Cyclone Scrimmages Seagraves At Floydada Field Tuesday Afternoon

The Memphis Cyclone football team traveled to Floydada Tuesday afternoon and scrimmaged Seagraves in the first two-school action of the season.

Seagraves, a top contender for District 5-A honors, came out of the scrimmage on top by two TDs but Memphis Coach Charley Chambless said, "I was real pleased with our boys."

The Memphis coach had high praise for the Cyclone defensive unit and especially was pleased with the efforts of Senior Donnie Bridges who was outstanding on defense as linebacker.

Although the Memphis offensive unit scored two TDs, Coach Chambless said the offense was below his expectations. "We just need more polish and better coordination on offense," he said.

Over-all, however, the coach said the Memphis lads had great team effort in the scrimmage and he was real pleased.

When asked about injuries, the Memphis coach listed two boys with serious type injuries. These are seniors Jimmy Stardevant with an ankle injury and Mike Branigan with a knee injury.

Coach Chambless said he would not announce the starting offense or defense teams until late next week because competition for the top spots is still going on and is expected to continue throughout most of the season.

Reserved Seats
"We only have a very few reserved seat tickets left, but if anyone wants to reserve a seat we will make arrangements," Coach Chambless said. "I don't want anyone to be turned down if they want a reserved seat," the coach said.

The coach and school officials were very pleased with the number of reserved seats sold.

W. B. Hooser Presented Service Award Tuesday

At the noon meeting of the Memphis Rotary Club, Tuesday, President Robert Clark, M. D., presented a lapel pin to Hall County Agriculture Agent W. B. Hooser, from the National County Agents Assn.

The pin was sent to the Rotary Club to present to Hooser for 25 years of service. The letter, which Dr. Clark read to the club, explained that Hooser, in 1945 received his distinguished service award from the association and at which time they did not award lapel pins.

The pins which are being awarded now have diamonds for each 10 year period the agent has served.

Hooser started as a County Agent in Lipscomb County in March 1936 and served there a year and a half. In 1937, he went to Wheeler County where he served a year and a half.

He came to Hall County on January 10, 1939, and has served (Continued on Page Twelve)

The Hall County ASCS Office will make over $800,000 in direct payments to eligible producers within the next 60 days, it was announced today by Lynn L. McKown, ASCS Office Manager.

The first cotton subsidy payments under the 1964 Cotton Domestic Allotment Program were mailed eligible producers Wednesday when 76 checks totaling $26,662 were issued, he said.

Under the 1964 wheat program 71 producers have been paid $34,000 through August 25, 1964, with 70 payments to be made.

Payments under the 1964 Feed Grain Program will start next week. Four hundred producers will receive over $300,000 under this program. "We hope to release payments under the Soil Bank Program beginning October 1," he said. Two hundred and eighty-one producers will receive $420,000 under the Soil Bank Program.

The total payments under the 1964 Cotton Program are indefinite as many producers have additional time to comply with the program, it was explained.

Cyclone Boosters To Meet Monday

The Cyclone Booster Club will meet Monday night at 7:30 p. m. in Travis Cafeteria, President Buster Helm said.

All booster club members and prospective members are asked to be present at the meeting so that business can be carried on and plans for the football season completed, the president said.

Those attending will hear a discussion and see films of the Crowell game last year and what is expected this year in the Memphis-Crowell game. Coach Charley Chambless and the Memphis coaching staff plan to have an interesting program.

President Helm said that the booster club will be meeting regularly each Monday night during football season in the Travis Cafeteria and view game films.

Memphis Board Sets Budget At $370,190

The Memphis School Board Monday night at their budget hearing, approved and adopted a budget for the 1964-65 school term of $370,190.

The budget calls for a total current operation expense of $318,570 with the remainder of the budget ($51,620) expenditures going for furniture and equipment and to service the debts of the system.

The budget called for an expenditure of $20,400 for administration; $246,437 for instruction; $9,825 for pupil transportation; $23,400 for operation of plant; $6,700 for maintenance of plant; $4,010 for fixed charges (insurance, etc.); $500 food service; and $7,298 student body activities. These total $318,570, which is the current operation expenses.

The capital outlay total was set at $3,120, all of furniture and equipment, and the debt service was set at $48,500.

This year's total budget figure set at $370,190 is larger than last year's, which was set at $354,089.

The School District is expecting the total receipts from all sources to be $372,470, the budget stated. This is above last year's budgeted receipts figure which was $366,969.

The estimated receipts for the district are as follows: revenue, local sources, $143,809; revenue, county sources, $400; revenue, state sources, $225,161; incoming transfers, $3,100.

New Teachers
Following the budget hearing, the school board approved contracts for four new teachers for this year.

Supt. of Schools Shannon Doss said that the only opening still to be filled is for a high school science teacher, and he is working on two possible solutions.

Joe Bain was offered a contract for junior high math teacher. He has had one year teaching experience at Stinnett, is single, and attended college at West Tex (Continued on Page Twelve)

LONG WALK—Pictured above is Owen Scott of Miami, Florida, along with his donkey, Sam, on the return leg of his two-year walk to the world's fair in Seattle, Washington, and back to Miami, Fla. Owen passed through Memphis yesterday and spent last night here. Today he plans to travel south on U. S. 287 and spend the night in Estelline. He expects to get home (Florida) in January. He is traveling on donations he receives from those he meets along the way. The reason he chose the southern route home is because of the cold weather up north. He has been averaging 12 miles per day this summer but he has traveled as much as 30 miles during a day. He is pictured above with Sam at Gene's Shamrock Station, corner of Boykin & 10th, where he stopped in the shade for a rest. Scott is a custom boat builder by trade.

