Hall-Donley WCID No. 1 Receives State Priority Fri. On Watershed

Regional Meet Attracts 36 Hall County Students

According to a letter, dated April 18, and addressed to Paul Montgomery, chairman of the board of the Hall and Donley Counties Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, it was announced that the State Soil and Water Conservation Board re-affirmed the planning priority to the Bitter Creek, John Mann, Polecat Creek watershed granted on August 8, 1959.

"No new priority was granted since the previous priority had never been withdrawn officially by the board," Harvey Davis, executive director of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board, said in the letter.

"All priorities are granted contingent upon the local sponsors being able to show evidence that they can meet local responsibilities at the time that planning is actually begun. We believe that you meet these requirements. However, should any question arise, it will be reviewed with you prior to the initiation of the plan," Mr. Davis said.

"As you know, the Soil Conservation Service does the planning under this program and the State Board does not set any time schedule when priorities are granted. Representatives of the Soil Conservation Service will be in touch with you when they are in a position to initiate your plan," Davis concluded.

Wednesday Meeting
A joint meeting of the local sponsoring organization was held at 7:30 p. m. last night in the Commissioners Courtroom of the Hall County Courthouse.

Members of the Hall and Donley Counties WC&ID No. 1 board of directors, Hall County Commissioners Court, representatives of Donley County Commissioners Court, and other representatives were present.

Mr. Montgomery presided over the meeting and started off by reading the letter he received announcing the planning priority granted from the state.

He then introduced Dewayne Bartee, of Pampa, area conservationist, who brought the group up-to-date on the progress in the watershed and in the getting of the planning priority.

Mr. Bartee introduced E. W. Buchtien, work plan staff leader with the watershed planning party out of Waco.

Mr. Buchtien introduced his party consisting of P. K. Cook, civil engineer, J. M. Woodson, hydraulic engineer, J. M. Woodson, hydraulic engineer, J. M. Woodson, hydraulic engineer.

Memphis Track Coach Bert Glascock said the team will be running against many boys which they have never seen before. The schools south of Lubbock will be competing in the meet this year.

"None of the coaches in the Panhandle know how tough the southern schools will be at the regional," he said.

Cyclone Thinclads Take 2nd Place At District

The Memphis Cyclone track team fell only 10 points shy of winning the District 2-A track meet at McLean last Thursday. Wellington won the meet with a total of 135 points to Memphis' 125 points.

An unfortunate event possibly cost the Cyclone a victory when Roge Fowler, one of the local squad's two best 880-yard men, took a spill after being bumped while competing in that race. Fowler turned two flips, walked away from the spill, but not without receiving several painful skinned areas and bruises on his legs, hips and back.

The Cyclone thinclads went to Hobart Invitational Meet Saturday and got revenge over Wellington by walking away with the three meet trophies. One trophy was the team-point one and the two others were for winning the mile relay and the sprint relay.

District Point Makers
Even though the Memphis lads did not win the district, the local squad turned in a fine performance at McLean.

The 440-yard relay team of Peters, Wilson, Devorce and McFalls took first place with a time of 44.7. White Deer placed second.

In the 880-yard dash, William Welch placed first with a time of 2:07.5. White Deer took second.

In the 100-yard dash, William McFalls, the meet's high point man, took first place with a 10-second flat time. Canadian took second.

In the 440-yard dash, Clyde Wilson took first place with a time of 51.8. Wellington was second. Roy Long placed fourth.

In the 220-yard dash, Wilson took second place and Danny Peters took fifth.

In the mile relay, Welch, Fowler, Roy Long and McFalls took first place with a time of 3:45.2. Mike Pounds tied for fourth place in the high jump. Kay Miller and Tony Pounds tied for third place in the pole vault.

The jumping team of McFalls and Dewayne Jones took first and second places in the broad jump.

Willie Devorce took fifth place in the discus.

William McFalls was named the high point man at the district, and received a medal. McFalls participated in the maximum number of events, four—three running and one field—and had four first places to his credit.

School Board Passes Desegregation Plan

The Memphis School Board, in action Monday night, passed an order putting into effect a school desegregation plan under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

The plan the board adopted Monday night is changed from last year in one basic field, the placing of students in schools at the elementary level. The entire plan is explained in an advertisement in this issue of The Democrat.

In other action by the board, all teacher contracts for all teachers presently employed by the Memphis Independent School District were renewed.

The board accepted with regrets the resignation of Mrs. T. H. Deaver, Jr., Mrs. Dalz Conally and Mrs. Linda Estes. Mrs. Estes announced her retirement in her letter of resignation. Mrs. Deaver and Mrs. Conally resigned for personal reasons.

The board set the tax rate for the 1966-67 year at the same rate as the 1965-66 tax rate for the district.

The School Board passed a resolution authorizing the State Health Department to assist in providing materials for tuberculin tests for the first and seventh grade students.

Supt. of Schools Shannon Doss discussed with the board the possibilities of establishing special education classes and a counseling unit in the Memphis School System for next year.

The board announced the slate of officers recently elected upon its reorganization after the election.

Lawrence Kennon was re-elected board president and R. B. Phillips was re-elected vice president. Harold Smith was elected secretary of the board.

Desegregation Plan
The Memphis board released the following explanation of the desegregation plan adopted Monday night.

"The Memphis Independent School District public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin. Your school board and the school staff will do everything they can to see to it that the rights of all students are protected and that our desegregation plan is carried out successfully.

"Under the desegregation plan, the school each student will attend depends on where he lives. An attendance zone has been established for each school in the (Continued on Page 10)

Being in the hospital for now back at my desk my feet propped up, as I stand winter back with us and weeds blooming in my place. This is a re-visit in Hall County.

ON A TANGENT—One of the best guys in the Texas news is J. Claude Wells, the Memphis editor who re-visited his interests in the Democrat, but who continues to write his bright column. Wells celebrated a birthday and though his health is not what you would call it, he retains the same sense of humor. An ex-Memphis, the fine old has been through the top booster of Memphis. In a recent column he observed: "A report circulated that a 60-year-old man has a new tooth. It may be false."

Mr. Wells:
I've learned from this letter (enclosed) that you are Mr. Wells that was dear and dear to us in the years, I take this method of you. I still have a vivid memory of the year 1901. As I was the teacher of our school Dist. No. 13. At that time I was 11 years old. The Golden Age of Youth! And now I am 60 years of age. How dear to me are the scenes of my

I came to Vernon in 1920 after my return from World War I. A member of the 16th Central Postal Directory, Unit A. E. F. We both enjoyed health and happiness through the years. Have two sons happily married, each with a son and daughter in high school and ready for college.

