Review Lions To Hold Old Fiddlers Contest, Supper

Lakeview Lions Club will sponsor an Old Fiddlers Contest and Supper Thursday evening, Oct. 17, at the Lakeview school, according to an announcement made this week. The contest will begin at 8 p. m.

Members of the club have extended a cordial invitation to the public to attend and enjoy an evening of entertainment and refreshments.

Old Fiddlers Contest and Supper will furnish entertainment for the evening. The contest will be held at the school and the supper will be held at the cafe. The contest will be held at 8 p. m. and the supper will be served at 7:30 p. m.

Those attending are urged to bring a box filled with either a sack lunch or pie.

Billy Hancock, president, stated that the club had several community projects planned for the year, and proceeds from the social would be used toward these projects.

The club goals for the year include sponsoring a Boy Scout Troop; sponsoring a Little League Baseball program; helping provide glasses for needy children; providing Christmas baskets for needy families; sending a boy or girl to the Crippled Children's Camp, and helping the P-TA and school provide auditorium seating.

Rainfall Makes Conditions Ideal For Cover Crops

Recent rains over the Hall County Soil Conservation District have encouraged many farmers to plant winter cover crops. According to SCS technicians, this is an ideal time in which to get the badly-needed cover on the bare lands and summer fallowed lands in the District.

Clyde Lee, a cooperater who lives west of the Friendship School, has planted several acres of barley. Cecil Stargel of the Eli community, Ace Gailey of Memphis, James Richburg of the Lakeview community, and James Bray whose farm is located north of Lesley, have planted several acres of alfalfa this fall. Luke Lane and J. R. Adamson Jr. have seeded rye as a cover crop.

Cover crops are planted to protect and cover the soil during the months that the soil is without other growing crops. These crops increase the organic matter of the soil, and will help increase the water intake of the soils as well as decrease the runoff, technicians say.

Austrian winter peas, rye, vetch and small grains are, in general, the crops that are planted in this area to serve as cover crops. All legumes should be inoculated before planting.

The local Soil Conservation Service office will be glad to furnish additional information concerning cover crops.

Rev. Fern Miller Leaves Last Week For Alaska

Rev. Fern A. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist Church, left last Thursday by plane for Kotzebue, Alaska, to engage in a revival crusade.

The trip is being sponsored by the General Baptist Convention of Texas. The Evangelical Board of the Convention chose several pastors from Texas to journey to Alaska and engage in the crusade.

Rev. Miller is conducting meetings this week in Kobuk. He is scheduled to return to Memphis Oct. 23.

Cyclone Squad To Meet Childress Here Friday

The Memphis Cyclone will face Childress here Friday night in the last non-conference game of the season.

The Childress Bobcats cancelled their game, scheduled for last week due to flu which hit about 20 of their squad players.

Memphis Head Coach John Jones said that the Childress backfield has a lot of speed and that their line is a little bigger than the Cyclone line.

So far this year Childress has beaten Paducah, 26-13 and Panhandle, 34-6. They lost to Burk Burnett 34-14.

Memphis will be without the services of one of its starting linemen, Billy Johnson, this week. A ligament was torn loose in his knee last week and he will probably be unable to play for about two weeks, Coach Jones reported. Bobby Murdock will probably start in his place, the coach said.

HEADS COTTON OFFICE — Roy W. Gilreath, former Memphis resident, was recently named to head the Lamesa Cotton Classing Office. The new office opened Sept. 30 and prior to that time Gilreath was assistant chief of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office. Gilreath, a Texas A & M graduate, has been classing cotton for the Department of Agriculture since 1949. The new office will serve farmers in Andrews, Borden and Dawson Counties and the south half of Lynn County. Gilreath is the son of Mrs. W. B. Gilreath of Rt. 1, Memphis.

C. of C. Industrial Committee, Hall County Industrial Foundation Meet

Two meetings of major importance to the industrial future of Memphis were held last week as the Hall County Industrial Foundation speeded up work toward securing a manufacturing plant.

The first meeting was of the Industrial Committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development. Chairman Homer Tucker called his committee together last week to report on the progress they had made with a prospective manufacturer who would employ 100 men.

The prospect who is interested in locating a plant in the Southwest, had been furnished a brochure containing facts about Memphis and had been supplied with other information.

Members of the committee felt that they had progressed to a point with the prospect where they should call in the officers and directors of the Hall County Industrial Foundation.

Thursday afternoon the foundation board met and Chairman Tucker, C. of C. President Edd Foxhall, and Manager Clifford Farmer presented the information they had to the group.

During the meeting a call was placed to the individual, and Temple Deaver, chairman of the Industrial Foundation board, invited him to visit Memphis. The man agreed to visit here early in November.

Farmer, who also serves as secretary of the foundation, reported that the industrial site in east Memphis had been cleaned up in preparation for the man's visit. The weeds have been burned and the area graded in order for the prospect to see the actual layout of the area.

Members of the county-wide organization and Industrial Foundation expressed appreciation to city and county officials for their assistance in cleaning up the site and for making the site available.

The C. of C. committee had been in contact with the prospect for about two months.

In addition to the above mentioned prospect, members of the industrial committee have contacted several other businesses during the past months. However, due to the highly competitive nature of the industrial expansion program, much of the work with business prospects must be carried on quietly, Farmer explained.

The Hall County Industrial Foundation has pledged for $47,825.00 to be used to assist an industry in beginning business here. Chamber of Commerce Industrial Committee members who were present at the meeting included Chairman Tucker, C. of C. President Foxhall, Dr. D. H. Arovnofsky, A. L. Gailey, W. B. Wil-

Turkey Exes Plan Homecoming For Oct. 25-26

The various committee chairmen and officers of the Turkey Ex-Student Association met on Sept. 22 to formulate plans for the Homecoming, scheduled for Oct. 25 and 26.

