Leon Thurman Named FHA Supervisor

The Farmers Home Administration assigned full-time supervisory personnel to the Memphis office Monday, Oct. 24, to meet increasing demand for its services in Hall County, it was announced today by L. J. Cappelman, state director of Texas.

The Memphis office is located at 1717 Main Street. It is staffed by Leon Thurman, county supervisor, Willis C. McPhaul, assistant, and Mrs. Pauline Knight, county office clerk. Mrs. Knight previously been assigned to the office and will continue in same capacity.

State Director Cappelman said every effort is being made to encourage rural families to take full advantage of the expanded services of the Farmers Home Administration in this area. He also noted that strengthening family and rural communities also helps the income of local business and others engaged in the service for rural people.

Singing Convention Set This Weekend

Over 400 persons are expected to attend the Ten-County Singing Convention slated this weekend in the Community Center, according to James Campbell of Hale Center, president of the organization. The event, which is held in various places on fifth Sunday, is the Hall County Singing Convention.

The convention will open Saturday night at 7:30 p. m., and continue all day Sunday beginning at 10 a. m., Campbell said. The famous Wills Family of Livingston will not be here for the convention as previously announced due to other engagements. Other fine directors and groups specializing in gospel singing will be present. Campbell said the singing convention was organized in 1947 with five counties at White Flat. Those counties were Floyd, Hale, Motley, Dickens and Crosby. Other counties now in the 10-county group are Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Kent and Swisher.

The Memphis High School band mothers will have lunch for sale at noon Sunday, it was announced. They plan to serve sandwiches, cake, pie, tea and coffee. "Memphis was chosen as the site of the convention due to the warm hospitality received last year by delegates attending the Texas-Oklahoma Singing Convention," Campbell said. "We are all looking forward to greeting our old friends and making new ones, and invite everyone to come and participate in the singing or just to listen."

Judges will be Charles Emmons of the University of Missouri, Merlen Jenkins of Texas Christian University and Eldon Sonnenberg of Sherman High School.

The AA schools competing are Sanford-Fritch, Wellington, Starnett, Phillips, Spearman, Shinnock, Panhandle and Memphis.

The Band Booster Club plans to go up for the marching contest which begins at 9 a. m. Tuesday. Memphis will march at 2:30 p. m. Twirling contest begins at 9 a. m. also.

The local band will be marching 56 strong because over 10 members have either been sick or have injuries. The band has several extra marching sessions planned, and if the weather will hold, Director Phillips said, the show will be ready.

"Our band has worked hard this week, and is showing some improvement," he added.

Halloween Carnival Sponsored By Memphis Fire Dept. To Open Tonight

The Halloween Carnival, sponsored by the Memphis Volunteer Fire Department, will open tonight at 6 p. m. and will continue through Saturday night, Gene Hamill, chairman, announced today.

The All-State Carnival has been secured to operate rides during the three-day event, and ticket booths for rides will be operated by members of the fire department.

On Saturday, beginning at 1 p. m., all the usual Halloween booths for the rides will be operational, located one block south of the square.

Numerous clubs and organizations will operate booths on Saturday. The Lions Club will have a shooting gallery, baseball and milk bottles; the Fire Department will sponsor a nickel pitch.

The Austin PTA will sponsor a dart game; Help For Anyone C. B. Club will have a doll rack; the Swinging 68ers will have a ring the bottle and basketball goal; the senior class will sponsor a dunking booth.

The American Legion Auxiliary will have a game booth. Boy Scouts will have a hamburger and hot dog concession, and the Explorer Scouts will have a soft drink concession.

Everyone is invited to attend the carnival and join in the Halloween fun, members of the fire department stated.

Blood Mobile To Be In Memphis Wednesday, Nov. 2

The Blood Mobile from Amarillo will be at the Community Center at 9 a. m. Wednesday, Nov. 2, Rev. Gene Jorgenson announced today.

Rev. Jorgenson said at least 30 donors were needed to give blood for Melvin Blum. He also pointed out that blood can be donated in the name of any other person designated.

All persons are asked to contact Rev. Jorgenson in order that he may list their names.

C of C Committee To Sponsor Xmas Lighting Contest

The Memphis Chamber of Commerce committee on community development met Monday at the lunch hour to make plans for the Christmas lighting project for the City of Memphis.

Plans were made to enlist every home owner and every business owner to enter into this project in an effort to make Memphis the most beautiful and best lighted city in this area during the Christmas holiday season.

Cash prizes in two categories for home and yard decorations will be given. One category for outside and yard decorations and the other for the most beautiful window decorations as viewed from the outside. Three prizes are offered in each of these divisions. First prize will be $10.00; second prize, $5.00, and third prize $2.50.

Business houses will be judged and will be given blue, red and white ribbons for first, second and third places. Others will receive honorable mention and receive ribbons.

Plans call for out-of-town judges who will judge the decorations on the nights of Dec. 16 and 17. On those nights persons will be asked to keep the lights on until midnight so the judges will have ample time to make their decisions.

The committee is very anxious that everyone enter into this and cooperate in making the city attractive to every person who is a resident as well as visitors, it was stated.

Committee members are Dr. Roddy Bice, Dr. Jack Rose, Minister Tom Anderson, Mrs. Bray Cook, E. E. Roberts, Mrs. Lenora Greenhaw and Mrs. Lottis Kinard, chairman. They were assisted in the over-all planning by C. of C. Manager Clifford Farmer and Byron Baldwin, president.

Estelline To Travel To Roaring Springs

The Estelline Bears will play the toughest team in District 5-B (8-man) football ranks as they travel to Roaring Springs for a 7:30 p. m. game Friday night.

Roaring Springs has about four real good boys returning off of last year's squad including QB Johnny Tucker (150), HB Bo Owen (194), HB Dan Brandon (185) and Guard Ronny Clifton (175).

Roaring Springs defeated Patton Springs 42-6, Coach Jimmie Don Adams of Estelline pointed out. The Bears were shut out by Patton Springs last weekend 20-0.

Coach Adams said the Patton Springs game was the first contest the Bears have been shut-out in since Estelline began playing 8-man football. "They held us better than anyone we have played," the coach said.

"We gave them the easy touchdowns. They scored on two long pass plays and took over the ball on our five-yard line after a bad snap from center went over the punter's head," he added.

The Estelline coach said for part of the game, Freshman quarterback Charles Moore ran the Bears offensive unit and did a pretty good job for a young boy.

"Mabry and McMinn received injuries in the game so there will probably be some lineup changes when we take the field against Roaring Springs," Coach Adams said.

Triston Mabry is the starting fullback of the Bears and James McMinn is the starting center.

The Bears have three remaining district games to play, and all promise to be tough ones, the coach said. Morse beat Roaring Springs 24 to 8 to prove their strength. Morse, Roaring Springs and Darrouzett are the top contenders in the district.

Honor Roll For First Six Weeks Announced Today

Names of students making the Memphis High School honor roll for the first six weeks' period were announced today by Principal Clinton Voyles.

Principal Voyles explained that in order to make the honor roll, all grades must be in the A or B level in solid subjects and students cannot have C grades. The average must be 90 or above.

Juniors are: Teresa Carson, Gaylon Clark, Cynthia Evans, Kathy Houston, Sammy Houston, Chuck Jennings, Dell McCauley, Rocky Moore, Lometa Pate, Sandy Saye, Nancy Simpson, Donna Sims, Susan Stevenson and Bonnie Vick.

Named in the sophomore class are Claudia Corley, Lewis Foxhall, Sharon Gaston, Dayna Hickey, Vee Latimer, Sandy McQueen and Sue Melton.

Freshmen include Ronald Bradshaw, Irene Foxhall, Randy Jennings, Nicki McCauley, Ronnie Phillips, Vicki Rose, Jo Ann Scott and Carolyn Sparks.

Funeral Services For Roy Sweatt Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mack Roy Sweatt, 75, who had farmed in the Webster community, near Lakeview, for many years, were held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Memphis Church of Christ, with Tom Anderson, minister, officiating assisted by Robert C. Jones of Clarendon.

Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Speier Funeral Home.

Mr. Sweatt died Tuesday at 4:15 a. m. in Hall County Hospital. (Continued on Page Ten)

Lockett Edges Turks On Last Minute TD

The Lockett Panthers preserved a perfect 3-0 record in District 6-B action Friday night with a last minute scoring pass of 35 yards to defeat the Turkey Turks by a score of 20-14. The Turks appeared to have sewed up their first victory of the year with only 55 seconds remaining in the game when disaster struck in the form of an aerial bomb for the Panthers.

This was a game of two different halves as Lockett dominated the first half as they picked up a total of 9 first downs and 232 yards total offense to the Turks' 2 first downs and only 32 yards total offense. In the second half the Turks defense tightened and allowed the Panthers only 94 yards offense with 35 of this coming on the scoring play that won the game.

The Turks picked up 96 yards of offense in the second half as they came from a 12-0 deficit at halftime to lead 14-12 with less than one minute remaining in the game.

The Panthers scored first in the contest as Halencak went over the 2 yard line. The extra point was no good and they held a 6-0 lead two minutes deep into the second quarter. Then with only 20 seconds remaining in the half the Panthers scored again as QB Jimmy Karcher sneaked over from the 1-yard line. Again the try for extra point was no good, and the teams went to the dressing room with the score reading 12-0 in favor of the Panthers.

In the second half it was a different story as the Turks came out full of fire. The Turks defense looked the best of the year as they managed to hold the Panther offense completely in check. Meanwhile the offense of the Turks perked up and began to move the ball. After picking up a first down on the Lockett 4-yd. line, the Turks were hit with three 15-yard penalties that moved the ball back to the 49-yard line where they faced a first and goal situation. Here Setliff hit King with a pass that netted 35 yards and the Turks drove on as Setliff sneaked the final yard to score. Hamner ran the points and with 2 minutes left in the third

The Memphis Cyclone, after a rough night last Friday, hit the field in workouts this week with a full head of wind to try and prepare for one of the toughest games of the season at Floydada Friday night.

The Whirlwinds have the advantage of the home field; are larger in size with exceptionally good team speed, and will go into the contest with a 28 to 7 victory over Hale Center.