My business career has been in ranching and in real estate. There have been very fortunate oil royalties. Have retired a few years ago, but keep in Rotary, Vernon Boys Farm Bureau, Cham. of Commerce, and elder in Presbyterian Church.

My dear Mr. Claude, tell me about yourself and family. I thought of you so many times through the years and at times corresponding with my former teachers at Grove. The last one is the 1908.

Let us hear from you, if possible.
Most devotedly yours,

Mr. Wells:
My husband and I never fail to read your column each week and always miss it when it is not there.
I have noticed how much you have progressed in the field; in homes and their location and in the standard of living and the natural beauty that this area and others are experiencing in this new space age era.
I am writing to ask if you might have some telephones in the rural area around Memphis. It seems a shame to have no telephones (Continued on Page Ten)

265 Students Given Tuberculin Tests Tuesday

A total of 265 tuberculosis skin tests were given 1st and 7th Grade students of the Hall County Schools on the opening day Tuesday of the Greenbelt Higrant Health Office, Mrs. Helen Neal, state Migrant Health Nurse, stated.

Mrs. Neal was assisted in giving the tests by Mrs. Geneva Shropshire of Lubbock, R. N., and Mrs. Jo Wyatt of Childress, also a registered nurse.

Mothers who assisted with the tests were Mrs. Raye Ward, Mrs. Nancy Studstill, Mrs. Charlotte Harvey, Mrs. Johnnie Hutcherson, Mrs. Marie Chavez, and Mrs. Nancy Hindman.

Mrs. Neal said the students will return to the clinic Friday morning to have the results of their tests checked.

The tuberculin test is an easy, simple way to find out whether or not a person is infected with tuberculosis. In this test, a small amount of tuberculin is applied to an area of the skin on the arm. If there is no reaction when the doctor or nurse reads the test in a few days, there has not been any infection. If there is a reaction, the person has picked up a tuberculosis infection at some time, and a chest X-ray is necessary to see whether it has developed into disease, Mrs. Neal explained.

If the disease is diagnosed before it has a chance to spread, the patient will get well a lot faster, Mrs. Neal pointed out, and this is the purpose of the tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carley and Claudia visited in Dumas over the weekend with their son, Don Corley and family.

Matt Waller visited from Saturday until Monday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pierce.

Graveside Rites Held Saturday For Patsy Jeanne Lane

Patsy Jeanne Lane, the six-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Lane of Amarillo, passed away there April 14.

She was born Oct. 7, 1965, in Amarillo.

Mrs. Lane is a former resident of Hall County.

Included in the survivors, besides the parents, are grandmothers, Mrs. Della Daves and Mrs. Mae Hughes of Amarillo.

Graveside services were held at Newlin Cemetery Saturday, April 16, at 2 p. m. with Rev. Clifford Sanpier, former Newlin resident and pastor of Pentecostal Holiness Church in Oklahoma City, officiating.

Mrs. Don Wright And Daughter Are Doing Nicely

Mrs. Lucile Wright visited her daughter, Mrs. Don Reeves, and family in Canyon and son, Don Wright, and family in Amarillo over the past weekend.

Friends here will be happy to know that Mrs. Don Wright, the former Jo Ann Davis, is now doing nicely and has returned home from the hospital. Their baby daughter will have to remain in the incubator at the hospital for some time yet, but she seemed to be doing good at this time, Mrs. Wright said. She has been named Susan and was born April 11.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Farmers Are Urged To Practice Pesticide Safety

With farmers actively engaged in land preparation and spring planting, the problem of what to do with empty fertilizer and pesticide bags must be considered.

"Carelessness may creep into a farmer's busy schedule, and he may create a danger as well as eyesores on his property by improper disposal of the bags," says County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Some farmers can't resist placing the empty bags upside down on the nearest fence post. Sometimes entire fences bordering the fields are literally covered with the bags. Not only does this practice create an unsightly scene, but it is potentially dangerous. Cattle in surrounding pastures may be poisoned by remains of the fertilizer or pesticide, regardless of how small.

Dumping the bags over the fence at the end of the row can prove equally dangerous. Not only does such action litter the countryside, but empty bags have been known to blow into the path of a passing vehicle, causing a wreck, and, at times, serious injury.

Some farmers may argue that they don't have time to retrieve the bags during the busy planting season. In this age of mechanization, this is a lame excuse. Proper disposal of empty fertilizer bags, by burning or otherwise, benefits the farmer as well as those passing through the countryside, the county agent stated.

Watch For Poisonous Plants

Good management of pasture and range lands is an important factor in preventing livestock losses from poisonous plants. Approximately 80 species and varieties of poisonous plants are found in Texas, says County Agent W. B. Hooser. He emphasized the importance of the problem.

The losses from such plants, he adds, are a major economic problem since a study of numerous reports indicate the annual loss to the state's livestock industry is from $50 to $100 million.

Research and field studies in Texas and elsewhere indicate that the poisoning of livestock is more commonly the result of management, range conditions or kinds of animals rather than the presence of plants concerned, Hooser pointed out. Poor range condition from overgrazing or other conditions resulting in a lack of palatable forage is commonly the cause of poisoning. The real danger, explains the county agent, is whether or not the toxic species is grazed.

Many species of poisonous plants are seldom eaten, but some are relished by certain animals and may be taken in preference to other forage. Many poisonous plants are green at a time of the year when other plants are dormant. Too, frequent cases of poisoning occur when hungry animals are turned into new pastures or are given access to poisonous plants near pens, watering areas or along trails. Most poisonous plants are eaten because the animal is hungry and the toxic one is readily available.

In order that stockmen may have readily available information to assist them with the solution of the problem, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service have recently released a new publication on the subject. It is R-1028, "Texas Plants Poisonous To Livestock." Copies are available from the office of all county agents. The publication not only lists the plants of economic importance but also gives the area or areas where they are found, a description with many of them shown in illustrations, poisoning symptoms, kinds of livestock affected, and suggestions for management and treatment.

Beautiful Home Lawns Are The Result Of Good Management

Beautiful home lawns just don't happen. They are the result of good management, including the proper grass, fertilizing, mowing, watering and in some instances, drainage, says County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Knowing the right time to feed the lawn is as important as knowing what to feed it. Turf requires frequent feedings to remain green and vigorous throughout the growing season. Lawns should receive an application of complete fertilizer in the spring and again in early fall.

The spring application on Bermuda, St. Augustine and zoysia should be made about the time the grass begins to grow, says the county agent. The fall application of a complete fertilizer should be made about 30 days before the average date of the first frost, which is about the first of November in Hall County, he adds. Generally a fertilizer with a 1-1-1 or a 2-1-1 ration should be used and applied at the rate of 2 pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.