WTU Announce Rate Reduction

A company-wide $1,100,000 annual reduction in electric rates was announced today by West Texas Utilities Company. One hundred and sixty three towns and communities served by the Utilities Company will benefit from the rate reduction.

The revised schedule of electric rates was filed with the City by Jack Norman, WTU Local Manager. The new rates will be effective with meter readings made after August 31, 1964.

The company announcement listed the following changes in rates:

Residential: The first step in the residential rates will be reduced by 3-4 of a cent per KWH. The third step of this rate will be reduced by lowering the last 250 KWH 1-4 of a cent per KWH. The monthly minimum charge for electric range customers will be reduced from $3.50 to $1.00. Space heating rate (1 cent per KWH) has been extended from four to six months each year.

These new rate schedules result from a reduction in the Company's income taxes due to recent changes in the federal income tax rates and the increased usage of electricity by present customers, together with greater company operating efficiencies and economies.

"These rate reductions," Phillips, WTU President said, "are evidence of our policy of reducing the cost of service to customers whenever we can. The $490,000 direct reduction in our federal income taxes, plus the improved operating efficiencies of new generating equipment we have recently put into service, as well as the new facilities now under construction, make it possible for us to pass on again real savings to our customers. Based on 1963 sales, the new rate schedules will represent a reduction of about 3 1/2 percent company-wide."

Approximately $300,000 of the annual savings from the reduced rates will go to residential customers. Phillips said that with the (Continued on Page Twelve)

State of Texas is really big and proud. In John Garner of Uvalde vice president under Franklin D. ### Importance of Schools

It is the time of year when the nights are cooler, and the days not nearly so hot. As for many, plans are going on in preparation for opening of the 1964-65 school year. Although the weather is not what you would call fall-like, back-to-school heralds the beginning of the fall season.

In Memphis, as in every other town and community in the Panhandle of Texas, public schools are big business. In most places, the public school system is the biggest business in the town, having annual budgets larger than the city or county.

There will be around 1,800 youngsters enrolled in the four Hall County schools this fall, and it will take a wide variety of goods and services to educate them.

The day of simple reading, writing and arithmetic went out of style long ago. Today's educational systems demand new teaching tools and new ideas for a modern world.

School systems are being asked to add new subjects, and many old ones are being modernized. An example is the widespread use of the "new math" which calls for new methods on the part of teachers and students alike.

To keep pace with modern methods, schools have had for some time visual aids, specialists, special guidance, and vocational instruction that would have been considered far fetched just a few years ago.

The demand in the present world is for more and more education. There is much more to learn than there was a generation ago and much more emphasis upon learning it.

Back-to-school is important to all communities. It is important to merchants, because school opening calls for considerable buying on the part of every family with school-age children. It is important to the churches because families are more apt to remain together and attend church activities during the school term than during summer vacation.

And back-to-school is important to the nation because it signals a resumption of an educational system quite unlike that in any other country in the world. There are those who would change our educational system. They would have us send our children to school all year long, cutting the summer vacation to only one or two short weeks. If this was ever adopted, it would change the basic living habits of our generation.

This nation was founded with the idea in mind that every citizen should be given an opportunity to receive an education. It has been through this system of mass education that we have achieved the highest standard of living of any country the world has ever known.

We, as citizens, have been demanding more and more from our education system during the past few years. We are quick to try and blame our high schools and colleges whenever a student does not meet the standards we like to use in judging.

Sometimes we forget that to learn, one must submit oneself to long hours of mental work, which does not come easy. Mass education is complex because all students are different. However, under our present system, the average American has achieved a much higher degree of education than that found in any other society or nation in the world, past or present.

It should be conceded at once that other nations have a certain number of highly educated, highly skilled individuals, but these are normally supported by a large majority of poorly educated, unskilled workers.

Our education system deserves the support of all citizens; for through it passes the future leaders of our nation.

What Other Editors Say

Election could be blasphemy?

Senator Goldwater had ample opportunity to refute the extremist concept of government, and gain the support of the mainstream of the Republican party, but he consistently refused to denounce the preachment of the extremists and in effect endorsed their philosophy with the statement that "I can see no evil in extremism in the defense of freedom, or any virtue in moderation in the pursuit of justice."

Later in trying to rationalize his statement to the satisfaction of other Republicans he still refused to divorce his idea of extremism from that practiced and preached by the John Birch Society.

Taken literally the two-clause sentence uttered by the Republican nominee for president could mean that any group could determine their own definition of freedom and secure their goal through the methods used by the Ku Klux Klan, the John Birch Society, or any of the other extremist groups that have put on the mantle of a sanctimonious righteousness and confiscated God's their exclusive personal guard with the idea that anyone who disagreed with their bigoted idea of government and behavior were theists and infidels. This idea is rampant in some quarters and is strictly foreign to the American heritage that these heretics claim to espouse.

Either Senator Goldwater will repudiate the preachment of the extremists or his election to the presidency or any other public office will be blasphemy.

Need For Blood ...

