Memphis Opens District Play At Wellington Fri.

For the first time since 1952, the Memphis Cyclone and the Wellington Skyrocks will meet in a district conference football game. The game will be played in Wellington and will begin at 7:30 p. m., 30 minutes earlier than non-district games.

Memphis fans last Friday night were impressed with the hard-hitting action in the Cyclone-Irishman game. The Shamrock team downed the local team 28-6, while they defeated the Wellington Skyrocks 34-12 the week before.

The Cyclone will have the job of stopping Wellington's hard-running fullback, No. 21, Holliman, who weighs 173 pounds. Wellington's quarterback, McLain, is a good passer and their right halfback, No. 20, Hudson, is a fine ball carrier.

The Memphis Jaycees honored Senior Tackle Dale Sexton by naming him outstanding player of the week Monday. Last Monday, Jacky Bridges was honored for his play against Springlake.

However, in high school football games, comparative scores can only tell a portion of what might take place.

The Cyclone will hold a definite weight advantage in the line, with the Memphis forward wall averaging 185 pounds per man, while the Skyrocks line averages 167. The two backfields weigh in at about the same average.

The Cyclone's big guns on offense will be their right halfback, Bill Pounds, and their passing attack. Strong string quarterback Jimmy Sturdevant may see action in the left halfback slot, and Mike Crow will probably start at fullback.

Being the first game in the district conference race, both teams will be after a win for their record.

Democrats In 30th Senatorial Dist. Will Meet For Rally At Tulia, Tuesday

An all-out effort to strike a blow for unity among Democrats of the 30th Senatorial District was announced this week by Glen Batson of Littlefield, State Democratic Executive Committeeman for this district.

A $5.00 per plate fund raising dinner will be held in the High School Cafeteria at Tulia Tuesday, Oct. 23, at 7 p. m. The entire Democratic state ticket will be present. John Conally, gubernatorial candidate of the party, indicated he would make some major changes in his itinerary to be present at this meeting since he is placing much emphasis on efforts in the 30th District.

Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, attorney general nominee, accepted his invitation to be there with enthusiasm and said that the 30th District could well be a pivotal vote in West Texas.

Preston Smith, also of Lubbock and the Democratic nominee for lieutenant-governor, and Joe Pool of Dallas, the party's choice for congressman-at-large, both accepted this opportunity to give the party ticket a boost in this area.

Commissioners To Receive Hospital Bids On Nov. 27

The Hall County Commissioners met Monday with the Hall County Hospital architect, Evan Roberts, and went over the architect's final plans, before they were submitted to the state for final approval.

Architect Roberts told the Court that he will submit the plans to the state body in Austin today (Thursday) and it should take from two to three weeks for them to be approved.

The Commissioners Court will receive bids on the construction, until 2 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 27, 1962.

At that date, the Court will accept the sealed bids, open them, and examine them. They will have several days before awarding the contract to one of the bidders.

The date of the Court's receiving the bids on the hospital, as set by the Court, is subject to change, it was announced.

Program On Burlington Industries Is Given At Joint Lions, Rotary Meet

At a joint meeting of the Memphis Lions and Rotary Clubs Tuesday, Louie Burkles, manager of the Postex Cotton Mills Plant in Post, presented a familiarization program on Burlington Industries, of which Postex is a subsidiary.

Introduced at the meeting were Fred Byerly, manager of the Postex Sewing Plant in Memphis, Jim Poer, personnel manager of both plants, Bill Doar, assistant office manager of the Post plant, and Mr. Burkles, who presented the program.

Burkes stated that Burlington was begun in 1923 in Burlington, N. C., and has grown until it now has 148 factories in 18 states, located in 98 communities across the nation. It has factories in seven foreign countries and employs 65,000 persons. In 1961, Burlington Industries handled $856,000,000 in business, and is expected to reach the billion-dollar mark this year, the speaker stated.

Burkes said that since its beginning, Burlington Industries has not handled any finished garments.

As the speaker traced the growth of Burlington, he discussed the addition of the many subsidiaries, of which Postex is just one of many.

"When Burlington establishes a plant in a town," Mr. Burkles said, "we want to be good citizens."

Burlington is now the nation's leading textile manufacturer, he added.

As rains of from one-half to one inch fell over the county Wednesday and Thursday, the harvesting of the 1962 cotton crop came to a halt, reports from County gins Thursday morning revealed.

However, gins had five good days since last Thursday, and the year's total rose to the 4,639-bale mark, the report indicated.

Gin managers reported the following rains in their areas: Turkeey, from one-half to one inch; Estelline, one-half inch; Brice, three-quarters of an inch; Lakeview, one inch; Plaska, one inch.

J. J. McMickin, official weather observer, reported that Memphis had received .42 of an inch this week.

It will take the cotton fields several days to dry out before the harvest can be resumed.