The Cyclone lads know that the Whirlwinds must be subdued Friday night if the local team is to represent District 3-AA, which it could do by winning the remaining three games. A loss to Floydada would probably knock all chances for representation out the window and probably spoil any chance of a co-championship, an outcome if Memphis and Abernathy both won the remaining games.

The game at Floydada is a must for either squad to win, so stakes will be mighty high when the football is kicked off at 7:30 p. m.

Memphis, Floydada and Abernathy are now tied for the top spot in the district and Friday night will be decisive. Memphis plays Floydada and Abernathy takes on tough Dimmitt, a team which has shown steady improvement after losing games to Hale Center and Memphis.

Physically, the game with the Floydada team may prove to be the toughest game of the season for the Cyclone squad, and a lot of the outcome will hinge on the ability of the Cyclone defensive secondary to contain the Whirlwinds' fine passing game, and the ability of the offensive linemen to give pass protection blocking and offensive play blocking to the Memphis backfield, Coach Bert Glascock said.

Defensively, the Whirlwinds' line averages 192 pounds per boy and the secondary averages 160 pounds. This is about 28 pounds heavier per man than the local squad's offensive line in comparison. Offensively, Floydada's front wall will weigh as much as the defensive front wall of the Cyclone. "Floydada has a fine ball club. (Continued on Page 10)

Annual Teachers' Banquet Slated By Memphis Lions

The Memphis Lions Club will entertain with the annual teachers' banquet and ladies' evening Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Center. President Dick Fowler will preside over the event.

Prior to the meal, Gene Lindsey will lead group singing. Tom Anderson will give the invocation.

Following the welcome by Pres. Fowler, Charley Chambless will give the response. Teachers present will be introduced by A. E. Greer, superintendent of Memphis schools. A special feature of the program will be the presentation of retired teachers' certificates by A. L. Gailley.

Another highlight of the evening will be entertainment by Bob Montgomery and Gordon Maddox. Gene Lindsey will lead the group in singing "America" to conclude the program.

Cyclonettes To Host Paducah Here Next Tues.

The A and B girls of the Cyclonette squad, under Basketball Coach Travis Gilliland, will open their season with a home game in Memphis gymnasium Tuesday night, Nov. 1, when they host two teams from Paducah.

The local teams will travel to Paducah for return matches on Monday, Nov. 7, the coach said. All fans are urged to be on hand for these games.

HOMECOMING QUEEN—Liz Johnson, center, was crowned Memphis High School Homecoming Queen in ceremonies preceding the Memphis-Cyclone football game Friday night at the Cyclone Stadium. She was escorted and crowned by Neal Hughes, standing behind her. Liz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Johnson. The other queen candidates were Vicki Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jones, shown at left with her escort, Tommy Bell, and Terry Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jones, shown at right with her escort, Terry Bell.

Vote For What Is Best For Texas

An important date is fast approaching, and citizens of this area are now able to cast absentee ballots in the 1966 General Election at the County Clerk's office in the Courthouse. The date of the election is Tuesday, Nov. 8.

This is a crucial election and one in which important issues will be decided, especially as far as two West Texas Democrats are concerned. These two West Texans need the support of all the Democrats in our area.

This newspaper is taking this opportunity to endorse Waggoner Carr's election to the office of United States Senator from Texas. We feel the facts back us up on this endorsement.

Let us weigh these facts: The Democrats are in power and Texas is a Democratic state. Any influence we may have in Washington must come from Democrats. We can't change the picture with Texas Republicans. John Tower is proof, assuming that he is capable, he might as well be in outer Mongolia as Washington, as far as his value to Texas is concerned.

The attorney general of Texas, Waggoner Carr, has earned the opportunity to serve the people of his state and nation in the United States Senate. Carr has offered himself as a candidate to the Senate with a background of long and effective public service.

As a county attorney, as a five-year member of the Texas House and as attorney general of his State Carr has in a long career in public service placed himself forthrightly on the record on a myriad of important issues ranging from crime prevention and education to fiscal management and industrial development. Perhaps no public official in the history of the state has been as deeply concerned with programs designed to prevent crime and juvenile delinquency.

His energy and determination were marked even in the early stages of his public life. His practical experience in the fields of law enforcement and investigation was grounded in terms as assistant district attorney in the 72nd Judicial District and as county attorney at Lubbock.

First elected to the Texas House in 1950, Carr went on to become one of the few men in the state's history to serve two consecutive terms as speaker, an indication of the confidence and responsibility the man has held.

We feel that these, along with many, many facts about the Lubbock candidate are reason enough for The Democrat to recommend the election of Waggoner Carr as United States Senator from Texas.

When Walter Rogers resigned from the race, the Democratic Party officials with due process, named Dec Miller of Amarillo as the candidate. This newspaper editorially endorsed Mr. Miller for election as Representative to the United States Congress from the 18th Congressional District. This was done after careful investigation of his qualifications and background.

The importance of these two races can not be minimized by disgruntled people who may be displeased with the administration of the state or federal governments. The best way to change things is with good representation in the party that is in power. To elect Republicans is like throwing the pole, line, hook and bait in the creek. It is, of course, your prerogative to cast your vote. We urge you to examine the candidates and vote on their merits alone, and their potential to work for and with the people of the 18th Congressional District and the citizens of the State of Texas.

Don't Lose Your Chance To Vote

Texans have for many years been conspicuous by their absence at the polls when election time arrives. Some take a trip; others just stay at home.

Each person's vote—and his or her voice in the affairs of government—need not be lost. If a trip is planned, all can vote absentee, either by mail or by going in person to the County Clerk's office.

Absentee voting has been going on for more than a week now. As of Wednesday, only 15 voters had marked their ballots in this important election.

The deadline for voting absentee is Friday, Nov. 4. If you intend to cast your ballot in your voting place, remember the general election will be held Tuesday, Nov. 8.

How Much Profit?

There is much talk these days about wages and profits and taxes, with a lot of misconception about each one.

The average American is likely to have an exaggerated idea about profits if he is not acquainted with the problems of business these days.

Private opinion polls, for example, including those of George Gallup, reveal that most people "guess" that American business profits run about 20 per cent of sales.

In opinion polls conducted by a few companies, employees have set company profits four and five times what they actually were. When countered with the question of what they thought would be a fair profit, they usually cited a figure that was still well above the company's actual profit percentage.

Moreover, people generally believe that about 75 cents of the sales dollar goes to owners, with the remainder divided up among the employees.

This is just in reverse. The average business pays 87 cents for employees wages for each 13 cents of profit.

The national average profit in all size businesses is 3.4 per cent of sales. This means that it takes some work on the part of management to hold outgo in line with income to net even this much.

There is another misconception on the part of those not in business, and that is the difference between net profit and gross profit.

Some items, in fact a lot of items, are marked up 25 per cent to 40 per cent from wholesale to retail selling prices. At first glance, this would make it appear that if a merchant buys a clock for 60 cents and sells it for $1, he has made a neat 40 cents on the sale.

This is gross profit. From this 40 cents, the merchant has to pay the wages of his employees, pay federal, state and local taxes, including excise, ad valorem and sales taxes, must pay for his utilities, must have some for advertising, contributions, depreciation and insurance.

This 40 cents soon shrinks down to 4 cents if he is lucky.

We suspect that labor unions, in their constant demand for more of the sales dollar of our big corporations, have never understood, perhaps don't want to understand, the difference between gross profit and net profit. There is a great deal of difference. — The Ochiltree County Herald.

Cyclone Bows To Olton In Heartbreaker 20-14

By BILL COMBS

Coach Don Beck's Olton Mustangs knocked the Memphis Cyclones out of the forefront of District 3-AA by outscoring the local squad 20 to 14 in an exciting heart breaking game for local bragging rights.

The local Cyclones battled for duration but their efforts with little success, primarily to lost fumbles, five in number and poor tackling on Olton's fine running backs, No. 44 Benny Akin and No. 30 Dale De-ny.

Coach Beck's Mustangs went broke, gambling on numerous offenses, changing their offensive and defensive formations and tactics from any previous outing have had, which all paid off in great dividends in the upset victory.

The Mustangs scored in the first quarter after recovering a Cyclone fumble on the Memphis 10 yard line when the Mustangs broke out in an unbalanced line with the left side guard and side sitting on the right side of center. The Cyclone defensive did not adjust quickly enough.

No. 44 Benny Akin found a hole open and went the distance.

The extra points try was another shocker to local fans as an attempted place kick was a fake. The receiver acted like a confused flier, who got on the wrong side to block and ran toward the line. Although the local defensive team was not completely fooled by the maneuver, the receiver, Steve Spain, slipped in the two-point conversion.

The Cyclone came back in the second quarter and drove 57 yards for their first TD. HB Gary Rea carried for seven yards to the drive going and aided it with other carries of 5, and 10 yards.

A pass play from QB Pounds Junior Graves got the ball down to the Mustangs' 6-yard line. At this point, Graves carried for three yards, and the HB got the call up the middle and went into the end zone stand-up for the TD. A pass from Rea to End Clyde Wilson was good for two points and the score tied.

It remained that way until the third period.

Memphis took over the second half kickoff and marched from Cyclone 32 all the way.

The drive got going with a 37-yard pass play, thrown by Pounds to End Dwayne Jones. Jones made the fine move as he picked up yardage on the play.

QB Kenneth Cornish blasted through for 16 yards to give Memphis first and goal to go from the 9. Tailback Graves made eight yards to the one, and then QB Pounds sneaked it over for the TD. A pass play for points failed and the score was 14-8.

The Cyclone got a break when the Mustangs fumbled on their own 15 yard line after the kick-off, but the local squad could not get going and had to give the ball up.

From this point on, the Cyclone gave up the ball three times on fumbles.

The Mustangs ran a fake punt play in the closing minutes of the third quarter for a 46-yard TD. Carrying the ball was Charles McClain, the quarterback for the Mustangs. McClain was hit but not stopped on this run. A place kick attempt was no good and the score was all tied up.

The Mustangs mounted a scoring drive in the fourth quarter on fine running plays. No. 44 Akin, a 175-lb. halfback, looked like an All-State boy as he avoided Cyclone defenders on the wide plays and made 23 yards, 15 yards, and 21 yards, respectively, to give the Mustangs a first and goal from the one-yard line.