What do former President Herbert Hoover, young Senator Edward Kennedy and Bobby Nichols, who has just won the professional golf championship, have in common? For one thing, the lives of all of them have been saved and prolonged in critical illness or after serious accidents by blood transfusions.

The need for blood for emergencies such as they survived is greater now than ever before, according to leaders of the American Association of Blood Banks, meeting in Washington, D. C., Aug. 25-28. Since its organization after the Texas City disaster in 1947, the association has led in developing the clearing house system through which blood given locally can be credited in a distant city.

More accidents and increases in open heart and other complicated surgical operations, according to Dorothy C. Smith of Jacksonville, Fla., a convention program chairman, are steadily boosting the need for blood. But the number of people willing and able to give blood is not increasing.

Only a faithful 3 per cent of those physically qualified to give blood do so, according to Miss Smith. And in the words of Dr. Edward J. Maddern, director of a Jamaica, N. Y. bank, "blood must be waiting for the patient, not the patient waiting for blood."—The US Press Association, Inc.

About Pets

We read the other day that a psychiatrist is convinced that tensions of families will transfer to pets. In other words, if the master is bad, beware of the dog. The dog picks up the mood of the master.

Well, maybe he is right. We have a cat and a dog, and they sort of act like we do. We hadn't really noticed it to make an issue of it, until we read that piece in the paper.

Then we got to thinking back, and darned if that psychiatrist isn't just about right.

Just the other week an irate little lady gave us a tongue lashing for getting her name wrong in the paper and we still felt like we had been whipped when we got home. Our old Siamese cat opened one eye lazily and took a long look at us, sort of inquiring, and then rolled over into a cowardly crouch and yowled like she had a whipping, which she never has had.

We went out in the yard and met our little dog. She came forward wagging her stump of a tail and smiling like happy dogs always do, took one look at us, and began to grovel in the grass, whining, and her eyes rolling in a plea for mercy.

The irate little lady's tongue-lashing of us was being transferred to our cat and our dog through our tension, we guess.

When our good wife gets after us for not getting the garbage taken out when it should have been taken out, we sort of get in a hurry with it, hanging our head in guilty shame, and scurrying to the alley with the tin cans and coffee grounds. And right behind us, their heads hanging down in guilty shame and their eyes shifty and their tails very still, follow our faithful cat and our faithful dog.

Just the other day we were things that we had gotten far behind on our reading. We bought a couple of news magazines, a Reader's Digest, and found our current issue of The Saturday Evening Post. We gathered our reading material and went out in the shade of the patio to read.

When we got outside, we noticed our little dog was gnawing on an issue of Playboy magazine, stopping now and then to look at the pictures, and our old cat was lying contentedly on the door mat, a copy of True Romances in front of her. Where they got the magazines we don't know, perhaps from somebody's garbage can up the street or across the way. We took the magazines away from them, though, for our little dog is too young for Playboy Magazine and our cat is definitely too old for the contents of True Romances. She's had terrific experiences in that department and ought to get things like that out of her mind, at her age.

We'll just have to be careful about the kind of moods we have around our dog and our cat. While we might be able to hide our moods from the human beings around us, we can't fool our pets.

50 YEARS AGO September 30, 1914

Last Saturday the two gins here in Memphis ginned 164 bales of cotton. One of the incidents of the day out of the ordinary was the fact that each gin ginned the same, 82 bales.

There is a movement now among the women of Memphis to help the farmers gather the unusually large cotton crop as well as help themselves or what ever cause they want to help materially.

The J. W. Mickle Drug Co. is now open for business at the old Hollifield stand, north side, adjoining the Hall County National Bank.

T. J. Jeffries, the Childress horse man, was in Memphis last week buying horses and mares. He was not very successful only buying about a dozen. He contemplates coming again at some later date as the farmers were too busy to bring in their stock now.

The Cooper & Watts tinshop have turned out about 100 feet of float valve galvanized hog troughs for the W. B. Quigley hog farm the past few days.

40 YEARS AGO September 18, 1924

Friday, September 11, marked the close of one of the most successful fairs in the history of the county. Although larger and better exhibits have been on display, in some departments, in the past, the amusement program, far superior to any ever offered here before drew exceptionally large crowds.

With the exception of the cloud-burst which came last Thursday afternoon and the one of Tuesday night Hall County has been favored with ideal weather conditions for cotton growing, during the past few weeks.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Barber last week. The Chamber of Commerce Band, prize winner of all West Texas, in advertising its First Annual Cowboy Round-up and Wild West Stampede which is to be held here on October 17 and 18, has adopted for its slogan, "The Best in the West".

Mrs. W. S. Cross, wife of the head of Cross Dry Goods Co., and manager of the millinery department of that firm, has invented a sewing machine attachment which is becoming a popular er. . .

20 YEARS AGO September 7, 1914

The Cyclones, Memphis School squad, is reported to be responding splendidly to training and will be in good condition for their first game of the Amarillo Yarnigans here tonight of September 15.

Another general rain extended all over Hall County this week added to that of the week before assures a bountiful yield of cotton and feed this fall, says . . .

William Dan was born September 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Finet and weighed 6 pounds 6 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge of Lubbock spent the past week end here with her parents, and Mrs. Bill Smith, Mrs. who had been visiting Mrs. Lubbock, returned to Lubbock with them.

First cotton of the 1954 year to arrive in Memphis was Wednesday morning at the Tindall Gin. The fleece averaged on about 20 acres of farmer by Homer Bell and his J. L., and located 15 miles of Estelline. The land belongs to John Tippet. . .