Bermuda, St. Augustine and zoysia lawns should also receive one pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet every 30 to 40 days during the growing season to keep them green and growing vigorously, says Mr. Hooser.

GREENBELT LONE STAR FARMER—Pictured above is Lakeview's Jimmy Earl Duke, a junior in Vocational Agriculture III class, who was named the Greenbelt District's Star Farmer. He will compete in the area contest as representative of the district. Duke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duke, has wheat and grain projects along with his cows and calves. He has been active in the Lakeview Chapter, holding offices and competing on judging.

Nitrogen is the key element in turf production. It produces vegetative growth and gives the plant a deep green color. Phosphorus stimulates development of a good root system and potassium affects the physiological processes of the plant, explains the county agent.

A deficiency of nitrogen causes stunted plant growth. The leaves are relatively small, thin and yellowish green to yellow, resulting in a condition often referred to as "firing," says Hooser. Phosphorus deficiency causes slow growth of the entire plant and the leaves to be an unhealthy dark green in color with irregularly distributed brown patches showing. Potassium deficiency causes stunted growth with the entire plant eventually drying up and taking on a brownish color.

The county agent says he has available detailed information at his office on many lawn problems and their solution and invites interested homeowners to come by for a copy.

Trees and shrubs should be selected which are adapted to the area and those which are not so susceptible to borer attacks. Ash, cottonwood, linden, soft maple and poplar are quite susceptible, he adds.

It is important that the pesticides be applied early in the spring before the borers get on the trees. Once they are on the tree, control is very difficult, explains Hooser. It is the borers which cause the damage.

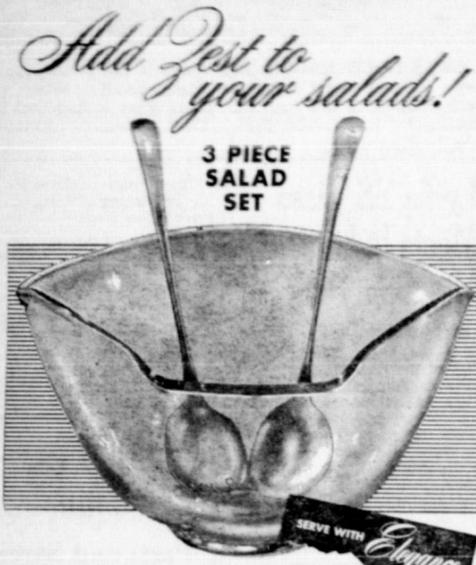

Visiting in the H. M. The home in Lakeview over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Mena, Ark., Maude Thompson of Dallas and Mrs. Frank Simon of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Hankson and sons of Memphis.

We were more fortunate than neighbors to the north. Temperatures here dropped to 33 degrees this week, according to J. Mickin. We were hoping to see the freeze . . . our two peach trees and a plum tree loaded with small fruit. And, noticed a new peach tree in our flower beds recently. A seed was planted there by one of our grandchildren last year. They love to plant seeds. We enjoyed turnips and as the result of their effort while they were visiting us last summer.

This is the yearly occasion for some 300 newspaper people from the tri-state area to discuss new trends in publishing, advertising and talk over problems, in general. Conventions are like a shot of adrenaline usually comes home to strive to do just a better job for the community than they have been doing in the past.

There is never a convenient time to be out of town if you wish a newspaper. This week we are going to be missing out on some nice affairs. There is a B&P Club bosses banquet on Friday night, and T. E. Noel of Denton will give a raffle of some of their prizes in recent years. Know this is the most interesting, and we miss Fama's pictures.

we will be back to enjoy band dinner Sunday at Community Center. We hear they are going to have all sorts of good food. That's what three girls, all band students, when we purchased two tickets from them Tuesday. Proceeds from the dinner will be used to help defray expenses for band to attend the Six Flags Festival and other trips.

Jack Davis, president of the bank, also used some of this brick in his new home which was finished recently, and we understand Ace and Jerry Gailey, who live on South 6th Street, are planning to use some of the brick for their two-story home.

Much improvement in both the residential section and downtown is being done as spring advances. On the east side of the square, two buildings have new fronts, and other improvements are being made to interiors. They are owned by Bill Cosby and J. E. Miller. Both look very good. their homes in Dallas and Fort Worth after attending the 64th wedding anniversary of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox in Amarillo, on Sunday.

The crash occurred a mile south of Decatur. The state police said a watch on Cox's wrist stopped at 1:15 a. m. indicating that was the time of the crash.

Dairy farmer George Atkins spotted the wreckage from his back porch Monday as he started to milk his cows, and said he realized at once that he probably heard the crash in the night and mistook it for thunder.

The cause of the accident was not definitely known. The State Department of Public Safety Federal Aviation Authority and the office of Sheriff J. R. Branch are investigating.

A classmate of Cox, George Bridges of Lawton, Okla., said Cox had been flying about a year, had a private pilot's license and was preparing to take his commercial pilot's license test.

Cox was a sophomore at Baylor University College of Dentistry in Dallas. Joint funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Gary Cox were held at 4 p. m. Tuesday in Clarksville.

Other than his parents and grandparents, Cox is survived by one brother, Mike Cox.

By VERN SANFORD

So the hunting bug bit you and you want to buy a shotgun. What gauge will be it be—10, 12, 16, 20, 28 or 410?

Any, or all, can be obtained from well-stocked gun shops.

Each gauge is suitable for a specific purpose, but there are several gauge guns that are considered all purpose. If you have an evergreen money tree out in the back yard, then go ahead and buy a gun for each gauge.

Unfortunately most of us don't have access to the money tree, so we have to settle for one gun, maybe two at the most. Gauge size is going to be dictated by what you plan to hunt.

A 10 gauge gun is strictly for hunters who use it for pass-shooting ducks. It's a small cannon and it packs a wallop, so think twice about it punishing your shoulder.

If each shot bruises your shoulder, then you better go for a smaller gauge if you expect to enjoy any kind of accuracy.

Above all if your hunting includes quail and dove, don't go for the 10 gauge. You won't be able to get small size shot unless you load your shells.

Best all-purpose gun is the 12 gauge. It packs the power and shot to down waterfowl at long range. With buckshot or rifled slugs it will handle deer and big game. Its effective accurate range with slugs, however, is limited to about 100 yards.

From 50 to 55 percent of the shotguns sold every year in the U. S. are 12 gauge. This ratio has been holding true for many years, and because of this popularity, a wide range of powder and shot loads are easily obtainable.

A 12 gauge will serve every purpose all the way from deer to waterfowl.

There was a time when the 16 gauge was almost as popular as the 12, but that was a long time ago. Today the 16 makes up about 23 percent of annual shotgun sales. However, this gun covers the same range as the 12 bore.

