Methodists To Consecrate New Building This Sunday

Tickets For 49th Annual C. Of C. Banquet On Sale

Tickets are going on sale this week at $3 each for the 49th Annual Banquet of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce and Hall County Board of Development, scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 18, 7:30 p. m.

The speaker for the affair will be Lee D. Herring, vice president of the Grand Prairie State Bank, outstanding after dinner speaker.

Mr. Herring began his flourish-and-career on the knife-and-fork debut in a Will Rogers manner. His time back, Herring got up and talked. Everybody laughed. And ever since, audiences all over the South and Southwest have been listening and laughing, and listening to Lee Herring jokes and his.

Herring likes to use original material. Many of these come from his own family situations. (Continued on Page 12)

Memphis Water Rate Increases

At its December meeting, the Memphis City Council granted a general rate increase to the Donnell County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, the authority furnishing water to the city of Memphis, Frank B. Foxhall, manager, announced this week.

This rate increase becomes effective with the January billing.

Under the new rates, the minimum billing will be $2.50 for first 2,000 gallons of water against a minimum of $2.00 for the old rates. Steps in the structure for additional gallons of water, above the minimum, have also been raised accordingly.

It was pointed out in the announcement that this was the first general rate increase for water in more than 10 years, and the rate increase was deemed necessary to take care of the general increase in the cost of doing business.

Classroom space for all the church school pupils with new furnishing throughout is another feature of the newly completed church building.

The public is invited to participate in any or all the activities, it was announced.

The building has been complete at a total cost of approximately $235,000. The sanctuary has 12 faceted glass windows which have the symbols of the apostles in them. The building's sanctuary will seat approximately 325 people.

Final Plans Being Made For $1 Million Housing Project

Plans are in the final stage now for the construction of a $1 million Federal Housing Project for Memphis, Gene Hamill, chairman of the Memphis Housing Authority, announced this week.

"The land has been purchased and a target date of March 1, 1969, has been set for bidding on the contract," Hamill said.

Actually, the housing project is in two parts, Housing for the Elderly and Low Rent Housing. Construction will be on two separate sites in Memphis, it was announced.

Hamill explained that this is a Federal housing project, and that no tax obligations to the City of Memphis is required. Federal funds will be paid back over a 40-year period by the local Housing Authority from proceeds from the rent charged. The Housing Authority also pays city and school taxes, he said.

The Housing for Elderly will be located on one-half of the block between 5th and 6th Streets on Robertson, and these will contain 20 units, one bedroom.

The other 20 units and the Community Building for the Elderly will be on the old Cicero-Smith Lumber Co. property between Noel and Robertson, 4th and 5th Streets. These will contain some two-bedroom units.

"This is not a nursing type complex," Hamill stated. "Residents will have to be physically able to live without continuous nursing care. The complex will be available to any elderly person in Hall County."

The Community Building will be open to all elderly residents of this area, not just residents of the complex. An entire program of entertainment and education for the elderly will be held in this building. The program includes such things as classes on cooking, hobbies, and handicraft, game tournaments and parties. This building also contains administration offices and maintenance rooms as well as an automatic laundry for use by elderly residents in the complex.

The Low Rent Housing complex will be located east of the State Highway Department Barn, facing State Highway 256. This will contain 20 units of two and three bedroom housing.

Rent on both the Low Rent and Elderly Housing is based on the applicant's income.

The local Housing Authority is composed of: Gene Hamill, chairman, M. G. Tarver, vice chairman, George Scott, David Hamblin and D. H. Pope. T. B. Rogers is the executive director for the authority.

A full-time maintenance man will be hired to maintain the buildings and yards, Hamill said.

The local authority has pre-

For the fourth consecutive year, total assets and total deposits of the three Hall County financial institutions have set new record highs, according to statements of condition figures which are being published this week.

The comparison shows that the citizens of the county went into 1969 with the best financial report in history, surpassing last year's record high by approximately one and a half million dollars.

At the close of business on Dec. 31, 1968, the assets of the three county banks combined to a total of $18,757,812.13, which was $1,587,536.73 above the figure of a year ago.

Looking at the total deposits figure, it is seen that the same trend follows with a grand total of $17,295,628.30, or an increase of $1,479,920.98 over the 1967 year end figure.

An examination of past reports reveal that since December, 1964, total deposits in Hall County banks have increased by approximately $5 million.

Also higher than last year's figure was the loan and discounts total of the three county banks, which is $8,838,135.52. This is $1,143,910.25 above last year's total.

The First State Bank, the First National Bank, Memphis, and the Peoples State Bank, of Turkey, have statements of condition published in this issue which reflect the record high financial condition of Hall County.

Harvest Total Climbs To 61,458 Bales; Cotton Classing Office Closes Monday

With approximately 200 bales left to be harvested, the 1968 Hall County cotton harvest total climbed to 61,458 bales, a survey by telephone of the 13 gins revealed this morning.

