Fire Prevention Week Activities Held Today

The Memphis Volunteer Fire Department began the process of judging the different fire prevention contests and taking seven classes for rides on one of the fire trucks this morning. The activities are all part of National Fire Prevention Week.

Week activities being held here this week.

Fire Chief Kenneth Dale announced that winners in the fire prevention poster contests, in the different divisions, will be announced tomorrow morning.

The top three posters in each of the three divisions: elementary, junior high, and high school, are eligible to enter the area poster contest, to be held next spring at the Panhandle Firemen's Convention. Winners there will go to the state contest for judging.

The posters are being judged today, and winners will be immediately notified.

In the home inspection contest, the flag is being awarded to the fourth or fifth grade class which does the best job of completing inspections this year.

When final judging was completed this morning, it was announced that the fifth grade home room section of Miss Ethel Hillhouse, which returned 27 of 28 inspection reports, was the flag winner.

Local firemen took the kindergarten, first, second and third grade students for rides on the fire truck. Fire hats and fire prevention brochures were presented to the students at the conclusion of the rides. These were provided by the Hartford Insurance Group, Allen Dunbar, local representative.

Fourth and fifth graders who successfully completed the home inspections, were given fire marshal badges.

The observance of National Fire Prevention Week here, due to the efforts of local firemen and other interested individuals, has become a meaningful and worthwhile program, especially for the youngsters, sponsors stated.

County Residents Aid Victims Of Hurricane Beulah

An emergency appeal went out to Hall County residents about two weeks ago for relief aid for the hurricane victims of the Rio Grande Valley. The appeal was announced in local churches and was broadcast over the local radio station.

The relief project was spearheaded by the First Baptist Church of Memphis, and items were transported to the relief area by the Baptist General Convention of Texas. When the appeal went out, members from all churches and denominations responded readily, it was reported this week. Clothing and relief goods came from Estelline, Hedley, Lakeview, Turkey and from Memphis.

All clothing, used and new, was brought to the First Baptist Church where a crew of volunteer helpers worked three days to size, clean, fold and package them in cartons to be sent to the needed area.

Clothing received which needed to be cleaned were taken to Hall Cleaners, Lusk Cleaners, Tribble Cleaners and Memphis Laundry. These dry cleaning concerns did the cleaning free of charge.

In addition to clothes and shoes, two mattresses were sent along with several boxes of blankets, sheets, quilts and other bedding supplies. Over 20 pounds of soap was brought and over 40 pounds of canned goods. When all packaging was completed and weighed, Hall County sent 3630 pounds of relief supplies. These supplies, which amounted to two truck loads, were carried to Shamrock by Frank Ellis, and the truck was supplied by County Commissioner Ed Matherson.

"This is a most gratifying response from the people of this area. The supplies were picked up by a major trucking concern and hauled to McAllen and Harlingen where they were being used by several relief agencies to help those who were left homeless by Hurricane Beulah," the sponsors stated.

Cyclone Faces Crucial Test Against Antelopes Here

Lakeview To Hold Halloween Carnival

The Lakeview School will hold its annual Junior and Senior Halloween carnival on October 20 and 21. The carnival will open at 6:30 p. m. both nights.

The public is cordially invited to attend. The junior and senior mothers will provide food for the concession stand and the public is invited to come eat with them. They will serve sandwiches, cake, pies and soft drinks.

A variety of games, all traditional of the Halloween season, will provide entertainment both nights. There will be the usual cake walk, clock game, milk bottle throw, basketball throw, ring soda pop, Fish bowl, dart board, tiger hunt, cigarette shoot, ring prize, nickle pitch, fishing game, jug throw, cigarette throw.

During the carnival, the Lakeview Lions Club will give away a top hog and each class will also give away prizes.

A highlight of the Carnival will be the crowning of the Halloween King and Queen.

The grade school King and Queen will be crowned at 9:45 Friday night while the Junior High and High School King and Queen will be crowned at 9:45 p. m. Saturday night.

The 1967 Cyclone squad, after suffering a defeat in District 3-AA competition, faces the tough job of defending against the great speed and wide open offense of the Abernathy Antelopes, if the local lads want to stay eligible for the district championship.

The Cyclone-Antelope contest will be played at 7:30 p. m. Friday in Cyclone Stadium.

The task before the Cyclone defensive unit is one that five other teams, including two district opponents, have not been able to do, and without superlative play on the part of the Cyclone defense, all hopes of an all-important victory over the undefeated, fast, talented, and at times awesome Abernathy Antelopes will never come about.

