Cotton Producers Vote To Continue Marketing Quotas

Hall County producers voted the continuation of marketing quotas on cotton by 95.32 per cent in the referendum held Tuesday, Nov. 23, Lynn McKown, office manager, Hall County ASCS, announced.

A total of 684 persons cast votes in Tuesday's referendum compared to 531 that voted in 1965. This year, 652 cotton producers voted for the continuation of marketing quotas while 32 voted against the program.

A breakdown of the voting by communities were as follows: Lesley, 67 for and 16 against; Lakeview, 69 for and 1 against; Plaska, 58 for and 1 against; Memphis, 242 for and 6 against; Estelline, 97 for and 5 against; Turkey, 119 for and 3 against.

While the marketing quotas carried by an overwhelming vote, Hall County producers cast their votes against sale or lease of cotton allotments outside the county by a total of 508 against and 165 for.

This vote is tabulated as follows: Lesley 10 for and 73 against; Lakeview, 13 for and 46 against; Memphis, 50 for and 191 against; Estelline, 43 for and 57 against; Turkey, 40 for and 21 against.

Quail-Memphis Highway Bids To Be Opened

Bids for surfacing FM Highway 2166, the new Quail-to-Memphis road, will be opened at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Dec. 7, at the office of the Highway Department in Austin, Clyde Drake, resident engineer of Wellington, was notified.

This road is 13.084 miles in length and extends from the Hall County line in a northeasterly direction to intersect with FM 1056 three miles south of Quail.

Both base and surfacing are covered in the bids. Drake said the work on the project will begin some time after the first of the year.

The road has been in use since the completion of bridges and culverts, and the roadbed several months ago.

Bobcat Gets Loose On City Square Tuesday

An unusual event took place Tuesday afternoon when a full grown bobcat got loose from Snooks Martin and hid under a car near the east side of the square in Memphis. The cat had to be killed for safety purposes.

The cat was being transferred from one cage to another when she broke the cages apart and gained freedom.

Mr. Martin called the sheriff's office and Deputy Joe B. Browning responded, and killed the cat. Deputy Browning shot the cat in the head with his revolver, using the curb as a backstop for the soft bullet.

"I had to lie down to get a clear shot at the cat under the car, and I was afraid to get too close for fear the animal would run," Browning said.

The cat was trapped by Snooks Martin, Paul Whitten and Grover Whitten the night before. Mr. Martin said they had trapped a lot of bobcats and other predatory animals in the past. "We gave a porcupine to the Dallas Zoo one time, and have given a number of bobcats to different individuals," he said. Bobcats are unpredictable animals. (Continued on Page 12)

13th Annual Ex-Student Homecoming To Be Held In Estelline Saturday

The 13th annual Homecoming for Estelline High Exes will be held at Estelline High School Saturday, Nov. 27, Jerrel Rapp, president of the Ex-Student Association, has announced.

Officers of the organization have been busy making arrangements for the 13th annual celebration and it is hoped a large crowd of persons will be in attendance.

An extra special treat is in storage for former Ex-students this year. On Friday evening, the Estelline football team will meet Northside School in bi-district playoff.

The game will be held at the Vernon Stadium beginning at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, Ex-students will register at the school, beginning at 9 a. m. Luncheon will be served in the Cafeteria by mothers of the Senior Class.

At 1:30 p. m. Saturday, the group will assemble in the auditorium for a business session and program.

A vice president, an assistant secretary, treasurer and class representatives will be elected during the business session. The assistants move on up to president and secretary each year.

Officers who are serving this year, other than President Rapp, include J. W. Coppedge, vice president; Mary Nell (Davis) Diggs, secretary; Eula (Richburg) Adams, assistant secretary, and Don Ferrel, treasurer.

Class representatives are Joe Eddins, Clinton Richburg, Jake Huckaby and Gus Orent.

President Rapp said the Exes are very honored this year to have a distinguished and dedicated teacher for the Welcome Address.

"It would be doing Mrs. L. A. Tucker an injustice not to mention some of her background and a few of her achievements," he said. Mrs. Tucker (Velma Newman) is the present 2nd grade teacher in Estelline School. She is a graduate of West Texas State University with the class of 1922, and also has her master's degree in elementary education. She taught one year at Windy Valley in Donley County and in 1923 came to Estelline. That was the beginning of a long and fruitful career.

Mrs. Tucker's first two years in Estelline were spent with the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades. The next ten years she taught 1st grade. During World War II, she served as grade school principal when the principal was called into the Armed Forces. After the war, she just kept teaching the 2nd grade and has been there ever since.

Mrs. Tucker is a faithful member of the Estelline Methodist Church and has taught the Women's Sunday School class for years.

Velma Newman was married to L. A. Tucker of Estelline in 1928, and they have since been living on their farm four miles south of Estelline. Their only son, Lanny, is the present vocational agriculture teacher at Hart. He and his wife have one son, Jim, and one daughter, Lana.

"One of Velma Tucker's greatest thrills comes each year at Homecoming time when she can see her former students and realize the importance of her many long hours of toil. Estelline is proud of Velma Tucker because she has worked where she sees needed most and because she sees potential in every one of her students," President Rapp said.

