Memphis Teams Travel To Iowa Park Fri.

Memphis cager teams travel to Iowa Park Friday night for District 2-AA games. Next Tuesday night the local boys play host to Childress A and B teams here.

The Iowa Park games will be tough one for the local cagers to win. The Cyclonettes won a late victory over the Iowa Park girls in the first round and will be battling to stay in second place. The Cyclone will need a good night's effort against the talented Hawks if they are to see a victory and improve their district record.

A good crowd was on hand to see Tuesday night's Wellington - Memphis games in the local gymnasium as both visiting teams captured victories.

The crucial girls game was an exciting contest until about three (Continued on Page 10)

Lakeview Talent Show Is Friday

It looks like a good show has been lined up for the Annual Lakeview Senior Class Talent Contest to be held at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Jan. 31 in the Lakeview Grade School Auditorium.

The show will feature three divisions of talent; open, high school and grade school. However, these are just part of the entertainment in store for those who attend the show.

Admission price is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students.

Trophies will be awarded to first, second and third place winners in each division.

One of the highlights for the show will be the 1969 edition of the Lakeview calendar girls. By taking 24 school age girls and dressing them in attractive costumes to represent special features of the months, the calendar girls are always a crowd pleasing spectacle, and this year's line-up is most attractive.

Add entertaining music by the "Poor Boys" and other entertainment as well as local talent the show will be a success.

Sponsor Barney Bevers said that due to basketball games in the area, several groups were unable to attend. There are more talent numbers in the lineup this year than the show has had.

Serving as calendar girls this year will be: Belinda Barbee, Janet Byars, Jerri Lon Montgomery, Tina Watson, Janice Ariola, Christie Whitten, Cindy Hight, Tamera Hodges, Kim Pate, Sandy Byars, Ronda Byars, Starla Byars, Charlotte Robertson, Susan Carter, Linda Walls, Cynthia Cofer, Susie Sams, Marvin McMillen, Pat Blum, Peggy Durrett, Brenda Smith, Toida Hatley, Darlene Proffitt, and Jan Gregory.

Sign-Up For Commodity Program Begins Feb. 3

Sign-up dates for farmers who wish to take part in the 1969 Feed Grain, Wheat and Cotton Programs will be from Monday, Feb. 3 through Friday, Mar. 21, 1969, J. Robert Hanvey, Chairman, Hall County ASC Committee, announced today.

Under the feed grain program for 1969, farmers may earn diversion and price support payments as well as qualify for price - support loans on their corn, barley and grain sorghum crops; feed grain diversion payments will be available to all producers participating in 1969.

The wheat program provides diversion payments for reducing acreage below the farm allotment and price - support loans on all the wheat produced on the farm. It also provides marketing certificates to bring returns up to full parity on the part of the wheat crop allocated for domestic use. No diversion payment is available for cotton.

Assignments will be accepted on cotton beginning Feb. 3 by all lending agencies and final payments on feed grains and wheat can be assigned to the FHA.

We have no information as of the date on advance payments on any commodity program. This determination has not been announced from Washington as of today.

While the sign-up period for 1969 commodity programs will extend through several weeks, the Chairman urged that farmers who wished to take part in the program file other applications as soon as they decide on 1969 production plans. "Time has a habit of getting away from us sometimes before we know it so it's a good idea not to delay in filing program intentions," he said.

Deadline Is Fri. To Register To Vote In 1969

Friday, Jan. 31, is the last day for Hall County citizens to register to vote during 1969, Mrs. Melissa Anderson, county tax assessor and collector, announced this week.

There is no fee for registering in order to get the certificate to vote and all persons over 60 years of age must register, along with those in other age brackets, if they wish to qualify to vote in all elections, Mrs. Anderson explained.

Residents of the Turkey area may appear at the office of Leota Ferguson, Ferguson Insurance Agency, or at the office of Jean Lyles, Lyles Insurance, where registration certificates will be issued. Other county citizens should go to the tax assessor and collector's office at the courthouse in Memphis.

There have been 2,019 registered so far, which is considered high for an "off election year," it was reported by the county official.

However, to be eligible voters in school or city elections, bond elections, etc., a citizen must be a registered voter in the State of Texas. It is important that all citizens of voting age become eligible voters by registering and receiving certificates.

Registration in person must be made by each applicant; or his or her father, mother, wife or husband, son or daughter.

