COTTON GINNINGS IN HALL COUNTY CLIMB TO AROUND 1,200 BALES

Harvesting Of Crop Is Hampered By Serious Shortage Of Field Hands

Memphis Man Is District Head Of Scout Fund Drive

Approximately 1,200 bales of cotton had been ginned in Hall County up until today, a check of gins disclosed this week. Ginnings were heaviest in the northern part of the county, where in most instances more moisture has been received this year and crops have had a better chance to mature.

CLAUDE'S COMMENTS

Cotton pulling has been slowed up by a serious shortage of hands according to reports from all over the county. Around 1,000 pullers are needed, County Agent W. B. Hooser said, and a recent bulletin from the Texas Employment Commission reports about 500 workers were needed. The number wanted probably has grown since then.

This situation should improve as cotton harvest down state is completed and crews of pullers move this way.

However, farmers are anxious to get their cotton out as quickly as possible since they are uncertain when there may be a drastic change of weather.

High winds and sand that whipped their cotton Monday did nothing to allay their worries. Apparently not too much cotton was whipped out by the strong, gusty winds but the fleece was filled with dust and sand, adding to the price which farmers will have to pay to get their crops gathered.

Some farmers said cotton looked like frost had hit it after Monday's superheated sandstorm. They said leaves dried up and just fell off.

Where cotton is large enough, some farmers will use or are talking of using machines to harvest their crops. But farmers report that a great deal of cotton

Boy Is Fined For Bootlegging

Erwin, operator of Service Station on Street, paid a $200 fine Monday morning for bootlegging for the purpose of selling to the public.

At Estelline, 125 prospective 4-H Club members and their teachers heard the county agent give an explanation of 4-H activities in this county.

Sixty boys signed up as members this first meeting of the new school year and others were to discuss the 4-H Club program with their fathers and mothers.

Officers and adult leaders are to be elected at the next club meeting.

Each club will meet once a month during the school year and members plan to study every phase of agriculture in theory.

Livestock, dairy and grass judging teams will be developed and members will choose various projects which they will carry on.

Projects will include: raising beef calves, including show steers; breeding beef cattle; dairy cattle; poultry; cotton; grain

Helping in the drive will be a campaign chairman and workers from each community.

Reading your Comments is like going home for a visit. You tell about people I remember. I hope you continue writing for the paper.

Lena Powell Martin and I take The Democrat together. I enjoy reading all of it, even the advertisements.

I was particularly interested in the news about Vance Johnson. I've followed his career with pride because he was in my ninth grade English class in Memphis. Even then, he showed signs of being a good writer.

That same year I had several students who weren't quite so interested in studying sentence structure.

I won't mention last names but I called one of my favorites "Little Tater." He thought he could live very well without memorizing poetry. At that time the State Board of Education required that a few poems be learned in order to pass the course.

Near the end of the term "Little Tater" remained after school (at my invitation) to learn with my help at least one short poem. We worked about thirty minutes on it. He could say it well, but that didn't make him happy.

After finishing my work I met Belle Jones in the hall and we left the building together. They were waiting for us in a big black automobile were Hugh David and "Little Tater." They asked if we'd like to ride. Pleased at such gallantry, we accepted, as we were in a hurry to get home.

Instead of taking us home, however

Estimates Range From 9,899 to 48,525 Bales Cotton Contest Guesses Total 380 At Conclusion Saturday

Guesses on the total number of bales that will be ginned in Hall County during the 1953 season continued to pour in right up to the time the contest closed Saturday afternoon.

A total of 380 guesses were made during the slightly more than three weeks that the contest ran.

The top prediction on ginning in this county this season was 48,525 bales, and the lowest guess was 9,899 bales.

Most of the entries naturally were from persons living in Memphis and its vicinity but there were a number of estimates from other parts of the state, and Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, California and Kentucky.

The person guessing closest to the ginning total for the county as released by the Census Bureau of the Department of Commerce next spring, will receive a three-year subscription to The Democrat.

A two-year subscription will go to the second-place winner, and the newspaper will be sent to the winner of third place for one year.

Last season, the number of bales ginned in Hall County totaled 36,840.

Dry, hot weather the last three or four weeks has caused cotton to deteriorate extensively.

Guesses, received the last three days of this season's contest, were as follows:

$235 IS TAKEN IN BREAK-IN AT GROCERY FIRM

Slightly more than $235 was taken in a break-in at the H. O. Wooten Wholesale Grocer company here sometime last Thursday night, according to Sheriff E. S. Morrison. The company is located on Noel Street, about two blocks east of the courthouse square.

No arrests had been made up to today.

