Prominent Texas Jurist Speaks at Joint Meeting

JUDGE W. A. MORRISON

Law was the subject of a speech by W. A. Morrison, judge of the Court of Appeals of Texas, at a joint meeting of the Rotary, Lions and Professional Clubs at Tuesday noon. Morrison indicated the remarks in the opening of his speech when he said, "In the final analysis all will agree that the liberties of one's citizens are as important as their money. The courts are the guardians of the rights of individuals. Judges sometimes make mistakes and there must be where these mistakes are corrected. Cases which we decide in the trials of men. If we authorize procedure in a certain way we feel in our minds we are guilty and deserve the punishment he then we have authorized procedure on all cases, innocent, and such procedure is fundamentally unjust in the future, convict mitted, Judge Morrison continued, "the public conscience is aroused, and they demand that someone be punished. If the constitution and our courts do not protect the accused at such times, then we have surrendered our power to protect the innocent in normal times. We serve two masters. The individual on trial is one master whom we must protect. A transgression of his rights is a violation of the rights of all. The other master likewise entitled to our guardianship is the great mass of law-abiding citizens who are entitled to the protection of the law in their persons and their property."

Judge Morrison assumed his present eminence on Jan. 1 of this year and made him the youngest presiding judge in the history of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas. He had previously held the positions of city attorney, district attorney and district judge. Since 1951, he has served as chairman of Lone Star Boys State, the American Legion program of youth training in government.

Sam J. Hamilton, Memphis attorney, introduced Paul Spillman, an attorney at Wellington, who presented Judge Morrison.

Thomas Clayton, vice-president of the Rotary Club, was in charge of the meeting. Rev. Jim Sharp, minister of the First Methodist Church, offered the invocation and Gayle Greene led group singing.

GRADUATE—Pvt. Leon Schuessler, whose wife, Carrie, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Honeycutt, live in Memphis, recently was graduated with honors from the Engineer School at Fort Belvoir, Va., after completing the quarry machine operators course. Private Schuessler completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He is a 1949 graduate of Amarillo High School.

COUNTY HOMECOMING PICNIC HERE SUNDAY WELL ATTENDED

Approximately 700 People At Reunion; Decide To Meet Here Each September

Visitor's Singing Gets Brush Off

Things were pretty "snaky" around the C. M. Gunter home, 810 North Twelfth, Wednesday night.

When the Gunters arrived home about 10:30, everything seemed quiet and peaceful but not for long. As Mrs. Gunter stepped up on the front porch, she spied a snake about three feet distant, in the illumination of the porchlight and at the same time the unwelcome visitor started singing.

The Gunters gave ground until he could obtain a hoe and destroy the viper. The intruder was about three feet long and had seven rattlers, Gunter said.

This was not the Gunters' first such experience, for several years ago while living at Wellington, Gunter killed another rattlesnake which slithered from under the house where the family was living at the time.

Approximately 700 residents and former residents gathered in City Park here Sunday for Hall County's Homecoming Picnic, to make it an overwhelming success. At least 450 persons enjoyed a basket dinner, which was spread at noon. Park tables proved to be insufficient to hold the bountiful amount of food that was provided and hurried forays had to be made to various parts of the city to obtain additional ones. Several individuals gave assistance by bringing card tables from their homes.

A total of 603 people registered but probably another 100 did not. Thirty-four of those registering came to Hall County before 1900. In all, 199 of the registrants were from out of the county residents, who formerly lived here.

Jury Brings In Nine Indictments

Nine indictments were returned by the Hall County grand jury when members met here Monday, County Attorney Bill Teague said Tuesday. Four of those charged were not in custody Tuesday afternoon. The indictments consisted of one for murder, one for perjury, three for driving while intoxicated, second offense, two for defrauding with worthless checks, and two for child desertion.

The perjury indictment was returned against R. L. Phillips of Memphis, as the outgrowth of testimony he gave in a liquor trial last week. The defendant in the case was found not guilty, as a result of the testimony. Phillips' bond was set at $2,000. He was released from county jail Tuesday morning, after making bail. Sheriff Bill Baten said.

Three separate indictments of driving while intoxicated, second offense, were rendered against Clifton P. Melton of Lakeview. A $1,000 bond was set in each case and Melton still was in jail Tuesday morning.

A Memphis man was indicted for forgery by altering a check and placed in jail, after failing to make $1,000 bond. He allegedly raised a check from $3.60 to $37.60 and attempted to pass it at a local store. The check was given by I. E. McDaniel on July 16. He subsequently returned the check to its original figure and cashed it at another store, according to Baten.

Foreman of the grand jury was J. W. Coppedge of Memphis.

During the business part of the get-together, it was decided to make the homecoming an annual occasion. Plans are to hold it sometime between Sept. 1 and 15. Hats were passed around and $115.53 was made up to help defray expenses that may be incurred in connection with arranging for and staging the reunion.

In a surprise move, J. Claude Wells, originator and prime mover of the homecoming, was nominated for the presidency by Ollie Jones, who served as master of ceremonies, and was elected by acclamation. "Aroused" by the steamroller tactics, Wells turned the tables by quickly pushing through a vote electing a vice-president. Falling into the spirit of the thing, the good-natured audience immediately voted Jones into the office. Mrs. N. A. Hightower was named secretary, and Byron Baldwin was elected treasurer, both by acclamation.

Prior to the business phase, S. S. Montgomery, Memphis banker who came to Hall County in 1889, welcomed everyone present, in a brief address.

Later in the program, a number of out-of-county oldtimers were introduced over the public address system and made short talks.