Lakeview Eaglettes Have Inside Track To First Half Dist. Title

The Lakeview Eagles and Eaglettes finish the round robin portion of District 9-B next week with important games against Samnorwood and Hedley.

The schedule shows an open date Friday night, Jan. 31.

Next Tuesday, Lakeview travels to Samnorwood for a re-match which should prove exciting in the girls game. Only one point separated the two teams in the first round.

Lakeview Eaglettes hold an edge and by virtue of Quail's victory over Samnorwood Tuesday evening, can win the first half of the district crown by winning one of the final two games.

Lakeview Coach J. C. Saunders said Wednesday that his girls would like to make a clean sweep of the district and would do their best to capture the first half championship.

The Lakeview boys, few in number but highly talented, could pull upsets over Samnorwood or Hedley.

Lakeview teams travel to Hedley next Friday night, Feb. 7.

Quail Games
Lakeview boys took the Quail boys into an overtime when the regulation game ended in a 59 to 59 tie. Richard Gilbreth was high for Lakeview with 31, while Quail's Gary Barton had 20.

Hall County Hospital Lists New Room Rates

A new policy concerning non-emergency cases and a room rate hike has been announced by Hall County Hospital.

Non-emergency cases will not be admitted unless covered by an acceptable insurance policy or a cash deposit according to Don C. Curl, Hospital Administrator.

The room rate hike which becomes effective February 1, 1969 includes semi-private rooms previously $17.50 to $20.00 and private rooms now $22.50 to $25.00.

These increases are necessary due to higher cost of operations.

Volleyball Dates Are Announced

The Lakeview Seniors announced this week they are scheduling a Volleyball tournament March 6, 7, 8, Sponsor Barney Bevers announced this week.

Hedley FFA has also announced that the Hedley Volleyball tournament will be held March 13, 14, 15.

"We wanted to announce these dates early so there will be no conflicts in dates with neighborhood tournaments," Bevers said.

We Have A West Texan Governor!

Texas is a big state and a lot of its bigness comes from that portion of the state known as West Texas, composed approximately the northwestern and western portion.

In Texas politics, this portion of the state has been left high and dry until a man came out of Lubbock to make the change. It has been a long journey for Preston Smith, a genial man, to accomplish a childhood dream, to be Governor of the State of Texas.

And Preston Smith brought the flavor of West Texas with him into the inauguration festivities in Austin last week as the first West Texan to take over the highest office in the state.

We feel, as do most of the newspapers in West Texas, that it is good, because West Texans are historically noted for their independence, their conservatism, their good judgment and their friendliness.

We can think of no better attributes for a governor or lieutenant governor to have than these.

We also feel that Governor Smith and Lt. Governor Ben Barnes should make a good team, though they have not seen eye to eye on political matters in the past, or are they considered political allies. Smith has the wisdom that comes from experience and age. In fact, he's the oldest new governor—at 56—to take office since 1903.

Ben Barnes, on the other hand, has the energy of youth and proven dedication to the state. At 30, he's the youngest lieutenant governor in the state's history.

They both will have plenty of work on their desks as they begin their new duties. The Legislature has begun its new session and is expected to take on several revolutionary items which have been recommended.

High on the agenda will be new taxes, the water problem, and the Governor's committee recommendations in the state's schools.

Governor Smith also proposed a 34-point legislative program which seemed to impress the liberals in the legislature while leaving some of the conservatives less enthusiastic. Smith's next move will be a budget message, always of great importance when a new administration takes over.

We feel we have an excellent combination in Smith and Barnes, and we certainly hope for them and the state that they work well together for the benefit of everyone.

Watch Your Baby's Sleeping Habits!

Mothers are being asked by the authorities to encourage their infants to sleep on their sides during the first few months of their lives.

It seems that if an infant is "belly sleeping" the child is in danger of becoming either flat footed or having pigeon toes. One authority says during the first months of life when the baby cannot turn over by himself, he should be encouraged to sleep on his side. When the baby is placed on his belly he either draws his knees up under him with hips high in the air and weight on the feet which are turned in or spread egle. The first position leads to pigeon toes, the second to flat feet.

Authorities also say that infants who sleep on their backs can have flat places on the back of their heads. So it looks like the side position is the only position left.

Don't you feel sorry for the poor mother who has an infant who won't lay on his side.

Maturity!