Entry was gained by breaking a glass in the front door and reaching in and unfastening the latch, Morrison said. A good-sized rock, which Morrison said was used to shatter the glass, was found inside the building. The money was taken from a safe. The combination was worked and officers surmise someone familiar with it, opened the safe. A professional safecracker could have pulled the job, officers say.

Plenty To See During State Fair This Year

Big "Tex," the 52-foot cowboy figure symbolic of the great State Fair of Texas, will speak for himself at the 1953 fair, Oct. 10 thru 25.

The giant statue has been equipped with an electronic voice that will enable him to outtalk anybody, General Manager James H. Stewart has revealed.

It required months of research over 300 pounds of equipment and weeks of work to make the big man talk. His jaw will waggle in synchronization with his big talk as he announces the daily fair program.

And he'll have plenty to talk about, for the 1953 edition of America's greatest and grandest annual fair looms as the whop-pingest one of 'em all.

The array of new exhibits will include a three-bedroom home specially designed for Texas living, landscaped and fully furnished. The Navy's new Regulus guided missile, top secret until a few months ago, will be unveiled.

The Science Show will include a miniature tornado with all the characteristics of the big twisters that caused so much damage this year. It'll be in action in a big tank with glass windows.

The Automobile Show will feature futuristic "dream car" models that almost drive themselves. The mammoth Agriculturama will have every county in Texas represented. Farm implement exhibits will include tractors that do tumbling tricks, talk and square dance.

The Pan-American Livestock Exposition shapes up as the most successful livestock show the fair has ever had. Beef cattle entries of Herefords, Chorthorns, Buhmans, Aberdeen-Angus and Santa Gertrudis have been particularly include Jerseys, Holsteins, Milking Shorthorns and Guerneys. Horse show events each of the three weekends include classes of Quarter horses, Palominos and Shetland Ponies and a big open cutting horse contest.

Two volume of entries indicate the best show yet for the Women's Department. Duplicates of Mrs. Eisenhower's Inauguration jewelry will be exhibited. The Great Christie, master magician will perform in free shows daily. Blue ribbon fashion winners will be paraded daily in free style shows.

The entertainment program of fers something for everybody with the Ethel Merman Show, Ice Cycles of 1954 and the Aut Swenson Thrillride topping the list of daily attractions.

Mrs. Sam Moore of Childress visited here Sunday with her mother, Mrs. G. M. Bass and other relatives.

Troy Taylor, who is employed in Lubbock, spent the weekend here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Taylor.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

LAW REQUIRES FULL STOP BEFORE PASSING HALTED SCHOOL BUS

School busses over the state have now begun the task of carrying thousands of children to and from their studies.

Most Texans are aware of the law which requires a driver to come to a complete stop when overtaking from the rear a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge school children.

What many persons do not realize is that the very same rule applies when MEETING a stopped school bus.

Although the above rule does not apply when passing a stopped school bus in a business or residential district of a town, the necessity for extreme caution even in those locations is obvious.

When it comes to overtaking or passing moving vehicles, exercise of ordinary common sense will generally keep a driver within the law.

In the same category is the prohibition against passing on the right under most ordinary conditions.

However, our traffic laws state that even when passing on the right is allowed, it shall be done only under conditions permitting such movement in safety.

THE HORROR OF FAMINES

There is nothing new under the sun. History can be rightly called "a study of parallels" and particularly in regard to the present record-breaking drought.

Bad as the prolonged dry spell has been, we can take refuge in the fact that disasters, either local or national, bring out the humanitarian instincts of the more fortunate. As a result, tragedy is averted through gifts, loans and other economic means.

But this was not always so. Recent studies show that man has sometimes had to resort to cannibalism in order to live through the famines following great droughts.

In a story released by the Associated Press recently, Arthur Edson reports on a study of aged old droughts made by Julius Allen of the Library of Congress. Edson quotes Allen as saying famines also have been the cause of wars, migrations, revolutions and Communists.

"India and China, near starvation level even when things are at their best, have been hardest hit," Edson writes. "The University of Nanking figures that China has had 1,829 famines in the past 2,000 years."

"Famines have been on respecter of geography. Some 650 famines have been recorded in Europe. In 936, in Scotland 'people began to devour one another.' During that same time, the Irish sold their children for food."

There is this description of the Egyptian famine of 1064-1072, according to Edson.

"The wretched resorted to cannibalism, and organized bands kidnapped the unwary passenger in the desolate streets, principally by means of ropes furnished with hooks and let down from the latticed windows."

"Even the mere statistics are awesome: five million dead in the India famine of 1876-78, 9 1/2 million dead in North China in the same period, and 12 million dead of starvation during the Russian Revolution."

"The first written account of a drought remains one of the best. Two thousand years before the time of Abraham, a drought struck Egypt. The king, Tosorthrus, left his report on it, and any Texas or Oklahoma farmer will know how he felt."