The menu chairman, George Ray Colvin, reported plans for a barbecue to be served Sat., Oct. 26, starting at 11:30 a. m., for everyone who purchased a ticket. This event is not limited to exes only, the announcement stated. Tickets were placed on sale this week at $1.25 for adults. The chairman urged those who plan to attend to buy their tickets in advance.

Approximately 700 letters have been mailed to exes encouraging them to send 50 cents for membership in the association.

The Turkey Lions Club will sponsor a chili supper preceding the Turkey-Matador football game on Friday, Oct. 25, from 5 until 7 p. m. at the High School Cafeteria.

Registration of all exes and teachers will begin Friday, Oct. 25 at the high school at 1 p. m.

At the meeting the parade chairman gave a detailed report of the parade plans thus far completed. The platform for the guest speaker, U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough, and other distinguished visitors will be constructed in town. Senator Yarborough's address will be carried over a loud speaker system, beginning at 10:30 a. m. on Oct. 26. Following his address and the parade, the

Mrs. C. Johnson's Sister Dies In Texas City Fri.

Mrs. M. A. House, sister of Mrs. Claud Johnson, died suddenly at her home in Texas City on Friday evening following a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left here immediately after receiving the message of her death.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon from the First Methodist Church in Texas City, and burial was also in that city.

Mrs. House had visited here numerous times with her sister, and was known to many people here.

She is survived by her husband, M. A. House of Texas City, one daughter, Mrs. Bob Ross of Fort Worth, and one son, John House, of Texas City.

Cyclone Band To Hold Series of Rummage Sales

The Memphis Cyclone Band will hold a rummage sale each Saturday for several weeks on the corner back of Vallance Grocery, according to an announcement made this week.

The first sale was held Saturday with the band netting $75.80 after selling about 250 articles of clothing.

"We would appreciate a donation of any kind of rummage," members of the organization stated. "If you have clothing that you would like to donate to the band, please call the band house, phone 54-J, and a member of the band will pick it up."

Lakeview To Meet Quitaque Friday

The Lakeview Eagles will take on Quitaque Friday night at 8 p. m. with both teams seeking a win after being defeated last week.

Lakeview dropped their game with Silvertown, 46-6, and Wheeler dropped Quitaque, 35-0.

Superintendent Loran Denton announced that a special Dad's Evening will be held Friday night. All of the fathers of squad members will be seated near the players' bench.

Local B Squad Meets Childress There Tonight

The Memphis B squad football team will journey to Childress tonight where they will meet the Bobcat B eleven at 7 p. m.

Last week the team lost to Wellington 25-6. Coach Dave Corley stated that the team looked better than they did in their previous games and are showing a lot of improvement.

Last week was the first time that the Wellington B team had been scored on, according to reports, with Jimmy Bounds carrying the ball across.

Hedley Cotton Festival Boosters To Visit Memphis

A caravan boosting the Hedley Cotton Festival will visit Memphis about 4:15 p. m. Saturday, according to an announcement this week by C. L. Johnson, chairman of the committee in charge of the event.

The traveling group will have their own orchestra and special entertainment, including the Cotton Festival Queen of last year and the 15 girls who are competing for the crown this year.

The 6th Annual Cotton Festival and Semi-Centennial Celebration will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 24, 25 and 26 at Hedley.

A special invitation was extended to everyone in the area to attend the festival, and special attention will be given to anyone who was living in or near the community when the town was organized 50 years ago, the announcement stated.

The Old Settlers committee will have headquarters in the Moffitt Hardware store.

Estelline Cubs To Meet Matador Friday Night

The Estelline Cubs will take on Matador Friday night at Matador in a conference tilt beginning at 8 p. m.

In play last week, Turkey defeated Estelline by a 25-0 margin.

School officials announced this week that their football team will be crowned on Oct. 25 when they play Quitaque at Estelline.

Wheat Reserve Applications Total 99

A total of 99 applications for the 1958 wheat Acreage Reserve program were signed at the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office before the deadline for entering the program passed last Friday.

Office manager Lynn McKown said that the applications covered 5,698 acres of county wheat land and that farmers would earn $68,620 in payments if requirements

Storm Hits Parnell, Plaska, Midway Areas

Hail, wind and rain hit Hall County again this week cutting a path through some of the finest crops in the county, with damage to cotton yield running from 10 to 40 per cent.

Monday afternoon about 4 p. m. a storm cloud approached the county from the south and began unleashing its destruction in the Parnell and Hulver area. The storm continued in a northward direction, crossed Red River to Plaska, and followed a course along Farm-to-Market Road No. 657 until it hit State Highway No. 256 at Midway. There the storm began to lose its force and not much damage has been reported from north of that point.

The general area of damage was about two or three miles wide in most spots and varied from losses of 10 per cent to 40 per cent through some of the best cotton in the county, part of which had been irrigated.

In explaining the course of the storm, one farmer said that it followed the same general course as the late showers which fell this year.

Many farmers pointed out that the damage to the volume of cotton from rain and hail would not hurt as much as the reduction in the grade.

Much of the cotton which was hit will now receive "spot" classification and bring a much lower price than it would have if it had not been hailed upon, producers fear.

Some small hail fell here in Memphis, but no damage has been reported.

Rainfall which accompanied the storm measured about an inch in the Lakeview area while here in Memphis .58 of an inch was measured by John J. McMickin, local weather recorder.

Sunday night rain also fell in the area, and Memphis received .82 of an inch, making the total for the week 1.40 inches.

