Memphis Merchants Introduce 'First Monday Bargain Days'

Memphis merchants this week are introducing "First Monday Bargain Days." The move is the result of the decision of the retailers committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development, members of which have met recently under the chairmanship of J. M. Ferrel.

The announcement of the special bargain days in Memphis was made last week by Chairman Ferrel and President Byron Baldwin.

The combined effort is being made, according to the committee, to offer special savings on regularly needed items each first Monday during the month. The promotion effort will be continued through the first Monday in September.

Appearing on two pages of this issue are the specials which local business firms are offering. On other pages are other offerings which readers look forward to each week, and which may be obtained Monday, April 4, at the advertised prices.

Ferrel said that he was enthusiastic at the response which business men of the city have given the idea.

"We are hoping to develop the idea that Memphis is a good place to buy what is needed. The 'first Monday' promotion is to call upon area residents to visit the different stores—to take advantage of the specials which are advertised—and check the thousands of items our firms have in stock. As our records show, customers are coming from a wide area. We are attempting to carry in stock just about everything they call for—and our prices will bear comparison with those found anywhere," Ferrel said.

Members of the retailers committee, in addition to Chairman Ferrel, are: A. Anisman, Lee Brown, K. B. Chick, Herb Curry, Don Davis, J. O. Dixon, Bob Douthitt, Floyd Edwards, John Fowler, Gayle Greene, Henry Hays, Johnny Harrell, Bill Hall, Neva Hickey, Hubert Jones, R. C. Lemons, Bill Lockhart, Kenneth Maddox, J. E. Miller, Les Sims, Clyde Lee Smith, John Shadd, Wray Studstill, W. E. Stinsman, Herman Vallance and John Vallance.

Ferrel pointed out that the next monthly listings of "First Monday Bargains" will be published in the issue of April 29 of The Memphis Democrat.

He expressed his appreciation of the cooperation which the committee has received to date, and predicted that in future

County Spelling Bee Is Thursday

Tops Gilreath, County School Superintendent, director of the Hall County Spelling Bee, announced the local Bee will be held Thursday morning, April 7, in the High School Auditorium at Memphis at 10 a. m. Last year, Allan McNally, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McNally, Memphis, won Junior Spelling Bee, and Mrs. L. B. Snider, Sr., entered the Regional Contest.

The Junior Spelling Bee, open to only contestants from sixth and lower grades, will be held first on April 7th. Each County Junior Champion is given a trophy and a silver pin during intermission at the Regional Bee (but there is no regional contest between the juniors; they are merely guests for the annual Spelling Bee Luncheon held in the Amarillo Club on April 23rd. A County Junior Champion may enter the Senior Bee at the local level and become the County Champion in that division.

In the school contests, each winner receives a Paper-Mate pen, an engraved "School Champion" and a blue and gold ribbon and a blue and gold ribbon. Each junior winner receives a red and gold ribbon trophy. Each student who entered the Bee receives ribbon trophy also.

The National Spelling Bee, sponsored by newspapers throughout the 50 states, is in its 38th year. High Plains Champions have placed fairly high in contests, but none has won the national crown. Hall County has sent three Regional Champions to Washington. They were Sandy Smith, Rebecca Smith, and Conroy Lacy.

In the County Bee the winners of both Junior and Senior Bees will receive a gold pencil and will be luncheon guests of Memphis Business and Professional Women's Club along with their parents and sponsors at the Community Center.

The public is invited to hear the contestants spell orally for they are eliminated in this manner.

Six one-act plays have been entered and will compete in Jayton tonight for district honors.

This brings to mind the fact that the Thompsons before Billy also served as president of the area-wide group in former years. His father, E. P. As I recall, the organization came into being over a half century ago at the Herring Hotel in Lubbock when kindred spirits gathered for their first meeting. Billy was elected to the board in 1959, and has been a member since 1939. He served on the advisory board for the next two years. A Tired American Speaks Out

I am a tired American. I am tired of being called the ugly American. I'm tired of having the world penhandlers use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I am a tired American — weary of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned, and sacked by mobs operating under orders from dictators who preach and breed conflict.

I am a tired American — weary of being lectured by Gen. de Gaulle (who never won a battle) who poses as a second Jehovah in righteousness and wisdom.

I am a tired American — weary of Nasser and all the blood-sucking leeches who bleed Uncle Sam white and kick him on the shins and yank his beard if the flow falters.

I am a tired American — weary of the beatniks who say they should have the right to determine what laws of the land they are willing to obey.

I am a tired American — fed up with the mobs of scabby faced, long-haired youths and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity, and morality on which America grew to greatness.

