Funeral Services Held At Estelline For S. P. Phillips

Funeral services for Soley Pope Phillips, 87, Hall County resident for 36 years, were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Estelline Baptist Church with the Rev. Royce Denton, pastor, and the Rev. P. D. Fullingim officiating.

Burial was in Estelline Cemetery under the direction of Spicer Funeral Home.

Born in Franklin, Ky., Mr. Phillips died Tuesday morning at his home. He moved to Hall County in 1928 and farmed in the Estelline community.

He was married to Josie Estelle Faries on March 26, 1899, at Alvarado.

Mr. Phillips was a veteran of Spanish American War. He was a deacon of the Newlin Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, Henry J. of Stinnett, Grady of Dumas and Woodrow of Estelline; three daughters, Mrs. Roy H. Dick of Bonham and Mrs. Eula Spruill and Mrs. Juanita Nelson of Estelline; a sister, Mrs. Enola of Franklin, Ky., 19 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

Pall bearers were grandsons of the deceased.

Slight Decline Shows Up In Financial Report

According to financial statements, announced this week by the four Hall County banks, the year 1964 ended with slightly less in total assets than that of a year ago. The figure was about a quarter million dollars. The call was made as of Dec. 31, 1964. Total assets of the banks, as of that date, were $13,606,748.99.

Total deposits in county banks amounted to $12,281,345.70, as compared to $12,724,425.32 near the end of 1963. This shows a reduction of $443,079.62.

According to the last report, loans and discounts totaled $5,742,418.82. At the close of business in 1963, the figure stood at $5,960,131.74, which showed a reduction in loans and discounts of $217,712.92.

It is estimated that the lateness of harvesting the 1964 cotton crop directly affected the slight decline in the financial picture. The two other factors was the lower price received for cotton and the reduced production from the crop.

J. D. Hudlow Killed In One-Car Crash At Childress

Funeral services for John Doyle Hudlow, 28, were held at 2 p. m. today (Thursday) in the First Baptist Church of Estelline with the Rev. Royce Denton, pastor, officiating.

Mr. Hudlow was killed and two Childress men were injured in a one-car accident one mile east of Childress early Wednesday morning. Injured were Clint Crow, 29, who suffered a fractured skull and left arm, chest and internal injuries, cuts and bruises, and Troy Manuel, who suffered a fractured ankle, a deep head laceration. ### Cyclone To Host Clarendon Friday

Tomorrow night in Cyclone gym, The Cyclone will meet the Bronchos of Clarendon, in one of the important district contests of the season since both teams are undefeated.

"Our work is cut out for us," Coach Milton Miller said. Clarendon has had one non-conference victory over the local team this season.

Next Tuesday, the local squad travels to White Deer for a district encounter.

The Cyclone chalked up its first district victory at Canadian Tuesday night with a 79 to 69 score. Hitting 43 percent, Coach Miller said the offense was good but defense was not up to par.

Jim Odum racked up 28 points and Bobby Carroll 19. Carroll also came up with 17 rebounds while James Waites had 15.

Wellington Tourney
The Cyclone won the first game with Paducah but lost to Wellington and Quail at the Wellington tourney. Jim Odum with 18 points led Memphis to a 68 to 31 victory over Paducah.

Against Wellington, Hoot Jones hit 12 and Odum 11 to be the Cyclone's high in their 67 to 46 defeat. Coach Miller said his squad only hit 26 percent of their shots while Wellington had 43 percent.

In the Quail game, for third place, Quail rolled up 96 points to the Cyclone's 76. It was an offensive battle all the way, Miller said, and they had the best offense. Hoot Jones was the leading scorer for Memphis with 23.

Individual Honors
Hoot Jones was picked on the all tournament team at the Wellington Tournament.

The show will be held at the Community Building, beginning at 8 p. m.

