School Audit And Fund Report Approved By Board Members

...of $81,467.94 in taxes...
...entire scholastic year," Gailey explained.
...The tax audit showed that current taxes of $81,412.35 were collected, with a discount of $1,955.82. Delinquent collections amounted to $1,683.00, plus penalty and interest of $283.00.
...O. M. Cosby, Jr., of the auditing firm said that the books of the tax office were found to be in excellent condition, and that total collections of taxes tallied with the amount of funds paid into the school funds during the year.
...The annual report by the depositor showed a balance of $20,201.19 in the district's interest and sinking fund, as compared with a balance of $19,853.04 at the end of the preceding fiscal year. Total receipts in this fund from taxes amounted to $27,020.65, and disbursements from the fund for bond interest and redemption amounted to $26,672.50.
...Total receipts for the year in all funds excluding the interest and sinking fund amounted to $199,649.27, Gailey said. This includes $72,624.85 received from State Funds under the Gilmer-Aikin school program, and $36,564.00 from the State for salary and operational aid.
...Total expenditures, excluding the interest and sinking fund amounted to $199,815.35. These expenses include teacher salaries, transportation, supplies, insurance, building maintenance, and the ...many minor expenses incurred in the operation of a business of this size, the annual report showed.

...The school board president pointed out that the two major sources of income for a school district are local taxes and state educational aid.
...It is not possible to predict the percentage of taxes which will be collected, and there is no way to pre-determine the amount of state aid," he said. "For this reason the school board has adopted a policy of strict economy in so far as is possible without jeopardizing the efficiency of the system."
...Local tax collections dropped about 5 per cent last year and are expected to drop even more this year. I urge the cooperation of school administrators, teachers and patrons in exercising prudent economy."
...It was pointed out that the high school fund was also audited by Cosby and Cosby, and the audit verified a balance on hand of $690.31. This fund includes all miscellaneous receipts from athletics, fees, concessions, magazine sales, kindergarten and minor school activities.
...Disbursements from the fund included salary for a kindergarten teacher, the senior class trip, athletic expenses, band concert and travel expense, caps and gowns, and other miscellaneous expenses not included in the regular school budget.

Schools And Many Firms And Offices To Close For Tilt

The Memphis Cyclone will meet the Sundown Roughnecks at Plainview Friday afternoon to decide which is the best 1-A team in this region. Many Memphis firms and offices will close for the afternoon, in order that a large crowd may go from here to cheer for and to back Cyclone players in their efforts to capture the first regional title a Memphis team has ever played for. The contest is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock.
Schools here will be dismissed all day Friday and students will join the trek to Plainview for the game, Supt. W. C. Davis said. The Cyclones, high school band members and pep squad members will make the trip in school buses, while others will go in private cars.
Tickets for the contest were placed on sale Monday at Tarver-Stanford, Durham and Fowler drug stores and were being snapped up quickly.
The Cyclones earned the right to go into the regional contest by defeating a favored Springlake team Thanksgiving Day afternoon, 18-2.
Sundown took its bi-district game with Hale Center on the same day, in a high-scoring 29-27 tilt.
Sundown boasts the top scoring aggregation of the South Plains, with 415 points to 187 for their opponents. The squad has copped 9 games and lost 2 this season, if the win over Hale Center is included.
The Cyclones won six games, tied one, and lost three during their regular playing season. The tie was against Lefors, and Memphis was awarded the game on penetrations.

...The Memphis High School band paid special tribute to Thanksgiving Day, during half-time ceremonies last Thursday afternoon at the Memphis-Springlake football game in Cyclone Stadium here. The presentation was under the leadership of Richard Highfill, director of music.
...The band marched onto the field to the strains of "America The Beautiful," and formed an Indian tepee at midfield. While the band played authentic Indian music, six boys, dressed as Indians and Pilgrims, met in midfield to portray the first peaceful meeting of the two races at Plymouth, Mass., soon after the founding of the colony in December, 1620.
...The musical group then reformed themselves into the pattern of a church. To the accompaniment of "God of Our Fathers" and the "Doxology," three pairs

Following the annual tour of the choir, the organization will return to the campus to sing its traditional Christmas assembly program for the students of West Texas State on Dec. 17. A concert for the people of the community is also given on the same day.
The choir's repertoire covers a wide range, from Negro spirituals and simple Christmas hymns to the finest choral music available. As usual for the annual tour, the program features some of Dr. Bright's own works, including a (Continued on Page 7)

MEMPHIS HIGH AWARDED TROPHY; CYCLONES ON ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Memphis High School was awarded a trophy for winning the District 1A-1 football championship, at a meeting of district representatives in Panhandle Monday night. This announcement was made Tuesday by W. C. Davis.
During the session, the all-district football squad for 1953 also was announced and Memphis was selected as the site of the All-District banquet, after local representatives made it known this city would be glad to have the dinner here. The event is to be held sometime in January.
George Childress, head football coach here, received the trophy, in behalf of the local high school, from James R. Cox, superintendent of the Panhandle schools and chairman of District 1A-1.
The trophy is a life-size gold-plated football on a white bakelite base. Engraved on the trophy is "District 1A-1 Champion—1953."
Cyclones players who were placed on the all-district first team are Duke Frisbie, quarterback and Carrol Gardenhire, left end. Frisbie was listed first among eight backs, and Gardenhire was first among four ends.

Honorable mention was given to Jimmie Davis, halfback, Clyde Tamplin, fullback, Jerry McQueen, tackle, James Freeman, guard, and Max McCoy, center.
The Cyclone Boosters Club will obtain an outstanding speaker for the all-district banquet in the near future, Davis said.
Plans, rules and regulations for governing football and basketball games next year were settled during the Monday night session, according to Davis.
Present at the meeting from here were: Davis; Weldon McCreary, high and junior high school principal; Childress; and Nolan Poteet, assistant coach.

