are expected to go on Friday for the annual banquet of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Commerce. Clifford Farmer, president of the organization, said the tickets are priced at $1.00 and may be obtained at the office of commerce at 115½ Hall here or from any member.

Mrs. W. R. Durham, Pioneer, Dies Here Thursday Morning

Mrs. Nannie May Durham, grandmother of Mrs. Adrian Combs of Memphis, and mother of W. F. Durham of Brice, died about 9 a. m. today (Thursday), in a local hospital, where she had been a patient since Friday. Death was caused by a heart condition. She had been in ill health for some time.

Feb. 15 Cutoff Date On Feed Applications

Farmers and stockmen who contemplate applying for assistance under the Emergency Feed Program must do so by Feb. 15, because the county committee will not approve applications after that date, J. J. Roan, Jr., county supervisor for the Farmers' Home Administration in Hall County, said this week.

Way Out Of Town Costly For Couple

It cost an out-of-town man and his wife nearly $150 to find their way out of Memphis the past weekend. After the couple was arrested here Saturday night when officers spotted their automobile weaving along a street, the man explained that he was looking for the way out of town. He said he and his wife were on their way from Fort Worth to Amarillo, according to Sheriff Bill Baten.

Constable Jack Peabody and City Policemen Ben Spear and Dutch Vallance made the arrests. Found in the car was a minute quantity of a pint of whiskey. The couple was placed in county jail, after the man was charged with driving while intoxicated and the woman with drinking in a car.

Blaze Damages Duplex Apartment Dwelling Sunday

Fire Sunday afternoon caused about $2,000 damage to a duplex apartment house in the 100-block on North Ninth Street, according to Chief of Police Guy Wright. The dwelling belonged to Dr. J. W. Fitzjarrald. Principal damage was to the south apartment, occupied by Mrs. Emma Baskerville. Less serious damage was done to the north apartment, in which Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Martin lived.

Trapshoot Slated Sunday Afternoon

A trapshoot will be held at the Memphis Rifle and Pistol Club range Sunday afternoon, Mack Wilson, president of the organization said Wednesday. Activities will start at 2 o'clock.

Council To Seek Maintainer Bids

Councilmen named the First National Bank of Memphis as the depository for funds of the City of Memphis, at their regular monthly meeting in the City Hall on Tuesday evening. O. L. Helm, mayor pro-tem, presided over the session.

Sodolitan Class Members Enjoy Luncheon Thurs.

The Sodolitan Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. W. B. McQueen, January 27, for a covered dish luncheon.

The dining table before the picture window was beautiful, using the class colors with a center piece of orchid and gold chrysanthemums. The foursome tables were laid in white linen with ribbon streamers in orchid and gold with miniature centers of orchid and gold mums.

The invocation was given by the pastor, Rev. Fern Miller. After lunch, Mrs. Henry Scott president, presided over a short business session. Mrs. Christine Long gave a beautiful devotional on "Prayer." Reports were given by the secretary and group leaders. Mrs. J. W. Fitzjarrald, teacher, gave an inspiring "Peptalk."

Mrs. H. Byrd, vice president, presented Mrs. Emma Baskerville, who gave a piano selection, "Whispering Hope," and the class song, "Blest Be the Tie." Mrs. Leon Randolph offered the closing prayer.

Guests present were: Rev. Fern Miller, Mrs. Fern Miller, Rev. Campbell, Rev. Langston, Mrs. E. T. Prater, Mrs. Emma Baskerville, Mrs. Christine Long, and Mrs. J. R. Saunders. Members present were: Mmes. Bud Godfrey, A. J. Fowler, Leonard Wilson, Bill Merrell, Claude Stephens, J. W. Fitzjarrald, T. J. Bridges, Leon Randolph, Henry Scott, H. Byrd and the hostess, Mrs. W. B. McQueen.

Miss Johnnie McDaniel Becomes Bride Of Bob Hutcherson In Church Service

Miss Johnnie McDaniel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDaniel of 1312 Brumley Street, Memphis became the bride of Bob Hutcherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hutcherson of near Memphis, in a double ring ceremony performed in the Methodist Church of Memphis on Saturday, January 15, at five o'clock.

The altar of the church was flanked by ferns intertwined with white rope. On each side were palms and tall baskets of white gladioli.

