fields and Caldwell got into an argument, which waxed hot. Fields, who was armed with a pocket knife, stabbed Caldwell three times and

CITIZENS TURN TO WASHINGTON FOR HELP IN GETTING EMERGENCY HAY TO COUNTY

Johnson And Rogers Promise They Will Help To Get Early Shipments

The answer to the delay in shipments of Emergency Hay to Hall County Farmers and ranchers is being sought this week. The movement started Tuesday when approximately 14 telegrams were sent from county citizens to Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Congressman Walter Rogers, in Washington.

Replies were received from the Texas officials immediately. First answering telegram came late Tuesday afternoon, and was addressed to J. W. Coppedge, president of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development. It was from Sen. Johnson, who assured Coppedge that he would "immediately bring to attention of Production and Marketing Administration Urgent need for speeding up hay shipments to Hall County."

The second reply came from Cong. Walter Rogers, and was received here Wednesday afternoon. It said:

"Department of Agriculture advises a tragic shortage of Hay. Department is investigating Hall County matter, and will do all possible Wisconsin and Minnesota are only sources at this time. Additional drought areas have made disaster more acute. Will continue my efforts."

Apparently Rogers had conferred with officials in Washington before sending the telegram.

It was reported that telegrams were sent from Estelline and Turkey, in addition to those going from Memphis. All of them pertained to delay in the hay shipments, and requested immediate action to hurry the feed to county livestock raisers.

A check with the PMA office in Memphis early Thursday morning revealed that farmers and ranchers of Hall County had ordered 1,674 tons of hay under the program. To date, 217 tons had been received in the county.

Among some of the clubs who will present numbers on the program: Cue and Curtain Club, 1913 Study Club, The Harmony Club, The Business and Professional Women's Club, The Loins Club, Wm. Travis PTA, Atalantean Club, The Delphian Club, Stephen F. Austin PTA, and the High School Band. As an added attraction "The Texas Dusters" will perform plus many other specialty numbers.

Admission will be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students. Tickets can be secured from members of the Lions Club and will go on sale next week.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet Tonight

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Legion Hall. Estelle Guthrie, president, urged all members to attend because several important business matters are to be discussed.

President Guthrie also said that everyone should remember to bring a gift for the Christmas Box that is to be sent to the Veterans' Hospital.

Roger Ellerd Dies In Korean Fighting

Roger Ellerd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ellerd of Memphis, was killed in Korea last Friday, Nov. 14. He was a Navy hospital corpsman third class, and was serving with the 1st Marine Division.

First word of his death was received here Tuesday when his parents received a telegram from Washington. It read:

"With deepest regret, I officially inform you of the death of your son, Roger Roscoe Ellerd hospital corpsman third class U. S. Navy, which occurred on Nov. 14, 1952, in the Korean area. When further information is received concerning his remains, you will be promptly informed. I extend to you my sincerest sympathy in your great loss. It was signed by Vice Adm. L. R. DuBose.

Ellerd had informed his parents in recent letters of his work in helping to remove wounded Marines from the battlefield.

He was born in Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 13, 1924, and was reared in Hall County. He graduated from Memphis High School with the class of '42, and the following November volunteered for service with the Navy.

He was attached to the 1st Marine Div. as hospital corpsman and served in the Pacific during World War II. During the war, he was in the Cape Gloucester and New Britain campaigns, and was at Guadalcanal. Later his division took part in some of the other historic Pacific Island invasions.

Young Ellerd was out of uniform about one year after the close of World War II before reentering his old outfit.

He was preceded in death by his mother in 1929. Immediate survivors are: a son, Joe Roger Ellerd, age five years, of Lakeview; his father and step-mother Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ellerd of Memphis; a sister, Mrs. R. L. Amidown of North Beverly, Mass.; a step-brother, L. W. Messer of New Orleans, La., and his grand mother, Mrs. B. J. Ellerd of Memphis.

Basketball Starts For High School With Game Friday

Homer Tucker's Mother Buried At Clarendon

Funeral services for Mrs. J. R. Tucker, mother of Homer W. Tucker, local business man, were conducted Sunday at 2 p. m. from the First Christian Church in Clarendon with Rev. L. L. Oliver officiating. Mrs. Tucker died Friday, Nov. 14, following a heart attack.

A pioneer resident of Donley County, Mrs. Tucker and her late husband, J. R. Tucker, moved to Clarendon 40 years ago. Mr. Tucker preceded her in death in 1936.

Born January 5, 1879 at Caddo Mills, Hunt County, Texas, Mrs. Tucker was 73 years, 10 months and 9 days of age at the time of her death.

Interment was in the Citizens Cemetery in Clarendon under the direction of Murphy-Spicer Funeral Home.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Murlie McRorey of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Raymond Carter of Syracuse, Kans., Mrs. Jack Whitaker of Brownfield, and Mrs. Conway Armstrong of Monroe, La.; seven sons, Homer of Memphis. (Continued on page 12)

Sidelights On Korea Given By Veteran After 18 Months There

(The following was written by S-Sgt. Windell Orand, who returned recently from Korea, after winning three battle stars with the Army Paratroopers. He has passed up impressions received from the front lines, and gives a picture of the country not generally known here.)

By WINDELL ORAND
I arrived in Seoul, Korea, in April, 1951. At that time it was in United National hands, but the mark of war could be seen from every angle. This mark was first manifested to me in its people. As I eyed the multitudes along the streets they appeared to me a some man. This man dressed in white clothes with crude straw shoes and no hat. He was thin and hungry looking. As we marched through the narrow dirty streets, he cheered us but just couldn't smile very well. He didn't seem to understand this desperate game that advanced civilization seems to enjoy called war. But those deep-set eyes showed gratitude for what we were doing.

