Thanksgiving Day, 1966

The year 1966 is fast coming to a close, and the season for giving thanks for our blessings has arrived this year, as it does the last of November each year on Thanksgiving Day. This year, the special day will be observed on Nov. 24, which is today.

Thanksgiving Day, in the United States, an annual festival of thanksgiving for the mercies of the closing year, is practically a national harvest festival, fixed by proclamation by the President and the governors of states, and ranks as a legal holiday.

In 1789 the Episcopal church formally recognized the civil government's authority to appoint such a feast, and in 1888 the Roman Catholic church also decided to honor a festival which had long been early universally observed, taking the place which in England is accorded to Christmas.

The earliest harvest thanksgiving in America was kept by the Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth in 1621, and was repeated often during that and the ensuing century; Congress recommended days of thanksgiving annually during the Revolution, and in 1784 for the return of peace—As did President Madison in 1815. Washington appointed such a day in 1789 after the adoption of the Constitution, and in 1795 for the general benefits and welfare of the nation.

Since 1817 the festival has been observed annually in New York, and since 1863 the Presidents have always issued proclamations appointing the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day.

This then, is the history of the observance. Thanksgiving is truly an American holiday, not practiced or observed by other nations of the world.

It is fitting that the strongest, richest and most powerful nation in the world should observe a day of thanksgiving for the blessings the freedom-loving citizens of this nation enjoy are far too numerous to name. Giving thanks is a practice which builds the spiritual side of each individual and gives life a deeper meaning. It makes us focus our attention upon unselfish matters, and helps us to appreciate the things we have instead of those we want. The Christian hymn "Count Your Blessings, Name Them One By One" is fitting for this season.

To name just a few of our blessings: we are the best protected nation in the world, even though we face the threat of The Bomb constantly; we are the best fed nation; we are the best clothed and the most comfortable by staying cool in the summer and warm in the winter; we have good laws and good law enforcement; and we have many freedoms: probably the greatest of which is our freedom to worship; and we have a fine educational system which offers our citizens to make of themselves what they want to make, limited only by their capabilities and dedication.

We give thanks for our health, our families and loved ones, our churches and our schools, and the list can go on and on.

Our nation has risen above other nations because of the sacrifices of its people, little and big, strong and weak, and the willingness to do what's right, what's honorable, and what is legal.

When we eat the fine meals prepared by our women, let us be mindful of the sacrifices paid by our citizens in years long past, and the sacrifices of our military men who will not be home with their families this year, for they are defending freedom in foreign lands. Let's Give Thanks.

What Other Editors Say

A Newspaper's Right

In this day of more and more government regulation, it is only natural for a lot of people to assume that a newspaper has the same set of controls as radio and television stations, but this is not so.

Television and radio have government controls because of the nature of their operation. Ownership of the airways cannot be vested in private hands because it properly belongs to everyone and the only proper way to control it is through the government.

But the newspaper business is a privately owned business with the freedom to conduct its business in the way it sees fit.

What brings this to mind is a court decision this week in which the Michigan State Court of Appeals ruled that a newspaper is a private business and has the right to accept or refuse advertising as it desires.

Suit has been brought against the Battle Creek Enquirer by a motion picture theatre to force the newspaper to accept advertising for "adult" movies. The newspaper turned down the ads because it didn't want to run them, and the theatre owner claimed loss of the advertising was costing him business.

But the court held that unlike a telephone company or a hotel, a newspaper is not so "affected with a public interest" that its freedom of contract is impaired.

The First Amendment to the U. S. Constitution declares and safeguards the sanctity of freedom of the press. This freedom extends to the choice of accepting or rejecting news material, or advertisements.

This Michigan decision was the latest in a series of decisions upholding freedom of the press. We hope that the judiciary of this country keeps a record of this precedent and never wavers in its upholding of this fundamental right.—Ochiltree County Herald.

Vocational Education

Texas schools are quickly dispelling the antiquated notion that "academic" education is for the fortunate students blessed with brains and "vocational" training is for the social rejects equipped only with muscle power.

This statement was carried in a recent copy of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association News, The article continued:

Although few Texas educators deny the virtues of vocational training, where, when and how to offer it is subject to much controversy, such as to these three differing viewpoints:

(1) Academic and vocational education should be combined—today's highly technical society requires skills of all its members as well as a basic education.