Miss Betty Lemons played pre-nuptial music and also accompanied Miss Ginger Owen of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, in the two solos "Because" and "Always." For the wedding march Miss Lemons used Lohengrin's Wedding March and for the recessional Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Wayne Hutcherson, cousin of the groom, and Dink Miller, brother-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles. Gary Tarver served as best man and Rayford Hutcherson, cousin, served as groomsmen. Miss Lera Kate Hutcherson, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid; Mrs. Dink Miller, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

For her wedding Miss McDaniel chose a waltz-length gown of pure silk white shantung featuring the fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. Her off-face hat was covered with pearls. Her silver lavalier and ear screws were a gift from the groom. For something old she wore a watch which belonged to her late grandmother Stone. For something blue she wore a blue garter. A bouquet of white gardenias accented her loveliness. Mrs. Miller wore a waltz-length taffeta of aqua. Her halo was trimmed in pearls. Miss Hutcherson wore an identical frock of rose color. Both carried pink carnation bouquets. Mrs. McDaniel, mother of the bride, wore navy taffeta with navy accessories; Mrs. Hutcherson chose navy taffeta with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias.

The ceremony, during which the bride was given in marriage by her father, J. J. McDaniel, was read by the pastor, Rev. Jim Sharp.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel entertained with a reception in the Ladies' Parlor of the church. The center of interest in the table decoration was a three-tiered wedding cake. Miss Joyce McDaniel, sister of the bride, presided at the Bride's Book; Mrs. Bruce Gentry and Mrs. Lester York, cousins of the groom, both from Lubbock, served punch. Mrs. H. C. Owens, Amarillo, assisted her sister with hostess duties.

Mrs. Hutcherson departed on the wedding trip to Carlsbad and Roswell attired in a navy blue suit accented by white accessories. Mrs. Hutcherson is a graduate of Memphis High School and student of Texas Technological College. Mr. Hutcherson is a graduate of Memphis High School and a graduate of Clarendon College. The Hutchersons are at home on their farm southeast of Memphis.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gentry and their son, David; Mr. and Mrs. Lester York and Tanya; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lindsey; Mr. and Mrs. J. York all of Lubbock; Mrs. DeWitt Eddins and Mrs. Rabb Holland of Estelle; Mrs. Ted Bruce of Parnell; Mr. L. G. Stone, Mrs. Wilma Davis, Mrs. H. C. Bureau Explains Some Tax Forms

Editor's Note: Here is the second series of articles which Internal Revenue Service has with the purpose of helping taxpayers make out their income tax returns.

Three Types of Returns
Effort to fit the tax returns to the needs of the more than 10,000,000 persons who must file three types of returns is provided: Form 1040A, Form 1040, and Long-Form 1040.

Income Less Than $5,000
Form 1040A is the simplest of the three. If you have a return, you do not need to file Form 1040.

Income More Than $5,000
Form 1040 is the simplest of the three. If you have a return, you do not need to file Form 1040A.

Income More Than $5,000

completing your Form 1040, enter the amount in Item 7, Page 1 of the return.

National Office Lists Accidental Poisoning Causes

AUSTIN—For the first time the National Office of Vital Statistics has issued tabulations of fatal accidental poisonings by age, sex, and kind of poison, Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, has announced. A total of 1,497 such accidental deaths occurred in one year.

Petroleum products (including kerosene) and aspirin and salicylates were involved in 40 per cent of the deaths in infants through 4 years of age, 165 such deaths, Dr. Holle declared this indicated that parents are not as aware of the dangers of these substances as they are of such substances as cyanide, iodine, phenol or strychnine. It should also be pointed out that three out of four fatal child poisonings occur at ages 1 to 2. This indicates that prevention of these accidents involves keeping poisons away from children rather than teaching them about poisons.

Any item that can be poisonous should be kept out of reach of children. This includes medicines, kerosene, insecticides, cleaning fluid and many other items. Adults should never attempt to take medicine in the dark. Always read the label to make sure the medicine you wanted is not something poisonous.

In the 25-44 and 45-64 age groups, there are sizable differences between male and female accidental poisoning deaths. There were considerably more barbiturate deaths of women in the 25-44, while in both groups most of the alcohol poisonings occurred among men. These two agents accounted for 58 per cent of the accidental poisoning fatalities for persons 2 years of age or older.

COTTON MAID . . . Adorned with cotton crown and cotton candy scepters, De Lois Faulkner, 26, of Sallisaw, Okla., won title "1955 Maid of Cotton" over 21 finalists and will make international tour.

El Paso Area Top Uranium Prospect

AUSTIN—The El Paso area appears to be the most likely spot in the state for mining uranium on a commercial scale, Dr. S. P. Ellison, Jr., of the University of Texas reported.

