Estelline Spring Wins Over Dike

REV. C. T. JORDAN

Baptist Church At Estelline To Hold Revival

Spring revival services will be conducted at the First Baptist Church in Estelline beginning April 15 and continuing through Easter Sunday, April 22.

Services will be held at 10 a. m. each morning and at 8 p. m. in the evening. Prayer services will be held at 7:30 p. m. daily.

Rev. C. T. Jordan, pastor, will do the preaching. Singing will be directed by O. B. Hoover, with Elaine Seay serving as pianist.

Burl Bumpus, a ministerial student, will preach on Friday night, it was announced.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the services, either in the morning or in the evening.

Rev. Jordan began work as pastor of the church at Estelline in January of this year, moving from Childress. In the past he has been associated with the work at Earth and Spring Lake, Tex., and in Las Vegas, N. M., for four years.

The pastor served for two and one-half years as an Army chaplain.

He and his wife, Gladys, have one daughter, Charlotte, who is a senior in Childress High School.

At Estelline last Saturday an effort to stop the flow from the Salt Hole was unsuccessful.

U. S. Army Engineers built a circular dike around the spring to raise the water level in hopes that the weight of the water above would equal the pressure from below and stop the spring from flowing.

The dike was about four feet high and was completed about noon Saturday. At 5 p. m. the water rose to a level where it broke the dike.

Engineer Jack Skidmore of the Corps of Engineers of Tulsa, said he was disappointed, but not too surprised, that the dike broke.

Engineers will discuss the data from the experiment and determine further action.

The water from the salt hole flows at the rate of 2,500 gallons per minute, and puts 450 tons of salt per day into the Red River.

The water at Estelline has 18 per cent saline content, whereas sea water has about 16 per cent.

The constant dumping of salt into the Red River finally ends up downstream in Lake Texhoma.

Lawrence Kennon and R. B. Phillips came out victors in the balloting here Saturday for two places on the Memphis School Board.

Election Judge O. V. Alexander stated that there was a total of 864 votes cast. Phillips received 508, Kennon 480, Dr. H. R. Stevenson 404, and Joyce Webster 340.

The two new members were sworn in Monday night at a meeting of the School Board, and another Board member, Willie A. Smithee, resigned.

Smithee stated that there had been considerable criticism of Borden's Co. selling milk to the school with him serving on the School Board. Smithee is the local distributor for the company.

"I feel for business reasons that it would be better for me to resign from the board," he stated.

Other members of the board accepted his resignation with regret but also asked him to continue serving until next fall. However, he declined.

The Board then elected Charles Snowdon as president, Tony Craig as vice president and R. B. Phillips as secretary.

The Board issued a vote of confidence in the principals of the various schools and extended their contracts for an additional year. The contracts will now expire in 1964.

The principals are Clinton E. Voyles, High School; Mrs. Brunetta Morris, Austin Elementary; Miss Ethel Hillhouse, Travis Elementary; and J. R. Whitfield, Morningside School.

B. J. Thomson, who has been serving as Junior High principal, was promoted to business manager for the school system.

The Board re-elected the two coaches, Don Lambert and Bob Martin, for the coming year and complimented them for their work.

The new restaurant will contain about 2400 square feet of floor space and will contain a coffee shop with a seating capacity of 50 persons and a dining room which will seat about 50.

The dining room capacity can be extended to 75 by the use of banquet-style tables. The room will be divided by folding doors, which will allow small groups to use the dining area at the same time.

Cancer Crusade Workers To Make Canvass Tues.

Federated Club women will knock on doors between the hours of 5 and 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, April 17, distributing pamphlets and asking for donations to the American Cancer Society.

Mrs. Herschel Combs, county crusade chairman, stated this week. Assisting with the drive will be members of the five Federated Clubs of Memphis including the Delphian Club, the Atalantean Club, the Pathfinder's Council, the Woman's Culture Club and the 1913 Study Club.

