Spotlight Is Focused On Cyclone-Mustang Game

The District 3-AA spotlight will be on the Memphis-Olton football game tomorrow night at the home of the Mustangs in Olton. The game will start at 7:30 p. m. when the No. 1 ranked Mustangs play host to the Cyclone Mustangs who are determined to win the district championship. The game could prove to be the highlight of the season if the Mustangs pull off an upset victory, or on the other hand, the Cyclone Mustangs could just as easily firm up their hold on a prominent district championship. For the local boys, the Olton game is a must if they want to stay in the race for the district title.

A variety of games all traditions of the Halloween season, will provide entertainment both nights. There will be the usual cake walk, sack game, milk bottle throw, basketball throw, ring soda pop,

Of the Cyclone, Coach Bert Glascock said Wednesday after workouts, "we are in the worst physical shape of the season. We have more boys nursing bruises, injuries, etc., than at any time this year." The coach cited Paul J. Smith as being injured in workouts this week and reported that Ronny McFall is down with the flu and has not worked out. "Also, we have several more boys nursing injuries, but they will play," he said. The Mustangs have earned the No. 1 rating by beating a lot of teams badly. They took Friona 26 to 13, Floydada 40-0 and Hale Center 30-0 in district competition. Offensively the Mustangs have fine linemen and big, hard running, strong, elusive backs. The area's top scoring ball carrier is Benny Akin (183), right halfback who has scored 72 points so far this season. No. 44 of the Ponies has broke for long scoring runs in almost every game this season and makes the Mustangs' end sweeps and dive plays a scoring threat from anywhere on the field. He has tremendous speed and deceptive moves, and is hard to tackle. Their fullback, No. 12, Bobby Turney (173) is big, strong and powerful when he carries the football. He is a top blocker and a consistent ground gainer. Kenneth Johnson (168) is a fast, hard running halfback who is good at finding daylight, or he will power over would-be tacklers when there's no hole. Johnny Lewis (140) is the quarterback for the Mustangs. Besides the three running backs the Mustangs have another backfield ready and able to do a lot. (Continued on Page 10)

County's October Financial Report Reflects Optimism

Hall County's financial picture appears to be climbing for another record-breaking climax at the end of 1967, figures released in the statements of condition of the three Hall County banks at the close of business Oct. 4, 1967, indicate. The statements of condition are being published in this issue of The Democrat. The county's financial picture appears to have brightened considerably since the mid-year report was issued, reflecting almost a million-dollar swing upward. Compared to last year's October report, the Oct. 4, 1967, total assets figure of $15,522,257.40 is $1,286,899.94 above the figure of a year ago. Showing the same trend was the total deposits figure of $14,070,659.73 as of Oct. 4, and by comparison with last year's total deposits figure, it is $1,562,211.56 greater. Also increasing, but only by $33,022.04, was the combined loans and discounts figure which stands at $7,516,831.54. How much of the increase can be attributed to a good grain sorghum crop yield this year or to approximately $1.8 million in government subsidy checks mailed out Sept. 1 by the Hall County A.S.C.S. office is not known. However, little of the county's cotton crop has moved into trade channels at this time.

One Memphis gin reported this morning it had received 272 bales of cotton. Estimates have been made the county had gathered about 500 bales. ## Sen. Yarbrough Applauds New Rules On Cotton Senator Ralph W. Yarbrough, D-Texas, today applauded the United States Department of Agriculture's reversal of cotton allotment policies which had been penalizing skip-row planters.

"The rules were unjust and harsh, and it is only right that they were revised," the Senator said. "I am delighted," he added.

Yarbrough had written Agriculture Secretary Freeman three weeks ago asking that 1968 cotton regulations be altered to "restore equity to the Texas cotton farmers." In a letter September 19 he said the skip-row ruling had resulted in the loss of projected yields to other states, and had cost Texas "millions of dollars."

Freeman today informed the Senator that for 1968 the USDA would return to 1965 rules. Under these rules, only the land actually planted to cotton is counted as cotton land in determining compliance with the program provisions.

The provision which Yarbrough had protested, and which today's action repeals, required farmers planting in a skip-row pattern — alternating rows for soil conservation — to count unplanted rows against their allotments.

