TALL IN THE SADDLE — This novice cowboy will find that being thrown over the head of a wild bronco is especially dangerous because of the trampling hooves. But chills, thrills and excitement are the rule for the justly world-famous Texas Prison Rodeo. Don't miss the 25th Annual show. Performances each Sunday afternoon in October at Prison Stadium, Huntsville, Texas.

FARMERS NAME COMMUNITY COMMITTEEMEN; CONVENTION SELECTS NEW ASC LEADERS

Over 600 County Farmers Vote

Results in the community committee elections were tabulated last week with over 600 Hall County farmers voting, according to Lynn McKown, secretary of the county election board.

At Lesley, Johnnie W. Driver was elected as community chairman, Joe N. Berry, vice-chairman and Jack Moreman, member of the board. D. C. Hall, Jr., and J. P. Montgomery, Jr. were selected as first and second alternates, respectively.

Cecil R. Whitten is chairman at Plaska and David V. Sasser is vice-chairman. Lillburn A. Bray is a member of the community committee and alternates to the committee are Jess Roden, first, and K. D. Nabers, Jr., second.

At Lakeview, Lovie P. Alexander was picked as chairman and Glen Verden as vice-chairman. Elmer J. Teel is the third member of the committee. Alternates are John W. Longshore, first, and J. B. Byars, second.

Memphis results showed Roy L. Gresham, chairman, and Felix E. Jarrell, vice-chairman. Tom W. Collins is a member; Oscar Maddox, first alternate, and W. B. Waddill, second alternate.

In Estelline John E. Berryman is chairman and Elam R. Orcutt is vice-chairman. Willie B. Davidson is the third member. Raymond A. Caldwell and Bruce Damron are the alternates.

Turkey results showed Norris D. McCoy as chairman and Lynn C. Davis as vice-chairman. Robert E. Proctor was named member of the board and the alternates are Billie C. Fuston and Otho R. Stubbs.

Ballots were counted Thursday, Sept. 20, by the county tabulation board composed of Thomas U. Hughes, Milton A. Basley, Jr., A. C. Sams, D. A. Neeley, C. L. Sloan and Roy Russell.

Cyclone Meets Panhandle Fri.

The Memphis Cyclone football team will journey to Panhandle Friday night for a game scheduled to begin at 8 p. m.

Memphis will be minus three valuable players this week, Coach D. C. Andrews said Wednesday night. Ted Wheeler, defensive halfback, will be out with a pulled ligament in his shoulder; Butch Adcock, fullback, has a sprained ankle, and Don Townsend injured a blood vessel in his leg, Andrews reported.

Last week Panhandle beat McLean 20-0 and in the opening game of the season they were defeated by Wellington 27-7.

In last week's play Memphis defeated Estelline by a score of 33-0.

One of the highlights of last Friday night's spectacle was the half-time performance of the Memphis High School Band as they depicted a make-believe version of the Creation of Texas.

The band marched to the center of the field playing "The Eyes of Texas" and dispersed into the outline of the map of Texas.

At this point the field lights were turned out and the band members each turned on flash lights which illuminated their feet. Miss Kathy Phillips, band director, stated over the public address system that Gabriel, vice-president in charge of Texas, decided to make ranch country out of the area, at which point a "cowboy" in the person of Linda Fields, majorette, dressed as a "nightclub cowgirl," came onto the field and into the center of a spotlight while the band played "I'm An Old Cowboy."

Next, according to the narrative, the cowboys needed something to dream about. So, while the band played "The Yellow Rose of Texas" the kind of yellow rose about which cowboys might dream, appeared in the person of Majorette Shirley Reed.

To finance this yellow rose the cowboy needed money; so as the band played "Happy Days Are Here Again," Majorette Barbara Allen appeared with a small size oil well.

Now, the narrative continued, Gabriel considered his creation well high perfect; so he topped it off by creating real Southern hospitality and placing a great big heart in the middle of Texas. This was portrayed by Majorette Quida Massey bearing a large red heart which sparkled in the spotlight in the center of the formation as the band played "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

The band re-entered block formation and left the field playing "The Eyes of Texas."

Boys, Girls Club Meeting Set for Oct. 4 at City Hall

A reorganization meeting of adults interested in the Memphis Boys and Girls Club has been called for Thursday, Oct. 4, by Frank Smith, Jr., director. The group will gather at the City Hall in Memphis at 7:30 p. m.

Invited to attend are the parents of boys and girls who have been members of the organization, and all adults who will take part in club activities and supervision, Smith stated.

"We are needing more adult leaders to help in directing the program of both boys and girls during the next seven months," he stated. "Every person who has approved our program in the past is urged to be present."

Smith was instrumental in organizing a Memphis Boys Club in November, 1954. Later a program was instituted for girls. The boys learned tumbling, and became proficient in it during the first year. Last year the club purchased a trampolin, which has been used extensively since that time. The Memphis boxing team came from the membership of the club.

Last year Smith was assisted by the following adult leaders: H. R. Crawford, Alvin Dunbar, Billy Thompson, Alvin Massey and Mrs. Rhupert Wynn.

Paula Gentry Named To Hereford Assn.

Paula Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gentry of Memphis, this week was named to junior membership in the American Hereford Association, the world's largest purebred registry organization, with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

Seventy-five junior Hereford breeders were placed on the association's official roster during August. The association maintains active accounts for more than 80,000 breeders of registered Herefords over the nation.

Assembly of God Announces Special Drive for October

Rev. C. V. Davis, pastor of the Assembly of God, announced this week that a month of special visitation activities will be held by the local church during October.

Assemblies of God churches all over the nation will sponsor similar campaigns. "Assignment: America" has been selected as the theme for their annual Sunday School enlargement program, Rev. Davis said.

Friends and neighbors in the territory will be invited to attend Sunday School, if they do not already have a church home, the pastor stated.