A little four - page pamphlet entitled "Emotional Maturity", s-sued by the Haskell Livestock Auction states that the mature person has developed attitudes in relation to himself and his environment which have lifted him above "childishness in thought and behavior."

Some of the characteristics of the person who had achieved true adulthood are suggested here:

1. He accepts criticism gratefully, being honestly glad for an opportunity to improve.
2. He does not indulge in self pity. He has begun to feel the laws of compensation operating in all life.
3. He does not expect special consideration from anyone.
4. He controls his temper.
5. He meets emergencies with poise.
6. His feelings are not easily hurt.
7. He accepts the responsibility of his own acts without trying to "alibi."
8. He has outgrown the "all or nothing" stage. He recognizes that no person or situation is wholly good or wholly bad and he begins to appreciate the Golden Mean.
9. He is not impatient at reasonable delays. He has learned that he is not the arbiter of the universe and that he must often adjust himself to other people and their convenience.
10. He is a good loser. He can endure defeat and disappointment without whining or complaining.
11. He does not worry unduly about things he cannot help.
12. He is not given to boasting or "showing off" in socially unaccepted ways.
13. He is honestly glad when others enjoy success or good fortune. He has outgrown envy and jealousy.
14. He is open - minded enough to listen thoughtfully to the opinion of others.
15. He plans things in advance rather than trusting to the inspiration of the moment.

Defiling the Decent Order'
In his inaugural address, President Nixon spoke of "racous discord" and of his hope for "the decent order."
He was not speaking of differences of opinion, or peaceful dissent.

Before the day ended, a gang of so-called "protesters" had punctuated Nixon's remarks. If this mob, largely young, unkempt and obscene, had its way the inaugural parade and anything else connected with the induction of a new President would have been disrupted.

As it was, alert, efficient police work denied the rioters their aim. The District of Columbia police did their job with model restraint, coolness and evenhandedness.

Even so, a few rocks, beer cans and other missiles were thrown — including two-foot, hardwood clubs with which many had been equipped. To each club was attached a small "peace" pennant, but the clubs were of such heft that a blow from one of them would make a rap from a police billy seem like a caress.

These creepy types are not mere dissenters—the dissenters or protests they voice are merely contrived excuses. Their clear purpose is turmoil — to injure people, to destroy property. They are not interested in logic or debate; they seek to demolish. (Not all of the young "protesters" on hand, of course, joined in the vandalism.)

At the inaugural in Washington they did not create the shambles they managed at the Democratic Convention in Chicago. But only because massive police forces were on hand, prepared, vigilant, capable.

This "movement," parading under a variety of imposing names, is well-organized, well-financed. It is not merely a bunch of rebellious, long-haired, dirty-clothed kids adept with four - letter words.

The organizers and cash contributors are the hard core, although these inciters themselves seldom are found where the "action" is.

Nixon said what kind of a nation we will be will depend on "our actions and our choices."

We cannot choose to tolerate the riotous type of dissent illustrated by the inaugural day incidents, or by campus mobs seizing college buildings, if we are to preserve "the decent order that makes progress possible and our lives secure" which Nixon declared as his goal.

A sharp and effective crackdown obviously is called for.

Work of demolishing the old East Ward school building will be started by WPA laborers Saturday, Harry Delaney, secretary of the Memphis Independent School Board of Trustees, announced Wednesday. The old brick structure, which once housed the Memphis High School and has been a prominent landmark in the city for many years, will be razed and the materials used for construction of a modern garage for Memphis school buses. The building is located on North 3rd Street in the eastern part of town.

An appropriation of $1,000 was made Monday evening by the City Council for the purchase and partial improvement of the site for a city park. Plans call for a bridge to be constructed across the creek at the end of South 7th Street.

SPORTS SCENE

What do you know about Knute Rockne?

Knute Rockne was the head football coach at Notre Dame from 1918 through 1930. His teams won 105 games, lost 12, and tied five. Five of them completed unbeaten, untied seasons. Knute Rockne was a fine teacher of football, but his lessons went beyond the sport itself. They lived with his students for life. Rockne is famous for his locker-room performances. He could get players screaming mad at themselves or at him. They would but tear the locker-room door as they exploded onto the field. Or he could fill them with rocky sentiment. Sometimes there isn't a dry eye in the place.