Other finds have been made in Central Texas' Llano area and in North Texas, but no commercial discoveries have resulted anywhere in the state so far, he emphasized. The only important uranium discoveries in this country to date are in Utah, Colorado and New Mexico, Geology Chairman Ellison said. The largest known commercial deposits are in the Belgian Congo of Africa and the Lake Athabaska area of Alberta, Canada, he added.

The chicken-of-tomorrow program in Texas has been replaced by the Texas Broiler Festival program. The state committee believes the change will add interest, especially among consumers, for marketing will get the major emphasis along with production.

Horticulturist Suggests Plans For Spring Garden

COLLEGE STATION—There's plenty of satisfaction and amazing production in a "small" spring garden.

The garden fever however often persuades folks to plant a larger area than they can properly care for. So when you plan this year's garden, trim it down to your size, advises B. G. Hancock, extension horticulturist.

Spread out your plantings so the harvest will extend over a longer period of time, suggests Hancock. A garden planted at one time causes over-production for a short period and then supplies are gone.

mustard, beets, carrots and leaf lettuce. Finally, Hancock says for best results plant those vegetables suited to your particular area.

Systemic Cotton Poison

New weapons are being tested in the war against cotton insects which may result in some decisive victories for the farmer.

The Texas Experiment Station has turned up some promising new systemic insecticides that are lethal not only to certain sucking insects but also to such plant-chewers as the boll weevil and the cotton leafworm.

Unlike more common insecticidal sprays and dusts that form a protective layer over the outside surface of the plant, systemics are absorbed into the plant and carried by its sap. They may be applied to foliage, soil or seed. In this way, the stalk, the foliage and sometimes the fruit of a plant can be made toxic to feeding insects by treatment with an effective systemic poison.

Systemics are not new to some cotton growers. A few may have used systemics as foliage sprays or dusts against sap-sucking aphids and mites. But the chemicals under tests are the first that also kill insects that chew at stalks, leaves and fruits.

Two of these systemics have been tested in Texas in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. They proved lethal to the cotton boll weevil, the cotton leafworm, the cotton leaf perforator—all chewers—and to the cotton aphid and spider mite (suckers) for more than a month. These tests were run under laboratory conditions however.

When applied to cotton planting seed in field tests, both compounds gave protection against strips, aphids and spider mites for more than a month. Research on these systemics is still in the early stages and their desirability is not yet proven. It is still necessary to work out a dependable method of seed treatment that won't lower germination. Also under study is how the new chemicals affect plant growth and to what extent they can build up injurious chemical residues in the plant.

The new chemicals are not yet available to growers. So entomologists advise farmers to stick by current recommended methods of insect control for the present and continue to apply insecticide as foliage dusts or sprays. But the tests show promise and may mean a new era in insect control.

Eleven Women On District Court List

Eleven women have been chosen to serve as petit jurors in the February term of district court in Hall County, according to Sheriff Bill Baten. Also on the panel of jurors are 31 men.

The jurors have been notified to be present for a district court session here Tuesday, Baten said.

Women became eligible for jury duty in Texas for the first time, following approval of a constitutional amendment in the general election last November.

The previous court term extended through January, so this is the first district jury panel on which women have been included.

The February panel was chosen last week, at a meeting of the jury commission.

On the commission are two women, Mrs. W. E. Leslie of Memphis and Mrs. Garland Coker of Turkey, and E. C. Lemons of Memphis, Crump Ferrel of Estelline, and O. E. Bevers of Lakeview.

The women jurors are: Mrs. S. M. Watts, Mrs. M. G. Tarver, Mrs. C. C. Meacham, Mrs. Glynn Thompson, Mrs. Herbert Curry and Miss Imogene King, all of Memphis; Mrs. Joe Eddins, Mrs. J. B. Rapp and Mrs. John Chaudoin, all of Estelline; and Mrs. Pauline Meacham and Mrs. Jack Case, of Turkey.

Men who were selected as petit jurors are: E. E. Cudd, Frank Monzingo, E. E. Foster, Leo Koeninger, Joe Montgomery, Leo Fields, Thurman Ellerd, H. A. Hodges and Roy Patton, all of Memphis; Howard Martin, Russell Payne, E. H. Watson, Billy Hancock, E. S. Byars, K. D. Nabers, J. P. Fowler, Claud Scoggins, W. N. Gowdy and R. F. Sneed, all of Lakeview; G. H. Gardenhire, Will Eddins, James Hutchins and W. B. Davidson, all of Estelline; Jake Chamberlain, E. L. Hill and Leo Mullins, all of Turkey; W. H. Jouett, Parnell; H. E. Groff and Rayford Jones, of Tell; and L. J. Halford of Carey.

