Turkey Turks To Host Rochester In Important District 6-B Game Friday

The Turkey Turks, with one hurdle out of their way with the 22 to 12 victory over Rule last Friday, will play host to the second big team in District 6-B, the Rochester Steers.

Game time at Turkey Stadium will be at 7:30 p. m. and a real fine ball game is in the making. Coach Bob Barnhill's Turks, if they can win this game, will be sitting in the drivers seat of District 6-B when they play host to the visiting Matador Matadors next weekend.

But the Steers of Rochester also have eyes on the district title after their 14 to 0 shutout with Matador last week.

Coach Troy Gauntt is a veteran of football campaigns and his Steers, quarterbacked by Tommy Holmes, pose a real threat to the Turks.

This is also a real close ranked game as Turkey shot up to the Class B fifth place and Rochester is in the sixth place in Panhandle teams. This is one game where a favorite would be hard to select.

At Rule last Friday night, the favored Bobcats lost two fumbles to the Turks in the first half and recovered a Turkey fumble, sitting up first half scores.

Scoring first was Rule's Paul Cornelius but the Bobcats failed on their extra point try.

Turkey came back and Barry Lane carried in from two yards out for a score. He added two more points and the score was 8 to 6.

In the second quarter, Lane again scored from the 8-yard line. He added two more points and the halftime score was 16 to 6.

Turkey scored again in the third quarter, with Russel Barnhill carrying over from the 1-yard line. A run for points failed.

Rule came back in the final period of play and passed a touchdown across, but the game ended with Turkey winning an upset victory.

Matador was a slight favorite to beat Rochester but the Steers had too much offense for the Matadors. Rochester made 18 first downs and picked up a total of 377 yards rushing.

The Turkey-Rochester game at Turkey promises to be a real Class B thriller with the District 6-B championship hanging in the balance.

Funeral Services For Jack Gilbert Held Sunday

Funeral services for Jack Gilbert, 51, of 719 N. 14th, a Memphis resident 45 years, were held at 3 p. m. Sunday in Spicer Funeral Home Chapel.

Officiating was Tom Anderson, minister of the Church of Christ. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery.

Born Nov. 8, 1913, in Grayson County, Mr. Gilbert died Friday night in a Wichita Falls hospital. A retired laborer, he had formerly worked for the Memphis Compress.

He moved to Memphis in 1920, and was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include his brother, Oris of Memphis and O. M. of Ranger, and sisters, Mrs. Aline McBride of Roseville, Calif., and Mrs. M. L. Bartley of Lubbock.

Cyclone Goes To White Deer Fri.

The Memphis Cyclone will travel to White Deer Friday night for the final game of the 1965 football season.

The Bucks of White Deer are presently ranked the No. 5 team in the State in Class A and the No. 1 team in the Texas Panhandle.

The Cyclone is the No. 10 ranked team in the Panhandle this week, maintaining the ranking despite the 22-21 loss to Clarendon last Friday night.

Game time at White Deer is 7:30 p. m.

"Most of the coaches in District 2-A feel that White Deer can win the State Championship for they have a fine ball club," Coach Charley Chambless said.

White Deer has already won the right to represent District 2-A in a Bi-District game with Gruver despite the outcome of the Cyclone-Bucks game Friday. If Memphis should win the contest and Wellington should beat Clarendon then Wellington would share co-championship honors with White Deer but the Bucks would still represent the District.

White Deer's most outstanding football players are Charles Smith, an all-state tackle last year, a 195-lb. boy; Vernon Marler, 190-lb. fullback, who was also listed on an all-state team.

Randy Elliott, 150-lb. back, is their most dangerous running back and one of the key reasons for White Deer's high scoring all season.

The Bucks are headed by Phil Hart, a fine passing quarterback, whose favorite targets are Monty Hawpe, 195-lb. 6-4 end, and Randy Elliott.

The defensive line is big and strong with tackles Johnny Moon-ey, 6-4, 220; and Danny Lane, 245 pounds. Linebackers are

Smith and Marlar.

The Cyclone will be without the services of End Lorenzo Graves, while End Clyde Wilson will be hampered with an ankle injury. Team Captain Mike Nabers will be back in the lineup.

Coach Chambless said the Cyclone will face the toughest game of the season and it will be the last football game in the High School careers for nine seniors.

Cyclone seniors include Mike Liner, Mike Nabers, Gilbert Devorce, William McFall, Jerry Moss, Mike Pounds, Timothy Sparks, Jessie Murdock, and Danny Peters.

Estelline Bears To Play For 5-B Championship

The Estelline Bears, under Coach Jimmie Don Adams, with an unspoiled record in District 5-B (eight-man) football, will play for the district championship Friday night at Estelline.

Kickoff time is 7:30 p. m., and the crucial test over who will represent District 5-B will be on the line.

The Bears already have a co-championship cinched despite the outcome tomorrow night, but if the team does not win the contest, the Morse Mustangs, who have lost only one district game, could represent the district.

Morse last week trimmed Bula 54 to 28 in a non-district contest, so the Mustangs are a real threat.

The completely new $272,000 Hedley School Building will be open to public display at 7 p. m. Monday, Nov. 15, at open house, Superintendent of Schools R. K. Sams announced this week.

The general public is cordially invited to the open house which will begin with a special program at 7 p. m. in the new cafeteria which will feature special speakers, and entertainment. Following the program tours of the entire school plant will be conducted.

The 185 students and the 11 faculty members of the school moved into the new facilities on Sept. 28.

The new building was constructed under a contract let to Trout Construction Company on Jan. 27, 1965. The contract was for $257,000. A bond issue was passed in the Hedley District for $275,000 to build the new plant in August, 1964.

The building contains a complete gymnasium with seating capacity for 500 persons and four dressing rooms with shower facilities; a cafeteria-auditorium with stage (seating capacity 250 with 125 as a cafeteria); eight classrooms; home economics department; study hall and library combination; science laboratory; tax office; teachers workroom; principal's and superintendent's offices and book room, plus vault and rest room facilities.

Supt. Sams said during the opening house, the trophy bookcase in the corridor outside the gymnasium would be dedicated in memory of M. C. Allen. The plaque to be placed on the bookcase reads: "In memory of M. C. Allen, who was dedicated to the development of education and youth."

Informational meetings are being held throughout the county to inform farmers on the general provisions of the new farm program, Lynn L. McKown, Hall County ASCS Office Manager, announced today.