Providing a musical tinge to the occasion was the Memphis High School Band, who played several numbers, under the direction of Miss Kathy Phillips, director of music in the local school. Betty Claude Hickey, drum major, and Monta June Saye, Linda Fields, Shirley Reed and Quida (Continued on Page 12)

DWI's Are Arrested Friday

Three separate highway patrolmen arrested three drivers while intoxicated on Friday, according to Bill Baten.

Marillo Air Force Base arrested Friday morning highway patrolmen after a collision with a Miller truck on Highway 287, of Memphis Baten said. The airman was charged with driving while intoxicated and fined $150 and was in jail here Tuesday after failing to pay the $150. He also is charged with DWI in Potter County.

Other DWI's were arrested on the day, one in one and one at night. One in Abilene and one from they pleaded guilty Saturday and paid $100 court costs. However, remained in jail until Sunday serving three-day sentences under the present law.

Forger Arrested Here

Seventy-year-old Las Animas, was arrested here last night by local police officers on a pickup order from a Clarendon, where he allegedly had passed checks. He was released from the neighboring town time later, according to Chief Guy Wright. He wanted on similar charges at Borger, Hollis and Las Animas, the man was informed. The signed relatives' names to Las Animas, Wright explained.

Lions Club Bleachers Gridiron There

Stelline Lions Club has bleachers at the high school field there at an estimated cost of $900, according to Marshall Long, president of the organization. He stated that the club is paying for the bleachers in early payments of about $25. To help in obtaining the bleachers, Lions Club members are reserving seats.

For the remaining four seats will be $1.20 per seat, the club said. Any club member happy to sell football seats reservations as they are. After the bleachers have been installed, they will be used for the school, to be used for officials see fit.

It was declared that the Estelone wish to thank those who have purchased seats, and those who buy them in

Lineup Altered For Wildcat Tilt

Injuries suffered by several Memphis High School Cyclone players in the Tullia and Crowell games have forced Coach D. C. Andrews to make a couple of changes in his starting lineup for Friday night's contest with the Canadian Wildcats. The contest, to be played at Canadian, will be the first conference tilt for both teams. The opening whistle is scheduled to blow at 7:30 p. m.

Andrews announced two changes in starting assignments. Joe Young, sophomore, who has been looking good in scrimmages this week, will be at the quarterback slot, and David Davis will be running out of the fullback spot. He has been holding down a halfback position. Davis replaces Butch Adcock, who suffered a crushed vertebra in Friday night's game here with Crowell. Adcock was knocked unconscious for a few minutes and probably will see no more action this season.

Cleve Evans, quarterback, who broke an ankle in the Tullia contest, is still out of play but is expected to return to action later on.

Another injured player, Terry Monzingo, a fullback, who sustained a leg injury in the game with the Tullia Hornets, is also on the sidelines, but Andrews said he hoped to have him back in the lineup the latter part of the season.

Still another casualty, Sherman Clemons, halfback, was in an Amarillo hospital Wednesday morning for treatment of a knee injury. Suffering from an old injury but playing, nevertheless, is Jerry McQueen, a tackle. He has an injured shoulder but is expected to go against the Canadian Wildcats Friday evening.

Andrews said the remainder of the squad was in good shape Wednesday for the Wildcat tilt. He said his boys have been working to perfect the timing of the new backfield starters. The coach said the Cyclone had shown more spirit this week than at any time this season and he felt they would (Continued On Page 12)

B Team Plays Hollis On Local Gridiron Tonight

The Memphis B football team will play host to Hollis, Okla., here tonight (Thursday), in the local squad's first game of the season, Nolan Poteat, coach, said Tuesday. The contest will be played at Cyclone Stadium, starting at 7:30 p. m. Admission prices will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

Negro Serves On Jury First Time

The first Negro ever to serve on a jury in Hall County as far as officials here could remember was a member of the group who heard a civil case in 100th District Court here this week, with Judge Luther Gribble of Wellington, presiding.

The Negro juror was Gaines McFalls of Memphis, who is employed by Mrs. W. C. Dickey. Two other Negroes were summoned for jury duty this week, according to Sheriff Bill Baten. They are Pink Austin and Watson Johnson.

Ronnie W. Gowdy Recently Promoted

Ronnie W. Gowdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowdy of Lakeview, recently was promoted to specialist third class while serving with the 7th Infantry Division in Korea.

Continuing his training, the "Bayonet" division is the only U. S. Army division that has remained in Korea since the cease fire.

Specialist Gowdy, who arrived overseas in August, 1954, is a mechanic in Headquarters and Service Company of the division's 18th Engineer Battalion.

Before entering the Army in March 1954, he attended Clarendon Junior College and worked for a firm in Dallas.

Top State Masons Due Here Monday

Several high state Masonic officials will be here Monday evening when a meeting of the Panhandle district of Knights Templar is held; Glynn Thompson, secretary of the local lodge, said Wednesday. In addition, about 75 representatives from other commanderies have notified the Memphis lodge they will be here. Including approximately 75 local members, attendance at the meeting is expected to total around 150 Masons.

Scheduled to come to Memphis are the heads of all Masonic bodies in Texas. They will be: George Moffett of Chillicothe, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Texas; Dr. J. M. Kinkannon, head of the Grand Chapter of Texas; John McKee of Dallas, head of the 33rd degree Scottish Rite of Texas. These constitute the heads of all state Masonic organizations.

Receiving these Grand officers will be W. L. Brown of Amarillo, Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Texas.