With more favorable harvesting weather this past week, sample receipts increased over the previous week, according to K. E. Voelkel of the Memphis Cotton Classing Office. A further increase was seen early this week as the earlier defoliated cotton was harvested.

About 5,000 samples were classified this past week compared with approximately 11,000 during the same week a year ago. Total samples classified to date amounted to 13,434 against 34,905 last year as of Oct. 17.

The quality of cotton classed this past week showed a slight decrease in the white grades, with approximately 17 per cent in this category compared with 24 per cent last week; 74 per cent graded light spotted; 5 per cent spotted and 4 per cent other grades.

The staple length ranged from 13-16 inch to 1 and 3-32 inches. The predominate grade and staple length was middling light spotted, 15-16 inch.

Micronaire readings showed a sharp improvement with only 5 per cent classed as waxy, compared with 9 per cent a week earlier. Other readings were: 7 per cent 2.7 and 2.9; 17 per cent 3.0 and 3.4; and 71 per cent read 3.5 and higher.

Buyers are becoming more interested in local production, chiefly because of the improvement in micronaire readings, it was reported.

Average prices paid to farmers on some of the grades that moved into trade channels, based on uncompressed cotton in the warehouse were: SM LT Sp 15-16, 30.36; M LT Sp 15-16, 30.12; M LT SP 31-32, 30.51. Waxy cotton was bringing 200 to 400 points of loan values.

One new classer, four new clerks, and one laborer were added to the crew of the office here this week, Voelkel said.

The classer is John H. Walker of the Dallas office. Clerks include Mrs. Eugene Allison of Hedley; Mrs. J. W. Hatley of Brice; Mrs. Herman Yarbrough and Mrs. Joyce Webster of Memphis. The laborer is Finis Allen of Memphis.

Bank Deposits Show Year's Increase Of Over $1,500,000

The financial picture in Hall County is brighter this fall than at any time in the past four years. This was revealed last week when statements of condition were published by the four county banks.

As compared with the total deposits figure of Sept. 27, 1961, Hall County banks have $1,695,524.76 more this fall than last. The 1959, 1960 and 1961 figures were all far below this fall's total deposits figure of $9,245,836.61. Also showing a huge increase was the total assets figure, at the close of business on Sept. 28, 1962. The total assets of the four county banks was $10,364,949.77. This was $1,629,681.36 over last year's figure.

Estelline Lions To Welcome Dist. Governor

As might be expected, an increase of over one million dollars was also seen in comparing this year's total demand deposits figure with last year's. This year's figure totaled $6,858,432.86, and was $1,223,371.96 over last year's figure.

Total loans and discounts also showed an increase over last year, the financial statements revealed. However, the increase was only slight. The loans and discounts figure this fall was $4,513,717.27 while last year the figure was $4,126,827.10.

The county's financial picture is brighter than in the past several years. At the time the banks' statements were issued, only a small part of this year's cotton crop had been harvested and sold; so, by the Dec. 31, 1962, financial statement, a large increase is expected over the fall statement figures.

District Governor Pakan will visit the Lions Club of Estelline at noon Wednesday, Oct. 24. The purpose of his visit will be to advise and assist President Gerald Fowler, Secretary Billy Holland, and the officers, directors, and members of the club on matters pertaining to Lions administration and the organization's great program of humanitarian services.

Lakeview PTA To Meet Monday Night

The Lakeview Parent-Teacher Association will meet Monday night, Oct. 22, at 7:30 p. m. in the Lakeview High School auditorium, according to an announcement this week.

All patrons of the school are urged to attend.

Boy Scout Fund Drive and 'Go' Roundup

The Boy Scouts of America are now conducting two important drives this month. The adult leaders in Memphis and other towns in the Adobe Walls Council, kicked off their annual campaign to raise operating funds Tuesday morning at the Early-Bird Breakfast.

The Boy Scouts of America are conducting their "Go" Roundup. Throughout the nation 132,626 Scouting units are opening their doors to new members. Leaders of the movement have taken as a personal challenge the making of the programs of Scouting even more significant to an ever increasing number of boys in the days ahead.

Here in Memphis, during the past several years, the Boy Scout program has grown, and there is no reason why the program cannot continue to grow. However, as a program grows, it needs more financial support, more adult help and more coordination and supervision.

One of the nation's heroes, Astronaut John Glenn, is contributing his time and talents to make the "Go" Roundup a success. He said, "Our family has been very active in Scouting. My son David just received his Eagle rank in his Explorer Post, and I am very proud of that fact. My daughter Lynn has obtained the curved bar in her work in the Girl Scouts. My wife Annie was a Den Mother in Cub Scouting for a number of years, and I am presently an Associate Advisor of an Explorer Post. We believe in Scouting and the direction and purpose it gives to you."