This crop will go into the record books as one of the highest bales-per-acre yields of possibly any cotton crop in the history of Hall County, although the number of bales produced does not set any record.

County ginners estimated that there remains only about 200 bales left to be harvested; so this will be The Democrat's final ginning report.

The U. S. Bureau of Census will release the official total of the county in February or March and this total will be used to determine winners in the annual cotton guessing contest, sponsored by this newspaper.

"It is obvious now that only the more optimistic guessers in the contest will have a chance at the prize," Editor Bill Combs stated this morning.

Classing Report
W. E. Cain, officer in charge of the Memphis Cotton Classing Office, announced today that the local office would receive samples through Monday, Jan. 20, and then close down for the season.

So far this season, the office here has classed 182,218 samples as of today, Cain reported. Samples after the closing date here will be classed in the Altus office, he said.

Quality of grades declined last week. Light Spotted grades accounted for 60 per cent, Spotted grades were 29 per cent, and 5 per cent were Tinged and lower.

Staples classed showed 8 per cent 15-16, 51 per cent 31-32, and 36 per cent 1 inch in length.

Micronaire readings showed 5 per cent 2.9 or less, 22 per cent 3.0 through 3.4, and 70 per cent miked in the desirable range of 3.5 to 4.3.

Pressley showed the weekly average of Greenbelt area cotton to be 81,000 and the season average of 82,000 pounds per sq. in.

Don G. Cockrell was elected president of the First State Bank in Memphis Thursday, Jan. 9, at the annual stockholders meeting in a session which reorganized the official family of the bank. He succeeds L. C. Martin, who had served as the bank's executive vice president and later as president since 1953.

Mr. Martin will continue to be active in operating the bank as vice chairman of the board of directors.

After the meeting, it was announced that the same board of directors were re-elected, with the addition of Vincent D. Kickerillo and Mr. Cockrell. Mr. Kickerillo will serve as chairman of the board.

Among the officers re-elected by the stockholders were M. Paul Smith, vice president; Danny Scarbrough, cashier, Starr Johnson and Mrs. Sylvia Alewine, assistant cashiers.

Mr. Cockrell stated that he was proud to be associated with the First State Bank, which has shown progress for many years.

"It is our aim to continue the same courteous and personal service to the bank's loyal customers as they have received in the past," Pres. Cockrell stated early this week.

Members of the board of directors are: Don Cockrell, G. M. Duren, Crump Ferrel, Carroll Fowler, John A. Fowler, Dr. O. R. Goodall, Bob Hutcherson, L. C. Martin, Vincent D. Kickerillo, Dr. J. A. Odom, M. Paul Smith, and Billy Thompson.

Your Vote Is Important!

Many citizens of Hall County would be disappointed when the time comes to vote this year because they did not register and receive their 1969 certificate.

This has been brought to our attention by the announcement last week by Melissa Anderson, Hall County tax assessor and collector. We join with other thoughtful people in urging everyone to take the time necessary to obtain registration certificates. There is no charge. The old poll tax payment is not required, as is well known.

Every person who is 21 years of age or older must register before midnight, Jan. 31, to be eligible to cast a ballot in any election held this year. The regular election of school trustees in all districts, and aldermen and councilmen in Memphis, Lakeview, Estelline and Turkey are forthcoming. To vote for the candidate or candidates of your choice, a registration certificate is necessary.

Also, there is the possibility of special elections. What if a bond issue is to be decided; or a special election in November upon constitutional amendments? To be able to voice your decision at the polls, you must be qualified to vote.

It will take only a few minutes of any citizen's time to get the certificate. Appear at the county tax assessor and collector's office and sign an application card, which personnel there will fill out for anyone. Special arrangements have been made for residents of the Turkey area to appear at the offices of Loetta Ferguson or Jean Lyles. They are authorized to issue registration certificates.

Remember that Jan. 31 is the deadline. Do not disfranchise yourself or allow members of your family to do so.

How ancient is the art of hammer throwing?

Throwing as competition goes back at least to the Roman Empire. The Romans competed by throwing a chariot wheel, holding it by its axle. Elsewhere strong men of ancient days exhibited their strength by throwing a sledge hammer. King Henry VIII is said to have thrown a sledge hammer on field days. Doubtless, this was to impress members of his court.

The hammer which is thrown today is a metal ball. It is approximately sixteen pounds in weight, and four inches in diameter. It has a handle, joined to the ball by a spring steel wire. According to rules, this wire may not exceed four feet.

What Other Editors Say

Do away with people?

A paperboard plant in Baltimore has fired the man who cuts the grass around the premises and retained a goat instead. The goat isn't perfect, but he does a creditable job and is fairly easy to get along with. Understandably, this brings a complaint from the union, whose officials observed sharply: "Next they will probably be hiring chimpanzees for the board mill."