Explaining inclusion of Groff, Jones and Halford on the jury, Baten said that the addresses listed are where they receive their mail but that they live in Hall County.

Man Jailed After Fails To Pay Fines

F. D. Pierce of Turkey, was placed in county jail here late Monday after failing to pay fines and court costs resulting from two liquor convictions, according to Sheriff Bill Baten. He remained in jail this morning.

Pierce was fined $1275 in two separate cases by County Judge Tracy Davis last April. Court costs bring the amount owed by the Turkey man to approximately $1386, Baten said.

A motion for a rehearing on one of the cases and a motion for reinstatement of an appeal of the other conviction were presented to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas. Both motions were overruled by the court and Pierce's arrest resulted.

The convictions followed Pierce's arrest in January of last year, after he sold whiskey to two Liquor Control Board agents, according to court records. After the arrest, he was charged with the sale of whiskey in a dry area.

140 Boy Scouts were honored in one year by their National Court of Honor for saving or trying to save life.

County Poll Tax Receipts Total 1

A total of 1,230 poll tax receipts had been issued by the County tax assessor-collector here when the deadline passed Monday. This came from Olin Cooper, tax assessor-collector.

The total compares with poll taxes paid by citizens here in 1953, 1,412 in 1952, and 1,412 in 1951, previous "off-election" years.

Bureau Men Plan Trip To Lubbock

Several membership leaders in the Hall County Farm Bureau plan to attend a state-wide captains' meeting in Lubbock on Monday, according to Robert Moss, publicity chairman of the county organization.

Purpose of the one-day meeting in the Lubbock Hotel is to give recognition to voluntary membership leaders who will be in charge of drives for members later this month. Membership efforts in 51 Texas counties are expected to be furthered at the Lubbock session.

Attendance is limited to county membership chairmen and community membership captains.

Speakers will include J. Walter Hammond of Waco, president of the Texas Farm Bureau; and Roger Fleming of Washington, D. C., secretary-treasurer of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Among counties planning spring membership drives are Hall, Childress, Collingsworth, Donley and Motley.

Scouts Nearing Half-Century Mark

Citizens throughout this great nation will have the opportunity next week of extending their congratulations to an outstanding youth organization, as it takes time to observe its forty-fifth anniversary. Feb. 6-12 has been designated as Boy Scout Week, in recognition of the worthwhile contributions the Boy Scouts of America have made in building millions of boys into strong, resourceful men.

Since it was founded in 1910, the organization has enriched the lives of more than 22,750,000 boys and adult leaders. Scouting truly represents a living cross section of American life.

Boys of every race, religion and economic background are attracted to Scouting. Today, there are 2,700,000 boys in its ranks, and in addition, there are 960,000 adults of good character who give generously of their time and abilities in serving as leaders of units, Merit Badge Counselors, and in many other capacities. There are few American families who have not felt its influence.

The vital importance of training boys of today to be ready for positions of leadership when they reach manhood has been aptly expressed by Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, the Chief Scout Executive and a leader in the organization since 1913.

Says Dr. Schuck, "Strong character, participating citizenship and physical fitness are needs of our boys and young men who are served by the program of Scouting in cooperation with the home, the school, the church, and all other community institutions actively interested in training our future citizens."

Scouting's purpose, as stated in the Federal Charter granted by Congress in 1916, is promoting the "ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance and kindred virtues."

It is probable that almost every member of the nation's 95,000 Scouting units is receiving instruction and practical experience that will fit him to meet the challenges of adult life which he will face within a few years.

First-hand knowledge of the meaning of Scouting can be obtained here by observing the various activities of members of Troop 35, as they perform under the direction of Scoutmaster Ted Myers. The boys are frequently called on to lend their youthful energies to something that needs to be done in the community. Whatever the job, they respond with a will.

So, to Scouts and their leaders, not only here but across the nation, we say "Happy Birthday." May there be many, many more.

Teenagers Have Opinions, Too

Ever wonder what the younger generation thought about various problems with which adults have to wrestle? Or do you feel that young people are too interested in their own activities to pay serious attention to the world in which they live?

We may be wrong but we feel that boys and girls of this generation probably are more aware of current events and their implications than any of their predecessors and that we older people are failing to avail ourselves of some able partners if we do not make a point of listening to what they have to say.

The Independence, Iowa, Chamber of Commerce decided to make a survey in the town's two high schools and the outcome was both revealing and disturbing.

The civic organization asked 160 juniors and seniors 24 questions. Among them were these: "Have you any suggestions on how to improve recreational and social facilities in Independence?" and "What is your opinion of our retail stores?" Extremely vital was the one which asked, "Do you plan to remain in Independence and make it your home?" since the answer to this largely determines whether any community shall go forward or backward.

