The First Baptist Church of Memphis will conduct a Revival Crusade beginning Sunday, Nov. 26 through Sunday, Dec. 3. The guest speaker for the campaign is Homer Martinez.

Martinez is now in his 20th year of evangelistic travels, having launched his career at age 15. He has conducted almost 600 revival crusades and in these over 80,000 have accepted Christ and thousands more have made decisions of redemption, Rev. Jorgensen said.

Memphis Cager Teams To Play At Clarendon Tuesday; Girls Win Two

Memphis cager teams will be open Friday night, but return to basketball action next Tuesday, Nov. 28, when local squads travel to Clarendon.

Next weekend, Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2, Memphis teams will enter the Floydada tournament, playing Quitaque girls at 2:45 p. m. Thursday and Quitaque boys at 4 p. m. Thursday.

The bright spot in games played by local teams this past week is the two-game winning streak established by the Cyclonettes, as they came up with hard fought victories over Clarendon girls on Monday night and Quail girls on Tuesday night at Quail.

Local teams last Friday night lost games to the two teams from Quail. In the first game, the Quail girls established an 8-3 lead in the first period and carried it through to a 45 to 34 victory. Stella Johnson had 23 points for Quail and Cynthia Evans scored 21 points for Memphis.

In the boys game, the Cyclone ran into foul trouble early in the game and lost a 61 to 47 decision to the Quails. Gary Don Neely scored 20 points for Quail while Judge Smith had 17 for Memphis.

Saturday night, the Cyclone and a Boys Ranch team tangled in the local gym. The local lads took an 18 to 10 lead in the first period and held a 32 to 22 half-time edge. At the end of the third period, the Cyclone was still six points ahead, but the Boys Ranch team pressed hard in the final stanza and came up with a 53 to 52 victory. Judge Smith had 20 points while Jesse Eisenman had 21 for Boys Ranch.

Monday night, the Cyclonettes overcame a 19 to 15 deficit at the end of the first half to defeat the Clarendon girls team 40 to 33 in a hard fought game played here. Forward Cynthia Evans was dead as the free throw line, making 17 tosses and 32 points while Clarendon's high point girl was Tina Moore with 22. The Cyclonettes guards, Tommie Wilson, Bonnie Vick and Sandy McQueen, played fine defense containing the Clarendon girls' fast break offense.

Too Many Substitutes

One thing wrong with the farm situation is that there are too many substitutes for the real thing.

There is a grape flavoring, for example, which is purely synthetic, but tastes more like the real thing than a grape does. There's cheese in an aerosol can so you can squirt it on your sandwich, but it is not really cheese but a good artificial substitute.

There's plenty of sweetening without sugar, and you can see plenty of fellows in town take out their pill box or their little squeeze bottle to sweeten their coffee without sugar.

Take a look at the label on a "Pream" bottle which has what we used to think was dried, powdered cream. Instead it is an artificial substance of various chemicals which looks like cream and tastes like cream, but never got close to a cow.

There's plenty of milk without butterfat, and sandwich meat without meat, although that's getting pretty far afield.

Looking over the ingredients used to preserve a loaf of bread is almost enough to turn a bread eater against the stuff. The health food people have built a thriving industry on this fact and make a living providing bona fide food for people tired of synthetics.

In other areas, substitutes are taking over, too. Back in 1949 it was reported that synthetics had about 3 per cent of the market in cloth products. Now it is about 33 per cent, with the loser being the cotton grower, the wool producer and the silk importer.

The cotton people have made a fight of it, and have gained a share of the market with their drip dry cotton fabrics, but synthetics are still taking the biggest share.

There was a time when animal fats had a ready market, both for cooking and for soap making. But for the past 20 years this market has been slipping. Instead of some 96 per cent soap ingredients, fats and oils now have around 20 per cent.

The market for lard has slipped away, too. Practically nobody cooks with lard these days because they use vegetable oils and unsaturated oils and the like. The hog raisers have had to change the shape of their hogs away from the fat, lardy type to the long, lean meat animal because there is nothing to be made out of lard.

The livestock industry is suffering because shoe makers have turned away from leather in favor of synthetic materials in which to make shoes. The shoe makers claim that the synthetic stuff is cheaper, it is more waterproof, wears better and easy to sell.