Santa Claus To Be Here on Tuesday, December 15

...circle December 15...
...Santa Claus' party will get underway with pre-school children having an opportunity to see the jolly old fellow before local schools are dismissed. This probably will be around 1:30. After the smaller children have marched through the courthouse and gotten their goodies, they will find Santa waiting to greet and talk with them outside the building.
...Then, pupils from the lower grades will be brought down in buses to see their good friend and to receive some of the fruits, candies and nuts he is distributing. They will be accompanied by their teachers and room mothers.
...Students from upper grades will follow, according to Clifford Farmer, manager of the Chamber of Commerce here.
...The celebration is being staged under the leadership of the chamber of commerce, in co-operation with the Austin and Travis Parent-Teacher Associations, the school system, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Memphis fire department.
...Almost 1,600 children visited Santa Claus last year, Farmer said.
...Street lights in downtown Memphis are scheduled to be installed and turned on about Dec. 10, according to Farmer. They will remain up until after Christmas.
...As in the past, residents and churches will also put up Christmas lights and scenes.
...Christmas shopping already was ...in progress this week and merchants had good stocks of gift items displayed in their stores for shoppers' inspection.

...Gift seekers would be wise to make their purchases as soon as possible while stocks are complete.
...Besides—there are ONLY 18 more shopping days between now and Christmas.

AUSTIN, Tex.—Hottest news out of Austin is the fight to prevent the DPOW from gaining a foothold in Texas.

DPOW is the Distributive, Processing and Office Workers Union of America, an interim affiliate of the CIO, but not as yet admitted to full membership.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd contends DPOW is communist controlled and communist led. He says "they are organizing in Texas with the intent and purpose of paralyzing the oil industry, as well as the shipping areas of the state when the proper times comes."

DPOW has disrupted business in Port Arthur the past several weeks by picketing some 22 eating places, hotels and retail stores. "They have threatened the laundries and have their eyes on the filling stations," says the attorney general.

According to John Sadler, publisher of the Port Arthur News, stores in that heavily unionized coastal city are as bare of customers as if a depression was on.

Shepperd outlined the procedure followed by the DPOW as follows: "They write a letter to the manager of a business, demanding that he recognize their union and threaten to picket his place. So far there hasn't been a single election by the National Labor Relations Board. The DPOW just moves in and takes over."

Shepperd appealed to the workers and to the people of Texas to investigate DPOW. "Let's not trade the Lone Star of Texas for the Red Star of Russia," warns the attorney general.

State American Legion officials have joined in the campaign to fight DPOW's inroads as have Port Arthur legionnaires. Governor Allan Shivers has appointed a five-man Industrial Commission to investigate DPOW. Also the International Fur and Leather Workers Union and the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union.

The committee will hear testimony about alleged communist domination of these labor organizations which are attempting to operate in Texas.

Members of the Texas Industrial Commission are: C. E. Fulgham, Lubbock farmer and rancher; William J. Harris of Dallas president of the Texas Federation of Labor; L. E. Page of Carthage, commander of the Texas Department of the American Legion; Walter Buckner, editor and co-publisher of the San Marcos Record and past-president of the Texas Press Association; and E. G. Rodman, Sr., of Odessa, president of the Rodman Oil Field Supply Co.

Action taken by state Republican leaders at a session here December 7 may have important bearing on the top 1954 political campaigns.

Law requires the party to nominate its candidates in a primary since it cross-filed Governor Allan Shivers last year and polled more than 200,000 votes for him.

Republicans would vote on the same day as the Democratic primary.

GOP leaders had favored a strategy of opposing Democratic candidates who appeared vulnerable or any who hold views contrary to the Republicans.

National committeeman Jack Porter of Houston had previously stated that the GOP would have an opponent for Senator Lyndon Johnson, but not for Governor Shivers, if he seeks re-election.

At this point, the significance of the committee's decisions becomes apparent.

Should Governor Shivers eliminate himself, there is every indication that several conservative candidates will be in the race with the possibility of one liberal in the field, although two have been mentioned.

Monday's meeting may give the Republicans a definite rule on their rights under the cross-filing law, and they may decide whether they can place on their ballots candidates who are also named on the Democratic ticket.

One conservative candidate for governor has already made an appeal to Texas voters, without making a formal announcement of his campaign.

House Speaker Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba said in a talk last week that he hoped the din of debate over party control would not "obscure our present need to carry forward a program for the improvement of our state government and state services."

He added that there are "able and courageous men who have, and will again lead that debate."

That statement has caused speculation that Shivers will not run again. The governor has previously said that he would be willing to carry on the conservative cause in the party control fight.

One experienced political analyst puts it this way:

"Senterfitt is a conservative. His very early announcement that he would run, plus the fast start on speech-making, has added to the feeling of many political pros that if his campaign catches on, Shivers will not ask re-election."

Buyers are getting better breaks in the eyes of the law, according to Dean W. Page Keeton of the University of Texas Law School.

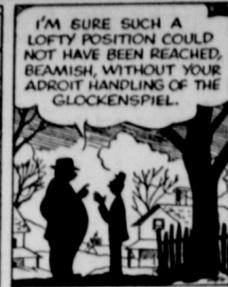

Courts are developing a new doctrine of "let the seller beware," he said.

Speaking of his views as stated in the Texas Law Review, he cited the example of a real estate sale in which the buyer was told the plumbing was "all right."

During the transaction, the seller failed to tell the purchaser that the plumbing was not connected to a public sewer, and the court regarded this as misrepresentation.

Why Christians Observe Christmas

By LINDELL O. HARRIS
Hardin-Simmons University
Bible Department Head

The Christmas story centers in the Christ-child of Bethlehem. However, this fascinating story had its beginning in ancient Mesopotamia, the cradle of the race, and the probable site of Eden.

The "twelve days" of Christmas, exchanging of gifts, brightly decorated floats, merrymaking, singing from house to house, feasting, and religious processions were all found in Mesopotamia over four thousand years ago.

The New Year's festival lasted twelve days, as the Christmas season is supposed to do. It was a time of crisis for the people as the old year died and the New Year was born.

Marduk, their chief god, had overcome the monsters of chaos in creation, but this struggle was renewed each year.