I am a tired American — weary unto death of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of dollars.

I am a tired American — who is tired of supporting families who haven't known any other source of income other than Government relief check for three generations.

I am a tired American — who is getting madder by the minute at the filth peddlers who have launched Americans in an obscenity race—who try to foist on us the belief that filth is an integral part of culture—in the arts, the movies, literature, the stage.

I am a tired American — weary of the bearded bums who tramp the picket lines and the sit-ins—who prefer Chinese Communists to capitalism—who see no evil in Castro, but tin at President Johnson as a threat to peace.

I am a tired American — who has lost all patience with that civil rights group which is showing propaganda movies on college campuses from coast to coast. Movies denouncing the United States. Movies made in Communist China.

I am a tired American — who is angered by the self-righteous breaat-beater critics in America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am a tired American — sickened by the slackjawed bigots who wrap themselves in bed sheets in the dead of night and roam the countryside looking for innocent victims.

I am a tired American — who dislikes clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their children to private schools.

I am a tired American — who resents those who try to peddle the belief in schools and colleges that capitalism is a dirty word and that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed.

They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am a tired American — real tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest Nation in all the world—a generous-hearted Nation—a Nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some things that our system of free enterprise brought about.

I am an American who gets a lump in his throat when he hear the "Star-Spangled Banner" and who holds back tears when he hears those chilling high notes of the brassy trumpets when Old Glory reaches the top of the flagpole.

I am a tired American who thanks a merciful Lord that he was so lucky to be born an American citizen—a Nation under God, truly with mercy and justice for all.

NOTHING FUNNY

ACROSS the DESK

What Other Editors Say

There is an old saying that a city never stands still, it either advances or slips backwards. The same thing holds true when applied to a business man, farmer, or individual in just about any kind of endeavor.

You have to shift with the changes, to adopt new methods and new techniques in order to stay abreast of the times.

The president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, speaking Wednesday at a meeting in Amarillo, attended by several local Chambers members, said that things will change in this country more in the next 15 years than at any similar period in history.

He had reference to technological changes, in new methods of transportation, marketing, in the new products offered, in the different ways of doing things.

This is hard to realize when you consider that we have seen a lot of changes in the field of consumer products and transportation in the past 15 years. Look back to 1951, consider the products you are using now that you didn't have then.

In the field of transportation and communication are the greatest changes being created. Already it is possible to board a jet plane in New York and get off the plane in Dallas about 20 minutes later, allowing for time changes.

Jet travel, non-stop, from Dallas to New York in 2 1/2 hours is being done daily. Coast to coast travel in 3 1/2 hours is seen as a commonplace thing very soon. Transatlantic travel takes minutes and hours when it used to take weeks.

In the field of communication, the satellites that have been shot into orbit have opened up a new vista of instant communication with any point in the world. This has had the effect of shrinking our horizons, of making us conscious of our world neighbors, and when the language barrier is broken, it will be even faster communication.

Some experts believe that we are facing the third revolution in America in the 20th Century. The first two were hardly noticed, except by experts, but the third one is getting more noticeable all the time.

Historians have noticed that the first revolution was from the farm to the factory, back in the early 1900's, as part of the shift from agriculture to manufacturing in this country. Agricultural production increased with the application of new tools, machines, and techniques until it took far less people to produce food and fiber.

The second revolution was the move from the factories to the offices and service trades. Industrial productivity climbed with the introduction of machines on

Not only the clerical people but those of middle management are in a revolution because some machines now made decisions formerly made by men.

The current revolution is a real one and one that will change our country. The wise individual or business will shift with change because it is inevitable. Techniques of yesterday will become only a memory.

To survive a person must learn something new. It is the ways things are. — Ochiltree County Herald.

the hospital insurance until after March 31."

Briggs had these pointers for elderly people who have received or may soon be receiving their health insurance eligibility cards:

1. Don't be concerned if a neighbor gets his card and your card hasn't yet arrived. Mailings started February 1, but will be continuing for many weeks. Also, there will be instances where a husband and a wife, both 65 or over, will receive their cards on different days. In general if you sent back the enrollment card you received in the mail for the voluntary medical insurance before January 15, you should have your health insurance card by now. If it hasn't come, or if it doesn't show your eligibility for both medical insurance as well as hospital insurance, get in touch with your nearest social security district office right away.

If you sent back your enrollment card on January 15 or later, or if you signed up for the medical insurance plan at your social security district office, your card will arrive after March 15.

2. Don't change the writing on the face of the card. If your name is shown incorrectly or any other detail is wrong, ask your social security office to get you a corrected card. In this way, you will also correct any mistakes in your social security record.