Astronaut Glenn also believes, "All the science in the world doesn't do much good, unless we have people of the caliber and of the type who can make proper use of this, and that's one of the big benefits of Scouting as I see it."

Through the past 52 years there have been 34,524,815 Americans identified with this largest youth movement in the history of the world in which youth participates voluntarily. Almost every American family has felt its influence.

The training Scouting gives to the youth of America is one of the finest ways we know to assure the perpetuation of good citizenship and ideals. The Scout membership this year stands at 5,210,294 boys and adult volunteer leaders.

Scouting is big, and it is important in developing the good citizens this nation will need in the future.

What Other Editors Say

Connally Got the Vote

It is said that you can learn much of a man by inquiring about him in his own community. While it is true that folks closest to a man know his faults better than anyone else, by the same token they most surely will know and recognize his finer characteristics.

If you agree on this point you might find it interesting, as we have, to study the returns of the May 5th primaries when Democratic gubernatorial candidate John Connally, and Republican candidate Jack Cox were tested at the polls.

For instance: Connally carried Wilson County, his birthplace, with 3,631 votes against 19 for Cox. That is a score of 191 to 1. But in Stephens County, where Cox lives, and where we think they ought to know him best, Connally polled up another big tally. Cox got only 90 votes in his home county, while Connally rolled up 811.

When you can go into a man's home county and outscore him nine to one, it surely ought to mean something.

We believe it will mean something this November: That Democrat John Connally will be the next Governor of Texas.

Space Techniques

Both the United States and Russia are fully committed in an all-out race for space probing or man orbiting affects the prestige of both nations. Each has adopted a different method in utilizing publicity on each attempt in their own country.

In our country, we have fully disclosed to the world our progress in the space age. We give advance publicity on each of our attempts to send a capsule or missile into orbit or to some other destination. Unquestionably, so far, this policy has been a wise one and much favorable acceptance has been gained by our method of publicizing our progress. In our method, we will gain considerably more when we are successful. On the other hand, we leave ourselves open for greater losses when we are unsuccessful.

In contrast, the Russians have always surrounded their attempts with secrecy. Indeed, after their first claims of orbiting man into space, considerable doubt remained in the minds of many people as to whether they had actually accomplished the feat which they claimed. The Russians do not give prior publicity to their attempts in space. By contrast to the American way, they only publicize the event after it has occurred, or, in one instance, while it was going on but after the orbit was in progress.

It appears that the Russians have clear knowledge of what we are trying to accomplish in this country in our attempts with rockets and missiles, and, likewise, we have very clear and illuminating evidence on their attempted rides and orbits.

Our intelligence in Space is probably composed on a vast network of electronic devices scattered throughout the world. It should assure us and our military of no great surprises by the Russians and the knowledge of false feats if they are claimed by the Soviets.

Ask a Loaded Question . . .

Have you stopped beating your wife, Congressman Walter Rogers? Your opponent, Mayor Jack Seale of Amarillo would probably like to know, but doesn't want to be quite so blunt about it.

Mayor Seale hasn't posed that particular question in this campaign, so far as we know, but it's typical of the type of campaign questions the Amarillo Birch Society candidate is asking.

We don't like this sort of campaigning by innuendo, and at the risk of being downright unpleasant about it, we're going to put our own views in plain basic English. We are publishing, in this issue of The Record, a political advertisement from Mr. Seale which is an excellent example of what we're talking about. We dislike rejecting any advertising, particularly political advertising . . . but we do maintain certain standards on this newspaper and we would like to warn Mr. Seale that he's getting perilously close to the borderline. We will continue to accept his political advertising, as long as it stays within the bounds of reasonable truth, regardless of our own political views . . . but we'd frankly prefer that this type be applied somewhere else.

We don't know what Mayor Seale may have to offer the voters of the 18th Congressional District . . . so far his campaign seems to be based on the alleged shortcomings of his opponent.

But we do know, from a dozen years of experience, what Congressman Walter Rogers has to offer the people of the 18th Congressional District. It's in the record . . . and no matter how twistedly the record may be tortured, the net results have obviously been pretty good.

Walter Rogers has been a conscientious conservative who has done his able best to fairly represent the widely-varied interests of this district . . . and we think the record proves that he's done a good job of it on the whole.

But one thing worries us, Walter. Have you really stopped beating your wife? Mr. Seale would like to know, too.

The Yankees won the World Series. The New York ball club seems to have a well-paying habit of winning both the pennant and the series. With the final game completed, the professionals will hang up their gear and start focusing on the next spring, and the national eyes of professional and college basketball fans will be in the news. And, the big question will be, "Will the Yankees win again in 1963?" Well, I am going to be the first to ask that question—will they?