The empty brown of the fields told the story that life was dying. Marduk must fight to renew each world.

The people considered it their duty to help Marduk in any way that they could. Accordingly, much of the festival consisted in this support by the people.

The Mesopotamian faced a threefold problem: purification from the sins of the past year, the finding of a substitute who would take the consequences of those sins, and the renewal of strength which the old year had taken away.

An important part of the festival was the recitation of the Creation story, re-enacting the creation of the world by Marduk.

As part of the drama the king must "die" at the end of the year and go into the underworld with Marduk in order to battle at his side.

However, a "mock" king saved the life of the real king by substituting for him. The "mock" king was dressed in royal robes given homage, and then slain in place of the real king.

At last came the moment of the festival when Marduk began to prevail over the powers of evil. In great rejoicing the people drew large floats down the streets.

Many masqueraded in gay costumes. Friends exchanged gifts with one another.

Such was the festival spirit of this ancient land.

These ancient festivals found their way westward to Greece and Rome. It was in Rome that the festival of the Saturnalia was conducted with such boisterous rejoicing.

It began around the middle of December and lasted until January first. In the midst was December 25, the day when the sun was at its lowest ebb, but soon ready to increase again and send its rays of warmth and growth to the earth.

Saturnalia was a time of drunken revelry for many Romans. For others it was simply a time of making merry. Jolly crowds masqueraded through the streets, ate big dinners, and visited their friends.

They exchanged gifts and wished one another good luck. Moreover, the Romans decorated their houses this time with boughs of laurel and green trees and with lighted candles and lamps.

Slaves and masters ate together, often exchanging places, the masters waiting on the slaves.

The early Christmas tried to prevent the celebration of the Saturnalia, but in vain. What happened in history was that the festival was purged of its crude and immoral elements and made to honor the Christ-child of Bethlehem.

After a battle of centuries the thoughts of the people were turned from the pagan gods to the worship of the Lord.

The festival spirit of pagan merry-making became the glad rejoicing over the birth of a Savior.

When was Jesus born? No one knows the exact historical date of his birth. The observance of December 25 as the birthday of Christ was chosen several centuries after his death.

In fact, the early Christians were not interested in the date of his birth. The important thing to them was his death and resurrection.

In the early Church the deity of Christ was stressed much more than his humanity. As soon as the Church had settled to some extent the question of his deity, it continued with the question of his humanity.

Some had been unable to admit that he was really human. In time the question of the relation of the two natures was much discussed. Christ was then viewed as being completely divine and completely human, a God-man. Jesus was born of a human mother, yet born divine, a God-infant and a human infant.

Since Mary was the mother of Jesus, she was regarded as having done something that no other woman had ever done. In addition to this, the idea of motherhood represented something tender and endearing to every heart. Adoration very easily became worship.

Why was December 25 chosen as the day to celebrate the birth of Christ? This date was probably chosen because some of the ancient pagan festivals celebrated the Saturnalia in Rome. The winter solstice celebrated their contributions.

All these celebrations the last days of the year, the dawning of the December 25 came.

Of these various celebrations the process of time was able in the Christian world to think behind the pagan world to the worship and the birth of Christ.

Jesus was finally given the process of time through many lands, its message in the Christian world.

Today, it is a strange become sacred to us not because of its background, but because meaning to every Christian.

It means that one hundred years ago the moral Christ broke into the human history by himself a human nature born of a human mother, yet born divine, a God-infant and a human infant.

It means that God became man.

It means that God became man, the divine and the man.

It means that the angels was true.

"For unto you is born in the city of David, which is Christ, the son of Mary."

Memphis Overpowers Springlake Capture Bi-District Crown

The A-1 champion Cyclone out-manuevered the previously undefeated District 2A-1 Springlake Wolverines in the championship game at the stadium on Thanksgiving afternoon to take the Bi-District crown and win the right to represent the region in the state championship game on Dec. 18-19.

The game wasn't easy. The heavier Wolverines dominated the ball in the first half, but they seemed to have more than the Cyclones.

The contest was only over when the Memphis boys completed their 13th pass for 13 yards, lost four fumbles, punted three times for 118 yards, and was penalized twice for 20 yards.

Approximately 3,000 fans—probably the largest ever to attend a game here—witnessed the struggle.

The first quarter was scoreless.

Early in the second quarter, Springlake recovered a Cyclone fumble on the Springlake 40, only to lose possession on the next play, when an attempted pass was muffed and recovered by Memphis on the Wolverines' 37.

Sustaire made four and on the following play, Frisbie whirled around left end and over the Springlake goal line. Frisbie's try for point failed.

On the kickoff, Jimmy Hadaway, Wolverine quarterback, received the ball on his 15 and returned to his 40.

With Hadaway, Rex Loftis, left half, and Wayne Davis, fullback, alternating in carrying the ball, Springlake pushed to the Cyclone 13 before losing possession on downs.

From that point, the Cyclones, aided by a five-yard penalty for offsides and a 15-yard penalty for unnecessary roughness, drove over the Wolverine goal line. Tamplen.

Frisbie and Jimmie Jenkins, half-back, were the ball carriers in this series, with Tamplen plunging from the one-yard stripe for the counter. Frisbie's kick failed.

On the last play of the first half, a pass, originating on Springlake's 48, was intercepted by Frisbie on his 25, and returned to midfield.

In the third stanza, Springlake punted after the team could not advance past their 22. Frisbie took the ball on his 32 and returned to the Memphis' 44.

Soon afterwards, the Wolverines recovered a fumbled Cyclone pass on the Memphis 46-yard line but could only carry to the Cyclone 37 and lost the ball on downs.

Two plays later, the Cyclones were set back to their 24-yard stripe for holding. Frisbie skirted right end to his 38, and two yards were picked up on the following play. Frisbie kicked out of bounds on the Springlake 42.

The Wolverines advanced to the Memphis' 11 before fumbling. The Cyclones recovered on their 19.

Two plays later, Memphis fumbled and Springlake took possession of the ball on the Cyclone 29, as the third quarter ended.