On the next play, No. 11 McClain carried in for the score. McClain carried on the extra points play but was downed.

The Cyclone got their hands on the ball twice more but lost it both times on fumbles, and the game ended 20 to 14.

The Cyclones' loss to Olton gives the local squad a 3-1 record in Dist. 3-AA play and a 5-2 record for the season. The team is now tied with Floydada (the next opponent) and with Abernathy for the district lead.

If the Cyclone is to remain in the race for the district crown they will have to win the Floydada game next Friday night at Floydada and win the remaining two games with Hale Center and Friona.

Two more ball clubs are showing a lot of strength. These are Dimmitt and Olton. They both have 2-2 records in the district. Friona has a 2-2 record and Lockney has a 0-4 record.

Teams in District 3-AA are closely matched and any team is capable of defeating any other team on any given night, depending on the breaks in the game.

CARD OF THANKS

To our many friends and former neighbors, we express our deep gratitude for your many cards, letters, and prayers offered up for me thru my illness. We received hundreds of get-well wishes and value each. I am now home in Ruidoso recuperating.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir:

Thanks very much for the "front page spread you gave my granddaughters, Liz, Cathy and Vicki.

We are very proud of them, and only for the honor their parents bestowed on them, but many other qualities and achievements.

This does not happen very often, in fact, I have never known one like it before, that is three girls, all cousins and all seniors in school. Before they knew who was who, there was no animosity between them, and whoever was to be made queen was fine with the other two.

Thanks very much for the courtesy.

Whether You Use a Stripper or Field Hands To Harvest Your Crop—

You'll Get More For Your COTTON WHEN YOU GIN WITH US!

MODERN EQUIPMENT IN A FINE FARMER-OWNED GIN PLANT MEANS MORE MONEY IN YOUR POCKET

All standard and extra equipment was installed to give our customers the FINEST TURNOUT possible from every bale. The sample is all-important. For this reason, the plant was designed to meet the demands of the huge number of farmers who harvest their crop with strippers. Fast ginning—with no sacrifice of quality ginning is being attained here.

This farmer-owned gin is now turning out bales from the 1966 crop, and our crew is producing the best ginning service which modern machinery can produce. Our best boosters are those who ginned with us last season.

Again this year, the Memphis Farmers Co-op Gin will be buying cotton from local growers through the Plains Cotton Co-Operative. Each day prices are posted in our gin office. We will be able to pay you immediately at the quoted price. Check with us about this service if you want to sell.

WE HAVE COTTON TRAILERS WHICH ARE AVAILABLE TO OUR CUSTOMERS. LET US KNOW IF YOU NEED SOME OF THEM. ALSO CARRY A FULL STOCK OF TRAILER TIRES AND TUBES.

Remember: This Is A FARMER-OWNED GIN

By keeping YOUR gin busy during the following months, you will be helping it to have a more profitable operation this season. As you know, all profits from our operation are returned directly to our patrons.

Vo.-Ag. TOUR—The Lakeview Vocational Agriculture students under Teacher Barney Bevers last Friday took a guided tour of three Hall County farms in the Lakeview area conducted by SCS Technicians of the Hall County Soil and Water Conservation District. The class is shown looking over newly installed, evenly spaced parallel terraces on the Rayford Hutcherson farm north of Lakeview. The advantage of the new terrace system is it reduces the number of point rows to a minimum.

SCS Technicians Take Lakeview Vo.-Ag. Students On Tour Friday

Technicians of the SCS assisting the Hall County Soil and Water Conservation District, Cyril Keith and Royce Frisbie, conducted a tour of three farms in the Lakeview community for students of the Lakeview Vocational Agriculture program.

Teacher Barney Bevers carried 13 boys on the tour last Friday morning.

The first stop on the tour was on the Rayford Hutcherson farm north of Lakeview, where the group looked over the newly installed parallel terracing system.

Frisbie explained the system to the students and stated that the popularity of these modern terraces has grown so much that the number built in the last two years has doubled here in Hall County.

"Terraces spaced an even number of rows apart and without point rows are called parallel terraces," he said. "They really save time and money for the farmer and they do a good job of conserving soil and water."

Designing, laying out and building this kind of terrace system, however, is not an easy job. Landowners and operators like them for they are easy to plow and save time and fuel. They also eliminate or greatly reduce short rows and uneven length—point rows.

Next on the tour was the Paul Montgomery farm where the students looked over an irrigation system used on parallel terraces where crops are being grown.

Then the students went to the Homer Tribble farm and saw an example of a shaped waterway which had been set in grass to control erosion. This practice is getting to be real popular in Hall County, the technicians said.

The two-hour tour concluded at noon Friday. Teacher Bevers said the boys found the tour enjoyable and educational, and that he wanted to thank the technicians for conducting it.

Rotary Governor Speaks Tuesday To Local Club

Earl L. Wilbur of Dalhart, governor of Rotary district of this area, addressed the local Rotary Club Tuesday during his official visit.

Speaking of the global growth of Rotary, he said, "Rotary is the pioneer of the service clubs and today numbers more than 12,400 clubs with a combined membership of over 600,000 business and professional men. Spread throughout 133 countries in all parts of the world, Rotary clubs meet every day of the week and conduct activities to improve their communities, aid youth, elevate business standards, and further international friendship and understanding."

Referring to the program of Richard L. Evans of Salt Lake City, Utah, president of Rotary International for 1966-67, the governor said, "President Evans has urged Rotarians everywhere to be concerned with youth, employment and education, health, safety and respect for law as a broad community-action program, and to acquire friendships and personal contacts in many parts of the world for the development of international points of view in general and the exchange of youth across national boundaries in particular."

Governor Wilbur met with 10 officers and directors and committee chairmen from the club Monday night for a club assembly program in which the entire program of work for the club was covered.

The district governor, during his visit with Rotary officials, was given additional information on some of the local club's activities, including the work and sponsorship of the Cub Scout Pack, the student visitation program, College Day program, and the numerous student sponsorship programs the club helps aid in each year.

Concerning the work of Rotary in the district, the governor pointed out that the Memphis Club was a 400 per cent club in participation in the Rotary Foundation and commended the members highly for their record.

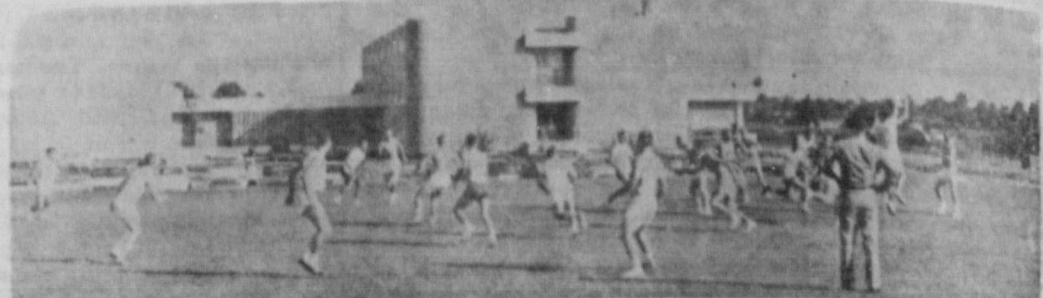

"In fact," he said, "according to my record, your club is tied for second place in the district."

The governor, in his talk Tuesday, urged local Rotarians to continue working for their community, to aid their youth, and to take time out from busy schedules to practice service.

"For a little meaning in life," he concluded, "try Rotary."

Nut of 1,000 students who entered 5th grade in 1957, 710 went on to graduate from high school in 1965 and 378 entered college.

MHS Ex-Students Elect Officers At Noon Meeting

Jack B. Boone was elected new president of the Memphis Ex-Students Association in a luncheon meeting held Friday in the Austin Elementary School cafeteria.

Other officers elected include: Rayford Hutcherson, vice president; Mrs. Rhupert Wynn, secretary; David Duncan, publicity chairman.

The new president announced that the Ex-Students Association would hold a banquet Easter weekend, and that a meeting of the group would be held in the near future to discuss plans. David Duncan will contact a representative from each class to compile a list of the names and mailing addresses of their graduating class members in order that everyone may be notified of the banquet.

The luncheon for the meeting was furnished by the Memphis schools.

Estelline P-TA To Sponsor Halloween Carnival

The Estelline P-TA will sponsor a Halloween Carnival Monday, Oct. 31, according to Mrs. Ted Hudlow, reporter. Mrs. Jimmy Gibson is president of the organization.

A meal of baked ham and all the trimmings will be served in the school cafeteria beginning at 5:30 p. m. Adults and children's plates will be sold.

The carnival in the high school will begin at 6:30 p. m. Grades one through 12 will feature activities or booths.

A new feature of the event will be a baby-sitting service, in the homemaking cottage, sponsored by the senior class.

"We anticipate a large crowd," Mrs. Hudlow said, "and wish to invite everyone to come out for food, fun and frolic."

If the children run out of things to do on rainy days, arrange a painting session. Give them food coloring and cotton-tipped swabs, and let them color newspaper pictures or decorate brown paper bags.

Lloyd R. Bell Speaks To Hall County TSTA Tues.

The Hall County T.S.T.A. met in Stephen F. Austin School Cafeteria in Memphis Tuesday night, Oct. 26, with 65 teachers, principals, administrators and guests present.

Sandy McQueen, student of the local high school, presented several musical selections for the entertainment of the group. A. E. Greer, superintendent of Memphis Schools, gave the words of welcome to the T.S.T.A. members and visitors while the invocation was given by Loran Denton, superintendent of Turkey Schools.

The meal which consisted of fried chicken, creamed potatoes, green beans, tossed salad, hot rolls with butter, strawberry shortcake and coffee or tea was served buffet style with the Memphis eighth grade girls assisting with serving.

The teachers and guests from each school were introduced by the superintendent or principal of said school.

Mrs. Charley Chambless, president of Hall County Unit, presided during the session at which time C. M. Wooten, Estelline, immediate past president, was presented a pin for his services. Reports were given by the chairman of the following committees: legislative, TEPS, membership, public relations and program. Hall County has 100 per cent membership in T.S.T.A., and has 102 teachers this year, it was announced.