I saw the children completely separate from the adults. You just can't keep a child unhappy for long no matter what the situation might be. Korean kids idolize the American soldier. We are their hope; they are ours. Most of us had a house boy. A soldier and his house boy are constant companions. Those kids seem so much smarter than our own and can do anything well. I guess this is because many were left without parents as babies and somehow managed to live. Some of my most memorable times in the Far East were spent with Kim Hee Soo, my house boy. This seven year old boy always took good care of me. He would always refuse to eat any of my C rations until I had finished. Just the opportunity to be a friend was all the pay he wanted for washing my clothes, shining my boots, and any other details that might arise. It was through my association with Kim and other ragged and hungry, but always happy, children that I became convinced that we belong in Korea.

Along either side of the streets lay almost complete destruction. The few brick or tile buildings were completely demolished. All that remained were low-roofed shacks made of mud and scrap lumber, spaced just enough to allow scant walking room between. Probably millions were homeless. The streets were narrow, rough, and filthy. There were no civilian vehicles. There appeared to be no mass production of any kind. The interior of the homes and the people themselves were as clean as circumstances would permit.

Th subjects in their high schools are probably almost as advanced as those of our own. For instance, a student can get two years of algebra and English and one year of chemistry, plane geometry. (Continued on page 12)

One week ago it looked like the Krick might get up and all the area get soaking wet. Alas and alack, only blowing dust, sunny skies, dry area and dry Krick continued. However, some sections of America have been blessed with rain and snow.

The weather has been just right for winding up the light cotton crop. Sleds, strippers, machine and human pickers have been getting the remnants and the gins have been almost as busy as they were earlier in. (Continued on page 12)

Cold Facts on the Lang, Hot Drouth

The burning, dry weather which has gripped most of our state for many months has already cost us a minimum of $424,561,000.

This is a staggering amount of money. But we haven't yet finished paying our tribute to the sun.

If the drouth continues at its present rate, then fully two-thirds of Texas' approximately 350,000 farmers are going to need "above normal" financial assistance. This must come from moneyed institutions such as banks, or from the federal government. But money must be available—or thousands of our farmers will have to quit the land.

Here is how the loss picture shaped up this year:

COTTON—A below normal crop was harvested. It was at least 1,100,000 bales below what could have been expected. Figuring each bale worth $200, then we lost some $220 million worth to the drouth.

LIVESTOCK—Counting livestock and livestock products such as poultry and eggs, milk products, etc., into this group, our sales receipts were at least 12 per cent below an average year. In 1950, these receipts totaled $873,681,000. The 12 per cent drop means $105,561,000 robbed from Texas pockets.

GRAIN SORGHUMS—Texas marketed some 71 million bushels of grain sorghums in 1951 as compared with an estimate of only 38 million bushels this year. Counting the very minimum worth of a bushel at $1, losses in grain sorghums amount to about $33 million.

PASTURE DAMAGE—A conservative estimate of the value of grazing losses, alone, on Texas' 100 million acres of pasture land would total $66 million this year. And since it will take from 3 to 5 years to replace this grass loss, then we stand to lose at least this much money, if not more, for the next few years even if it began raining today.

The outlook for wheat in Texas-Panhandle is especially grim. Investigators report that less acreage has been seeded for next year's crop and the stands of wheat already up are in very bad condition. The land is reported too dry to germinate the seeds which have been "dusted in".

"The country is ripe for dust storms which would be worse than those of the middle '30s", one observer commented. "A few hard freezes and thaws without rain to hold the sod down would real-

Deer And Turkey Hunting To Be Good Over State

Fairly good hunting prospects are in store for Texas nimrods who seek to kill deer and wild turkey this fall, according to the executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

He said that surveys by wardens credit a fine acorn crop as the principal reason for optimism. "Texas' acorn crop, an all-important factor to deer in most areas, generally is well above the average," he said. "With the extended dry weather creating havoc among Texas wildlife species, by dissipating natural foods, this has come as quite a surprise, although a most pleasant one. The flaccid acorn crop means that as the open season starts, deer in those fortunate sections are fat and healthy. It means, too, that the new crop of fawns in the lush areas is off to a good start."

Good hunting is being predicted in the following Texas counties: Mason, Travis, Gillespie, Kerr, Kendall, and Llano.

In the Panhandle, the prospects for deer and turkey appear about the same as last year. Deer in good condition near streams which is only area reporting deer to any extent. Good fawn crop. The turkey hatch is definitely lower than

FFA and FHA Clubs Enjoy Hayride Tues

The F.F.A. and F.H.A. had their annual wiener roast and hayride Tuesday, November 4 at the park. They had hot dogs with all the trimmings and cold drinks. Following the wiener roast they went on a hayride which was about twelve miles out in the country and then went around the square. This group was sponsored by Hershel Potts and Mrs. Milton Beasley. Approximately sixty-five members attended.

Mrs. Henry Scott returned last week from Wichita Falls, where she had been at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Tension, who had undergone major surgery. Mrs. Tension and son, Robert, returned with Mrs. Scott and will remain here for two more weeks.

In the Trans-Pecos area, the deer are fewer in number than last year. Best fawn crop in three years is reported. Best ranges are in Davis Mountains where white-tailed deer are fairly numerous.

Cyclone Ends Season; Defeats Paducah 24-12

The 1952 edition of the Memphis Cyclone completed its schedule of gridiron battles, last Friday night when they defeated the Paducah Dragons by a score of 24-12. By mixing passes with deceptive ground plays, Coach Childress' eleven dominated the contest through four periods, and many substitutes saw action throughout the game.

Early in the first quarter, the Cyclone held their opponents and forced a punt which placed the ball on the Memphis 18 yard line. From this point they racked up their first touchdown. The drive saw Corley make 20 through center; Stevens catch Frisbie's pass then lateral to Tamplin for 30 more yards. Miller made the six points from his 2 yard line.

After taking the kickoff, Paducah picked up a first down, then a long pass to Powell resulted in a touchdown for the visitors. The score did not count, and the Dragons were called back and penalized 5 yards for offsidess. They proceeded to drive down from mid-field to the Memphis 4 yard line as the quarter ended.