The opening plays of the final quarter saw the Wolverines push to the Memphis' 3, helped by a 15-yard penalty against the Cyclone for holding.

There, the Cyclones recovered a Springlake fumble but soon found themselves on their own one-yard stripe, when they were penalized for delaying the game.

Frisbie dropped to the ground behind his goal line for an automatic safety.

Hadaway took the kickoff and was downed on his 36, after taking Memphis overpowers Galley 2 in one step. When the Wolverines could not go, the ball was punted and Frisbie took it on his 10 and returned to the 15.

The Cyclones advanced to their 20, where Frisbie punted to the Springlake 39.

In an effort to get their offensive going in the final minutes of play, the Wolverines opened a passing attack. The first was grounded.

Hadaway shot another pass but it backfired when Sustaire snared it on the Springlake 40 and took it into the Wolverine end zone for the third Memphis tally. Frisbie was short of the goal line on an attempt to run the point over.

After Hadaway received the kickoff on his 20 and returned to the 32, Frisbie intercepted a Springlake pass and was brought down about midfield.

The Cyclones chalked up two first downs and had the ball on the Wolverine 25 as the game ended.

GAME WARDEN TELLS OF 'MOST HONEST HUNTER'

AUSTIN—A central Texas Game Warden reports discovery of "the most honest hunter."

He said the man telephoned his home and reported that he had been trespassing; had shot from a public road and had hunted out of his home county without a license.

The warden said the man, about thirty years old, apparently had innocently become a triple violator.

The warden related how the man had noticed a woman taking his license number, parked on a country road, while he hunted mourning doves in a fenced field without the landowner's permission. As the story goes, the man returned home and conferred with a relative who suggested he would be turned in for trespassing. So the hunter excitedly described his other activities to the relative and then realized his multiple blunder.

The warden took the case under advisement. He suggested others might benefit by the "public confession."

Americans Urged To Join TB Fight By Seal Purchases

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, second woman in U. S. history and the first from Texas to hold a post in the president's cabinet, has urged each American to do his share in stamping out tuberculosis.

"No one is safe from tuberculosis," declared Mrs. Hobby, a Houston newspaper executive who became the first Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Commenting on the 47th annual Christmas Seal Sale of the nation's Tuberculosis Associations, the secretary continued, "Even today when we know that tuberculosis can be prevented, it is still first among disease killers that are preventable."

"It is still the leading cause of non-accidental deaths in persons between 15 and 35."

"Because TB is a problem of all the people, citizens in all parts of the United States are working together to wipe it out. Single-handed we are powerless. But by pooling our resources, each one of us can do his share in our democratic way. We can conquer this scourge. For it is by, and only by, cooperative community action that we can stamp out tuberculosis."

The Texas Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated county organizations are joining in the traditional Christmas Seal Sale conducted once each year to carry on their year-around fight against tuberculosis.

Legion Spearheads State Drive For 'All Veterans Day'

The American Legion will spearhead a movement for the passage of a bill by the next Texas Legislature to declare November 11 "All Veterans Day," according to a resolution unanimously adopted by the organization's state community service committee which met at state headquarters in Austin recently.

The community service committee, headed by Mayor R. C. Gorman of Bay City as chairman, in its resolution stated that since November 11 is now a national holiday because of Armistice Day, that it could well be the day to honor veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict also.

The resolution stated that VJ Day, and Pearl Harbor Day, all as significant as Armistice Day, had failed to gain recognition as had November 11. "The result is that there is no set day now in which the people of Texas can give pause and honor to those who died in the wars of the past two generations."

The resolution calls upon all of Texas posts and the districts and divisions to support the movement.

"The coffee's terrible but it's the only restaurant in town"

Muddy coffee. Soggy toast. Indigestible food. Bad luck for the hungry salesman who stops in that town for a bite to eat. The missing ingredient is "competition."

Funny how that word has a way of stirring up activity.

People who manufacture things, for example, prickly all over when they think about competition. They sit up evenings fretting about it, and spend millions to improve their products. The result, of course, is high quality at lowest possible cost. And the winner of a contest like that has to be the public.

People are tempted sometimes to wonder what life would be like without competition. For a clue, they might note the shabby fall in living standards in countries where clumsy fingers of state monopoly have strangled competition.

Over 3,000 manufacturing firms in America share in the electrical business. We can name offhand 20 sizable firms that compete at giving the public better refrigerators. There are more than 200 rivals in the making of electric motors. At least 37 in electric irons; 53 in home freezers; 25 turn out vacuum cleaners. And so on down the list.

Some companies competing with General Electric today actually sprang up from the seeds of General Electric research. New products have invited new companies. In certain cases, whole new industries. And more will come.

The competitive race just never ends. That sounds tiring for the contestants, but in fact it is healthy exercise. Healthy for the country, too. At General Electric we wouldn't have it any other way.

You can put your confidence in—

Shankle-Lee Nuptials Solemnized Here In Church Ceremony Thanksgiving Day

In an impressive double-ring ceremony solemnized at 6 p. m. Thanksgiving Day in the Mission Baptist Church, Miss Anne Shankle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Shankle of Memphis, became the bride of Carl Lee, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lee of Lockney.

The Rev. Charles Cullin, classmate of the couple and now a senior student at Hardin-Simmons University, read the marriage service.

An arch entwined with greenery, tall white baskets of yellow mums and fern tied with satin bows and floor candelabra bearing lighted tapers formed the decorative setting for the ceremony.

Music for the wedding was provided by Miss Katherine Wright, organist, and Cynthia Hull of Canyon and Nancy Brewer of Memphis, vocalists, who sang "Always" and "Because." Miss Wright played the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

Miss Donna Webb of Memphis was maid of honor. She wore a dress of blue taffeta with black accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations tied with silver ribbon.

Charles Messer served the groom as best man. Ushers were Bobby Pat Young and Tommy Messer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a suit of white flannel trimmed with beaded pearls. She wore a matching white hat, also trimmed with pearls, and other accessories of brown. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid tied with satin ribbon.