3. Keep the card in a safe place at home, or if you are frequently away from home, carry it with you in your billfold or purse. Carry the card with you when you go on vacation or travel on business. Starting July 1, it

United States.

4. Do keep any hospital or health insurance you may now have, until July 1 when the two new programs go into effect. By July 1, your present plan will have been in touch with you. Most Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans will not duplicate medicare coverage for policyholders or subscribers 65 or over, but may offer plans that will supplement benefits provided under medicare.

5. If you lose your card, notify your social security office and a duplicate card will be issued to you. Your health insurance card and the benefits it represents are not transferable. Intentional misuse of the card by a person other than the one to whom it was issued is unlawful and will make the offender liable to a penalty.

6. Get in touch with the people in your social security office if you have any questions about your rights under medicare. The well-intentioned but possibly incorrect information passed on by friends and acquaintances might result in a loss of benefits.

7. If you have been putting off your decision on signing up for the voluntary medical insurance, remember, time is running out. The enrollment period for persons 65 or over before January 1, 1966, ends March 31. Those who fail to sign up by then will have to wait 2 years for another chance to enroll.

Over 16 million older people were sent enrollment cards in the mail, along with a postage-free envelope. Anyone who has lost or misplaced his card can get another one from his nearest social security office. Anyone who has not received an enrollment card in the mail, can sign up for the medical insurance at the nearest social security district office.

Despite the great strides in medicine in the last decade, a one-shot cancer cure isn't in the cards according to no less an authority than the chief of the cancer branch of the U. S. Public Health Service. A stumbling block in the serious search for a cure is the fact that there are between 100 and 150 different diseases in the category of cancer.

Many new drugs show promise, but research has disclosed that a drug effective against one type of cancer is ineffective against another type of the dread disease. Heartening, however, is disclosure through research that some malignancy is caused by viruses. For many years viruses were excluded from study in cancer research in the belief that they had no connection with the disease.

It might be heartening to know that your prescriptions are filled quickly and professionally at our pharmacy, where quality and friendly service are the main stock in trade. Get acquainted at PARSONS-LOCKHART PHARMACY, 115 South 6th Street, Memphis. Phone: 259-3541 the state as we read the newspapers which come across our desk. This recalls to mind something I wrote back in the 30's about my state, which my beloved wife and I have traversed for over half a century: "The state richest in tradition, history and heritage; most colorful in its past, most generous in its opportunities, most promising in its possibilities." Today our great state is being recognized for the results which were seen for it 35 years ago. Our county has moved forward with the advancement of times, and I would guess that we have more beef cattle here today than were on the ranges in 1900. The irrigated pastures of new bermuda grasses may be the future of the cattlemen. The use of fertilizer and new methods of farming have proved their worth.

As Spring arrived with temperatures varying from 27 to 92 degrees, we oldtimers were not surprised. But a look at plants and trees shows blooms and buds which are nature's way of pointing to the future. Citizens are working their flowerbeds and yards at a rapid pace. Blooms are showing in many places already, and the annual battle against weeds and dirty alleys is underway.

A drive over town is always an interesting experience, and one I have enjoyed for many years. There is much remodeling and improving of homes being done. But one sees much which is dirty and untidy which should be corrected. Why not start now in a general tidy-up and brightening-up of every home in our town? It will not take a lot of time and work, but it does take pride and the desire to make your home more attractive.

One of the greatest assets in our community is our Carnegie Library. Too few people are taking advantage of the volumes and information which is available here. Your Commentator suggests that you visit the library. You will find one (or more) books which you will be glad that you have read.

The most surprised person who attended the Atlatantean Club Style Show last Friday night was your Commentator. As the program opened, I heard the narrator, Mary Helen Sexauer, announce that "we are helping to celebrate the birthday of one of our beloved citizens." Next thing I knew Bryon Baldwin grabbed me and said, stand up—she means you. I stumbled to my feet, feeling surprised and flattered, as the group sang "Happy Birthday." From that moment on, I paid special attention to all the beautiful models, from the little boys and girls to the beauties who wore the latest for spring and summer. The comments to me from several persons present were appreciated.

In passing, I want to say that this is one of the most impressive presentations of any cult in our city, and the style show Friday evening was the best I have ever attended. As I looked over the audience, I wondered why about nearly every woman present was not going across the stage. They were beautiful and dressed in the latest fashions!