The Merlin show is a colorful, fast-paced performance, using more than a ton of special equipment and presented by a top-notch entertainer who has amused and befuddled audiences for years by, among other things, reading the minds of people right in their own seats in the audience. ### Commissioners Rename Hospital Board Members

The Hall County Commissioners Court met Monday morning for the regular monthly session, and named three reappointments to the Hall County Hospital Board. O. M. Cosby, Jr., R. C. Clements and L. J. Halford were reappointed members of the board by a unanimous vote of the Commissioners Court.

In other business, the court set county salaries at the same figure as last year. A motion was made and seconded to raise the sheriff's office mileage allotment from eight cents to 10 cents, and the Turkey deputy's expense account. The motion vote was split two and two, and the county judge voted negative, against the motion.

A representative from the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance met with the court about starting a group hospitalization plan with county officials. A meeting for all county employees was set for 7:30 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 1, in the County Courtroom to discuss the possibility.

EDITORIAL

A Statement . . . Needs Reply

A statement was made at the Monday night school board meeting here which has much insight into the problems of democratic administration of ourselves, from the local level all the way to the top executive post of our land. And, in due respect to those dedicated public officials, it deserves an answer of some kind or other, especially in light of trying times when things must be done and plans made.

The statement was simple, but to the point: "Before I was elected to the board, people used to discuss with me what was lacking or needed in our schools, but now that I am on the board I hear very little talk, one way or the other." Since the subject was introduced, other board members also expressed the same feelings and made similar observations.

This is not only a problem of school board members here, but all over the country. Also it is a problem of city council members, commissioners, state representatives, and legislators in Washington. Citizens seem to think that elected representatives are to be avoided for some reason or other, and problems should not be discussed for fear of offending, or some other reason. Because of this, our representatives are deprived of the needed information and opinions on which to base their decisions.

Naturally, sometimes representatives receive opinionated, derogatory, illogical, reports founded on nothing but ill-founded rumors, and these are easily recognized for what they are.

Serving in an elected capacity is not an easy job in any sense of the word and dedicated men realize this fact. They want to do the right thing for all or a majority of the citizens.

The Memphis Schools are facing an expansion problem and also a modernization program the need of which was pointed out in the recent report from the accreditation team visit. The board has gone beyond this report and has asked for and received a facilities survey from the Texas Education Agency's consultant architect. Other surveys and studies are being planned before any final plans are drawn by the board and dollar and cents figures attached. This entails hard work and long hours, as does all planning.

Now is the time for all aspects to be considered so that the needs of today and tomorrow may be met in education and in all our public life.

It is a recognized fact, long exploited, that the minds of many are far more superior to the minds of one or two. All sound opinions based on facts are always appreciated by elected officials. Problems before our councils and boards, are not problems of the city or school, but the problems of the citizens residing there. In other words, it is the public's business, and our elected officials need the public's knowledge and support to solve them.

The Best Indication

A strong editorial policy is the best indication of a good newspaper. It matters not whether an individual agrees with what a newspaper says editorially—it does matter a great deal as to whether the reader, through the merism of the editorial, gives consideration and thought to the subject at hand. If he strongly opposes a newspaper's opinion, it is all for the best since it indicates that he has read and considered the subject and has found it to be contrary to his own beliefs. . . . We will never complain because we have accomplished our real purpose—that of causing you to read what we have to say!
—Plain City (Ohio) Advocate

The average housewife might not qualify as a paid performer, yet she is something of a juggler. She does a lot of planning, figuring, and adjusting here and there to do the best she possibly can to provide the best of everything and still stay within the family budget.

The wise homemaker stretches her dollars because she knows where to buy and, often, when to buy. We don't think there is any doubt about the fact the best place to buy is in the local business community. The local merchant builds his business on quality products at fair prices because he wants business tomorrow as well as today.

We also think that the wise homemaker has learned to read the newspaper ads sponsored by local merchants because they often provide the "when" incentive — when items she needs are on sale at special prices.

Have you read the ads in this issue?

What Other Editors Say

Texas Meets Motor Age Challenge

Texas seems convinced that the automobile is here to stay. In 1964 the Lone Star State led the nation in interstate highway construction and in 1965 will have built more miles of the superhighways than any other state except California will build during the entire 15-year program.