The campaign will be launched with a Special Sunday School Rally Day on Oct. 7, Rev. Davis continued.

Pastor Davis stated that on the last Sunday in October, attendance for the local church will be reported to the denominational headquarters in Springfield, Mo. A report of the attendance of all Assemblies of God Sunday Schools will then be given over their international broadcast, Revival Time, Rev. Davis said.

"The Assemblies of God have become well known for their Sunday School emphasis and are recognized as one of the fastest growing denominations in existence today," the pastor said.

In 1954, the denomination conducted the world's largest Sunday School Convention in the Del Auditorium, St. Louis, Mo., with over 11,000 registered delegates, Rev. Davis concluded.

The Assembly of God Church is located at 622 North 11th Street.

ASC Office Gets Perfect Audit

R. G. Shrauner, chairman of the state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, notified Lynn McKown, of the ASC office here, this week that the books in the office were in perfect audit following the annual inspection last week.

Dick Baggett, state ASC auditor, spent about a week checking the books in the local office.

In the letter Shrauner said, "I notice that your county office recently had a perfect audit with no exceptions developed or recommendations made."

"You and your entire staff are to be commended for the efficient operation of the programs and activities applicable in the county during the period of audit," he concluded.

Guessing Contest To End Saturday

So, don't delay! Friday and Saturday are the last days. Drop by the office of this newspaper and list your guess or send it in by card or letter. And, if you mail your estimate, be sure to include your return address.

Winners will be determined next spring when the Department of Commerce releases the official ginning figures.

liams Doty, Dean of the College of Fine Arts at the University of Texas, and graduated from the University in May, 1955.

The delegates re-elected the same committee that held the positions last year. R. A. Eddleman of Estelline is chairman of the county committee and T. R. Fuston of Turkey is vice-chairman. Joe C. Montgomery of Memphis is the third member of the committee. First alternate is D. V. Sasser of Memphis and second alternate is J. B. Byars of Lakeview.

Dr. E. H. Boaz Sentenced to Life In June Slaying

Dr. E. H. Boaz, 72, former resident of Memphis, was found guilty of murder with malice by a 29th District Court jury in Palo Pinto this week and assessed life imprisonment.

The gray-haired retired physician from Mineral Wells was charged with the rifle slaying of Sgt. 1-c Elmer Shaffer of Wolters Air Force Base at the Boaz home June 16.

Mrs. Shaffer testified her husband was shot to death in the living room of the Boaz home Saturday night, June 16, after the two families had spent almost all day visiting together.

Mrs. Shaffer said she and her husband had been friends of Dr. and Mrs. Boaz for about two years and that they had gone on fishing trips together to Possum Kingdom.

She stated that on the day of the slaying the Boazes had supper at the Shaffers' trailer house and then left for home.

Mrs. Boaz returned to the Shaffer home about dark "to make a report" to her, Mrs. Shaffer testified.

Mrs. Shaffer awakened her (Continued on page Twelve)

Shari Gentry Wins Spell-Down Tuesday

Shari Gentry won the spell-down held this week over the Memphis Hour, Mary Foreman, county superintendent, stated yesterday.

Conroy Lacy, county champion last year, placed second in the contest. Lesley Helm was third place winner.

Other Hall County students who competed in the event were Burl Bumpas, Noel Long and Billy Doh Lane.

"We had to get out of the assigned list of words in order to decide the winner between Lacy and Gentry," Miss Foreman said.

Next week two sixth grade students from each of the four county schools will appear on the program for another spell-down, she said.

"This program is each Tuesday from 11 to 11:30 a. m. over the Childress radio station," she concluded.

Soil Bank Wheat Payments To Be In Cash or Grain

Compensation to farmers for reducing their 1957-crop winter wheat acreage below their wheat allotment, designating such acreage for inclusion in the Soil Bank's Acreage Reserve Program, will be in the form of negotiable certificates, R. G. Shrauner, the Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced.

The certificates are redeemable in cash through regular banking channels, or they may be redeemed in grain by the producer to whom they are issued. The certificates will be issued after the County ASC Committee can determine that the acreage requirements of the program have been met.

Shrauner explained that the amount of compensation for wheat on the farm will be determined by multiplying the base unit rate per bushel for the county by the smaller of (1) the normal yield for the farm or (2) the normal yield for the land designated in the agreement as the Acreage Reserve; this figure will then be multiplied by the number of acres determined as the acreage for compensation. The base unit rate per bushel varies by counties.

Except that the wheat acreage placed in the Acreage Reserve for a farm may not exceed the wheat allotment, the maximum wheat acreage which may be "reserved" is generally 50 per cent of the allotment or 50 acres, whichever is larger. The minimum wheat acreage which may be placed in the Acreage Reserve is 3 acres or the allotment, whichever is smaller.

Land in the Acreage Reserve must not be cropped or grazed during the period of the Soil Bank agreement. If any winter wheat is grown on the farm this fall, Acreage Reserve agreements for the 1957 wheat crop must be signed by September 21, 1956.

Old Idea
Your eyes can give you away — and since they can, beauty-minded women have been concentrating on the attractiveness of their eyes for so many years. For example, the idea of eye lotion to soothe overworked eyes is not a new idea. Records show that women of the 16th century had already discovered this quick and pleasant solution to an ageless problem.

Office Tips
Work in an office? Here are some tips that will help you fight that mid-afternoon let-down that seems to attack everyone: Give your eyes a break by improving your lighting. Rest your eyes for a few seconds every hour or so (just close them and massage gently with your finger tips). Try a drop or two of eye lotion and don't force your eyes to do more than they can take. Chances are these simple remedies will give you the lift you need to finish out the day at top efficiency.