The Memphis Cyclone will meet the first district competitor, the Wellington Skyrocks, at Wellington Friday to continue a 37-year battle between the two schools. This year, the first time since 1922, the contest between the two schools will be a district game. I am predicting a hard-fought game and feel that both teams will make a fine showing. The Amarillo paper will probably give the Skyrocks as the favorite, but I feel that at the opening kickoff neither team will have the advantage. Coach Don Lamson said that Jerry Lowe may be back for the McLean game next week. However, this will be the best game action the junior school will see. Lowe received an ankle injury in the Memphis-Springlake game.

The Memphis student body has been showing a lot of enthusiasm this week about the up-coming football game. It wouldn't surprise me if the student body does not have a downtown pep rally sometime before the game Friday. I would like to add my well wishes and cheers to the boys on the team.

Coach Leon Van Alstine's Lakeview Eagles lacked six inches chalking up a victory in the Mobeetie-Lakeview game last Friday night. Late in the fourth quarter, the Eagles, who were trailing at the time, 14-8, drove deep into Mobeetie territory, only to lose the ball on a fourth down try on the Mobeetie 6-yard line, when the chain showed the ball was short by only inches. On the next play, a Mobeetie back broke loose and ran for a touchdown. This was the last play of the game. The score was 20-6. The Eagles are open this Friday night. Coach Van Alstine said that he had no boys injured and that the team was going to devote this week to working on fundamentals, blocking and tackling, and giving some of the second stringers a chance to fill certain key slots, now occupied by seniors.

After an open week, the Estelline Bear Cubs, under Coach Jimmy Don Adams, will host the Lockett team. The Bear Cubs will crown the Football Sweetheart that night. The Estelline team will be seeking its first win.

The Turkey Turks were outscored in the third and fourth quarters by the Idalou Wildcats. The score was 42-18. The Turks were trailing 21-18 in the third period after Darell Fuston caught a 35-yard pass and a 40-yard pass

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

VOLUNTARY CONFESSION

Our courts decide where our rights and our security conflict. For example, in the days of the rubber hose, police sought easy confessions. But, today, the U. S. Supreme Court allows only voluntary confessions to go into evidence at a trial. Those obtained by force or threats are barred.

Recently the Supreme Court spelled out what it means by "Voluntary":

1. In one case the sheriff brought the accused into court. The judge told of his rights and of the charges against him. The prisoner said: "I'm guilty. I killed the woman."

A rancher has lassoed him, but the sheriff had stepped in to protect him from a gathering crowd.

Despite the roping, the court found the confession voluntary and upheld it. For only the judge and the prisoner's protector were in court when he confessed. No force or threat.

2. But the U. S. Supreme Court rejected another conviction when the "Totality" of the conduct of the officers amounted to a denial of "due process of the law."

It concerned a 19-year-old prisoner who had only fifth grade education.

Why did the Supreme Court upset this conviction? Because the trial court admitted a coerced confession in evidence. Officers had arrested the prisoner without a warrant, had held him without much food for two days, and had not allowed him to see anybody he knew. Finally, the police chief had told him that a mob outside wanted to "get him" but if he "confessed," the police could hold them off. He broke down and "confessed."

Such confessions, the court held, were not an "expression of free choice."

DEMOCRATS, ALL — Three of Texas' most enthusiastic Democrats — former Vice President John Nance Garner, John Connally, Democratic nominee for governor, and Dolph Briscoe, former president of the Southwest Cattleman's Association, left to right — expressed confidence of a sweeping Democratic victory in November. Mr. Garner, who served two terms as Vice President of the United States, gave his unqualified support to Connally. He said he was supporting Connally because "he's the best qualified," and announced he was going to vote the Democratic ticket "straight" on November 6.

SENATOR ☆☆☆
Yarborough's Report

I supported the Administration's farm bill as it was passed by the United States Senate Tuesday, Sept. 25. Because even though this bill lacked some features that would have made it more acceptable, without the passage of this bill and with the session soon drawing to a close, there would have been no emergency wheat and feed grain programs this year.

The first result of such a failure would have been a billion dollar loss in income for farmers, a blow no section of our economy can stand. A second result would have been more wheat and feed grains surplus in the warehouses.

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, in a final debate on the bill, said that without this law there would be a 3-million-bushel feed grain carry-over from the 1950's and that, in addition, failure to approve the program would add some 500 million bushels of feed grains and 100 to 150 million bushels of surplus wheat to this surplus of 1963.

In short, without this law, we would be pouring more food into warehouses when we ought to be putting more on the table in a world with far too many hungry people in it.

Much of the debate on the farm bill centered around production control. Such debate ought not to overlook the fact that a vote against the farm bill would have been a vote for lower farm income. It would have been a vote for more government money for higher storage costs for warehouses, for insurance on the stored farm commodities, and higher carry-over costs to the government.

