Approval Is Given On Stage Alterations

Last week, the members of the City Council's municipal building committee met with a delegation of women from several clubs here; and, after receiving the Council's consent, approved an alteration of the stage portion of the Municipal Building, presently under construction.

The alterations will include a larger stage, property room, and waiting room on stage level, and a basement room 14 by 17 feet in dimension complete with a spiral stair, Mayor Pro Tem and Chairman of the Building Committee E. E. Roberts said.

The cost of the improvements in the building plan will be $5,950.00, Mr. Roberts said.

He explained that the City of Memphis does not have funds available for these improvements but the delegation of women stated that club women of Memphis will assume the responsibility of raising this money.

Virginia Browder, a spokesman for the club women, said, "the club women of Memphis have about one-third of the amount in cash now and plan to be responsible for the remainder by the time the building is completed."

She added, "There will be no canvassing of merchants or door-to-door tours. There may be bake and rummage sales and amateur theatricals to raise money.

"Anyone wishing to donate to this worthy cause may make the check to the Community Theatre Fund, and hand it or mail it to Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard."

Looking Down The Road

(Following is an editorial published by the Ochiltree County Herald concerning the problem of aging. Here in Memphis, as well as towns all over the nation, steps are being taken toward finding a workable solution.)

None of us ever think we are going to get old—but we will. And the problem of aging is becoming more and more real to Americans faced with it.

Rev. Don Davidson of Hereford, manager of the King Manor home for aged people, spoke Monday night to the Methodist Men in Perryton and pointed out a few facts about the problem of age and aging which impressed us.

King Manor takes those over 65 years of age but they are considering raising this to 70 because a person of 65 is no longer really old.

Just as children are getting older faster, adults are staying younger longer. The age categories of even the recent past scarcely apply to the present time.

The airlines and the stewardesses had a dispute recently because the airlines thought 32 was "old" for a stewardess and the stewardesses who were that age objected to the loss of their jobs.

Actually, most women of 32 today look 10 years younger. A generation or so ago, a woman of 40 had nearly had it. She was settled into middle age and usually looked it. Today's women are incredibly young in appearance and vitality in their late 30's and 40's.

Men in their 40's and 50's are still young and vigorous while their fathers and grandfathers were often in their old age by then.

Rev. Davidson said that the oldsters that come to King Manor are more than likely to be crowding 80 before they begin to think about getting old. He pointed out that those of us who are a long way from that age today may as well be thinking about reaching old age because more and more people are living into their 80's and in another generation it will not be uncommon at all to see those in their 90's still putting around.

Men and women who are into their 80's usually have outlived most of their friends and seem to be happier with new friends somewhere near their own age. Rev. Davidson said. A place like King Manor affords the opportunity to have companionship and activity with those in the same age category.

Modern medicine has worked wonders in prolonging life and extending the usefulness of men and women in this society of ours. The average age of the population will continue to get older, and as more and more men and women reach the age of 70 and above, they need to have things to do and a place to go where they will be happy.

There is a boom on now in the construction of these "senior citizens homes" and we are witnessing the construction of one of the most modern in the country right here in Perryton where the Sanford rest home is going up.

This will be a real asset to Perryton and it will become even more valuable to the area as time goes by.

The problem of what to do with old people is one peculiar to America because no other country has the standard of living, the quality of food, the medical care, the other ingredients necessary to make people live longer. It's up to us to make the latter years more enjoyable and meaningful.

There Are Some Who Care

A friend, writing of such things a few weeks ago, said that if you take two towns of equal size and facilities, there is one factor that will make one grow and prosper while the other withers away.

The factor is people who care. There may be only a dozen of them, but they will improve the lives of a thousand neighbors just by living there.

They care about everything that touches the community. They care if windows are clean and sidewalks swept, if lawns are green and streets are clean.

They worry about recreation for youngsters, and whether or not teachers can teach.

They want our laws enforced impartially. They want public officials to be men and women of whom we can be proud.