Among Memphians who were in Amarillo Saturday afternoon to attend the Holiday on Ice show at the Tri-State Fair were Mrs. Gayle Greene and daughters, Ginger and Carol, Mrs. R. S. Greene, Mrs. T. J. Dunbar, Mrs. T. M. Harrison and Mrs. Muffett Merrill.

Mrs. Byron Baldwin was a Clarendon visitor Sunday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mrs. Bertha Wilburn.

TAX TIPS

from the office of James Z. Pearce
Box 270
Amarillo, Texas

Parents of youngsters who are working during the summer vacation were reminded today by James Z. Pearce, Administrative Officer of the Amarillo, Texas Office of Internal Revenue Service, that under certain circumstances their children may still be claimed as full exemptions for Federal Income Tax purposes. And the children themselves may be entitled to refunds in whole or part of income taxes withheld from their wages during their employment. The special exemption rule applies to children who will still be under 19 years of age at the end of the year and to children who are full-time students, regardless of their age.

Exemption may be claimed by the parents if they contribute more than half the child's support, regardless of the amount earned by the child. This new law was passed by Congress in 1954. Prior to 1954, no person earning $600 or more could be claimed as a dependent by another taxpayer. Inquiries received, however, indicate that many who are entitled to this benefit are not aware of it. And some parents continue to have their dependent children stop work before earning $600. Children 19 and over must be engaged in full-time study at a recognized educational institution for at least five months of the year or must be pursuing full-time accredited on-farm training program.

Any questions regarding individual cases should be referred to the Amarillo office, P. O. Box 270.

Deductions

If you expect to claim itemized deductions for contributions, taxes, interest, medical expense, etc., on your 1956 income tax return, then you had better keep a daily record of the exact amounts paid.

"The reason is clear," Pearce said, "since the taxpayer must be able to substantiate in full each deduction claimed if his return is selected for audit."

"The record need not be complicated. A simple pocket diary or desk calendar pad is sufficient to list deductible expenses. This record, supported by receipts, is worth many times the cost of keeping it. Ordinary records should not be destroyed for at least three years after you file your return, since all income tax returns are subject to examination," Pearce cautioned.

Gridiron Rules

For many of us, the coming of fall sports means switching from the role of participant to that of spectator. But there are still some safety problems involved even in watching a football game. Be sure you are warm enough — but don't overdo it or you will be miserable and run a fine chance of coming down with a cold; watch your footing getting in and out of the stadium—there's no penalty for unnecessary mess to keep spectators. Protect your eyes by wearing glasses to guard against glare of late afternoon sun. Use some eye drops to relieve discomfort which often is the result of too great a contrast of wind and sun.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pearce visited in Ashtola Sunday and Mrs. Henry Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinetown visited in Hedley Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Springer.

Every farmer of this area knows the importance of getting EVERY DOLLAR POSSIBLE from EVERY BALE OF COTTON ginned this season. Every person connected with the operation of these two farmer-owned gins knows this, and have made plans accordingly. We intend to give YOU the BEST STAPLE and TURNOUT it is possible for fine gin plants to produce.

Both plants have been put in top condition for the job ahead. Good crews have been hired to handle your cotton. When the pressure is on, they'll gin it without delay, but at the same time will do the best they can to give you a bale which will bring you the best price.

We wish to thank each and every person who ginned with us last season. You made it possible for us to have a good year. Bring your cotton back to the Farmers Union Gins again in 1956. Keep in mind these gins are owned by farmers, operated by farmers for the benefit of cotton growers of this area. It all adds up to more money in your pocket when the last bale is ginned and the last load of seed is sold.

Smoke Gets in Your Eyes

Leaf disposal is the scourge of the average homeowner this time of the year. Watch out for rakes buried beneath piles of leaves. Think twice before selecting a site for burning them — and once the fire is started stay a safe distance away from it. Sparks have a habit of flying and the wind often changes its course. Smoke from these fires can be extremely irritating to the eyes. If you are exposed, try using a few drops of eye lotion to ease the smarting sensation.

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with Extension Services in other states is compiling a list of areas and producers who have surplus hay which can be shipped to Texas. Local county agents can furnish more information on the program.

Around and About
by Helen Combs

Quiet reigns supreme around our house this week . . . broken only by the blare of the radio or TV tuned a wee bit too high in an attempt to break the stillness . . . Sunday saw our son Billy off to college, and our daughter Pat, her husband A. J. and our granddaughter Susan off on the first leg of their journey to New Jersey.

If you missed our column last week, perhaps you have our granddaughter to blame . . . but since we won't be seeing her again for six months, we crowded a lot of "spilling" into one week!

We missed the football game last week but heard about it, and the excellent performance staged at the half-time by the Memphis High School Band. After some inquiry, we learned the attractive costumes worn by the twirlers were designed and fashioned by the girls themselves with the assistance of Miss Phillips.

The officers of 7th District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, have chosen Memphis as one of the five cities in the district in which to hold a workshop. The workshop will be held on Wednesday of next week and will provide an excellent opportunity for club women to become better acquainted with federation work.

We are sure the officers who are conducting the session will have much valuable information. If you are a Federated club member, be sure to attend and bring with you a sack lunch for the noon hour.

Two well-known Memphians are seriously ill this week in hospitals in other towns. Earl Pritchett, who has been a barber in Memphis for many years, is to undergo surgery in a Wichita Falls hospital this week. Then, that lovable oldtimer, Mrs. R. C. Walker, is critically ill in a Plainview hospital after suffering a stroke on Sept. 16.

Once again this week we were reminded it's wonderful to live in Memphis where our friends have a sense of humor! Try as hard as we may, errors of one kind and another have a way of passing the proof readers and hitting us in the face as soon as the paper is published. Recently we wrote a local news item about Mrs. Wylye Whitley, Mrs. Clyde Milam and Mrs. Violet Gillenwater visiting in Lubbock, telling with whom each had visited . . . but lo, when the item appeared in print everything was left out with the exception of Mrs. Whitley, whom we had visiting her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wayne Brannum . . . Actually Mrs. Brannum is Mrs. Gillenwater's daughter-in-law and Mrs. Whitley had visited her granddaughter, Doris Pritchard. Since we're like one big family here in Memphis—naturally Mrs. Whitley had some explaining to do to her friends!