The bride's mother chose a frock of light blue complemented with navy accessories while the groom's mother wore a brown dress with a winter white hat and other accessories of brown. They both wore corsages of pink carnations.

The bride is a graduate of the Memphis high school with the class of '53. Prior to her marriage she was a student at West Texas State College, Canyon.

The groom is also a graduate of the Memphis high school, having finished with the class of 1952. He was associated with his father in operating the White Auto Store in Memphis until last Spring when the family moved to Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee will make their home in Lockney where the groom is associated with his father in operating a White Auto Store.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. W. F. Ewing of Ranger, Miss Jessie Ewing of Ranger, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ewing and Sadie Beth and Mary Ann of Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Reed and son of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McAnear of Clarendon and Ernest Nagers of Lockney.

Veterans Can Get Data On Courses From Regional VA

Veterans who want to learn whether the courses they wish to take under the Korean GI Bill have been State-approved may get this information from their nearest Veterans Administration Regional Office, VA announced recently.

In urging veterans to seek such information from their VA Regional Office, and not from VA headquarters in Washington, VA explained that each Regional Office maintains an up-to-date record of courses approved by the State for Korean veterans. This information is not kept in Washington. It couldn't be, VA added, since changes occur constantly, and it never could be completely current.

VA also suggested that veterans do not ask their Regional Offices for complete lists of approved courses in all fields. Instead, a veteran should have a fairly good idea of the type of training he wants, when he contacts the VA for information on GI approved courses. This way, VA easily can furnish him with names of schools offering courses in his chosen field, so that he can decide where to train.

If the veteran isn't sure what kind of training to take, he may avail himself of the VA's vocational counseling. Through tests and interviews, the counseling process enables him to understand his capabilities and aptitudes, so that he's in a much better position to make a wise choice.

Public Hunting In Etex Woods Eyed By Wildlife Group

AUSTIN—The Texas Game and Fish Commission indicated favor for proposed public hunting experiments in East Texas forest lands but decided time was too short to permit the trial projects during the coming big game harvest season.

The public shoots, discussed at the Commission's regular quarterly meeting in Austin, would be on National Forest Lands covered by a two-way agreement between the United States Forest Service and the Commission.

The Commission decided to try out the program despite the patchwork areas involved, caused by irregularity of boundaries with many privately owned tracts wholly enclosed by the National Forest Lands.

One point made by Howard D. Dodgen, the executive secretary, in outlining the proposed restricted harvests, was that the game population would soon reach such proportions that the brood stock would not be endangered by limited shooting.

It also was emphasized that law enforcement might be strengthened under the suggested new policy in the affected areas where local sentiment opposes prosecutions for game law violations.

The Commission's stand on the proposal, which has been studied by state and federal technicians, indicated the possibility that the experiment might be ready for the 1954 fall season.

Most big game hunting in Texas now is done under the traditional land ownership-game management program whereby wildlife is harvested under leases between land owners and hunters.

The Commission heard suggestions for surveying Gulf Coast reef shell deposits.

Drinking Causes 23 Per Cent Of Fatal Accidents

"Drinking plus driving equals disaster."

This statement was made by Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, president of the Texas Safety Association, while discussing the holiday hazards program which is being conducted this month by the Texas Safety Association and the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"If anyone doubts the truth of this equation, I invite him to visit the local traffic court and look at the records," he said.

"The number of fatal traffic accidents on the books which show that pedestrians or drivers involved had been drinking certainly will remove such doubts," Col. Tilley said. "National Safety Council figures show that in 23 out of 100 fatal accidents occurring in the United States during 1952, a driver or a pedestrian had been drinking."

"Drinking is a big traffic safety problem at Christmas time," he said. "With all the parties and celebrations that take place around this time, there is much more drinking. And the trouble starts when people who have been drinking venture out in traffic."

He pointed out that it takes maximum alertness to stay safe in today's hazardous traffic. He said, "that since alcohol slows reactions and impairs judgement, it reduces alertness."

"And I want to make it clear,"

VFW Members to Go To District Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jones and Mrs. Ona Rasco plan to attend the District 13 Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Hereford Saturday and Sunday. The Saturday program included a breakfast, business meeting, buffet supper and dance.

Sunday activities will include a breakfast, a joint meeting of VFW and Auxiliary members and a dinner meeting.

Convention headquarters will be the Jim Hall Hotel.

All VFW members throughout the district are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Watkins and sons of Quannah visited here Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Seth Pallmeyer.

Pike are little, if any, inferior to musky as fighters, except they do not leap quite so spectacularly, he said, "that pedestrians, as well as motorists, should not venture into traffic after they've been drinking. A pedestrian needs a clear head every minute to protect him from injury by cars. The slightest befuddlement can cost him his life."

Col. Tilley appealed to all citizens to protect themselves this holiday season by making arrangements beforehand for transportation to and from parties at which they know they'll be drinking. "Those planning office parties and other large gatherings," he said, "should be especially careful to make provision for transportation if alcoholic beverages are to be served at the affair."

PAVING PROGRAM County-Wide ACP EXPECTED TO BE COMPLETED SOON Meeting Set Here 2:00 P. M. Friday

The paving program in the City of Memphis should be completed in the near future, Lindsey Hoffman, whose firm holds the contract, told members of the City Council at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday night in the City Hall.

Hoffman said he thought the work would be completed by the end of next week, if weather did not interfere. However, the situation was changed Wednesday when cold, wet weather moved into the Memphis area. As a result, the paving likely will not be completed until a later date.

Unsettled weather has hampered paving operations all this fall. Otherwise, the project probably would have been finished sometime ago.

Paving, except for a short strip near the business section where the width is greater, will cost $2.60 a front foot. Of this amount, $1.20 is for curbing, 15 cents for excavating, 75 cents for the base, and 50 cents for double asphalt surfacing, Mayor Carl Harrison explained.

Bryan & Hoffman Construction Company of Plainview has the contract.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are in order for Coach George Childress and the Memphis Cyclones for winning the championship of District 1 and 2 in Conference A.