While the rainfall and hail did a lot of damage to the cotton crop, it was a great aid to the

H. B. Gilmore Dies Suddenly; Rites To Be Here

H. Bailey Gilmore of Dallas, father of Mrs. Gene Lindsey and former Memphis resident, died suddenly in Taylor about 10 a. m. today (Thursday) following a heart attack.

Arrangements are pending; however, tentative plans are for services to be held from the First Baptist Church here with burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Gilmore, who was about 60 years of age, was manager of the Farmers Union Supply store here for a number of years. They moved to Dallas approximately 10 years ago. At the time of his death, Mr. Gilmore was employed as a salesman with a Dallas firm.

Local Firemen Fight Two Blazes Here

Two blazes during the past week resulted in considerable damage to a home and minor damage to the football field.

The first fire occurred last Thursday afternoon about 3 p. m. when some trash was being burned at Cyclone Stadium.

Some of the burning material was blown against the fence at the north end of the east stand, and set the lumber on fire. An old rest room building which is located near the fence at that point also caught fire before firemen arrived to extinguish the blaze.

The second blaze occurred about 2:15 Saturday afternoon at the Bud Lemmon home at 210 N. 12th Street. Their son, John, who was home, smelled smoke and turned in the alarm. By the time firemen arrived the entire attic of the house was burning.

Firemen and neighbors immediately began moving the household furnishings outside. Mr. Lemmon reported Monday that their belongings suffered only minor damage from smoke.

The fire burned out the inside of the attic and part of the roof of the house before it could be extinguished. Fire Marshal Guy Wright said that the fire seemed to have started in the attic. Cause of the blaze was still under investigation this week.

The home is part of the Agnes Hayes estate, and J. W. Hayes of Phillips is acting as administrator.

Foard's Died In Hospital Wed.

Foard, 87, of Childress, died at 5 p. m. Wednesday in Childress after an illness of several weeks.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning from the First Baptist Church in Childress.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers
Congressman, 18th District

Traffic Safety

Much information is being gathered together at the present time by a congressional Committee in the hope that some solution may be found to the tragic traffic problem that confronts the nation. This problem is one that takes approximately forty-three thousand lives each year and leaves between a million and a million and a half citizens of this country maimed or injured. Research has commenced on several fronts. The automobile manufacturers are doing much of it themselves in an effort to provide a safer package within which the occupant is conveyed from one point to another. This includes the new safety steering wheel, sometimes called the deep dish wheel. This is intended to provide a cushioning effect on the chest in the event of collision so that the body may be stopped before it is punctured by the steering post. Another safety feature is new type door latches which will prevent the door from opening on impact. This feature was installed because statistics reveal that your chances for survival, if you remain in the car, were more than 5 to 1 and your chances of escaping a moderate fatal grade injury were more than 2 to 1. Another safety feature is the padded dash board or instrument panel and padded sun visors. It is estimated that about 38 per cent of passenger injuries in the right or center front seat position result from striking the sun visor or instrument panel. About 4 per cent result from striking the rear view mirror.

The proposed safety device which has probably received more attention and research than any of the others is the seat belt. This device has been the subject of quite a bit of controversy. The extensive tests which have been conducted reveal that the chances of escaping injury in an accident are improved about sixty per cent if you are wearing a seat belt. However, none of the automobile manufacturers have made seat belts standard equipment on their cars. During the hearings held in the vicinity of the automobile manufacturing plants I noticed that not many of the cars, personal and otherwise, used in and around these plants were equipped with safety belts. Those who have engaged in the safety belt research feel that it is important that all cars be so equipped. Whether or not this will be done I do not know, but I do know that the present estimate of the cost of installing seat belts in the front seat of automobiles at the factory is approximately $13.00. This means that if 6 million cars are manufactured next year and seat belts are installed in the front seats, the total of these cars will be increased seventy-eight million dollars. Whether or not these safety devices and others will solve the problem is conjectural but one thing is sure. According to past statistics some forty-three million people will lose their lives on the highways of this nation in 1957. There will be over one and one-half million other people injured, over one hundred thousand of them permanently. There will be over ten million motor accidents. And the monetary cost will be approximately five billion dollars. Some years ago a wit made the statement that the most dangerous thing about an automobile was the "nut at the steering wheel". Statistics will prove that this remains as true today as when it was said. Reduction of speed and constant attention and alertness would do more to solve this traffic problem than all the safety devices put together.

Funeral Services For Gooch Child Conducted Sat.

Funeral services for Elvin Gooch, III, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Gooch, Jr., were conducted Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. from the Spicer Funeral Chapel with Rev. Lanham F. Campbell officiating.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Born January 5, 1955, in Memphis, the youth had been ill for several months.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Larry Glenn and Richard Dale Gooch; one sister, Brenda Sue Gooch and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Phelps and Mr. and Mrs. John Barber. One sister preceded him in death.

Fall bearers were Jimmy Mitchell, Darrell Phelps and L. J. Hubbard.

Veterans' Land Bonds Remain Unsold This Week

Land commissioner Earl Rudder noted Friday that the bond market seems to be growing more favorable for the sale of some part of $100,000,000 of Veterans' Land Bonds.

The bonds were offered for sale in May by the Veterans' Land board. No bids were received.

"The average interest rate on bonds of our type was 3.50 per cent this week," Commissioner Rudder said. "The market has got to go down a long way yet," he added.

The average interest rate on the market was 3.57 per cent several weeks ago.

The State Constitution says the Veterans' Land Board can pay no more than three per cent interest on its bonds.

"One of two things must happen before we can sell our bonds," Commissioner Rudder said:

"1. The Constitution must be amended so that more interest can be paid, or

"2. Bond market interest rates must drop considerably."