Interest in the second democratic primary Saturday in County was high although it was slightly below that in the primary in July. . .

More rain fell Monday Tuesday on Memphis and the rounding territory increasing prospects for good crops in area. . .

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

Community Development planning
of the Community Survey

Making a Community Survey of factors which influence community and economic development is the starting point for a soundly planned program.

What is done with and about such a survey is the next crucial step. We must assess and evaluate all the facts in microscopic detail, for results can come only from a thorough and realistic analysis.

We should ask ourselves . . . what are our advantages for economic and civic growth? How can we utilize them for community and economic development? Are there civic factors which need improvement to compete with our neighboring towns? How can we best make such improvements? And, is the entire citizenship cooperating with community organizations whose initiative and aggressive leadership can accomplish our objectives?

Analysis of a Community Survey is another PATTERN FOR PROGRESS.

WTU's area development representatives will assist growth-conscious communities in planning a thorough analysis of its Community Survey for economic development. This service is available on request through your local WTU manager.

AUSTIN—If you son is going to play football, make sure he is properly equipped.

Buying equipment simply on an looks may cost your youngster an injury that will last a lifetime.

For proper head protection, select a helmet of shock-absorbing material encased in a rigid plastic shell. A snug fit and protection from "bottoming" of the helmet on the head must be assured. Select face mask, rigid with internal cushioning, that does not protrude farther than one and one-fourth inches from the nose, thereby preventing elbow contact with the eye.

Body protection is essential, too. All pads should incorporate shock-absorbing material, and cover the intended area properly. The fit of the pants must assure effective positioning of the thigh and knee pads.

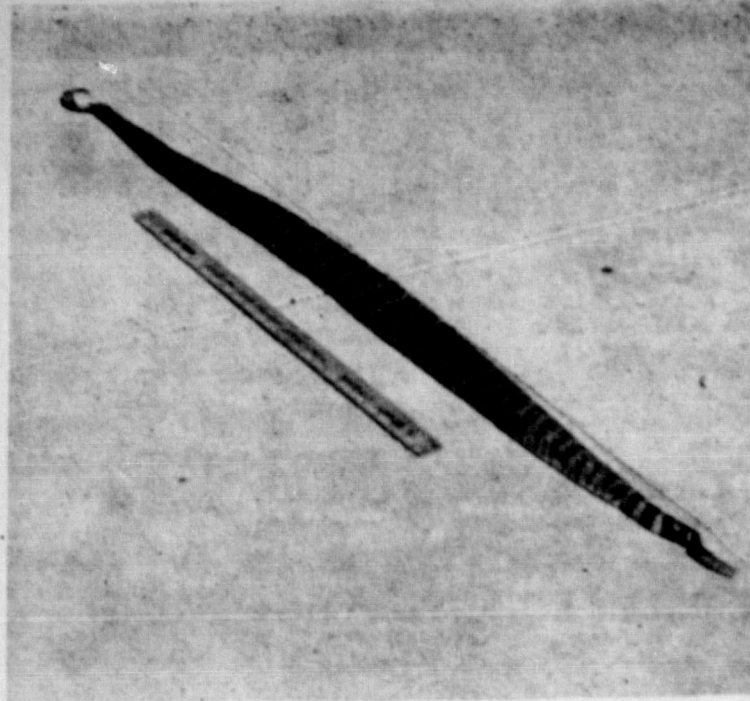

To insure foot and ankle protection, all players should have

Whether it is football on the corner lot or organized athletics, a boy playing contact sports needs a mouth protector as a part of his regular equipment.

If your young son wants a football helmet like the big leaguers, be wary of the low-priced helmets sold as toys. These are not suitable for real play. The suspension or internal padding provides little or no protection on impact. In addition, the edges of these helmets may be sufficiently sharp to cause lacerations.

Helmets to be used in actual play should possess the same protective qualities as those for varsity football. Otherwise, the safety of the wearer can be in serious jeopardy.

Whatever his age, if your youngster plans to participate in football or other contact sports, keep these basic principles in mind when selecting protective equipment; purchase only the best available, make sure it is carefully fitted, wear equipment at all appropriate times, in practice or in games, and make sure equipment is conscientiously maintained. Football can be fun . . . as long as you're not gambling with unnecessary injury.

FALSE CREDIT

It's easy to buy things on time if your credit is good. But some people try to make their credit look good when it isn't. This can lead to the crime of "theft by false pretenses."

In a recent case Sam Sudd wanted a new car just like his neighbor's.

At the Super Car Agency Sam could buy his new car for $300 down and 36 monthly payments.

The Agency asked Sam to sign a credit report. Sam reported that he made $650 a month, had a $65 car allowance month, and his wife worked for $400 month.

Sam drove off with the new car, but when he fell down on his payments, the agency repossessed the car and found that Sam never did have the income he claimed. Truth was Sam was making only $500 when he worked, and he had taken a leave of absence and had never gone back to his job. His wife had not worked for years.

The agency complained to the district attorney, charging Same with theft by false pretenses.

Sam was guilty as charged.

Though no one can be put in prison for debt, he can go to prison for fraud, if, when he "bought" the goods, he never meant to pay at all, any time. But it is no crime if he just happened to be broke but made no false claims.