Haven't heard any good fish stories lately. At this time of year, many local citizens, especially farmers, find some excuse to go somewhere and cast their lures into the waters. Through the years, I have envied those who pursue the finned tribe with all the equipment and skill they possessed. But I have wondered, for a long time, why more of them did not invite me to go with them. I can tell of fishing experiences in past years which have brought a thrill—which some might not believe, which goes back to the time I was a barefoot boy down in North Texas with cane and pole on to those new-fangled (as they were called 40 years ago) rods and reels. Will wait and see what happens to those who use this time before seed go into the ground to report to me.

My heart was again saddened this week with the passing of two friends, both of whom were buried in Fairview Cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. T. M. McMurry, age 94, of Dumas, who with her husband and fine family, helped to record much of our history. Mr. McMurry was in business here, and set a fine record of progress. She was the mother of seven sons and five daughters, and residents from the turn of the century will remember McMurrys. When I visited her last year, she was also active... interested in her of Mrs. Eula Trulove. The her devoted attention to mother and father in years. She was one of the est and most understanding sons I have ever known. Trulove will be remembered here, on the east side of square from 1904. Mrs. Christenson, who established boot shop in 1903, and going for many years to son, Cris.

A report is being circulated that a 60-year old man has tooth. But it may be false.

Reading Teachers Attend Workshop Here Friday, Study 'Words In Color'

"Words in Color" was the subject of a workshop for special reading teachers held in the Area Office in Memphis, Friday, March 31.

Miss Bertie Rogers, a consultant of Encyclopedia Britannica Press, a division of Encyclopedia Britannica, held the workshop for teachers of this area. Eleven school districts were represented. Hall County teachers attending the workshop were: Mrs. Pattie Estelline; Miss Zady Walker, Mrs. Richard A. Dale Connolly, Mrs. Robert L. Coker, Mrs. Ann Coker, Mrs. Nathan Hughes, Mrs. Anne Foster, Lakeview. Miss Rogers explained the newest of the new approaches attempting to solve the reading problem, which appears to be the "words in color" method devised by Caleb Gattegno.

Using a system of color-coded sounds, he has applied a specific color to each of 20 vowel sounds, as well as 27 colors to the consonant sounds. According to Dr. Gattegno, "Since the intention is to make English a phonetic language without altering the spelling of English words, we have used color to differentiate among the sounds, using the same color for the same sound, regardless of the spelling, and different colors for the same sign when it sounds differently."

Pupils discover new words. As the pupils acquire a surer grasp of the words, sentences and stories are introduced. Although the use of color appears to be the distinctive feature of this approach, its main purpose is to introduce and reinforce the pupil's mental image of the sound-sign relationship. Dr. Gattegno emphasizes, "The most distinctive characteristic of our approach is not so much the use of color to make a language quasi-phonetic, but in the fact that this method uses the dynamic properties of the mind."

Around and About

By HELEN COMBS

Memphis was well-represented at the Santa Rosa District, TWFC Convention, in Vernon Monday and Tuesday. All five federated clubs sent delegates and approximately 20 women from Memphis attended the session.

We are delighted to announce that two Memphis clubwomen will serve on the official staff for the next two years. Mary Helen Sexauer was elected first vice president and Wilma Martin was named district treasurer. Memphis clubs also won numerous awards for their reports on various club projects this year. A list of these can be found in the convention story published on another page of this issue.

We drove down to Vernon with Lorraine Tarver, Tomacell Greene and Lottie Kinard. We left Memphis Monday morning since Lottie needed to be in Vernon early as she was the jubilee of the house party at the Jubilee Tea. The tea was held in the home of Mrs. Lorraine Kent at 3001 Mansard St. in Vernon.

Mrs. Kent has a magnificent home which was beautifully furnished... but the things that took our eye was the beautifully landscaped grounds. The picture window in the den looked out on a beautiful patio and garden scene that was indeed a gardener's dream. We learned that the house was the one built by Bob Anderson, former secretary of Navy under President Eisenhower.

It's interesting to attend a convention and visit with the club women from the many towns in the area... and see the many interesting hats that are worn by the group. Tomacell and Lottie recalled that the conventions of today are not fashion reviews as they were a number of years ago. In those days the conventions lasted three or four days... and the delegates brought their clothes in trunks. It took that long for them to be able to show off all their wardrobe, even changing two or three times a day, they recalled.

And, speaking of fashions, we thought the annual Atalantean Club style show was unusually good this year. The food was delicious, and the models all beautiful. Also, the spring clothes were unusually pretty this year. A number of suits were shown—and we like suits! Of course, shifts are still much in demand...

and we ladies all like them because of the comfort.