The Cyclone offensive unit can, and may score against the "aggressive" defense of the Antelopes, but without cutting down Abernathy's scoring opportunities the prospects for a victory look dim.

Abernathy wore out Hale Center last week 27 to 6 and much of the last half was played without their star quarterback, Burl Fuller, who will be ready for the game against Memphis despite news reports that he was injured.

"We may not see big-brother Burl on defense against us, but he is expected to play offense, unless his younger brother, Jerry, gets the starting nod for his fine play against Hale Center," Coach Glascock said.

No. 12, Burl Fuller (160) is a real fine passer, an elusive runner, who likes the rollout pass or run plays, and is just a tough competitor. No. 22, Darrel Selke (150) halfback, has tremendous speed (last year's 100-yard dash winner at 9.9) and runs with authority, breaking tackles and going for extra yardage.

Rounding out the Antelopes' highly talented backfield is No. 40, FB Billy Elkins (150) who is quick with good moves and spins out of tackles, and No. 32, HB Billy Elkins (140) who runs hard and is elusive.

Leading linemen are No. 77, Gary Lovelace (200) an all-district tackle last year; No. 50, Robert Kemp (190) and the two ends, No. 85, Clark Riley (175) and No. 88, Travis Leach (170).

The Antelopes have by far the finest offensive attack Memphis has seen this year. "They just do everything and do it well," Coach Glascock said.

Abernathy defeated Floydada 26 to 14 in the district opener, and Hale Center last week. They are ranked just under Olton and will be favored in Friday night's contest with the Cyclone.

The local lads will probably be without the services of William Welch again this week, and TB Ronnie McFall has several muscle bruises, Coach Glascock said. "About the Dimmitt game last week, Coach Glascock told the Cyclone Booster Club Monday night "it was one of those cases when we played poorly and got

School Officials Say 'Thanks' To Local Firemen

Supt. Charley Chambless of the Memphis School District this week on behalf of the administration and school board, issued a statement of public thanks.

We, the administration and school board of Memphis Public Schools, would like to take this opportunity to say "Thanks" to the Memphis Volunteer Fire Department for the wonderful job they have done in the past and are presently doing in parking the cars at Memphis Cyclone stadium games.

The cooperative efforts of this group aid everyone in finding a parking space at our home games, their traffic directions are a great contribution to safety. I, as superintendent of Memphis Public Schools, ask each of you in the community to co-operate with these gentlemen in parking your cars and to thank them for their efforts and when and if the opportunity arises."

Turks Splash Past Matador 24-0 Fri.

The Turkey Turks taking cue from a drought ending rain broke a four-game drought of their own by defeating the Matadors of Matador by a score of 24-0 behind a crowd obviously held down by the threatening weather. The team did not dampen the spirits of the Turks, however, as they played probably their finest game in the last two years.

The Turks, after receiving the opening kick-off, fumbled on the very first play of the game to give the Matadors the ball on the 49-yd. line of the Turks. This proved to be one of only two times the Matadors were able to get the ball into Turkey territory all night. The other was on a penalty in the 3rd quarter as the Turks completely bottled up the Matadors' attack.

own 8-yd. line. After picking up 12 yards and a first down, lightning struck both figuratively and literally with a brilliant lightning storm approaching the Turks furnished some lightning of their own in the form of David Majors as he took a short pass from Russell Barnhill and went 80 yards for the score. As the Turks lined up for the try, a bolt of lightning from the approaching cloud doused the lights for a short period of time and for all practical purposes the lights were out for the Matadors the remainder of the night as the Turks completely dominated the game. The Turks tried a run for the extra points but Majors was tripped up on the line of scrimmage and the score remained 6-0 with 5:50 left in the opening quarter.

PROMINENT TFWC CLUBWOMEN—Heading the list of prominent clubwomen who are in Memphis today attending the Santa Rosa District, TFWC workshop are the president and one state officer. ## Storage Loans Are Available On Milo Crop

Farmers who need on-farm storage for grain sorghums were urged to get in touch with their ASCS County Office for information on available program aids, Lynn L. McKown, office manager Hall County ASCS, announced today.

The farm storage loan program has been liberalized this year, McKown said. This will help farmers store their crops instead of rushing them off to market directly from the field.

