Additional $25,000 For Erosion Control

An additional allotment of $25,000 was made to Hall County over the weekend for use in controlling wind erosion, according to Lynn L. McKown, manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office here. This brings the total, allotted to the county, to $85,900. McKown said that all except a small portion of the money had been applied for Tuesday morning. The county originally was allotted $35,400 for wind erosion work but applications quickly exhausted this. Another allotment of $25,500 was assigned to the county. However, this still was not sufficient to finance the wind erosion program in the county and (Continued On Page 12)

County Agent Stresses Importance Of Adequate Grain Storage Facilities

Each day brings the problem of what to do with this year's grain crops closer to the critical stage, declares County Agent W. B. Hooser, who explains that a rush by producers to market large quantities of any grain is certain to depress prices and cut farm income. Orderly marketing, he says, can help the situation, adding that adequate storage, on and off the farm, is a "must" for proper marketing. Commercial storage facilities now are filled to near capacity. Authorized new construction may be sufficient to take care of grain and other small grains but the anticipated heavy production of grain sorghums is sure to cause a critical situation unless producers plan at once to take care of their own needs, the county agent says. Moisture conditions over the state are such, he continues, that

Summer Recreation Plans Are Made Friday Evening

Plans for a summer recreation program which will include softball and tennis were made Friday night at a meeting in the City Park amphitheatre, according to Ted Myers, director of the program. Several softball teams have been lined up and more teams are being organized this week in the Peeewe, Junior and Senior leagues. Myers urges any boys in these leagues who want to organize a team, to see him as soon as possible, as he says the summer schedule can be completed as soon as team brackets are finished. He says team captains must get their teams in the leagues immediately. Two teams are being organized in the Peeewe League. They are the Philip Duncan Rattlers and the Don Watts Eagles. They will play the opening game of the league in a twilight contest, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The Junior League already has two teams organized. They are the Red Devils, captained by Swayne McCauley, and the Wildcats, captained by Charles Massey. They are scheduled to play at 8 o'clock Friday evening. Both contests will be played at the city softball park. The Senior League is now being organized, Myers said. A practice game has been scheduled for tonight. Further organizational plans are to be made at this time. Jimmy West is captain of the Rebels, who will play in this league. Ages of each league are as follows: Peeewe, 7 to 11 years; Junior, 11 to 14; and Senior, 14 to 19. At present, the Cardinals and Tornados squads are being reactivated. Frank Smith, Jr., will be the softball league coach. Tennis play will be under the supervision of Mrs. R. E. Crooks. There will be two divisions. They are the Junior, for boys and

Office Manager Explains Various Hall County A. S. C. Farm Programs

An explanation of the various farm programs for which the Hall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office here is responsible, was made this week by Lynn L. McKown, office manager. McKown said he was releasing the explanation because not everyone is fully aware of the various work done by the A. S. C. here. Four programs are sponsored by the Hall County A. S. C. They are: production adjustment; price support; defense food; and storage facilities. The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, authorizes the adjustment of supplies, through acreage allotments, and adjustment of such basic commodities as cotton and wheat, through marketing quotas, when-

First New Wheat Reaches Memphis Monday Morning

The first load of 1954 Hall County wheat arrived in Memphis Monday morning, according to Omer Hill, who purchased the grain. Hill owns and operates Omer Hill Elevator. The load weighed 7,500 pounds. The grain had a weight of 60 pounds to the bushel and a moisture content of 15.25, according to Hill. The wheat was brought here by A. E. Ward, who combined the grain Friday on land belonging to Tommie M. Potts of Memphis. The farm is located 4 miles west of Estelline. This is the third successive year that wheat from the Potts' farm has been first to reach here. Potts said the wheat was cutting about nine bushels to the acre but that the yield should improve, with a final average of 10 bushels to the acre or better. Wheat land on the farm totals 146 acres, Potts said. Ward brought in a second load Monday afternoon. The total weight was 8,460 pounds, according to Hill. The grain weighed 60 pounds to the bushel and had a moisture content of 13.98.