Another one of our MHS graduates of the 1943 class here a few days ago was Jerry Doss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doss, former Memphians now living in Port Angeles, Wash. Jerry is now a merchant seaman. His wife flew to New Orleans to meet him and they were driving through to San Francisco, Calif. They had stopped here for a day or two to visit Jerry's grandmother, Mrs. Cora Davis. He was going back on cargo ship at New Orleans. Said he was on the cargo vessel that carried trucks to Viet Nam to the fourth division in July, 1966. Quite a world traveler, he belongs to the National Maritime Union. Had gone completely around the world on one trip and had made a trip to Judia carrying a load of wheat. He had made three trips to Viet Nam and had made several trips to Korea and Japan. Jerry's family consists of three girls and one boy. Said his oldest girl was working for the telephone company in Portland, Ore. He was having trouble finding the houses in Memphis that he use to know. Over 25 years makes some difference. Best wishes to Jerry and his family.

Overheard a conversation at the coffee break Bradshaw (the school teacher) was amusing to some of the boys, he was going to be married to a grandmaw a few months hence.

See Tops and Mrs. Gilreath back home after two months and two days in hospital at Little Rock, Ark., from the car wreck. Tops has her walking cane to get along. Makes me think of the day I asked the old widower on bank steps why he was carrying a walking cane. He replied, "To keep the dogs and women away." I asked him which was bothering him the most and he replied the dogs. I know why Tops is carrying her cane.

Noticed statistics the other day only 31 per cent of people in U. S. between ages of 21 and 29 attend church of any denomination. Looks like we need to look into inner space before going to outer space.

Have been through the three new church buildings in Memphis and they are a credit to a town much larger than ours. Noticed they all have nurseries. Back in the old days each woman nursed her own child. No such thing as a nursery. The preacher read the scripture and the mother gave the baby "Hushey" also a few had ones had to be carried under the tree outside for a spanking and we got along pretty good.

Also some of them made a homemade sugar tit and carried it along to keep baby satisfied. (You will have to ask grandmaw what that is).

I was amused the other day in Thompson Hdw. Hattie Dem was looking for a pie stretcher and a left handed monkey wrench. Brother told her to look over by the thunder mugs, but she could not find the thunder mugs, (ask grandmaw and grandpa what they are)

I noticed the baby dogs and cats have had their menu improved in the last half century. There are millions of dollars worth of dog and cat food sold today. Babys didn't even have that 50 years ago. The first solid food baby had was chewed up by mama or grandmaw for him. All the dogs and cats received was scraps from the table. They have come a long way.

A little over 50 years ago one Monday morning Mrs. W. A. Johnson (the wife of the late W. A. Johnson, publisher of the Hall

James A. Odom III Is Honorary School Society Initiat

James A. Odom III, Baylor University student from Memphis, is one of 129 new members recently initiated into the Texas Gamma chapter of Alpha Chi, national scholastic society at Baylor University.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Odom, Jr. Odom is a senior Student majoring in math. He is a 1965 graduate of Memphis High School.

Each year Alpha Chi calls attention to the importance of personal scholarship by selecting for membership those ranked in the top five per cent academically from among Juniors, seniors, law and graduate students.

The general objective of the society is the stimulation, development and recognition of scholarship and those elements of character that make scholarship effective.

Odom was initiated into the club during a formal initiation service and banquet Nov. 11. Odom will remain a member of Alpha Chi as long as he maintains his high grade point average. New members are added to the club each year.

County Herald) was around town getting the news. Well, she had seen a girl with split skirt to the knee the day before and she whispered to me and said, "I believe they are going to get to where they will just wear a postage stamp." I could not believe it then, but the other night in watching TV show they just lacked three stamps making her prediction come true.

Well, we have a new president. He is ours regardless of party and let us hope he makes a good one. It seemed to me there was more reverence this time in the inauguration and stronger yearning in their hearts for God's help than I had noticed before. Presidents have a hard row to hoe and I think sometimes we as the public do not show as much respect for them as we should, and make light of them in our shows and comments. They should be highly respected if they deserve their office and the same thing applies to our state officials. Some of the cartoons make them look almost like monkeys.

Well, more Heritage Hall receipts: 1913 Study Club, Pathfinder's Council, also a donar of Lubbock, Anna Margaret Helm Clark, or I should say Mrs. V. V. Clark. Thanks Anna Margaret. This makes the 5th town out of Hall County donating to Heritage Hall. Received several boxes of old pictures from the Methodist Church for Heritage Hall. Thank you.