A short squib in Douglas Meador's column in The Matador Tribune last week caught my eye. Here it is: "Elegance in a home is not always a symbol of contentment nor is it a warranty of happiness. The finer qualities of life are not affected by the size of

Officers of Seventh District, FFWC To Hold Workshop in Memphis on Oct. 3

The president of Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Robert Lindsey of Borger, is holding five workshops for federated clubs in different sections of the district the first week in October. The workshops will be held in Dumas, Canadian, Tahoka, Littlefield and Memphis. The Memphis meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 3, at the First Christian Church in Memphis. Beginning at 9:30 a. m., the meeting will continue until 3 p. m. All members of the five federated clubs of the City are urged to attend and bring a sack lunch for the noon hour.

The elected officers of the district will conduct the workshop. Mrs. Lindsey will preside and will be assisted by Mrs. A. T. Cavanaugh of Lubbock, Mrs. R. B. Jones of Plains and Mrs. T. J. Sears of Snyder.

Local social chairmen will have charge of the lunch. The chairmen are Mrs. Weldon McCreary, Delphian Club Mrs. Herbert Curry, Atalantean Club; Mrs. R. E. Clark, Woman's Culture Club; Mrs. Gayle Greene, 1913 Study

The officers of the district will be entertained with a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard by club presidents and district board members on Tuesday evening, Oct. 2, at 7 p. m.

Mrs. N. A. Hightower, president of the Atalantean Club, is general chairman. Other club presidents who will be present are Mrs. J. L. Barnes, president of the Delphian Club; Mrs. Brode Hoover, president of the Woman's Culture Club; Mrs. K. S. Greene, vice president of the 1913 Study Club; and Mrs. A. O. Gidden, president of the Pathfinders' Club. District board members are: Mrs. Boyd Rogers, chairman of Texas Pioneer Families and Personalities; Mrs. L. C. Martin, program consultant for Clubs in Foreign Lands; Mrs. W. C. Dickey, chairman of Mobilization and Headquarters Maintenance on the state board, and Mrs. Kinard, on the executive committee of Seventh District; and chairman of Religions of the World Dept. on the state board.

'Week of Prayer' Is Observed By Estelline WMS

The W. M. S. of the Estelline Baptist Church observed the "Week of Prayer" programs for State Missions with afternoon meetings held on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday.

The youth auxiliaries presented the program on Wednesday evening. Mrs. E. F. Kennedy was chairman and the youth choir was directed by Paula Adams accompanied by Burl Bumpas. Speakers were: Gary Joe Rogers, Burl Bumpas, Gerry Kennedy, Pauline Buchanan, Diane Fowler, Elaine Seay, Laynette Seay, Rebecca Moore. Scriptures were read by Paula Adams, Jo Carroll Cooper, Jill Cooper, Nancy and Susan Mothershed.

Friday the ladies had a morning program and took covered dishes. An offering was made for State Missions.

Something to Think About When You Buy Your TV Set

Of all the Philco TV sets which I have sold in Hall County in 1953, 1954, 1955 and 1956, only two customers that I know of have, as yet, spent anything on them, and that was for some small tubes.

And not a customer that I know of has spent even a thin dime on any Philco TV set which I have sold in the last 18 months!

Is that what you want . . . one that does not cost much for service in the long run? If so, let me explain our Guarantee and prove the above statements.

If any one tells you different from the above statements, just ask them who it was, and then check for the truth.

Come in and let me demonstrate the picture and tone that I think you will agree is the best. They are not the best because I sell them but because I had first choice of agencies.

Both the price and terms are reasonable

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers
Congressman, 18th District

Congressman's Desk Top

explained that it was very simple. He had his desk divided like a section of land — that is, the NE quarter, the NW quarter, the SE quarter, and SW quarter. When he filed any item, whether it be a document, a piece of paper, a memorandum, a book or otherwise, he only had to remember which quarter he had filed it in. I have seen him when one of his clients would come in and say, "Judge, I wrote you a letter about two weeks ago concerning a certain subject." The wheels in the Judge's head would begin to click, and he would say, "Oh yes, I filed that in the SE quarter." He would then plunge into that quarter section of the desk and promptly come up with the document in question. I must admit that I have never become as adept as the Judge in developing this system. I am always surprised at some of the things I find on my desk when I clean it off. He never was.

I often wonder what he would do under the present day programs if an internal revenue man should come in and demand that he produce some of the records that are required by federal law and regulation to be preserved for at least two years. I have always suspected that he would have told the federal agent that the records were in the NE quarter and that full permission was granted to the agent to find them. Had this ever happened, I would have then wondered what the agent would do, because I know that no one could have found anything on that desk other than the Judge. However, the answer to the question is lost to posterity, because the Judge has passed on. His life was spent before the full impact of federal bureaucratic rules, edicts, regulations, directives, etc., became the order of the day. Which is all probably for the best, because I am dead certain that the Judge would never have complied with all of the present day regulations and requirements, and I certainly would not have wanted to see a gentleman and a scholar of his fine qualities in trouble with the law — especially with the federal law.

Since clean desk tops in the Congress seem to be the exception rather than the rule, I have suspected that some of the Members who brag about their desk neatness are, perhaps, slaves of the habit of stuffing all unfinished business into the desk drawers, thereby hiding the real evidence. I had thought seriously of adopting this practice, but after giving it all due thought and consideration, I have decided against it for two reasons. First, I am firmly convinced that a cluttered desk top indicates activity — past, present and future. In the second place, my desk drawers are already full.