A farm program meeting will be held tonight, Thursday, Nov. 11, in the school building at Estelline. A meeting will be held on Monday night, Nov. 15, at the school building at Lakeview, sponsored by the Young Farmers, and the final meeting will be held in the county courtroom at Memphis on Tuesday night, Nov. 16.

All meetings will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Meetings Set To Outline New Farm Program

HEDLEY SCHOOL—Pictured above is the new Hedley School building which will be shown at an Open House beginning at 7 p. m. Monday, Nov. 15. The L shaped brick building contains 2,500 sq. ft. and is 227 ft. long and 172 feet wide. Superintendent of Hedley Schools R. K. Sams invited all to attend the open house. A special program will be held at 7 p. m. in the cafeteria and then tours of the entire building will be conducted.

Information Given On Food, Agriculture Act

Food and Agriculture Act marks a basic shift in policies which have guided us during the past 30 years. L. Gresham, Chairman of the County ASCS Committee, said today.

The act will improve farm income, assure abundant food at prices reasonable for the consumer, and provide an ample program to meet domestic and export needs. It will continue to build-up of wheat and surplus. It will bring production more nearly in line with needs and move toward the large cotton program.

The act provides for a 10 percent increase in the price of wheat, and a 10 percent increase in the price of cotton.

The act provides for a 10 percent increase in the price of wheat, and a 10 percent increase in the price of cotton.

Memphis Lions Partake Light Campaign

Memphis Lions Club is in the midst of a light campaign as part of their project. Profits from the sale of the bulbs will go to the Lions Club activities.

Orville Goodpasture, who has a house-to-house campaign, will be held soon. All who desire a sack of light bulbs for $2, should contact Campbell, chairman.

Cotton Quota Vote Set For Nov. 23

County farmers will vote on Nov. 23, in the annual Cotton Quota Referendum on the cotton crop; also, on the referendum to permit the transfer of allotments out of the county.

The referendum is being held on the countywide basis. Roy L. Gresham, Chairman of the Hall County Cotton Quota Referendum Committee, announced today.

The community committee will be responsible for the referendum in the respective communities on the following places are as follows:

Paymaster Gin Office, Lesley Co-Op Gin Office, L. Martain, chairman.

Bar of First National Bank, W. O. Clark, chairman, Farmers Union Co-Op Office, Worth V. Howard, chairman.

ASCS Office, Milton, chairman, Estelline Co-Op Gin Office, A. Eddleman, chairman.

City Hall, Bobby L. chairman. Chairman said that the ballot choices are:

At least two-thirds of the voters in the referendum to increase the quotas, the quotas in effect for the 1966 upland cotton crop, and marketing program will be available to farmers who reduce their cotton acreage at least 12.5 percent below the effective farm allotment, put the diverted acreage into a conserving use, and meet other provisions. Benefits will include loans, and price-support and diversion payments. Growers who elect not to participate in the reduction program may apply for a share of the export market acreage reserve and produce for export only, without Government subsidy or marketing quota penalties.

2. On the other hand, if more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1966 upland cotton crop, no "domestic allotment" program providing for price-support and diversion payments, and no export market acreage reserve. Price support to farmers who do not exceed their acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law. Acreage allotments will remain in effect as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support.

Lease or sale of cotton allotments is provided under certain conditions, and the Nov. 23 referendum will also decide whether growers wish to permit such transfers outside the particular county but within the State. The outcome of the marketing quota referendum, however, will have no effect on the lease or sale of allotments.

of their 1966 wheat allotment.

The minimum diversion on wheat for 1966 is 15 percent which has been deducted from the 1966 allotment and the maximum diversion to a conservation use will be 50 percent of present allotment.

Commissioners Court Meets Here Monday

The Hall County Commissioners Court met Monday in regular session for the November meeting.

One of the items of business handled was the canvassing of tabulations of the special election on the 10 constitutional amendments. The Court found the count to be accurate.

Commissioner from Precinct No. 1, Edd Hutcherson, gave a report to the Court on the amount of money his precinct had spent on right-of-way easements on Highway 287 projects since 1958.

"Our precinct has paid a total of $46,416 in right-of-way easements which was matched just about the same amount from the State of Texas on a 50-50 percent share program," Hutcherson said.

He explained that in all, the precinct and state have paid out approximately $92,000 and there are still about $4,000 yet to be paid awaiting proper paper work.

Commissioner Hutcherson explained that the money to pay the precinct's share of right-of-way easements on U. S. Highway 287, which is being enlarged to handle four-lane divided highway traffic, was made through doing terracing work on private land for which the precinct was paid.

Hutcherson also reported that all easements in his precinct required on Highway 287 have now been purchased and with the exception of the $4,000, paid for in full.

County Judge E. (Gip) McMurry said that very few counties in the state could finance an easement program this large without floating a bond issue and raise taxes. "Mr. Hutcherson has done a fine job," Judge McMurry said.

The Court accepted monthly reports and paid the bills.

Judge McMurry reported on the repair of the Courthouse and the outside work, and the repainting of the third and second floors was completed. Work is continuing on the remainder of the Courthouse.

The grant of $24,838 was made to the Service of which Dr. Stevenson and Dr. Jack Fox of Childress are co-chairmen, under the Anti-Poverty Program.

The money, if the Service qualifies for it, will be used to hire a Sanitarian and a Public Health Nurse in Hall and in Childress Counties for the purpose of inspecting and teaching sanitation in migratory workers' camps and to help with the health problems, Dr. Stevenson explained.

Dr. Stevenson said he was notified of the grant in a letter from the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare Wednesday morning, and there are many details to be worked out before the project could be put into operation.

The Lakeview Young and Adult Farmers will meet at 7 p. m. Monday, Nov. 15, in the Lakeview School Auditorium. It was announced this week.

Lynn L. McKown, Hall County ASCS Office Manager, will give the program and he will discuss the provisions of the new farm program.

Refreshments will be served and all interested members and the general public is invited, Sponsor Barney Bevers said.

Federal Grant For Two-County Project Announced

In a telegram received by The Democrat last weekend, U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough stated: "Am notified by Department of Health, Education and Welfare of a grant of $24,838 to the Greenbelt and Educational Health Services for migratory workers and their families."

In an interview with Hall County Health Officer, Dr. H. R. Stevenson, yesterday, the Greenbelt and Educational Health Services project was explained in detail.

The project was begun, and is being sponsored and run by the Greenbelt Medical Society, and is the first of its kind in the United States, Dr. Stevenson said.