Other individuals who are interested in assisting with the work are invited to be at the Legion Hall at 5 o'clock, where material and instructions for canvassing will be handed out, Mrs. Combs said.

"Those who make donations will be making it possible for the American Cancer Society to forge ahead with its three-pronged program of cancer control through research, education and service to patients," Ben Parks, president of the Hall County Chapter, said.

"Unless progress in cancer control continues, 45,000,000 Americans now alive will develop the disease. Our primary purpose is to save these lives. This we strive to do through placing our educational program first and fund-raising second," Parks said.

Estelline Canvass

At Estelline the drive will be made by members of the Ophelia Club. Definite plans have not been made as to the date, but the canvass will be held sometime within the next two weeks. They will also distribute pamphlets urging alertness to "Cancer's Seven Danger Signals," and stressing the importance of regular health checkups.

Lakeview

Mrs. Mac Cofer will serve as chairman for the Lakeview area. Plans for that drive were not complete, but will possibly be held sometime during the month of April.

NEW BUILDING — Pictured above are the proposed plans for a new restaurant which Adrian Odom plans to construct and operate on Highway 287 between the Travelers Motel and Brewer Garage. The contract is expected to be let within the near future. The building will contain 2400 square feet of space and will have large paved parking lot, and an even larger gravelled over-flow parking lot. The building is to be constructed of Hadit block. Plans call for the work to begin sometime within the next week or two and for completion in early summer.

Mrs. J. D. Browder Wins Cotton Contest

Mrs. J. D. Browder of Mineral Wells is top winner in the 1961 Cotton Guessing Contest sponsored by The Memphis Democrat. It was announced this week after official ginning figures were released by the Bureau of Census, Department of Commerce.

Mrs. Browder's guess was 75,200 bales, and the official report recorded 75,139 bales for Hall County's cotton yield for 1961, making it the 18th largest cotton producing county in the state.

Second place goes to Jim Wines of Memphis, who missed the official figure by 138 bales, with a guess of 75,001 bales.

Mrs. Guy Hanna of Memphis takes third place honors with a guess of 75,000 bales, just one bale lower than the second place winner.

Mrs. Browder will be awarded a three-year subscription to The Democrat for coming closest to the number of bales produced in the county. The second place winner, Jim Wines, will receive a two-year subscription to The Democrat, and Mrs. Hanna will receive a one-year subscription.

Only two other persons listed a guess in the 75,000 bracket. Ruby Hoffman guessed 75,432 and Max McCoy 75,925.

A total of 378 readers entered the 1961 contest, the highest figure to be listed in several years.

According to the cotton ginning report from the Bureau of Census, Briscoe County produced 23,622, Childress 31,703, Collingsworth 41,414, Donley 12,223, Motley 19,290 and Hall 75,139. With the exception of Briscoe, all others increased their yield over the 1960 figures. Hall County produced 14,473 more bales in 1961 than in 1960, the report revealed.

Parimutuel Betting?

This year the voters will again have an opportunity to take up the question of horse race gambling in Texas. The occasion will be the May 5 primary when the question will be on the ballot. The vote actually will have no legal influence other than to show how the voters feel about the matter. At one time, in 1933, major tracks were built at Houston, San Antonio and Arlington. Subsequently, a special session of the legislatures outlawed parimutuel betting. Attempts to legalize it failed in 1941, 1947, 1953, 1959 and 1961.

There are several reasons why we oppose legalized gambling. In the first place gambling produces no wealth of any kind. Not one pound of food, not an ounce of material for clothing, not one iota of housing, education, transportation, or wholesome recreation are created by the millions of man-hours that legalized gambling would siphon off productive processes. When Texas tried parimutuel betting in the thirties, even horsewives neglected household duties while they pored over forms all morning and spent afternoons at the tracks. Food budgets were wrecked. Bills went unpaid. It was the business interests of the state that demanded repeal of parimutuel betting in Texas.