A school of instruction in the Temple work will be held in connection with the meeting and will be conducted by Harvey C. Byrd of Waco, Grand Swordbearer of the Grand Commandery of Texas and secretary of the Masonic Lodge of Texas.

Thompson, Grand Commander of Knights Templar here, will be in charge of the session.

Commanderies in the Panhandle district expected to be represented, other than Memphis, are Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Canad-

Dinner will be held at 6 p. m. Monday in the Temple dining room, followed by the meeting at 7 in the lodge hall. The dinner will be prepared and served by members of the Eastern Star.

Thompson said that as far as he knows this will be the first time that all heads of the state Masonic bodies have ever been assembled at one time at any meeting, with the exception of a state convention.

Hedley Cotton Festival Expected To Be Best Yet

The fourth annual Hedley Cotton Festival, to be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21 and 22, promises to be the best one yet, according to Clifford Johnson, Hedley insurance man and one of the leaders in the fall harvest celebration. Johnson bases his belief on the better-than-average crop in that area and the help the project will receive from outside sources. He takes this optimistic outlook in spite of the fact that as he says, "the Festivals have been mighty good in the past." And he's likely to be right because Hedley boosters seem to make every effort to see that each succeeding cotton show excels the past ones.

Miss Sandra Youree will reign as Queen of the Festival until she crowns her successor in coronation ceremonies the first night of the celebration.

Among those furnishing assistance this year is the National Cotton Council of America. Cotton John of radio and television station KGNC will be present to cover activities. Dignitaries who have signified their intentions of attending and lending their support are Dub Nelson of Childress, district governor of Lions International, State Senator Andy Rogers of Childress, and Rep. Elbert Reeves of Matador.

Good Rains Fall In Memphis Area Past Few Days

A good rain soaked the Memphis area this morning. Beginning as a light mist about daylight, it grew into a full-fledged rain before mid-morning and poured a total of .56 of an inch on Memphis before it slackened off and quit about 10 a. m. Reports circulating around the business district were that the downpour was not widespread but that Estelline had had a half-inch and Lakeview had received a light shower.

A few miles southeast of Memphis, precipitation was said to have amounted to an inch and water was standing everywhere.

The moisture probably came as a surprise to everyone, as the Amarillo weather bureau was predicting little in the way of moisture until at least Thursday afternoon. The clouds appeared to (Continued on page 12)

Hall Countians were blessed with a rain Saturday night, which was generally around one inch over most of the county. Farmers believe it will add to the yield of feed and cotton. It added appreciably to the spirits of the people.

The weather following the rain was thoroughly enjoyed by visitors and homefolks alike Sunday at the Homecoming picnic. The dust had been settled, the temper- (Continued on Page 12)

SEDAN IN THREE SERIES—Ford is offering four-door sedans in three series for 1956. Above is the Customline in one of the 21 two-tone combinations. Thunderbird Y-8 engines in Fairlane models develop 202 horsepower for Fordomatic drive, or 200 hp. for overdrive or conventional drive. In the Customline and Mainline, Y-8 engines produce 176 or 173 hp. The 137 hp Ford six also is available.

New Fords on Display At Foxhall Motor Co.

Safety features offered for the first time by any automobile company, power equal to the Thunderbird, and lower body silhouettes are available in 1956 Ford cars which 6,800 Ford dealers place on display Friday, Sept. 23.

The new Ford cars will be on display Friday in the showroom of Foxhall Motor Company in Memphis.

The new cars will be built in four series offering 18 body styles—two more than in 1955. They are available in 13 solid exterior colors, or 21 two-tone combinations, according to Eddie Foxhall, local Ford dealer.

A "Thunderbird Y-B" engine leads the power selections available for 1956. It is installed on Fairlane and Station Wagon models, and develops 202 horsepower for Fordomatic, or 200 hp. for overdrive or standard transmission.

Customline and Mainline Fords offer a Y-8 engine developing 176 hp. for Fordomatic, or 173 hp. for overdrive or conventional drive. Also, the economical Ford six, increased to 137 hp., is available on all models with all transmission types.

Ford safety research, coupled with studies of medical groups, led to development of a "lifeguard design" in 1956 models.

New door latches give added protection against the chance that doors may open under impact. They have been proved in crash tests at Dearborn, Mich.

To keep the driver's chest from hitting the steering column in a crash, the new three-spoke Ford steering wheel has its center hub recessed three and one-eighth in. below the wheel rim.

Front and rear seat mountings have been strengthened so they will resist greater impact. In addition, Ford offers two optional safety devices. Seat belts, designed to withstand pull up to 4,000 pounds, will help to hold occupants inside cars, and to prevent forward motion. Foam plastic padding for instrument panels and sun visors will help to absorb impact if a person is accidentally thrown forward.

Styling advances in the Ford for '56 include a new grille with oblong parking lights at the outer ends, set in frames which wrap around the fender sides. Body side molding is restyled for Fairlane, Station Wagon and Customline models. Restyled tail lamps and deck lid handles, a larger recessed hood ornament, and a completely new instrument panel are offered in all models.

The 1956 Victoria is one and one-half inches lower than the comparable 1955 model. Two door and four door sedans have new tops reducing total car height almost a full inch. However, headroom was not reduced since the contour change is mostly along the top center line, and fabric headlinings are installed closer to steel top.

A 12-volt electrical is standard on 1956 models, providing 80 per cent faster engine cranking and more capacity to handle the increasing number of accessories being ordered on cars today.

Optional convenience and comfort features in '56 models include power steering, as well as power-operated brakes, seats, and window lifts. Air conditioning, fresh air heaters, and tinted safety glass are available.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Baten and daughter spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weant.