"I am mourning on my high throne for the vast misfortune because the Nile flood has not come for seven years. Light is the grain;

Destroy Stalks At Close Of Harvest

COLLEGE STATION—Cotton stalks should be destroyed immediately after the cotton harvesting job is completed. In fact, says Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, the harvesting job should not be considered complete until the cotton stalks have been cut or shredded and plowed under.

Elliott says there are two big reasons for destroying the stalks early. First, it is one of the best known and cheapest practices that can be used for controlling cotton insects especially boll weevil and pink bollworms. Secondly, it is a good cultural practice. The crop residue when plowed under explains the specialist, adds organic matter to the soil which helps to condition it and increases its water holding capacity. Then too, this early land preparation gets the soil ready for the planting of winter legumes.

It is a matter of record, says Elliott, that when an early cotton stalk destruction program is carried out on a county or area basis, the cotton insect troubles for the next season are materially reduced. The boll weevils and pink bollworms are deprived of their food supply by such a program and are forced into hibernation in a weakened condition. Thus, the number which emerge the next spring is cut.

Elliott likes the shredded type stalk cutter but says the heavy roller cutter which cut the stalks into small pieces also do a good job. The important thing is to get the stalks cut into small pieces so all residue can be completely covered by plowing. Soil moisture conditions are improving in most sections of the state and Elliott believes the plowing job can be done without difficulty. He points out that there is plenty of time left for planting winter legumes and recommends that they be planted on all cotton land.

Farmers' Income 17 Per Cent Below Last Year's Mark

AUSTIN—Texas farmers' cash income from farm commodities was 17 per cent lower in the January-July period this year than in the first seven months of 1952, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Total farm cash income was $766,911,000, a decrease of $156,000,000 from the January-July amount of last year, according to reports gathered by the Bureau in cooperation with the federal Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Drought conditions, particularly in West Texas, insects and worms, and scant rainfall—all these have been major causes of declining lure, will be paid for out of revenue bonds, and when the bonds are retired the roads will become part of the state's free highway system.

Eventually, toll roads will connect Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth, and Wichita Falls. The Texas toll roads will link with other expressways to Oklahoma, Missouri, and the East.

crops and livestock, the Bureau said.

Three leading Texas crops which showed considerable decreases during the first part of the year were grain sorghum, down 47 per cent; wheat, 31 per cent; and cotton, 26 per cent. Other crops and commodities which showed considerable losses in income were: wool, down 36 per cent; mohair, 33 per cent; peanuts, 17 per cent; and corn 15 per cent.

Three farm commodities showed rises in income: oats, up 43 per cent; flaxseed, 24 per cent; and eggs, 18 per cent.

A 28 per cent drop in cattle income was attributed largely to drought conditions. The only cash increase for livestock in the January-July 1952-53 comparison was from sheep and lambs, which improved by 53 per cent. Calves were down 14 per cent and hogs down 8 per cent.

Boost your car's power as much as 15% with New Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP*

The Greatest Gasoline Development in 31 Years

- Restores "new car" power!
- Increases spark-plug life up to 150%!
- Gives you extra gas mileage, too!

Today it is possible to put new power in your car—just by driving into a Conoco station and filling up with new Conoco Super Gasoline.

For fuel—truly the greatest advance in gasoline since the introduction of tetraethyl lead in 1922. New Conoco Super can actually increase the power of the average car as much as 15%. That's because TCP overcomes the greatest cause of power loss affecting most cars on the road today. Conoco Super with TCP is brought to you by special arrangement with Shell Oil Company. TCP is Shell's trademark for the remarkable additive originally developed for aviation fuel.

Combustion deposits drastically reduce power

When you drive your car, deposits constantly build up on spark plugs and in the combustion chambers. These deposits can "cheat" you of power in two ways. First, they short-circuit spark plugs—causing them to mis-fire. Second, deposits in the combustion-chambers cause fuel to ignite before it should. This is called pre-ignition or "wild ping." The combined effect of mis-firing and pre-ignition is loss of power and wasted gas.

*Patent applied for by Shell Oil Company

How Conoco Super Gasoline with TCP works

Now Conoco Super with TCP—a cresyl compound—dramatically overcomes loss of power and fuel caused by combustion deposits. TCP actually neutralizes harmful deposits on spark plugs and in combustion chambers. With new Conoco Super your plugs spark as they should. Your fuel ignites as it should. You get and keep "new car" performance.

TCP helps your car—whether new or old

Whether your car is old or new, you can enjoy the benefits of TCP. If you have a new car, with a high-compression engine, it will keep on delivering its built-in power as long as you use Conoco Super Gasoline. If your car is an older one, Conoco Super will restore much of the power you have lost.

Conoco Super with TCP is at your Conoco dealer's today. Don't wait another day to start using this new kind of gasoline—the greatest development in 31 years!