Meanwhile the market for hides has dropped down to the point where all of the flavor has gone out of the transaction and hides are considered merely one of the byproducts of the packing industry instead of an integral part of the profit picture.

The trouble with the farm picture can't be pinpointed to any one thing, but too many substitutes sure have a bearing upon it.

What Other Editors Say

How many people?

On or about November 20, the United States will have attained a population of 200,000,000. The nation's rapid increase — reaching its second hundred million in the last 52 years — has brought to the fore the question: What is a desirable population figure for a nation the geographical size of the United States?

That question, of course, is not quickly answerable. Much depends on how well a nation can provide for its needs and its amenities: its food supply, housing, schools, vacations and relaxations.

The United States added some 55,000,000 persons since 1947. This fast growth was due in part to the "baby boom" following World War II. A postwar peak, a higher birth rate than that of any industrialized nation of Europe, was reached. This now has leveled off. With ever greater attention being given to family planning, the prospects are for a growth rate in the years ahead.

A fast-growing population is to some degree a business stimulant. School construction is pushed, industries catering to the needs of children and the whims of teenagers flourish, college enrollment burgeons. But if the rate is too steep, schools burst at the seams, youths cannot find jobs on leaving school, and the family breadwinner may despair at providing for his overpopulated household.

Fortunately the United States is producing wealth faster than it is acquiring people. The population grew 1.15 percent last year while the output of goods and services rose by 5.8 percent. This might suggest that the population boom could continue indefinitely.

But there are geographical limits, as visitors to the "unspoiled West" discover when they find Yellowstone National Park overcrowded with 50,000 campers a day in the tourist season.

Population in the United States will reach 300,000,000 by about the year 2000, according to present estimates. Families, in surveying their private growth estimates, should consider how their decisions affect the collective well-being of the nation as a whole.

Aviation: public necessity

THE TEXAS Aviation Commission is developing a program that could be significant to the bulk of the Texas communities outside the periphery of big-time aviation.

The commission, utilizing new funds made available by the Texas Legislature, is embarking on an airport construction aid program that is on an unprecedented scale in the state. The result is that towns such as Kerrville (along with two dozen others) are going to have aviation facilities equal to their actual requirements.

In all the smaller communities will be spending about $2 million this year for airport construction. The government is chipping in a substantial part of this cost. The local governments, city and state, are contributing nearly as much.

And, in many instances, the Texas aviation agency is making a substantial contribution to complete the job.

The importance of such programs is that it will keep numerous Texas communities in the current century in a transportation way. Because of the economics of higher level aviation, many towns and even substantial but small cities are outside transportation mainstream. Without aviation, perhaps even third level airlines in the future, these communities would have virtually no public transportation.

Lance Walker Is Candidate For Prec. 3 Office

This week The Memphis Democrat was authorized to announce the candidacy of Lance Walker for the office of Commissioner, Precinct No. 3, of Hall County. His candidacy is subject to the voters in the Democratic primaries of this county.

Walker issued the following statement in making his intention:

After a lot of thought, and so much encouragement from so many good people in this precinct, I have decided to make the race for this office subject to the 1968 Democratic Primaries.

I was born and reared on a farm, and owned my farms until recently. My experience has been varied: farming, bookkeeping, banking, construction, and creative work.

Before my retirement about two years ago, I was field engineer with the U. S. Corps of Engineers many years. My responsibilities as field engineer was to supervise, approve or disapprove all types of construction, both large and small, government contracts. This construction was building, airports, paved streets, cuts, fills, types of road construction; sand, caliche, asphalt, and bridges of all types.

Now that I am retired, and with my past experience — no person interested that requires my attention. — I feel that I am well qualified for this position. However, I am not offering any gimmicks, wild promises, or obligating myself to anyone in order to win a vote. But should the good people in this precinct elect me as their Commissioner, I will promise a fair, honest, open and above board business administration and one person or group of persons will dictate to me how to perform my duties.

Just remember — you must register to be able to vote.

Lance Walker

Water Commission Now Distributing Reporting Forms

The Texas Water Rights Commission announced last week that it has begun distribution of reporting forms required by the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967.