Ford Truck Displayed Sept. 24

1956 Ford trucks will be displayed in Memphis Friday, Sept. 24, in the showroom of the Motor Company, local dealer. This year the company features 200 new truck models with greater engine performance and payload capacity, has announced.

The new models have been added to the Ford truck line—a T-750 model in the heavy pickup, and a new, longer pickup. Gross vehicle weight increased from 5,000 pounds to 42,000 pounds on the heavy-duty tandem axle model.

Ford's cab design increased visibility of the windshield and open rear windows. For the first time in the trucking industry are two safety features—a safety wheel and safety door. Seat belts are optional.

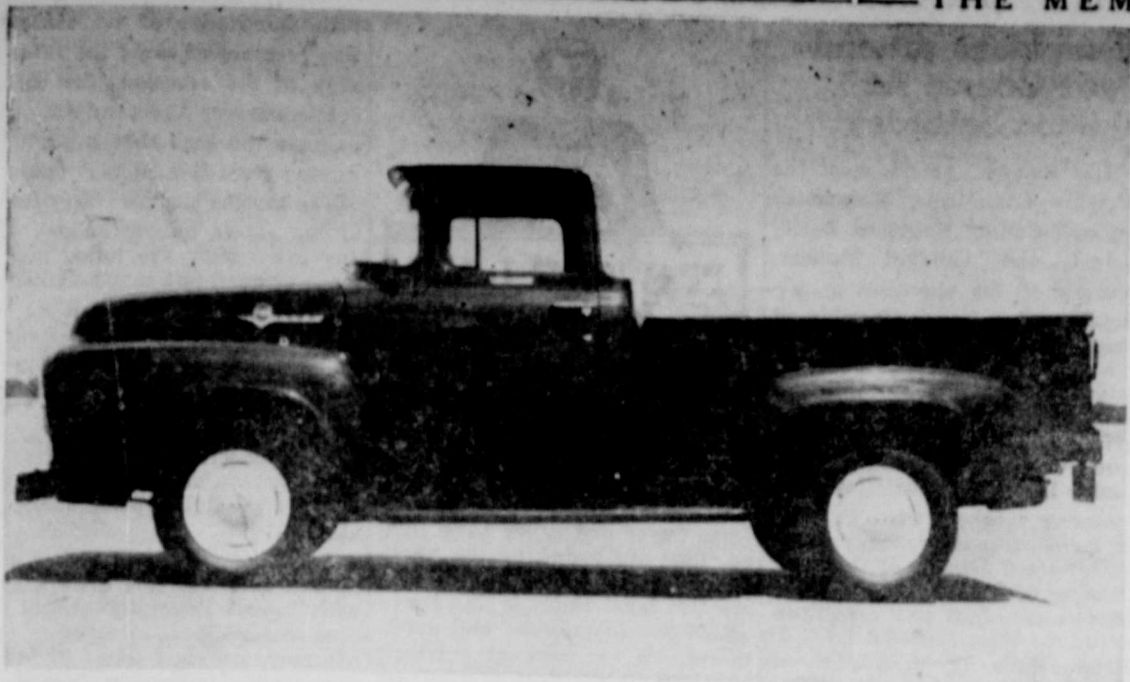

New tires, standard equipment, increase Ford economy. Larger payloads are carried because tubeless wheels weigh less, which means a trucker with as many as 10 tires on his truck, save tire-change time up to 50 per cent.

Short stroke, low friction design has been continued in eight engine combinations for more power, longer life and durability.

Power has been increased in the 223 cu. in. six cylinder engine, by 12.7 per cent in the 133 hp. to 17.6 per cent in the largest 332 cu. in. Y-8 engine rated at 167 hp. when equipped with a carburetor.

The medium-heavy truck series is available equipped with a four-barrel carburetor—the most powerful engines in the weight class.

The heavy truck series, an engine package consists of carburetor, dual exhaust and special cold air intake. This is a hood air scoop, increasing efficiency and performance.

1956 CAB STYLE—Ford's F-100 pickup truck with wraparound windshield and hooded roof is available in a 110 or 118 wheelbase to carry either a 45 or 65 cubic foot box. Powered by a 223 cu. in. I-block six cylinder engine rated at 133 hp. or a 272 cu. in. Y-8 rated at 167 hp. the pickup has five transmissions available; standard, overdrive, Fordomatic and heavy duty 3 speed and 4 speed.

The 332 cu. in. engine develops 200 hp. with this equipment.

In all engines, improved manifold and valving moves the fuel mixture in and out of the combustion chamber more efficiently.

In the Customized cab, foam rubber cushioning five inches deep in the seat and three inches deep in the seat back contribute to driver comfort.

A standard 12 volt electrical system provides better ignition performance, higher generator output and faster cranking speed.

Power steering will be available this year as an option on conventional heavy trucks. It is standard equipment on tandem models with 302 and 332 cu. in. engines. Fordomatic transmission is available this year on P-500 parcel delivery trucks, extending this work saver further up the range of weight classifications.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Posey and Mrs. Albert Gerlach visited in Amarillo Sunday night with Morgan Baker, who is in the hospital there.

Mrs. Albert Gerlach returned home Sunday after a two weeks visit in New Mexico.

Real Estate Sales Contracts No Casual Matter

The signing of a contract of sale is an extremely important step in the purchase of a home. Once buyer and seller have signed, they are bound by the provisions of the contract. Their respective legal rights in the transaction are thereby set and determined. If the contract is poorly and haphazardly drawn, a harvest of regrets may be reaped at a later date.