They attend public meetings and carry petitions and write letters and jangle the phone.

They deplore garbage untended and junk abandoned in unsightly yards. They volunteer while others scoff.

They care about trees and churches, about sidewalks and streets, they care about people who use these things each day.

We fear that people who care do not lead the carefree lives of their neighbors. Sometimes they are objects of ridicule for their can-throwing, free-wheeling fellows.

But without them a community can soon reach the level of the biggest slob who dwells there.

They annoy us with ideas, goad us to work, but we're thankful there are still a few who care in Olney.—Olney Enterprise

What Other Editors Say

America Needs Loyalty
The destiny of this great nation imposes an obligation on every American to do his part in what is the tightest race for survival our country has ever faced. We are squarely up against a serious challenge both national and international.
Every thinking American should be willing to make a sacrifice in honor of our country. The crying need of today among all of us is for unity. We cannot stand divided, and the communists seek to divide us.
They would turn minority against majority, south against north, bloc against bloc and class against class.
Each of us must be willing to place national unity and strength ahead of selfish aims and personal desires. Each of us must try to do his share in the contest between communism and democracy. We do not have long to make our contribution.
Therefore, let us all respect every American. Let us all respect every section of our country, and every religion. Let us all pull together for America, and fight out our battles within the greater framework of love of country, devotion to freedom and duty—and personal motivations second, after our country's cause is served first.

Will It Work?
One month from now Texas' brand new tourist agency will officially come into being.
This little brain-child will have a total of $129,646 the first year as an operating budget to achieve its objectives. The second year expenses will be increased to 162,646.
Areas definitely established as goals for the agency are:
1. Advertising Texas' tourist attractions and facilities to people living in other states.
2. Advertising these same attractions to Texans to encourage patronage of those now living in the state.
3. Encourage free enterprise and local communities to develop more attractions and facilities to care for the comforts of tourists in the borders of Texas.
All objectives of the new "Tourist Bill" fall into one or more of these major categories. So do the "Duties of the Highway Department" which were spelled out in the 1959 law. To date there has been no clearly separation between the two agencies to tell which shall do which and prevent duplications.

So, the spotlight will remain on the new agency which has an almost unlimited range of action with its budget.
There are many things this agency will be faced with incoming years. For example:
Will it advertise the many alluring sights of the Big Bend and Davis Mountains, draw tourists to the area and have them find there are few, and in many places no facilities for the traveler?
There is little doubt that the Agency will keep "No Vacancy" signs flashing in many of the towns that have attractions such as San Antonio, Houston, Corpus Christi, but in the places where accommodations are fewer, the agency will be faced with furnishing bed and board—and champagne and music—for the travelers.

New Speed Law Goes Into Effect Aug. 23

Hall County motorists were reminded this week that the new highway speed law goes into effect Friday, Aug. 23.

However, the director of the Texas Department of Public Safety warned motorists today "not to take the new, higher speed limits to literally" when they go into effect Friday.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr. reminded that "there are a multitude of circumstances and situations under which even the old limits were too fast for safety."

"With more than two-thirds of the Texas highway system under a 70-mile-per-hour daytime maximum speed for passenger cars and 65 miles per hour at night, we wish to appeal to all Texans to exercise keen judgement and drive responsibly and prudently regardless of what the signs say. The law prohibits driving a vehicle too fast for existing conditions.

"The DPS believes that the objective of speed legislation is to contribute to the efficient movement of traffic on the highways. We feel the new law will help to accomplish this, and our objective of enforcement is to secure substantial compliance with the speed law by all users of the rural highways. The prima facie speed limits fixed by the Legislature or established by zoning authority will be construed to be the maximum permissible speeds under normal conditions, and speeds in excess of such limits will be considered illegal.

"Our enforcement personnel will stop and initiate appropriate enforcement action against all persons observed by them to be committing clear-out and substantial violations of the speed law." Particular caution is urged in

Mary Davis Purchases Vogue Beauty Salon

Dorothy Stargel announced this week that she had sold the Vogue Beauty Salon to Mary Davis, who would continue to operate the business in the same location and under the same name.