See what Conoco Super with TCP can do for your car—
Start the "TWO-TANK TEST" today!

1. When your gasoline tank is one-quarter full or less, fill it with Conoco Super with TCP. Now, there will still be some ordinary gasoline mixed in with your Conoco Super, so . . .
2. Make sure your next tankful is Conoco Super, too. So rapidly does Conoco Super work that with this second tankful, chances are you'll feel as if your engine has had a tune-up. You'll feel a boost in power. Try it today. We're sure you'll stay with Conoco Super.

Memphis Beats Canyon Here Friday Night 25-7

The Memphis Cyclones caught fire in the fourth quarter Friday night to score three times and overwhelm the Canyon Eagles 25-7. The contest was played in Cyclone Stadium, the first of four successive home games for the Memphis team. A large crowd witnessed the tilt, played in summer-like weather. The first half was scoreless.

Canyon had tallied on the opening play of the final quarter and then added the extra point to put them ahead, 7-6.

But the Cyclones came storming back, under the sparkling leadership of Duke Frisbie, versatile quarterback who is winding up his fourth and final year with the squad.

First of the three last quarter scores resulted from a long pass. The play originated on the Memphis' 24. Frisbie tossed to Carroll Gardenhire, left end, who took the ball on about Canyon's 25 and romped on to pay dirt. The try for point was no good.

A short time later, Frisbie swept from about midfield down the east sideline for a touchdown but the play was called back because Memphis was offside.

Frisbie was not to be denied his score and a few plays later he slipped around right end for 23 yards to cross the Eagles' goal line standing up. Frisbie made the conversion, to boost the count to 19-7.

In the closing moments of play, Davis took the ball from the Eagles' 22 to the 5. Canyon was penalized to their 1 yard stripe, from where Davis plunged over for the final 6 points.

The Cyclones' initial counter was made in the third quarter as Frisbie swung around left end from the Canyon 36 and went all the way.

Frisbie looked good on both offense and defense. Davis starred offensively for Memphis and Clyde Tomplen, left half, shone defensively.

For Canyon, Don Beck, left half, played a stellar game both on offensive and defense. Arden Ruthart, quarterback, and R. A. Burgess, fullback, stood out on defense, and David Brandon end, turned in a top defensive performance. Ruthart made the Eagles' only score as the final quarter got underway after he was seemingly trapped by a ring of Memphis players but broke out to race 28 yards to the Cyclone goal line. Ruthart added the conversion point.

Canyon piled up eight first downs in the initial half to two for the Cyclones. Memphis made three more in the last two quarters while Canyon was able to add only one.

Fire Prevention Week Observance Set For Oct. 4-10

Citizens throughout Texas are urged to participate in the observance of National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10. They also are asked to do what they can at all times to keep losses of human lives and property from fire at a minimum.

How serious these losses have become in the state are shown by information released recently by Norris W. Parker, manager of the Texas Insurance Advisory Association.

According to Parker, six out of every 100,000 Texans will die in fires during the twelve months ending Dec 31.

Based on figures kept for the last 20 years on Texas fire losses, about 550 Texans will lose their lives in fires this year. Last year the number was 542, and it will be at least that this year, insurance company statisticians predict.

Unless Texans become more fire-prevention conscious — and quickly — the property loss this year also is expected to exceed that of last year.

Last year, more than 33 million dollars worth of Texas property went up in smoke—the highest in the state's history, excluding the Texas Gey disaster in 1947. By the end of this year, property loss may approach 40 million dollars, Parker said.

Cattlemen's Meet Slated In Matador Tuesday Evening

Cattlemen from seven counties in this area are scheduled to meet at Matador Tuesday night to ask for price supports on livestock, according to Motley County Judge Vance Gilbreath. The meeting is to be held in the district courtroom, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Representatives from Hall, Cottle, Briscoe, Motley, Floyd, Dickens and King counties have been asked to attend.

Principal speaker will be S. E. (Eck) Brown of Dalhart, President of the newly-formed United Livestock Producers' Association. However, the purpose of the meeting is not to organize, Judge Gilbreath declared, but to inform Washington that the cattleraiser's plight has been misrepresented.

"The economy of the entire cattle industry has been undermined by the attitude of Southwestern Cattlemen's Association in declining federal aid in the crisis which has been increased by the severe drought," he said.

"Cattlemen in the entire nation face certain ruin unless the situation receives immediate government relief. We live in a controlled economy and the cattleraiser must become a part of it if he is to survive. "In the meeting here we will seek three objectives: (1) Drought-Relief feeds; (2) price supports; and (3) and effective government cattle buying program."

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Miller and Rena Gayle of Wichita Falls visited here over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. McClure.