The Independence students wanted more selection and variety in stores, new lighting and color schemes, new store fronts and fewer "pouncing" clerks. About 50 per cent wanted a store which specialized in teen-age clothes.

Seventy-three said they expected to leave their hometown after graduation, while 13 planned to stay and 11 were undecided. Chief reason for leaving was lack of job opportunities, a problem that harasses many smaller communities today.

It may be that many young people regret having to leave their hometowns but feel they have no other choice.

One of the girls questioned put it this way: "Sure, we like Independence and want to remain loyal to the town, but when it doesn't offer us much in the way of a living, you can't expect us to stay here all our lives."

This situation is one of the most serious to be found in smaller towns today but there is a good chance it could be licked if adults and young people pooled their ideas and their efforts. Certainly, there is nothing to lose by following such a course while there is plenty to gain.

UNAFRAID OF HIS SHADOW

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

COTTON MAN'S PLIGHT
The cotton farmer in a dry land section doesn't have much to be cheerful about. Even with rain and snow and good season in the ground, he faces a bad situation even with a bumper crop.

Guess that's one reason why everyone is frantically trying to get irrigation. That seems to be the only way the cotton farmer can make it under present acreage control.

We've heard the statement on the streets several times lately that acreage control is about to put the dry land cotton farmer out of business. Even a bumper crop, it is said, will not pull him out.

This is an injustice that should be corrected and we understand our representatives in Congress are doing their best to correct it. Cotton is a cash crop with farmers in this area. Nothing else has taken its place. When the farmer is denied the right to plant enough cotton for he and his family to live, then he is forced to do something else. It was that a farmer could make a living on 160 acres. Then it jumped to 320 acres, until now a farmer must have nearly a section or more in order to get allotment enough to get him by.

The result has been that farmers who could get more land, and others rented the land from their neighbors who were forced to do something else. The farm population in this area has been decreased and the size of the farms gets steadily larger. Something must be done or a lot of other farmers will be going to town to look for work.

It seems to us that it wouldn't take a very bright person to see and understand this. Why are there those in Congress who refuse to admit the inevitable.

The inevitable is the ruination of the small cotton farmer unless present unjust legislation is corrected immediately.

Found More Dangerous Freezing Than At Zero

it or not, it's twice as dangerous to stop your car on ice when the temperature is barely freezing as it is when the thermometer is zero!

Information has been given by the Texas Safety Association, today as he discussed the hazards program which the Texas Department of Safety is now conducting with the National Council.

Mr. Rooper said that a driver's only safeguards in slippery weather are increased caution and decreased speed. He believes, "Slow up in a freeze up" is still the best rule of thumb for safety.

UT Student Eyes Water Resources

AUSTIN—A survey of Texas water resources by G. P. Pearson, Jr., University of Texas graduate student and former state legislator, offers new support for an extended conservation program.

Pearson's study treats industrial, domestic, and agricultural water requirements and discusses all possible sources of water for Texas: rainfall, underground water, river reservoirs and conversion of sea water to fresh water.

He visited many parts of the state where measures are being taken to utilize more effectively the critically-short supply of water.

The young East Texan favors

Mrs. Bownds' daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robbie J. Mitchell.

"building dams on streams to impound the water we have; then, we can conserve this water and use it as needed."

"Another means of solving the problem is to divert water from the surplus-water area of East Texas, by gravity canals or pipelines, to the more arid regions of the State," he points out.

Conversion of sea water to fresh water, too expensive to be feasible at this time, holds some promise for the future, Pearson says.

He is a Grimes County native and Navasota High School graduate, served in the Navy during World War II and has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Texas. His water resources study was made as part of the requirements for a Master of Arts degree in economics.

Compaction Limit Yield, Fertility Says

STATION — Soil in some ways may rank as a factor limiting crop production, says Jack H. Barson, soil and water conservationist.

Barson said that intensive cultivation and grazing in the greatest part of the soil, says Barson, begins to limit crop production when the soil particles are broken up so closely that the soil is restricted.

Barson said that upon reaching the surface layer — or hard pan — or grow in a lateral direction.

Compaction is often associated with clay and loam conservationist says form in sandy and medium type soils.

Barson said that remedy for this condition is with nature and not against it, says Barson. He says to simplify tillage to decrease the number of passes over a field with heavy machinery.

Barson said that avoid working or grazing that are too wet.

Barson said that rotation system will improve organic content of the soil, deep rooted help crack the hard pan, and compacted soil holds less water and is more subject to erosion without this hard pan.