Whereas the popularity of the 16 is declining, that of the 20 gauge is increasing. This is especially true since the advent of models chambered to handle three-inch shells. In fact, with the three-inch shell the 20 gauge in the field is now capable of doing almost anything a 16 can do.

Although the 20 is a little light for long range duck shooting, it is adequate for waterfowl hunting over decoys, pheasant, quail and dove shooting. It's not much of a gun for deer, even with rifled slugs. Its range is much too short.

A 28 gauge should be limited strictly to small game and bird shooting other than waterfowl. It's a light fun that allows for very fast swinging onto the target.

A 410 will handle small game and birds up to about 30-35 yards. With slug ammo it will take care of small game to about 80 yards. But it isn't an adequate weapon for deer hunting.

Harmony Club Meets Wed. For Regular Session

The Harmony Club met in the home of Mrs. George Ferris at 4 p. m. on Wednesday, April 13.

During the business session, the club voted to establish a scholarship fund to aid worthy music students.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Richard Avery, program chairman, introduced the program on the theme, "Music for a Spring Day." Mrs. T. L. Rouse opened the program with a piano solo, "Fantasia in C Minor," which she composed. Mrs. George Ferris then accompanied a guest artist, Miss Sandy McQueen, as she played a trombone solo, "Morceau Symphonique," by Guilmant.

The third number on the agenda was presented by Miss Chalones Hoover, a piano pupil of Gertrude Rasco. She played the allegro, andante and presto movements of "Sonatine" by Gillock.

To conclude the program Miss Rasco gave a most interesting talk, "Beethoven by Moonlight," in which she sketched Beethoven's life and told the story of how his "Moonlight Sonata" came to be written.

Following the program, the hostess served delicious refreshments to three guests, Miss McQueen, Miss Hoover and her mother.

Shade trees are attacked by several species of borers. The two most important are known as roundheaded and flatheaded borers, says County Agent W. B. Hooser. Since the presence of borers is not always evident until it is too late to prevent extensive damage, good tree management is important in preventing borer attacks.

The county agent suggests that the trunk of you or transplanted trees be wrapped with nursery wrapping paper, burlap, aluminum foil or newspapers to prevent egg laying by adult borers. Wrapping, he adds, also aids in preventing sun scald and mechanical injury. Injured areas of the bark are particularly vulnerable to borer attack.

The trunks should be sprayed before they are wrapped. Hooser says, to use the insecticide powder form of these insecticides young trees when the wrapping is applied. Keep the wrapping all year and replace it if it comes torn, he says.

He advises keeping the trees healthy and stimulating growth by proper fertilization and watering. Prune out all dead or dying branches and paint the wounds with a good wound paint. Work made by lawn mowers or other machinery should be treated in the same manner.

Statement from Sen. Andy Rogers Concerning Issues

Due to the Federal Court's ultimatum, your Texas Legislature was forced to re-district. The old 30th District I have represented for nearly 14 years has been greatly enlarged—300 miles across.

This job of State Senator belongs to YOU, the people, not to me or any other candidate. The whole object of filling this post is that YOU elect the person best able to serve you—not necessarily the most popular, best known, and certainly not just the one who can spend the most money in a campaign.

I wish very much to see and visit personally with everyone, and will do so, as much as is humanly possible.

However, the huge size of our district, very limited money resources and the work and responsibility of my Seniority limits this personal contact, quite severely. Therefore, I sincerely request you to examine my record, satisfy yourself, and help me spread the word to others.

I am a farmer, stockman, and small businessman, 41 years of age; have been active in church, lodge, civic work and farm and Veterans organizations. My wife, myself, two daughters and one son are native West Texans, of the area including our Senate district. I served three years in the United States Army during World War II and have seven years of college—Texas A&M and the University of Texas.

It is dangerous in our State Legislature not to be a "go along to get along" person. It is dangerous to speak loudly and firmly against some big officeholders when you do not agree with them 100% of the time or oppose some of their programs you believe harmful to your District or State. It is dangerous to seek to really stop pollution of our surface and ground waters. It is, perhaps, even more dangerous to raise your voice against corruption in high places when it arises or to oppose the great-out-of-state owned corporations who have so much power in Austin—those who seek to evade their fair share of taxes and seek to shift an ever-greater burden to the worker, farmer and Texas-owned businesses.

Andy Rogers has done all of these and therefore is on their list for extermination.

When I first ran for the State Senate in 1952—there was then a great hue and cry to clean up the "mess in Washington". I was an oddity among candidates THEN, as I charged that "Austin is as rotten as Washington" and that "moral integrity is needed most."

I further demanded a law to require state officials and legislators to file for public record, a statement showing their income and its source.

This wasn't, and still isn't, the way to be very popular in Austin and certain other circles.

In 1954, I, and a few others, urged investigations into several matters, including the Insurance Commission, certain land transactions and certain state contracts. For our efforts we were slandered.

A few months later the lid blew off.

I have authored and passed legislation against obscene, dirty literature, pep pills and narcotics.

Yes, I have made many good friends among those who work for the interests of our District. I have also made many enemies of those selfish minority blocs whose interests conflict with those of our District.

In two of my more recent races they have used every trick: deceit, slanderous anonymous mail and threats to me and my closest friends.

During this race they have, so far, at least, been more subtle. But their money and power behind my opponents become more obvious each day.

This is not to say that my two opponents would employ or use these tactics—they both seem like nice guys—but they don't have to use them—some others will gladly and freely do this for them if they think it will work.

These methods of deceit, etc., have been perfected to an art. And, as has been said, "the perfection of art is to conceal art." But look closely—it is obvious they are at work—not necessarily because all of them love my opponents, but because they seek to destroy an old and proven enemy, Andy Rogers.

Meanwhile, my opponents readily seek and accept campaign money from various ones of these enemies of the people.

I and my family and some friends have suffered economically, socially and politically at the hands of some powerful lobbyists and others. But, I have not run from them in the past—I will not do so now, or in the future.

ISSUES

1. So, the first real issue in this race for the 30th Senate District post is, can those who deceive the people and try to manipulate the people and try to manipulate the Legislature and other state officials to their advantage, finally succeed with their tactics and limitless money?

2. In Wichita Falls, the main population center of our district, a group there, several of their number extremely wealthy, control their city and county. Now they intend to control your Senate representation in Austin. Recently, a banker, and very rich oilman, among their number called a "SECRET" meeting in Wichita Falls to rant and rave how horrible Andy Rogers was and to raise money for one of his opponents. He didn't bother with the facts. MORE IMPORTANT, he didn't tell why he was really against me.