I believe the post office is a better collector than Internal Revenue Department. If you do not pay box rent they put a plug on the inside of the lock and you can not push it out. I tried it.

A lot has been said about sex the past few years. And now the grocery stores have come along and dressed up carrots, fresh onions and celery so they have sex appeal. Someone gave me information a while back that you had to have a mate for fruit trees to make them bear fruit. Am not convinced yet as I have an old bachelor apricot tree out on the farm by himself and when season is right two could not do better.

It did your heart good to see such good fellowship at open house of the new Church of Christ building Sunday afternoon. I sat back in chair in fellowship hall and noted five or six denominations at one time. Different creeds but all looking toward only one, our Heavenly Father. I still think Winfred Moore was right when he said, "The Golden spread is the best part of the world and we know what makes it that way, 'the people'."

There are two ways to turn a man's head. Just rattle money, or rustle a skirt.

Anyway, a man can still light a cigar without first offering one to a lady.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the editor:

We are writing to you in regard to the proposed consolidation plan for Texas public schools.

First, let us consider the effect that this system would have on a student's home life. In rural areas such as ours where counties are sparsely populated, yet cover a wide area, school children would be forced to ride a bus many hours every day. This would reduce the time he would normally spend with his family. It would also practically eliminate him from extra curricular activities of the school. Coming from a small school, we know that these constitute a very important portion of a student's development. They aid him in attaining a favorable relationship with others his own age. Students participating in sports and various organizations have a higher sense of pride in their school than do those who have never experienced fulfillment through competitive activities.

Another favorable aspect of rural schools is the existence of close student - teacher relationship. In a small school, teachers are aware of the background and family problems which affect a student's progress. They are in a better position to offer advice and assistance to students who need help. In comparison to instructors in a large system, we feel that rural teachers come closer to Chaucer's description, "And gladly will they learn, and gladly teach." They have a feeling of pride when a slow student improves on his work, or when an above - average student graduates and continues to excel in college and in life.

Please consider the effect that these proposals would have on schools like ours in Estelline. We want our school to stay here and serve our younger brothers and sisters as well as it has served us. Please help us preserve our existence.

TO THE BEST PEOPLE IN THE WORLD — OUR HALL COUNTY PEOPLE

We want you to know that the people in Hall County are the "best". While we were in the hospital at Little Rock, Arkansas, you sent us your prayers, get-well cards, flowers, and letters. Then when we finally were permitted to return home you sent food, flowers to brighten our rooms, came to see us, called to inquire about us and did all of the wonderful things to make us feel we had been thought of. Thank you for being our friends and we very humbly say "Thank You" from the depth of our hearts. We love you, Hall County folks.

Nearly 1400 Rural Hall Countians Benefit From Water-Sewer Systems

Nearly 1400 rural Hall County residents are now benefiting from community water and/or sewer systems financed by the Farmers Home Administration according to James E. Chappell, County Supervisor.

"Lack of clean, fresh water and proper sewage disposal facilities is an age-old problem not yet solved in many Texas rural communities; however, our rural water and sewer financing program is helping to close the gap between rural and urban utility services", says Chappell.

Texas now has in operation 466 rural water systems and 11 rural sewer projects financed by the Farmers Home Admin. These systems serve over 257,000 rural and small town residents. There are 93 water and/or sewer projects under construction which, when completed, will serve an additional 53,000 rural people.

Banks, insurance companies, and other private lenders loaned about 90 per cent of the funds used in this program last fiscal year. The Farmers Home Administration insures repayment to private lenders and makes direct loans when private sources of credit are not available to applicants.

Chappell pointed out that rural water and sewer projects are organized through local initiative of prospective users in the Community. Loans are repaid from earnings of the systems during periods of up to 40 years.

Believe In God

"For with God nothing shall be impossible." - Luke 1:37

Don't ask God for miracles. Don't look for signs in the stars or for a message written across the sky.

The greatness and the goodness of God is manifest in the many wonderful aspects of living; in all the great sights and sounds and smells of the earth; in all the forms and shapes that abound about the land, within the sea and to the far stretches of the universe.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. M. J. Lemons and presented to the bride, Mrs. Goodnight, her mother, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, and other members of the groom, Mrs. J. D. Goodnight.