The latest tabulations showed that Texas, on Dec. 1, 1964, had 1,372 miles of interstate roads open to traffic. By comparison, California had 854 interstate miles opened by last Oct. 1.

"It may be assumed that in 1965 Texas will have more miles of interstate highways open to traffic than any other state than California will build by 1973," State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer pointed out. "And the Texas Highway Department will have achieved this mark eight years before the scheduled completion date of all the nation's interstate highways."

There will come a day in 1965 when Texas will have opened 1,623 miles of interstate highways, the number that Illinois will have in its entire system. Texas has 3,025 miles of interstate highways planned.

In the first 11 months of 1964, Texas completed 1,053 miles of highways, of which 110 miles were interstate. About 900 miles of farm-to-market roads were completed and 43 miles of new U. S. and state highways were added.

Projected to the world stage the Texas accomplishment takes on even greater magnitude. Britain opened only thirteen and one-half miles of motorway in 1964. Britain now has 307 miles of usable motorway, and work is going on on another 157 miles. But, as the London Observer observes, for a country with more vehicles to each mile of road than any other in the world, Britain's program of 1,000 miles of motorways by the 1970s seems slight. German autobahns already cover 2,000 miles while Italy plans to add another 2,600 to her existing 900 miles of autostrada.—The Houston Post.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Today many Towns are "waking up" to Community Development

Everywhere you go these days you see towns engaged in or planning "community development." These activities range from simple clean-up programs to business modernization, new schools, hospitals, public buildings and recreational facilities as well as commercial and industrial promotion . . . making the towns better places to live, work and play. In 1965 we will run a series of ads which will picture and describe examples of community development now taking place in our service area. This is part of our area development program in which we are dedicating our efforts to assist the towns we serve to grow and progress. Growth-conscious towns are invited to contact their local WTU manager for the services of our area development representatives.

Mrs. Robt. Sexauer Named President Atalantean Club

Election of officers features the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Atalantean Club held in the home of Mrs. Kent Magness, 601 7th Street.

Mrs. Robert Spicer conducted the business session. Following the report of the nominating committee, given by Mrs. H. B. Estes, the slate of officers elected for the coming year were:

Mrs. Robert Sexauer, president; Mrs. Milton Beasley, vice president; Mrs. W. R. Scott, second vice president; Mrs. Glynn Thompson, secretary; Mrs. K. B. Chick, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. C. Martin, treasurer; Mrs. Eddie Foxhall, parliamentarian; Mrs. Waller Diggs, historian, and Mrs. Kent Magness, reporter.

Mrs. Robert Sexauer, program chairman, introduced the program, "Knowledge of Religion's Anchor in Life."

Mrs. Roy Jewell brought interesting facts in Religion in Political Life, saying that it is a pity that religion which should be the thing closest to the heart and soul of man comes to be used so often as a political ring in the nose of its followers, making it possible for men of dubious motivations to lead them where they want them to go. Many examples of this use of religion is in the world today.

Mrs. Jewell also discussed, "Religion in Inner Life." She said it is evident that you and I must make adjustments to the pleasure and anxiety of the Space Age.

The teaching in the ancient scriptures help as we explore our inner-selves.

Mrs. Cecil McCollum discussed "Religion in Social and Daily Life."

She said that one symbol of religion may be expressed by the atmosphere or mood of their worship—the altar, the cross, the candles, the stained glass windows, the silent sanctuary before the service begins, but whether in cathedral or cottage the true art of religion is daily awareness of the presence of God. The purpose of life is to live each day fully, and to live it to the end. We must accept God's challenge to strive for health, peace and wholeness of body, mind and spirit. We must accept God's laws, she concluded.

The club was happy to have a former member of the club, Mrs. Fred Byerly of Post, as a guest.

