Democrat's Cotton Guessing Contest Opens This Week

The Sixteenth Annual Cotton Guessing Contest, sponsored each year by The Memphis Democrat, will open Friday morning, Sept. 28, at 8 a. m.

This is the annual contest in which readers of The Democrat match their knowledge, their wits, and their luck, against the many elements of weather, insects, etc., in an effort to estimate the amount of cotton Hall County farmers will gin this season.

All readers are eligible to enter. All a person has to do to enter is come by the office of this newspaper and make a prediction. Or, if more convenient, mail a card or letter to The Democrat, Box 192, Memphis, Texas, and list your name, your address, and your guess. No entries will be taken over the telephone.

The last day of the contest is Saturday, Oct. 20.

The person guessing closest to the actual number of bales ginned will win a three-year subscription to The Democrat. Second place winner will receive a two-year subscription, and third place will receive a one-year subscription.

This contest is not restricted to residents of this county only, or just residents of Texas. Any reader of the newspaper can enter. The total number of bales ginned in Hall County will be the figure used to determine the winner.

The Democrat will publish the names of the winners when the final figures are released on the 1962 crop by the U. S. Department of Interior. This report generally arrives the latter part of March each year.

The final acreage figure planted in cotton for the county, as reported last week, is 92,797 acres. Last year approximately 98,000 acres were planted in cotton, and the year before, 83,860 acres were planted.

Top winner of the 1961 cotton guessing contest was Mrs. J. D. Browder of Mineral Wells. Her guess was 75,200 bales, and the official figure was 75,139 bales.

Second place went to Jim Wines of Memphis, and third place went to Mrs. Guy Hanna of Memphis. A total of 378 readers entered the contest last year.

Date for Old Clothing Drive Set for Oct. 9

Date of the annual Lions Club Old Clothing Drive in Memphis will be Tuesday, Oct. 9, according to K. B. Chick, chairman of the special committee.

This year, citizens of the city are requested to place the clothing they wish to give away on their porches the evening of Oct. 9. Lights should be turned on as members of the club will drive by and pick up each bundle between the hours of 7 and 8 p. m., Chick explained.

All clothing collected will be given to needy families of the city.

Another phase of the drive will be the usual student participation, in which different rooms compete. This part of the drive will be handled by Supt. W. C. Davis and N. W. Durham.

Full details of the drive will be announced next week, Chick said.

W. T. Hightower, Pioneer Resident, Dies Wednesday

Walter T. Hightower, 81, retired florist and one of the early-day pioneers of this county, died at 3:30 p. m. Wednesday in a local hospital, where he had been a patient for several days.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Friday from the First Baptist Church with Rev. Fern Miller, pastor, officiating.

Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery with services under the direction of Spieker Funeral Home.

A native Texan, Mr. Hightower was born Nov. 9, 1881, in Stevens County. When he was eight years old, in June, 1890, he moved with his parents from Tom Green County to this area. The family settled 10 miles west of Memphis. Being one of the early-day settlers of this county, their first abode was a dugout with a dirt roof and a little box room in front.

Mr. Hightower was married to Miss Floy English May 6, 1923, in Amarillo. The couple operated Hightower Greenhouse in Memphis for about 25 years before retiring several years ago.

Mr. Hightower was also an ordained Baptist minister and filled many pulpits before retiring. He had taught an adult class at the Baptist Church for many, many years.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and recently received a 50-year pin. A former long-time member of the Rotary Club, Mr. Hightower was active in all community and civic affairs for years, and was known as one of the church leaders of this area.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. Hightower declare that this area has lost one of its best citizens, neighbor and friend, and that his whole life has been impeccable and an example that all could emulate.

The Whirlwinds' starting backfield will be composed of Kay Miller, a 115-pound eighth grader in the quarterback slot, and Mike McCravy at right half, Kirk Anderson at left half, and Norman Archer at fullback. At 180 pounds, Mike McCravy is the largest boy on the team.

He added that the lineup would be substantially the same as it was last week.

Mrs. Anderson asked that all citizens bring all tax statements with them when they come to her office to pay their taxes.

County taxpayers were also reminded by Mrs. Anderson that they may earn a discount if taxes are paid in October. During this month a three per cent discount will be allowed. If taxes are paid in November, a two per cent discount is given, and if they are paid during the month of December, a one per cent discount is allowed, she said.

CC Office Gives Cotton Report

The general rains over the county this week have held up the gathering of the 1962 cotton crop a few days, reports from gin managers over the county indicated.

Not only has the cotton harvest in the county been held up, but in most of the surrounding counties farmers are having to wait until dry weather comes to gather their crop.

Paul D. Crawford, the assistant to Kermit Voelkel, the officer in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Memphis, said that the office has processed 1,053 samples since it opened last Wednesday. Last year at this time, the office here was receiving (Continued on Page Eight)

Cyclone Has Open Date This Friday

The Memphis Cyclone will not see action Friday night due to an open date, and the Memphis Panthers will play Amarillo at Cyclone Stadium.

Head Coach Don Lambert announced today that a conflicting schedule has resulted in the postponing of the Memphis-Turkey football game next Friday night. The game may possibly be played after the scheduled season. Turkey will play Lorenzo at Turkey that night.

The conflict was noted early in the season but no solution could be worked out.

Eagles To Go To Guthrie Friday Night

The Lakeview Eagles will travel to Guthrie Friday night in their last non-conference game of the season. Game time is 8 p. m.

The Eagles last week lost to Nazareth, 22-2 after a second half scoring spree by the visitors. The Lakeview team opened the game with a sustained drive which carried over the goal line, but the scoring play was nullified by a penalty. The Eagles scored on a safety in the first quarter.

Most of the game's scoring was done in the second half.

So far, the Eagles have a one win, one loss record.

Roping Club To Have Auction At Pen Saturday

The Memphis Roping Club will hold a public auction at the club's pen at 2 p. m. Saturday, it was announced this week.

The public is invited to the auction, it was announced by the club.

185 Take Polio Vaccine Sunday

Taking the Type I Sabin Oral Polio vaccine during the make-up last Sunday were 185 persons.

This figure was below expectations but it was felt by leaders in the program that the number was sufficient to make the make-up portion of the program worthwhile.

Received this week was approximately 2,000 doses, a partial shipment, of the Type II Sabin Oral Polio vaccine and a tentative date of Sunday, Oct. 21, 1962, has been set for the administering of this type of vaccine.

Dr. H. R. Stevenson, overall chairman of the project, stated that all persons who took the Type I vaccine should take the Type II vaccine.

The doctor also said that there has been no difficulty with the Type I or Type II vaccine, and that everyone should make plans to take the vaccine on the Sunday when it is administered.

Dr. Stevenson stated that they were giving the second type vaccine at least one month after the make-up was given last Sunday so that everyone could take it at one time.

The time and exact date of the distribution of the Type II Sabin Oral Vaccine will be announced later.