Persons using public surface water in Texas for any purpose other than for domestic or livestock uses without a permit are required by recent legislative action to file a sworn statement with the Texas Water Rights Commission for recognition of their claim. This must be done no later than Sept. 1, 1969.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act, effective Aug. 28, 1967, provides that all claims of water rights must be recorded with the Water Rights Commission. These claims must be valid under existing law and will be limited to actual use. All water rights are to be adjudicated and administered by the Commission "to the end that the surface water resources of the State may be put to their greatest beneficial use," to quote the new law.

This Act will not affect users of underground water. Users of surface water for domestic or livestock purposes only also will not be affected. The law applies to and may limit claims to riparian waters, waters diverted or impounded for use other than for domestic and livestock purposes, "... claims to water rights under the Irrigation Acts of 1889 and 1895 which were not filed with the State Board of Water Engineers in accordance with the Irrigation Act of 1913, as amended..." and all other claims to water rights for which permits or certified filings have not been granted.

Only the maximum volume of water beneficially used by claimants during any one year from 1963 to 1967, inclusive, will be recognized under the new law. If an individual has expanded his water application facilities prior to this Act but has not fully used the facilities, the volume used without waste from 1963 to 1970, inclusive, will be recognized. These individuals will need to file an additional sworn statement on or before July 1, 1971 to include the additional two years.

Water authorities have explained there will never be enough water in Texas for each individual to have an equal share. Therefore, available public waters must be appropriated to individuals based on priority, necessity and legal rights. The Water Rights Adjudication Act is designed to protect the rightful users of public waters from waste and unlawful users.

The Act empowers the Commission to adjudicate water rights in the State. Adjudication of a stream may be initiated upon the Commission's own motion, by a petition signed by ten or more claimants of water rights on the same stream, or upon a petition by the Texas Water Development Board.

The new law contains procedures to insure due process and notice. Judicial review of the Commission's final determination is mandatory.

The eventual determination in every water right adjudication will be final. The Water Rights Adjudication Act provides, "Except for domestic and livestock purposes or rights subsequently acquired by permit, no water rights shall be recognized in the adjudicated stream or segment unless included in the final decree."

Upon final determination of water rights on a stream, the Commission will issue a certificate of adjudication to each person found to have a water right. All permits for unappropriated water granted after a stream is adjudicated will be administered in the same manner as an adjudicated right.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act involves three basic premises. The Act provides for up-to-date recording of all water rights claims in the State, for the adjudication of these rights on streams upon filing of necessary petitions, and for the administration of adjudicated rights during times of water shortage.

The Recording Forms may be obtained free of charge from the Texas Water Rights Commission, P. O. Box 12396, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Mr. and Mrs. Herley Moreman and Mrs. Jack Moreman and Susan visited in Plainview Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes and attended a reception honoring their daughter, Miss Kathy Hughes, who is to be married in December to Tommy Dalton. The Social was given by Mr. and Mrs. Paine Dalton, parents of the groom-to-be.

Services Conducted At Clarendon Sat. For A. H. Moore

Funeral services for Andrew Hayden Moore, 73, of Clarendon were conducted at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 18, in the First Baptist Church in Clarendon. Burial was in the Citizens Cemetery there.

Mr. Moore died Thursday in Hall County Hospital from injuries received in a one-car accident on Farm Road 1941 six miles southwest of Memphis Thursday morning.

He was born in Yantis and moved to Clarendon in 1945. He owned and operated the A. H. Moore Water Well Drilling Co.

Mr. Moore was a member of the First Baptist Church and Masonic Lodge and was a veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife, three daughters, six sons, three sisters, a brother and 18 grandchildren.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to take this means of thanking the friends who were so kind to us in our recent sorrow. We especially want to thank those who sent the beautiful floral offerings and those who sent cards of sympathy. Each act of kindness was deeply appreciated.

Nine Memphians Attend District Scout Banquet

Nine Memphis Scouts and Scout leaders attended the Comanche District Banquet held in Wheeler High School last Saturday night.

Steve Odom, Council Executive, of Pampa, from the Adobe Walls Scout Council, was the principal speaker.

Attending the banquet from Memphis were, Senior Patrol Leader Gary Sims, Asst. Patrol Leader Larry Moss, Scoutmaster and Mrs. Les Sims, Asst. Scoutmaster J. D. Baisden, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tribble.