Members of the Future Nurses Club are assisting with the drive for Crippled Children this week. Be sure to assist these young girls with the drive by purchasing a lily from one of them Saturday. These girls are to be commended for their volunteer service to the hospital, as well as this worthwhile project. The patients enjoy the young nurses' aides, and we have heard several of the nurses comment on how many steps they save by their volunteer service. I am sure the girls are receiving much personal satisfaction from their work as well.

Remember the Hall County Talent Show will be held Monday night at 7:30 in the High School Auditorium. Proceeds will go to the Hall County Chapter of Crippled Children. A portion of this money is kept here to aid in the treatment of crippled children and adults.

Speaking of conventions, I read the other day where an editor said when he went to conventions he always tried to leave his troubles behind... but SHE always managed to come along!

And we heard a Texas rancher went up north. He went into a fashionable eating place and noted on the menu: Hereford steaks... so much... Angus steaks... so much. He placed his order for a Hereford steak with the comment that he could tell the difference. Shortly afterward the head cook came over to the table and said, "Sir, I am sorry but we cannot serve your steak. 'Why not?' the Texan asked. 'Well, sir, I am sorry but we cannot tell the difference.'" the cook stated.

What's in a pocket of poverty?

People. People suffering indignity and inhuman frustration.
Whose concern are they?
Everybody's. Yours and mine.
Because every Faith says the well-being of others is the business of everybody.
See what can be done where you live—then see that it gets done.

How? One place to start is where you worship. It can become, with your help, a surprisingly important center for initiating local programs, and for generating encouragement for, programs that already are in action. And this is just one way you can change things for the better—in your community, the nation, the world. Worship this week. Even more important: put your Faith to work every day.

All Farmers, Ranchers Make Plans Plant Midland Bermuda Grass Soon

Farmers and ranchers are preparing for planting midland bermuda grass in the county this spring, according to Keith of the Soil Conservation Service.

Example of this practice was seen on the Joyce Webster farm southwest of Pliska. Webster established 41 acres of bermuda grass on this farm. Before the grass was established some of the soil had been silted in by overgrazing from Oaks Creek. The farmer has offered land protection as a supplement to his operation. A good cover has been maintained during the windy season to protect the land from blowing.

When putting out bermuda grass should be used in the rotation of the seedbed and during the first growing season. Normal person would prepare a seedbed that would be suitable for planting a field crop.

Grazing management is another part of a good pasture program. Grazing should not be done on new bermuda grass or irrigated until 75 per cent of the ground is covered and the average height of the grass is 8 inches.

Fertilization is necessary on most soils for high yields. Each ton of dry grass contains approximately 30 pounds of nitrogen, 10 pounds of phosphorus and 30 pounds of potassium. When plant food is removed by haying or grazing it must be replaced for sustained plant growth.

Each spring after the grass has become established it should be allowed to make a good growth of about an eight inch leaf height before livestock are turned on the pasture. This allows the grass plant to develop its leaves and store some food in the root system. For best production during the growing season a leaf height of five inches should be maintained. About two or three weeks before frost livestock should be removed from the pasture to allow the grass to store food in its root system and to make a good cover for winter.

Properly managed bermuda grass is one of the better grasses for this area. Bermuda grass will fit into a livestock operation and can reclaim some soils that have been considered worthless.

Some people are just like taxi drivers. They go through life just missing everything.

Hoot Jones To Compete In Texas Relays

Hoot Jones, who is a track man on the North Texas State University freshman team, competed last weekend in the NTSU Track Meet in Denton.

Jones runs on two relay squads, and they placed third in both events, and qualified to go to Texas Relays this weekend at the University of Texas. The Texas Relays has a large field of entries, possibly one of the largest meets in the nation.

Jones ran a 21.7 on his 220-yard leg on the sprint medley relay. The team came in third, behind Abilene Christian and Howard County.

In the mile relay, Jones ran a 50 second flat quarter off the blocks aiding his team to turn in a time of 3:17.7, again placing behind ACC and Howard County. It was reported Jones almost fell as he came off the block on his start which possibly hurt his quarter time.

The Turkey Turck track team captured a tie for first place in the 885-yard dash with a time of 2:07.7. King of Turkey and Cantales of Petersburg each had identical times in the event.

Memphis' 885-yard boys, William Welch and Roger Fowler, came in third and fourth, respectively, with times of 2:09.8 and 2:10.8.

The relay teams of Memphis were the highlights of the meet, posting outstanding times in capturing their events. Track Coach Bert Glascock said:

Then the mile relay team of Roger Fowler, Roy Long, William Welch and Clyde Wilson posted a 3:36.6 mile time to win that event.