Eligibility for a loan to purchase or construct on-farm storage will be determined by the ASCS county committee for producers of price supported commodities on the base of need for farm storage.

Provisions of loans require only 15 per cent of the net cost to be paid by producers. A loan for 85 per cent of net cost can be made by the ASCS. Repayments can be made over a five-year period at 4.1 per cent interest on the unpaid balance.

All loans of less than $5,000.00 will be approved by the county committee. Producers will not be required to own the farm on which the storage is located.

No real estate lien is required for loans of less than $5,000.00. (Continued on Page 5)

Estelline Bears To Travel To Guthrie

The Estelline Bears downed the Miami Warriors 52-22 last Friday night, to get into the winning column in District play.

Friday night the Bears will travel to Guthrie to take on the No. 1 team in the district in a ball game Coach Jimmie Don Adams described as the "toughest." Game time is 8 p. m.

"If we play good ball and have some breaks in the game, we stand a good chance against Guthrie," Coach Adams said.

Guthrie's 34 to 18 victory over Morse, a team that previously defeated the Bears, last week gave the Guthrie team the No. 1 rating in the 8-man district.

Against Miami last week, HB Randy Collins ran over for five touchdowns in the first half to give the Bears a scoring edge. Joe Williams scored one touchdown and Laddie Fowler scored one. Fowler's passing was outstanding in the game and figured heavily in the victory.

Coach Adams cited Monty Longbine for his offensive blocking and Joe and Danny Joutet for their good defensive play.

EDITORIAL

National Newspaper Week, Oct. 8-14

This is an editorial about editorials and about the newspaper industry, for the purpose of acquainting our readers during National Newspaper Week, Oct. 8-14, with the irreplaceable role which newspapers are playing in this nation in safeguarding our cherished freedoms, and listing important facts about the newspapers' business in general.

Our readers are probably not aware of the fact that 80 per cent of America's nearly 10,000 newspapers are weeklies serving rural, small town and suburban "hometown" communities. Less than four percent are metropolitan dailies; three-fourths of the 1,754 dailies are published in cities of less than 25,000 population.

Circulation of the medium-size daily is about 10,000 and of the medium-size weekly, 3,000. Circulation of 8,023 weekly newspapers was an estimated 26,888,230 last year, an increase of 800,000 over 1965 and an increase of 39 percent since 1950. Daily circulation of newspapers in the U. S. and Canada last year rose to 61,397,252, a gain of a million over 1965 and an increase of 20 percent since 1946. Readers spend more than $2 billion annually to buy and read daily newspapers and another $85 million for weekly newspapers.

Advertising revenue of daily newspapers in 1966 ($4.9 billion) broke all newspaper records, topping 1965 revenue by nine and a half per cent and nearly doubling the dollar volume of television. Advertising revenue of weekly newspapers in 1966 is estimated to exceed $675 million.

There are three or four hundred "weeks" in the year, and one of them is National Newspaper Week. It is the one week in the year when newspapers pause long enough to report to their readers some of their accomplishments, their hopes and purposes, and their roles in the social and economic life of their communities.

"Newspapers Get Things Done" is the theme of National Newspaper Week, emphasizing the many activities in which newspapers are engaged in addition to gathering and distributing the news.

Since the first newspaper was published in the United States they have been "Freedom's Sentinels" by keeping a watchful eye on government, clarifying public issues, and using their influence as constructive forces for community growth and development.

Readers take their newspapers for granted and newspapers, for too long, have taken for granted that readers fully understand the many-faceted role newspapers play, not only as news media, but as public servants, defenders of freedom, educators, entertainers and, to be sure, as advertising and sales media.

Newspapers, far from dead, are today among America's great "growing" industries. They are far from vanishing, too, with readership up, subscriptions up, valuation up, investment up, and profit up.

Beginning with America's first one in 1690, newspapers have spoken for the people, defending the rights of individuals against entrenched power and arrogant abuse of office and are fighting to this day to keep doors open wherever and whenever public business is being transacted.

President Lyndon B. Johnson said, "For our papers are more than just an expression of an unfettered press; they are the unsleeping sentinels of all freedoms. They are ready, simultaneous interpreters between the government and the people. Their freedoms to publish is our freedom to interpret—and both incur the responsibility and honor vital to the success of the democratic society that is our way of life."