The grant of $24,838 was made to the Service of which Dr. Stevenson and Dr. Jack Fox of Childress are co-chairmen, under the Anti-Poverty Program.

The money, if the Service qualifies for it, will be used to hire a Sanitarian and a Public Health Nurse in Hall and in Childress Counties for the purpose of inspecting and teaching sanitation in migratory workers' camps and to help with the health problems, Dr. Stevenson explained.

Federal Funds To Be Spent Here!

Hall County will be in on two programs whereby federal funds will be used to further develop certain segments of our population. The projects need a certain amount of explanation to citizens for proper understanding.

First, U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough notified this newspaper last weekend in a telegram that the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved a grant of $24,838 to the Greenbelt and Educational Health Services, an organization sponsored by the Greenbelt Medical Society with Doctors Jack Fox of Childress and H. R. Stevenson of Memphis, co-chairmen.

This money, part of the Anti-Poverty Program, will be spent in Hall and Childress Counties to setup sanitation and health services for migratory workers and their families, the co-chairmen explained. Dr. Stevenson said that the money would be used for a Sanitarian and County Health Nurse salaries in the two counties.

The other project is the school programs for educationally deprived children, Title I, Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The four Hall County School Districts are eligible for $91,253 to expand and improve elementary and secondary school programs for educationally deprived children in low-income areas. The Memphis District is eligible for approximately $45,000 and the Lakeview District $29,000 with the remaining $16,000 for the Estelline and Turkey Districts.

School Officials explained that the individual districts must qualify for these grants before they can receive the money with projects above and beyond any present programs being offered by the districts.

The Title I program has been appropriated for the year ending June 30, 1966, $775 million for the entire United States. The program will be in effect for three years ending June 30, 1968.

It can readily be seen that the Anti-Poverty Program is reaching into Hall County as both projects listed above are parts of this overall program. The complexity of the programs are too great to be explained in any one editorial but the trend is established.

Be Proud To Live In Memphis

Much has happened in other towns and cities of this nation which can be labeled "civil disobedience." This has not been the case in Memphis or in any place in this part of the nation. Fundamentally, residents of this area have the respect for law and due process. Citizens are aware of the benefits of a free society which respects the fundamentals of each individual's rights.

Local problems resolve around the destruction by vandalism, and the age-old desire of certain individuals to break and enter for the purpose of stealing. This is being met by law enforcement officials in American way, and by individual citizens who are damaged, and who are ready to file charges—and back up the charges.

Along with this responsibility as private citizens, is the inherent desire to cooperate with those upon whose shoulders rests the enforcement of our laws. The arresting officer, the prosecuting attorney and the court deserves the cooperation of everyone in this drive to have respect for law and the due process. The goal is to get dispassionate justice.

Contempt for law and order must be met head-on. It will prevent a misdemeanor charge today, which, in the future might well be a felony.

Recognize the good which dominates the citizens of this city and this area, and be ever ready to aid in showing those who are disobedient the error of their ways. When a crime is committed, stand ready, if summoned, to serve on a jury. This is the way to aid in the American way of living in the greatest society which the mind of man has ever created.

TELL AN EXPERT

You can usually tell an expert by the manner in which he approaches his appointed task. If the thing that needs doing is somewhat important, why settle for less than the best?

If you have need for a particular product or service, don't just take your business to anybody. You're taking a chance if you do. Find your own expert. It's not a difficult thing to do.

Experience and reputation are two yardsticks for measuring expertness. If a man does an expert job, and does it continuously, satisfied customers will attest to his reliability.

Whatever your individual needs, look first to the local business community. Experts in many fields have been serving your friends and neighbors. They're anxious to do the same for you.

And, when you do business locally, tell folks we suggested that you do so. They're our friends too.

ACROSS the DESK What Other Editors Say

A Young Country

One thing Americans must never forget is that the United States is a young country, culturally, and that we still have a lot to learn about living and the philosophy of living.

We have considerable material wealth, supposedly the highest standard of living in the world, as measured by currency standards, and are strong and proud as a nation.

But our way of life must yet be refined so that we, as a nation, can boast of culture and a rewarding way of life that we have developed. The mad rush for the dollar, with men dying off at a rapid rate after killing themselves in the competitive battle, by age forty or fifty, is a sad commentary on the American system.

The lack of appreciation of good music and art in so many of our communities, and the tendency of many to view as affected anything not common or average, are indications of self-satisfaction and complacency.

The abdication of his responsibilities by the father in American homes, as he chases after the almighty dollar, has led to a serious breakdown in family behavior, especially juvenile behavior, and to an increase in the number of broken homes.

We are a young country, a young people, in many ways still clinging to some of the roughness of the frontier days and the early Republic, and we must never lose sight of the fact that we must all strive to build an admirable American culture. That is what the world will remember in history and what will last—not the fact that we enjoyed great material wealth.—Shamrock Texan.

It's Not A Foreign Power!

A lot of Americans these days talk about the government of the United States as if it were some foreign power.

They speak of "federal encroachment" or "federal intervention" or "government regulation" as if we were being threatened with invasion and conquest from Washington at any minute. "Washington influence," we are warned, is a dark and deadly force which is apt to creep up on the unwary citizen and engulf him without warning . . . and every federal official is a brigand who will steal our liberties and destroy our freedom unless we are constantly alert and on guard.

And how on earth did we get this way?

This is, after all, Our country. And it is, after all, our own creation. We've made it, we run it and it belongs to us.

And what's more it's remarkably responsive to our demands.

It isn't a perfect government, but it's the best one yet devised by man . . . and it is, after all, our own creation. We've made it what it is. And we can re-make it, or revise it, or even destroy it if we choose to do so . . . because we, the people, control it.

If you haven't been exercising your share of the control, it's your own fault . . . because the palls are always open to you.

You are citizens of the best and freest and most democratic nation on earth, and don't you ever forget it.

And if some of you ever succeed in bringing about the downfall of this government which you so loudly distrust, may heaven help us all, because we may inherit something a great deal worse.

Just remember, when you speak disparagingly of "the government" that it's the United States of America you're talking about . . . not Soviet Russia, or Communist China, or Nazi Germany . . . and you're mighty lucky to be a citizen of it.—The Canadian Record.

Fisherman's Dilemma

How often have you heard it argued around camp whether, or not, a hook should be fully covered with the bait?

Leave the barb dry! A naked hook will no more scare away fish than will the hooks on artificial lures.

Fact is you will snag more fish when the barbs are sharp and bare.

Education is one thing everyone gets on the installment plan.