Wayne Johnson, Turkey, vice president, introduced Lloyd R. Bell, the speaker of the evening. Mr. Bell is assistant director, Division of Public Relations of Texas State Teachers Association, Austin. He stated that never before has so much been asked of education. He discussed the proposed legislative program of the T.S.T.A. and the recommendations that the State Board of Education has made. The recommendations of the State Board would call for an additional 5000 teachers, and he asked, "where are we going to find them?" He told the group the legislative committee of T.S.T.A. met in Austin last weekend and over 300 teachers, friends of education and other interested personnel attended. Superintendent McNeil of Wichita Falls is chairman, and the news release of this meeting stated:

"The salaries of Texas teachers rank 29th in pay on the state level."

Mr. Bell said, "if salaries are not brought to the national level, there will be a shortage of 10,000 teachers instead of 5000."

Mr. Bell ended his talk by devoting a few minutes to public relations. He stated one definition of public relations is making friends before you need them. There are four key words, he said: (1) Communication which can move into area of (2) Understanding; with understanding you have (3) Cooperation; and when you have cooperation there is (4) Progress.

The next meeting will be held at Estelline Feb. 13, 1967.

Blum Friends Ask Money For Hospital Fund

Friends and neighbors have started a fund to help defray hospital expenses for Melvin Blum, who has been critically ill in an Amarillo hospital for more than two weeks. Persons who would like to donate to the fund are asked to leave their money at either the First National Bank or the First State Bank. During the time he has been in Amarillo, Mr. Blum has had to undergo surgery several times, it was reported. Sunday he was operated on for an ulcer which was hemorrhaging. The family thought his condition was much improved after the surgery Sunday, but he has taken a turn for the worse and his condition is now very grave, Mrs. Blum told friends here in a telephone conversation this morning.

Miss Jan Neel, who is a student at West Texas State University, Canyon, was home last weekend to attend the homecoming activities and to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Neel and grandmother, Mrs. Clyde F. Millam, and great-grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Stokes.

THE BRAIN DRAIN

Dear Fellow Texan:

There is no easy answer to the "brain drain" problem—the migration to the United States from underdeveloped countries of highly skilled scientists and medical doctors and technicians of every kind. These men and women are desperately needed in their own countries, but they are attracted to positions in the United States because pay levels and opportunities are so much greater.

We welcome the skills these newcomers bring. We accept them, however, at a time when they are badly needed at home. The United States and other developed countries attempt through a variety of government and private program to narrow the gap between the "haves" and "have-nots" of the world, but the gap between rich and poor countries is being widened by the loss of talented men and women from the countries that can least afford to lose them.

The situation affecting the medical profession points up the degree to which this is happening. It is estimated that 10,974 of the 41,102 residents and interns serving in U. S. hospitals are graduates of foreign medical schools, more than 7,500 of them from "developing" countries. It is estimated that as many as one-fourth of their number will either stay or eventually return to the United States. But without these foreign doctors now on our hospital staffs, many U. S. hospitals would be forced to curtail sharply the services they can now provide their patients.

We now need them badly; that we do need them points up the pressing requirements to expand our facilities for medical education so that we can train more American doctors. It is estimated that 18 percent of the annual additions to the ranks of the U. S. medical profession come from immigration of graduates of foreign medical schools. To train Americans of a number equal to the 1,200 doctors coming to the U. S. each year through immigration we would need twelve new medical schools.

The "brain drain" problem goes beyond medicine. Between 1956 and 1963, nearly 3,000 scientists and engineers from South America and more than 2,000 from Asia moved to the United States. A Labor Department estimate is that over the next decade, one of every 11 professional workers in the United States will be an immigrant. The brain drain is heavy among foreign students who come to American universities for graduate study. One university president said 90 percent of Asian students here will never return home.

It is obvious that a nation must have brain and brawn as well as money in order to develop its potential. In the early days of our own history, many American doctors were trained abroad and then returned to the United States to advance the science of medicine in their homeland. We need to encourage higher standards of medicine in the world and to help train the specialists in medicine and other technical fields who can help their own countries to ward a brighter future. To do so is in our enlightened self-interest because world security may well depend on progress in underdeveloped countries, progress at a pace to satisfy the aspirations of their populations.

I opposed enactment last year of a new immigration law which ended the national origins quota system but which substituted in its place a new emphasis on the skills of the immigrant, regardless of his national origin. More than 32 times as many technical people from India emigrated to the United States in the first year of the new system as had come to America in the last year of the old. Perhaps we have benefitted; certainly India has been hurt by this drain on her reservoir of talent. In the end, we may have acted very unwisely and contrary to our own interests in promoting further "brain drain".

These Two Fine Farmer-Owned Gins Again Say . . .

The Record Speaks

As Proven In Past Years,
You End Up With More
Money When You Bring
Your Cotton To Either
The Gin at Memphis or Plaska

We point with pride to the record these two gins have made during past years. This has been made possible by the kind of service we have given to our patrons. Our entire operation is aimed at giving the cotton growers of this area the finest ginning possible, as well as other services which are needed.

As we enter another ginning season, we take this opportunity to thank every farmer who has brought his cotton to either Memphis or at Plaska. This patronage in past years is appreciated. Our aim during this ginning season is to try to give even a better service.

Both plants are as good as new following complete overhauling during the spring and summer months. Each piece of equipment is in first class shape, and new items have been added as needed. The proof of the plants is seen in the grade and staple which has already been turned out as we enter the 1966 season.

WE WILL BUY YOUR COTTON THIS SEASON

With special arrangements with the Plains Cotton Co-operative, we will be able to buy your cotton again this year. Basis will be posted on cotton each day in our gin office. Payments will be made immediately to each grower.

Again this year we will be operating a water truck for the convenience of our customers. Call either gin office, and a load of water will be delivered free of charge without delay.

Valuable Cotton Burs Can Go Back Into Your Soil

Emphasis is being placed this year upon the return of burs to your land, and you can do it when you gin here. We are working to make it possible for our customers to haul, or get them hauled, away as time permits. Our bur fans meet government regulations. We will help you work out this program.

THE MORE YOU GIN AT THESE FARMER-OWNED GINS, THE BIGGER YOUR DIVIDEND CHECK WILL BE EARLY NEXT YEAR!

State Convention Report Presented At Hall County Cancer Unit Meeting

The Hall County Cancer Unit met Monday, Oct. 17, at 7:30 p. m. in the Community Building, with Miss Roselyn Williams presiding.

Dale Bryley of Lubbock, field representative of District 3 South, and L. E. (Lefty) Ross of Quana, 1966 state crusade chairman, met with the group.

Miss Williams reported on the convention of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society which she attended Oct. 1 in Houston. Other business discussed during the meeting was setting a home-to-home crusade as the 1967 goal for the unit. Two million dollars has been set as the state fund-raising goal.

The Hall County Cancer Unit, organized in August, meets every fourth Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the council room of the Community Building. Officers include Miss Williams, president; Mrs. Edie Foxhall, first vice president; Dr. Robert Clark, second vice president; Mrs. J. N. Helm, Jr., secretary; Ben Parks, treasurer; Miss Tops Gilreath, education chairman; Dr. H. R. Stevenson, medical chairman; Hubert Dennis, service chairman; Mrs. Herschel Combs, publicity chairman.

Board members include Mrs. Carol Fowler, James Richburg, Gue Orcutt, Harold Hodges, Mrs. Worth Howard, Roy Gresham, C. M. Wooten, Mrs. Bert Degan, Mrs. Gordon Bain, Paul Hawkins, Arville Setliff, Judge Roy Whitfield, and Tom Posey.

Also Mrs. Helen Neal, Betty Srygley, Marjorie Kesterson, Robert M. Brown, Annette Boswell, Mrs. Juanella Mowery, Mrs. J. F. McIntush, George Berry, Mrs. Mabel Lavender, Mack Diaz, Mrs. Ernest Clark, Mrs. Bray Cook, Dr. Ralph R. LaVarta, John Fowler, Father John J. Magna and Dr. Roddy Bice.

One of the services offered through the local chapter is a loan closet located in the old cafeteria of Memphis High School. Hubert Dennis is in charge of the loans, and anyone interested in obtaining bandages, hospital beds or wheel chairs may contact him or Mrs. J. F. McIntush.

Dr. C. Q. Smith, Former Memphis Principal, Dies

Funeral services for Dr. Clus-tor Quentin Smith, 77, former principal and superintendent of Memphis schools, were held Monday from the St. Luke's Methodist Church in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dr. Smith died Saturday night in Mercy Hospital where he had been in a coma for 23 days following a stroke.

A noted educator, Dr. Smith is listed in Who's Who in American Ministry, in American Education, and in American Hospitals. Dr. Smith received 10 degrees, six of them doctorates, from Clarendon College, McMurry College, Southwestern University, University of Colorado, Southern Methodist University and Columbia University.

He served as president and chancellor of Oklahoma University from 1941 to 1957. He recorded most of his 19 years at the university in his book, "Building for Tomorrow: The Story of Oklahoma University," published in 1961.

A native of Earth County, Texas, he went into general merchandise business after high school. Then became a teacher in a one-room Texas school house. Later he came to Memphis where he served as principal and superintendent of schools.

Entering the ministry, he served as pastor a number of Texas Methodist churches for 10 years. He also built, equipped and operated the church's Harris Memorial Hospital at Fort Worth. He served as first president of the Texas Hospital Association, as president of McMurry College, vice president of SMU, superintendent of Methodist interests at St. Louis, president of Metropolitan Federation of 460 Protestant Churches, and was head of the Great Plains Foundation until his retirement in 1963.

Dr. Smith was in Memphis in 1965 to attend the 50th reunion held by the 1915 graduating class of Memphis High School.

He is survived by his wife; one son, C. Q. Smith, Jr., of Dallas; and a step-son, David M. Cook of Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker and sons of Morton visited here over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness, visits, cards, words of comfort. Also for the lovely flowers and prayers offered in our behalf in our bereavement at the death of our dear mother and grandmother. May God bless each of you is our prayer.

The Family of Nellie Standfield

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Aspgren and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lester visited Tuesday in Amarillo with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Black and son and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stephens.

Miss Maud Milam spent the past weekend visiting in Oklahoma City, Okla., with her sister, Mrs. Felix Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kesner. Meeting Miss Milam there for a visit were also two nieces, Miss Evelyn Milam and Miss Sybil Turner, both of Sherman.