Eugene Patterson, Editor, The Atlanta Constitution, 1967 Pulitzer Prize Winner, clearly and accurately defined the role of newspaper editorials: "Newspaper editorials get things done. At times, I've wondered what. By now, I think I know. They get people to think. They think the editor is an idiot. The Atlanta Constitution is rich with readers who hold that opinion. In order to arrive at it, however, they must (1) read his unsatisfactory argument, and then (2) justify their own. This is a painful experience on both counts, which may account for the soreness they exhibit in letters to the editor. But they have had to think about the subject." He concludes his editorial with the statement: "It gets people to think."

We as free Americans sometimes forget the conflicting statements which clearly separate the political thinking of the U. S. vs. the U. S. S. R. Thomas Jefferson said, "Our liberty depends on freedom of the press and that cannot be limited without being lost." Nikolai Lenin said, "Why should freedom of speech and freedom of the press be allowed? Ideas are much more fatal than guns."

ACROSS THE DESK

What Other Editors Say

We got SKUNKED last Friday!

You've just got to hear what lengths that bunch at the bank will go to in order to make the lives of the lesser-fortunates miserable.

Between 7:30 and 8:00 a.m. Friday, a skunk was sighted in the area of the bank. So, Dock and Bobby "shooed" him this way with a few rocks (see what cowards they are?) while Jack and Davis made every effort to kill him in front of the Briscoe County News. They failed slightly, giving him a shotgun blast (of course the skunk did everything he could in the meantime) in the corner formed by the metal shop and brick shop of Thompson Implement Co. — and almost shot right through the metal wall.

Then they resumed their normal coffee-drinking positions to await the fun. All morning, whenever anyone from this end of town entered the bank, they made a production of his needing to bathe. Well, the morning wore on and on — with us not wanting to touch the thing with a ten-foot pole, and Fred, Roy, Arch and the others looking out for the critter they presumed was circling the camp. We didn't know that they didn't know where it was, and they didn't know what we did! And since the wind was blowing this way, we weren't about to venture any closer.

Now we're thinking of asking the City Council to pass an ordinance to the effect that anyone killing a skunk in town be required to take it home with them! This story could have had another ending if the night-depository slot at the bank were larger and we weren't such weak-stomached critters — they might have gotten skunked at the bank! (The game of "Who's Got the Skunk?" could have gone on for days!)

Boy, wait until I catch my next coral snake — I'll present Jack with an unusual paperweight for his desk. (I'm choosing Jack, because he laughed the longest and loudest about the whole thing.)

Texas voters may register

Beginning this week, every adult resident in Texas is eligible to register to vote. No longer are poll taxes necessary to get yourself approved for voting. And even those who move from one part of Texas to another will be allowed to vote in national and statewide balloting.

Thus the last obstacle is removed from our disgraceful voter-turn-out. Or is it? We rather suspect that our total vote won't go much higher than it has in the past, when a 50 per cent vote is considered good and 60 per cent is outstanding. This is in the nation which cherishes the freedom to vote without fear, and prides itself on peaceful elections.

Yet our voting count is far less than the 75 per cent that voted in South Vietnam's first election. And those folks over there had no tradition of free balloting. They were threatened, terrorized, often bombed, leaders were executed, reprisals were promised. But still they came, to mark their ballots and choose their own leaders.

Many nations surpass America's usual voting record. For they realize what a precious thing it is to choose their own leaders. They have not always been allowed this privilege and responsibility.

In Texas, many have cried out against the poll tax. The poll tax now has been abolished by law and annual registration is all that is required.

The last obstacle has been removed, no other excuse remains. If you fail to register and to vote from this point on . . . you have only yourself to blame.

Bobcats Claw Cyclone At Dimmitt Friday 21-6

The Cyclone goal line defense held the Bobcats and the half ended with Dimmitt holding a 7-6 edge.

The Cyclone squad came back after the half all fired up, but due to 20 yards in penalties the first series of downs, had to punt the ball.

The Bobcats fumbled on a second down and Line Backer Richard Parker recovered the ball for Memphis on the Dimmitt 26.

The Cyclone faced a good opportunity to score, but again, offensive penalties nullified good efforts, and the Cyclone was able to make only six of the necessary 10 yards for a first to get the drive going.

The ball exchanged hands twice before the Bobcats got a scoring drive underway. The drive started with a 34-yd. carry by speedster Roy Thomas, to give the Dimmitt team good field position on the Cyclone 25. Eight plays later FB Land carried over from the one-yd. line for the TD. The Bobcats QB John Hays called a fake kick and passed the ball to HB Thomas for a two-point conversion to put the local lads behind nine points, 15-6.