More Than 100 Youth Attend Rally Wednesday

More than 100 teen-age students attended the youth rally at the Community Center on Wednesday evening of last week. Sponsored by the Atalantean Club in cooperation with the Ministerial Alliance, the program was one of a series of panel discussions on topics of interest to youth.

The topic under discussion at this meeting was juvenile drinking and the special problems of properly educating young people about alcohol.

Mrs. Robert Sexauer, club president, extended words of welcome and presented the program chairman, Mrs. Milton Beasley, Jr. Mrs. Beasley presented Larry Parks, president of the student council, who led the audience in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Tom Posey, minister of the First Christian Church, offered the invocation.

Mrs. Beasley then presented the members of the panel which included Rev. Leroy Gaston, pastor of the Travis Baptist Church, who served as moderator; Mrs. J. W. Coppedge, Neal Hindman and Dick Burchfield of Amarillo.

Mrs. Coppedge approached the topic from the viewpoint of the parents, giving many pertinent facts about teen-age drinking based on statistics.

"It is urgent that every youth learn about alcohol, know its physiological actions in the body, know how the body reacts to it. They must be warned about the danger signs so they can recognize them," she said.

She pointed out that most adolescents receive their first experience with alcohol and their first attitudes towards it in the home.

Mr. Hindman, who is agriculture teacher in the Memphis high school, based his remarks on educating the student through the school, home and church. Only through education can the young people be provided with a broad and sound foundation on which to base their inevitable decisions about personal drinking practices and social responsibility, he pointed out.

Mr. Burchfield, in his talk, gave facts from the law enforcement officers' standpoint. He pointed out that many teen-agers who are brought into juvenile courts have had some type of alcoholic beverage to drink.

Mr. Burchfield is public relations officer, Department of Public Safety.

Rev. Gaston concluded the panel discussion with comments from a religious approach to the drinking of alcoholic beverages. He concluded the program with a question and answer period.

The benediction was offered by Tom Anderson, minister of the Church of Christ.

A social hour was enjoyed following the program. Punch and assorted cookies were served from an attractively laid table decorated in a fall motif.

One Way To Assure A Catch

How many fish have you lost this year? More than you can count, most likely.

You can cut this loss to a minimum if you will fish with back-to-back hooks.

Simply take two ordinary single hooks and tie them together back-to-back at the shank with monofilament line.

Next fish won't be able to split out the bait without getting hooked.

THEFT: A TAX DEDUCTION

During divorce proceedings, a court awarded part of the family's money to the wife. Her husband, outraged, reacted very much like the proverbial pugilist who cries: "I wuz robbed!"

In that spirit, he solemnly claimed a deduction for "theft" on his next income tax return. But the government took a dim view of his claim. And, after a court hearing, the judge ruled this was not exactly the kind of theft that the tax law had in mind.

Generally speaking, you do have a right to deduct for loss-by-theft of your personal property, above a $100 minimum. Unless you are covered by insurance, you may subtract the amount of the loss from your gross income.

But the government will insist on a reasonable showing that you really did suffer a theft. Mere unexplained disappearance is not enough.

For instance: In one case, a man's wallet vanished from his pocket at some unknown point during a walk downtown and a ride in an elevator. The court found "only the suspicion of a theft"—not enough to justify a tax deduction.

In another case, a valuable bird dog, released for exercise, simply disappeared. The court, observing that the dog might as probably be lost as stolen, denied tax relief to the owner.

On the other hand, you do not need overwhelming, ironclad proof to establish a claim. The circumstances of your loss may be convincing enough, even though no thief is ever caught.

For example: A traveler was advised, at an airport stopover, that it was safe to leave his camera in the plane. But upon his return he found the camera gone. Theft was held sufficiently likely, in these circumstances, to support his claim for a tax deduction.

A woman kept a diamond pin in a locked drawer, but with the key accessible to her maid. When she returned home after a few days' absence, the pin was missing. So were some clothes, so were some linens, and so was the maid. Held: good enough evidence of theft.

Under certain circumstances silence has the most telling effect.

Woman's Culture Club Meets In Clark Home Wed.

The Woman's Culture Club met Wednesday, Nov. 3, in the home of Mrs. R. E. Clark for a regular meeting.

The devotional was given by Mrs. L. G. Rasco. Her subject was "Keep the Windows Open" and was taken from Daniel 6:1-11. At the close of the devotional, club members sang "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us."

The business session was presided over by the president, Miss Sybil Gurley.

Mrs. Frank Ellis, program chairman, introduced the program, "Three Keys to the Future—Straight Talk About Teenage Drinking." She read the following quotation by Pope: "Tis education forms the common mind, just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined."

"The Home" was discussed by Mrs. Bert Glascock; "The School" was given by Mrs. Ward Gurley, and Mrs. Robert Moss gave "The Community".

At the close of the program Mrs. Moss gave the following guideposts by which alcohol education of young people could be directed: 1. To interest students in seeking satisfaction of life through healthful living. 2. To develop in students a sense of pride in possessing strong, healthy bodies and wholesome attitudes. 3. To provide students with an accurate understanding of the facts about alcoholism. 4. To develop in students an attitude of respect for the rights of those who have opinions different from their own. 5. To teach young people to base their decisions on factual evidence, as well as emotional influences. 6. To help young people recognize that the right to experiment involves accepting the consequences of those experiments.

During the social period refreshments were served to Meses. Guy Cox, Frank Ellis, Bert Glascock, Ward Gurley, A. W. Howard, Jeanette Irons, Robert Moss, L. G. Rasco, Theodore Swift, Misses Sybil Gurley, Alma Bruce, and the hostess, Mrs. R. E. Clark. Cindy Bell was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Turner and girls of Turkey spent the weekend following the Turkey-Rule football game visiting with friends in Rule and Haskell. They were joined in Haskell by friends from Abilene, formerly of Rule.

Mrs. R. S. Greene Reviews 'Three On A Toothbrush' At 1913 Study Club

1913 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Edd Hutcherson on November 8 with Mrs. Mac Tarver, president, presiding.

Mrs. F. W. Foxhall gave the timely meditation "We Give Thanks". Mrs. R. E. Roark, program chairman, introduced the program with the quotation from Proverbs, "A word spoken in due season, how good it is". She then presented Mrs. R. S. Greene, who reviewed with much wit, charm, and dignity, the book, "Three on a Toothbrush", by Jack Parr, an entertaining traveler with many interesting characters.