Then there is also the problem of the ruined lives because to some people gambling is as habit-forming as alcohol and drugs. Also, in almost every instance, the legalization of gambling results in a heavy increase in illegal gambling, in all other fields including sports.

While tax revenues from legalized gambling are considerable in such states as New York and California, tax rates in parimutuel states actually average higher than in states prohibiting legalized gambling. The big gambling states also levy property taxes, state sales taxes, and state income taxes. Betting revenues are often offset by higher law-enforcement costs, larger welfare budgets, and increased unemployment payments. In a smaller state, it was discovered that unemployment payments to track employees, who worked only during the racing season, amounted to more than the total tax from parimutuel machines.

The final reason we oppose legalized gambling is that it is basically immoral. Gambling essentially is trying to get another's property without labor, exchange, or investment. In no sense can gambling be compared to taking a risk in legitimate business where every effort is made to reduce the degree of risk as much as possible. Organized gambling inevitably is rigged against the player. It has been pointed out that racing analysis estimate that 99.8 per cent of the people who bet on horse races lose money steadily.

We might also point out that most of the people connected with putting the horse race question on the ballot are opposed to it, but they felt that the people of the state deserved the right to vote on the question since it had been brought up several times in the past years.

Reservist Skills Wasted

This is an old issue to most servicemen, the taking of a top flight cook and making him a truck driver, but it is one which has affected the security of our country in the past and will continue to do so even to a greater degree in the future.

This week there was an article which said that the General Accounting Office, an investigative arm of Congress, was looking into this problem. The secret report is to be presented to the House Armed Services Committee which will open hearings on Reserve policy on April 16.

The GAO has looked into the call up of 5,011 Reservists from the West Coast area and has found that only 47 per cent were scheduled for the kind of military specialty job they had filled while on active duty. It cited examples of a heavy weapons infantryman with 26 months in the Marines who was mobilized as a medical specialist. Another Reservist with more than four years military training as a construction draftsman was assigned to become a driver; and a graduate chemical engineer with two years' duty as a chemical warfare unit commander was ordered up as a petroleum depot platoon leader.

We don't know what Congress will finally plan to do about this problem, but if past experience is any indication, then the GAO will come out on top. In various other conflicts on Capitol Hill the General Accounting Office has an almost perfect record for presenting the facts as they actually are. We hope that this problem of fitting the man to the job can be remedied by some method, because it has resulted in great loss of manpower and an even greater amount of ill will in the past years.

The first Texas arrest for speeding illustrates the changing times. The offense occurred in downtown Houston in 1903 and drew a fine of $10 and cost. The motorist was traveling down Main Street at 10 miles per hour. The legal limit was six.

According to an almanac published in Texas in 1839, Davy Crockett's uncle was more of a frontier hero than Davy himself. This Crockett, according to the author, shaved with sheet lightning, ate pickled thunderbolts for breakfast, wore a cast-iron shirt and took hailstone pills when sick.

The first United States Air Force was stationed in Texas, every man and plane. The corps in 1909 consisted of one pilot, eight enlisted men and one damaged airplane. Lieutenant B.D. What Other Editors Say

Truth . . . Thoughts

Market value of truth, perhaps, has never been higher than it is today, nor has the supply ever been more uncertain. The government is not holding any in surplus and foreign sources have all but disappeared.

Thoughts are silent slaves who tend the garden of our hopes with the same stern obedience that they keep fuel in our pit of fears. We are the masters who have but to choose the moment's vibrant sequence.

How Will Millions Vote?

A total of the poll tax payments and exemptions in the state this year has been reported by State Comptroller Robert Calvert at last at two million, three hundred fifty-five thousand, which is next to an all-time high in the state. Many other exemptions may also vote, in numbers probably more than 10 per cent of the figures given above, if they desire to claim their exemptions and live outside of a city of ten thousand or more.