Sixteen winners and sixteen alternates were chosen this year. There are eight boys and eight girls in each category. The 4-H group will be accompanied by personnel from Producers Grain Corporation and the Texas Extension Service. The winners and alternates were determined by an Extension Service committee. District IV, in which Roy Alvin is the alternate, covers about 18 counties, according to Hooser. Everything From Sand To Showers Occurs Past Week

Weather of nearly every kind visited Memphis and the surrounding area the past week, interfering with crop planting. Included have been dust and sand, light to heavy showers, waspish winds, damaging hail, and electrical storms. Heaviest rain appeared to occur in the Lakeview, Lesley and Brice areas. Rains of around an inch were reported there late Sunday afternoon, with hail at some points which caused damage to houses and outbuildings. The Turkey area also was reported to have had heavy rain. Showers were lighter in this section. Precipitation in Memphis totaled .20 of an inch, according to Weatherman John McMickin. Southeast of the city, amounts ranged from .50 to .70 of an inch, reports indicated. Immediately west of town, one farmer reported .30 of an inch. The downpours were accomplished by thunder and lightning and a small amount of hail. The moisture played out north of Newlin. The Estelline area also had no showers. Late Tuesday afternoon, a swift moving cold front set off very light precipitation, hardly enough to settle dust in Memphis and (Continued on page 12)

Farm Exports In March Are Above February's Totals

COLLEGE STATION—Farm exports from the United States were three per cent higher in March than in the preceding month. Shipments during the month totaled $244,000,000, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

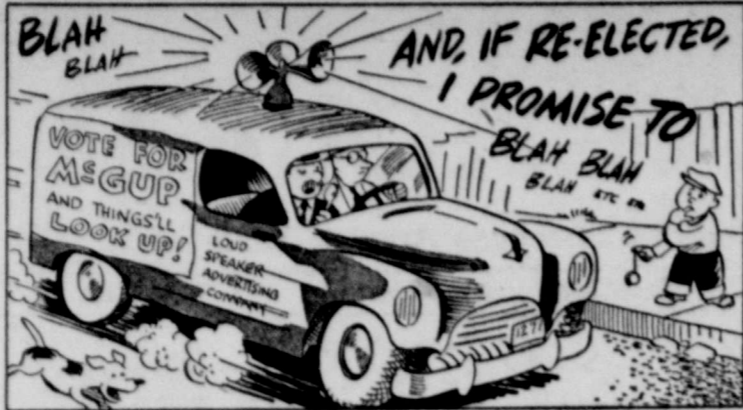

For the ninth month, July-March period shipments abroad totaled $2,148,000,000, or one per cent less than the corresponding 1952-1953 period. March 1954 exports approximated those of the corresponding month a year ago.

The upward trend in cotton exports continued, rice shipments remained above the previous year and shippings of vegetable oils and peanuts were above March, 1953.

Tobacco shipments were seasonally small, but oranges reached an unusually high level.

Foreign demands for United States wheat has declined principally because of smaller world needs, greater world production and keener international trade competition, the U. S. D. A. says. Other grains, including barley, corn and grain sorghums were affected by the same factors and showed reduced exports compared to the previous year.

Public Is Urged To Consume More Dairy Products

COLLEGE STATION—"How about another glass of milk, Mom. June is Dairy Month."

Ten thousand dairy herds furnish Grade A milk for Texans, both young and old, and dairying adds $200,000,000 annually to the state's farm income.

Dairy month coincides with the period of highest milk production and surpluses are causing problems for producers. If consumers would step up their purchases of milk and other dairy products, these surpluses would soon disappear, says R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman.

The extra milk is being made into ice cream, cheese, butter and evaporated condensed and powdered milk. Dairy products are hailed as nature's most perfect food.

Burleson says milk production is several billion pounds above the national average, but consumption per capita is down about 17 per cent. From a dairymen's standpoint, this accentuates the importance of efficient marketing.

This month everyone is urged to "have an extra glass" and to eat more ice cream, cheese and other wholesome products from the dairy farm.

Dairy products help build stronger Texans!

Texas Fishermen Aiding State In Improvement Work

AUSTIN—Texas fresh-water fishermen are being recruited by aquatic biologists to advance a creel census as a key factor in fish improvement projects at several large lakes.

Marion Toole, chief aquatic biologist, said dozens of fishermen are being checked each month, mainly by field men operating at the landing docks. The checks at Caddo Lake near Marshall necessarily have to be made on the highway.

The angler is asked to permit his catch to be counted and measured and to tell how many hours it required to make his catch. Length-weight curves have been compiled on the various reservoirs under study. Consequently, weights can be ascertained from the length of the fishes.

Such curves, made several years ago, reveal that a two-pound black bass from Possum Kingdom would be 13 1/2 inches long; or 16 inches long on Medina Lake; 17 inches on Lake Travis; and 15 1/4 on Texoma.

The variations in weight on the measurement basis themselves provide the field men with data in their study of condition factors, and thus accelerate plans to strengthen food sources in the lagging lakes.

The creel census is designed to determine the catch of fish per man hour; types of fish caught; and a combined total of annual fish production on the lakes being studied.