This play was the turning point of the game and took the roar out of the Cyclone squad, trailing by two TDs or at least a TD and field goal, the local lads couldn't generate a scoring punch.

On the kickoff, the ball got loose from Roy Long who chased it back across the goal line and ran it out to the three-yd. line where he was hit hard and had to leave the field.

The Cyclone made one first down to the home 17. On the next play, TB McFall made nine yards to the 26. On a second and one, a pass went incomplete. Then QB Pounds tried a sneak for the one yard and fell short. The decision to go for the first down was made and a fumble in the Cyclone backfield gave Dimmitt the ball on the Cyclone 20.

For three downs, the Cyclone's defensive unit stopped the Bobcats attack, but on the fourth down, QB Hays broke loose on a keeper and went the distance for the final score, salting the game away 21-6.

The Cyclone was unable to mount a scoring threat in the fourth quarter until late in the period; when the time ran out with Memphis on the Dimmitt 24.

pass was intercepted by Bobcat Donnie Johnson.

This started the long Dimmitt drive that ended on the Cyclone 12. Memphis moved the ball out to the 23. Then, on the next play, on a pitch-back, the ball hit one of the blocking backs and bounced free. After a scramble, Dimmitt recovered on the Memphis 8.

More Families Of Hall County Are In Upper Brackets

NEW YORK — A new survey of family income throughout the United States shows that in Hall County, marked changes have been taking place with respect to the number of local people in each income bracket.

The figures indicate that there has been a steady movement upward in the last few years. Many of the families that were in the $5,000 to $8,000 bracket in 1963 have stepped into the next higher category.

Their former spots have been occupied, in turn, by families whose incomes had been below $5,000 previously.

That has been the trend all along the line, the net result being that the proportion of local families in the middle and upper brackets has gone up considerably.

For the area as a whole, it has meant a rise in consumer buying power and in the standard of living.

The findings are contained in a copyrighted report prepared by Sales Management. It lists, for every section of the country, the portion of the population in each income bracket.

In Hall County, it shows, no less than 34.8 percent of the local households had cash income in the past year, after paying their taxes, of $5,000 or more.

Just where the various segments of the local population fall, in terms of income brackets, is detailed in the report.

Some 20.8 percent of the households, it finds, are in the $5,000 to $8,000 group. In the $8,000 to $10,000 category are 6.6 percent and, in the $3,000 to $5,000 bracket, 24.3 percent. The others have income above $10,000 or under $3,000.

Of special interest is the number of local families with net earnings in excess of $10,000. In that position at the present time there are 7.4 percent.

Accounting for the shift to higher brackets is the steady rise in earnings. Local incomes in the past year reached $5,292 per family, as compared with the 1963 average of $4,913 per family.

Because the study is based solely on cash income, the farm community does not show up in its best light. No allowance is made for its non-cash benefits, such as food, rent and the like.

The Cyclone goal line defense held the Bobcats and the half ended with Dimmitt holding a 7-6 edge.

The Cyclone squad came back after the half all fired up, but due to 20 yards in penalties the first series of downs, had to punt the ball.

The Bobcats fumbled on a second down and Line Backer Richard Parker recovered the ball for Memphis on the Dimmitt 26.

The Cyclone faced a good opportunity to score, but again, offensive penalties nullified good efforts, and the Cyclone was able to make only six of the necessary 10 yards for a first to get the drive going.

The ball exchanged hands twice before the Bobcats got a scoring drive underway. The drive started with a 34-yd. carry by speedster Roy Thomas, to give the Dimmitt team good field position on the Cyclone 25. Eight plays later FB Land carried over from the one-yd. line for the TD. The Bobcats QB John Hays called a fake kick and passed the ball to HB Thomas for a two-point conversion to put the local lads behind nine points, 15-6.

This play was the turning point of the game and took the roar out of the Cyclone squad, trailing by two TDs or at least a TD and field goal, the local lads couldn't generate a scoring punch.

On the kickoff, the ball got loose from Roy Long who chased it back across the goal line and ran it out to the three-yd. line where he was hit hard and had to leave the field.

The Cyclone made one first down to the home 17. On the next play, TB McFall made nine yards to the 26. On a second and one, a pass went incomplete. Then QB Pounds tried a sneak for the one yard and fell short. The decision to go for the first down was made and a fumble in the Cyclone backfield gave Dimmitt the ball on the Cyclone 20.