"This ruling is a great breakthrough for Texas, where cotton is a vital part of our agricultural economy," Yarbrough said, "and it means a healthy and more realistic balance nationally for cotton production."

LIBRARY LORE

By Jim Roark

"Books are strange things. Although untongued and dumb, yet with their eloquence they sway the world; And, powerless and impulsive they seem, Move o'er impressive minds and hearts of men Like fire across a prairie."

For those of you who have little time for reading, Reader's Digest condensed books will enable you to read, and to keep up with what everyone is reading! The autumn 1967 selections is one of the best condensed books published as all stories are fine, and cover a varied type of story that will appeal to the reading tastes of many young adults and adults. The selections are "Christy" by Catherine Marshall — a glowing story of the heights to which faith — challenge — can rise in the human heart; "Nicholas and Alexander" by Robert K. Massie — the first intimate of a family whose private tragedy was to have momentous consequences for the entire world; "Life With Father" by Clarence Day — a series of stories about the author's fiery and astounding father in 1805, which has become one of America's most beloved small classics, and adopted for the stage where it is a smashing success; "The Fox and the Hound" by David P. Mannix — neither a man nor an enemy as dangerous as man. No one who has ever loved animals — or the land — can fail to be deeply touched by this remarkable story. It reminds us of what we all stand to lose by our perhaps mistaken ideas of progress — the mauling of the land the destruction of our wildlife; "The Gabriel Hounds" by Mary Stewart has already been reviewed in this column — a romantic suspense novel. Ask for this book at the library in Memphis.

Motivated By Love

(Editor's Note: The following message was received this week from Rev. E. C. Cargill, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Memphis. It is self-explanatory.)

Motivated By Love

Motivated by love a beautiful city can be built. Motivated by love a town may reach great dimensions. Motivated by love a Nation can become a mighty nation.

Motivated by love a garden may become attractive so that persons will go miles to see its beauty. Motivated by love a house unclean, unkempt, can be made a most livable lovely house almost overnight.

Motivated by love a life dimmed and confused by sin can be changed and made a living witness for Christ Jesus. A mind warped by wrong concepts may reach heights sublime when motivated by love.

This day, October the 10th 1967, I have searched my heart, and I know love is directing me to say to all families in Memphis — and far beyond — Love is the foundation stone upon which our Christian Civilization is founded.

Love never fails to make a home beautiful. Love drives out the darkness, and light illuminates each heart and life.

Will you permit me to say to all families in Memphis: my love crosses the miles to you today. Some of you in all the churches we knew back in other years — well, the memory of your home — memories so dear of you and your family.

Probably you may think it is strange since so many years have passed that I should continue to know how you are? To still be interested in you? I will answer by saying thought about love is the very thing Jesus went all the way to "Calvary" and died on the Old Rugged Cross for you — for me. "Love that will not let me go."

It is no secret what God can do — What He did for others He will do for you. Mr. Editor (if I were an editor) this would be one of my Editorials. Thank you for space allowed.

New Benefits For Veterans' Widows Listed

Under recent new legislation enacted by Congress and signed into law by the President, certain changes and benefits for Veterans and their widows were made that may be of benefit to local people. These benefits cover all Veterans of World War I, World War II, Korean and the present Viet Nam era.

Some of these include the following: extension of time for educational benefits for Korean Veterans, liberalized pension benefits and widows allowances.

One of particular interest to widows of deceased veterans of all wars is marriage requirements. The five year alternative marriage requirement for establishing relationship as a widow is reduced to one year. Relationship in established, regardless of the length of marriage, if a child was born.

This liberalization is applicable in death pension, death compensation, and DIC claims. Payment to widow is increased by $50.00 a month when she is so disabled as to require the regular aid and attendance of another person or is a patient in a nursing home.

Veterans or widows desiring further information or assistance can obtain advice from any officer of the local American Legion Post.

1913 Study Club Sponsor UNICEF Here Halloween

The 1913 Study Club will again sponsor the UNICEF drive in Memphis on Halloween to raise funds for needy children throughout the world. Mrs. Mack Tarver, chairman of the project, stated this week.