Memphis was not without first places in several individual events also in capturing three trophies at the meet.

Clyde Wilson turned in his fastest 445-yard dash time of 51.9 to win this event and his running mate, Roy Long, came in with a 52.8 to place third in the event.

Memphis' pole vaulters, Kay Miller and Tony Pounds, got all tied up with O'Donnell's Moore at the 11-foot, 8-inch mark and the event ended up in a three way tie.

Pounds came back in the high jump and cleared the bar at 5'6" mark which got him into a third and fourth place tie.

Mike Limer ran the mile run in 4:54.1 only to place fourth behind other boys.

In the 220-yard dash, Devore had a qualifying time of 23.5 and a final time of 24.2 which placed him fifth in the event.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank Dr. Goodall and all the sweet nurses for their good care for me while I was in the hospital, and also our little future nurses—they were so sweet; and those who visited me. Their prayers, the nice gifts, cards and flowers were appreciated; also Bob Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Snider for seeing I got the paper each morning; and also the ones that wanted to come, but due to sickness or some unavoidable occurrences couldn't come. I thank my sister, Mrs. Ritchie and Aulia for plenty of fresh flowers.

God bless each of you. I love you.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"Did you ever consider getting yourself another wife that COULD manage on the salary I pay you?"

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the entire staff at the Hall County Hospital for their tender care and kind words while I was a patient there; also to Dr. Clark for his ministrations to me; and the cooks for the good food. I also appreciated each card and letter which was sent to me during my illness, and the flowers and visits.

I hope, if you are ever sick, that the same love and kindness will be shown to you.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

You Can Pest-Proof Your Home
You can "pest-proof" your home with a combination of regularly scheduled good housekeeping practices and the proper use of the right pesticides at the right time, says W. B. Hooser, County Agent.

With our modern pesticide products designed for safe home use, we can now control a host of annoying insects, rodents and other pests that try to live with us, explain the county agent.

These pests are not only annoying to us, but they can also be dangerous if allowed to increase in numbers. If left unchecked, they could lay waste to the food on our kitchen shelves, ruin our clothes that hang in the closet, attack the building materials in our homes, and in general make life miserable for humans and their animal pets.

Our progress with pesticide materials has enabled us to purchase pesticides in many forms that will supplement our housekeeping practices to "pest proof" our homes, and in general, make life worth living.

Pesticides are designed to cripple and kill pests. But these same materials can be dangerous to humans and pets, too, if handled carelessly. When you make a pesticide purchase, you also assume the responsibility to use the products correctly as directed.

Basic rules for the product's use are found on the label, along with other timely information about the pesticide. Additional helpful information is available on pesticide use at the county agent's office.

An estimated 500,000 children will be the victims of accidental poisoning this year, so it is high time, while we "pest proof" our homes, to check on the safety practices involved in connection with the use of pesticides, as follows:

1. Keep household products, medicines and pesticides out of reach and out of sight of children, preferably in locked cabinets or closets.
2. Store medicines separately from other household products and keep these items—and pesticides—in their original containers. Never store them in cups or soft drink bottles.
3. Be sure that all products are properly labeled, and then read the label each time before using.
4. Always turn the light on when giving or taking medicine.
5. Since children tend to imitate adults—avoid taking medications in the presence.
6. Refer to medicines by their proper names. They are not candies.
7. Clean out your medicine cabinet periodically. Get rid of old medicines by flushing them down the drain, rinsing the container in water, and then discarding it.
8. Never pour pesticides down the drain. Dispose of pesticide products by wrapping the container in newspaper and placing the wrapped package in the garbage can.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Young over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young and son, Robert, of Midland.

Hall County Singers To Meet Sunday, April 3

The Hall County Singers association will hold its 10th annual singing at the First Church Sunday, April 3, until 4 p. m., Mrs. Anna Dell, secretary, announced this week.

We are expecting singers from Shamrock, Childers and towns. People who are interested in singing are really in for an enjoyable afternoon. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my friends and neighbors for their visits and which I enjoyed while in Hall County Hospital. Especially do I thank Dr. Emerson and Dr. Goodall for their care, and the nurses at the hospital and all the staff who were so kind to me. I shall never get your kindness and the fullness.

GROWING AMERICA

People in the Government are not neglecting the farm are not neglected. The root strength of America is still in the soil.

ed and that opportunities on the farm are not neglected. The root strength of America is still in the soil.