Using another's credit card without his permission is also a crime, just as it is to use one's own credit extensively, knowing full well that he cannot or will not make payment. Again, this is theft by false pretense.

"Jackson's Foot Cavalry" was the nickname of Gen. Stonewall Jackson's infantry because of its speed in covering ground.

More Progress In The Canadian River Project

Another milestone has been passed in the history of the great Canadian River Project. The Senate has approved and sent to the President the bill I had introduced to authorize an expenditure of up to $1,100,000 for planning and development of public recreation facilities at the Sanford Reservoir. The bill was passed by the House last November.

With construction of the dam, reservoir, and pipeline progressing so rapidly, (indeed ahead of schedule in some phases), I felt it was vital that the proper steps be taken this year to insure that adequate recreation facilities be provided at the reservoir.

For persons within a radius of several hundred miles, for residents of five States (Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, and New Mexico), the Sanford Reservoir will be the major recreation area within driving range. Thousands upon thousands of visitors may be expected to come each year to enjoy boating, fishing, and camping and swimming at the huge lake.

As one of the steps in planning, three officials of the National Park Service will be in Amarillo on August 27 to meet with former Amarillo Mayor A. J. (Judge) Madison and members of the Recreation Committee of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority board of directors.

The provision for recreational facilities will not affect the basic purpose of the project, which is to supply municipal and industrial water to the eleven Panhandle and South Plains cities of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority, Amarillo, Pampa, Borger, Plainview, Brownfield, Lamesa, Levelland, O'Donnell, Slaton, and Tahoka. The Canadian River Project has a larger repayment allocation than any other Bureau of Reclamation project. The project will repay approximately 94 percent of its cost over a 50-year period, with interest.

The Canadian River project is scheduled for completion in 1967. The dam near Sanford is expected to be "closed" this winter and the flow of the river will begin to be impounded in the reservoir. It will be some months before other work primarily on pipelines and will earn their cycling merit badges.

Mrs. T. R. Gattis and Mary Ida were Amarillo business visitors Monday.

project in the 1965 fiscal year ending next June 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baldwin and Mrs. T. L. Rouse visited in Clarendon Sunday with Mrs. Baldwin's brother, George Thompson, who recently suffered a heart attack. Mr. Thompson is recovering nicely and was able to leave the hospital Sunday to go to his home in Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Combs visited in Austin over the weekend with their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Welch and girls, Susan, Carolyn and Diane accompanied them home for a visit in Memphis. Their parents will join them here next week.

This creamy, cool cheese pie is an excellent example of the new and delectable ways that the classic flavor combination of pear and gelatin can be served. The versatile ingredient that makes it possible is the newest product, Spiced Pear Gelatin, which has just become available in food stores throughout the country.

In addition to its never-before flavor—that of plump fresh pears just right with a blend of cinnamon and clove—it has a new and exciting sunny, golden color.

- PEAR CHEESE PIE
- 1 package (3-ounce) Royal Spiced Pear Gelatin
  - 1 cup boiling water
  - 2/3 cup cold water
  - 2 packages (3-ounce) cream cheese, softened
  - 3 tablespoons sugar

is the last week of vacation for local residents as school starts next week . . . and it's time again for nine months! Annual, mothers will be glad to see the youngsters off to school . . . and students will be busy to be busy after a summer leisure time, and will be happy to see their classmates again.

Many and varied were the vacations enjoyed by local residents this summer. One vacationer, Miss Stargel, was guest speaker this week at the Rotary Club.

accompanying two college friends, Juanna Jo Moore White Deer and Joan Greene Spearman, to Hawaii this summer where they were students at the University of Hawaii. She was accompanied by Dr. J. A. Odom to present the program Tuesday at the Rotary Club. Sondra continued her program off by meeting Dr. Odom with a lei and giving him a kiss on the cheek to his surprise. Following this she explained the lei custom to the people whom she found there. She said that there are few pure Hawaiians left, and the largest race represented are the Orientals. The atmosphere on the Island is care-free, she said, and with 35,000 soldiers stationed there, it is a scholar woman's paradise. The trees, the growing pineapple and sugar cane fields, the water and sand, are all beautiful. Sondra went to Hawaii on the Student Travel Overseas Program with 5 other college-age students and chaperones. She took psychology and hula dance courses at the University of Hawaii. She said the university is as modern as large as mainland universities. The girls flew both ways, leaving on returning to Los Angeles.

Several local women were guests at the R. C. Dickey's Lake Cottage last week. The cottage overlooking Brookhollow County Club and affords a beautiful view of the countryside. Enjoying the view at the Cottage Friday were Mrs. Susie Kesterson, Myrtle D. A. Neeley, W. V. Courtonne, Tommie Potts, Louie Goffin, David Davenport, Art Millard, Betty Beach and Bob Roberts.

The R. C. Lemons are enjoying their daughters, Judy and Betty, near or at home again. Betty, who is now living in Abilene where her husband, Lt. True, leaves from the Air Force to complete his work toward a degree at McMurry College, comes often on the weekends. The

Women's Forum To Present Noted Lecturer

John Hancock, noted educator, lecturer and world-traveler, will be in Memphis Friday evening, Aug. 28, to speak at an open program being sponsored by the Women's Forum. Admission is 60 cents for both students and adults.