On Halloween this year, something like 3.5 million children all over America and on service installations around the globe will take part in the only program in the world where children help children — Trick or Treat for UNICEF. The good these children help UNICEF to achieve is so great, so far reaching, that in 1965 UNICEF won the Nobel Peace Prize.

Desperately needed food, vitamins and medicine are supplied to needy children in more than 100 countries. Vital education and health programs are sponsored. And for every $1.00 in aid sent by UNICEF, recipient countries provide an average of $2.50 in the form of labor, housing facilities, and local resources. You can see how important to the children of the world UNICEF Trick or Treat Program has become, when you think that through UNICEF, just one nickel can provide Penicillin to cure 2 children of yaws, or 10 vitamin tablets, or vaccine to protect five children from TB, Mrs. Tarver stated.

In a letter to the Executive Director of UNICEF, President Lyndon B. Johnson wrote:

"UNICEF is giving new hope for a better life to the generations in whose hands the security of the world soon will rest. There is no nobler work for peace. I want to express to you, your staff, and the hundreds of thousands of young Americans who are participating in this annual event, my deep appreciation for your unselfish work on behalf of children everywhere."

About three-quarters of the world's children are growing up in countries where most people consider themselves fortunate to get enough food of any kind to allay the persistent pangs of hunger. No one really knows how many of these children are seriously malnourished. It is certain that millions do not get enough to eat merely in terms of calories. Many more millions suffer from vitamin and mineral deficiencies, Mrs. Tarver explained.

It has been increasingly realized in recent years that there is a close relationship between programs to benefit children and economic and social development of their countries.

By now, UNICEF has assisted some 87 developing countries in long range programs to improve the nutrition of children and mothers. Some of the results have been most encouraging.

$500 Million Is Lost In U. S. Food Swindle

Americans are swindled out of $500 million each year.

According to Radora Massey, Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University, the swindle may come under the label, tonic, supplements, reducing pills, vitamins, minerals, concentrated or special diet foods.

"You have no need for these unless prescribed by your doctor for a medical problem," the specialist says.

"These products, when not taken by prescription, neither help nor endanger your health," Miss Massey advises, "unless you believe they have the power to cure disease or correct malfunctions, as many claim."

The danger is great if you take these preparations as self-medication and forget that your physician is the only person qualified to diagnose, the specialist points out.

Some exotic products on the market are kelp (sea weed), yogurt, yeast, blackstrap molasses, herbs honey, specifically ground flours and various oils.

"Honey is a good source of carbohydrate, but it works no miracles," Miss Massey states. "Yogurt, a dairy product, is manufactured with partially skimmed milk. It has no more power to promote youth than does the same amount of milk."

"The enriched bread on your grocery store shelf is a good food buy and contains the same nutrients as the whole wheat that can be bought at the special food store and ground at home at a much increased expense."

The foods and nutrition specialist says reducing pills self administered can actually cause harm. A person can actually lose lean body tissue and keep undesired fat on certain diet binges.

And, as for vitamin pills, Miss Massey advises taking them only when prescribed by a physician.

"The person who eats a balanced diet has no need for this supplement," the specialist emphasizes.

Even though you are outside the licensing age for hunters (under 17 or over 65), you must obtain deer tags (25¢) to attach to the antlers of any deer you kill in Texas.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Control of Insects is Important In Farm-Stored Grain

In many areas of the state, grain has been stored or will soon be. Insects will damage much of this stored grain if preventive measures are not taken before and after storage, says County Agent W. B. Hooser.

One of the first requirements for proper grain storage is the use of adequate facilities. A good facility should exclude all outside moisture, be easily accessible for inspection and fumigation of the grain and bins in which the grain can be earated are helpful in cooling and drying grain, explains the county agent.

No matter how well the storage facilities are constructed, they cannot protect the grain unless they are clean. Before they are used, bins should be thoroughly cleaned of all waste material and sprayed with a residual spray. Old grain, trash or other debris furnish excellent living quarters for insects, points out Hooser.

Malathion has been approved for use in stored grain as a pro-tectant against insects. If this chemical is applied before the grain is placed in storage, it will greatly reduce the possibility of insect damage, Hooser said.

Local county agents can supply valuable information and make suggestions for handling insect problems in stored grain. Hooser suggests that any interested person ask for a copy of L-217, "Control of Insects in Farm-Stored Grain."

