Highlights of Rotary Meeting Held in Miami, Florida, May 29

Editor's Note: Below is an account of the trip Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander enjoyed when they attended the Rotary Convention in Miami, Fla., as told by Mrs. Roberts, the incoming president.

We had all our plans laid for the trip. My husband, Al, and I, along with Mrs. Alexander and Mr. Roberts, were to go to the convention via Delta National Airways. I had been to a meeting in Dallas at 6 p. m. on Friday for Miami and on Saturday at 7 a. m. at Miami at about 2 p. m.

a sailor off a long cruise. We had made previous arrangement to go to the Hialeah race track for a program on Saturday evening at $5 a head. I thought we would be able to see some races, but they had a feed and a trapeze program.

We were stuffed in buses, stuffed into the line, got a ration of shrimp and boiled rice and stuffed ourselves. We got dizzy watching the high wire, high trapeze and high dive by people from the circus headquarters at Sarasota, Florida. We stuffed into the stuffy buses and it seemed that we took the long way home to dear old Algiers, home of Kasher cooking back on the 26-mile hotel trip.

The next morning which was Sunday, we thought of going to church. We were pooped, and so we decided to see it on television and read the Sunday papers. We thought we would have coffee sent up but the coffee shop was not open until 8 a. m.

Sunday afternoon we went over to the Convention Hall and registered for the convention at $10 a head and bought tickets for the bus. We didn't figure out where to catch the bus until about Tuesday, but I guess we got our money's worth anyway. A convention is like a poker game. You got to pay to learn. We paid and tipped the taxi drivers.

The first Plenary Session was at 9:30 a. m. Monday, May 30. We had the usual address of welcome by Ben G. MaGahey, chairman of the Board of Commissioners Metropolitan Dade County, Florida, U. S. A., and Maurice R. Harrison, president of the Rotary Club of Miami, and response by Tristan E. Guevara, director Corbada Corbada, Argentina. Zone I had a program Monday night which was missed as we went to a dinner of District 573 at the Raleigh Hotel where the 46 people of Ralls were staying. J. Edd McLaughlin and wife were present and we had a fine time. We visited with the Ralls people and we met them every few minutes each day until the end of the convention. That dinner was the highlight for me because they were home folks. I found out we could have got a room for $6 at the Raleigh which appeared to be as good as we paid $14 for at the Algiers.

It rained almost every day. I went to the Saxony Hotel and got in on a $7.50 dinner, had an address by the President of R. I. B. I. (Rotary International British Isles.)

He spoke English and I had trouble understanding him. The Master of Ceremonies, Sam Kessinger past director of R. I., in his talk listed what Rotary was not. He said it was not a religion, a lodge, or just an eating club. Sam was humorous and serious at the same time. He had a light touch with a serious purpose. We were all impressed by his ability to introduce the 20 people at the head table by their first names, make some remarks about who they were, where they came from and where he met them without notes. The air conditioning went out and Sam remarked when he came back on that the holder of the 4th mortgage had taken the belt off until a payment was made.

On Tuesday May 31, the Second Plenary Session we had the Reports of the General Secretary and General Treasurer and the Report of the Council on Legislation. We voted on the Resolutions and although there was some bucking up, the Committee was sustained. One resolution by the Houston Heights Club to provide attendance record for Past Service or Senior Active if unable to comply with attendance due to illness or impairment. Most people said that if he wasn't there he was absent and they were voted down. They took the whole day on legislation and wound up with the same results the Legislation Committee recommended.

I attended two Assemblies, a Craft Assembly on public utilities and a discussion Club Presidents and Secretaries. These are difficult to administer, because there are always a lot of pompous loud mouths who want to take up all the time so I cannot tell them my ideas on how their clubs should be run. Actually I met a lot of fine people.

June 1, after supper we went to the Orange Bowl and saw a Fantasy based on the history of Florida. There were floats, four high school bands, a high school chorus, a posse of mixed chorus, Cadet Corps and Square Dancers and a municipal band. They had a parade of Antique Cars, Metropolitan Motorcycles drill team and two wonderful soloists.

They wound up with some fine fire works and after somebody supervised these 1,400 high school kids they surely were tired that night and glad it was over. We got a big bang out of it, especially when the bombs went off in the close quarters of the stadium.