Cyclone players clearly demonstrated championship caliber by the brand of football they played against the Springlake Wolverines here Thanksgiving Day afternoon.

There is no doubt that their supporters went away from Cyclone Stadium well pleased with their decisive victory over their heavier opponents—a foe who entered the fray with an unbroken winning streak during their 10-game regular season schedule.

In the opening minutes of the Thanksgiving Day contest, it appeared Springlake was going to be too big and brawny for the Cyclones. But it wasn't long before the Cyclones decided the Wolverines might be big but they were going to have to fight for every yard they picked up. From then on, the Memphis boys had matters pretty well under control.

Even when the Springlake team smashed within scoring distance, our boys didn't scare or grow panicky but just kept plugging. It was no part of pure luck that when the Wolverines reached dangerous territory, they were either stopped, or the ball suddenly became very tricky and squirted out of the Springlake ball carrier's hands.

No, sir, it was the Cyclones' stubborn refusal to let the Wolverines run over them, combined with the jarring tackles and blocks the home boys were dishing out. Our boys were just getting into the Springlake backfield before runners had a chance to gain complete control of the ball. The ball carriers could hardly be blamed for letting the ball pop out of their hands when a Cyclone—or several of them—crashed into them.

So, we say again, congratulations, Coach Childress and every Cyclone. We are proud of you and your fine, hard-hitting sportsmanship.

We wish you all success in your game with Sundown at Plainview tomorrow afternoon.

But win or lose, play the game and future games—including that of Life—hard but clean. Therein lies real victory.

LEADERS WHO DISCREDIT

It has not been a pretty sight that people of the United States have been witnessing in the period since Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., made his accusations against former President Harry S. Truman.

As a matter of fact, the manner in which the matter has been handled, has reacted to the discredit of this nation, in the eyes of other peoples of the world. Sober-minded citizens of this country, no doubt, have been disturbed by the name-calling and at times, irrational behavior of some of the participants on both sides.

No wonder many people have described the whole thing as "just politics."

It is too bad that the whole thing could not have been carried on in the serious and thoughtful manner it deserved, instead of becoming a political football, and a maze of charges and counter-charges.

For there is no question that communists and persons with communist leanings, gained a great deal of power and influence in our federal government, particularly during war and post-war years.

Clear-cut proof of this has been obtained within the past few years from evidence, accumulated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and from testimony of persons who were themselves, communists at one time. Among these are Whitaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley. Personally, we believe it would be a good idea for a close watch to be kept on both Chambers and Miss Bentley, even though they have sworn they are no longer Reds, and even though they have apparently contributed much to exposing communists and their activities in the United States.

But to get back to Brownell's charges against the Truman administration.

Brownell probably would have had a much better chance of not being accused of playing politics if he had presented his case against the previous administration before the proper investigating bodies—as he eventually did—rather than at a dinner meeting in Chicago.

At the meeting, he, in effect, accused former President Truman of knowingly giving aid to a Soviet espionage agent (Harry Dexter White). Possibly he did not realize at the time, the exact implications of his speech, for he later softened his accusations somewhat when he attributed the former President's promotion of White to "blindness" rather than to disloyalty.

And, in our opinion, Mr. Truman did little to help his case in his reply to Brownell on radio and television.

We believe J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, presented a more dispassionate picture of communist activities in the United States, when he appeared before the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security.

Certainly, we do not think anyone could accuse Hoover of any political motives, because he had nothing to gain in this direction.

Our country already has suffered much at the hands of Soviet Russia and its henchmen in the United States. We do not need to have their sufferings increased by bickerings and actions, dictated by political motives.

We are entitled to, and should have—short of imperiling our national security—the complete, unbiased story of communist infiltration into the government of the United States.

We hope Mr. Truman, Mr. Brownell and everyone else who might like to make political capital out of this matter, will be big enough to do everything they can to wipe out this insidious and destructive influence in our government.

No United States citizen should knowingly give comfort to any group, such as the communists, if he can possibly help it. This nation deserves better treatment than that.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF AVIATION

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Press Paragraphs—

HUNTING COURTESY
Hunting is generally classified as a major sport. However, according to farmers and ranchers of this area, it is not solely pursued by sportsmen.

Opening of the current season on duck and geese created a flurry of business on "No Hunting" and "No Trespassing" signs. Farmers who would never have considered "posting" their property have taken steps in this direction in 1953.

Careless and thoughtless hunters are reported to have barged in on tracts all over the area. Ranchers report that their fences are cut promiscuously; gates are left down and less than 50 percent of the hunters even take the time or trouble to ask permission to hunt on a specified place.

Such action naturally boomerangs upon the true sportsman along with the careless hunter. No thinking person would justly blame the farmer and rancher for resenting such treatment. Asking permission to hunt on a man's place should be mandatory from the standpoint of courtesy.

The situation, all in all, was well summarized in a recent cartoon where a group of farm families invaded the backyard of a town resident, taking over his charcoal grill, throwing paper and garbage on his lawn—all without permission and with complete disregard for his rights as a property owner and tax payer. Perhaps if a few rural residents would retaliate on hunters with such tactics, the hunter might more fully realize the error of his ways.

TREND IS TO DEMOCRATS

The election in several states last week showed there is a decided trend to the Democratic party again.

The Democrats took the governorship of New Jersey for the first time in 10 years; they won a New Jersey congressional district for the first time since it was organized in 1932; easily retained the mayor's office in New York; defeated Republican nominees and incumbents in several other mayor's races in the North and retained the governor's office as expected in Virginia.

President Eisenhower tried to pass off the sweeping defeats as "skirmishes," declaring that he had lost those before. It is true that Eisenhower is more popular than his party but the trend is Democratic. In fact, the trend was not too strong Republican in 1952 except for the presidency.

Every one is expecting the Democrats to take control of congress overwhelmingly in the 1954 elections. That will leave President Eisenhower looking seriously at 1956. Whether he wants to be a lamb put up to slaughter or step out because of age will be his most serious problem.