Mrs. Nay Hale and son, Jimmy, of Lubbock were here from Friday through Sunday to visit her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Odom.

Mrs. Byron Baldwin visited in Clarendon Sunday with Mrs. Grover Wilburn, her sister.

Mrs. Jackson Dies In San Antonio

Mrs. Ernest Jackson, who was born and reared in Memphis, passed away Sept. 30 in San Antonio, according to word received here.

Before her marriage in 1907, she was Miss Oshia Hansard. Mr. Jackson passed away in 1954. Mrs. Jackson is survived by two sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Combs of Lubbock were here for the weekend visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Combs.

Margaret Milam, who is teaching in the Lubbock schools, was here over the weekend to visit her mother, Mrs. Lena Milam.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts spent the weekend in Goree visiting relatives.

Home Decorations Theme of Culture Club Program

"Foundations For Building a Home Beautiful" was the theme when the Woman's Culture Club met Oct. 2, in the home of Mrs. W. E. Leslie.

After the business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Ward Gurley, Mrs. Robert Moss read some selections based on nature and beauty for the devotional.

Mrs. Carl Wood, introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Jeanette Irons, gave a most unusual, entertaining and informative demonstration using as her theme, "Driftwood in Home Decorations". Mrs. Wood displayed some lamps she had made from driftwood. Other items she used in table decorations were cypress knees, corn tassels, cat tails, pine cones, rocks, artificial flowers, and pixies.

Mrs. Leslie gave a demonstration by using fresh flowers of gladiolus and chrysanthums for a lovely table arrangement.

Arrangements brought by the club members using any material available were viewed for additional ideas.

Lovely refreshments of coffee, cakes and mints with floral decorations were served to Miss Alma Bruce, Meses. Frank Ellis, Clifford Farmer, Ward Gurley, Brode Hoover, Jeanette Irons, G. T. Moss, Robert Moss, Gus Odom, L. A. Stilwell, Theo Swift, and one guest, Mrs. Carl Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion E. Posey and Shari LeRae were weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Downs in Panhandle. They also attended the football game in Amarillo between West Texas State and Mississippi Southern. The Poseys returned home Monday morning.

First telegraph line in Texas was built at Marshall in 1854.

PRINTS CHARMING—A pair of party dolls enjoy the fun in two of the newest and prettiest numbers of party-time dresses for sub-teens. At left, a printed cotton with junior-style emphasis on smart detail . . . puff sleeves, full skirt, square neckline and velvet yoke. Black or red on white. On the right, a festive dress of printed acetate with velvet cummerbund and string tie. In white, blue or pink, around nine dollars. Both dresses in sub-teen sizes.

Mrs. M. G. Tarver and Mrs. R. C. Lemons were visitors in the Lloyd Hamilton home in Borger over the weekend. Mrs. Tarver was attending the mid-year executive meeting of the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, and Mrs. Lemons visited the Hamiltons.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brewer of Dumas spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Brewer.

Baptist WMU Meets Monday For Mission Study

The Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met Monday morning for a mission program.

Mrs. Ed Hill presided in the absence of the president. The study was opened with the song, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nation" followed by prayer by Mrs. Sam Hamilton.

Mrs. Kenneth Dale, program chairman, introduced the program entitled "An Open Door." The group sang "Lead on Oh King Eternal" and Mrs. R. D. Jones offered prayer.

Mrs. Hubert Jones discussed "A Cobbler's Shop" and Mrs. Jack Rose gave "Door Heritage." "The Door to the Present" was given by Mrs. W. M. Kilpatrick, and Mrs. Ed Hill discussed "The Door of Opportunity."

"New Doors for Southern Baptist" was given by Mrs. R. D. Jones and "The Door to Responsibility" was discussed by Mrs. Carl Johnson. Mrs. Billie Parker talked on "Door Open Wide."

Mrs. Kenneth Dale brought the meditation from Rev. 6:1-10 and the closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Jack Rose.

Twenty members and visitors were in attendance.

Vota Vita Class Meets in Home of Mrs. Ray Phillips

The Vota Vita Class of the First Baptist Church met at 7:30 p. m. on Oct. 1 in the home of Mrs. Ray Phillips for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Cecil Phillips and Mrs. Ray Phillips served as hostesses.

Newly-elected officers were: Mrs. Richard Cole, president; Mrs. Cecil Phillips, vice president; Mrs. Wayne Hutcherson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Blackie Glosson, associate secretary-treasurer and reporter; Mrs. Ray Phillips, Mrs. Bengy Godfrey and Mrs. Jessie Booth, group captains. Plans for the year's meetings were presented. The devotional, "The Great ed. The devotional, "The Great Shepherd," was brought by Mrs. Jack Rose.

Members present were: Meses. Billy Ray Jones, Wayne Hutcherson, W. M. Kilpatrick, Zero Lemons, Kenneth Dale, Mar Richards, Bengy Godfrey, J. K. Porter, Dick Cole, Jack Rose and hostesses.

The next meeting will be held on Nov. 5 at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Blackie Glosson.

Odd Fellows, Rebekahs To Have Day at State Fair

An Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Day will be held at the State Fair of Texas, Sunday, Oct. 13, Frank Van Pelt, secretary of the local Odd Fellows group announced this week.

Registration will begin at 8 a. m. at the Picnic Pavilion across the street from the Cotton Bowl. The group has reserved the plaza in front of the Hall of State from 2 until 4 p. m. for drill exhibitions and other festivities are planned.

Examinations for State Law Officers To Be Held Soon

Examinations for hundreds of young Texans who are seeking promising futures in the field of law enforcement will be given in various cities throughout the state during October.

Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that an opportunity now exists for young men between the ages of 21 and 35 to join the ranks of the Texas Department of Public Safety as law enforcement officers.

Garrison said that the men accepted will receive a basic training course in all phases of law enforcement and related fields at the Law Enforcement Academy in Austin. After the basic training they will go into the field for a few weeks of general work. Then the men will return to the training school for special training in one of the specialties of the department, i. e., highway patrolmen, license and weight patrolmen, drivers license examiner patrolmen, or motor vehicle inspection patrolmen.

Qualifications necessary to apply for the positions include: a high school education, or its equivalent; of good moral character; excellent physical condition, and a minimum of five feet, eight inches in height with weight proportionate.

Examinations will be given in Amarillo and Wichita Falls Oct. 15 and in Lubbock Oct. 16.

For complete information about the examinations, new positions, training and benefits, Garrison asked that those who are interested write to Personnel & Training,

THE BAFFLES By Mahoney

Squirrel Season Opened Too Early By Some Hunters

Several hunters in northeast Texas have found it doesn't pay to open the squirrel season too early. Wardens have taken them into courts and in each instance heavy fines were assessed.

The squirrel season opened officially in Red River and Bowie Counties Oct. 1, and in Lamar County Oct. 15, according to the Director of Law Enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

Texas' first telephone was installed in the Galveston News plant on March 18, 1878.

It's the male black bass that makes the home.

At other times the bass is just plain hungry—but you can't tell the difference by his charge. He always hits surface lures with the same ferocity. Usually he leaps two or three times before you get him to the boat, trying to throw the lure. And while under water he tugs hard and runs fast.

Try Under Trees

A bass often will make his home under trees along the bank. He likes the shade and the food that occasionally comes dropping down from above. Woe to the baby bird that drops out of the nest, or the mouse that tumbles into the water, or the grasshopper that makes a careless jump—if the bass is there.

An old trick is to cast a lure over a low-hanging tree branch, let it dangle down and splash lightly on the water, then let it rest on top, and after waiting awhile, splash it again.

Once I had a bass strike three times on a lure worked that way. Missed it every time. Or maybe he was just bumping it with his snout for pure cussedness.

Finally I gave up and started to retrieve the lure. My partner cast over by the tree and immediately caught the bass, a three-pounder.

Some days you ought to give up, maybe, but you never do.

Hall Farm Bureau Holds Meeting Monday Night

Last Monday night Hall County farmers and their wives gathered in the Memphis High School auditorium to hear Gene Leach, state legislative director of the Texas Farm Bureau, discuss problems confronting the farmers and ranchers.

Leach told the group that the personnel working for the Farm Bureau did not care for popularity as long as it helped the farmer.

"No one should say what to do for the farmer except the farmer himself. A man must have 51 per cent of his income from the farm to say what is good for the farmer," he said.

Leach explained how the resolutions were made up in the county Farm Bureau, presented to the state and then later to the national convention.

The Texas Farm Bureau has an office in Austin during the time both the Senate and House are in session. Leach and other state officers of the Farm Bureau are on hand when the legislature is in session to assist with laws favor-

Will Your Home Burn?

This week, Oct. 6-12, marks the 35th anniversary of the observance of Fire Prevention Week. During the 35 years since 1922 there have been great advances in fire fighting equipment and methods but the loss due to fire this year may exceed a billion dollars for the first time in history. So far they averaging about $90 million a month.

This naturally poses a question: Do the fire prevention activities of local organizations, the fire insurance business, and the public really help prevent fires? Records prove that the answer is unquestionably "yes".

When fire prevention activities began on an organized scale in 1905 the estimated value of the nation's reproducible tangible assets was $71 billion. That included residential and non-residential structures, farm buildings, institutional and government buildings, and inventories, including crops and livestock—mostly structures and goods that were insurable. Fire losses that year were $165 million.

By 1952, when the latest figures were available, the burnable national assets had increased about 12 times over the 1905 figures. However, fire losses had increased only five times. Undoubtedly the widening gap between the values of structures and goods at risk and the actual fire losses in the last half century. But the gap is large enough, and has coincided near enough with the increased fire prevention activities, to support the assumption that safety work has been effective.

Here in Memphis we think this would be the ideal week to salute the heroes of the fire fighting chore—the members of the Memphis Volunteer Fire Department. Serving with only a token payment for making fire calls, the volunteer firemen devote his time and his labor to protecting your property, day and night. Only last Saturday afternoon they were called away from their jobs to extinguish a blaze at a home on North 12th Street. They went about the job in an efficient, business like manner, and despite the extensive damage to the house, the furnishings were all moved out in time to prevent them being destroyed.

This week would also be a good time to check your home for the fire hazards which exist. Is rubbish allowed to collect in storage areas? Has the heating system been checked to see if it is in good order for the winter months? Are curtains, towels and other combustible materials a safe distance from stoves? Are matches out of the reach of children? Is electrical wiring in good condition and capable of carrying the load needed by modern appliances? These are only a few of the things which can reduce your home to a pile of ashes in a few minutes. Just take off a few minutes this week and make a survey of your home. A 10-minute survey on your part may prevent a great loss. Is your time worth $7,000 for 10 minutes?

Guide to Rate a Community

Below is a guide which has been used in the past by other communities to check themselves and see if they are making their town a place where people like to live. Check it for yourself and see if you answer "yes" to 30 or more of the questions. If the answer to "no" to 10 or more, then its time we put our shoulders to the wheel and start a campaign to make the needed improvements. A town can only go two ways, forward or backward. It will grow or die, depending on the people in the town and what they make of it.