A Case of Legal Spying

While the Communist scream loud and long over American espionage, and especially in reference to U-2 flights, the Russians are in our country stealing us blind in a category of supreme importance to any military operation that was ever undertaken. In America, and swiping agricultural secrets from Iowa corn farmers, is Soviet Agriculture Minister K. G. Pysin; and I submit that in so doing Minister Pysin is as much a spy as all the pilots of the U-2's and Mata Hari combined. What he is stealing is the secrets of growing food, and though we generously share those secrets, it is a fact that the modern army, as well as those of antiquity, travel on their stomachs, and that food is as much an essential weapon in a nation's arsenal as bombs and missiles, tanks and planes. Russia is short this particular weapon. So they send Mr. Pysin over to the enemy to procure this weapon in broad daylight. It doesn't make sense to me that we would allow it, much less encourage it.

But isn't it a tribute to American farmers and American free enterprise that the Russians should find it necessary to make such an espionage foray? It is tact admission on the part of the Soviets that their system and their tools are inferior, and that they need desperately to acquire a few of our virtues.

Lately it has become popular to excoriate the American farmer as a leech on the taxpayer. Yet this same farmer, working in a climate of comparatively free enterprise, is able to out-produce all the slave laborers the Russians can tie up and force to work the land. Instead of abusing our farmers, shouldn't we thank them, and make life a bit easier for them, for providing us in such abundance with the necessities of life?

And isn't it a bit ridiculous that we should let such a potentially dangerous enemy calmly come to this country and document our methods of producing foods? It may be that food is the only weapon the Soviets require before they're ready to blow us, the farmer included, to kingdom come. Does it make sense to hand this spy these secrets on a silver platter?

FREE VACATION IN TEXAS

Texas is praised throughout the nation as one of the most ideal vacationlands.

Most vacationers, in praising Texas, have in mind the good highways, healthy climate, modern accommodations, friendly people and inexpensive cost of living — rather cost of playing.

Many vacationing tourists also praise Texas laws that allow them to fish for just $2.15 per year, at the same rate as native Texans. Texas is unique in this respect as most states penalize tourists with excessive fishing license charges.

Some ingenious tourists have learned how to make Texas' "ideal vacationland" into a "free vacationland." They simply pay an extra 85¢ for a commercial fishing license and then sell their catches to pay for their stay in Texas.

All this time they get to do exactly what they want — fish in some of the most productive fishing waters in the nation.

LAMAR COUNTY HEROES

First Anglo-American settlement in Lamar County, in Northeast Texas on the Oklahoma border, was in 1820. It was comprised of the families of J. G. W. Pierson, Luke and John Roberts and the Mason brothers.

Within a year, an Indian raid snuffed out the lives of all the women, children and slaves. Raid took place during the men's absence.

Five of the men pursued the Indians but being outnumbered, they too fell victims to the hostile band.

A highway marker now stands at the site of their settlement, 17 miles northeast of Powderly, Texas. The marker reads, "Be Silent, Friend! Here heroes died to blaze a trail for other men."

FRIDAY THOUGHTS COME CREEPING

What Other Editors Say

Yankee Imperialism vs. Russian Imperialism
The State Department will probably demand an investigation of this old boy, but Dr. Ricardo Castro Beeche, editor of LaNacion, Costa Rica's leading newspaper, recently wrote:
"Yankee Imperialism means a country which has gone into two world wars with enormous sacrifice of lives and money and which hasn't taken a single inch of land from the beaten countries. It means a nation which devoted hundreds of millions of dollars to the reconstruction of battle-torn countries after World War II through the Marshall Plan . . . Yankee Imperialism says a man has a right to happiness through a worthy life. Perhaps the Soviets could tell us how this compares with Russian Imperialism. The Soviets hold all the countries defeated by them under their yoke without freedom at all." — Cecil Waggoner in The Claude News.

Two Administrations Goofed About Cuba
I thought the president did a pretty good job of outlining our policy on Cuba in his speech last Thursday. Cuba is sure a hot chestnut, any way you look at it. I am glad it is not my responsibility to make a decision on what should be done about so grave a problem.
President Kennedy did about all he could do, in my opinion, in speaking out in specific words

Creative thinkers are people who move fearlessly into the unexplored and uncharted territory and have faith enough in themselves to blaze new trails. —Strickland.

If everyone waited to tackle the unknown until he had a clear chart of directions, there would be no inventors, explorers, composers, artists or authors.

not a very benevolent one at that, and on the whole the U. S. sympathized with this effort for freedom. After Castro succeeded in overthrowing the government, he wasn't long in showing his true colors, and we could see what blind fools we had been.

When the counter-revolutionaries launched their invasion two years ago, we gave them our best wishes, but then sat idly by with our hands in our lap while their feeble attempt failed miserably. That was during the Democratic administration.

So, it looks as if we have been proved wrong both times and under different administrations. And the threat of Cuba, now backed by Soviet aid and comfort in a sinister way, continues to grow.

This is a good lesson in what a problem it is to be a leader among the nations of the world today. International affairs have become so terribly complex that it is almost beyond the ability of man to cope with them.

Only history will tell us the wisdom or folly of our choices. — From the Hopper, Farwell Tribune.

Jewel Home Is Scene For Atalanteen Club Brunch

On Sept. 19, members of the Atalanteen Club gathered for brunch at 9:30 a. m. at the spacious ranch home of Mrs. Roy Jewel, near Hedley, with Mrs. Earl Allen and Miss Imogene King assisting with hostess duties.

Upon arrival at the ranch, members were served iced orange vice, then found their names on place cards at foursome tables, which were covered with cut work linens, laid with china and silverware, with a centerpiece of white grapes frosted with sugar icing arranged on a silver or crystal compote.

Grace was said by Mrs. L. C. Martin. The breakfast was served from a large dining table covered with a white linen cloth, in the center of which was an attractive arrangement of bronze mums. The menu consisted of creamed ham, scrambled eggs, small ripe tomatoes stuffed with cream cheese, tea biscuits, jelly roll cake and coffee.

The president, Mrs. D. H. Aronofsky, presided at a brief business session; and welcomed Mrs. K. B. Chick into the club as a new member.

The program theme for the day was, "A Time in the Country." Using this quotation, "I have loved the quietness of the countryside, tended by the hand of time, about it clings the age of divinity, where sound and silence meet in perfect rhythm."

Using religion as a basis for her remarks, Mrs. Earl Allen, program chairman, introduced the guest reviewer, Mrs. Frances Cherry, of Hedley, who reviewed the latest book, by Jane Huff, entitled, "Whom the Lord Loveth." Mrs. Cherry seemed to bring the book alive by her charming personality and facial expressions, using the personal pronouns "I" and "we" in telling the true story of Jim and Jane Huff.

Briefing the story, it began with the wedding of Jim and Jane Huff. Their trials and pleasures getting started in a new business and raising a family. Jim always had a desire to be a Presbyterian minister. He sold his business; went to college and became a fine preacher and teacher with a great love of people, and a greater love for preaching and teaching the Bible. He was a diabetic. The disease which finally claimed his life. Mrs. Cherry ended the story by quoting: "Whom the Lord loveth, he taketh away, and thus their days are fulfilled."

The following members were present: Mmes. Cecil McCollum, Eddie Foxhall, W. R. Scott, J. W.

Coppedge, Vera Dickey, Myrtis Phelan, D. H. Aronofsky, Milton Beasley, Robert Spicer, K. B. Chick, Bill Boren, Robert Philpot, L. C. Martin, Glynn Thompson, Minnie Kinslow, Miss Gertrude Rasco and a guest, Mrs. Frances Cherry, the hostesses, Miss Imogene King, Mrs. Earl Allen and Mrs. Roy Jewel.