Enjoying the social hour and delicious refreshments were Mes. Milton Beasley, K. B. Chick, Waller Diggs, Bob Douthit, H. B. Estes, N. A. Hightower, Roy Jewell, Claud Johnson, L. C. Martin, Cecil McCollum, W. R. Scott, Robert Sexauer, Robert Spicer, Glynn Thompson, J. A. Odom, Miss Imogene King; one guest, Mrs. Byerly of Post and hostesses, Mrs. Magness.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

(Editor's Note: The following letter was written by Anita Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Green of Turkey, who is dedicating her life to mission work in Bolivia. Her letter is as follows:)

Riberalta, Beni
Bolivia
January 3rd, 1965

I have received many nice cards from Turkey-folk and feel a little guilty about not sending Christmas cards this year—only sent a few left-over ones since I forgot to order any!

Perhaps you could share this letter with everybody if you give it to the paper.

This past week we've spent entertaining guests and sharing our beautiful Christmas decorations here in the convent.

The Hospital employees came over in small groups, sang carols, O'nd and A'wd over our big lighted Christmas tree (they just can't believe that we chopped it down and that it can't be planted again) and enjoyed Christmas cookies, gingerbread men, and pink lemonade. We also played some good Christmas records—"Christmas in Italy" was their favorite.

We had several little children in the hospital for Christmas, and they received gifts and enjoyed the small tree and especially the colored lights and the big lighted that Joe Honerkamp made to hang over the nativity scene in the corridor.

The aides made crib scenes for all the rooms and the men employees built a big palm-roofed life-size nativity scene out on the front lawn and all of Riberalta's population came to see it, it seems. One visitor remarked, "I've never seen so many stables."

Two of our children patients are in casts. One little girl stepped in a trap set for animals, and the gun shot through her leg. One little boy fell from a fruit tree and has a broken leg, broken arm, and broken nose, no less.

Did I tell you that Barbara Maguayo went home Christmas day—the little 2-month-old-premature that had learned to smile—hope she survived her first river trip and survives in her river home.

There are several families of German descent living here—many of the businessmen in fact—and we invited a group of the "German ladies" to see our tree. One of them sang "Silent Night" in German for us, and it was really beautiful. They also brought us some German cookies. The parents still speak German, but the children always speak Spanish.

It's the big tradition here to have a big roasted stuffed pig for 12 midnight—New Year's Eve, and it's the unusual family that does not gather around the family table at this time.

Of course, we departed from this tradition and had our New Year's meal at 2:00 in the afternoon.

Dr. Vaca Diez—from one of the first Spanish families to settle here—in fact this province was named for his grandfather—sent

Turkey-Matador Split District Contest Games

The Turkey Turks and Turkettes continued district play Tuesday night against the two teams from Matador. When the night was over, the schools had split games.

In the first game, the Turkettes took a four-point lead in the first quarter and led at halftime 19 to 14. The same margin existed at the end of the third period of play and the Turkey girls went on to win the game 38 to 31. Karen Arnold of Turkey was high point with 17 while Shelley Stevens had 10 for Matador.

In the boys game, the Matador Matadors won the contest 62 to 41, but not without a fight. Trailing behind Turkey seven points at the end of the first quarter, the Matadors held a one-point advantage at halftime. Harvey Case with 12 points was high for Turkey while Richard Campbell with 26 was Matador's high.

Jayton Tournay

The Turks and Turkettes were defeated by Old Glory, who went on to win the tournament by 15 points. They then played for third place Saturday in the finals, and won over Roaring Springs 46 to 32. Karen Arnold scored 26 points and Gayle Lane and Sheri Hill were top rebounding guards.

The Turks were downed by Guthrie in the first game by 12 points. Saturday in third place finals, the Turks were behind 10 points at halftime and came back to win the contest by 10 points. Jacky Young was high point with 18 points and Roy Stephens was second high with 16.

The two Turkey teams were proud to bring home the two third place trophies. Jayton boys won first place over Guthrie.

CHEVROLET—As roomy a car as Chevrolet's ever built. Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe

When you take in everything, there's more room inside this car than in any Chevrolet as far back as they go. It's wider this year and the attractively curved windows help to give you more shoulder room. The engine's been moved forward to give you more foot room. So, besides the way a '65 Chevrolet looks and rides, we now have one more reason to ask you: What do you get by paying more for a car—except bigger monthly payments?