Hedley Boosters Come Here, Oct. 6

The Hedley Booster Caravan is scheduled to be in Memphis Tuesday morning, Oct. 6, to advertise the second annual Cotton Festival, to be held at Hedley, Oct. 9-10, according to C. L. Johnson, chairman of the publicity committee. The boosters plan to arrive here at 8:30 o'clock.

In the visiting group will be the Hedley High School Band. Other entertainment also will be provided.

The Caravan is slated to be in Estelline at 9:15 o'clock that morning.

Festival activities are expanding as time for the celebration approaches.

F. F. A. boys from Clarendon have joined the Hedley boys in exhibiting their livestock, to make this feature of the festival one of the best of its kind in the lower Panhandle this fall. Judging will begin at 1 p. m. Friday. Some fine animals are expected to be shown and competition should be lively.

An added attraction at 4 o'clock the same afternoon will be the drill team from West Texas State College. The group has earned quite a reputation during performances over the Southwest and should be interesting to watch.

Several acts from Amarillo have been added to the command performance, which follows the coronation of the festival queen at 8 p. m., Friday. Joe R. Phillips of Amarillo, Lions district governor will crown the queen.

ESTELLINE FHA PICKS OFFICERS

Officers have been elected by the Estelline chapter of the Future Homemakers of America.

Doris Chaudoin was named president. Completing the list are the following: Mozze Crain, vice-president; Elda Mae Baskin Butler, secretary; Barbara Smith, treasurer; Wynell Bell, parliamentarian; Karen Eddins, historian; Cara Sue Latham, reporter and Tommye Travis, song leader.

Alvis Bryant and Joe Eddins were chosen sweethearts.

Chapter mothers are Mrs. Orvil Bryant, Mrs. Elam Orcutt, Mrs. John Chaudoin, Mrs. S. F. Crain and Mrs. D. E. Travis.

Twenty-five FHA girls made a trip to the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo last week, accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Leota Condray.

MEMPHIS 'B' SQUAD IS EDGED BY CHILDRESS PRESS THURSDAY NIGHT, 12-8

Memphis "B" team battled the Childress "A" team in a game Friday night in a game at the Cyclone Stadium only to be edged by the Childress team 12-8, late in the contest.

The "B" team picked up on the opening kickoff. Childress fumbled in the end zone and the Memphis team recovered for a safety.

In the first quarter was Memphis fumbled in the end zone and the Memphis team recovered for a safety.

The score was 2-0.

In the opening minutes of the second quarter Memphis was leading 8-0. Things were going well for the local team until Childress broke through Memphis' defense and scored Memphis on a 12-yard pass to Childress.

Childress' fumble during the second quarter and Memphis' fumble during the third quarter gave Memphis a 12-0 lead.

In the opening moments of the second half, an exchange of punts left the ball on the Memphis 49, with Childress on the offensive.

Memphis recovered a Childress fumble on the Childress 39. A pass and a ground play was good for a first down on the Childress' 22, but then Childress pushed the local team back for an 8-yard loss, forcing them to punt.

The ball went over the goal line and was brought out to the Childress 20.

After Memphis recovered a Childress fumble on the 25, the first play was good for 8, the next lost 2, and a pass was no good. On the fourth down, however, the ball was taken over the Childress goal line, putting Memphis ahead, 8-6. The extra point try failed.

Soon after the final quarter began, Childress went over the Memphis goal line but the play was called back because the Childress runner stopped out of bounds.

Late in the quarter, a 60-yard run tallied another 6 points for the visitors and soon afterwards, the contest ended.

The local team meets the Wellington "B" squad at Wellington tonight.

Local FFA Boys Are Engaging In Various Projects

Members of the Memphis Future Farmers of America chapter are engaging in nearly all phases of agriculture this year, according to Hershel Potts, vocational agriculture teacher in the local high school.

Some boys have sow and litter projects, on which they have made some money. Other members have pigs on feed.

A few boys have planted alfalfa pastures, with the intention of trying to produce more pork at less expense by cutting down on feed costs.

Most of the FFA boys have cotton patches, some of which are fair while some are not so good, Potts said.

Several members are taking an interest in the production of broilers. This type of project is especially good for town boys who cannot have the facilities for raising other kinds of livestock.

At the present time, the chapter has 500 chicks, started for broiler purposes. Members who have chicks started, are: Don McElreath, Merwyn Smith, Tommy Foster, Eddie Piland and Roy Young.

One hundred and fifty of the chicks are being raised in an electric chick battery in the vocational agriculture building.

This project is being carried on mainly to develop interest in poultry work and to see if fryers can be produced economically with the use of a battery.

Plans are being made to conduct feeding experiments with and without the use of antibiotics, to see if there is any effect on growth.

