The State Of The Union-Of Major Concern!

"How Goes The Union?" asks one man of another in a conversation. "All Goes Well!", was the answer. This was a conversation out of the pages of a history book, carried on by our forefathers in a time of vital crisis in which the very roots of the union of states known as the United States was being threatened.

Do you hear conversations like this today? Not very often at the coffee house, or the drug store. Today we seem to be far more interested in less important things than the "State of the Union.

As citizens of this nation, we have an obligation, a duty. a trust and a responsibility that few human beings in this world are privileged to have. This duty is adequately expressed in the simple question, "How Goes The Union?

When considering the crime rate in this nation, we sometimes feel that our nation has big problems. More than 278,000 serious crimes were reported during 1965; a six per cent increase over 1964. This figured out to 14 victims of serious crimes per 1,000 inhabitants. These included 5,600 murders, 34,700 aggravated assaults with a gun and over 68,400 armed robberies. Auto thefts alone resulted in total property stolen in excess of $1 billion.

Then, consider the problem of absentees at the polling places in this nation. As the General Elections in November approach. we are reminded of the valued right of every American to express his choice for leadership by the use of the ballot on election day.

This coming November vital issues will be settled at the polls across the Texas Panhandle and in our state.

There are some of our citizens who are concerned with the state of the union. These are our men in uniform serving in the difficult one. Probably no member many "Hot" spots over the world. Perhaps we would vote in greater numbers if we could realize the sacrifice that many Americans have made on the battlefields of the world so that we might truly have a government of the people.

Within the coming months and years, let us pledge ourselves to the American tradition, ask "How Goes The Union?" The Union has its problems which can only be resolved by interested, dedicated citizens concerned with its preservation.

Protection For UnLawful Protests

When the new Civil Rights Bill was before the House Judiciary Committee for consideration, Representative George Grider of Memphis had inserted in the proposal the word "lawfully" as an amendment to the section designed to punish those who commit violence against anyone demonstrating in favor of civil rights. As the amended bill reads, protection is afforded only to those who are exercising their protests in lawful manner. The New York Times seized upon the amendment as a Southern 'dodge," pointing its finger editorially at "Southern towns" where civil rights demonstrators had been arrested in the past on misdemeanor charges.

Among the matters of business discussed at the regular meeting of The Caprock Trail Riders, Auguse 5, at the Riding Hall were plans for a trail ride and barbecued chicken supper at Cedar Hills Ranch Saturday, August 13. The riders wishing to have their name in the "chicken pot" at the cook-out will please notify Cora Belle Alexander at Lemons Furniture Store or Louise Howell at the West Texas Utilities office by noon Friday, August 12.

Those making the trail ride will gather at the football stadium at o'clock Saturday afternoon and follow the McCauley chuck wagon to the ranch. Red Ward, well experience at the barbecue pit, will cook the chickens to which will be added red beans, stewed fruit, bread and coffee to complete the supper goodies. Plates, forks, spoons, and napkins will be furnished, but the riders are arged to bring their own tin cups for coffee.

Those wishing to spend the night are welcome to do so, but each rider will be responsible for the feed and care of his horse. Walter Johnson and, we hope, Richard Stotts will be on hand with fiddle and bow to liven up the festivities with some music

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Each year thousands of students work in summer jobs. Their employers, in accordance with the law, withhold taxes from their wages. A lot of students do not earn enough during the summer to require them to file an income return. However, it is very important that they file a tax return shortly after January 1 next year, so they can get their re-fund. If a student does not file a tax return and claim his refund, the Government doesn't know he has a refund coming. In the case of many students, filing a tax return can be a profitable task.