Immediately after the second period started, the Dragons made their first counter. On taking the kickoff, Memphis started another drive. From the 32 yard line, Corley ripped through right tackle behind good blocking for 28 yards. A little later Stevens snagged a pass and traveled 28 yards for a touchdown. After the kickoff, the game see-sawed back and forth for several minutes, until Clyde Tamplin intercepted a Dragon pass, and carried over for 6 more points. The half ended after Kennedy had made 30 yards and

THE BAFFLES By Mahoney

Adams had picked up 9 to place the ball on the Paducah 3 yard line.

Second half opened with the ball on Memphis 46 yard line in possession of Paducah. The Cyclone line held, and took the ball on downs. On the first play after taking over, Kennedy went 60 yards for another touchdown.

Paducah then took over on their 42, and drove down field without a hitch. Finally, a 6-yard pass to Northcutt gave the visitors their second touchdown. The Memphis eleven took the kickoff on their 35-yard line. Mixing passes with ground plays, sparked by Kennedy, they carried the ball to the Paducah 34 yard line as the third quarter ended.

The Cyclone opened the fourth with continuation of drive, until they lost the ball on the Dragon 8 yard line. Paducah came out to their 47, where they in turn lost possession on downs. From here the Cyclone traveled up field to their opponent's 19 as the game ended.

Memphis amassed 12 first downs to 11 for Paducah. The Cyclone were assessed 45 yards in penalties to 41 for the Dragons. On total yards rushing, the local eleven picked up 295 to their opponent's 154. They also led in yards gained passing, by totaling 197 to 67 for Paducah.

VET PROBLEMS AND ANSWERS

Q—I'm planning to apply for institutional on-farm training under the Korean-GI Bill. Does VA need more than just my completed application form?

A—Yes. You must include, with your application, (1) photostats of both sides of your discharge or separation paper; (2) a detailed outline of your training program as approved by your school; (3) a certification from your school stating that the program meets all standards of the law, and (4) evidence that you have control of the farm on which you're going to train and that the training will occupy your full time.

Q—I am making arrangements to buy a house with a GI loan. Can part of the loan be used for advance payments I'm supposed to make for taxes and insurance?

A—No. Prepaid items, such as taxes and insurance, must be paid for in cash, and may not be part of the loan.

Q—I signed up for the total disability income provision in connection with my NSLI. If I become totally disabled and draw under this provision, will the face amount of my policy be reduced?

A—No. The monthly income benefits will not decrease the face amount of your policy.

Q—How much of an allowance will I get if I enroll in a correspondence school under the Korean GI Bill?

A—Your allowance will be the school's established charge for non-veterans taking the same course. You, of course, must pay the school.

MAYOR McGUP By John Jarvis

Former Resident Buried In Calif.

James Alvin Tichenor, brother-in-law of Harold Hodges of Pliska, was buried last week at Corona, Calif. He was 64 years of age. He was a former resident of Hall County, moving here in 1909. The following year he was married to Miss Edith Hodges, who passed away in 1922. Tichenor moved to California in 1942 and had made his home at Corona until his death.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rosson of Amarillo visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spoon, over the weekend.

INSULATE COLD PIPES

As a safeguard against freezing, cold water lines should be insulated. This also prevents moisture from condensing on the outside of the pipe and dripping on the floor.

SEARCH FOR CAUSE

When an electrical fuse blows, don't replace it until you've found and corrected the short circuit or overload that is the cause.

Estelline High School Elects Favorites Monday

The students of Estelline High School chose school favorites at a special assembly meeting on Monday morning, November 17. Shirley Spruill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Spruill, was chosen as most popular girl in high school. She is the secretary of the senior class, a Pepperette leader and an outstanding member of the high school basketball team. During her high school years she has been football queen in 1951, class favorite in sophomore and junior years, in the junior play, a representative to the state FHA convention, freshman nominee for school queen, and most outstanding homemaker student for the years 1950-1951 and 51-52.

Winfred Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Russell, was chosen as most popular boy in high school. He is a member of the Estelline Bear Cubs, both football and basketball, president of the senior class, and an honor roll student. During his high school years he has entered interscholastic league public speaking contests, been in the junior play, and been an active member of the FFA.

Locals and Personals

Mrs. Ernest Lindsey and daughters, Mrs. Lester York and Mrs. Bruce Gentry Jr., and Dave Gentry spent the weekend in Memphis with relatives.

Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. E. T. Prater, Mrs. Ralph Howard, Estelle Guthrie and Dink Dennis were Pampa visitors Sunday.

Bobby Jack McMurry of Amarillo was in Memphis visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gip McMurry, and his wife, who has been in Memphis several days.

Miss Jessie Chancey returned to her home in St. Jo Sunday morning after visiting her cousins, Mrs. Henry Newman and Miss Ira Hammond, for several days.

Jay Sheppard of Amarillo was here this week visiting his wife and new baby son.

Miss Ira Hammond, Mrs. Henry Newman and Miss Jessie Chancey visited in Hollis, Okla., with Mr. and Mrs. Jap Coursey Saturday.

Freshman favorites are Jimmie Don Adams and Donalene Williams.