Credit Bureau Is Being Set Up For Area

The organization of a credit bureau in Memphis was announced this week by L. B. Snider, manager of the new organization.

"The paper work for the Memphis Credit Bureau is being processed now and we wanted to let merchants in this area know that a bureau is being organized and we are taking applications for members," Snider said.

The Memphis Credit Bureau will be a member of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Texas, Inc., with home offices in Austin and plans call for membership in the nationwide service when eligibility requirements are met.

"We anticipate being open by Wednesday, December 1, at 106 North 8th Street," he said.

A number of area merchants have already signed up with the newly organized credit bureau but Snider said he has not had the time to contact all the merchants about possible membership. The Credit Bureau is being set up as a service to area merchants to supply business information and credit ratings.

Estelline Plays Northside At Vernon Friday

The chips go on the line Friday night when the Estelline Bears invade Vernon Stadium for the Bi-District Championship game with Northside, a school 10 miles north of Vernon. Game time is 7:30 p. m.

Northside shared the District 6-B championship with Oklaunion and Harold and advanced to the bi-district playoff on virtue of catching the odd coin in a three-way coin toss by the representatives of the three District 6-B schools.

Going in to the bi-district contest, Northside has a seven win, one tie, one loss record compared to Estelline's seven win, two loss record.

The game promises to be a real thrilling 8-man contest between two well matched teams. This is the first time these two teams have played each other. Estelline has a one loss, one win record with Oklaunion and Harold in pre-district games.

Coach Jimmie Don Adams stated this week that Northside has the best balanced team the Bears have faced this season. They have two fine players, he said, in Jerry Matney, a halfback, and David Duckworth, who plays left end. Matney is a fine back. Adams said.

Criston Mabry, who was injured in the Cotton Center game, early in the season, will be back in the Estelline lineup for the first time since that game.

"Our boys are ready and barring any workout injuries we will be at full strength," Coach Adams said.

Defensive starters include Bob Wood, defensive half back, Criston Mabry, linebacker, and Tommy Adeock, defensive guard.

The winner of the bi-district game will advance to the Regional contest, a time, date and place to be announced later.

German Student To Speak Dec. 1 At Baptist Church

Miss Bearbel Susanne Leuckfeld, senior student at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview, will speak at the First Baptist Church here on Wednesday evening, Dec. 1, at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced this week.

A cordial invitation has been extended the public to come hear Miss Leuckfeld. We feel her talk will be of particular interest to young people and we urge all young people to make plans now to hear her, it was stated.

Miss Leuckfeld, who lived in East Germany until she was 15 years of age, will speak on the topic, "A Living Sacrifice."

Miss Leuckfeld escaped with her family to West Germany and from there went to Rome, Italy, to study. She came to Plainview four years ago where she is studying to prepare herself for mission work.

She was a recent guest of the Atalantean Club in Memphis where she spoke on her life behind the Iron Curtain.

Third Homecoming At Turkey Is Highlight Of Weekend Activities

The 3rd Homecoming for all ex-students and teachers of Turkey was held Nov. 19 and 20 at the schools of that town.

Turkey's first Homecoming was held in 1957, with Ralph Yarborough as guest speaker. Three years later the 2nd Homecoming was held in 1960 with Herbert Gipson as guest speaker. At this time the three-year time was charged to five, therefore, the 3rd Homecoming fell this year, it was announced.

Festivities got underway with the colorful pep rally at 3 p. m. Friday, Nov. 19, with registration for exes beginning at 2:30.

At the conclusion of the pep rally, the Homecoming Queen was crowned. Mrs. Smith (Reita Nell Lane) Guest was named Queen from a group of five candidates. They were: Mrs. (Jacquelyn Barnhill) Crump, Mrs. (Gelene Lane) Doyle Proctor, Mrs. Jay (Barbara) Eudy and Mrs. Ronnie (Kay Pierce) Eudy.

On Friday night prior to the Turkey-Matador game, the Football Sweetheart was named from three candidates. The girls were escorted on to the field by the three captains into a circle formed by the pep squad, dressed in purple and gold. Candidates and the escorts were: Rhenda Gafford and Jim Robison, Cheryl Stephens and Jerry Lane, and Glenna Cotton and Barry Lane.

The winning candidate was Miss Cheryl Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stephens of Turkey.

Following the barbecue Saturday at noon, the exes met in the auditorium for the program. Mrs. Jack Case, president, called the meeting to order. The invocation was given by Olen Holland. Mrs. Case then introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Lee Vardy of Slaton. His subject was, "Our Place in the Space Age." Two thoughts he quoted were: "cultivate good habits for bad ones will grow wild" and "live as though

Thanksgiving 1965

The last Thursday in November each year is set aside as the day of national harvest festival by the President of the United States and the many governors of the states.

In 1621, after the first harvest of the New England colonists, Governor Bradford made provisions for the rejoicing of the people by setting apart a day for prayer and praise, which was repeated often during the following years.

Since 1864, the President of the United States has appointed the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day, and his proclamation has generally been followed by similar proclamations from the governors of the several states.