3443 Texans Drafted During Month of August

AUSTIN — A total of 3,443 Texans entered the armed forces in August, and 3,523 were separated from active service during the same time.

This was revealed Friday in a report made by State Selective Service headquarters to national Selective Service headquarters in Washington.

Of the 3,443 individuals entering the uniformed services from Texas in August, only 600 were drafted, the remainder entering by enlistment or other voluntary means.

"Actually, many of the inducted men were volunteers," Colonel Morris C. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said.

He explained that a provision of the State Selective Service regulations allows men from the age of 17 to 26 to volunteer for induction through draft boards. Seventeen-year-olds must have written consent from their parents or guardians.

State Selective Service sent 965 men to armed forces examining stations during August. A total of 636 were found acceptable, the remaining 329 being rejected, a rejection rate of 34 per cent.

One man was inducted during the month from the National Guard because of failure to perform his reserve obligations in the Guard. Texas inducted registrants for 15 other states in August.

Three physicians were examined for military service during August under provisions of the doctors' draft law. All were found acceptable. There were no inductions of medical personnel.

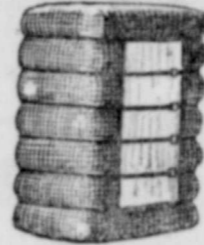

Since most Texas livestock, due to the prolonged drouth, are being fed, the job of controlling lice and ticks can be effectively and economically carried out. Herds generally are confined to smaller areas and thus are readily accessible for spraying or dipping. Parasite free livestock will better utilize the feed they receive and will go into the winter season in a stronger condition.

If soil samples are to be submitted to the soils laboratory for testing, now is the time to get them in. M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist in charge of the lab, says business is slack and fast service can be assured.

The Friendly

The Efficient

Memphis Farmers Cooperative Gin

Again in 1956, as in each past year, every cotton grower is invited to take advantage of the services and share in the benefits that have been offered producers of this area for a long time. The rebates you receive at the end of the season are not the only benefits you receive when you bring your cotton to the Memphis Farmers Co-Op Gin.

The kind of ginning you get here also is important. Our plant has been designed to meet the needs of cotton growers of this area. We have the equipment necessary to get you a good sample and give you a good turnout.

We'll Help You Get Those Field Hands

We are working with our farmer friends in helping them to get boll pullers to gather this year's crop. Just let us know if you need help. We're fortunate to have obtained several families of pullers, and will get more crews as the weeks go by. Come in and let us know your individual situation regarding hands.

Cotton buyers are coming by our office regularly, and will be making you an offer on this year's crop, if you want to sell immediately.

REMEMBER

The more you gin here—the more your dividend check will be!

Verl A. Teeter Addresses Assembly

High school and junior high students heard an interesting lecture in general assembly Tuesday, Sept. 27, on the subject of Vocational Planning. The speaker was Verl A. Teeter, staff associate of Science Research Associates.

Mr. Teeter, in his discussion, listed four requisites of happiness. They were being successful, having friends, preserving health and having faith in yourself, others and God.

He went on to say a student's record in school counts out in life. This takes his grades, attendance, feeling toward other students and teachers and his test results. A student must be likable. He must do away with annoying habits, the speaker pointed out.

He concluded by pointing out that vocational planning consists of learning and understanding "about yourself—aptitudes, personality, health. Learning about the world of occupations and matching knowledge of yourself and the information about the occupation. And then training for the occupation."

Catch The Rain Where It Falls

Nowdays millions of people think of flood control as something that requires huge multi-purpose dams costing an incredible sum of tax money.

The truth is that big-scale flood control, in case after case, can be better effected at vastly lower cost, by small upstream dams.

This story was recently told in a National Munciple Review article by Peter Farb. He dealt with what has been on a stream in Western Oklahoma which formerly suffered an average of nine floods per year. The Soil Conservation Service— with only pennies to spend where big dam groups spend dollars—solved the problem by the upstream approach. "The upstream approach is as different from the big-dam approach as earth is from concrete," he writes. While SCS diminishes floods by trapping water upstream, and thus minimizes downstream flood conditions, the Army Engineers try to control already swollen rivers. These upstream dams are about 1/2000th the size of a typical big-dam built by the engineers and the cost is comparably less.

During the last session Congress changed the provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act in order to make it easier for farmers and ranchers to receive the benefits of the act. Local organizations and districts with the authority to sponsor watershed projects can now get the following:

1. Federal assistance in planning and carrying out works of improvement for flood prevention; agricultural phases of water management, including irrigation and drainage; and municipal and industrial water supplies and streamflow regulation.

2. Assistance when the watershed is smaller than 250,000 acres; when the benefits of the project exceed the costs; when the agency designated by the Governor of our state approves the application; when the district and the Department of Agriculture agree on a work plan; and then Federal funds will be appropriated to provide the help recommended in the plan.

3. The work plan can include single structures that have a total capacity of 25,000 acre-feet but the capacity of any single structure for flood prevention is limited to 5,000 acre-feet.

4. If funds are available, work can start after approval of the work plan by the Department of Agriculture, provided Federal contribution to construction costs does not exceed $250,000 or the work plan does not contain any single structure having more than 2,500 acre-feet of total capacity.

5. If the work plan exceeds the above Federal construction cost or structure capacity limitations it must be reviewed by other federal agencies for a maximum of 30 days; be transmitted to the Congress by the President; by approved by the resolutions of the Senate and House Committees on Agriculture, except that plans containing any single structure having a total capacity of more than 4,000 acre-feet must be approved by the Senate and House Public Works Committees instead of the Committees on Agriculture.

6. The Federal Government pays the entire construction cost of works of improvement applicable to flood prevention and features related thereto.