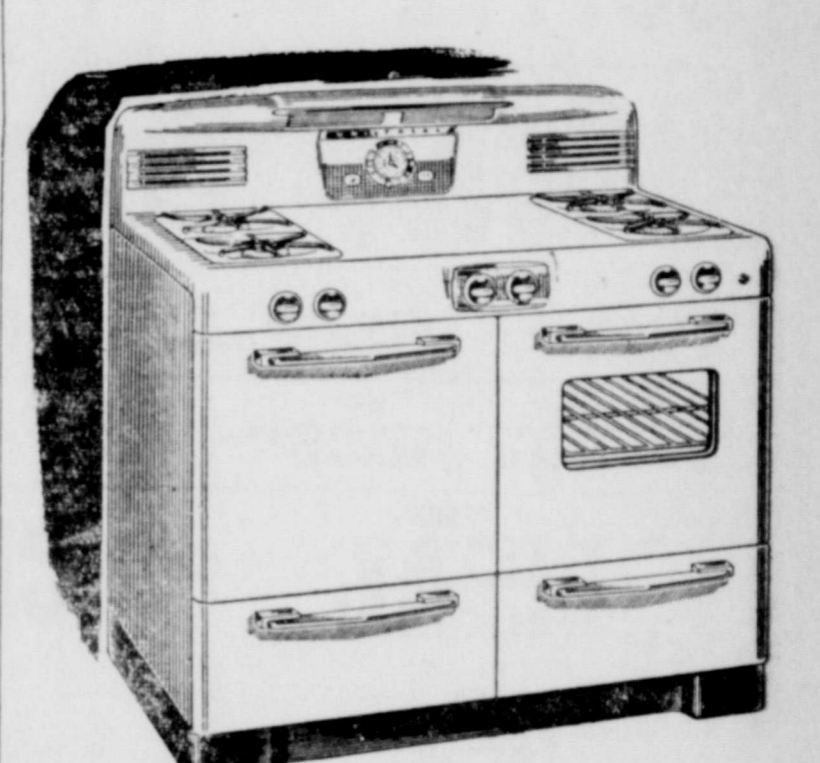

Visiting in the Don Wright home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carson, Mrs. C. J. Sherrill and Miss Gladys Wright all of Wichita Falls.

Misses Norma Mitchell and Ann Spoon attended the Hardin-Simmons University Homecoming celebration in Abilene over the weekend. They visited Beryle Davis, who is a student there.

Mildred Monzingo and Tony were in Amarillo Thursday.

American School Days Party Held In R. S. Greene Home Tuesday Night

If the folks in the R. S. Greene neighborhood wondered about the festivities at that residence last evening when they saw grown men and women dressed like "kids" carrying rag dolls and book satchels into the Greene home about supper time, there was no need to call the cops. It was only the annual "gentlemen's evening" sponsored by The 1947 Study Club each year honoring their husbands.

Since the club's theme of study this year is American History, the members decided on a "school days" party as a plan of entertainment. Judging from the "hit-teens" and giggles, it must have been a capital idea enjoyed by all present. Acting as teachers were Mrs. T. M. Harrison and Mrs. Boyd Rogers while the worthy part of the school principal was capably played by Herschel Combs groomed for the role in a long-tailed coat and bow tie.

Most of the guests were properly dressed for the occasion as little boys and girls. Bow ribbons, sashes, knee breeches, and pinafores were the order of attire with rag dolls, book satchels and bubble gum as fitting accessories.

Partners for the box lunches were chosen via a game of blind-man's buff, and, no sooner did they swallow the last bite than the bell rang for "books" and all were gathered into the living room for the "Friday afternoon program". Mrs. Rogers, as Miss Browder, welcomed the visitors and deplored the fact that the rainy weather had prevented other attending.

The program began with a cross-fire of silly questions which well merited the silly answers they drew. The "mean little kids" kept a barrage of "spit balls" going, and in general created pandemonium. Following the quiz, Mrs. Harrison (as Miss Alberta Granberry) took charge for the old-fashioned "spelling bee". With recitations from the various "brighter pupils" the program came to a riotous conclusion.

Mrs. R. S. Greene, dressed in a blue gingham with sash, black cotton stockings, and a pink bonnet was declared winner of the prize (a handful of stick candy) for the best girl's costume. And "little" Maek Wilson, in knee pants, golf socks, a red sweater, with his hair parted in the middle wore a large tin pencilbox as the boy with the best costume.

Among those enjoying an hilarious time were: Byron and Willie Baldwin, Herschel and Helen Combs, Joe and Verna DeBerry, Howard and Anna Finch, Lewis and Lois Foxhall, Frank and Cy Foxhall, Ace and Gerry Galley, Rufus and Nancy Grisham, Tommie and Peaches Harrison, Buster and Evelyn Helm, Gene and Owen Lindsey, Clyde and Katherine Milam, Boyd and Virginia Rogers, Mack and Pauline Wilson, Myrtle Walker, Loraine Tarver, Mary Foreman, Lottie Kinard, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Parks as guests of the club, and the host and hostess, Rufus and Tomacile Greene.

Harmony Club Meets Wednesday In Foreman Home

The Harmony Club met Wednesday, November 12, in the home of Miss Mary Foreman, 1124 Bradford.

Mrs. Carl Smith, vice president, presided during the business session. Mrs. Chas. Williams, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and reports were made by committee chairmen. Also during the business session names were drawn for the Christmas party which will be held at 7 p. m. December 13 in the home of Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard.

The following program was given: "Sketch of MacDowell's life," Mrs. Gordon Gilliam; "Sonata Eroica" First movement, Mrs. T. L. Rouse; "The Witches Flight," Mrs. Dick Fowler; Scotch Poem, "The Eagle" Mrs. Dick Highfill.

Fruit cake and coffee was served to the following members: Mmes. C. H. Compton, L. G. DeBerry, Andy DeWees, Henry Foster, Dick Fowler, Gordon Gilliam, R. S. Greene, Lloyd Hamilton, Richard Highfill, T. A. Hunt, Clyde Milam, Ed Monzingo, T. L. Rouse, Dick Shelton, Bluford Walker, Conley Ward, Chas. VFW Auxiliary Hobby Show Is Acclaimed Success

The first VFW Auxiliary Hobby Show was held Sunday afternoon, November 16 in the High School Cafeteria. The hobbies of various kinds were displayed throughout the room.