It's a thought, and it is by no means as outlandish as it may seem. If goats can do a passable job on the grass, chimpanzees, with their higher order of skills, deserve a chance in the mill.

People, as nearly every observer has noted, have grown too expensive. They cannot afford each other. They are, in fact, a luxury item, and this, added to all of their disagreeable qualities, most of which are ineradicable, affords a glimpse of the future.

Eventually, everything that is not done by machine will be done by the dumb beasts, and people, as they like to call themselves, will be left to work for the government.

How to raise a delinquent

Begin with infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way, he will grow up believing the world owes him a living.

When he picks up "bad" words or "dirty" words, laugh at him. That will make him think he is "cute." He will run off and pick up some other words that will blow the top off your head.

Never give him any spiritual training until he is 21, and then let him decide for himself. By the same logic, never teach him the English language. Maybe when he is old enough, he will want to speak Bantu.

Praise him in his presence to all the neighbors: show how much smarter he is than the neighbor's children.

Avoid the use of the word "wrong". It may develop in the child a "guilt complex". This will prepare him to believe that when he is punished later on for stealing cars or assaulting women that society is "against him" and that he is being "persecuted."

Pick up everything after him, his shoes, his books, his clothes. Do everything for him so that he will be experienced in throwing burdens on others.

Let him read anything he wants. Have no concern whatever for what goes into his mind. Provide him with paper cups for his lips, but let his brain drink out of any dirty container for words and ideas.

Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. In this way they will be prepared for broken homes later on.

Give him all the spending money he wants; never let him earn his own.

Satisfy every craving of the child for food, drinks and everything that has to do with the sense of taste and touch, gratifying very sensual desire.

Take his part against policemen, teachers, and neighbors. They are all "perjudiced" against your child.

When he gets into real trouble, always defend yourself and say, "I never could do anything with him."

Short Sermon For Young Men

Success in life depends to a large degree on personality. William Barrett Millard, late Clergyman and writer, at one time wrote some terse rules for young ministers, from which are deduced the following points, pertinent to young men in particular:

Pray every night and shave every morning.

Keep your conscience clean; also linen.

Let your light shine, and shine your shoes.

Press your advantages, your opportunities, and your trousers.

Brush the cobwebs from your brain and the dandruff from your collar.

Beware of a reputation for bad breath and rancid jokes. Both alike offend.

Covet a golden tongue more than a greenback.

Records Reflect Management Practices

"Closing time" as it relates to 1968 farm records, is at hand. This means totaling up the balance sheets on farm and home enterprises and taking a close, hard look at what has happened during the past year.

A close look should point up the problems that must be met in planning for 1969 and the years ahead, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser. Records often reflect whether management changes are needed and also whether an enterprise should be expanded or dropped.

Furthermore, a complete set of records is a must for proper income tax reporting. Regularly kept records can save dollars at tax paying time for deductible expenses are often overlooked, especially if paid for in cash.

Too, adds Hooser, complete farm records are an asset when money must be borrowed for production and operating expenses. Knowing what the business is doing makes a strong talking point in making necessary credit arrangement. Farm families need facts on which to base their decisions and none are more reliable than those obtained from well-kept farm records.

Local county agents can supply information and suggestions for the kind of record system needed in today's complicated farming and ranching operations.

Another requirement is that the disabled widow must have become disabled during a specified period. Her disability must have started before her husband's death, or within 7 years after his death. If she received mother's benefits because she had minor children in her care at his death, her disability must have started within 7 years after these benefits ended.

A widow who becomes entitled to a disability benefit under this new provision is paid a reduced rate. If she becomes entitled at age 50, she will get 50 percent of her deceased husband's amount. If she is over 50 when she becomes entitled, she gets a greater percentage amount. The amount of the reduction depends on the number of months she receives benefits before age 62. Totally disabled widows should contact the social security office right away. Remember, no benefits can be paid unless an application is filed.

This inside information should chill speculators. The price of gold remains normal even when mercury drops to zero.

Most people know that a widow may be entitled to social security benefits on her husband's record at age 60," says Travis C. Gags, manager of the social security office in Amarillo. "A very important change in the social security law now permits payments to many widows who are between 50 and 60 years old and who are unable to work because of disability."

Glenda Dale Moore And Jerry Scott Marry In Childress Church Rites

In a double ring ceremony solemnized Dec. 21 in Childress, Miss Glenda Dale Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Harold Moore of Childress, became the bride of Jerry Lynn Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott of Memphis.

The Rev. Gene Joplin read the marriage vows at 8 p. m. in the Calvary Baptist Church, Childress. Mrs. Francis Crawford, organist, provided the music for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace shift embroidered with silver metallic roses featuring white organza collar and cuffs. Small rhinestone buttons accented the dress front and her caplet was of matching white lace.

She carried a white Bible topped with a corsage of red carnations showered with satin leaves and ribbons. She carried out the traditional bridal custom of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue with a six-pence in her shoe.