7. When the project has been authorized for operations, the local organization has the option of obtaining professional engineering services or using the engineering services of the Federal Government. If non-Government engineering services are used for installation work, the Secretary of Agriculture can advance to the organization, to pay for such engineering service, up to 5 per cent of the estimated total costs of the works of improvement.

8. The Secretary of Agriculture can make loans or advances to the local organizations to finance the local costs. The loans can be for periods up to 50 years, at the Federal long-term borrowing rate, with a limit of $5 million for any one project.

These changes in the law will make it easier for area residents to get the dams placed on Bitter, John Mann, Polecat and Oaks Creeks.

Fall Solicitors

A number of local people are anxious to locate and renew old acquaintances with Mr. Bill Davis of Route 2, Quanah. Mr. Davis is supposed to be a part time carpenter in this area and is the father of Marie Davis, who contracted several local residents Saturday morning to sell them magazine subscriptions, which was to help finance a nurse training course, after she had been named winner of a contest, and was given this opportunity to earn $500.00. She had been sent to the homes and business houses by her father, who said that he was a good friend of parties called upon. It seems as though most of the people contacted were on or near Highway 287, and none of the people who bought subscriptions can recall an old friend by that name, but did buy in order to help the girl, trusting that their memory had failed them and they did not wish to admit poor memory. After subscriptions were bought, a check was made with the Chamber of Commerce and no one had been given a solicitor's permit through that office.

Now that no one can recall a Bill Davis, they are meeting the mailman to see if the magazines arrive that were ordered.

Fall of the year, the gathering of a cotton crop and the usual influx of itinerant salesmen are hitting Quanah. Remember, check with the Chamber of Commerce, the City of Quanah, where every out of town salesman and solicitor is supposed to secure a solicitor's permit.—Quanah Tribune-Chief

Feed Prices

From the consumers' viewpoint the prices of feeds, especially of cotton seed hulls, peanut hulls, sorghum bundles and the like that are available, varies without rhyme or reason. When business is dull in the feed line the roughages go down but the minute there appears to be some demand the price skyrockets before the consumer can get to the mills. Cotton seed hulls, especially, will have trouble this year justifying any increase in prices for cottonseed hulls. There are a few cattle left in the country and the supply of hulls is going to be mighty little shy of that of previous years. Hard up cattle owners say the price goes up immediately when mills learn of a "hay program" being opened up. The mills simply pocket the herdsmen's savings and leave them dangling on the brink as before. We bring this allegation out into the open, now that Floyd County is again "on the list." We leave it to the mills to disprove it.—Floyd County Hesperian

War and Politics

In at least one respect, politics and war are highly similar. Both are costing more and more as the years pass. When people first started warring between themselves, it cost very little to kill off one's opponents with a rock or club. In these days of jet planes, hydrogen bombs, radar devices and the like, it costs a lot of money to kill one of the enemy.

Time was, too, when Abe Lincoln delivered his party platform promises beside the cracker barrel in the general store at practically no expense other than loss of his time. In 1952, the Republicans and the Democrats turned loose of some big money. They say, however, that it will not hold a light to financial costs of the 1956 campaign.

"It's my horseback guess," says Matt McCloskey, Democrat National Committee treasurer, "both parties will spend at least $100 million all told in 1956."—The Hereford Brand Anna Held made the milk bath famous in America.

COLD WIND BRINGS FIRST FROST OF '46 FOR HALL COUNTY — More rain Thursday of last week, which totaled 1.40 inches in Memphis combined with a chilly blast of wind Sunday, brought the temperature down to 47 degrees here, and several Hall Countians reported a small amount of frost.

The frost was found only in a few low spots, however, and no great damage was reported. The frost was the earliest to hit this area in a number of years.

BURGLARIES CAUSE OFFICIALS WORRY — A series of small burglaries in Memphis during the past two weeks have netted little in merchandise or money for the offenders, but have become a nuisance to peace officers and a number of local merchants.

So far no arrests have been made, Sheriff Earl Hill said this week, but several clues have been uncovered and are now being followed through.

CYCLONE DEFEATS PADUCAH 25 TO 7—The Memphis Cyclone served notice of "watch out, here we come" to other District 3-A grid teams when they downed the Paducah Dragons in a non-conference game at the Cyclone Stadium Friday night.

One of the largest crowds ever to assemble here for football saw the Cyclone blast the Dragons 25 to 7 by scoring once in the first quarter, once in the second, and twice in the third. The Dragons racked up their only tally by taking to the air in the final minutes of the game. The Cyclone band, making its first appearance did itself up proud for a new organization. A JUDGE TREMBLES

Often we hear of prisoners trembling before the words of the judge on the bench. Today, in our study we find the judge, Felix trembling before his prisoner, the apostle Paul.

The record is in Acts 24:24-25. Paul chose to speak to Felix on a three-fold theme: righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come. It must have been a moving sermon to cause a hardened judge to tremble!

"Righteousness" would have included not only a statement of the moral laws of God, but of the obedience which God expected to the gospel of Jesus Christ. To be consistent with his previous teaching, and the teaching of the other apostles who were guided by the Holy Ghost he demanded: Faith in Christ (Mk. 16:15-16), Confession of faith in Christ (Acts 8:37), Repentance of sin (Acts 17:30-31), and Baptism into Christ for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38; 22:16).

"Temperance" or self-control hits Felix's life dead-center. To be a Christian, meant a man must "deny himself and take up his cross" and follow Jesus. We must crucify the flesh "with its affections and lusts" (Gal. 5:19).

"Judgment" to come must have included a vivid portrayal of the day of judgment. (II Cor. 5:10) The world will never be saved by lectures on how to be well adjusted to our environment. The need in the world is preachers with the simple gospel of Christ who will persuade men to obey. Paul writes of Christ coming, "in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (II Thess. 1:8)

Is it any wonder Felix trembled before such preaching? Alas, Felix resolved his problem by procrastination. He said, "Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee." This 'convenient season' didn't come!