Out of town judges were Mrs. V. L. Taylor, Mr. Pierce, owner of Pierce's Hobby Shop, both of Amarillo and Mrs. Harold Bugbee of Clarendon.

Dorothy Vandeventer, president of the Auxiliary, made this statement concerning the show, "The VFW Auxiliary would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to everyone who worked so hard to make our Hobby Show a complete success. We would like to thank each person that had an entry and hope that they will make plans to have a part in the show again next year."

Outstanding entry in the show was given a purple ribbon. This entry was a handcarved coffee table entered by Clyde Smith. The table was made by Mr. Smith's brother-in-law, Ted Vanderheyden, originally from Holland, now of St. Louis. The wood in the table was taken from the first building erected in St. Louis when they were torn down.

Other winners include: Painting—Mrs. Bud Godfrey, Clifford Farmer, Bobby Young, Aulius Ayers, M. D. Pounds, Mrs. E. W. Godfrey Jr., Mrs. Roland Rudolph and Mrs. Claud Johnson; Collective—Mary Sue Scott, Gayle Monzingo, Mrs. W. R. Scott and C. C. Hodges; Models—Mrs. E. W. God-

SELECTION OF JURIES--EXPLAINED

Many people, the call for jury service seems to come at the time. Just when plans for a vacation trip are complete, an employer or other business person is demanding special attention. The best Jersey comes with a serious ailment, a summons is sure to arrive. The regularity with which such unhappy coincidences befall some individuals, no green-eyes watching to see when you will be called to appear in court. Being chosen for jury service at any particular time is largely a matter of chance. Texas law jury panels are selected by two methods—the Jury Commission and the Jury Wheel. The Jury Wheel is a hollow metal container, so erected that it will freely revolve on its ber of jurors to be selected for various weeks of the court term. The lists of names prepared by them are sealed in separate envelopes and delivered to the Judge. He, in turn, turns them over to the District Clerk or one of his deputies in open court, who immediately files the envelopes in a safe place in the Clerk's office. Although ordinary inconveniences are not usually sufficient to gain an excuse from jury service emergency hardship is a different matter. If you face such extreme circumstances in your business or personal affairs that your mind cannot freely reflect and meditate upon the important issues to be tried, call this to the attention of the Judge.

Courts try to be reasonable in granting excuses. The judge will consider your situation carefully and thoughtfully, and may determine that your service should be deferred.

When the time comes to a new set of lists, some of the names will very likely be gain. Others may never

Memphis Students See Shakespearean Play In Wellington

Ninety-eight students of the Memphis High School went to Wellington Monday evening to see Shakespeare's popular comedy "Comedy of Errors" presented by members of the speech department of Texas Technological College.

The typical Elizabethan stage with an inner chamber and movable columns was used. Costumes were authentic and colorful. The original five-act drama was rebuilt into two acts.

However, all of the wit and huproduction were preserved.

In a well sketched flash-back man interest of true Shakespearean old Aegeon relates his life tragedy: he, one identical twin son, and one identical twin slave were separated in a shipwreck from his wife, the second son, and the second slave. Now twenty-three years later he has abandoned hope of reunion.

The theme of the play concerns the arrival at Ephesus of the second set of twins, the ludicrous misunderstanding, and evolutions, and the final unravelling of the mystery.

Ninety-eight students from Memphis High School attended the performance.

Texas Revolt Wins Democratic Victory

From all present signs, time seems likely to prove that Governor Shivers served the Democrats of his state and his region well when he led the revolt that had the effect of putting Texas in the Eisenhower column in the Nov. 4 election. Developments may show that he was indisputably a loyal Democrat and farsighted politically.

Instead of betraying his party and helping to set its rival up in business in Texas, he may have succeeded in giving Texas and the South a place of strength in influence in the Democratic Party it has not had since the two-thirds nominating rule was abolished in 1936. The method he used perhaps was drastic, but there is every evidence it may prove effectual.

He has done it by leading Texas in declaring its political independence—a step in which it was joined by such states of the once-solid South as Virginia, Florida and Tennessee. To a lesser degree it was joined also by the other Southern states, which cast at least 40 per cent of their popular vote against a Democratic nominee objectionable to the region on account of his espousal of policies it strongly opposed.

The national Democratic Party now is on notice that these states no longer can be ignored and their convictions scorned and still have their electoral votes counted as in the bag at election time. Even the Southern states which stayed in the Democratic fold this time are likely to be emboldened to like independence in the future.

The national Democratic leadership can not help remembering in future years that it lost 57 electoral votes in the taken-for-granted South in 1952 and that the same attitude of scorn and disregard might lose them more in forthcoming elections.

That is not to say that the South has deserted its Democratic tradition. The South remains predominantly Democratic in spite of the fact that the election outcome has given Republicans their greatest hope and chance of establishing a two-party system in parts of the region that they ever had. What the South has done, as we read the signs, is not so much to embrace Republicanism as to declare its right to follow the leadership of the national Democratic Party if the South's voice is ignored in party councils and in the enunciation of party principles.

In this sense it may be said that Southern Democrats, who regard themselves as the custodians of real Democracy, have won a significant victory. They are today in a strong position. And Governor Shivers' aim seems to have had the backing of the people of Texas, since they gave him more votes for re-election than any other gubernatorial nominee in the state's history. —Fort Worth Telegram

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Retail Meat Prices
It is a fact that while the retail price of beef has come down to some extent the cattle-men are right in the general statement that "even though cattle prices have declined drastically the price of meat over the counter has gone down very little as every consumer well knows." The cattle-men were right, it turns out, in trying to keep the government's hand out of the meat regulating business. It is a far cry from the government proceeding without regard to cost in a high emergency like was probable justified during a part of the time in World War II, to trumping up reasons for taking over to meet the hue and cry of the rabble in the kind of "emergency" that has been in effect in the meat industry the past year or so.

more than are the government people. One way many have been getting around paying for the expensive government-pattered hoop la prices for meats has been to "go in with the neighbors" on a beef. This practice has kept meat on many tables where the families could afford to pay the high retail prices but had no intention of doing so. While the retailers have viewed this practice as coming under the head of the customers' own business the government has seemed to frown on it as an evasion of the control program. —The Floyd County Hesperian

A Lesson in Economics
A group of Omaha school teachers was recently given an interesting lesson in the economics of retailing.