"It was an excellent banquet, with fine food — turkey and dressing with all the trimmings — and an excellent talk by Executive Odom," Scoutmaster Sims said.

It's sad, but true, that a tax hike will take more out of you than a Boy Scout hike.

Public Notice

PUBLIC NOTICE OF THE REQUIREMENT FOR RECORDATION AND LIMITATION OF CERTAIN CLAIMS OF WATER RIGHTS.

Notice is here given as required by Section 4 of the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967

(Article 7542a, Vernon's Civil Statutes) that all claims of riparian water rights, all claims under Article 7500a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, to impound, divert or use public waters for other than domestic and livestock purposes for which no permit has been issued, all claims of water rights under the Irrigation Acts of 1889 and 1895 which were not filed with the State Board of Water Engineers in accordance with the Irrigation Act of 1913, as amended, and all other claims of water rights other than claims under permits and certified filings, must be recorded with the Texas Water Rights Commission. Section 4 does not apply to use of water for domestic and livestock purposes as the same is defined by Commission Rules.

On or before September 1, 1969, every person claiming any water right to which Section 4 applies shall file with the Commission a sworn statement setting forth the nature of the claim of water right. Claims to which the Section applies shall be recognized only if valid under existing law and only to the extent of actual application of water to beneficial use without waste during any calendar year from 1963 to 1970, inclusive. However, in any case where any claimant of a riparian right has prior to August 28, 1967, commenced or completed the construction of works designed to apply a greater quantity of water to beneficial use, such right shall be recognized to the extent of the maximum amount of water actually applied to beneficial use without waste during any calendar year from 1963 to 1970, inclusive. An additional sworn statement is filed on or before July 1, 1971. Failure to file a sworn statement or statement of substantial compliance with Section 4 shall extinguish and any claim of water right to which the Section applies.

Instructions and forms for recording claims may be obtained without cost from the Texas Water Rights Commission, P. O. Box 12396, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

C Of C Committee Urges Cooperation In Christmas Lighting Contest

Now is the time to begin planning for Christmas Home decorations, Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, committee chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Lighting Contest, stated this week.

"It will be just three more weeks until the judging on Dec. 15 and we would like for every home in Memphis to be decorated before the judges arrive. Many are already making plans for outdoor decorations and some of these will be very elaborate and we know the citizens of Memphis will be proud of the displays," she continued.

"We urge the business houses to cooperate even though no prize is offered in the business area, they will be judged for first, second and third places," Mrs. Kinard stated.

Three cash prizes will be awarded to outside home and yard decorations. First place winner will receive $15.00; second place $10.00 and third place $5.00. The most attractive picture window in the home area will receive $10.00; the second place $7.50 and third place winner $2.50.

Judging will be done on Dec. 15 and everyone is requested to leave all lights on until midnight so no one will be overlooked, it was explained.

"Everyone cannot win, but everyone who cooperates will have a sense of loyalty and satisfaction that they had a part in making Memphis more beautiful at Christmas time," members of the Beautification Committee stated.

1913 Study Club Has Program On Indian History

The 1913 Study Club met Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Byron Baldwin.

Mrs. Herschel Combs, president, conducted the business session at which time Mrs. M. G. Tarver reported the Halloween UNICEF drive amounted to $177.10.

Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard announced that the club would again sponsor the Christmas decoration contest for homes, windows and business houses.

Mrs. Ed Hutcherson introduced the American Heritage program. Mrs. Ralph Williams presented a very interesting program on "The Romance of Princess Habunsta of the Nadarko Tribe." Mrs. Williams in the granddaughter of the Princess and she was dressed in Indian costume, wearing antique Indian beads. She displayed beautiful tribal artifacts among which was a peace pipe. The Indians in council always took six puffs on it, one for heaven, one for earth and four for the four winds, she said.

The Nadarkos were a tribe of the Caddos who were peaceful and friendly, excellent horsemen and basket weavers. The tribe has been associated with the history of Anadarko since 1859.