On Thursday, June 2, they had the final reports of the Convention and closing address by Mr. Thomas and J. Edd McLaughlin. We enjoyed the speeches. On Monday they told us they were glad we came. Our representatives said, "Thomas, we're glad we are here." On Tuesday we had reports. That afternoon the ladies went to the fancy Fontainebleau ate lunch and looked at fancy dresses we couldn't pay for and we paid. On Wednesday, Eddie Rickenbacker, said airplanes are going to fly faster and further out. On Thursday as I said they closed it up.

In my opinion J. E. McLaughlin from Ralls, Texas made the best talk. After listening to West Texan very long, a person can't understand English.

American Legion Auxiliary unit. Girls State was organized as a national Americanism activity in 1937 by the American Legion Auxiliary. Non-partisan and non-political, the purpose of the Girls State program is to provide citizenship training for girls of high school age, to afford them an opportunity to live together as a self-governing group and to inform them of the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities which they will assume when they become adults. They learn the problems of government by performing the same duties as real office holders in the everyday world.

The 1960 session has grown from an experimental conference of 94 girls, held at Baylor University in 1941, to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas. This year, a full quota of 400 girls, the largest number which can presently be accommodated at the Texas School for the Blind, are in attendance making a total of more than 5,000 girls who have participated in the citizenship program. Citizens are selected at local levels principally on a basis of character and leadership from students who have just completed their junior year in high school.

Associate Justice Meade Griffin of the Texas Supreme Court administered the oath of office to the various elected state officials of Bluebonnet Girls State Monday, June 13, in the rotunda of the state capitol. Climaxing the session will be the selection of two outstanding Citizens of 1960, who will be sent to Girls Nation in Washington, D. C., by the American Legion Auxiliary, where the two young representatives will continue their study in the responsibilities of the Republic. The election of a president of Girls Nation will highlight the Girls Nation program.

Disaster Committee. Mr. Sarrells arrived in Memphis Tuesday afternoon and was flown over the county by Eddie Foxhall. He returned to College Station Tuesday night to report his findings to the Texas Disaster Committee.

McKown explained that both the state and federal government agencies must approve the disaster request before any funds are made available.

"However," McKown said, "the local ASC office is taking applications for leveling of flood damaged land without state or federal approval of funds. If the disaster funds are made available, these applications will be approved."

"All farmers who have land which must be leveled before it can be planted should file applications immediately so the ASC office can survey the damage and determine what work should be done," McKown added.

Council, after figuring the budget for the coming year, will set the rate of assessment and the tax rate to bring in the needed revenue. This will be done after values are approved by the respective boards of equalization.

McMorries said that in case a property owner isn't at home when the crew arrives, a letter will be left in the mailbox or door stating that a crew had been by; and, if the property owner desires to talk with them, he can do so at his convenience by calling either the school or city tax offices.

The company has re-evaluated over one-half million units in several towns and counties in the Panhandle, according to McMorries.

Upon completion of the re-evaluation, the Memphis School District will assess this year's taxes on the new values. The city will wait until the 1961 year to use the new values to assess taxes.

election was over, the two political parties dissolved into one United Boys State. Following the election and appointment of the governor, each boy reported to his respective office to set organization in place of attending party meetings.

The climax came Friday morning when all 565 boys visited the capitol. Each boy visited the office in the capitol that he had held at Boys State. The senate met in the Senate chamber, and the House of Representatives met in the House chambers. Each boy, also, if he wished, could visit any other office in the capitol.

The final event was held Friday night. About 400 girls were invited from the Austin area to the Governor's Inaugural Ball. The social was held in Gregory Gym. The meeting came to a close at 9 a. m. Saturday morning when the citizens of Boys State were dismissed and a week of pleasure, work and learning had come to a close for those who were in attendance.

Mrs. Letha Miller of Reno, Nev., left Monday after several weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Leonard Wilson.

Workable Farm Program Needed

Latest information from Washington regarding the overall farm problem came this week from the office of Senator Ralph Yarborough. In his newsletter to Texas citizens, he made the comments listed below, pointing out that the Senate recently appropriated $4-billion.

In the period beginning in fiscal 1953, and ending June 30, 1960, the government will have spent $37-billion in the name of agriculture.

This amount spent in the last seven years is $1.2-billion more than the total of $35.8-billion which the nation had previously spent in the name of agriculture in the entire history of the department from 1862, up through 1952.