Atalantean Club Observes 41st Anniversary With Breakfast Saturday

The Atalantean Club met January 25 in the Home Economics room of the high school building to celebrate the 41st anniversary with a breakfast. Mrs. Glynn Thompson, club president, was assisted by the Social Committee.

Members were seated at four tables decorated with colorful place mats and napkins to match and centered with a colorful vase of fresh flowers. Places were marked with hand-made cards. Special hand-made favors from Mexico were given each member as a favor from the president.

The delicious breakfast consisted of ham, scrambled eggs, rain preserve, bran muffins and mato and orange juice.

Register Vehicles According To Law, Commission Urges

The chairman of the Texas Highway Commission and the Texas Public Safety Commission last week issued a joint appeal to motor vehicle owners to be sure they have their vehicles registered properly as required by State law.

J. H. Kuitgen of Waco, Chairman of the Highway Commission, and Clifton Cassidy, Jr., of Dallas, Chairman of the Public Safety Commission, said computerization of all vehicle registrations in the Highway Department, getting completed now, will make enforcement of this law by highway patrolmen much swifter.

"Many motorists, knowingly or unknowingly, have their vehicles registered illegally in counties other than where they reside, and others who live in cities show only a post Office box number instead of their residence address, as required," Kuitgen said.

"Through the efforts of the Texas Automobile Dealers Association, many dealers have offered their cooperation in urging vehicle purchasers to register their vehicles in accordance with the law."

Cassidy said computerization of registration records in the Highway Department will be of significant help in enforcement of the registration law, because of the speed with which a patrolman can determine whether a vehicle is legally registered.

"For example," said Cassidy, "one of our Highway Patrolmen who stops a vehicle can learn by radio within a very few minutes how it is registered and compare it with the owner's address."

"This information will be immediately available from the computer at the Highway Department in Austin, and the patrolman can obtain it through the Department of Public Safety communications system very quickly."

Kuitgen reminded that the period for registering vehicles is from February 1 through April 1, and urged motorists to be sure they are registered correctly and legally so as to avoid penalty under the law.

Zeb Moore of Amarillo, former Memphis resident, was a visitor in Memphis Monday.

John Shadid was in Dallas the first of the week attending market.

FOOD For Thought

—By DON DAVIS

Do you know where the term "cheddar" came from, as applied to cheese? Cheddar cheese was named after the English village, Cheddar, Cheddar, England, was the original place of production. A full size cheddar averages seventy pounds.

Parmesan cheese was named from the Italian town, Parma. Pineapple cheese is of domestic origin. It is made in various sizes. It is so named because the curd is pressed into a pineapple shape. The diamond pattern on the outside is produced by the cord to cheese? Cheddar cheese was this cord net for curing. Roquefort cheese gets its name from the colorful French village of Roquefort.

The most expensive cheese is Crottin de chavignol. It is $2.76 per pound.

Cheeses have won permanent seats of honor at the world's gourmet table.

Women and Conference in Lubbock

Alone Worthington, licensed vocational nurse, and Mrs. Stephens, administrator of the new multiple levels of care program for public welfare recipients residing in and around Lubbock, sponsored a conference in Lubbock on Jan. 20-21, on the implementation of the new program for public welfare recipients residing in and around Lubbock.

The one-day meeting, sponsored by the Texas Nursing Home Association and the State Department of Public Welfare, dealt with the responsibilities of the nursing home and state welfare under this new program which became effective on January 1, 1969.

The new program is designed to offer the patient in the nursing home the level of special care program that the individual needs, stated Burton G. Johnson, Commissioner, State Department of Public Welfare.

Nursing homes and those welfare recipients requiring nursing care are now classified into three types: Skilled Care, Intermediate Care III, and Intermediate Care II. Skilled nursing care serves patients requiring extensive nursing care. Intermediate and Intermediate II homes serve patients requiring nursing care, but of a lower degree. Intermediate II homes serve residents who do not require professional nursing care, but are incapable of independent living.

A welfare recipient classified as skilled, intermediate III or intermediate II will be provided care in nursing home of like classification, where possible. However, when not possible, special arrangements have been developed to insure that all eligible recipients receive necessary nursing care. Waivers may be granted for various reasons, some of which include: physician orders that a move would be detrimental to the patient, where beds of like classification in the area, and to avoid the separation of family members who may not have the same classification.