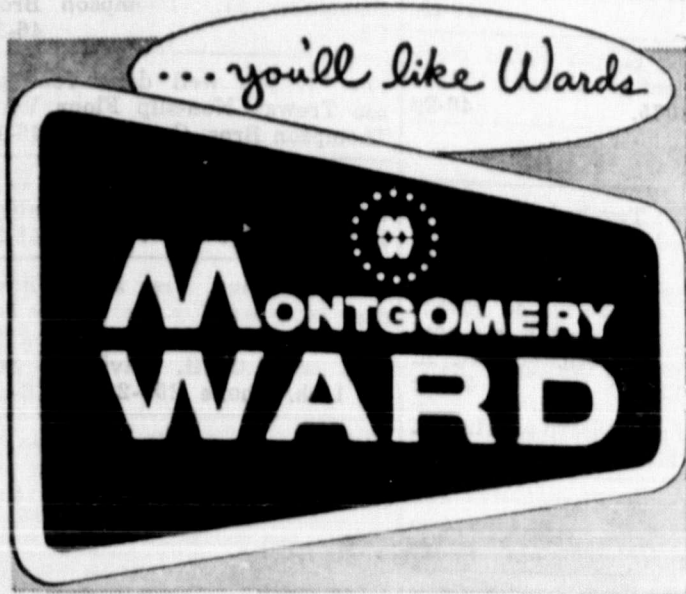

Some of the same people are falling apart at the neck. A recent national poll showed that while nearly half of all Americans live in cities, nearly half would prefer to live in farms.

It is recognized by the years ahead that a rapid increase in population, and that by the country will have some serious problems. It is obvious that more millions into very serious problems, among others, is not the solution for the future.

opportunities need to be developed in every corner of the small towns and large areas as in urban. Business and men in public levels recognize this, the public and private are encouraged to develop. Several before the 89th Congress promoting rural development. Among them is the proposed "Community Development District Act of 1965" which has not yet been passed by the House but are expected to pass. The measure would coordinate area-wide development of facilities and whether this legislation is generally supported in the country remains to be seen, but it points up the thought is being given.

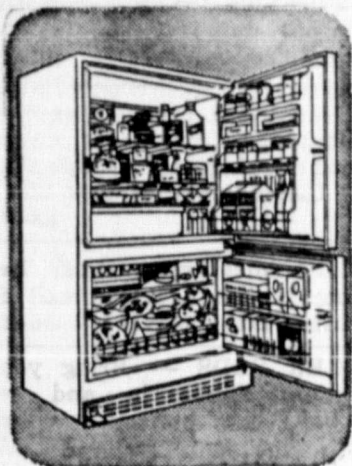

the Panhandle have a great deal about area development and the pattern we can follow will be studied and elsewhere. Blessed with resources and excellent climate, the people of the Panhandle have been able to attract in a relatively short time a unified economic development in agriculture and industry. As further strides are being made in developing the Panhandle agricultural potential as well as its mineral resources, we are witnessing a steady upsurge in population in our area and on the land and an ever larger choice of vocation to attract Panhandle people who wish, after graduation from high school or to make their permanent home in their native area.

"talked up" the Panhandle for business and industrial development for years, as have many of us. I am convinced that America is becoming more aware of the advantages of rural operations. We are some of this in the Panhandle and we will see more as men in private enterprises make these decisions. The reserve of skilled, enthusiastic men and women in industry have a halting the trend to the already crowded urban areas of the country and are for opportunities to move as like our Panhandle beneficiaries. While, we must continue to see that the agricultural economy is strengthened.

Safety Merit Award Given Electric Co-op

Hall County Electric Cooperative, Inc., of Memphis, received the Group C, Certificate of Merit, for over the road operations in combined industrial fleet, utility, rural electric distribution, by the Texas Safety Association Wednesday.

The Hall County Cooperative was one of several winners of safety awards in the Texas Safety Association's annual Fleet Safety Contest announced yesterday at the 27th Annual Texas Safety Conference and Governor's Highway Safety Conference being held at the Hotel Adolphus in Dallas.

The awards for outstanding fleet safety records and superior accident prevention programs are presented by the Association on a competitive basis, to organizations and individuals throughout the state.

Groupings of winners are made by type of fleet, kind of vehicles, city or highway use, size groups and sub-types of operations.

The size groups A, B and C are determined by the total mileage traveled by a fleet during the previous year.

Fleets are classified further as industrial or for hire; trucks, passenger cars, or combined fleets; over-the-road or local city operations; and types of operations. Certificates of merit or given for perfect safety records in the under 175,000 mileage class.

and a program and party for the senior citizens each year. The Pathfinders will continue to study and work as its theme of this year's programs indicate: "Service—Our Responsibility."