The truth is that in 1959, Senator George Moffett and other leaders in Wichita Falls asked me to sponsor a law creating a pollution authority to control oil field pollution as Wichita Falls HAD to seek a new water supply and the proposed new lake would be worthless until firm pollution control was initiated.

I passed this bill for Wichita Falls and neighboring towns and it has brought wonderful results.

But the banker and oil man who called the "SECRET" meeting did not explain how he had been and still is considered one of the worst violators of pollution control.

Most of our oilmen, including the major companies have cooperated wonderfully with the pollution authority—but not this gentleman.

He regularly contacts our legislators and other state officials to try to destroy the pollution authority. He is regularly known to be one of the major political contributors to candidates on every political level.

Shall we let him destroy Andy Rogers who passed the bill to protect our water for all our citizens?

3. The "Iron-Curtain press." In my eighteen consecutive years in politics, I have never encountered any news media as slanted and biased as the Wichita Falls newspaper.

They have persisted in making "news" for their favorite son and denied every opportunity possible to let their readers know there are even other candidates running.

They have so arrogantly and flagrantly denied the public of its "RIGHT TO KNOW". Shall the voters reward this un-American like Institution???

4. Seniority. If a candidate has a voting record to please most of the voters, the next most important thing in his ability to represent them, is his Seniority.

Andy Rogers now ranks 6th in Seniority in our Texas Senate by virtue of 4 years in our House of Representatives and nearly 14 years in our State Senate.

Seniority in our Senate is the most important factor in determining which committees a Senator will serve on and which ones he will be chairman—and therefore his ability to serve.

Nothing else can take the place of experience and Seniority—it can't be purchased at the Supermarket or acquired by taking a pill.

This job belongs to the people, not me or any other candidate.

The people of our area have an 18-year investment in the experience and seniority of Andy Rogers. To elect either of his opponents would mean at least a 12-year wait to again have another Senator with this important asset.

Should the voters throw away this most valuable asset they already own???

There are many other subjects I would like to discuss. But I will close by saying it has been a privilege to co-author and work for the bill that made Midwestern a four-year state-supported school, to co-author and work for the bill that changed the name of West Texas State to a University and to have had a vital role in the efforts to place Texas Tech where it stands today.

Yes, check my record—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

Andy Rogers' long record of service for the people of our area is clear. You can know where he stands—while many have been known to falter and will in the terrible heat and pressure of the jungle of Austin politics.

WHY TRADE A RECORD FOR A PROMISE?? I need your vote and support. It will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,
(Signed) ANDY ROGERS

Agricultural Exports On The Rise
Recently in this newsletter I stated my emphatic opposition to expanding trade in any way, shape, manner, or form with communist nations, which are bent on freedom's destruction and which seek to be strengthened toward that end by obtaining manufactured and agricultural products from the West. While continuing my vigorous opposition to trade with Communism, I am in full support of cooperative efforts by Government and private enterprise to expand trade with our friends in the world. Dramatic gains have been made in U. S. agricultural exports. Latest estimates are that our agricultural exports in the current fiscal year will reach a record high of $5 billion—and some believe by 1970 our annual exports of farm products could grow to $10 billion. Exports now account for one of every six dollars that American farmers earn from the sale of their products. Exports of farm products constitute about 25 percent of all U. S. exports—obviously, are very important in the nation's balance of payments situation. Farm products for dollars totaled $4.5 billion last year when our dollar-earning imports of agricultural products totaled $4.1 billion. The ratio is forecast at $4.7 billion in dollar-earning exports to $4 billion in imports costing U. S. dollars.

Japan is now the No. 1 foreign buyer of the products of American farms. Its food purchases are soon expected to top one billion dollars a year. Japanese feed grain imports this year will be about 5.4 million tons, of which the L. S. will supply about 3.9 million tons. The amount we will supply is alone more than the Japanese expected their feed imports to total in 1970. In Japan as elsewhere in the world rising incomes are enabling more and more millions to enjoy better diets; the upward trend of gross national products in major industrial countries such as Japan is paralleled by the upswing in our dollar exports. Another important factor in the increase in farm exports is the increase of world population. The threat of famine hangs heavy over some areas, such as India, where in addition to supplying vast quantities of grain we are seeking to encourage programs to increase India's production of greater proportions of needed foodstuffs. I have continually urged the Department of Agriculture to push our overseas sales efforts, and very important to the present level of exports has been the work of groups such as the Grain Sorghum Producers Association headquartered in the Panhandle. There is a total of 45 agricultural and trade organizations cooperating with the Department of Agriculture to promote exports in some 70 countries. While this effort has been going forward, the Department of Commerce in March took a backward

Texas Highway Department Adds Zip To Program Of Driver Convenience

The Texas Highway Department added considerable zip today to its continuing program of driver convenience. The Department disclosed an initial plan to build rest rooms and unmanned information centers in safety rest areas throughout the State.

The initial plan involves nine rest areas which have been approved by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. Eight of the rest areas are in preliminary planning stages while one is ready to be let to contract.

When work is complete on the rest areas, they will be the first in Texas to be equipped with comfort stations and information centers.

The information centers will contain a large bulletin board to provide state-wide and local travel information and dispense maps and other materials. The centers are designed to promote travel and tourism in Texas.

All of the rest areas involved in the plan are located on Interstate Highways. Eventually, virtually all rest areas on Interstate routes will be equipped with comfort stations and information centers.

The work on the nine rest areas in the initial plan will be financed by federal funds under the Highway Beautification Act.

One of the projects ready for contract letting now is on Interstate Highway 35 3.5 miles north of Round Rock in Williamson County. Reconditioning work in both north and southbound rest areas will include the building of comfort stations as well as water and lighting facilities.

The eight other projects include: In Ward County on IH 20 two miles east of Pyote—Improvement of rest area, building two comfort stations and lighting facilities.

Hill County on IH 35W near Itasca—Construction of rest area including two comfort stations, water system and lighting.

Harris County on IH 10 east of Spur 330 east of Houston—Construction of rest areas including comfort stations, water system and lighting.

Hays County on IH 35 two miles south of Kyle—Reconditioning rest area including one comfort station, water system and lighting.

Bexar County on IH 10 a mile west of Farm to Market Road 1518 east of San Antonio—Reconstruction of rest area and construction of comfort stations, water system and lighting.

Harrison County on IH 20 about 3.4 miles east of FM 450 west of Marshall—Construction

Tourism — Important To Texas!

The Texas Highway Department's annual survey of the travel industry was released early this week and it shows beyond any doubt that tourism in Texas is growing and is becoming really big business for the Lone Star State.

According to the survey, 12,688,000 out-of-state persons traveling by automobile visited the State last year. A second record was set as this group's expenditure broke the $611,148,000 mark, a 16.8 per cent increase over 1964.