Mrs. Greene added that a film to be used on the Jack Parr TV Show was made of the unusual people and places visited by Jack, Miram, and Randy Parr. Mrs. Greene presented some of the impressions and experiences which she particularly enjoyed of Germany, Russia, Guadalcanal, Zanzibar, Haiti, Brazil, and Paradise Island.

The most serious part of the book pertained to Guadalcanal and the heroic people who aided the Americans in the campaign against the Japanese in World War II. One such hero was the native Ben Coon, who saved the life of the late John Kennedy. Coon later was brought to the U. S. to visit in New York City and to be at a reunion of the P. T. boat crew of which Kennedy was a member. Africa, as a whole was rather disappointing to Mr. Parr, as Mrs. Greene continued; four girls and one son. The son and one daughter is deceased. They have 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Enjoying the day with Mr. and Mrs. Smith were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Hays Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Epps and children and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Eastland and son, all of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Jones and children and Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Nolan and children, all of Tulsa, Mr. and Mrs. Beaver Hamilton of Stratford.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Salmon, Jr., and Billy Salmon, Sr., of Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Adair Turner of Hobbs, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reep of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Barthel Jones and children of Plainview, Mrs. Vinda McClusky and daughter, Mrs. Leslie Moore of Clinton, Okla., and two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crow of Washburn.

however, in Zanzibar, a most interesting place was the Hotel in the trees, described by Parr as "the most fabulous thing since the Swiss Family Robinson." The hotel accommodates only twenty people, but has a rate of twenty-five dollars a night. Also on his African visit, Parr visited with Dr. Albert Switzer, a truly "great" in his estimation.

Two interesting places along the Amazon River in Brazil were described by Mrs. Greene—one a city now in ruins which was once a glamorous city in the hey day of rubber production; the other a settlement of U. S. Civil War refugees who had settled there over 100 years ago. Near Brazilia, the Parrs visited the Holliday Ranch (Mary Martin, a most versatile person and her husband the owners), a 1200 acres of lush vegetation; however on the ranch there are none of the luxuries furnished by electricity. As Parr said, "Who wants civilization anyway?"

The last place presented by Mrs. Greene was Paradise Island, man-made paradise of the Huntington-Hartfords. She concluded her most delightful review with Parr's quotation of his over all opinion of some of these people, "The English the most interesting; the Italians the wittiest; the Brazilians the most friendly; the French the stinkiest."

During the business session committee reports were given as well as regular routine reports. The International Relations Committee, Mrs. Byron Baldwin and Mrs. F. W. Foxhall, reported on the successful UNICEF drive made by the students of the three sixth grade classes. A collection of over $75.00 was reported. In appreciation for the students cooperation and good work, the club voted to present the film "A Trip with UNICEF" to the school. The film shows the work of UNICEF in five countries. Club members drew names for exchange of Christmas gifts. Final plans for the Treasure Tea were made. Members were reminded to bring gifts for the Mental Hospital in Wichita Falls and Vernon. Counselors' reports were omitted because of the lengthy business session.

A delicious refreshment plate of chiffon pumpkin pie, tasty tidbits, tea and coffee was served by the hostess, Mrs. Edd Hutcherson, assisted by Mrs. Bob Hutcherson to club members Mmes.

Vota Vita Class Meets In Home Of Mrs. M. Posey

The Vota Vita Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Marion E. Posey on Monday, Nov. 8, for the purpose of installing officers.

Roselyn Williams installed the officers with a very impressive ceremony. She used the theme "Precious Promises" and used the rainbow with its pot of gold as her example. As each officer came forward, they took the color befitting her office from the pot of gold.

Officers installed were the following: teacher, Charlene Douthitt; president, Nancy Roden; vice president, Flo Henderson; secretary and treasurer, Flora Phillips; benevolence, Nancy Elliott; group captains, Bonnie Haynes, Peggy Stephens, Rita Hall and Ann Richards; and reporter, Bobby Collins.

After the installation and business meeting, delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Nancy Roden, Flora Phillips, Nell Rita Goffrey, Rita Hall, Bobby Collins, Ann Richards, Dean Hill, Bobbie Ariola, Pat Gordon, Pat Chambless, Nadine Archer, Charlene Douthitt, and guest, Roselyn Williams, and the hostess, Glenna Rae Posey.

Delphians Hear Program On 'Education' Tues.

The Delphian Club met at the Odom's Restaurant Nov. 2 with Mrs. Robert Gordon as hostess. The topic for this program was Education.

To observe National Education Week, Mrs. Sim Reeves brought a meditation on "Education Is My Name". She quoted, "I am the Builder; Education is my Name. I am the builder of all things—great and small; I am the builder of the Universe from the beginning of time."

I am the builder of homes and schools and churches, of factories, bridges, and broad turnpikes.

I am the builder of minds, of hearts, of ideals. I am the builder of books, and paintings, of towering cathedrals, of tiny country churches. I am the builder of friendship, of self-sacrifice, of honor, generosity, patriotism, of all things noble. I am the Builder; Education is my Name.

Mrs. Rayford Hutcherson, program chairman, introduced Miss Tops Gilreath, county school superintendent. She spoke on the "Changing Educational Patterns—From 3 R's to 3 M's." She stated, "For the first time in the history of the United States of America (and it's words to remember) financial support is being made available for thoughtful implementation of Education Innovation at the local level." Then, Miss Gilreath introduced Mr. A. A. Nored, manager of Sound Photo, Lubbock, who expanded the topic by exhibiting the film "Reading Laboratory", which was filmed of the Ysleta High School in the Laboratory. Seeing and listening skills, vocabulary drill, skimming and scanning reading were noted. Tach X-Tachistoscope

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bills, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bills, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harvey and Mrs. Mable Bills, all of Amarillo, were her brothers and sisters who attended.

Others who were at the celebration were Mrs. Pauline Thompson of Lakeview; Mrs. Leon Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Ern Nivens of Hedley; and Mrs. Willie Favors, Mrs. Pauline Williams, Mrs. Zip Durrett, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Pittman and D. O. Hobson, all of Lakeview.

and controlled Readers were exhibited by Mr. Nored.

Mr. Nored also said, "that the Reading Laboratory at Ysleta is a voluntary, non-credit course. The first year 100 out of a student body of 2000 volunteered for the course. The next year 600 volunteered. Students work independently with very little supervision from the teacher."

The speed and the comprehension tests are increased gradually until a high degree of reading ability is reached.

Mr. Nored stated that about 50 per cent of the high schools are now using some of the various types of teaching machines on the market today.