The couple's only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Gerald Cunningham. Mrs. Cunningham wore a long sleeved dress of white brocade with a corsage of red carnations.

Mrs. Moore, mother of the bride, wore a dress of hot pink accented with black accessories. Mrs. Scott, mother of the groom, wore a blue two-piece suit. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Moore were hosts for a reception in the church annex.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Franklin LeCroy, Mrs. Hubert Manuel, and Mrs. Ruth Roundtree.

Guests were registered by Miss Carolyn Lambert.

The bride's table was laid with a white lace cloth overlaid with deep pink and centered with an arrangement of red velvet roses, silver bells and rings.

The three tiered wedding cake of white was decorated with red roses and green leaves and was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For a wedding trip to Seattle, Wash., the bride chose for travel a three-piece brown suit.

The newlyweds will reside in Seattle where the groom is serving with the U. S. Army and is stationed at Fort Lawton.

Mrs. Scott is a graduate of Childress High School.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Memphis High School and has been serving with the U. S. Army for the past six years. He will receive his discharge in September, 1969. He is presently taking IBM training.

Secrecy' To Be Rule On Phone Conversations

To further the secrecy of communications, changes have been made in handling requests to determine if a local telephone is in or out of order.

The announcement of the change was made today by Sheri T. Lee, division manager for General Telephone Company of Southwest.

"Extreme caution has always been taken by the telephone industry in honoring the secrecy of communications; however, as communications equipment and customers become more and more sophisticated, it becomes necessary to close any loopholes which might be to our attention," Lee said.

"In the past, when a customer and a telephone number busy, often requested an operator to determine if there was conversation on the line. We have honored the request to be sure the telephone was not unknowingly out of service," Lee explained.

"Under the new procedure," she said, "the number can be verified to determine if there is conversation on the line only if the requesting party indicates (1) if the call is urgent, or (2) an emergency, and (3) wants the conversation interrupted. The name and telephone number of the person asking for the interruption is requested before an op-

Detimore said he would reveal an 11-point program for the 1969 activities of the organization.

Fish Kill Seen At Buffalo Lake

CANYON — A fish kill which left from 30,000 to 40,000 channel catfish lying on the banks of Buffalo Lake 15 miles southwest of Canyon has been attributed to a lowering of resistance due to a falling water level compounded by the possibility of a virus and algae toxin.

Jack Crabtree, inland fisheries biologist for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, says the fish kill is probably associated with the water quality of Buffalo Lake but only insofar as the quality of the water was one stress factor among several.

Every species of fish was represented in the kill, but Crabtree says 99 per cent of the fish killed were channel catfish. He said the fish along the shoreline represented only a fraction of the total kill since many of the fish sank to the bottom of the lake.

According to Crabtree, fish seemingly ready to die evidenced survival when removed from lake water and placed in fresh water.

"Of course, if there is some reason to believe that the number is out of order, a customer is still asked to notify the operator who can have the number checked," Lee explained. "If there is trouble, it will be reported to repair service by the operator."

Historically, up to sixteen percent of all "assistance" calls to the operator — other than placing a long distance call — are to determine if a telephone is in use or out of order.

Lee emphasized that the telephone company will, on every occasion, determine whether a line is in trouble or not. However, now the information will be reported to repair service instead of the customer.

U. S. Treasury Department Reports—

Community Property Law Affects All Married Taxpayers In Texas

(The following article has been prepared by the staff of the District Director of Internal Revenue Service in Dallas, and is published to give additional explanation of tax benefits available to Texans under the community property law.)

Taxpayers don't like to read instructions. However, the Internal Revenue Service points out that married Texans who fail to read the community property instructions (Document 555, available at IRS offices) may cost themselves even more than the taxpayers throughout the country who don't want to take the trouble to read the regular 1040 instructions. In Texas you may need to read both.

The Dallas District Office, covering the Northern half of Texas, emphasizes that there are three special areas affected by the Community property law that may provide tax savings:

1) An additional dividend exclusion of $100.

2) An extra capital loss of $1,000 (if they file separate returns), and

3) Additional retirement income credit worth up to $228.60 in tax savings.

Although all married taxpayers in Texas are affected by the community property requirements, divorced taxpayers and taxpayers not divorced but separated and living apart, are forced to split their income on separate returns under community property requirements. Since a gift of community property is made equally by husband and wife, Texas taxpayers make larger gifts to their children (or others) without paying a federal tax.

And finally, both halves of the community property are re-evaluated to fair market value on the date of death of either spouse. This can save a large amount of income tax on the sale of property after your spouse has died.

There are more than 900,000 married couples who are required to file income tax returns from Northern Texas in 1968. Income tax filing statistics of past years indicate that these families (1,800,000 individuals) will report about nine billion in income on their 1968 returns. These couples have to either file a joint return or split the community income, deductions, and credits with their spouse and each file on one half on their separate returns. In some cases, community property creates a considerable tax saving for the taxpayer. Internal Revenue is required to follow the state law on who is entitled to the income in all cases.