May I appeal to you who are out of Christ, who have not obeyed the gospel, repent and turn to him in obedience while you have opportunity. "Today is the day of salvation" (II Cor. 6:2)

THIS IS WHERE TOMORROW STARTS

A new "inner car" gives you a NEW KIND of FORD for 1957! Coming October 3rd.

On Wednesday, October 3rd, Ford Dealers throughout the United States will unveil a new kind of automobile!

Cars are involved in every American's life. News of a new kind of car is the biggest kind of news to millions of Americans.

The Big New Kind of Ford is that kind of news... a car totally new in design from crest to trunk lock.

This completely new automotive package will sell at the traditionally low Ford prices.

This makes possible a new high standard of such honest-to-goodness value that it actually increases the purchasing power of your automobile dollar.

When you see it, other cars will look out of date, because...

This is Where Tomorrow Starts... with a Big New Kind of Ford!

The New Kind of Ford is the fullest, most eloquent expression of Ford's special personality—the youthful grace, the whiplash action—and the reputation for durability known wherever there's a road.

To all this we have added true elegance—a kind of elegance never before seen in the low-price field. To make a car truly elegant, you must start deep-down inside.

The New Inner Ford

The Inner Ford—the car you cannot see—is a very remarkable structure. Its frame is actually a cradle. Side members extend almost the full body width; they serve not only as supporting members but as concealed side bumpers of immense strength.

The New Ford Body

The new Ford body is a triumph of engineering in steel. The doors close with the solid finality of a bank vault. Even the door-lock button has been moved up front—easier for you to reach, but out of the children's reach.

All these features were engineered to give you a solid new kind of comfort.

The New Ford Ride

The New Kind of Ford fits six people as no other low-priced car has ever sat them six elbows wide in each seat, with deep space around each one of six knees. And above all that space, there's hat room to spare for all six passengers.

The 1957 Ford rides low, solid, with a firm, deep road-holding feel. Yet it's a light-hearted, flight-hearted ride—this car is responsive, nimble, agile, with a proud easy movement.

The New Ford Choice

Ford offers not only one, but two sizes of cars... each on its own extended wheelbase... each with its own body shell... each with its own styling.

First, the two Fairlane Series on a 118-inch wheelbase. The Fairlane 500's come in 5 body types, a four-door sedan, a two-door sedan, a two- and four-door Victoria with no center pillars, and a convertible coupe. The same body types (except for the convertible) are available in the Fairlane Series.

Second, two Custom Series mounted on the 116-inch wheelbase chassis. In the Custom 300 Series, a four-door and a two-door sedan are distinguished from the Custom models by more luxurious interiors and elaborate trim. The Custom Series also includes a Business Sedan.

Beyond all these, you also have your choice of five Station Wagons—the famous glamour cruisers that are the champions in this field!

The New Ford Look

That low, low cradle-span frame means a low, low car. The Fairlane 500 is only four feet eight inches from road to roof! The Custom is just over four feet nine inches!

The new Ford is not only low—but long. Ford gives you more than 17 feet of elegant length in the Fairlane Series, a shade less in the Custom. It's a nice kind of fun just to look at it. It's high-priced in every way except price.

The New Ford Performance

You can have up to 245 wonderful Thunderbird horsepower in any Ford model. There's a moderate—and really moderate—extra charge for this engine of 312 cubic inches with its 4-barrel carburetor.

For "Six" lovers, we've got the 144-hp Mileage Maker Six. Whether you choose Six or V-8, the going is great!

Here is where your own tomorrow starts

It starts at your Ford Dealer's showroom! The cars will be there on Wednesday, October 3.

These are the best Fords of our lives. They are the first symbols out of Detroit of the new automotive age that is beginning for you.

This is where tomorrow starts—at your Ford Dealer's.

This is when your tomorrow starts—October 3rd.

Come in and see us for the Big New Kind of Ford!

Cyclone Defeats Bear Cubs Here 33-0 In Football Game Friday Night

The Memphis Cyclone stormed over the Estelline Bear Cubs here last Friday night by a score of 33 to 0 before a crowd of about 2,000 persons in a non-conference game.

Both teams had extreme difficulty with fumbles, as Memphis dropped the ball eight times and Estelline seven times.

The first score came on the second play from scrimmage after Memphis had received the opening kick on their five-yard line and ran it back to about the 21. On the first play, Memphis was off-sides and was penalized, making it first down and fifteen to go. On the next play, Joe Young, Cyclone quarterback, handed off to Fullback David Davis, who went through left tackle on a quick-opening play for the 85-yard run and the score. Memphis tried to run the extra point but the Cubs held them.

Later in the first quarter, Estelline fumbled on the 10-yard line giving Memphis a chance for another score. After three plays, Butch Adeock, playing at fullback, drove the ball over through the left side of the line from about two yards out. Again Memphis tried to run the extra point but failed.

In the latter part of the second quarter, Estelline was unable to get away from their end of the field and punted to their 33 where Memphis took over. A few plays later Adeock drove about six yards for the score. Young scored the extra point on a quarterback keeper play to make the board read 19-0.

Not long after this Memphis started a drive from the 48 yard line and, with the help of a pass to End Campbell Morris, which carried them to the 20, were able to complete another pass to Sherman Clemons for the score, with only five seconds left in the first half. Daryl Long scored the extra point.

Soon after the second half unfolded, Long tossed a 20-yard pass to Morris for another six points. Bill Morgan, quarterback, pitched a short pass to Morris for the extra point, making the score 33-0.

Estelline threatened to score two times, but were beset by fumbles each time.

James Huffmaster, Gary Rogers and Ronald Crump did an excellent job for Estelline on defense, and Halfbacks Joe Corona and Russell Latham picked up good yardage on the ground.