Mr. Hancock, who has recently returned from a year's "tour of duty" for the government as a director of entertainment at the USO centers mainly in Japan and Korea, will speak on "Viewing the Middle East." In connection with his talk, he will show interesting colored slides of the Middle East countries.

Following the program, an informal coffee hour will be enjoyed.

A graduate of North Texas University, Denton, Mr. Hancock holds his master's degree from the University of Colorado. This winter, he will continue work on his doctorate at the University of Minnesota. Though one of his special interests is architecture, the theme of his thesis will be dramatic arts, another cultural field in which he has had much training.

"Mr. Hancock's appearance in Memphis promises to be an evening of fine entertainment. It is hoped that people in this area will take advantage of this rare opportunity to learn more about the social, political and economic conditions in Asia as they exist today," Virginia Browder, publicity chairman of the Forum, stated.

Mr. Hancock is graciously contributing his services and receipts from the program will be applied on the indebtedness for the community center, Mrs. Browder explained.

Social Security Payments Reach 1.3 Billion Mark

Payments totalling some 1.3 billion dollars are now going each month to over 19 million people in the form of retirement, disability, and survivors payments under the Social Security Act.

These figures were given today in a statement released by Hal Geldon, social security district manager in Amarillo.

At the beginning of 1963, some 91 million workers were insured, 55 million were permanently insured, and 52 million had worked long enough to qualify in case of disability. These figures have increased during 1963 and up to the present time.

The 55 million can expect to receive retirement payments whether or not they do additional work. The families of the 91 million canments, a lump-sum amount, or both, in case of the worker's death. The 52 million and their families are protected in case of disability. The net effect is that some 90 percent of the working population has protection against one or more of these risks. Since all of these hazards are universal, social security is a basic source of income at retirement, disability, or death.

Boys Ranch Is Planning Large
Rodeo, Picnic

The 325 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch began practice this week for the biggest Labor Day event of the Texas Panhandle, the annual Boys Ranch Rodeo set for Sept. 6-7, at 2:30 in the afternoon.
A real ranch-style barbecue will be added to the rodeo fare at which the boys will select a steer from the beef herd, dress it for cooking, and barbecue it over an open-pit fire.
The busiest concession at the rodeo is expected to be the barbecue sandwich booth where the boys will be selling sandwiches with all the trimmings.
Admission has been set at $2.50 for box seats, $1.50 for adults general admission and 75 cents for children and servicemen in uniform.
"We are inviting our friends, not only to watch the kids put on their rodeo, this year, but also to enjoy a barbecue picnic in the picnic grounds of the Ranch," Cal Farley, Ranch founder, said.

Good care of family shoes will help them wear well. Brush and air them after each wearing. Stuff the toes with tissue paper or shoe trees. Once or twice a week apply a neutral paste polish or one the color of the leather. When shoes are new, it's wise to treat the leather with paste wax before the first wearing. Then stroke with a lamb's-wool brush and follow with regular shoe polish.

Rising Costs Versus Public Notice Rates

By DR. CHARLES L. ALLEN
Director, School of Journalism
Oklahoma State University

The Old Timer leaned back, puffed a smoke cloud from his pipe, and took on that far-away "back-when-I-was-a-boy" look.

"You young fellows nowadays," said he, "don't know when you're well off. Back when I started in the printshop I got a big $2 every week. Why, when I was a two-thirder, and settin' darn near the whole paper by hand, I got exactly $8.50 a week. And we worked 54 hours.

"Nowadays, you don't hardly get a printer's devil no more. Any kid that starts to be a printer has to be paid $1.25 an hour. He can't earn it no more than that nephew of mine, who ain't yet 24, can earn the $100-plus he gets running a Linotype machine. Everybody wants too much money today and don't want to give a decent day's work for it."

You know the rest of the Old Timer's story. What he forgets to tell you, however, is that in 1910 eggs were 10 cents a dozen, bread was five cents a loaf, potatoes 40 cents a bushel or less and a haircut cost 15-25 cents.

Newspapers in small towns were lucky to get 5-15 cents an inch for advertising, and subscriptions mostly had to be paid in turnips, eggs, chickens or services.

The Old Timer—and lots of folks who aren't so old—forget that times have changed, that it takes more money to live half-way decently in the 1960's.

Back in the Great Depression
Perhaps you don't remember as far back as 1910, or 1920. Let's talk about the 1930's, which you may remember as the years of the Great Depression. Those of us who lived and sweated, and saved, and did without in the Depression love to tell about it. It makes us feel so good that we survived it.

I am not understating the difficulties of the Depression era. Times were tough. Money was mighty scarce. Small town papers still traded out subs and got 10-20 cents an inch for advertising.

But the scale of prices for other things was in proportion. Look at these prices, actual prices in 1932:
One dozen Grade A eggs — $ .15
T-Bone steaks, each — .10
Haircuts — .35
Coffee, best grade — .25
Bread, small loaf — .08
Medium-size car — 700.00
Liver, kidneys — FREE

Rates for classified advertising were as low as one cent a word. And the rate for PUBLIC NOTICES in the twos where I published three weekly newspapers was: 10 cents per line of 8 point, 12 or 13 ems wide. That meant that the newspaper was paid a dime for each line of legal advertising set in type about the size of the type used in news stories and for classified ads.