These fantastic expenditures, linked with a 24 per cent reduction in farm income since 1952, and giant stocks of grain surpluses, graphically show how the farm program as it is now administered is an utter failure.

While the farmer's income has dropped 24 per cent since 1952, the income of industrial workers has increased 33 per cent and corporation dividend payments climbed 47 per cent.

This adverse trend in the income of farm families was reflected last year in the death of 100,000 farms just as it had been marked in previous years with the collapse of several hundred thousand other family farms. It is also reflected in the boarded up businesses in country towns which had depended on farm families and in the population loss of 148 Texas counties in the past 10 years.

One of the most serious, if not the most serious, domestic problems facing this nation today is instituting a sound, workable farm program. It is clear that we must tailor production to meet the needs of America and the free world, establish workable production controls, and assure farmers of price supports at full parity to allow them a reasonable return on their investment in line with income of other jobs and business.

A workable farm program, one which will not only benefit the farmer, but all Americans, can be passed and administered, and at considerably less cost than the $4-billion farm appropriations bill recently passed by the Senate.

Delayed Recognition

A special observance to pay tribute to all businesses and managements that create productive and honest employment opportunities for workers would be something new. In fact, such a tribute could hardly be expected, however sensible.

By the same token, legislation designed to protect concerns in their setting up of jobs and expanding or curtailing the positions according to reasonable business needs is rare when compared with the leeway given labor unions on their side of the picture.

In this connection, it is interesting to note the provisions of a Senate bill 3548, recently introduced by Senator Everett M. Derkson of Illinois to amend the Railway Labor Act, the Norris-LaGuardia Act and the National Labor Relations Act.

The proposed amendments grew out of the public alarm created by the Supreme Court decision of April 18, this year, in the Northwestern Railroad case.

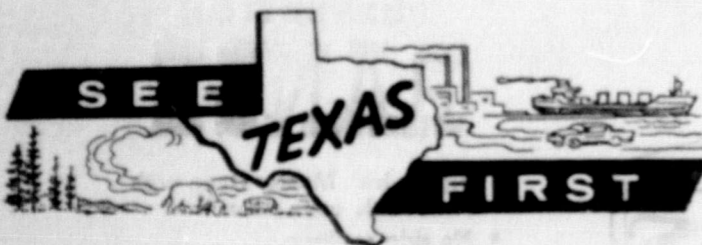

By a 5-4 decision, the high court gives a union virtual veto power over any industrial modernization program by making the termination of jobs a bargainable issue.

Although the dispute which led to this court decision arose in the railroad industry, it has universal application and is of riding public importance.

Senator Derkson's proposed solution simply amends the three pertinent acts to make it clear that a union could not lawfully strike over demands involving "the creation or discontinuance of positions."

As new conditions and demands affect the stability of all business and industrial operations, workers are certain to discover more and more that the security of management operations is of prime concern to employees in general as well as to the businesses that creates jobs.

Senator Derkson's amendments should be given full consideration and acted upon without prejudice or political motivation. —Galveston Daily News

Scenic, quaint, metropolitan, recreational capital, year 'round weather — these words, true as they are, just don't describe San Antonio adequately.

It's America's Venice, too. You can glide down the San Antonio River that meanders through the city. Your gondola or Cycleboat will take you along the same river banks where a quiet Indian village once stood. You'll see beautiful semi-tropical plants and flowers. We have seen a considerable change during the past four years, and other changes daily, are some encouragement that there are some who can take the changes that are necessary in order for a community to grow.

Only those who can plan for the future and keep up with the changing times can make Paducah and Cottle County the kind of community it should be. The pace toward change is yet slow, but with keener competition among ourselves, the pace will quicken and become evident.

OUT WHERE THE COUNTRY CAN TEAR A TRUCK TO PIECES—

Chevy middleweights get 1/3 more work done in a day!

Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride pacing every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sidesway on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

Lezeta Calene Teel Becomes Bride of Charles Guthrie in Church Ceremony

Before an archway of orchid flowers and greenery flanked by lighted candelabra, the wedding of Miss Lezeta Calene Teel and Charles Ray Guthrie was solemnized Saturday evening, June 4, in the First Christian Church in Memphis.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elmer Teel of Lakeview, while her groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Guthrie.