In short, the purpose of the bill is to take out these carry-over costs for storage and put more money in the farmer's pocket. And I believe it will do just that.

Some other really good points are included in the bill. For example, it will strengthen the Rural Areas Development program, improve our conservation of natural resources, and improve the Rural Electrification Administration, one of the best friends the farmer ever had.

Due to a combination of low farm prices and with more use of machinery during the 1950's, farmers were — and still are — in desperate need of low cost real estate credit. This Administration had already released $35 million more in farm operating loan funds — all of which had been frozen under the previous Administration. But there is still need for more credit and this bill took another step forward in this area. It broadens the purposes for which real estate loans are made.

This bill as passed also has improvements in small watershed development, soil conservation, national forest and grassland programs for farmers and ranchers. These improvements were worthy of support. In Texas, where we have such a diversity of climate and soil — some section of the state can benefit from each of these separate features in the bill.

This farm bill also includes a stepped-up Food for Peace program. It authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to enter into sales contracts for needed foods and fibers with both foreign firms and States private trade firms and institutions. In order to dispose of stored-up foods and fibers the U. S. government also could enter into contracts and agreements with friendly nations — as it has in the past — and could expand this program to trade on a dollar basis with the private trade firms in friendly nations.

West Texas Utilities Company is making plans to hold a Cookie Hour Friday afternoon, Oct. 26, between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at their office on the west side of the square, Jack Norman, manager, announced this week.

In short, fellow Texan, the object of this part of the bill is to get food on the tables of hungry people and help our surplus situation also with dollar credits to our advantage. This is an area where American goodwill is taken right into the homes of needy people in friendly nations — the best peacetime weapon against Communism ever devised.

Shamrock Irish Defeats Memphis Cyclone Here 28-6 Friday Night

The well-balanced offense of the Cyclone which had already defeated the Wellington Skyrockets and several other Class A teams in this area by comfortable margins, the Fighting Irish here Friday night.

The Cyclone's last non-conference game of the season, the Cyclone lost to the Shamrock Irish by a score of 28-6.

The Cyclone's offense was incomplete. The Shamrock Irish found the going easy on the ground as the Cyclone's defensive ends, Sen. Sexton and Dwight Gailey, intercepted most of the sweeps. The Cyclone's offense was incomplete. The Shamrock Irish found the going easy on the ground as the Cyclone's defensive ends, Sen. Sexton and Dwight Gailey, intercepted most of the sweeps.

44. Two dive plays netted two yards each. Then Quarterback Dickie Reeves passed to End Don Henry for 31 yards. Another pass between the same two boys gave Shamrock a first and goal on the 8. However, the Cyclone defense got tough for three downs, leaving Shamrock a fourth and 6 situation. But the versatile Irish called on their fast halfback, Tommy Scrivner, who circled left end behind fine blocking, and score. Ronnie Rainey place kicked the extra point.

Memphis took over the ball on their 26 after kickoff. Carries by Bill Pounds and James Waites netted the first down yardage to the 36. A 15-yard penalty against Shamrock moved the ball to the Irish 46. In the next series of downs an offside penalty and two incomplete passes left Memphis in a kicking position, and Bill Pounds booted the ball to the Shamrock 13.

On a third down and 11, running from their own 12, the quarterback threw the first of many screen passes which was complete to Bray Benson, who cut across field to the Irish 30 before being tackled.

Then another long pass from Reeves to Henry covered 50 yards to the Cyclone 20. Two plays later QB Reeves scored. After Rainey place kicked the extra point, the score was 14-0.

Memphis received the kickoff, and the team was held for three downs on the Cyclone 30. A fourth down punt was blocked, and Shamrock took over on the Memphis 24.

The Cyclone defense was not to be penetrated this time, and the Irish went to the air, only to throw incomplete passes for three downs. They completed the fourth down pass but were short of first down yardage.

Memphis took over and started marching up the field. They moved for two first downs to their 33. A third down quick-kick hit the back of one of the Cyclone players but the Cyclone recovered. The fourth down punt gave Shamrock the ball on the 48.

The Irish moved for two first downs then lost the ball when Jimmy Sturdevant picked off a pass on the Cyclone 18.

But the Irish returned the compliment, and Larry Reeves intercepted a Cyclone pass and crossed the goal line for the third Irish tally. Rainey's place kick was good, to make the score 21-0.

The Cyclone took over after a short kickoff on the Memphis 47. A dive play by Pounds netted two yards, and then QB Gailey hit End Jacky Bridges who raced into the end zone. The play covered 51 yards. A place kick by Richard Ellis was wide.

In the closing minutes of the first half, the Irish marched deep into Cyclone territory, picking up most of their yardage on screen passes. However, the Cyclone defense stopped them cold on the 10, and Memphis took over on downs.