How Was in the 1940's?
In the 1940's, especially after the war broke out, prices started to climb. Here are a few of them in our town:

One dozen Grade A eggs — $ .40
T-Bone steaks, each (and

How Long Do We Support Him?

all meat was rationed) — .40

Haircuts — .75
1 pound of coffee — .60
Medium-size care (none made during the war) — 1,200-1,800

And what had happened to advertising rates, especially for publishing PUBLIC NOTICES? Did they rise 2 or 3 times in the decade of the 1940's? THEY DID NOT. IN MOST STATES THEY WERE THE SAME IN 1941 AS THEY WERE IN 1931.

It was late in the 1940's or mid-way in the 1950's before rates for publishing legal notices were changed materially. Even in the 1950's, as study of the legal rates in many states will show, the average rate for publishing public notices was raised only about 40 per cent above the 1930 rates. IT TOOK MORE THAN 20 YEARS FOR PUBLIC NOTICE RATES TO GO UP ONE-HALF.

And still, the prices of everything it takes to keep a family went up another notch.

Soaring Sixties
Come now to the fabulous 1960's—which is the era in which we find ourselves. Here are a few prices from a supermarket in the small city where I live today:

One dozen Grade A eggs (they've been higher) $ .56
T-Bone steaks, medium size — .94
Haircuts, no so good — 1.75
Shoeshines, plus tip — .35
Medium-size car — 4,000

I have recently analyzed legal advertising rates from many states—not from all, but from most of them. Here is an inescapable observation: hile haircuts have gone up 600 per cent to 700 per cent, T-Bones and other meat prices have gone up 500 per cent to 900 per cent, shoe shines have gone up 300 per cent, eggs have gone up 300 per cent to 400 per cent, and all the costs of living have increased more than 400 per cent since 1930, guess what?

THE AVERAGE RATE FOR PUBLISHING PUBLIC NOTICES HAS GONE UP ONLY 100 PER CENT. In short, while other prices have quadrupled, or more, rates for public notice advertising have slowly doubled.

There are still one or two places where rates for legal advertising are little more than they were in 1930.

All Publishing Costs Go Up
How about costs and expenses in the newspaper and printing business? Here's how 1930 and 1960 compare:

Journeyman printer's wages UP 400%-600%
Cost of a Linotype UP 400%-600%
Cost of newspaper, stock UP 300%-600%
Other expenses, average UP 400%

Everything the newspaperman buys has increased in price from 300 per cent to 600 per cent. It is good management nowadays to expect printing machinery to double in price every decade. A typesetting machine that cost $3,750 in 1940 is now more than $13,500.

Periodically we hear someone say: "It costs too much to run legal notices in the newspaper. Their rates ought to be a lot lower. They're making too much money."

Just what is too much, and who makes the rules? How about the salaries of public officials, costs of keeping law and order, costs of feeding the thousands who now get their heads and hands in the public trough, taxes (which have increased as much as 1,000 per cent in some areas since 1930), and all the other expenses of life today? They all seem too high to most of us. No use getting you neck out of joint because janitors make more than a hundred a week in many cities.

HOW MUCH SHOULD THE NEWSPAPERMAN CHARGE FOR PRINTING PUBLIC NOTICES?

1. Enough to cover all basic costs.
2. Enough to pay good wages.
3. Enough to print a good news-

4. Enough to give away a lot of his space to help build a new hospital, get a new factory, etc., etc.

5. Enough to employ able persons in the front office who can exercise EXTREME CARE in handling public notices.

6. Enough to establish a reasonable DEPRECIATION FUND to replace his equipment when it wears out. (That will mean setting aside at least 200 per cent of the original purchase price if the machine is retired in 20 years.)

7. Enough to guarantee him a decent profit, which in some printshops and newspaper offices runs as low as 3 per cent but should be at least 20 per cent before taxes.

Perhaps newspapers will never learn to raise their rates as costs go up, but that is exactly the way merchants do it. "Butter, $8.5 a pound," you read, and you still pay it. Yesterday it was only $7.9 a pound and last month it was $7.6. Today it is $8.5 and the supermarket or the neighborhood grocer did not send you a special telegram to tell you he was raising the price. WHEN COSTS GO UP, PRICES GO UP. That is axiomatic. Everywhere, it seems, except in newspaper advertising rates.

By every standard, by every comparison, by every principle of good business, the rates for publishing public notices must now be considered too low. It is almost impossible to find anything you can buy at little more than twice its cost in the GREAT DEPRESSION.

REMEMBER: In 1932 a bushel of good hard corn brought TEN CENTS at the elevator. And if the farmer was lucky he may have gone home with an unusual purchase for his 10 cents: A CORN-

COB PIPE. Such an out-of-control economy will send everybody to the poorhouse.

Next time you hear anyone say that newspaper advertising is particular, and rates for public notice this question whether he is a craftsman, a laborer or even a teacher:

"Would you work today for twice what your wages (or his were in the 1930's)?" If he says "yes," hire him on the spot. You can put him to work and make money.

The Word

"The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart."

Deuteronomy 30:14

The Apostle Paul reminded the Romans that in his heart man believed in righteousness and with the mouth confessed unto salvation.

As Christians, we know right from wrong. If we follow the dictates of our heart we will always do what we thing is right. Our conscience usually tells us when something is wrong.

As Christians, we should not hesitate to show evidence of our belief and faith in God. It is not necessary that we shout our faith from the street corners. The manner in which we live our lives, conduct ourselves in business and in our relationship with others is evidence enough.