Sales contracts are often called by other names, such as earnest money contracts, receipts, binders, etc. All of them are for the same purpose and almost without exception involve the deposit of money by the buyer. Some require the seller to put up a good faith deposit. The fact that such deposited sums are usually to be forfeited in event the depositor later fails to go through with his specified contractual obligation lends additional weight to the often stated admonition that no contract should be signed without complete understanding as to its terms.

But many home purchasers (and sellers) rush to sign a hastily prepared contract with very little knowledge of its contents. The pressure of time, the informality of the occasion, the casual appearance of the contract, and perhaps the fact that a partially printed form is used may contribute in causing the true importance of the act to be overlooked. At any rate, many are lulled into a lapse of good business judgment.

Every significant detail of the bargain should be crystallized in unmistakable terms in the contract of sale. Land and fixtures being sold should be clearly described. A complete description of the property by lot and block, or by metes and bounds, is a must, the street number being inadequate by itself.

Articles and fixtures included in the sale but not always sold with houses generally should be specifically listed. Included in this category are such items as venetian blinds, removable floor coverings, draperies, air conditioning units and others. In purchasing property under construction, complete plans and specifications form an essential part of the agreement.

The price to be paid must, of course, be specified, along with method and terms of payment. If a certain sized loan is a prerequisite to the buyer's ability to complete the purchase, this fact should be noted. Sad indeed is the prospective purchaser who loses his earnest money when a contemplated loan transaction falls through, his contract requiring payment of the entire consideration in cash.

The sales contract should also state the quality of the title to be conveyed to the buyer and the type of title evidence to be furnished.

The buyer's individual stances and desires may vary and various matters may be added above or below the printed contract. All too often the buyer squeezes a sales contract into the type of printed form, omitting or leaving to be construed or forgotten many vital provisions. To many, the printed form is a "magic" talisman, and they are lulled into a false sense of security by the words, "I have received a receipt for a house at 1234 Street. Will you take a look and see that everything is

Readers Differ In Ginning Estimates

Contest Will Close Saturday

Readers who expect to enter The Democrat's Annual Cotton Guessing Contest had better hurry or they will be too late, for the deadline for submitting entries is 5 p. m. Saturday. Through Wednesday afternoon, only 103 had made predictions. Guesses so far have ranged from 18,000 to 65,000 bales, and weather does not seem to have had much influence on entries, for the latest ones appeared to follow earlier patterns—some high, some low, and others in between.

The one coming closest to the number of bales ginned in Hall County, as shown by the Census Bureau of the U. S. Department of Commerce, will be declared the winner and awarded a three-year subscription to The Democrat. The runnerup will receive a two-year subscription, and the person coming in third in the contest will get a one-year subscription.

Those who wish to participate may mail in entries or may come by The Democrat office and list them.

Estimates, submitted since last week's Democrat, are as follows: Haula Thompson, Amarillo, 58,001; Shirley Thompson, Amarillo, 51,002; C. H. ### New Uses Found For Fats And Oils

COLLEGE STATION — By chemically modifying familiar fats and oils, such as cottonseed oil, peanut oil, lard, and others, research scientist may soon find surprising new uses of long-time value to farmers in Texas and other states producing products used in the making of fats and oils.

Research scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are chemically changing these well-known fats and oils into new substances which may be used to keep foods fresh longer, make spreads spreadable over a wide range of temperature, produce top quality plastics, and even be used in cosmetics.

These unusual modified fats and oils are known as "acetoglycerides." They have produced at USDA's Southern Regional Laboratory, New Orleans, La., by acetic-acid treatment of ordinary fats and oils. Chief among their unusual properties is an exceptional- ly wide range of plasticity and the ability to exist as nongreasy plastic solids. These qualities make acetoglycerides of great potential value to industry. Furthermore, they can be tailored to give them properties desired for particular uses.

Various acetoglycerides are potentially important for use in cosmetics, including creams, lotions, and lipsticks—and as plasticizers. Plastics made with them have good resistance to weathering, remain clear and flexible at low temperatures. Acetoglycerides can be made colorless odorless, and flavorless. Natural animal fats or vegetable oils used as starting materials make up 80 to 90 percent of the final product.

Acetoglycerides should open many new markets for our increasing supplies of edible fats and oils. At least eight companies have prepared acetoglycerides in the laboratory or pilot plant and two of these companies now offer experimental samples to possible commercial users.

Later McCollum attended Hardin-Simmons University, from which he holds the B. A. and M. A. degrees. While in college he lettered four years in basketball, three in football, and two in track.

Russian 'New Look' Needs Long Look

Russian leaders have been putting on a great show of friendship for the benefit of the Western Democracies recently. But though it may appear the Russians have softened their attitude toward us, we should not be lulled into a false sense of well-being by the so-called "new look" in East-West relations, officially unveiled at the Geneva summit conference, because we ought to know from past experience that the Soviets cannot be trusted. If it turns out that the Reds have changed their ways and really want peace, that will be the most welcome news we will have had since the close of World War II. But to let our guard down and play into their hands probably would be just what the Russians have been wanting us to do. For, chances are, the recent show of friendliness actually has two sides to it:

On one side—the superficial one—the Russians have been unduly ingratiating, with President Bulganin throwing lavish and unprecedented parties for Western diplomats, and U. S. and Russian farmers exchanging visits, with an unlimited amount of hospitality being shown by all concerned. In addition, top Russians have again and again pledged their dedication to peaceful coexistence, with the bluster and the arrogance of the Stalin regime having largely disappeared.