Already there is talk that Gov. Tom Dewey will not run for reelection in New York in 1954; that he will be given a cabinet appointment and that he will be the 1956 candidate for the third time. It would be too bad for Dewey to lose a third time, but that's what he will do if he is the 1956 G. O. P. nominee.

RIGHT TO WORK

Fourteen states have passed right-to-work bills, Alabama being the latest. These bills vary in details, but all of them provide, as the Los Angeles Times expressed it, "that no worker may be denied employment or discriminated against because he is or is not a member of a union. The right to join a union is thus protected, and the corollary right not to join is also protected."

Both of these rights are vitally important to free labor, union or non-union. Under the closed shop or the union shop, the individual is powerless—if he is to hold his job and support his family he must stay in the union and pay it dues whether he wants to or not, and regardless of what he may think of the caliber and policies of union officials. Under the right-to-work idea on the other hand, where union membership is voluntary, union officials must please their members and give good service if they are to maintain the organization and hold their own jobs.

In signing Alabama's bill, Governor Persons pointed out that there are many national and regional organizations which have performed signal service for veterans, farmers, business groups, and others—and that in no case is membership compulsory. Then he said, "In my opinion, all of our labor unions will be far stronger and the members in them will have a far greater interest and respect in the organizations if membership can be shown to be desirable and they are not forced to join." In short, both fundamental individual rights and the cause of sound unionism itself are given basic protection in the right-to-work bill.

STATE CREWS BAITING TRAPS TO SNARE DEER

AUSTIN—Crews down on the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge have been baiting preliminary to the regular trapping season, according to W. C. Glazener, director of wildlife restoration for the Game and Fish Commission.

Glazener said the traps have been placed on a new line this year in the hope of reaching new herds of deer. The old line was abandoned because of the poor luck recently. Cottonseed cake is used for bait.

Only one hundred thirty-three deer were taken from the Refuge last year. This was an all-time low. The most deer ever taken in one season totaled almost seventeen hundred.

The 1953 catch is scheduled for transfer to newly established wildlife restoration and game management areas, mostly in north-east Texas.

Trapping of the big game is handled by Commission crews under a working arrangement with the Federal Government which controls the area.

Parents Should Plan Children's Lunches Carefully

AUSTIN—Now that schools are open parents should carefully plan their child's lunches, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The noon meal needs to be full of body-building, energy-giving nourishment that will help the child go through the day full of zest for learning and play without getting tired. A midday meal which has variety and is satisfying improves afternoon class work and general behavior. Whether a child buys his lunch at school, eats at home or takes his lunch with him it should contain at least one-third of the day's food requirement.

Lunch time at school can be a pleasant, social experience for the children. If the child is going to school for the first time, or if he is going to a new school, the teacher can help him get acquainted and find a friend to sit next to, so that he does not feel out of place and uncomfortable at the lunch table.

Good health habits can be taught during lunch time at school. The children should be trained to wash their hands before eating; also encouraged to take plenty of time eating and not gulp their food down so they can rush out and play. The mother should do the same when the child eats at home.

A metal box or pail makes the best lunch container. It should be washed and scalded daily and aired overnight. The thermos bottle will stay sanitary and sweet smelling if it is rinsed with soda water after thorough washing. Interesting and varied lunches make eating a pleasure and helps the children be alert, eager and contented in school, because good foods build strong bodies and happy children.

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Odom attended the Hardin-Simmons-Tech football game in Lubbock Saturday. They were joined there by their son, C. L. Odom of Portales.

Mrs. Roy Webster Rites Are Held At Methodist Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Roy Webster, who lived here for many years, were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the First Methodist Church of Memphis. Rev. W. M. Culwell, minister of the Methodist Church of Hedley, and Rev. Lloyd Hamilton, minister of the Methodist Church here, officiated.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, under direction of Murphy Spicer Funeral Home.

Mrs. Webster, who was living at Hedley, died last Wednesday night in Northwest Texas Hospital at Amarillo, after suffering a stroke a few hours earlier. She was visiting in Amarillo with a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Messer, at the time of her death. She was 70 years old.

She was born at Grapevine, Tex., March 24, 1887, and came to Hall County in 1893 with her parents, the late Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Wheeler. Reverend Wheeler was a minister in the Methodist Church.

The former Miss Cora Wheeler, she was married to Mr. Webster in Memphis, Aug. 3, 1902. The couple maintained their home in town but Mr. Webster engaged in farming. Mr. Webster, himself, was a member of a pioneer Hall County family. The Webster home place is just northeast of Memphis. Mr. Webster died here, Jan. 1, 1938.

Since then, Mrs. Webster had made her home with her children, living a major part of the time at Hedley with a daughter, Mrs. R. M. Saunders.

She was a member of the Methodist Church here and had been a member of the church since early childhood.

Survivors, other than Mrs. Messer and Mrs. Saunders, include three other daughters, Mrs. C. H. Messer of Littlefield, Mrs. Buford Curtis of Ventura, Calif., and Mrs. Houston Ferguson of Palm City, Calif.; two sons, Marvin and Loyd Webster, both of Littlefield; and 26 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Also surviving are three brothers, Rev. H. L. Wheeler of Guyton, Okla., Earl Wheeler of Sedalia, Mo., and Carl Wheeler of Caraway, Ark.; and five sisters, Mrs. Jim Webster of Memphis, Mrs. J. L. Brackeen of Dalhart, Mrs. Harry Jorns of Houston, Mrs. O. K. Stevens of Roswell, N.M., and Mrs. T. L. Bryant of Oxnard, Calif. Two children preceded her in death.

Pallbearers were grandsons of Mrs. Webster.

COLLEGE CHOIR—The 50-member A Cappella Choir of West Texas State College will appear here Wednesday night, under the sponsorship of the Memphis chapter of the WTSC Ex-Students Association. Under the direction of Dr. Houston Bright, the group will sing a wide variety of music, from Negro spirituals and Christmas hymns to some of the greatest choral music available. Two specialty groups, the Jazzbellies and the Men's Varsity Quartet, composed of members of the choir, will contribute several numbers. The program is scheduled to begin at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

DR. CLEO DAWSON WILL APPEAR ON TOWN HALL PROGRAM HERE, DEC. 14

Dr. Cleo Dawson, psychologist and lecturer, will appear in the auditorium of Memphis High School, Monday night, Dec. 14, in the second program of the season of the Hall County Town Hall Concert Association.