"I want to express my appreciation to the women of this area for your splendid patronage while I operated the shop," Mrs. Stargel said. "I am sure that you can find the same efficient and courteous service under the management of Mrs. Davis." Mrs. Stargel added. Mrs. Davis took over management of the shop on August 20.

assuming the higher night speed limit of 65 mph. The U. S. Bureau of Public Roads found in its research that increasing night speeds from 55 mph to 70 mph doubles the accident involvement rate, and that the severity of accidents increases rapidly at speeds over 70 mph.

"We should like to emphasize at this time that traffic deaths are running far ahead of last year already, with an increase of about 100 deaths. Unless we can hold the line against this trend, we will wind up with an all-time high traffic death toll in 1963," Garrison said.

Motorists are reminded that the new higher speeds apply only to passenger cars.

TIPS for OUTDOORSMEN

If Ducks Flare Away

Ducks that flare in alarm from big, solid blinds will readily come to a bit of brush or a scattering of loose grass that hardly fizzes a gunner's outline.

Replace Leather Dog Collar

Many a good hunting dog has been choked to death by a leather or chain collar. This can easily be avoided.

Coat Hunting Knife Discs

Leather discs on hunting knives are apt to work loose with hard usage.

Should this happen to your knife, apply a coating of wax proof boot dressing at once. Wax dressing tightens loose discs, makes leather handle stronger, and assists to sweat and water.

Tip for Reload

Today, more and more gun enthusiasts are loading and reloading their own ammunition.

If you are one of the latter you no doubt have had trouble with impurities in your load, prevent this, next time you load up lead, but a small piece of beeswax in the melting pot. Wax causes impurities to slip to the top where they can be easily removed.

Estelline Homecoming Is Planned For August 31

Plans are complete for the annual Estelline Homecoming which will be held Saturday, Aug. 31, Roy Gresham, president of the Ex-student Association, announced this week.

Registration will get underway at 9 a. m. and coffee and doughnuts will be served from that time until noon in the Home-making Building.

A full program has been planned throughout the day. Dinner will be served at noon in the cafeteria by the 1964 Senior mothers.

President Gresham will open the meeting with a business session after which Rev. Joe B. Allen, pastor of the Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

Virgil Payne, a graduate of the class of 1919 and president of the Hale County Bank, Plainview, will give the welcome address.

Memorial services will be conducted by President Gresham.

The class of 1933 will be honored and recognition of the oldest student present and the student traveling the farthest distance will be made.

This will be followed by roll call of classes. Rev. Royce Denton, pastor of the Baptist Church, will offer the benediction.

Class meeting will be held and the group will assemble for the election of officers for the coming year.

A surprise program is planned for the afternoon program.

"You will want to be there and see this program. We guarantee that it will be well worth your while," officers stated.

The Ex-student Association is offering a $5.00 prize for the best poster or the best "Welcome Ex" sign painted on a store window. Judging will be done Saturday morning before 9 a. m. by the current ex-student officers.

The prize will be given to the class of the student winning and the student will be publicly recognized during the business session at Homecoming. The contest is open to any student in the Estelline school. Deadline for entering will be Friday, Aug. 30. Those wishing to enter should notify the teacher or any ex-student officer.

For the past two years approximately 160 ex-students have registered. All of the communities of Tell, Baylor, Parnell, Hulver, Newlin and Gilpin are included in this homecoming as well as Estelline.

"Let's all help to make this the best homecoming yet," the president said.

"The main criticism in the past has been that the local people have not attended. When the ex-students, teachers and residents return, they do not have time to visit the local people individually unless they are physically unable to attend. So please, this year, all the local people come, and you

Around and About

By HELEN COMBS

Summer is quickly fading... and those who haven't taken the annual summer trek off to some vacation spot have only a short time in which to do so.