Lakes now being used in the creel census are: Devils Lake, near Del Rio; Medina near San Antonio; Lake Travis near Austin; Nasworthy and San Angelo near San Angelo; Whitney near Hillsboro; Caddo near Marshall; and Lake Corpus Christi at Mathis.

The chief aquatic biologist said other lake areas will be checked later as additional phases of the state-wide fish management program are put into effect.

"On behalf of our field men," he said, "I hope fishermen will understand the necessity for this creel check and cooperate fully. Frankly, the anglers stand to benefit in the long run."

Pathfinders' Council Observes 25th Anniversary With Luncheon, Program

Observing the 25th anniversary of the club, the Pathfinder's Council concluded the year's activities with a luncheon in the Cyclone Drive Inn on May 24.

An attractive and delicious meal was served from a long banquet table which was decorated with lovely roses and larkspur. Mrs. Charles Williams gave the invocation.

After being seated each member found a surprise gift by her appointed place. The gift, "A Kitchen Prayer Plaque" was presented by the president, Mrs. Hall Nelson.

Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, as program leader of the day, introduced the program, opening with the quotation, "The highest reward for men's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it." Highlighting the program, Mrs. W. F. McElreath presented a most interesting and entertaining account of the Clubs History, giving a review of the outstanding activities, programs, and socials of the Club over the past twenty-five years. She displayed clippings, pictures, yearbooks, and favors, recalling various past club members, which gave the present Club members a good background of the work of the Club. She presented her honor guest of the day, Mrs. H. B. Bennett, a charter member. Summing up this year's work on "The Path of Friendship," the programs on Mental Health, with Mrs. Jerry Wright as guest speaker; "Our American Heritage;" and the original play given by the Speech Class of the Memphis High School were the outstanding ones. Under Youth Conservation, the club presented the class with a five dollar check, also cooperated with sponsoring the Youth Canteen. A big box of clothing, costume jewelry, and leather goods was sent to the Indian Reservation at Livingston. The Games Night Party held in the home of Mrs. Anna Dickson, with proceeds going to the Polio Drive, and contribution to Restoration of Independence Hall were among the important new projects. The Tea Honoring "Grandmothers" was reported most enjoyable social. A total of seventy-five dollars of U. S. Saving Bonds was purchased by the Club.

Mrs. Charles Williams in a very impressive manner installed the following officers for 1954-55: president, Mrs. Hall Nelson; vice president, Mrs. Earl Pritchett; Recording secretary, Mrs. Clarence Baxter; Corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. O. Gidden; treasurer, Mrs. W. F. McElreath; parliamentarian, Mrs. A. Gidden; critic, Mrs. Anna Dickson; reporter, Mrs. Gene Chamberlain; librarian, Mrs. Charles Williams. Mrs. Earl Pritchett, as program chairman, presented the past president, Mrs. Hall Nelson with a lovely gift from the club, in appreciation of her leadership.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers
Congressman, 18th District

Pending Legislation
There is a great deal of legislation to be acted upon by this House before adjournment. The major bills which have passed by the House but have not yet been acted upon by the Senate are the St. Lawrence Development, the House-Steinhardt Development, and Public Grant-in-Aid Amendments.

Other important items are the following:
APPROPRIATIONS: The appropriations bills yet to be passed by the House are: (1) Labor and Health, Education and Welfare; (2) District of Columbia; (3) Foreign Operations, there will probably be one or two supplemental appropriations bills brought before the House. Of the eight appropriations bills passed by the House this session, the Senate has passed only three, namely, the Office of Treasury and Civil Control, and Army Civil Control. The Senate is presently considering the agricultural ap-

SOCIAL SECURITY: The Ways and Means Committee has just approved H. R. 9366, Social Security Amendments for 1954. Under the provisions of the bill as approved by the committee, it is estimated that coverage will be extended to about ten million persons not now covered. In finally approving the bill, the committee reversed a previous decision to extend coverage to doctors, internes, student nurses, policemen and firemen. By the time you read this, the House will probably have taken action on the Social Security bill, as it is scheduled to be brought to the Floor of the House on June 1st.

AGRICULTURE: The agricultural committees of both the House and Senate have had extensive hearings on general farm program legislation, including proposals on price supports and disposal of surpluses. This, of course, is one of the most important measures to be acted upon by this Congress.