(2) Vocational education should be kept separate—vocation-oriented students do better in a climate among their peers, unrestricted by competition from college-bound students.

(3) Vocational training should be offered in a two-year community college—to guide a student into a high school vocational course which may fill an immediate economic need may leave him not only culturally bankrupt but unable to adapt to changes in the future job market.

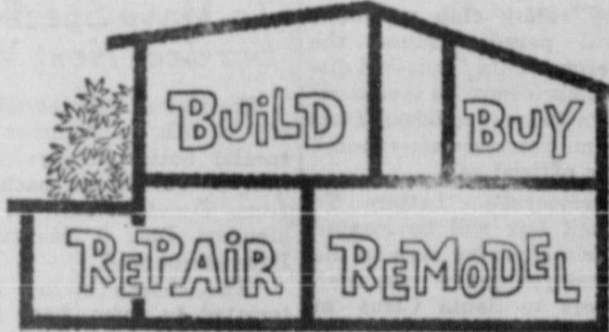

Though many teachers now realize that vocational training must be the concern of all schools, three major areas for concern in vocational education still crop up:

Junior high school students need more concentrated vocational programs. According to an NEA study, 30 per cent of the nation's young people drop out of school before the 10th grade—such programs could serve as preventatives, rather than belated efforts after the students have already left school for the streets.

The schools must familiarize their pupils with the opportunities for technical education available to them after high school.

A concept effort is needed to help the noncollege pupil to move from school into a job in which he can keep on learning.—Fiona Star.

Former Coach Watches Cyclone Team Friday of the interested spectators on the Memphis side of the stadium and rooting for the Cyclone squad Friday night.

Blake Bolton of Pampa, really had his heart in the Memphis Cyclone as he saw the Memphis lads play for honors in the Bi-District game brought back memories of his coaching at Memphis when he coached at MHS during one of his successful years Cyclone ever had.