1. Most high school graduates stay in town.
2. Getting a loan on a sound business venture is easy.
3. The local paper constantly pushes civic improvements.
4. There's a chamber of commerce with a live-wire board of directors.
5. Local speeders pay the same fines as out-of-towners.
6. There's a place to swim within easy reach.
7. Young couples have little trouble finding a place to live.
8. The head of the local government is a "get things done" man.
9. Town entrances are free from junk and shacks.
10. Teachers' salaries are better than the state average.
11. There's at least one doctor per 800 people in your county.
12. There's a library with a good collection of recent books.
13. Newcomers quickly feel they're part of the town.
14. Schools have plenty of room for students.
15. Fire insurance rates are low for your type town.
16. Service, veterans' and women's clubs team up on projects.
17. There are active, well organized Boy Scout Troops.
18. A modern hospital is within your trading area.
19. All streets are paved and sidewalks are in good shape.
20. Well-stocked stores keep shoppers in the town.
21. There's a hotel or motel you'd enjoy if you were a visitor.
22. It's easy to find parking space in the business section.
23. At least one restaurant serves outstanding meals.
24. The sewer extension program keeps pace with new housing.
25. It's easy to get volunteers for any worthwhile project.
26. Public toilets are provided for farm shoppers.
27. Prompt, reasonable priced ambulance service is available.
28. Good zoning keeps factories away from residential areas.
29. There's an annual Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week.
30. Streets throughout the community are well lighted.
31. More than half the people in church congregations are younger than 40.
32. Shade trees line nearly all the streets.
33. There's an ample supply of good drinking water.
34. There's a recreation center for young people.
35. The business section has a modern, prosperous look.
36. There's as much interest in local as national elections.
37. The tax is attractive to new industry.
38. There's a community council to guide town progress.
39. There's an active P.T.A.
40. Firemen take regular training courses.

A Patriot's Memo . . .
... To Fellow Americans

One of the wonders of America is that a naturalized citizen who has no roots of devotion other than those he puts down himself, will risk his reputation, his business interests and his life to serve the country which has given him the gifts of opportunity and freedom.

Such a man is Russian-born Boris Morros, Hollywood producer and music director, who volunteered as an FBI counter-espionage agent against the Soviet conspiracy in 1945 and lived a fabulous and dangerous double life until his testimony broke the Sobolev spy case three months ago.

His usefulness as a counter-spy ended then. His usefulness to the country of his adoption will be remembered, we hope, for a long, long time.

There ought to be remembered also, by all of us, the words of warning Mr. Morros spoke:

"The Russian plot is far more strongly organized in this country than is generally understood by our people.

"I know from personal experience that Soviet espionage has made considerable infiltration. Many of the agents working for Russia are important people, financially independent and often held in high esteem. Many don't come from the rank and file of the under-privileged.

"They are people who have the kind of contacts which will be useful to the Soviets, and they are being paid to do their jobs of treason."

Here is a memo from a patriot

to fellow Americans.

National Events

The Country has a military man for president, whose training since young manhood has been in anything but the civilian point of view. The republic was founded in the era of the Men on a Horse (Napoleon) and precautions were taken that the country would not come under the domination of such a one, even a beneficent personage. The country should not have a military man for president and will pay dearly for the great honor that has been done a great military leader. It has not worked and it won't work, as we said back in the first campaign after the Democrats had made the mistake of naming Stevenson as their nominee.

At the pentagon. Brass at the Pentagon is having some uneasy time this week explaining to civilians in the South why the order for the alert against insurrection went to all points of command in the area, as a result of the Little Rock occupation. The order was "reincided" publicly but the soldiery is trained in insurrection tactics and since the army has no idea where the president may send them next time it may be taken for granted the actual alert has not been countermanded.

Study Club Meets in Home of H. A. Combs

The 1913 Study Club met Wednesday, Oct. 2, at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Herschel Combs. Reports of the different committees and departmental counsel were heard during the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Boyd Rogers. During this period, the club voted to merge with other local clubs and give its efforts toward the purchasing of a curtain for the high school auditorium stage.

Producing the program, Mrs. D. Kinard, program chairman, stated that the club was starting a program year with "The American Home" as was asked by the federated club president, A. J. House, in a speech made during a recent visit. In further introduction she said, "before we can become a good club woman we must first be a good woman, a good mother, a good wife, a good person, then she will be a good club woman."

The program "To Appraise the Home" was presented by Mrs. David Binkley, Mrs. Leo H. Mrs. A. L. Gailey and Mrs. Roberts.

Binkley gave "A Tribute to the Homemaker" by Pearl and stated "I give a tribute to the most important person in the world." In closing she said "you cannot escape being a woman. We have the most important position possible. Aren't we all homemakers?"

Fields, speaking on "The Generation," informed the club that those born in the 1930's, during the depression years, are the security foremost in their lives. She further stated that the generation getting through school and getting down sooner, marriage, having more babies, and a group before them. They are the first to be taught in our schools to adjust to the world and accept the things that are adjusting their lives accordingly. She asked "Where are the silent, well-adjusted young people going?" The answer she gave, "They are moving in a line so radical that we cannot conceive of it."

Message Fledglings" was the topic for discussion by Mrs. Gailey. She stated, "You are a pillar—builder of pillars that can hold up America." She concluded "We as parents are building children into pillars of greatness in the four respects, for God, work, individual."

Members are best taught in the home where the child learns by observation of you," Mrs. Roberts, in opening her "Family Manners." Mrs. Gailey used the rules of the organization, D. C., official hos-

Austin P.-T. A. Holds Monthly Meeting Tuesday

The Stephen F. Austin P.-T. A. met in the school auditorium on Oct. 8.