TAXES: The Senate Finance Committee is presently working on the House-passed general tax revision bill, H. R. 8300. As I mentioned in a previous news-letter, this bill consists of 820 pages, in small print. The Senate committee has held hearings on the bill and has had it under consideration in executive session for the past two weeks. It is estimated that the committee will hold executive sessions on the bill for about two more weeks.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT: The Senate Judiciary Committee has approved a proposed Constitutional amendment "to enable Congress to function effectively by appointing members of the House if a disaster should create more than 145 vacancies."

Motorists Advised To Take It Easy Behind The Wheel

"Speed kills, take it easy!" This warning has been issued by Col. E. B. Tilley of Houston, President of the Texas Safety Association, who stressed the need for speed control as a curb on traffic accidents. He spoke on behalf of the speed control program the Texas Safety Association is conducting this month in co-operation with the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council.

"More than 25 per cent of the drivers involved in fatal traffic accidents annually are violating a speed law at the time of the accident," Col. Tilley said, "it is impossible to determine to what extent speed is to blame in any single accident. However, he pointed out that we know enough about speed to make us realize that it's dynamite if used unwisely.

"For instance," he said, "a speeding car travels a greater distance between the time the brakes are applied and the time the car stops than a slower-moving vehicle. Obviously, a driver's chance of hitting an object that suddenly looms in his path increase as his speed increases."

To illustrate his point, Col. Tilley said that a car with good brakes can stop in about 21 feet after the brakes are applied from a speed of 20 miles per hour. It will take about 189 feet for the car to stop if the speed is 60 miles per hour.

"Another dangerous factor about speed," he said, "is that force of impact is increased much more rapidly than speed—at twice the speed, for example, you hit four times as hard.

"In other words," Col. Tilley said, "if your car hits a fixed obstacle when you're going 20 miles an hour it will suffer as much damage as if it were dropped from a height of 13 feet onto a concrete highway. But if you hit the same object when you're doing 60, the car will be damaged as much as if it were dropped from a 10 story building."

Nearly 600,000 Begin Getting SSA Benefits In 1953

During 1953, almost 600,000 men and women retired from their work and began to receive monthly payments under the old-age and survivors insurance system, according to John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office.

This increase, Sanderson said, points up two facts: There is a steady increase in the number of aged persons in relation to our total population; and, the number of persons entitled to old-age benefits is rapidly increasing as the program approaches maturity. Thirty-six million people in the United States are now over 50 years old and 13 million are over 65. Four out of each five persons of the 36 million over age 50, are employed in work covered by the present social security program.

Planned retirement—either elected by the worker, or forced by the employer, the worker's health or other reasons—is much simpler, Sanderson added, if the worker can estimate the amount he and his family will have from the social security program. This estimate can be made, he said, by the use of a free booklet, OASI-30, "How To Estimate Social Security Payments" which can be obtained at any social security office.

A representative from the Amarillo office of the Social Security Administration will be in the commissioners' courtroom in Memphis, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The annual Texas 4-H Roundup will be held on the campus of Texas A & M College, June 8-10. Some 1,600 delegates from every section of the state are expected to attend.

Horticulture Professor Discusses Progress Of Gardens At Texas Tech

(The following is another in a series of garden hints to home gardeners on the Plains. The series, written by Dr. George Elle, professor of horticulture at Texas Tech, is in the interest of better home gardens.)

This is the time when gardeners like to talk shop over the back fence and compare notes on how their gardens are coming on.

At Texas Tech some 75 students planted small vegetable gardens as part of their regular course work. These plots were seeded during the first week of March and represent about what any West Texas gardener can expect.

Plots which were not well protected from blowing took a sand blasting and had to be planted a month later. Most of the gardens, although not protected from the wind, were protected from blowing by rough-breaking the soil and keeping it rough and came through in excellent shape. This demonstrates very well that just about anyone in West Texas, who can or will take trouble to protect his plot from severe blowing can plant vegetables in March.

Early planting in the cool season yields fresh vegetables in late April and early May. In our Tech gardens, early radishes are gone and the boys are beginning to pull the second planting. Mustard, turnip and collard greens have been large enough to harvest for the past two weeks and are now in their prime quality. This growth has been during a period relatively free from insect troubles—another advantage in early planting.

We transplanted cabbage, broccoli, tomatoes, peppers and eggplant during the last week of April and favorable cool weather brought these transplants along in good style. Our tomato transplants were not as good quality this year as in former years, but they are recovering rapidly and should be in bloom in another week or so. Our six-inch tall cabbage and broccoli transplants were grown in plant bands so that the root system was intact when we transplanted to the field, the main reason for their excellent growth since.

So far this season we have had only one serious set-back because of insects. Late in March, when plants were in the seedling stage, we had trouble with the flea beetle. Application of 5 per cent DDT gave quick control.