S. S. Montgomery—

Sheriff from 1894 to 1898. After his tenure of office, Montgomery and his father, the late J. C. Montgomery, helped to organize an exchange bank in Memphis and in 1902 the bank was nationalized as the First National Bank.

Mr. Montgomery's father served as president of the bank until his death in 1925 and Mr. Montgomery was cashier. After his father's death, Mr. Montgomery was named president... a position he held until 1940 when he was named chairman of the board. Mr. Montgomery served in this capacity until he retired several years ago.

Mr. Montgomery was united in marriage to Lulu May Walters on Oct. 6, 1891, in Vernon. Mrs. Montgomery, one daughter, Frankie Noel and one son, Leon W., preceded him in death.

In 1953 Mr. Montgomery was married to Mrs. Virgie Geter.

Mr. Montgomery was a member and elder of the First Presbyterian Church, member of the Masonic Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and one of the founders of the Panhandle Bankers Association.

Surviving are his wife of the home, one son, Winston C. Montgomery of Lubbock; two daughters, Mrs. Ed Ricker of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Allen Grundy of Memphis; one step-son, 9 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Pall bearers were Joe Montgomery, Paul Montgomery, O. L. Helm, Clifford Farmer, Mills Roberts, O. M. Cosby, Jr., Temple Deaver, Sr., and John Deaver.

W. B. Hooser—

as County Agent here since that time.

During his service here, Hall County's 4-H club boys have won more National awards and more State awards than boys from any other county in the United States.

The Extension Service and Hall County supporters sent Hooser to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for nine consecutive years to serve as sponsor and chaperone of 34 boys and girls from Texas to the National Congress.

During this period, Hall County had from one to three 4-H clubbers attending the Congress.

Hooser served as Worthy Chief of Epism Sigma Phi of Texas (national association of extension workers) and while he served in this capacity he was sent to the National Epism Sigma Phi and Land Grant Colleges meeting in Washington, D. C., in 1956.

He has served as director of District 3, County Agent's Assn., and has been a representative of this organization to the national meeting in Memphis, Tenn.

Hooser has held high offices in the Masonic Lodge and is a 32nd degree Mason, and has been a Rotarian for 24 years. He has been an honorary member of the Memphis Lions Club.

Memphis School—

as State University.

To be the high school librarian this year will be Miss Daisy L. Fisher of Alva, Okla. She has a B. S. degree in History and a B. S. degree in Library Science from University of Illinois.

Miss Jeannie Nesbitt, a 1964 Texas Tech graduate, will be the girls physical education instructor. This is her first teaching experience, Supt. Doss said, however, she has served as camp counselor for several summers.

Supt. Doss announced that Mrs. Walter Hicks has resigned as first grade teacher and is going to Baytown. She will be replaced by Mrs. Terry Bailey of Memphis.

James Lang, of Victoria, has been hired as biology and general science teacher for Memphis. He is a graduate of Texas Lutheran College.

Supt. Doss said that Miss Neville Wrenn of Memphis will teach two chemistry classes this year in the high school.

"We need only one teacher to fill out our staff," Supt. Doss said. "We have an opening for a fifth grade teacher which we must fill before the opening of school next week."

WTU—

new rates the average residential customer will get about one-third more electric service for his money than he did at the end of World War II.

In addition, the new rates will mean a savings of $274,000 for commercial lighting customers. The cost of service to combination general power and commercial service customers will be reduced another $221,100. Phillips said that churches, schools and smaller commercial customers will particularly benefit from this rate change.

Large light and power customers will have a saving of $140,000, "All customers," Phillips pointed out, "will share in the $75,000 saving resulting from lowering the fuel clause adjustment factor made possible by improved power plant efficiencies."

In addition to the general reduction which affects virtually all customers, the new rate schedule provide an extension of the residential and commercial electric space heating rate from four to six months. Presently WTU electric space heating customers buy electric heat at a base rate of 1c per KWH.

Comments—

There are many folks who will not ride in an airplane for they like to stay with at least one foot in the ground.

In this space age, one cannot help but wonder if we have planners who are thinking toward 25 or 50 years in the future, and planning for same? And 50 years ago were there many planners who foresaw the revolution in our present way of life, and prepared for same? Did they see the automobile, the airplane, the telephone, the radio, the TV, the jet, the spinning around the earth in about two hours, the sending a machine to the moon and take pictures of same? Wonders of various kinds continue to come to light that amaze people of Old Mother Earth.

A friend of mine said that a neighbor, after getting her children off to school the first day, said, "Thank the Lord, there they go." The teacher said, "Good Lord, here they come."

Vacation days (for this year at least) are over for the school-agers. During the few years in school, many things are to be learned—some to be forgot, while all are to be part of life after school days are over. A writer recently made the statement that a child's education depends upon the attention given by both the teachers and the parents. The school years have a lot to do with the child's future life—success or failure.

It is predicted that by 1970 only five per cent of the available jobs can be performed by the unskilled. The implication is that the responsibility of today's youth is to prepare for a skilled occupation or profession. He needs to finish high school and/or finish one of the colleges if he is to be best qualified for one of the many skilled occupations that can be learned on the job or outside of college walls. The important thing that he become skilled in a job that there is and will continue to be a demand.

County Schools—

The last Tasmanian native died in 1876, about 100 years after the island was discovered by Europeans.

The Santa Cruz river in Argentina has one of the longest and deepest ground courses in the world.