FIRE FIGHTING EFFICIENCY DEMANDS PLANNING AHEAD

It's time to act when a fire hits and too late to plan how to fight it. But now, when there is no fire to fight, is the time to do the planning with other members for a fire or other emergency, advises County Agent W. B. Hooser.

How well are you prepared to fight fire or hold it in check until the firemen can give you help? asks Hooser. Are you familiar with the location of fire departments which are available in your area? Valuable time is often lost in getting in touch with the nearest department and such loss could mean the difference in saving property or its complete loss.

It's a good idea to have equipment available, including tools for fighting rural fires but those who might be expected to use it must know how to use it, reminds the county agent.

Perhaps the one most important tool is a fire extinguisher. Make sure it is of adequate size and filled with the proper chemical to fight the kind of fire expected. Look for the "UL" or "FM" label of approval on extinguishers before they are purchased. These letters on the extinguishers means it has been tested and approved by a nationally recognized laboratory.

Extinguishers should be placed strategically in all fire danger areas, including the kitchen, barns, machine sheds, and near the storage tanks for gasoline and oil. And remember, says Hooser, different chemicals are required for different types of fires. Make sure the extinguisher is filled with the proper material for any expected fire at any of the different locations.

The Veterans Administration estimates more than half a million veterans who have served since January 31, 1955, will receive educational training during the next year.

The Big Hurdle Is Ahead . . . Olton!

The football spirit this week has reached a fevered pitch in Memphis, Texas, for the home team, by right of a 15 to 13 victory over previously undefeated Abernathy, has earned the chance of challenging the right of the Olton Mustangs for the No. 1 position in district.

Memphis fans and the entire Memphis High student body have been making it clear all week that The Cyclone is the team that can and will knock the Mustangs out of the coveted roost, spoiling their unblemished record and possibly denying the Mustangs the right of representing District 3-AA in the state play-offs. Memphis has a good reason for wanting a victory over Olton, as it was the Mustangs last season that spoiled the MHS Homecoming by downing the 1966 championship squad 20-14.

Different classes at Memphis High have been literally "painting up the town" with signs urging the local lads to do their best against the Mustangs. Downtown store windows have been painted, signs have appeared in front of the homes of team members and coaches. In general, the football fever is at the highest point ever displayed in Memphis.

With this fever, school leaders have taken steps to see that everything which has been and is being done, will be cleaned up Saturday, and local fans and students are expected to be enthusiastic, but polite and courteous when they go to the game at Olton Friday night.

Coach Bert Glascock at Booster Club Monday night said, "our boys and students are putting their faith in our pride of being Memphis Cyclones when we go to Olton."

With all the "cookies" riding on the outcome of the game at Olton as far as Memphis is concerned, a large delegation of home supporters will make the trip. It therefore behooves all of our fans to conduct themselves in the spirit of good sportsmanship, regardless of the outcome. Let it not be said that Memphis fans were unsportsmanlike in their conduct, regardless of the circumstances: penalties, signs in bad taste, or whatever.

The Memphis-Olton contest promises to be one of the hardest fought games of a decade, between two powerful teams. We, at The Democrat, wish to add our "Beat The Mustangs" to everyone else's signs, yells and good wishes to the Cyclones and members of the coaching staff who have worked so hard preparing for the contest.

This is the big hurdle which must be jumped if Memphis is to get a piece of the District 3-AA championship or the right to represent the district. Olton is favored to win, but all indications point to a real battle on the Olton gridiron. To fans here, this is football at its best for it will be a battling bunch of Cyclones who will be representing us at Olton tomorrow night. See you at the game.

What Other Editors Say

Amendment No. 2

Amendment No. 2 to be voted upon November 11 is one that would allow municipalities and other political subdivisions located in hospital districts to support mental health and mental retardation services.

Back several years ago legislation was passed which provided for the setting up of hospital districts, these districts to be in effect another political subdivision with power to levy taxes on property and have other powers.

The Ochiltree Hospital District in one of these. The district here sets its own tax rate and taxes are collected on property valuations on the county tax roll.

This law provided, however, that once a hospital district is set up, no other political subdivision can compete with it. The city or county cannot levy taxes for hospital purposes or float bonds to build hospital or health services. All this is reserved for the hospital district.