You can expect trouble from curly-top in tomatoes about now. This could result in 100 per cent loss. To save your plants use malathion of 5 per cent DDT in 50 per cent sulphur. Apply weekly.

We lost practically all of our spinach from "yellows," a virus disease. We had not been troubled by this disease in previous years; so failed to use the resistant varieties, such as Virginia Savoy, which we certainly shall use in the future.

To stress the importance of fertilizer, each year, unknown to the student, we apply fertilizer in a pattern which gives areas of high nitrogen, of medium nitrogen and of no fertilizer. Already these patterns are showing up markedly in the growth of the plants. Greens from areas receiving high nitrogen have been available since late April; those from areas of no fertilizer will not be ready for some time yet.

Train Schedules Are Speeded Up

Schedules of two Fort Worth & Denver passenger trains through Memphis will be speeded up Sunday, resulting in a reduction of 8 1/2 to 9 hours in travel time between the Panhandle and the Gulf Coast country, according to John McMickin, station agent here.

Trains affected are northbound No. 8, which now leaves here at 5:49 a. m., and southbound No. 7, which now leaves Memphis at 10:28 a. m. in the future, No. 8 will leave at 5:45 a. m., and No. 7 will leave at 9:44 a. m. The Zephyrs will not be affected by the new schedule.

The southbound passenger will reach Dallas at 4:40 p. m., to connect with the streamline Sam Houston Zephyr, scheduled out of Dallas at 5 p. m., and arriving in Houston at 9 p. m. This will contrast with the present 6:30 a. m. arrival in Houston on the next day.

Also included in the new schedule is an earlier arrival in Denver. The evening train will arrive at Denver at 7 p. m., and connect with transcontinental trains for the Pacific Coast, shortening travel time as much as 12 hours to destinations in the Pacific Northwest.

Speed Urged In Removing Stains

COLLEGE STATION—Speed is the best stain remover! Whether it's chocolate ice cream on baby's rompers or ink on your school child's clothes, speed is the key to successful removal.

If the stain is treated before it dries, the chances of removing it are increased. To remove ice cream stains, use cold water immediately and then wash in warm soap suds.

To remove ink stains, let water run through the spot before it dries if possible. Equal parts of glycerin and water makes another good remover, say clothing specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

For information on removing all types of stains, from eggs to ink to iron rust, write the Agricultural Information Office at College Station for a copy of the booklet "Removing Stains from Clothing."

Four rows at a time with the Allis-Chalmers front-mounted cultivator for WD and WD-45 Tractors slashes your cost of weed control sharply. More acres are covered—your entire crop is cultivated quickly when it counts most.

For quick hitching, front gangs are hinged like a gate. Simply drive in. This, together with Power-Shift wheels, saves valuable get-ready time.

Big, sturdy bearings hold gangs true so there's no weed dodging. Parallel linkage assures better penetration yet permits each gang to float freely, even over rough ground.

STAR Agriculture

Insect Control Progress
Research scientists have now announced another forward step in the battle of Man vs. Insects.

One of the latest insecticides from the crucibles of the research laboratories is Endrin, a chemical believed to be effective against a large number of cotton pests in South Carolina and Tamaulipas, Mexico.

At Florence, S. C., Endrin treated plots yielded gains in seed cotton of up to 746 pounds per acre. In Mexico, its use increased the seed cotton yield 1,071 pounds on an acre during a heavy boll weevil infestation.

The new formula has been found to be the best insecticide for tested against the combination of the bollworm and the pink bollworm, two of cotton's most destructive enemies. Several other cotton pests are also hit hard by Endrin, according to entomologists.

Fire Sunday Damages Two-Room Dwelling

Fire early Sunday morning caused several hundred dollars damage to the interior of a two-room dwelling in northeast Memphis, belonging to Mrs. Dolly Ford. Members of the fire department made a run to the scene and brought the blaze under control.

Miss Helen Madden, who is an instructor in the Geneseo, Ill., high school, arrived here Sunday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Madden.

Be SAFE This Summer—ASWIM and Afloat

If you find yourself suddenly in trouble, don't reach for the sky. That's the quickest way down. Keep arms below surface and try to lie flat in water to keep afloat.

Pick a safe place for bathing, preferably one supervised by life guards. At least be sure someone is nearby who can help you if you get into difficulty. Distances are deceiving—swim half as far from shore as you think you can, then you'll have strength to swim back.

Endrin Described As An 'All-Purpose' Cotton Insecticide

COLLEGE STATION—Endrin, a newcomer to the insecticide world, this year takes the cotton insecticide spotlight. Entomologists report that it comes as close to an all-purpose cotton insect control as anything yet tested.