Bronchos Out Shine Cyclone 22-21 Here

The Memphis Cyclone came within one point of adding Clarendon to their list of victories Friday night only to let their 21-16 lead disappear in the last stanza when Clarendon's speedster Mac McClellan raced about 35 yards to give the Bronchos a 22-21 victory.

The defeat was hard for local fans and athletes to take because the Cyclone led 21 to 8 in the first period of play and it looked like the Cyclone's offensive was really clicking.

The game got underway with Memphis kicking off to Clarendon and No. 10 McClellan returned the ball to the Bronchos where a host of Cyclone lads upended him. McClellan lost the ball. After a scramble Memphis came up with the ball.

From this point, a 22-yard pass play from QB Tony Pounds to End Clyde Wilson was completed to the Broncho 11.

In the next series, a pass from QB Pounds to WB William McFall was good and the 180-lb. senior went all the way for in the Cyclone's first score.

After a one-half the distance penalty against Clarendon on the first extra points try was marked, then No. 30 Gilbert Devorce blasted in for a two-point conversion.

Memphis kicked off and Clarendon set up scrimmage on their 26 yardline. On the second down, aggressive defense on the part of the Cyclone line paid off with the second Clarendon fumble and a Memphis recovery.

From this point, WB McFall carried for nine yards and was on the receiving end of a pass for 7 more giving Memphis a first down and goal on the Bronchos five.

In the next series, FB Mike Pounds found running room through a hole and powered his way across the goal line for the second TD. Kay Miller, a guard, place kicked the conversion and the score was 15 to 0.

On the next kickoff, however, the Bronchos caught fire. No. 25, Archie Smith took the kickoff about the Broncho 25 and ran up the field and broke into the clear racing all the way. A wide pitch-out to Clarendon's No. 32, Odell Louis, a 180-lb. back, on the conversion caught the Cyclone defense off guard and the runner made the conversion good.

After the ball exchanged hands twice on punts, Memphis came into possession on their own 34-yard line.

Mike Pounds blasted for 5 and Gilbert Devorce added three more. With a third down and two situation, the Clarendon defense moved up tight to stop the first down try. Outguessing the Broncho defense, a pass play was called and a perfect pass from QB Pounds to End Dwayne Jones was completed behind Broncho defender David Mooring and Jones went all the way, 68 yards for the third TD.

No. 22 Mike Nabers carried on the conversion but the Clarendon defense brought him down on the one-half yard line.

The ball exchanged hands twice and a good punt by Memphis' Mike Pounds put Clarendon on their own four yardline. A Clarendon punt gave Memphis the ball on the Broncho 29.

The first of several bad breaks for the Cyclone occurred when WB Mike Liner after making a good gain to the Clarendon 16 yardline and a sure first down was jarred loose from the ball and Clarendon recovered.

The ball exchanged hands again and on another Memphis punt by Pounds the Clarendon safety man signaled a fair catch but he was hit by a Cyclone defender which got Clarendon out of a hole and gave them the ball on their 30.

From here, Clarendon marched for a TD. Three passes by the Clarendon team were key plays in the scoring drive. Archie Smith carried over for the score from the two-yard line. A pass from QB David Mooring to WB Mac McClellan added two more points and the score was 21-16.

The half ended shortly thereafter.

The statistics show that Clarendon completely dominated the second half of action offensively.

The Memphis team became hampered by injuries in the second quarter when starting ends Clyde Wilson and Dwayne Jones were injured. Both were hampered in the second half.

Clarendon's winning touchdown came in the fourth quarter. The Bronchos had been held for three downs and punted on the fourth. On the punt, a roughing of the kicker penalty cost Memphis 15 yards and gave Clarendon the ball on the Cyclone 38. On the second down and 8 needed, No. 10 Mac McClellan carried on a reverse. He was bottled up around the left end and cut back and out ran Cyclone defenders to the goal line. A pass for points was broken up and the score was Clarendon 22, Memphis 21.

Coach Charley Chambliss said after the game the Clarendon pass defense was the toughest the Cyclone has faced this season, especially in the second half.

"Our defense broke down on certain key plays giving Clarendon the important third down yardage needed on numerous occasions," he said.

The Cyclone offensive unit was penalized several times during the second half and were also unable to pick up the necessary first downs on four occasions facing a third and three situation.

The leading ground gainer for Memphis was No. 12, William McFall who carried six times for 29 yards for a 4.8 average. Gilbert Devorce carried 7 times for 21 yards and Mike Pounds averaged 3.6 on seven carries for 25 yards. Mike Liner carried twice for 12 yards, Mike Nabers carried once for 5 yards and Tony Pounds carried 3 times for four yards.

It was the combination of QB David Mooring and WB Mac McClellan that was a thorn in the side of the Cyclone. Mooring carried the ball 14 times and gained 60 yards while McClellan carried three times for 55 yards. The passing combination of Mooring-McClellan was good for six completed passes gaining 57 yards. This totaled 172 of Clarendon's 333 total offense.

Former Memphis Boy To March in Rose Parade

A former Memphis youth, Gary Messer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Messer of California, will be among band members who will march in the 7 1/4-mile-long Rose Parade at Pasadena, Calif., this year, it was learned here this week.

Messer is a sophomore at Bakersfield College and a member of the 120-member college band. The band is one of 21 bands invited to participate in the Rose Parade this year.

The band has won many honors, including a World's Fair trophy during a trip to Seattle several years ago.

The Tournament of Roses is an international event and will be beamed by Telstar satellite to Europe, it was stated.

Messer is the grandson of Mrs. R. V. Messer of Memphis and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nash of Riverside, Calif.

and About
ELEN COMBS

Have you been enjoying the weather in Memphis? I am sure you are. The beautiful chrysanthemums to be seen at so many places are a sprinkling of fall color. Remember prettier yards than these of the year than can be seen in Memphis now.

McKown, new employee of the office, brought us a beautiful chrysanthemum from their South Seventh that is in diameter . . . and it is so perfect it looks like a house variety. Must remember Margurite the valet just how she goes about such perfect mums.

Money-raising projects sponsored by the Woman's Forum come to an end . . .

or at least until the energetic women-folk can think up some other worthwhile projects for the community. The club women were delighted this month when they learned the note was paid off on money borrowed at the time the community building was under construction. The club women took over notes of nearly $6,000 to add additional stage facilities in the new auditorium to that time.