Frank B. Foxhall, Thomas Widener, Mike Widener, James Roden and Gayle Monzingo returned Thursday from a week-long hunting trip at Pagosa Springs, Colo. Foxhall killed one deer and reported that hunting was good because it was too hot and dry.

Co-Ops Are As American As APPLE PIE

FARMERS USE CO-OPS TO DO TOGETHER JOBS THAT EACH ONE CANNOT DO FOR HIMSELF.

We invite the farmers of the Lakeview area to take advantage of the services offered at this farmer-owned gin, which is one of the finest plants to be found anywhere. Everything has been completely overhauled during the past few months, and we are now turning out the kind of ginning we believe our friends want. Remember: when the rush comes, this gin will be able to handle your cotton faster, without sacrificing QUALITY GINNING. Our whole operation has been planned to give you the most from every bale processed.

HERE'S YOUR GIN'S POLICY REGARDING BUR HAULING

It has been proven that the most equitable manner in handling your burs is the policy which is again in effect this year:

1. Cotton burs will be hauled to individual customers, and will be scattered for the reduced price of $2.00 per ton.
2. Allocation of burs will be on the basis of the order in which applications are received from customers.
3. Individual customers will be allocated burs in proportion to the amount of cotton they gin as long as there is a waiting list of applicants.

WE WILL BUY YOUR COTTON AGAIN THIS YEAR

This gin will again offer a COTTON BUYING program as a service to our customers, through arrangements made with Plains Cotton Cooperative. Prices will be posted in our office each day. Checks will be handed each seller immediately. Ask us for full details.

When cotton has been sold by the association, profits made will be returned direct to each individual farmer.

THANKS FOR GINNING WITH US

We express our appreciation to each farmer who has ginned with us in the past. By your support, our gin has been paid off, and all profits from our operation this season will be distributed to our patrons in the form of dividend checks next spring. If you are not ginning with us, ask a neighbor who will tell you about our profits in former years.

As ginning competition becomes keener because of reduced cotton acres, we ask you to consider these two facts about this gin:

1. Because our plant is completely paid for, we have no fixed interest charges to deduct from our profits each year.
2. We offer no special services to one group of customers at the expense of the other customers.

THE MORE GINNING WE DO, THE BIGGER THE PROFITS WILL BE. YOU CAN HELP YOURSELF BY GINNING YOUR CROP AT THIS GIN!

Learning God

“... And they shall all be taught of God.”—Isaiah 54:13

How much do you know about God? How often do you think about God? Is your entire life guided by awareness of the fact that God is an ever-present reality?

Or, do you perhaps, believe in a part-time God? Do you turn to God only with a prayer for help, never with a word of thanks?

Become more aware of God. Seek for yourself a new and greater purpose in life. The more you learn about God, the more you bring God into every facet of your daily life, the brighter your world will become.

Sixth Grade To Make Drive Mon. For UNICEF

Sixth Grade students of Memphis School will make house to house calls Monday night soliciting funds for the United Nations International Children's Fund.

The local UNICEF program has been sponsored here for several years by the 1913 Study Club in cooperation with the junior high school.

The students will carry yellow UNICEF cartons and local residents are asked to assist with this worthy cause by contributing nickels, dimes and quarters—or even dollars.

CARD OF THANKS

To the host of friends who came to us with the love and sympathy at the loss of our husband and father, and to those who could not come but sent flowers or messages of condolence, we want to express our deepest appreciation. We are especially grateful to those who helped with the music and flowers. May we be more worthy of such friendship.

Money collected here will be sent to UNICEF headquarters to help needy children in many foreign countries. The money is used to buy milk, vaccine, medicine, etc.

This October 31, the emphasis in the United States will be more official than ever before. The President of the United States will proclaim the day as UNICEF Day in accordance with a Joint Congressional Resolution.

The Congressional Resolution was prompted not only by a growing recognition of the importance of UNICEF's work for children, but by application of the fact that the 1965 Nobel Peace Prize had been awarded to UNICEF.

makes loans for family farming operations, farm purchases and development, rural housing, community water systems, recreational enterprises, soil and water conservation and development, and emergency credit needs.

The agency makes loans to rural people who are unable to obtain credit from conventional lenders. All loans are accompanied by farm and financial management assistance and guidance for more profitable farming operations.

pital. He was taken ill only a few hours before his death.

Born March 21, 1891 in Russellville, Ky., Mr. Sweatt moved to Hall County in the fall of 1910 from Portales, N. M. He had farmed in the Webster community since that time.

He was united in marriage to the former Minnie Belle Hickerson May 23, 1915 in Memphis. The couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary a little over a year ago.

Mr. Sweatt was an active member of the Memphis Church of Christ.

Surviving are his wife of the home; a son, Billy Albert Sweatt of Amarillo; one daughter, Mrs.

Luther N. Pittman, also of Amarillo; four grandchildren; a brother, Exie Sweatt of Memphis and one sister, Mrs. Ella Alewine of Memphis.

Pall bearers were Monty Alewine, Fred Bourland, Tom Sweatt, Bob Sweatt, Don Sweatt, N. Paul Smith, Gene Hughs, Dwain Ellerd, Aubrey Robertson and Robert Sexauer.

Honorary pall bearers included Loyd Robertson, M. A. Wiley, W. W. Barclay, Marvin Alexander, Temple Deaver, Arvor McQueen, Dr. O. R. Goodall, Gilbert Young, Russell Payne, E. S. Morrison, Gip McMurry, John Tuttle, John Capps, George Sexauer, C. T. Chappell and Phaeton Alexander.

quarter the score read 12-8 with the Panthers still in the lead.

After an exchange of punts in the fourth quarter, King picked off one of Karcher's passes and returned it 40 yards to set up the score. Hamner powered over from the 2-yard line and the Turks enjoyed a 14-12 lead with 5 minutes remaining in the game.

Just as it looked as if the team from Lockett had suffered their first district defeat of the year, Karcher hit speedy Mack Lewis right over the middle and the 9.7 track man sped into the end zone.

Lewis eluded three would-be Turk tacklers as he scored with only 55 seconds remaining in the game to sew up the win.

The Turk defense played one of their better games of the year as they were faced with a big problem in trying to contain the fast Panther attack. Standouts for the Turks on defense were Harvey Case, Rod Mullin and John King along with Hamner. Mullin led on the tackle chart with a total of 16 followed closely by Hamner with 15, Farley 13, Denton, King and Barnhill all with 12 each.

Probably the difference in the game was Mack Lewis, the speedster of the Panthers. Lewis had 176 yards total offense to single-handedly outgain the entire Turk team which had only 128 yards total offense. Meanwhile Lockett had a total offense reading of 324 yards for the night.

Next Friday the Turks play host to Valley View in a district contest at Vardy Field. The Warriors like the Turks, have not won a game this season, but also, like the Turks, they have played many close ones that could have gone either way. In district play, the Warriors have suffered three close defeats to Newcastle, Rochester and to Rule. The Turks are hopeful of picking up their first district win along with the first win of the season. It should be a very fine game and will probably be rated as a toss up by area sportswriters.

big, fast, and hard hitting," the Memphis coach said.

Coach Glascock gave several statements about the game Friday night.

"Mentally, our team wasn't as alert as in previous nights which probably was because of homecoming and the many events surrounding this observance. You know, five teams in our area had homecomings last Friday and four of them lost their games."

"Secondly," the coach said, "the Amarillo Daily News' article about me last week helped our opponents more than it did me. I wasn't contacted by the newspaper about the article and the first I knew of it was when it was published."

"In the third place," he added, "Olton's team captains received a letter, post marked from Memphis, erroneously signed with the names of our team captains. The letter contained certain obscene statements. We suspect this letter was mailed here by an out-of-towner for the purpose of firing up the Olton team."

As far as the game strategy was concerned, Coach Glascock said that Coach Don Beck, with nothing to lose and everything to gain, changed his entire offensive and defensive formation alignments especially for the Memphis game. This added to the confusion of the local squad who had no previous practice or experience with these formations.

"About the mistakes," the local coach said, "if it was the Dallas Cowboys or the Greenbay Packers playing, fans would have every right to get upset by mistakes but in high school football, mistakes are just part of the game of young athletes."

The Cyclone had some fine offensive and defensive plays and players in the Olton game. Junior Graves, defensive corner back and tailback, was selected as "player of the week" by the Cyclone Booster Club. Coach Glascock said Junior played a fine game all the way and well deserved the selection. Also, Larry Gaston graded high for his job of offensive blocking in the game, the coach said. Kay Miller was also cited for his defensive play as a linebacker.

Coach Glascock said he was disappointed in the offensive pass protection blocking of the squad against Olton which broke down and cost the team in lost yardage and missed passes. Also he was disappointed in the tackling efforts of the boys.

"We got there all right but we didn't tackle," he said.

"After seeing the film, I was not nearly as upset as I was Friday night, for we played hard and aggressively, but we fumbled eight times and lost five of them which makes it hard to win a game," the coach said.

Floydada's Personnel
The Whirlwinds backfield is the largest the local squad has faced. No. 45 Kerry Bearden (155) and No. 25 Joe Christian (185) are their best running backs. Bearden also passes the ball. No. 24 Darrell Moore (165) and Quarterback Larry Barbee, No. 11, (150) are throwers to good receivers.

No. 21, split end Steve Man was selected Amarillo Daily News player of the week for his effort against Hale Center last week. End (No. 89) Bob Murry, 6 ft. 5 in. tall, (170) is one of the best any high school team will see this season.
The line is led by No. 66 Larry Hunter (155), Center than Johnson (170), Tackle Ion Carthel (190) and Murray.

Floydada runs from back the same type of offense the cyclone uses. They have six different defenses. Defensively, Whirlwinds rush the passer exceptionally well and have good coverage in the secondary.

We Are Proud To Announce That

Deposits Are Now Insured To $15,000.00

Effective Oct. 16, 1966, the long-familiar $10,000.00 limit on Federal Deposit Insurance for deposits maintained "in the same right and capacity" was increased to $15,000.00.