We who observe Thanksgiving each year, have grown up with the special observance, as have our parents, grandparents, etc.; so sometimes we may be guilty of overlooking the really tender and gentle motivation behind Thanksgiving.

It was established by William Bradford and his Separates (Pilgrims), who fled from England to Amsterdam, then to Leyden, Holland, 1609, and coming to America in 1620 to make the first English settlements in Massachusetts at Plymouth.

A wise man once said, "from small seeds to mighty things grow," and this is much the story of the Thanksgiving in the United States.

We, as Americans, have much for which to be thankful. We are, materially, the richest, most educated, best fed, and protected citizens in the world.

As we observe Thanksgiving, 1965, we should take inventory of our lives and the rich heritage we have been handed by our forefathers and the peace we enjoy because of our nation's might and sacrifice in foreign wars.

As long as we are a free people, God fearing, dedicated to right, not might, controlled by good laws and honest men, only the good of our people and nation at heart, we need never fear an enemy from without, only those enemies within the inner man.

Thanksgiving is an important part of the American Way of Life. It is the time to give thanks, which is far more important than the warm satisfied feeling which comes with a full (not stuffed) stomach content with the right amount of turkey (or chicken) and dressing and all the trimmings.

ACROSS the DESK

What Other Editors Say

Draft Rush

Understandably, some of the nation's young men are experiencing troubled thoughts about the draft. For the first time in years married men and students heretofore thought to be exempt, are facing calls to duty.

Washington is doubling the number of draftees, and young men between the ages of 19 and 26, including married men without children and many students, are those who feel the effects.

Unfortunately, the spirit in the country today is not what it was in World War II, when the entire population was united in a massive effort against dictator aggressors after the United States had been suddenly attacked.

There are those who believe we should not be fighting in Vietnam. Others demonstrate and propagandize against our military efforts there, and this tends to take the enthusiasm in serving out of the picture.

Thus the young man of today, called upon to serve his country in the military and perhaps give his life, faces a more complex and confusing mental demand.

And yet the simple facts are the same. Our President and Congress, just as have so many in the past, are calling upon the young men of today's generation to risk their lives to safeguard the democracy we know and enjoy.

He must serve in his time, and trust in his elected leaders, and his willingness to do so, for the ideals we believe in, is the national quality which has made us strong and preserved our country throughout the years.—The Shamrock Texan.

Farmers Get Less!

In the last 17 years prices received by farmers for food they produce have dropped 15 per cent. In the same period, retail prices of food have jumped 32 per cent.

This information comes from a congressional study covering the period since 1947, and wartime rationing and price controls were eliminated.

The labor cost of packaging and preparing food for the consumer are increasing the final costs. However, there surely is a limit to the decline the farmer can suffer for his products.

The spread between what the farmer gets and what the consumer pays is ever-widening. The main thing which has permitted the farmer to survive is his greater efficiency.

Without a farm program, agriculture would be bankrupt. It is evident from this study that this program must be improved and strengthened if farmers ever again are to enjoy a parity of income with others who contribute to the nation's wealth and security.

 As for hook accidents—the best idea, of course, is for them not to happen. A few simple precautions will prevent them.
 If two men are in a boat, both should cast from the same side and in the same general direction. Never cast in opposite directions or toward the bow or stern.
 If you cast longways of the boat, your backswing will put your lure right in your partner's face.
 If it doesn't hook him it will scare him to death, or nearly so, and even if he survives you will have lost a fishing buddy.
 You're going to get lures hung in bushes, trees, and weeds near the shore. When you do, avoid trying to free them with a hard, steady pull. Use a series of short, sharp yanks on the line, and even then look out! Even the latter method sometimes will free a lure so that it will come flying right back to you. Be ready to duck anytime either you or your buddy is tadyring to free a hook that's snagged.
 If you hold your rod out to one side, in trying to free a snagged hook, the lure, suddenly loosened, is more likely to miss you in its return flight. If you want to play it safe, simply move the boat to the lure and free it by hand.
 There's a good rule about safety in small fishing boats. Watch your partner, and when he moves to one side, you move to the other.
 If he leans over the side to pull up a heavy anchor and you lean over the same side at the same time, to reach for the floating minnow bucket—don't be surprised if you both get a bath, even if it isn't Saturday.
 Keep the boat in balance at all times! And don't stand up in a small boat unless you absolutely have to.
 Don't fool around in swift,
 rocky water in your fishing boat. If you're going upstream and hit a rock with your propeller shaft, your motor will tilt and the boat will go out of control and possibly overturn. If you're going downstream, put your motor in reverse to reduce speed and try your best to avoid the rocks.
 Best of all though, avoid that kind of water whenever possible.

FIRST APPEARANCE—The Ukulele Group composed of 4th and 5th grade students made its first appearance at the Thanksgiving program presented Wednesday morning at the Austin Elementary School. The musical group is under the direction of Mrs. A. L. Gailey, music teacher.