There are more signs than the weather to remind one that the fall season is at hand. Already the town is humming with activities. In fact, it began, or so it seemed to us, the 10 days we were away on vacation.

We arrived home to learn the women's clubs have undertaken the project of raising nearly $6,000 to make an addition to the stage portion of the Municipal Building now under construction. The alterations will include a larger stage, property room and waiting room on stage level and a basement room 14x17 in dimension complete with spiral stairs.

Bonds voted for the Community Building did not allow enough money for the needed stage facilities and members of the women's clubs felt the addition should be made now so that the building would be adequate to take care of all community needs.

Part of the money needed for the project will be secured from treasurers of the various clubs and organizations; however, some fund raising projects will be necessary in the coming months to get the balance of the money. Even though solicitation of funds from individuals is not planned, all contributions would be appreciated. Those who might like to make personal contributions may do so by contacting Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard.

In connection with the above-mentioned need for money and the desire to furnish a room in the county hospital, members of the Business and Professional Women's Club are sponsoring a community calendar for 1964. Within a few days individuals will be contacted and asked to buy a signature on the calendar for 25 cents. This entitles the individual to a listing of his or her birthday on the calendar. Anniversary dates may also be placed on the calendar for 25 cents. Calendars will be sold for $1.00 each and will be delivered before Jan. 1, 1964.

Visits at the office from the three Memphis coaches reminded us Wednesday that school opens soon—and that the first football game is fast approaching. To further emphasize the fact, Bill Bradley, band instructor, remarked this week that rehearsals had begun on routines for the first band performance of the season which will be given at the opening football game.

Back to vacation: we had a most enjoyable 10-day vacation the first of the month. Herschel and I drove to Houston where we left our car and joined our daughter and family for a drive in their station wagon down the coast to Florida, where we spent three days basking in the sun on the beautiful beach out of Panama City, White sand (and we do mean white) forms the beach and the water is crystal clear. It is not difficult at all to see the small fish that swim in near the shore.

We were delighted with the drive from Gulfport, Miss., on through Biloxi and on to Mobile, Ala. The country was beautiful with its trees, shrubs, hanging moss and old colonial homes.

En route home we spent two days in New Orleans; and, although we had typed numerous accounts of senior class trips to that city in recent years, again you must see it to know what it is really like. Everywhere we ate, the food was delicious; and somehow the people managed to impart that real feeling of "Southern hospitality." It seemed to be an atmosphere that prevailed in the city.

Our daughter and three granddaughters returned home with us for a week, but now they have departed... and we saw Adrian, Carnis, Debbie and Kent off to their new home in El Paso... so its again quiet around our house—with no children in and out!

HALL COUNTY ENTRY—Shown above is Miss Janie Hutcherson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hutcherson of Memphis, who presently holds the Miss Hall County title, and who will enter the Miss Wheatheart of the Nation contest this weekend in Perryton. The contest will be held Saturday night and judging will be in bathing suits and evening gowns.

NOTICE

TO THE CITIZENS OF HALL COUNTY

Solicitations will begin soon by the members of the Memphis Business and Professional Women's Club to produce a Community Birthday Calendar for 1964. All citizens of Hall County are invited to participate.

A charge of 25 cents per person will be made on birthday listings. Calendars will sell for $1.00 each and will list birthdays, anniversaries of county citizens, and scheduled meeting dates of different clubs and organizations.

Due to the fact that it will be impossible for members of our club to contact everyone, those persons who desire listings are asked to contact a member of B&PW Club. If a calendar is desired, your order can be placed. The Community Birthday Calendar is being sponsored in order to raise money to furnish a room in the new County Hospital, and to make a donation to the new Community Building.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.

AUSTIN—About this time each year, thousands of Texas mothers suddenly realize that only a few more weeks remain until school begins.

For those mothers who have six-year-olds beginning school for the first time this September the excitement is beginning to rise—and for mothers with no older children, a little bewilderment accompanies the excitement.