The next meeting of the club will be Oct. 3 at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Vera Dickey with Mrs. Milton Beasley as co-hostess.

1913 Study Club Enjoys Brunch

The members of the 1913 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. T. M. Harrison with Mmes. Clyde Milam and Joe Montgomery as co-hostesses for a brunch the morning of Wednesday, Sept. 19.

Following the delicious breakfast, the president, Mrs. Bray Cook, called the initial meeting of the ensuing club year to order and greeted the members. Virginia Browder gave the meditation by reading the last verse of the Chambered Nautilus by Oliver Wendell Holmes:

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler
Than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a
Dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell
By life's unresting sea!

The poem was given meaning with the use of a colored prize-winning photograph and a cross-section and a whole nautilus shell. The meditation was appropriate in that it urged the listeners toward self-improvement.

Mrs. Cook's address, entitled "What's Right With the World," was thought-provoking and presented a positive rather than a negative approach to the world's problems. Among other points emphasized, the speaker said, "What's right with the world is the United States of America! Because the goal we as Americans strive for is 'to preserve and enlarge our own liberties, to meet a deadly menace, and to extend the area of freedom throughout the world.' When you are told that we are a selfish people, a grubby people, ask yourself why we are fundamentally such a religious people, which we indeed are. This is not just a matter of maintaining thousands of churches. It is not a matter of mere surface piety. It is something of the spirit, deep within us, that prompts us to be humane—to give millions to charity, to send our substance and our citizens abroad to help the less fortunate. We have always been generous, instinctively, and we keep it up, even when we are kicked in the teeth for our generosity. Since the Pawtuxet Indian Squanto extended technical assistance to the starving Pilgrim Colony in 1621, teaching his settler friends to farm and fish, helping the less fortunate among themselves and others has been an American habit.

"Yes, America made the atomic bomb, and America has given the world the Salk vaccine, and, of late, the Sabin. We are far from perfect, but we make progress, and as long as we have individual conscience, individual responsibility, individual integrity, and individual alertness, we can stand upright, with dignity, for, in spite of lethargy and apathy on the part of many of us, and in spite of vacillation and base standards in high places, we are a good people, working and living within a good system, and that's what's right with the world."

Mrs. Frank Foxhall, as program chairman, distributed the new year books. By way of elaborating on the contents and "Accenting the Affirmative," Mrs. Foxhall called attention to the fact that this was the Fiftieth Anniversary year of the club's organization. There will be a commemorative tea in April of 1963, she announced. Also, the theme for the year, "New Dimensions in Thought, Word, and Deed," followed by the object, "Build on the past, trust in the future, and rejoice in the glorious now," were cited as directives for the year's work.

The first meeting was concluded with a splendid talk, "What's Right With Federation," by Mrs. L. G. DeBerry, in which she cleverly implemented the Club Collect to stress the benefits and privileges of federation. "Summer in a Nutshell" was the bits of recreation and other activities enjoyed and endured by the club members during the summer.

Study for the day was "The Christian Mission on the Rim of East Asia." Korea was the country under consideration for this session. The following group held an interesting panel discussion: Mrs. J. J. McDaniel, who gave the history, achievements, and political background; Mrs. F. W. Foxhall, who told of the people, their problems and the church's medical and social work there; Mrs. Ed Hutcherson, who discussed the religions of the past and present; and Mrs. J. W. Oliver, who informed the group about education and Christian schools. Several of the members participated with roll calls concerning Christianity in Korea. They stated that Korea is a land of beauty

A Fine Gin Plant

To Serve You Even Better

NEW EQUIPMENT, NEW ARRANGEMENT AND THE DESIRE TO SERVE OUR CUSTOMERS WILL GIVE YOU MANY BENEFITS WHEN YOU BRING YOUR COTTON TO THE

Estelline Co - Op Gin

We're proud of the service we rendered the cotton growers of this area last season, after this farmer-owned gin was established. Now, as we start into the 1962 season, we're glad to announce that we have installed additional new machinery. Among the items we wish to mention are a NEW CLEANER, NEW DRYER, NEW FEEDER, and a NEW GIN STAND. All in all, we now have one of the finest gin plants to be found anywhere.

Also, in the new arrangement, individual motors have been installed to drive different pieces and different sections of the equipment. The new high-capacity stand is individually-driven, and will mean more bales per hour, with less down time. All-in-all, this gin will do a better job - faster - which will mean more money to our patrons.

YOUR CO-OP GIN WILL BUY YOUR COTTON

Again this year, arrangements have been made for your gin to buy cotton. Purchases will be made through the Plains Cotton Co-Operative, and prices will be posted daily in our gin office. Growers will receive their checks immediately.

THANKS FOR YOUR PATRONAGE

During our first year's service, we received fine cooperation from the farmers of this area. For this we are grateful, and because of your patronage we have established a better set-up to give a BETTER SERVICE to our friends.

We'll be working with you every way we can during the months to come: helping to secure field hands if they are needed, doing all in our power to help get your crop harvested.

Remember: This is a farmer-owned gin, operated with the best "know-how" available. The profits made will be returned to those who gin with us.

Mrs. R. A. McCollum Observes 90th Birthday at Open House

Mrs. R. A. McCollum celebrated her 90th birthday with open house on Sunday, Sept. 23, in the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCollum.

Many long-time friends called during the receiving hours from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. McCollum enjoyed the beautiful birthday cake, the colors of all the lovely floral bouquets and her many, many cards.

She said that she hoped she might live to be as old as her great-grandmother, who reached 105.

For a person her age, Mrs. Mc-

Collum is very alert and is interested in local and world affairs, reads two daily newspapers, looks forward to the weekly Democrat, and enjoys television. She does all her own washing and ironing and enjoys making colorful scrap books for the local hospitals and churches. She enjoys all young people.

The former Rosanah Thomas, Mrs. McCollum was born in Winston County, Ga., Sept. 25, 1872. After her marriage to Mr. McCollum, they came by wagon to East Texas in 1895. It wasn't until 1924 that she came to West Texas and not until 1932 that she moved to Memphis to make her home.

Besides her son here, Mrs. McCollum's daughter, Mrs. Gladys Patrick, now lives in Memphis, and she enjoys having her near.

The other children, who could not be present for the birthday celebration Sunday, but plan on a later visit, are: Mrs. D. P. McWilliams, Greenfield, Ohio; Mrs. B. R. Settles of Omaha, Texas, Curtis McCollum of Omaha, and Sherman McCollum of Hale Center.

Noted Authoress To Visit Memphis

Members of the 1913 Study Club and guests have a treat in store when Laurene Chinn of Borger visits Memphis Wednesday, Oct. 3, as guest speaker of the club in the Methodist Church Annex at 3 p. m. She will give the highlights of her latest novel, "Believe My Love," due for publication Oct. 2.

Writing in The Borger News-Herald in January, Ad Mihm told the interesting story, complete with pictures, of Mrs. Chinn's busy life as a housewife and mother, an educator, and more recently a novelist. This "warm, genuinely friendly person filled with a zest for living and a love of humanity" has sufficiently undegraded an amiable personality with talent and industry to make her a success in all three roles.