It seems probable the vote in the large cities will be better organized and concentrated than the rural voting this year. The education departments of the unions are seeing to that. They are going to have legislators favorable to their ways of thinking if they can get them. On the contrary rural people and people in small cities make up their minds as individuals, although they generally vote in the same groove, because their thinking is along the same lines.

Memories Turning Back Time From The Democrat Files

20 YEARS AGO April 16, 1942

Instructions have been received by the Hall County Selective Service Board concerning procedure for the registration on Monday, April 27, of men 45 to 65 years old, W. J. Bragg, chief clerk of the board, stated this week. Bragg said essentially the same procedure would be followed in the coming registration as prevailed in the three previous ones. Registration points will be the high school building in Memphis and school buildings in Turkey, Estelline and Lakeview, with teachers assisting at all four places.

Appointment of Ott Beavers of Lakeview as Hall County Chairman of the Navy Relief Society by Gerald Mann, state chairman, was made this week. In accepting the appointment, Beavers immediately announced plans for raising the county's quota of $370. Active assistance by school children of the county will be sought in raising the funds asked of this county for this worthy cause, Beavers said. He has appointed as chairmen in the four commissioners precincts, superintendents of schools as follows: J. T. Duncan, Estelline; Lee Vardy, Turkey; W. B. Swinburn, Lakeview; and W. C. Davis, Memphis. S. S. Montgomery has been named honorary chairman.

Memphis Area Gets 1.30 inches Rainfall: Typical spring showers Sunday added 1.30 inches of rainfall to prepare the way for planting on Hall County farms. The heaviest fall was early in the afternoon, when 1.10 inches fell, followed with a light .15 precipitation, according to J. J. McMickin, official weather observer. High temperature Sunday was 74 degrees and low 44 degrees. Mercury readings for the early part of this week, as reported by Mr. McMickin, were: Monday, high 60, low 46, Tuesday, 68-48; Wednesday, 74-44.

Births: Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie L. Jones of Altus, Okla., are the parents of a girl, Sally Ann, born April 9. Mrs. Jones is the former "come on" for customers and so the little ad has not failed them. "They come to see the Maytag, and perhaps buy one of the several we always have on hand plus other items," we were told. So it is not because the ad has not brought results that it is repeated but because it does such a darn good job. Mrs. Jones says "Way change it?"

Dr. J. A. Odom, of the Odom Clinic Hospital, was elected president of the Panhandle District Medical Society of the regular annual meeting of that organization April 1, in Plainville, Dr. Odom will be presiding officer at the 1953 annual meeting which will be held in Lubbock next April. The head of the Odom Clinic Hospital has been practicing medicine for 43 years, and has been here 30 years of that time. He received his M.D. degree in 1909 from the University of Texas School of Medicine. Dr. Odom opened his first hospital in 1930 in his home here in Memphis. In 1945 he moved into the modern quarters which now house the hospital unit he founded.

Twelve-year-old John Lemmon, sixth grader in the West Ward School, last week received a letter from London that was decorated with the royal seal of England. The letter was from the Queen of England and signed by a royal secretary. The young Memphis, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lemmon, live at 408 N. 13th St. had sent the new Empress of the British Commonwealth a letter of sympathy after her father, King George VI died several weeks ago. Then last week he was surprised to receive in his mail a small letter edged in black. On the back of the envelope was the crest of the royal family of England. The letter was addressed to "Master John Lemmon, 403 North 13th Street, Memphis, Texas, U. S. A." Actually the address was two blocks off, but John got the letter anyway. It was mailed on March 20 at London. The letter reads: "Rockingham Palace, 19th, 1952. Dear John, The Queen commands me to write and thank you for your kind letter. Her majesty was deeply touched by your thought for her in her sorrow. Yours Sincerely, M. C. Dartens." John is a handsome American, but from his quiet pride in his letter from the Queen, it is apparent that he will be a devoted admirer of Queen Elizabeth II as long as he lives.