Smart mothers have already had their child fully examined by a physician, as well as a dentist. Also the beginning-school child should have his hearing and eyes checked for any abnormality so that correction or glasses can be accomplished well in advance of school time.

Also, for children just starting school, there is the problem of clothes, adjusting to new friends, discipline and surroundings. A thousand-and-one details crowd in on the parents.

One detail often overlooked until the last minute is the need for a birth certificate for first-time students. Most school districts require proof-of-age for beginning students.

Smart mothers send for their certificate copies early to avoid the rush of late August requests which pour into county clerks' offices as well as the State Health Department's Records and Statistics Section.

Certified copies may usually be obtained from local county clerks and local registrars for a slight fee.

If unable to obtain a copy locally, a request should be made to the State Health Department as early as possible. The State fee, established by law, is one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

Most important aid for speedy service—aside from getting requests in early—is complete and correct information.

Parents should include the child's name, his birth place, date of birth, and the parents' name—including the mother's maiden name.

A special corps of summer "searchers" who seek out the proper birth certificate from a special "school" index permits quick service even during the burden of late August requests. However, a week to 10 days should be allowed for mailing time and servicing.

When mother gets the certified copy of John's birth record she will have nothing to do but get his clothes ready, have his teeth checked, see about his vaccination record, arrange car pools...

Winters Families Move To Amarillo

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Winters and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Winters and daughter moved to Amarillo last week.

The Winters have purchased a cafe, located in down-town Amarillo, which they will operate.

Experienced cafe operators, Mr. and Mrs. Winters and their son Jimmy operated the Cyclone Drive-In Cafe for several years. The business was closed several weeks ago after the interior was damaged by fire.

Danny Lee Is Named In Aug. Draftee List

Danny R. Lee of Memphis, Charles D. Strange of Silverton, and Raymond Eugene Fike of Wellington, were the three registrants from Texas Local Board No. 20 who were forwarded to the Armed Forces Induction Station on Aug. 7.

All three registrants were inducted into the Army. State draft boards will get their biggest monthly quota in nearly two years in September.

The call for September asks for 609 men for Army Service, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state

Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

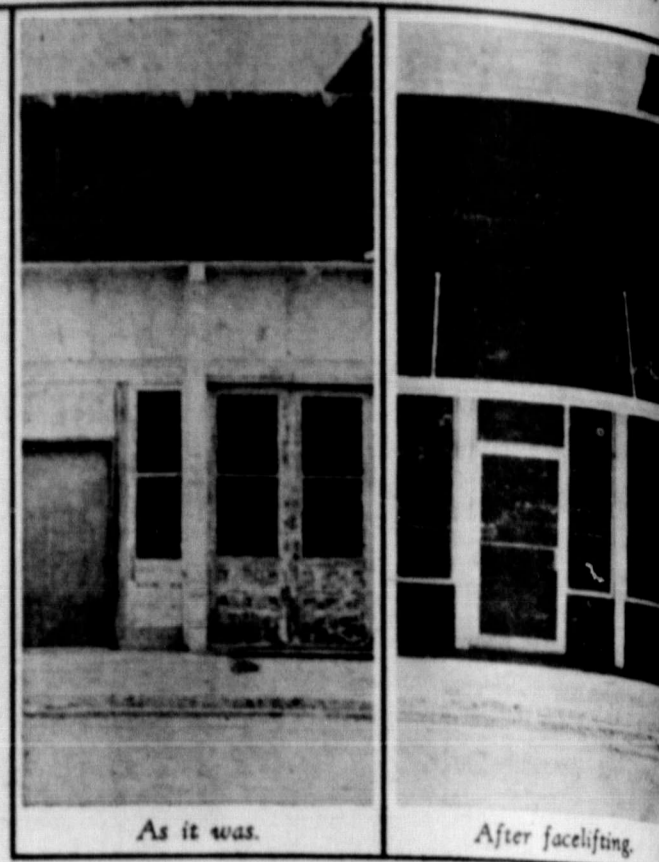

This is the biggest state quota since November 1961, when the quota was 923.