If you must get into it, or to the bank and pull the boat through it, to catch fish, get out along until you reach deeper and tow the boat through the quieter water. You'll have to be shallow, dangerous places. Or go guided by the situation, but in case of doubt, don't take chances. It's not worth it!
 Another thing... don't fool around with storms. Head for it.

home as fast as possible!
 You don't have to be in a boat to get into trouble while fishing. I'm thinking of some places below river dams, where the white bass bite fabulously. Here the banks are usually rock and steep. When power is being generated, the water comes out of the tail race in a great rush.
 There is a giant sort of whirlpool effect; the currents smash against each other and against the boulders as the water fights for a route downstream.
 Little springs ooze out of the cliffsides, and the rocks along the precipitous banks are slippery. One false step and you're in that terrifying current. I wouldn't give a dime for your chances.
 These are just a few of the hazards of fishing, and a few precautions. Anytime you're fishing you're in danger of drowning—so if you value your life—wear a life-saving jacket. You'll never know in advance when you need

None of these accidents or incidents are very likely to happen to you, if you think before you act and use ordinary precautions. So good luck, enjoy some fishing, and keep your head. Literally, that is.
Use String On Fast Draw Gun
 Many a handgun has been damaged by being dropped while practicing the fast draw.
 You can protect your prized handgun from such damage by tying one end of a string to your belt, and the other end to the gun's trigger guard. String won't interfere with a fast draw, but it will catch the gun should it be dropped.
 Needless to say no bullets should be in the gun when you're practicing the fast draw.

Delphian Club Enjoys Program On Art, Poetry

The Delphian Club met in the home of Mrs. Clyde Smith Nov. 16 at 4 p. m. for a program on Art and Poetry. Mrs. Joe Bob Browning, club president, called the meeting to order and the pledge to the flag was given in unison, after which Mrs. Rayford Hutcherson, program chairman, introduced the program quoting from Gilfillan—"Poetry is truth dwelling in beauty."

Mrs. Clyde Smith brought the meditation which was on the "Fountain of Beauty". She stated, "All Beauty is a gleam from the fountain of Beauty. No work of beauty can be more beautiful than the mind which designed it. I do not think a sculptor can possibly chisel a marble so as to make it more beautiful than his own ideal conception. I do not think a painter, a musician or a poet can express anything beyond the thought within him.

Mrs. Frank Finch told of Russia's fabulous art palace, the Hermitage, which is located along the bank of the Neva River in Leningrad. It is one of the richest museums in the world. It contains 2500 rooms, 2,300,000 art objects, including 14,000 paintings. Some of the paintings were collected from France by Catherine the Great, as early as 1763. The Hermitage contained masterpieces by Van Gogh, Matisse, Picasso, Rembrandt, Van Dyck, Hals, Raphael and many other famous painters. In 1827 some of the Hermitage masterpieces were purchased by Andrew Mellon and placed in the National Gallery in Washington where we can see them today. Several printed copies of the famous pictures which were at one time housed in the Hermitage was displayed by Mrs. Finch.

Miss Esta McElrath, guest speaker who is well known for her poetry writing, greeted the Delphian Club members with this poem:

Greetings to the Delphian Club Members

There are Johnnie and BeeBee, Alice and Lou, Ora and Ida, and Carol Ann, too, Dorothy and Addie, Vera and Pat, Two Bobbies, two Marys, now how about that?

Also three Bettys of whom you are proud; If two makes a company, then three make a crowd.

Christine and Nancy, Mildred and Bru, Sally and Beverly, Leola and Sue, Frances and Maud and dear Tanya Kay.

Just knowing these members gives joy always, All your names make such a pretty rhyme I am very glad to see you at this time.

Miss McElrath read from her book of poems, "The Golden Trumpet," a number of poems which were in keeping with the season. They were Autumn Fashion Show, Tapestry from Autumn Leaves, God has made all things Beautiful in His Time. A thought for Thanksgiving and Thanksgiving Observance.

After the program, a short business meeting was held. Announcement was made of the plans for the tour of homes decorated for Xmas. The committee is considering having some homes shown that will not be decorated for Xmas, they have had some requests for both types. Advance tickets for this tour will be $1.00 tickets sold at the door will be $1.25.

During the social hour refreshments were served to guest, Miss Esta McElrath, and Mmes. Bill Lockhart, Gaylon Ariola, F. A. Finch, Roddy Rice, Henry Rice, Jack Boone, Bill Combs, Mildred Stephens, N. L. Hindman, Floyd J. Richardson, Bob Gordon, W. C. Dickey, J. S. McMurry, Sim Reeves, A. Anisman, R. H. Wherry, Joe Bob Browning, Rayford Hutcherson, Betty Shahan, Sim Goodall, and Miss Maud Milam, and hostess, Mrs. C. L. Smith.

Tape Warns Of Dogs
Night-hunting dogs such as coon hounds, fox hounds, etc., are in dire danger in this motorized age. Frequently these hunting dogs cross busy highways during their run. You can protect them from being run down by attaching reflector-type tape all around their collars.

This will give them a measure of protection since the tape will glow when caught in the beam of an approaching headlight, and give the motorist time to avoid hitting them. Also, it will enable you to keep better track of your hounds in the woods.

Efficient Emergency Stove
For a tent or duck blind warmer, try filling the bottom of a 10-quart pail with four inches of sand and add several inches of glowing charcoal lumps. It warms for hours and it's safe.