Delphians Hear Discussion On TV Program

Mrs. C. D. Smith was hostess to the Delphian Club on Tuesday with Mrs. C. D. Keith presiding. The meeting was opened with the club members offering a silent prayer.

The members were encouraged to attend the district meeting to be held in Childress on April 12 and 13, by Mrs. W. C. Dickey.

The 13th chapter of John, verse 35, was the Bible scripture chosen by Mrs. J. S. McMurry. She said, "Start the morning with a prayer, fill me with love to last the day through and to finish the day with the same good feeling."

"The course of study for Delphians is 'Responsibility,' so we continue the study with Communications," Mrs. Smith said as she introduced Mrs. Henry Hays for the subject of "TV Is Too Violent for Children."

Mrs. Hays began by saying, "Why is so much TV so good, so bad, on the air, off the air. The television role can be so important and can be improved, and how the ratings are arrived at and who pays the bills."

"Lerow Collins has said that television must clean itself up or get off the air. Television is called the wonderland of the air. The FCC controls television through a licensing system. The television industry sees itself as a valuable resource with millions invested."

The license has to be renewed every three years; the station sets out the policy for entertainment, news, programs and commercials. The FCC can check on any program to see if the industry is doing what they promised to do. They must have a report on how many promises are being carried in reality. The reason we do not have more public service programs is because there are not enough sponsors. Sponsors must get results from their advertising."

Mrs. Hays said, "The Big 3 are ABC, NBC and CBS. CBS is solid with heavy emphasis on public affairs, where ABC is a brass young upstart pressing other stations off the air. NBC is big on color, good in news, entertainment and TV specials. Competition is fierce."

"Dr. Benjamin Spock says that television is too violent for children. They see more than enough crime between the ages of three and twelve than one would see in reality in a lifetime. Television can be a great educational force. In the fall Hamlet was shown on television and more people saw than had ever seen it on the stage or had read it since it was written."

"Ed Sullivan says too that television is too violent for children; some of the western shows are not even fit for adults to see much less children. Ed Sullivan named the worst ones—Bat Masterson, Untouchables. He says there should be control by the parents."

"There has been much discussion of pay TV and this has greatly annoyed theatre owners as this will give people a greater choice of shows. Sponsors drop shows that do not produce results and a sponsor wants to give the public what it wants to see—Entertainment or Inspiration, Education or Relaxation," Mrs. Hays concluded.

Mrs. Smith served lovely refreshments to Mrs. Keith, Mrs. McMurry, Mrs. Hays, Mrs. R. E. Fowler, Mrs. R. H. Wherry, Mrs. Dickey, Mrs. J. W. Stokes, Mrs. C. C. Hodges, Mrs. Mildred Stephens, and Miss Maud Milam.

On its other end, at its feet, with a few scattered along the streamers, were beautiful Easter eggs, each one differently decorated with tiny flowers, leaves and pearls. Hand-painted plates in pastel shades held cookies and nuts.

At the far end of the room, hanging against the wall, was an extremely wide trimmed pink organdy Easter hat with small pink roses circling the crown and wide pink streamers hanging from its ribbon band.

MINUTE MEDITATION

"Ye are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hid. Let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works."

The above quotation is Jesus' own words to his disciples. (Matthew 5:14-16) In the statement, Jesus would have us know that each Christian is to be a guide to lost men to help them see their way to the Saviour. As islands stand in grand solitude in the midst of swelling seas, they act as guide points to storm swept mariners. So a Christian is a shining beacon reflecting the light of Christ to sin ridden souls in all walks of life.

The Apostle Paul said, "Among whom ye shine as lights in the world" (Phil. 2:15). This image surely compares to the lighthouses placed on a dangerous coast to warn vessels of their peril, and to save them from shipwreck. The Christian lets his light shine in a dark world, reflecting on the dangers of the voyage we are taking.