The September call of 609 compares with 552 for August, 349 for July, and 187 for June. The September call is the state's share of a National quota of 12,000 men.

The state Selective Service director also announced pre-induction physical and mental examinations for 2,050 men in September. Local board quotas for the September call already have been figured and sent to the state's 137 local boards.

The September quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on September 1, except volunteers and those legally termed delinquent under the law, who may be younger.

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

Wylie prepares for more growth

When Wylie, Texas planned civic improvements, its progressive citizens went all the way. Showing a population increase of 34% over 1960 census figures of 1804, Wylie set out to prepare for even more growth.

They launched a street paving program, downtown business modernization, construction of a new school, new bank building, new residences and a new post office.

This combination of public and private improvement is well under way today, as shown in the "before and after" facelifting photos above. The Wylie story is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

Duck Hunters Can Expect Bigger Bag Limits, Longer Season This Year

Duck hunters in the Central Flyway will have bigger bag limits and a longer season to look forward to when the 1963-1964 seasons open this fall. The Central Flyway states of North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and those parts of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, and N. Mex. lying east of the Continental Divide have been given options of selecting 35 consecutive days of duck shooting or split seasons totaling 32 days, according to the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

Daily bag and possession limits of four and eight were approved by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall. This is double the bag and possession limit of the 1962 season in the Central Flyway.

The restriction on taking mallard ducks continues this year, with only two mallards allowed in the daily bag and four in possession. Mallard breeding populations set an all time low in 1962 and have not shown marked recovery this year. Average mallard production is expected this year from the lowered breeding populations, and the Bureau hopes that continued restrictions will allow for an increase in the 1964 mallard breeding stock.

Bag and possession limits on wood ducks remain at two and two as in 1962. The bag and possession limits on coots have been increased to eight and sixteen.

A complete closure on canvasbacks and redheads will continue this fall, with these species still below the long-term average population level, despite closed seasons the past three years.

The individual states are allowed to select their season within the period starting October 5 and ending January 5. Shooting hours are from sunrise to sunset, except on opening day when gunning will start at noon.

Central Flyway states may select a 75 day consecutive or split season goose shoot within the period starting Tuesday, October 1, and ending Wednesday, January 15.

The daily bag and possession limit on geese will be five, including not more than two Canada geese or their subspecies, or one Canada goose or its subspecies and one white-fronted goose, or one white-fronted goose. Only one Ross's goose will be allowed in the daily bag and possession limit. Restrictive bag limits in 1962 accomplished their objective of protecting a greatly depressed breeding population of ducks which occurred at a time of prolonged drouth throughout the important waterfowl breeding grounds of the continent. While above average rainfall improved habitat conditions somewhat this year, total production of ducks remained well below the long-term average, particularly on mallards which have not shown any marked increase in numbers this summer.

In recommending continued restrictions on species still in short supply the Bureau hopes to increase the breeding populations for 1964. With the Canadian drouth cycle apparently ended, this increased breeding population could take advantage of improved water conditions next year.

The framework within which the states select their season represents an increase of one week at the start and one week at the end of this year's hunting period, compared with 1962.

Hunters in eastern New Mexico and western Texas will be allowed a 30 day season on sandhill (little brown) cranes, beginning November 2 and ending December 1, with a bag and possession limit of two birds.

Report From Washington

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th
Congressional District

Decisions To Come
I will remember this session of the 88th Congress as it will make in the coming months. Up to now, Congress has acted on any legislation in an unprecedented manner so far as the main, provided for abandonment (or abandonment) of programs established in the financial programs, met the financial responsibilities of the government, and the government's responsibilities.

stage of considering civil rights legislation.
The Senate will dominate the coming Congressional drama. It alone holds the power of "yea" or "nay" over the test ban treaty. It will be in the spotlight also because Senate rules permit unlimited debate on measures reaching the floor. The debate may continue until each Senator has had his say. It can be cut off only by exercise of that rarely invoked Senate procedure called "cloture," by which two-thirds of the Senate must concur in a motion to end debate.