While the total visitors represented an impressive eight per cent gain over last year, the biggest plus for Texas was in their total expenditures. The fact that the average visitor remained in Texas a full one-half day longer than in 1964 accounted for a large portion of the $88 million increase.

Added to the above figures, the Texas Tourist Council, an Austin headquartered association of travel-related businesses, estimates that over four million visitors came to Texas via commercial carriers, adding more than $293 million to that automobile total spent for tourist services.

Here in Memphis, over the past few years, businesses primarily located to attract the tourist trade have sprung up and blossomed. The local chamber of commerce has been concerned by the increase in tourist trade here that it has developed a committee to work on encouraging and promoting our town to the traveling public.

Returned questionnaires from over 14,000 sampling stations indicated that over half of Texas' visitors in 1965 listed vacations as their primary purpose for visiting the State. Nearly one-third came to visit family and friends, while 19 per cent said they were in the state for business reasons.

Motels were the favorite for overnight accommodations by the highway traveler. The group staying with friends and relatives was second in number. The remainder used hotels, trailers, camping and other facilities.

Average spending per day for each visitor was $7.87, while the average spending per party was $23.60. Although the amount spent per day per visitor was down 10 cents, the average length of stay increased a full half day. The length of the average visitor's stay in Texas last year was 6.1 days compared to 5.6 days in 1964.

The survey revealed the peak travel period in Texas is during the months of June, July and August. Parents and children traveling together as a family unit make up the typical travel party during these months.

What is the State of Texas doing to increase the tourist business in the state? Through its travel and information division the Texas Highway Department strives to bring out-of-state visitors to Texas in ever-increasing numbers and to keep them within the state's borders the longest possible time.

During last year, the department's tourist information bureaus played host to 753,000 travelers. This total is 133,000 or 17 per cent greater than during 1964. Presently eight bureaus are located at key points-of-entry and in the rotunda of the State Capitol in Austin to provide professional travel counseling to the public.

What is vitally important to our area, a ninth Tourist Information Bureau is scheduled for completion this fall by the Department in Amarillo. It will be located to service south-bound traffic entering Texas on U. S. Highways 87 and 287 as well as east-west traffic on Interstate Highway 40.

Last year, the Travel and Information Division, in addition to assisting over three-quarters of a million visitors, also received and processed 224,000 mail inquiries for information were coupons received by the Texas Tourist Development Agency as a result of its media advertising program.

Since the 1966 tourist season is soon to get underway, we would take this opportunity to encourage our citizens and business establishments to do their best to extend a Texas welcome to the tourists. We are competing with every town and city in Texas for the tourist's dollar so our best foot should be forward at all times. Let's cooperate with the State in making Texas the vacation ground of the nation and reap the fruits of our labor in years to come.

What Other Editors Say

Attitude!

In this vibrant, surging Dallas-Fort Worth area, our community has witnessed a long list of individuals come and go as owners, managers or employees of various and sundry businesses. They fall into three categories. Some are good guys who would make good citizens, but lack adequate finances and know-how to succeed. Or they simply don't stick with their businesses or work hard enough. We invariably like these types of individuals, try to help them, but know it is inevitable they are not going to be permanent.

Another type is the arrogant ones who come here with a chip on their shoulders and with the avowed purpose "to show these hicks around here a thing or two". They're contemptuous of everybody and everything about the community. They know it all. They're wheelers and dealers and balls of fire. They're at constant odds with the city, the school board, other business men and would split the community into factions if they could marshal enough support.

But, alas, they eventually fizzle out and sneak out of town under cover of darkness... frequently leaving a host of creditors holding the bag.

Fortunately the law of average takes care of a community such as ours, because there is a third category of folks whom we want and will stay. They're the quiet, unassuming, hard working types who are sound as the Rock of Gibraltar. They have made up their minds in advance that they are going to like the community, the people and everything about it. And they do and they proudly say so. They're boosters and optimistic about their community's future. They fit right in and in a short time they become an established part of the community.

We've watched them come and go in the four-and-a-half years we have lived here. We've almost become an expert at prophesying how long a new business face will be around.

What kind of yardstick do we use?

If everything else is equal... adequate finances, know-how and willingness to work, the unfailing yardstick we go by is ATTITUDE.

We've seen them come and go. We've witnessed the hot shots move in, set the woods on fire at first, then fall flat on their faces. At the same time another may in the same business, start slowly but eventually flourish and even expand.

What is the difference between the two?

Attitude.

Income Tax Q. And A. Column

New Graduated Withholding Income Tax Rates

(Editor's Note: This column on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions about the new tax withholding system which becomes effective as of May 1, 1966.)

Q. What will the new income tax withholding rates do to my take home pay?

A. Generally speaking, the new system will increase take home pay for those who have been overwithheld and reduce take home pay for those who have been underwithheld.

To find out what the effect will be on your paycheck, ask the employer or the local IRS office for a copy of IRS Document 5642. Tables in this one-page fact sheet will enable you to compare the amounts withheld under both the new and the old system.

Q. Who has to file a new withholding exemption certificate?

A. All married people must file a new Form W-4 if they want tax withheld at the rates from the table for married persons instead of table for single persons. The law says that unless an employee files a new W-4 withholding form with his employer indicating he is married, he will be considered single for tax withholding purposes.

Some widows and widowers also will be concerned with filing a new Form W-4, and should see IRS Document 5642 for details.

Actually, all employees should review their withholding situation to see whether another W-4 form should be filed.

Q. When do the new withholding rates start?

A. The rates become effective May 1 and apply to amount paid on or after that date.

Q. Can I still claim fewer exemptions than I am entitled to under the new withholding system?

A. Yes, you can still claim fewer exemptions than you are entitled to, but the graduated withholding rates are designed to bring withholdings closer to actual tax liability and it may not be necessary for you to drop any of your exemptions.

Q. If the new withholding system is going to give the government more revenue, isn't that a tax increase?

A. No. The graduated withholding rates will only speed up collections, they will not change total yearly tax liabilities. In other words, the government will only be getting the amount of taxes it is entitled to at present rates but it will be getting it sooner.

Q. How will the new rates on withholding effect estimated tax payments for employees?

A. Generally, estimated tax declarations are required when the tax for the year exceeds tax withheld by $40 or more. For middle and upper income taxpayers, it should also reduce the amount required for estimated payments. Thus, under the new withholding rates, some employees may no longer need to file an estimate.

If you have to file declarations of estimated tax, check to see whether the increased withholding under graduated rates will meet your total tax liability.