Mrs. Williams' grandfather was William Shirley, the first white government interpreter for the Indians, also, a trader from New Orleans. He married Princess Habunsta (meaning small) in 1867. She was the daughter of Nadarko Chief Tomas, an only child. Mrs. Williams' father was the Shirley's only child named Harry Edward Shirley. He lived with Mrs. Williams 23 years after her mother died. He was an avid reader and taught her and her brother the love of reading. He said that as long as you read you may be alone but not lonely.

The source material from the Smithsonian Institute and the speeches of Indian chiefs were very enlightening.

Mrs. Baldwin served delicious refreshments to the following, other than the above mentioned, members: Mmes. Sherron Lee, Paul Montgomery, Virginia Browder, Dennis Ward, R. S. Greene, Joe Montgomery, Geo. Ferris, F. W. Foxhall, and one guest, Mrs. Kermit Voelkel.

Hutcherson Home Is Scene For Bethel Class Meet

The Bethel Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday, Nov. 14, in the home of Mrs. Ida Hutcherson.

Mrs. Henry Scott, president, called the meeting to order after which Mrs. Nettie Adams led the group prayer.

An inspirational devotional was given by Mrs. Omer Hill using as her text scripture from Genesis 8, the first altar built unto the Lord, and Luke 17, where the ten lepers were healed and only one returned giving thanks. Jesus said, "Thy faith hath made thee whole." Mrs. Hill closed with a poem written by Mary Bownds and a prayer.

The secretary, Mrs. Leonard Wilson, read the minutes of the previous meeting. Group leaders gave reports and Mrs. Edna Merill gave the benevolence report. During the business session, plans were made and discussed for a Christmas party. The meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Henry Hays.

Mrs. A. J. Fowler, program chairman, introduced Mrs. T. L. Rouse who played three original compositions. Two were Thanksgiving songs and the other was a variation of "I Need Thee Ever Hour."

The group sang the class song, "Bless Be the Tie That Binds." The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Leonard Wilson.

A tasty refreshment plate was served during the social hour by the hostess, Mrs. Ida Hutcherson, Mrs. Anna Mauck and Mrs. Amanda Simpson.

Members present were Mmes. Omer Hill, T. L. Rouse, Allie Caviness, Christine Hays, Ruby Randolph, Ethel Fowler, Ocie Scott, Iva Smith, Edna Merrill, Nettie Adams, Pauline Wilson, Sybil Gurley, Bill Billington, and Emma Baskerville.

We are still Pilgrims

We no longer give thanks around a rough wooden table in a forest clearing. Our problems and rewards have taken different shapes too, but they are basically the same. We are still making a pilgrimage, the same search for a fuller and more fruitful life under freedom of religion. And we are still thankful for the faith that sees us through adversity and guides us on that pilgrimage. Thanksgiving Day was named for its meaning—the day that we come together to give thanks for our faith and our full life . . . and to remember that we are still pilgrims. This Thanksgiving Day, give your thanks, strengthen your faith, enlighten your pilgrimage, at your place of worship.

'68 Cyclone Schedule Has Tough Opponents

The 1968 Memphis Cyclone football schedule was officially released this week and appears to be one of the toughest schedules in recent years.

On the schedule next year will be four defending district championship squads, two of which are bi-district winners with good possibility of going far in the state play-offs this year.

The schedule opens with the traditional game between Memphis and Clarendon on Sept. 13, which will again be played at Cyclone Stadium. Clarendon won District 2-A and advanced to Regional contest with a victory over Gruver.

The second game on Sept. 20 is also a home game and will be between Gruver and Memphis. Gruver won the Dist. 1-A championship this year.

The third game will be played either Friday night Sept. 27 or Saturday night, Sept. 28, as Memphis travels to Phillips for a game with the Blackhaws. Phillips downed Iowa Park in Bi-District 16-0 last weekend and will play Denver City in the Regional game this weekend.

District 2-AA

The Cyclone will compete in District 2-AA for the next two years, leaving the District 3-AA ranks of the South Plains and joining the ranks of the Red River valley teams including Shamrock, Childress, Quanah, Iowa Park, Electra, Seymour and Wellington.

District opens on Oct. 4 as the Fighting Irish of Shamrock visit Cyclone Stadium in what promises the first of several tough contests.