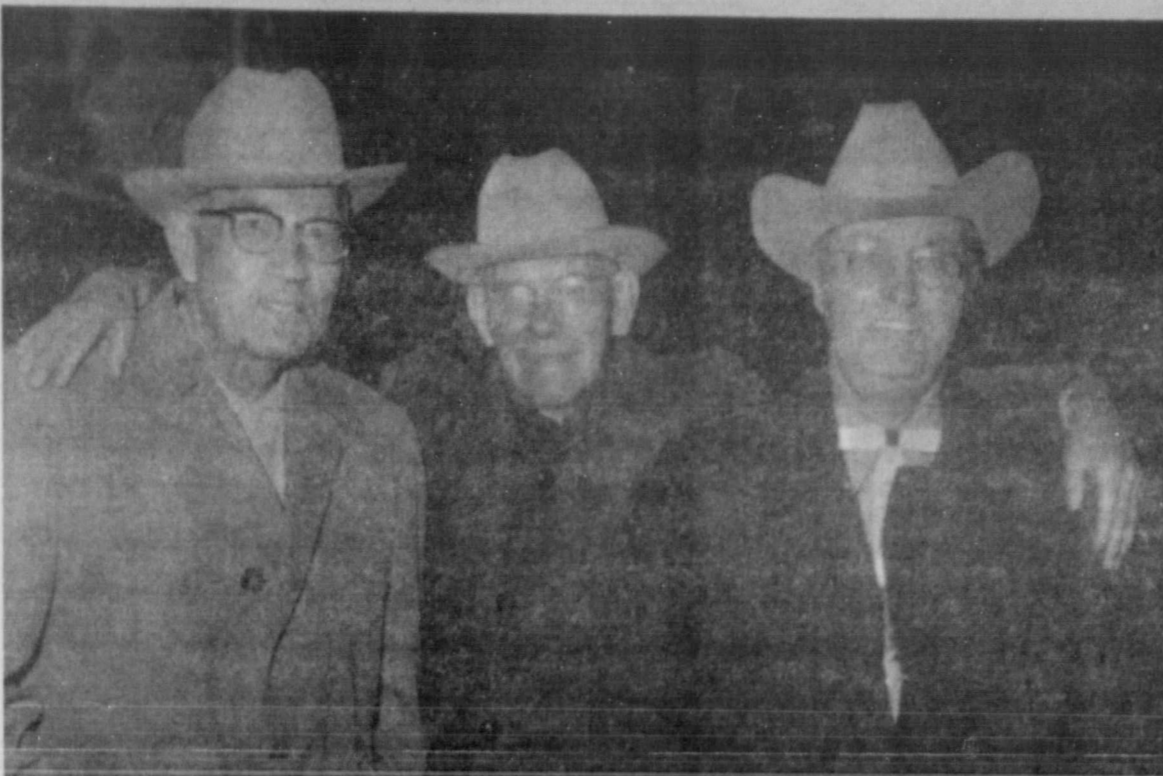

Coach Bolton, a graduate of the University of New Mexico, came to Memphis in 1923 as Cyclone football coach. His first season, the Cyclone won five, lost three and tied one. In 1924, his team won five and lost one. In 1925, he won nine and lost one, the best record in the Bi-District. In 1926, his team won five and lost three. In 1927, he had his best season, winning three and losing four and tied two. In 1928, he won six and lost three and tied to 0. In 1925 the Cyclone scored the greatest number of points of any team in Texas, 155 to 0.

During his stay in Memphis, Coach Bolton had the first district and Bi-District team in 1925. In 1928, Memphis and Hereford played a 6-6 tie in Memphis for the District. The next week Memphis went to Hereford and lost the District by a score of 13 to 7.

Coach Bolton left Memphis after that season and went to Dahlhart as a coach.

When asked how he liked the way Memphis was performing at halftime, Bolton had a lot of praise for the local lads, but he couldn't help making a suggestion or two as all former coaches like to do when they are asked a question about football.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texan:

Cotton is still the "King" crop in Texas field crop farming just as it has been for the last 140 years, since commercial farming first began in this state. But right now it looks as if Texas cotton farmers may be short-changed by the Department of Agriculture.

The Department of Agriculture has issued new figures on the projected cotton yield for 1967 which cut back Texas crop loans below both the 1965 and 1966 levels. This means that Texas cotton farmers would lose millions of dollars, since Federal subsidy prices are based on these figures.

This is a case of rank injustice to Texas cotton farmers, because of all the cotton-growing states in the Union only Oklahoma and Texas harvest figures were cut back.

If these Department of Agriculture figures are not changed, the Texas cotton farmers will not only lose money but many of them will be faced with disaster.

That's why I wrote Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman on November 4 demanding that these projected cotton harvest figures be reconsidered and that justice be done to the cotton farmers of Texas.

In the case of Texas, these department figures mean a loss of $3.40 an acre in the 1967 yields. Texas has about 40 per cent of the nation's acreage planted in cotton, and it seems as if Texas is being stripped down in order to divide its projected yields among 11 other states. These states are being given yield figures far beyond any modern average of production in those states.

So you can see that it is unfair to ask the Texas cotton farmer to give up part of his income just to spread that money in other states.

But this is not the only recent case in which the Department of Agriculture appears to be hurting the Texas cotton farmer.

Recently the Department released 3 million bales of government loan cotton into the world market. This action came just as Texas cotton farmers were hauling this year's harvest to the gin.

This glutting of the market at harvest time meant that the Texas cotton farmers were forced to put their crop in loan storage or accept lower market prices. This was poor timing by the department.

The Texas farm economy should not be forced to accept a situation which produces a "good average income" only twice within a decade, because of weather conditions, market prices and government action.

Cotton farmers have nothing to apologize for in Texas. Their crop is still the backbone of our farming economy. And any loss that affect this farmer also affects millions of other Texans.

About six million acres are planted in cotton every year in Texas. Row crops alone brings in over $600,000,000 a year to Texas. No other major field crop produces as much income per harvested acre as does cotton and 69 per cent of this crop is sold outside Texas—thus bringing into the state money from foreign markets which helps our economy at home.

I will continue to fight for fair treatment for our Texas cotton farmers.

Turks Close Season At Newcastle Fri.

By PAUL HAWKINS

The Newcastle Bobcats with only 14 players on their squad lived up to their reputation of being scrappy as they defeated the Turkey Turks by a score of 13-6 last Friday night in Turkey to close out the season for both of the squads.

The win by the Bobcats vaulted them into a second place tie in the district standings as upsets were at a premium in the last week of the campaign.

Upsets by Rule over Matador, and Valley View over Lockett left the district final standings in a shamble as Chillicothe closed the season with the only perfect record. Meanwhile, there were four teams in a second place tie as Newcastle, Rochester, Matador, and Lockett all finished with a 4-3 record. Rule and Turkey tied for sixth at 2-5 and Valley View ended up in the cellar at 1-6.