Q. Can widows and widowers be considered married for withholding purposes?

A. For payroll purposes a widow or widower is considered married for the year of the spouse's death and for the two following years if he qualifies as a surviving spouse. Widowers or widows should claim their exemptions on line 2 of Form W-4. This is the line for married persons.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDA

by MAYOR H. J. HOWELL

GREETINGS:

Memphis, Texas has always recognized the existing or potential contribution of Texas' older population and realizes the debt owed by all Texans for their role in building Texas and Memphis into the great State and City it is today.

We must utilize this vast reservoir of talent, ability and experience through which our senior citizens can continue to play a major part in the future growth and progress of Memphis.

We must continue to recognize the vital position senior citizens play in our everyday lives as: parents, uncles and aunts; older brothers or sisters; cherished friends counselors; and fellow citizens.

Since not everyone is blessed with the gift of long life, those who are so endowed should occupy a place of special honor among us.

THEREFORE, I, as Mayor of Memphis, do hereby designate the month of May, 1966 as SENIOR CITIZEN MONTH in Memphis, and urge all persons to join in honoring their fellow citizens who have attained the years of counseling among us, and further urge everyone to participate in Observance—1966.

In recognition thereof, I hereby affix my signature this 20th day of April, 1966.

(Signed) H. J. HOWELL, Mayor

Band Buffet To Be Served Sunday Noon

Parents of the Cyclone Bands are preparing a buffet dinner Sunday at the Community Center and all citizens are urged to come eat with them following church services.

The meal, which will be served buffet style, will consist of delicious home cooked food. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any band member or Sunday at the door. Adult tickets are $1.25 and student tickets for Junior High age and under are 75 cents.

Serving will begin at 12 o'clock noon and continue until 2 p. m. "We will have plenty of food to serve everyone," Mrs. J. H. Barbee, Jr., publicity chairman, stated. "And we hope to have a big crowd come eat with us," she concluded.

Proceeds from the dinner will help to defray expenses of both the High School Band and Junior High Band on trips this spring. Mrs. Barbee explained. The Senior High Band will go to Hersford April 28 to enter the Interscholastic League meet and on May 4, 5 and 6 they will go to the Six Flags Music Festival in Dallas.

The Six Flags Music Festival is one of the outstanding festivals held in the state. The Cyclone Band attended last year and was selected as the Outstanding Band which was a distinct honor for Memphis.

The Junior High Band has two trips this spring, also. They will go to Stinnett one day and to Quanaah at another time.

Vocational Nurses School To Open In Memphis Soon

All women, between the ages of 18 and 55 years of age, interested in attending a School of Vocational Nurses are requested to file application as soon as possible, according to information released this week.

All applications should be addressed to: School of Vocational Nurses, Box 1251, Memphis, Tex. Applicants should be sure to list full name, address, phone number, marital status, number of dependents and education.

To be eligible to qualify for the school, a person must have at least two years of high school education or the equivalent. She must be able to pass physical examination and must pass the TEC aptitude test.

The course will cover a 12-month period. At the end of the course, a state board examination will be given those who successfully complete the course. Tuition is $50.00 for the course. Students must also furnish their own books, supplies and uniforms.

School Board—

(Continued from Page 1) system. All students in the same grade who live in the same zone will be assigned to the same school, regardless of their race, color, or national origin and regardless of which school they attend now.

"A student may transfer from the school to which he is assigned only under the following condition: If a grade is overcrowded in one school and not overcrowded in the other school."

The board announced that on April 25, the parent or other adult person acting as parent, of each student enrolled in this system will be sent a letter telling him the name and location of the school which the student will be assigned for the coming school year.

Comments—

(Continued from Page 1) perty that there are those left who are not offered the convenience of phones without going through every channel in the phone company. I have known of several people that lived in rural areas that would be alive today if they had had a phone.

Rural people need a phone worse than city people. Their neighbors are not in walking distance. I hope you will do me the favor of mentioning this in your next column. I and all other families of Lesley Community will be very grateful.

Yours truly, Mrs. Sherman Clemons

Gorne. He has also had piano study with Dr. Silvio Sciotti, Stephan Barbas, Hans Barth, and Dr. Leo Podolsky.

Mr. Thiebaud has been a professor of piano at Howard Payne College since 1946 and at the present time is at head of Piano Department.

He has served as accompanist for radio stations in the Cincinnati area and has given recitals in Cincinnati, Berea, Ky., Brownwood and other cities in Texas.

He is married and has three children. He served three years in the U. S. Navy during World War II.

The private auditions will continue through Friday, April 29, from 9:00 to 5:30 p. m. daily.

The piano auditions are conducted in more than 750 centers from coast to coast including Hawaii, Alaska and Australia. The auditions are designed to stimulate interest in fine piano playing among pupils of all types and ages.

The students play against a standard of excellence and not against each other. They perform from memory well-balanced programs representing periods of composition and rhythm accuracy, tone-quality are among the many points considered for ratings. Awards include certificates, diplomas, pins, medals and $100 scholarships.

Members of the National Guild of Piano teachers who are entering in the Memphis Center this year are: Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Mack Bush, Mrs. John C. Harper and Mrs. Kelly Pigg, all of Wellington; Mrs. Jimmy A. Cribbs of Childress; Mrs. A. E. Gragon of Quitaque; Mrs. T. L. Rouse, Miss Betty Stewart and Gertrude Rasco of Memphis.

Miss Rasco said, "And I would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Combs and staff for the fine publicity they have always given to this musical event; thanks to the school cooperation in allowing the students to attend, the parents who have cooperated so loyally and last, for each fine student who has done his best."

Miss Rasco concluded with this quotation from Longfellow, "Show me a home wherein music dwells and I will show you a peaceful, happy home."

Save-A-Life Fund To Help With Intensive Care Ward

Contribution of $1500.00 to the initial payment on an intensive care unit at Hall County Hospital was made this week by the Save-A-Life Fund. A total of $8,500 is required to complete the unit and additional funds will be given the hospital as the fund is accumulated in the Save-A-Life Fund, which was started in March 1963 by Mrs. Ralph Williams.

Memorial cards list the name of the person in whose memory the contribution is made, the donor, and the card is mailed to the person listed by the one making the contribution. The other card is simply one that is sent to a friend who is ill or one to be remembered on a special occasion . . . the card simply reads "Thinking of You . . . A contribution in your honor has been made by . . ." Persons who wish to contribute to the fund should contact Ben Parks, chairman of the Hospital Board, at the First National Bank.

Three pieces of hospital equipment at a cost of $860.00 have already been purchased from the fund. These include a Cardiac Monitor, a drainage pump and a deodorizing tent, which was purchased recently. The tent was purchased at a cost of $190.00.