A close relative to dieldrin, endrin is now widely used to control bollworms, boll weevils, thrips, cotton leafworms, cotton fleahoppers and lygus bugs.

Endrin appears for the first time this year in the official Texas cotton insect control recommendations. U. S. Department of Agriculture researchers have tried it under a wide variety of growing conditions in Texas, Louisiana, South Carolina and Mexico.

In Texas, endrin is recommended for boll weevil and cotton leafworm control at rates of one-fourth to one-third of a pound to the acre. Bollworm treatments call for applications of one-third of a pound per acre.

This welcome newcomer, however, does not control pink bollworms, aphids and spider mites. And like other insecticides, specialists caution users of endrin to adhere closely to the directions not only to cotton pests, but also to man and warm-blooded animals.

In 1953, 269,360 pedestrians were injured in U. S. traffic accidents.

Mowing alone will not build a good pasture. The pasture soil must be sufficiently fertile to produce good yields from grasses or legumes either growing naturally or from seedings.

Tips Given On Fixing Electric Fans For Summer

COLLEGE STATION—An electric fan that roars like a jet plane or shakes the house with vibrations can be "tuned up" to send silent gentle breezes as warm weather arrives.

Pouring oil on troubled fans is not the whole cure. Manufacturer's directions will show correct oiling. Ordinarily, fans need lubricating only once a year. If the fan is run a great deal, it may need oil more frequently. However care must be taken not to over-oil and soak the insulation in the motor, warns Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

A loose screw may cause vibrations. Dirt on the blades will cause the blade to be unbalanced. If the blades are soiled with oily grease, clean them with a damp soapy cloth or a cloth dipped in kero-

Red Arms For Guatemala

The United States Government is justifiably disturbed over the recent unloading at a Guatemalan port of 10 million dollars worth of communist arms and ammunition.

For anyone at all familiar with communist tactics and aims knows that this action likely will mean trouble in the future, possibly involving bloodshed, unless enough pressure can be put on the reds—including Moscow masterminds—to thwart Soviet expansionist intentions in the Western Hemisphere.

The communists began spreading their power and control in other parts of the globe during the Second World War and have continued this policy ever since.

This was serious enough when it was restricted to foreign countries but it is much more so, now that the reds have extended their operations to this hemisphere—a direct challenge to the Monroe Doctrine.

President Monroe presented the principle of the Doctrine to Congress in 1823 and the United States has followed it since then. In substance, it states that this country is the paramount power in the Western Hemisphere and will regard any attempt on the part of a European power (this probably would be expanded to include any foreign country) to obtain a foothold by conquest or to acquire any new establishment on the American continent as an act hostile to the United States.

This policy was adopted by our government to circumvent actions or possible actions which would be considered detrimental to the best interests of this nation and this hemisphere.

Now this fundamental belief of our country is being tested again. Leaders in Washington no doubt are watching the Guatemalan situation closely and in the meantime are devoting a great deal of time to working out plans for meeting any dangerous developments.

We are a peace-loving people, who value our lives and the lives of other human beings. Communist leaders, on the other hand, have little regard for their peoples, mercilessly sacrificing them in the Soviet bid for world domination.

This regard of ours for humans apparently has worked to the advantage of the reds, based on their gains within recent years.

It may well be that the time has come when we are going to have to reappraise the world situation, now that the communists have moved into one of the countries in our part of the globe.

We may be forced, regardless of our normal feelings, to tell the Soviets that, as far as we are concerned, the Monroe Doctrine is still in effect, and that if they, or their tools, undertake to use force in the Western Hemisphere, they will do so at their risk.

This will be a difficult decision to make but should be less dangerous, it seems to us, than to open the door to piece-by-piece territorial grabs, such as the reds have made in other sections of the world.

Slow Down And Live!

Texas and 12 other Southern States have joined 11 Northeastern states in a "Slow Down and Live!" campaign to control highway speeds during the peak of summer travel.

The campaign is to be conducted in 24 states from Maine to Texas for the purpose of preventing as many highway traffic casualties as possible between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

J. O. Musick of Austin, has been named safety coordinator for Texas.

In explaining the reason for the campaign, Musick declared:

"Traffic accidents are more than an important social and economic problem—they are a national tragedy! The experience of states, counties and municipalities tells that nine out of ten accidents result from the action of drivers afflicted with the 'in a hurry' complex—the 'me first' attitude. On the highways this viewpoint is expressed in the traffic violations involving SPEED, including: speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, failing to yield right of way, improper passing, and plain, excessive speed."