But the Cyclone fumbled on the first play and Shamrock recovered the ball on the 11. Shamrock threw two incomplete passes before the half ended.

Lakeview Plans Halloween Event For Oct. 27, 29

Al Chappell, president of the Memphis Jaycees, announced this week that the temporary employment office (Texas Employment Commission) that has been located here is progressing satisfactorily, but that more job applicants are needed.

Joe Bob Browning, temporary farm placement interviewer, reported this week that 255 placements have been made so far and that over 300 referrals have been handled here.

President Chappell said, "The Jaycees, working through State Representative W. S. 'Bill' Heatly, were successful in locating the employment office here on a 90-day trial basis.

"Whether or not the office will become permanent depends upon the number of job applicants and placement," he said.

"We contend that with the number of new industries and with as much employment activity as we have in this area, we need this office," Chappell added. The office, when it is established will handle all the job placement and applications for Hall and Donley Counties.

Anyone needing work is encouraged to contact Joe B. Browning at Bruce Bros. Mobil Service Station. Presently there are openings for waitresses, farm hands and yard work.

The Connally Amendment
In recent weeks, I have been asked many questions about the "Connally Amendment" and its exact provisions. Because this subject is so vital to the preservation of our national sovereignty, I am reprinting herewith a news-letter I originally wrote on March 12, 1961.

Just over a year ago, and on Feb. 21, 1961, I wrote you concerning the "Connally Amendment." In this newsletter I paid tribute to the greatness of Tom Connally, the former United States Senator from Texas. No tribute was more justly deserved. Tom Connally deserves splendid tribute from all Americans for the outstanding contributions he made in public service. Surely there are those who did not like Tom Connally, as is the case with all human beings, but even those must admit that the mark he left by the Connally Amendment is an all-American mark and a mark of distinction. His agile mind and quick tongue made him a much-feared foe in debate on the Senate floor. He is reputed to have told one vociferous opponent the following: "If the gentleman would approach these problems with an open mind instead of an open mouth, he would be much more effective." When asked last year for his opinion on the move to repeal the Connally Amendment, he branded the move as a propaganda device designed to "win an international popularity contest." This rather effectively summed up the situation, in my opinion.

For the benefit of those who have heard of the "Connally Amendment" but who have not had the opportunity of studying it, may I say that it consists of six words, which are "as determined by the United States." These words are attached to a portion of the United States Declaration of Acceptance of the World Court jurisdiction, and I quote:

"This declaration shall not apply to . . .

"(b) Disputes with regard to matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the United States of America as determined by the United States."

That portion in bold-face is the Connally reservation, or amendment, whichever you prefer to call it. You can readily see the effect of this amendment. The particular paragraph above quoted, without the Connally Amendment, would have left jurisdiction determination to the World Court. The World Court consists of 15 judges elected by the General Assembly and the Security Council of the United Nations for nine-year terms. Its headquarters are at The Hague. On Jan. 27, 1960, the 15 members or judges of the World Court came from the following countries: one from the United States, one from Great Britain, and one from Australia. The others were citizens of the United Arab Republic, Nationalist China, Greece, Poland, France, Mexico, Panama, Argentina, Uruguay, Norway, Pakistan, and Soviet Russia. It is interesting to note that only three of the judges are from countries whose basis of law is the Common Law. Four are Latin Americans, two are from Moslem countries, two from Communist countries, one Chinese, and one each from Norway, Greece and France. Volumes could be written as to the built-in dangers of such a situation, but since that amount of space is not available in this newsletter, I think it is sufficient to observe that Americans acquainted with the issue would immediately recognize the inherent dangers of distortion, modification, misinterpretation, and outright abuse of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution which are the protection armor of the American citizen. Without the Connally Amendment this armor would have been broken in many places. Its preservation is vital if the sovereignty of the United States is to be maintained.

You might be interested in knowing that since the above was written, judges from Uruguay, Norway and Pakistan have been replaced by judges from Peru, Italy and Japan. Thus, the geographic and cultural distribution remains relatively unchanged. Although attempts have been

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

The Hall County Great Plains Conservation program committee meeting was held Tuesday, Sept. 25, at the Soil Conservation Office in Memphis with the following people in attendance: W. B. Hooser, county agent; Claude Moore, Farmers Home Administration; Neal Hindman, vocational agriculture instructor; Wayne Hutcherson, Soil Conservation district supervisor; Charley B. Cape, Soil Conservation Service, and Westal W. Fuchs, Soil Conservation Service, Vernon.

The group discussed the Great Plains Conservation program and how the program could help farmers and ranchers establish native grass on soil bank land that landowners or operators wanted to keep in grass after the Conservation Reserve contract expires on the land.