CORVAIR—The only rear engine American car made.

You should read what the automotive magazines say about the '65 Corvair. They're wild about its ride. They think there's nothing else this side of the Atlantic that can touch its styling. They say if you haven't driven a new Corvair Corsa with a 180-hp Six Turbo-Chargaarged! you just don't know what you're missing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Adamson, Jr. Hold Open House At Turkey Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Adamson, Jr., and their two sons, Rex and Rod, were hosts to their friends and relatives in their home Sunday with open house from 2 until 5 p. m.

The new white brick home is located in northeast Turkey on Denver Ave., west of J. R.'s parents' home.

Facing to the south, the large spacious home features elegance as its keynote, livability as the prime requirement, and beauty a prerequisite.

Entering the house, a large door opens into a tiled entry hall. Located to the left of the entry is the formal living room with large south windows. Continuing straight ahead from the entry is a large paneled den with massive wood burning fireplace, built-in bookcase and T.V. The woodwork throughout both the den and kitchen are of tony birch finish. There are three bedrooms and two and a half baths. Added to this is the perfect performance of a year-round air-conditioning, heating and cooling system, a washer and dryer with large spacious closet room.

Mr. Adamson is the Elementary Grade School Principal at Turkey. Mrs. Adamson is a substitute teacher of the Turkey school system and works part time at the Ferguson Insurance office.

Several friends of the family assisted with the serving of the guests as they called. They were Mrs. Eugene Ferguson, Mrs. Darwin Scott, Mrs. Byron Young and Mrs. Clifton Jones. The Adamsons were free to greet the guests and take them on the tour about their new home.

Sure.

You might find another car as new as the Delta 88.

But not this year.

This is Oldsmobile's Delta 88. It's unique. Unique because it's new. New clear through.

Styling is new. So new, not a line nor a highlight was borrowed from last year.

Power plant is new. Super Rocket V-8 is the biggest in Olds history: 425-cubic-inches big, up to 370-horses strong.

Transmission is new, too. Turbo Hydra-Matic, available on any Delta 88, provides up to 40% more torque from a standing start, superlative performance at all speeds.

New styling. New engine. New transmission. This year, only Delta 88 lets you have all three, all new. Other cars have a lot of catching up to do.

Methodist WSCS Meets For Study In Brown Home

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met Jan. 11 at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Lee Brown.

After a brief business session, the leader, Mrs. R. S. Greene, gave an inspiring introductory thoughts for the program, entitled "The Life Within." She stated that God in the form of Christ calls us to "fellowship" of a person which involves our will, our sense of value, our daily decisions and, above all, our confession that Jesus is Savior.

Mrs. J. J. McDaniel presented in an interesting manner the four sources of Christian spiritual renewal: the chief corner stone of faith, Jesus Christ, the word of God as he speaks through the Bible, the practice of His presence through prayer and worship, and the discipline of daily living.

Mrs. F. W. Foxhall discussed the request of the Greeks in the New Testament who said, "We would see Jesus." Today our request goes deeper, "we would experience Him," for it is in "looking to Jesus" that we find God with us and in finding Him we find power for living.

Mrs. Ed Hutcherson gave an impressionistic description of the Bible as God's word and hearing the word. "As you read, ask yourself this question, 'what does it say to me?' Some mystery will always remain, yet the Bible can teach us much more than any other book ever written about God and man, our duty and our destiny. To neglect this source of light is folly and defeat," she said.

Mrs. Greene led the group in closing prayer. The hostess served delicious refreshments to the above mentioned and the following: Meses. J. W. Oliver, Jesse Baker, W. F. McElreath, Bess Crump, W. J. McMaster, M. G. Tarver, Myrtis Phelan and D. A. Neeley.

BEST SHEEP—Lynn Knox of Estelline entered both the grand and reserve champion sheep in the Hall County Show. The animals were among 11 entered. Pictured with Lynn holding the reserve champion is his little brother. In the background holding trophies is Vo.-Ag. teacher T. H. Seay of Estelline.