Laurene Chinn, the daughter of a minister, was born in Alburnet, Iowa. Before her marriage to Harry Chinn in 1934, she taught in elementary and secondary schools in Kansas and did psychological research in personnel work for Western Electric in Chicago. The mother of two children, a son and a daughter, and grandmother of four, Mrs. Chinn has never allowed her busy life as an English teacher and writer to interfere with her concern for her family.

As head of Laurene Chinn Enterprises, she is author and saleswoman for "ready-made comprehensive tests to match daily reading lessons for over 100 reading and science texts and classics in use in American schools." This teacher's aid publishing business which she originated as a small project in 1947 to distribute her "unique project" has received such eager response from teachers all over the country that a secretary is kept busy round the clock filling orders.

Indeed, since moving to Borger in 1943 when her husband became an engineer for Phillips Chemical Company, Mrs. Chinn with her several talents has played a prominent part in putting Borger on the map.

Her career as a professional writer began in 1938 when an editor friend of hers, appreciating her vast store of biblical knowledge, her language arts training, and her understanding of children, suggested she try her hand at writing some Bible stories for youth. In a year and a half, 40 of her stories were published and she was off to a flying start in the field of creative writing. With those first stories, she found themes for her novels in the exciting lives of Joab, Jeremiah, and Mark. From the beginning, believing "language is a highway linking all peoples and all ages, she launched out upon that highway to strengthen the bonds of man's brotherhood, to cry out for the realization of man's dependence upon his Creator, and to put forth anew the age-old truths that are the answers to life's questions," wrote Mr. Mihm.

Her first biblical novel, "The Unanointed," the story of Joab and David, published in 1959, was a Literary Guild selection and a Doubleday Book Club choice. The life and times of the prophet Jeremiah was the subject matter for Mrs. Chinn's second novel, "Voice of the Lord," which appeared in 1961. Another book now in the making, entitled "Marcus," will tell the story of Mark, the evangelist.

The third book to be published, "Believe My Love," will probably be the most exciting for Chinn fans, for it is a contemporary novel, a love story featuring an Eurasian marriage," according to Reporter Mihm.

Workshop

Sunday morning the American Legion Hall was the scene for the Conference workshop, which opened at 8:15 o'clock.

Marie Cook of Wichita Falls conducted the workshop with Modell Scruggs acting as moderator. Edith DeBusk was also asked to comment on each phase of the workshop.

Thanks

Mrs. Bill Baten, president of the local B&PW Club, this week expressed sincere thanks to the business firms and many individuals who assisted the club in making the District 10 Conference, held here over the weekend, a success.

"We especially want to thank the business firms who contributed door prizes, the school for the use of the Cafetorium, the American Legion for the use of the hall, and the Memphis Chamber of Commerce," Mrs. Baten concluded.

On personal development, the chairman stressed working together develops personality. Also that the invitation to others to participate in the program is important. She asked the members to be aware how closely personal fitness affects the manner in which the program is presented.

On Civic participation, the chairman urged the stimulation of action, use of citizenship privilege, vote and know about whom you vote. "It is the duty of every discussion. Mrs. Cook stated that each chairman of committees should share in the responsibilities of the nations' security, her moral should be good, she should offer suggestions—not only criticize, be helpful and speak only worthwhile topics. Suggestions were given to help on the health standpoint in the community such as drives for immunization, insist on pure water and work for good issues that are worthwhile. She did add that the committee should choose goals which it deems most important and agree on definite goals.

World affairs covers a wide scope, however, the chairman discussed programs such as world trade, the free market, the purpose of lobbyists and the information on foreign policy.

On the committee on legislation, the chairman stressed that women should know more about what is going on in the city, county, state and nation as well as in the world. Members should find the voting record of their representative in the government and study the issues to be voted before a ballot is cast. It is the duty of everyone to know the element of any amendment to be voted.

On membership several reasons were given for older members resigning from a local B&PW Club. Moving to another town, illness, lack of interest, finance and friction were among the outstanding causes. A prospective member should be told what our club stands for. New members especially should be urged to parti-participate in programs which in turn stimulates membership. The quality of the members presenting good works entices new members. Also a talk to employers most generally results in the firms sponsoring a prospective member employed.

"Once a member, always a member," should be the slogan of any club. Fellowship, co-operation and service serve as a good basis for a good membership. "Be sold on membership, then sell others," was stressed by the chairman.

One of the many interesting points stressed by Mrs. Scruggs pertaining to the overall program for the years work was the continuity of theme. "The Future Is Yours" is the adopted theme for 1962-63 club year. Mrs. DeBusk also served as parliamentarian for the business meeting following the workshop.

Luncheon

An address by Edith DeBusk, prominent Dallas lawyer, on "The Role of Business and Professional Women's Clubs in Today's Community" highlighted the concluding luncheon meeting Sunday at 1 o'clock. The meeting was held in the Travis Cafetorium with Mrs. Bill Leslie serving as toast mistress.

Special music was presented by Patsy Falk of Wellington.

Mrs. DeBusk was introduced by Alyeen Ater of Childress, past state president.

Report of Resolutions Committee was given by Vivian McClure of Vernon.

The conference was adjourned by Ethel Coleman, district director.

Farm Facts

Flax fiber is the chief raw material of the cigarette paper industry. This means added income for flaxseed farmers from a substance that once was thrown away. Now it brings about $3 million a year in farm income. (Flaxseed long has been used for linseed oil, an important ingredient in paints and linoleum.)

Flax is grown on about 3.5 million acres in Minnesota, the Dakotas, and California. In Europe, and other parts of the world it is grown largely for the fibers which are used in making linen.

At decorticating plants, the fiber is separated from the woody portion and cortex of the flax plant and is pressed into bales.

The fiber is then shipped to the paper mills to be processed into pulp and finally into rolls of paper weighing about 4,000 pounds each.

Rolls are cut into "bobbins" or reels, about one inch wide. A bobbin weighs 8 1/2 pounds and will wrap

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

The midland bermuda grass that was planted by cooperators within the Hall County Soil Conservation District has made good growth and shows promise of being a grass that may find its way into the farming operations of many farmers in the Hall County SCD.

Most of the grass was sprigged in May and June of this year in 36 inch rows. From 16 to 20 bushels of sprigs were planted per acre. The Spry Brothers of Memphis sprigged 9 acres of grass on their farm and applied 50 pounds of nitrogen fertilizer per acre. The grass completely covered the ground within a period of 6 to 8 weeks and within 12 weeks they were able to begin grazing the midland bermuda grass.

The 9 acres has had approximately 15 head of livestock on it for the past 8 weeks. Other persons sprigging midland bermuda grass this year that you may be interested in seeing results are: Wayne Hutcherson, Memphis, 20 acres sprigged in old lake bed; L. C. Davis, Turkey, 14 acres sprigged on irrigated land; Roland Salmon, Brice, 9 acres sprigged on irrigated land; L. T. Winn, Parnell 21 acres sprigged on irrigated land and J. J. McDaniel, Plaska, 20 acres sprigged on irrigated land.