The season was hard to figure for the Turks as they returned eight starters from a team that had a 6-4 record last year. But the team just couldn't seem to jell on offense all year long as the defense carried the team game after game. The Turks despite having only a 2-7-1 record were only outscored by the opposition by a total of 13 points for the entire year. In all of these games, the score could have gone either way but the breaks that determine a game seemed always to fall to the opposition. But, despite this, the Turks are looking forward to next season as they return with a good nucleus from which to build in a district that will be literally saturated with good teams. Every team in the district will return much of their squad intact which should make for a wide open chase next season.

The Turks scored very quickly in the game with the Bobcats as it looked as if they might enjoy an easy time for the final game. Forcing the Bobcats to punt after the opening kickoff, the Turks took the short kick at the Bobcat 38 yard line and scored in seven plays as King went around left end for six yards, and the score with 7:27 remaining in the first quarter. The extra point try failed and the score read 6-0 for the Turks.

But the Bobcats weren't long in showing that they, too, could move the ball. After making a first down, Preston Pitts, a very versatile halfback, hit off-guard, and raced 67 yards, untouched, for the tying score. Pitts then kicked the point after, and Newcastle enjoyed a 7-6 lead with 5:43 showing in the first quarter. The rest of the first half was dominated by the Bobcats as they controlled the ball. The only scoring threat of the second quarter was by the Bobcats as they moved to the 15 of the Turks' where Pitts tried for a field goal that fell short.

As the second quarter opened, the Turks looked like a different ballclub as they took the ball on their 12 and marched all the way down to the Bobcat 9-yard line, picking up 6 first downs in the process. Here with first-and-goal-to-go, the Turks fumbled. They were not to threaten seriously for the remainder of the game despite having the ball for most of the time.

The Turks managed to keep Newcastle in the hole, thanks to a brilliant punting exhibition put on by Alton Setliff. Setliff punted the ball dead three times inside the five-yard line as he had four kicks for an average of 40.7 per kick.

Late in the fourth quarter, however, the Bobcats, taking over at the two, moved out the the nine-yard line where—facing a third and three situation—Quarterback Bullock hit End Burkett with a short pass in the flat and he raced 91 yards for the clinching TD. The extra point try was fumbled and the final score remained 14-6 as the Turks were stymied for the remainder of the game.

The offense of the Turks moved the ball very well, but could not push the ball across the goal when it counted. The Turks picked up 16 first downs and 245 yds. rushing as compared to nine first downs and 178 yds. rushing for the Bobcats. In the passing phase however, the Bobcats ruled as they completed two passes for 115 yards while the Turks could complete only one for 10 yards.

The defense of the Turks showed up well in the second half of the game as they held Newcastle completely in check except for the one long scoring bomb.

Playing their last game and showing up very well were: Case,

Cyclone Drops 20-19 Bi-District Thriller To Post Friday

By BILL COMBS
The 5,000-plus fans in Bulldog stadium in Plainview last Friday saw one of the finest gridiron games of this decade as the Cyclone met head-on in Class competition.

Both teams were well supported just about equal number of men on each side of the field, and when the game ended, there was one disappointed at the caliber of football they saw on the field.

The contact was brutal and the offensive and defensive teams head-on time after time, after play in the game which was finally decided in favor of the Cyclone.

For the Memphis Cyclone, the score was a tragic misrepresentation of the truly fine job the local lads portrayed in their first Bi-District game since 1953.

opportunity. No. 44 FB Walker was held to only 42 yards rushing on 14 carries for a three yard average in the game and No. 11 Davie Heat-on made 30 yards on 8 carries for a 3.75 average.

Hurting the Cyclone defense more than anything else was the running ability of No. 22 QB Duke Altman, who averaged 4.2 yards per carry on 10 carries and No. 10 Dick Kennedy, who stepped off 26 yards the first time he carried the ball.

The Cyclone's front four, Bob Carroll, Sam Bruce (or Johnny Scott), Chuck Jennings and Garvin Speed had a fine night defending against the running plays, but were a little slow reacting on the pass rush in the final stages of the game.

ed, QB Tony Pounds rolled out to his left and tossed a pass into the arms of HB Rea, who raced to the Post 9-yd. line before being downed by Post's speedster Jimmy Bartlett. On the second down, QB Pounds threw the automatic to End Dwayne Jones, the man with the moves, and Jones left the defenders clutching air as he slipped into the end zone.