There are 93 two-way radio channels available to the trucking industry. The firms have 4,300 base stations and 65,000 mobile units, which provide instant communication between the dispatchers and drivers.

A school-age youngster will always be why he has to go to bed when he isn't sleepy and get up when he is.

Many a wife tries to hide her husband's faults—and some have to work overtime doing the job.

Old age is not a time of life—it is a state of mind.

B. G. Douthit Is GTC's Local Plant Supervisor

B. G. Douthit has been named division plant superintendent for the Memphis Division, according to Sherron T. Lee, division manager for General Telephone Company.

Douthit will be responsible for and direct the company plant operations in the division consisting of 30 towns. He will be headquartered in Memphis.

The new division plant superintendent will be moving to Memphis from Perryton where he has served as district plant supervisor for the past 20 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Douthit have three children, David who is attending Clarendon Junior College as a sophomore and Meredith and Ricky of the home.

The family will move to Memphis as soon as living quarters can be located. They are members of the Baptist Church.

W. A. Leigon, Western Area manager of General Telephone Company of the Southwest, said, "With Douthit's appointment to this newly created position, we are realigning and strengthening our supervision to give the best possible service."

A native of Plainview, Douthit began his telephone career as a lineman in 1948 at Littlefield. Since that time he has held various positions in the company. He is a graduate of Plainview High School.

Estelline, Texas
I am writing this for the sake of my children and many others across our state of Texas. I wonder how many people really know what changes are about to take place in our school systems.

The Governor's Committee on Public School Education has recommended a program which in part calls for consolidation of our schools. This means in the case of Hall County, one central school system.

Let us consider the welfare of the rural child. The transportation of so many rural children in a central system would mean grave hardships in many instances. The time required, would not only tax a child's energy, but would cut down on his home life greatly. There is a lot of talk about school drop-outs, and it seems to me that this change isn't going to help at all. The child will not, in most cases, be able to participate in school activities. I know the larger variety of subjects offered in larger schools is an advantage, but this will not compensate for what he will be giving up. Students from small schools consistently have good records, better percentage wise, than these from larger systems.

Do we want a school system so large that the personal teacher-student relationship is non-existent? When this happens then there is trouble. The records of larger schools have already proved this. Look at your newspapers. They tell us what is happening in our larger school systems.

Another reason, in my opinion for opposing this change, is that it is being forced upon us. This violates a principle of American life namely, the right of a person to choose the type of school his child should attend.

I have talked to people who say we can't do anything about the change, they will do what

Choose Caulking Suited For Exact Structure Type

"These nippy temperatures may remind Texas homeowners to check the house for air and water tightness. A little mending now may avoid damage to the structure and save on that winter fuel bill," reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser.

Look for places around the house where caulking may have shrunk or fallen out. This is where moisture and cold air will enter. Check for air leaks at windows, doorsills, and joints where brick and siding come together. Choose a caulking that best suits the need when filling these holes, the agent advises. Oil-base caulking is the least expensive but does not last as long as the newer products. Latex caulking shrinks less and goes on well over dried-out oil caulking.

Use a butyl rubber-base caulking around metals, such as storm windows, air conditioners, or pipes for outside faucets. Butyl rubber-base caulking sticks to almost any material, allows for expansion, and takes extremes in temperatures.

Rubber-base caulking is of two kinds — butyl rubber and silicone rubber. Silicone rubber, the more expensive kind, comes in a nearly invisible type that works best on picture windows. A gray silicone rubber can be used for patching leaky seams in gutters. The silicone type will not take paint, however.

Choose the best caulking for the job, then read carefully and follow the directions for applying it. Don't work where surfaces are damp. And, in cold weather, the caulking may be too stiff to work.

For bathtubs, showers, and sinks, choose polyvinyl acetate caulking. It's very flexible, forms a white waterproof seam, and is highly mildew-resistant — a necessary requirement around plumbing.

YOUR COUNTY AGENT SAYS

Producing Longer Staple Cotton Still Best Bet

A kind of dilemma is facing many cotton farmers on the Texas Plains concerning the growing of longer staple varieties. There has been a rapid movement to the production of longer fibered cottons over the last two years, but prices during the past season have been disappointing to growers. At present, textile mills are more interested in shorter staple cotton because they are cheaper.

County Agricultural Agent W. B. Hooser says a partial answer goes back to last year's market activity. Stocks of longer staple cottons have increased rapidly relative to short staple cottons. As a result, mills have a good supply of long staple cotton on hand. Furthermore, last year's wide price spread between short and long staple cotton was an abnormal situation and could not be expected to remain.

In most cases, however, longer staple cotton is still bringing $15 to $25 more per bale than short staple cotton, points out Hooser. Another encouraging aspect is that cotton breeders are developing longer staple, stormproof varieties which have the yield ability of popular 15/16-inch cottons.