Mrs. W. F. McElreath was presented with an award for the longest and most outstanding record of leadership in the club. Mrs. McElreath became a member of the club in 1928 soon after it was organized and through her leadership and support the club has continued to grow. She was named Pioneer Clubwoman in 1937. She has inspired the club to try and attain the objective for which the Council was organized: "Intellectual Development and Character Building."

Past presidents present were Mmes. W. V. Coursey, W. F. McElreath, A. Gidden, Earl Pritchett, Cleaton Srygley, Hester Bownds, W. F. Ritchie, Hall Nelson, Amarillo, A. O. Gidden, J. J. McDaniel, J. F. McIntosh.

The head always starts a swelling about the time the mind stops growing.

TO SELL LILIES—Members of the Future Nurses Club, pictured above, will take donations for the Easter Seal Drive sponsored by Hall County Society of Crippled Children and Adults. These girls will make house-to-house calls on April 8 and 9 and will sell plastic lilies on the streets Saturday. Slogan for the drive is "Soon Things Can Be Better for him and other like him—if you Help!" Remember to buy a Lily Saturday!

Japanese Play Entertains Little Theater Members

The members of The Memphis Little Theatre met in regular monthly session in the home of Mrs. R. E. Roark, 501 South Sixth, Wednesday, March 23. Besides the members, four guests enjoyed the afternoon's festivities: Mmes. Jack Boone, Jr., Lester Campbell, Bill Whitten, and F. W. Foxhall.

The title of the program, "Theatre Arts in Japan," was in two parts, and, in the absence of the program chairman, Mrs. Bob Sexauer, was introduced by Mrs. Herschel Combs. Virginia Browder gave a brief resume of the development of theatre arts in Japan, beginning with the "No" plays in the fourteenth century; then, the doll or puppet plays, and the Kabuki dramas.

All this by way of setting the stage for an original playlet presented "in the round" entitled "Moon Dreams". The story of a grandfather, Kimaya, played by Shirley Miller, visiting in a Japanese garden with his granddaughter, Tsha, played by Katherine Jones, was thoughtfully portrayed by these two members of The Little Theatre.

A brief business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Harry Boswell, followed the program. There was much discussion "pro and con" as to the sponsoring of a public performance of a three-act play in the near future. Further investigations are necessary before a definite decision can be reached.

GARDEN TIPS

By Mrs. G. D. Stephens

If you have dahlias clumps which survived the winter, don't forget to treat them for red spiders with Dy-Siston.

Course Four Flower Show will be held April 26, 27 and 28, in Children's Home, 3400 Bowie in Amarillo. Mrs. Joe J. Miller of 4320 Bowie in Amarillo is chairman of the school.

In the Lubbock area the Plains Iris Society will hold its spring show at the Garden and Arts Center, 4215 College Ave., on April 30 from 3 p. m. until 8 p. m. and May 1 from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. This show will be well worth your time, so make plans to attend now!

Besides being very unsightly, piles of grass clippings can breed flies as well. Although a three-foot pile of grass appears to be harmless and looks like a suburban version of a haystack, it is a favorite breeding place for flies.

To prove it, turn a stack of grass over and see what's going on inside. It's not pretty at all. According to a bulletin of the Health Department, as many as 3,000 house fly larvae or maggots have been found in a single pint sample of decomposing grass. The house fly was just one of four types of larvae collected from lawn clippings.

Put the clippings to good use as a mulch. Use on beds of shrubs, dahlias, roses, strawberries or anything that doesn't cover the ground completely.

Spread the grass clippings over the soil beneath them. The grass will check water evaporation and discourage weed growth.

Never use more than one inch of grass clipping per week.

It's time to think about our beautification program and that means clean up and paint up!

Local Women—

Interesting reports were given during the morning session by Department chairmen. Officers were elected during the business session which was presided over by the District President, Mrs. Johnson. The memorial service conducted by Mrs. Taylor George of Iowa Park concluded the morning session.

The Diamond Jubilee Luncheon was held at noon at which time Mrs. J. L. Ginnings, state president, addressed the delegates and visitors on "Diamonds in Federation."

Fashions for Fun style show was presented, after which special awards were presented.

Mrs. Jafes Fry of Burkburnett was selected as the Federation Outstanding Clubwoman of the Year; Mrs. A. L. Farrer of Matador was named the Teacher of the Year; Mrs. L. D. Boone of Seymour was named the Mother of the Year, and Mrs. Clark Gresham of Burkburnett was chosen Poet Laureate of the Year.

Theme of the convention was "Diamonds of Federation," in observance of the 75th anniversary. Decorations carried out this theme throughout the convention.