Midland bermuda grass is an improved strain of coastal bermuda grass and is better suited to our climate because of its ability to withstand cold weather. The grass should be sprigged on land that has a high water table or on land that is to be irrigated. For best results the grass should be fertilized with nitrogen fertilizer us-

1963 Chevrolets To Be On Display At Potts Chevrolet Co. Here Friday

Four distinctive lines of 1963 Chevrolet automobiles will go on sale at Potts Chevrolet Co. of Memphis, Friday, Sept. 28, Tomie Potts and Homer Tucker, local dealers, announced this week.

Offering 33 models in four separate categories—each aimed at a specific segment of the market—the 1963 cars represent faith in a continued strong national economy by Chevrolet, which is already on its way to setting an all-time industry sales record for 1962.

There are significant styling changes in the regular Chevrolets, a continuation of their unique automotive personalities by the Chevy II and the Corvaire, and two entirely new bodies and a new chassis for the Corvette sports car. All models have significant mechanical improvements.

Taking the four members of the Chevrolet family one at a time:

The traditional big car emphasis upon luxurious transportation is continued in the 1963 regular Chevrolets, offered in 13 models in the Impala, Bel Air and Biscayne series.

There is a sleek, longer look with all-new styling. Straight windshield pillars improve access for driver and passengers. The new front grille of anodized aluminum extends the full width of the vehicle, while a depressed center area adds new interest to the broad rear deck lid.

Throughout the line, ventilated rocker panels provide a new measure of protection from corrosion. Doorlocks are improved to enhance passenger safety.

Mechanically, there are the following new features:

A new six-cylinder 140 horsepower engine, higher in horsepower and yet 23 per cent lighter than its 1962 counterpart, teams with a revised 238 cubic inch V8 and five other V8 engines to offer engines ranging from 140 to 425 horsepower.

Brakes are self-adjusting, mufflers will have longer life, and the lightweight Powerglide transmission used with the 327 cubic inch engine option in 1962 is extended to all models.

Delcotron generators are standard on all models. Assuring ample reserve electrical power for added accessories and longer battery life.

All radios are transistorized for 1963.

The standard equipment heater is new as are the optional all-weather and custom air-conditioners.

In its second year on the market, Chevy II continues the basic styling of the previous model with new exterior and interior appointments. There are ten models in three series.

For 1963, Chevy II offers Super Sport options on its Nova 400 sport coupe and convertible, featuring bucket seats and all-vinyl interiors. Fifteen solid colors and eleven two-tone combinations are available on Chevy II models.

available on Chevy II models. Mechanically, the Chevy II has self-adjusting brakes and Delcotron generators. Four- and six-cylinder engines again are offered, with minor improvements. Longer-life mufflers are standard on all models. Radios are completely transistorized.

Chevrolet's distinctive small car enters its fourth year on the market with an ever-growing following among those who want a sports car feel in a less expensive car.

Styling changes are confined to ornamentation and molding details. Otherwise, America's first rear engine car continues its unique personality.

There are eight models of Corvaire, ranging in variety from the Monza Spyder convertible to two models of the popular Corvaire Greenbriar sports wagon. Fifteen solid colors plus two-tone combinations are offered.

Mechanically, Corvaire has self-adjusting brakes, more durable exhaust system and changes in front suspension and steering linkage. Engines have numerous improvements and radios are transistorized.

In its tenth year on the market, America's only production sports car is redesigned and re-engineered for the first time. In addition to the convertible (with optional hardtop) model offered in the past, there is a new "fast-back" sport coupe.

For the first time, Corvette offers optional power steering, power brakes and air-conditioning for the customer who wants a sports car but also wishes to retain the driving conveniences to which he has become accustomed.

Chevrolet's parade of new products for 1963 includes four lines. Heading the list, which will be announced on September 28, is the luxurious Impala Sport Coupe (bottom), Chevy II 4-Door Sedan (left center), Corvaire Monza Club Coupe (right center), and the new and startling Corvette Sting Ray Sport Coupe, the epitome of advanced styling. Chevrolet's wide choice of passenger cars includes 33 models in addition to 6 variations with special optional power-train combinations.

Mechanically, there are a host of improvements, including a completely new chassis, four-wheel independent suspension, self-adjusting brakes, improved steering and Delcotron generators. Especially are the retractable headlights which rotate up from the airfoil-shaped front end at the touch of a switch by the driver.

Both Corvette models are known as the "Sting Ray." Their sleek, aerodynamic fiberglass bodies will be available in seven high-quality acrylic lacquer finishes.

On all 1963 Chevrolet passenger cars, engine oil change is recommended at 6,000 miles or 60 days and chassis lubrication is recommended at 6,000 miles or six months.

Also, all 1963 models have amber turn signals instead of white turn signals as in previous years.

1963 Ford Line To Go On Display Friday At Foxhall Motor Co. Here

These lines of 1963 Ford automobiles will go on display Friday, Sept. 28, at Foxhall Motor Co. in Memphis. Eddie Foxhall, local manager, announced this week.

The list is what is described as "the most service-free American car ever." The 1963 Ford Galaxie features completely new styling, a new high economy V8 engine, a new 36,000-mile major lubrication interval and a new, $10-riding "compliance-suspension."

The consumer trend to sporty styling and the many comfort convenience features offered on all 1963 Galaxies," Foxhall said.

These features include an optional steering column for conventional entry. Vent windows are three inches of foam rubber, door handles are luxury-type and a new AM-FM radio is optional.

The all-new, three-speed manual transmission is standard on all 1963 Galaxies. The new transmission is the best of its type ever offered on a built passenger car.

The 200 cubic inch Challenger engine is designed to operate on regular fuel, offering good performance and high fuel economy. Performance is available in 15 different levels through combinations of 6 engines, transmissions and 9 rear axle ratios. Two, four- and six-barrel carburetors for selected blends of performance and economy are offered in several of the engines.

Galaxie—which pioneered in the field of reduced maintenance with a 36,000-mile major lubrication interval, 4,000-mile oil change and self-adjusting brakes—now offers more maintenance free than any other 1963.

The traditional 1,000-mile new car inspection has been eliminated. From the time a new Galaxie is out of the dealership, no maintenance is required for 6,000 miles—about six months for the average driver," Foxhall said.

The major lubrication interval has been extended to 36,000 miles. The same figure applies to change of radiator coolant, fuel filter, air cleaner element and wheel bearing lubrication.

FORD FALCON

The Ford Falcon for 1962 emphasizes sports appeal with five new models, new styling and a host of new features.

The Falcon will offer 17 modifications for 1963—more than any other compact line in the industry," O. F. Yando, Ford Division general sales manager, announced.

Sharply reduced maintenance costs new for 1963 include 36,000-mile chassis lubrication interval (up from every 1,000 miles) elimination of the traditional 1,000-mile new car inspection and self-adjusting brakes.

Power steering will be available as an option. Also available as an option is a fully-synchronized four-speed manual transmission.

The standard engine for all Falcon models, except convertibles, Station Bus and Club Wagons, is an improved version of the six-cylinder, 85 horsepower engine that in 1961 recorded the greatest gas mileage ever achieved for any 6 or 8 in the 25-year history of the Mobilgas Economy Run.

Heading the list for the sport-minded in optional equipment is an all-synchronized four-speed floor shift transmission. Fordomatic is continued as an optional transmission on all models.

1963 Ford Fairlane

Two completely new hardtops and three new station wagons feature Ford's pace-setting middle-weight line of Fairlane cars.