If drivers will give their wholehearted support to this campaign, more of them, their passengers, and pedestrians will still be around when Labor Day passes.

Coffins For Children

You wouldn't knowingly and intentionally murder a child, would you? But you can, nevertheless, kill a child—or several—if you are careless.

How can you do this, you ask?

Simply by failing to fix doors of abandoned refrigerators or ice boxes so they will not imprison children who crawl inside and let the doors slam, while playing.

Fortunately, no youngsters have lost their lives in this area because of adult carelessness of this kind. However, all of us should take every precaution to make certain that no tragedy like this does sadden the lives of our family or those of any of our friends and neighbors.

It will not take too much time or trouble for any of us to guarantee the safety of all of our young boys and girls. Even if it did, wouldn't it be worth it?

All that has to be done to make such boxes harmless is remove the doors, or remove the latch or latch-stop and rip the rubber gasket from the doors.

If boxes are used as general storage cabinets, drill holes through them and remove gaskets, so anyone caught inside can breathe.

Boxes which are stored temporarily in basements or garages, should be turned facing walls, so they can't be opened by children.

Please follow this advice, wherever it applies, and make life safer for our children.

DIFFERENT TOWN

The people who live in Condon, Ore., must be different from most of us. The commercial club of the town, an organization serving the same purpose as a chamber of commerce, has requested the federal government to reduce the figure appropriated for building a post office there.

Condon is about the size of Bovina. A $215,000 building had been proposed, but the commercial club rose up and said they would like to have a post office all right, but didn't want the government to spend that much on one.

The club unanimously passed a resolution, stressing that "economy begins at home," and they requested their congressmen to pare down the appropriation.

STATE DEPARTMENT RULE

Foreign Administrator Harold Stassen's recent meeting with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has just shocked such Repu-lican Party stalwarts as Senator Homer Ferguson, Senator Alexander Smith, Senator Theodore Green and Senator Bourke Hickenlooper.

Stassen calmly told the committee that under an agreement recently entered into with Britain and France, we would now seek ways and means to broaden and expand our trade with Russia.

The cock-eyed theory Stassen offered to defend the action was that if Russia were offered trade expansion it would encourage her production of non-warlike materials and lessen her concentration on armaments.

Thus, American markets would be again raided by Russian slave labor at the expense of our own standard of living and national economy.

Thus, while Mr. Dulles has been bristling with publicized opposition to Russia, we have really surrendered to Britain's long desire to make a dime by trading with our enemy.

This is a continuation of State Department blindness that shipped scrap iron to Japan up to the time they were ready to use it for murdering Americans at Pearl Harbor.

Senator Ferguson said if it was necessary to sweeten up Russia like this, why not ship to Communist China and was blandly told that China was an aggressor.

The starting thing about this is that even top ranking Administration Senators knew nothing of it until the agreement was made into policy.

In other words, executive department heads are making all the trade agreements that concern our domestic economy without consulting any duly elected representatives of our people.

Similar disclosures recently came to light when it was found that our farm surpluses had been allowed to accumulate while State Department and USDA had, for foreign policy reasons, virtually prevented any exportation on a competitive basis with other countries.

VOTE ON COURTHOUSE BONDS NEXT SATURDAY — Voters of Hall County will determine whether or not a bond issue of $150,000 will be authorized to pay for the erection of a new courthouse on the site of the old building, in an election Saturday.

MEMPHIS MAN IS LOST IN MOUNTAINS, PROBABLY LOST LIFE—Richard Cox of Memphis lost his way in the New Mexico mountains last Thursday while out with a Memphis hunting party and has probably perished from exposure.

Members of the hunting party returned Tuesday, after conducting a long search for the missing man. People in the Las Vegas, N. M., area were secured to continue treaty and by non-elective department heads that Republican Senator Bricker sought to curb with the Bricker Amendment which the Administration managed to kill in Congress.

All of America is opposed to free trade with slave ridden Russia and will be as shocked by such action as were these Republican senators. Yet a small State Department and Foreign Administration clique places the policy in force and answers to no one.

We who boast of our democracy, had best start wondering how life and death decisions of this kind can be made without any knowledge or consent of anyone responsible to John Q. Citizen, for election.

Clenton Srygley Home Is Scene For Shower Honoring Miss Jo Ann Hart

On Thursday evening, May 27, the home of Mrs. Clenton Srygley was the scene for a colorful miscellaneous shower given to honor Miss Jo Ann Hart, daughter of Bill Hart, both of Memphis. Miss Hart is the bride-elect of Gene Hamill of Shamrock. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Srygley who presented Miss Hart. Other members of the receiving line included Mrs. Curtis Hamill, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. C. A. Hightower, grandmother of Miss Hart; Mrs. Lena Horn, grandmother of Mr. Hamill, two aunts of Mr. Hamill, and some close friends.