CC Committee Launches Beautification Program

The Chamber of Commerce committee for community improvement met Monday at a luncheon held at Odom's Restaurant to plan for the launching of a beautification program for Memphis.

Members of this committee present were Mrs. George Greenhaw, Dr. Roddy Bice, Dr. Jack Rose, E. E. Roberts, Mrs. Lottie Kinard, chairman and President Byron Baldwin.

It was decided to have a home beautification contest and prizes will be given for first, second and third best kept grounds and premises. These prizes will be announced later and judging will be done later in the year.

Every citizen of Memphis is urged to participate in the project and cooperate in making our city the cleanest and most beautiful in all the panhandle, Mrs. Kinard said.

The slogan will be "Paint-up, Fix-up, Clean-up and Beautify."

Sub-committee chairmen include alleys: E. E. Roberts, chairman; Mrs. George Greenhaw, Dr. Roddy Bice and Mrs. Lottie Kinard; vacant lots: Dr. Jack Rose, chairman, and Robert Breedlove, Minister Tom Anderson and Mrs. Bray Cook.

Rules For Homes Judging on home exteriors will be based on total appearance of the property. Both front and back yards will be judged. The well-kept appearance of the home and other buildings on the property will be considered in judging as well as the condition and appearance of lawns and other plantings. Other items which could contribute to the competition would be such things as decorative pools, patios, rose gardens, special flower bed arrangements and landscape techniques. The judges will consider how much the home dweller has done with what he has to do with. A modest home may compete with a larger home with more garden space.

Blocks and Alleys Honorable mention in the project will be given to the best kept blocks in the various wards. In judging the blocks alleys will also be taken into consideration. The best alley area in a block will also receive honorable mention. There can be ten honorable mentions in the home contest as well as in the block and alley division. This will be the decision of the judges.

NOTICE OF SCHOOL DESEGREGATION PLAN UNDER TITLE VI OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT OF 1964

THIS NOTICE IS MADE AVAILABLE TO INFORM YOU ABOUT THE DESEGREGATION OF OUR SCHOOLS. KEEP A COPY OF THIS NOTICE. IT WILL ANSWER MANY QUESTIONS ABOUT SCHOOL DESEGREGATION.

The Memphis Independent School District public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin. Your school board and the school staff will do everything they can to see to it that the rights of all students are protected and that our desegregation plan is carried out successfully.

Under the desegregation plan, the school each student will attend depends on where he lives. An attendance zone has been established for each school in the system. All students in the same grade who live in the same zone will be assigned to the same school, regardless of their race, color, or national origin and regardless of which school they attend now.

A student may transfer from the school to which he is assigned only under the following condition: If a grade is overcrowded in one school and not overcrowded in the other school.

On April 25th the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student enrolled in this system will be sent a letter telling him the name and location of the school which the student will be assigned for the coming school year. A copy of this notice will be enclosed with each letter. The same letter and notice will be sent out on the above date for all children the school system expects to enter the school system for the first time next year. This includes children entering first grade. If the school system learns of a new student after the above date, it will promptly send the student's parent such a letter and copy of this notice.

Maps showing the boundary lines of the attendance zones of every school in the school system are freely available for inspection by the public at the Superintendent's office. Individual zone maps are available at each school.

Any revision of attendance zone boundaries will be announced by a prominent notice in a local paper at least 30 days before the change is effective.

All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to each student on a desegregated basis. A student assigned to a new school under the provisions of the desegregation plan will not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished by the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Faculties will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color, or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.

No arrangement will be made or permission granted by this school system for any student living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color, or national origin. No arrangement will be made or permission granted, by this school system for any student living in another school system to attend public school in this system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color, or national origin.

It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence, threaten or coerce any person in connection with the exercise of any rights under this plan. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the desegregation of our school system. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Educational Opportunities Program, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C., 20202 (telephone 202-962-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation will not be disclosed without his consent. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the U. S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

If Texas highway look a little overgrown, it's not because the Texas Highway Department is falling down on its maintenance operations.

The Department restricts mowing operations each year until the more than 500 varieties of wild flowers along the rights of way have gone to seed. This assures motorists a wild panorama of color as they travel Texas highways.

Mrs. Glenn Carlos, Mrs. R. V. Messer and Nell Messer were Childress visitors Sunday afternoon.

Masonic Lodge—

1905 minutes, Mayor Howell called upon the oldest member of the Memphis Lodge, in years of service, J. J. McMickin, who opened the stone's box and described the contents to those present.

Among the items found in the box, was a Oct. 7, 1905 issue of the Hall County Herald, well preserved. W. A. Johnson, the editor, had this to say about the laying of the cornerstone: "The local Masonic lodge have settle on next Thursday, Oct. 12 for the placing of the corner stone of their fine new temple building. The stone will be of marble and is now being carved and prepared. The lodge will have several visiting Masons here and the ceremony of laying will be very beautiful and interesting. The public will no doubt be very much interested and turn out en masse to witness the important epoch in the lodge's history. Remember the date and be on hand. Several articles of history and pieces of coin and other little trinkets will be placed in the receptacle, including copies of the local and general newspapers of the day."

Among other things found, were two key stones, chapter masons charms, belonging to A. G. Powell and Charley Drake.

A business card of D. A. Grundy and Son, Real Estate, Surveying and Abstracting was found along with many of the following name cards: Mrs. Ruby Neal, Miss Ethel Randal, Mrs. May Neal, J. W. Moore, Congress E. Moore, Sam E. Moore, A. G. Powell, Tax Assessor, Hall County, Mrs. Leva Jackson Bird, Delleverie, Clay County, A. G. Powell, Lena Memphis Powell, W. O. Powell, Cora Lee Powell, Henry E. Powell, Bryan Powell, Hubert Powell, Bessie May Powell, Benj. F. Denney, Albert G. Powell and Jno. D. Bird.

Also listed were the postal employees of the Memphis Post office: Effie L. Houghton, post master, Eugene Houghton, asst. post master, B. Roy Houghton, mail order clerk, Sretchen Christensen, dispatch clerk and Amma King, helper.

Also found in the box were ten coins, nickles, dimes and quarters, and several keys.

The Bible found in the box was in fair condition and was approximately 61 years old.

As a part of the ceremony Monday afternoon, Mr. McMickin introduced two of his granddaughters, Sandra and Susie C. Allen, Jr., and asked the two girls stand on the corner stone.

When the cornerstone was laid the acting Grand Master of Memphis Lodge was A. G. Powell, the great, great grandchild of Sandra and Susie Allen.

The Memphis Lodge will publicly sponsor a cornerstone ceremony at 3:30 p. m. Monday, May 19, at the new school building. State officers of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee are on hand for that ceremony.