On the other side—the fundamental side—there has as yet been no indication that basic differences between the East and West have begun to be successfully reconciled. As examples, the Russians have given no ground on two goals which are unacceptable to this country. They are abandonment of NATO and withdrawal of U. S. Forces from Europe and the dismantling of bases in Europe, North Africa and the Middle East, and secondly, the return of Formosa to Red China and admission of Red China to U. N. membership.

In a recent major policy speech before the American Bar Association, President Eisenhower made our position clear, stressing three points. He declared that Germany must be reunited, secondly, that Russia must cease to dominate her satellites, and thirdly, that there must be an end to Russian-supported efforts to subvert and communize other nations. So far, Russian leaders have made no move to carry out these aims, even partially. As a matter of fact, a top Soviet only a few days ago informed the world that if anyone had any idea that his country had any thought of discarding the teachings and policies of Lenin and Marx, he had better think again.

In view of all this, it seems to us that we should not be surprised if the communist smiles turn to scowls at any time.

Good Diet Important To Health

In recent years, remarkable progress has been made in the science of nutrition, as new frontiers of knowledge have been opened and many "old wives' tales" pertaining to good and bad eating habits have been proved to be false.

One important discovery nutritionists have made is that a sound diet, for most persons of all ages, must contain a high proportion of proteins, such as are found in meats. And they further found that proteins are just as essential in summer as in winter. So, it would seem that a lot of us need to change our eating habits, because it is well known that in spite of our high standard of living and the plentifulness of foodstuffs, many of us are distinctly careless in this respect. And what applies to adults, also is true of children. Parents should be extra careful about this, because what youngsters eat and the way they eat may well determine their state of health as they grow older.

Cattlemen have been waging an "Eat More Beef" campaign for some time. Since the economy of this area is primarily agricultural, we would help stabilize this economy by eating more meat. But even more important, we would lay the foundation for a happier future, because a sound diet pays large and lasting benefits in the way of physical and mental health and vigor.

So help yourself to a thick, tender steak or roast and feel the difference.

Press Paragraphs— QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Indirect Taxes Increase

Your indirect Texas taxes increased Tuesday because of laws passed by the Texas legislature.

These taxes will add a cent a gallon to gasoline, a cent a package for cigarettes and about a half cent a bottle of beer.

Corporation tax levies were increased from $2 to $2.25 per $1,000 of capital investment.

The people told their legislators that they wanted certain improvements in state services. The legislators obliged by voting tax levies to provide these services.

The taxes on drivers' licenses will be doubled in order to provide many more highway patrolmen. This is a traffic safety measure that received endorsement from many sources.

If you want more good things from your government quickly, the only way to have them is to vote for increased taxes. If you are patient and can wait until some debts are paid, you may get some improvements without higher taxes.

What Happened To This Kid?

Every newspaper runs the little two and three line "fillers" in their editorial columns, and here is one which provoked some editorial comment in a New Orleans newspaper:

Fall To Be Early?

Migratory fowls which come to Texas to spend their winters and song birds which travel through the state and on into even warmer climates to get away from snow and cold, tell a different story to the one that is seen and talked about on the high plains. We mean as regards to the time that fall weather will hit. A report from the Texas Game and Fish Commission says the preliminary migration of southward bound birdlife seems a little ahead of schedule. The first cool spell reached the fringe of the Gulf Coast about 10 days early, says this report and had its proportionate effect on the birds. Ducks, blue wing teals and pintails, arrived on average time and in normal numbers but green wing teal came in unusual numbers. Assorted songbirds moved in, bunched up and got ready for further southward movement. Live oak acorns began falling 10 days early and buck deer began rubbing off the velvet from their horns 14 days early.

Paymaster Gins First Bale At Lakeview Monday

First bale of cotton for the season was ginned Monday at Lakeview by the Paymaster Gin, James Skinner, manager, announced this week.

The bale was brought to Lakeview by Billy Salmon, who was owner of the first bale ginned in Hall County two weeks ago. The bale of pulled cotton weighed 2,020 pounds. From it Salmon got 900 pounds of seed, and the ginned bale weighed 484 pounds.

Business firms at Lakeview donated $40.00 in prize money to Salmon. Skinner bought the bale, paying 38 cents per pound for it. He also ginned it free of charge. The gin manager said that he was glad that everything was in readiness when the first bale arrived, and that repairing had been completed and all new equipment had been installed.

The bale was graded as "middling," and staple length was estimated at 29-32.

Early in the first quarter, Ray Gibson, 189-pound fullback on the Crowell team, went approximately 40 yards in four tries for the first touchdown.

In the third quarter Gibson again went through the Cyclone line for 11 yards and another touchdown. Teammate Roy Don Payne carried over for the extra point.

During the fourth quarter, Memphis, on their 10-yard line, attempted a pitch out which was fumbled over the goal line. Lindell McBeath, 265-pound Wildcat tackle, covered in the end zone for a touchdown. Gibson kicked for the extra point.

Later Gibson returned a Cyclone punt 70 yards and a touchdown, then kicked the extra point. In the closing minute of play, Sustaire went 2 yards through guard for the Cyclone's second tally. Davis added the extra point.

Life Security Benefits Expanded

Considerable number of widowed young children of workmen who died between 1940 and September, 1950, failed to claim the monthly benefits payable to them under a provision in the social security act, announced John R. Sand, manager of the Amarillo Social Security office.

Who do not apply for benefits before October 1, he said, will not be able to claim benefits for all the months between September, 1954, the effective date of the new provision.