For three downs, the Cyclone's defensive unit stopped the Bobcats attack, but on the fourth down, QB Hays broke loose on a keeper and went the distance for the final score, salting the game away 21-6.

The Cyclone was unable to mount a scoring threat in the fourth quarter until late in the period; when the time ran out with Memphis on the Dimmitt 24.

Food Marketing Workers Out Number Farmers

Food marketing, no matter how it is examined, is big business when viewed in terms of the number of people employed.

Last year, about 13 million workers were employed in the agricultural marketing field, according to Dr. W. E. Black, Extension economist in marketing and policy at Texas A&M University.

Those 13 million, he added, are more than twice the number of workers employed on all farms in the United States.

"In fact the number of workers in marketing is ever-increasing, while the number of farm workers continues to decline," he said. "Nearly one out of five civilian workers in this country is employed in marketing, full or part time."

Food marketing in the U. S. is carried on by private enterprise firms, whose activities are coordinated through operation of the pricing system and the profit motive.

Operations by the private business sector are supplemented by various government services, such as daily market reports of volume and price, by research and by regulations designed to "enforce the rules of the game," Black said.

Mrs. F. W. Foxhall Is Hostess To 1913 Study Club

The 1913 Study Club met Wednesday, Oct. 4, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. F. W. Foxhall.

Mrs. Herschel Combs, president, conducted the business session the high-light of which was plans for the District Workshop meeting Oct. 12. Mrs. Combs as general chairman named Mrs. M. G. Tarver as timekeeper and Mmes. Dennis Ward and Bob Hutcherson as pages for the meeting.

Mrs. Tarver introduced Mrs. Walter Jameson of Amarillo, formerly of Memphis, as the guest speaker for the program. She stated that Mrs. Jameson is serving her third term as a member of the executive board of the Amarillo Federation of Women's Clubs; she is vice president of the Primers Study Club and past president of the Tuesday Study Club. She is a sister of Mrs. Ed Hutcherson.

Mrs. Jameson gave a colorful and informative talk on three Panhandle pioneers after much research, based on a history of Armstrong County and works of J. Frank Dobie, as well as other references. The pioneers were Col. Charles Goodnight, rancher and cattle king of this area; Temple Houston, youngest son of Sam Houston, an eminent lawyer, and Robert Potter for whom Potter County was named. The latter was a brilliant man, Secretary of the Texas Navy and one of the signers of the Declaration of Texas Independence, but a notorious character just the same.

The hostess served refreshments to the following members: Miss Neville Wrenn, Mmes. Byron Baldwin, Virginia Browder, Herschel Combs, Bray Cook, L. G. DeBerry, R. S. Greene, T. M. Harrison, Bob Hutcherson, Ed Hutcherson, R. E. Roark, M. G. Tarver, Dennis Ward, Ralph Williams, Gayle Greene, and three guests, Mmes. Walter Jameson of Amarillo, Marvin Bryan of Temple and formerly of Memphis, and Mrs. Sherron Lee of Memphis.

Woman's Society Circles Enjoy Study Of Japan

The Alpha and Oliver Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the Methodist Church annex Monday, Oct. 9, at 9:30 a. m. to continue the mission study.

The Oliver Circle conducted the world study on Japan, based on the book, "The Response of the Church in Changing Japan," by C. H. Germany.

Mrs. Harold Smith gave an inspiring meditation. According to the Japanese, love is the obi (their sash) of the virtues that bind all others together, she said. To accent her discussion she had arranged a Japanese worship setting. Mrs. Smith then led the group in a responsive reading of First Corinthians, chapter 13, from J. B. Phillips' translation of the Bible, closing with prayer.

Mrs. Bob Hutcherson gave interesting general information about modern Japan which she likened to a kaleidoscope with old and the new existing side by side so that an observer is both impressed and bewildered. "This country with one hundred million population has a new international role as one of the world's leading trade powers. Since 1941 there has been a United Christian Church in Japan called the Kyodan. Kagawa was one of the greatest Christians of influence in this nation," she said. Mrs. Hutcherson conducted an informative true and false test on her subject.

Mrs. Lloyd Becker gave an enlightening talk on the religions of Japan which has 30 new ones emphasis on Soka Gakkai. This is a military religion whose president is the leader of Japan's third largest political party, its government being a constitutional democracy, she explained. Its target is world domination since it claims to be the one true religion on earth and the true Buddhism, she concluded.