Estelline made seven first downs and Memphis twelve during the game. The Cyclone gained 261 yards rushing compared with 71 for the Cubs.

Estelline received only two penalties during the game compared with nine assessed against Memphis. Cyclone backs tossed ten passes for three completions, and Estelline connected with two out of seven tries.

This week Memphis plays at Panhandle and Estelline meets Lockett at Estelline.

Compensation to farmers for reducing their 1957-crop winter wheat acreage below their allotment, designating such acreage for inclusion in the Soil Bank's Acreage Reserve Program, will be in the form of negotiable certificates. The certificates may be redeemed in cash through regular banking channels or in grain by the producer to whom they are issued.

AUSTIN—The best hunter '56 never completes his pre-shoot routine until he determines whether he looks like a bird or a beast, dryly observed the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

"That is being facetious", he said, "but it's getting that time of the year when people actually are mistaken for fair game. One man shot another and explained later the target looked like a squirrel; another mistook a man for a fox. The more common mistakes occur during big game hunting, of course, when 'sound and motion' hairtrigger people bang away promiscuously."

The Executive Secretary said he would risk offending Texans with such ludicrous reminders "if we can help save a life or so."

"After all", he went on, "safety involves constant prompting about the simplest precautions. Guns and hunting are here to stay but we have to keep harping on the fact that weapons are dangerous and must be respected as such."

He cited the seasonal statistics as showing fewer hunting accidents "than usual" but emphasized that all four fatalities to date involved "the oldest and most common violation of safety."

A 14-year-old boy killed a 17 year-old companion when shotgun went off as he loaded weapon from the car. A 16-year-old was killed when he poked his head into line of a companion's rifle; a man in a car was fatally shot when loaded rifle being handled back seat by two teen age boys.

Bayonets were named for the first time in France, where they first made.

Mr. Farmer:
When You Gin Your Cotton Here, You Can Return The Cotton Burs
To Your Land

The DUAL FAN SYSTEM, which is now being operated in our gin plant, is enabling farmers of this area to RETURN THEIR COTTON BURS to fields. After cotton is ginner here, the burs can be carried away and used as fertilizer on land! This dual fan system is government-approved, and is a requirement in the ginning of cotton where the threat of PINK BOLL WORMS formerly compelled all ginners to BURN ALL BURS.

When you gin at the J. M. Tindall Gin, you will be able to PUT BACK INTO THE SOIL those valuable burs!

Do You Need Field Hands?

If you are having trouble in locating a crew to gather your cotton crop this year, come to our gin office. We'll help you locate them, and will cooperate with you every way we can.

We're Paying Top Market Price for Cotton
AGAIN THIS YEAR WE ARE BUYING COTTON AT THIS GIN. Come in and get the facts and figures about our prices on cotton.

IF YOU DON'T WANT TO SELL TO US, WE'LL HELP YOU FILL OUT YOUR GOVERNMENT LOAN PAPERS.

Ginning At Its Best

Our plant is in absolutely first class shape. In addition, it is operated by one of the best gin crews to be found anywhere. These are two reasons that we are proud of the TURN-OUT and the GRADE our customers are now getting. If you are not one of our customers, ask one of your neighbors who is ginning with us about the quality they are getting here.

Reappraisal of Emergency Roughage Program Now Underway in State

The local Farmers Home Administration office received notification from Walter McKay, state director, this week to withhold further approvals for assistance under the Texas Emergency Roughage program until a reappraisal of the actual cash requirements can be made by the state and federal government, Claude Moore, county supervisor, has announced.

The agreement between Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson and Governor Allan Shivers provides for an allocation of one million dollars of federal funds for the roughage program. Funds available to the U. S. Department of Agriculture to finance roughage programs must be allocated among all disaster designated states where such a program is needed, Moore said.

The local office has been instructed to withhold further approvals of roughage purchase certificates but where authorized to continue to accept and hold on file applications for assistance, Moore said.

A daily report of the tonnage requirements covered by these applications will be made to the state agency, Moore said.

Hall County Land May Go Back To Choctaw Indians

Hall County may lose all land located north of Red River to the Choctaw Indian Nation.

That is, if the Nation should receive a favorable decision from the U. S. Supreme Court next month.

According to a Wichita Falls Record-News reporter, Jack K. Russell, the Choctaw Indians are claiming a large part of the Panhandle of Texas—that portion lying between the Red and Canadian Rivers to be specific. The Indian claim contends that the area involved was ceded to the Choctaw Nation in the Doak's Treaty of 1820.

It's a long story, according to the reporter, but people residing in the six and a half million acre plot will know the outcome during the October term of the Supreme Court.

TV Tips

Now that fall is here again and there are fewer hours of daylight for outdoor chores and fun, the family TV set is about to resume its position as No. 1 entertainment provider for the American family. If you're like most folks and have not spent too much time with your set during the summer, it might be a good idea to have it checked over to be sure it is in top condition. Check the lighting around your set to help avoid eyestrain, use eye drops from time to time to ease some of the fatigue that inevitably comes from TV viewing.

After the doctor admitted them to the house and before Mrs. Boaz arrived, Mrs. Shaffer said, Dr. Boaz asked what the Shaffers had been told.

Mrs. Shaffer testified her husband replied that Mrs. Boaz had said the doctor had tried to choke her (Mrs. Boaz) when they went home after supper.

When Mrs. Boaz arrived at the house, the testimony continued, the doctor told her she owed him an apology. Mrs. Boaz replied, "For what?"

Mrs. Shaffer said the doctor then went to a bedroom closet, got a rifle and fired at her husband after Mrs. Boaz ran from the house.

Dr. Boaz has served two previous terms in the Texas penitentiary. He served one year in 1942-1943 on conviction to two assaults to murder charges from Hall County and a year and seven months in 1922-1923 on a manslaughter conviction from Dallas County.