Several other FFA members have expressed an interest in purchasing chicks later in the year.

The Turkey section is one of the spots in this area which has been particularly hard hit by weather this year.

A Turkey resident said today that there is some pretty good cotton in that corner of the county, nevertheless, but on the other hand, there are a lot of fields which were never planted in cotton. He said these were planted in feed when showers finally came but that the continued dry weather burned up the sorghums.

The man said there are practically no pullers around Turkey.

He said some farmers have cotton that is ready to be harvested but have no hands.

IRRIGATION POSSIBILITIES

Interest in the possibilities of irrigation in this area has taken a spurt recently. To a great extent, this interest is a direct result of the uncertain weather conditions which have plagued this section for several years.

Drouths are nothing new to long-time residents of this region. But the present drouth was climaxed this year by conditions which even old timers probably will agree have been the toughest they have ever seen.

There have been numerous years when farmers were able to get their crops up and growing only to see them burn up in July and August.

But this year has been a rough one all the way.
Nevertheless, a great many farmers had pretty good crops and it looked like a lot of cotton would be harvested this year, even as late as three weeks ago.

But summer just wouldn't let go and prospects have steadily deteriorated.

Of course, the Panhandle has fooled people before and may do so this time but whatever the final production figure, it still will be considerably below what it would have been if we could have had a good rain, or even showers, two or three weeks ago.

It is no wonder that farmers and land owners are showing considerable interest in irrigation prospects in this section.

They have only to look at their crops and then at those on irrigated land, to see graphically what a difference underground water makes when brought to the surface and distributed properly.

A small amount of land around Brice already is being irrigated and reports are that crops on this land look good. A small acreage also is being irrigated near Friendship.

New wells are being drilled at Brice and in the Plaska community.

If either or both localities pan out, it likely will encourage others to sink wells.

If the time comes when a sizable acreage is under irrigation, it will be one of the finest things that has ever happened to this area—a section whose livelihood depends on agriculture.

TAXES HIT PRESIDENT, TOO

The average citizen—barraged by higher and higher taxes—may look at President Eisenhower and his $150,000 salary and grumble: "Lucky dog. Wish I had it that good."

But if the average citizen thinks the President's tax burden is light, it just isn't so, according to U. S. News and World Report.

Even though Mr. Eisenhower does get a fat salary, plus the White House with upkeep and staff, and an allowance of $40,000 a year, the magazine says it is a good bet that the Presidency will cost him money.

For instance, only $68,000 of the President's salary is left after the tax collector takes his cut.

And his expenses for food and clothing are immense. He has a lot of guests to feed, a great many of them kings, premiers and diplomats. Their tastes run to something more than beans and potatoes, so President and Mrs. Eisenhower's grocery bill must be a whopper each month.

The Eisenhowers must dress accordingly. This requires an extensive wardrobe, containing both formal and informal clothing.

And there are other expenses, such as out-sized laundry and clothing bills, numerous telephone calls and telegrams, and frequent gifts and contributions.

So when the President looks at his and Mrs. Eisenhower's bills, he probably scratches his head, like the rest of us, and groans: "How in the world am I going to pay all of these?"

Methodist Church Members Entertain Estelline Faculty

Members of the Estelline Methodist Church entertained the Estelline School faculty and their families with a dinner in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening, September 16.

Approximately 100 persons enjoyed the bounteous meal. The invocation was given by Rev. Robert Knight.

Following the dinner, a short miscellaneous program was presented with Mrs. L. A. Tucker as program chairman. Tommy Jane Travis was announcer.

The program included welcome songs by the entire group, accompanied by Doris Chaudoin; reading, "What Makes a Family," Larry Braidfoot; reading, "The Good Little Girl," Peggy Graham; songs from the primary children of the church; reading, "When the Teacher Gets Cross," Jo Cooper; reading, "First Day of School," Mrs. E. F. Kennedy; reading, "A Teacher's Prayer," Shirley Tucker; vocal duet, "Crying in the Chapel," Tommy Travis and Joe Kent Eddins; reading, "My Home Town," by Tommy Travis and "Dear Hearts and Gentle People" sung by the entire group.

Those taking part were Mary Frank Garrett, Johnnie McDaniel, Inez Martin, Caroline Collins, Audrey Beth Burnett, Bobbie Lemons, Jean Foxhall, Joy Beth Parks, Monta June Saye and Betty Lemons.

State University Loan Library Used By Many Texans

AUSTIN—The University of Texas Package Loan Library served 1,060 towns and rural communities in 248 Texas counties during the fiscal year just ended. Miss Imogene Thompson, director, pointed out that demands upon the Extension Loan Library are increasing, although public libraries are growing in Texas and new ones are being established.

The annual report shows circulation of package libraries in 1952-53 reached 31,323, compared with 28,962 for the previous year.