Minister Acel Clark officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Traditional organ music was furnished by Mrs. L. G. Rasco who also accompanied Mrs. Burton Hughes as she sang "True Love" and "Always."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Royce Elmer Teel, wore a gown of organza lace over taffeta. The floor-length dress was fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a white carnation corsage showered with orchid streamers atop a white Bible. She observed the traditional bridal custom of wearing "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue."

Flower girls were Thresa and Genice Teel of Vigo Park, pieces of the bride. They wore identical dresses of white acetate styled with fitted bodices and full skirts. They carried baskets of rose petals.

Miss Minnie Clark of Lakeview, maid-of-honor, wore a street-length dress of orchid crystalline fashioned with a fitted bodice, full sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a matching headpiece of orchid ribbons and a corsage of white carnations tied with orchid ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Linley and Miss Betty Driver, both of Lakeview. They wore dresses identical in style and color to that of the maid-of-honor.

Miss Retha Kennard and Miss Patsy Neighbors lighted the candles. They were attired in strapless dresses of orchid chiffon and wore wristlets corsages of white carnations. John Guthrie served his brother as best man. Ushers were David Duncan and Don Davis, both of Memphis.

The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue linen accented with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a two-piece dress of navy blue with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the recreation home at the church. The table was laid with a white satin and lace cloth and centered with orchid and candles. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with orchid roses. Mrs. Royce Teel, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake, and Miss Patsy Neighbors served punch. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. Hubert Hall and Mrs. B. M. Durrett.

Mrs. Guthrie is a graduate of the Lakeview High School, receiving her diploma with this year's class. Mr. Guthrie is a graduate of the Memphis High School, and is presently employed here with the General Telephone Company.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Memphis.

B&PW Delegates Attend Houston State Convention

Miss Joan Edwards and Mrs. Annette Boswell were in Houston last week to attend the 40th annual convention of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

The three-day session was held at the Rice Hotel and opened on Friday, June 10, and closed June 12.

Mrs. Lillian B. Hope of Longview was elected president of the state organization on Saturday. Abilene will be the 1961 convention city.

Among the outstanding speakers were Mrs. Louise Bushnell of New York City who addressed the assembly Friday evening. She urged members to awaken to a large "sleeping giant," completely unaware of their potential in the political arena. Study of Federal government spending in relation to taxes is a top need among women's groups, Mrs. Bushnell said.

Dr. Minnie C. Miles, third vice president of the National Federation from Tuscaloosa, Ala., presented three challenges before women of today. They were listed as the home, her chosen profession or business career where she can transfer her ability to find the excellence within each woman's personal reach, and third, citizenship and her role in politics.

Saturday afternoon, Dr. Minnie Le Maffett, honorary president of the Texas Federation showed a film on the Chinese nursing proj-

Report From Washington

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th
Congressional District

Benevolent Bird

The bald eagle, a symbol of the United States older than the Constitution itself, is known throughout the world as an eternal representative of American freedom, independence, and democracy. Perhaps best known to Americans is the Great Seal which appears on every one dollar bill. The eagle is also found on many government publications and in some of our most hallowed national shrines. The Great Seal has displayed the eagle in its central position since the Continental Congress first approved a seal for the United States in 1782. Perhaps the founding fathers would be mildly surprised to learn that the symbol they approved many years ago is today reflecting the American position so accurately in many ways. I like to reflect upon at least two recent incidents in which our old eagle played a part, and I must admire this resolute creature for his profound understanding of our constantly shifting fortunes in a complicated world.