Sybil Gurley To Head Woman's Culture Club

The Woman's Culture Club met Jan. 6 at 4 p. m. in the home of Mrs. R. E. Clark.

The program, "Safety," was introduced by Mrs. Nat Bradley with the quotation, "Responsibility walks hand in hand with capacity and power." Mrs. L. A. Stilwell gave "Careless Driving" and "Safety-Lighting."

Roll call was "How many times have the cops stopped you?" During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Ellis, the following officers were elected for the next club year: Miss Sybil Gurley, president; Mrs. Bert Glascock, first vice president; Mrs. Grover Moss, second vice president; Mrs. Theodore Swift, secretary; Mrs. Robert Moss, treasurer; Mrs. R. E. Clark, parliamentarian; and Miss Alma Bruce, reporter.

The hostess served dainty refreshments to the members: Meses. Guy Cox, Ward Gurley, Bert Glascock, G. T. Moss, Frank Ellis, Nat Bradley, Robert Moss, L. A. Stilwell; Misses Alma Bruce and Sybil Gurley; and a visitor, Cindy Bell.

School Board Announces Accreditation Findings

The Memphis School Board Monday night made public the report concerning the accreditation visit to the Memphis Public Schools by the Texas Education Agency, along with the final comments which were received this month.

Superintendent of Schools Shannon Doss, in an effort to condense the lengthy report, pointed out several important passages for publication which should concern citizens of the Memphis district.

The following is a summation of the report concerning the most damaging violations of accreditation standards in the white schools as listed in the final comments letter:

1. Neglect of adequate maintenance and modernization of instructional quarters, particularly seasonal maintenance work such as painting, woodwork repairs, and replacement or repair of plumbing, heating and lighting equipment, and continued dependence upon obsolete and inadequate buildings.

2. Failure to replace obsolete classroom furniture and particularly instructional facilities such

3. Failure to meet accreditation standards for teacher loads in grades one and two, and standards for "electives" in grades seven and eight.

4. Failures to make adequate provision for instructional supervision and development by principals or other personnel.

5. Inadequate library program, and specifically, the lack of books, library materials, and quarters for Memphis High School, and books and materials for elementary grades.

Accreditation Visit

Morningside School: This school is located in the eastern section of town. From the outside, buildings look presentable and the whole school area is surrounded by a six-foot metal fence.

Morningside School has 271 students with nine teachers. The following substandard conditions were noted:

1. Repairs in the school appear to have gone undone. Some ceiling material is loose. General repair has not been done for several years.

2. Artificial lighting is poor.

3. Open gas heaters with no vents create a health hazard.

4. Poor citizenship is evidenced by carving and writing on desks.

5. One boys' and one girls' restrooms serve this school, both are small and in poor condition.

6. The school is overcrowded.

7. This school's few library books, which appeared to be cast-off odds and ends, were locked in a separate room.

8. The high school has no science facilities, not even a portable laboratory.

9. No teachers were hired from local funds for this school. Few teaching aids were available.

10. No curriculum guides have been developed.

11. There was no evidence of a counseling and guidance program.

12. The curriculum contains no vocational units.

13. There is no organized physical education or health education program in this school.

14. There is a serious lack of instructional aids such as maps, globes and charts.

Other Miscellaneous Comments

Jr. High: No provisions had been made for a science laboratory. Seventh and eighth grade students take English, social studies, mathematics, science, and Band. The only elective is Band. Students not taking band are sent to study hall. Accreditation standards for electives for seventh and eighth grades are not being met. In physical education, accreditation standards are being met for girls, while those for boys are not. Boys who are capable take sports in lieu of physical education. In the junior high, school teachers were working diligently; however, the drab building and the lack of appropriate teaching aids make it difficult to carry out an effective instructional program.

The junior high library is a room across from the principal's office where some old books were being stored.