Information on almost any subject of interest today can be borrowed from the Package Loan Library. The staff spent much of the summer collecting and classifying new materials, reorganizing some of the files and otherwise preparing for the large number of requests expected during 1953-54.

Individual attention is given each request by the staff of trained librarians. Their primary interest is in selecting materials which will best fill the particular needs of each borrower.

Most popular subjects last year were political, economic and social topics (5,278), literature (5,035), history, description and travel (3,703) and education (3,540). Largest number of borrowers were from schools (11,613) and women's clubs (10,649).

Persons having no local library, or only a part-time librarian, may borrow directly from the Package Loan Library. Where full-time librarians are employed, loans must be arranged through the local library.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers

Congressman, 18th District

LIVESTOCK MARKET: The Secretary of Agriculture has called his Live-stock Committee meeting this week. It is anybody's guess as to what some of the changes will result to at the meeting. The situation has developed into a complex one. It was the opinion of the Secretary that the market should have moved up a few days ago. However, the market did not move with the Secretary's advice. He now said that his committee is now acting on the basis of the fact that the market has moved up. It is the opinion of the Secretary that the market should have moved up a few days ago. However, the market did not move with the Secretary's advice. He now said that his committee is now acting on the basis of the fact that the market has moved up.

Therefore, if cattle are to be supported, Congress will have to develop the basic support program. Congress is not in session at the present time and will not reconvene until early January, unless the President calls a Special Session. It is almost certain that no Special Session will be called. Many cattle people will not be able to survive until Congress is back in session to pass any mandatory legislation on the subject. Therefore, if these people are to be saved, immediate action must be forthcoming from the Administrative Branch of our Government; to wit, the Secretary of Agriculture. Whatever action he takes must be bold and it must be firm. Wishy washy procedures entered into with reluctance will not solve this problem; they will only cost the American people a lot more money, and the desired results will not be realized.

TUCUMCARI, NEW MEXICO MEETING: A Sub-committee of the House of Representatives' Agricultural Committee held hearings in Tucumcari, New Mexico on September 17 to hear testimony concerning the farm and ranch problems. The Members of Congress of the Sub-committee were Chairman, Honorable William Hill of Colorado, Honorable Page Belcher of Oklahoma, Honorable Carl Albert of Oklahoma. Other Members of Congress in attendance for the meeting were Senator Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, Honorable Antonio Fernandez of New Mexico, and myself. This meeting was a fine example of a closer re-union between the people and their Representatives in the National Congress. Much good came out of this meeting, and I hope that others like it will be held at intervals throughout this section.

THE SUPREME COURT VACANCY: It is my sincere wish that the President will not make a political appointment to the Supreme Court. I hope that he will appoint some able jurist with wide experience in the judicial. The Supreme Court is supposed to be the balance wheel in our Government. It is supposed to be above and beyond politics, as that term is commonly used. I personally feel that President Eisenhower is fully aware of this, and that he will not permit political pressures of any type to influence him in making what might prove to be his most important appointment.

Irrigation Used In Growing Nearly Every Texas Crop

AUSTIN—Almost every Texas crop is grown under irrigation in some part of the state, and usually with improved yields, a University of Texas resources researcher declares in the current issue of Texas Business Review.

Cotton, the top irrigated crop occupies about 1 million acres of water-fed Texas fields, Richard P. Brenneman reports in an article in the University's Bureau of Business Research monthly publication.

Irrigation has been practiced in Texas for at least 400 years. Brenneman points out. Coronado reported that Indians were irrigating crops near the present city of El Paso when he arrived there in 1541, and evidence that irrigation existed long before this has been found in the Trans-Pecos area.

The San Antonio River supplied water for fields along its course as early as 1716, and the San Saba River by 1756, Brenneman relates. Anglo-Americans first developed agricultural irrigation in 1853 near the present town of Balmorhea, still a center of irrigation. From there, irrigation spread to the Rio Grande Valley and, slowly, to other parts of the state.

The past decade has seen tremendous growth in Texas irrigation, Brenneman says. Irrigated acreage has spread from barely more than 1 million acres in 1940 to some 3.5 million acres today. Over the same period, capital investment in irrigation works and water rights has soared $86 million to at least $150 million, the researcher reports.

BAND FESTIVAL TO BE STAGED HERE APRIL 3

A band festival is to be held here, April 3 of next year, Richard Highfill, director of music in Memphis High School, announced Monday.

The first newsletter, carrying information about classes and other matters, is being sent to directors, Highfill said. No registrations for the event are being accepted as yet.

Competition will be divided into A, B, C and D classes. Trophies are to be awarded to first, second and third place winners in concert, sightreading and marching in each class.

The festival promises to be of great educational value to both participating bands and local townspeople, according to Highfill.