Under this provision, it is now possible to pay monthly social security benefits to the qualified widows of workers who died between 1940 and September, 1950, and the deceased wage earner's dependents as little as a year after the social security act was passed in 1935.

Benefits should be made at the Social Security office, Amarillo. A representative of the Amarillo office will be at the Memphis office at 1 p. m., Monday.

Seed Tags Tell Valuable Story

Read the label or tag which is attached to every sack of planting seed before making a purchase, advises Associate Extension Agronomist Lee C. Coffey. The information carried on the tag is for the protection of the buyer and must list the content of noxious weeds if any.

With the small grain planting season at hand, the specialist offers tips which may aid in keeping the farm free from weed enemies. Among the weeds often found in small grains are cheat or chees, jointed goatgrass, wild morning glory, field bindweed, curled dock, Johnson grass and wild oats.

Once a field is infested with primary noxious weeds, the job of cleaning up may require years and considerable expense. damage results from loss of pure as to variety but as laws every sack of seed sold, whether certified or not, should be read.

Coffey says much of the certified seed. They are free of noxious weeds. The tag carries information should be read.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers

Congressman, 18th District

TRANSPORTATION

The big battles shaping the domestic economy will be between the servants of the transportation industry. This is a three-sided battle between the railroads, the motor transport (trucks and buses) on the one side and the water carriers on the other. The third side, the other freight transportation, airlines, are not primarily concerned in this fight because they are outside of the combat in which the railroads and boats find themselves.

Their freight is very important to the country and does not appear to be in any real danger of being raised to cause any trouble in many years. The emphasis will center around rates and taxes, because it is in this particular medium of the industry that it can gain benefits or be subjected to unbearable hardships.

Advisory Committee had members in the motor freight industry. President and who have much more influence on the President than did the members on the Fuel Committee. This is the thing that is disturbing many of the people in the motor freight industry. They feel that the report is definitely a pronouncement of policy by those who are shaping many of the governmental policies at the present time.

It is a problem that must be worked out by the Congress, and I am happy to say that I have the good fortune of being a member of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce which has jurisdiction over this particular part of our domestic economy. I am looking forward with great interest to the extended hearings which will be had on the subject and which commenced on September 19.

An Involuntary Visitor In D. C.

The genial and able Carson County Agricultural Agent, H. M. "Nick" Nichols, has been recuperating in the Walter Reed Army Hospital. I have had some good visits with Nick, and he is getting along fine and hopes to be back on the job before long. He is getting more fan mail than most movie stars, although Nick has never tried to win any beauty contests. He was disturbed about not being able to answer these and is doing his best to catch up with his correspondence. It is good to have a chance to visit with Nick and be brought up to date with the many agricultural activities that he keeps up with so well.

Questions And Answers

We all worry about the many international and domestic problems and where we are going to find the answers. There are always so many questions and so few answers. I found out the other day that grown-ups are not the only ones who are plagued with this trouble. On our way back to Washington, we had stopped overnight in a southern town and had gotten up the next morning for an early start. I took the smaller children next door to a small cafe for a bite of breakfast. One of them, between bites of a cantaloupe, asked me this question, "Daddy, why do they call a cantaloupe a cantaloupe?" If anyone has an answer to this, I would be glad to hear from them. Frankly, I had to refer him to his older brothers and sisters who have not yet been willing to listen to him. I don't think they know the answer.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our friends for the beautiful flowers, letters, cards, gifts and birthday cake on Sept. 14, Mr. Scott's birthday. Especially do we thank Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mrs. S. B. Foxhall for their deeds of kindness, and all who helped make it a success. We appreciate it more than we can find words to express. May the Lord bless and keep you in our prayer. Mr. and Mrs. Belitha Scott.

Hunting Permits Not Needed Under 17

AUSTIN—Persons under seventeen years of age do not need regular licenses to hunt or fish in Texas, according to Howard D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

In a clarifying statement, he said some confusion has been caused through a new state law exempting persons sixty-five of age or older from buying hunting and fishing licenses which has a companion measure decreeing that persons under sixteen years of age did not have to buy licenses. An old law exempting residents under seventeen was not repealed hence this statute still prevails.

The executive secretary emphasized that young and old in the free category must obtain exempt licenses when hunting deer because of the deer tagging law affecting all hunters.

Freshman Girls Initiated Into Memphis FHA

Sophomore members of the Memphis Future Homemakers of America initiated 26 freshman girls into the organization with day-long initiation ceremonies on Monday.

The new members wore garbs designed to make them appear as Siamese twins—look the same in back as front. They wore short skirts with slips showing and men's pajamas under the slip. A sweater with a blouse sewed on the back and men's shoes completed their attire. Over their heads they wore paper sacks with a face painted on the back and front.

The Sophomore Big Sisters kept the girls busy with such tasks as sweeping the sidewalk with tooth brushes, carrying big sister's books, mocking their classmates, and blowing straws across the sidewalk.

A sack lunch was enjoyed at noon by the members with the new members furnishing the driuks.

After school, the group sold Christmas cards, and later collected coupons from cake mixes, etc. The club plans to save the coupons to buy a set of silverware for the Homemaking Department.

A formal initiation service will be held for the new members in early October.

Local Legionnaires To Attend Meeting

Several members of the Simmons-Noel Post American Legion plan to attend the 18th district convention at Clarendon on Saturday and Sunday. The local post, along with the Scout troop here, will participate in the parade which will be staged at 2 p. m. Saturday. The Legion and Scout troop will have colors and color guards in the parade.