Hall County Soil Conservation District

Last spring, 20,000 acres of cropland were damaged by either the loss of top soil or siltation from nearby fields. This topsoil was lost forever for the production of crops. Unfortunately this was not the end of the damage. This valuable topsoil drifted into homes, stores and other buildings which had to be cleaned after every storm. It covered up roads, fences and power lines. It made driving conditions hazardous. Bar-ditches and waterways were silted up. Later when the spring rains came, the water had to find new places to go and thus increased the damage.

The supervisors of the Hall County Conservation District does not want this history to repeat itself this year.

Plans should be made now to provide protection for the soil this winter and the early spring months, the normal blow season. The best protection for the soil, against wind and water erosion, is a growing crop.

There are several crops that are adapted to this area that can be used for a winter cover crop. They are small grains, such as rye, oats or barley, winter peas, or vetch with small grains.

Cover crops should be seeded early enough so as to make sufficient growth to protect the soil, prior to extremely cold weather. There are several ways to establish these cover crops. They can be drilled, broadcast, or planted with inter-row seeders. With a cyclone type seeder or inter-row seeder, cover crops can be seeded in existing crops. On land that is not in a crop, drilling is probably the best method of seeding.

For maximum benefits from a cover crop, it should not be grazed or harvested. The cover crop should be left growing as long as possible or until about April 1.

When another crop is to follow the cover crop, the cover crop should be shredded and or disked about two weeks prior to seedbed preparation. Residues left on the surface dry out quickly and are

Geldon's Social Security Advice

All farm and ranch operators who are age 65 or over, and all farm and ranch workers who are also that old, are reminded by Hal Geldon, Amarillo social security district manager, that the 1965 changes in the law makes it imperative for them to file their social security claims immediately. This applies even though they are still active on the farm and ranch.

The hospitalization insurance, which is automatic, and the medical insurance, which is optional at a $3 per month premium beginning next July, require that social security claims be filed before those provisions can apply.

Persons already 65 need such action now. Those not file in the current period will have only one chance to enroll, and that at a higher cost in the October 1967 enrollment. Geldon urges all persons by the above information with a representative of the Amarillo social security office he visits in Memphis on November 16 and 30, Tuesdays. Representative will be in the local Legion Hall from 12-30.

Even though a person's income may be too high to qualify for immediate payment of retirement benefits, Geldon to feel sure that no eligible persons have lost out on the insurance program because of lack of information.

Let Us All Give Thanks on This Thanksgiving Day

... as We Count Our Blessings

As we gather around the holiday table with members of our family and friends, or pause to remember all the good things which have come our way, we are observing the traditional American Thanksgiving. It had its beginning in 1621 when our forefathers, who had undergone many hardships, gathered together and offered their heartfelt thanks to Him who was responsible for all the things which they were enjoying.

Thanksgiving is a good time to review those matters which are not material. There is the blessing of living in a free nation where freedom of thought and action are the accepted way; where there is freedom to worship in the manner of our choice. It is a day to remember our friends, and to thank them for their patronage and kindness... to give thanks for the abundance all enjoy, especially for the crops from the fields of this fertile section.

It is a time to reaffirm our faith in this nation and in our fellowmen... to decide to put forth more effort to help in preserving all the blessings which are ours to enjoy.

Land Adjustment Program Is Administered By County ASCS Manager

The Department of Agriculture has announced details regarding the land adjustment program. The program is designed to remove from surplus up to 40 million acres of land in 10-year periods from 5 to 25 years. The program is administered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) in the county.

and the national average for land on farms in excess of the allotments and base acreage will be $5.00 per acre, but each farm will be paid a per acre acreage payment on the basis of its individual productivity index and the crops designated. All of one or more crop allotments or base acreage must be designated. An additional payment will be made to producers who permit free public access for hunting, but this rate has not been announced. County ASCS offices will administer the program. Full details on how the program applies to an individual farm will be available in ASCS county offices in late December or early January.

C. L. Hoffman Recovering From Heart Surgery

Mrs. Jim Beeson returned Sunday from Cleveland, Ohio, after spending a week there with her brother, C. L. Hoffman of Lubbock, who underwent heart surgery on November 15.

The Vineberg operation was performed by Dr. Donald B. Effler of Cleveland. This operation brings needed blood to the heart muscle by way of an artery transplant, Mrs. Beeson said.

Mr. Hoffman is recovering from the operation and hopes to be back in Lubbock before long. He is the son of Mrs. A. C. Hoffman and brother of Ruby Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rodgers of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. C. R. Burks of Del Norte, Calif., were recent visitors here with their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McIntush. They departed for their respective homes on Saturday. Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Burke were reared in Memphis and this was Mrs. Rodgers' first visit here in 12 years. She was surprised in the change of the city and commented on the growth and development.

Cyclone To Play Quail, Lakeview Monday, Tuesday

The Memphis basketball teams won two games and lost one Tuesday night, playing squads from Claude in the local gymnasium. Next Monday night the teams will host teams from Quail in Cyclone Gymnasium, and Tuesday night Memphis will make the nine-mile trip to Lakeview. These two game nights will begin at 7 a. m. and will include A squad boy and girl games.