The first vice president, Mrs. Doyle Fowler, was leader of the program. The invocation was offered by Mrs. Lynn McKown. The Pledge of Allegiance and songs were presented by members of the fourth grade. Mrs. C. D. Morris directed a study group meeting on "Pre-Adolescence and What Makes Them Tick." It was very interesting and enlightening for parents and teachers who have the desire to better understand pre-adolescents. The fourth grade won the room award for the most parents present. The program was concluded with a parent-teacher talk-it-over wherein parents visited rooms of their children to discuss progress and problems with the teachers.

The meeting was very well attended with many students' homes represented. The next meeting will be on Nov. 13 at 7:30 p. m. in the Austin auditorium.

Sewing Club Meeth in Home of Mrs. L. Yarborough

The Friendly Sewing Club met in the home of Mrs. L. G. Yarborough on Oct. 4, for a luncheon. A bountiful meal was served at the noon hour. In the afternoon two quilts were tacked for the club. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Estelle Barber on Oct. 8.

Fifteen members and two visitors were present. They were: Mmes. C. E. Hankins, W. E. Beckham, A. B. Jones, Hettie Newman, George Hammond, Estelle Barber, Ora Willingham, Dot Webster, Ed McMurry, Sam Alexander, Alla Boswell, J. B. Wrenn, J. W. Oliver, J. W. Molloy, Jet Roberts, and hostess, Mrs. L. G. Yarborough.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends for their kind words of sympathy and loving deeds in the death of our beloved son Elvin. Especially do we thank those who contributed beautiful floral offerings and food. May God bless each one.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Gooch, Jr. Children, and Relatives

Mrs. A. W. Howard left last week for Fort Worth where she will visit her daughter and family, Mrs. Sam Whiteside.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Breland of Amarillo were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gip McMurry and Mrs. Myrtle Howard over the weekend.

Ethel Mae Curry Becomes Bride of Clifton Warrick

Miss Ethel Mae Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Curry of San Antonio, became the bride of Clifton Eual Warrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stroud of San Antonio, Oct. 3. Rev. Kenneth W. Copeland, pastor of the Travis Park Methodist Church, read the impressive double ring ceremony in the Childers Chapel at Travis Park in San Antonio.

The altar was decorated in palms and candelabra.

Miss Laverne Reynolds, organist, played prenuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Eleanor Johnson who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Because."

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, was lovely in a white satin fitted gown styled with sweetheart neckline outlined in seed pearls and long fitted sleeves which came to a point over the hands. Her circular veil was attached to a small pearl-studded crown.

For something old she wore a gold bracelet belonging to the great great grandmother of the groom and worn traditionally by the brides in his family. She carried a bouquet of white roses on a white Bible.

Miss Frances Ruth Curry was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of emerald green satin with a green feathered hat and carried yellow roses.

Wilburn R. Bippert was best man and Scotty Stroud and Mickey Connally served as ushers.

Miss Jenifer Locher, cousin of the groom, and Michael Ream, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sigler, grandparents of the groom, Mrs. Daviswell Licker, Jenifer and David, of Brownwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Warrick of Wellington. The reception followed in the home of the bride's parents. Mmes.

Mrs. Omer Hill Hostess to Members Of Christine Class

The Christine Class met in the home of Mrs. Omer Hill on Oct. 8 for its regular meeting. Mrs. S. M. Watts gave a very inspiring devotional on "The Light of the World."

Mrs. Ottie Jones, the president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Ed McMurry, vice president, introduced Mrs. Haskell Howell, who installed the new officers. She used as her subject, "Brighten the Corner," with each officer lighting a candle as they were installed, and reading in unison the pledge to the class. Officers for the new year are as follows: Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, teacher; Mrs. Ottie Jones, president; Mrs. H. H. Lindsey, vice president; Mrs. Leonard Wilson, secretary; Mrs. A. J. Fowler, treasurer; Mmes. Henry Scott, Omer Hill, J. W. Smith, Ed McMurry, group leaders.

Lovely refreshments were served to 26 members and guests: Mmes. Ed McMurry, Henry Scott, J. W. Smith, D. L. C. Kinard, Leonard Wilson, Gussie Jones, J. W. Simpson, Estelle Barber, Byron Baldwin, Theodore Swift, H. J. Howell, S. M. Watts, Mary Bownds, Jean Lamb, Henry Hayes, Emma Baskerville, Roy Patton, Allie Caviness, A. J. Fowler, T. J. Bridges, Sam Foxhall, T. C. Stevens, W. T. Hightower, W. C. Anderson, H. H. Lindsey, and hostess, Mrs. Hill. Mrs. W. T. Hightower was co-hostess.

W. R. Rippert, Jr., Alvin Wittie and Misses Carol Ann Speer and Carol Digby assisted in serving.

Following a short honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Warrick will be at home in San Angelo where he is employed by Geo. A. Hormel Packing Co.

Mrs. Stroud, the bridegroom's mother, will be remembered by friends here as the former Margille Sigler.

Mrs. Bill Cosby Is New President Of Mizpah Guild

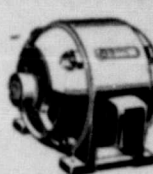

The Mizpah Guild of the First Presbyterian Church met Oct. 7 in the home of Mrs. C. W. Kinslow.

The meeting was called to order by the president. Minutes were read and approved. During the business meeting, officers for the year were named as follows: Mrs.

Bill Cosby, president; Mrs. Claude Ferrel, vice president; Mrs. Joe Montgomery, recording secretary; Mrs. Gladys Power, corresponding secretary and reporter; Mrs. Brode Hoover, treasurer.

Mrs. Montgomery gave the devotional on "Faith to Feed the Soul." Mrs. Bill Leslie brought the lesson "Who Is My Neighbor?" from the Study Book, "The U. N. and Us."