This proposed amendment would change the constitution so that mental health centers could be built and financed by cities and counties if they want to do so, rather than the hospital district.

At the present time, a county cannot spend tax money for medical and hospital services, but places such power, duty and authority in the hospital district. The proposed constitutional amendment would relax this as far as mental health centers or mental health services are concerned.

Supporters of this amendment say that mental health is neglected by hospital districts and that there ought to be some way to provide these. Opponents say that this is merely a duplication and will probably add to the tax load on property owners if it is passed.

School Drop-Outs!

High Schools lose a lot of students for various reasons; early marriages, moving to another town, drop-outs who can't or won't make their grades.

In looking at our high school today, we see a Freshman enrollment of 144 students. We have 82 seniors, and we'll probably graduate about 72 of these.

This means we're losing about half of our students from Freshman to graduation.

We look at the student who drops out because he can't or won't make his grades in the fundamentals of math, English, maybe science. No doubt many of these students like to do things with their hands maybe they should be in vocational studies . . . perhaps they are future craftsman possibilities in auto repair, carpentering, plumbing, painting, various other vocations that do not require a passing math or English grade.

This also points to the fact that all high school graduates should not go to college. Some of these students need vocational training for a future that does not require a college degree.

So, what is the answer? How do we train these dropouts in a useful vocation where they can make a living in the future?

A good start might be in the expansion of our present vocational agriculture department. A new curriculum that would reward a student with a "vocational diploma" instead of a high school diploma might be the answer.

A mechanic friend of mine over in Plainview told me that the day will come when the motorist will need an appointment to get his auto repaired, similar to the dentist appointment. He says there are not enough young men entering automotive repair.

Let's work out a plan to save those drop-outs.

WCS Circles Meet For Study At Church Mon.

The Alpha and Oliver Circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday, Oct. 16, 9:30 a. m. in the Methodist church annex.

Mrs. M. G. Tarver gave an invocation to the Bible study titled "Encounter of the Faith" by Carpenter, D. D.

Mrs. Mary Lou Erwin gave a comprehensive discussion of the two chapters, "Is Faith Possible Today?" and "Religions of Today." She stated that faith is the fruit of man's wonder. It is commitment, a trusting of one to God. In the latter chapter she focused her talk on the relationship of Christianity to other world religions. In speaking of them she said, "I choose Christianity because I want to climb to the top of Mt. Fuji while those other faiths stop at lower rest-places."

Mrs. W. J. McMaster added interest to the study with her talk on the next two chapters, "Revelation of Identity" and "Secularism." She stated that in the Christian, Islamic tradition persons find meaning and purpose in a covenant relation with God. In Hinduism and its offshoots each man stands alone unaided by his burden of karma. In contrast, she said that the Christian believes in a future life and that the church is but an instrument in his hands, while his life is his own and he is to be a blessing to the world.

Mrs. Bob Fowler concluded the study in a meaningful way with a review of the last two chapters, "Beyond Religion — God in the World" and "For the Healing of the Nations." She stated that the light of all men. Not men know their light by that light; in some it is distorted by the burden of increasing freedom and use it for the common good of all mankind.

Mrs. Tarver led the closing prayer.

Clements presented "Teach Your Mind to Think," telling about how one sometimes struggles with a problem but cannot solve it. Then someone else finds the solution, behold, it's obvious. She answered the question as to what the person had done wrong and how he could do better by a few helpful hints which included rearranging the elements of the program, trying a new approach, taking a break when stuck solving a problem, discussing the problem with others, etc. Her closing remark concluded that reasoning, at least in part, is the overcoming of habit.

"Susan In Stitches," a short skit, was presented by Mrs. Jack Boone, Mrs. Kenneth Dale and Mrs. Billy Combs. It was begun with a monologue of over-confidence and followed by melodrama in which the heroine sadly learned that "Zeal Without Knowledge is the Sister of Folly."

Cyclone Meets Challenge; Skins Antelopes 15-13

It was a fine night for football, for local fans jammed into Cyclone Stadium, Friday's game between the Cyclone and the visiting Antelopes was Dis-AA football at its finest. Both talented ball clubs battled the closing second of the game. The Cyclone lads left with a victory and the Antelopes, testing defeat for the first time this season, were obviously stunned.