Miss Dawson was born on a Texas ranch, near the Rio Grande, and spoke Spanish before she did English. She early began to specialize in psychology, languages and human relations. She also has devoted sometime to travel, during which she studied modern psychological trends of the peoples of the world, to add to her practical knowledge.

In her childhood, she experienced privation, loneliness and sometimes danger. From this stemmed her search for the basic solution of the frustrations of human thinking. With the passing of the years, she has achieved a simple reality among the confusion of our modern world—a reality based on innate optimism, faith in the rightness of things, and the joy of living.

Miss Dawson is a graduate of the Baylor University School of Expression, holds her Bachelor's degree from Southern Methodist University, and her Master's and Doctor's degrees from the University of Kentucky, where she spent 10 years teaching. She also has done considerable writing.

several months, but people don't seem to worry. Guess we still have too much of Texas in us, for we keep wishing for rain. Mary is in the University of Arizona and loves it. Pete docks in San Diego Dec. 18th, and our grandchild is due Dec. 11, so I can tell you what it's like to live on a volcano. I am working too—receptionist for Western Cotton Oil. ### HEREFORD SALE AT CHILDRESS NEXT THURSDAY

The Greenbelt Hereford Breeders Association will hold a sale of quality cattle at Childress, Thursday, Dec. 10, according to an announcement this week by E. E. Silk of Newlin, president. The event will be staged at the Childress High School agricultural building, just north of the courthouse.

In all, 52 animals are to be offered for sale, Silk said. These consist of 20 females and 32 bulls. Consignors likely will include top breeders within a 200-mile radius of Childress, Silk explained.

Cattle will be judged, starting at 9 a. m., under the capable eye of C. M. Largent of Abilene. The sale is slated to begin at 12:30 p. m., with Col. Walter Britton of College Station, an auctioneer.

Tomie M. Potts of Memphis, is chairman of the sale committee. Other members are: Jake Hess of McLean; and Glenn Ross of Goodlett.

Association officers, other than Silk, are: Ross, vice-president and Bob Polson of Childress, secretary. Directors are: Clyde Gilbert of Clarendon; Dr. Bill Romaine of Crosbyton; Lee Atkinson of Throckmorton; and Floyd Roberts of Hollis, Okla.

march last Thursday by outscoring the heavier Springlake Wolverines.

Cyclone players generally should be in good condition for the battle with the Plains team. Coach George Childress said early this week that Jimmie Davis, halfback, still may not be in shape to play in the Sundown contest.

Sundown's wins included an early season victory over Olton, who lost on penetrations to the always strong Phillips squad, in a 2-A bi-district tilt at Amarillo last Friday afternoon.

The Roughnecks are led by Don Waygood, 168-pound senior halfback. Waygood has scored 181 points and passed for two other touchdowns this season.

The team is generally fast, although is not exceptionally speedy. Waygood, Jimmy McElroy and Nick Nichols are the top three scoring backs for Sundown.

The Roughnecks employ the split-T on offense, with Waygood and Nichols spearheading the running attack and Nichols and McElroy doing the passing.

Carson Woodall, Billy Anderson, Don Koonce, Cleatus Strader, Ronald Roberts, McElroy, Nichols and Waygood have chalked up the best defensive work for their team.

Sundown's wins, other than the one against Hale Center, are as follows: 52-0, Post; 28-27, Denver City; 32-27, Olton; 47-13, Seagraves; 52-13, Morton; 65-0, Whiteface; 29-13, Stanton; 59-20, O'Donnell; and 29-27, Meadow.

The Roughnecks' losses were: 12-13, Abernathy; and 19-34, Sudan.

At 7:30, there will be a free minstrel show, "Two Scared Coons." Special music will accompany the fun frolic.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyley Whitley visited Sunday in Phillips with Mr. and Mrs. Codie Fondron.

Comments — (Continued From Page One)

Comments circulation is gradually spreading out further and further. It now reaches as far as Fort Worth, as indicated by a letter from Mrs. Mattie Stanley, former Hall Countian. She writes: "I have been intending to write you for some time to tell you how much I enjoyed the Comments concerning your trip east and south. That's about all the traveling I get to do, reading of other people's travels, especially those to historic spots of our country's early days when they are described so plainly. My grandfather Blanks' family came from England to Virginia, grandfather from Virginia to Kentucky, father to Texas. My sons have been to a lot of places while in service, thanks to War."

"I'm still in Texas, and think it is a wonderful place. Isn't it wonderful to be an American. Now, Mr. Wells, I didn't find your comments in last week's paper. Hope it was just a full, happy Thanksgiving week that kept you from writing. Am sending check to renew my paper and one to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blanks in Amarillo as a Christmas gift from me. I'll likely be here all winter. Wishing for you and Mrs. Wells a very Happy Christmas and a real good next year and good wishes to The Democrat staff."

COTTON HARVEST IN HALL COUNTY NEARS WINDUP

Cotton ginnings in Hall County had climbed to 11,570 bales, according to a report from the Texas Employment Commission the latter part of last week. Total production was estimated at 14,000 bales.

The report indicated that all cotton in the county was open and 84 per cent of it had been harvested. Crop condition was listed as poor.

Dry weather of the past week or more had enabled producers to work early and late gathering their cotton. This situation was altered to some extent Tuesday by light dampness. Harvesting in the Memphis area probably was halted altogether Wednesday by light to heavy showers. Moisture was apparently lighter west of Memphis but heavier south and southeast.

Precipitation late Wednesday afternoon measured .10 of an inch in Memphis, according to Weatherman John McMicken. One report from southeast of town placed the amount at .30 of an inch, and a light drizzle continued until late Wednesday evening.