On the next play, Kennedy tried the same thing, but this time he was met soundly at the line of scrimmage, and left the ball game with an injury.

QB Duke Altman came into the game and made five yards. On the third, Dennis Altman lost three yards, and the Antelopes were facing a 4th down and 8 needed. Then QB Altman carried on the sweep and made 17 yards to the Memphis 6. FB Walker carried over from the one for the TD. Walker booted the extra point and the Antelopes went ahead 7 to 6.

cost Post 15 more yards. The Cyclone on the 35, threw two incomplete passes, then QB Pounds hit End Wilson for 11 yards and a first down to the 24.

On the next play, FB Kenneth Cornish raced into the end zone. Going for the two-point conversion, TB Junior Graves was stopped short on the pitch out around

Two explosive plays later, Memphis scored. The first play was a 12-yard gain by FB Cornish, who also broke clear. Then, QB Pounds hit End Dwayne Jones in the end zone for the TD. Hall kicked the point after and the Cyclone led 19 to 7.

From here, it took four plays to make a first to the Memphis 10. On the first down, No. 30 Jimmy Bartlett carried but was dropped for a 5-yard loss to the 15-yd. line.

Then, QB Altman passed complete to No. 40 Dennis Altman, who made a perfect grab just before he stepped out of the end (Continued on Page 11)

MRS. RUSSELL CLAYTON SANDERS

Foxhall-Sanders Nuptial Read In Impressive Church Service

Miss Sara Jo Foxhall and Russell Clayton Sanders were united in marriage Saturday evening in an impressive candle-light ceremony solemnized at 7 p. m. in the First Methodist Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. James Lesley Foxhall of Memphis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Horace Sanders of Houston.

The Rev. Charles H. Sanders of Fort Worth, brother of the bridegroom, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Banks of greenery stood back of the altar, flanked by arcs of white votive candles and baskets of large white chrysanthemums and lemon leaves. Similar floral arrangements in urns and spirals of white votive candles stood on the steps leading to the altar. Votive candles, white flowers and satin ribbon marked the center aisle of the church.

Attendants

Mrs. Gregory C. Clement and Miss Lynn Foxhall, sisters of the bride, were the honor attendants. Bridesmaids were Mrs. June Ann Folkenburg of Galveston, Miss Charlotte Nave of Corsicana and Miss Gretchen Inglehart of Shawnee, Okla.

James Neal Welch of Houston was best man. Groomsmen were Martin Hearne of Dallas, Skip Whitehill of El Paso, Don Roberts of Lufkin, and Neal Foxhall of Houston, brother of the bride.

Candle lighters were Miss Carol Foxhall and Edward Neal Foxhall, cousins of the bride.

Miss Kathleen Jo Clement, niece of the bride, and Miss Tina Foxhall, cousin of the bride, were flower girls.

Music for the wedding was provided by Miss Sandy McQueen, organist, and Miss Sharon Stewart of Corsicana, vocalist. Miss McQueen accompanied Miss Stewart as she sang "The Greatest of These Is Love" and "The Wedding Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of white satin styled with sabrina neckline and long sleeves. Reembroidered Alencon lace appliques enhanced the bodice, sleeves and full chapel length train. Her three-tiered English illusion veil was attached to an open crown pillbox which matched her gown.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and feathered carnations surrounding a white orchid.

The bridesmaids and flower girls wore formal gowns of Samaritan rose saki, fashioned on Empire lines. Their headpieces were matching rose clusters. They carried bouquets of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and English ivy.

The bride's mother wore a light blue silk suit with matching accessories and a flower hat. The groom's mother was attired in a pale green silk suit with matching accessories and a pillbox hat. They both wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride attended schools in Memphis, Texas Christian University and Texas Technological College. This summer she attended the Beaver College Seminar in Europe. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Mr. Sanders is a graduate of Texas Tech and is now a student at Brite College of Texas Christian University. His fraternity is Sigma Mu.

Reception

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Deaver. Miss Irene Foxhall, cousin of the bride, registered the guests.

The serving table was covered by a floor-length white net cloth trimmed with beaded felt wedding bells, doves and bows. White roses and spider mums filled the silver epergne at the center of the table. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with white sugar roses, was topped by a miniature bride and groom under an arch of white orchids.