Although the Cyclone offense had up 16 first downs, about 100 yards in total offense, and generated the most balanced attack of the season against the Antelopes' defense, it was the defense play of the Cyclone guard wall, line backers and defensive secondary which turned the balance of the game for the Cyclone lads.

The story of the game can be summarized by the statistical record that defensively, the Cyclone overpowered three of Abernathy's players and intercepted three of Antelopes' passes, while forcing the visitors to punt the ball seven times. This was reason enough to keep the talented Antelopes' offensive attack in check the night.

The game opened with Abernathy receiving the ball on the kickoff and returning it to their 40-yard line. They opened their attack by sweeping the ends for a 47-yard punt to the 47. Then FB Byers was stopped on two line-middle plays, and QB Jerry Fuller, who engineered the Antelopes as his older brother Burl saw only limited action at the QB position due to a shoulder injury, went back for a pass and scrambled for a first down to the Cyclone 29.

The first play netted one yard as Billy Elkins carried, but on the next play, a fumble in the backfield was alertly recovered by Defensive tackle Garvin Speed for the Cyclone and the local lads went on offense.

FB Roge Fowler got the local lads offense off to a good start with a seven-yd. carry up the middle. Carries by TB Ronnie McFall and QB Tony Pounds netted a first down to the home 45. At this point, however, three downs netted only 5 yards so Punter Richard Parker went back. The snap from center was high, but Parker leaped high and pulled it down and got off a 35-yd. kick.

The Antelopes were held near the visitor's 30-yd. line and Burl Fuller went back to punt on the fourth. A bad snap from center was fumbled and Linebacker Parker who came crashing through recovered for Memphis and gave the Cyclone excellent field position on the Abernathy 21.

TB McFall made one yd. on the first play, then QB Pounds passed complete to HB Gary Rea who made a first down to the Abernathy 11-yd. line.

McFall made three more on the next play to the eight, then Rea picked up one more to the seven.

On the next play, McFall tried to get wide but was wrapped up in the arms of Abernathy defenders on the five.

Facing a fourth down, Kicker Jerry Hall went into the line-up, but before the snap could be called, a Cyclone lineman moved and five yards was stepped off against Memphis.

On the next try for a field goal, an Abernathy lineman got his hand on the kick and it went wide of the goal posts.

Abernathy was held and punted out to the Abernathy 40.

The Cyclone again started a good drive. FB Fowler made five yards and HB Gary Rea made five more for a first to the 30. QB Pounds carried on a keeper and went for 10 more yards to the Abernathy 20. Fowler made seven more to the 13-yd. line. Then, HB Rea was trapped behind the line of scrimmage for a 2-yd. loss. On the next play, QB Pounds was hit just as he tried to pitch back to TB James Spruill who was open out side but the pitched ball went behind the trail man and Abernathy came up with the ball, the only fumble the local lads lost all night.

The Antelopes, with the aid of 15-yd. penalty against the Cyclone defensive unit, moved to the Abernathy 45. On the next play, FB Byers got loose for a 10-yd. gain to the Memphis 45. Here the drive stopped and Abernathy's Fuller punted into the endzone.

Taking over on the Memphis 20, the Cyclone made nine yards in three downs, and elected to punt the ball. On the next play, the center was over Parker's head and he went back, retrieved the ball but was downed on the Memphis one-foot line.

Following this big break in the game, the Antelopes' FB Byers cracked over for the TD on the next play. However, Burl Fuller's place kick for the point was wide of the mark and the local lads were trailing 6-0, in the closing minutes of the first half.

After the kickoff, Memphis took over on the home 24. FB Fowler started the drive with a six-yard carry to the 30. On the next play, QB Pounds rolled out to the right, found the receivers covered, but with a good block by McFall he broke loose down the Abernathy side line for 21 yards to the Antelopes' 49.

In the next series, Fowler made three, Rea made three, Fowler made three, and then, TB Spruill made the first down to the Abernathy 38. Fowler picked up nine more yards to the 29. On a third down, Pounds ran a keeper for three more yards and a first to the visitor's 26.