By contrast, debate is limited on the floor of the House. A major bill coming before the House is presented along with a "rule" adopted by the Rules Committee—a resolution (which the full House may either adopt, amend or reject) establishing in part the number of hours during which debate is to be permitted and whether or not amendments to the bill may be submitted during debate. There can be no filibusters in the House; once a bill has reached the floor a decision on it cannot long be delayed.

The Senate, on the other hand, can devote weeks to debating the provisions of a bill. Oratory is more common to the Senate, once called "the world's most exclusive debating society," since its rules permit prolonged discussion. Now, it's anyone's guess as to what will happen in the Senate on the nuclear test ban treaty, the tax bill or civil rights.

But with the shadow of a bitter civil rights showdown looming over every Senate action, I would say that the country is assured of a very thorough airing of all measures coming before it. Senate opponents of civil rights legislation, with an eye on the calendar, may attempt to forestall action on civil rights by prolonging debate on all controversial issues presented to the floor.

Those who expect Congress to be in session until the snow flies aren't going to be far wrong, I'd guess. It may happen that the First Session won't end until the Second Session is ready to begin in January, and that this will be the first continuous Congress

Hall County Soil Conservation District News

There are several practices that are important to good range management. One of these is livestock water distribution.

Water is very important to the livestock producer and the location of watering places whether they be ponds or wells is important to good management. The location of watering places is important to proper management of livestock and proper use of grass. With well planned locations of water, livestock can get more variety and amounts of grass without walking long distances over rough terrain. A good rule of thumb to use in judging location for watering places is to locate watering places where cattle can walk about one-half mile in any direction to water. If terrain is rough the distance should be closer than one-half of a mile but if the terrain is nearly level longer distances may be used.

Livestock water distribution aids in proper use of each grass plant. Water distributed in the right locations will distribute cattle to graze the grass on the range more evenly. With more evenly grazed grass more production can be obtained.

Winners in the District Art contest included: Patricia Lewis of Muleshoe, with an oil, "The Mission"; Billy Staniford of South Plains, a water color, "Mt. View Lodge"; Toni E. Smith of Lubbock, an oil, "The Mission"; and Pam Lenau of Muleshoe, a mixed work entitled, "Television".

Judges for the contest included: Mrs. Olive Vandruuff Bugbee of Clarendon, Mrs. Mary Lee Garrett of Clovis, N. M.; and Dr. Emelie Caballero of WTSU of Canyon.

The four winners will compete in the State Contest.

Approximately 100 persons were on hand for the art exhibit and the tea. Mrs. Dick Shelton of Clarendon, Mrs. Debra Bullock of Muleshoe, and Miss Mary Cook of Clarendon registered the guests.

Hostesses for the tea included: Mrs. Norma Blount, Mrs. Richard O'Daniel and Mrs. Ray Reiss.

The Democratic women, to promote party interest, handed out pamphlets entitled, "Why Be A Democrat."

The first Olympic Games recorded occurred in 776 BC in Greece.

since World War II. Again, however, predicting coming events on Capitol Hill is like forecasting rain in the Texas Panhandle; you can find yourself all wet when you least expected it.

I don't look for the August 28th civil rights "march" on Washington to have much impact on House or Senate consideration of civil rights legislation. It will be business as usual in my office. While I believe the rank-and-file of those who are coming here to demonstrate believe their action may have an effect on the legislation, their leaders know better. The leaders, I believe, are simply giving their followers a chance to let off steam. I doubt that the demonstration will produce more support for civil rights legislation than it otherwise would have; on the contrary, if the march gets out of hand, if violence occurs in the Capital, votes in the House is responsive to public opinion, it has a low regard for pressure tactics and threats.