High School: Maintenance and upkeep in the high school, the gymnasium, the agriculture building, and the band hall is poor. There is little evidence that the school plant has been changed to meet the needs of today. Library facilities were not adequate. Space lighting, and other features of the library were not conducive to the development of an adequate library program. Student lockers in the halls were wooden 12"x12" cubbyholes without doors. In the home-making department the kitchen area is inadequate. Equipment appears to be as old as the building itself. The agriculture classroom and shop were in fair condition. Teaching aids and instructional devices were too limited for an effective instructional program in most subjects. Good teaching was observed. It is noted that the quality of facilities for football bear no resemblance to other high school facilities. The field, fences, stands, dressing rooms, press rooms, and all items connected with football appear to be in very good condition. This has been done by individual citizens and groups in the community.

Superintendent Doss stated the Travis and Austin Elementary Schools received acceptable comments as a whole, however, it was encouraged that more maintenance and face lifting is called for and that more coordinations between the programs were encouraged. This would result in a continuity of instructing among sections of the same grade, between grade levels, and between separate campus units.

Supt. Doss said plans are being

Hall County District News Soil Conservation

Two cooperators with the Hall County Conservation District have recently signed Great Plains Conservation Program contracts. These contracts were developed with the assistance of your local Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the Hall County Soil Conservation District.

Under the Great Plains Conservation Program, Mrs. E. T. Prater plans to reorganize the terrace system and convert some land to permanent grass. Mrs. Prater plans to construct parallel terraces where possible and use conventional terraces on other fields. Her contract also calls for carrying out a complete conservation plan on all of her land.

Clyde Lee plans to construct parallel terraces on part of the farm that operates six miles southwest of Memphis. This will be cost-shared under the Great Plains Conservation Program contract which he signed recently. This is a part of a complete soil and water conservation plan worked out for his farm. The Great Plains Conservation Program is a voluntary conservation plan, based on the soil, the plant conditions, available water and the needs of the farmer or rancher.

A farmer or rancher can get up to an average of $2000 in cost-share payments on his farm or ranch as the maximum 10. The practices is based on what the producer feels that he can do each year. All practices are completed in one year over a period of 10 years.

Tom Salem of Turkey was in Canadian Tuesday to attend funeral services of his uncle, Nahim Abraham, a pioneer in the dry goods business in the Panhandle.

Mr. Abraham died Sunday morning following a heart attack while attending church service. Born in Kafracab, Lebanon, Mr. Abraham came to the United States at the age of 16. In 1912, he and two brothers, Jacob and George, opened the Abraham Bros. Dry Goods store in Amarillo. In August 1913, Mr. Abraham moved his business to Canadian, opening the Fair. Mr. Abraham retired in 1955 after selling the Fair to his son, Tom. His motto as a salesman was: "You can't do business from a half-empty store."

The Abrahams were instrumental in building a $30,000 convalescent home which recently opened in Canadian. The family donated $70,000 and the land for the home. The Edward Abraham Memorial Home was named in honor of his son who died in 1961 while leading a fund raising drive for its establishment.

Mrs. B. Ballinger Tells Of California Flood

Mrs. J. R. Nall of Turkey received a letter from her daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Bob Ballinger and children, who live in the recent flooded area in California. Their home is at Fortuna, Calif. Following are excerpts from her letter in her own words. "Yesterday the sun came out for the first time in 22 days, believe me it was most welcome. Today it is not shining but it is not raining."

It is hard to explain the way things are in this area. Even those of us whose homes and businesses were not damaged in the flood have been and will be very much affected. We almost feel guilty because our homes are not damaged. I cannot begin to tell you about the damage. This is one time that the newspapers did not exaggerate the situation. We do not like the idea of being completely isolated. The only way in or out of the county is by air or by sea. They think it will be 90 days or more before we can even go one lane traffic to San Francisco. Freight is coming in by air and by sea so we do not have any worries about things not coming in to us. Since our school is a Union High School, the children who live in Rio Dell and south of there from bridgeville to the east, etc., were "air lifted" to Fortuna last Sunday and they are staying with families in Fortuna in order to attend school. You see all the bridges are out so we cannot get to Scotia or Rio Dell. The airplanes land on the freeway in Scotia to get the kids and bring them to Rohnerville Airport. We will keep some youngsters next week.