A chain store system entertained the teachers as part of a Business-Industry-Education Day. A shopping basket full of groceries were collected in advance. Totaling $10 in retail value, the basket held a typical grocery order, including so-called "long profit" items as well as those on which the margin is unbelievably small. The items were taken from the basket one by one, the selling price of each announced, and the teachers were asked to jot down how much they thought the company had paid the producer for them. Guesses ranged from a low of $4.15 to a high of 9.35. The actual figure was $8.29 which gave the store a gross profit of $1.72.

Then the costs which had to be deducted before net profit could be found were detailed. They included salaries, rents, advertising, and so on, for a total of $1,595. This left a profit of 12 1/2 cents on the $10 order. When the discount the company receives for prompt payment of bills was added, it came to 17 1/2 cents. Out of that, came nine cents of income taxes, leaving about eight cents. That, it was explained, was the company's actual profit—eight-tenths of one cent on each dollar of sales. It was the amount available to pay dividends to stockholders, to amortize debts, and to finance expansion.

Few people realize how little of the food buyer's money stays with the store as profit. And what is true of food is true, to varying degrees, of all forms of merchandising. The modern store, chain or independent, works on the principle of big volume and small unit profits. It provides us with an essential service at an amazingly modest charge. —The Munday Times

Sixteen Bents Out Of The Canadian Bridge—The Denver Road bridge across the Canadian river went out Sunday afternoon. The report stated that five bents were out, but Monday morning the number was placed at sixteen and two others damaged.

Heavy Rains In County; Some Damage—Rain every day for nine days has flooded all parts of Hall County. The heaviest rainfall seems to have been in that section of the county west of Lakeview and north of Deep Lake. Deep Lake and Shallow Lake are now a single body of water and the lake is draining into the sand hills. The water reaches almost to the store buildings and is as high as ever before noted by old residents. Crops are inundated over a large area in this section and everything will have to be replanted. Considerable damage from washing and drifting sands is reported.

The total rainfall in this section is estimated at from 8 to 10 inches, a large part of which fell in the heavy rain and hail on Wednesday of last week.

At Newlin the fall was very heavy and considerable damage was done to the roads; lowlands in that section and east of Newlin were under water Wednesday.

A miniature cyclone and water spout passed over Parnell Tuesday afternoon; some out-buildings in the Pritchett place were wrecked and the valley lands flooded.

Country Club Is Erecting House—The Memphis Country Club House is under construction. Sam West is the contractor and says the club building will be one of the nicest in this section of the country. The building will be on the west side of the acreage property recently bought by the club from Jim Webster.

Memphis Country Club with ninety members. The site of thirty acres used as a golf course was purchased and plans called for the erection of the building. Later, the club planned to add a small lake and bath and make the club grounds a place of recreation for the families and guests. The course is conceded to be the best in the city. REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

Congressman, 18th District
By Walter Rogers

POW SITUATION IN THE KOREAN TRUCE TALKS: The question of reaching a truce in the Korean conflict appears to be the question of forced repatriation of prisoners of war. From the lack of progress, it has been made in the past, it would seem that an irrevocable force would be an immovable object. Her satellites have taken the position that all prisoners on both sides shall be returned to the sources from which they were captured, irrespective of the nationality of the prisoner. The position of the United Nations is that prisoners should be screened and those who are not honestly desiring to return to their own countries should be dealt with as captives and not the opposites. It will be remembered that the question of World War II prisoners came out of the hands of Russia concerning the return of prisoners of war. The type of harsh punishment employed by Russia in dealing with returned POW's, and it is safely assumed that the procedure would be employed in Korea and Red China, would follow so closely the scheme. What actually happened to these returned POW's is somewhat of a mystery because of the rigid censorship behind the Iron Curtain.

Several plans have been advanced to solve this tough problem. One of these before the United Nations calls for the formation of a neutral screening commission to separate the sheep from the goats. Another plan receiving some consideration calls for a return of all POW's upon commitments that they will not be mistreated. Such agreement would call for periodic checks on the status of each returned prisoner. Should the Reds yield from their present arbitrary position and accept the first of the above solutions, much progress could be made towards a quick and final truce. However, it must be remembered that out of this solution would come other serious problems. Number one would be the location of a country that would give these POW's an asylum. Number two would be the question of jurisdiction over these POW's; that is, whether or not they would be under the jurisdiction of the UN or the country in which they sought asylum. Should they be under the jurisdiction of the UN, they would still be indirectly under the same control from Russia since Russia is a member of the UN. If a separate protectorate of the UN should be set up to provide asylum for these POW's, it would mean that Russia would still have some control in their government. If they were permitted to take citizenship in the country to which they were removed, the question of control would be settled. However, it is doubtful that many countries would be willing to take on a substantial number of these prisoners. Certainly I would not want them in the United States because it would afford Russia an opportunity to infiltrate this country with more Red spies. I am sure that many of the other countries would take the same position.

ably weaken herself at home. On the other hand, if the UN does move into Indo-China and stops the Red menace there, Russia can always return to Korea to keep the fire smoldering, truce or no truce. She is in the position similar to a checker player in the double corner. The problem of the United Nations is to get her out of that double corner without permitting a third world war to start. An effective prohibition against these new starts by Russia must be devised if the purpose of the United Nations is to be realized.

Cotton Council Estimates Insect Damage In Texas At $119,714,800

to cotton in Texas in 1951 amounted to $119,714,800, according to the National Cotton Council. This was $101,388,200 less than 1950. George G. Chance, chairman of the Texas state unit of the Cotton Council, released the estimate today in connection with the sixth annual Cotton Insect Conference which will be held in Memphis, December 10-11.