The two new hardtop models capture the Thunderbird spirit with a lower profile, sleek thin roofline, rakish windshield angle and smartly styled over-all appearance. Newly-designed bucket seats a full-length console and luxury car appointments combine to express a sporty feeling of fun on wheels.

A complete range of economy and performance is offered by 21 different combinations of engines, transmissions and rear ends. The 6-cylinder 170-cubic-inch engine is available with a 3- or 4-speed fully synchronized or 2-speed automatic transmission and the 260-inch V8 can also be obtained with a 3-speed automatic transmission. Four separate differential ratios are available on all engines. Overdrive is also available with either V8.

A complete line of accessories, ranging from power steering, power brakes and fully transistorized radios, to a new economy air conditioner are offered on the Fairlane and Fairlane 500 series.

Two completely new hardtops and three new station wagons have been added to Ford's Fairlane series for 1963. This Fairlane 500 sports coupe with its Thunderbird styled roofline, features a full-length console separating luxury-styled bucket seats, and a color-keyed interior.

Engineering advancements and modern production techniques have eliminated the need for a 1,000-mile inspection, and increased major chassis lubrication intervals to 36,000 miles, with minor lubrication intervals of 6,000 miles. These are only two of the many service-saving items designed into all Ford Division cars except club wagons and buses for 1963.

Fairlane hardtops, station wagons, and sporty sedans will go on display in dealer showrooms on Friday, September 28.

Bradley Ranch Field Day For Angus Association Acclaimed Success

by Virginia Browder

More than 200 people attended the Northwest Texas Junior Angus Field Day festivities held at the Bradley Ranch fifteen miles southeast of Memphis September 26. Meticulous planning and preparations prior to that date, good food, and fine cattle combined to make it a gala occasion for the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradley and their visitors.

On arrival the guests were given name tags and cards for the judging contests. Following greetings by the host, Richard Stotts their capable ranch herdsman paraded the Bradley 'show string' of top Angus cattle explaining, as each animal went by the spectators, its pedigree and rating.

Next on the agenda, four pens of cattle were exhibited for the judging. All present were invited to participate in the contest of deciding how to place the cattle as to quality and conformation. Cows and calves, two-year-old bull, yearling heifers, and yearling bulls were the four classes inspected.

Though refreshed during the morning's activities with cold drinks, the visitors welcomed a chance at noontime to fall into the 'chow line' and receive some of the tender barbecue and red beans that only an expert like Flip Breedlove of Clarendon could prepare. A huge tent top, chairs, and benches added greatly to the diners' comfort and the ice cream cups put a proper finish to the meal.

Bill and Minnie Lou Bradley both graduates of Oklahoma A. & M. College moved to what was known in an earlier day as 'the Tom Smith ranch' in Childress County following their marriage seven years ago. From the start, they have been very busy improving the ranch and their herd of Angus cattle. From the pine-paneling of the big old two-storyed ranch house to the painting of the corral fences, Minnie has proven her worth as a fit partner for industrious husband. Not only does she ride the range and fix fence but with the help of young Monty aged four and Mary Lou two, runs the ranch when Bill is away with the show string. And, though they both have a degree in animal husbandry, Bill declares she can beat him judging cattle.

Until Richard Stotts came to work for them some three years ago, Bill and Minnie were doing it all themselves. Now, they depend on and appreciate Richard's judgement and handling of their fine herd of Angus cattle. Qualified for the job by his previous experience with the Angus herds of Clifford Farmer and Lowell Houston of Memphis, Richard is counted as the third member in the Bradley team and, as manager of their show string is on the road most of the time during the fall and winter show seasons.

The Bradley cattle are already on tour. Following the Amarillo, Tri-State Fair, they will be exhibited in Shreveport, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, and Kansas City before returning to the ranch early in November.

Trained in breeding, nurturing and judging cattle, it is only natural that Bill should turn to the science of 'performance testing'. Their purebred herd has been on performance test for five years now. Careful records are kept of periodic testing. This valuable information as to the gainability and qualifications of the animals will not only bring a higher sales price but will also help to stabilize the rating of excellence for the Bradley herd.

The guest list at the Bradley Ranch Field Day read like a 'who's who' in the field of Angus cattle authorities and breeders. Among the 'vips' enjoying the Bradley's hospitality were: Lyle Springer, Assistant Secretary of the American Angus Assn; Stanley Anderson, also with the AAA; Ronald Blackwell, field-man for this area with the AAA; Waymon Ashley, Executive Secretary of the Texas Angus Assn; Lloyd Gambel, President of the West Texas Angus Assn; Earl Dugger from the Angus Valley Farms, Tulsa, Okla.; J. P. Smith from Pantex Farms; Dr. Judd Morrow from San Antonio; Dr. Smallwood, head of the animal husbandry department at WTSC in Canyon; and Dr. Ralph Durham from Texas Tech.

Among the outstanding Angus breeders signing in were: Rusty Bradley, Bill's father from Electra accompanied by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bradley of Seymour; Bud Kenyon, Portales, N. M.; Fred Brown, Groom, Texas; Jack Willingham, Raton, N. M.; Jack Willingham, Raton, N. M.; Ralph Ottinger, Minnie's father, from Hydro, Okla.; Tommy Stewart, the 77 Ranch, Wichita Falls; J. R. Belt, Lockney; Harry Portwood, Seymour; Lowell Huston, Memphis, David Hudgins, Lakeview, and Gerald Rapp, Estelline.

Also, several reporters covered the day's festivities. "The Magic Circle Stockman" of Tulsa; "The Livestock Journal", San Antonio; "The Cattleman", Ft. Worth; "The Western Livestock Journal", Denver, Colorado; "The Wichita News"; and KFDD had representatives present.

Bill Bradley was elected president of the West Texas Angus Assn; Oscar Golden from Aiken, vice-president; and Dr. Grady Wallace, secretary.

When the cards for the judging contest were appraised, Mrs. Joe Wells of Wichita Falls won second in the women's division; David Hudgins won first in the men's division and David Hudgins Jr. won second place. Madame Ali Ghitto won first place in the women's division and was over-all winner of the contest by six points.

Though Madame Ghitto teaches French and German at The Air Force Base and in elementary schools in Amarillo, evidently her upbringing on a farm estate in Jenna, Germany and as association with fine cattle and horses there helped train her eye for this occasion.

The prizes awarded the contest winners were provided by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce. The Childress C. of C. furnished the cold drinks, the name tags, and a secretary to fill them out. The First National Bank of Childress provided the spoons, forks, and drinking water tank, AND A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL WHO ATTENDED THE BRADLEY RANCH FIELD DAY!

Memphis Downs Visiting Estelline 24-0 Friday

Memphis Cyclone Friday defeated the Estelline 24-0 before a good crowd of county spectators.

The weight of the Memphis Cyclone football team proved too much for the Estelline football team. Memphis picked up three of their touchdowns in the first and second quarters.

Memphis picked up 20 first downs in their night's play.

Memphis' leading ground gain was by Don Craig who carried for 55 yards, averaging 3.3 yards per carry.

for a 3.9-yard per-carry average. Ricky Futch was just back of Freddie with a 2.4 per carry average picking up 22 yards on 9 carries. These two Bear Cub backs picked up most of the yardage their team made during the game.