But the Christian's light is not his own. It is at best a borrowed ray from the sunshine of God on whom it depends for its strength and brightness. Some times it may appear as a flickering torch; sometimes as a glowing ember. But even then it is sufficient to lead others to the True Light.

Report From Washington

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th
Congressional District

H. R. 10977
On March 18, 1962, I introduced the following measure in the House of Representatives:
A BILL
To provide that certain information relating to the national security shall be made available to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ficer or employee of the United States is a person whose retention or employment as an officer or employee of the United States would not be consistent with the interests of the national security, he shall transmit all information developed in such investigation to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sec. 2. The Speaker of the House of Representatives is authorized to make available, for purposes of possible legislation, all or any part of the information transmitted to him under this Act, to such of the committees of the House of Representatives and to such of the Members of the House of Representatives as he determines necessary in the interests of the United States.

This bill was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service and requests have been made of several departments of government for full reports and recommendations concerning it. As soon as these reports have been prepared, I hope to request hearings on the subject matter and ask for passage of the bill.

Some have expressed doubt as to the need for such a measure. They have taken the position that this is a matter presently within the jurisdiction of the FBI and the other security agencies of this nation. It is argued that the files as to present and prospective employees of the government are kept secret in order to protect the particular individual from possible unfair conclusions with relation to certain fact situations.

Certainly no one wants to be unfair or to create a cloud of suspicion over an American citizen simply for the satisfaction of gossip mongers. However, this is a matter having to do with the safety and interest of this country, and it is my opinion that every possible opening for a Communist or Communist sympathizer or one subscribing to an ideology conflicting with ours to get into government employment should be closed.

Contrary to the general belief, the FBI does not issue clearances or non-clearances or express opinions regarding the suitability of persons for employment with the government. Nor does it make recommendations regarding the hiring, firing or retaining of applicants or employees of other Federal Agencies. I must confess that for a great number of years I have been proceeding under the false impression that the FBI, the body charged with the internal security of this nation, made recommendations as a result of facts gathered by it concerning the employment or retention in employment of Federal employees. Having discovered the contrary, it occurred to me that under a true representative form of government, the duly elected officials of the people should have information on the subject. Primary responsibility for the preservation of the United States of America rests in the hands of the Congress. Unless that body has full access to information concerning the employees of this government, whether they be Civil Service employees, Foreign Service employees, or purely political appointees, this responsibility cannot be effectively carried out.

As the matter presently stands, the FBI gets together facts and submits them to an official of the Federal government who has been appointed rather than elected and who, along with others, makes the decision as to whether or not the particular individual is to be employed. H. R. 10977 simply permits the duly elected members of the Congress to know what is going on in the executive branch of the government, as well as the judicial branch of the government, with regard to employees. It will

Mrs. Dora Booth and Joe visited Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and children. Howdy Folks.

Everything is about to get back on an even keel out our way. We had a striving revival at Lesley and we are still feeling the fruits of a revival meeting. For one thing, the preacher got revived; and the church members, for another. We were mighty happy for Mrs. Perry Lambert to unite with us during the revival by letter and for Mrs. Ray (Orvella Hubbard) Evans to join also by letter last Sunday with Jane Fowler who came for baptism. This Sunday we were glad to receive Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis by letter from Padgett, Texas. Also last Sunday afternoon we were happy for Mrs. Thomas Williams of Brice to come for baptism into the Brice-Lesley Negro Mission. We encourage you to join with us in prayer for this good work among the Colored folks in the Brice-Lesley community. The ladies met last Tuesday at 3:00 P.M. for the Women's Missionary Society; and the church met at 7:00 P.M. Wednesday for prayer and then we went as a group to the Brice Revival. Bro. Wayne Huckaby, the former pastor at Lesley is doing a wonderful job, working alongside of Bro. George Arthur, in their revival meeting. Well, guss I'd better put down the pen but before I do I just want to say, that we had 51 in Sunday School last week. God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Kenneth Lowry

Mercury Capsule To Be Exhibited At Tech Show

A giant Mercury capsule will be exhibited for Texas Tech students and the public at the 30th Annual Texas Tech Science and Engineering Show April 13 and 14. The capsule is similar to that in which Lt. Col. John Glenn recently made three orbits around the earth.