Breakfast At Country Club Saturday Enjoyed By Members of Atalantean Club

Mrs. Robert Sexauer, assisted by the social committee, entertained members of the Atalantean Club at the annual President's Breakfast on Saturday morning at the Country Club. Members of the social committee include Mes. Earl Allen, H. B. Estes, Seth Pallmeyer, J. W. Coppedge and J. H. Morris.

Guests were seated at a long table which was attractively decorated in a white and red color scheme. Carrying out the theme, "A Milestone on the Gay Highway," a miniature highway fashioned of ribbon was noted in the center of the table. The highway was traveled by miniature cars and red carnations edged the highway. At one end of the table and in the background a choir scene was featured. Individual cakes were placed at each place representing the various holidays in each of the 12 months.

The menu included ham, hot rolls, cakes, pears and coffee.

Mrs. Henry Foster gave the invocation.

After the breakfast, the club was entertained with a television program. Mrs. Coppedge was the announcer with Mrs. Phelan advertising popular products between the acts.

Mrs. Kinslow opened the program by turning back the pages 27 years. She said, "Twenty-seven years ago a group of interested women decided to study to promote interest in literature, stimulate intellectual growth and strengthen individual effort. Our motto seemed to be 'Hitch your wagon to a star.' We wanted to do noble things, not dream them all day long. We wanted to be a happy club."

"Thus our club was organized Saturday, January 28, 1928, with 11 charter members. Mrs. J. R. Webster was named the first president. About two weeks after the club was organized, a breakfast was held in the home of Mrs. S. A. Bryant in honor of the District President Mrs. F. T. Collins. At that breakfast Mrs. Collins named the club The Atalantean Club," Mrs. Kinslow explained.

She then recalled many happy events during the first several years of the club.

Mrs. Dickey gave the club's history for the next seven years, from 1935 through 1941. She gave the spiritual vitamins that the club needed so that human relations would be healthier. In closing she stated, "So our club, 1935 through 1941, used patience, charity, justice, understanding, cheerfulness, prudence and thoughtfulness as our spiritual vitamins in our relations each with the other as we came to give in our semi-monthly meetings for these seven years."

Mrs. Estes began her seven-year history with "Working Together Is Progress." "Because of their foresightedness, the charter members set the example of working in harmony which has brought us this far."

Mrs. Hightower recalled happenings of the last six years and ended the TV program by singing the Atalantean song with all joining on the chorus.

Mrs. Sexauer was presented with a beautiful Italian platt by the club as a small token of appreciation.

Places were laid for one guest, Mrs. Pete Smith, Jr., a former member, and the following members: Mes. J. H. Morris, Earl Allen, Herbert Estes, C. W. Kinslow, L. C. Martin, Bill Cosby, N. A. Hightower, W. R. Scott, J. A. Odum, Willie Isham, W. C. Dickey, Claud Johnson, Myrtle Phelan, Henry S. Foster, Robert Spicer, Robert Sexauer, J. W. Coppedge, Misses Imogene King and Gertrude Rasco.

Commission Okays Exploratory Action

WORTH—The Texas Fish Commission has approved an exploratory action to acquire waterfowl areas along the upper Gulf Coast marshes and of the Rio Grande Valley. The Commission also discussed efforts to import Spanish Partridge for experiments in the Chihuahuan Desert of West Texas and negotiations with western states to acquire the sage hen to introduce the bird to the Gulf Coast. A major concern was expressed over the waterfowl problem in the Port Arthur area where the population drop along the coast because of habitat destruction and increased hunting pressures has heightened the situation so that duck and goose hunting has fallen off to a mere fraction of what it was a few years ago, with the bulk of the fowl being burned off before the season started.

M., before the Honorable District Court of Hall County, at the Court House in Memphis, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 25th day of January, 1955. The file number of said suit being No. 3636. The names of the parties in said suit are Eugene Gibson as Plaintiff, and Agnes Gibson as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to-wit: Suit for divorce. The plaintiff alleging as grounds therefore that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married on May 16th, 1952, and lived together as husband and wife until June 21st, 1952; that he lived as actual bona fide inhabitant of Hall County, Texas, for twelve months immediately prior to the following of the petition and has resided in Hall County, Texas, for six months next preceding the filing thereof; that plaintiff conducted himself properly but defendant shortly after their marriage commence a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical conduct towards plaintiff which continued until plaintiff finally separated from defendant on June 21st, 1952. On divers occasions defendant was guilty of excesses, cruel and outrageous treatment toward plaintiff that rendered their living together insupportable.