Hubert Dennis, commanded of the local post, reports that the 200 members which were pledged by him to the Department commander have been secured. This is 44 above the 1955 total membership and is a commendable feat, as the membership drive does not officially start until Oct. 1.

Among important personalities who will attend the Clarendon meeting are: Joe L. Matthews of Fort Worth, state membership and post activities chairman; and Earl Rudder, Commissioner of the General Land Office. Both will address the convention Sunday.

An election will be held during a Sunday afternoon business session to elect an 18th district commander to fill the unexpired term of Paul Spillman of Wellington, who was elevated to department vice commander when elected Fifth Division commander recently.

The annual convention date is to be held Saturday evening. Spillman will preside at the session until his successor as district commander is chosen.

Four-H Members Of County Take Honors At Fair

Hall County Four-H members chalked up some impressive victories at fairs in Amarillo and Shamrock this past week.

At the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, Raymond Earl Hall of Lakeview, exhibited the grand and reserve champion Hereford female in the Four-H and FFA division, according to W. B. Hooser, county agricultural agent.

Miss Dukett the 30th, was first place winner and the grand champion and Raymond Earl's other calf placed first in the Senior Heifer Calf class and was the reserve champion. Hall also exhibited a fourth place Junior Heifer Calf in the open division and showed the fifth place Senior Hereford Calf winner.

Rounding out his victories was a first place in the Panhandle Special, with two heifer calves in the open division.

In the swine department, Roy Molloy of Lakeview, had the first place aged Duroc boar. The animal later was judged the senior champion and grand champion of the show.

Jimmy Don Molloy, a brother of Roy, won seventh place with his Sears boar and Paul Thompson, Jr., of Lakeview, owned the twelfth place Sears gilt.

Cotton Gathering Service Is Opened

Plans were announced this week to help Hall and Donley County farmers obtain hands to gather their cotton crops this fall.

According to William M. Cross of Clarendon, farm placement interviewer of the Texas Employment Commission, farmers should contact him, listing the number of workers they need, and when and where they will need them, and he will make every effort to obtain the pullers.

Cross, a former Hall County resident, has set up headquarters at Bruce Bros. Service Station.

Good Rains

hear this forecast out, as they did not seem too heavy. However, thunder continued to boom at more frequent intervals and eventually the sky opened and gave Memphis and the immediate territory a pleasant dousing.

Saturday afternoon and night, 1.02 inches of rain was recorded here, which added to this morning's fall, made a total of 1.58 inches so far this month. The rains which were the first of any consequence in this section since prolonged downpours stopped the last part of July, were reported to be fairly general.

Because of the long siege of dry weather, cotton, feed and other crops in this area have suffered considerably, particularly on tight land. However, moisture the past few days should prove beneficial and help fill out cotton bolls and grain sorghums.

Low temperatures here the past several days have been in the low and middle 60's, while highs generally have run from the low to middle 90's.

One would have to be a short-hand writer to get down all such remarks and then he would miss a lot that was said out of hearing distance from him.

Area residents should make it a point to circle Oct. 21 and 22, so they will be sure not to miss the Festival, which provides an unlimited amount of entertainment but in addition pays tribute to Old King Cotton, the principal source of income for people in this section.

of Sundance, Wyo. They are one of the largest carnivals showing in this section in recent years, Johnson says. Their entertainment features include five or more rides, two shows and 20 other attractions. They will be open two days prior to the Festival, for the accommodation of Hedley area residents.

Most of last year's free attractions are expected to be back, as well as many new ones. Headlining the new attractions will be the Texas Indian Dancers from Borger. This group of entertainers consists of 20 Boy Scouts of first class or higher rank, recruited from 14 different units. They will perform on Saturday morning and again in the afternoon and will appear in the grand parade at 1:30 o'clock that afternoon.

Area residents should make it a point to circle Oct. 21 and 22, so they will be sure not to miss the Festival, which provides an unlimited amount of entertainment but in addition pays tribute to Old King Cotton, the principal source of income for people in this section.

give the Canadian team a hard tussle.

So far, Memphis has won from Tulsa, 19-6, and lost to Crowley, 36-14. In their opener, the Wildcats edged Wheeler, 13-6, in a hard-fought contest, and last week tied the strong Perryton Rangers, 13-13. Canadian has been rated as one of the top A teams in this region by the Amarillo Daily News, so the Memphis Cyclone should have an evening's work cut out for them if they keep the Wildcats under control.

Scheduled to be in the starting lineup for Memphis, besides Davis and Young, are the following regulars: Jimmy Jenkins and Morris Campbell, ends; Paul Wilson and McQueen, tackles; Jerry Hill and Dickey Craig, guards; John Deaver, center; and James Dickey and Dean Sustaire, halfbacks.

A case which began Monday afternoon and ended Tuesday morning resulted from a four-car collision on Highway 287, southeast of Memphis, which occurred Feb. 19 of last year, during a bad duststorm. The jury which heard testimony decided that the accident was unavoidable.

The chain reaction started when Jonathan Jordan Simmons of White Deer, slowed his car because of poor visibility. The second car was driven by Ernest Foster of Memphis, the third by Eugene Louis Marek of Pampa, and the fourth, by Kirby Beckett of Dallas. Simmons was the plaintiff in the case and Marek was the defendant.

All of the cars were headed toward Memphis. No one was injured seriously, according to investigating officers.

Members of the jury commission, appointed Aug. 19 by Judge Gribble, are Roger Arnold, Turkey, Mrs. Joe Eddins, Estelline, Buster Helm, Memphis, Mrs. Joe Durham, Lakeview, and R. D. Hall of Pliska. They are responsible for selecting jurors.