This new $15,000.00 coverage was put into effect automatically at the First National Bank in Memphis, effective Oct. 16, 1966, on all CHECKING ACCOUNTS, SAVINGS ACCOUNTS, CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT, and all deposits which are legally covered by this Deposit Insurance protection. It now applies to new accounts, and to additions to present accounts up to $15,000.00.

Thus you may have an individual account covered to $15,000.00, a spouse may have a similar account also insured to $15,000.00, both may have a joint account insured to $15,000.00, either or both may have accounts as executor or trustee of an estate, and in fact every account held in a different "right of capacity" will be insured to the full $15,000.00

The First National Bank pays for this insurance. It is supplemental to our sound management policies in providing protection for your deposited funds.

We are happy to furnish this safeguard, and this higher amount of coverage, to our depositors.

MRS. AMANDA MARTIN

Mrs. Amanda Martin Marks 90th Birthday

Mrs. Amanda (Grannie) Martin celebrated her 90th birthday Oct. 16, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Bray and Mrs. Edith Galloway.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. L. A. Bray, Mrs. James Bray, Mrs. Raymond Martin of Memphis and Mrs. Edith Galloway of Amarillo.

Guests calling during party of 2-5 p. m. were registered by Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. L. A. Bray.

A white cutwork cloth over a white undershirt covered the servable centerpiece and yellow and white pumpkins, and a cry-punch service and plates completed the setting.

A white sheet cake was decorated with bronze, yellow and orange flowers and leaves to carry out the autumn color scheme.

"Happy Birthday, Grannie" was written on the cake, which also held two candles with a 9 and an 0 on them for the 90 years.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. Raymond Martin, Mrs. Ed Slough of Memphis and Mrs. Ray Martin of Fort Worth.

For her party, Mrs. Martin wore a dark blue dress with a gold design. Her corsage was of small bronze and yellow mums.

She received a "money tree" adorned with dollar bills from each of her seven grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and 16 great-great-grandchildren. Also received were many lovely gifts.

Exactly 90 birthday cards were sent to her.

Relatives from Amarillo, Fort Worth and Memphis met Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bray to have a birthday dinner for Mrs. Martin, known to everyone as "Grannie." Her three children, Mrs. Elsie Bray of Memphis, Mrs. Edith Galloway of Amarillo and Ray Martin of Fort Worth, were present to help celebrate.

Amanda Woods was born at Ironton, Mo., on Oct. 14, 1876, and lived there until she was five years of age when she moved with her family to Springfield, Mo.

She was united in marriage to John W. Ketner on Nov. 10, 1895. They were the parents of two girls, Edith and Elsie. Mr. Ketner died in 1901 and she taught school until she married James T. Martin, a Baptist minister.

They moved to Stratford, Okla., in 1905 and lived there until 1926 when they moved to Hall County. They had two children, Ray and Jerdene. Jerdene died in infancy.

The couple lived at Plaska until he died in 1939. Mrs. Martin has been living in Memphis for 15 years. She lives alone, and does all her own work. She loves to read, does fancy work and raises flowers. Mrs. Martin is keenly interested in local and national affairs.

United Nations Program Presented At Delphian Club Meeting Tuesday

Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mrs. Neal Hindman entertained the Delphian Club on Tuesday, Oct. 18, at the Big O Restaurant.

Mrs. Joe Bob Browning introduced the program, "United Nations." Mrs. Gaylen Ariola gave the meditation on "Treason To Freedom." She said, "the greatest enemies of democracy are those who have lost faith in the capacity of a few people to manage their own affairs and wish to set up the government as a political and social guardian, running their business and making their decisions for them."

Mrs. O. R. Goodall then gave an informative talk on the United Nations. She stated, "on June 26, 1965, dignitaries from 114 member countries gathered in San Francisco to commemorate the signing of the United Nations Charter in 1945. The ideals and objectives of the charter are to live at peace with one another as good neighbors."

"All people have a common interest in survival and want to fight the enemies of mankind: ignorance, poverty, hunger and despair. On this 21st anniversary we salute the United Nations as the best instrument yet devised to attain peace with justice and freedom for men and women everywhere, and pledge continued support for measures designed to hasten the attainment of that goal," Mrs. Goodall said.

The program was concluded with a review of "The Human Ministry of the United Nations" by Mrs. Henry Hays, in which she noted, "we are striving for a healthier world, more food for everyone, world prosperity and training for independence. There are some countries that still live in fear of epidemics of malaria, smallpox and tuberculosis."

"There are people everywhere who do not know the freedom of hunger. The efforts of the U. N. are bringing technical assistance to under-developed countries. It is impossible to cover the vast number of fields in which the United Nations and its agencies have helped. As we move into the days of the next decade, it is a great resource to know we have an organization such as the United Nations," Mrs. Hays concluded. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. Cyril Keith, O. R. Goodall, Gaylen Ariola, Carroll Gardenhire, J. S. McMurry, Vera Dial Dickey, J. S. Barnes, Mildred Stephens, C. C. Hodges, Sim Reeves, Henry Hays, Joe Bob Browning, Clyde Smith and Neal Hindman, and Miss Maud Milam.

Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. Lee In Shawhart Home

Mrs. Danny Lee, the former Doris Ward, was honored with a miscellaneous display shower on Thursday, Oct. 13, in the home of Mrs. Arlie Shawhart.

Guests calling during the party hours of 7:30-9 p. m. were greeted by a receiving line composed of Mrs. Shawhart; the honoree; Mrs. Maurine Daniels, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. C. D. Lee, mother of the bridegroom.

The honoree wore a bronze mum corsage, and other members of the receiving line wore corsages of gold pom-pom mums.

Mrs. Jimmie Miller, sister of the bride, secured names at the guest register.

Mrs. Lee's chosen colors of bronze and gold were used in the floral arrangements throughout the party suite. The serving table, laid in gold lame, was centered with a bouquet of bronze and gold mums. Presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. Linda Ford, Mrs. Sandra Goff, Miss Jone Ward and Miss Pat Durham.

A large array of beautiful gifts were on display. Hostesses included Mmes. L. G. Yarbrough, A. B. Jones, Jess Roden, Jimmy Don Molloy, Mildred Stephens, Jeanne Johnson, Crabb, Edd Hutcherson, Glen Coleman, J. W. Ivy, Coy Davis, Ross Genzry, Herschel Pounds, Carl Clayton, Lois Smith, Rena Cleveland and Shawhart.

Methodist WSCS, Wesleyan Guild Concludes Study

The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met Monday night, Oct. 24, to complete the studies which began on Oct. 3, and were held each Monday night during October. There was an average attendance of 30 members present with 48 women attending part or all of these four sessions.

The meeting opened with the group singing of Spirit of Faith, Come Down. Mrs. Cyril Keith brought an inspiring meditation. She said, "Our Lord demanded great renunciation of those who wanted to follow him. He never suggested that the Christian life was an easy or comfortable affair." Mrs. Bob Fowler sang "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go," and was accompanied by Mrs. David Hamblin.

To conclude the Bible study, "Christian Being and Doing," Miss Neville Wrenn gave a summation of James and First Peter. She said, "The letter of James is characterized as 'Practical Religion.' James admonishes us that the man who knows the good he ought to do and does not do it is a sinner. As James calls us to 'Christian Being and Doing,' First Peter reminds us that 'Christian doing takes place where there is vital Christian being.' The Christian life begins where God acts and man responds affirmatively."

Mrs. R. C. Lemons and Mrs. M. G. Tarver gave the conclusion of the Mission Study "Keepers of the Poor." Mrs. Lemons stated, "education is our major weapon against poverty. Statistics show that one-fifth of the population of the United States lives in poverty. What happens to the poor in this country in the next 10 years will determine what happens to the United States and its position of world leadership. The Methodist Church is helping in this respect by supporting Wesleyan Community Centers, Bethlehem Centers, Navajo Indian Mission Schools, the Goodwill Industries, and many others too numerous to mention."

Mrs. Wray Studstill, Mrs. J. J. McDaniel, Mrs. Loyd Becker and Mrs. Dink Miller concluded the program with a dialogue on this study.

Present were the following: Mmes. John Fowler, Cyril Keith, Rhupert Wynn, Bob Fowler, C. E. Gowan, J. P. Montgomery, Bess Crump, Myrtis Phelan, W. V. Coursey, T. J. Hampton, Barney Burnett, W. J. McMaster, Frank Monzingo, J. W. Oliver, J. J. McDaniel, Dink Miller, David Hamblin, Louis Goffinet, L. G. DeBerry, George Greenhaw, W. F. McElreath, R. S. Greene, M. G. Tarver, Jack Martin, R. C. Lemons, Loyd Becker, Hester Bowden, Wray Studstill, A. O. Giddens, Lee Brown, and Misses Dorothy Gowan and Neville Wrenn.

1913 Study Club Hears Play Review

The 1913 Study Club met Wednesday, Oct. 19, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. R. S. Greene.

During the business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. Herschel Combs, it was reported that the 1913 Study Club's window display on "King Cotton" won third place at the recent Hedley Cotton Festival.

Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard and Virginia Browder reported on the annual fall board meeting and workshop held Oct. 3, 4 and 5 by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. Outstanding speakers were Governor John Connally and Dr. John Stevens, assistant president of Abilene Christian College.

Mrs. Kinard also reported on the TFWC Santa Rosa District Workshop, which she and Mrs. Combs attended Oct. 18 in Paducah. Several other members of Memphis study clubs also attended, according to the report.

Mrs. O. L. Helm introduced the afternoon's program on "Americanism." Mrs. R. S. Greene reviewed in an interesting manner the play, "The Last Page," which she wrote. This play won first prize in the State Federation contest several years ago, and was presented in Memphis and in Wichita Falls with the author as guest of honor.

"The Last Page" is a vignette of Hall County history and early settlers based on the true story of Mrs. Vernon (Jessie) Jones' mother, Mrs. Copeland, who operated a hotel in Salisbury many years ago.

Characters included Mrs. Copeland; her daughters, Jessie and Libbe; and Mrs. Ellis, the mother-in-law whom Mrs. Copeland had never seen. Mrs. Ellis came from Massachusetts to Texas searching for her son, only to find that he had died. The grand finale was the square dance and wedding of Walter Shaw, a well-known cowboy, and Lizzie Copeland. Among those present at the event were Bill Rowell, Hall County sheriff, and Scott Montgomery, a young Memphis banker. Mrs. T. M. Harrison and Mrs. M. G. Tarver were members of the original Memphis cast.