Issued this the 27th day of January, 1955.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Memphis, Texas, this the 27th day of January, A. D. 1955.

Memphis High Basketball Teams Approach Season's End

Basketball teams from Memphis High School chalked up one victory against two defeats in close, hard-fought games with Clarendon opponents in the latter city Tuesday night.

The boys A team won 44-43, while the boys B squad lost, 28-25. Clarendon took a high-scoring contest from the Memphis girls, 65-60.

Nolan Potec coaches the boys and George Childress coaches the girls.

The girls squad now has a season record of 18 wins and 4 losses, according to Childress.

The boys A team district record shows two victories, compared with three defeats, leaving them in a tie with Clarendon for second place.

Both the boys and the girls are scheduled to play McLean here

Friday night. If the girls win, they will automatically take the district title in their division. Childress said. However, if they lose and the Clarendon girls are victors in their Friday evening contest, it will necessitate a playoff to determine the district winner.

The first game here Friday night will get underway in the high school gymnasium at 7 o'clock. The contests will complete regular district play for both the boys and girls A teams.

District champions in each of these divisions will be determined in a tournament, to be held at White Deer, Feb. 10-12.

In the boys A contest Tuesday evening, James Moss was high scorer for Memphis, with 14 points. Billy Cheek made 12 and Jimmy Davis made 7.

Don Landers led the Clarendon point makers, with 14 points. Behrens had 9 points to his credit, and Payne had 8.

For the local boys B squad, Cleve Evans, Terry Monzingo and Allan Daugherty tallied 6 points each, and Campbell Morris 4.

Baten, with 10 points, topped the Clarendon team. Vallance had 8 points, and Graham and Philley 4 each.

In the girls contest, Sharon Harrison headed the list of Memphis scorers, with 32 points. Close behind was Betty Claude Hickey, who acquired 28 points.

Smith amassed 44 points, to lead the Clarendon girls in the scoring department.

Friday night, the Memphis boys and girls traveled to Lefors for conference games. The boys were barely edged, 33-32, while the girls swamped their Lefors opponents, 62-23.

In the boys contest, Carrol Gardenhire was top scorer for Memphis, accumulating 12 points. Davis made 6, and Sherman Clemmons and Morris scored 5 each.

Herring tallied 8 points for Lefors, Rice 7 and Earhart and Rowe 6 each.

In addition to the Lefors encounter, the girls competed in the Estelline Invitational Basketball Tournament and captured first place in their division. The tournament opened last Thursday and closed Saturday night.

The girls won all three of their games. In the first one, they defeated Turkey. Their second victory was over Flomot. A 57-38 win over Estelline cinched the division title for them, Childress said.

Memphis squad, were named on the all-tournament girls team. Others on the team were: Barbara Smith and Elda Mae Butler of Estelline; Martha Johnson of Quail; and W. Martin of Flomot.

Placing on the all-tournament boys team were: Doyle Walker and Jimmie Don Adams, of Estelline; Don Johnson and Homer Darvin, of Quail; and Rodney Mullin of Childress.

Graham said the Estelline schools wished to thank all businessmen, coaches, players and officials who helped make the tournament a success. Play began last Thursday and closed Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulien Clifton sponsored the first-place girls trophy, while the E. F. Kennedy Service Station and Mrs. Emmett Arrington, of the Texaco Cafe, sponsored the first-place boys trophy.

Four other trophies were awarded. They were sponsored by Estelline Grocery, Hudlow Foods, Rogers Grocery, Smith Furniture Store, Cleo Smith Lumber Co. and Paymaster Gin.

The Estelline superintendent said thanks also were due Dewey Britt, tournament timekeeper, Pete Woods, tournament manager, and Paul Boyer, Estelline coach.

purse strings when any calls are made for human needs. This has been proven in the March of Dimes campaign during January. This campaign, which has been conducted in behalf of polio patients and also the prevention of the dreaded disease, may be termed one of the most successful in terms of donations made by sympathetic citizens.

Judge Luther Gribble was guest speaker at Rotary luncheon Tuesday. He spoke on jury duty, and how such is keeping America a democratic country, as set out in the Constitution. If and when jurors are done away with and the duties taken over by a commission of legal-minded men, then the citizens will have lost their right of trial before a jury composed of their fellow men, and thus we as Americans will have lost the bedrock of constitutional government, he said. He thinks all citizens should consider it a privilege and not a burden duty to serve on a jury one or more times during their lives.