With only seconds on the clock, FB Fowler made six yards to the 20. On the next play, a pass went incomplete. On the third down, Pounds went back to pass, but was knocked down before he could find a receiver for an 8-yd. loss.

Facing a fourth down, with scant seconds left on the clock, QB Pounds rolled out on a pass play, spotted HB Gary Rea open near the end zone and flung the ball right into Rea's waiting arms for the TD.

Extra point kicker Hall came into the line-up, but an over-anxious Antelope defender jumped off sides, and the one-half distance penalty was stepped off against Abernathy. Facing only one and a half yards for a two-point conversion, the Cyclone offensive unit went back in and TB Ronnie McFall got the call for the try for points. McFall found a small hole and based his way into the endzone for the two points, and Memphis led 8-6.

The Antelopes tried one pass play before the half ended but Safety Back Roy Long intercepted the pass and was downed on the home 24. The half ended after the next play.

After the excellent half-time activities, Memphis received the opening kickoff and Judge Smith returned the ball to the home 26. From here, two carries by TB McFall netted 22 yards to near midfield. Then McFall was dropped for an 8-yd. loss. On the next play QB Pounds carried on a keeper for 13 yards, and then for six more to the visitor's 41. A pass from Pounds to HB Rea netted a first down to the 31. From here, Fowler made five yards, Spruill was stopped at the line of scrimmage, and on the next play, Pounds made three more yds. On a 4th and two situation, Fowler cracked through for a first down, but a 15-yd. penalty was stepped off against the Cyclone. On the next play, Parker kicked the ball out-of-bounds on the Abernathy 8-yd. line.

The Antelopes came racing back as FB Byers broke loose and went 47 yards to the Memphis 45 before Safety Back Spruill pulled him down.

In the next series, on a third down, the Antelopes received a good break, in the form of a defensive holding penalty against the Cyclone which gave them a first down to the Memphis 30.

From this point, Byers made three yards, and then QB Jerry Fuller connected with the only pass on the night for the Antelopes and End Travis Leach caught the pass and went the distance for Abernathy's second score. Burl Fuller kicked the point after and the Antelopes led 13-8.

The Cyclone, after the kickoff, with a 21 yd. pass play from Pounds to Rea, made a first to the visitor's 47. From here, the local lads made 9 yards in three plays, and went for the first down, but failed and Abernathy took over.

The Antelopes went for a first to the mid-field stripe, but in the next series, Richard Parker recovered a fumble and Memphis had the ball on the Abernathy 44.

McFall made one yard on the next play. On a second down, QB Pounds rolled out and threw a beautiful strike to Eend Roy Long who ran over and out ran Antelope defenders for the TD on a 43-yd. pass play. Hall kicked the extra point and the Cyclone led 15-13.

With the local lads holding a two-point lead, and most of the fourth quarter yet to be played, tension mounting on both benches.

Abernathy was held after the kickoff, and punted to the Memphis 12-yd. line, a fine 49-yd. kick off Fuller's toe. Memphis marched from a first down, then punted to the Abernathy 35. The Antelopes got a drive going which took them to the home 42. From this point, facing a second and 11 situation, the Antelopes, using Burl Fuller as QB, tried a jump pass, one of Fuller's favorite plays, however, Linebacker Richard Parker, playing alert football, intercepted the pass and rolled out around the left and went the distance to the goal line. However, a clipping penalty was called against Memphis after the interception, and the penalty put the ball back to the home 35 where it was the Cyclone's ball.

The Cyclone marched for two first downs before giving up the ball to Abernathy on the Antelopes' 22, as there were only seconds left on the clock.

On the next play, Fuller's long pass was intercepted by Roy Long who returned the ball to the Abernathy 24 before he was tackled. On the next two plays, QB Pounds

The victory boosted the Eagles record to 2-0 in district play while dropping the Turks to 1-1.

Friday night, the Turks will play host to the speedy Lockett ball club who boasts having one 9.5 sprinter and two others who can better 10 seconds from goal line to goal line.

The Eagles of Chillicothe will welcome the winless Matador

Matadors with a homecoming crowd in Chillicothe.

Booths for the Carnival will be operated by different civic organizations here Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 28, and Tuesday night, Oct. 31.