Tuesday, the Memphis B team boys defeated Claude's B squad 42-32 in a fine come-from-behind effort on the part of Memphis.

In the girls game, Claude took an early lead of 18 to 10 in the first quarter, and went on to win the game 68 to 25. Shirley Thurman, a sophomore, was the high point girl for Memphis with 18 points, while Suzanne Brown was high scorer for Claude with 19.

The Memphis-Claude boys contest ended in a flourish of activity as Memphis won 45 to 38.

Until the fourth quarter, the game proceeded along at a slow pace with Memphis holding a 10-point lead. Third quarter score was 28 to 17.

In the fourth quarter, however, Claude came out in a full court press to try and catch up, and got within six points of the Cyclone 36 to 30.

Larry Morrison was the high point man for Claude with 12, while Dwayne Jones and Bobby Carroll each scored 8 points for Memphis.

Thanksgiving

Since the year 1621, when the first settlers paused to give thanks for their blessings, Thanksgiving has been a time for family gatherings . . . for heartfelt rejoicing in the good things which had come to the home, family, friends and the community.

It's a time to be joyful . . . and a time to be quietly prayerfully grateful because the abundance and freedom of our forefathers—and they dreamed—are ours in reality.

On this Thanksgiving, we join in giving thanks, and among our blessings we count the opportunity of serving you during the past, and the hope that our efforts will deserve your patronage in the future.

We are proud of the freedom and prosperity which are ours to enjoy, and offer a prayer that it will continue to be ours through the years and will be for those who will come after us. Let us count our blessings every day.

Thanksgiving Day will be a happier, more meaningful day...

It's a story we all know and love—the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving. The excitement in their little homes must have been pretty much as it is today—the tantalizing smells of roast turkey and pumpkin pie—the bustle and rush of eager children—it must have been a wonderful day!

But before the Pilgrims sat down to their feast they observed the true meaning of Thanksgiving.

They all gathered together to give thanks for the good they had received, for survival through a long year of hardship, and to pray for the strength and courage to keep their faith in this strange, new land.

Wherever you are . . . whatever your beliefs may be . . . take time to offer your words of thanks . . . just as the Pilgrims did more than 300 years ago.

FIND THE STRENGTH FOR YOUR LIFE...

Worship together

Memphis Opens Basketball Play Here Monday

The Memphis basketball teams opened their 1965-66 season against Paducah Monday night and came out of the three contests with two wins and one loss.

The B team in the first game defeated Paducah 38 to 25 in a good contest.

The Memphis Cyclonettes found the Paducah Dragonettes too experienced and talented but the local girls still made a good showing in a 57 to 20 game.

The game gave the Memphis girls their first varsity game experience and the fans seemed encouraged by the girls efforts.

Paducah took an early lead and led at the halfway mark by a 31 to 6 margin.

Shirley Thurman was Memphis' high point girl with 9 points and Shirley Rekieta was high point for Paducah with 18 points.

The Cyclone and Dragons took the court in the final contest and fans were lively as the ball was tossed in the air for the opening jump.

The opening minutes of a basketball game are always crucial and the five Memphis lads on the court were a determined bunch.

From the opening jump, the Cyclone played tough defense and aggressive offense and led the first quarter 14-0. Paducah had a lot of trouble trying to crack the zone defense of the Cyclone because quick hands were deflecting and grabbing passes.

The Cyclone continued the pressure throughout the first half and the teams left the court with Memphis leading 22 to 4.

Coach Milton Miller played all his boys throughout the ball game as the Cyclone won its first encounter from Paducah 42 to 23. Paducah's Ray Stanley scored 6 points for the visitors while Memphis' Mike Pounds led his team with 14 points.

Float Bait To Hot Spot

Often a pole fisherman will find a spot where he can't place his bait, even though he knows a lunker lurks there. That's when he uses one of the small cone-shaped paper cups he carries in his tackle box—providing he has the foresight to bring along a few.

He sets the cup afloat, with hook and bait inside. Then he maneuvers the bobbing cup into a position to float over the lunker's liar. At the right instant, the fisherman jerks his line, tips the cup, and his bait sinks down to the waiting prize.

PIONEER TEACHER—Mrs. L. A. Tucker, who has taught in the Estelline Schools since 1923, will welcome Ex-students at the 13th annual Homecoming, to be held Saturday in Estelline. A great majority of the ex-students who will return for the occasion will at one time have sat in Mrs. Tucker's class room . . . and by many she will be remembered as that "beloved" first teacher.

Below, in brief form, are some of the major national recommendations which will be forwarded to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention next month in Chicago:

Citizenship—Commended President Johnson on his Viet Nam policy.

Aid to education—Oppose expanded federal aid to education.

Income taxes—Favor repeal of Federal Withholding tax law.

Social Security—Oppose any increase in Social Security taxes beyond those now scheduled to take care of present retirement and medical care benefits. Need for medical insurance should be met by private insurance programs.

Direct payments—Vigorously oppose use of compensatory payments as a substitute for market prices.