Memphis civic organizations have held meetings to discuss the activity with Highfill and have pledged their full support.

Judges, who already have agreed to be here for the event are: Donald L. Moore, director of bands at Baylor University, Waco, A. Clyde Roller, director of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra, Leon Brown, instructor of brass, North Texas State College at Denton; and M. J. Newman, head of the music department of West Texas State College.

Additional information on the festival will be provided from time to time between now and the date of the event. Anyone, desiring other information, should contact Highfill.

ever, we were rushed out to the cemetery. Here they said we would stay until I promised to quit being such a heartless tyrant.

Belle and I were really alarmed, but tried not to show it. After lecturing us about teachers in general, they took us home. Later we had as much fun over it as the boys did.

Another gallant boy in that class appeared at my home one evening with a lovely box of candy. It must have been a coincidence that final exams were beginning the next day. I've always wondered if that helped his grade. (I believe he's selling Fords now. Being that thoughtful should help his salesmanship.)

I'm proud of Memphis and glad I had the good fortune to be born in a small western town. City children really don't have as much fun as we did.

Sincerely yours, Blanche Temple Leake Long Beach, Calif.

It is not often that I find cause for complaint against any utility company. The public utilities have their troubles the same as individuals. For instance, a local manager of such a company reports that his company is having a lot of trouble collecting for the month's service rendered because some of the users are up against it to the point they have trouble raising enough funds to pay their utility bills.

Merchants, many of them, are operating at a loss, and cutting corners in order to keep their heads above the water until a good crop can be made. Farmers and merchants this year are in the same boat. I refer to local people. When the farmer fails or makes a short crop, the business man suffers likewise. That carries to the day laborer and the white-collar worker. All are in the same boat. What we are trying to say is, town and county both have suffered a loss in population to a great extent this year; schools have fewer scholastic-age pupils, fewer jobs are open; more people going elsewhere to seek jobs. These are facts that cannot be successfully denied.

Readers of The Democrat read that the Lone Star Gas Co. is to get a raise in rates, if the ordinance passed at the first readings is passed at two more readings. The City Council is up against a proposition whereby they cannot hold off any longer, since all other towns in this area have given in believing it a hopeless fight.

The gas company's publicity writer stated the raise will not amount to but about four cents a day per customer—as if that were a mere insignificant item. Four cents times 30 days gives $1.20. $1.20 times 12 months is a meager sum of $14.40. A good many customers have not been paying much over the above amount in a year's time at the old rate. Add the two and you have about $29.00. Yet they say the raise means only four cents a day as if that were chicken feed.

Analysts of the rate structure claim the proposed raise will affect the smaller users to the tune of 38 per cent additional. It is unfortunate, indeed, that the company has seen fit to try to get such a raise upon people who are having to fight for their very existence at a time that is critical because of drought and three or four crop failures. People would not mind it so much if they were making money and not having to borrow to be able to continue, or else dig into what they have been working for year to make.

This is one time when one wishes high-up utility officials would forget about making money and think more of their fellowmen.

While on the subject of utilities, the question arises as to why the telephone company notifies people who run want ads in The Democrat and give their telephone number, must pay a business rate for their telephones. Utilities have nothing to sell but service and the party who reads about some party who wants to rent a room or do a little sewing, washing, baby-sitting or the like to help eke out a mere living. He sees the telephone number, reaches for the phone and puts in a call if the phone number is not given he either has to find a directory or call the operator for the number. So it is merely a service and the company should look upon it as such. Pick up any daily paper you find and you will see that nine out of ten want ads (except real business ads of course) do not give their names, but list their telephone number. Memphis seems to be the only place the telephone company is trying out the scheme Betchu they drop it before long. Any Takers?

The local managers of the utility companies are fine fellows and good friends of ours. It's the high-ups I am complaining about.

By the time my 106 readers read this issue of The Democrat Mrs. W. and I will be enjoying the breezes from one of the Great Lakes, we hope! Will try to give you a running account of the trip. We have stayed put through all the hot summer months, and there have been many of them. Now we want to enjoy new scenery, Autumn colors, etc. etc. Be seen' you.

Carroll Fowler Is Eligible For Award

Word has been received here that Carroll Fowler of Lakeview is in line for a 1949 Soil Conservation Scholarship awarded by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company.

The information was contained in a letter to County Agent W. B. Hooser from the Texas Extension Service at College Station.

Fowler was named alternate in the 1949 contest and became eligible for the $300 scholarship when the winner gave up the award.

Hooser said it is unlikely that Fowler will accept the scholarship since he is married and is engaged in farming.

While in school, Fowler was active in 4-H Club work in Hall County.

This is the seventh national award to be received by 4-H members in the county, Hooser said.
