EDITORIAL Changes In Texas Traffic Laws!

This newspaper has devoted more editorial space to the problem of safety on our roads and highways than any other issue in the public realm. It appears that the problem of traffic accidents is still growing despite efforts of news media and law makers, law enforcement personnel, safety organizations and insurance companies, and all defensive drivers to put the brakes on this public menace.

No one will argue that something has needed to be done for a long, long time to make our highways safer. Well, this year, the Texas Legislature has taken action to pass new laws governing certain aspects of the motor vehicle law. These changes in the State's traffic law will become effective Monday, September 1, which is Labor Day, so it behooves Texas drivers to pay close attention.

If our readers will watch the inside columns of this newspaper for the next few weeks, we are publishing a five-part series explaining the different changes in the Texas traffic laws. These articles were written by members of the Texas Department of Public Safety and are most informative, dealing with specifics.

In general, the measures range from one establishing new motor vehicle inspection procedures to allowing the owner of a parking lot to remove cars parked on the lot without consent. The most important is the new "implied consent" law covering breath testing of drivers. Under the terms of this law, a motorist is "deemed to have given consent" to a breath test if arrested for any alleged offense arising out of his actual operation or physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Refusal to take the breath test may lead to suspension of the suspect's drivers license for up to one year.

Another new law is the right-of-way statute which sets out four rules governing the right-of-way at intersections. All drivers are urged to review the rules closely, and note the instances in which they must stop, yield and grant the right-of-way. Drivers at intersections controlled by stop, yield or traffic control devices must obey the signs. Drivers of vehicles on a single lane street or roadway consisting of two traffic lanes. upon approaching an intersection not controlled by signs of a divided street or a street or roadway divided into three or more marked lanes, must stop, yield and grant the privilege of right-of-way to veicles on the larger street.

Drivers of vehicles on unpaved streets intersecting a roadway that is paved must stop, yield and grant the right-of-way surtax has failed to stem infla- build facilities, but a ton of mon- reth and even Utopia. They're all to vehicles on the paved street. The new sticker will expire 12 months from the date of in- a business venture this size. Tight money and high interest spection, and will contain a large number tab showing the rates no doubt have caused people month of expiration.

It appears that the stiffest part of the new traffic law is the Implied Consent Law". The Department of Public Safety plans to conduct schools to train city and county officers in the operation of the Breathalyzer, and currently has Breathalyzer instruments located at central points in 90 Texas counties. As quickly as possible the DPS plans to have units in each county in the State.

While the law, like all others, is dependent for its effectiveness on enforcement, it does remove one of the major obstacles which has hampered conscientious officers in their campaign against drunk driving . . . the difficulty of establishing proof when the suspect is cautious enough to refuse voluntary tests. stitutions.

There is some urgency in the campaign. Drinking drivers figure in 40 to 50 per cent of the fatal rural accidents in Texas last year and accounted for 3,481 deaths.

Currently, the DPS is utilizing breath testing equipment in a voluntary program. The Breathalyzer instruments are located at central points in some 90 counties, and are operated by DPS officers who have completed an intensive train-

TV dinner? Any range will do.

But for the gourmet touch, you need a gas range!

A gas range offers the precise heat control and instant response good cooks demand. Instant on, instant off, and an infinite variety of heat selections in between . . . not just a few pre-set push-buttons. Plus a self-cleaning oven that ends scrubbing and scraping forever . . . for just pennies a cleaning!

Now. The gas self-cleaning oven. For people who like to cook. Period.

History records that during the and Sheila Gardenhire enhanced is needed. The church activities at the lake were initiated by Methodists and are now supported by other denominations as well. They have the Treasure House, a Christian witness center, worship services in the state park, vesper services each Sunday on board a lake cruise ship. Many people thus discovered new ways of looking at the needs of their own church.

The discussion group brought out the fact that the church should keep pace with a rapidly changing society and not be separated from the world. Many possible places for Christian ministry were mentioned, among the airport, the truck stop, the laundromat, and coffee breaks for working people. In order to be effective participants and represent the church in such involvement, we need to be actively attuned to His presence ourselves, they said.

For an inspiring meditation, Mrs. Brown gave an article from The Upper Room with appropriate scripture from II Peter and prayer.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Tarver, who announced that the installation of officers for the W.S.C.S. and W.S.G. would be held Sunday, Aug. 24.

It was announced that Mrs. J. J. McDaniel has been named as chairman of spiritual growth and Mrs. Bess Crump as chairman of local church activities.