E. I. Adams—

Pall bearers will be Bob Ayers, Boyce Bruce, Orval Phillips, J. M. Ferrel, Jr., A. Womack and Wendell Harrison.

Tim Holland—

Following the Court of Honor, the Scouts receiving their Eagle badges lined up and the audience passed down the line shaking hands with each of the boys.

Afterwards, there was a reception in the Garden Room under sponsorship of Troop 406 of Lubbock.

Memphis travels to Childress on Oct. 1, as the Bobcats drop into the Class AA ranks after a fruitless two years as a Class AAA team.

On Oct. 8, the Cyclone travels to Quanah, always a strong football power.

Then on Oct. 25, the Cyclone will play host to the Iowa Park Hawks, defending championship team for the past two years in District 2-AA.

The schedule calls for a Nov. 1 game at Electra, and a Nov. 8 game with Seymour at Memphis. The final game on the schedule on Nov. 15, is a contest between the Cyclone and the Wellington Skyrockets at Wellington.

Memphis Cagers—

(continued from page 1) what proved to be an upsetting night for the Cyclone. Judge Smith was not suited out and the Cyclone could not seem to generate enough scoring to keep up with the polished Owls from Hedley. Hedley won the game 47 to 38 after taking the lead 11 to 9 in the first period. Tom Hill had 14 points for Hedley while Tony Pounds had 18 for Memphis.

Tuesday night at Quail, in the girls game, the Cyclonette was trailing 18 to 8 at halftime, but a determined second half won for them a 30 to 27 victory in a hard fought defensive contest. Connie Moore did a fine job at guard the last half, Coach Denzil Lacy said.

Cynthia Evans scored 18 points while Quail's Joyce Johnson scored 11. Quail had 5 field goals during the game.

In the boys game, the Quails took a 15 to 8 lead in the first period and went on to win the contest 56 to 42. Judge Smith was high point man for Memphis with 16 and Quail's Gerald Fielding had 15.

Estelline Young Farmers To Meet Monday Night

The Estelline Young Farmers will meet in regular session at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Nov. 27, in the Agriculture Building at Estelline. Danny Davidson, reporter, announced this week.

The program will be brought by a specialist on hog and cattle nutrition.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

More than 1,000 miles of new highway are under construction in Texas at all times.

several other clerks and laborers. Voelkel stated. Classers are Buck Harbison of Houston and Billy Joe Mullis of Augusta, Ga. New clerks include Wanda Phillips, Fern Webster of Hedley, Carolyn Myers, Marie Chavez and Tanga Widener, all of Memphis. David Hudgins of Lakeview is the new laborer.

The quality of cotton classed this week showed 28 per cent were white grades, 68 per cent Light Spotted, and 4 per cent Spotted. This compared with 41 per cent, 57 per cent, and 2 per cent, respectively, last week. The four leading grades continued to be: Middling, 16 per cent; Strict Low Middling, 11 per cent; Middling Light Spotted, 56 per cent; and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted, 7 per cent. The small amount of cotton reduced in grade because of Bark is an indication that farmers are doing a good job in harvesting this year's production.

The predominant staple length was 15-16 inch with 54 per cent. Other lengths were: 29-32, 2 per cent; 31-32, 29 per cent; 1 inch, 9 per cent; 1 1-32 inches, 2 per cent; and 1 1-16 inches and longer, 4 per cent.

The micronaire readings were practically unchanged from last week, with 81 per cent reading 3.5-4.9, the premium range, compared with 82 per cent. Twelve per cent read 3.4 and lower and 7 per cent 5.0 and over.

Pressley strength tests reflected slightly weaker fiber than last week. This week 68 per cent tested 75,000 pounds per square inch and above compared with 72 per cent the previous week.

Cotton prices paid farmers advanced from 155 to 295 points during the week for the chief qualities selling. The average prices paid for cotton with 3.5-4.9 mike readings were Middling, 15-16, 19.80; Middling, 31-32, 22.75; Middling, 1 inch, 26.55; Middling Light Spotted, 15-16, 19.30; Middling Light Spotted, 31-32, 22.15; and Middling Light Spotted, 1 inch, 24.55.

Cottonseed advanced $2 per ton early in the week, bringing the farmer $57 at most gin points. The state average was $56.30.