Many projects have been promoted in past months to raise funds to pay off this note, and the community as a whole has cooperated in a wonderful matter making this possible. Credit for heading many of the money making projects, sponsored by the Woman's Forum, goes to Virginia Browder, who has worked long and hard hours. Lending a helping hand to her sister was Jim Roark as well as many other women from all the federated clubs.

We were sorry to be out of town Saturday and miss the gala ceremony that took place over at the Community Center as the Halloween witch, portrayed by Virginia Browder, cut the notes and burned them in a pot of brew.

A friend had a postcard this week from Emma Deaver and Minnie Kinslow, who are enjoying a vacation in Hawaii and also participating in the bridge tournament that is in progress there.

We were happy to learn that our own Memphis women were winning some of the prizes, too . . . they had placed second and fourth in some of the side tournaments at the time the card was written. We think this is worth bragging about. Emma had told us before they left that they were interested in getting in some sight-seeing trips to various points while gone as well as playing bridge and had not planned to spend all their time at the tournament.

And, speaking of awards, may we mention that our granddaughter, Debra, who is 8 years of age, recently won the sweepstakes award in the El Paso Flower Show . . . and then when we were in Austin last week our granddaughter Susan came in from school quite delighted . . . she had been chosen the outstanding pupil in her 4th Grade class for the 9-week semester and would have her name posted on the bulletin board for the rest of the year.

Accompanied by Lee Voekel, we attended the style show at Lakeview Monday evening sponsored by the Lakeview Parent-Teacher Association. Some most attractive models from the organization showed a lovely selection of fall clothes from Memphis department stores. Always enjoy a style show, and the one Monday night was enjoyable indeed. A lively bit of music by Zip Durrett and Ted Bruce was presented during the intermission. We always marvel how those two can get so much music out of one piano and one guitar! This time they didn't even have Jarrel Rapp there to add his bit on the drums or piano.

Thought for the week:
Five most important words—I am proud of you.
Four most important words—What is your opinion?
Three most important words—If you please.
Two most important words—Thank you.
Least important word—I.

Deskin Wells, our newspaper friend over at Wellington, has written a column in the Wellington Leader for many years . . . and an interesting and lively column, too. For the first time to our knowledge he printed something in his column recently that we had never seen before . . . a recipe. He says its good, and since a man took the effort to pass along the recipe to readers, we decided that our friends here might enjoy having it, too.

Uncooked Chow-Chow
3 pts. white vinegar
4 cups sugar (or 5 cups)
Dry mustard
1 T. celery seed or celery salt.
2 T. tumeric powder
4 lemons
1 t. cloves
Mix above ingredients and bring to boil. Set aside and cool.
Grind following:
1 gal. green tomatoes
2 small heads of cabbage
8 medium onions
6 sweet peppers—hot to taste
Pour ½ cup salt over ground mixture—let stand 1 hour. Drain well, add to cool vinegar mixture. Seal in jars.
—Alma Crawley's recipe

Keeps Dry Boots
If insulated or wading boots get damp inside, you can remedy this by cutting a piece of cardboard and inserting it in the bottom of the boots. Absorbent qualities of the cardboard will soak up the moisture.

Mrs. M. Stephens Attends Nursing Meet In Houston

Mrs. Mildred Stephens attended the Texas Nursing Home Association meeting at the Continental Houston Hotel in Houston last week.

Many problems facing the nursing home today were discussed by many capable persons. They included Mrs. Carter Clopton, "Opening the Door to a Brighter Life", from the Governor's Committee on Aging and Coordinator of Aging Services; C. E. Alvis, "TNHA's Group Liability and Professional Liability Insurance", legal counsellor for TNHA; James William Hunt, "The Great Society's Gifts to Labor", an attorney, Labor Relations Department, U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Washington, D. C.; Douglas E. Torrie, "Veteran's Administration Contract Community Nursing Home Program," A.C.S. W., Chief Social Worker, Veterans Administration Hospital, Dallas; Sister Mary Claire, "The Religious Aspects of Nursing Home Administration", OSB, Benedictine Sisters, San Antonio; Dr. Donald P. Conwell, "Texas and the United States Face H-R-6675 (Medicare), from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington, D. C.; Myles MacDonald, "Some Possible Voluntary Relationships Between Nursing Homes and Other Community Services", Texas Society on Aging; J. Watt Hornburg, Director, "The Texas Nursing Home Program—Past, Present, and Future", State Department of Health, Austin; Varied Workshops (Mrs. Stephens attended the one on "Your State Welfare Department"); a tour of three nursing homes in Houston; the Hon. Ralph Yarborough, "Medicare", U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Stephens was privileged to see the University of Houston's Cougars vs. University of Mississippi Old Miss, play football in the Astrodome, with the Cougars playing a wonderful game, and winning.

"Truly one should never go to Houston without making a visit of the Dome a must. This is the 8th Wonder of the World." A section of the Dome, about 159 to 175 feet high, had been reserved for us. You rode two escalators and then walked away or climbed another flight to our seats. "I am near-sighted, so I very carefully cleaned and took my opera glasses with me to be sure I could see what was going on. Needless to say, I left them at the hotel, but was astounded that I did not need them," Mrs. Stephens said.

Mrs. Alvis Gerlach returned home Monday after visiting in Caddo, Okla., with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gerlach and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ruyale. Also visiting in Caddo was her grandson, Skipper Hall of Dallas.

Mrs. Bertie Lee Cassel of Amarillo, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Scott and granddaughter, Miss Jana Starlene Scott, both of Stockton, Calif., were Memphis visitors Wednesday. The family formerly lived in Memphis.

Report From Washington

By WALTER ROGERS
Representative, 18th
Congressional District

Studies Itself—If the House-Senate Committee on Appropriations had received from some of its members a report of the kind which I have just received, it would have been a very different matter. The report would have been a five inch thick volume of paper, and it would have contained a list of the problems that, in my opinion, should be solved by Congress. It would have contained a list of the things that should be done in the proper relation to the House and the Judicial branches of the Government.

hon's recommendations for improved procedures. I would like to summarize several of them because of their particular interest to me and, I know, to other experienced Members of Congress who believe present procedures can be improved.

It may come as a surprise to many citizens, but there is not now any service Congress provides itself by which a Member can receive an up-to-date summary on any given day of the status of budgetary actions in relation to budget recommendation originally submitted by the President. A number of factors beyond the appropriations actions affect the matter. The extent of "back-door" spending—money spent by Government agencies without their having to go through the appropriating process—can affect the state of the budget without members having immediate knowledge of it. Appropriations actions may reflect lower spending levels than requested in the President's budget, but the situation may actually be that back-door spending has raised the total above budget goals.