Mrs. Bill Whitten enhanced the program with added information on changes in education and economic life.

Those present other than above mentioned were: Mmes. J. W. Oliver, Mary Lou Erwin, W. V. Coursey, D. A. Neeley, Myrtis Phelan, J. P. Montgomery, Ed Hutcherson, B. E. Grafton, M. G. Tarver, W. J. McMasters, Cleve Evans, J. B. Scott, Bob Fowler, Lee Brown and F. W. Foxhall.

Nancy Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wright of Amarillo was severely bitten by a neighborhood dog last week, and had to undergo medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Clifton were in Austin the past weekend and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and Michael. They were accompanied by their grandchildren, Cliff Ann and Kelly Morgan who had been here for five weeks while Mrs. Morgan was in a hospital. Cathy is home now and reported to be doing fine.

munity center Oct. 12. Plans were also made for the next meeting Oct. 21 when the Club members will have a picnic in Palo Duro Canyon and then tour the museum at West Texas State University.

The program for the day was introduced by Mrs. Ward Gurley with the theme "Now is the Time for Fun and Information." The quotation was, "Good humor is one of the best articles of dress one can wear in society" —Thackeray.

Mrs. R. E. Clark was leader of the Fun for All-Club Quiz. This was a panel discussion on "Local, State and National government, history and geography." Panel one was: Jeanette Irons, Lorene Swift and Mamie Moss. Panel two included Sophia Stilwell, Alma Bruce, and Gladys Farmer, and much fun was enjoyed by all.

The hostess served a lovely salad plate to visitors, Mrs. Ben Johnson and Mrs. Earl Pritchett and members: Mmes. R. E. Clark, Frank Ellis, Clifford Farmer, Ward Gurley, Jeanette Irons, G. T.

Moss, Alvin Fyeatt, L. G. Rasmussen, L. A. Stilwell, Theo. Swift and Nat Bradley, Misses Alma Bruce, Sybil Gurley and Cindy Bell.

Maj. A. D. Youngblood Is Decorated Highly By A.F.

Major Adrian D. Youngblood, presently assigned to the Flight Test Division of the Directorate of Aircraft and Missile Test at Holloman AFB, N. M., was awarded recently 12 decorations for action in Vietnam.

Major Youngblood is the son of Mrs. Letha Youngblood of Hedley and the grandson of Mrs. J. D. Masten of Hedley.

Awarding the decorations to the already highly decorated Major Youngblood was Alexander H.

Flax, assistant secretary of the Air Force for Research and Development.

Dr. Flax pinned on Maj. Youngblood the Silver Star, the first Oak Leaf Cluster to the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the first Oak Leaf Cluster to the Distinguished Flying Cross and the fifth through twelfth Oak Leaf Clusters to the Air Medal.

The presentations were made at an Officers' Dining In at Holloman AFB, N. M.

All of the awards were for heroic and meritorious duty while Maj. Youngblood was stationed in Vietnam as the pilot of an unarmed helicopter.

An excerpt from the citation accompanying the award of the Silver Star states: "Major Youngblood distinguished himself by gallantry in connection with military operations against an opposing armed force as an HH-3E Helicopter Pilot in Southeast Asia on October 20, 1966.

"On that date, Major Youngblood voluntarily faced intense, accurately directed hostile fire for the purpose of saving the lives of two downed airmen. Following the successful rescue of the first downed pilot, during which his helicopter was disabled by the withering fire, Maj. Youngblood was forced to land and abandon his unarmed helicopter.

"Major Youngblood and the other members of his crew carried the downed pilot, who was hit by hostile fire during his rescue, to another awaiting rescue helicopter in an area of less intense fire."

A cluster to the star came for a March 13, 1967, flight in which Major Youngblood went through heavy fire to rescue a Marine pilot who had been shot down.

The Distinguished Flying Cross and the Cluster were awarded Maj. Youngblood's rescue and attempted rescue of other airmen during 1966 and 1967.

LIBRARY LORE

By Jim Roark

"People read mystery stories for a variety of reasons. Some read them to put themselves to sleep, others to keep awake; some to solve the puzzles they present, others for the excitement of the chase. But nearly everybody reads mystery stories today for one prime quality — they are good entertainment.