Estelline To Travel Friday To Darrouzett

The Estelline Bears face a long trip tomorrow as they travel to Darrouzett to play a tough ball club. Darrouzett stands at 1-1 in the district, losing only to Morse.

The Guthrie team, presently the district leader and favored to win the district, handed the Bears a stunning 50-6 defeat last Friday.

"Guthrie hit us hard and quick in the early minutes of the game and took a 28-0 halftime lead," Coach Jimmie Don Adams said.

The Bears came back in the second half to score one touchdown on a carry by Randy Collins. Collins also broke loose for a long TD carry which was called back due to a clipping infraction.

"Guthrie has a fine ball club," Coach Adams added.

About Darrouzett, the Estelline coach said the Bears face another tough game. Darrouzett has a big bunch of linemen and adequate backs.

The Bears will finish their season a week from Friday when they travel to Patton Springs. Game time for both games will be 8 p. m.

Bridge Tourney To Be Held In Shamrock Nov. 3-5

The sixth annual Irish Sectional Duplicate Bridge Tournament will be played in the National Guard Armoury Nov. 3 through 5 in Shamrock.

The tournament is sponsored by the Top-O-Texas Unit 210, consisting of 19 Panhandle area clubs, and sanctioned by the American Contract Bridge League.

Defending champions from the area include Mrs. Aline Mundy of Shamrock, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hill and A. J. Shudal, all of Hereford; Mrs. Greeley Warner of Pampa, Mrs. John O'Brien of Amarillo and J. C. Paul of Amarillo.

Players may obtain further information from Mrs. Neva Neely at the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce, Phone BL6-1501.

(Editor's Note: The following letter was received from Reba Stroehle, local teacher, who is a patient in a Houston hospital.)

Dear Friends,
Thank you for every act of kindness. I appreciate all you've done for me. I shall write to each of you the minute I can.

I have a beautiful large room. It looks like a motel room—large blue leather divan with three matching chairs. My bed is all electric. I can reach the controls and get in the most comfortable position any time. There are large picture windows.

This week is one of exercise and eating. I didn't realize either could be such a job. I'm to have two major operations—hopefully at the same time.

I have the doctor's promise I will be back working with Memphis students. I will gladly endure anything in order to have that privilege again.

I'm at St. Joseph's Hospital, Room 512A, Houston, Texas, 77002.

The room on one side of me is number 514 and on the other side is 512. We discovered in numbering the regular way, my room would be 513. I'm sure most people would refuse a room with that number.

Continue to pray for me because I have a big problem ahead of me.

Love to the most wonderful people on earth.

most as fine a job as the regulars.

Blessed with good depth in all positions, the Mustangs under Coach Don Beck do a lot of substituting to give the players ample rest periods.

Defensively, the Mustangs have not given up but 13 points in three district outings, and prior to that, Hereford was the only team that cracked their tough defense.

Their defensive forward wall averages over 185 pounds per man and are all big, strong tacklers. No. 11, Charles McClain, is their pass defense specialist and comes up with more than his share of interceptions, as does No. 21, Steve Spain, who has really quick reactions.

No. 62, Eddie Hooper (183), a defensive guard, is in on most of their tackles and is possibly one of the finest defensive line men the local lads will play this season.

Coach Glascock said, "if we don't play well at Olton Friday night, we will get beat bad. Olton has that kind of a ball club."

Riding on the strength of an unblemished season record, No. 1 in the Panhandle area as well as the top ball club in District 3-AA, the Mustangs are a formidable opponent for the local lads.

However, the game at Olton promises to be one of the finest of the season and a large crowd of Memphis fans will make the long trip supporting the Cyclone all the way.

About Abernathy

"I was real pleased with the effort of all our boys against Abernathy. I was disappointed we made so many mistakes which caused us to give up touchdowns," Coach Glascock said.

He cited Roge Fowler, Chuck Jennings, Tony Pounds, Roy Long, Gary Rea and Lanny Crow for their fine offensive play against Abernathy.

Defensively, the local coach had high praise for Jennings, James Spruill, Roy Long, Richard Parker, Sam Bruce and Randy Jennings. "Randy made 13 tackles in the game and we were all proud of him," the coach said.