Crop controls—Oppose minimum farm allotments, regulations or poundage quotas.

Land retirement—Reaffirm support for "practical" land retirement program—temporary and voluntary and providing for competitive bids.

Marketing orders—Oppose use of federal marketing orders on nationwide basis.

Multiple price plans—Oppose multiple-price or certificate plans.

Per farm limitation on payments—Oppose dollar limitations on individual participation in commodity and/or land retirement programs.

Price support guides—price support and adjustment programs should be used to facilitate orderly marketing price supports levels should not be left to discretion of Secretary of Agriculture.

Minimum wages—Oppose extension of minimum wage and hour laws to farm workers.

Promotion of agricultural commodities—Funds for promotion should be collected on voluntary basis and not used for legislative or political activities.

Union organization of farmers—Oppose labor union efforts to enroll farmers for purpose of representing farmers or bargaining of farmers.

Legislative apportionment—Recommend Constitutional amendment guaranteeing States the right to apportion one House of a bicameral legislature on basis of factors other than population.

U. S. Department of Agriculture—Recommend that all federal agencies "cease to extol, promote or advertise, at the expense of the taxpayers, the virtues of government programs" as is now prohibited by law.

Make Plans Now For Planting Of Trees And Shrubs

December, January, and February is the ideal time for planting bare root trees and shrubs. Planting at this time assures good root development before the top growth commences.

Here are suggestions from Everett Janne, Texas A&M University Extension landscape horticulturist on how to do the planting job.

Dig the tree pit large enough to receive the roots without bending or breaking; do not cut the roots to fit the hole. Separate the good top soil from the poorer subsoil as the hole is dug. Unless the topsoil is extremely poor, it can be mixed with peat moss or well rotted compost and used as backfill. Use two parts of soil to one part of peat moss in preparing the backfill.

It is desirable, he says, to prune back the top growth to compensate for the roots lost in digging and transplanting. Do this by removing about half of each branch, making the cut to an outside bud. It may be necessary to thin out some of the lateral branches to develop good scaffold branches. By no means should all lower limbs be removed reducing the main stem to a whip. If a high limbed tree is desired, low limbs can be removed later after the plant is well established. Do not remove more than two lower per year.

Place a mound of the enriched top soil in the bottom of the hole to support the roots of the plant so that when placed in the hole the plant will be at the same level with the soil surface as it was in the nursery. As you fill the hole, work the soil in around the roots so that there are no air pockets. After hole is two-thirds full, fill with water and allow it to drain away. Then fill the hole with the enrich soil until level with surrounding soil. Using additional sil, build a brim or dam around the outer edge of the hole to aid in watering the first season. This should be removed or spread out after the plant is well established.

Trees over four feet high should be staked the first year to keep them straight. This can be done by driving a wooden stake or iron pipe into the ground about 6 to 8 inches from the trunk in the direction of the prevailing wind. The tree can be tied to the stake with a soft rope or a wire which has been run through an old piece of hose to protect the bark.

Never use fertilizer with the soil used in the backfill. Wait until the plant is well established before applying fertilizer, advises the horticulturist.

Tie Down Binoculars

Binoculars can make a lot of unnecessary noise bouncing around when you are walking around.

Cut out this racket by taking an 8-inch strip of thin leather and punching small buttonholes at each end. When walking, button the glasses to your shirt buttons.

Then, just unbutton one end of the strap when binoculars are needed.

Compounds of silver are very poisonous.

November 25th is Thanksgiving Day all over America. This year, particularly, it should be a day when we are especially conscious of our heritage of freedom in America and abundance from the good earth and our endeavors in everyday life.

What do we have to be thankful for? The answer would take a thousand words, but uppermost is our opportunity to live in a land of freedom. We have the choice of worshipping as we choose, the opportunity of giving our children an education where there will be taught only the truth, the right to choose our job—and leave it if it does not meet our expectations. We live in a land where we have the right to vote for or against those individuals who would desire to govern us. Yes, this is the American Heritage.

We, too, are thankful for many things . . . for our customers, the finest any bank can have . . . for friendships and associations . . . for good crops . . . and for the privilege of serving you in our new and modern banking quarters.

Skip Row Decision By USDA Protested By Walter Rogers

(Editor's Note: The following letter, which was written Nov. 17 by Congressman Walter Rogers to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, expresses the majority sentiment of Hall County farmers regarding the skip-row programs of many cotton growers in this area.)

Dear Mr. Secretary: I wish to express my vigorous disapproval of the Agriculture Department's recently announced decision to impose more restrictive rules for cotton planting with skip-row patterns effective with the 1966 crop. In addition, I wish to protest the Department's disregard of the wishes of a majority of the Members of Congress as reflected in initial appropriations committee reports and in the conference committee report. The committees and the conferees called on the Department to retain present practices feeling that the elimination of such practices would increase production costs and fail to utilize the results of extensive research by the Department of Agriculture.