First Half Play

Memphis received the opening kickoff and moved the ball out to the 36. A 15-yard clipping penalty against the Cyclone nullified a good gain and on the next play, a Cyclone fumble was grabbed off by an Estelline boy giving them the ball on the Cyclone 35 yardline.

On fine carries by Freddy Futch and Ricky Futch the Estelline squad moved the ball to a first and ten on the 23. But here, the Cyclone defense got tough, and three plays netted the visitors only one yard. On the fourth down, a fumble in Estelline's backfield was recovered by Cyclone Tackle James Carrol giving Memphis the ball on their own 32.

On the first down, Memphis again was penalized 15 yards for clipping. Then QB Sturdevant threw two passes, the first to End Richard Ellis who picked up 10 yards, and the second to End Bridges who netted 16 yards and a Memphis first down on the 48.

Going back to the ground, the Cyclone made six yards on carries by FB Mike Crow and HB Waites. On the third down another fumble was lost to Estelline on their 44.

A 11-yard carry by QB Futch moved for a first down to the Memphis 43. The first quarter ended with Estelline facing a second down and 12. On the first two plays of the second quarter, QB Futch carries for 9 yards, and 4 yards, respectively, moving for another first to the Memphis 32.

On a 2-7-29, Bennie Longbine was dumped for a 13-yd. loss and Estelline quick kicked on third down giving Memphis the ball on their own 16.

This began the Cyclone's first scoring drive which covered 84 yards in 16 plays, all of which was gained on the ground. Beginning the drive was a 12-yard carry by Waites for a first on the Cyclone 27. Then a 9-yard carry by Thompson and two 4-yard carries by Crow, after the Cyclone was set back five yards on a fumble, moved for a first to the 42.

Thompson made 7 yards on a first down carry and Crow picked up four more on the second, making it first and 10 on the Estelline 47.

Waites turned in a 15-yard end run moving to the Estelline 32. A 9-yard carry by Don Craig and a 3-yard plunge by Waites moved the ball to the 20. Three dive plays by Crow, Craig and Guard -FB Jerry Lowe netted 15 yards to the 5.

On the next series, Craig picked up three yards to the two. Thompson carried for one more, and then Don Craig carried over for the score. The extra points pass to End Bridges was a little high. The score was 6-0.

After the kickoff, Estelline lost the ball on a fumble and Memphis took over near the mid-field line. The Cyclone lost the ball on downs to Estelline on the 37.

In the closing seconds of the first half, Donnie Bridges of Memphis intercepted an Estelline pass and returned it to the Estelline 29. The final play of the half was a pass from QB Sturdevant to End Bridges which was completed but then fumbled and Estelline recovered after the gun sounded.

Second Half Play

On the kickoff return, FB Mike Crow was hit and fumbled the ball. Estelline recovered to take over on the Memphis 21. Four plays netted them 9 yards giving Memphis the ball on downs on their own 13.

Memphis started their second TD drive which covered 87 yards in 11 plays.

Using the running ability of Thompson, Craig and Waites the Cyclone moved to the 24 and a first. Then a pass from Sturdevant to Bridges netted 12 yards to the 36. Two good carries by Thompson moved the ball to the Estelline 48 and a first.

A 11-yard pass to Bridges moving the ball for another first down. Then a 15-yard carry by Craig, and a 11-yard carry by Thompson moved the ball to the Estelline 11.

This drive was climaxed by a pass from Sturdevant to Bridges for the score. The extra points try was no good and Memphis led 12-0.

Estelline received the kickoff which went into the end zone and was brought out to the 20. They were held and punted.

Jacky Bridges picked the punt and returned it to the Estelline 28. Two carries by Don Craig moved the ball to the 11. However, here, the Cyclone threw four incomplete passes and Estelline took over the ball on their own 11.

Estelline was held and punted out to their own 35, however a 15-yard penalty was stepped off against Memphis and Estelline took over the ball on the 35. Two plays later they fumbled and Memphis took over on the 29.

Carries by Waites and Craig moved the ball to the 12. Carries

Former Resident Wins Hutchinson Golf Tournament

Richard Hale, of Borger, former Memphian, stroked a water soaked birdie on the 22nd hole in an extra hole match to win the Hutchinson County Golf tournament.

by Toby Crooks, Thompson and Waites moved the ball to the 2. Then QB Sturdevant carried over for a TD making the score 18-0.

Estelline took over the ball on their 28 after the kickoff. Estelline was held and punted. Jacky Bridges gathered the ball in and raced 45 yards down the sideline to score, however a penalty nullified the play so Estelline to over on their own 28. Again the Bear Cubs punted and Memphis took over the ball on the Memphis 37.

The Cyclone at this point went back to the air with a 12-yard pass to End Ellis. Then, on a short pass to End Bridges, he was able to elude the Estelline defenders and scamper down the sideline for a score. The scoring play covered 52 yards. The extra points try was no good and the score was 24-0.

Memphis kicked off and Estelline returned the ball to their own 43. Four plays did not net them necessary yardage for a first down and Memphis took over on the 50.

At this point, QB Sturdevant threw his only intercepted pass. The ball was intercepted by Ricky Futch who ran it back to the Memphis 45.

The Bear Cubs, completing a pass to Frankie Longbine, thrown by Jodie Rapp, which covered 5 yards, and then a 7-yard carry by Rapp, moved for a first down to the Memphis 34.

However, four plays left the Bear Cubs still needing 10 yards, and Memphis took over on their own 36.

ment recently at Huber over David Houck, 1-up.

It was a thrilling finish witnessed by only a handful of spectators that braved the elements to watch the two slosh through their wet round.

After posting blazing 68's to deadlock at the end of 18 holes, the pair got pars on the first and second extra holes, took birdies on three and wound up the match on the fourth when Hale rammed in a nine foot putt for the title.

His score for the tournament was 19 under par.

Hale is married to the former Teresa Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jackson.

This is the second time in history that a medalist has ever won the county title at Huber Course.

Fletcher Bownds, Former Memphian, Recently Injured

Mrs. Hester Bownds has returned from Galveston where she went to visit her son, Fletcher Bownds, who was recently injured in a warehouse accident.

Bownds received a head injury and was hospitalized for more than a week suffering from a concussion. He was released from the hospital last Friday and is doing nicely, his mother said Monday.

This was the first county title for Hale, who had beat Tom Kennedy, Jerry Keel and Jack Holmes to gain the finals.

Return to Jeffersonian Concept Of Constitutional Government

This week our great Nation celebrates the anniversary of an event that motivates the very life-blood of each of us — the adoption of the Constitution 175 years ago. As a mark of profound respect, I addressed myself to my colleagues in the House in a short message which I repeat here for your thought and comment:

The observance today of the 175th Anniversary of the Adoption of our Constitution is reason sufficient for jubilation and I wholeheartedly rejoice with every Tree American on this great occasion. But as I reflect upon the real significance of this event, my heart tells me that we, as legislators, must redouble our efforts to return to the true concepts of the Constitution. I speak not as a Democrat but as an American to Americans. Patriotism is universal and transcends all narrow partisan confines. Let us unite in marking this day with a vow to heed the danger signals that are so prevalent today and resolve to restore the principles of constitutional government expounded by Thomas Jefferson, one of the founders of our great American democracy.