Mrs. Bill Whitten served the cake and Mrs. Charles Sanders and Miss Jane Ward served pink punch from a silver bowl.

Miss Jane Dunbar assisted the hostess.

For a wedding trip to Red River, N. M., the bride chose for travel red wool knit suit accented with ivory, black shoes and bag and ivory hat and gloves. Her corsage was the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside at 3007 Watts in Fort Worth.

How long has it been since you have known the inner satisfaction that comes with the knowledge you have helped someone in need?

How often do you look about you without seeing the thing that needs doing? Have you failed to recognize opportunity to perform an act of charity or kindness, at no more cost than a moment or two of your time?

Look not for a reward for everything you do. Help someone and your reward will come. You will know you have been touched by the grace of God and gratitude for the good things that are your own will be multiplied.

Income Tax Q. And A. Column

This column of questions and answers on Federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I had to pay points to get the mortgage money to buy my home. Can I deduct this when I file my tax return?

A—No. Points, or similar fees paid to obtain a mortgage loan, are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. This expense should be included in the overall cost of your house.

The interest you pay on the loan as part of your monthly mortgage payments is deductible, however. Real estate taxes on your house are another deductible item.

Q—My husband died early last year. I know I can file a joint return for the year but what do I do about my withholding status where I work?

A—For withholding purposes you are considered married for the year of your husband's death; also for the two years following, providing you qualify as a surviving spouse.

Q—I just retired on disability and receive a pension from my company. Is this taxable?

A—It all depends on the kind of pension plan your company has. Generally speaking, your pension would probably qualify for treatment as a sick pay until you reach normal retirement age. Up to $100 a week may be excluded as sick pay.

After you reach normal retirement age, your pension may or may not be taxable depending on whether you contributed any part of the cost.

Q—What are the biggest deductions taxpayers have when they itemize on individual returns?

A—Taxes was the largest single nonbusiness deduction claimed on returns filed last year. This item amounted to $14.1 billion. Other large items were interest paid—$12.5 billion, contributions—$8.3 billion, and medical and dental expenses—$7.1 billion.

Q—How long is the Interest Equalization tax supposed to continue?

A—Present legislation calls for this tax to end July 31, 1967 unless extended by Congress.

Q—When is an expense deductible as a business expense?

A—To be deductible, the expense must be both ordinary and necessary, directly connected with or related to your trade, business or profession, or it must be for the production or collection of income, or for management or protection of property held for the production of income; and the income must be taxable income.

To illustrate this last point, cost of renting a safe deposit box to hold taxable bonds is a deductible expense. But if the bonds are only tax-free bonds, the cost will not allow you to deduct the expense.

Texas Draft Quota For Jan. Set At 1,946

The state's 155 draft boards will be called upon to furnish 1,946 men for the armed forces in January, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, announced Friday at Austin.

This compares with a state quota of only 744 for December.

Calls for the earlier months of 1966 were: November 2,339, October 2,846, September 1,889, August 1,837, July 1,381, June 878, May 1,927, April 979, March 1,068, February 1,372, January 1,475.

The Selective Service boards will forward between 9,000 and 10,000 men in January for pre-induction examination, Colonel Schwartz said, and they have scheduled 7,830 men for this examination in December.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in January are scheduled to be mailed from state Selective Service headquarters Dec. 9. December calls for the local boards already have been assigned.

The Texas quota of 1,946 for January is the state's share of a national call of 27,600. The national quota for December is 12,100. This manpower is for the army.

Cyclone Drops

zone. Walker's place kick was wide, so the score was 19 to 13. In the closing minutes of the game, Post intercepted a Cyclone pass and returned the ball to the Memphis 34. Running from a shotgun formation, the Antelopes passed for one first down to the Memphis 24. They made four yards on a running play. Then tragedy struck for the Cyclone. An Altman pass was intercepted near the goal line by Safety Dwayne Jones but an official near the end zone called pass interference against the Cyclone squad and gave the Antelopes a first and goal on the Memphis 3. The next play, Walker went over for the score. His extra point kick was good and the Antelopes were ahead 20 to 19.

Memphis couldn't get a drive going in the last minutes, so Post held the ball until the clock ran out.

Offensively and defensively, the Cyclone put on a good show at Bi-District and local fans feel the underdog Cyclone should have won the contest for they outplayed the favorite Antelopes for three quarters of the game to say the least.