It was pointed out that the Great Plains Conservation Program will pay 80 per cent of the grass seed cost not to exceed 80 per cent of the cost of the seeding operation. Cotton and other allotments will be protected for the length of the contract plus that many more years after the contract expires. The Great Plains Program also has other assistance such as the establishment of cross fences, livestock wells and water storage facilities.

After the business meeting, the group went on a field trip to see various types of conservation work being done in the Hall County Soil Conservation District.

If the average church received the money it is credited with receiving in income tax returns, its minister would be driving a made to repeal the Connally Amendment, these moves have been defeated. I believe the Connally Amendment will, and must, remain an integral part of our law. I shall certainly do everything in my power to preserve this aspect of our national sovereignty, as well as all other aspects.

portant to many Texans, particularly in oil areas. Present law says that if an oil well cannot make as much as 20 barrels a day, it is a "marginal well" which must be exempt from shutdown days. Thus, a well producing 19 barrels a day will get an allowable of 570 barrels a month. But a well capable of making 1,000 barrels a day will be held to 160 barrels a month—20 barrels a day times eight producing days.

Committee recommended that marginal wells be held to the same monthly allowable as a non-marginal well in the same field.

Governor Daniel has been non-committal on the possibility of calling a special session of the Legislature to act on this and other current problems.

Commission Shakeup

Texas Railroad Commission is under a reorganization study by the Texas Research League. Already changes in procedures are being put into effect.

Commissioners William J. Murray Jr. and Ben Ramsey named a committee of oilmen headed by James E. Russell of Abilene to advise on revision of rules and procedures which most admit had become too cumbersome and slow.

Padre and Madre

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler continues his battle against creation of the Padre Island National Seashore.

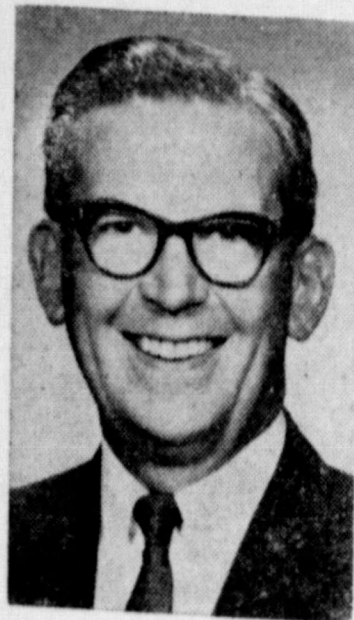

He has charged that oilmen bidding on state school leases in Laguna Madre did not make big cash bonus offers to the state because of passage of the Padre Island bill. Sadler intends to oppose legislation to authorize sales of state land in Laguna Madre area. He has hired Capt. William C. Russell of Fort Worth, recently retired as director of the Southwest Division of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, to survey the area along the Gulf.

Although the so-called "tidelands" law was passed in 1953, there has not been a settlement between Texas and the U. S. as to where the exact boundary lies. Russell, whose life work has been in coastal surveying, will undertake that chore.

It is made doubly hard because the line is supposed to be three marine leagues off the shore, as it was in 1848 when Texas entered the union. The shoreline has changed considerably in the intervening years.

Business Perks Up

Texas business activity rose seven per cent in August over

BILL HAYES

Bill Hayes Of Houston Stops Here Monday

Bill Hayes of Houston, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas, visited in Memphis Monday.

He said: "We do not need any new state taxes. I am opposed to a state personal income tax. Let's look into ways to save the state money instead of throwing it away."

Hayes added: "I expect to be elected by conservatives and liberals interested in better government through a two-party Texas."

July. And eight per cent above that of August, 1961.

Cash on Hand

While there has been lots of talk about the state government being in the red, it really never has been. On Aug. 31, when the fiscal year ended, the State Treasury had a cash balance of more than $219,000,000.

Deficits have been recurring in one of the state's 380 or so funds—the General Revenue Fund. But the others always have cash balances.

Comptroller Robert Calvert gave Texas some charts. They show where $1,300,000,000 went last year. Education took 41.01 cents of each dollar, highways took 28.50 cents, public welfare cost 16.29 cents, state hospitals and prisons cost 5.16 cents, and all the rest—Legislature, courts, administrative agencies and everything else—cost 9.04 cents of every dollar.

Land Sentence

A third man's conviction from the veterans land scandals of the mid-1950's was affirmed by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

He was B. R. Sheffield of Brady, who was found guilty by a Hill County jury of "uttering a false instrument" in a case of one of the 54 veterans whose rights were put together to buy a 10,000-acre ranch in Kinney County. Previous convictions were on former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles and J. T. McCarty. Sheffield recently paid back the Veterans Land Board, with interest, the money he received for the land.

Lost Park

Back in 1933, Joe Espy of Fort Davis gave the state 169 acres in the Davis Mountains, with a provision that if it were not developed for public recreation he would get it back.