In yield trials in Dawson County the past season, researchers from the Texas A&M University Agricultural Center at Lubbock found that new stormproof cotton with an inch plus staple averaged slightly more in yield than old 15/16-inch staple varieties. Yield was 646 pounds of lint per acre for the longer staple varieties compared to 605 pounds for the short staple varieties.

Longer staple varieties in the trials included Paymaster 111, Lockett 4789, Lockett 4789A, Lan-kart 3840, Lambright X-15-5, Stripper-Cala S and Tamecot 788.

Hooser encourages producers in Hall County to continue to strive to produce high quality cotton. This means cotton with a relatively long, strong fiber that is well matured. Mills with increasingly higher spinning speeds will continue to need and demand longer, stronger fiber in the future.

There seems no known way to time a sneeze just right!

Now that the holidays are over, we should all get back into the groove, buckle down and get straight with the world again—financially.

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—Our daughter went to work after graduating from high school last month. Can we claim her as a dependent as long as she lives at home?

A—The general rule is that you cannot claim anyone as a dependent who has income of $6600 or more during the year. This rule would not apply to your daughter if she is under 19 or was a full-time student for any part of five calendar months of the year.

The other dependency tests must also be met. Among them is the requirement that you provide more than one-half your daughter's support for the year.

Q—I sold my house for about

$3,000 more than I paid for it ten years ago. Will that $3,000 have to be declared as income?

A—Profits from the sale of a personal residence are generally taxable. Under certain conditions, however, the tax on this gain may be postponed until a later year.

This situation may occur when, for instance, you buy a new house within a year before or after the sale of your old home and pay the same or more for the new house than you sold the old one for.

If you do have to report profit on your 1968 return, don't forget to deduct whatever costs you had in selling the house. These include broker's fee, advertising, etc. For further details, get Doc. No. 5017 by sending a post card to your district director.

Q—I'm cleaning out my files and want to get rid of some of the old papers I've collected. What records and papers should I keep for tax purposes? A—Records that support an income tax return should be kept until the statute of limitations expires for that year. Ordinarily this is 3 years from the date the return was filed. Records on property acquired with capital improvements should be kept much longer.

For example, if you sell property you have the records to establish what it cost when you acquired it and the cost of improvements you made to it. This might mean you would need records dating back 20 years or more.

Q—A friend of mine who has a car-hop at a drive-in, has to have to pay tax on her tips.

A—Yes, all tips in any business must be reported on her return. And if your friend's tips are $20 or more a while working in one place, she must report them to her employer. The employer will then hold the appropriate amount of tax and Social Security from her regular wages.

The only fellow who can't get a success out of running down is on an elevator.

What any man thinks of himself really doesn't mean until he proves it.

Wesleyan Guild Meets For Study Monday Evening

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First United Methodist Church met Monday, Jan. 13, in regular session. The meeting was called to order by the president, Pauline

Wynn. The opening prayer was given by Lillie Messer. Following a short business session, the program was introduced by Neville Wrenn, program leader. The gospel according to John was the theme of the program. Members presenting the program were Ruby Compton, Pauline Wynn and Lillie Messer. Members present, other than those mentioned above, were Annette Boswell, Viola Morris, Betty Johnson, Mazine Phillips, Ora Ritchie, Mildred Stephens, Sophia Stilwell, Ruth Fowler, Leona Greenhaw. The next meeting will be January 27. If all promises came true, tomorrow would be the busiest day of the year.

by the Bachelor's Club to make her debut at the 1968 Bachelor's Club Ball. There are 50 members in the club and they entertain the Debs at a Christmas party and dinner on Saturday evening preceding the ball. The president of the Bachelor's Club was also host at a party for the debutantes the night of the ball. Karlie is a sophomore at Rollins College in Winter Park, Fla., where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Her favorite recreation is surf, sand and water sports which she enjoys during the school term, and Hawaii is her favorite vacation spot having spent three summers there. Mrs. Kenyon before her marriage was Miss Frances Joye Capp of Lakeview. If you spend half your time minding your own business and the other half letting others mind their business, you'll stay out of lots of trouble.

Miss Karlie Kay Kenyon Makes Debut At Annual Beaux Arts Ball In Okla.

Miss Karlie Kay Kenyon, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rex Kenyon of Oklahoma City, Okla., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Capp of Lakeview, made her debut at the 23rd annual Beaux Arts Ball at Thanksgiving, so is christened at the Bachelors Club Ball at Christmas time.

Miss Kenyon was one of 18 girls chosen by the Beaux Arts Society to be presented at Thanksgiving at one of Oklahoma City's most treasured social traditions. The affair, like all that have preceded it, was a debutante ball with the group of young women in white ball gowns and carrying bouquets of flowers, making their bows. The ball benefits one of Oklahoma City's most important cultural institutions, the Oklahoma Art Center.