"Back-door" appropriations are indefensible in my view as in Congressman Mahon's Standing authorizations permitting agencies to stage end runs on the appropriating process, by enabling them (as an example) to borrow money from the Treasury to finance their operations, as a travesty on the Constitution. Congress should, in acting on reorganization recommendations expected to come forward next year, take action to curtail this evil.

Also being urged is a careful look at the desirability of changing the Government's fiscal year to a calendar year basis. Until 1842, the two coincided. Now, because of the press on Congress in so many areas, appropriations bills for a fiscal year beginning on a July 1 are often not acted upon until the fiscal year is several months old. Departmental efficiency is affected as a result, and it might well be that the return of the fiscal year to a calendar year basis would be a sound step to take.

These are examples of the very close look Congress is taking now at its own procedures. You'll be hearing more on this subject after the first of the year when the joint committee presents its recommendations.

Uncommonly good cooks use cool, modern gas

When you turn on a modern gas range it starts cooking—instantly. There's no warm-up period. When you turn off a gas range it stops cooking—instantly. There's no hangover heat to heat your kitchen or burn your food. And when you broil with gas you can keep the door closed because the gas flame consumes the smoke. You and your kitchen stay cooler, cleaner. Uncommonly good suggestion: see the modern gas ranges now on sale at Gas Appliance Dealers—or Lone Star Gas.

Riding Club Is In Process Of Organization Here

By VIRGINIA ROGERS

Under the able direction of H. J. Howell as general chairman, minutes were taken, committees formed, and plans discussed for the organization of a Riding Club in Memphis. The meeting, called together in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, Monday evening, was attended by 37 riding enthusiasts, among them five women.

Miss Tanja Neel was tentatively elected secretary. Doyle Morris, Rusty Mosley, Bill Miller, Virginia Browder and Blackie Johnson were directed to make inquiry as to the rules and regulations of other such clubs in the area. Grady Worthington, Red Ward, Tony Molloy, J. J. Palmer, J. M. Ferrel are to investigate the possibilities of the use of the roping area east of town. A nominating committee, consisting of Patsy Morris, Troy Davis, Shirley Johnson and Paul Smith, were directed to submit a slate of possible officers to head the organization.

Various fields of riding activities were lightly explored; roping, square dancing on horseback, drill teams, pony express races, and play-day games were suggested as likely pursuits by the prospective members, before the meeting was adjourned with plans for a second session Monday, Nov. 22.

Those attending the kickoff gathering were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blackie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Worthington, Virginia Browder, Troy Davis, Phil Howard, Doyle Baggett, Dick Morgan, B. O. Shankle, Doc Fowler, Henry Hays, Mack Cofer, Bill Miller, Rusty Mosley, Amos Weddel, Johnny Palmer, Tanja Neel, Lonny Widener, Leroy Cofer, Phaeton Alexander and others.

Lakeview Lions To Hold White Elephant Sale

Members of the Lakeview Lions Club will hold a White Elephant Sale Saturday, Nov. 13, according to an announcement yesterday by Johnny Fowler, president.

The auction sale will start at 10:30 a. m. at a location on the north side of Highway 265 in Lakeview. Name of the auctioneer (or auctioneers) was not announced.

"We are attempting to raise money for our club to be used in worthwhile projects in our community, such as to benefit the school and the PTA," the president stated.

Residents of the Lakeview community have been invited to bring "anything you don't want"—as a gift to the Lions Club.

The public is cordially invited to attend the White Elephant Sale, and take an active part in the bidding.

Health Program Presented At PTA Meeting

The Travis Elementary School was the meeting place for the Travis Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday, Nov. 9.

President of the unit, Mrs. Carl Yancey, called the meeting to order by giving the invocation. During the business session, a PTA bake sale was planned for Saturday, Nov. 20.

Mrs. R. Neel and Dr. Jack Rose were guest speakers, talking about the health of school-age children.

Mrs. Neel listed ways to develop good health habits in children: 1. don't send sick children to school; 2. get inoculations regularly; 3. get doctor's examination regularly; 4. practice good health habits as parents; 5. provide a stable home for children.

Dr. Rose explained the process all persons go through in learning to see.

Wet Weather Slows Cotton Harvest Here

Harvest of the 1965 cotton crop was halted this week as fields were wet by some rain, heavy fog and dew. Receipts at the USDA Cotton Classing Office fell off sharply, K. E. Voelkel reported.

"We received only 200 samples from the 12-county area served by the office Wednesday," he reported.

The harvest will not get underway with any intensity until after a hard freeze stops all growth, he reported.

Following is the report of last week's classing of cotton samples received at the Memphis office:

For the week ending Friday, Nov. 5, 6,000 samples were classed. This compared with 4,000 for last week. For the season, 13,000 have been classed, which is the same as a year ago.

The grade, staple length and Pressley tests showed the quality of cotton classed this week to be lower than last week. However, Mike readings were practically unchanged.

White grades made up 16 per cent of the classing, with 6 per cent Middling and 5 per cent Strict Low Middling. Light Spotted grades showed 56 per cent in this color group, with 30 per cent Middling Light Spotted and 18 per cent Strict Low Middling Light Spotted. Cotton classed in the Spotted category represented 28 per cent of the classing, with 20 per cent Middling Spotted.

The harvesting and ginning of green, immature cotton has caused some "preparation" problems (smoothness of the sample), and some ginners are asking their customers not to harvest before the cotton is mature. One percent of the cotton classed was reduced in grade because of below normal preparation.

The most significant change in the staple lengths was the percentage increase of 29/32 inch and shorter and the percentage decrease of 15/16 inch staple. Cotton that had stapled 29/32 inch and shorter represented 39 per cent of the cotton classed this week. Other lengths were distributed as follows: 15/16—44 percent; 31/32 inch—percent; and inch and longer—6 percent.

Mike readings were practically unchanged from a week ago and remained very good. The most desirable range is 3.6-4.8, and 81 percent of the cotton fell in this reading, compared with 80 per cent last week. Other readings were: 2.7-2.9, 2 percent; 3.0-3.2, 4 percent; and 3.3-3.5, 13 percent.

Pressley results this week reflected weaker fiber strength than a week ago. The various groupings were as follows: 74,000 and less (Fair)—5 percent; 75,000-79,000 (Average)—13 percent; 80,000-84,000 (Very Good)—27 percent; 85,000-89,000 (Strong)—36 percent; 90,000 and above (Very Strong)—18 percent.