You cannot begin to imagine the debris that is on the farms and other places. There are about 2500 dead cows in our area. That is presenting a health hazard. They are burying cows on the beach and anywhere else that they can find. I could write and write and not tell it all. Many lives have been lost. Indeed, this is the worst disaster that I have ever seen, and hope that I never see another one. We thought the 1955 flood was a bad one, but it was nothing compared to this one. They say the worst in 1000 years.

But things will go on. We will indeed be a depressed area for a while and things will not hum like they were, but we have a great deal to be thankful for."

The Panthers defeated Wellington 29-23, and defeated Quanah with a score of 14-11, but lost to Paducah who took the championship in the girls division.

CALLY SPEAKING

An old saying, "Politics are bedfellows." The statement has certain validity by the recent actions of the Democratic and Republican Parties in the House of Representatives. The punished two of their or failure to support the and Vice Presidential in the last election, and the nominees of the Republican Party. On the other hand, the Republican Party to their Leader in the Representatives in spite of that he had been one of the most vigorous supporters of the public nominees for and Vice President. It is a situation where all pretty well stripped of rights with regard to assignments. Seniority at importance to every of Congress, hence the is a substantial blow. Reports indicate that the Party had a number of members among the Members of Representatives. no discussion as to punish these defectors for party; on the contrary, some talk that they, the leaders of the new of the Republican Party. It is up, it would appear two Democratic defectors of seniority because they party, and the Republican stripped of his power though he vigorously the party nominees, are ne political bed—out their own parties for reverse reasons, but bedfellows nevertheless. I do not presume to pass on the actions of the n Party or its Members use of Representatives. I do not occupy the tion with regard to the ic Party. I vigorously dish the action of the Democratic Caucus in punishing John Bell Williams and Albert Watson. I do not agree with what these two men did, but I would forever defend their right to do it. Whether or not they should be punished should depend entirely upon the law and the rules applicable at the time the action was taken. The Constitution of the United States in Section 9 contains the following proviso: "No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed." It is undeniable that there were no rules or requirements in the Democratic Party applicable to Members of Congress that if they failed to support the Presidential and Vice Presidential nominees of the Party that they should receive certain punishment. Hence the infliction of the punishment upon John Bell Williams and Albert Watson was in violation of the Constitution.

It might also be pointed out that the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States provides as follows: "Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted." A basic principle and belief of our people has always been "equal justice under the law." In the case of Williams and Watson, both the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution and the basic principle of the equality of justice were violated. John Bell Williams had been a Member of Congress for 18 years and had followed the rules which made him, because of seniority, the number two man on the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. He was next in line to become chairman of this, the oldest committee in the history of Congress. Albert Watson of South Carolina is a new Member of Congress, relatively speaking, and had acquired only the seniority of one term. Nevertheless, the same punishment was inflicted upon both men. John Bell Williams was stripped of seniority that had taken 18 years to build up. Albert Watson was stripped of seniority of only two years' duration. This punishment was inflicted on both of these men for the same identical offense. Hence, mathematically speaking, Williams was required to pay a penalty nine times greater than the penalty paid by Watson. Morally speaking, the action against these men was unjustified, because the same identical offense with which Williams and Watson were charged had been committed a number of times in recent years and had gone unpunished and without any effort to challenge the offenders, or to write a rule prohibiting such defections.

It is my studied opinion that the grievous wrong committed should be corrected before this session of the Congress gets further under way.

The Fair

PHARMACY—part of your health team

It is not by chance that your pharmacist has the proper drug ready for you when your physician prescribes it. The American people today enjoy a level of health far higher than ever before, and a large part of it may be attributed to the dramatic advances made by the "health team": pharmacist, physician and prescription drug manufacturer.

We call the complex process by which a drug moves from manufacturer to patient "the miracle of drug distribution." The teamwork of prescription drug manufacturer, drug wholesaler and pharmacist assures that you will receive the medicine you need. This miracle of drug distribution—the fact that the medicine you need is in your community pharmacy when you need it—is just one reason why prescriptions are today's best bargains.