As I informed you in a protest filed soon after the Department's notice of proposed rule making was issued in April, skip-row cotton planting is an old, tested, and proven method of soil and water conservation in the Texas Panhandle and South Plains, as elsewhere. I have studied the revised rules announced October 27. I have discussed them with my constituents, not only with persons engaged in cotton production, but also with grain sorghum producers and businessmen acquainted with our Texas High Plains agricultural economy. They share my firm view that these rules will work a decided hardship on numerous cotton farmers in the 18th Congressional District of Texas. The cause of conservation will suffer a setback; farmers' income will be cut.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

The farmer who still figures he can walk across a field or pasture and determine its fertilizer needs can't expect top yields. There are too many factors in determining soil fertility that can't be detected by the eye, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser, therefore; a surer method must be used.

That's where the soil testing laboratory comes into the picture. Soil scientists have a knowledge of the amount of nutrients removed from the soil by a given yield on a crop. By making certain soil tests they can determine how much of the crop's needs can be supplied from the soil and how much must be supplied through fertilizer application, explains the county agent.

Alert farmers test their soil before planting to determine its ability to supply the necessary nutrients for top yields. If the soil test shows the soil is short on a certain nutrient, fertilizer of the recommended kind can be applied before deficiencies show up in the crop and the yield is reduced.

Low production means a higher per unit cost and less potential profit while high yields have the opposite effect upon crop production, Hooser says.

Soil testing, the county agent believes, is a necessary part of today's agriculture. Maximum yields produced at the lowest per unit cost are a must and the basis for both is a fertile soil, concludes Hooser.

Any farmer wishing to have soil tests made, can obtain instructions, the proper forms to fill out, and shipping cartons at the county agent's office in the county courthouse.

The Mayans invented their calendar about 300 B. C.

earlier in the year, as noted above. I was heartened by reports from within the Department that officials charged with evaluating the proposal had determined that it would be unwise to place these provisions in effect. I was informed by high level authorities within the Department that a decision had but all been made to leave the rules as they existed in this crop year. Because of these reports, I notified a number of my constituents that the Department was contemplating no action. I was startled, then, when the October 27 announcement was made.

While I appreciate the fact that the new rules are less restrictive than originally proposed, I must emphasize to you that their imposition threatens ruin for thousands of American cotton farmers. Placing this rule in effect along with the highly discriminatory new rules on micronaire reading in connection with the cotton price support loan program is an extremely serious blow to the general economy of the cotton farmers in the District I am privileged to represent.

I would ask that you make a personal review in depth of the ramifications surrounding the new skip-row rules. I am free to consult with you on this matter Staple lengths showed 10 per cent were classed 29-32 inch and shorter; 61 per cent 15-16; 21 per cent 31-32; and 8 per cent 1 inch and longer.

Mike readings were slightly better with 79 per cent reading 3.6-4.8, the desirable range, compared with 78 per cent a week ago. Other readings were: 2.7-2.9, 2 per cent; 3.0-3.2, 5 per cent; 3.3-3.5, 13 per cent; and 4.9-5.1, 1 per cent.

Pressing tests, which indicate the strength of the fiber, reflected the Eastern Panhandle cotton to be weaker in strength than last week. Eighty per cent of cotton tested was in the grouping 80,000 pounds per square inch and above, which is strong, compared with 94 per cent a week ago. Thirteen per cent tested 75,000-79,000 (average), and 7 per cent was in the range 70,000-74,000 (fair).

Turkey Turks Defeat Matador 22-13 In Final Game, Finish In 2nd Place

The Turkey Turks finished out their 1965 football season last Friday night at home with a 22 to 14 victory over the Matador Matadors.

Joe Bob Barnhill said before the game, "regardless of the outcome tonight, I feel we have had a good season."

The Turks' captains had the pleasant chore of crowning the Football Sweetheart before the game started.

Miss Cheryl Stephens received the crown from the hands of Captain Jerry Lane as Football Sweetheart Lane, her escort, presented her with the traditional flowers and a kiss.

Runners-up for the honor were Miss Rhenda Gafford, escorted by Captain Barry Lane, and Miss Glenna Cotten, escorted by Captain Jim Robison.

The game got underway, and the fired-up Matador Matadors marched down the field and made the score with Chip Smith going over on a 4-yard carry. Charles Meadow place-kicked the point after touchdown, and the score was 7-0.

The Homecoming crowd of Turkey was giving a lot of encouragement to the Turks after this, and the team came back with a fine 70-yard scoring run by Johnny Mullin around left end.

With the score 7-6, Turkey drew an off-side penalty of five yards on the point after touchdown attempt. Running from the ball placement, Barry Lane plowed his way across the goal line and the scoreboard read 8-7.

Turkey's Jerry Lane added the next TD for the team when he grabbed off a Matador pass and raced 30 yards to score in the 4th period. The interception was made possible by one of Turkey's hard-charging defensive ends who hit Matador's passer as he was tossing the ball. The attempt failed.

The Turks mounted another scoring offensive in the final minutes of the fourth period, when a pass play from Jerry Lane to FB Barry Lane got the team to the Matador 9-yard line.

Three plays netted the Turks two yards to the 7, but the hard-running ability of Barry Lane and the perfectly timed his teammates on a put another 6 points board. Lane added the conversion and the 22-7.

The Turks finished in a second place 6-B, behind the undefeated team, who beat Saturday's contest.