Sports Picture Turns To Basketball Season

Now that football season is over, the sports picture immediately turns to basketball as the county's eight teams organize and make plans for the 1966-67 season.

Estelline, Lakeview and Turkey will be competing in their regular district with Flomot, Matador and Quitaque, which promises to be real exciting this season.

The Memphis teams will be competing in the District 3-AA association with Lockney, Floydada, Hale Center, Olton, Friona, Abernathy and Dimmitt.

District play from Memphis begins Dec. 13 when the Cyclone team will host Abernathy, which gives local cager teams only a short time to prepare.

Lakeview squads were open Tuesday night, according to the schedule, but the other teams in the county saw action.

Memphis teams went to Clarendon and took it on the nose in both games. The Cyclonettes lost by a 52 to 17 score with Bonnie Vick scoring 9 and Clarendon's Tina Moore hitting 22 points.

In the boys game, the Cyclone lost 52 to 33 in their first outing of the season. Actually, the local lads looked good considering that the boys on the court Tuesday were playing football last Friday and have had little time to prepare for the game.

The members of the Cyclone squad has not been selected as yet so no announcement has been released. Bobby Carroll and Kenneth Cornish each hit 7 points to lead the Cyclone as high scorers, while Clarendon's Archie Smith had 20 points.

Probably two of the most interesting games were played between the teams from Turkey and those from Matador, arch rivals whenever they meet.

Turkey teams won both encounters. The boys won by a 34 to 24 score while the Turkettes won by a 30 to 27 score. David Majors scored 16 points for Turkey Turks while Karen Arnold had 15 points for the Turkettes.

Estelline teams split games at Quail Tuesday night. The Bearettes, led by Cheri Rapp with 42 points, downed the Quailettes 62 to 30. Quail's Judy Campbell had 12 points.

In the boys game, the Quails flew to a 62 to 31 victory over the Bears. Estelline's Bragg had 13 points while Quail's Neelley totaled 14 points.

Memphis A teams will travel to Quail Friday night for games in that school's gymnasium on Nov. 25, the schedules show.

Then, next Monday, the B teams are to play Dodson A teams

County's Cotton—

phis classing office had classed 12,000 samples which is 2/3 of the number classed a year ago.

The quality of cotton classed showed that the grades were somewhat lower, the staple length slightly longer and the micronaire reading practically the same as compared with the week earlier. The most significant change in grades was the increase in the Spotted and Tinged cotton due primarily to the harvesting of cotton that was affected by the hard freeze. Freezing of young, immature bolls causes the lint to be discolored. The stage of maturity the balls are in at the time of the freeze usually determines the degree of discoloration to the lint.

The predominant grades in each of the color groups were: Strict Low Middling White—8 percent; Middling Light Spotted—43 percent; Strict Low Middling Light Spotted—26 percent; Middling Spotted—10 percent; Strict Low Middling Spotted—6 percent; and Strict Low Middling Tinged—1 percent. Three percent of the cotton classed was reduced at least one grade because of Bark. As a result of harvesting and ginning green, immature cotton, 1 percent of the cotton classed was reduced in grade because of Preparation. Preparation is the term used to describe the degree of smoothness or roughness with which the cotton is ginned.

Staple lengths showed some improvement over last week with a smaller proportion stapling 29/32 and 15/16 inch, and an increase percentage-wise 31/32 inch and longer. Sixty-seven percent stapled 15/16. Other lengths were as follows: 29/32—5 percent; 31/32 inch—23 percent; and 1 inch and longer, 5 percent.

The cotton fiber fineness and maturity as measured by the micronaire instrument showed very little change in the readings as compared with last week. Two-thirds of the cotton classed was in the desirable range of 3.5-4.9, which carried a 20 point premium. Other readings were in the following groups: 2.6 and below (300 points discount)—2 percent; 2.7-2.9 (175 points discount)—7 percent; 3.0-3.2 (150 points discount)—14 percent; 3.4 (30 points discount)—10 percent; and 5.0-5.2 (20 points discount)—1 percent.

Presley tests reflected that fiber strength of Golden Spotted cotton was weaker than that of last week. Fourteen percent tested 80,000 pounds per square inch and above. Other groups were 75,000-79,000, 32 percent; 70,000-74,000, 18 percent; 69,000 pounds and below, 10 percent.