Weekend Rains Are Welcomed In Hall County

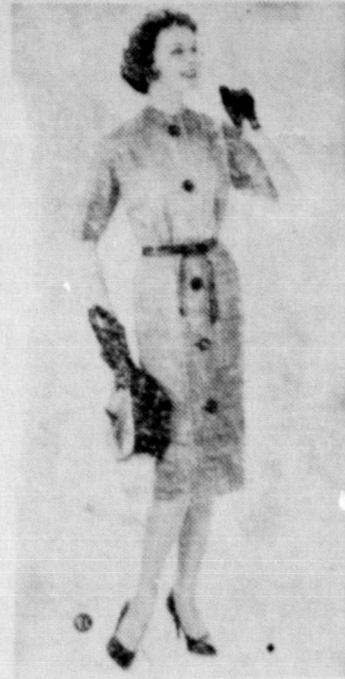

The crop picture in Hall County is much improved this week with weekend rains of about one-inch average falling over most of the county.

Here in Memphis, J. J. McMickin reported .55 of an inch on Sunday's measurement, and .24 on Monday's.

Rains in the Estelline area were over an inch west of that town, approximately one inch in Estelline, and less than an inch in some spotted areas.

The largest amount of rain fell in the Lakeview and Lesley areas with up to three and a half inches recorded. Lakeview and surrounding area received about one and a half inches with the average about two inches in most communities. Some damaging hail fell southwest of Lesley on the Joe Montgomery land.

High-low temperatures recorded in Memphis by McMickin include: Wednesday 98-59, Tuesday 93-63, Monday 89-68, Sunday 97-71, Saturday 101-68, Friday 100-63 and last Thursday 91-65.

Jury Duty

Jury duty is an experience everybody ought to have.

In a criminal case 12 jurors have a duty to do justice as each one sees it, and yet be unanimous. In most trials both sides have much to say, and the evidence is conflicting. The 12 jurors vary in their ability, temperament, character, education, and their experience in the world, and in the question at stake.

Yet a jury made up of both sexes, with wide age and educational differences, jobs and origins must all come up with the same verdict. Upon their verdict much depends—the life or liberty of others, and the public good. So it may take them days of talking among themselves, all to agree.

Jury duty calls for insight, common sense, courage, tact, fairness, patience, (especially toward the jurors who disagree with you), good humor, tolerance, balance, willingness to hear others out and change one's mind, readiness to go over and over the facts to find something to bring agreement. In short, jury duty demands a "decent respect for the opinions of others."

More and more women share civic duties, especially as jurors. Time was in Texas when women could not serve on juries. They still cannot in four states.

A jury finds facts. It hears and weighs evidence and then comes to a verdict. It does not make the law—the legislature does; and the judge "charges" or instructs the jury concerning the law applicable to the particular case it is considering.

The judge will tell you not to find the accused guilty until he is proved so under strict rules of evidence. If you have any "reasonable doubt"—not imaginary or far-fetched—acquit the accused.

Civil cases do not demand a moral certainty, merely the "preponderance" of what you regard as reliable and believable evidence.

Don't Overfeed Hunting Dog

A hunting dog whose ribs are showing like corrugations on a kashboard is not being abused. He is being kept in tip-top hunting form.

Overfeeding a dog can cause shortwindedness, fatigue, and even heart failure in the field.

Never overfeed a hunting dog.

He, of course, takes more food during hunting season than he does at other times because he burns up more. But watch his ribs. When his ribs start to smooth over with flesh, cut down of his food.

pecially in local areas, is treated lukewarmly if it does not contain much local news items. The more local items a paper contains the more the readers appreciate it. It is nothing but common courtesy to have the names of visitors appear in the paper, and have the visits of local people to other places reported. To employ a sufficient number of reporters needed to personally contact all residents of the area every week would mean the closing of The Democrat's doors very shortly—and we'd like very much to continue it another 73 years. Again, therefore, when something happens to you, your neighbor, your visitor, or anything that others would like to know, give 259-2441 a ring, or drop a postal card in the p. o., which would be received with gratitude and thanks.