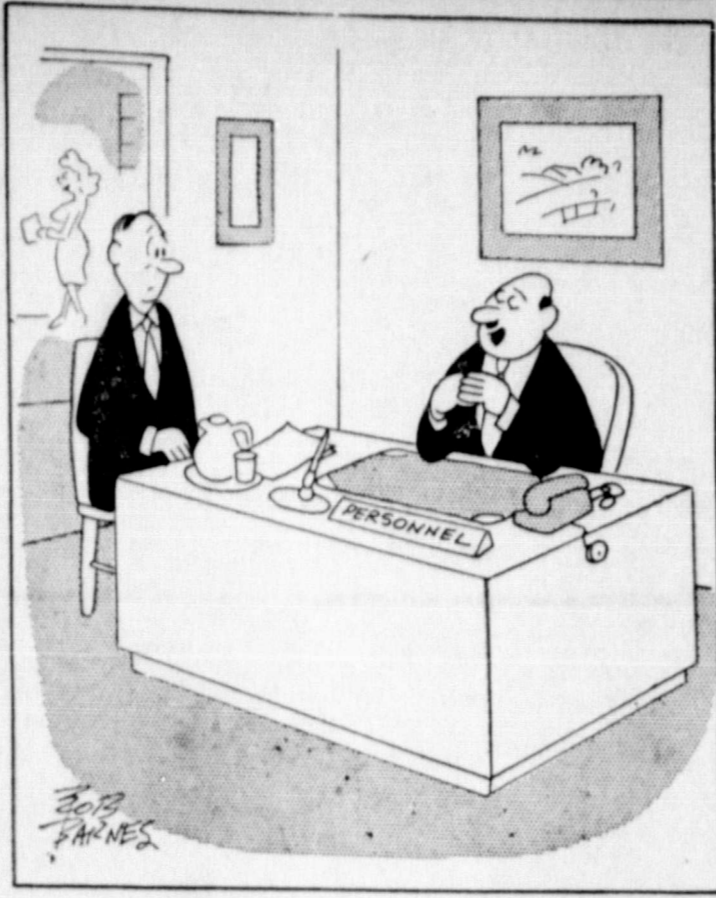

The United States, as you may know, is currently constructing a new embassy in London, to be decorated by a huge aluminum eagle with a 35-foot wing spread. Since our country has poured billions of dollars of foreign aid into Great Britain and other countries since the outbreak of World War II, it is perhaps only appropriate that our friend the eagle should be described as looking "benevolent." I can't help but wonder if, in addition to "benevolent", he also looks penitence.

Since almost everyone knows that friendship can't be bought, it also seems logical that some of the British would call our feathered representative a "blatant monstrosity" and ask the House of Commons to "give it the bird." The British Minister of Housing and Local Government is "studying" the situation, with plenty of assistance probably from the Chancellor of the Exchequer. Perhaps the entire difficulty could be resolved to England's satisfaction if a hose were built into the eagle which would shower dollar bills on waiting Britishers in the street below.

If you think that building such a hose into the eagle would be a bit far-fetched, just look at the Russians. They built an entire microphone-transmitter system into an eagle which was to be placed over the desk of our ambassador in Moscow. The eagle, a part of a Great Seal which was hand-carved by the Russians, was planned to be an unwilling accomplice in Soviet spying activities.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"The salary is forty dollars a week, but we'd never hire anybody stupid enough to accept it."

The Trojans, of course, played this game with a horse thousands of years ago, except that the Russians used a nelectronic gadget in the place of armed men. At any rate, our eagle was displayed in the United Nations Security Council recently after the listening device had been discovered and removed. Our eagle told the world something that some nations appear to have forgotten: tyranny and totalitarian principles are forever the enemies of liberty, despite the outward assurances of such leaders as Khrushchev.

The Russian boss, in an orgy of unprincipled sham and hypocrisy, says that "we are people of high and lofty moral standards" and that these standards are indeed so high as to place spying outside the wildest dreams of a Russian. Our friend the eagle, with his arrows in one hand and olive branch in the other, again lent its force to the American cause and thereby served its nation well.

Perhaps the United States, and its Department of State in particular, might be wise to keep a close eye on the various activities of our great representative of the national purpose. When he begins looking "benevolent," perhaps it would be time to re-examine our position. And when he looks "bugged" we might adopt more determined efforts to keep ourselves from being overheard—or over-awed. In any case, the eagle has again proven himself to be a great and staunch friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bailey, who have lived in their present home in Estelline for more than 40 years, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Estelline.

More than 100 friends from Estelline, Parnell, Newlin and Carey called between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

The reception table was laid with a white nylon cloth decorated with gold beads and sequins and trimmed with gold fringe. The cloth was made by a close friend of the family.

Gold bells, gold bows and the numeral, "50," were used at either end of the table. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a white wedding bell and the numerals, "50." Centering the table was a white and gold floral arrangement. Fruit punch, cake, mints and nuts were served with the granddaughters alternating.

The registry table was covered with a white linen cloth trimmed with hand crochet and an arrangement of tiny golden rose buds. The white leather bound register was inscribed in gold. Grandsons alternated at the table.

Members of the house party were children, grandchildren, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law of the honorees.

Mrs. Bailey wore an original dusty rose silk linen sheath trimmed with silk organza and pearls. Her corsage was an orchid. Mr. Bailey wore a white carnation boutonniere.