Texas To Furnish 2,814 Men In Jan. For Induction

AUSTIN, Tex.—State draft boards will be called upon early in December to furnish 2,814 men for the armed forces during Jan. 1953. Lt. Col. Morris S. Swartz, deputy state Selective Service director said here Thursday. Authority for the action was received in state headquarters recently from national Selective Service headquarters. The January quota for the entire country is 48,000.

Colonel Swartz pointed out that the January call is bigger than any monthly quota received during 1952. Large quotas of recent months, he said, are necessary to replace the "thousands of men getting out of the service." The armed services at this time are maintaining their strength, not building up to higher strength, Colonel Swartz said. He pointed to figures showing numbers of Texans separated and numbers taken into the armed forces during September, latest month for which statistics are available.

"In September, we received notification of the separation of 4,612 Texans from the armed services," Col. Swartz said. "Our records show that 4,613 Texans were taken into the armed forces by enlistment and induction." Colonel Swartz said he expected more or less the same situation to prevail next spring, provided the world situation and U.S. policy remain the same.

Truth Seekers Class Meets in A. Massey Home

The Truth Seekers Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church met with Mrs. Pearl Massey and co-hostess Mrs. A. Womack in the Alvin Massey home Nov. 13.

The program was opened with the singing of the class song. President Mrs. C. E. Gowan introduced Mrs. L. G. Yarbrough who gave the devotional. She used 1st Psalms as her text. Mrs. Annie Kercheville led in prayer. A story entitled "Thanksgiving" was presented by Mrs. Ella Johnson, after which Abbie Louise Massey gave two readings. These readings were "Thanksgiving Day Is Coming" and "Mother's Hairbrush."

Mrs. C. W. Broome paid tribute to the memories of Mrs. F. N. Gwynn and Mrs. E. S. West. The memorial service was closed with the class singing "Jesus Is All! The World To Me."

Mrs. J. R. Cannon presented the Bible questions.

During the business session, the members decided to exchange gifts at the Christmas meeting and also to bring a gift for a shut-in. It was decided to send $10 to Girls-town.

The members repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison in closing.

Refreshments, attractively arranged to carry out the Thanksgiving colors of autumn, were served to Meses. C. W. Broome, J. R. Cannon, Henry McCann, W. M. Gerlach, J. M. Baker, Annie Kercheville, Ella Johnson, C. E. Hankins, Anna Dickson, A. B. Jones, L. G. Yarbrough, C. E. Gowan and the hostesses.

Six guests from Mrs. Taylor's class were present. They were Meses. S. O. Greene, J. B. Wrenn, J. S. Ballard, Session, Pannell and Pearl McCann. Other guests included Abbie Louise and Ouida Pearl Massey.

Mrs. C. R. Burks of Shamrock underwent surgery in a local hospital November 12. Her condition is reported to be improving rapidly.

Cue And Curtain Club To Cast Play This Week

By JOE BOB BROWNING
 The Cue and Curtain Club received play books this week and are planning tryouts. The complete cast is expected to be finished by Friday of this week. The play, "Orsenic and Old Lace," a three act comedy by Joseph Kesselring, will be presented in the high school auditorium. It is a long-time favorite of Broadway. It is a fantastic play portraying the lost generation of an insane family.

Up And Atom Science Club Meets Thursday

By DEBS COFER
 On Thursday, November 13, the Up and Atom Science Club of Memphis High School held its regular meeting. Head Scientist, Jimmy Davis, called the meeting to order, and Data Man, Roy May, read the minutes of the last meeting.

Harold Aspren brought the first portion of the program demonstrating the way a volcano erupts by burning some ammonium chromate in a miniature volcano. Debs Cofer gave the second portion of the program on properties of magnets. He showed that like poles repel with a set of floating magnets. The attraction of opposit poles was shown with compasses and the magnetic field of a magnet was shown with iron filings on a glass plate over magnets.

Those present were Patsy Armstrong, Harold Aspren, Roddy Bice, W. A. Bishop, Jackie Boone, Johnny Chamberlain, Monte Clark, Debs Cofer, Billy Combs, Doyl Collins, Gene Daugherty, Jimmy Davis, John Deaver, Duane Ford, James Freeman, Carol Gordenhirst, Betsy Godfrey, Elizabeth Grundy, Jerry Hill, Jimmy Hill, Joan Hugins, Ray Johnson, Jo Ann Kennon, Bobbie Nell Long, Inez Martin, Roy May, Yvonne McDaniel, Wayland McElreath, Jack Montgomery, Kerry Moore, James Moss, C. Reserve Officers Accept Indefinite Appointment In State

AUSTIN, Texas—Army reserve officers of Texas are accepting definite commissions in the Army Reserve under the provisions of the new Armed Forces Reserve Act in highly satisfactory percentages, Col. M. E. Jones, Chief of the Texas Military District, stated today.

Some 15,000 reserve officers of the state have been notified that they are eligible for the new-type commissions under provisions of the Armed Forces Reserve Act passed during the closing days of the 82nd Congress.

Col. Jones pointed out that this act termed the Magna Charta of reservists, makes many changes from previous laws which are beneficial to the reservist. It is the first time that Congress has laid down definite rules for the recall of reservists to active duty in a national emergency and provided for a written contract for the term for which recalled. The act also sets up a new policy for reimbursing reserve officers for uniforms. Retirement benefits are not changed.

Col. Jones said that the indefinite appointment does not affect the recall status of reserve officers nor does it increase their obligation, as they may resign the indefinite term appointment just as they could the five-year commission except in time of national emergency.

Reserve officers who have questions concerning the new appointments are requested to contact the

Door Stop for Garage or Barn

AN easy way of controlling an open garage or barn door is illustrated. Bend one side of a strap hinge, attaching the bent half to the door with screws so that the straight end touches the ground at 45 degrees.