The state failed to develop the land, so Espy sued to get it back. Trial court held that he was entitled to the land, and ordered it returned. The State Parks Board is appealing. Espy said he would give it to the Parks Board again—if the Board will develop it as a park.

Ballot Roster

Secretary of State Frank Lake has certified 24 candidates for statewide office.

Names appearing on the Nov. 6 general election ballot will include 14 Democratic nominees, eight Republicans and two from the Constitution Party.

In addition, the fate of 14 proposed constitutional amendments will be decided by the voters.

Two Withdraw

Two Constitution party candidates have notified the Secretary of State to withdraw their names from the November election. They are Ruben Lozano of San Antonio, candidate for Congressman-at-Large and Roy R. Brown of Bonham, candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

Cause of Wasty Cotton Is Given By CC Officer

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series of articles on cotton classing and problems encountered by cotton producers prepared by K. E. Voelkel, officer in charge of the USDA Cotton Classing Office in Memphis.)

What Is Wasty Cotton?

Wasty cotton may be defined as cotton which has a weak, irregular and immature fiber. Because of this fiber condition, the cotton is less desirable on the market, and generally is penalized from two to four cents a pound as compared with sound fibered cotton of the same staple length. The misconception exists that wasty cotton prevails only with the shorter staple lengths and lower grades, but this is not always the case. Some of these causes are explained in the following paragraphs:

Weather conditions, such as an early freeze on bolls that are not fully grown, stops the maturity processes and this results in wasty cotton. However, a freeze will not affect those bolls that are mature or already open.

A drought may also cause wasty cotton. If the cotton plant does not get sufficient moisture during the crucial fruiting period, the growth cycle of the cotton fiber is upset, and results in a weak fiber.

Plant diseases may cause an inferior quality of cotton. Nematodes or "Root Rot" causes cotton to die. If these plants die after fruiting, which they often do, the bolls may open. Often this cotton is immature and weak and causes the staple length to be designated as wasty.

A culling process sometimes takes place at harvest. After the second or third hand pulling, only unopened or partially opened, immature bolls, may be left. When these bolls are ginned with mature fibers from fully grown bolls, the result may be wasty cotton.

Defoliation before maturity may cause wasty cotton. When the defoliant is applied and becomes effective, the maturity processes are stopped. Then, when the cotton is harvested, which in most cases includes mature and immature bolls, chances are that the classification assigned to the staple length will be wasty.

The above are some of the reasons for wasty cotton. An early freeze and drouthy conditions are natural causes and a farmer can do nothing about them. However,

We're telling America about the business and industrial advantages

... IN THE CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST

American business and industry are on the move... looking toward growing areas, new markets, and expanding profit opportunities.

Our service area—the fast-growing CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST—is one such region, because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation.

That is why we are engaged in a continuing program designed to tell American business leaders about the advantages of this portion of West Texas.

We advertise the area in national publications, mail information material to selected lists, and make personal visits to many prospects.

As this is written, a WTU Representative is in the northern and eastern industrial areas of the country, calling on key executives whose companies are looking our way. They, like WTU, are convinced that this area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

Tower To Show "Sweet Bird of Youth" Tennessee Williams Hit, Oct. 18, 19, 20

One of Tennessee Williams' greatest hits, "Sweet Bird of Youth" which ran on Broadway and on the road for more than two years is brought to the screen by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with four of its stars, Paul Newman, Geraldine Page, Rip Torn and Madeleine Sherwood, repeating their original roles. This absorbing drama will be shown at the Tower Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 18, 19 and 20, according to Bill Boren, owner.

Once again Tennessee Williams, author of such successes as "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," "Suddenly Last Summer" and "Summer and Smoke," has created a fascinating plot in which love, hate, ambition, cruelty, hypocrisy and passion are motivating forces in the destinies of the characters.

Characters are: Chance Wayne, (played by Paul Newman), young, handsome, determined to win a Hollywood contract no matter at what price... Alexandra Del Lago (Geraldine Page) once famous motion picture star now on the way out and terrified of the future... Heavenly Finley (Shirley Knight) who has never ceased to love the wandering Chance... Boss Finley (Ed Bagley) her father, an unscrupulous politician who mows down anyone standing in his way... Tom (Rip Torn) his equally ruthless son... Miss Lucy (Medealine Sherwood), a girl who likes expensive presents and who talks her way into trouble.

When circumstances bring Chance back to his home town in Ruby Hoffman 56,541, C. S. Compton 61,080, Mrs. C. S. Compton 59,241, Chas. E. Spath, Englewood, Colo., 63,126.

tional power which never ceases until its final shock climax. "Sweet Bird of Youth," one of the most fascinating and powerful dramas ever brought to the screen. It will be talked about some time to come," Mr. Boren stated.