Historians regard Jefferson as the sculptor of the first ten amendments which we commonly refer to today as the Bill of Rights—The real key to Americanism!!

Otherwise this great document has been amended 13 times. But just a few weeks ago, right here in this Chamber, under parliamentary procedure which blocked free and open debate, another amendment to the Constitution was approved. But approved, I might point out, over the protestations of members like I who believed that the abolition of the poll tax was just one more abrogation of states rights — and another insult to Thomas Jefferson who said, as long ago as 1825, "I see . . . with the deepest affliction, the rapid strides with which the Federal branches of our government is advancing towards the usurpation of all the rights reserved to the States . . ."

This is not to suggest that I have lost faith in the Constitution nor in the American people. On the contrary, the Constitution has withstood the fire and brimstone of practically daily attack from both within and without and, I am proud to say, it stands today as the bedrock of the government of free man. It is the perfect answer to Communism and any other ideology of those who would subject mankind to slavery.

The theme of my protest is rather that "the people, to whom all authority belongs" as Jefferson put it, are being robbed. The authority of the people, according to the Constitution, should be voiced through duly elected representatives to Congress. But the prerogative of the Congress, if we are not more prudent, will be further encroached upon by the Executive and the Judicial branches. Did we not have repeated examples of this piracy during the reign of the Reorganization Plans when the Executive Branch sought repeatedly to vest adjudicative powers in civil service employees?

And the Judiciary Branch has sought by "constructions" to usurp the rights reserved to the States. Certain decisions of the Supreme Court in recent years have absolutely nullified many State laws by the doctrine of Federal preemption which is predicated upon the supremacy clause contained in the Constitution. I do not propose that we alter that. However, there is an area of concurrent legislative jurisdiction where both the Federal government and the State government may constitutionally legislate and where both a federal and state law may be effective at the same time. It is from this area that the Supreme Court by its "constructions" is evicting the jurisdiction of the States.

Thus it remains for us, the Legislative Branch, to protect the people whom we represent and whose rights are thus being usurped. This we have attempted to do and will continue to pursue either by Congressman Howard Smith's bill, HR 3, the States Right Bill, or any other proper legislative means. To correct this trend, I have introduced H. J. Res. 70, which proposes an amendment to the Constitution to empower Congress by statute, to limit the authority of the courts of the United States to determine that statutes of the United States or of any State are repugnant to the Constitution.

If left unchecked, the Supreme Court can stray far afield of the powers given to it under the Constitution. Should it do so, and many recent decisions would indicate a definite trend in that direction, we may witness proof of the soundness of the fears of Thomas Jefferson when he warned " . . . the germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the judiciary . . . a . . . body . . . working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the fields of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped

DEATH TO MOTHS
A new chemical food but doesn't nourish developed against the moth and the "looper" eat lettuce.
The big trouble that it makes too many double and act single.

THE RECORD SPEAKS

WHETHER YOU HARVEST
YOUR COTTON

By HAND →
or STRIPPER ←

IT MEANS MORE MONEY
YOU WHEN YOU BRING TO EITHER OF THESE
FARMER-OWNED GINNS!

We're proud of the record which these two farmer-owned gins have established. They have operated with one definite thought in mind: TO GIVE COTTON GROWERS OF THIS AREA THE FINEST GINNING and the MOST MONEY FOR EVERY BALE WHICH IS BROUGHT TO EITHER GIN. Check with your neighbors . . . they'll tell you of the advantages which are yours when you ginn with us.

NEW EQUIPMENT TO SERVE YOU BETTER! In our Memphis plant, we have installed new stands, new feeders and a new press. This brings this plant up to date and modern in every respect. Our Plaska plant is comparatively new throughout being completely rebuilt only a short time ago. These expenditures mean money in the pockets of our patrons.

When you bring your cotton to either gin, you'll get better samples — as the record shows — because of our Double Moss Lint Cleaners! They have proven their worth, and are making money for our customers.

VALUABLE HUMUS IN YOUR SOIL

You can return your burs to your land when you gin here. Again we are making it possible for our customers to haul them away as time permits. Our Bur Fans meet government regulations.

WE WILL BUY YOUR COTTON THIS SEASON

With special arrangements with the Plains Cotton Co-operative, we will be able to buy your cotton again this year. Basis will be posted on cotton each day in our gin office. Payments will be made immediately to each grower.

Again this year we will be operating a water truck for the convenience of our customers. Call either gin office, and a load of water will be delivered free of charge without delay.

SEE US IF YOU NEED FIELD HANDS — As in the past, we will work with our customers in obtaining hands, and will use our housing units for their benefit.

Find the strength for your life...

Worship Together This Week

Somewhere in your town a man you may have never seen waits hopefully for you.

He is a minister. A man used to speaking out...making decisions...taking action for himself, for his congregation and his community.

But where you're concerned, he can only wait and hope you will come.

He holds something in trust for you—the powerful, crucial first introduction to Faith. And he is anxious to pass it on.

The strength and confidence of Faith can mean many things to many men...and to the families who count on them.

So together with your family start to find that Faith this week.

County Sports

By BILL COMBS

Coach Don Lambert and the Memphis Cyclone team this week began revising the offensive attack of the squad utilizing one of their most effective weapons, the short pass, this week. The Memphis coach said he was pleased with the showing of the passing game the past two weeks and he feels that a team that passes and runs is harder to defend against than a straight running team. Helping the passing offense go is the fine pass catching and evasive maneuvering of both ends and all of the team's backs. Jacky Bridges and Richard Ellis have snagged many passes already this year. Coach Lambert said he was pleased with the passing of QB Jimmy Sturdevant, and said that QB Dwight Gailey, who will begin working out next Monday, is improving his passing arm every day. The coach felt that the "Play pass" would just add another weapon to the team's offense. To a defensive team, this means they will have to put up a good pass defense as well as beef up the center of the line to stop the power plays and dives.

This was Wellington's third game of the season and the first outing for the Memphis team. Also Thursday night, the Memphis Jr. High team under Don Lambert host the Wellington Jr. High team in the second game. This is the Jr. High's first game for the year.

Congratulations Jacky! It isn't every week that I get to extend congratulations to a Memphis football player for being selected "Class A Player of the Week" by the Amarillo Globe News, but this week, Bridges was named to that position. Jacky (who for almost a year I thought spelled his first name with an "ie" instead of a "y") is one of the best offensive ends I have ever watched perform. Besides his fine offense play, Bridges is improving every week in his assignment as defensive halfback. One of the school's all around athletes lettering each year in football, basketball and track (pole vault), Jacky is one of the co-captains and is a big threat in the composition of the Cyclone offense. Bridges has caught 10 passes in two ball games (Estelline and Crowell) for 165 yards. He caught six passes in the Estelline game, two for TDs, and totaled 121 yards. Jacky is also a fine ball carrier. He returned one punt for a TD Friday night but it was called back due to a penalty. Jacky wears No. 80, a number worth watching.

This Friday night: Memphis is open, Lakeview away at Guthrie for their last non-conference game, Estelline is away at Rochester in a non-conference game, Estelline will seek their first win, Lakeview sports a one win, one loss record, Turkey has a two win, one loss record.