Fasten a short piece of coil spring to the door and loose end of the hinge. The spring will hold the door stop in place on the ground. It also will cause it to snap back after the hinge has been flipped up to move the door. This is strictly a "tee action" device which is cheap and always works. —Illustration courtesy Family Handyman

Peace Officers To Attend F.B.I. School In Amarillo

Three Hall County peace officers are scheduled to attend a law enforcement conference on automobile theft at Amarillo tomorrow. The conference will be held by the Texas division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Attending from here will be Sheriff E. S. Morrison, Constable Jack Peabody and Chief of Police T. D. Weatherly.

Sheriff Morrison said conferences of this type have been scheduled by the FBI throughout the United States in view of the fact that automobile theft has become the nation's biggest crime against property.

"Cars stolen in 1951 had an estimated value of over $190,000,000," he added. "In addition, crime reports in more than 400 cities reflect that thefts of articles from automobiles and of car accessories comprise about 41 percent of all larcenies committed."

Also in attendance at Amarillo will be representatives of state motor vehicle bureaus and other organizations concerned with automobile theft problems. The conference will provide increased coordination of law enforcement agencies and insure the utilization of the most effective techniques in dealing with automobile thefts.

In addition to FBI personnel speakers and instructors at the various conferences in North Texas will include the Highway Patrol Captain in each area and the conferences are scheduled and a representative of Colonel Homer Garrison of the Texas Department of Public Safety to discuss their Identification Bureau, and Mr. C. C. Benson of the National Automobile Theft Bureau.

Morrison stated that the topics to be covered at the conferences will include Spotting and Recovering Stolen Automobiles, Registration and Title Matters, FBI Laboratory Facilities, Examination of Stolen Automobiles, Organization of Police Records on Stolen Automobiles, Auto Theft Kings

Coordination of Law Enforcement Agencies, Training Programs, and related topics.

Contract Let On Northfield Road

Notice has been received here that the paving contract on the Tell-Northfield Road has been awarded to J. R. Fanning Co. of Lubbock. Construction of the road, which will be 16 miles in length, is expected to begin about the first of December.

The road include mileage in Hall, Childress, Motley and Cottle counties.

The Lubbock firm was awarded to contract upon the basis of a low bid of $250,948.30, which had been filed with the Texas Highway Department. A total of seven companies had submitted bids, according to Palmer Massey, district highway engineer of Childress.

The letting of the contract marked the result of over 25 years work by citizens of the Northfield community, and the officials of the four counties concerned.

try, and physics. English is probably the most popular subject in their schools today. Most of their high school graduates, whom I have met, learned considerably more than I. Whether this is the result of strict and qualified school masters or fewer luxuries to deviate from the purpose I am not certain. There are few colleges, and their courses are limited. Tuition and books are expensive; therefore few go beyond high school.

The Korean people are much quicker to accept Christianity than the Japanese. Much good work is being done by American and other U.N. missionaries throughout Korea. Several children's homes have been erected by different religious sects and American army regiments.

There are many amusements in Korea to take up the service man's spare time. The most popular of all is probably the service clubs. There you will find musical entertainment, stage shows, reading material, snacks, and almost every game imaginable. There are no places of amusement in the average Korean city that would appeal to us; but it is fun just to wonder about aimlessly and watch the people—how they work, play and live. Many movie stars have toured Korea and I have seen some very near the front line. For sports we played volleyball, baseball, touch football, and did a little boxing.

We had quite a few luxuries even on front line duty. The favorites of all were the winter sleeping bag and the air mattress. We slept in bunkers made of sand bags. You might have to get up about midnight and fix the leak that keeps dripping on your forehead but they are still pretty fine. Chow was plentiful but sometimes a little monotonous. Ice cream comes three times a week and candy by the truck loads. I seriously believe that the candy must have been shipped over before World War II because if you close your eyes you can't tell whether you're eating a Baby Ruth or a Butterfinger.

One week from today is Thanksgiving. I wonder how many of us are thankful on other days than Thanksgiving? I am thankful that I live in a country where I can write, talk, think, act just as I please just so long as what I do does not interfere with the freedom of action of others. I am thankful that I can worship publicly or privately without being told that such is forbidden. I am thankful that I live in a country that does not prevent its citizens from conducting any kind of legal enterprise. I am thankful that God is merciful and forgiving, else we would most all be miserable creatures.

Something seldom if ever done before: Outgoing and incoming U. S. Presidents having a get-together meeting in order that the incoming president may be apprised of facts concerning the foreign situation that is the most serious threat ever before facing America and the whole world. While Truman said naughty things about Ike during the recent campaign, the latter seemed to overlook such things in the gravity of the situation to be discussed. American people have been aroused to the extent that millions more voted in the election than ever before, showing they realize our country is at the cross-roads of its very existence and want something done about it. The leaders of the two great parties also know that a serious crisis is in the making and are uniting in an effort to do the right thing for the freedom loving nations of the world.

All the war talk made up to now by leaders has been something off yonder and not our concern here at home until Tuesday when a message was received by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Ellerd stating their son, Roger, was killed in action in Korea November 14. That brought it right to our door and brought us to a stunning halt. Yes, it has been more than just a "police action" over yonder in Korea.

fled quickly from a building located on the G. Bryan. He ran into the yard and under an automobile.

Caldwell grabbed a .410 shotgun and went outside. He fired the muzzle of the shotgun as possible and pulled the trigger. The charge of shot struck the abdomen. A few minutes later Fields staggered from the house, and collapsed on the floor. Other negroes present thered around him to see if he was wounded. Caldwell whose shotgun had been from him, broke into a fit took a .22 caliber rifle.

He approached the man on the floor, and ordered the stand back. The rifle failed and Caldwell reversed it. Caldwell Fields several times head.