The center of interest in the living room was a mantel arrangement of a huge styrofoam heart set with white and red rose buds among tiny love birds nestled. The dining table was laid with an exquisite cut work linen cloth and centered with two styrofoam hearts pierced by an arrow. Across these were the names "Jo and Gene;" red and white rose buds featured this decoration. Matching punch bowls added to the beauty of the table. The bride's book was intertwined with long garlands of rose buds attached to white and red satin ribbon. Three bedrooms were used for an artistic arrangement of the profusion of gifts, attestations of the popularity of the honoree.

In harmony with the occasion the sandwiches were cut in the shape of bells and wedding rings; the mints were in the shape of hearts; and the cake squares accented the bride's chosen colors of red and white.

Mrs. Carl Lee, Jr., of Lockney, Tex., and Miss Frankye Srygley attended the bride's register; Mesdames Glynn Thompson, S. J. King, Ernest Lee, and Miss Cora Lee presided at the punch table.

Hostesses included Mesdames Roden, Mack Graham, Coy Davis, Ernest Lee, S. J. King, O. R.

Goodall, Gene Corley, Dewey Myers, E. M. Murphy, Glynn Thompson, B. O. Shankle, Carl Lee, Jr., Bill Merrill, Jeanette Irons, Lois Smith, Bill Dunn, and Clenton Srygley; and Misses Gereta Graham, Dink Dennis, Cora Lee, and Leota Wines.

County 4-H Boys Attend Leadership Training Course

Three Hall County boys returned Saturday from a 4-H leadership training camp at Buffalo Gap. The training course opened Wednesday and continued through Saturday.

The youths, all 4-H Club members, are Roy Alvin Molloy of Lakeview, John Deaver of Memphis, and Gary Cox of the Baylor community.

They were accompanied by County Agent W. B. Hooser, who joined with other county agents and home demonstration agents to serve as instructors. Hooser taught classes in safety.

Four-H members were divided into five groups. Deaver was elected leader of his group.

Each group studied safety, leadership, health, recreation and swimming.

After instruction was concluded in each class, members presented skits, giving the teachings practical application.

Boys who attended the training course were chosen on the strength of their 4-H achievements.

Youths of this county made the trip through the courtesy of L. C. Martin, in behalf of the First State Bank of Memphis. Martin is executive vice-president of the bank.

All of the boys stated that they received invaluable training on leadership at the camp, according to the county agent.

Approximately 100 4-H Club members, adult leaders, and agents attended the camp, which was the first of its kind to be held by Extension Service District III, of which Hall County is a part.

No Serious Injuries In Accident Sunday

No one was injured seriously Sunday morning in a two-car collision which occurred at the intersection of Eighth and Bradford streets, according to Chief of Police Guy Wright.

The mishap involved automobiles, driven by W. B. Funk and S. D. Saxon, both of Memphis. Funk was going south on Eighth Street and Saxon was headed east on Bradford Street at the time of the collision, the officer said.

Funk suffered a scratched knee, according to Wright. The Saxon car was damaged so extensively that it had to be towed away but Funk drove his automobile to his home, about a block away.

There was some dust early Wednesday morning but this soon cleared away and the weather was good, although slightly cooler than it had been.

Larger bins or structures should cost less on a bushel basis. Drying equipment would increase the cost. However, sell when markets are over-supplied, Hooser says.

The county agent points out that storage space can be constructed for from 40 to 60 cents a bushel, including equipment for this equipment usually is not necessary, except in the more humid areas of the state.

Hooser suggests a visit to his office in the courthouse in Memphis for blueprints for buildings which can be utilized for grain storage, as well as other purposes. He says inquiry also should be made at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in the courthouse for detailed information on grain and facility loans.

door. The boys crawled through the opening and then used a rod to pry open a door between the kitchen and the front of the cafe. All that was found were three packages of cigarettes, Chief of Police Guy Wright said.

Heading north on Front Street the youths stopped at the cafe. They cut a screen on the side of the restaurant and tried the back door without success. When some night police passed, the boys turned left.

The two offenses were reported about midnight and the boys were picked up sometime later on North Front Street. They hiked here and apparently making preparations to return to Amarillo.

After questioning, they admitted the offenses and were turned over to county authorities, who took them to county jail until released Saturday.