Certainly the mystery story has never lacked for eminent readers. Presidents Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jack Kennedy, General George C. Marshall and Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin are just a few who have turned to mysteries for relaxation and stimulation in hours of stress and crisis. In fact, the first famous mystery "fan" was no less a person than Abraham Lincoln, who was a staunch admirer of Edgar Allan Poe, the father of the detective story."

In the library at Memphis is Victoria Holt's new suspense novel "Kirkland Revels." This book is in the pattern of her earlier novel "Mistress of Mellyn." Her presentation of late nineteenth-century Cornwall makes a tense well-done story of what-will-happen next at Kirkland Revels, a magnificent manor house steeped in history, legend and with more than one violent death to shadow its past.

Firearms ranked last in the eight major causes of accidental deaths in the USA last year.

Parallel Terracing Advantages Are Discussed By Soil Conservationist

You have heard of parallel terracing no doubt, but not everyone knows the advantages.

Herb Evans said a man came in the Soil Conservation Office the other day and said, "I'm not sold on parallel terraces, sell me!"

There were several advantages brought out. One, the number of point rows are reduced drastically. Two, the farming of terraced land with four or six row equipment is not only practical but easier. Third, and far from least important is that in this county of low Rain fall the parallel terraces store more water. You know what that means.

Due to the complicated engineering and design work necessary to install good parallel terrace system, it is necessary for you to plan way ahead.

Those expecting to get terraces this coming winter made their plans last fall and winter. If you think you want or might want parallel terraces come by the Soil Conservation Office in Memphis and discuss your needs.

beat. We didn't play well enough to beat a good ball club."

The coach cited Richard Parker for playing an outstanding game on defense as he was credited with 20 tackles during the game. Also, James Sprull was cited for his outstanding play in the game, primarily on defense.

Abernathy's team has been steadily climbing in area standings and will have revenge in mind when they visit the Cyclone Stadium Friday night. A large crowd of supporters are expected from Abernathy, as school officials will let students loose early so they can attend the game.

The Antelopes have been looking forward to a re-match with the Cyclone after last year's 14-13 homecoming upset at Abernathy which dropped them from the district race.

The Cyclone, on the other hand, with its back to the wall, will be fighting to get back into the district race, with renewed determination knowing that another defeat will be fatal as far as hopes for a championship are concerned. The crucial game should prove to be a hard fought contest.

Tornadoes Travel

The Memphis Tornadoes will travel to Wellington tonight for a game scheduled at 7:30 p. m. The Tornadoes downed the Pam-pa Freshmen 12-0 last Thursday night at Pampa.

Coach Denzil Lacy said the Tornadoes are expecting the Wellington game to be a tough one as they defeated Clarendon last week.

Turks

minutes of the game deep in Matador territory as the Matador defense and the slippery ball kept the Turks away from paydirt. Early in the 2nd quarter, however, the Turks picked up a fumble at the 50-yd. line and from here Johnny King almost personally put the ball in the endzone. Johnny ran 15-yds. on a 4th and 1 situation and then sailed around left end 28 yards into the endzone for the score. The extra points were no good and the Turks led 12-0. The rest of the half was spent exchanging fumbles and pass interceptions as neither team could do much with the wet ball.

The entire 3rd quarter was spent deep in Matador territory as the Turks continued to threaten. Then late in the quarter the Turks after putting Matador deep in the hole on a fine punt by Majors received a good break as the Matador punter fumbled the ball and the Turks recovered on the 2-yard line. Williams went over on a keeper play for the score. The point try was no good and the Turks led 18-0 at the end of the 3rd quarter.

The Turks then scored the final TD late in the game as the defense threw Matador for a total loss of 30 yards in three plays and took over on the 15-yard line. From here the Turks moved in to score with King getting the last yard on the final play of the game.

The Turk defense looked very good as they held the Matadors to only 6 first downs (2 on penalties) and a total offense of 59 yards. James Woods led the defense as he was in on 18 tackles. Not far behind was Mike King as he turned in an outstanding game from the center linebacking position. Also very high on the tackle chart were Russell Barnhill, Tim Salem, Hal House and David Fuston who also recovered a couple of fumbles.

Next week the Turks journey to Chillicothe to do battle with the Eagles. The Eagles have a 3-1 record losing only to Crowell 8-0. The Turks will be in for a tough game and will have to give another outstanding performance to be able to contain the Eagles. However, the Turks picked up a lot of momentum in the win over Matador and cannot be counted out as they would have to be an excellent chance to pull upset over the Eagles.