For an example of "America's Musical Heritage," Mrs. George Ferris played a delightful rendition of David Guion's "Turkey in the Straw."

Mrs. Bob Hutcherson made an interesting chart to demonstrate her talk, "Spotlight on UNICEF," showing how far pennies and nickels go to aid the underprivileged children and mothers of the world.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the above mentioned members and Mmes. Byron Baldwin, Ralph Williams, Edd Hutcherson, Bray Cook, Guy Smith, Oren Jones, W. C. Davis, Johnny Farnsworth, T. J. Dunbar, Paul Montgomery, L. G. DeBerry, F. W. Foxhall, Gayle Greene, Wray Studstill, and Miss Neville Wrenn. Guests were Mmes. J. H. Morris, J. E. Roper, John Deaver and Lewis Foxhall.

Shamrock C-C To Sponsor Bridge Tourney

Shamrock will host the fifth annual Irish Sectional Bridge Tournament on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 4, 5 and 6, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The tourney will be held in the National Guard Armory with an expected attendance of 500-700 persons.

Mrs. I. C. Mundy is tournament chairman and William F. Holmes is co-chairman.

Participation fee is $2.50 for all events except the open pairs which will be $3.00. Master points will be awarded in all events in accordance with the regular ACBL schedule for sectional tournaments. Trophies will be awarded the winners.

Refreshments will be served after each session. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at the morning session, and a free buffet will be served Sunday between the afternoon and evening events. Motel reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Neva Neely, secretary of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce.

Memphis FHA Holds Formal Initiation Tuesday, Oct. 11

The Memphis Future Homemakers of America held its formal initiation in the High School auditorium Oct. 11 at 7 p. m.

In a candlelight ceremony, the eight purposes of FHA were presented for the initiation. The freshmen then were initiated.

The guest for the program was Pat Floyd who held a question-and-answer period on hair tips.

The FHA is also selling cookbooks and may be purchased from any member until Oct. 28, it was announced.

Newcomers Hold Baby Shower For Mrs. Lorance

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Bill Lorance was given at the meeting of the Hall County Newcomers Club, held Oct. 18 in the home of Mrs. Jerry Hassell.

Shower games were played, after which refreshments were served. The refreshment table was decorated in pink and centered with a baby cradle.

Punch and cake were served to Mmes. Lorance, Alfred Dzuke, Travis Gilliland, Dennis Ward, Clayton Henderson, Wray Studstill, C. D. Cummings, Esibel Chavez and Jerry Hassell.

Film Slide Program Presented Tuesday For Atalantean Gentlemen's Evening

An autumn theme was used by the Atalantean Club at the Gentlemen's Evening held Tuesday, Oct. 18, at 7 p. m. in the Community Center.

Hostesses were Mmes. Robert Montgomery, Claud Johnson, H. J. Howell, Henry Foster, Robert Philipot, Kent Magness and Lloyd Elliott.

Flower arrangements of dahlias, chrysanthemums and multi-colored leaves were placed on the dining tables. The buffet meal consisted of oven-baked chicken, green beans, scalloped potatoes, jello fruit salad and hot rolls, appropriately concluded with the pumpkin chiffon pie.

The occasion was representative of the Texas Federation of Women's Club's Home Life Department, providing family entertainment.

Mrs. Milton Beasley, Jr., welcomed the guests after which W. R. Scott gave the invocation.

"A String of Pearls" was the theme of the evening's program, in keeping with the year's study topic, "Pearls of Potentials." Mrs. W. R. Scott quoted, "The hours I spent with Thee, dear heart, are as a string of pearls to me," by Rogers.

Mrs. J. W. Coppedge gave a humorous recitation of "Polish Questions" to introduce the program, before introducing Byron Baldwin, "Mr. Candid Camera of Memphis," who showed a variety of slides.

From his film library which totals over 3,000 slides, Baldwin chose 400 slides taken of public events in Memphis and surrounding communities, local scenic sunrises and sunsets, attractive landscapes and flower gardens. Of special interest were the pictures of several past Atalantean Club style shows and dinners.

Atalantean members and guests present included Mmes. Cecil McCollum, N. A. Hightower, W. C. Dickey, H. B. Estes, Earl Allen, and Claud Johnson, Miss Gertrude Rasco, and Messrs. and Mmes. Lloyd Elliott, H. J. Howell, Henry Foster, Robert Montgomery, Kent Magness, W. R. Scott, Milton Beasley, Jr., Robert Spicer, Glenn Thompson, J. W. Coppedge, Bob Douthit, Roy Jewel, L. C. Martin and K. B. Chick.

Other special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baldwin, and Mmes. G. W. Keesterson, Theodore Swift, Gladys Patrick, and Louis Goffinet.

B&PW Club Entertains With Halloween Dinner Thursday Evening

More than 50 members and guests attended the Halloween dinner party given Thursday evening in the Community Center by the Business and Professional Women's Club.

A costume party, the members and guests arrived representing a varied group of Halloween characters. Many of the group were so cleverly disguised that their identity was hard to detect. Many laughs were enjoyed by the group throughout the evening.

Dorothea Clements, president of the club, presided at the meeting and introduced Suz Beth Howard, program chairman for the evening.

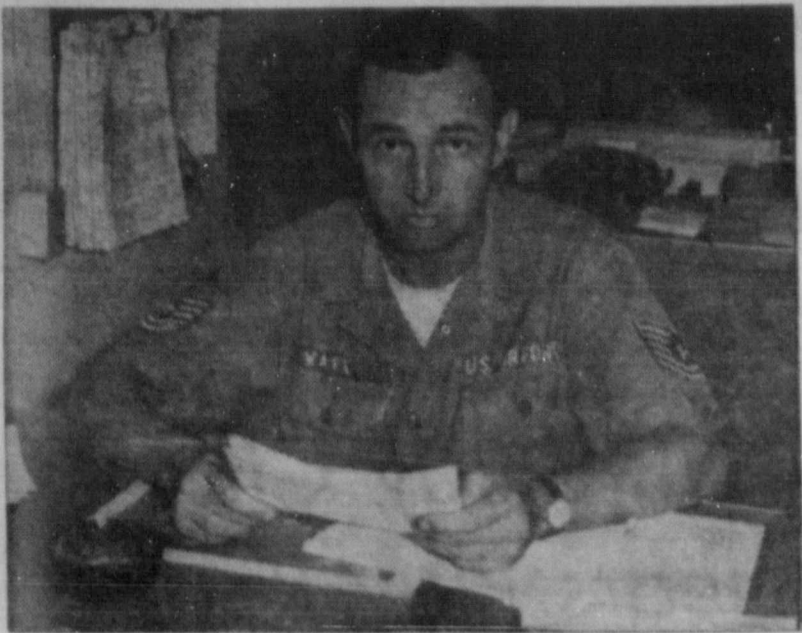

Following a delicious meal of Swedish meat balls, potatoes, hot rolls, green beans, salad, pumpkin pie and spiced tea, the program was presented.

The group enjoyed seeing a skit from the production, "Everybody Loves Opal."

An invitation was extended to all working women of Memphis to attend the party.

B&PW HALLOWEEN DINNER—It was anybody's guess who was concealed behind the masks at the dinner Thursday evening given by the local B&PW Club. Shown above are several of the members and guests who attended the dinner. Suz Beth Howard, shown to the left of the picture, was program chairman for the evening more than 50 members and guests attended the social.

Around and About
By HELEN COMBS

Paula Sherry and I had a most enjoyable trip to the Bill Bradley Ranch at noon Tuesday. Editor Bill Combs was unable to attend due to conflicting engagements, much to our delight. Bill, his charming wife and daughter were hosts to a group of students from Texas Christian University who are taking a ranch management course. This is the fourth year the college has visited the Bradley Ranch.

We arrived just in time for the delicious barbecue dinner . . . the meat was so tender it fell apart. We were congratulating the cooks, but Bill explained to us that part of the secret of tender meat is in the feeding of the beef before it is butchered. This particular calf had been "fed out" for about a year.

The Bradleys have become known throughout this part of the state for their fine Angus cattle . . . and have taken many prizes in show rings. In fact, the mantle in the living room of their spacious ranch home is lined with the many trophies they have won with their cattle. It seems winning awards kinda runs in the family . . . on display in the living room was also a new saddle recently won at a rodeo by Bill's father.

Jack Davis, president of the First National Bank, was present to speak to the students in an informal question and answer fashion following the luncheon. The students asked him many pertinent questions pertaining to finances and economics.

Those of you who failed to see the production of "Everybody Loves Opal", presented Monday and Tuesday nights, missed a real treat. It was a fine comedy and well presented by a most capable cast who did a good job portraying their individual parts. Nell Benson, as the little old lady who collected trash, made the au-

Monday night and the Junior and Senior carnival the following weekend in Lakeview. Here in Memphis, the carnival gets underway with rides on Thursday and will continue through Saturday night.

Let's all journey to Floydada Friday night and support the local football team. This will be a crucial game for the boys as far as conference games go . . . and they will need our support.

The newly re-decorated hall of the American Legion Building was the scene for a delightful bridge party given Monday afternoon by Mary Jane Thompson and Marietta McQueen. It was a pleasant afternoon indeed and everyone enjoyed seeing and visiting with friends, as well as the games of bridge . . . everything just perfect, including decorations and food.

Rotary District Governor Earl Wilbur of Dalhart told a Rotary Assembly Tuesday at noon during his annual official visit about a young bachelor friend of his. My son, Bill, thought the story worth repeating, but I was not too enthused with it, but our male readers might get a chuckle. It seems the bachelor was asked by Governor Wilbur why he hadn't gotten married and the young man said he felt it was far better for him to want something he didn't have rather than having something he didn't want.

Dear Editor:
Sorry I am late in sending in subscription. Thanks for sending the paper on, because my mother, Mrs. Freel, really enjoys it and looks forward each Saturday for it.