James Baker, President of the Texas Nursing Home Association, stated, "In order to better serve the needs of the community, many of our member nursing homes will establish distinct part classifications. This means that a nursing home might care for two or three type patients within one facility."

Hackney commented that, "... approximately 29,800 welfare recipients will be provided care under the program. The distribution of patients will approximate 500 classified as needing Skilled Care, 13,600 needing Intermediate II Care, and 7,700 needing Intermediate III Care."

This Joint Federal - State program for recipients requiring skilled care will be financed under Title XIX of the Social Security Law passed by Congress in 1965 and Senate Bill No. 2 by the Texas Legislature in May, 1967. The recipients requiring care under the intermediate definition of the law will be financed by the 1967 amendments to the Social Security Law, Title XI. This level of care, Intermediate, will bring the Texas welfare program to compliance with Public Laws 90-1 and 90-248.

Officials of the State Welfare Department and the Texas Nursing Home Association have worked closely, in a joint effort to develop a system. Both DPW and INH are compatible with the needs of citizens in a program in Texas that is uniform with the Federal guidelines. It is known that some of our state while insuring patients will need to be transferred between facilities under the new system. Both DPW and INH have expressed hope that transfers and moves will be kept to a minimum and that the recipients and their families will cooperate in this endeavor. The State Welfare Department has developed an expeditious patient routing system and it is hoped that, with most patients being typed before admission, transfers can be minimized.

The levels of care services under the new program will be available to certain categorically eligible blind, aged, totally and permanently disabled and families with dependent children.

Immediate implementation of the Texas Water Development Board's $10-billion water plan (to take water to every part of Texas), lowering the voting age to 18, lifting the constitutional ceiling on state public welfare contributions, and a gradual revision of the State Constitution were some of the surprises Gov. Preston Smith offered the Legislature.

All 181 Legislators had been pacing themselves for the first two weeks of the session, waiting to see what their new governor wanted from them, and now they know his aims. But he has yet to reveal his budget and tax recommendations, which will have tremendous bearing on whether his programs are enacted.

Governor Smith lauded the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System's plan to provide upper-level senior colleges in Midland-Odessa, Corpus Christi, Houston and Dallas and a four-year college in San Antonio, but he did not adopt it specifically. However, he did embrace the board's recommendation for new state medical schools in Houston and Lubbock, a new dental school in San Antonio, and state participation in Baylor University's dental and medical schools.

He called for a state police certification program for prison parolees, an "implied consent" D. W. I. test to cut down on traffic accidents involving alcohol, "enlarging" the Parks and Wildlife Commission to obtain better geographical distribution, and raising workmen's compensation benefits from $35 to $45 a week.

Governor Smith endorsed the 1968 State Democratic platform (which had his approval), but he added: "I have read the Texas Republican platform. I think you will find the two quite similar."

Smith's message to the Legislature left unanswered the question of spending and taxing. He called for economy, but conceded that new taxes may be needed. His recommendations as to what should be spent and where it should come from will follow in another message.

His legislative program was very extensive. Rural legislators who have been getting objections to the proposals for school consolidation made by Gov. John Connally's Committee on Public School Education were glad to hear Smith call that plan impossible to pass. He did agree with the Committee that there should be some school consolidations, but he felt they should be voluntary.

Attracting much interest was the fact that the new governor did not mention in his list of proposed constitutional amendments the one to allow local option liquor-by-the-drink. Instead, he merely gave legislators a copy of the Democratic platform which called for a state wide vote on the question.

His message came after a colorful inaugural program which brought thousands to Austin. A "victory dinner" attracted 6,000. As many as 40,000 may have attended the six inaugural balls. More than 100 units took part in the inaugural parade.

When Smith and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes took office, they gave the Capitol the first West Texas team since 1947. West Texans were prominent among those in Austin to cheer for the men from Lubbock and DeLeon.

Tuition High Proposed
Finance committee of Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System found tuitions of students must be doubled to help pay the expected $404.2-million biennial operating cost of higher education facilities by 1975-76.

Committee also proposed $165 a year student building use fee to float bonds for a $401-million college construction program. Fee would apply only on six new campuses recommended during the next decade.

Tuition suggested by the committee would be $7 per semester credit hour for Texas residents and $20 per credit hour for non-residents. This would raise an additional $22-million a year. Present tuition rate, unchanged since 1957, is $50 a semester. It is one of the lowest in the nation.

Of all the modern contrivances we could do without, radio now heads the list.