The capsule — which is 26 feet tall, 6 feet diameter and weighs 750 pounds — will be erected in the foyer of the West Texas Museum unless technical difficulties arise, according to Kenny Abraham, junior industrial engineering major and general manager of the show. Congressman George Mahon and the Air Force co-operated in arranging the display of the capsule at the Engineering Show.

LAKE FOR SALE . . . In Fannin County, Texas, is this 14.25-acre lake for sale. Years ago the county got the lake in a railroad right-of-way sale, and is now trying to dispose of the property.

Hall County

Soil Conservation

Now is the time of year for farmers and ranchers of the Hall County Soil Conservation District to consider doing brush control work says Charley Cape of the Soil Conservation Service.

There are several ways to control mesquite in this area such as grubbing, spraying, or treating the base of each tree with kerosene, diesel oil or a combination of diesel oil and 2-4-5-T.

Research since 1949 at the Spur Experiment Station has shown that good control of mesquite may be obtained at low cost by aerial application of 2-4-5-T. This method has been used by many farmers and ranchers in this area. The recommendations of aerial control is to spray 40 to 90 days after the first leaves appear on the Mesquite, with a mixture of 1/2 pound 2-4-5-T per acre applied in an oil-water emulsion.

Under normal spraying and growth conditions this treatment has resulted in 98% top kill and 30% root kill. This treatment has been effective for 3 to 10 years. Retreatment is also being increased by many farmers and ranchers in this area previously treated by aerial spraying, changing, chancing or root plowing.

If you are interested in doing brush control work on your farm or ranch and would like additional information contact the Soil Conservation Service Technicians at the Court House in Memphis.

past year," the Board said. The members of the Board also re-elected several other teachers, including Bill Bradley, band director; Clifford D. Bradshaw Jr., Mrs. Gloria Wilson, Mrs. Ace Galley, and two colored teachers, Mrs. Ruby J. Person and Mrs. Celestine Tipps.

At present Mrs. R. C. Lemons and Mrs. Cassandra Deaver are teaching temporary classes this year.

Three Memphis teachers, Miss Neville Wrenn, Miss Ira Hammond and Miss Esta McElrath, retired effective at the end of this year. Two other instructors, Mrs. Hubert Dennis, Spanish teacher, and Ben Davis, auto mechanics teacher, had asked not to be re-elected for next year.

The group also continued the employment of M. G. Alewine, tax assessor and collector; Miss Ruby Hoffman, school secretary; Mrs. Emma Stevens and Mrs. Elene Gilbert, cafeteria supervisors; and the bus drivers, Clifford D. Bradshaw, Melvin Blum, R. L. Duncan and Ellis Devorce.

Most of the Memphis teachers are employed under a continuous contract and these will also continue next year. They are Mrs. Charley Cape, Hubert Dennis, Mrs. Roy Guthrie, Neal Hindman, Mrs. Clenton Strygley, Mrs. L. A. Stillwell, Mrs. Linda Estes, Miss Alma Bruce, Miss Zady Belle Walker, Mrs. Wendell Harrison, Mrs. W. C. Davis, Mrs. Bessie M. Newton, Mrs. Carrie B. The Board also looked over the financial report concerning basketball receipts and expenses. It was noted that total receipts for the season were $454.87, which showed a profit.

At present the athletic department has outstanding bills totaling $3,246.41. This amount is part of a deficit created prior to the time the present coaches took over, the School Board pointed out. For the past two years the athletic department has operated in the black and profits have been used to pay off the back bills.

We were reared in Memphis, got our schooling in Memphis, got married in Memphis, and our two little daughters were born in Memphis.