My husband and I were in up

Hall County in August and we pulled two cotton stalks up, off of my mother's old home place. They had several bolls on and looked real pretty. We brought them back and gave them to my mother. I didn't know it for some time but she set them out in her yard. They lived and put on more bolls. She was thrilled and said,

"Nothing but Hall Co. cotton could do that."
Thanks,
Mrs. Ross Newberry

Bradley Ranch Hosts TCU Training Group

The Bradley 3 Ranch, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradley, was visited Tuesday by 19 students and two directors of Texas Christian University's ranch training program. This is the fourth year the ranch has hosted the management trainees. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley special-registered Angus cattle. Herdsman is Richard Stotts. The morning tour the class included the Angus cattle, including herd bulls, replacement heifers and the show cattle. They observed grasses, water mills and pasture conditions. A delicious barbecue was served in a barn at noon by the hosts, led by Louise May. Also assisting was Mary Lou Bradley, daughter of the hosts. Following the meal, Jack I. Davis, president of the First National Bank of Memphis, conducted an information-question-and-answer session on ranch economics. During the afternoon, the students studied cattle performance records, economic records and information of cattle. During a nine-month school on the ranch training program, the students intensive classroom instruction in basic principles of land, grass, livestock, records, and marketing. The field work includes six week-long trips and numerous shorter trips. The visits are chosen to give the best possible cross-section of different kinds of country, livestock and operations. Some of the field work is to assure that members of the class are familiar with basic skills in selecting, handling, and treating livestock. Over 8,000 miles will be covered this term. Directors of the course, the only one of its kind in the United States, are John L. Merrill and Raymond L. Kenny. Students in the class represent six states, including Texas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Florida, Arizona and Kansas. The only foreign student in the group is Carlos Sanint of Colombia, South America. His family owns a large ranch there. When asked about the comparison in size of Texas and Colombia ranches, a classmate assisting in the interview said that ranches there are all as large as the largest ones in Texas. Sanint said that he liked Texas "very much" since his arrival here in September. His first trip to the United States was a brief one to Cape Kennedy, Fla. Other students making the tour included Richard Hales, Florida; Jack Knox, Coleman; David O'Keefe, Denver City; McLean Bowman, San Antonio; Charles Jeffers, San Antonio; Richard Bennett, San Antonio; Pete Smith, San Saba; Jim Choules, Abilene; Lorrie Smith, Prescott, Ariz.; Bob Paul, Del Rio; Bryan Wilkinson, Vinita, Okla.; Pat McGown, Beaumont; George Porter, El Paso; Bill Gourley, Crockett; Jim Ferguson, Crystal City; Larry Park, Hutchinson, Kansas; Jack Norman, Laurel, Miss.; David Box, Plains.

Fall Bridge Party Given At Legion Hall

A lovely fall theme was used at a bride party held Monday at 2 p. m. in the newly-redecorated Legion Hall by Mrs. Arvor McQueen and Mrs. Glynn Thompson. Arrangements of chrysanthemums, pyracantha and other fall flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the entertaining room. Covers on the eight bridge tables were in shades of brown, green and orange, with miniature feather dusters of brightly colored ostrich plumes as centerpieces. Mrs. Billy Thompson and Mrs. Walter Whaley tied for high prizes. The floating prize was awarded to Mrs. Joe Allen Ballard. Guests present included Miss Imogene King and Mmes. Chuck Jennings Named Vice Pres. Of MHS Council

Chuck Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jennings, was named vice president of the Memphis High School Student Council in an election held last Thursday by the student body.

Winning this office entitles Chuck to accede to the Student Council presidency next school year.

Kathy Houston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Houston, was the losing candidate. She and Chuck are junior students. They were required to carry on active campaigns and to give campaign speeches before the student body prior to the election.

Darrouzett School To Host Clinic On Girls' Basketball

Darrouzett High School will be host to the first Golden Spread Coaches and Officials Clinic Saturday, Nov. 5, according to announcement by Darrouzett Supt. Russell Howle.

Teams from the Panhandle and Oklahoma are invited to attend. Registration for the clinic will begin at 8:30 a. m. After the official welcome, coaches, officials, and trainees from the Panhandle area will speak on various phases of girls' basketball.

Scrimmage games will begin at 3:30 p. m. Between 700 and 800 girls are expected to be present for the clinic and games to follow, Supt. Howle said.

He and Coach Robert Taylor worked for three years on setting up the clinic and getting sanction of the Interscholastic League, and would like for all interested persons to be able to take advantage of this opportunity to receive expert information on girls' basketball.

By VERN SANFORD
It's the dead of summer. It's HOT!

Fishing is in the doldrums. You'd like to go fishing but... well, I really can't blame you. There's not enough action to be worth the effort.

That is, unless you're fishing for the ubiquitous bream or sunfish or perch or whatever you call it. The bream is a warm-weather fish. It will cooperate even during the hottest days of July and August.

You need not travel far to catch bream. These little boogers are literally everywhere.

Nor is elaborate tackle needed. Any canepole and readily accessible bait will put bream on the stringer.

Only drawback to this fish is its size. It doesn't grow very large. But its spirit belies its diminutive size. It has been called, "pound for pound, the fightingest fish that swims."

An average bream will be about the size of your hand. But sometimes you can find a concentration of larger ones in stock tanks, many grow better than a pound apiece.

These are hybrid sunfish, developed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife catchery at San Marcos.

By crossing two species of the sunfish family, the hybrid is developed. Most of the off-spring are males. Problem with sunfish is that they multiply so fast they overpopulate a body of water. Then the fish become stunted. Hybrids have eliminated much of this problem.

An ordinary canepole is all right for catching bream. But I prefer something more suitable to the sport, like a light fly rod or an ultra-light spinning outfit. On these delicate rigs even a hand-sized bream can cut all sorts of capers, making you believe you've snagged a fish twice that size.

During hot weather most bream will be deep, but early and late in the day you'll find them in the shoreline shallows, feeding on tiny insects. Look for them in about four to eight feet of water, just beyond weed beds or submerged stumps or rocks.

On calm waters you can see the telltale dimples where they rise to pluck insects off the surface.

Later in the day, go deep for them; they'll be near bottom.

When they are near the surface, I prefer to use tiny flies or spinner baits to catch them. Just about any fly or small popper worked slowly will entice a strike. When the fish are in deep water, wet flies and spinners fished deep and slow will get action. But the favorite bait is something natural.

All sorts of natural baits get results; earthworms, crickets, roaches, small grasshoppers, cat-tail worms, tiny crawfish.

Use the smallest weight possible, just a tiny split-shot sinker, to sink the bait deep. The small weight gives the bait more life-like action and it is easier to feel a bite when you get one.

For bait fishing, use light monofilament, about four- to six-pound test, a No. 10 hook, the BB split-shot sinker and a small cork or bobber, if you prefer one. Lower the bait to the bottom, in about 12 feet of water, then raise it a few inches. If after a few minutes you haven't had an offering, raise it even more, offering different stratas on up. Bream are gregarious, school fish, and once you pinpoint a concentration you are in business.

When wishing with artificial lures in mid-day, use light monofilament that will readily sink deep. Perhaps you'll wish to add a tiny spinner in front of a fly, to give it more weight for sinking and more flash to entice strikes on the retrieve. Work the fly very, very slowly. On a fly rod employ a leader at least nine feet long. The monofil will sink readily; the fly line won't. Idea is to get the bait deep.

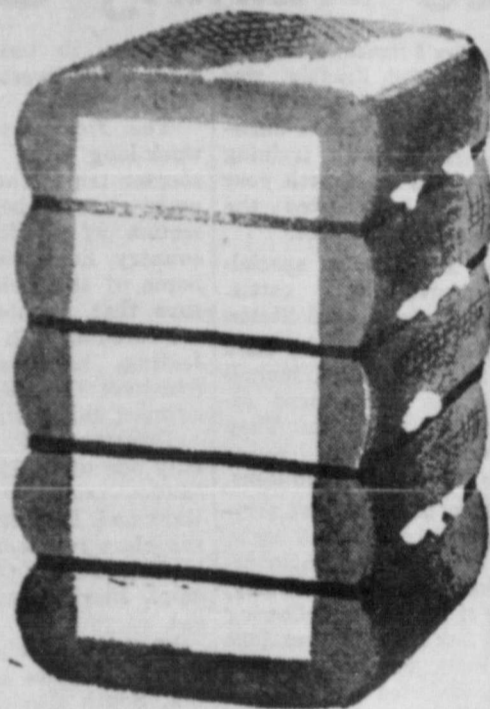

As for cooking your catch, don't be dismayed by the size. The bream is delicious. Just scale and cut off the head. Fry a rich golden brown in a deep skillet of grease. If you get the fish crisp, the bones are brittle and can be eaten.

Cook plenty. Everyone will be coming back for seconds.

The Turnout & Staple Was Second to None!

The Farmers of This Area Are Invited to Share in the Benefits That Come From Ginning at the Friendly and Efficient Estelline Co-Op Gin

This farmer-owned gin here in Estelline is now in its 6th year of operation. We take this opportunity to express our thanks to the farmers of our community who are our customers. We are determined to give our friends and neighbors an ever better service as this crop is harvested. As you know, the Estelline Co-Op plant has been put in top shape throughout. As the ginning season this year will be fast due to late maturity of this crop, we will be able to empty the trailers without undue delay. At the same time we will still give you the quality of ginning you have been receiving.

As in past years, burs will be available to our customers who wish to return them to the land. You will be glad to know that we have a late model bur hopper (catcher) which will make it more convenient for you. The burs are free of dirt and all foreign matter like weed seeds and trash.

YOUR GIN WILL BUY YOUR COTTON THIS SEASON

Again this year, arrangements have been made with Plains Cotton Co-Operative to buy your cotton, and prices will be posted in the gin office each day. Checks will be passed immediately to growers. No cotton will be turned down. The association will buy all grades and staples from green cards. The price will be as good or better than the Government Loan rate. Ask us for details.

When cotton has been sold by the association, profits made will be returned direct to each individual farmer.

Thanks for Your Help and Patronage

Since this gin was established to serve the cotton growers of the Estelline area, we have received excellent cooperation from our neighbors and friends, for which we are grateful. Because of your patronage, we have been able to improve our gin and give the kind of ginning service which you should have. Remember, we'll do all in our power to work with you. Let us know how we can serve.