The Texas Legislature is emulating the Congress of the United States in conducting inquiries. Different committees are being suggested and set up to conduct inquiries in both houses of the legislature. They want to inquire into the Veterans' Land program, the insurance companies, the government printing, the union labor problem, and various and sundry things, about which voters heard so much during the recent campaign for state offices. The trouble is that after investigations are made, not much comes of it. The investigated are either whitewashed or censured, but rarely prosecuted. Just another added expense which taxpayers have to dig up.

As Red Bradfields, Grand Ole Opry, says, "It aint so hot today, is it?"

Hope a lot of moisture falls by this time next week.

Schools Announce New Speller List

The two Memphis elementary schools and the Turkey schools have determined new "Spellers of the Week," according to Miss Mary Foreman, county school superintendent.

Winners in spelling contests, held at the various schools, are as follows:

Memphis—Stephen F. Austin; Linda Ann Rea, sixth grade; William B. Travis; George Childress, fourth grade; Perry Wright, fifth; and Shari Ann Gentry, sixth.

Turkey—Gail Proctor, fifth grade; Marilyn Gilmore, sixth; Betty Tatum, seventh; and Bobby Hanna, eighth.

Heart Fund Drive To Open Saturday

The annual Hall County Heart Fund Drive will get underway Saturday in Memphis and surrounding communities, according to Ted Myers, chairman of the county chapter. The campaign will be held in conjunction with similar ones throughout the United States and February has been designated as Heart Month.

Dr. Robert Clark, president of the Hall County chapter, opened the drive in Memphis with a talk on "How To Live With Your Heart," at the Lions Club luncheon at noon Wednesday.

Those who desire to send a check or contribution to the Heart Association may address them to L. C. Martin, treasurer of the county chapter, or to Dr. Clark or Myers. Communications to any one of the three should be sent to Memphis.

A Heart Drive Sunday will be set here the latter part of February, Myers said. The special drive will be conducted by ladies of Memphis.

The greater portion of funds raised are retained by local and state Heart Associations to support their own programs. The remainder goes to nationwide research, education and community service activities of the American Heart Association, Myers explained.

Last year, about 11 million dollars was raised across the nation, although no actual goal is set.

Latest mortality figures show diseases of the heart and blood vessels lead their nearest rival, cancer, by more than three to one. More than 52 per cent of all deaths in the nation in 1953 were attributed to ailments of the heart and circulatory system.

In the last generation, medical science and new surgery avenues have reduced the heart disease death rate by 70 per cent for those under 24 years of age, and by 35 per cent for those between 24 and 44, according to Dr. W. R. White of Waco, chairman of the 1955 Heart Fund of the Texas Heart Association.

some more winter (?) if tradition holds true.

Today's weather has seemed to bear out this theory. Throughout the morning, there was light drizzle, possibly mixed with some fog. But about noon, skies opened up with several light showers and the moisture was continuing intermittently early in the afternoon. Chilly temperatures accompanied the damp weather.

After a propitious start, January fell into a dry rut and precipitation amounted only to about three-quarters of an inch. As little as this is, it is still considerably above last January, when only .15 of an inch was recorded by Weatherman John McMickin. Oddly enough, this was just .15 about January in 1953, because in that month there was no measurable moisture whatsoever.

At times this week, some of the fronts that have passed through this section have whipped up quite a bit of dust.

Temperature extremes in the past week, according to McMickin, have been in the following brackets: last Thursday 25-58 degrees; Friday 22-62; Saturday 27-65; Sunday 28-56; Monday 28-63; Tuesday 32-60; and Wednesday 30-37. The thermometer showed 26 degrees this morning.

money in the cotton company and dry goods store offices.

Entry to the building, housing the jewelry and cotton firms, was gained by breaking open a door on the east side near the alley. This let the burglars into a room which J. H. Morris & Company used to store samples, Baten said. A second door between this room and the rear of Branigan Jewelry was then forced, allowing entry.

Returning to the storeroom in the rear, the burglars climbed some stairs, leading to the second-floor office of the cotton company. After searching the two safes, the thugs removed an east window which permitted them to step onto the roof of Household Supply Company, then on across to the J. C. Penney Company building. The burglars used a bit to bore two parallel rows of holes, after which this section was crushed. The resulting hole was above the office, which is on a mezzanine floor in the front of the store. Easing through the aperture, the criminals then kicked a hole in the ceiling and dropped to the floor of the office.

After ransacking the office without apparent success, exit was seemingly made by stepping onto a chair and from there to the attic and the roof.

The break-ins were not discovered until daylight Wednesday morning, Baten said.

Joining in the investigation are sheriff's and police officers and Texas Ranger Kelley Rogers of Amarillo.