The debutante season officially opens with a tea when the debs are announced in June. The college men who will be their escorts are announced in early autumn. Summer and the holidays are exciting times for the young women. Suppers, brunches, dances and the like are on their busy social schedules. Miss Kenyon's parents entertained for her in August at a supper dance in the Panorama room of the Beacon Club. Several friends entertained for Karlie during the Christmas holidays.

Marked for personal delivery on Thanksgiving Day were the invitations sent out by the Bachelors Club. Traditionally the names of the honorees who are to be presented are kept secret until the ceremony. Miss Kenyon was among 19 young women selected

Moore, Hudlow Show Swine Winners In Hall County Show

Audie Moore, a Memphis 4-H Club boy, and Jay Hudlow, an Estelline 4-H Club boy, showed the Grand Champion gilt and barrow in the Annual Hall County 4-H, FFA Livestock Show here Saturday.

Hudlow also showed the reserve champion gilt and Pat Gowdy of Lakeview showed Lewis Richburg's Chester White to take reserve champion honors in the barrow division.

The boys were presented attractive trophies by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce which were engraved by Branigan's Jewelry as well as cash awards given by the Chamber.

Due to the smaller number of swine entered in the show this year, cash prizes were the best given in many a year.

"The boys brought only their best animals to show so the prize money when divided was a lot more attractive to the winners," a chamber spokesman reported. Jerry Hawkins of the Agricultural Dept. of Clarendon Jr. College served as judge for the show.

NEW VARIETIES OF FLOWERS CHOSEN FOR 1969

To the ardent gardener's delight, each new year produces an array of new and exciting flowering annuals and perennials. The All American Selections are chosen each year from the many flowering seasonal plants introduced by plant breeders.

The colorful annuals and perennials currently grace seed order catalogues so as to allow the winter gardener the opportunity to dream and plan for spring and summer. It's not too early, reminds County Agent W. B. Hooser, to begin planning for the colorful, inexpensive and easy to grow annuals and perennials. The 1969 All American Winners are rich and unique in color and are as exciting as their names.

Three new Zinnias top the charts. "Cherry Buttons," a bright pink, semi-dwarf, will highlight any garden border, and will really show off if combined with the bright rose pink blooms of "Rose Future."

"Torch," a cactus type Zinnia, produces large, rich, modern burnt-orange blooms to blend with the popular "Tropicana" rose, yellow-green coleus, or cool whites of summer petunias.

The common summer Vinca or Periwinkle introduces an unusual and not so common All American Selection for 1969. "Polka Dot" Vinca will be a must for the summer garden. This annual produces an outstanding spreading habit, adaptability and prolific blooms of white with bright red centers. The plants are low and dwarf and spread to two feet, making a perfect summer groundcover. "Polka Dot" should also add color to rock gardens, window boxes or hanging baskets.

Easy to grow, early summer bachelor's button or cornflower tops the chart this year with "Snowball" which grows 12 to 16 inches high and cloaks itself with white blooms on silvery-green foliage. This one should win the hearts of many gardeners in 1969 and will be handsome with larkspur and annual phlox.

Other new annuals for the year include an array of bright, colorful petunias: "Harvest Moon," "Tangerine," "Scarlet Mound," "Lollipop," "Pink Bell," and many others.

The popular "Carefree Geranium" of last year, adds the "Carefree Crimson" to its list for 1969. Outstanding new marigolds for the year are, "Fantastic," a bright orange, "Gay Lady," yellow, orange and gold, and "Goldie," a dwarf, bright gold, touched with red.

The perennial gloriosa daisy has its new "Irish Eyes" for the new gardening year. This summer perennial has golden - yellow blooms with an emerald center.

Isn't it funny why no one ever thinks to ask a man how he combines marriage and a career.

Many of us believe that a lot of drivers think "color" means they can resist the test when seeing "wet" signs.

A federal report says many designers consider the U. S. a "sick society." Is this because of the many pro football fans who own teams?

Local Implement Dealer Sponsors Show For Farmers

Farmers of this area have been invited to attend a special program, "Farming Frontiers '69", which will be held in Memphis Saturday Jan. 18, according to an announcement this week by W. Harrison, local John Deere dealer.

The day's activities will start 10 a. m. at Harrison Hardware Co., 605 Main Street. On display will be John Deere equipment of latest design. Also, demonstrations will be served to all those from that time until the afternoon presentation.

The "Farming Frontiers '69" program will be held in the Community Center in Memphis, starting at 1 p. m. Saturday. The feature film is a management-oriented feature about subjects which could affect every farmer.

This feature is of interest to those whose income comes from agriculture," Harrison stated. "This informative show deals the way our rural people and the crops they grow." At the end of the scheduled program, a Roll-Gard and canopy and seat belts will be given to some farmer in attendance, Harrison said.