Those present were: Mmes. John Deaver, Claude Ferrel, Mills Roberts, Guy Wright, Bluford Walker, Boyd Rogers, Bill Cosby, S. S. Montgomery, Bill Leslie, O. L. Helm, Mack Wilson, Joe Montgomery, Ruth Harrison, Gladys Power, Pearl Ward, Miss Mary Noel, and the hostess, Mrs. Kinslow.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

Your general state can be a first line of defense against illness, particularly the season of infectious diseases here. Resistance to colds, "flu" and measles is influenced by rest, sleep, exercise and how you get sick. Many different things to people, but the net effect is the same: food not only provides energy to the human body, it also provides building blocks to renew body tissue. Nutrition is largely a matter of getting enough of the right things since this is true, it is to take a look at your diet. Your regular diet built around serving of meat or fish, eggs a week, some two glasses of milk daily servings of raw cooked green yellow two servings of fruit, potatoes, bread or other. Candy, and beverages drinks and coffee are additions, but they are some- what additions. In your diet can be as limited as you wish you watch for "diseases", leading to about food that can- emphasized is the value breakfast. And a coffee break isn't breakfast! Many people find the demands of their job in home or office takes so much out of them they feel all used up at the end of the day. This is apt to be literally true, especially if breakfast has been bypassed. Many times an "all gone" feeling in the late morning comes about like this: When you get up in the morning you've been without food for a good many hours. Yet, you may not experience a feeling of hunger. You seem to get along for a few hours on a sub-standard breakfast, but around 11 o'clock you can't wait for lunch. Errors in your work are most apt to happen at this time.

To forestall fatigue, to reduce errors, to assure yourself of a steady level of health, fortify yourself with a sure combination—a good night of sleep and a really basic breakfast, such as fruit, toast, eggs, cereal and milk. If you can't eat breakfast through lack of appetite, start now to cultivate the habit of a good morning meal and soon you'll find you can't do without it. Remember, too, as you review your eating habits to take a look at your ways of eating as well. The relaxed, pleasant meal . . . tempting, colorful dishes . . . quiet conversation are all good tools for better health.

James has received many honors during his years in college. He has served as president of Conner Hall, secretary of Buffalo Bills, president of Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society, and president of Alpha Chi, an honor society composed of the upper five per cent of the junior and senior students. He was a member of the Student Advisory Council for 1956-57 and is a member of the Mathematics Club. He has received trophies for being selected as outstanding military history student, outstanding freshman ROTC student, and outstanding sophomore ROTC student.

James attended elementary school in Estelline and is a graduate of the Paducah High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Corley of Lubock were here over the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Corley.

DIRECTOR — C. L. May, vice president, Lone Star Gas Company, Dallas, was re-elected director of the American Gas Association last week. He will serve a two-year term.

Mr. and Mrs. Phaeton Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Oran Adecock, and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Roden visited Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gardenhire and daughters of Quanah on Friday night. Other visitors in the Gardenhire home were Coach and Mrs. Herman Smith of Quanah.

Fewer Chickens Indicate Better Egg Prices Soon

Decreased production and the purchase of fewer replacements for next year has resulted in a brighter outlook for egg producers.

The number of chickens raised on Texas farms in 1957 is about one-fourth less than in 1956, according to John G. McHaney, extension economist. During the first six months of 1957, production of egg-type chicks from commercial hatcheries in Texas was also about one-fourth less than that during the same period last year. Many farmers who raised chickens last year are raising none this year. The decrease is greater among the small flocks.

The laying flock on farms on January 1, 1958 in the U. S. is expected to be 6 to 8 per cent smaller than a year earlier, says the specialist. During the first six months of 1957, egg prices averaged 22 per cent below the same period in 1956 and farmers bought 19 per cent fewer flock replacement chicks.

Recently egg prices have shown some improvement and will probably continue to do so in 1958, because potential layers (hens and pullets of laying age plus pullets not of laying age) on farms, August 1, 1957, were 7 per cent below a year earlier and 17 per cent below the average.

Egg production during the last three months of this year will probably fall below the same period in 1956, points out McHaney, and we will enter 1958 with fewer layers on farms. Because of these trends, egg prices in the last three months of 1957 will likely be above those of 1956 at the same time; and prices during the first four months of 1958 should be better than for the same period in 1957.

Mrs. R. C. Lemons and Mrs. Mac Tarver were in Borger last week and stayed with Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Hamilton. Mrs. Tarver attended a meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Simmons and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Smith in Hitchcock, Okla., over the weekend.

Tom Beeson of Olton was a visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beeson over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Willeford and Troyace Rhudy of Jacksboro were visitors here last week.

wheat, rye and other crops which farmers have planted. Many are reported to be planting cover crops this fall to keep their land from blowing next spring.

Temperature-wise, the weather has been on the cool side since Sunday with a low this morning, Thursday, of 54 degrees.

Many cotton farmers are hoping for a late frost this year since much of the county crop needs more time to mature.

The average date for a killing frost in Memphis, according to the Texas Almanac, is No. 5. This has been the average date over the past 34 years when records have been kept. If the weather should be average this year, then the cotton crop has about three and one-half weeks to mature. However, it has been pointed out, the frost could come early or late.

Other temperatures recorded during the last week were as follows: Wednesday 62-56; Tuesday 75-56; Monday 84-62; Sunday 75-54; Saturday 94-54; Friday 96-52.

QUARTER-MILLIONTH TELEPHONE — G. Howard Briggs, operating vice president for General Telephone Company of the Southwest, looks on as General's 250,000th telephone is installed in the home of Mrs. R.