Among the subjects which will be shown to area farmers and ranchers are the following, "Premium Prices for Preconditioned Cattle," "Learn How To Use Your Sprayer Most Effectively," "How You'll Profit from Grain and Forage Testing," "How Infrared Photography from Satellites Can Help Farmers," "Mechanical Pig," "How Much Water Does Your Crop Need," "Deep Well Irrigation," and other educational features.

"We believe we have a program which will prove beneficial to all farmers of this area," Harrison said.

G. P. Driskill, Sr. Is Buried Sun. At Turkey

Funeral services for G. P. Driskill, Sr., 72, a Turkey resident since 1920, who died Friday afternoon at his home after a long illness, were held at 2 p. m. Sunday, January 12, in the Turkey Church of Christ.

Herbert Gipson, minister of the West Amarillo Church of Christ, officiated assisted by Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ near Silverton. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Seigler Funeral Home.

Mr. Driskill, born at Crockett, was a retired plumber and construction worker and was a veteran of World War I.

He is survived by his wife, Willie; one son, G. P., Jr. of Turkey; one daughter, Mrs. Lynn Davis of Turkey; one brother, Harold of Waco; sisters, Mrs. Minnie Meek of Eastland and Mrs. Ruth Wilson of Crockett; and four grandchildren.

Bill Heatly Begins Eighth Term As Representative

Rep. W. S. Heatly of the 80th legislative district, composed of Childress, Cottle, Dickens, Foard, Hardeman, Knox, Motley and Wilbarger Counties, began his eighth consecutive term as a member of the House of Representatives with the opening of the regular session of the 61st Legislature Tuesday of this week.

He expressed the opinion that the current session of the Legislature will be one of the most important in many years, due the number and complexity of the problems facing the state's lawmakers.

Rising cost of operating the State Government, resulting from inflation and increasing demands of the several departments, is among the more important questions which will have to be dealt with. Additional revenue is a must. The question is how it shall be raised, Mr. Heatly pointed out.

"But the most controversial and perhaps the most important job the Legislature faces is what to do with the revolutionary recommendations of the Governor's Committee on Public School Education. I am strongly against the basic principle of this report, which would abolish practically all rural schools and consolidate them into one-county districts in most instances," Mr. Heatly said.

He urges constituents to advise him of their views on these and other questions coming up for consideration in this session of the Legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Maynard and Mrs. Allene Maynard of Dimmitt were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Wade Maynard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crisler of Pampa visited over the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Crisler.

Memphis Cagers Down Electra Teams Here Fri.

Memphis basketball teams, after a rest Tuesday to take semester examinations, return to district play this week. The Cyclone and the B team will play host to Seymour's boys teams here Friday night.

Next Tuesday night, local cager teams will travel to Shamrock. This will be another important game for the Cyclonettes as a victory over Shamrock would put the team in second place in the district, only one game behind Wellington girls.

A victory of 11 points over Electra girls last Friday night gave the local lassies the opportunity to challenge the Wellington girls for the District 2-AA championship by tying up the district standings in the final round.

It was a lively night on the court Friday as the Cyclonettes were unable to subdue a determined Electra girls team until late in the final stanza. Leading 11 to 7 at the end of the first quarter, the local girls trailed by two, 21 to 19 at halftime.

Battling back in the third quarter, to a 37 to 35 edge, the local girls moved out front by eight early in the fourth period only to see Electra close the gap late in the quarter. With two minutes remaining, however, Cyclonette forwards came up with a big six-point effort before the ball crossed mid-court to wrap up the game with a 56 to 44 margin.

Sue Melton led the local girls with 31 points while Ramona Guadagnola had 18 for Electra.

One Point Victory

The Cyclone's fourth quarter rally pulled one out of the fire for the local lads as they downed Electra 44 to 43 in a tension packed contest Friday night to give the Memphis team its first district victory.

The score rocked back and forth during the first half with Electra taking a two-point edge into the dressing room at halftime, 23 to 21. The third period saw the Electra lads get hot while Memphis players were shooting cold to give the visitors a 38 to 32 margin going into the final period. At one point, Memphis was down 11 points.

But the Cyclone pressing defense effectively chilled the Electra offense while picking up many scoring opportunities to put Memphis back into the ball game. The final few minutes of the game would be hard to describe, but the clock ran out with the Cyclone in possession of the ball on Electra's end of the court.

Ronnie McFalls was high point for the local lads with 16 while Gary Fisher led Electra's scoring with 18.

the growing U. S. Mail load would move at a snail's pace—
if it moved at all!

Like you, the people at the Post Office hate sluggish mail. That's why they created Zip Code! With it, mail is sorted up to 15 times faster—and makes fewer stops along the way to its destination. To get the Zip Codes you need—see the information pages of your phone book for local Zips, and your Post Office's Zip Code directory for all others, or just call the Post Office. Put a rabbit in your mail—use Zip Code and mail early in the day. Then the Post Office can actually guarantee you the fastest possible mail delivery.
